Battery A—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was originally organized as a part of the Militia force of the State, and was attached to the Third Regiment, Hudson Brigade. It remained in this connection until the breaking out of the Rebellion in 1861, when the services of the Battery were tendered to the Governor of this State, but by reason of no authority having been received for the acceptance of this branch of the service, their offer was declined. Its organization was continued and recruited up to the full standard, and waited only an opportunity to enter the service. In this they were at last successful, having been accepted under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by authority received by the Governor from the War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 29, 1861. The Battery was then organized and completed under the requirements of General Orders No. 16, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 4, 1861. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 12th day of August, 1861, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Hoboken, New Jersey, by FREDERICK S. LARNED, Captain Twelfth Infantry, United States Army, the strength of the Battery being—Officers, 5; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 151. Total, 156. It left the State August 20, 1861, en route to Washington, D. C. Soon after arrival it was furnished with the necessary outfit of guns, horses and equipments, and under orders crossed into Virginia, having been assigned to the First New Jersey Brigade. On the 16th of October, 1862, by reason of the disbandment of Company K, First Regiment, Infantry, the greater part of the enlisted men of that company joined the Battery by transfer. Under the provisions of General Orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported at Trenton, N. J., in compliance with Special Orders No. 213, Paragraph 2, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, August 9, 1864, and were mustered out August 18, 1864, by GEORGE B. ECKERT, First Lieutenant Third Infantry, United States Army. At different times during the years 1862, 1863 and 1864, the strength of the Battery was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits and some substitutes. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Trenton, N. J., June 22, 1865, by R. BURNETT SMITH, Brevet Captain Eleventh Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to the Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to an Artillery Brigade, Franklin's Division, Army of the Potomac; then to an Artillery Brigade, First Division, Army of the Potomac; then to an Artillery Brigade, First Division, Sixth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Sixth Army Corps; then to the Fourth Brigade, Volunteer Division, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to the Fourth Brigade, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to the First Brigade, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to the Second Brigade, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to an Artillery Brigade, Sixth Army Corps.

Battery B—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was at the commencement of the Rebellion, a part of the Militia force of the State, and was known as Company F, First Regiment, Independent Essex Brigade. It remained in this connection until September, 1861, when it tendered its services to the Governor for active service. It was accepted under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by authority received by the Governor from the War Department, Washington, D. C. The Battery was then fully organized and completed under the requirements of General Orders No. 16, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 4, 1861. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 3d of September, 1861, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., by CHARLES H. BRIGHTLY, First Lieutenant Fourth Infantry, United States Army, the strength of the Battery being—Officers, 5; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 159. Total, 164. It left the State October 22, 1861, en route for Washington, D. C.; soon after arrival it was furnished with the necessary outfit of guns, horses and equipments, and under orders crossed into Virginia and went into Camp, near Alexandria, having been assigned to the Third Army Corps. Under the provisions of General Orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a number of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field, for three years or during the war; those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired, reported at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out September 14, 1864, by JAMES W. LONG, Captain Second Infantry, United States Army. At different times during the years 1862, 1863 and 1864, the strength of the Battery was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of recruits. In January, 1864, the strength of the Battery having been increased by the arrival of recruits far beyond the maximum allowed by law, the surplus men were transferred to Batteries C, D and E, in compliance with Special Orders No. 39, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., January 23, 1864. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Trenton, N. J., June 16, 1865, by R. BURNETT SMITH, Brevet Captain Eleventh Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to the Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to an Artillery Brigade, Third Division, Third Army Corps; then to the Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to an Artillery Brigade, Second Division, Third Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, First Division, Third Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Third Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Army of the Potomac; then to the Second Brigade, Artillery Reserve, Army of the Potomac; then to an Artillery Brigade, Second Army Corps.

