Bell's Will

In the Name of God Amen

I William Bell Sen.r of the County of Montgomery and State of Kentucky now in a weak State of body but in my proper mind and fearing my approaching dissolution and for the purpose of disposing of all my goods and Estate do make this my last Will and Testament

First I will all my just debts to be paid by my Executor hereafter to be mentioned and for this purpose I will all my lands and claims which I have in Kentucky except my settlement and preemption claim and the Six hundred and odd Acres I am entitled to there on the South or so much of them as shall be sufficient for that purpose to be sold by my Executors for that purpose and the balance of the proceeds if any to be equally divided among all my lawful children Viz. William Bell my son Thomas Bell Nancy Ross of the East end of the apple Orchard it being as near one half of said Orchard as whole rows would admit of; Also the privilege of the Water of the Mill dam Covers at the high the dam is now at to be appropriated to that use so long as he keeps a mill in operation there —

Item I will to my wife Sarah Bell during her life the farm which we now occupy with the utensils and appurtenances belonging thereto with her the land. Subject for my son William if the Son returns, also the negroes Sarah Dine, Lewis & Dine when Dick Screen & Lidge and one half of the horses we now occupy also the one half of all the Stock we now of every kind to have and to hold to Order for the benefit of the Survivor so long as she shall live with my the farm we now have in the house which we have now at that time of our death to go to my Son William If he comes before that time, and if he should come after her death for him to have the one half & all her part and at her death the whole of it to go to have Except Sarah of the negroes to be otherwise disposed of after my wife's death

Item I will that my Son Thomas Bell shall have in addition to what I have willed him in case my Son William Bell never returns that that part of the land lying and adjoining the farm on the North East and South of the Lick on which I now live and adjoining Ten poles West from the North West corner of the Westmost fence of the Mill tract field belonging to the farm running thence South the same course of the fence to the creek thence out in the Woods pattern since then a Straight line Southward to the Nicholas Ann dennis old Original line up to the creek to the East end of his old Original Corner then with said line to Lewis Mitchens line of the land I gave his then with the lines of his land Northward to the line of Thomas Bells land the land I devised to him then with his lines Northward

3. Item I do give and bequeath unto my son William Bath the beginning one of which he is to have and to hold after my wife's decease except my son William returns and in that case I give it off to have to Sons in the interest to take possession first and if he should return at any time in the course of his life to have immediate possession given to him of all the granted premises and if my son William return, returns there in that case the other mentioned land is to go to my son Thomas and his heirs for ever

Item I give to my daughter Elinor Bear in addition to what I have given her the Negro woman Bettie and her child a little girl the name of child which she has now and has had for some time for the use of her

Item I give to my son William Bath in case he comes to reside and live with I give to my son William that I never live on without the total possession that is all my farm that I now live on with all the appurtenances belonging thereto and all the horse creatures I have and the one half of every kind of other stock I have and the other half I give to Thomas Bath also the one half of all the kind of every kind belonging to the same consisting of cows hogs sheep horses and plow gear the cart and all wagon horses sheep and the other half I give to Thomas as in the case of the stock, Smith and the other half I give to Thomas as in the case of the farm being to William as directed before all the land adjoining the farm being part of the settlement of plantation tract and the part I have willed to Thomas in case William never returns but the part of the tract willed and the benefit of the pasture the water continues I give to Thomas William so long as he and his wife is willing if my son William does come and claim the land I have willed him but does not choose to live on it but chooses to sell it then in that case my son Thomas shall have that part I have willed to him as stated in case William never returns paying unto the aforesaid William fifteen dollars per one fifth part of land one fourth at the time of contract and the other three fourths at three annual instalments without interest

I give to John Watson my daughter in addition to what I have given her one Negro girl named Susan I will to my daughter Mary and also in addition to what I have given her one Negro woman named James I give to my daughter Eliza Stewart, hundred dollars in hire of a negro woman named Dill to be paid to her in ten years to be paid to her at the rate of ten dollars a year beginning the first year after my decease if they both live until then I give to my daughter Eliza the payment is to stop from that time and the payment is to be placed to her friend of my son William and Thomas Bath which one shall be kept the negro on those terms but my will is that William shall keep them if he chooses so to do and pay the money as above to Eliza and if he comes to claim his part of the estate of not then Thomas is to keep them on the above terms

Item whereas the house we live in wants a good deal of work and I have not sufficiently provided of it thinking he if Thomas both may work done on the house and William comes to claim in that case William must pay Thomas what he expended on it and to have the benefit and privilege of one half of the house to live in and make use of if William chooses entire he can build a house on his own

[illegible] three years if he requires it

[illegible] my son William [illegible] the other two negroes [illegible] after his mother decease if he comes to take possession of them and if he does not come in the course of ten years then the three to be divided amongst my six daughters and if they cannot agree on a division themselves then in that case they shall leave it all three disinterested men of good character chosen by themselves to settle it between them

Item whereas some years past before my daughter Sally Bath was married I promised to give her one shoe and pair of sheets and after she was married, her husband persuaded me to give him my bond for said land and a large part of it being stolen by another claimer and I being obliged to sue as much as I could to recover the rest he brought suit against me for the whole now what he gains by his suit he should have if he gains any and if he does not gain any I give and bequeath that she may have what I promised her therefore I will to my daughter now Sally Bath and all the land contained in the bond that I have a right to dispose also that house piece of land lying on the West side of the Alexandria creek road lying between the line of said land and said road if John Wheat dismisses the suit of not that piece above mentioned to go to make up differences for and entitled then there is one fifth of the differences made up and entitled then I bequeath to my wife, I have to my wife Sarah Bath her own bible & Sarah and all her household furniture that she allowed of her own before and count her own property to dispose of as she pleases what is all the property and furniture she has in her own name and the same above it that she now occupies and all the kitchen furniture now in her own part of the kitchen which she will divide as her own and I believe she will not divide any thing to be her own but what really is so

I will and appoint my two sons William and Thomas Bath my executors and my wife Sarah Bath executrix to this my last will and testament which is written with my own hand and signed with the same this seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty two

Signed and acknowledged William Bath (Seal)
