PREFACE.

It seems appropriate, when a book has been prepared for publication, in offering it to the public, that the author or compiler should state clearly and concisely its purpose. The late Hon. Charles J. Hoadly, LL.D., once said to the writer: "People looking up their ancestry come back to Hartford." This indicates not only the value for research of the early records to be found here, but as well the numerous and widely distributed descendants of the men who settled upon the "Great River," at Hartford, Wethersfield, and Windsor, 1634-1636. To preserve the essential part of these Probate Records; to arrange them in form to be more available for reference; to arrest their constant wear and rapidly accelerating destruction; to marshal the parents and children of these early families by name, place, and collateral relationship, with incidental historical matter, giving volume, page and date for reference to the original writings; with a copious index in a book the reader may hold in hand, whether living near or remote from Hartford—is here offered as a reason for this Digest.

In the volumes of Probate Records the wills and inventories are entered upon one side and indexed. Upon the other side are entered the (Acts), or Court Records, also indexed. The wills, inventories, and some distributions of estates, are kept on file, in boxes—each separate—wills in one box, inventories in another, and the distributions in a third box. There being from 100 to 150 papers in each box, the wear, by frequent examinations of the frail old papers, tends to ultimate destruction.

Vol. I of this Digest is made up from the first six original volumes of Probate Records, and each volume is indicated by roman numerals in the running title, except the Appendix to Vol. I, which is composed of miscellaneous matters. Throughout the work, page and figures in the center of the line indicate wills and inventories in the volume shown in the running title, unless otherwise stated. Page numbers following the words "Court Record," refer only to the acts of the Court in the volumes of original record.

Wills and inventories have been copied from the pages in the several volumes, or from the original papers on file. Wills and distributions, with some inventories, found upon file (not recorded) have received careful attention. Among this class are found some valuable and interesting papers.

Court Records are not put upon file. As the acts of Court are sometimes found in several volumes, continued many years before the final settlement of an estate, errors in names or otherwise occur, which cause much care and labor to adjust.

Inventories—These were taken under such varying conditions, that their value is not an essential factor. They may represent the remainder of an estate, a large part of which had been given during the life-time of the testator, or be only the personal estate, or taken as valued in country pay; or, if as money, in the depreciated bills of the Colony, as compared with the pound sterling in silver.

Distributions have a special value in revealing changes by marriage, or other changes following from childhood to adult age.

Contractions, so common in the early records, usually represented by superior letters or by a line over the contracted word, were introduced in the copy for printing; but it was found inexpedient to follow this, except as modified in the text. The capitalization and spelling of every word exactly as recorded was not undertaken, for the sufficient reason that in most cases the language is not that of a testator, but of another who writes, and of still another who records, with differences between them. But withal, the effort has been to give a correct Digest of every paper in such language as is found in it, in every important particular. Contractions for economy of space have been used, the meaning of which will be suggested by their connections—as Invt., for Inventory; Adms., for Administration, and derivatives: Dist., for Distribution, etc.; Recog., for Recognizance; W. R., Windsor Records; P. C., Private Controversies.

The word "cousin" usually means nephew, or niece; X indicates his or her mark; Ls., the seal.

Many names appear with only a prefix to surname. All such, as Goodman, Goody, Deacon, Corpll, Lieut., Capt., Major, Col., etc., are indexed as Mr. or Mrs. Also, Jr. and Sen., and similar designations, are omitted in the index, as liable to mislead unless extended beyond allowed limits.

In most cases the Court Record of acceptance of inventory has been omitted, as well as the formal granting of letters of administration; this, being in the ordinary course of business, may be assumed; to whom letters were granted, and date, being the essential matter. Neither has it been considered as necessary to record every date and report of an administrator to the Court, as the payment of some debts, or for an extension of time. But in all Court cases in the settlement of any estate (testate or intestate), that which adds any information of value has been sought for with untiring zeal. That some desired items could not be found, the work must show. The conception and arrangement being mine, so must be its errors or shortcomings.

My thanks are due, and are here extended, to all who have given aid or encouragement in its preparation, and especially to those who have so generously financed its publication.

C. W. Manwaring.

INTRODUCTION.

COURT RECORDS IN THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

Of the Records of the General Court or Assembly of the Colony of Connecticut, which in early times was also a Court of Appeals and had original jurisdiction in the more important equity cases, it is not necessary to say much, because they are in print from April, 1636, to April, 1775, inclusive (see Colonial Records of Connecticut). The records of the Particular Court were kept in the same book with those of the General Court until 1649. (See 1st Vol. Colonial Records of Connecticut). This Court had jurisdiction over every subject of judicial controversy throughout the Colony. It was succeeded in 1666 by the County Courts. The second volume of these records, which is the first kept in a separate book, is thus lettered: "Particular Court, Vol. II, Probate Records," and begins with a Court held at Hartford, March 7, 1649-50, and ends with one held May 16, 1663. There are 196 pages of Court proceedings, and 185 pages of wills and inventories. This volume, after a disappearance for many years, was recovered in the City of New York in December, 1861. The third volume is lettered: "Probate Records, Book III, County Court." It begins with Hartford, Quarter Court, June 4, 1663, and extends to a County Court held at Hartford by adjournment, December 6, 1677. It contains 167 pages of Court records, 199 pages of wills and inventories, and three pages of land records. Both these volumes are well indexed for names in the Court proceedings. Vols. IV, V, and VI, in continuation of the preceding, are in the Hartford Probate Office. The General Assembly, at its session in May, 1666, established the four Counties of Hartford, New London, New Haven, and Fairfield, which included all the towns then organized and settled, and ordered that wills and inventories of persons deceased within any of the Counties of the Colony shall be exhibited and proved at the County Court to which the deceased did appertain by his habitation. This was the first actual division of the State into Probate Districts, although Probate Courts, as such, were not established and separated from the County Courts until 1698, and the limits of the Counties and Probate Districts remained coterminous until 1719.