Battery C—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863. The organization of the Battery was to be effected under the requirements of General Orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 11th day of September, 1863, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J., by WILLIAM P. MARTIN, Captain and Commissary of Subsistence United States Volunteers, the strength of the Battery being—Officers, 3; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 141. Total, 144. It left the State September 25, 1863, en route to Washington, D. C.; soon after arrival it was furnished with the necessary outfit of guns, horses and equipments, went into Camp and commenced preparations for active service, having been attached to General Barry's Artillery Brigade, Provisional Troops, Defences of Washington. It remained in this connection until the latter part of May, 1864, when under orders it proceeded to the front and joined the main Army. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Battery was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits, as well as by transfer from Batteries A and B. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Tienton, N. J., June 19, 1865, by WILLIAM H. POWELL, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to General Barry's Brigade, (Artillery,) Provisional Corps, Defences of Washington; then to General Abercrombie's Division, Provisional Corps, Department of Washington; then to an Artillery Brigade, Second Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Ninth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Reserve Artillery, Army of the Potomac.

The Battery took part in the following engagements: White House Landing, Va., June 20, '64; Charles City C. H., Va., June 22, '64; Deep Bottom, Va., July 27, '64; Reams Station, Va., Aug. 25, '64; Fort Sedgwick, Va., Sept. 30, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., (Battery No. 16,) Oct. 3 to 12, '64; Fort Haskell, Va., Nov. 27, '64 to March 29, '65; Forts Haskell and Sedgwick, Va., April 1 and 2, '65.

Battery D—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863. The organization of the Battery was to be effected under the requirements of General Orders No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, and in conformity with General Orders, No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 16th day of September, 1863, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J., by WILLIAM P. MARTIN, Captain and Commissary of Subsistence, United States Volunteers, the strength of the Battery being—Officers, 3; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 141. Total, 144. It left the State September 29, 1863, en route to Washington, D. C.; soon after arrival proceeded to Camp Barry, D. C., where it was furnished with the necessary outfit of guns, horses and equipments, and began to prepare for active service. It remained in this connection until the 23d of April, when under orders it proceeded to the front, joined the main Army and was assigned to the Tenth Army Corps. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Battery was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits, as well as by transfer from Batteries A and B. On the 4th day of November, 1864, the Battery in connection with other troops, left the Army and proceeded to New York city to support the civil authorities, in anticipation of a riot during the Presidential election, this duty performed, the Battery returned and reported for duty November 21. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Richmond, Va., June 17, 1865, by JEREMIAH REMINGTON, Captain Eighty-ninth Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Department of Virginia, under the provisions of General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865, excepting a small detachment who under orders reported at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out June 20, 1865, by R. BURNETT SMITH, Brevet Captain Eleventh Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with Special Orders, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C. May 18, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to General Barry's Brigade. (Artillery), Twenty-second Army Corps; then to the Second Division, Tenth Army Corps; then to the First Division, Tenth Army Corps, then to the Second Division, Tenth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Tenth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Twenty-fifth Army Corps.

The Battery took part in the following engagements: Petersburg and Richmond Turnpike, Va., May 10, '64; Bermuda Hundred, Va., May 18 to 21, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., (Battery Marshal) June 18 to 30, July 10 to 25, August 7 to 14, '64; Near Malvern Hill, Va., August 15 and 16, '64; Fussell's Mills, Va., August 18, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., Sept. 16, '64; Varina Road, Va., Sept. 29, '64; Chapin's Farm, Va., Sept. 30, '64; Chapin's Farm, Va., Oct. 5, '64; Capture of Richmond, Va., April 3, '65.

Battery E—First Regiment—Artillery—Volunteers.

