The Daniel Dunn Family

Sir Daniel and James Dunn were of the Great London Company that promoted the Colony of Virginia. Sir William Dunn-Baronet of Dunn and member of the British Parliament, founder of Dunn, Dunraven, and Dunnsville, descended from some of the ancient kings and chiefs of Scotland.

King Charles the First of England granted titles and arms to the Dunns for military services and loans of money which Daniel and William Dunn made to him in 1625. These Dunns were brothers and had sons by the same names who came to Virginia from London.
