In the name of God amen, September ~~the~~ 9th 1802.

I Charles Nelson of the County Bourbon and state of Kentucky being in a very weak and low condition, but of perfect mind and memory, thanks be to God for the same, and calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die; do make and ordain this my last will and Testament, towit, principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hands of God that gave it, and as concerning my body I recommend it to the Earth, to be buried in a decent manner and as touching such worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me in this life, I give devise and dispose of the same in manner and form following, towit, In the first place I appoint my dear beloved wife Eleanor, my friend Jonathan Crouch and John McCoy Executors of this my last will and testament. In the first place, I will and bequeath to my well beloved wife all my real property and also my principal property to the use and behoof of my beloved wife during her widihood, and at her death or marraiage an equal division amongst my well beloved heirs, Isaac N. and John, Elizabeth, Sarah Elias, Caty, Lewis, James and the one that my wife is now with, Also my Executors shoulsbe concutted to all contracts privy to the said estate. And I do hereby utterly disallow, revoke and disannul all and every other former testaments, wills and legacies, bequests and Executors by me in any way before this time named, willed and bequeathed, ratifying and confirming this and no other, to be my last will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and date above written.