This Battery was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under instructions and authority received by the Governor, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1863. The organization of the Battery was to be effected under the requirements of existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, and in conformity with General Orders No. 110, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 29, 1863. It was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 8th day of September, 1863, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States for three years or during the war, at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J., by WILLIAM P. MARTIN, Captain and Commissary of Subsistence, United States Volunteers, the strength of the Battery being—Officers, 3; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 141. Total, 144. It left the State September 26, 1863, en route to Washington, D. C., and soon after arrival proceeded to Camp Barry, D. C., where it was furnished with the necessary outfit of guns, horses and equipments, and began to prepare for active service. It remained in this vicinity until the 22d of April, 1864, when under orders it proceeded to the front and joined the main Army. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Battery was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of recruits, substitutes and drafted men. In January, 1864, a number of recruits joined by transfer from Batteries A and B, and on the 18th of September, 1864, a number of re-enlisted men of the Thirty-seventh Regiment, Infantry, New Jersey Volunteers, joined by transfer. The Battery continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when it was mustered out at Richmond, Va., June 12, 1865, by JEREMIAH REMINGTON, Captain Eighty-ninth Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Department of Virginia, under the provisions of General Orders No. 105, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 2, 1865, excepting a detachment of substitutes and drafted men, who under orders reported at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out July 11, 1865, by R. BURNETT SMITH, Brevet Captain Eleventh Infantry, United States Army, in compliance with instructions from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 30, 1865.

The Battery was first attached to General Barry's Brigade, (Artillery) Twenty-second Army Corps; then to the First Division, Tenth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Tenth Army Corps; then to an Artillery Brigade, Twenty-fifth Army Corps.

The Battery took part in the following engagements:—Howlett's House, Va., May 9, '64; Clover Hill Station, Va., May 14, '64; Drury's Bluff, Va., May 15, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., June 8, '64; Bermuda Hundred, Va., June 16, '64; Deep Bottom, Va., July 27, '64; Dutch Gap, Va., Aug. 13, '64; Before Petersburg, Va., Sept. 2 to 10, '64; Darbytown Road, Va., Oct. 7, '64; Capture of Richmond, Va., April 3, '65.

Company A, National Guard, of Trenton.

This Company was fully organized in the Militia of New Jersey, November 30, 1860, and at the breaking out of the war was in a fine state of drill and discipline. On the 16th of April, 1861, a meeting of the Company was called for the purpose of responding to the call of President Lincoln for 75,000 men, but before action could be taken, Captain MURPHY was directed by Special Orders from the Adjutant General's Office of the State, to immediately guard the large amount of military stores at the New Jersey State Arsenal, at Trenton, N. J. The same night the Company marched to the Arsenal and went into service—thus being the first Company under arms in the North. Before their term of service was completed a large number of the men of this organization joined the United States Regular and Volunteer Armies. After the three months' service was completed, the Company was again recruited and volunteered as Company A, First Battalion, Pennsylvania Emergency. During the whole war the Company was emphatically the school of officers, and the Company boasts to-day, with none to challenge it, that it sent, for its size, more men to the war than any organization in the North.

Pennsylvania Emergency.

Early in the month of June, 1863, the Confederate Army, under General ROBERT E. LEE, invaded Pennsylvania and instituted a series of aggressive movements that created profound and universal alarm through the entire Northern States. The first appeal for military aid from Governor CURTIN, of Pennsylvania, to the Governors of adjoining States was made June 15th, and on the 17th the Governor of New Jersey called for volunteers to press forward to the assistance of Pennsylvania in this emergency, and appealed to the Nine Months' Regiments, which had just returned, to unite in the efforts to repel the invasion of a sister State. In response to the latter appeal, the Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh Regiments volunteered for this service. In addition thereto, ten companies of Infantry and one battery of Light Artillery volunteered for the emergency—Company A, of Trenton, Captain WILLIAM R. MURPHY; Company B, of Trenton, Captain GEORGE F. MARSHALL; Company C, of Trenton, Captain JAMES C. MANNING; Company D, of Lambertville, Captain HIRAM HUGHES; Company E, of Morristown, Captain GEORGE GAGE; Company F, of Newark, Captain WILLIAM J. ROBERTS; Company G, of Mount Holly, Captain J. FRED LAUMASTER; Company H, of Newark, Captain TIMOTHY COLVIN; Company I, of Trenton, Captain JOSEPH A. YARD; Independent Company, of Camden, Captain JAMES M. SCOVEL; Light Battery, of Rahway, Captain JOHN R. CHAPIN. The first Company (A) left Trenton on the morning of June 18th, and arrived at Harrisburg same day; the other Companies followed soon after. Upon arrival they reported for duty to Major-General COUCH, Department Commander, and were organized into two Battalions, Captain WILLIAM R. MURPHY, Company A, was assigned to the command of one Battalion, and Captain J. FRED LAUMASTER, Company G, was assigned to the command of the other Battalion. At the end of the thirty days' service they were returned to Trenton for discharge. Governor CURTIN on the 21th of June, expressed the thanks of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to New Jersey "for the patriotic disposition they so truly manifest, and their willingness to take up arms for our defence."

