The present volume, (number twenty-four,) of the NEW HAVEN DIRECTORY, contains 10,965 names, being only 9 more than last year. The changes have been as numerous as ever, and the new names about the same as last year, 2,056.

A large number having joined the army, the names would of necessity have fallen off, had we not inserted as far as practicable, those who have enlisted and yet consider this their home, and would return here if they lived to leave the military service. That they have gone to resist the traitors who have ungratefully risen against the government is no reason why their names should be erased from the roll of our residents, but rather a reason for their especial entry upon it as a legion of honor. With our best exertions, we must have missed a large number of this worthy class. But probably the majority of those whom we have not found are minors, and would not have been entered on the Directory had they been here; so that their absence does not diminish the legitimate names of the Directory to an amount near equal to their numbers.

Although (notwithstanding the awful war that still convulses the world,) the business of the city has warranted a large amount of building, yet there have not been any structures of a public character completed except the City Hall, which was ready for use some time last fall. We have procured an elegant Wood Engraving of this fine edifice, which we insert in the Directory, opposite page 54. It was executed by LOCKWOOD SANFORD, in the best style of that accomplished artist. We have inserted on page 435 a directory of the City Hall, containing a numerical statement of the offices and uses to which each room is appropriated.

We are happy to know that the articles, "In and Around New Haven," have been received with favor. They are continued this year, and the article of last year is reprinted with some corrections.

We have this year introduced as a new feature, a list of firms and the members composing them, which will be found of service to the public generally, as a matter of business reference. This was determined upon by the solicitation of several gentlemen, after the printing was nearly completed, and in consequence of inserting this list, we are some two or three days later in our issue than we were last year.

The great advance in every kind of merchandise, especially materials for printing, assures us that we cannot furnish the Directory at the late price, and meet the expenses of its publication. We are therefore reluctantly compelled, in order to make the work self-sustaining, to advance the price to $2.

With acknowledgments to patrons, we hope our work will prove mutually beneficial.

J. H. B.

(SUCCESSORS TO CITY SAVINGS BANK,)

286 CHAPEL STREET,

CORNER OF ORANGE,

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

DEPOSITS Received Daily from 9 A. M., to 3 P. M.

INTEREST COMMENCES ON THE DAY OF DEPOSIT.—TAXES ON MONEY DEPOSITED PAID BY THIS BANK.

Under the General Banking Law passed by the Legislature of 1850, the City Savings Bank was organized. The law of 1850 having been repealed by the Legislature of 1859, the Bank Commissioners of 1859-60, recommended that the City Savings Bank should receive a special Charter. In pursuance of that recommendation, the Bank Committee of the Legislature of 1860, unanimously recommended that a special Charter be granted to the Townsend City Savings Bank, with "power to receive all monies now on deposit in the City Savings Bank of New Haven," which recommendation, granting the Charter to the Townsend City Savings Bank, passed both Senate and House of Representatives unanimously, and having been signed by the Governor, became a Law.

The Townsend Savings Bank,

HAS TWO DEPARTMENTS, VIZ.:

Sixpenny Department and General Department.

In the "Sixpenny Department" deposits are received from Five Cents to Five Dollars, and is intended for Children and Persons of small means, who can make their deposits at any time, and receive them upon demand.

In the "General Department" deposits are received from Five Dollars to the extent authorized by their Charter.

IN AND AROUND NEW HAVEN.

Friday, April 23, 1638, a company of expatriated Englishmen sailed into New Haven harbor, and penetrating up the West Creek as far as the foot of College street, landed themselves on a rising knoll, about fifty feet east of its junction with George street. Ancient men are remembered, who in their boyhood saw a great oak tree, which threw its broad shade over this gentle eminence, and beneath this tree the gospel was preached in New Haven for the first time, by a self-exiled clergyman of the Church of England, to a company of fellow exiles from the city of London and its vicinity, and from the counties of Hereford and Yorkshire. The colony was the wealthiest in New England. Its leading men were merchants, brought up, some of them, to the Baltic trade, and others to that of the Wine Islands and the Mediterranean. The chiefest among them was Theophilus Eaton, whom they made their Governor, and wisely kept so till he died. It is a singular honor to his memory that not a line in the recorded history of his times, nor a tradition from those among whom he dwelt, indicate him as having been other than a sagacious, wise and good man. The religious head of the feeble Commonwealth was John Davenport, late non-conformist rector of Coleman street, London, who fled from the tyranny of Archbishop Laud, as Laud possibly would have fled from him had Davenport chanced to have been Primate of England. These men, with those that followed them, made our city what it is. They laid it out regularly into squares; the central one they reserved for public uses. They established our municipal institutions much as they remain to the present day. They organized a militia, and they taxed the people for the support of free schools. Few memorials of these Englishmen now remain. We know where a few of them lived, and where a few more of them are buried. Eaton built himself a stately house in Elm street on the north side, just below its junction with Orange ; opposite him Davenport erected his house. Tradition says, he ordered the train band away from their drill, to aid in the laying of his cellar wall. At any rate, the same cellar remains beneath a newer house, just as it stood two hundred years ago. The first church edifice was built not far from the site of its successor, the present Center Church. Thirty years later, when the first had nearly rotted down, a second was built not far from the position occupied by the liberty pole. In the process of decay, it became necessary to build a third, this time of brick, which stood not far from where the first one had been. Around the original church edifice were laid to rest, one after another, the bodies of the exiled men and women who had come far from their kindred dust. For almost a century and three quarters, no other burial place than this was known for the successive generations of New Haven. Irregular in shape, neglected and overgrown with weeds, filled with coarse sand stone slabs of humble height, with an occasional monument of more pretension, it yet linked the past with the present ; youthful feet trod gently among the graves of their fathers ; the roughly chiseled angels above, and the "bodies of the saints" beneath, as they were daily taught in their catechism, "remaining united with Christ till the resurrection," took reverent hold of their sympathies and their faith. The broad tablets to Eaton, to Stiles, to Roger Sherman, and to others of eminent desert, taught the triple lesson of respect for the past, honor for learning, patriotism and public worth, and humility, in the presence of the common lot of all. In 1821, a vote of the city directed the removal of all the monuments from this venerable grave-yard. Whoever wishes to find the stones that once marked the resting places of the ancient dead of New Haven, can seek them by entering the cemetery in Grove street, through a gateway whose sculptured symbols a heathen from Thebes three thousand years ago would recognize, but which no early christian could, and passing to a remote part of the ground on the left, find how small a space suffices to unite what are thought to be the demands of economy with those of decency.

YALE COLLEGE.

The noblest monument to the wisdom of the fathers is found in the provision made among us for education. Yale College ranks third in age and first in number of undergraduate members, among the multitude of colleges which public policy or private munificence has spread over the country.

The college grounds occupy one eighteenth part of the original town plot of New Haven, including, quite accidentally, the birth place of Elihu Yale, from whom the College has its name. He was, however, in no sense the founder of the College. That honor belongs to the Congregational clergy of the State, who subsequently recognized the liberality of Gov. Yale, by bestowing upon their Institution his name. The first college building was of wood, and stood near the corner of Chapel and College streets. The present buildings are fourteen in number, and were erected as follows: South College was begun in 1793; the old Chapel, now the Athenæum, next north, in 1761; South Middle in 1750; the Lyceum and North Middle in 1803; the Chapel in 1824; the North College in 1822, and Divinity College in 1835. This completes the list of buildings on College street. Those in the rear of the Colleges proper, were erected as follows: The old Dining Hall, now the Laboratory, was built in 1782; the new Dining Hall, now used as Lecture Room below, and for the Mineralogical and Geological Cabinet above, in 1819; the Library in 1842; the Trumbull Gallery in 1831, and Alumni Hall in 1852.

The objects in and about the College, which usually attract the attention of strangers, are the following:

TRUMBULL GALLERY.

Col. John Trumbull, a son of the wise Governor of Connecticut during the revolutionary war, was early in life on the staff of General Washington. His military hopes, however, he soon abandoned, to cultivate his taste in art. Soon after the close of the war, he devoted himself to the work of perpetuating on canvass, the great historical events of the revolutionary struggle. The original paintings from which were prepared those that ornament the rotunda of the National Capitol, were deposited here by Col. Trumbull in 1832, together with a considerable number of other paintings by himself. It is greatly to be regretted, however, that the Gallery has no copy of his finest piece, "The Sortie of Gibraltar." A number of paintings by other artists, fill the south room of the Gallery; the north one being devoted exclusively to those by Col. Trumbull. The piece of sculpture, "Jeptha and his Daughter," by Augur, a self-instructed artist; a pen and ink sketch of himself, made by Major Andre, the night previous to his execution; and the sword and sash worn by General Wooster at the time he was killed at Ridgefield, will attract the attention of visitors.

GRADUATE'S HALL.

The lower story of this college building is used for the public examinations of the undergraduates and of candidates for admission to College. The College dinners are also given here. The very elegant rooms above are occupied by the two literary societies, the Linonian and the Brothers in Unity. The portraits on the wall of the Examination Hall, are those of gentlemen connected with the history of the College, either as benefactors or instructors.

THE LIBRARY.

The collection of books in the Library building is about 65,000 volumes. Of late years much attention has been paid by the College authorities to the increase of the library, but the limited funds at their disposal, will for many years forbid anything like completeness in almost all its departments. The collection of books in the two wings of the library building, belong to the literary societies of the College.