Under the jurisdiction of the Particular Court, County Court and Court of Probates were entered estates from towns in the district of Hartford now known by the following names: Andover, Ashford, Avon, Barkhamsted, Berlin, Bloomfield, Bolton, Bristol, Burlington, Canaan, Canton, Colchester, Colebrook, Cornwall, Coventry, Cromwell, Glastonbury, Goshen, Haddam, Haddam (East), Hartford, Hartford (East), Hartland, Hebron, Kent, Mansfield, Middletown, New Hartford, New London, Norwich, Rocky Hill, Saybrook, Simsbury, Southington, Tolland, Vernon, Waterbury, Wethersfield, Willington, Winchester, Windsor Locks, and others for a longer or shorter period.

The establishment of Windham District in May, 1719, took the towns of Windham and Mansfield from Hartford District. Woodbury District, in October of the same year, took away the towns of Litchfield and Waterbury. And East Haddam District, in October, 1741, took off the towns of East Haddam, Haddam, Colchester and Hebron, with the parish of Middle Haddam. The District of Litchfield, in October, 1742, of Middletown, in May, 1752, of Stafford, in May, 1759, Farmington, in January, 1769, and Simsbury, in May of the same year, further diminished the size of the Hartford District, and the process of division has been continued until that district now embraces but eight towns, while the four districts into which the Colony was divided in 1666 have been multiplied twenty-eight fold—numbering one hundred and twelve at the present time, 1904.

COURT OF ASSISTANTS.

The Records of the Acts of the Court of Assistants in the Colony of Connecticut, beginning 11 May, 1669, and extending to 7 October, 1686, and of the same Court from 1 October, 1696, to 3 October, 1701, fill 137 pages of a volume lettered "Colonial Records, New England, 1659-1701." This Court was established in October, 1665, and the records prior to 1669 are in Book III of the County Court. The continuation is found in a large parchment-bound book entitled: "No. 2—Records Court of Assistants, Superior Court, Began 1687, Ends in 1715." It begins with the record of a special Court of Assistants, 15 February, 1686-7. At page 4 is this memorandum by Caleb Stanly, Jr.:

"Now in the moneth of October, anno Dom. 1687, Sir Edmund Andross, Knight, Governor of New England, received and took upon him the government of this his Majesties Colony of Connecticut, and therefore there was no Court of Assistants holden in this Colony in the year 1688, nor in May, anno Dom. 1689; and the Court book containing the records of the Court of Assistants holden at Hartford in October, 1689 (if any Court was then held*), can't be found."

The record then goes on from a Court held 27 May, 1690, to one held 11 May, 1696, and the reverse of the volume contains the records of the Court of Assistants from 7 May, 1702, and of its successor, the Superior Court, to 8 November, 1715. A large folio, 423 36 pages. Both these volumes are indexed for names.

*That there was a session of the Court of Assistants in October, 1689, appears from the printed "Colonial Records," Vol IV, page 25.

[1] A CORTE HOLDEN ATT NEWTON, 26 APR. 1636.

Roger Ludlowe, Esqr.,	Mr. Westwood,
Mr. Steele,	Mr. Warde.
Mr. Phelps,

Constables sworne, for Dorchester, Newtowne & Watertowne, for this next yeere and vntill newe be chosen, are Henry Walcott for Dorchester, Samuell Wakema for Newtowne & Daniell Finch for Watertowne.

21 Febr. 1636.

Mr. Ludlowe,	Mr. Phelps,
Mr. Steele,	Mr. Westwoode.
Mr. Swaine,

Whereas, it was ordered yt Samuel Wakeman, Geo: Hubbert, & Ancient Stoughton were to consider of the boundes of Dorchester towarde the Falls & of Watertowne towards the mouth of the River; The saide Samuel Wakeman & [Geo:] Hubberd thinkes meete yt the plantacon of Dorchester shall extend towards the Falls, on the same side the Plantacon standes, to a Brooke called Kittle Brooke, & soe over the greate River vppon the same line that Newe Towne & Dorchester doth betweene them. And soe it is ordered by the Corte.

It is ordered that the plantacon nowe called Newtowne shall be called & named by the name of Harteford Towne, likewise the plantacon now called Watertowne shalbe called & named Wythersfeild.

Samuell Wakeman & Ancient Stoughton doe thinke meete that the boundes of Wythersfeild shalbe extended toward the Rivers mouth, in the same side it standes in, to a Tree sixe miles downward from the boundes between them & Harteford [marked wth] N:F: & to [runn in an east] & west line, [& over] the great River, the saide Wythersfeild to begin att [4] the mouth of Pewter pott Brooke & there to runn due east into the Countrey 3 miles & downward sixe miles in breadth, wch is ordered accordingly.*

*The words in brackets (now illegible in the original Record) are here supplied from a certified copy of this and the next preceding order, made in 1708.

It is ordered yt the plantacon called Dorchester shalbee called Windsor.

The boundes betweene Wethersfeild & Harteford are agreed on the side wherein they stand to be att a Tree mrked N:F: & to wch the Pale of the saide Harteford is fixed, to goe into the Countrey due east & on the other side of the greate River from Pewter pott Brook att the lower side of Hocanno due east into the Countrey, wch is nowe ordered accordingly.

The boundes betweene Harteford & Windsor is agreed to be att the vpper end of the greate meadowe of the saide Harteford toward Windsor att the Pale that is nowe there sett vpp by the saide Harteford wch is abuttinge vppon the great River vppon a due east line, & into the Countrey from the saide Pale vppon a due west line as paralell to the saide east line as farr as they have now paled, & afterward the boundes to goe into the Countrey vppon the same west line. But it is to be soe much shorter towards Windsor as the place where the Girte that comes alonge att th' end of the saide meadowe & falls into the saide greate River is shorter then their Pale, & over the saide great Riuer the saide Plantacon of Windsor is to come to the Riveretts* mouth that falls into the saide great River of Connectecott, and there the saide Harteford is to runn east into the Countrey, wch is ordered accordingly.

Hooker, Thomas, Hartford. Invt. £1136-15-00. Taken 21st April, 1644, by Nathaniel Ward & Edward Stebbing. Will dated 7 July, 1647.

