In the Name of God, amen. I William T. Herndon of the City of Frankfort do make and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former wills by me heretofore made. First I appoint my wife Lavenia Herndon and Thomas A. Page executors & executor of this my last will with full power and authority to sell all my estate by publication or otherwise, to sell and convey any real estate of which I may die seized, and to make deeds for any land that I have sold upon the receipt of the purchase money.

2d I wish my executors and executor as soon as convenient after my decease to pay off all my just debts of every description, and after the payment of my debts I do my will that all money shall be put into Stocks or otherwise for the support of my wife and our children, and she is to support them out of my estate and not be charged for the money she shall use in their education, clothing &c. I desire that the money be paid to my servants for the support her and family. And if she shall think fit to sell any of them I wish she would let such of them as she thinks proper to sell to let them choose their own master, and I do hereby authorize my said executors & executor at any time they shall think it advisable to sell any Bank Stock or other Stock which I may hold and reinvest the same if they shall think it more advantageous for my family, or real estate. I give my son William my gold watch and engine, but let Ralph keep his mother until he shall be able to take care of her. I do not want any Sale or Inventory of my personal estate made out by my executors & executor.

Witness my hand & seal this 9th July 1856
