INTRODUCTION

The late Mr. Berthold Fernow was the Archivist, or custodian, of the Original Documents relating to the history of the Province and State of New York. His office was held under the direction of the Board of Regents of the University. Down to the year 1882, but little had been done in the way of publishing the Documents relating to the Revolutionary War. Indeed, there was no printed information as to the contents of those Documents. In this respect the State of New York was far behind her neighbors. But, with the Centennial of 1776, there came a revival of the Revolutionary spirit; and New York shared in this, along with the other States which succeeded to the 13 original Colonies.

So, in the year first named above, the Board directed Mr. Fernow to examine the MS. Records, and to cull therefrom all items relative to the Military establishment during the War. In 1887, the results of this work were published in a quarto entitled: "Vol. 1 of New York State Archives — New York in the Revolution." The editor drew upon the Proceedings of the Provincial Congress, the Committee of Safety and the Convention of New York; quoted liberally from the "Miscellaneous Papers," the "Assembly Papers" and other Original Documents in preparing the New York Line of the Continental Army; and provided an Alphabetical Roster of the State Troops. The work was well done; but it had the serious defect of three separate Indexes, instead of one General Index covering the whole.

During the progress of Mr. Fernow's work I was a resident of Albany. I made frequent visits to his office, took part in his investigations, and felt that I was of some value to him. The office was in the South-East corner of the third floor of the State Building, on Eagle St. On the same floor, in the North-West corner, there was a room which had been, and still is, used for storage purposes by the State Comptroller whose main offices are on the first floor. At that time neither Mr. Fernow, nor I, nor any one else, knew that the store-room contained Revolutionary War Documents quite as important as any which were passing through our hands. Nor did I dream that, more than ten years later, I should be doing for those yet undiscovered papers what Mr. Fernow was then doing for the papers which were under his control.

The new Documents were finally discovered when Hon. James A. Roberts was Comptroller. They consisted, mainly, of the receipts of soldiers for their pay, with an occasional pay-roll. These Documents were in the care of the Comptroller because they were vouchers for money paid out by the Auditor-General, the predecessor of the Comptroller as the financial agent of the State. (Pages 134-137) Mr. Roberts at once realized the value of the papers; and he secured the services of Col. Charles O. Shephard to arrange and classify them. Col. Shephard prepared about 10 Folio Volumes of the "Revolutionary War MSS.," with a card Index to the same; and he found that the State should be credited with 41,633 soldiers, instead of the 17,781 allowed by Gen. Knox at the end of the War. He had not finished his inquiry when the Legislature demanded something in the way of a book to show for the appropriation. Of course the demand had to be considered, or there would have been no funds for continuing the work. Therefore, in 1897, the First Edition of "New York in the Revolution, as Colony and State" was printed. It was incomplete as to the papers which had been looked over; and it had no Index.

At this point, Col. Shephard had other engagements which made it impossible for him to continue the work. Mr. Roberts then called upon me to continue and to finish it. Fearing that some papers had been overlooked, I explored every corner of the store-room. In this way I secured all Documents which had a bearing on the War — whether or no they related to the service of the soldiers. The mounting of all Documents of this nature in a permanent form was continued until, at the end, there were 52 Volumes of the "MSS.," with a corresponding increase in the card Index. The number of soldiers to be credited to the State also arose to 51,972. (Page 1046) The Legislature having made further appropriations, a Second Edition of "New York in the Revolution, etc.," was published, under my editorship, in 1898. This contained much additional matter, and it was provided with a General Index. In regard to terms of service, it was not so full as Mr. Fernow's book; but it had a much longer list of soldiers, and the proof of their pay in their own signatures. It proved to be, and it still is, the standard evidence of service in the War by soldiers from the State of New York. As such, it continues to be the chief reliance of those who seek to join the several Patriotic Societies.

In the old store-room there were also Documents of quite as much interest as the ones which were used in preparing the Second Edition; for they threw side-lights on the source of supplies, the confiscation of property and the general conduct of the War within the confines of the State. This material was so good that I suggested to Mr. Roberts the publication of another book which should give certain hitherto unknown phases of the struggle. With Mr. Roberts' hearty co-operation — and that of the successive Comptrollers William J. Morgan, Theodore P. Gilman and Erastus C. Knight — and aided by several Legislative appropriations, the work was continued until 1901, when "New York in the Revolution—Supplement" was published, of which I was also the editor.

It is with much satisfaction that I look back to the four years which were spent in the production of the two books; for all of the statements therein were based upon Original Documents which had not been available down to that time. Many thousands of the books have been printed since they were first published — and without change, as the errors are negligible.

For a number of years, the 52 Volumes of "Revolutionary MSS.," and the card Index remained in the main office of the Comptroller. It was not a wise move to take them from a place of comparative safety to the more dangerous surroundings of the State Library. Yet this was done just before the fire of March 29, 1911, destroyed the greater part of them. If, only, they had been allowed to stay where they were until the new Education Building was ready! It is fortunate that the more valuable contents of the Documents had been preserved in the two books named above; and that certain other of the Documents, in their entirety, are preserved in the work which I am now publishing. In order to do what I can to make up for the loss, my deposition will appear on Page 15, at the end of the Table of Contents.

While preparing the "Supplement," I came across numerous bundles marked "Refugees from Long Island." For want of space, I was unable to print but a few of the papers, together with an imperfect list of the Refugees. ("Supplement," pp. 127-133) The Refugees sympathized with the American cause; and were not Tories, as is often supposed. The papers were Claims against the State of New York for expenses of removal to Connecticut, in 1776, just after the Battle of Long Island had left the Refugees at the mercy of the enemy. Three copies of all the Claims were made, and compared carefully with the originals. My first thought was to present the copies to certain Historical Societies. But, before doing this, I made further inquiry; and I found that very little had been written, or even recorded, as to those unfortunate people. The several Historians of Long Island had mentioned them; but, in nearly every case, there was a quotation from the epigrammatic Notes of Henry Onderdonk, Jr. (Pages 986-988) The question then was: "where is the material on which Onderdonk drew for his Notes"? The State Library, at Albany, could not answer. I looked at the printed and MS. matter in the Library, dated 1776-1800; and what little was found appears in Appendixes A. and B. This was all, aside from the Claims, that the State of New York could furnish. To Appendix A. were added extracts from the Census of 1776 (taken just before the flight), which were of great value. The Claims were called, tentatively, Appendix C.; for I had not thought, down to that time, of expanding the subject into a book. Before Appendix C. was closed, a number of missing parts were supplied by the Connecticut State Library and by individuals.

Having exhausted New York, I turned to Connecticut. Three Auditors passed upon the Claims before they were paid. They were the Refugees: Thomas Dering, John Foster and Capt. Thomas Wickham; and their work was done at Middletown. Surely, that City must have something worth the trouble of getting it. But the office of the Town Clerk had nothing concerning the Refugees; and all the evidence that they had been there was in the shape of a few tomb-stones. I then appealed to Mr. Frank Farnsworth Starr, the veteran Historian of Middletown, who replied:

The statement you make as to a Board of Auditors acting on Claims against New York and holding meetings in Middletown is something entirely new to me, and I suspect to all other residents. I have no information about Thomas Dering or Thomas Wickham. Foster was not an uncommon name here down to 1800, and two or more John's lived here, so that nothing could probably be proved about your John. I never knew that the Committee of Inspection of any Town in Connecticut kept records, certainly the Middletown Committee did not. I was connected with the Town Clerk's office for 20 years; and twice packed up the papers for removal to other quarters and back again, making four different times that all the old papers were handled by me. I know of no records of any Justice of the Peace which would help you.

This was discouraging. But, on visiting Hartford, the Connecticut Historical Society and the State Library furnished the Documents which are given in Appendixes D. E. and F. This additional matter was of great importance. It not only gave many new names, but it also — especially in Appendix E — showed the sufferings of the Refugees. The same Appendix gave the source of nearly all of the Onderdonk Notes. They are printed therein along with the full text of the Documents to which they relate.

Meantime, a printed list of about 400 Refugees — all who appeared in Appendix C. — was sent to many parties in Connecticut and on Long Island. In half a year, the list numbered 600, with additional names coming in almost daily. The several Appendixes also swelled the number. So that now, at the close, we have a total of 1274 — of which 1124 were from Long Island, and 150 from New York City. (Page 659) Many names were sent after the estimates on Page 187 had been printed. Consequently, the total number of the Refugees is probably in excess of the figures given on that Page. The total of the Refugees is reasonably accurate. A few names may have been omitted; but that is not the fault of this inquiry. The fault is with those who did not reply to the inquiry in the three separate lists of the Refugees which were posted, for several years, in many places in New York and in Connecticut. If the lists had been held open for 10 years longer, it is doubtful if a considerable number of new names would have been reported.

The decision to print this book came after the discovery of many additional Refugees, and after the valuable material in Appendix E. had supplemented Appendix C. The first plan was to give a brief history of the Refugees, and their names; and to follow with the Appendixes A. to F. As much as this might have been done three years ago. But I was advised that more interest in the work would be taken if the ancestry, families, deeds and descendants of the Refugees were mentioned. Therefore, Part 2 — Biographical was prepared, of which more will be said later on. Out of the Biographies grew Appendix G. — Military Service; for it would not be fair to the Refugees to state that they left Long Island, and deny them the credit of service in the Army elsewhere. This Appendix was enlarged so as to include the service of every one on Long Island, whether a Refugee or not, just before, and during, the Battle of Long Island which ended all active operations in that quarter. So that Appendix G. is the first attempt to group, in one record, all the Militia of Long Island. The Biographies are also responsible for the first part of Appendix H., The Associations. Here we have lists of all the signers, and those who refused to sign, on Long Island; but the "R" opposite a name, while that of a Refugee, does not always show that he was the Refugee in the Biographies. (Page 1050) The rest of Appendix H. contains Miscellaneous Documents of much importance. In Appendix I. we have the Biographies of many prominent soldiers and civilians, not Refugees, who are mentioned in the book. For the convenience of the reader, as well as to keep the General Index within bounds, the same treatment is applied to all Biographies, including the Refugees and those in Appendix I. The Index gives the Page on which the Biography may be found; and in that Biography will be found all references in the book which are not given in the Index. The Biography thus serves as a special Index for each individual, respectively. Appendix J. carries the Illustrations and the Abbreviations. The Illustrations are: Portraits, 115; Autographs, 559; Houses, 77; Monuments, 8; Tomb-stones, 14; Public and Historical Buildings, 8; Fac-similes of Original Documents, 19; Maps, 21; Plans and Diagrams, 7; General Views, 15; Miscellaneous, 34; Ornamental Pieces, 9 — Total, 886. The General Index contains nearly 20,000 names.

If all of the material in the Appendixes had been in hand from the beginning, a better arrangement of it could have been made. But some parts of it came so late that they had to be placed somewhat out of their order. It was impossible to re-arrange the material already in place, because it had been referred to many times on Pages which had been stereotyped. This trouble was minimized by building the book backward — that is, by perfecting the Appendixes first, as far as possible. In a word, the Appendixes are the foundation of the whole work, and without them there would be little of value. They should interest the average reader who might not care for the rest of the book. Even the given names in the General Index might serve to amuse other readers.

On Page 17, it is stated, that this is not a History of the Revolutionary War. Chapters 1-6 give a brief outline so as to show the relative importance of the Battle of Long Island and the Loss of New York City which were responsible for the fact that there were Refugees. Certain little known phases of the War are described in Chapters 7-12. In Chapters 13-20 the history of the Refugees is given. Finally, Chapters 21-26, we trace the local conduct of the War on Long Island, in Connecticut and in Westchester County, N. Y.— wherein many of the Refugees took a prominent part. What is recorded in these Chapters and in the Appendixes may be the last word on the War, so far as Long Island is concerned. If anything, that is the historical scope of this work. Much additional matter might have been given had there not been a persistent desire not to stray from the text. Yet what is recorded between these covers shows such intense suffering and such real heroism, often in most dramatic situations, that some talent might well produce, what has not been produced hitherto, the real Play of 1776.

The hardest, and most exacting, work in this inquiry was done in preparing Part 2—Biographical. This required the exchange of letters reaching into the thousands; and it caused delays of many months in the publication. In this effort, I had so many helpers that it would not be fair to call the roll lest some be omitted. All of them are quoted in the text, and the General Index shows where they are quoted. To all of them I extend my appreciation for what they have done. A few of my best correspondents passed away without seeing this book, in which they were intensely interested. But their work survives in these pages, and the Index shows what they did. Foremost among them was Hon. Henry P. Hedges, of Bridge Hampton, L. I., whom I consulted personally several times. He died just as I was about to interview him on some of the closing features of the work. Others on Long Island were: Mr. Charles R. Dayton, of East Hampton; Mr. James F. Young, of Manhasset; Rear Admiral Ebenezer S. Prime, of Huntington; Mr. Samuel O. Lee, of Huntington; and Mr. Oliver H. Perry, of Elmhurst. Elsewhere, there were: Hon. Horace Russell and Mr. John H. Wainwright, of New York City; Prof. James W. Moore, of Easton, Pa.; and Dr. Isaac H. Platt, of Wallingford, Pa.

The beginning of the biographical inquiry was most discouraging. The first "returns" came from Mr. Dayton who described the situation at East Hampton in these extracts from his numerous letters:—

The main difficulty appears to be in getting anything from the descendants of these people. Very few of them have any family record as far back, and many not at all. It is surprising how few of them know whether their ancestors went away as Refugees. I am obliged to visit the cemetery to ascertain when they died, in order to know whether they came back at all. So little is known at this late day by their descendants (if they are descendants) that I can identify but very few of the names on your list as being from East Hampton.

It is now 132 years since the battle of Long Island. Many of the persons you have as Refugees were doubtless from this place, but in the absence of family records, in most cases, the inability of persons now living to tell whether they were at all related to the so called Refugees; and even if they could, have no knowledge either from tradition, family records or otherwise, as to whether they were Refugees, or not, is why I could not do more.

All I was able to do was to give the names on the list, that were here, and could have been Refugees, excluding, of course, those who died too early, or were born too late. You would be surprised to know how little the present generation know about their ancestors. The days for reverence for ancestral pride is past, except in very few instances. Why, I actually found an intelligent man the other day, 70 years old, who did not know the name of his grandfather.

Even the Genealogy from which I draw is by no means complete. In some instances, only a part of the families are given. Many genealogies give only one name, and others just enough to trace the line of descent. Being familiar myself with the descendants of many of the names on your lists, I was able to get information (not from the descendants themselves, for that was impossible in regard to them) but from their associates or connections with others, which a stranger could not obtain. The absence of dates of birth and death, the perpetuation of the same name through successive generations, made it exceedingly difficult to identify any name on the list with the same name in the Genealogy, and it was only by a diligent search in the Town Records and Church records that it could be done, and even in that case it was often impossible, owing to the frequent omissions, and the repetition of the same name.

Another correspondent gave the following as an example of the difficulties which beset her:

When I asked information from a near relative, he told me that he could not get up the enthusiasm necessary to enable him to assist in my "genealogical boom," as he termed it; that we are all children of God who has us duly entered and accounted for on his Great Book, etc. He then gave me a lecture, from his stand-point of "republican simplicity" and pious indifference to earthly affairs, upon genealogical matters generally, and their vanity. He endeavored to convince me that my labor was neither Godly, commendable nor necessary; and that, consequently, his chances, he being indifferent to such mundane affairs, were much better than mine for an agreeable hereafter.

Still another correspondent — we will call him Baynes — found fault with the spelling of the name in his immediate family. He wrote in this way:

Long years ago my cousin Stratton came to me and said that the spelling of our name, Baines, was all wrong; that he had looked it up in books, and it should be Baynes. I told him that he was wrong. But, unfortunately for all of us, he persuaded me, and some of my brothers and sisters, and all of his father's family, to make the change. Afterward, when he was an old man, he came to me, regretted the mistake that he had made and said that he had changed back to Baines, and so had almost everybody whom he had persuaded to change to Baynes. He wanted me to change back to Baines; but I told him my name was recorded as Baynes in the office of the Town Clerk, and I could not do it. "But," he said, "your sons have changed back to Baines." "Let them spell the name anyway they like," I replied, "as long as they don't disgrace it. But I won't change."

His was not the only family in which the name was spelled variously; sometimes by the individual, more often by the one recording it. Thus we have: Curwin, for Corwin; Hoel, for Howell; Udall and Woodle, for Woodhull; Hulse, for Halsey; Parsons, for Pierson; Cupper, for Cooper; and Tillenness, for Tillinghast. Then, there was the controversy, not yet settled, as to the final "g" in Alling, Conkling, Griffing &c.; and the final "s" in Youngs. There was much confusion among the given names, also. Joyce stood for Rejoice; Scena, for Asenath; and Deziah, for Desire. It took some time to translate Rich Shary into Capt. Recompence Sherrill. In the end, nearly all of these obstacles were overcome by appealing to those who were best informed as to their respective families.

As a rule, the correspondents gave full and intelligent replies to the inquiries. If anything, the average of them sent too much. In numerous cases, parties who had seen, or heard of, the printed lists sent the names of Refugees not on the lists; and, with them, much valuable information about their descendants. Two leading instances are Henry Brown, Jr. (Pages 280, 281) and Elias Cooper. (Page 311) A few of the correspondents held back until they saw that a book was in sight, and that their neighbors would be in it. Then they made haste to reply. One man, however, actually refused access to important documents which were in his attic.

Duplicate work in the Biographies has been avoided, when possible. Printed Genealogies have been more often referred to than copied. In rare cases, the origin of the family in Europe is mentioned — the line usually beginning with the emigrant ancestor to America. Differing opinions as to the origin of a family have been reconciled; or, failing in that, all the opinions have been given, with the informants as authorities. Special attention and extra space have been given to families which have no printed Genealogy. Some of the Biographies, it will be noticed, are very scant. This might have been because there was no information to be had; or because the descendants did not reply to the appeal; or because the reply came too late.

Of course, many prominent families on Long Island do not appear in the Biographies because they had no representative among the Refugees.

The biographical inquiry often helped itself in unexpected ways. A remark, dropped by Mr. William Higgins Conkling (Page 305), identified four Conkling brothers who were Refugees; and when Mr. Conkling was asked for his Higgins line, he ran it back to Christian Higgins, a Refugee who had been elusive down to that time. A chance expression, made by a boy who accompanied him, proved that a certain man was a Refugee as against the statements of all his descendants that he was not. More important than all, the biographical inquiry put scattered branches of some families in communication, and introduced many interested parties to others of whose existence they did not know. The case of Alatheia Gildersleeve is in evidence.

On Pages 884 and 885 it is stated that, on March 28, 1780, she, with her child, was allowed to return to Long Island. She was unknown to the Gildersleeve descendants. After some inquiry, it was found that the Chatham—Portland, Conn., Church Records stated that, as Alatheia Overton, she married Henry Gildersleeve on Jan. 29, 1778, and that both were from Long Island. The Overton descendants were not aware of the marriage. Then the Gildersleeve Records informed that Henry, son of a Refugee and brother of two others, was born in 1755 and died Nov. 26, 1779. Thus Henry was himself a Refugee, and Alatheia was his Widow. What became of her after she returned to Long Island? The Mattituck Church Records stated that she married Jonathan Tuthill on April 27, 1780, only a few days after her return. Inquiry of the Tuthill descendants then brought out the names of her Tuthill children. (Pages 360, 361, 488, 612) Thus the brief notice of a Widow, but 25 years of age, ended in clearing a mystery in three families. The General Index, too, was increased by about 30 names.

