County being very sick and weak in [illegible] in perfect health of body but (praised) of perfect mind and memory thanks be given unto God calling unto mind the mortality of my body and knowing that is appointed for all men to die do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament that is to say principally and first of all give and recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God that gave it and my body I recommend to the earth to be buried in decent Christian burial at the discretion of my Executors nothing doubting but at the general resurrection I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God. And touching such worldly [illegible] wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life I give demise and dispose of the same in the following manner and form. First I give and bequeath to William Lane and Unity Rose my beloved Son and Daughter one Negro Woman named Nancy to be divided between them two also I give unto my beloved Daughter Frankey Lane one female Negro girl named Jane during her life if she has a lawful heir of her body begotten and if not it is to revert to William Lane and Unity Rose also I give all that I have or may have to William Lane and Unity Rose and Frankey Lane except my clothes they are to be equally divided between all my daughters and daughters in-law. William Lane and Unity Rose whom I do hereby constitute make and ordain the sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament [illegible] my hand and seal
