A. Wolf's Will

Examined

In the name of God amen. I Abraham Wolf of Allegheny County, do make this my last will and testament as follows, that is to say My desire is to be buried with as little expense as decency will permit and all my debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after my decease as conveniently may be. And I give all my [illegible] tools, implements and [illegible] whatever lying & being in Allegheny County with the appurtenances unto my beloved wife [illegible] for and during the time she may remain my widow and use & dispose of the rents & profits that may accrue from the same [illegible] for her use and support as she may think proper. And I give and devise unto my beloved wife all my estate [illegible] and I give & devise and bequeath unto my said wife all my household furniture [illegible] at the time of my decease for her own absolute use & [illegible] she may continue my widow. [illegible] which consists of bonds and [illegible] the [illegible] together with all the fixtures and [illegible] bed and stead, clock, horses, cattle [illegible] of all kinds belonging thereto to my [illegible] to the [illegible] forever. [illegible] son or daughter, that is to say, if there is any child or issue of the marriage of myself and my beloved wife, I give and bequeath unto my [illegible] brother George W. Wolf my [illegible] sedan. And I give and bequeath unto William [illegible] my wagon and [illegible] and all of my farming utensils belonging to my farm. I give and bequeath my young horse now being three years old unto Isaac Wolf the son of Jacob Wolf (Miller & Jacob) I give and bequeath unto my dear sister Eliza R. Arrington my kitchen cupboard and kitchen table.

In witness whereof, to this my last will and testament, I have set my hand and seal the 3rd day of July 1870

Signed, sealed & delivered in the presence of Samuel Wilson, Philip M. Craft
