Francis Neff's Will

I, Francis Neff of the county of Mercer and state of Kentucky do make and ordain this my last will and testament First — I will and desire that all my just debts be paid by my Executor herein after named as soon as convenient after my decease — Second — I will and desire that my daughter Polly Richardson, my daughter Susan Binger, my daughter Betsy Scott my daughter Sally Martin my daughter Nancy Martin my daughter Maria Cornett my son George Neff and my son John Neff shall have what property they and each of them have already received of me by way of advancement without accounting for it hereafter in a final distribution of my Estate — Third — I will and desire that my daughter Catharine have my bay mare called Fly which is now claimed by her and her saddle one bed and furniture together with whatsoever cloathing and bed cloathing she may hereafter make as her own and the sum of fifty dollars in money and a bureau in order to make her equal with those above named who have already left me and received advancements. Fourthly. I have leased to my son-in-law Williamson Martin my house and farm during my life and sold to him the greater part of my stock and other articles. Now my will and desire is that my said son-in-law Williamson Martin and my daughter Catharine (provided Catharine should be unmarried at the time of my decease) remain on the place undisturbed until the first day of March next succeeding the time of my decease, no matter what time of the year my decease may take place (and for the purpose of preventing any difficulty or dispute that might otherwise take place between my Executor and my other on one side and the said Williamson Martin and Catharine on the other side and having full confidence in the honesty and justice of said Martin and Catharine I now declare that the said Williamson Martin and Catharine are to have any and all the property which they and each of them claim as their own which may be found on the place at the time of my decease Fifth I will and desire that as soon as convenient after my that my Executor herein after named make public sale of all my Estate real, personal or mixed upon such terms and upon such credits as he may in his discretion think fit and expedient and the proceeds thereof (after paying my debts &c) be equally divided among all my children herein before named share and share alike and if any of my said children should die before such distribution, then the share that they would be entitled to under this clause is to go to the lawful heir or heirs of the one so dying, Sixth, and lastly I hereby nominate and appoint my friend James B. Mitchell, the sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament hereby vesting him with full power and authority to convey my land to the purchaser whoever he may be by deed whenever he is satisfied with the payments therefor, Hereby revoking all Wills and testaments by me heretofore made — In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 19th day of October 1856