THE MINERALOGICAL AND GEOLOGICAL CABINET:

In the upper story of the building, erected originally for a dining hall, is regarded as one of the finest collections in existence. At the beginning of this century, all the minerals belonging to the College were taken by the now venerable Prof. Silliman, in a small candle box to Philadelphia, to be designated and classified. A few years later the collection was increased by such additions as were gathered personally by Prof. S., in England and Scotland. In 1807 the College purchased, for a thousand dollars, a cabinet of about two thousand specimens, which had been procured in London by Mr. Benjamin D. Perkins. In 1800, a portion of the valuable collection made in Europe by Col. Gibbs, was deposited here for exhibition, and two years later the remainder of his cabinet was added to it. In 1825 the College became the owners of these minerals, at the cost of $25,000, a sum greatly below their intrinsic worth. The minerals procured from Col. Gibbs, were chiefly made up from three private collections,—that purchased in Switzerland, from Count Razamousky, a Russian gentleman who had devoted many years at Lausanne, to mineralogical pursuits,—that made in France, by M. Gigot d' Orcy, one of the farmers general under Louis XVI, who spent forty years in its formation, and was finally guillotined,—and that of the Count de Bournon, which consisted mostly of English Minerals, and of gems from the East Indies, the latter of which were derived chiefly from the duplicates of the celebrated Grenville collection, afterwards bought by the British Museum. Very considerable additions have since been made to the Cabinet, and the collection is now every way creditable to the College.

Strangers can obtain admittance to the various public buildings of the College, except the Library, at all hours of the day, by applying at the Treasurer's office, in the Trumbull Gallery. The library is open daily from 10 o'clock in the morning to 1 o'clock noon.

THE SHEFFIELD SCIENTIFIC SCHOOL.

The building occupied by the Sheffield Scientific School, or Scientific Department of Yale College, stands at the head of College street, two blocks north of the other College buildings. This department is devoted to practical and scientific education, classical studies being omitted from the course. Instruction is here given with the aid of well-furnished laboratories and ample collections in Chemistry, Mineralogy, Geology, Engineering, and other branches of practical science. A more general course—embracing Mathematical and Natural Science, Literature, Modern Languages, History, and Commercial Law—has recently been established, and meets the demand of the public for a more exclusively practical course of collegiate education. The fine building occupied by the department is a gift of Joseph E. Sheffield, Esq., to Yale College. Three Professorships have been endowed, and the institution liberally supplied with the apparatus of instruction by the same gentleman. The interior of the building is elegantly finished and painted in fresco.

The rooms of the engineering section will be found in the main building. The west wing is occupied by the chemical and metallurgical laboratories, and the east wing as a Museum of Practical Science. The museum contains full suites of ores of the most important metals, specimens of the rocks in which they are found, models of furnaces, and samples of fluxes and furnace products, the whole designed to illustrate the production of metals from their ores.

THE MEDICAL COLLEGE

Is in York street, on the west side, between Chapel and Crown streets.

The large brick building in the rear of the Colleges, and on the west side of High street, is

THE COLLEGE GYMNASIUM.

The arrangements for bowling, and other kinds of exercise, are thought to be very superior.

The College has now no public commons for the students, they all taking their meals in boarding houses, or with private families. The change, which was made several years since, has proved to be a wise one. Insubordination, coarse habits, and a disposition to find fault with their food, occasioned continual annoyance to the College authorities, and led to the satisfactory experiment of dispensing wholly with a boarding department in the College. In 1742, the following order for the students rations was issued: "Ordered, that the steward shall provide the commons for the scholars as follows, viz.,—for breakfast, one loaf of bread for four, which shall weigh one pound; for dinner for four, one loaf of bread as aforesaid, two and a half pounds of beef, veal or mutton, or one and three-quarter pounds salt pork, about twice a week in the summer time, one quart of beer, twopenny worth of sauce, (vegetables); for supper for four, two quarts of milk, and one loaf of bread, when milk can conveniently be had, and when it cannot, then apple pie, which shall be made of one and three-fourth pounds dough, one-quarter pound hog's fat, two ounces sugar, and half a peck apples."

The following extracts from the College laws in force a century ago, show how great a change has taken place in that time, in the usages of College life:

"It being the duty of the Seniors to teach Freshmen the laws, usages and customs of the College, to this end they are empowered to order the whole Freshman class, or any particular member of it, to appear, in order to be instructed or improved, at such time and place as they shall appoint; when and where every Freshman shall attend, answer all proper questions, and behave decently. The Seniors, however, are not to detain a Freshman more than five minutes after study-bell, without special order from the President, Professor, or Tutor.

"The Freshmen, as well as all other undergraduates, are to be uncovered, and are forbidden to wear their hats (unless in stormy weather,) in the front door-yard of the President's or Professor's house, or within ten rods of the person of the President, eight rods of the Professor, and five rods of a Tutor.

"The Freshmen are forbidden to wear their hats in College-yard, (except in stormy weather, or when they are obliged to carry something in their hands,) until May vacation; nor shall they afterwards wear them in College or Chapel.

"No Freshman shall wear a gown, or walk with a cane, or appear out of his room without being completely dressed, and with his hat; and whenever a Freshman either speaks to a superior, or is spoken to by one, he shall keep his hat off until he is bidden to put it on. A Freshman shall not play with any members of an upper class, without being asked; nor is he permitted to use any acts of familiarity with them, even in study-time.

“In case of personal insult, a Junior may call up a Freshman and reprehend him. A Sophomore in like case must obtain leave from a Senior, and then he may discipline a Freshman, not detaining him more than five minutes, after which the Freshman may retire, even without being dismissed, but must retire in a respectful manner.

“Freshmen are obliged to perform all reasonable errands for any superior, always returning an account of the same to the person who sent them. When called, they shall attend, and give a respectful answer; and when attending on their superior, they are not to depart until regularly dismissed. They are responsible for all damage done to anything put into their hands by way of errand. They are not obliged to go for the undergraduates in study time, without permission obtained from the authority; nor are they obliged to go for a graduate out of the yard in study-time. A Senior may take a Freshman from a Sophomore, a Bachelor from a Junior, and a Master from a Senior. None may order a Freshman in one play-time to do an errand in another.

“When a Freshman is near a gate or door belonging to College or College yard, he shall look around and observe whether any of his superiors are coming to the same; and if any are coming within three rods, he shall not enter without a signal to proceed. In passing up or down stairs, or through an entry or any other narrow passage, if a Freshman meets a superior, he shall stop and give way, leaving the most convenient side—if on the stairs, the bannister side. Freshmen shall not run in College yard, or up or down stairs, or call to any one through a College window. When going into the chamber of a superior, they shall knock at the door, and shall leave it as they find it, whether open or shut. Upon entering the chamber of a superior, they shall not speak until spoken to; they shall reply modestly to all questions, and perform their messages decently and respectfully. They shall not tarry in a superior's room after they are dismissed, unless asked to sit. They shall always rise whenever a superior enters or leaves the room where they are, and not sit in his presence until permitted.

"These rules are to be observed not only about College, but everywhere else within the limits of the City of New Haven."

TERMS AND VACATIONS.

The public Commencement is held on the last Thursday of July in each year. The regular examination for admission to College, takes place on Monday and Tuesday preceding Commencement, beginning at 9 o'clock A. M., on Monday, and at 8 o'clock A. M., on Tuesday. Candidates for admission assemble at Graduates Hall. Those who present themselves for examination at a subsequent period, meet on the Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the first College term, which begins seven weeks from Commencement day.

Watering Places and Summer Resorts.

SAVIN ROCK,

Four miles below the city, on the West side, is a bluff of rocks which takes its name from the savin, or evergreen shrub, which formerly abounded here. Immediately adjacent to the rock is the finest beach for bathing to be found on the Connecticut shore. From time immemorial this has been a place of popular resort for parties from the country. A small boarding house was erected here some years since, which passed through the hands of successive occupants, into the possession of the present proprietor, Mr. E. A. Upson. With a natural genius for the business, Mr. Upson saw the capabilities of the Rock, and that it might be made one of the most attractive places of summer resort in the country. By a liberal expenditure of money, and by the exercise of great good taste, he has succeeded in uniting at Savin Rock, the conveniences and luxuries which are looked for in a first class hotel, with the special attractions of a watering place. The house has accommodations for about two hundred boarders. A considerable number of his guests are made up of families who spend the summer at the Rock. The table arrangements are admirable. All who visit the house unite in pronouncing this department unexcelled in the country. A shooting gallery, billiard tables, bowling alleys, shuffle board, rowing, sailing, fishing, bathing, double and single carriages, saddle horses, &c., present an agreeable variety of resources both for his regular guests and for occasional visitors. Mr. Upson's charges are $2,50 per day for transient boarders, and according to the rooms they occupy, for regular guests. The facilities for reaching Savin Rock are unusually good. The New York and New Haven Railroad passes within no great distance from the house, the cars stopping four times a day at the West Haven Depot. Omnibusses run every two hours from the city. A telegraph office connects the house with all parts of the country. The grounds pertaining to the house embrace about twenty acres, including one of the finest kitchen gardens in the State. The grove continues to be a favorite resort for select picnic parties, a trifling charge being usually made for the use of the grounds and tables. The pleasant village of West Haven is about a mile distant, having a Congregational and an Episcopal Church, in both of which, visitors to the Rock are received with attention.

Summer Resorts on the East Side of the Harbor.

GROVE HOUSE.

The Grove House is in the immediate vicinity of the Light House, and indeed, was built in consequence of the prohibition by the Government of the keepers of Light Houses becoming also keepers of houses of public entertainment. The situation is a delightful one, at the entrance of the harbor. The house is surrounded by a beautiful grove, the fishing is abundant.

There is a ten-pin alley for the recreation of the guests, about thirty of whom can be accommodated by the proprietor, Mr. George Nettleton. His charges are moderate for board, being but $1.00 per day. The house usually opens on the first of June. Tables are erected in the woods for the convenience of picnic parties, who visit the place in large numbers, and who are expected to pay nothing for the use of the tables and grounds. Mr. Nettleton has ample accommodations for horses.

Leaving the city either by the way of Fair Haven, or Tomlinson's Bridge, a charming drive of five or six miles can be found by skirting the harbor on the road which leads to the Light House. The view from the different hills you pass, commands the entire basin in which the town of New Haven lies, as well as a fine water prospect of the Harbor and Sound. About a mile from the city the highest eminence on the left is Fort Wooster, which was built in 1814 by the spontaneous efforts of citizens of New Haven, aided by large companies of men from the neighboring towns, to repel an anticipated attack from the British fleet which held possession of the Sound. The fort was never garrisoned, and indeed, was only designed for use as earthworks in some temporary emergency. The view from Fort Wooster will amply repay the slight labor of the ascent. A hundred or two yards north of the entrance to the fort, lies the ancient Indian burying ground. Nothing remains to indicate the place, except the slight depressions in the turf which mark the graves of the once powerful Quinnipiacks. Bodies have occasionally been dug up by the curious. They are found buried in a reclining position, facing the rising sun, at the depth of only three or four feet from the surface. Wampum, beads and hatchets, are found to have sometimes been buried with the dead. A mile or more below Fort Wooster, on the water, lies Fort Hale, belonging to the United States, which is the only protection ever furnished by the Government to the largest city and the most important seaport in Connecticut. During the war of 1812 it was garrisoned by a few men, but it has long ceased to be regarded as having any value for military purposes. Two or three graceful villa residences on this road will attract the attention of the stranger. The first belongs to the family of the late William K. Townsend, Esq., and is beautifully situated on the left of the road, about two and a half miles from the city. The other two are at Morris' Cove, below Fort Hale. The first belongs to J. Albert Lum, Esq., and the next is the summer residence of C. Maverick Parker, Esq., of New York. The Morris House, at the Cove, is in the habit of receiving a few visitors in the summer months. Accommodations for a limited number can usually be found in several of the other private houses in the vicinity.

THE LIGHT HOUSE.

This spot was selected by Government early in the present century, for the erection of a Light House, greatly needed here, as a guide to mariners. The first building erected in 1804, was a small affair, and gave place in 1846, to the present edifice, seventy-three feet in height. It is furnished with a stationary light, and the place is also supplied with a fog bell.

The Light House keeper, Mr. Elizur Thompson, is prohibited from keeping a house of public entertainment, but he is obliging enough to part with two or three rooms to visitors, who can provide themselves in other ways with board. It is a retired and pleasant place for two or three small families who need quiet and the benefit of sea air.

SOUTH END.

This neck was originally sold for five barrels of pork. It is now the quiet resort for picnic parties from city and country. South End can be reached either by passing through East Haven, or by leaving the road to the Light House, where it turns off directly to the water, apparently through a farm yard, and keeping on to the left.

Mr. John P. Thompson, the owner of the grove, can receive into his house twenty or twenty-five persons, who do not expect Fifth Avenue accommodations. His charges are $5.00 per week, or seventy-five cents a day. The fishing here is superior, rock black fish being in great abundance, and the bathing places on the long, fine beach, excellent and safe. It may be well for picnic parties who resort to South End, to know that the use of the grounds, tables, well of water, &c., can hardly compensate the proprietor for his expense and trouble in making it an agreeable resort for pleasure seekers. His charge is $1 for a table, which will accommodate from twenty to twenty-five persons.

The New London Railroad, or a carriage road through the center of East Haven, will carry pleasure seekers to several popular sea-side houses of entertainment.

DOUBLE BEACH.

The house at this headland has long been kept by Mr. Malachi Linsley, and is a pleasant resort for citizens of New Haven. Its distance is only an easy hour's drive,—seven miles from the city,—or it can be reached by rail, the traveler stopping at Branford Depot, from which a carriage will convey him a distance of two miles, to the Beach. From seventy to seventy-five persons can find accommodations at the house, at the rate of $7.00 per week, or, $1.25 a day for a shorter period. A bowling alley, trotting course, boating, billiards, fishing and bathing, are among the means of recreation provided for its guests.

BRANFORD POINT

Is an agreeable and well kept house. The proprietor, Mr. D. M. King, has room for one hundred and forty guests, whom he charges from eight to ten dollars a week, according to the rooms they occupy. For a shorter period, his charges are $1.50 per day. All the conveniences for passing the time pleasantly usually found at such places, are furnished at the Point, and the house may safely be recommended to strangers. For several seasons past the proprietor has run an omnibus daily to and from the city.

INDIAN NECK.

Two large boarding houses on the Sound are also reached from the Branford depot. Indian Neck, two miles from the depot, has accommodations for forty persons. The proprietor is Mr. Lynde Frisbie.

PINE ORCHARD,

Four miles from the depot, is a pleasant boarding house where Mr. Truman Sheldon receives from forty to fifty guests.

STONY CREEK.

This quiet resort, twelve miles from New Haven, is only a quarter of a mile from the Stony Creek depot, on the New London Railroad. The fishing here is admirable, and the gigantic oysters and clams taken in the vicinity, have made the name of the place famous among those who are careful about the quality of their shell fish. A pleasant bowling alley and billiard room, a comfortable yacht, &c., are provided for the fifty guests, to whom, during the season, the proprietor, Mr. Douglass, devotes his attention. His charges are at the rate of $1.00 a day. It may interest visitors to know that the oldest man in Connecticut—Mr. James Douglass,—father of the proprietor, resides here. He was born August 1, 1753, and is therefore in his 111th year. He is small in stature, slight in figure, and bears no marks of extreme old age. He walks almost daily, two miles, and takes personal care of a garden.

SACHEM'S HEAD.

This celebrated watering place is situated on the north shore of Long Island Sound, within the boundaries of the pleasant town of Guilford, 15 miles from New Haven. The large hotel is situated on an eminence of rare beauty, giving a view over much varied and interesting scenery. Landscape and water combined to render the prospect the most charming imaginable. The immense edifice which now occupies the site of what was once only a mere ordinary dwelling, is over six hundred feet in length with three "center" buildings, three stories in height, and 7 feet in length each. It is calculated to accommodate more visitors than any other seashore house in Connecticut.

A line of telegraph is in operation from the Head, connecting with all the lines of the Union.

The place is within a half hour's ride of New Haven, by railroad, and the trains run regularly four times each way daily over the Shore Line Railroad. Price of board, $2.00 a day.

GUILFORD POINT,

Fifteen miles from New Haven, is a headland on the Sound, two miles east from Sachem's Head. The Guilford depot of the New Haven and New London Railroad, is little more than half a mile distant, where eight trains stop daily—four from New Haven, and four from New London. "The Pavilion," Mr. Robert Hunt, proprietor, is a very quiet, and highly respectable hotel, largely patronized by many families from New York, Hartford, &c., who are in the habit, year after year, of making the Point their summer home. The house is very pleasantly situated on a beautiful lawn, fronting the Sound. It has accommodations for about one hundred guests. His charge for permanent boarders, is $9.00 per week; and two dollars a day for transient visitors. The usual conveniences are found here for fishing, bathing, rowing, sailing, bowling, &c. The shell fish taken at the Point are said to be the finest on the Atlantic coast. The proprietor is at all times during the season, prepared to entertain parties from New Haven, or elsewhere, with dinner or supper, the usual charge being fifty cents for each person.

DRIVES. .

The vicinity of New Haven abounds in fine drives. Beginning on the west side of the harbor, West Haven is a beautiful village, about three miles from the city, very much like an English village in appearance, with its rural green and venerable trees. It is a place of some historic interest, in connection with the landing here of the British troops, under command of Generals Tryon and Garth, during the revolutionary war. Early on the morning of July 5th, 1779, two English men-of-war, with forty-eight tenders, transports, &c., entered the harbor. At sunrise, about one-half of their land force, (1,500 men,) under the command of Gen. Garth, landed at Savin Rock beach, the officers making their temporary headquarters at the old Kimberly house, (still standing,) about half way between West Haven village and the place of landing. The troops were mustered on West Haven Green, and commenced their march for New Haven. Soon after the advance, skirmishing occurred between the enemy and our own people. Adjutant Campbell was killed while ascending Milford Hill. The tradition among the old people of the vicinity is, that he was shot by a lad by the name of Johnson, who, taking an old fashioned musket, and creeping among the whortleberry bushes growing on the side of the hill, lay down to observe what was going on. An officer on horseback soon after appeared ascending the hill, in advance of a small squad of men, when the lad shot at him, and saw him fall from his horse. Campbell was carried into the house of the mother of the boy, where he soon after died of his wound. He is buried in a field, still called "Campbell's Lot," about 300 feet north of the road leading to Milford. A low stone, with the name "CAMPBELL, 1779," in the south-west corner of the field, marks his grave.

West Haven is reached by two roads; one the old road through Allintown, and the other from the Oyster Point road, across the new bridge recently built (1861) at the mouth of West River. A very pleasant drive is found by crossing the new bridge, passing the West Haven Green, and down to Savin Rock. The return drive to the city by West Bridge, will carry the stranger past the Catholic Cemetery, the State Hospital, St. John's Church, &c.

A longer and more retired drive may be found by passing on the West side of the river, through Allintown to the Derby road, and so into the city; or, it may be protracted by continuing on the road to Westville, over the high ground which commands a fine view of New Haven, passing the residence of Donald G. Mitchell, Esq., late U. S. Consul at Venice, author of "Reveries of a Bachelor," &c. The village of Westville is picturesquely situated at the foot of West Rock, and is a thriving manufacturing community. As you rise the hill from Westville, passing into the city, the eminence on the left indicates the place where entrenchments, traces of which are still visible, were thrown up by the Americans, to resist the advance of Gen. Garth. A spirited contest here ensued, in which numbers were wounded, and a few killed on each side. On the right is

HAMILTON PARK,

Which was opened to the public by a few public-spirited proprietors, in the year 1859. Previous to this time, New Haven possessed no appropriate place for agricultural fairs, or for other objects needing accommodations for a large concourse of people. The grounds have been handsomely arranged, a fine course for trotting laid out, and convenient buildings for visitors erected. The ground within the course has been excavated for a skating pond in winter, which is filled by a steam pump, from the water of the river which bounds the ground on the west. Arrangements have recently been made, by which the attractions of the place have been largely increased. The ground inclosed for the Park is about forty acres.