Among those who saw certain proofs of this work, some objected to the very free use of punctuation marks. But it must be remembered that printers and writers differ as to the rule. So that I am entitled to decide upon my own rule—which is, that it is better to have too much punctuation than too little. Sentences of short, or moderate, length are preferable to the long and involved sentences of the late Hon. William M. Evarts or the celebrated 100-line sentence in Victor Hugo's "Les Miserables." The abundant use of Capital letters, herein, has been mentioned. Here, again, there is a reason; for all of the nouns, and many of the adjectives, in the Original Documents began with capitals.

This book should have been written 100 years ago while many of the Refugees, or at least their children, were still alive. It is hard to obtain satisfactory results in dealing with great-grand children. Moreover, many documents have been lost, or destroyed, in the meantime. So that, while others, from Hon. Silas Wood down, might have written the book, they had little incentive to do so. The trouble was that they did not have enough of a foundation on which to build. Appendix C. gave that foundation; and, as I had the only copies, it seemed to devolve upon me to produce the book. There have been many delays which have doubled the time taken, the size of the book and its cost. But the delays have perfected the work, and they have made it more valuable.

As I close these pages, I once more look out upon my oft-time inspiration. From the windows of my study I see, but two miles away, Shippan Point whence Tallmadge made his raids over to Long Island. Across the Sound, six miles away, I see the North shore of the Island from Lloyd's Neck to Setauket. And then I live over again the life I have been living with the Refugees. Their sorrowings and their sufferings are over. May they rest in peace.

DEPOSITION

Frederic G. Mather of the City and Town of Stamford, County of Fairfield, State of Connecticut, deposes and says: —

That he was a resident of the City and County of Albany, State of New York, between, and including, the years 1880 and 1905.

That in the year 1897 he was employed by the State of New York, through James A. Roberts, then Comptroller of the State, and his successors in office, down to the year 1902.

That his employment consisted in classifying and arranging certain Original Documents pertaining to the Revolutionary War, known as "Revolutionary Manuscripts", all of which were placed permanently in fifty-two Folio Volumes, with a card index to the same.

That, by the same authority, he prepared the copy, and superintended the printing, of "New York in the Revolution—Second Edition", published in the year 1897, and "New York in the Revolution—Supplement", published in the year 1901.

That, in the preparation of the two books above named, he handled all of the "Revolutionary Manuscripts", and that he believes all statements in the books, as related to the "Manuscripts", to be accurate.

That, in the preparation of the book known as "The Refugees of 1776 from Long Island to Connecticut," he had copies made (and carefully compared) of the "Revolutionary Manuscripts" which appear in Appendix C of the above-named book; and that he believes all statements therein (or elsewhere in the book) as to the "Manuscripts" to be accurate.

That the fifty-two Folio Volumes of "Revolutionary Manuscripts", together with the card index to the same, were removed from the office of the Comptroller to the New York State Library early in the summer of the year 1910.

That on, or about, March 29 in the year 1911 much of the State Library was destroyed by fire, including the greater part of the fifty-two Folio Volumes and all of the card index to the same.

That the deponent makes the above statements in the interest of historical accuracy.

FREDERIC G. MATHER.

THE REFUGEES OF 1776

FROM LONG ISLAND TO CONNECTICUT

PART ONE—HISTORICAL

FIRST DIVISION—THE SHORT STORY OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR

CHAPTER ONE—LEXINGTON TO TICONDEROGA

The War of the American Revolution is merely outlined in the first six of these Chapters. No attempt is made to give the reasons behind Lexington; or the causes which led to that Battle. Lexington as an accepted fact is the starting point, from which we proceed to show the relative importance of the Battle of Long Island, in Chapter Three, and to give the stage setting. The actors, the Refugees, will appear later.

POPULATION OF THE COLONIES

Elkanah Watson (Ap. I. 14), the closest observer of men and times during the War, wrote as follows, in 1778:

Taking 3,000,000, the number of inhabitants in the United States at this time, as a basis, and admitting our population to double each 23 years, the result in 100 years will be 62,000,000 * * * *, approaching 100,000,000 in the year A. D. 1900, which will be nearly equal to that of all Europe at the present day.

The prediction might have been fulfilled had it not been for the Civil War, although Watson started with too high an estimate for 1778.

In the "Papers of Gov. George Clinton," (I. 210) it is more accurately stated that, in 1775, the total population of the several Colonies was 2,418,000 — as follows:

New Hampshire.....	100,000	Pennsylvania.....	300,000
Massachusetts Bay...	350,000	Delaware.....	30,000
Rhode Island.....	58,000	Maryland.....	250,000
Connecticut.....	200,000	Virginia.....	400,000
New York.....	200,000	North Carolina.....	200,000
New Jersey.....	130,000	South Carolina.....	200,000

All of the smaller Colonies, and Maryland, Virginia, the Carolinas and Connecticut of the larger Colonies, had no populous centers. In Maryland, Baltimore had about 6,000 inhabitants. In Connecticut, as late as 1782, New Haven had 7,966; Hartford, 5,495; and Middletown, 4,612. In New York, Albany had 8,000; and Brooklyn, 3,000. The largest cities, of that day, were Philadelphia, 50,000; Boston, 25,000; and New York, 21,865, in 1771 — the latter according to Doc. Hist. of N. Y., Vol. 2. The population of New York had risen to 25,000 by 1775. (Johnston's "Campaign of 1776, etc.," p. 36) Contemporary with these, London was estimated to have 700,000; and Paris, 600,000. By the Census of 1790, the State of New York had 340,120; and the City of New York, 33,131.

While Philadelphia was as large as Boston and New York combined, yet it had showed no particular aggressiveness before the beginning of the War. In New York, the parties to the struggle were quite evenly balanced, although there had been a number of outbreaks in the way of protests against the British Ministry. But in Boston the disorders were more frequent and more important. So that, when the Ministry resolved to put down the rebellion, Boston was the point of attack. Succeeding there, the Ministry reasoned that the rest of the opposition would collapse. This was good political logic, and the conclusion desired by the Ministry would have been reached had not the premises failed.

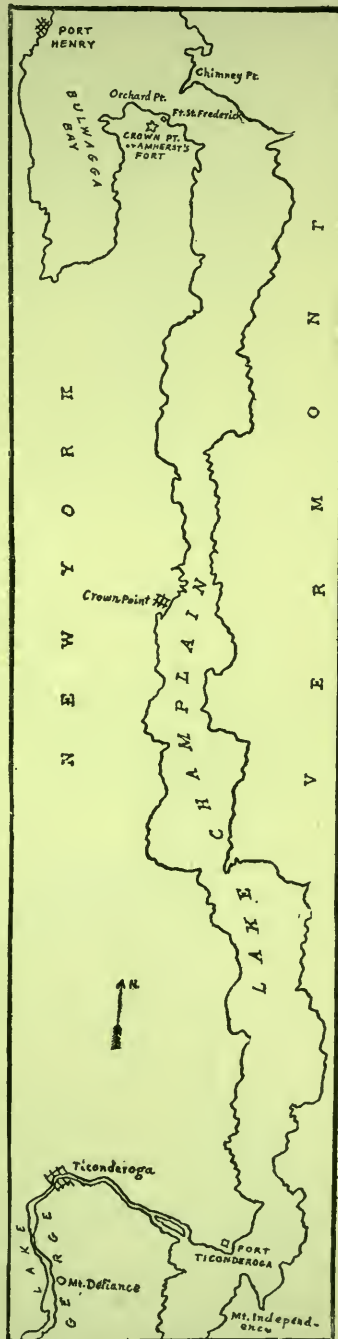

The first step taken by the British General, Gage, was to secure the arms and ammunition already in the hands of the Americans. He, therefore, directed that all such property should be delivered to him in Boston; and, to that end, he advanced to Lexington and Concord where the first armed resistance took place, in April, 1775. This led to what was known as "The Lexington Alarm," to which the Militia of the New England Colonies responded in such numbers that Gage and his Army were confined within the limits of Boston.

STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF CHAMPLAIN

Lexington had aroused the Colonies to a spirit of retaliation. The most vulnerable points of attack were on Lake Champlain. This was the convenient gate through which the Algonquins, at the North, and the Iroquois, at the South, could each enter the territory of the other. The Lake is but 100 feet above tide-water; and its tributary, Lake George, is only 150 feet higher. With small portages over to the Hudson River, travel by this, the only, route was both easy and rapid. For many years a truce between the two Indian nations had existed, by which neither would pass beyond a certain boundary supposed to be what is now known as "The Split Rock." Champlain passed the boundary, in 1609, and entered the territory of the Iroquois. In 1689, Bonnevue, the Governor of Montreal, proposed to capture Albany by way of Lake Champlain; and, later, in turn, what is now New York City, with the aid of a French Fleet. Frontenac carried out the plan so far as to capture Schenectady. Montcalm followed the path, in 1756; and, by fortifying at Ticonderoga, commenced the operations of the Seven Years' War. Ft. St. Frederick, at Crown Point, had been built in 1731.

Thus far, the history of Lake Champlain had been a romance. There clustered about it: the rise of the French supremacy; the attempt to establish a new Canadian Province, extending from Lake Ontario to the Connecticut River, with Crown Point as the Capital; the efforts to confine the English to a narrow strip of the Atlantic seaboard; the departing days of French domination when everything English converged upon Niagara and Quebec and ended the rule of the Gaul. Thus "The Split Rock" became the Rubicon of France in America. But, before it might be called by that name, there were witnessed the valorous deeds of La Motte, De Chazy, De Sorel, De Courcelles, Montcalm, Vaudreuil and Dieskau, on the one side; and, of Corlear, Schuyler, Winthrop, Rogers, Howe, Abercrombie, Williams and Amherst, on the other.

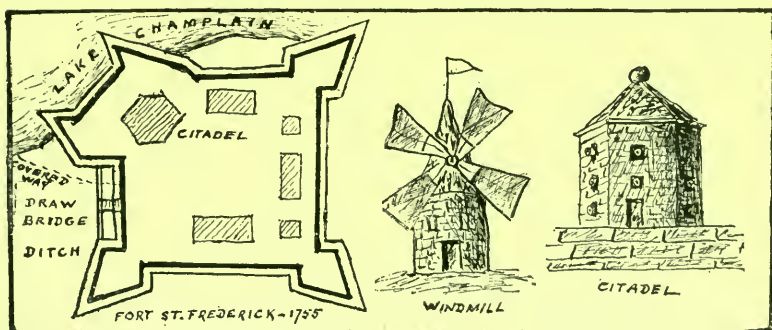

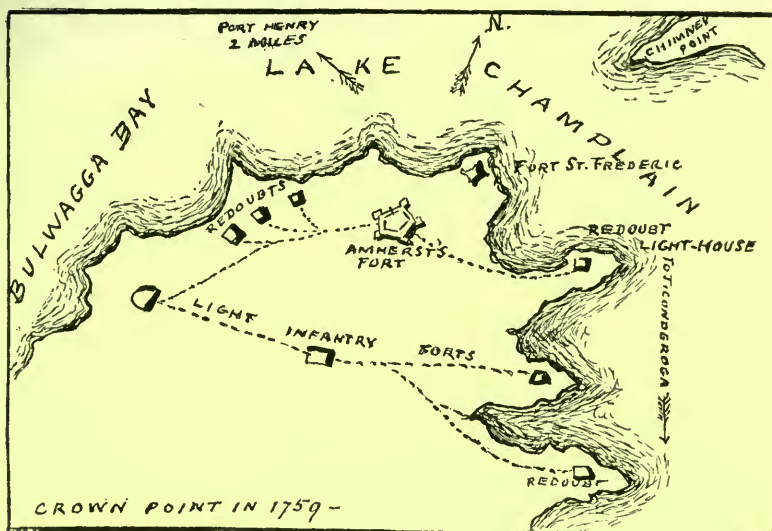

TICONDEROGA AND CROWN POINT

With the departure of the French, the romance ended. Amherst expended $10,000,000 at Crown Point to make it the Northern bulwark of the English Colonies. Ticonderoga was also strengthened. But so little was France feared that, by the year 1775, both of the fortifications were held by very small garrisons. This, then, was the opportunity of the Americans to offset the defeats at Lexington and Concord. They had helped the English to wrest Louisburg from the French, only to see it restored to France in exchange for Madras. They had helped to secure the control of Lake Champlain, which now, under English rule, threatened them with invasion from the North—an invasion which came two years later, under Burgoyne. (Ap. I. 2) The same attempt was made in the War of 1812. This region, therefore, might well be termed "The Flanders of America."

The illustrations give sufficient information as to the fortifications. A minute description, in words, cannot be undertaken here. It should be explained, however, that in the old tracing of Amherst's Fort at Crown Point, modern surveys show no entrance and draw-bridge at E; but a North gate at A, and a South gate at B. Also an underground passage to the Lake, at F. The East and South Barracks remain, in the modern surveys; but, instead of the Storehouse at C, there are the West Barracks at D.

CAPTURE OF CROWN POINT AND TICONDEROGA

Among those who were at Cambridge in response to the Lexington Alarm was Capt. Benedict Arnold (Ap. I. 1) who had marched his Company thither from New Haven. It was claimed by Massachusetts that he originated the Expedition against the Forts on Lake Champlain, and that Massachusetts gave him a Colonel's commission in order to carry it out. It is further claimed that Connecticut "improperly used his plan, and arranged another Expedition." Whatever the truth may be, Connecticut acted first. The General Assembly, only a few days after Lexington, raised £300, by the personal notes of Capt. Edward Mott and others. Mott then proceeded Northward with 16 men. More volunteers joined at Hartford, Salisbury, Pittsfield and other places before they met Col. Ethan Allen (Ap. I. 1) and Col. Seth Warner (Ap. I. 14) near Ticonderoga. Mott and another, in disguise, discovered that the Fort could be taken without opposition.

In the meantime Arnold had recruited in Western Massachusetts, and overtook Allen. Arnold demanded the sole command. This being refused, he entered Ticonderoga, side by side with Allen.* The picturesque capture of the place, on May 10, is well known. Two days later, Warner took the fort at Crown Point without opposition; and Arnold was victorious at the Northern end of the Lake.

FROM LOSSING'S "FIELD BOOK," I. 118

In his report, Allen stated that the Expedition was attempted "by the order of the General Assembly of Connecticut." Gov. Trumbull (Ap. I. 13) appointed Col. Hinman to take charge of the two Forts; but Arnold, refusing to serve under him, resigned the Commission given to him by Massachusetts. Hinman commanded until *a, entrance and wicket gate; b, counterscarp 20 ft. wide; c, bastions; d, underground room and ovens; e, barracks and officers' quarters; f, court, or parade-ground; g, trench or covert-way, 16 ft. wide and 10 ft. deep; h, the place where Allen and his men entered by a covert-way from the outside.

Gen. Philip Schuyler (Ap. I. 11) took charge of the newly created Northern Department. The Forts were held by the Americans until Burgoyne's invasion, in 1777.

At the time of the capture, that portion of the present State of Vermont, known as the New Hampshire Grants, was claimed both by New Hampshire and New York; and more or less treasonable correspondence had been carried on looking to the annexation of the territory to Canada. Allen was a leader among those who insisted that Vermont should be an independent commonwealth. Before the law of New York, he was a rebel. Apparently this was condoned on account of his exploits; and a truce seemed to exist throughout the War. And yet, when Allen appeared before the Continental Congress with his plan for taking St. John's and Montreal, the opposition of the Delegates from New York had to be overcome before he was permitted to carry out the plan. Thereafter, his "Green Mountain Boys" appeared in the Military Records of New York.

The value of the captured Forts lay not so much in preventing the invasion from the North of a yet unorganized enemy, as in the large number of cannon which came to the Americans. We shall see, presently, of what use they were at Boston. After that City had no further need of them, many were removed to New York and to the South; so that scarcely a Battle or a Siege took place during the War in which some of the cannon were not used. A number were mounted at Brooklyn, in

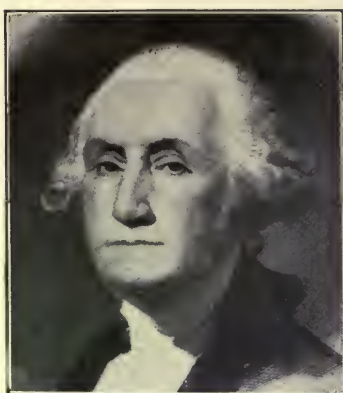

John Trumbull

1776 (Field's "Battle of Long Island"); and, in 1778, others were taken to Albany. (Clinton Pap. 3. 59) The total number and weight of the cannon have been stated in many different ways, probably none of them accurate. A detailed description of the pieces is given in "N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.," p. 52.

George Washington

CHAPTER TWO—BOSTON TO NEW YORK

The Battle of Bunker Hill was fought June 17, 1775, without the knowledge that, two days before, the Continental Congress had appointed George Washington Commander-in-Chief of the American Army. He started at once to assume the command. The Philadelphia City Troop escorted him across New Jersey. In New York City he landed at the foot of Lighthouse Street, where a tablet now marks the spot. Passing through Stamford, Connecticut, he is said to have stopped at the Webb Tavern where, later, LaFayette (Ap. I. 7) held a reception. Gen. Washington arrived at Cambridge on July 2; and assumed the command on the following day.

Prominent among his associates were Generals John Sullivan (Ap. I. 12), Israel Putnam (Ap. I. 10), Nathaniel Greene (Ap. I. 5), Joseph Spencer (Ap. I. 12), Thomas Mifflin (Ap. I. 9) and Henry Knox (Ap. I. 7); and Colonels Samuel H. Parsons (Ap. I. 10), Jedediah Huntington (Ap. I. 6) and Charles Webb (Ap. I. 14), of Connecticut—all of whom played important parts later on. Capt. Benedict Arnold brought his Company from New Haven. It is said that Captains Aaron Burr (Ap. I. 2) and James Wilkinson (Ap. I. 15) first met at Cambridge. Their friendship continued down to the proposed South-Western Confederacy, 30 years later.

General Gage was recalled after Bunker Hill, and the command of the British devolved upon Gen. William Howe (Ap. I. 6), who was ably assisted by Gen. Sir Henry Clinton (Ap. I. 3) and Gen. Burgoyne.

John Lamb. Rich^d Montgomery

Both sides then played a waiting game. The British still held Boston, and the Americans were engaged in the attempt to keep them there. Both sides, also, believed that the contest would be settled in that vicinity. There were no indications that it would be settled elsewhere. In this instance, coming events did not cast their shadows before.

Meantime, Gen. Sir Guy Carleton (Ap. I. 3), the Governor of Canada, had prepared to take Ticonderoga and Crown Point. He began to move Southward; but, being delayed by an invasion of Canada, he retired to the vicinity of Quebec. The invasion moved in two divisions. The Western, under Schuyler, began the march; but Schuyler, becoming ill, was replaced by Gen. Richard Montgomery (Ap. I. 9). St. Johns was again captured and Montreal was occupied. Apparently this part of the Expedition was furnished with supplies by both New York and Connecticut. (Ap. E. 195) Allen was taken prisoner, at Montreal, and removed to New York where he was confined for many months.