I, Thomas Hooker, of Hartford, uppon Connecticutt, in New England, being weakened in my body through the tender visitation of the Lord, but of sound & prfect memory, doe dispose of that outward estate I have been betrusted withall by him, in maner following: I doe give unto my sonne Jno. Hooker, my housing and Lands in Hartford aforesaid, both that wch is on the west and also that wch is on the east syde of ye River, to be injoyed by him and his heires for ever, after the death of my wife Susannah Hooker, provided he be then att. the age of one & twenty yeares. It being my will that my sayd deare wiefe shall injoy and possess my sayd Howsing & Lande during her naturall life, and yf she dy before my sonne Jno come to the aforesaid age of one & twenty yeares, that the same bee improved by the overseers of this my will for the maintenance and education of my children not()disposed of, according to their best discretion. I doe also give unto my sonne Jno my Library of printed books and manuscripts, under the limittations and provisoes hereafter expressed. It is my will that my sonne Jno. deliver to my sonne Samuel Soe many of my books as shall be valued by the overseers of this my will to be worth fifty pounds sterling, or that he pay him the summe of fifty pounds Sterling to buy such books as may be useful to him in thee way of his studdyes, att such tyme as the overseers of this my will shall Judge meett. But if my sonne Jno. doe not goe on to the prfecting of his Studdyes, or shall not give up himselfe to the service of the Lord in the worke of the ministry, my will is that my Sonne Samuel enjoy and possesse the whole Library and manuscripts to his proper use forever; onely, it is my will that whatever manuscripts shall be Judged meett to be printed, the disposall thereof and advantage that may come thereby I leave wholly to my executrix; and in case she depart this life before the same be Judged of and Settled, then to my overseers to be improved by them in their best discretion, for the good of myne, according to the trust reposed in them. And however I doe not forbid my sonne Jno from seeking and takeing a wife in England, yett I doe forbid him from marrying and tarying there. I doe give unto my sonne Samuel, in case the whole Library come not to him, as is before expressed, the summe of Seventy pounds, to be payd unto him by my Executrix att such tyme and in such maner as shall be judged meettest by the overseers of my will. I doe also give unto my daughter Sarah Hooker, the summe of one hundred pounds Sterling, to be payd unto her by my Executrix when she shall marry or come to the age of one and twenty years, wch shall first happen; the disposall and further education of her and the rest, I leave to my wife, advising them to attend her counsell in the feare of the Lord. I doe give unto the two children of my daughter Joanna Sheperd, deceased, and the child of my daughter Mary Newton, to each of them the summe of tenn pounds, to be payd unto them by my son John within one year after he shall come to the possession and injoyment of my Houseing & Lands in Hartford, or my Son Samuell, if by the decease of Jno he come to injoy the same. I doe make my beloved wiefe Susannah Hooker, Executrix of this my Last will and Testament, and (my just debts being payd) doe give and bequeath unto her all my estate and goodes, moveable and immoveable, not formerly bequeathed by this my last will. And I desire my beloved friends, Mr. Edward Hopkins and Mr. William Goodwyn, to affoord their best assistance to my wife, and doe constitute and appoint them the overseers of this my will. And itt haveing pleased the Lord now to visitt my wife with a sickness, and know not how itt may please his Matie to dispose of her, my mind & will is, that in case she depart this life before she dispose of the estate bequeathed her, my aforesaid beloved friends, Mr. Edward Hopkins and Mr. William Goodwyn, shall take charge both of the education and dispose of my children (to whose love and faithfullness I comend them) and of the estate left & bequeathed to my wiefe, and doe comitt itt to their best judgement and discretion to manage the sayd estate for ye best good of mine, and to bestow itt uppon any or all of them in such a proportion as shall be most suitable to their owne apprehensions. Being willing onely to intimate my desire that they wch deserve best may have most, but nott to Lymett them, but leave them to the full scope and bredth of their owne Judgement; in the dispose whereof, they may have respect of ye forementioned children of my two daughters, if they see meete. It being my full will that what trust I have comitted to my wife, either in matter of estate or such manuscript as shall be judged fitt to be printed, in case she live not to order the same herselfe, be wholly transferred and past over from her to them for ye ende before specified. And for mortality sake I doe putt power into the hands of the forementioned Beloved friends to constitute and appoint such other faithfull men as they shall judge meett (in case they be deprived of life or libberty to attend the same in their owne persons), to manage, dispose, and performe the estate and trust comitted to them in as full maner as I have comitted it to them for the same ende.

