John Summers. Will.

In the name of God Amen. I John Summers of Bourbon and state of Kentucky being sick and weak in body, yet of perfect mind and memory, thanks be given to God for it, calling to mind the mortality of my body, and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die. I recommend my soul to god who gave it me, and my body to the Earth, to be buried in a decent christian manner, at the direction of my Executors - and as touching ~~this worldly~~ substance wherewith it has pleased God to bless me with, I do dispose and bequeath of, in the following manner and form. first. I allow my Executors to collect the Debts due me, to pay off my creditors, and defray my funeral expences 2.dly I leave and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Agness, one black mare to be disposed at her Pleasure. likewise my personal property to be for her use and under her direction, during her natural life, and at her death what remains of said property is to be equally divided among my surviving children, allowing likewise the said Agness my wife full power and authority to rent or lease out the fifty acres of land she is now in possession of during her natural life, and at her decease it is to return to my three under named daughters as to whom it is bequeathed - 3.dly I leave and bequeath to my two sons John and Joseph Summers each an equal part of six hundred acres of land situate in Madison County and state aforesaid. as specified in a Patent granted: freely to be enjoyed by them and their Heirs and assigns forever. 4.thly I leave and bequeath to my three daughters, viz, Agness, Hanna and Sarah, an equal part each of the fifty acres, that we are now in possession of, at the death of their mother, likewise one hundred and sixty acres of land lying in Madison County adjoining lands with six hundred acres bequeathed to their brothers, likewise they are to make a title to James Robison for the one third part of the one hundred and sixty acres of land, he paying an equal share of the Cost and taxes due on said land the remainder to be freely enjoyed by them their heirs and assigns forever. - Lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife Agness my Executrix and Robert Barns my son in law my whole Executors of this my last will and Testament utterly revoking and disannulling all former wills and Testaments heretofore made constituted or appointed by me. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirteenth
