Will of John Erwin.

I John Erwin of Boyle County Kentucky do make and declare this instrument of writing my to be my last Will and Testament.—

1. I wish all my just debts to be paid out of my estate by my executor herein after named, so soon after my decease as may be practicable.

2. The rest and remainder of my estate, after the payment of my debts, as directed, real and personal and mixed. I give and devise to my wife Martha Erwin to be held and enjoyed by her during her natural life.

3. Upon the death of my said wife Martha Erwin she may by Will properly executed, dispose of one half of the estate herein mentioned as she may think proper; and for that purpose she is now, upon the taking effect of this Will invested with the proper title thereto —

4. Upon the death of my said wife Martha Erwin I give and bequeath to my son George T. Erwine in fee simple the one half of my estate then remaining together with the remainder undisposed of by my said wife Martha Erwine — if any there be —

5. If it may be necessary to dispose of any part of my estate to pay my debts, such a part or parts thereof may be sold by my said Executor for that purpose, either publicly or privately as my Executor may think fit, which my said Executor & my wife Martha Erwin should judge could most conveniently be spared — and my said Executor is authorized to make to the purchaser the necessary and proper conveyance.

6 I direct my said Executor to pay to my niece Martha E. McNeill One hundred dollars —

7 My slave Billy having served me faithfully I desire that he be permitted to occupy the house now used by him in Danville, belonging to me, as long as he shall live —

8 — I appoint Samuel S. Hopkins, Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and request him to see the same faithfully executed.

In Witness whereof I have hereto set my hand this 15 day of January 1853.

John his X mark Erwin

Will of E. M. Walker.

I, Elizabeth. M. Walker of Boyle County and State of Kentucky being weak & feeble in body, but of sound disposing mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament

First, My Will is that all my just debts be paid and should it be necessary to sell any of my Slaves to pay my debts my Executor herein after named shall sell them publicly or privately as he may think best.

Second, I give to my daughter Fanny B Walker my negro boy Matt, but should my daughter die without children, in that event my will is that Matt shall belong to my son Lawson Grey

Third, all the rest and residue of my estate both real and personal; I give to my son Lawson Grey but should my son Lawson die without children, in that event, my will is that the Estate which I give him shall be equally divided between my brother James. Harlan and my daughter. Fanny. B. Walker

Fourth. As my husband has requested me to give him no part of of my Estate, therefore I give him none.

Fifth.— I hereby ordain and appoint my friend A. G. Kyle.. Executor of this my last will and testament and also guardian for my son Lawson Grey — and should my son Lawson be of wild habits and his Guardian above named be of the opinion that it would be best, not to let him have his property at the age of twenty-one years his Guardian shall withold it from him until he arrives at the age of twenty-five, or any time between twenty-one and twenty-five that the Guardian named may think it best to give it to him.

Sixth.— Should my Executor think it best to sell my Negroes he shall do so, and sell them privately or publicly as he may think best, and put the money on interest for the benefit of my son

Lawson, and in the event of his dying without children the money to go to James Harlan and my daughter Fanny. B. Walker as above named.

In testimony whereof I have set my hand This 28th day of April 1853.