WEST ROCK

Furnishes the most extensive view to be obtained of New Haven and its vicinity. Omnibusses run during the day to Westville, and will leave passengers at Blake's factory, from which point visitors will find it a half hour's walk to the summit of the Rock. About half a mile north, is the celebrated

JUDGE'S CAVE.

It consists of huge boulders, apparently thrown together by some convulsion of nature. There were formerly three of the larger stones, each rising to a height of fifteen or twenty feet, with openings a few feet wide between their bases. Some years since the centre was struck by lightning, which did considerable damage, and greatly altered the appearance of the Rock. More than two hundred years ago, these narrow fissures were the only home of two men, whose names were once memorable in England,—General Edward Whalley, and General William Goffe, both of whose signatures are affixed to the warrant for the execution of King Charles I. These gentlemen had fled at the Restoration, and made their appearance at New Haven in the Spring of 1661. To protect their friends here from the suspicion of harboring rebels, they betook themselves to this wild retreat, where they were supplied with food by Richard Sperry, the nearest inhabitant to the rock. Tradition says, that they were frightened from the place by the appearance in the night of a panther or catamount.

A pleasant half hour's ramble in a northeasterly direction, leads to a romantic spot, called

WINTERGREEN FALLS.

It is one of the most agreeable places for the visit of pleasure parties, that can be found in the vicinity of New Haven. Those who prefer a carriage to the omnibus, can approach nearer the Judge's Cave, by following the road at the foot of the Rock, north to the first dwelling on the right hand side, opposite which is the direct ascent to the Cave. The shortest way both to Judge's Cave, or Wintergreen Falls, is through Goffe and Crescent streets. To visit the latter place, those not familiar with its situation, will find it necessary to make inquiries at some of the dwellings near the foot of the Rock.

THE VILLAGE OF WHITNEYVILLE

Is a pleasant place for strangers to visit. Its distance is little more than two miles from the city, and it can be reached by two or three different roads,—either by the Hamden road, through Broadway, or by Prospect street, through the woods, and past the reservoir, or directly by the Hartford turnpike. The pleasantest of these drives, especially in a warm day, is that through the woods, both from its shadiness, and from the fine views both of East and West Rock, to be seen at intervals on the road. The village itself was built up by Eli Whitney, Esq., the distinguished inventor of the cotton gin. In the year 1798, Mr. Whitney, having obtained a contract from the United States for the manufacture of ten thousand stand of arms, purchased the site of this place, and erected his factory, together with a number of tenements for workmen. Mr. Whitney died in 1825. The factory, greatly enlarged, is now owned by his son, who continues the manufacture of fire-arms.

Mill river, on which the factory is situated, furnishes New Haven with its water. A new and very substantial dam was built in 1861. The dwellings on the sides of the stream above were removed, and the interval between the high lands on each side the river, flooded. The reservoir for the supply of the city, is situated on the elevated land between Prospect street and the Hartford Turnpike, about a mile from the dam. The pump by which the water is forced into the reservoir, is driven by the surplus water of Mill river.

NEW HAVEN WATER WORKS.

The introduction of an abundant supply of pure and wholesome water is a feature in the history of a city which has been found to contribute, more than any other, to its growth and prosperity; and the successful accomplishment of such an undertaking for the City of New Haven, in the face of many obstacles, may render a brief account of the works interesting.

The source from which the supply is obtained is Mill River, yielding, the year round, a daily supply of 120,000,000 gallons; one-tenth of this quantity is the basis upon which the works are constructed, this being the extreme minimum flow of the stream.

At a point on the river which seems formed by nature for this very purpose, a dam, thirty feet high, twenty feet wide at the top and one hundred feet at the base, is built; the whole length of which is five hundred feet, with an overfall of one hundred and fifty feet—the east wing not being so high as the main dam, affords an additional length of overfall in case of extraordinary rises in the river.

The dam backs up the water for about two and a-half miles, and forms one of the finest lakes in the country, with drives along its shores, which are exceedingly attractive. The average depth of water is about twenty feet, and the quantity ordinarily in the lake 500,000,000 gallons.

The water is conveyed through the dam by a 48-inch iron pipe into the pump-house, which is a very substantial brick structure, sixty feet long, forty feet wide, and twenty-five feet high. This building contains the pumping machinery, which consists of two back-pitch, overshot water wheels, each thirty feet in diameter, with eighty wrought-iron buckets, six feet in length, and two double-acting force-pumps, sixteen inches in diameter, and five feet stroke, capable of delivering three thousand gallons per minute; these are so arranged as to be used separately or together, as occasion may require. The whole of this machinery was constructed by the "Farrell Foundry and Machine Co.," of Ansonia, and is of the most substantial character. From here the water is forced through an iron pipe, sixteen inches in diameter, into a reservoir on "Sachem's Hill," at an elevation of one hundred and twenty-five feet above mean high water. The reservoir is in the form of an ellipse, and has a capacity of 10,000,000 of gallons; it is built in two divisions, so that the water can be drawn off from one, for the purpose of cleaning, without diminishing the supply to the city. The dimensions of the reservoir at the water line are four hundred and eighty-eight feet by two hundred and forty-eight feet, with a depth of fifteen feet.

From the reservoir the water is carried into the city by a 16-inch main, and distributed through over twenty miles of pipes, of various sizes—12, 8, 6 and 4 inches in diameter—about one-half of which is six inches. Arrangements are made, in the works already constructed, by which their capacity can be increased to two force mains and three distributing mains, as the demand for an additional supply may require.

In short, the New Haven Water Co. have successfully accomplished their object, viz: The introduction into the city of an abundant supply of good water, at an elevation entirely sufficient for all practical purposes, public or private; and the very moderate cost of the works, compared with others of the same magnitude, has enabled them to conclude a contract with the authorities, upon terms very advantageous to the city, for the supply of water to public buildings of all kinds, and to some two hundred and sixty hydrants, for fire purposes, thereby placing the City of New Haven, as regards protection from fire, in a position not surpassed by any other city in the Union. Thus has the project inaugurated, and for many years so honestly and earnestly contended for, by the late Hon. AARON N. SKINNER, been consummated, vindicating the correctness of his judgment and the active benevolence of his capacious heart. It is a source of regret to all the friends of this project that he could not have lived to behold its glorious triumph.

EAST ROCK.

This beautiful eminence is reached by a short ride over Neck Bridge, and by an ascent not difficult to carriages. The city, the harbor, the shipping, Long Island Sound, and in the distance Long Island itself, unite to form a singularly beautiful panorama. A house of entertainment can be found on the brow of the rock, with a bowling alley for those who like the amusement. Parties on foot will find the return to the city over the rock, by the way of Whitneyville, to be a pleasant walk. Parties on horseback, or even in carriages, (though the road is not to be commended for vehicles.) will find a beautiful view of the bold face of the Rock, by turning to the left after reaching its foot, and following up the stream either to Potter's Bridge, or to Whitneyville. A pleasant ride entirely around the rock, is had by the Whitneyville road, to the covered bridge above the dam, and by taking the first road to the right after crossing the stream and then into the city. Those who are fond of a drive by the water, will find a pleasant one over Neck Bridge to Lewis' Bridge, thence down the Quinnipiack to Fair Haven, and across the railroad to the old ferry point. Those who wish to visit Fair Haven, can do so by the Horse Railroad. The cars run every ten minutes.

CEMETERIES.

For more than a century and a half, the successive generations of our forefathers were laid to rest around and in the rear of the humble sanctuary erected on the rural green, which the first settlers of New Haven had set apart for the uses of religion and of public justice. In October, 1797, an act of incorporation was granted by which the plat of ground on Grove street was made a public burial ground. The ground was divided into family lots, to which titles in fee were given, at a price that inadequately remunerated Mr. Hillhouse, the public spirited projector of the enterprise. Burials immediately began to be made in the new cemetery, though from family feeling, and old associations, interments were still frequent in the old "grave yard." In 1821, the town ordered the removal of all the stones and monuments from the Green, to the new burying place, and the ground to be leveled. From that time onward, with three or four exceptions, it has been a matter of increasingly vague tradition, where the forefathers of the town lie buried. The exceptions are the graves of Theophilus Eaton, of the regicides Col. Dixwell, and the supposed graves of Generals Whalley and Goffe. President Stiles, of Yale College, who wrote the lives of the regicide judges who escaped to America, indicates by a plate in the volume, the relative position of these graves. They lie within a few feet of each other. To the least considerable of them a handsome monument has, within a few years, been erected, by a descendant in the female line; while the top of a small stone, level with the walk on the north-west side, and two stones a few feet east of the inclosure to Dixwell's monument, alone indicate where the abler and more noted regicides are conjectured to lie buried. When the grave of Dixwell was opened, in 1849, the skull and most of the large bones were found entire; fragments only remained of the coffin, which seemed to have been made of cedar, covered with black cloth, and ornamented with brass-headed nails. It is a suggestive fact, in connection with honors paid to the long buried dead, that no provision had been made for the reception of such remains of the regicide as might be found unconsumed by time, and that the deficiency was supplied by the hasty procurement of a coarse packing box, in which they were deposited. The monument above it, however, is an expensive and handsome one.

It is not creditable to the good taste of those who projected the removal of the venerable stones from the upper Green, that they willingly left the burial place of Gov. Eaton without some memorial to indicate its position. Fortunately, its situation is definitely known from President Stiles. The foot of his grave is in a line thirteen feet westerly from the foot stone of the grave supposed to be Whalley's, on a line parallel with the north fence of the Green; while the head of the grave is sixteen feet due east from the reputed grave of Goffe. A little more than two centuries ago, "a comly tomb such as the colony was capable of," was placed, by order of the General Court, over the remains of the wise and revered Governor. The same stone now stands in the new Cemetery, in good preservation, and should be restored to the place where it originally stood, to remain, till in some future time it shall be superseded by a monument worthy of his memory, and not unworthy of the people whose forefathers he led into the wilderness.

The new burial ground on Grove street, contains about 18 acres. It is said to be the first cemetery in the United States that was laid out into family lots. Some who have deserved well of their country and of the world, lie buried in this inclosure. Many more who have been useful in the discharge of local public trusts, also rest here from their labors. Not an inconsiderable degree of taste has been exhibited in a number of its monuments. The place makes no pretensions to the elegance or the expenditure common to the cemeteries of large metropolitan cities; it is only a handsomely kept, well shaded burial ground, where the eye is not offended with an appearance of things not in harmony with the tenderness and reverence due to the dead. Beginning at the southeastern corner of the ground, we designate by the tiers of lots, the places where may be found the monuments more commonly sought out by strangers, or such as are specially deserving of notice.

1ST TIER. Caleb Hotchkiss, who was killed by the British, when they plundered New Haven, July 5, 1779.

Gen. Robinson Hinman, erected by the grand lodge of Connecticut, I. O. O. F., to the memory of their grand master.

2D TIER. Chauncey A. Goodrich, Professor of Rhetoric, and subsequently of the Pastoral Charge in Yale College,—died in 1860, aged 70 years.

John P. Austin, identified with the early history of Texas, died at Brazoria, Texas, 1834, aged 60 years.

James L. Kingsley, Professor of the Latin language in Yale College, died in 1852, aged 75 years.

3D TIER. Timothy Pitkin, the historian, and representative and senator in Congress, died in 1847, aged 81 years.

Jared Mansfield, surveyor-general of the United States, and Professor at West Point, died in 1830, aged 70 years.

4TH TIER. Charles A. Ingersoll, District Judge U. S. Court, died in 1860, aged 63.

Commander Ralph Voorhies, died at Smyrna in 1842, in command of the U. S. ship Preble, aged 50 years. The monument was erected by the officers and crew of the Preble.

Sereno E. Dwight, President Hamilton College, died in 1855, aged 64.

David Daggett, Chief Justice of Connecticut, died in 1851, aged 86.

Abraham Bishop, Collector of the Port of New Haven, died in 1844, aged 81.

James Hillhouse, for fifty years Treasurer of Yale College, sixteen years Senator in Congress, and fifteen years Commissioner of the School Fund of Connecticut, died in 1832, aged 78.

James A. Hillhouse, author of "Hadad," &c., died 1840, aged 51.

Col. Joseph Drake, died in 1836, aged 99.

The lot of Henry Trowbridge and family.

Seth P. Staples, a distinguished counsellor of law, died in 1861, aged 85.

Hezekiah Frith, of the Island of Bermuda, a student of Yale College, accidentally shot by a classmate, died in 1806, aged 16.

Aaron N. Skinner, Mayor of New Haven, honorably distinguished for his devotion to the interests and embellishment of the city, died in 1858, aged 58.

5TH TIER. Ezra Stiles, President of Yale College, died in 1795, aged 73.

Timothy Dwight, President of Yale College, died in 1817, aged 65.

Pierrepont Edwards, Chief Justice of Connecticut, died in 1826, aged 75.

Henry W. Edwards, Governor of the State, Representative and Senator in Congress, died in 1847, aged 67.

Henry Pierrepont Edwards, a Justice of the Supreme Court of New York, died in 1855, aged 46.

The lot of Titus Street and family.

Æneas Munson, President of the Conn. Medical Society, died in 1826, aged 92.

Nathan Beers, an officer in the revolutionary army, died in 1849, aged 96. Mary, his wife, died in 1861, aged 98.

Simeon Baldwin, Representative in Congress, Judge of Superior Court of Conn., died in 1851, aged 89.

Roger Sherman, signer of the Declaration of Independence, died in 1793, aged 72.

Thomas Clapp, President of Yale College, died in 1767, aged 64.

Nathan Smith, Senator in Congress, died in 1835, aged 65.

Nathan Smith, Professor of Surgery in Yale College, died in 1826, aged 66.

Theophilus Eaton, first Governor of the New Haven Colony, died in 1658.

Margaret Arnold, wife of Benedict Arnold, died in 1775, aged 30 years.

7TH TIER. Rev. James Dana, minister of the First Church, died in 1812, aged 77.

8TH TIER. Rev. Jehudi Ashmun, first Colonial Agent at Liberia, died in 1828, aged 34.

10TH TIER. Henry Eld, U. S. N., first discoverer of the Antarctic Continent, in Wilkes' Exploring Expedition, died in 1850, aged 35.

Jereniah Atwater, President of Middlebury, and also of Dickinson College, died in 1858, aged 84.

11TH TIER. William Tully, Professor of Materia Medica, Yale College, died in 1859, aged 73.

The lot of John Fitch and family.

12TH TIER. Harry Croswell, rector of Trinity Church, died in 1858, aged 79.

William Croswell, rector of the Church of the Advent, Boston, died in 1851, aged 47.

Thomas Hubbard, Professor of Surgery, Yale College, died in 1838, aged 62.

13TH TIER. Docius Wadsworth, Chief of the Ordnance Department of the Army, died in 1821, aged 53.

Samuel Merwin, minister of the North Church, died in 1856, aged 75.

Nathaniel W. Taylor, Professor of Divinity, Yale College, died in 1858, aged 71.

Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin, died in 1825, aged 61.

Noah Webster, author of the American Dictionary, died in 1843, aged 84.

Denison Olmsted, Professor of Natural Philosophy, Yale College, died in 1859, aged 68.

14TH TIER. David Humphrey, Colonel in the Revolutionary army, minister to Portugal and Spain, died in 1818, aged 65.

Ithiel Town, distinguished as an architect, died in 1848, aged 60.

Henry P. Storrs, member of Congress from New York, died in 1833, aged 49.

Henry Deforest, M. D., missionary in Syria, died in 1858, aged 44.

Stones from the ancient burying ground.

15TH TIER. Samuel J. Hitchcock, Professor of Law, Yale College, died in 1845, aged 59.

17TH AND 18TH TIERS, (north end.) Burial place for persons not owning a lot.

19TH TIER. Graves of soldiers who were wounded at the battle of Fair Oaks, near Richmond, Va.

20TH TIER. John Pitkin Norton, Professor Scientific Agriculture, Yale College, died 1853, aged 30.

EVERGREEN CEMETERY.

The lots in the Grove Street Cemetery having become high in price, and difficult to be obtained, a meeting of citizens was held Sept. 15, 1848, to take into consideration the subject of a new Cemetery. An Association was formed by persons present at that meeting, who resolved that its stock should be divided into three hundred shares at ten dollars each. Directors of the Association were elected Oct. 17th, who purchased from Nathan Peck, Esq., Nov. 20, 1848, a tract of land, fronting on West street about 760 feet and extending westerly about 1000 feet to the border of the West River marshes and embracing an area of about $13\frac{1}{2}$ acres. In 1856 a further purchase was made from the same proprietor of 24 additional acres. The grounds are admirably fitted for burial purposes and capable of being made exceedingly beautiful, both from their position on the banks of West River and from their diversified surface. The first burial in the Cemetery was made in the year 1848.

Among the monuments and family lots, the following are deserving of mention. The alleys are numbered from the entrance gate. On the left 1st Alley.—Lot belonging to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

3d Alley.—Lot of Massena Clark.

5th Alley.—Lot of Jerome B. Wheat.

7th Alley.—Lot of William Goodwin and T. Lawton.

8th Alley.—Lot of John Mathewman.

9th Alley.—Amos H. Gilbert, died at Fort McHenry, July 4th, 1861, aged 21 years. One of the first to enlist in defence of his country. Lot of Erastus Lee.

10th Alley.—Lot of John W. Kimball.

11th Alley.—Lot of John G. North. Lot of Daniel Cole.

12th Alley.—Lot of E. B. Dickerman. Lot of J. W. Madden.

HEBREW CEMETERY.

A purchase was made by the Jewish residents of the City several years since, of a piece of ground on the north side of Whalley Avenue, opposite Hamilton Park, containing about $1\frac{1}{2}$ acres, which has since been used exclusively by them as a place of burial. Adjoining it on the east, and within the city limits, is the burial place of the inhabitants of Westville. Previous to this, the dead of this village were buried with the other inhabitants of the town.

FAIR HAVEN CEMETERY.

The residents of this village laid out, many years since, a cemetery in the rear of the present Congregational church, which is divided into family lots and embellished with many tasteful monuments.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CEMETERIES.

The Cemetery in Davenport Avenue for the burial of Roman Catholics was opened in the year 1834. After a few years, the grounds were found wholly inadequate to the largely increased number of Catholics in the city, and a purchase of a large and level tract of land on Columbus street near the West river, was made in 1850, and consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese. Many handsome monuments have already been erected, and the general appearance of the Cemetery is very creditable to those who have it in charge. An elegant monument has recently been erected in the south part of the grounds to the memory of the first Bishops of the Hartford Diocese, Bishop Wm. Tyler, who died in 1849, and Bishop B. O'Rielly, who was lost at sea in the year 1856.

The only remaining place within the city limits which has ever been used as a public burial place for the dead, is the site of the original Trinity Church, on the east side of Church street, just below its junction with Chapel street. The interments here seem not to have been numerous, and ceased, except in very peculiar cases, by vote of a parish meeting, in the year 1785.

