Last Will and Testament Sarah E. Habersham

Georgia In the name of God, Amen, I Sarah E. Habersham of being of sound mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament, - hereby revoking and annulling all others heretofore made by me.

- Firstly: I desire and direct that all my just debts be paid without delay, by my Executors hereinafter named.
- Secondly: I give and devise to my Son, Richard W. Habersham my plantation in the District of Beaufort, in the State of South Carolina, known as Walnut Hill, with Cow Island attached, containing about four hundred acres with all the rights, members and appurtenances to said plantation in any wise appertaining or belonging forever. I also give and bequeath to my said Son Richard W. all the boats, flats, carts & farming utensils now or hereafter belonging to said plantation of every description whatever, also ten head of cattle such as he may choose from my stock; and all my household and kitchen furniture belonging to said plantation.

Thirdly: I give and bequeath to my son, Francis B Habersham, five shares of the Capital Stock of the Marine and Fire Insurance Bank of the State of Georgia now standing in my own name, and which was purchased by me in June last. Also my negro boy John, who has been in the service of my said Son Francis B. during the past summer.

Fourthly: The remainder of my negroes I devise and bequeath to my children Richard B Habersham, Barnard Elliott Habersham, Catherine S Milledge (wife of John Milledge), Stephen E Habersham, Sarah B Habersham, Alexander B Habersham, and Francis B Habersham, and their heirs, to be divided between them share & share alike. And it is my desire, and I so direct that the negroes apportioned to the share of my Son Richard B shall be those which may be first selected and chosen by my daughter-in-law Martha (the wife of my son Richard B.) also that my daughter Sarah B. shall have the like privilege of selecting those negroes to be apportioned to her share.

Fifthly: The rest of my property, both real and personal, wherever and whatever it may be, I devise and bequeath to my six youngest children, to wit, Barnard Elliott, Catherine E, Stephen E, Sarah B, Alexander B, & Francis B, to them and their heirs forever; to be divided between them share and share alike.

Sixthly & Lastly: I constitute and appoint my friends - William Kyles Habersham of Savannah, Georgia, Edward B Milledges of Charleston, South Carolina and John B Cammell of Beaufort, South Carolina, Executors to this my last Will and Testament, this second day of November - in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and fifty two.

Signed, sealed, declared & published by Sarah E Habersham, as her last Will & Testament in the presence of us, the subscribers, who subscribed our names hereto, at the request & in the presence of said Testator, & of each other this 2^d Nov 1852

Sarah E Habersham

I Sarah E Habersham add to this my last Will and Testament what is not herein noted.

that I own three unimproved lots in the town of Beaufort S. Carolina which I also wish divided amongst all my heirs & I further give to my Son Edwin B. Hubersham whatever checks or money may be found in my possession at the time of my death at present - there is in my travelling trunk about five hundred dollars this 7th day of Dec 1852.

And my last request to my dearly beloved children one & all is that they seek first the Kingdom of God & his righteousness. If they become true Christians they will assuredly find that in poverty or in wealth, in sickness or in health, in the last struggle with death there is a hope for those who live & die "in Christ" which the world can neither give nor take away. Adieu, my beloved children that God the Father Son, & Spirit may lead you into all truth through time to a blissful eternity is the unceasing prayer of your affectionate Mother.