P. C., No. 211.

An Appeal to the Court of Assistants now sitting at Hartford, the Humble Application of Elizabeth Blackleach. Whereas, the Reverend John Whiting, in the absence of my Husband, at a late County Court in Hartford, did exhibit a certain Writing as the last Will of Christian Harbert, late wife of Benjamin Harbert, which that Court was pleased to accept as her will approved by her husband, Etc., I was necessitated to this Application for an alteration of that conclusion, and do therefore present the following considerations: 1st, Whereas, the said paper is presented as a will, It is evident thereby that the estate therein bestowed was originally Benjamin Harberts, and there is, nor indeed could be, no alienation of it to his wife to make it hers to dispose of. That the woman therein undertaking was a feme Covert is plain, and that the whole estate of a feme Covert (while so) is her husbands right, is as undeniable a principal as any in law, and the sole and one ground of the Husbands enjoying what comes in his wives right; nor can any man lift his wife out of the Coverture the Law puts her under, and the consequents of it, for the Law is above all in those things, so that she being no person in law to take the right, but that still remaining by law in her husband, she cannot will what in Law shee can have no right personally and seperately in. That which is aleadged from her husbands witnessing the will, and by a will of his owne, as giving her a right, is unsufficient; for 1st, as aforesaid, he could not do it; 2nd, hee hath not done it, for 1st, to her will he is but a witness at most, the extent of which is only that he testifies this is to be his wives will. A party or testator to the will hee cannot bee and a witness two, for Testatorship therein in any degree requires others to bee witnessess, and as to his will so caled of 6th June, 1684, it was revoked 7 Feb. following. Besides, to the passing the Land by Law, there must be som writing, record or Act passing it, but none such appears, nor are a few words sufficient thereunto without any other Conveyance. 2ndly, the said woman, being Covert feme, is absolutely incapable also, persons not of sound memory or not Compos mentis of makeing a will to dispose of Lands, by the 38 of King Hen. 8, which is well knowne; and no feme Covert is inabled to make a will wch was the Confusion of Mr. Warams will, nor can her husband Capacitate her without the Law, nor is there need or room for it, because the Husband may, ought, and only can, in person, give what he hath a mind anyone should have. So that if a womans will be any thing, yt is So not as her will properly and formaly but as it is her husbands will, having the ruling power in the case, hath actually overruled his wives will, nullfying his owne of 6 June, 1684, wch gave all the strength to his wives will by his act to Mr. Blackleach 7 Feb. 1684, and so nulled his wives will. 4thly, this was done by her husband 7 Feb. 1684, uppon necessity of maintaining himself and wife, wch is a good call and warrant by al Laws to alter his owne and wives will too, for it had been meer unrighteous profusion for him to give away his estate, and the providence of God caled for it to be used to feed and cloath himself and wife, so that as his circumstances went hee had been worse than an infidell had he not so provided. 5thly, Just debts notwithstanding must be paid, yea, and by All those mentioned wills are exprest or implied to be paid. Now this estate is a debt contracted after those wills so called as by that writing of 7 Feb. 1684, and to take it from him is to take away his due which hee hath sufficiently paid for, and might have paid dearer for. For Mr. Blackleach paid all his debts, wch were considerable, tooke him and his wife in a miserable condition, Mantained them well all their days to his no little cost, and that Mr. Whiting should now indeavor in Mr. Blackleach absence to deprive us of so great a part of the just repayment of our real expense, hath to me no good Aspect. 6thly, Whereas, Jos. Bull and Sam. Steele give testimony that what is a Bond written is a true paragraph of my Father Harberts last will, etc., And thereupon I suppose on a promiscuous view it may seem proved that such a will of my father was and still is in force, and ratifying his first wifes will, etc., and so the Court had ground to act as they did. I pray the Court to Consider that there is no such will in force, nor proved; for had it been so, then should it have come from the Court Records, and not be brought in by a back dore, as it were, from witnesses; but the wors Capt. Allyn can Certify that there is no such will of my Father Harberts on record, and I pray the Court to distinguish between a will only tittular, or such, in the nameing of two witnesses, and a will proved and of efficacy, for the one sort, and such is the one they testify to, is only tittularly so, and is clearly revoked by his act of 7 Feb. 1684; and if the Court had been pleased as well to say they found his revocation as his approbation, I had not given this trouble. I could do no less than acquaint this Worshipful Court with these things in my husbands absence, and thereupon to desire, as I do, either the rejection of said will as disallowed by my Father Harbert, or such a suspension of the case as may save my husbands claims unhurt till the next session of this worsp Court, I having daily expectations of his return, and for this worsp Court I shall ever pray.

ELIZABETH X BLACKLEACH.

Griswold, Edward. The statement of Edward Griswold reveals an ebb-tide in the affairs and settlement of Windsor.

The Testimony of Edward Griswold, aged about 77 years, is that about the year 1639 Mr. William Whiting, Decd, was Undertaker for a shipp in England, in which Shipp I came to New England. The sd Mr. Whiting borrowed of one Mr. John Saint Nicholas about two hundred pounds, wch I had the Bill to receive here, wch money reced. against Mr. Whiting by Mr. Nicholas order here. And at the time many passengers came over, severall of which settled in Windsor, and a gennerall expectation there was at that time, as appeared by discourse of many more passengers to come, and some of note, as the said Mr. St. Nicholas for one, by which means Land at Windsor near the towne and ready for improvement was at a high price; and about that time the said Mr. Whiting bought, as was Commonly reported, Mr. Ludlow's Land at Windsor, that is, when Land was dear, and I know Mr. Ludlow went away then in a short time after. But afterwards people that were Expected out of England, not Comeing in Such numbers as was looked for, Mr. Ludlow () to England, and others removeing to the Sea Side, the Lands at Windsor fell very much in price from what they were at when Mr. Ludlow sold to Mr. Whiting, So that Generally, to my Observance, Lands were not sold but at half the price as before or about half the price. Further, I testifie that the above said Mr. St. Nicholas, living near Mr. Hewett in England, did manifest his desire to settle by Mr. Hewett in New England, and by my observance of Mr. St. Nicholas words and actions and also Mr. Whiting, did apprehend that Mr Whiting bought Mr. Ludlow's Lands to accomodate the said Mr. St Nicholas. Mr. Edward Griswold personally appeared this 15 May, 1684, & made oath to the above written before me.

Richardson, Stephen. To the Honoured the General Assembly of Connecticut Colony now sitting in Hartford, the Humble Application of Stephen Richardson, showing: That whereas, my Hond Father Mr. Amos Richardson, of Stonington, by the all-disposing Providence of God is lately decd, and did before his death make his Will, wherein he constituted my Hond Mother Executrix, giving her power to dispose of part of his Estate; since which it hath pleased God to take away my mother also by death, who hath also left her last Will in writing, wherein she hath made mee and my brother, Samuel Richardson, Executors of her last Will, we, according to the Trust therein reposed in us, would have proved the sd. Will at the County Court at New London, that we might have been in a legal capacity to have administered to the Estate and have executed the Wills: but it hath pleased God to visit the Magistracy of New London County that there were not so many as to constitute a Court at the usual time, and so all business at that Court, and ours among the rest, was unattended, nor can we learn that there will & certainly be any Court soon held there; and so it is that much of the Estate being in stock of Cattell which are given immediately to be paid on proveing my Mothers Will, & other Estate that requires a present Care & Dispose of, & which we are unwilling to run the Hazzard of if it should be lost, I do for and by order of my Brother, the Co-Executor wth me, and for myself, Humbly beseech this Honourable Court to appoint persons that may speedily hold a Court at New London, or at least that this Court, as your Wisdom shall see best, do appoint some means whereby there may be opportunity given us for a lawful probatation of sd. Wills so far as shall appear to be just, that so wee may be capable of Disposeing the Estate as willed by our parents, & not exposed to any Hazzard of Loss of what we can now discharge ourselves if the sd. Wills were proved, nor bear the further charge of it, which is considerable; or if the Honoured Court please to take Cognisance of it and settle the Will, we shall rest satisfied therein; & for this Honoured Court we ever pray, etc.