CITY HALL.*

The first buildings erected for public civil uses stood on the Green near College street, and about opposite the North Middle College. The general meetings of the Colony Jurisdiction, in accordance with a custom not unknown to the early settlers, in the parish churches of their fatherland, were probably held in the "meeting house." The old State House built in the year 1763, just north of Trinity Church, was next used for public purposes. In 1830, the present State House was erected, partly at the expense of the city and town, and furnished partial accommodations for the civil necessities of the community. In the summer of 1862, a new City Hall was erected, or as some prefer to call it, a Hall of Records, (probably from the fact that among all the definitions of the word "Hall," there is none which can properly be used in connection with a place for the deposit of records.)

The history of this elegant edifice and of the lot on which it stood, is deserving of permanent record. The facts respecting the structure itself are derived from Mayor Welch's address to the Common Council; the history of the lot on which it stands were communicated by Henry White, Esq.

"The lot on which the new Hall is built, is a part of a larger lot of about three acres, which in the original division of the town plot, made in 1639, was allotted to Mr. Owen Rowe. It extended, on Church street, from the north line of the lot now owned by the Town and City, so far south as to include most of the Tontine block, and, in depth, about forty feet east of Orange street.

Mr. Rowe was a citizen and tradesman of London, and was one of the largest subscribers to the undertaking for the settlement of New Haven; but he never became an inhabitant. He took an active part in the civil war in England, was a Colonel in the army of the Parliament, and one of the Judges who condemned Chaales I. to death. At the restoration of Charles II., he was thrown into prison, and died soon after, in the Tower of London.

As the rear of this lot adjoined the rear of Mr. Davenport's home lot, which had its front on Elm street, the Town ordered a passage way of eight feet in width, to be fenced off from the north side of Mr. Rowe's lot, so that the pastor might walk from his own garden directly to the meeting house, which stood then where the liberty pole now stands. This path was over the vacant land between the north wall of the Hall and the home lot of Dr. Knight.

In consequence of the failure of Mr. Rowe to join the colony as a settler, his lot, in 1643, was divided by the town among the adjoining owners, and the north part, on which the new Hall is built, was granted to Mr. Davenport, the pastor.

CITY HALL.

[See page 53.]

Mr. Davenport died in 1670, and this lot descended to his only child, John Davenport, Jr., who died in 1676, and from him it came to his children, one of whom was Abigail Pierpont, wife of the Rev. James Pierpont, an early successor of Mr. Davenport in the ministry. Rev. Mr. Pierpont, in 1693, purchased the remaining shares, from the other children of Mr. Davenport, and soon after, exchanged this lot with the Town and the Trustees of the Grammar School, for a lot on the north side of the Green, adjoining his own residence. This lot was given by the Town to the Hopkins Grammar School, in fulfillment of the condition on which the Executors of Governor Hopkins' will had founded, in New Haven, the School for which he had made provision in his will, and which afterwards bore his name. The Hopkins Committee, for many years, derived an income from the lot, by leasing it for short terms, and, frequently, to the adjoining owners. The last of these leases on record, expired in 1771. The increasing difficulty of obtaining an adequate income from short leases, was one of the reasons which induced the Committee, in 1801, to make to the County of New Haven a long lease, for 999 years, of that part of the lot on which the Hall now stands. This conveyance was for a gross sum, in lieu of all future annual rents. The County, soon after, erected their County House and Jail on the lot, and continued to own and occupy it in this way, until the year 1856, when it was purchased of them by the Town, for its present uses, at an expense of twenty-five thousand dollars."

The urgent necessity for a public building which should accommodate the various public offices, gradually united the community in the opinion that a building not unworthy of the City should be erected at the joint expense of city and town. At a City meeting held on the 23d of June, 1860, Philip S. Galpin, Frederick Crosswell, David Cook, O. F. Winchester, Isaac Thomson, and Sylvanus Butler, were appointed a Committee to co-operate and unite with a similar Committee on the part of the City to procure plans and contract for the erection of a suitable fire-proof building for the safe keeping of the public Records of the Town, City, and Probate District of New Haven, and for the public use of said Town, City, and Probate District, upon the lot of land known as the "County House Lot." The sum of forty thousand dollars was also voted at this meeting as the proportionate share of the Town towards the expense of the building. The Town had previously purchased the lot at an expense of twenty-five thousand dollars.

On the part of the City, it appears that the Common Council, on the 6th of July, 1859, appointed a Committee, consisting of the Mayor, Hon. P. S. Galpin, Ex-Alderman Henry S. Dawson, and Charles Atwater, Jr., to confer with the Selectmen of the Town, relative to a joint ownership of the property on Church street, for the purpose of erecting thereon a building for the Town Clerk's Office, Probate Office, Council Chamber, and other requirements for Town and City use, with authority to procure plans and estimates.

This Committee made their report to the Council, on the 5th of September, 1859, recommending that proper action be taken to erect the building; and subsequently, on the 19th of September, the Mayor was requested to call a City Meeting, to vote upon the question of proceeding, in connection with the Town authorities, to erect a building, and also asking the Legislature to give power to the City to issue bonds, to the amount of sixty thousand dollars.

The City meeting was called and held on the 15th of October, 1859, and almost unanimously passed votes in favor of carrying forward the work.

On the 15th of October, 1859, a Committee consisting of Mayor H. M. Welch, Aldermen William B. Johnson and Philo Chatfield, and Councilmen Henry W. Benedict, Nicholas Countryman, and George Alling, was appointed by the Common Council, to unite with the Committee appointed by the Town, and arrange for a joint ownership of the lot, and the erection of a suitable structure, at the equal expense of City and Town.

The Joint Committee, appointed by the Town and Council, held their first meeting on the 18th of July, 1860.

These meetings were held from time to time, for examining plans, procuring estimates, and in arranging for the proper accommodation of the several public offices.

After mature deliberation, the plans of Henry Austin, Esq., were adopted, in Committee, and the contracts with Messrs. Perkins & Chatfield, for the mason work, and Mr. Nicholas Countryman, for the carpenter and wood work, were signed on the second day of April, 1861.

Messrs. Chatfield and Countryman, having become contractors, they resigned their places on the Committee, which were filled by the appointment of Alderman Benjamin N. Tuttle, and Councilman Augustus C. Wilcox.

Immediately after the signing of the contracts, the work of pulling down the old County House and Jail was commenced, the rubbish cleared away, and the foundations of the present structure were laid.

The building was finished according to contract the first day of October, 1862, and immediately occupied by the public officers of the City and Town.

The beautiful stone-work was furnished by Mr. George A. Shubert.

Mr. Stiles Stevens furnished the iron work, including the ample flight of stairs, which adds much to the harmony of the interior arrangements.

The marble work was executed and furnished by Mr. John Ritter, and the painting and graining under the direction of Mr. Franklin Andrews.

The gas pipes were put up under the superintendence of Mr. James M. Evarts.

A regard to solidity, stability, and permanence, has been carried into the details of the building, so that it is believed, it will stand for a long period, without expensive repairs.

The purposes to which the several offices of the building are devoted may be found in the last part of the Directory, under the head of "Public Institutions."

CHURCHES.

New Haven from its settlement has made ample provision for public religious worship. At no time have any of its inhabitants been kept away from the services of religion by want of room in its churches. For a little more than a century one church edifice was sufficient for the entire community. Up to this time there were no Church of England people in the town; the father and founder of Methodism was then a University Student at Oxford; a brief but emphatic law of the Colony, terminating with the phrase "shall suffer death," was not encouraging to Roman Catholic priests. Only a few gossiping women, with their unintelligible scruples and unceasing tattle, had in all this period interrupted the most absolute uniformity of the community on all matters of religious doctrine and discipline.

CENTER CHURCH.

The First Church which is the oldest institution in the town—older even than its civil organization, was begun on the 21st of August, 1639. Its first edifice stood not far from the spot occupied by the present one. It was built in the year 1639, and continued, with much patching and more complaint, for 30 years. In the year 1668, a second edifice was erected near the center of the present lower green. This building did good service for nearly a century, when it was superceded in 1661 by what was barbarously styled the "Middle Brick," erected on the site now occupied by its successor the present Center Church. The latter was begun in the year 1813, and was finished at a cost of $32,000 and dedicated in the year 1815.

Its ministers all have been men of mark in their day.

NORTH CHURCH.

The second (North) church organized in New Haven dates from the year 1742. Its first house of worship was erected on the south-east corner of Church and Elm streets, and was known to our fathers by the rather ominous title of "The Blue Meeting House." The church was divided by a secession of a portion of its members which took place in the year 1771, who erected a brick edifice on the site of the present North Church in the same year. A re-union of the two societies was effected in the year 1796, under its present legal designation of the "United Society." The present edifice was begun in the year 1813 and dedicated in 1815.

Its ministers have been as follows :

TRINITY CHURCH.

Episcopacy had its origin in New Haven about the year 1734. Rector Cutler of Yale College, Mr. Whittmore, the Minister of North Haven and Mr. Johnson the Minister of West Haven, having declared their dissent from the Congregational order and discipline, soon after went to England for Episcopal ordination. No church appears to have been organized previous to 1755. The first church edifice was erected on the east side of Church street about 125 feet from its junction with Chapel in the year 1755. For many years the church was supplied by Missionaries of the English "Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts." In the year 1814 the present edifice was erected at a cost of about $30,000.

The Rectors of the Church have been as follows, viz :

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Trinity Church having greatly increased in numbers, it was found necessary to provide additional accommodations for those worshipping there, and in 1828, 9, the stone edifice on the corner of Chapel and Olive streets, was built at an expense of about $17,000. It continued a Chapel of Trinity Church until 1845, when it became a separate society. A large sum was immediately expended on the building.

Its Rectors have been

Samuel Cook,	1845	1851
A. N. Littlejohn, D. D.,	1851	1860
Edward L. Drown,	1860

ST. THOMAS' CHURCH.

