Pauline Hughes Will

In the name of God amen I Pauline Hughes of the County of Logan and State of Kentucky being weak in body but of sound mind and memory and calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing it is appointed to men once to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament revoking all others. And first of all I recommend my spirit to God who gave it and my body to the dust to be buried with decent Christian Burial at the direction of my Family. Secondly all my just Debts to be paid and funeral charges. Thirdly, Instructing and other moneyed Estate whereon it has pleased God to bless me I give and bequeath in the following manner to my loving wife Flora Hughes I give and bequeath all my Estate both real and personal during her widowhood but if she marry the personal property is to be sold and she is to have the third of the money arising from said sale or she may keep the three part of that property at its valuation to be at her choice. And after marriage my Will is that my Land and negroes be rented and hired out until all my boys come of age and then an equal division is to be made of all my Estate both real and personal amongst all my children but if my said wife marries my will is that my boys live with my Executors until they be bound if they want them and we will be bound to give them schooling and clothing and use them well and give them when of age what is reasonable in the opinion of good men but if they do want the said Boys they are to go to my brother Charley Hughes and be under his direction he being bound to do the same as nothing as above my will is that my brother Charley Hughes shall get Jeremiah Sparks free and my hires all Tol No 2 Containing One hundred and Sixty Acres with its appurtenances To have and to hold the hires and his heirs forever. But I mean and to be bound if said Land is not many Part of it lying the Tol to be run and bounded new lines. I sign seal and deliver this declare this and no other to be my last Will and Testament this 19th day of April 1826 and appoint my Brother Tunsley Hughes Exr of this my last Will and Testament
