Attest, John D. Young Clk

In the name of God Amen, I George Fegardus of the County of Fayette and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and perfect Memory but feeling that my Dissolution is fast approaching, Do make my Last Will and Testament, in the manner and form following Viz. Imprimis. I resign my Soul into the hands of the Benificent Being who gave it, Relying upon his mercy, and the Merits of a Mediator, for his acceptance of it. Item, It is my will and desire that my Executors, whose Name hereafter name, do as soon after my Decease as may be Convenient, Sell by Public auction at such Credit, as they may deem most advisable, all my Stock of Horses, Cattle Sheep & Hogs, & All my Farming Utensils and all my Household and Kitchen furniture Except my Eight day Clock. And That they do pay the Funds thus placed in their hands Discharge my Funeral Expences &c and all my Just Debts, which are out Far, and the Ballance remaining in their hands pay over as is herein after directed.

Executr.

Fegardus Will

Item, It is my Will and desire that my beloved Son William Fegardus, Should finish his Medical Education, and that he may not want the means of defraying every Expence in his pursuit, of Scientific Knowledge — Thereby give and bequeath to him my said beloved Son, the whole of my Estate Real and personal of every Description, "not herein before disposed of." of which I may be possessed at the time of my decease, or to which I may be entitled at any time thereafter — Requesting my Executors to put him in possession of all that may remain in their hands from the Sale of my personal Estate so soon as my debts above mentioned shall have been Discharged — And of my landed Estate Consisting of the Plantation on which I at this time reside, and the one adjoining The Two Containing about one Hundred and Seventy acres, on his attaining the age of Twenty one Years, When It is my Will he should have full possession of his estate.

Item In case my Son before named should die leaving no legal heirs it is my Will and desire that so much of my Estate as may then be remaining shall pass to my Two Nephews Equally Viz. To William the Son of my Brother Aaron Fegardus one half, To William the Son of my Brother Moses the remaining half to them and to their heirs for ever. And Lastly I nominate Constitute and appoint my Friends William Morton and Charles Willing of the Town of Lexington my Executors of this my last Will and Testament authorising and empowering my said Executors to Compel pay and to carry into effect all such bonds as I may have made for the conveyance of land or otherwise and to Compel if necessary by Suit or otherwise a fulfilment of all Contracts made by other persons with me and which have not as yet been complied with whether for the Conveyance of land or otherwise, and to demand receive Sue for and recover all property of whatever description to which I may be at this time or at any time hereafter entitled, Hereby revoking all other Wills by me made — Given under my hand and Seal this Thirty first day of March 1813. George Fegardus (Seal)