This Church was organized Feb. 24, 1848, and a temporary chapel built in 1849. This was taken down and the present edifice erected on the same site, in the years 1854, 5. Its cost, exclusive of the land, was about $27,000. It has had but one rector, Rev. E. Edwards Beardsley, D. D., who was settled in 1848.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

This Church was originally a Mission Church of St. Paul's, gathered by the labors of Rev. Frederick Sill. A neat church edifice, since enlarged and greatly improved, was erected on the corner of Eld and State streets, in the year 1856. It became a separate parish in the year 1857. Its ministers have been

CHRIST CHURCH.

This Church was originally a Mission Chapel of Trinity. Its first church edifice was a wooden structure on the corner of Park and Maple streets, which was first occupied early in 1854. The present building, on the corner of Maple street and Broadway, was completed in 1860. Its connection with Trinity ceased in 1857. Its only minister since it became a parish, has been Rev. Joseph Brewster.

THIRD CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The formal organization of this church was made in the year 1826, but no church edifice was erected till the year 1828, when the building now occupied by the Chapel Street Church was begun. The house was built and owned by stockholders who were not all members of the society. Afterwards dissensions connected with differences in doctrinal belief broke out, and it was then ascertained that the sentiments of the church and society were not in harmony with the sentiments of the stockholders. The result was that the Third Church abandoned their place of worship and erected, in the year 1841, the building in Court street, now occupied as a Jewish Synagogue. The cost of the edifice and land was about $15,000. The Stone Church with its lofty steeple 206 feet high, on Church street, near the south-east corner of the Green, was built by this society in the year 1856. It is a beautiful edifice, and was erected at a cost, including the land, of nearly fifty thousand dollars.

CHAPEL STREET CHURCH.

After the departure of the Third Church from its first house of worship, a new church was formed in the Autumn of 1838, who occupied the vacated edifice. About the year 1847, an addition was made to the rear of the building and the enlarged audience room greatly improved.

COLLEGE STREET CHURCH.

This church was organized in August 1831, but erected no house of worship till the year 1836, when the edifice in Church street below Crown, now known as St. Mary's (Roman Catholic) Church, was built. In 1849 their present edifice in College street was erected at a cost of $20,000. The height of the steeple is 188 feet.

HOWE STREET CHURCH.

This church was organized in 1848. It originated with the efforts of the City Missionary Society in the west part of the city, at a distance from other churches. In the year 1842, the present building on the corner of Howe and Martin streets was finished. Its ministers have been,

SOUTH CHURCH.

In 1851, Gerard Hallock, Esq., residing in the south-east part of the city, where no church accommodations existed for a rapidly increasing population, erected a fine stone edifice, on the corner of Columbus and Liberty streets, and has ever since borne much the larger part of its annual expenses. Its only settled minister has been Rev. Gurdon W. Noyes, who was installed in May, 1858, and resigned in 1861.

DAVENPORT CHURCH.

This Church grew out of an effort to carry religious instruction to the poor. Rev. Edward E. Atwater, under an appointment from the City Mission, began to preach regularly at the Mission Chapel in Wallace street, Nov. 1857. The Church in Franklin street was dedicated in 1859. The Ecclesiastical Society was organized March 13th, 1860, and the Church was instituted April 22d, 1862. Rev. Mr. Atwater was installed pastor, April 22d, 1863.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Baptist denomination in New Haven, was organized for the first time in 1816, but they possessed no church edifice until 1824, when the present building, on Chapel street below Union, was built. Eleven years later the building was enlarged. In 1850, great improvements were made in the interior of the church. The ministers of this church have been as follows :

	Settled.	Dismissed.
Henry Lines,	1816	1821
Benjamin M. Hill,	1821	1830
John Pratt,	1830	1831

Thomas C. Teasdale,	1840	1845
S. Dryden Phelps, D. D.,	1846

WOOSTER PLACE BAPTIST CHURCH.

This Church was organized in 1842, and a wooden structure for its accommodation erected in 1845. The Society subsequently purchased (1856) the edifice built by Chauncey Jerome, Esq., for the Wooster Place Congregational Church, where its worship is now conducted.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

The first disciple of John Wesley, who preached in New Haven, was Rev. Jesse Lee. Tradition says, that David Beecher, the Blacksmith, residing on the corner of George and College streets, father of Dr. Lyman Beecher, and grandfather of Henry Ward Beecher, was the first man who ventured to offer the hospitality of his house to the unwelcome itinerant. Early in the year 1795, Rev. Daniel Ostrander formed the first class, as the nucleus of a formal organization of Methodism in this city. It was composed of William and Anna Thacher, Samuel and Martha Pool, and Anna Mix. From 1797 to 1807, religious worship was performed by circuit preachers of the Middletown Circuit, to which New Haven belonged, in an old building in Toddy Alley, (now Gregson st.,) which had been used by the Sandemonian sect. In the latter year, the lot on Temple street, now occupied by the African Church, was obtained, and a wooden house, 30 feet by 40, was erected. In July 1820, the City granted permission to the Society to build a new Church on the north-west corner of the Green, on a line with the North Church and twenty feet from College street, provided it should be built of solid materials. The corner-stone was laid May 15, 1821, but the building nearly completed, was demolished on the 3d of September following, by the memorable gale of that year. It was at once rebuilt, and dedicated May 23d, 1822. Its dimensions were 80 by 68 feet. This edifice was occupied by the society till the year 1848, when a proposal was made to remove the building from the public square, and erect a new and more tasteful one in the neighborhood. The City voted $5000, individuals gave $3000 more, and Yale College contributed $500. The present Church, on the corner of College and Elm streets, was erected in 1849, at a cost, including the lot, of about $30,000. Previous to 1814, the Society was supplied with Circuit preachers. In that year a stationed preacher was assigned to New Haven. Its ministers have been as follows:

Wm. Thacher, 1807. Jos. Lockwood, Reuben Hubbard, 1808. Truman Bishop, 1811, 1815, 1816. Phineas Rice, 1812. Gad Smith, 1812, 1814. Thomas Thorp, 1817. Elijah Hebard, 1818, 1819. Wm. Thacher, 1820, 1821, 1833. Samuel Luckey, 1822, 1823. Ebenezer Washburn, 1824. Heman Bangs, 1825, 1826, 1835, 1836. Tobias Spicer, 1827, 1828. James Young, 1829, 1830. Noah Leavings, 1831, 1832. GEORGE STREET METHODIST CHURCH.

This Church was built in 1853. In 1863, it was enlarged, and a neat spire added. Its ministers have been John E. Searles, 1852, 1853. Wm. C. Hoyt, 1854, 1855. Wm. F. Collins, 1856, 1857. Calvin B. Ford, 1858, 1859. Abraham S. Francis, 1860, 1861. Ichabod Simmons, 1862, 1863.

UNIVERSALIST CHURCH.

No formal organization of the Universalists existed in New Haven, until about the year 1850, when the present church on the corner of State and Court streets, was built. Its minister, Rev. G. V. Maxham, has supplied the pulpit for the past seven years.

CONGREGATION MISHKAN ISRAEL.

This society purchased in the year 1856, the edifice in Court street, erected by the Third Congregational Church, and have since occupied it as their synagogue.

TEMPLE STREET CHURCH.

The Temple Street Church, (Colored) was organized in Sept. 1829, and held their first meetings in the original Methodist Church situated where the present edifice of this society now stands. Its ministers have been,

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCHES.

Few or no Roman Catholics were to be found in New Haven before the construction of the Farmington Canal, in 1827. From this time, occasional missionary services were performed by priests belonging to neighboring cities, but Rev. James Fitton, now of Boston, may be regarded as the first priest who regularly ministered to the spiritual wants of the Catholic population of the town. In 1834, their first church edifice of wood, was erected on the corner of Davenport Avenue and York street. A parish had previously been organized and temporary accommodations obtained, over a bakery, on the corner of Wooster and Chestnut streets. The new structure, named Christ Church, was consecrated on "Election Day," 1834, by Bishop Fenwich, of Boston, to whose diocese it then belonged. During the services, the organ gallery gave way, and a convert to the Roman Catholic Church, by the name of Hardyear, belonging in Derby, together with his grandson, a boy of about 12 years old, was killed. This building was destroyed by fire in the year 1848.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The same year the parish of Christ Church purchased the original edifice of the present College Street Church, and gave to the edifice, the name of St. Mary's.

ST. PATRICK CHURCH.

This Church is a large stone edifice, situated on the corner of Grand and Wallace streets. The parish to which it belongs was organized in 1850, and in 1853, the edifice was completed and consecrated by Archbishop Bedini, the Pope's Nuncio. The only parish priest ever attached to the church, is the present pastor, Rev. Mathew Hart.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

This Church was built on the site of the original Christ Church, and was dedicated in 1858. Its pastor, Rev. John Smith, has been the parish priest from the commencement of the parish.

BUNDY & WILLIAMS'

Photographic Rooms

314 & 326 Chapel Street.

Thankful for past favors, we would say to our friends that we have just fitted up

A NEW SUIT OF ROOMS,

Over WALLACE B. FENN'S store.

It is the largest and best Room in the City, with all

NEW INSTRUMENTS

And IMPROVEMENTS expressly for

LARGE PICTURES

And the LARGEST GROUPS in the State. All KINDS, SIZES, and STYLES OF PICTURES.

CARTES DE VISITES!

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

Particular pains taken to COPY PORTRAITS from OLD DA-GUERREOTYPES, all sizes up to life, and colored in OIL, INK, OR PASTEL.

N. B.—Mr. Williams has been favorably known for the past three years as the junior partner and principal operator, under the name of Moulthrop & Williams, 314 Chapel Street, where his friends can still find him.

OUR ROOMS ARE ONLY UP ONE FLIGHT OF STAIRS.

J. K. BUNDY.

WHITEWASHING !

