And decree that the last Will and Testament of the above named William Pettigrew in the Court of as 1st Witness
2nd Witness

State of Kentucky } Entered this 18th day of March
Fl. Circuit Clerk

An instrument writing to be the last Will & Testament of William Pettigrew deceased & this day produced in open Court which being duly proven to the satisfaction of the Court by the oath of A. A. Stuart a subscribing witness thereto to be the last Will and Testament of said William Pettigrew deceased & it appearing to the Court that said testator was of sound disposing mind & memory & not acting under any undue influence or coercion & that said testator was a resident of Fleming County Ky. & that the signature of said testator is in the handwriting of said witness & the said instrument of writing together with the codicil herein and the same is adjudged and established as the last Will and Testament of said William Pettigrew deceased & ordered to be recorded.

A Copy
Attest G. P. Dodson Clk

From Will Book

To the Name of God Amen I Thomas Cecil being of sound mind and memory do make this my last Will and Testament. I devise unto my daughter Catharine Thomas Margrett formerly Elizabeth all the lands shown on Butler Creek in Fleming County. Beginning at the line of Thomas Coles Mr Hume and running back east up to the back line including all the lands from the line branch up to the middle of the farm. Given under my hand this 25th day of January 1867.

Witness
A. A. Stewart
Jno. Johnson
Alexander Dodson

Thomas Cecil

I Thomas Cecil do hereby make and publish this codicil to be added to my last Will and Testament first, it is my will that after my death that my three daughters namely to wit: Margrett Neal and A. A. Cecil & Susan E. Cecil share Hume & share share alike of my personal property also my description hogs well & kitchen furniture. Also I bequeath unto my wife Jane Pettigrew all my land and real estate for her use at pleasure 1873

Signed sealed and delivered in presence of
A. A. Dodson
Jno. Johnson

Thomas Cecil

State of Kentucky
Fleming Circuit Court } April Term 1880

An instrument in writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Cecil deceased having been duly proven before a Circuit Court of Fleming County at a former term of this Court to be entirely the same being returned to this term upon the proof of said instrument and the same being duly proven to the satisfaction of the court by A. A. Dodson one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and the signature of said testator by Jno. Johnson the other witness & to said instrument. It is therefore considered that said instrument of writing together with the codicil herein and the same is adjudged and established as the last Will and Testament of said Thomas Cecil deceased and ordered to be recorded.

A Copy
Attest Geo. P. Dodson Clk

G. B. Hall Will

Fleming Circuit Ky
February 1st 1882

I G. B. Hall being in bad health but in good state of mind and in the presence of the witnesses do make this the foregoing my last Will. I want Florie Hall my wife to have and control all of my estate real and personal to use and manage as she and be used until the youngest child of her reaches 21 years old. I then want her if living or if dead my Administrator to divide my estate at them equal among my heirs write the exception of Tom Hall Thomas Hall & Hamp Hall. I do not want a cent of this I give to never have or inherit nor want of my living or conditions that the said Hamp Hall should not marry Clorinda Estep. That at that time may have his portion not with the rules or conditions that the said Florie Hall is living. I do not want Mary one of the Estep & female Minden name to never have Mary cent of any living for never to come upon my left possessions and to be on my account Constantly and Annie me to see great trouble. Given under my hand and seal this

Attest Bill Hall
D. P. Washington
Martin Hall
Thomas Hall
Henry W. Conley
Martin Estep
Michael Conley

G. B. Hall