Arnold, with instructions from Washington, led the Eastern division through the woods of Maine. He joined Montgomery before Quebec. After a partial siege, the works were assailed by several columns of Americans, on Dec. 31, 1775. Montgomery fell, and Arnold was badly wounded. Col. John Lamb (Refugees, N. Y. City) did effective work with his Artillery from New York; but he was taken prisoner. Among the bills relating to the Monument to Montgomery at St. Paul's Church, New York City, is one showing that he advanced $250 of his own money toward this unfortunate Expedition. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y) The remainder of the invading Army spent the winter not far from Quebec, hoping for reinforcements in the Spring. But, by that time, the ubiquitous Burgoyne arrived; and the Americans were driven from Canada by the middle of June, 1776.

THE SIEGE OF BOSTON

On June 12, 1775, the New York Provincial Congress sent the sloop "Bishop of Landaff" Capt. Snell, on a voyage to the Windward Islands, for the use of the Continental Army laying before Boston. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 3) Early in March, 1776, the Congress was engaged in sending the Continental powder to Cambridge by wagons, overland. (Same ref., 30. 34)

H Knox

The cannon which Allen, Warner and Arnold had captured on Lake Champlain had not been reckoned, by the British, as factors in the Military problem. As we have seen, in Chapter 1, the object of the capture was to drive the enemy from Boston. Under the personal conduct of Gen. Knox, many of the cannon were moved to the vicinity of Boston in the winter of 1775-1776. Evidently there was a truce during this time; as Howe, apparently, did not care to move out of Boston, and Washington did not care to move in.

Washington now had rather more than the 20,372 men and officers ordered by the Continental Congress, in November, 1775, as the size of the Army to invest Boston. He was also well supplied with arms and ammunition; and the Spring of 1776 was his opportunity. By this time, the enemy had been reinforced; and, more effectively, by the arrival of Lord Richard Howe (Ap. I. 6), elder brother of Gen. William Howe, and his Fleet.

By a strange, and fatal, oversight the Howes had failed to fortify the Heights of Dorchester and Roxbury which commanded both the City and the harbor of Boston. From the beginning, Washington had planned to occupy those Heights; but he was not prepared until March 3 and 4. His preparations were made so secretly that the enemy was not aware of the occupation until it had become a fact. The Howes prepared for an attack; but a storm intervened, and the Americans were well intrenched before it was over. The British position was so dangerous that the Howes resolved to move. The Evacuation took place on Mar. 17, there being a tacit agreement that the Fleet would spare the City if Washington would spare the Fleet. The latter sailed for Halifax; and Washington occupied Boston on the following day.*

THE SIEGE OF BOSTON

(From Ridpath's "History of the United States")

CONDITIONS ON LONG ISLAND

Early in the Summer of 1775, with Boston as their base, many British ships of War made a rendezvous of Gardiner's Bay. The Eastern end of Long Island, in consequence, suffered from predatory excursions after stock and other supplies. At that time, Gen. David Wooster (Ap. I. 15), encamped at Harlem with his Connecticut Militia, sent parties to stop the marauders on Long Island. On July 5, the people of East Hampton represented to the New York Provincial Congress that they had not less than 2000 cattle, and 3000 or 4000 sheep on Montauk, exposed to the enemy; and they requested that Troops, especially Capt. John Hulbert's Company, should be stationed there for protection. On the same date, and probably a part of the same representation, Burnet Miller, Chairman of the Committees of East Hampton and Southampton, wrote to the Congress asking for Troops to prevent the taking of stock from Shelter Island, Plum Island and Gardiner's Island. (Jour. and Proceedings of Cong. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197)

Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that about the year 1850 he had the Correspondence and Journal of Capt. John Hulbert from Samuel L'Hommedieu; and read and returned them to him. Mr. L'Hommedieu loaned the papers to his nephew, Samuel L. Gardiner; and, in New York City, they were taken from Mr. Gardiner's hat and disappeared, perhaps forever. From the Journal and letters, Judge Hedges learned that Capt. Hulbert's Company on Montauk was stationed at Shagwonnack; that it was supplied with arms, ammunition and provisions by the people of the Town through Burnet Miller and Stephen Hedges their Committee; and that on Sept. 7, 1775, the Companies having marched from Montauk, Capt. Hulbert and his men were supplied with guns and ammunition, and were afterward stationed at Fort Constitution.

In July, 1775, the New York Provincial Congress allowed the Companies of Capt. Hulbert and Capt. Griffin to remain; and also permitted John Foster, of Southampton, to ship a cargo of live stock to the West Indies, to be exchanged for Military Stores.

* See Frothingham's "Siege of Boston."

In August, information was given to the Congress, by Robert Hempstead of Southold, that 13 sail, eight of which were supposed to be ships of war, were seen cruising between Montauk and Fisher's Island; and that they finally anchored off Oyster Ponds (now Orient). He stated that the people were destitute of powder, and prayed that measures might be taken to afford them a supply. On Aug. 18, the Congress recommended the removal of the cattle and sheep from Gardiner's Island and Plum Island; and, about this time, Gen. Gage's Fleet and Army took from Gardiner's Island and Fisher's Island 86 cattle, and between 2000 and 3000 sheep. On Aug. 22, William Smith, Esq., Chairman of the Suffolk County Committee (met for the purpose of concerting measures to remove the stock from Gardiner's and Plum Islands), in his letter of that date, said that an officer of the Ministerial Fleet had informed Col. Gardiner that they should come again, with a force sufficient to take the stock from Long Island. Addressing the Congress, on the same date, he described the danger to property if the Troops of Gen. Wooster should be removed. On Aug. 27, Gen. Wooster, writing from Oyster Ponds, recommended to the Congress, to keep a good guard over Queens County, as he supposed the enemy designed to get stock from that part of the Island. (Jour. and Proceedings of Cong. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197, 198)

RESISTING THE INVADERS

While anticipating visits from the British Fleet, similar to those at the Eastern end of Long Island, in 1775, the New York Provincial Congress, on Feb. 15, 1776, received a letter from Dr. Samuel Thompson, stating that he had made surveys of the harbors of Setauket and Stony Brook. (Ap. A. 1) In March, when the Fleet of the enemy was expected, Capt. Jeremiah Rogers was hired to keep a lookout at Southampton. This he did for 111 days. (Ap. A. 34)

On Mar. 4, the Congress, being "apprehensive that the Ministerial Army in Boston may attempt to land in this Colony in a short time," sent Circular Letters to the several Colonels of the Minute Men and Militia, from Albany to the Southward, ordering them to hold their respective Regiments in readiness to march on the first notice of an invasion. The Colonels were urged to lose no time in completing the Minute Regiments. (Ap. A. 1) On Apr. 3, it was stated that, in consideration of the defenceless state of the Eastern part of Suffolk County, the three Companies raised for the Continental Service were continued there. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 26) The Congress received a letter, on Apr. 10, from Rev. Samuel Buell, stating that the enemy's Fleet was off East Hampton; and Capt. Thomas Weeks also wrote that a Fleet had been seen near Huntington. (Ap. A. 1)

On May 1, the Congress ordered an enrolment of all the males on Long Island capable of bearing arms, with the result that 1770 were named in Queens County; and 2000, in Suffolk County. It was also stated that the majority in Kings County and in Queens County still remained Loyalists. (Field's "Battle of Long Island")

GUARDING THE STOCK

The armed boats "Montgomery" and "Schuyler" lay at Fire Island Inlet, on June 19, 1776. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 27) On June 28, the Congress ordered that a conference be had with Gen. Washington as to removing or securing the cattle and stock from those parts of Long Island and Staten Island which were most exposed to invasion. (Ap. A. 2) In July, Benjamin Kissam reported to the Congress in favor of driving to the interior, for safety, the stock belonging to the inhabitants of Queens County. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.") On July 12, the Convention assured the Committees of East Hampton and Southampton that the stock at Montauk would be protected. (Ap. A. 3) On July 20, the Convention estimated that there were, on Long Island, 100,000 horned cattle and a much larger number of sheep. On the same date, the Convention ordered that the stock be driven to the interior, leaving with the owners only such cows as were necessary; that the stock should be destroyed rather than to have it captured by the enemy; that a draft of one-fourth part of the Militia and Minute Men on Long Island, under Officers who were named, should enforce this order; and that Gen. Washington should be requested to purchase the stock for the Continental Army. A week later, Gen. Washington replied favorably to the request. (Ap. A. 4, 5)

The Convention, on Aug. 2, resolved that Aug. 27 next be a day of fasting and prayer, imploring Almighty God for assistance in establishing a form of Government for the perpetuation of the Civil and Religious Rights and Liberties of Mankind; and that three appropriate sermons should be preached before the Convention on that day. (Proceedings of the Convention) There is no record of the observance of this day, as it was the date of the Battle of Long Island.

On Aug. 10, the Convention learned that the inhabitants of Kings County had determined not to oppose the enemy. Thereupon, William Duer, Col. Henry Remsen, John Sloss Hobart and Col. Charles DeWitt were appointed a Committee, to go there; to secure the disaffected; to remove, or destroy, the grain; and, if necessary, to lay the whole country waste. (Proceedings) On Aug. 13, Col. John Sands (Refugees, L. I.) received money from the Convention to pay his men for guarding the stock in Queens County. (Ap. A. 5) On Aug. 24, the Convention ordered Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull (Refugees, L. I.), or in his absence, Lt. Col. Gilbert Potter (Refugees, L. I.), and the whole of the Queens County Militia to secure the stock in that County from the enemy. On the following day, it was ordered that the stock be driven to the East end of Hempstead Plain; and, on the 26th, word came that the enemy was shooting cattle on the Northern shore of the Island. (Ap. A. 6, 7) Capt. John Skidmore afterward received pay for the services of his Company in removing the stock from Queens County. (Ap. A. 23) On the date of the Battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, the Committee of Safety received word from Gen. Woodhull that he had driven the cattle well to the Eastward; whereupon a Committee was appointed to report upon the sale of the cattle. (Ap. A. 8, 10) On the next day, the Convention ordered Col. Josiah Smith and Col. Jeronimus Remsen to aid Gen. Woodhull in destroying all grain and stock which could not be removed to a place of safety. The Convention also called on the Governor of Connecticut for 1000 Troops to protect the inhabitants and their stock. (Ap. A. 11, 12) But it was too late; for the enemy was already in possession of the Western end of the Island, and the stock was also theirs. Finally, on Sept. 11, Brig. Gen. Oliver DeLancey, of the British forces, ordered all the cattle to be driven to Jamaica. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 47)

Thus, down to the Battle of Long Island, the chief effort was to preserve property. The Military preparations, on Long Island, are described in the next Chapter.

NEW YORK THE OBJECTIVE POINT

Fearing for the safety of New York, Washington had already, on Feb. 4, sent Gen. Charles Lee (Ap. I. 7) thither with 1500 men, as mentioned at the beginning of Chapter 3. On Mar. 18, directly after the Evacuation of Boston, Washington sent five Regiments, with Artillery, to New York by way of New London.

About the same time, Sir Henry Clinton took a force to the Carolinas for the reduction of Charleston; but, being repulsed there, he came to New York in July. On his arrival, he found that Gen. Howe had preceded him, by several days, with the First Division of the British Army. (Chap. 3)

There was no mistaking the design of the British—to capture New York, and make it the base of their future operations. Thus we have a series of events connected by a most interesting chain: the Militia from New England captured the cannon at Ticonderoga and Crown Point; the cannon drove the enemy from Boston; advancing to New York, the enemy drove the American Army from that City and from Long Island (Chapters 3 and 4); and the loss of the City and of Long Island led to the escape of the American Refugees to Connecticut.

DISTURBANCES IN THE CITY

For many years it was accepted as a fact that the first blood of the Revolution was shed at the Boston Massacre, Mar. 5, 1770. But it is certain that, in the Battle of Golden Hill, fought in John St., New York City, on Jan. 18, 1770, the first blood was really shed. The cause of the conflict was an insignificant flag-pole which the Sons of Liberty strove to maintain; and the 16th Regulars decreed should be cut down. (Clinton Pap., 1. 42-54) There was, also, a "tea-party," in the same City, on Apr. 22, 1774, wherein the ship "London" was relieved of 18 chests of the obnoxious article; and the Sons of Liberty who did it were not disguised as Indians.

FROM JOHNSTON'S "CAMPAIGN OF 1776 AROUND NEW YORK AND BROOKLYN"

Other outbreaks, of minor importance, occurred from time to time down to the appointment of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100, in 1774 and 1775. (Chap. 13) The activity of those Committees caused Gov. William Tryon (Ap. I. 13) to take refuge on one of the British Ships in the harbor.

On June 6, 1775, as the British Troops were leaving for Boston, on marching down Broad Street, Capt. Marinus Willett, John Morin Scott and a few of their associates among the Sons of Liberty, stopped the first cart, guarded by the soldiers, and loaded with the spare muskets of the force. All of the carts were thus seized; and the loads were deposited at John Street and Broadway, to be afterward used in arming New York's first Troops for the War. A tablet on the building at the North West corner of Broad and Beaver Streets commemorates the act. On Nov. 23, Capt. Isaac Sears, with his horsemen from Connecticut, destroyed the presses of James Rivington, the Tory printer, and took the type to New Haven. Col. Alexander McDougall was an active Son of Liberty. John Anderson was also printing his famous "broad-sides," inciting the people to open hostility. The biographies of Anderson, McDougall, Sears, Willett and Scott will be found in "The Refugees from the City of New York."

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

It was July 9, 1776, when news of the signing of the Declaration, July 4, reached New York. The document was read before the

Th. Jefferson.

American Troops on the Parade Ground, now the City Hall Park. At 6 o'clock in the evening, the Brigades were drawn up on their respective parades, while the instrument was read by the Brigade Commanders or their Aides. One of the Brigades was honored by the presence of the Commander-in-Chief. It was drawn up in a hollow square, within which Washington sat on horseback; while an Aide, in a clear voice, read the Declaration. "When it was concluded," said an eye-witness, "three hearty cheers were given."

A tablet commemorating the reading has been placed on the City Hall. The Declaration was read before the Provincial Convention, at White Plains. The public reading was ordered for July 18, in front of what was then the City Hall (later Federal Hall) in Wall Street. At the conclusion, the Royal Coat of Arms was taken from the court room and burned. All of these happenings, it must be remembered, took place within cannon-shot of the enemy's ships in the harbor.

After the reading of the Declaration, on July 9, a number of citizens attacked the leaden statue of George III (Ap. I. 4) which had been placed on the Bowling Green, in 1770. A part of the statue, with the pedestal, is now the property of the New York Historical Society; but the greater part was carted to Litchfield, Connecticut, where it was made into bullets. (Chap. 9) A tablet at No. 1 Broadway commemorates this event.

In July, also, Capt. Daniel Dunscomb, by order of the Provincial Convention, took the window leads from the public buildings, Churches and many private houses. These were used for bullets in like manner. (Chap. 9)

It is said that Washington took the telescope from Kings College for the use of the Army.

CHAPTER THREE — THE BATTLE OF LONG ISLAND

Early in 1776, Gen. Charles Lee entered the City of New York with the Connecticut Regiments of Col. David Waterbury (Ap. I. 14) and Col. Andrew Ward. (Ap. I. 14) He had been delayed by the attitude of the Committee of Safety of the City which, at first, took the ground that no help on the defences of New York was needed from the outside. Lee called in consultation Col. (William Alexander) Lord Stirling with his Regiment.

Both Westchester County and Dutchess County sent reinforcements. Lee having left for the South, the continuation of the work devolved upon Stirling. He had further assistance from the City Militia under Colonels John Lasher and William Heyer; and from New Jersey. On Apr. 4, Gen. Putnam took charge; and, soon afterward, Washington inspected and approved the progress of the work. In the meantime, other Connecticut Troops, under Col. Gold Selleck Silliman (Ap. I. 11), relieved the Militia under Ward and Waterbury; and the whole force at work on the defences was increased.

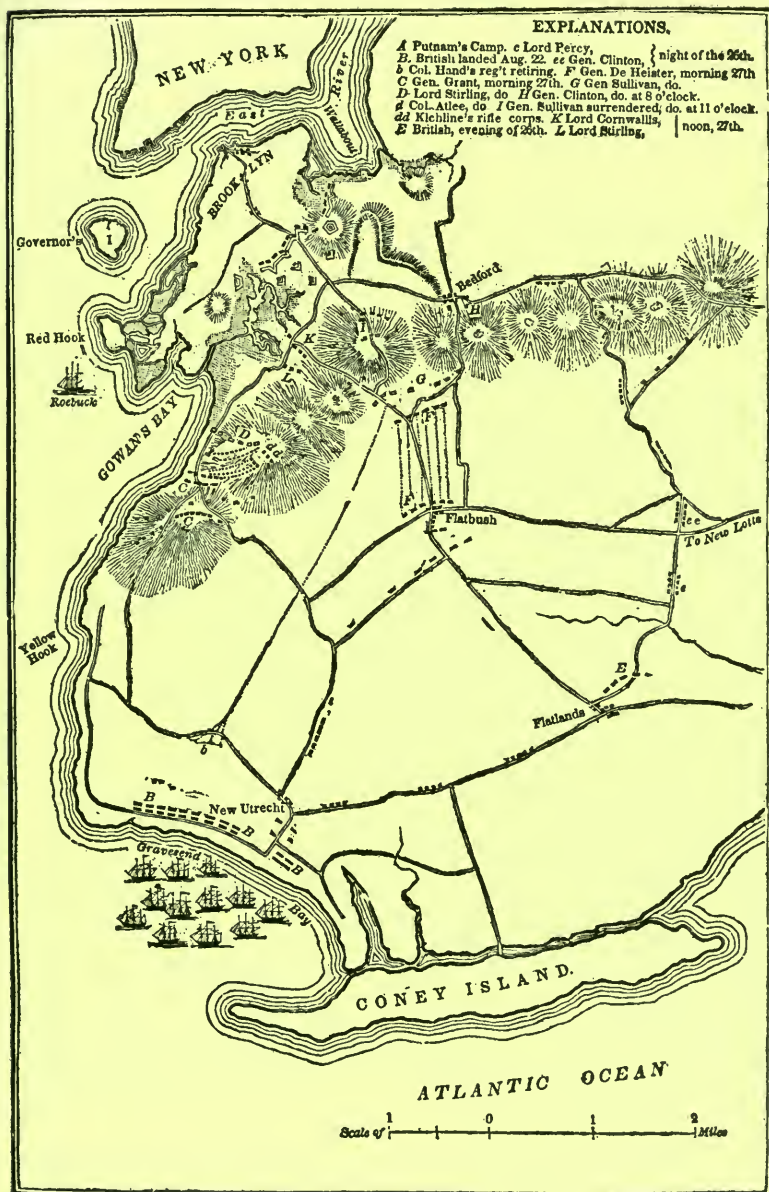

PREPARATIONS IN NEW YORK

In New York, during the summer, these works were erected at, or near, the localities known by their modern names: Jersey Battery, Reade Street, West of Greenwich; Grenadier Battery, Washington and Harrison Streets, North River; McDougall's Battery, Rector Street, East of Greenwich; Whitehall Battery, Whitehall dock, East River; Waterbury's Battery, on the dock near Catharine and Cherry Streets; Spencer's Redoubt, probably East of Henry Street, from which a line of intrenchments extended to a battery near Broome and Pitt Streets; Bayard's Hill Redoubt, Grand and Mulberry Streets, West of the Bowery; Thompson's Battery, at Horn's Hook. Paulus Hook, in Jersey City, was also fortified.