The subscriber, a PRACTICAL MASON and BUILDER of thirty-two years experience, (though not yet too old to improve,) devotes his whole time to

WHITEWASHING

AND

CLEANING WALLS.

His long experience in building stone and brick houses, and making every description of walls and ceilings, must give him a decided advantage over those who have had no practice in the mason trade.

I have purchased of JOSEPH FRANKLIN, late Whitewasher General of New Haven, the Recipe for Preparing Whitewash, in such a manner as to allow the operator to draw the brush as carelessly as he will across a wall, and yet produce a coat, which when dry, is smoother than it can be made by any amount of pains with Whitewash used by any person except myself.

In my experience as a builder and repairer of houses, I have observed that walls are often spoiled through being whitewashed by those who do not understand what is required to preserve them in good order. Some of these are ruined beyond remedy, and others can be reclaimed by applying the materials which the subscriber alone possesses. The Subscriber is the

SOLE PROPRIETOR

IN THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT,

of the Recipe for Self-smoothing Whitewash.

To those who employ his services, he will reveal the best part of the secret—a clean, smooth and durable finish upon their walls, and a renovation of some that have been damaged by being unskillfully daubed with untempered mortar. Orders promptly attended to and satisfaction warranted.

CANES & UMBRELLAS

ALMOST EVERYTHING BOUGHT & SOLD AT THIS STORE

BIRDS, NATIVE AND FOREIGN

The greatest variety in the State, always on hand. Also,

BIRD CAGES, BIRD SEEDS, ETC.

THE GREATEST VARIETY OF SEA SHELLS

TO BE FOUND IN THE STATE.

American Hall Grocery!

Cor. CHURCH & CROWN St., New Haven,

IVES & SEYMOUR,
PROPRIETORS.

Consumers can at all times find a general assortment of all kinds of

GROCERIES & PROVISIONS

As cheap as can be found in the market.

It is a fact universally admitted that our GROUND COFFEE is superior to any that is sold; a trial will satisfy the most difficult taste. We make it a special branch of our business to keep a large and well selected stock of Imported WINES & LIQUORS. The best

WHISKIES, SCOTCH ALE, BROWN STOUT, and LONDON PORTER.

In short, every thing in this department warranted to be A. No. 1.

We have also in connection with our Grocery, a MEAT MARKET, where all kinds of Meat may be found.

Respectfully,

IVES & SEYMOUR.

FURNITURE AND CHAIRS

A. WALKER & CO.,
No. 85 Church Street,
NEW HAVEN, CONN.

Having for more than Twenty-three Years supplied a large share of the FURNITURE, PIANOFORTES and MELODEONS wanted in New Haven and adjacent towns, and having steadily enlarged and improved their stock until it is second to none in the State, it is no exaggeration to say that the public can be supplied cheaply and satisfactorily from our spacious Warerooms.

Cash Customers

Especially should not fail to buy of us.

Pianofortes and Melodeons,

LARGEST ASSORTMENT IN THE STATE,

And from the best makers in New York and Boston, including those of R. NUNN and STEINWAY & SONS, whose celebrity is justly acknowledged throughout both this country and Europe.

 We warrant our Pianos in the fullest manner.

We have $8,000 invested in this department of our business.

FOR CASH WE SELL EXTREMELY LOW!

Lower than can be Bought at Retail of the Maker.

A. WALKER.

JAMES WALKER.

ADMISSION OF SCHOLARS.

The Public Schools are free only to children whose parents or guardians reside in the District.

The regular time for the admission of Scholars into the Public Schools, is the beginning of the School year, the first Wednesday in September, of which due notice is given in the public journals. In case there are more applications than vacancies in any room, the selection of scholars is made by lot.

After the beginning of the school year, any applicants for admission may apply to the Clerk of the District, who will give a card of admission to some particular school; and in case there is no vacancy in the proper grade of that school, the applicant's name will be entered by the Principal upon a Register of applications, and the scholars whose names are thus recorded will be entitled to seats, (as vacancies occur,) according to the order of time in which they applied.

Inquiries about the Public Schools may be made every morning, from 8 to 9 o'clock, during term time, and at the close of the morning session of the schools, at the office of the Board of Education, No. 14 City Hall, Church street.

 Board of Education meet every two weeks, on Wednesday evening, at Room No. 14, City Hall.

RATES OF POSTAGE.

July 1, 1863.

On letters in the United States, 3 cents for half ounce or fraction thereof, to be pre-paid.

City or drop letters must be pre-paid at the rate of 2 cents per half ounce, or fractional part.

Newspaper Postage.

Weekly Newspapers, within the County free.

Weekly Newspapers, 5 cents per quarter.

Semi-Weekly Newspapers, 10 cents per quarter.

Tri-Weekly Newspapers, 15 cents; and so on, provided the paper does not exceed four ounces in weight. For each increase of four ounces the rate is doubled. These rates are based upon 5 cents per quarter for each day's issue.

Transient newspapers, periodicals, pamphlets, and other articles of printed matter, (except books and circulars,) seeds, cuttings, photographs, blanks, maps, engravings, envelopes, paper, book manuscripts and proofs, 2 cents for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

Book Postage.

Books 4 cents for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

Unsealed circulars 2 cents for each three or less in one inclosure to one address. A business card upon the envelope of a circular does not subject it to extra postage.

All mail matter must be pre-paid by postage stamps.

All transient matter must be sent in a cover open at the ends or sides. There must be no word or communication written or printed on the same after its publication, or upon the cover except the same and address of the person to whom it is to be sent. There must be no other inclosure in or with such printed matter. Every such addition will subject the entire package to letter postage.

Letters to or from the British Provinces or Canada, per half ounce, 10 cents, pre-payment optional, except to Newfoundland, which must be pre-paid by postage stamps.

Other foreign postages remain, as heretofore, subjects of arrangement between foreign governments and our own, and are not affected by this law.

If a letter is deposited in the post office insufficiently pre-paid, double postage is to be charged upon the amount remaining due, and the letter is to be forwarded to its destination, where the double rate must be collected before delivery.

Letters addressed to the departments at Washington, except from parties having official relations to such departments, must be prepaid in the same manner as other correspondence.

Fee upon registered letters twenty cents, and the receipt of the party receiving the letter will be returned to the sender.

Miscellaneous matter, either written or printed, if sent by mail, is subject to letter postage.

Persons wishing to pre-pay Postage in money out of regular office hours, should inclose the letter and money in additional envelope, marking it "Postage Inclosed," and drop it into the letter box in the door.

HUNT'S

NEW HAVEN TEMPLE OF

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART

And Imperial Star Gallery of Connecticut!

ESTABLISHED IN NEW HAVEN SINCE 1849.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS! STILL THEY COME.

The above named unrivaled Institution, was opened for the first time at Tyler's Building, No. 332 Chapel street on the glorious Fourth of July, has met with unprecedented success, and at the same time is acknowledged by the hundreds who daily visit it, to be not only the most superbly fitted-up Gallery in New Haven, but the first leading one in the State!

MR. HUNT, the well known Artist and Proprietor, who has been a resident of New Haven for thirteen years and upward, would particularly invite the attention of the public to his excellent which for delicacy of color, or beauty of finish, CANNOT BE SURPASSED, here or elsewhere.

Photographs and Ambrotypes taken at the Shortest Notice.

Persons having plain Photographs of themselves or friends, can have them beautifully colored in PASTEL, IVORYTYPE, or WATER COLORS. Daguerreotypes of deceased friends, (however faded,) can also be copied to the life, as the following, among many other testimonials, will show:

"NEW HAVEN. June 20, 1860.

MR. HUNT—Dear Sir :—I am gratified to be able to inform you that the life-size colored Photograph you have just finished for me, from a small daguerreotype of my Mother, who died some years since, is a perfect likeness of her, and could not be improved. You never having seen her in life, I am surprised that you should have been so very successful in bringing out all the natural expressions of the face, as you have.

"I shall take great pleasure in recommending all who want true pictures of dead or living friends, to call at your new rooms, and test your superior skill in this wonderful art. Wishing you much success in future,

I remain yours truly,

JOHN H. COLEY, JR.

The public will please call and judge for themselves. They may thereby see that the work done in this Gallery is NO HUMBUG.

Don't Forget the Number, 332—nor to examine well the life-like likenesses that adorn the entrance. WM. HUNT.

M. MOULTHROP'S

NATIONAL GALLERY OF

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART,

PHŒNIX BUILDING, No. 298 CHAPEL ST.

---

Having disposed of my interest in the rooms where I have been located for the last three years, I shall hereafter be found personally as above, 298 Chapel Street, Phœnix Building.

This establishment has recently been greatly improved, and has two fine Sky-Lights, and many other improvements that are not usually found except in the leading galleries of large cities, and I am now prepared to offer to the admirers of the fine arts the highest inducement for patronage.

From the earliest introduction of the Photographic Art to America, my exertions have been untiring to perfect it, in its application to every agreeable and useful purpose, and by using the very finest and best of materials, I am able to give my pictures a surpassing and unusual delicacy in their finish.

There is but little sameness in my positions and use of light, it being the design to show every face in its best light, forcible expression, and startling animation, representing thought, action and feeling of soul.

Among the numerous kinds of pictures to be found at the rooms are PORTRAITS IN OIL COLORS, from miniature to life-size. Also, a new style of IVORYTYPE in oil colors that defies competition. Various styles of Water Colors, India Ink, Crayons, Daguerreotypes, Ambrotypes, Melaineotypes,—in short every variety called for.

CARTES DE VISITE

This new and beautiful style of Photograph, now so fashionable, are among the most perfect pictures ever introduced for sending in letters, inserting in Albums, &c., &c.

STEREOSCOPIC PICTURES in all their beauty, will be made of groups and views.

Especial attention paid to copying Daguerreotypes and other pictures of deceased persons and enlarging them to life-size.
