Dance Jolly's Will

In the name of God amen. I Dance Jolly of the county of Nicholas and State of Kentucky, being weak in body, but of a sound and perfect mind and memory blessed be Almighty God for the same, considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in the manner and form following, viz: First after my decease my body to be decently buried, and I consider my land to be my principal resource to defray my funeral expenses, debts and just debts, the balance of my personal estate I dispose of as follows, viz: That my executors do make a true inventory of my personal estate and sell so much thereof as will be sufficient to defray my funeral expenses and just debts. Second I do will and bequeath to my eldest daughter Jane Hearn my eldest son John Jolly, the children of Thomas Boyd, my son James Jolly and daughter Elizabeth Boyd the issue of the Dolman early. Third I do will and bequeath to my daughter Martha Jolly one bay mare saddle and bridle, little spinning wheel, bed and bedstead. Fourth I do will and bequeath unto my son Thomas Jolly one black mare. Fifth I do will and bequeath unto my son Samuel Jolly one bay horse called bob. Sixth I do will and ordain that my executors, shall sell the remainder of my personal estate except so much thereof as they shall judge to be necessary for my unmarried children to keep house with and work the farm. Seventh I do will and bequeath the money arising from said sale to my three youngest daughters to be equally divided among them, the money when collected to be loaned at interest until they come of age. Eighth I do will and ordain that the property thus allotted for housekeeping and farming shall accrue to my three youngest daughters to be equally divided as they come of age. And I do further will and ordain that my executors shall not be accountable for any of said property which may die or be otherwise lost until said daughters come of age: and further I will and bequeath to my eldest son John Jolly fifty acres of land adjoining the improvement which he now occupies, and according to the bond which I have given him: I also will and bequeath to my son James Jolly fifty acres of land adjoining John's fifty acres and binding the Widow and Proctor lands. I will and bequeath to my son Thomas Jolly fifty acres of land in the North West corner of my plantation adjoining Proctor and Hopkins. I also will and bequeath to my son Samuel Jolly the remainder of my plantation, the land to be divided between Thomas and Samuel to be run as to leave my dwelling house in Samuel's part. Lastly I hereby constitute and appoint my son John Jolly and Hugh Wally Executors of this my last will and testament: hereby revoking all former wills. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this eighteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.
