James Boyles Sr Will.

their possession being two hundred and forty six acres in the whole amounting to eleven hundred and twenty dollars each for their respective shares. To my son Simeon besides what already has been given to him, I give and bequeath fifty acres of land being the half of one hundred acres I hold in partnership with Saml Mank to wom the other fifty acres belong by his own right and title.

It is further my desire and request that my executors heirs or administrators do execute a legal and valid deed to Samuel Mank, if not previously done for his also mentioned fifty acres of land which are not to be considered as any part of his wifes legacy.

Having thus as near as, circumstances will permit and in consideration of the time they have served me, made my sons equal in the shares of my estate I hereby nominate and appoint my wife Ellen over the sole executrix of this my will and my sons Jacob and Ephraim I desire and request to assist and assist their mother in arranging and fulfilling this Will and I desire these my executors to execute the accompanying schedule for equalizing my daughters as already directed, and after the 69 acres of land have been sold either publicly and or privately as may best suit for that purpose if any property should remain for a second division among my daughters I should prefer them to divide it among themselves without having recourse to public sale.

Finally, I hereby declare this to be my last will and Testament hereby revoking all others of a prior date. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 17th day of July 1837.
