I Richard Elliott of the Town of Hartford and State of Kentucky being of sound mind and disposing memory and recollecting the uncertainty of life and knowing that it is appointed for all men to die, do in the purpose of regulating my worldly affairs, make ordain & declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking all former ones which may have been made by me. As a testimony of the deep and heartfelt affection which I entertain for my wife, and my full and entire confidence in her anxiety for and devotion to the interests and prosperity of our children, I give and bequeath unto her my beloved wife Emiley Elliott all the real and personal property of every description which I possess, during her natural life, for her own support and for the purpose of raising and educating our children, and at her decease to be, together with its income equally divided among all my children. But should she be fail to get herself and my memory as to marry again then and in that event it is my will that all of my property descend to & vest in our children and be equally divided among them, and that her control over my property cease.

Further it is my will and desire that should it be deemed useful or expedient by my Executor hereinafter named to sell and convey any of my real property for the purpose of settling or improving my estate that they do and is hereby authorized to sell and convey the same.

In the event of my death before my goods are sold out it is my desire that my Executor without waiting to make proof of this my will proceed to dispose of the same by her self or agent.

It is further my desire that my Executrix be not required to execute Bond in the county court with security. That is that she be not required to give security — and also that she be not required to return a sale bill, but only an Inventory and appraisement.

I more over vest my Executrix with full power and authority to settle my estate on principles of right & justice — the payment of all my just debts being a primary consideration and to the settlement of which all my effects are to be first applied and directed. After the settlement of my debts I will and desire that my wife so long as she remains unmarried, shall use and apply my effects according to her own best discretion for her support and the maintainance and Education of our children. Lastly I do appoint my wife Emiley Elliott sole executrix of this my last will and testament confiding every thing to her. Signed sealed published and declared as my only last will and testament this 13th day of November 1833
