but should either of my said three sons die without heirs then the survivors of my said sons is to heir the portion so willed to the deceased. My two daughters Malinda Henderson and Margaret Hollis has received all the portion I intend to give them except fifty dollars each, which is to be paid to them out of my estate, but my wife and family is not to be pressed for said sum, but they are to have such indulgence in making the payment to them that will be reasonable. If any of my negroes shall become ungovernable and disagreeable in my family I wish that negro or negroes to be hired out untill they become changed in character. I appoint John Henderson and my son William Roberts my executors of this my last will and testament this 21st July 1841.