Maryland Emergency.

In the early part of July, 1864, the cities of Washington, D. C., and Baltimore, Md., were endangered by a threatened invasion of the enemy. A battle had been fought within a few miles of Baltimore, and communication with Washington had been interrupted. In view of this emergency the Governor of this State issued a proclamation dated Trenton, July 12, 1864, calling for the organization of the militia for thirty days' service in Pennsylvania, Maryland or the District of Columbia. Under the call this company reported for duty, was accepted, and mustered in at Camden, N. J., July 14, 1864, for thirty days. It left the State July 15, 1864, for Baltimore, Md., and on arrival reported to Major-General Lew Wallace, commanding Middle Department. It was stationed at the Relay House, below Baltimore, and was attached to the First Separate Brigade, Eighth Army Corps. Upon expiration of term of service it returned to New Jersey, and was mustered out at Camden, August 15, 1864.

Veteran Reserve Corps.

Under the provisions of General Orders No. 105, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1863, the organization of an Invalid Corps was authorized. The Corps was to consist of such Officers and enlisted Men of commands then in the field, as were unfit for active field service on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of duty, as well as those who had been honorably discharged from the service by reason of wounds or disability contracted while in the line of duty; they being able and physically qualified for doing Garrison and other light Military duties away from actual field service. By virtue of the authority thus given, a large number of Officers and enlisted Men in the service, but absent from their commands, were transferred to and joined the Corps, and under the provisions of Circular No. 13, dated War Department, Provost Marshal General's Office, Washington, D. C., May 25, 1863, the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal of each State was directed to open a Recruiting Rendezvous for the Corps at or in the immediate vicinity of his Head Quarters, for the enrollment of such honorably discharged men who desired to re-enter the service; the term of enlistment was to be for three years or during the war. Under the provisions of Circular No. 15, dated War Department, Provost Marshal General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 27, 1864, those who enlisted or re-enlisted in the Corps were to be credited upon the quota of the State, the same as other troops. The Corps was organized in Companies of two classes or Battalions—the men enlisted in or transferred to the Corps who were most efficient and able-bodied, capable of using the musket, performing Guard duty, or making light marches were assigned to Companies of the First Battalion, and were to be employed as Provost Guards, Guards in cities, &c., and were not liable to active campaigns with the Army in the field; those of a minor degree of physical efficiency by reason of the loss of a hand or arm, foot or leg, were assigned to Companies of the Second Battalion, to be armed with side arms only, and were to be employed in Hospitals as Cooks, Nurses, Clerks, Orderlies, &c., and as Guards to Hospitals or other Public Buildings. Officers desiring to re-enter the service in this branch, received their appointment and were commissioned direct from the War Department. Under the provisions of General Orders No. 111, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., March 18, 1864, the name of the organization was changed from Invalid Corps to Veteran Reserve Corps.

The following list shows the Officers and enlisted Men who re-enlisted for the Corps, and were placed to the credit of this State, (those who were transferred to the Corps from New Jersey Regiments in the field to serve the remainder of their term of service, are accounted for on the rolls of their original Company and Regiment). They continued in service until after the close of the war, when they were discharged at different times and places as the War Department directed.

First Army Corps (Hancock's), United States Veteran Volunteers.

