In the name of God Amen.

I, Martin G. Sobre of the County of Franklin and State of Kentucky, being of sound mind and bodily affliction knowing that my time has come but short hence on this earth make this my last will and testament in manner and following. That is to say:

1st I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid out of which I suspect my estate.

2nd I desire that my executor hereinafter mentioned sell all my land of which I may die seized and possessed also my personal property.

3rd It is my desire that the proceeds of my entire estate be equally divided among my five daughters, namely Martha Ann Hudson wife of James H. M. Hudson, Sarah A. wife of T. J. Gravelee, Louisa Jane wife of Madison C. Sims, Amanda Melissa Romans wife of Olya Romans, and Sarah Katharine Hudson wife of John Hudson.

4th It is my desire that my daughter Martha Ann Hudson shall have and hold her share as to her part of my estate.

5th My daughter Mary Jane Hudson has no bodily heirs and if she should have any heirs at her death the amount she receives from my estate is to be equally divided among them or their heirs.

6th Whatever I have advanced to my children in land or money or any other property I desire shall be charged to them as part of their legacy.

7th I direct that my daughter Amanda Melissa Romans's share of my estate shall be invested in land for the benefit of herself and her heirs.

8th I direct that my daughter Sarah Katharine Hudson receives of my estate which is to be invested in land for the benefit of her and her heirs.

9th I hereby appoint Madison C. Sims my executor. I hereby revoke all and any former wills by me made.

Witness my hand and seal this 9th March 1871.

In the name of God Amen — I Polly Stuart being of sound mind and memory knowing that my time has come but short hence on this earth do make this my last will and testament in manner and following. That is to wit:

1. I give and bequeath all of my estate of whatever kind or description to my two daughters, namely Polly Stuart and Sarah Elizabeth Porter, to the survivor of them in case of death of one of them and to their lawful heirs forever.

2. I do hereby appoint my executor for my estate my son William Stuart for my dear grandaughters, and will make he executor as well to secure all of my property to the use and benefit of my dear two grandaughters, and to have all control of their property, who is my son-in-law, Andrew J. Poe. If it shall appear to the County Court to be necessary to support and educate my dear grandaughters, the County Court, upon the advice of John L. Scott is authorized to sell all of my real estate and secure the proceeds thereof to the use and benefit of my two dear grandaughters. But it is my desire that my dear son-in-law shall never have any thing to do with my property or its proceeds.

3. If the share of either or both of my dear grandaughters shall be lost by consumption in their life time, and death, then the
