duly proven by the oaths of Frederick R. Wingate and Geo. W. Hudson, subscribing witnesses thereto, it is therefore adjudged to be the true last Will and Testament of the said Fannie C. Funk decd, and as such ordered to be recorded which is truly done in my office.

Given under my hand this 21st March 1864

Jonas B. Nichols. clk

I Robert Robards of the County of Boyle & State of Kentucky make and ordain this as my last Will & testament hereby revoking & annulling all other & former Wills made by me.

First. I desire after my death all of my just debts & funeral expenses paid out of my personal assets

Second. I will & desire that my Executor hereafter named take charge of my negroes Eliza, Margaret, Ann, Cyrus, & James. & control them until James arrives at the age of twenty years which will be in the year 1873. and at that time I desire that they be emancipated & set free & sent into some of the free states of this Union. But my said Executor is directed to emancipate my slave Eliza at any time after my death if she desires to leave Kentucky

My Executor is further directed to give her the proceeds of her hire yearly, and at the date of her emancipation & removal from Ky. to give her $200 out of my Estate

I also direct my said Executor to give Margaret Ann, Cyrus & James the proceeds of their labor if any shall be made by them up to the date of their emancipation, and in addition thereto I direct my said Exr to give to each of them one hundred dollars upon their removal from this state. If any of my said slaves should be sickly and their labor is inadequate to their support until they are emancipated, I direct that they be taken care of out of the assets of my Estate.

Third. The residue of my Estate after the above provisions are made, I will and devise to my Grand daughter Ann Young, if she has an heir living at the time, the same to be paid over to her. If she be unmarried and childless. I direct my said Executor to hold the same paying her the interest annually thereon until she has an heir or dies. If she has an heir living then the same to be paid over to her. But if she dies without an heir then this bequest to her is to pass and go to my brothers and sisters and their descendents equally. If my said Grand-daughter undertakes to break or set aside this Will then I direct that she have none of my estate but that my brothers & sisters take the same as above directed in lieu of her.

I hereby appoint M. J. Durham the Executor of this my last Will & Testament investing him with full power and authority to sell all my Estate Real & Personal & convey the Real Estate, to collect all my bank notes & to carry out each and every provision of this Will