Old Fort George, a relic of the Dutch regime, stood East of Whitehall Street, and South of Battery Place. As the waters of the harbor almost washed the walls, it was of no value against a hostile Fleet. For its protection, the Grand Battery was erected to the Northward. Certain West Indiamen, at the wharves, were despoiled of their cargoes of mahogany logs. Barricades were erected about the present City Hall Park; and in the Streets known to-day as Broadway, Vesey, Barclay, Murray, Beekman, Centre, Frankfort and Chatham. In addition to these defences a number of batteries and redoubts extended for several miles beyond the City. No guns were mounted on them, as they were evidently for use in a retreat.

In the Northern part of the Island, close by the Hudson, Fort Washington was erected. It stood between 181st Street and 186th Street; and parts of it are still visible, although portions of the site have been covered by modern buildings. It was a strong earthwork, of irregular form, containing a citadel which protected the magazine. Directly across the Hudson, on the New Jersey shore, Fort Lee was erected. On the high ground West of the Harlem River, at the end of Tenth Avenue, and extending from 192d Street to 196th Street, are the remains of Fort George, an extensive earthwork begun by the Americans and finished by the British.

The British ships in the harbor were continually harried by Col. Benj. Tucker and his "Mosquito Fleet," consisting of schooners, sloops, whale-boats, row-galleys and fishing smacks — an outfit of which more is learned in Chapters 23 to 26.

THE BATTLE OF LONG ISLAND—FROM AN OLD PRINT

In July, 1776, the Convention voted £5,000 to Robert R. Livingston, Robert Yates, Christopher Tappen, John Jay, William Paulding and Gilbert Livingston, as "a Secret Committee to obstruct the Navigation of the Hudson River." The Committee met in New York City, June 19, to Aug. 17. In September, of that year, several Ships were sunk near Fort Washington, by order of the Commander-in-Chief. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y. 51. 18, 22)

The Convention, on Aug. 22, paid Zebediah Mills to remove the Military Stores from New York City to Westchester County; which Mills had accomplished by Aug. 25. He moved the Stores by boat to Tarrytown; and thence, by oxen, to White Plains, where they were placed in the store of Daniel Horton. (Same ref., 51. 29)

PREPARATIONS ON LONG ISLAND

Putnam, ably seconded by Gen. Greene, modified the plans of Lee for the defences in the vicinity of Brooklyn. A chain of works had been erected across the neck, from Wallabout Bay to Gowanus Marsh. A redoubt had been built on Gowanus Heights, or "Battery Hill," near the present Seventh Avenue and 19th Street. From South to North East, the five chief Fortifications were as follows: Fort Box, which gave protection from the Marsh; Fort Greene, 300 yards beyond, near Bond, State and Schermerhorn Streets, commanded the Jamaica highway; the Oblong Redoubt, at DeKalb and Hudson Avenues; Fort Putnam, in Washington Park; a Redoubt at Cumberland Street, and Wiloughby and Myrtle Avenues.

These works were protected by ditches, and connected by intrenchments. The woods had been cut away for a considerable distance, and the timber formed an abattis along the whole line of the defences.

Within this line, and nearer the waters of the harbor, were: Fort Cobble Hill, near the corner of Court and Atlantic Streets; a Redoubt at Mill Dam, corner of DeGraw and Bond Streets; Fort Stirling, corner of Clark and Columbia Streets, which had been begun in March by Ward and completed by Greene. A Fort stood on Brooklyn Heights, near the present Hicks and Pierrepont Streets. Governor's Island and Fort Defiance, on Red Hook, were considered by Putnam as strategic points; and they were heavily fortified.

The works had so far progressed that they were manned on June 1; and the American Troops began their garrison duties.

W Howe

Nath Greene

W Mifflin

ADMIRAL LORD RICHARD HOWE

By June 10, it is stated that on all the defences of New York and Brooklyn, there were 121 guns and 19 mortars, some of which had been brought from Ticonderoga and Crown Point.

PLANS AND STRENGTH OF THE ENEMY

Boston being no longer a base, the British re-cast their whole scheme of Military operations. With New York in their power, Howe expected to ascend the Hudson and meet Gen. Sir Guy Carleton who had already started from Canada. His route lay along the historic Champlain. By thus separating New England from the Western and Southern Provinces, or States, each locality might be beaten in detail. These operations were postponed, owing to the unsuccessful efforts of Clinton and Cornwallis (Ap. I. 3) in the Carolinas; and to the check of Carleton at the North. The operations were resumed in Burgoyne's Campaign of 1777.

Gen. Howe arrived in the lower harbor, with several Ships, on June 25. The remainder of the Fleet from Halifax arrived five days later — 130 sail in all. Howe had intended to disembark on Long Island, but the apparent strength of the American works led him to choose Staten Island. By July 15, Admiral Howe had arrived; and by Aug. 1, Clinton and Cornwallis arrived from the South. The British now had over 400 sail within striking distance of New York.

By this time Howe had a well disciplined Army of 24,000 effective men — the total being over 31,000. Of these, about 8,000 were Hessians and Waldeckers. Howe was Commander-in-Chief. Next to him were: Lt. Generals Clinton, Percy and Cornwallis; Maj. Generals Matthews, Robertson, Pigot, Grant, Jones, Vaughan and Agnew; and Brig. Generals Leslie, Cleveland, Smith and Erskine. (Ap. I. 4)

THE OPPOSING FORCE

The Continental Congress, on June 1, issued a call for reinforcements at New York and on the Canadian border. But the presence of the enemy in such large numbers caused another call to be issued — so that we find a total of about 28,500 Officers and men in the vicinity of New York before active engagements began. Of this total, only about 19,000 were effectives.

According to Johnston's "Campaign of 1776 around New York, &c.," the several States, with a partial list of their Commanders, were represented as follows:

Massachusetts, 7,300; Rhode Island, 800; Connecticut, 9,700; New Jersey, 1,500; Pennsylvania, 3,100; Delaware, 800; Maryland, 900; New York, 4,500.

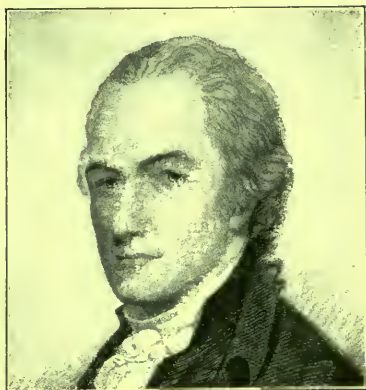

Under Washington, as Commander-in Chief, the several Divisions, each with its Major General, were constituted:

Putnam, Aide-de-Camp, Maj. Aaron Burr, Brig. Gen. James Clinton (Ap. I. 3), four Massachusetts Regiments; Brig. Gen. Scott, Brig. Maj. Nicholas Fish, the N. Y. City Regiments of Lasher and Malcom, and the State Regiments of Drake and Humphrey; Brig. Gen. Fellows, four Massachusetts Regiments, including that of Glover (Ap. I. 5). [A portion of Drake's Regiment served elsewhere, later. (Ap. G. 10)]

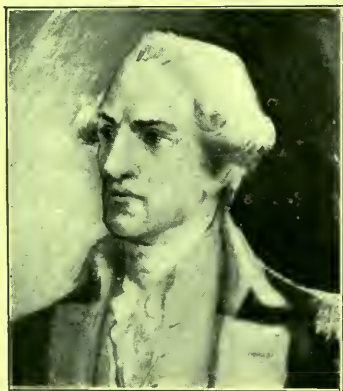

Heath — Brig. Gen. Mifflin, two Pennsylvania Regiments, two Massachusetts Regiments, and Ward, of Connecticut; Brig. Gen. George Clinton,

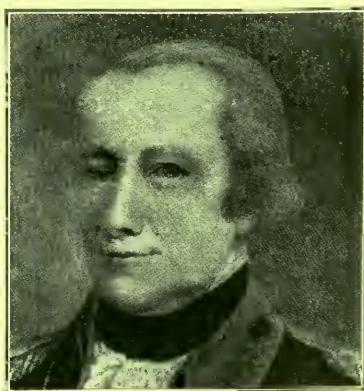

Nich^o. Fish

A. Hamilton

John Morin Scott

Alex^r. McDougall

(Ap. I. 3), the New York State Regiments of Nicol, Thomas, Swartwout, Paulding and Graham.

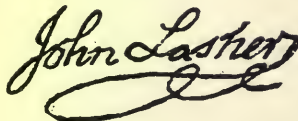

Spencer — Brig. Gen. Parsons, the Massachusetts Regiment of Ward, and the Connecticut Regiments of Huntington, Wyllis, Tyler and Durkee; Brig. Gen. Wadsworth, the Connecticut Regiments of Silliman, Gay, Sage, Selden, Douglas, Chester and Bradley.

Sullivan — Brig. Gen. Lord Stirling, the Regiments of Smallwood, of Maryland, Haslet, of Delaware, and four Pennsylvania Regiments, including Atlee's; Brig. Gen. Alexander McDougall, his late Regiment and that of Ritzema (both from New York City), also those of Brewer and Charles Webb, the latter from Connecticut.

Greene — Brig. Gen. Nixon, the Regiments of Hand, of Pennsylvania, Varnum and Hitchcock, of Rhode Island, and late Nixon's, Prescott (of Bunker Hill fame) and Little, of Massachusetts; Brig. Gen. Nathaniel Heard (Ap. I. 6), five New Jersey Regiments including those of Forman, Martin and Phillip Van Cortlandt; Brig. Gen. Oliver Wolcott (Ap. I. 15), the Connecticut Regiments of Thompson, Hinman, Pettibone, Cooke, Talcott, Chapman and Baldwin. To Nixon's Brigade should be added the Long Island Regiments of Smith and Remsen.

Col. Knox brought his artillery from Massachusetts; and Capt. Alexander Hamilton was present with his State Artillery.

As McDougall, Hamilton, Scott, Fish, Stirling and Lasher were afterward Refugees from New York City; and as Smith was a Refugee from Long Island — more extended notices of them appear in Part Two of this work.

In the Appendix to Drake's "Life of Knox" it is stated that the above named Troops were stationed as follows:

Scott's Brigade in the city; Wadsworth's along the East River in the city; Parson's from the shipyards on the East River to Jones's Hill, and including one of the Redoubts to the West of it; Stirling's and McDougall's still further West, as a reserve near Bayard's Hill; Fellows, on the Hudson, from Greenwich down to the "Glass House" about half way to Canal street; and James Clinton's from that point down to the "Furnace," opposite the Grenadier Battery. These Brigades, forming the Divisions of Putnam, Spencer and Sullivan, were retained in the city and its immediate vicinity. Of Heath's Division, Mifflin's Brigade was at Ft. Washington; and George Clinton's, at Kings Bridge. Greene's Division — Nixon's and Heard's Brigades — occupied the Long Island front; except that Prescott's Regiment (now Thomas Nixon's) was on Governor's Island.

PRELIMINARY EVENTS ON LONG ISLAND

For many years some of the historians of Long Island were not certain that Col. Josiah Smith's Regiment took part in the Battle. Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 35) stated that he was not able to decide. Howell ("Southampton," pp. 69, 70) asserted that there were present not only Col. Smith's Regiment, but also the First Regiment, Col. William Floyd, and the second Regiment, Col. David Mulford. On the other hand, Hon. Henry P. Hedges ("Bridge Hampton Cent'l Address," 1876, p. 14) made this statement:

Whether the regiment commanded by Col. Josiah Smith, marching to engage in the battle of Long Island, reached the spot in time, is at least doubtful, and whether they joined the American army in the retreat, is improbable. The weight of evidence is that their march was intercepted by the British forces. That defeat occurred before their arrival.

Judge Hedges afterward stated ("Southampton Address," 1890, p. 35; "Bridge Hampton Address," 1910, p. 58. Also Note to the foregoing):

The latest research shows that the whole force of Eastern Long Island was engaged in the disastrous battle named from the Island whereon it was fought. * * * I have become satisfied that Col. Josiah Smith's Regiment of Minute Men, or many of them, were engaged in the battle of Long Island. * * * The fact that some of them were in action at Brooklyn has been published and was proved by affidavits of old soldiers applying for Revolutionary pensions. One of them, living to be an old man, then frequently described his standing as guard when Washington's forces retreated from New York City.

At the time of Judge Hedges' first statement, there were not available certain documents which have come to light since. Many of these original papers, including the muster rolls of the Long Island Regiments, together with the Diary of Col. Smith, appear in Ap. G. In Ap. A. 4, the one fourth part of the Regiment was stated to have been 124, on July 26, 1776.

In the rooms of the Suffolk County Historical Society, at Riverhead, Long Island, may be found "A Return of Col. Josiah Smith's Regiment, Encamped on L. I., Aug. 17, 1776." These figures are given: "Staff officers, 2; Commissioned officers, 29; non-commissioned officers, 43; fit for duty, 351; total in Regiment, 407; wanting to complete, 266." The Society has another Return, dated "Brookland, Aug. 24, 1776"—wherein a total of 514 appears, contributed by these Captains: Rogers, 53; Platt, 50; Coe, 37; Noststrand, 28; Weeks, 37; Mance, 43; Strong, 51; Youngs, 41; Reeves, 53; Ludlam, 32; Mulford, 53; Clarkson, 36.

Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 138, 139) states that these Officers from Long Island were within the American Lines at Brooklyn, August, 1776: Col. Josiah Smith, Col. Jeromus Remsen, Lt. Col. John Sands, Lt. Col. Nicholas Covenhoven, Maj. Abraham Remsen and Maj. Richard Thorne. Also Captains: John Wickes, Nathaniel Platt, Selah Strong, Ezekiel Mulford, Paul Reeve, Benjamin Birdsall, David Laton, John W. Seaman, Daniel Rapelye and Andrew Onderdonk. These Officers were with Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull [near Hempstead], August 26-28: Suffolk County Troops—Maj. Jesse Brush, Capt. Alexander Ketcham, Lt. Com. Jonah Wood, do. Stephen Abbot; Queens County Troops—Capt. Ephraim Bayles; Kings County Troop of Horse—Capt. William Boerum, Lt. Thomas Everit, Ens., Isaac Sebring; Queens County Troop of Horse — Capt. Daniel Whitehead, Lt. William Sacket."

On Aug. 8, Col. Josiah Smith was ordered, by the Convention, to march all of his Levies to the vicinity of Gen. Nathaniel Greene's encampment, at the Western end of the Island; and to take his orders from Gen. Greene. On Aug. 21, the Convention took measures to provide camp equipage and supplies. (Ap. A. 5)

On Aug. 24, the Convention was considering the expediency of ordering the Regiments of Col. Smith from Suffolk County, and Col. Remsen from Kings and Queens Counties, to join Gen. Woodhull's Brigade; but, two days later, a Committee reported that Gen. Washington had stated that he would issue an Order to that effect. (Proceedings of the Conv'n)

On Aug. 26, the Convention ordered Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull ("Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") to take position at any point of advantage, and to call out all the Militia, if necessary, to protect the inhabitants in removing. On the day of the Battle of Long Island, Aug. 27, the Committee of Safety was informed that the Cannon and Ammunition, formerly at Southold, had been removed to Saybrook, Connecticut. (Ap. A. 7, 9)

On Aug. 29, Col. Smith was ordered to remove his Regiment from Long Island to New York City. (Ap. A. 13)

The British Troops, having landed to the East of Huntington, and carried off cattle and provisions, Dr. Gilbert Potter wrote from Huntington to Gen. Woodhull, on Aug. 26, apprising him of the fact. But before the letter reached him, at Jamaica, the disastrous Battle had been fought. (Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address," 1876)

The story of the Long Island Militia after the Battle is continued in Chapter 18.

ACTIVE HOSTILITIES COMMENCE

Before the landing of the enemy in L. I. the point of attack could not be known, nor any satisfactory judgment formed of their intentions. It might be on Long Island, or Bergen, or directly on the city. (Washington to the Conl. Cong., Sept. 9, 1776)

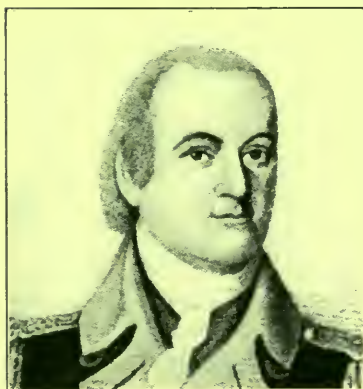

After months of preparation on both sides, the conflict began on the morning of Aug. 22, when 15,000 of the enemy, with 40 pieces of Artillery, were brought over from Staten Island to Long Island. Under cover of the Ships, they landed at Gravesend without opposition.

At this point it is necessary to understand the topography of the Western end of Long Island. The theatre of the approaching conflict was, in the Eastern part, a plain extending from four to six miles to the Northward, and a greater distance to the Eastward. About a mile from the shore of Gravesend Bay stood New Utrecht. A mile South East of New Utrecht, stood Gravesend. From the latter, a road led through Flatlands to Flatbush, about three miles distant. These villages on the plain were separated from the American Fortifications (already described)

Oliver Wolcott

Joseph Spencer

W^m Alexander

Baring

Saml H. Parsons

by a low ridge of thickly-wooded hills, impassable for Artillery. Through this ridge four passes gave access to the Fortifications. The Jamaica Road, passing through Bedford, cut the range at Jamaica Pass, about four miles to the East of the American works. There was also a Pass from Bedford to Flatbush; and another, to the West, brought Flatbush only a mile and a half from the works. Nearer the shore, the Gowanus Road led to New Utrecht; and a branch road, beginning near the present Fourth Avenue and 36th Street, led to the Narrows. The former Pass, known as Martense Lane, is now the Southern boundary of Greenwood Cemetery. The main road to New Utrecht was by this Lane.

An unfortunate change of Commanders, at this time, had much to do with the events which followed. Greene, being seriously ill, was relieved, and went to New York about the middle of August. Sullivan was appointed in his place; and he was in command when the enemy landed. But, two days later, on Aug. 24, he was superseded by Putnam. Greene was familiar with the American defences, and the Passes in the hills. Putnam was deficient in this knowledge, especially as to the Passes. Sullivan remained to assist Putnam; but Washington was in touch with them, although he was in New York City for the most of the time.

After unimportant skirmishes, the real Battle commenced on Tuesday, Aug. 27. About 2 in the morning, Grant appeared on the road from the Narrows. Commanding the British left, he was soon opposed by Stirling who had Haslet's and Smallwood's Battalions, Atlee's and Kachlein's Pennsylvanians, and Huntington's Connecticut Continentals. Parsons supported Stirling. The enemy, apparently, delayed an attack; but being annoyed by Stirling and Parsons they replied with vigor. For the present, being reinforced by Artillery, Stirling more than held his own.

Meantime, the British center, under De Heister and the Hessians, had advanced to the Flatbush Pass where they were met by Sullivan. As De Heister hesitated to offer battle, the opposing forces watched each other for several hours.

