being duly sworn doth depose and say and each for himself doth deposeth and saith that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of A. J. Barnhill, that the said A. J. Barnhill in presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown aforesaid and which bears date of the 4th day of December 1882 and the deponent further saith that the said A. J. Barnhill the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing his name aforesaid, declare that said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last will and testament and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at his request and in the presence of said testator.

And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid and the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto as aforesaid the said A. J. Barnhill was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent.

And further these deponents say not.

I, Joseph R. Kemp of the county of Bladen and state of of North Carolina being of sound mind and memory but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following to wit:

First, I give and devise one hundred acres of land more or less, being a part of the McDugald land, and adjoining the lands of E. F. Kemp, deceased, and David Clark to be divided into five equal shares and one share thereof to be allotted to each of my children Elizabeth L. Buie, Eliza A. Kemp, Emma I. Kemp, Jane V. McCall and the children of E. F. Kemp, deceased, Joseph R, Mary A, Flora E, Isaac N, Lena H, and A J Kemp their heirs and assigns.

Second, it is my will and desire that the forty eight acres of land adjoining the lands of Archd Campbell, deceased, N. J. McKay decd, and Emilia A Kemp decd, be sold and the proceeds of said sale be equally divided between my children Mary A. McDonald and James I Kemp, their executors, administrators and assigns share and share alike equally.

Third, I give and devise unto Fanny Kemp her heirs and assigns forty acres of land adjoining the above forty-eight acres of land.

In witness whereof I, the said Joseph R. Kemp do hereunto set my hand and seal this 30th day of August A.D. 1882.

Signed sealed, published and declared by the said Joseph R. Kemp to be his last will and testament in the presence of us who at his request and in his presence do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto

(signed) Joseph R. Kemp.
