James Avery's Will

In the name of God Amen — James Avery of the county of Nicholas and state of Kentucky being in a low state of health but perfectly sound in mind memory and reflecting the uncertainty of this life do make and ordain this and this only my last will and testament. First I recommend my soul to the mercy of God my body to be decently buried at the direction of Executors hereafter mentioned and all my legal debts to be punctually paid then I give to my daughter Polly one cow & heifer. The Calf I now have a bed & bedding and other articles household & housekeeping at the direction of her mother. I do also give

Give my daughter Dorcas one horse and cow and heifer a bed and bedding and such small articles household & housekeeping at the direction of her mother also I also give to my son Robert the field he claims on my place and lately to this more and occupy it then I give Olivia wife Catharine my plantation whereon I now live during her widowhood for her own support and the support of my two youngest daughters till they are of age or are married I also give my son wife one cow and calf I lately got the sheep and hogs household and kitchen furniture farming utensils except one plough. I give to my son Robert then at the death of my wife all the movable property I give her shall be sold and equally divided between all my daughters then at her death to wit the death of my wife. I give and bequeath to my son Robert all my plantation whereon I now live with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging to him and to his lawfull heirs for ever but if my son Robert should die without lawful issue then and in that case I allow the plantation I give him to be sold at his death and the price equally divided between all my daughters but remember that my two youngest daughters shall be sch. sold and have a comfortable support from my plantation until they are of age or are married. I also allow my son Robert all my cash notes bonds and book accounts and do also make and appoint him the whole and sole Executor of this my last will and testament, and utterly revoke disannul and disallow all other wills Testaments and confirm this no other to be my last will and testament — In witness hereof I have set my hand and seal this 16th Day of June in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and Eighteen — James Avery (Seal)

Signed sealed and publickly acknowledged by the above James Avery to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who have here subscribed our names as witnesses in the presence of the testator —
