In the name of god amen. I Jeremiah Crop of Bullitt County and state of Kentucky being of sound mind and memory do call to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do therefore make this my last will and testament that is to say – I give and bequeath to Hezekiah Crop son of my Sister Cotton – one Bed and furniture, one Cow and Calf, all my farming utensils, also one third part of all my Crop now in the field or otherwise, to him and his heirs forever, but if he the said Hezekiah Crop should die without Issue or upon lawfully begotten then and in that case, the aforesaid bequeathed property to be the right and estate of my executrix hereafter named – I do further my will and ordain that my dearly beloved Wife Elizabeth Crop, shall enjoy and possess all the residue of my property, both real, personal and mixt to her, her heirs and assigns forever, and lastly I constitute and appoint my above mentioned Wife Elizabeth Crop, sole executrix of this my last Will and testament disannulling all other Wills heretofore by me made – In testimony whereof I have hereunto affixed my hand and seal this twentieth day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.