We learn from tradition that the brothers, Thomas and Israel, were accompanied to New England by their father, Thomas, Senior. Thomas the Elder, as he is designated on the Land Rec. of Windsor, in a deed date 14 July, 1645, makes over to "Thomas, my son," all his ppty in W. except his home lott, well court, and court before the house, and orchard, evidently reserved for his own use. Afterwards Thomas Stoughton the Elder sold to Thomas the younger his dwelling house and outhouses, orchard and courts, formerly exempted, provided the said Thomas the younger shall afford convenient maintenance to the said Thomas his ffather, and his mother-in-law, that is, the former widow Huntington, during the time of their lives, and in case Mr. Stoughton dyes first, then to all () his mother-in-law the third part of a hundred pounds which the said particulars were prized at, or to allow the said convenient maintenance with himself during her life (being her choice), provided she live with the said Thomas, otherwise not. The founders of this family in the United States were, as we have seen, two brothers, Thomas and Israel, who came over in 1630 or 1633 with their father, Thomas the Elder.

Sunckquasson Indian Treaty.—"Whereas our predecessor Sunckquasson, sachem of Suckiage, alias Hartford, did about the yeare sixteen hundred thirty six, by a writeing under his hand, pass over unto Mr. Samuel Stone and Mr. Wm. The original marks or signatures of the Indians are singular and grotesque. Some represent implements of war, some wild beasts, &c.

This treaty with Sunckquasson, sachem, and the sale of land by Joshua Sachem, included all the land upon both sides of the Connecticut River within the original bounds of the Township of Hartford except that portion lying between the Township of Windsor on the north and Glastonbury upon the south, upon the Connecticut River west, and extending eastward three miles, and commonly called the Three Mile Lotts. For this land no deed is known to be in existence. No doubt can with reason be held that title was acquired by the English settlers in as equitable and peaceful a manner as were those aforementioned. An inference may be drawn from the action of Wethersfield men in obtaining title to their three miles east side of the Great River, as testified to by George Hubbard. See page 2 Ante:

Sachem, Joshua.* The following Deed was a conveyance of Land which is now included in the Town of Manchester, it being all the Land in that Town except about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile in width taken off the East side of the Original 3 miles. This $\frac{1}{2}$ mile given over to Manchester seems to have been an unjust act of the General Assembly of Conn. Frequent reference having been made to the five miles in Wills. The Survey is given following this Deed:

(Vol. I) Hartford Lands, Fol: 6, Town Clerk's office.

The remaining portion of the five-mile purchase was termed Commons and Grants before 1753, when the boundary lines were run by William Wells, surveyor. From the 3 miles to the 4th tier of lotts, measured along the line of Glastonbury, 547 rods; thence north from Glastonbury to Windsor upon the line of the 4th tier of lotts, $4\frac{1}{2}$ miles one degree east (1°); thence west along the south line of Windsor 410 rods, there meeting the east line of the 3 mile lotts. During the next year this tract of land was laid out in six tiers of lots to the original proprietors or to their legal representatives.

The whole Commons and Grants contain 4428 acres of land; the Grants contain 1305 acres and 100 rods; there remains 3122 acres and 60 rods to be divided.

The Returne of Saybrook & Pequott Bounds:

Whereas, there was an agreement in Court that some of Sea Brooke and Pequott should in convenient time Lay out the bounds betwixt Sea Brook and Pequott belonging to each towne, as also the bounds of Pequott beyond Pequott River, according to an order of Court, Sept. 11, '50;

We, whose names are underwritten, being appointed for ye end afore-said by the towns, having improved our utmost endeavor, doe give in as followeth:

For the bounds of Pequott, the east side the River, we began the line opposite to ye dwelling house of John Winthrop, Esq. Running a line due east foure miles, we fell short, as we conceive, halfe one mile of the head of Mistick River, at a little Brook where is a tree marked with an M. and foure marks upon a tree, from wch place, running ye line East, we came one mile Six score and twelve Rodds to ye Noeward about the como wadeing place on Paukatuck River, wch wadeing place is to ye Northward of Thomas Stanton's tradeing house.

Alsoe, the foure miles from Pequott River doe come to Sea Brooke bounds and 40 Rods neerer to Sea Brook, upon Niantic plaines where the marked tree stands neere the Indian fforte, but the Bounds betwixt the Towne of Sea Brooke and Pequott are to Stand as they are now Set out, viz., at ye marked tree neere Niantick ffort as aforesaid.

The quantity of meadow betwixt Mistick and Paukatuck, as we conceive, having viewed according to our best Skill, good and bad, doth not amount to above Three hundred and Eighty Acres.

Wakeman, John (late) of New Haven. Invt. £157-16-11. Taken 14 September, 1661, by Richard Lord, William Wadsworth. Will dated at New Haven, 4 month, 18 day, 1660 (18 June, 1660).

I John Wakeman of New Haven, being weake in body but of sound understanding and memory, in expectation of my great change, do make this my last will and testament:

First, I comend my soule into the hands of my Lord Jesus Christ, my redeemer, trusting to be saved by his merits and intercession, and my body to be buried at the discretion of my executors and friends, in hope of a joyfull resurrection: testifying my thankfullness to God for the free manifestation of his grace to me in Christ, and for the liberty and fellowship vouchsafed me with his people in his ordinances in a congregational way, which I take to be the way of Christ orderly walked in according to his rules. But I doe testify against absolute Independence of Churches, and persecution of any in light or actings, and against compulsion of conscience, to concur with the church without inward satisfaction to conscience, and persecution of such as dissent upon this ground, which I take to be an abuse of the power given for edification by Christ, who is only Lord of the conscience.

