In name of God Amen

I Robert Black of the County of Green and State of Kentucky being in a sick and low condition of body, but of a perfect mind and memory and knowing that is appointed for all men once to die: do make this my last will and testament, Viz, first I commend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the dust to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors. Item I will that my beloved wife Sarah have the use of my house and household furniture together with a competent support from the land I now live on and likewise the service of the Boy named Wiley Howard so long as she shall live. Item I give and bequeath my land that I live on, together with all the work Tools to my son John as also the land that the said John is now in possession of. Item I will and bequeath my sorrel Colt to my daughter Jane and likewise one Cow that has been named to her. Item I will that all the remainder of my property (except so much corn and meat as is necessary for the support of the family for the present year) be sold and equally divided among my Children, Moses, Ebby, Peggy, and Polly (except so much as will procure a good new Cloak for my daughter Jane) to be appropriated to the purpose of procuring Books and schooling their Children. Item I will any Service that may remain of the above named Boy after the decease of my wife to my son John, and likewise the plank that I have procured for the purpose of furnishing my house, together with a Note I have upon William Sutton which he is to put to the use of furnishing the house. Item I will that my daughter have the liberty of living in the house with her mother free from costs so long as she may remain single. Lastly I do and appoint my son John and my son in law John Wilson my whole and sole Executors to this my last will and testament. Witness my hand and seal this 21st day of February 1808.
