Jacob Long's Will —

I, Jacob Long, of Boyle County, do make and publish this my last Will and testament, hereby revoking all others —
First I will that all my just debts be paid by my executor —
Secondly, I will that all my property, both real and personal be sold as soon after my death as my executor may believe best and on such credits and terms as he may think advisable —
Thirdly — I will that all the proceeds of my property be equally devided among my children and if any one or more of them shall die, having a child or children, such children or children shall inherit their parents part, with the restriction hereinafter mentioned —
I require my Executor to pay over to F. S. Caldwell the part to which my daughter Eliza Frost may be entitled, who shall hold it in trust for the benefit of my said daughter Eliza and her children Her husband M. Frost never to receive one cent I wish said money to be paid to said Trustee, and used by him in such way and manner as my said daughter may desire, so as that the principal shall not be spent. I also require my Executor to pay to Benj. Crow the part which may be going to my daughters children, Mary Jane Jones, dec.d. — her children to have a child's part in lieu of their dec.d Mother. Said money to be held in trust by said Crow for the use & benefit of said children. The interest may be paid annually for their education and support, but the principal not to be used until they respectively arrive at the age of twenty one years, and then their portion to be paid to them, and should one or more die childless, the portion of such decedents to go to the survivors, their Father in no case to receive one cent of their legacy.

I do nominate my friend J. S. Hopkins, Executor of this my last Will and testament. Given under my hand this 23.d day of May 1850

R. N. Bolling's Will

I, Richard N. Bolling, of the County of Boyle and State of Kentucky, do make this and ordain this my last Will & Testament, hereby revoking all Wills or bequests by me heretofore made.

1st — First — I will that all my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of the proceeds of the sale of my property hereinafter directed to be sold, or of any other monies that may be on hand by the collection of debts or otherwise.

2.nd Second — I will and bequeath to my beloved Wife, Priscilla Bolling for and during her natural life, one Negro girl, named Dinah, one Negro boy, named Spencer, my yellow horse and buggy, and one thousand dollars in money.

3.rd Third — I will and bequeath to Lucinda Bolling, wife of my Son, J. P. M. Bolling, my bay mare, two spotted cows, two beds & furniture for her own separate use forever.

4th Fourth — My will and desire is that my Son J. L. Bolling shall have my negro man, Bennett, to be accounted for by him at the price of twelve hundred dollars, in a final distribution of my estate. Should J. L. Bolling refuse to take Bennett on the terms aforesaid then my will is that Bennett shall chose his own master provided such Master, so chosen will give twelve hundred dollars for him.

5th Fifth — I will that all the remaining part of my estate be sold by my Executors hereinafter named, as soon as convenient after my decease, consisting of land, Slaves, stock, furniture, farming utensils, &c. upon such credits as my Executors may deem expedient and after the payment of my debts, and the thousand dollars to my wife, the residue to be divided into six equal shares. To my son, J. L. Bolling I give one share, to Richard R. Bolling, one share, to Francis M. Bolling, one share, to James H. Bolling, one share, to J. P. M. Bolling, one share, to Mary E. Owens and Fleece Owens, children of my deceased daughter, Mary E. Owens I give the other share to be divided between them, as follows, Mary E. Owens to have two thirds and Fleece Owens one third, to be paid to them as they as they respectively arrive at full age or marry and should either of them die before they are entitled to receive said legacy, the Survivor is to have all, and should both of them die before they are entitled to receive their legacy, then the whole share is to return to my estate to be equally divided among the rest of my children.

In making distribution of my estate and making up the aggregate amount, the following advances heretofore made to my children is to be charged to them, and accounted for by them respectively in the distribution.

To my Son J. L. Bolling, four hundred dollars, to Mary E. Owens,