As for my outward estate and worldly goods that God hath given me, which I shall leave, my just debts and funerall charges being satisfied, my will is that first I give unto my daughter Helina, wife To John Talcott of Hartford, twenty pounds, to be wholly at her owne disposing; and to her husband, my son-in-law, John Talcott, five pounds and my best beaver hatt and band; and to ech of their three children five pounds a piece, namely, unto John, Elizabeth and Samuell, all to be payd within six months after my decease. It. I give unto my son Samuell Wakeman's two sons, namely, Samuell and John, ten pounds a piece. It. I give unto my daughter Kitchell's daughter, Elizabeth, ten pounds. Item. I give unto my brother-in-law Adam Nicholls of Hartford my cloath cloake and the suite of the same which was my Cousin John Walker's, and my gray hatt; and I give unto his wife my sister Anna Nicholls ten pounds, to be wholly at her owne disposing; and to thayr four children twenty shillings a piece, namely, John, Hanna, Sarah and Ebenezer, all which my will is should be payd to them wthin six months after my decease. It. I give unto Hanna Cheeuers five pounds, to be set apart and improved for her, at the end of one Yeare after my decease, as my overseers shall see meet, untill she come to eighteen years of age (which is the tyme agreed upon for her continuence with me or mine), or till the tyme of her marriage, provided she marry wth the consent of my executors and overseers, or wth the consent of any two of them. It. I give to my servant Thomas Huxley my short gun with a rest and my hanger which he useth to train with, upon his good behavior, that is, if he shall carry him selfe honestly and faithfully in his place and service to the satisfaction of my executors and overseers, or with the approbation of any two of them. Then all the rest of my estate, goods, lands, debts whatsoever, I give and bequeath to my son Samuell Wakeman and to my son-in-law and daughter Samuell and Elizabeth Kitchell as followeth, that is, when all my debts and legasyes are discharged (which my mind is should be out of my estate as it ariseth indifferently and at the prises comon in this Jurisdiction). My will is that my son Samuell Wakeman shall have two thirds parte of that my whole estate that remaineth, and my son and daughter Kitchell the other third part equally betwixt them, and my will is that my daughter Elizabeth Kitchell shall have that parte of hers wholly at her owne disposing. And I doe make and appoint my son Samuell Wakeman and my son-in-law Samuell Kitchell to be joyntly executors of this my last will and testament. Allsoe I doe Intreate my beloved friends and bretheren Henry Glover and James Bishop to be overseers of this my will, and for thayr paines herein I give unto ech of them ten shillings. And I further desire my deare and loving sisters, my sister Davis and sister Glover, to asist my executors and overseers with thayr counsell and helpe in prizing, dividing and disposing things equally to mutuall satisfaction according to the true intent of this my will, which I publish with my hand this 18 day of the 4 month 1660 in the presence of Haynes, Mr. Joseph, late Rev. Teacher of the 1st Church in Hartford. Invt. £2280-17-00. Exhibited in Court 4 December, 1679. Will dated 26 February, 1676.

I Joseph Haynes of Hartford, in the Colony of Connecticott, perceiving the Shaddows of the Evening to bee uppon mee, beeing weak in body but () true and good memory, Doe in the fear of God and in Obedience to wholsom Rules of Righteousnes for the Setting of my house in order, make this my Last Will and disposition: In the first place, as the main matter, I do desire utterly to renounce myself and to have all my dependence uppon the sovereign mercy of God and the alone precious righteousness of the son of God, hoping that though my sins have been before him, yet he will graciously behold mee in the face of his Anointed. So also in the second place, I do thus dispose of what God hath graciously given mee in manner and form as followeth: Whereas, by an ingagement made to my Loveing wife Sarah Haynes sometimes before our marriage, I did promise to make her a joynture of my Lands at Farmingtown, as also to give her three hundred pounds or the third part of my Estate, I doe by this my Will Joynture my said Loveing wife in all the rents and proffitts of the said Lands at Farmingtown during her natural life, as also my Will is that shee bee paid Three hundred pounds out of my other Estate, which three hundred pounds shall bee paid within two years after my decease, or within one year if my wife desire it. Also I do give unto my said Wife the use and all the benefitts of my whole Estate till my children come in age to receive their several portions, for the bringing upp and Education of my children. And I do make my said Wife Sole Executrix of this my Last will and Testament. Also my Will and mind is that when my son John Haynes hath Attained to the age of 23 years, or bee married, that my mansion house at Hartford, with the Barnes, out houses, homested garden and yards, together with all my little meadow before my house, as also all my Grass Ground and plow Land in the South meadow, together with my oxpasture which is inclosed, both pasture Land and plow Land, and my wood lott not farr off the oxpasture, as also all my right in that Land in the woods that Lately hath been laid out as is to bee seen in the town book, with all the rights and priviledges whatsoever to any of those Lands beforementioned do any wayes belong, to remain to him and his heirs for ever. Allso I give him all my books and manuscripts that any wayes concern Learneing, only my mind is that if my wife shall remain in her Widdowhood, that the Parlor and the Studdy shall bee for her dwelling, and all needful use of the Celler and Kitchen. My will further is that after the decease of my wife that my whole farme at ffarmingtowne with my pasture thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Thomas Nowell, together with all other priviledges of Land, divided or undivided, in the Precincts of that towne, bee divided equally between my two daughters Mabell Haynes and Sarah Haynes, to them and their heirs forever. Also I give all my undivided Lands and grants of Court to bee equally divided amongst my Children and their heirs forever. My mind also is that if my wife bee now with Child and that the Lord in mercy give the Life of it, that the £180 that was given by my mother Lord to my wife and her children as is thereby exprest in her Will, should bee to that child. I do also give to that child all my part of that Land that is in the hands of John Babcock, in narragansett, near Pacatuck. Also, if that redundant £40 mentioned in my mother Lord's Will do come, I do give that to this Child. And if by virtue of my mother Lord's will my other children doe receive or recover any part of the mony given by my said mother, then they shall each of them allow to this Child as much out of their portions each of them as they have out of the said mony bequeathed by my mother. My mind is that the £30 in mony of myne in the Hands of my Brother Mr. James Russell, and £20 in mony now in the house, be left in the hands of my wife, by her to be improved towards the bringing upp my son John in Learning (mainly abroad). I give unto my (only) sister Mrs. Ruth Willys £5, and to all her children 20s apeice. Also I give to each of the children of my sister Mrs. Mabel Russell 20s apeice. I give to my cousin Richard Lord, son of my Brother Richard Lord, fourty shillings. confiscated, I do dispose of my whole Estate as is there mentioned, only my Mind is that in Case the £12 be not paid to my wife (as is expressed), that so much of my Lands be sold (that may best be spared) as may enable the true performance of the yearly Annuity willed to her during her natural life. See File: The Petition of Mary Phelps, Relict to Joseph Phelps, of Symsbury, To the Honourable County Court now sitting at Hartford, Humbly sheweth: That your poor Petitioner, when shee married to Joseph Phelps, was a widow, And was left by her former husband in somewhat a comfortable Condition. And after shee was married to this man, carried a considerable Estate with her to the value of £40 or £50, but since his decease is left in a very helpless Condition; having but £6 allowed In Moveable estate, with the third of the Land for life, which will not yield above 20 Shillings per Annum, which is but a very small matter to maintain me, having a young child left By Joseph Phelps, my deceased husband, to be brought up out of it. Having therefore heard of the Readyness of this Court to hear the cry & to help the fatherless and the Widow, made me Bold humbly to move your honours that some more of the Estate may be settled upon me for the Bringing up of the Child. However, if the matter be difficult, that at least you would be pleased to order that I might have that mare and Cow that is left and was part of my own Estate which I carried with me when I married my late husband. Hoping your honours will take the matter into serious Consideration, I shall not farther enlarge, but, begging Gods presence with you, rest your humble Petitioner.

