Att. John D. Young Clk

Agreeable to an Order of the County Court of Fayette, bearing date the 20th day of November Eighteen hundred and Two, we the Subscribers have met at the House of Chas. Payne, in the County of Fayette, on the 20th day of November Eighteen hundred and Two, where the following Deposition of Hugh Thompson was taken viz. This Deponent Says that he was present at the time he refers to the best of his recollection, in the year One thousand seven hundred and Eighty nine, he was present when Joseph Lindsay and William McConnell agreed to run from the End of the distance called for in Mac Dowells Southerly Line of his Military Survey, the said distance terminated, to the West side of the Mouth of Stinnels run, which empties into the North side of Elk horn, to be a Bunnhead Line between their two Claims adjoining said Mac Dowells Military Survey, that they then Blazed a tree at the West end of said Southerly Line, which was at the end of the distance called for in Mac Dowells Military Patent. Quest. by Mr. Payne, What kind of Trees were the one blazed, that they agreed to run from, and in what part of the tree was it marked. Ans. I think the Tree was a White Oak but the month & Day I do not recollect that it was marked, Quest. by same Did you mark the Course and length of Mac Dowells Line, Ans. no I did not, Quest. by same, what Mac Dowells Claim was it, and what the Size of Survey Ans. I did not know, Quest. by same, Did you know any the Lines Corners &c. Courses of Mac Dowells Survey at the time you Blazed the tree above mentioned, Ans. I did not know, Quest. by Lindsay and Mac Connell, in the day you marked the Tree — Quest. by Same, Did you know the distance from the marked tree to the mouth of Stinnels run and the course, Ans. I do not now but I did when the parties line was agreed upon, Quest. by Same, What was the consideration, given by the parties to make this Line, Ans. Nothing, Quest. by Same, At the time you blazed that tree, had you ever been any of Mac Dowells Corners, Ans. I saw the Corner at the opposite end of the Line you marked the Tree on the same Day, Quest. by Same, Did you know whether the agreement by the parties to establish this Conditional Line was written or verbal, ans. I do not know that there ever was any Writings, ever entered into. Quest. by same, Do you know what gave rise to this Conditional Line, Ans. I do not, they took it supposed by establishing said Line, they would get their quantities, Quest. by same, do you suppose that they both thought by establishing said Line they would both get their Quantity Ans. I understood them so, and further this Deponent Saith not.
