In the Name of the Father Sonne & Holy Ghost, I John Munger of Deep Dish, Isle of Wight County in Virginia being sick & weak but of perfect memorie knowinge how all flesh is grass & all men mortall, Moved upon this consideration I have made my last will & testament as followeth

First I bequeath my soule into the handes of my gracious Redeemer by whose precious blood I was redeemed & by whose merits & mercie I hope to be saved, My mind & Will is, that my worldly substance be disposed of in manner & form following; I bequeath unto my eldest sonne Jno Munger my land at the cider side to him & his lawfull heires, I bequeath unto my second sonne Robt Munger & his lawfull heires, three hundred acres of my land upon the Black water; I bequeath unto my daughter Mary Munger and her lawfull heires one hundred acres, of my land upon the Black water being 400 acres the whole I bequeath unto my eldest sonne Jno Munger one fether bed & bolster, six curtaines & valins, six a good red stagg cuge I desire that my debtes may be paid & after that, all the rest of my goods be equally devided betwixt my wife & all my children; Now I nominate & appoint for supervisors of this my last will & testament my loue sonne Timothy Hunn & my friends Mr Tho: Jabez & Jno Carroll Tho: Carter of this shall then liueinge at my death whom I hereby desire, for I have this trust to goodness sake for the love they beare to him who is the fountaine of all goodness & the trust I repose in them to perform this my last will & testament. My desire is that all of mine, all my sonne sonne brought out of the old fields may be included in the above division of cattle & goods & the mares out of Sal Cow: of the more stock deluded by Mr Jabez may be excepted out of said division & divided only betwixt my sonne Jno & Robert Munger above their proportion, Signed & sealed in the presence of us under written this second day of January 1670