As it was presented by Susannah Sandford, relict of the sd. deceased, with her claim to the same by virtue of a deed of gift from her deceased Husband, dated 22 February, 1677, under which respects only she presented the sayd Estate to the apprisers, as she declared to us before we Inventoried the same.

Court Record, Page 133—1st September, 1687. Invt. Exhibited and accepted. The following petition was also presented by Phineas Willson, claiming certain of the above property in right of his wife (daughter of Nathaniel Sandford), in opposition to the claim of the Widow Sandford made by virtue of the above-mentioned "deed of gift:"

THE PETITION.

MAY IT PLEASE THIS HONOURED COURT: That I may not be esteemed as one that despiseth his Birthright or doth slight that which God, the Law of Nature and the Law of nations hath given to me, I crave the patience of this Honored Court to heare mee a word or two.

1st, In right of my Wife I am the only heire of my father Sanford, both by the Law of God and the Law of man. Where there is noe Son, but a daughter, the daughter is Heire (as in the case of Zelophehads daughters) hath been determined by God himselfe—Numbers, 36: 2d. And the practice of this honoured Court hath been answerable thereto. And the Law of the Colony, wch is soe well known I need not recite it, doth alsoe Order the same (fol. 36).

2ly, I being his heire in right of my wife, I ought to possess his Estate: the Conclusion necessarily follows the premises. And I doe not doubt but that the justice of this Honoured Court will put me in possession of that Estate my father hath Left, which I onely Crave. And that he hath Left an Estate, I neede not take paines to prove it. His Inventory now Exhibited in Court will declare the same. A little to Cleare this, I shall make it appear (1) that my father Sanford dyed possessed of an Estate in Lands, & (2) that this Land in Right of my Wife belongs to me.

1st. That my father dyed possessed of Lands Is proved (1) by the Inventory, (2nd) by the Records in the towne booke, and (3rd) by the Deeds of Lands in my Fathers hand, which if the honoured Court doe desire to see they may Comand. (2ly). That this Land belongs to mee in right of my Wife, What is first above written doth sufficiently prove, and therefore I need say noe more to itt. As for the Deeds my Mother presents to this honoured Court whereby Shee doth labour to disinherit my Wife, and mee in her right, I thanke her for her Love, and her Attorney for the Exercise of his Witts therein, although it be to little purpose, ffor I presume this Honoured Court is more just than to be taken with such Chaffy trash as The Attorney hath shakt out of his bag, thereby to be Led to take away our just Right. As to the Lands, what Lands are passed over to my mother by the Deed are there described, where they Lye and what they are, by their abutments and alsoe the number of Acres, precisely 26 Acres (be it more or Less), which is only that within those Abutments and noe more, as by the said Deed will appear.

2ly. My father had noe more Land to pass over to her or any other Person, and therefore hee was uncapable of Passing over any more to her at that time. And what itt hath pleased God, by his blessing upon my fathers Industry, to add to his Estate since, I humbly Conceive my Mother must produce another Deede of guift for, before shee Can Lay any Lawfull Claim to itt, ffor hee that pays mony before hee hath itt ought to be examined how hee Came by itt, and hee that gives Land before hee getts itt Cannott then perfect his deed of guift.

3ly. My father hee himselfe knew he had past over noe more to her, or else hee would not have made Sale of such a Considerable tract of Land to Mr Watson as hee hath done since this deed of guift.

4ly. Those expressions in the Deed that are soe Comprehensive, mentioning all his Estate or Substance, quick or dead, moveable or immoveable, in whatt place they shall or may be found, they are predicated upon his personall Estate onely, as may appear by the said Deed. Also, my mother well knows, if shee please to declare itt to this honoured Court, that my father in her hearing often said that hee would make my son Nathaniel his heire or Possessor of all his Lands, which hee would not have done had hee past away all his Lands (as my mother would have itt by this Deed) before. It is well knowne my father had a great Love for mother, as hee ought, and was willing to please her as far as hee might, but never had any purpose or thought expresst to disinherit his Daughter.