The troops composing this organization were enrolled under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and an Act of Congress, approved July 4, 1864, as set forth in General Orders No. 224, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 6, 1864, and by authority as set forth in General Orders No. 287, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., November 28, 1864. The Head Quarters of the Corps was established at Washington, D. C., and Major-General WINFIELD S. HANCOCK, United States Volunteers, was assigned to the command. The Corps was to consist of not less than twenty thousand Infantry, and was to be composed of such honorably discharged Soldiers as had rendered a service in the Army, of not less than two years, and were physically qualified; their term of service was to be for one, two or three years, and upon enlistment, they were allowed the privilege of being credited to such district in the State, in which they or their families resided, or such other locality as they might select. At the commencement of the organization, all enlistments and muster in of men were to be made at Washington, D. C., but free transportation would be furnished to Washington, to any one wishing to enlist in the Corps upon application to any Provost Marshal. These instructions were subsequently modified by allowing Provost Marshals in the several States to enroll and muster in any who were properly qualified, and wished to enter this branch of the service. A camp of organization was established at Camp Cliffburne, Washington, D. C., at which place all recruits for the Corps were forwarded, and were formed into Companies and Regiments as soon as possible after arrival. The enlisted men were allowed to select their Companies and Regiments. The Officers received their commissions direct from the War Department, and were assigned to such command as that Department saw proper.

The following list shows the appointments and enlistments in the Corps credited to this State. The greater part having enlisted for one year were mustered out at different times and places on expiration of service. Those who had enlisted for a longer period were mustered out during the months of July and August, 1866, under the provisions of a letter of instructions, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., July 11, 1866.

United States Colored Troops.

Under the provisions of a Proclamation by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., January 1, 1863, the enrollment of colored men in the Army and Navy of the United States was authorized. Under the authority thus given, as set forth in General Order No. 1, dated War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., January 2, 1863, Regimental Organizations were begun and completed in several of the States. This State, however, never organized any regiments of Colored Troops, but all recruits were forwarded Philadelphia, Pa., at which place, under the direction of the Secretary of War, dated War Department, Washington, D. C., September 19, 1861, the Chief Mustering Officer, was instructed to muster into Regiments of United States Colored Troops, all colored volunteers from the State New Jersey, who might be presented. The recruits for these organizations were to be placed to the credit of this State, upon the certificate the officer mustering them into the service. These instructions were subsequently modified by authorizing the Superintendent of Recruitment in this State to enroll and muster in these recruits in the State. They were enrolled and mustered in by the Provost Marshals of Districts, and were then forwarded to Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., and from thence were transferred to specified depots, and were then assigned to the different Regiments in the service. The Officers received their appointments and were commissioned direct from the War Department, and were assigned to commands by that Department.

The following list shows such appointments and enlistments in this branch of the service, as were credited to this State. They remain in active service until after the close of the war, and were mustered out at different times and places as the War Department directed.

United States Navy and Marine Corps.

The following list of men of New Jersey enlisted for and served in the United States Navy, and are credited upon the quota of the State. Prior to February 24, 1864, no credit for enlistment and service in the Naval forces was allowed to the States. Under the provisions of Sec. 9 of an "Act of Congress, approved February 24, 1864, all enlistments into the Naval service, or into the Marine Corps of the United States, shall be credited to the town, township, county, ward or election district in which such enlisted men were or may be enrolled and liable to duty." Under the provisions of Sec. 8 of an "Act of Congress, approved July 4, 1864, all persons in the Naval service of the United States, who have entered said service during the present rebellion, who have not been credited to the quota of any town, district, ward or State, by reason of their being in said service, and not enrolled prior to February 24, 1864, shall be enrolled and credited to the quotas of the town, ward, district or State in which they respectively reside, upon satisfactory proof of their residence made to the Secretary of War." To meet the requirements of this act a Commission consisting of Colonel ROBERT C. BUCHANAN, Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General for New Jersey, and JOSEPH C. JACKSON, of Newark, N. J., was appointed to have such credits ascertained, and if possible given to the sub-districts in the State to which they belong. The credits due this State under this act were determined by the Commissioners, and resulted in a gain of nearly five thousand men who had enlisted in this branch of the service, and for which the State had received no credit. Enlistments for this service were made at Naval Depots, the recruit was allowed to select the place of credit, and the Provost Marshal of the district was notified. Enlistments for the Naval service were for one, two and three years, and for the Marine Corps, four years.