Thus the fight really started with a skirmish near Fourth Avenue and 36th Street, and so back to the American Lines—from Third Avenue and 23d Street (Gowanus Creek) to Wynant Bennett's house up to Battle Hill, Seventh Avenue and 19th Street. (Hon. Tunis G. Bergen).

FLANKED BY THE ENEMY

The strategic move of the engagement began at 9 on the evening before, when Howe, Clinton, Cornwallis and Percy, with 10,000 picked men, began a circuitous march to the North East. They found the Jamaica Pass unguarded; and the route to the American left and rear was easy. Their guns, at 9 o'clock the next morning informed Grant and De Heister that the flank movement had been successful.

Sullivan then found himself between two fires; and the Hessians having charged, Sullivan and many of his men were taken Prisoners.

STIRLING'S FIGHT NEAR THE STONE HOUSE — FROM AN OLD PRINT

Stirling, being surrounded in the same way, resisted stubbornly; and the fight was fierce at the old stone building, known as the Cortelyou House, near Gowanus. This stood near the corner of 5th Avenue and 4th Street. Here many of his men fell; others were drowned in trying to escape across the Creek, near 8th and 9th Streets; and the remainder, including Stirling, were captured.

Hon. Tunis G. Bergen makes this statement:

There were two Troops of Horse of Kings County men — Captain Suydam of sixteen or eighteen and Captain Waldron of fourteen or sixteen, who acted as scouts in general, but we have no further definite records of what they did. The able-bodied men of Kings County at that time amounted to 585 and their percentage of the quota sent by Congress, namely, fifty-eight men were delivered to the army by Col. Rutgers Van Brunt in June, 1776.

Although the troops of the right flanks of the British Army did come in to the flank of the left command of the Americans at a stone house conjectured to be the Vechte House, and afterwards known and called the Cortelyou House, there were other houses on the line of that road, and the American line was driven back from Martense's Lane: so along the Gowanus Road, 4th Avenue to Third Avenue, 32d Street to Gowanus Creek and also along the heights of 19th Street, where most of them crossed the Creek. The best conclusion, founded on the statements of those who were present, is that the crossing extended from 23d Street to the neighborhood of 3d Street, a distance of a mile, where there was no bridge.

Most of the critics lay emphasis upon the failure of Washington to prevent the approach of the British column by the Clove or Bedford Road which caused the Americans to be outflanked and exposed them to a fatal attack on the side and in the rear. Here, again, the critics assert that Washington was surprised and was gravely negligent in failing to make preparations for proper information, at least. But Washington, or his Generals, must have been informed. Capt. Suydam's Kings County Troop of Horse was recruited from that very neighborhood, and acted as scouts in that thickly wooded country where Cavalry could not charge; but only move rapidly along the narrow roads. But what did Washington do? After leaving a few of his weakest Troops to man the Fortifications, all the rest of his little Army was actively engaged against the superior forces of the enemy advancing by the Gowanus Road and the Flatbush Pass. The approach by the Jamaica and Clove Roads was a longer one, and would take more time than the other approaches. If Washington had concentrated more force upon the Bedford Road he would have exposed his weakened right flank to the advance of the British by the Gowanus Road; and, in that case, his right wing would have been driven back and the stress of the Battle would have been near the junction of the Flatbush and Bedford Roads. A Battle at this point, and general retreat of the Americans here, would have led the pursuit by the enemy without obstacles right up to the American Fortifications. But the feeble resistance on the Bedford Road lured the British Southward to out-flank the Americans fighting at the Flatbush Pass and on the Gowanus Heights. The main British column drove the Americans beyond the entrance to the Flatbush Pass against their right, fighting under Stirling to resist the approach of the British by the Gowanus Road. This maneuver brought the three columns of the British Army together on the Gowanus hills above the Creek and the salt meadows.

Now this was the very best strategic position in which Washington could place the whole of the British Army in order to secure a safe way of retreat for the Americans. In front of, and below, the entire British Army thus concentrated on Gowanus Hills, from about the present 3rd Street to 35th Street, were Gowanus Creek and its salt meadows and marshes, which the Americans had crossed in retreat to the hills on the other side where rose their first Fortifications. The Americans thus placed between them and their foes the Creek and its marshes as a huge moat before their places of refuge. On the other side of that moat, as it were, the British Army halted and did not venture to attempt a crossing, with all the difficulties caused by the soft and yielding mud at the bottom (which difficulties they had ample opportunity to discover at the crossing of the Americans in their retreat) and in face of a possible fire from the American intrenchments. The English General, Howe, had good cause to remember the deadly fire of the Americans from their intrenchments at Bunker Hill. Indeed, a Connecticut Regiment which arrived the next day did make an attack outside of their intrenchments on the Westerly side of the marshes, as though to show the enemy that the Americans were not only ready but eager for the assault on their works.

Thus it seems clear that it was a fine exhibition of strategy on the part of Washington not to oppose the British advance by the Clove and Bedford Roads and weaken the right and center of his little Army, but to make Gowanus Heights the battlefield. Well may it be said, the Battle of Long Island should be called the Battle of Gowanus.

Mr. Bergen ("Presentation Address, Brooklyn," 1911) points to two significant facts which were shown in this Battle. It was the first time in American History when men from the different Colonies united against the same foe. Again, "it was the first time the men of the different religious beliefs, who colonized America, joined in earnest action and began to form the American idea."

A tablet, commemorative of the Battle, has been placed at the junction of Flatbush Avenue and Fulton Street, Brooklyn, on the line of the American defensive works.*

On the day after the Battle, Gen. Woodhull, who had been engaged in driving cattle out of danger from the enemy, was taken Prisoner near Jamaica. He died of his wounds a few days later. Had he been present at the Battle with his horsemen, the Jamaica Pass would have been guarded; and the result of the Battle might have been different.

RETREAT OF THE AMERICANS

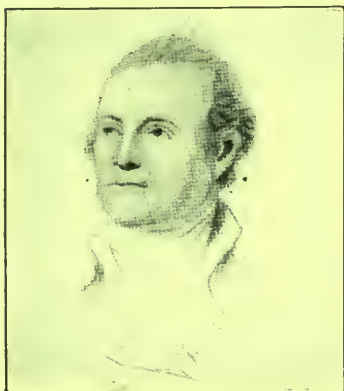

Thus ended what has been called "a series of unconnected skirmishes;" after which the Americans fell back upon their fortified defences. Those defences were more imposing than formidable. Howe, seeing them, hesitated to attack. He began a siege of the works by approaches. The delay cost him an opportunity to capture the whole of the American Army.

Washington, finding himself largely outnumbered by the enemy, and his own men dispirited by their reverses, called his Generals in consultation at the house of Philip Livingston, afterward known as the Teunis Joralemon house, situated on the East side of Hicks Street about 200 feet south of Joralemon Street, in Brooklyn. There were present, beside the Commander-in-Chief: Maj. Generals Spencer and Putnam; Brig. Generals Fellows, McDougall, Scott, Mifflin and Parsons — the latter of whom had acted as a Colonel during the Battle; and Adj. Gen. Wadsworth, of Massachusetts.

* For more detailed information relative to the Battle of Long Island, consult: Sparks' "Life of Washington;" Marshall's "Life of Washington;" Drake's "Life of Knox;" Hall's "Life of Parsons;" Tallmadge's "Memoir;" Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 214-222; Lossing's "Field Book of the Revolution," 2. 592-606; Johnston's "Campaign of 1776, around New York and Brooklyn;" Field's "Battle of Long Island;" and, more particularly, Johnston's "Battle of Long Island." The reader should also turn to the extracts from Washington's Order Book covering the days before, during and after the Battle. (Ap. H. 36)

In spite of the fact that the works had been reinforced after the Battle by the arrival of Glover, Mercer and others up to the strength of nearly 10,000 effective men, yet it was the unanimous vote of the Conference that the works should be abandoned, mainly because the enemy threatened to ascend the East River, at the rear. The ascent of the River might have been made in small boats; it was not practicable for the larger vessels of the British Fleet. Mr. Bergen makes this comment:

The East River was not a River, but an arm of the Sea with fierce tides, at one end of which were the rocks and whirlpools of Hellgate, hardly navigable at that place at that time; and at the other end, Governors Island with Butter-milk Channel not navigable at that time, and the tortuous Channel at the Battery very difficult to navigate. In that distance there were at least 26 reefs &c. The English Fleet did not attempt once to enter the East River. They were too well informed by their pilots and the boatmen of the Harbor to enter and risk complete disaster to their Fleet.

The decision to retreat was made on Aug. 29th, two days after the Battle. McDougall and Glover, with his Gloucester fishermen, secured every possible kind of water conveyance. The crossing to New York occupied all of that night. Mifflin covered the retreat by remaining at the works until the early morning of the 30th. By that time, under the screen of a heavy fog, and aided by friendly winds, the whole of the American Army had been landed in New York. (See Washington's letter to the Committee of Safety—Ap. H. 37)

Historians of that day considered the retreat a masterly one. In our day, Fiske ("American Revolution") writes:

This retreat has always been regarded as one of the most brilliant incidents of Washington's career, and it would certainly be hard to find a more striking example of vigilance. Had Washington allowed himself to be cooped up on Brooklyn Heights, he would have been forced to surrender; and whatever was left of the war would have been a game played without queen, rook or bishop.

From an English view-point, Trevelyan ("American Revolution") says:

To transport across a wide channel of salt water a great multitude of troops with all their baggage, military stores and cannon from out of the enemy's mouth in a short summer's night without even those who were retreating knowing anything of the matter till just before they embarked, required the conduct, the vigilance, the generalship of a Washington; and, if Fame does not clarify his praise for it, she is not impartial. It may be doubted whether any great national deliverance since the passage of the Red Sea has ever been more loudly acclaimed or more adequately celebrated than the master-stroke of energy, dexterity and caution by which Washington rescued his army and his country.

ing to Howe's report, he had taken 1097 Prisoners, 26 ordnance and considerable ammunition (American Archives — 5th Ser. 1. 1258). His own losses were trifling.

Washington was now in a City which was not over friendly to the American cause. The batteries on Long Island, formerly his, could be turned against him. The Ships of the enemy might land thousands within the City at any moment. He saw the danger — a flank movement on the mainland through Westchester County might cut off his escape from Manhattan Island. A combined attack by sea and land might then annihilate his Army. He had just saved his Army from one trap. Would he be able to escape from another?

THE CONFERENCE AT THE BILLOPP HOUSE

At this juncture, there took place a romantic, somewhat humorous and quite important Conference between Richard, Lord Viscount Howe, Vice Admiral of the White, and a Committee of the Continental Congress composed of Dr. Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, afterward second President of the United States, and Edward Rutledge of South Carolina. The Conference was held, on Sept. 11, 1776, in the old Christopher Billopp House, which still stands near the water on Staten Island, about one half mile South of the Perth Amboy ferry in the Village of Tottenville. Although the house showed the effects of occupation by the British soldiers, yet Lord Howe had prepared the large front room overlooking the Kill Von Kull, with a carpet of moss and green sprigs; and here the Conference was held. Good cheer was also provided.

Lord Howe, as a Commissioner from the King and his Privy Council, came to America on the express stipulation that he might negotiate for Peace; and his brother, Gen. William Howe, was equally interested to bring about a settlement. Franklin had known Lord Howe in London; and when Howe referred to the monument to his brother which the Massachusetts Colony had erected in Westminster Abbey, and stated that "if America was overwhelmed, he should lament its ruins like a brother's loss," Franklin replied "that he and his colleagues would do their utmost endeavors to save his Lordship from that mortification."

The Conference was without any result. At the same time, it was important in that it was the only attempt, made on American soil, to come to some agreement whereby the War should end.

THE AFFAIR AT KIP'S BAY

The Conference of Sept. 11 having failed, Washington and his Council decided to leave the lower City. The two Howes then began a campaign for the possession of New York. On Sept. 15, they landed a large force at Kip's Bay, on the East River near 34th Street. At that time, one Division of the Americans was at the Battery, under Putnam; and another at Harlem, under Washington. The Third Division was at, or near, Kip's Bay, under Douglas. Between Douglas and Putnam, were Silliman, Scott and Wadsworth. The feeble defence by the American Militia of Parsons and Fellows soon ended in a rout. Washington came across from Bloomingdale to Kip's Bay.

The failure of Parsons and Fellows to oppose the landing of the enemy, and to make a stand against him, was a great disappointment to Washington; not only that—the failure was responsible for the narrow escape of his Army from annihilation. Putnam retreated from the South along the highway to join the main Army.

The American Troops, fleeing from Kip's Bay, came to the vicinity of the new Public Library where Washington tried in vain to re-form them. Silliman had joined Knox in the Bayard's Hill

A. Burr

Fort; but this was abandoned by order of the Commander-in-Chief. The bearer of the order, Maj. Aaron Burr, then piloted the Troops across to the woods on the West side, so that the most of them arrived at the camp in Harlem. Large numbers of the Army with Putnam would have been captured if Howe had not tarried for half an hour at the house of Mrs. Robert Murray which stood near Lexington Avenue and 36th Street. A tablet marks the site of the Murray house.

A tablet on the West Side of Broadway, between 43d and 44th Streets, also marks the spot where Washington, Putnam and other Officers met to stem the panic which had seized the Americans. That night the enemy held the City below 100th Street. The American Army was on Harlem Heights, save that Mifflin guarded the Kings Bridge road to cover the escape of any Americans who might take that route.

BATTLE OF HARLEM HEIGHTS

Harlem Heights, as then known, was West of Eighth Avenue and North of 125th Street. At Ninth (now Columbus) Avenue and 126th Street, was the "Point of Rocks," from which the ridge extended North along what is St. Nicholas Avenue; and another range extended West diagonally to the Hudson River. South of the high ground, at a distance nowhere more than half a mile, another elevation formed the Northern boundary of Bloomingdale Heights. The interval between was then called the "Hollow Way," formerly "Martje Davit's Vly." Manhattan Street is the main thoroughfare through this depression to-day. Howe's headquarters were at the Aphorpe House on the Bloomingdale road, South of Vandewater's Heights, now the site of Columbia University. Washington occupied the Mansion which had been the recent home of Col. Roger Morris who was with the enemy. This house, known later as the Jumel Mansion, stands on the bank of the Harlem River, East of Amsterdam Avenue, at about 169th Street. It is now the Washington Headquarters Association, founded by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Early the next morning, Sept. 16, Washington sent Col. Knowlton, with his Connecticut Rangers, and Maj. Leitch of Virginia, to gain the rear of some light Troops of the enemy. Their course is indicated, in part, on the accompanying map. Gen. Clinton occupied the enemy in front. Greene and Putnam were on the ground. Starting from the "Point of Rocks," Knowlton made a sally, located the advance of the enemy and returned to the camp. Reinforced by Leitch, Knowlton led a flanking party to cut off the apparently small force of the enemy. The latter was diverted by a movement in front, thus allowing Knowlton to gain his flank; after which Knowlton pursued the enemy as far South as the British outpost above the Hudson River at 107th Street. Knowlton was killed North of the Vandewater house; and Leitch was mortally wounded about the same time in what is now Morningside Park. The Regiments of Griffeths and Richardson were sent to aid them.

The advance of the enemy gave way; and was pursued to the South, near the main camp of the British, when the Americans were recalled. They returned to the camp above the chain of redoubts, on Harlem Heights. It was an American victory to the extent that the enemy was driven back for a mile. Although only a skirmish, it encouraged the American Troops. It also made up for the disgrace of the day before at Kip's Bay. An elaborate tablet on Columbia University commemorates the victory; and another, at Amsterdam Avenue and 138th Street, marks the site of the encampment after the Battle.*

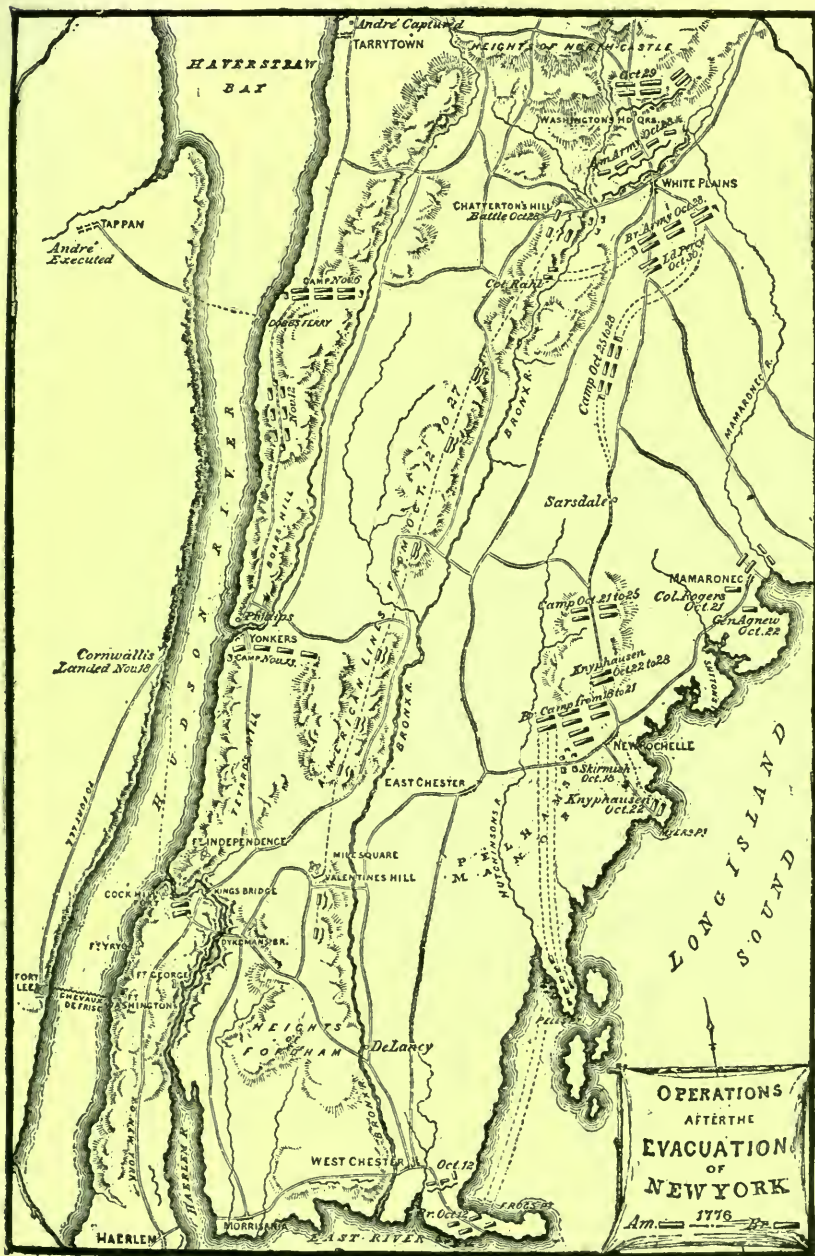

With the capture of the City in sight, the Troops from Connecticut, and even Gen. Greene, were in favor of burning it before retreating. (Force's "American Archives. 4th Ser.," 2. 182)

Each Army watched the other across the "Hollow Way;" until Washington, fearing that Howe would gain his rear by way of Westchester County, decided to withdraw his Army from the Island, leaving a strong garrison at Fort Washington. (Chap. 3)

BATTLE OF WHITE PLAINS

The movement to the main land was made none too soon; for Howe advanced to Throgg's Neck, in that County, on Oct. 12. Prescott held him there for about a week; and then Howe appeared in the vicinity of New Rochelle. Still delaying his movements, Howe allowed Putnam to bring valuable information to Washington. The latter, on Oct. 16, decided to concentrate upon White Plains; and camped there, Oct. 21 to 26. Here a small guard protected the valuable stores.

The American right was on the Bronx River; the left was on Chatterton's Hill. The enemy advanced through Scarsdale, where he stayed until Oct. 28. His right column was under Clinton; and his left, composed of Hessians, was under De Heister. On the American side were Lee, Heath, Putnam, Spencer, McDougall, Silliman, Douglas, Chester, Brooks, Smallwood, Ritzema, Samuel B. Webb, [Ap. I. 14], and Hamilton with his Artillery.

found in Dawson's "Westchester County During the American Revolution." An English map of 1777 appears in the Clinton Papers, I. 622.

CAPTURE OF FORT WASHINGTON

Washington then divined Howe's purpose — to capture Fort Washington and King's Bridge. Leaving North Castle securely guarded by a small force, Washington, Putnam, Greene and Mercer, with the main body of the Army, crossed the Hudson near Tarrytown and encamped in the rear of Fort Lee.

Fort Washington was commanded by Col. Magaw of Pennsylvania. Three lines of outer defences were relied upon to check the advance of the enemy. The first, or Southerly, line was near 147th Street; the second, and stronger, was at 153d Street; the third, and weaker, at 160th and 161st Streets. A redoubt on the first line overlooked the Hudson River. On Oct. 27, it had engaged two of the enemy's Frigates, and nearly sank one of them. The most Northerly out-work, at 196th Street, was called Cock Hill Fort, or Fort Tryon after its capture. Near 190th Street, on

Word of the British advance was brought to Washington by Capt. James Green, of the Connecticut Light Horse, as he was discussing certain proposed Fortifications with Gen. Charles Lee who had just arrived. The Americans retreated from the Hill; Howe delayed further operations; and Washington retired to the impregnable heights of North Castle. (See Tallmadge's Map, Chap. 26) Being unfamiliar with the country, Howe stopped the pursuit. A remarkably minute and detailed account of the Battle of White Plains may be

Laurel Hill and the Harlem River, stood a redoubt which was called Fort George after it fell into the hands of the enemy. (Chap. 3)

It was not Howe's original design to attack Fort Washington; but, rather, to leave it for the present and secure Philadelphia. The outcome at White Plains, and his good fortune in securing plans of the Fort from a deserter, led him to decide upon the attack. After several days of preparation, and a refusal by Magaw to surrender, the attack began on Nov. 16. Magaw had with him Pennsylvanians, under Cadwallader, Baxter, and others; Marylanders, under Rawlings and Williams; and Connecticut men under Bradley — about 2,800, all told. Cadwallader was posted at the lower line; Baxter, at Laurel Hill, 196th Street; and Rawlings, at Fort Tryon on the North. The enemy, under Rall and Knyphausen, captured Kings Bridge without trouble and advanced upon Rawlings. Cornwallis and Matthews crossed the Harlem River, protected by the cannonade from Fordham; climbed the height on the North; and appeared opposite to Baxter. These two movements came from the North and the East. On the South, Percy was assigned to take care of Cadwallader. Col. Leslie and the 42d Highlanders came from the River, at 152d Street.

Down to this time, Washington hoped that Fort Washington might be evacuated, and the garrison therein saved. He might then, with a larger force, be able to conduct operations in the Jerseys, to the South of New York. With this in mind, he crossed the Hudson River to Fort Washington, accompanied by the Generals who were with him at Fort Lee. But, as hostilities had already commenced, he reluctantly crossed back to the New Jersey shore.

Howe joined Percy in attacking Cadwallader on the first line. The latter resisted stoutly; but, being outflanked, he retreated to the Fort. Cornwallis and Matthews drove Baxter's men into Fort Washington, but not until Baxter had fallen. A longer resistance was made by Rawlings; but he, too, was forced by Rall and Knyphausen to fall back on the Fort. Magaw was obliged to surrender, with his entire command, about 2,700 Officers and men. Two days later, Fort Lee was evacuated, on the approach of Cornwallis.

Thus the first full year of the Campaign had ended disastrously to the Americans. Over 4,000 of them were captives to the enemy. They had gained Boston, but they had lost New York and Long Island; and with them, the control of the lower Hudson and Long Island Sound. All these had been lost, as it proved, without hope of recovery until the final Declaration of Peace, in 1783.

CARLETON CHECKED AT THE NORTH

There were two bright rays to penetrate the gloom. In the Northern Department, Schuyler had held Guy Carleton in check so that Howe had no encouragement from that quarter. On Oct. 11, Arnold with his small Fleet, engaged Capt. Pringle off Valcour Island in Lake Champlain. Arnold withdrew that night; but, two days later, the engagement was renewed North of Crown Point. Being overpowered, he ran his ships into shallow water and burned them. He escaped to Crown Point with nearly all of his men. Gen. David Waterbury, of Connecticut, who had been assigned to the flotilla, was captured.

TRENTON AND PRINCETON

The second bright ray was the rapid movement of Washington, unexpected by Howe, from Fort Lee to the South, in New Jersey. Howe had already begun his plan of capturing Philadelphia, as the crowning victory of the year 1776. The Continental Congress had removed to Baltimore. Washington had but a remnant of his former Army; but there were 2,400 reliable men. The old, familiar leaders were there; Stirling, Sullivan, Greene, Glover, Mercer, Hand, Smallwood, Knox, Haslet, Charles Webb, Ward, Bradley, Chester, Sargent, Hutchinson, and McDougall. St. Clair (Ap. I. 11), of Pennsylvania, appeared for the first time. There were also fresh Troops from Massachusetts and New Hampshire which had just arrived from Ticonderoga. Lt. James Monroe, afterward President of the United States, was also on the scene.

Believing the conquest of Philadelphia an easy matter, Howe had strung his Army through New Jersey so that there was no strong force at any one point. After guarding the Delaware River opposite Trenton, and also above and below it — all on the Pennsylvania side — Washington crossed to the New Jersey side, nine miles above Trenton, in the night of December 24-25. Samuel B. Webb acted as his Aide. Rall was in Trenton with about 1,200 Hessians. Greene's Division (Stephen and Mercer, with Stirling in reserve) took the Upper Road; Sullivan's Division (Glover and Sargent, with St. Clair in reserve) took the River Road. Marching through a severe snow-storm, the two Divisions fell upon Trenton from opposite directions. Rall was surprised; and in the brief engagement which followed he was slain. His Army, with all of its supplies, was captured.

Washington then re-formed his veterans to oppose Cornwallis who was advancing from Princeton. The position of the Americans at Trenton was hazardous, with the Delaware in the rear. A night march put them in the rear of Cornwallis, with the retreat open to the heights of Morristown. Near Princeton, Mercer fell in with Mawood and his three British Regiments. The conflict was sharp; Mercer was mortally wounded; and the enemy began to drive the Americans back. The latter, being reinforced, turned the tables and put the enemy to rout.

Although the Battle occurred on Jan. 3, 1777, yet Princeton was really a part of the Campaign of 1776. Howe gave up the plan of wintering in Philadelphia; and Washington took up his winter quarters at Morristown, almost within the enemy's country.

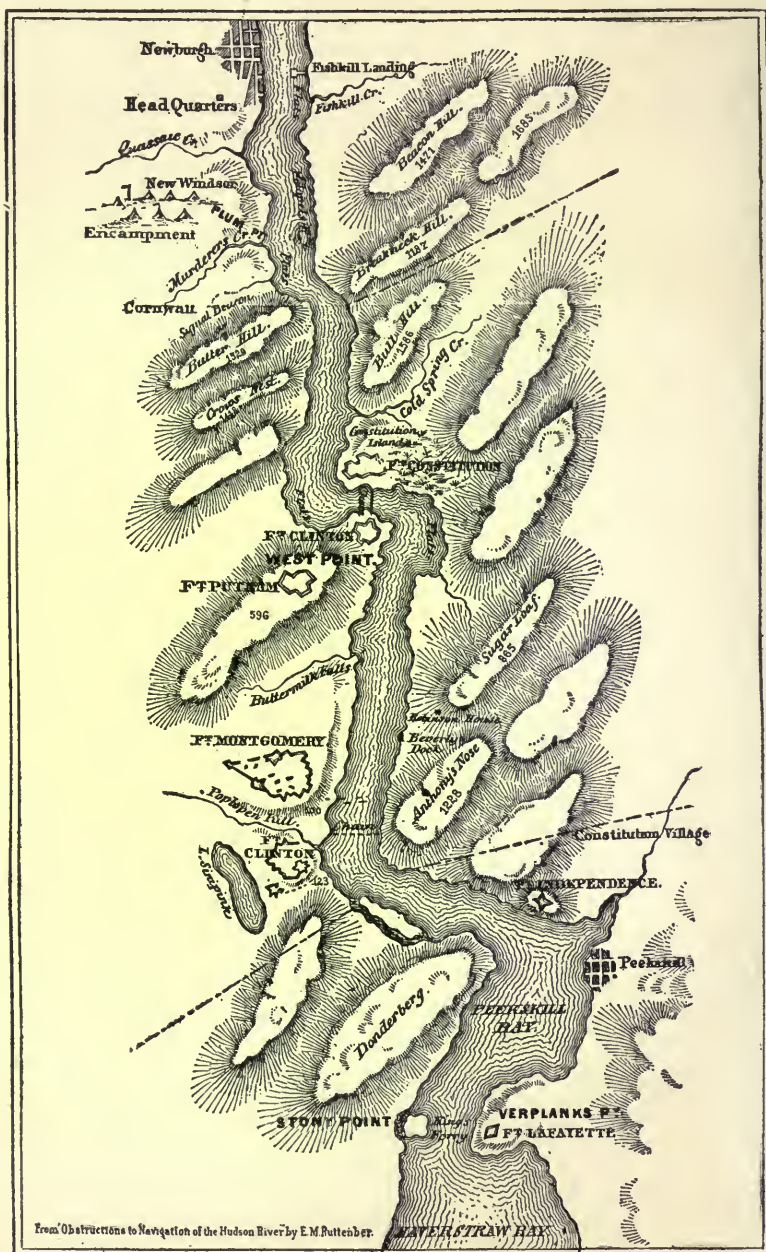

CHAPTER FIVE — THE HIGHLANDS TO PHILADELPHIA

We have dwelt, as circumstantially as space will permit, upon the operations in the vicinity of New York. The defeat on Long Island made many of the inhabitants Refugees to the State of Connecticut; while the abandoning of New York sent many of its prominent men not only to Connecticut, but to other parts of the State of New York. On some accounts, it might seem best to leave the later history of the War at this point, and begin the story of the American Refugees. But historical sequence forbids this. The disasters about New York should be viewed in retrospect to show their relative importance; and, to this end, the remainder of the War must be sketched briefly. Then certain phases of the Military and the Civil Organization must appear. In other words, what concerned the people as a whole precedes what concerned but a part — the Refugees. As stated in Chapter I, the stage setting is not yet ready for the actors.

Then, too, many of the Refugees from the City, and from Long Island, served in the American Army after the disasters of 1776 — as is shown in Ap. G., and elsewhere. So that, to omit all reference to the War after that year, would not be dealing fairly with those who left their homes to enter the American service.

The Campaign of 1777 opened with several unimportant skirmishes. Apparently, Washington did not hasten to leave his winter quarters at Morristown; and Cornwallis kept within his quarters at New Brunswick and Amboy. In April, Marquis de La Fayette (Ap. I. 7) and Baron de Kalb (Ap. I. 4) arrived in South Carolina, and offered their services as volunteers in the American Army.

IMPORTANCE OF THE HIGHLANDS

While Howe and Cornwallis were maneuvering with the object of taking Philadelphia, Sir Henry Clinton was in command at New York. He had not forgotten the plan of 1776 by which he was to ascend the Hudson; while Carleton and Burgoyne were to come down from Canada and meet him in Albany.

The Highlands of the Hudson extend from Haverstraw Bay to Newburgh — a stretch of about twenty miles. Here the narrow channels are commanded by many points which rise to considerable elevations. The Highlands are at the South what Champlain is at the North — the water highway along which all Military operations of that time had to move. Peekskill is the gateway to the Southern entrance. In March, 1777, Washington concentrated at Peekskill many of the New England Troops, and some of the New York Troops, under McDougall; while Willett commanded at Fort Constitution, opposite West Point. During the Summer, McDougall was superseded by Putnam.

With the force at Peekskill, the Americans were prepared to defend the Highlands. At the same time, they were within striking distance of Long Island Sound. A little higher up, on the West bank of the River, were Fort Montgomery at the North and Fort Clinton at the South — separated by the Poplopen Kill. The Provincial Congress, in 1775, had ordered these Forts to be built; and also Fort Constitution. Fort Montgomery, the stronger of the two, was built in the summer of 1776. A huge chain, supported and defended by booms of sharpened logs, was stretched across the River from Fort Clinton to Anthony's Nose. Above the chain were the Continental Frigates "Montgomery" and "Congress." Gen. George Clinton, under the Congress and Putnam, procured the chain. (Clinton Papers) The "Secret Committee" (William Bedlow, John Berrien and John Hanson) to erect Fortifications and to obstruct the River, with Capt.

C. Pulaski Thomas Machin (Ap. I. 8) in charge, expended about £7,500 in the work. The itemized accounts of the Committee and Machin appear in the Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 32.3 and 51. 11, 20-22. The engineering skill of Count Pulaski (Ap. I. 10) was of great service in fortifying the Highlands.

CAPTURE OF FORTS CLINTON AND MONTGOMERY

Fort Montgomery was garrisoned early in 1777, and some of the Refugees from Long Island were there. (Ap. A. 29) The Troops at Peekskill had been depleted in the following summer; a part going to Washington in Pennsylvania, and a part to Schuyler at the North. This left Putnam with a very small force to oppose Sir Henry Clinton and Sir John Vaughan, when they sailed up from New York early in October. Forts Clinton and Montgomery, commanded by the brothers Gen. James and Gen. and Gov. George Clinton, were feebly garrisoned. The troops were supplied with window leads, for bullets — a part of the stock which had been taken in New York City. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 87. Also Chapters 2 and 9) Sir Henry Clinton made a feint toward Peekskill to divert Putnam; and the latter sent to the brothers Clinton for aid. Meantime, the main body of the enemy landed on the West bank, several miles below the Forts, and advanced overland. The brothers Clinton now called on Putnam for assistance, but it was sent too late. The garrisons finally gave way on Oct. 6. Many escaped in the darkness, among them Gen. James Clinton who was wounded, and Gen. George Clinton who had recently taken the oath as first Governor of the new State of New York. That night the Americans burned their Frigates.

On the next day, the Ships of the enemy made short work of the chain. The Americans abandoned Fort Constitution; and the enemy moved up the River to Kingston. The Legislature adjourned hurriedly; and met again, at Poughkeepsie, in the following January. (Ap. B. 43) Kingston was burned by the enemy on Oct. 16. Many claims for damages at that time may be found in the Rev'y MSS., as above, 50. 164, &c.

The visitor of today will find some remains of Forts Clinton and Montgomery. But the traveler on the other side of the River sees only the bridge across the Poplopen Kill, disfigured with an advertising sign. Thus commercialism takes the place of history.

Sir Henry Clinton having now advanced to within 60 miles of Albany, awaited news from Burgoyne at the North. The news was not reassuring. Finally, when it was known that Burgoyne had surrendered, Clinton retired through Fishkill and Peekskill, after a few skirmishes and the destruction of Military stores, and was once more in New York. Thereupon, Parsons re-occupied Peekskill for the Americans, and it remained their strategic point throughout the War.

ORISKANY AND FORT SCHULYER

The operations at the North, so timed as to meet Sir Henry Clinton at Albany, were in two separate Expeditions. The first one started from Montreal, with picked troops under Col. Barry St. Leger, on July 19. It crossed the foot of Lake Ontario and took the direction of the Mohawk Valley. St. Leger was soon joined by Sir John Johnson with his Royalists, and by Col. John Butler and his Iroquois allies under Joseph Brant. (Ap. I. 2) The Oneidas and the Tuscaroras, of the Six Nations, alone remained neutral. It was a well balanced, well organized force numbering about 2,000.

St. Leger looked for no serious opposition. But Gen. Nicholas Herkimer (Ap. I. 6), rallied a force of 800, mostly Germans, which met at Fort Dayton, the mouth of West Canada Creek, prepared to meet the enemy whether approaching from the South or the West.

Fort Stanwix, of the French War, occupied the site of the present Rome, New York. In the Revolutionary War, it was known as Fort Schuyler. It was commanded by Col. Peter Gansevoort (Ap. I. 5) and his 3d Continentals; seconded by Lt. Col. Willett. Losing ("Field Book," 2. 588) states that the Fort was supplied with the arms taken by Willett, in New York City, in 1775. (Chap. 2)

Herkimer, under taunts of cowardice, advanced to the relief of Fort Schuyler. He fell into St. Leger's ambushade at the mouth of Oriskany Creek. The Battle of Aug. 6 lasted for five hours. It was the bloodiest of the War, in proportion to the numbers engaged. Herkimer was mortally wounded; his little band was scattered; but St. Leger was checked, and his siege of the Fort was delayed. Then was displayed, on the walls of the Fort, what is said to have been the first Flag of the United States made according to the directions of the Continental Congress. The materials came from the clothing of the garrison. Mrs. Abraham Lansing, of Albany, New York, a granddaughter of Col. Gansevoort, is the present owner of the Flag.

Herkimer having sent to the Fort for help, Willett made a sortie which forced the retreat of the enemy from Oriskany. Through Willett as the messenger, Gansevoort now appealed to Schuyler at Albany. The latter was watching Burgoyne at the North. His Officers opposed the sending of help to Gansevoort; but Schuyler took the responsibility; called for volunteers; and Arnold responded with 800 men. On Aug. 22, from German Flats, Arnold wrote to Gansevoort that he was on the way to help him and Herkimer; that Stark had won at Bennington; that Burgoyne had retreated to Ticonderoga; and that Howe with his shattered Army was becalmed in the Gulf Stream. (Gansevoort Papers, owned by Mrs. Abraham Lansing)

This was true as to Stark, only; but it was also true that, on the above date, St. Leger had abandoned the siege of Fort Schuyler; and that Sir Henry Clinton would not be helped from that quarter.

Reminders of those days survive in the Herkimer House, near Little Falls; and in Guy Park, near Amsterdam. Monuments mark the site of Fort Schuyler and the Battlefield of Oriskany.

