The Nuncupative Will of Anthony Bleste. Jacob Mordecai Harris and Bazaree McMurray being of lawful age and duly sworn according to their respective religions (the said Mordecai being a Jew of the Tribe of Benjamin) depose and saith that Anthony Bleste. dec.d lately an inhabitant of Lexington, died in his last illness and a short time before his death. and at his own House being perfectly of a sound mind declared in their presence to them that it was his will that after all his Debts were paid, that his wife Sedeth Bleste. should have and hold all his Estate both real and personal of her own right and title for ever to be at her own disposition

Fayette County to wit April Court 1812

This Inventory of the personal Estate of Anthony Blest Deceased was produced in Court and ordered to be Recorded, Att John D Young Clk

We the Commissioners named in an Order of the Worshipful County Court of Fayette at their February Court of the present year met this day at the House of John Keyser in Lexington to settle with the Executor and Executrix of the Estate of James Hile deceased. Report that we find that said Estate was settled by Commissioners appointed by this County the Twentieth day of July one thousand eight Hundred and Eleven as appears upon the Records. Mrs Hile produced the enclosed account for Two Boilers Valued at 3rd Cts. One thousand eight Hundred and Eleven and the Executor James Henderson produced the enclosed Receipt for five Dollars and forty five Cents dated Twenty Seventh September One thousand eight hundred and eleven both which accounts we are of opinion ought to be admitted against the Estate. The said Executor has also produced an account containing Sundry Charges not supported by sufficient Testimony we therefore remit to Bidwell the Witness the Charge the said account being prior to the Settlement of the former Commissioners Given under our Hands this 4th day of March One thousand eight hundred and twelve
