Att. F. H. Woodson, clk

My own Dear Children —

As I am just leaving the world — this is my last desire that what little belongs to me, may be disposed of (viz) — My Negro girl Betsy, and my beds, and bedding, and clothes, to my tender darling, Jane Augusta Ann R. Dallam, and my Negro boy to my Dear Harriet R. Dallam, and if Dear children no more Pain in misery —

June 1st 1807.

Your affe Mother —
Eliza Smith —

This by my tender and sincere friend B. Shackelford. He will tell what I am not able to write Adieu —
