Robinson Will
Exam

I Elizabeth Robinson of the County of Allegheny, do make and publish, this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me at any time heretofore made.—

1st. It is my Will and desire, that all my just debts and General expenses be paid first out of my Estate.—

2nd. It is my Will and desire, that my Executor sell all my personal property, except what may be hereafter specifically devised.— 3rd. I Will and bequeath to my Daughter Elizabeth Johnson the sum of Five Hundred dollars, and my Woman to be held and enjoyed by her, exclusive of any Control whatever of her Husband, who has long since abandoned her, and to this end, I hereby appoint William Scott a Trustee, to hold the said fund, and pay over the same, as it may be needed, for her maintenance and support.—

4th. I Will and bequeath to my Grand Daughter Sarah A. Robinson, One Bed, bed Stead and furniture.—

5th. I Will and bequeath to my Grand Daughter Mary Johnston, One Bed, bed Stead and furniture

6th. I Will and bequeath to my Son James S. Robinson One Bed, and five dollars in money.—

7th. I Will and bequeath to my Son Robert Robinson fifty dollars.— 8th. I Will and bequeath to my Son William Robinson, the residue of my Estate of every kind & description whatsoever.— And lastly, I do hereby appoint William Robinson the Executor of this my last Will & Testament

In Testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 25th day of August 1854.

Signed & acknowledged in the presence of us, who attested the same, in the presence of the Testator & in the presence of each other

Allegheny County Court October Term 1854.

An instrument of Writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Robinson dec'd. was this day presented to the Court for probat, and was proved by the oath of Chas. N. Hammond and Francis Pagne, the subscribing witnesses thereto, and the same is ordered to be recorded. To which James Robinson objected which objection being argued, was overruled by the Court. Thereupon William Robinson the Executor therein named, who made oath to the contents, and entered into bond in the penalty of $1500 — with Christian Kinzig his security, conditioned according to law.

Letters Testamentary is granted the said William Robinson in due form.
