Alex Calaway Will

In the name of God Amen I Alexander Calaway of Madison County state of Kentucky being weak in body but of perfect mind and memory and calling to mind the uncertainty of this mortal state for the prevention of future controversy and for the more equitable and easy disposal of the portion of the goods of this life which it hath pleased God to vest upon me I do make and publish this my last will and testament in manner & form following

Imprimis I recommend my immortal soul to God who gave it to me and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in a decent Christian manner

Item I give and bequeath unto my four daughters Polly Calaway Elizabeth Calaway Lucy Calaway & Martha Calaway the sum of one dollar each to be paid them out of my estate after my decease

Item I give and bequeath unto my son William Calaway the sum of one dollar to be paid him out of my estate after my decease

Item I give and bequeath unto my son Robert Calaway one acre of land on which he the said Robert Calaway now lives with my consent and approbation he planted with apples also one quarter of a acre in the meadow. Their heirs and assigns forever

Item I give and bequeath unto my son Thomas Calaway all that tract of land upon which I now live adjoining the lands of Thomas Calaway belonging to him his heirs and assigns forever with all the live stock of what kind soever belonging unto me with all the farming utensils of every kind and all my household & kitchen furniture belonging unto me I may possess at the date of the payment of the aforesaid specified legacies of land and surplus money and I do hereby constitute and appoint my said son Thomas Calaway sole executor of this my will and testament hereby revoking all formal wills by me made. In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twelfth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen
