I, John McCauley of the County of Roanoke and State of Virginia being in full health but of sound mind and disposing memory, and being desirous to dispose of the little worldly estate that I may die possessed of in a practical manner while I am yet alive, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in manner and form as following – (Viz) First, I hereby direct that my Executor (hereinafter named) shall pay all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Secondly – I give and bequeath to my wife Susan McCauley all my real and personal estate which I possess in the State of Virginia to have and to hold during her natural life, and at her death to be equally divided between her children William, Catherine, Isabel, Virginia, Edward, Charles, Mary and Antoinette.

Thirdly – I give and bequeath all my landed estate in the County of Cedar, State of Missouri, containing by the best of my recollection four hundred and eighty acres, if it is not confiscated by the United States Government to my grandchildren, the children of my daughter Timothea Trently of the State of Illinois, and to my son James of California if living, if not to his children, and to my son John of Illinois if living, if not to his children, and to the children of my son David. This property I do not divide into four equal shares or parts, but it is to be given to each living child, and each family
