THE PARISH REGISTERS
OF FARNDON.

(1695—1718.)

PREFACE.

THIS odd volume of the Farndon Registers is kept at Balderton Church, the two parishes having been formerly one cure. It is a small quarto book of paper, bound in parchment, and has formerly been the shop account book of a mercer or draper, in the middle of the 17th century. As this worthy tradesman appears to have been particularly precise and methodical, and as the accounts have now become, by lapse of time, rather quaint and interesting, I venture to give the following extracts from them :—

"I Entred upon my shoppe the 2nd of february in ye yeare of or Ld Gd one Tho: Six Hunderd Sixtye Three. The Cloth did Amount to ye Sume of	249	7	5

Soe I owe him only ye £100 I gave bond for & ye remainder of ye odde mony, wch is all I owe him" .	4	7	5

Immediately after buying the business our newly embarked tradesman proceeds to lay in a larger stock of goods, and a full account of all his purchases for several years follows, from which, for the sake of their quaintness, and the old names of the various materials used, I make the following extracts:—

Jan: 1st 1665
I was Clear wth all my Chapmen in London & Yorkshire."

There are also several pages of "Select Texts of holy Scripture to be insisted on," which have been industriously copied out, possibly by some incumbent of the parish.

This volume was sold along with some other effects of a late vicar of Balderton, but has been restored by its purchaser to the custody of the present vicar, the Rev. J. Farmer, by whose courtesy this transcript has been made.

It should be borne in mind that throughout the period covered by this volume, the year was reckoned as beginning on the 25th of March, instead of January 1st. Thus "Feb: 23, 1682," is 23rd February, 1683, according to our reckoning. This is occasionally represented by the use of double figures, as "Febr 24 170⅓."

THOS. M. BLAGG.

4th May, 1899.
