In the name of God amen. I James Boggs of the county of Madison in the State of Kentucky being in a low state of health and knowing the uncertainty of this life, do hereby make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament.

First It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid.

Item It is my will and desire that the Executors hereinafter appointed whenever they conceive it expedient within one year after my death cause my personal property to be sold at Public auction and the proceeds thereof equally divided between my surviving children viz John, James Owen Sr and William Boggs Peggy Fowler, Tyre, Betsey and Zaia Boggs, or their legal representatives.

Item It is my will and desire that my Executors whenever they conceive it expedient within one year after my death cause my negroes (except Hannah and Henry Banton) to be sold to the highest bidder amongst my children above named and the proceeds thereof equally divided between them or their legal representatives. It shall be the duty of said Executors to give proper notice of such sale to each of said children.

Item It is my will and desire that my friend James Anderson Esqr within one year after my death survey and divide the tract of land on which I live into eight parcels which I desire shall be of equal value and I confide in the discretion and impartiality of my said friend for this result. And I hereby will and bequeath unto each of my children herein before mentioned one of said parcels to be ascertained by lot by said Anderson & plat and certificate of which I desire shall be made out by said Anderson distinguishing the name of each parcel and returned to the County Court of Madison and entered of record agreeable to their opinion.

Item I will and bequeath unto Thomas and Eustatia Brumbach children of my daughter Polly Brumbach the sum of $100 each and Polly allow each a share of this sum during their minority and when they respectively arrive at the age of eighteen the balance if any remain of this legacy I desire shall be paid to them.

Item I will and bequeath unto my daughter Zaia Boggs my negro boy named Henry Banton to her and her heirs forever and I hereby appoint my Executors hereinafter appointed Guardian for said Zaia during her infancy and I allow them to support and maintain her out of the annual proceeds of her estate.

Item It is my will and desire and I do hereby ordain and my negro woman slave Hannah at my death. And should the County Court of Madison require bond and security of my executors to prevent her from becoming chargeable to the said County I require it as a duty of my executors to give such bond.

and lastly I hereby nominate and appoint my sons Owen Boggs and William Boggs Executors of this my last will and testament.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my name this 8th day of August one thousand eight hundred and twenty six.

James Boggs

Signed and acknowledged in presence of

Mid Rodes. Robert Boggs

Note The expense incurred in dividing the land and the expense of Thomas and Eustatia Brumbach, I have thought to pay out of the proceeds of the sale of my personal property.
