Know all men by these presents that we Archibald McClean, and John Westcott, are held and firmly bound unto George Gilpin Esquire Judge of the orphans court for the county of Alexandria, and his successors in office in the sum of one thousand dollars; to which payment well and truly to be made to the said Judge and his successors in office we bind ourselves, our heirs Executors and administrators, jointly and severally firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated the 15th day of November 1809.

The condition of the above obligation is such that if, the above bound Archibald McClean (guardian of Cornelius, Elizabeth & Michael Reardon) his executors and administrators do and shall well and truly unto the said Orphans, all such estate in & estates, as now or shall shall come to the hands and possession of the said guardian as soon as the said orphans shall attain lawful age, or when thereto required by the said court; and shall well and truly save harmless and indemnify the said Judge of the said Court, and his successors in Office, from all trouble and damage, that shall or may arise about the said estate, then this obligation to be void, else to remain in full force.
