In the name of God amen I Thompson Briggs of Warren County and State of Kentucky being in sound mind and memory but weak with bodily infirmities and knowing the uncertainty of this life do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following. Item I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Briggs my dearest and only wife for her use and at her disposal during her natural life the two hundred acre farm on which I now live together with with all my negroes house hold furniture, plantation utensils and stock of every kind except such of it as shall be otherwise disposed of in the body of this my last will. Item I give and bequeath to my son James T Briggs a two hundred survey of land lying in the Barren between my home tract and Major Jno Lovings adjoining each tract and entered in my own name. also a good horse bridle, saddle, feather bed and one third part equalle to quallity and quantity of a two hundred acre survey in timber lying in the knobs on both sides of the old road leading from the place where the Widow Turner now lives to Col. Ferris boro. Item I give to my son John M Briggs a two hundred acre survey lying in the Barren between my home tract and Skelton Mill entered in the name of Gladden Grim also a good horse bridle saddle feather bed and one third part of a tract of land lying in timber entered in the name of Thompson Briggs and described before in James Briggs legacy. Item I Give to my son William Briggs a two hundred acre survey of land adjoining my home tract on the north west and extending to John Thompson survey on which he lives but should any dispute arise and end with the loss of this tract of land then William is to have a four hundred acre survey which I hold in Christian County but should it not be lost then the land lying in Christian shall be otherwise disposed of. I also give to William a good horse, bridle, saddle, feather bed and one third part of a tract of land lying in the timber and before described in James & John Briggs legacies Also eighty acres of land adjoining James T Briggs survey. Item I give to my son Benjamin Briggs at the death of his mother the tract of land on which we now live also fifty acres of land for timber which I purchased of Willis Boice and is held by his mother also a good horse bridle and saddle & feather bed. As to the remaining part of my family viz my daughters whom I wish to place equal with each other for their benefit
