Eneas McDaniels Will. — In the name of God, Amen, I Eneas McDaniel of the County of Bourbon and state of Kentucky, do make this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, that is to say, First of all I give my body to Earth from whence it came, and my soul to my God, whose of right it is, and as touching such worldly goods as it has pleased God to bless me with, I dispose of them in the following manner, first I give to my beloved wife Isabella McDaniel one Negro Girl named Casey for and during her lifetime, and to be returned to my estate at her death and also I leave her the sum of nine pounds to be paid to her in produce suitable for her maintainance, every year during her lifetime, and also one barrel of cider pr. year when the fruit kills.

I give to my son Alexander McDaniel the one third part of the tract of land which I once gave him containing 100 acres to him and his heirs forever. — The ballance of the said tract of 100. acres of land I give to my two sons John McDaniel and Rowland McDaniel, to be equally divided between them, to them and their heirs forever. And as and singular the ballance of my estate of every discription (including the negro Girl Casey above named at the death of my wife) I give to my beloved sons Robert McDaniel, Francis McDaniel, John McDaniel and Rowland McDaniel and their Heirs forever, to be equally divided amongst them after taking out the sum of six pounds in property, which I give to my daughter Jane Devore, her and her Heirs forever. —, And lastly it is my will that no Inventory be made of any part of my said estate, but that that my ~~Executors~~ sons Robert, Francis John and Rowland, make the divise, among themselves, but in case any disagreement should take place among them, (which I heartily pray may never happen) I do hereby appoint my trusty friends George Givens, Benjamin Hendrick and Charles Smith junior, in my stead to settle such differences and to allot to each one of my said Children, that which in right they ought to have, And I do hereby require of all my children herein named, strict attention and compliance with this ~~my~~ last clause of my will. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of August 1802.
