John Kinnebrook's Will.

In the name of God Amen I John Kennebrook of the County of Bourbon and state of Kentucky being at this time sick and weak of Body, but of sound mind and disposing memory, calling to mind the mortality of the body, and that it is appointed to all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say; First I commend my soul to that God who gave it, and my body to be laid in the dust in a decent manner by my Executor, and as touching those worldly Goods, which God has been pleased to bless me, I do hereby dispose of them in the following manner. Imprimis, after the payment all my just Debts and burial charges I give and bequeath to my well beloved friend Thomas Simpson in return for his kindness, and friendship to me, all my money and property of whatever kind and all Debts due me, or to which I am now entitled, wherever the same may be, and I constitute and appoint the said Thomas Simpson the alone, and sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament, revoking and disannulling all other

189

Wills and Testaments heretofore made by me, and ratifying publishing and declaring this to be my only and last Will. In Testimony of the foregoing I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this fifth day of January in the year one thousand Eight hundred and three.

Signed sealed published and declared to be the last Will and Testament of the said John Kennebrook who in our presence did sign and acknowledge the same, at which time he appeared to us to be of sound mind and memory