I shall say noe more. The Justice of my Case will Speak for ittselfe. I Leave it with this honoured Court to give a Righteous Judgment upon ye Case, and I shall Waite for itt. Onely I desire to remind the honoured Court of this, that my mother by the Deed is Cutt of from all Claims of thirds to my father's Estate by the Law title Dower, for shee is otherwise provided for by the Deed. I might insist that the Deed doth give my mother what household Goods and Stock was there in being when the Deede was made, and that what hath been rayased since belongs to mee; but I doe att Present Leave all to this honoured Court's Consideration, and doubt not but a Righteous and just Issue will be granted.

Your most humble servt,

PHINEAS WILLSON.

We the underwritten, being present wth Mrs Warham, who spent her last days in our family, she discourseing with us respecting her Estate, declared that she had formerly given her cousin Miles Marwine such a multitude that if she had Thousands she would not give him a penny. She did not know whether she had anything to give away. Disowned that she had any Will, and sayd further that her cousin Miles Marwin desired that she would make over her Estate to him. Witness: John Dunk, Acknowledged 29 Sept., 1699, before Danll Taylor, J. P.

No. 210. John Stedman, Atty., makes application to the Court, being agrieved in the Dist. of the Estate of Thomas Dunk, late decd., per order of Court at New London, 20 November, 1683, of the Estate of my late Hond. Father, T. D. This against Benjamin Lord, Adms. Estate of Lydia Post, late of Saybrook, Decd.

A Letter from Thomas Buckingham to the Court of Probate:

No. 211. The case depending between Tho: Dunke and Benjamin Lord, as administrators to the Estate of Lidia Post, late of Saybrook, Deceased, I suppose to be about the distribution of the Estate of Tho. Dunke, late of Say Brook, deceased. And concerning the case, it being now about seventeen years since It was acted, It cannot bee expected that I can bee very particular. But if anything I can say may be of any good use, I hold myself bound as a friend to truth and righteousness, and in obedience to authority, to offer it Impartially. The sd. Lydia Post was sometime the wife, afterwards the relict, of sd. Tho. Dunke, late of Say Brooke, and she was prudent and industrious in her place; nor have I heard of any Contentio between the husband Dunke & her. Shee brought with her five or six children, the eldest of them between fourteen and fifteen years of age. Hee, the sd. Dunke, had with her the Improvement of between four and five hundred pounds Estate (as I am informed), most of it real estate, the most of which was fit for Improvement. The improvement of the personal Estate was so much the more, because utensils in the house of the sd. Dunke were not very plentiful before he was married to the sd. Lidia. And thus they lived comfortably and credibly for the space of between foure and five years, and until the decease of sd. Dunke. I have understood from them both that they had descorsed of a bargain between them that their Estates should be distinct, so that which of them should happen to die first should have the disposal of the Estate formerly belonging to the dying one, their marriage notwithstanding. And the woman being in her apprehension like to dy first (being very sick), shee showed herselfe that it might be according to these proposals, and Committed so to a friend to use his wisdom and interest that it might bee so. But after her recovery her friend had none occasio to negotiate in thee affairs, nor did he hear more from her of the matter. When the man came to ly upo his death bed hee was put in minde to make some alteratio in his will, because hee now had a wife but had none when hee made his will. Hee answered that his wife was to have her owne Estate and he was not farther obliged, but at length granted that something was meete and necessary to have done, but being under greate extremity hee said hee could not do it then, nor was there found a time to do it in. By which I could understand there had been something verbally passed between them about a bargain, and unto which neither of them was unwilling when they thought of dying first, yet nothing brought to that head as would oblige the survivor to set down by It, no, not in the Cort of Conscientio. When the sd. Dunke was deceased his widdow came to mee as guardian to the person of the heir, and advised what shee should doe. I cannot give a particular account of the discourse that passed between us. The Issue was that shee would be contented if her owne Estates were returned and such a summe as I proposed out of the sd. Dunke his Estate to bee allowed to her as his relict. And I engaged to her that I would write to the Corte and endeavor it might bee so, and that her children might bee comfortably cloathed out of the Estate besides. But after this and Immediately before ye Corte (and of which I knew nothing untill after the Corte) shee did meete with other advice, which prevailed with her, to inquire after, and the Corte allowed her more. And what the Corte saw cause to allow her hath been received by her unto a small matter, which hath been made up to foure sons since her decease, as doth appear under their hands. When the Corte made that distribution, the Estate of ye sd. Dunke was represented greater by not a few hundreds of pounds than indeed It was, as hath been evidenced to the satisfactio of the Corte, and as Captn. Chapman is able to demonstrate, and is upon record in the case depending, I have been informed. This is the substance of what I do remember that may bee usefull in the case depending. And such of It as may bee thought testimonial I am ready to affirme unto you upon the highest assurance, as witness my hand ye 30 Septemr, 1700.

Page 156—(Vol. IV) 20 July, 1697: Will proven.

A. W. Parkhurst writes of John Cates, the first settler of Windham, as follows: "Windham's first settler was John Cates, an English exile. It is only known for a certainty that after a weary wandering everywhere, fearing the king, he came to Norwich, and thence through an untrodden forest to his final retreat. With a faithful negro attendant, whom he had purchased in Virginia, he dug a cellar in a rocky hillside a little north of the present village of Windham, and in that forlorn spot spent the long winter of 1688-9. That he had silver and gold, subsequent events fully proved; but, miles away from a human habitation, it could at first contribute little to their comfort. Game was abundant, and the faithful Joe was ever on the alert; so the winter wore away happily for the exiles.

"The proprietors of the tract that had afforded an asylum for the English exile began to take measures for its immediate settlement. Cates came forth from his hiding place, purchased land, and, with his servant, built the first house in the township.

"Both Cates and the negro were buried near the place of their concealment, and a rough stone, rudely initialed, marked for a time the spot. When the first cemetery was laid out, the body of Cates was removed thither, and a stone, ample for the times, bore the following inscription:

In Memory of
Mr. John Cates.
He was a gentleman, born in England,
And the first settler in the Town of Windham.
By his last
Will and Testament
He gave a
Generous legacy
To ye first Church of Christ in Windham
In plate, and a generous
Legacy in land
For ye support of ye poor,
And another
Legacy for ye support
Of ye school
In said town forever.
He died
In Windham,
July ye 16th, A. D.
1697."