THE EXPEDITION OF BURGOYNE

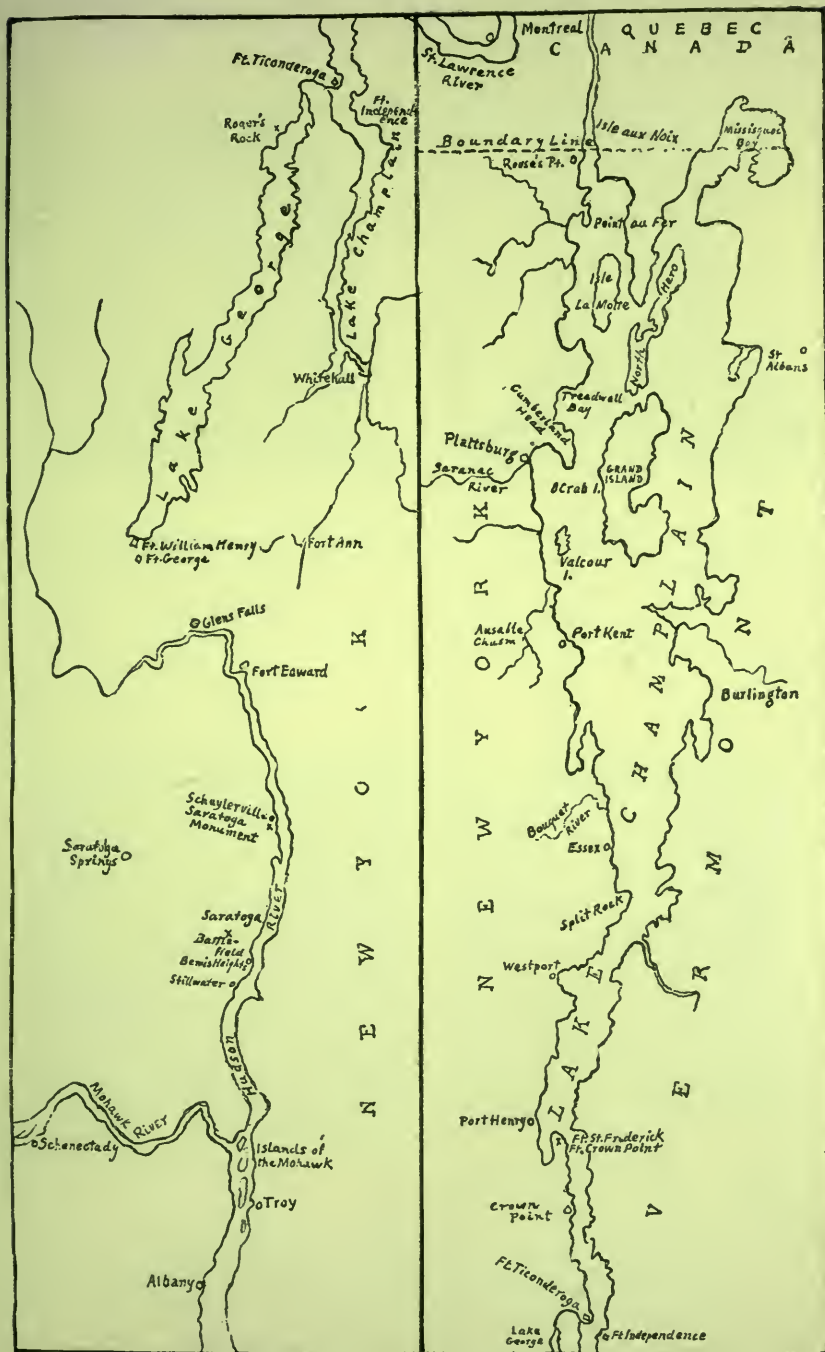

The second Expedition to meet Clinton at Albany was commanded by Burgoyne. With about 10,000 picked men, he left Montreal in June. Proceeding South along the historic Champlain, he had no difficulty in securing Crown Point. St. Clair was in command at Ticonderoga, with a small force divided between that Fort and Fort Independence, opposite. He had prepared for a stout resistance; but, after Burgoyne had scaled Mt. Defiance with his Artillery, resistance was useless. Ticonderoga was evacuated in the night, without the knowledge of the enemy; but a burning building showed the retreating Americans. They were pursued to Hubbardtown, where they were defeated on July 7. Burgoyne made his first mistake by proceeding to Skenesboro (now Whitehall) at the head of the Lake. He should have entered Lake George from Ticonderoga, and by using that well-known water-route, he would have gained many miles within the interior of the American territory. Such was the advice of Carleton, whom Burgoyne succeeded. It was poor judgment on the part of the King and his Privy Council to retire a Commander who was familiar with the topography of the country and who understood the Canadians, the Indians and the Americans, and to place in his stead a leader who had none of those qualifications.

So Burgoyne tarried for three weeks in Skenesboro. Schuyler, still in command of the Northern Department, had already fortified the Islands of the Mohawk as a last stand against both St. Leger and Burgoyne, should they join at that point. Albany was in a state of panic; although the County Committee had appealed to New England, and help had come from Litchfield and other places. (Clinton Papers, Vol. 2)

THE MONUMENT AT SARATOGA

By this time, Burgoyne sought to increase his supplies from the American stores at Bennington; and Baume was sent thither, with 500 men, for that purpose. Here Stark (Ap. I. 12) and Warner defeated him, on Aug. 16; took him and 900 other prisoners; and captured nearly all of Baume's arms and ammunition. Breyman, coming to his aid, arrived too late. The victory at Bennington and the failure of St. Leger had already cheered the Americans before Burgoyne left Skenesboro.

Once out from Skenesboro, Burgoyne found that Schuyler had so obstructed his path that he was several days in reaching Fort Edward, only 22 miles away—somewhat over a month from Ticonderoga, when he could have gained Fort Edward in one-third of the time by way of Lake George.

At this critical moment, the Continental Congress sent Maj. Gen. Horatio Gates (Ap. I. 5) to succeed Schuyler—as the friends of the latter said “to take the laurels which Schuyler had won.” Schuyler remained to advise with Gates. In the meantime, Burgoyne tarried at Fort Edward where he had managed to secure supplies for 30 days. Here he had the news of St. Leger's defeat; but, as yet, no news of Clinton's progress up the Hudson. Further supplies from the North had been cut off by the Americans. For the first time, Burgoyne hesitated; but he finally crossed the River and advanced toward Schuylerville. Gates left the Islands of the Mohawk; advanced to Schuylerville; and fortified Bemis Heights, where he awaited Burgoyne.

BATTLE OF STILLWATER

Bemis Heights, on Sept. 19, was the scene of the contest, sometimes known as the Battle of Stillwater. The Americans faced North, with their right on the River; and Gates in command. Their left was under Arnold. The British faced South, with their left on the River, and Philips and Reidesel in command. Their right was under Burgoyne, assisted by Fraser and Breyermann. Arnold was the inspiring genius on the field; and Col. Daniel Morgan (Ap. I. 9) and Gen. Henry Dearborn (Ap. I. 4) were his able assistants. Warner, Stark, Fellows, Wolcott, Glover — names we have met before — were also there. Col. Ebenezer Stevens ("Refugees, N. Y. City") commanded the Artillery; and Capt. John Varick (Same ref.) had also come from New York. Maj. Morgan Lewis (Same ref.), afterward Governor of New York, was Aide to Gen. Gates; and also Qr. Mr. Gen. of the Northern Department.

The result of the Battle was favorable to the Americans. The advance of Burgoyne was checked, and he retreated several miles to the North where he fortified. The two Armies were inactive from Sept. 20 until Oct. 7. In this interval, Gates deprived Arnold of his command, and gave it to Gen. Benjamin Lincoln (Ap. I. 7) who had just arrived with fresh Troops from New England.

At last, Burgoyne had a cipher dispatch from Clinton, stating that he would soon attack Forts Clinton and Montgomery. This encouraged him to fight, although his Officers advised a retreat. His supplies had been cut off in every direction. He was almost surrounded by the enemy; and that enemy's numbers were larger than his own, and constantly growing. The neighboring farmers, wholly without organization, came in groups to take "pot shots" at the Red Coats. From a Military stand-point, his situation was pathetic — if such a thing is known in warfare.

BATTLE OF SARATOGA

The second contest known as the Battle of Saratoga, took place near Schuylerville, on Oct. 7. The relative positions of both Armies, as to the River, were similar to their positions on Sept. 19. The action was brief and decisive. Morgan's Riflemen, from Virginia, were everywhere. Fraser fell; and the enemy lost heart. Ten Broeck came up with 3,000 fresh New Yorkers. While the enemy wavered, the intrepid Arnold, now without a command and wholly without orders, rushed from one part of the field to another, constantly dodging a messenger from Gates instructing him to do nothing rash. He had done it, already; and he had made the victory decisive. Yet, on account of his later conduct, a niche in the Saratoga Monument bears his name, only; while the other three niches have not only the names, but the statues of Gates, Schuyler and Morgan.

Burgoyne now had no alternative but to surrender. On Oct. 14, he proposed terms to Gates by which the British Army was to be returned to England for service elsewhere. By this time, Gates had heard of Sir Henry Clinton's success in the Highlands. He accepted Burgoyne's proposition; and the surrender was arranged to take place three days later. On the evening before the surrender, Burgoyne had also heard from Clinton; and he was disposed not to sign the Capitulation. But, on the morning of the 17th, Gates drew up his Army and threatened to open fire; and the Capitulation was signed. Adj. Gen. James Wilkinson was the only American Officer who saw Burgoyne's Troops lay down their arms. Wilkinson then brought Burgoyne to Gates; the two leaders dined together; and, afterward, in the sight of both Armies, Burgoyne gave up his sword which was promptly returned by Gates. Wilkinson was sent to the Continental Congress with news of the victory. The Articles of Capitulation are owned by the New York Historical Society.

Throughout these trying moments, when another was receiving the plaudits of the victory which Schuyler had done so much to secure, the attitude of Schuyler showed that he had the cause of the Country at heart rather than his personal fortune. He welcomed Burgoyne, although Burgoyne had burned his summer home at Schuylerville. He sent the Baroness Reidesel, in his own carriage, to his home in Albany; and thither he followed to entertain Burgoyne, and several of his Officers, on their way to embark at Boston.

The captured arms, ammunition and clothing were welcome to the Americans. But they were insignificant compared with the inspiring effect upon the American people. The most important result was the Alliance with France, which followed in the next year. "The Revolution was saved at Trenton; it was established at Saratoga". (Henry Cabot Lodge)

From this time, Ticonderoga and Crown Point were of no further use, and they fell rapidly into decay. The Fort at Ticonderoga is now (1912) being restored by Mr. Stephen Pell, of New York City. The Forts at Crown Point, together with considerable land around them, were given to New York as a State Park in 1910. The donors were Witherbee, Sherman and Co., of Port Henry, New York.

THE LOSS OF PHILADELPHIA

We left Washington in New Jersey maneuvering against Howe and Cornwallis. While he had no hope of saving Philadelphia, he saw the importance of keeping his opponents so busy that they could not help Clinton or Burgoyne. With this in view, he so disposed his Army by land that the brothers Howe sailed from New York for the Chesapeake, on July 23. The opposing Armies met at Brandywine Creek on Sept. 11. Here, again, are found Sullivan, Greene, Stirling, Wayne and Armstrong. LaFayette was wounded. Sullivan was out-flanked, and the day was lost. Then came the skirmish at Paoli; and, on Oct. 4, the Battle of Germantown which gave Philadelphia to the enemy. Washington made a last stand at Fort Mifflin on the Delaware River; but this, too, was lost. The Continental Congress adjourned to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, before the arrival of Cornwallis and Howe. On Dec. 11, Washington took up his winter quarters at Valley Forge, on the Schuylkill River, 20 miles above Philadelphia.

OPERATIONS ON LONG ISLAND SOUND

During the year 1777 four important Raids were made across Long Island Sound. Tryon attacked Danbury and Ridgefield, Apr. 25-28; Col. R. J. Meigs (Ap. I. 9) captured Sag Harbor, May 23, 24; Parsons attacked Setauket, Aug. 22; and Parsons Meigs and Samuel B. Webb made a general, but unsuccessful, attack upon the enemy on Long Island, Dec. 10. (Chap. 26)

CHAPTER SIX — VALLEY FORGE TO YORKTOWN

Down to the Battle of Saratoga the British had been successful, on the whole. They had gained: Long Island, White Plains, Fort Washington, New York City, The Highlands to Kingston, and Philadelphia. To offset this, the Americans could show, only Boston, Charleston defended, Trenton and Princeton. Besides, their Treasury was nearly exhausted; and their Congress had fled from Philadelphia.

But Saratoga balanced the books in their favor. There was no further danger of invasion from the North. McDougall had succeeded Putnam in the Highlands; and, once more, Peekskill and North Castle were occupied as strategic points. Gov. Clinton had interested Washington in a plan to fortify West Point. Putnam commenced the work, and Parsons continued it through 1778. Profiting by the experience with the former chains, at Forts Clinton and Montgomery lower down the River, a larger chain was made by the Stirling Iron Works in the part of Orange County, New York, now in Rockland County. (See Townsend, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn." Also Clinton Papers) Capt. Thomas Machin was the executive officer. The links of the chain were made of two and one-half inch bar iron; their length was two feet. Some of them may be seen in the State Library, at Albany, New York; and others, in Washington's headquarters, at Newburgh, New York.

The long winter of 1777-1778 was spent by Washington and his main Army at Valley Forge. The hardships which were endured there, and the contrasting comforts of the enemy in Philadelphia, with its Mischianza, are familiar to every one. Baron de Steuben (Ap. I. 12), the great drill-master, made the Army much more effective by the time it left Valley Forge, in June. Added to Washington's troubles

Le Baron de Steuben

was a conspiracy to supplant him with Gates—the Conway Cabal in which Gen. Thomas Conway (Ap. I. 3), Gates, Wilkinson and Mifflin were the leading spirits. To counteract this, the Continental Congress directed Washington to administer an Oath of Loyalty to all of the American Officers. (Chap. 10)

Thus, in spite of Saratoga and the coming Alliance with France, Valley Forge was the low-water mark of the Revolution.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1778

Before the fourth Campaign really began, Louis XVI had pledged the aid of France to the American cause. It is stated (Clinton Pap., 2. 541) that, previous to this, the Americans had reason to expect aid from Frederick the Great; but the course of France made it impossible for Prussia to take the same action. Benjamin Franklin (Ap. I. 4) was the author of the Treaty, signed Feb. 6, which not only promised aid, but acknowledged the Independence of the United States. The Treaty was ratified by the Continental Congress, in May.

On May 11, Sir Henry Clinton took command at Philadelphia, in place of Gen. Sir William Howe who returned to England. The policy of Clinton seemed to be one of inaction, —to hold what he already had, and to await new developments. But when he learned that the French Fleet, under D'Estaing, was on the high seas, he feared for his safety in Philadelphia. That

Estaing

Fleet might destroy his base — Chesapeake Bay and the Fleet of Lord Howe. So Howe sailed back to New York; and Clinton began the Evacuation of Philadelphia. While he was marching to New York overland, he was overtaken by Washington at Monmouth, on June 28. The action was not decisive; but Clinton was checked, and his losses were heavy. He proceeded to Sandy Hook; and, on July 3, he was once more safely on Staten Island. Washington brought his Army to White Plains; whence he could turn to New England, to the Highlands, or to the South — as circumstances might require. After the Evacuation, Arnold was appointed Military Governor of Philadelphia.

Joseph Brant

Admiral D'Estaing attempted an attack on the British Fleet at New York; but he was stopped by the bar at the entrance to the harbor. He then sailed for Newport to assist Sullivan in an attack by land. The Fleet of Lord Howe came in sight, and D'Estaing went out to meet it. A violent storm damaged both Fleets; D'Estaing sailed for Boston; Howe sailed for New York; and Sullivan, being left without support, escaped on Aug. 29, after a skirmish known as Quaker Hill. Sir Henry Clinton caused it to be known that he intended to support the British operations about Newport. The intention was not serious; but the uncertainty kept the American Army on the watch for several months.

In January and February a Convention was held at New Haven "to regulate the price of labor, &c." The Delegates from New York were: Peter T. Curtenius ("Refugees, N. Y. City"), William Denning, Comfort Sands (Same ref.) and Col. William Floyd. ("Refugees, L. I. to Conn.") (Rev'y MSS., 30. 72; 31. 58; 50. 168)

On July 4, Maj. John Butler, with a band of Tories, Canadians and Indians, attacked the settlement in the Wyoming Valley, in Pennsylvania. The surrender was followed by acts of barbarity which were not excused by the leaders of the enemy. A similar Massacre took place, at Cherry Valley, New York, on Nov. 11. The invaders were led by Joseph Brant (Thayendangea) the Chief of the Mohawks, and Walter Butler, a son of Maj. John Butler.*

* Consult Halsey's "The Old New York Frontier;" and "Centennial Celebrations of the State of New York" pp. 359-383.

On Dec. 29, the British captured Savannah, the defeated garrison escaping to Charleston. The operations of the year, therefore, favored the Americans. Howe and Clinton were confined to New York; and thenceforth the struggle was to be at the South.

The winter quarters of the American Army extended from Danbury, Connecticut, with Putnam in command, to the Highlands, with McDougall in command; and thence, by a line of cantonments to the Delaware River—a considerable portion of the Troops being at Middlebrook, New Jersey.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1779

At the South, the enemy was uniformly successful during the year. The Americans failed to take Savannah; and the British Gen.

Prevost held the whole of Georgia. His efforts to secure South Carolina failed, through the resistance of Lincoln, Moultrie and Pickens.

Sir Henry Clinton's main Army was still in New York. On May 31, with a small force, he ascended the Hudson, and captured Fort Lafayette, on Verplank's Point, and the Fort on Stony Point, opposite. (See Map in Chap. 5)

John Sullivan

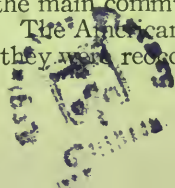

It was important in that it reopened one of the main communications between New England and New York. The Americans dismantled and abandoned the works. Later, they were reoccupied

Anthony Wayne

From July 5 to July 12, Tryon was engaged in the attacks on New Haven, Fairfield and Norwalk. On Sept. 5, Maj. Benjamin Tallmadge ("Refugees, L. I. to Conn.") retaliated by attacking Lloyd's Neck. (Chap. 26)

A more important retaliation was the re-taking of Stony Point, by Gen. Anthony Wayne (Ap. I. 14), on the night of July 15-16. The capture, by a bayonet charge, was the most daring and desperate incident of the War.

by the British; only to be finally abandoned, in October, when Sir Henry Clinton heard that the Fleet of D'Estaing was coming Northward.

On July 22, the Tories and Indians raided Minisink, in Orange County, New York. The resulting Massacre spurred on the well known "Sullivan Expedition." Gen. John Sullivan and Gen. James Clinton were in charge, with the object of punishing the Iroquois, and especially the Senecas, for their acts, at Wyoming and Cherry Valley, in 1778. They were victorious at Newtown (now Elmira) on Aug. 29. Thence they proceeded North, and destroyed the crops of the Senecas who were the gardeners of the Six Nations.

Toward the end of the year, Spain declared War on England, and Paul Jones had begun his attacks upon the English commerce.

The American Army occupied winter quarters at Morristown, New Jersey. The winter was the coldest on record. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.—2d Ser.," p. 16) Long Island Sound was frozen, and crossings were frequently made from Long Island to Norwalk. (Rivington's "Gazette," Feb. 16, 1780)

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1780

The British still continued the apparent policy of reducing the South, and working Northward to New York. Clinton and Arbuthnot captured Charleston, on May 12; and, with it, Lincoln and his Army. The two British Commanders returned to New York, leaving Cornwallis in charge. From this time, Sumter and Marion carried on a partisan warfare against the enemy; which prevented the latter from covering the whole of South Carolina. On Aug. 16, Cornwallis defeated Gates, at Camden; but this was offset, on Oct. 7, by the defeat of Maj. Ferguson, of the Regulars, at King's Mountain. Baron de Kalb fell at Camden.

At the North, on June 23, Knyphausen advanced to Springfield, New Jersey, but he was driven back to New York. On July 10, further reinforcements of Ships and men from France arrived at Newport. On Nov. 23, Tallmadge made his successful attack on Fort St. George and Coram, both on Long Island. (Chap. 26) Sir John Johnson and Brant raided the valleys of the Schoharie and the Mohawk in October; but they were driven back by Gov. Clinton at the head of the Militia.

May 20 was known as "The Dark Day." (Clinton Pap. 5. 734, 735) It may have foreshadowed the desertion of Gen. Arnold from the American cause. He had taken command at West Point, on Aug. 3, by direction of Washington. During the next month he attempted to carry out a plan which he had suggested to Sir Henry Clinton some time before. The plan involved the surrender of the Highlands in return for a commission in the British Army.*

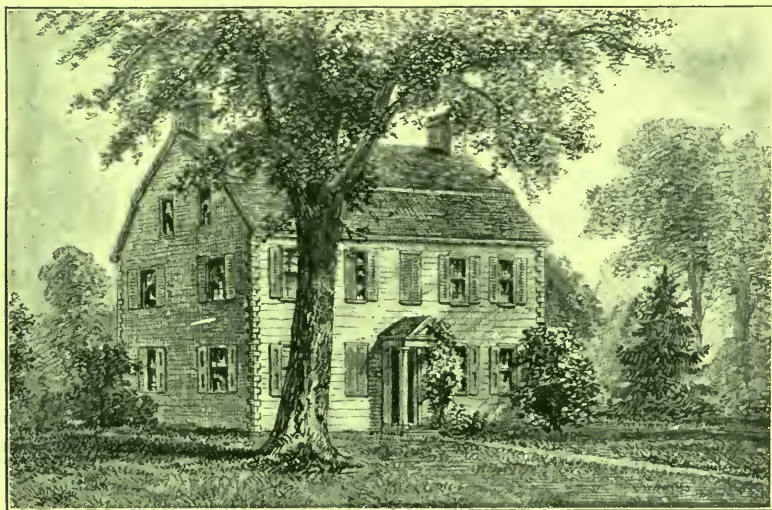

* The story of Arnold's escape; and the capture and execution of Major John Andre are set forth, at length, in Tallmadge's "Memoir," pp. 51-57; Lossing's "Field Book," I. 710-724; Spark's "Washington," pp. 313-317; Spark's "Life and Treason of Arnold," and Hall's "Parsons," pp. 301-312. The papers which were found on Andre are in the New York State Library, at Albany, N. Y. Consult the map on p. 57.

Fearing that other desertions to the enemy might follow, Washington called a larger body of Troops to West Point. Wayne and Meigs were among the first to respond.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1781

The last year of actual hostilities opened gloomily for the Americans. The Army was destitute of pay, provisions and clothing. Robert Morris came forward with financial aid, and the situation was cleared.

Gates having been permanently retired after the Battle of Camden, Greene was now in full command at the South. On Jan. 17, Morgan defeated Tarleton at Cowpens; on Mar. 15, the Americans were repulsed at Guilford Court House; and, on Apr. 25, they were again repulsed at Hobkirk's Hill. The last important engagement in South Carolina was at Eutaw Springs, on Sept. 8, where Greene was partially victorious. Meantime, Cornwallis had retreated to Wilmington, North Carolina, and thence to Petersburg, Virginia, with the object of conquering the latter State and then returning to the Carolinas. During the campaign, Arnold as a Brig. Gen. in the British Army, made several predatory excursions along the Chesapeake Bay.

WEBB HOUSE — WETHERSFIELD, CONNECTICUT

At the North, Parsons made a successful attack on Morrisania, on Jan. 22. The Americans, with assistance from the French, made an unsuccessful attack on Lloyd's Neck, on July 12. Arnold burned New London, on Sept. 6. Tallmadge attacked Ft. Slongo, on Long Island, Oct. 3. (Chap. 26)

A most important Conference was held at the house of Joseph Webb, in Wethersfield, Connecticut, on May 21, 22. Washington had arrived, previously, with Knox and Duportail. They were met by the Marquis de Chastelleux and the Count de Rochambeau (Ap. I. 10) now released from watching the enemy at Newport. It was agreed that the French Army should join the American Army on the Hudson; and either make an attack on New York, or, by a feint, draw the forces of the enemy from the South. Dispatches from Washington, relative to this agreement, were captured; but Sir Henry Clinton believed them to be false. The French received an ovation as they marched across Connecticut. (Chap. 21) The two Armies met in what is now the Borough of the Bronx. Gen. Waterbury was stationed at Throgg's Neck.

In July, when Washington was ready to attack, word came from Count de Grasse that he had left the West Indies for Chesapeake Bay. This news led Washington to abandon New York for the South. It is evident that his proposed attack on New York was a mask to cover his descent on Yorktown. The division of Gen. William Heath (Ap. I. 6) was left to threaten Sir Henry Clinton who was still in New York City. He was once more deceived by false dispatches from Washington to Greene — which Clinton believed to be true. By this time, the main Army of Washington was beyond the Delaware.

Cornwallis, closely pursued by LaFayette and Wayne, retired to Yorktown, in August, expecting help by sea from New York.

Cornwallis

Guy Carlton

Washington appeared before Yorktown, in September. Cornwallis now found that his small Fleet was no match for de Grasse, outside; and that his 7,500 men within the works were opposed by 16,000 Continentals. With no hope of aid from Clinton, on Oct. 19, he surrendered his Army to Washington; and his Shipping, to De Grasse.

FINAL EVENTS

There were no further Campaigns. The American Army returned to the Highlands, and a considerable portion of it went into winter quarters at Connecticut village. In May, 1782, Sir Guy Carleton was called from Canada to take the place of Clinton in New York. In August, he gave notice of Negotiations for a Peace; and a Preliminary Treaty was signed, on Nov. 30. In spite of this, there occurred what was perhaps the last skirmish of the War. On Dec. 7, Tallmadge and Brewster participated in a spirited action, with whale-boats, off the harbor of Huntington, Long Island. (Chap. 26)

The Preliminaries to a General Peace were signed, at Paris, on Jan. 20, 1783.

From the summer of 1782 to the Spring of 1783 Washington occupied his headquarters at Newburgh, New York, Mrs. Washington being with him a part of the time. (Clinton Pap. 8., 418, 419) In spite of the Truce, he is said to have looked toward West Point every morning to see if some band of marauders had not broken the chain on their way to capture him. While at Newburgh, he completed his most valuable Itinerary, showing his movements throughout the War. (Clinton Pap., 8. 396-413)

The permanent Treaty of Peace was signed, at Paris, Sept. 3, 1783. The Continental Army being now disbanded, Washington met Carleton, at Dobb's Ferry, on Nov. 16, to arrange the details of the Evacuation of New York and the embarkation of the British Troops. These matters, together with the entry of the American Troops into the City and Washington's farewell to his Officers are set forth in Chapter 19. The conduct of the War — local as to Connecticut, Long Island and Westchester County, New York—is described in Chapters 21-26, because many of the operations were carried on by Refugees from Long Island and from the City of New York.

SECOND DIVISION—MILITARY AND CIVIL SERVICE

CHAPTER SEVEN—MILITARY ORGANIZATION AND SERVICE

The Colonial Governors of New York issued Military Commissions, down to the beginning of the Revolutionary War. Facsimiles of the Colonial Commissions of Capt. Elias Pelletreau and Capt. James Reeve, Refugees from Long Island, will be found in their respective biographies, in Part Two of this work. During the War, the New York Provincial Congress, or the Committee of Safety, issued the Commissions; but, on the formation of the State of New York in 1777, they were issued by Gov. Clinton.

In Ap. G. (102, 103) will be found Tables showing the Continental Troops and the Militia credited to the several States during the Revolutionary War. It is shown, therein, that the four New England States, with 22.75 per cent. of the total population, furnished 41.84 per cent. of the combined Continental Troops and Militia; and 51.03 per cent. of the Continental Troops alone. The smaller showing of the Southern States was probably due to the considerable number of slaves in their population. The Tables also make a correction in the figures relating to New York, more recent investigations having shown that the whole number of Troops to which the State was entitled was not known until the publication of the second edition of "New York in the Revolution." The record, as thus given, should satisfy those who have hitherto charged that New York was far behind many of the other States in her efforts. As corrected by the later information, New York, with 9.35 per cent. of the total population, furnished 7.55 per cent. of the combined Continental Troops and Militia; and 7.67 per cent. of the Continental Troops alone. Based on this increase for New York, the percentages of the New England States, as given above, are a trifle less.

THE CONTINENTALS AND THE MILITIA

The Militia from the New England States assembled before Boston and at Ticonderoga after the Battle of Lexington. They were adopted into the Continental Service, rather loosely. In 1776, the Continental Congress organized the first Continental Army.

The Organizations of the Continental Line and of the Militia, in the State of New York, are set forth at length in the book above named, the statements being based upon the "Revolutionary MSS." The separate Organizations are given, in more detail, in the "Archives of the State of New York — The Revolution," which was compiled from the "Military Returns," "Military Commissions" and other original papers. All of these documents are in the New York State Library, at Albany. In 1781,

THE MILITIA OF LONG ISLAND

In Ap. G. (1-42) will be found a very complete record of the Militia from Kings, Queens and Suffolk, the three Counties comprising the territory of Long Island. The Organizations which came down from the Colonial times, in 1775, are followed along until, in 1776, they were recast into a more compact form to resist the enemy. In this record (Ap. G.), the effort has been made to secure the name of every soldier who was enrolled on the Island. To this end, all statements hitherto made have been traced back to the original documents, as far as possible; and several muster rolls, not published hitherto, are given.

Early in 1775, a movement was started to raise Troops for the support of the so called Rebellion. Capt. Timothy Carll, Col. Phineas Fanning, and Col. David Mulford were appointed Muster Masters of the Troops to be raised in Suffolk County. Two Regiments of Militia were organized, one in the Eastern part of the County, and the other in the Western part. It was intended that they should join the Continental Army. The New York Provincial Congress, in August, 1775, sent 100 pounds of powder to Ebenezer Platt, for the use of the Western Militia; and 200 pounds, to the order of Ezra L'Hommedieu and John Foster, for the Eastern Militia.

In the New York Provincial Congress, on Feb. 9, 1776, a letter was received from Isaac Thompson, Chairman of the Committee of Islip, stating that Benajah Strong had been chosen Capt.; Jeremiah Terry and Samuel Oakly, 1st and 2d Lts.; and Annin Mowbry, Ens.; and desiring that Commissions might be sent to them. (Thompson's "Long Island" 1. 199) Before Feb. 23, 1776, Thomas Cooper and Silas Halsey, Committeemen, certified the election of a Company of Minute Men, in Southampton; and (Same date) Maltby Gelston certified the election of Officers of another Company of Minute Men. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 25)

On Feb. 10, 1776, the Second, or Eastern, Regiment reported nine companies, 768 Officers and privates; of which East Hampton furnished two Companies; Bridge Hampton, two; Sag Harbor and Bridge Hampton, jointly, two; and Southampton, three Companies. Bridge Hampton probably furnished as many as three Companies. In addition to these, Bridge Hampton, East Hampton and Southampton furnished a Company of Minute Men to act as a home guard. David Mulford was the Colonel. (Ap. G. 2)

On Apr. 5, Col. William Floyd reported that the First, or Western, Regiment had 13 Companies, a total of 1030 Officers and men. As originally constituted, five of the Companies came from Huntington; three, from Brookhaven; and one each from Smithtown, Islip and Southold. Later, two more Companies came from Huntington. (Ap. G. 1)

There was, also, a Third Regiment, in Suffolk County, commanded by Col. Thomas Terry. (Ap. G. 3) Portions of the three Regiments were finally merged into the Regiment of Minute Men,

The People of the STATE of NEW-YORK,

By the Grace of GOD, FREE and INDEPENDENT;

To Simon Maxwell Esquire -----GREETING:

WE reposing especial Trust and Confidence, as well in your Patriotism, Conduct and Loyalty, as in your Valour and Readiness to do us good and faithful Service; HAVE appointed and constituted, and by these Presents, DO appoint and constitute you the said Simon Maxwell Captain of a Company in the Independent Company raised for the Service of the State on Boundaries of unappropriated Lands whereof Edward Van Buren Esquire is Major -----

YOU are therefore, to take the said Company ----- into your Charge and Care, as Captain thereof, and duly to exercise the Officers and Soldiers of that Company ----- in Arms, who are hereby commanded to obey you as their Captain ----- and you are also to observe and follow such Orders and Directions, as you shall from Time to Time receive from our General and Commander in Chief of the Militia of our said State, or any other your Superior Officer, according to the Rules and Discipline of War, in Pursuance of the Trust reposed in you; and for so doing, This shall be YOUR COMMISSION, for and during our good Pleasure, to be signified by our Council of Appointment. IN TESTIMONY whereof, we have caused our Seal for Military Commissions to be hereunto affixed. Passed the Secretary's Office, 10 July 1783.

Matthew Harrison Secy. Secretary.

THE COMMISSION OF A CAPTAIN OF MILITIA IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK

under Col. Josiah Smith. (Ap. G. 4, 6, 7, 11-39) As a part of Col. Smith's Regiment, the New York Committee of Safety, on Jan. 6, 1776, recommended to the Committee of Suffolk County that an Artillery Company should be formed, the members of which should be considered as Minute Men. This was done; and, on Jan. 24, William Smith, Chairman of the County Committee, certified to that effect. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong. Also Ap. G. 4)

MOVEMENTS OF THE MILITIA

The movements of the Militia from the Island, before and during the Battle of Long Island, are described in Chapter Three. After the Battle, the Militia disbanded and went to their homes. (Chap. 18) The pay rolls of Capt. Selah Strong's Company were taken to Connecticut by Capt. Ebenezer Dayton, in September, 1776 (Ap. C. 38); and probably all of the similar papers which have survived were also removed to places of safety. On Oct. 17, John Sloss Hobart wrote to Gen. George Clinton, from Fairfield, Connecticut, that all of Col. Smith's Regiment had been ordered to rendezvous at New Haven on the following Monday. (Clinton Pap., 1. 382) On Oct. 5, Gen. Clinton ordered Col. Henry B. Livingston (Ap. I. 7) to gather in all the men of Col. Smith's command who were scattered on Long Island and in Connecticut. (Same ref., 1. 370) On Nov. 8, the New York Committee of Safety resolved to pay such of the Officers and men of Col. Smith's Regiment as were then outside the territory occupied by the enemy. (Ap. A. 19) On Jan. 24, 1777, the same Committee ordered that the Speaker of the General Assembly of Connecticut, or the Chairman of any Committee in the State, may administer the oath to any Officers and men of Col. Josiah Smith's Regiment, who are upon the muster rolls and pay rolls. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n) On Mar. 8, the New York Convention ordered that £8. be paid to Capt. Nathaniel Platt to reimburse him for payment of half Bounties to Nathaniel Smith, Matthew Beal and Thomas Peters, privates in Col. Josiah Smith's Regt. Also £141. 17s. 8d. to Capt. Platt for the pay and subsistence roll of his Company, part of which joined Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regiment. (Same ref.)

SERVICE OF THE REFUGEES ELSEWHERE

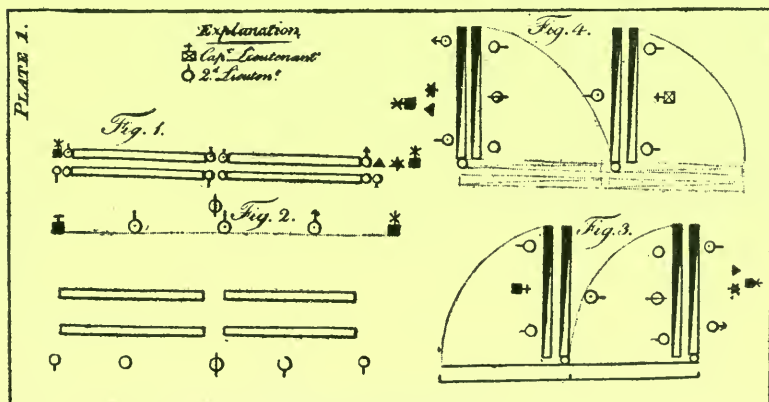

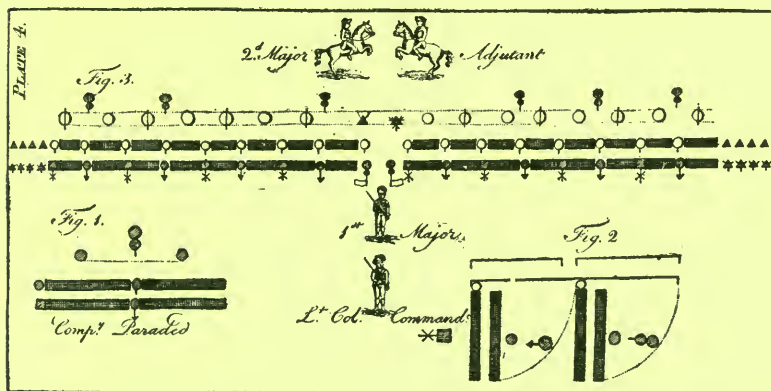

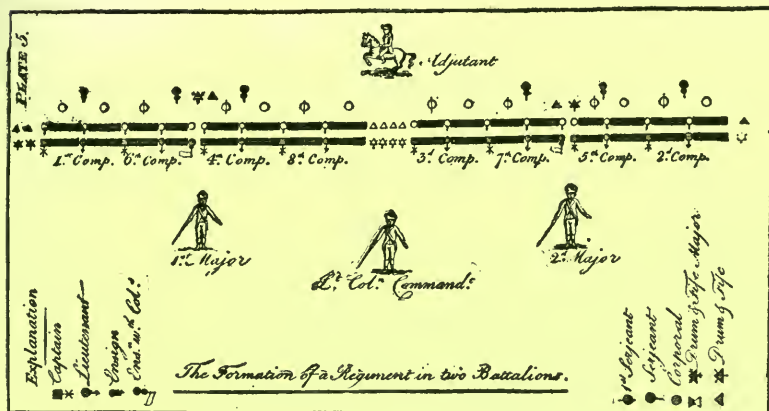

While the attempt has been made in Ap. G. (1-42) to record all of the soldiers from Long Island, no attempt has been made to trace the further service of all of them elsewhere; except that the service of the Refugees has been so traced, both in the Continental Regiments and in the Militia of the neighboring Counties in the State of New York; and in the Continental Regiments, and the Militia of Connecticut. (Ap. G. 43-101) But it must not be assumed that the Refugee is always identified in the case of service by a man of similar name.

All five of the Regiments of the New York Line contained Refugees from Long Island; but the Third and Fourth contained the greater number. It was reported to the New York Committee of Safety, on Dec. 26, and 28, 1776, that many men from the Companies of Captains Joshua Youngs, Paul Reeve and Nathaniel Platt were serving in Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regiment — the 4th Line. (Ap. G. 47, 48) The Provisional Brigade of Gen. Scott also had a number (Ap. G. 10); while, among the Militia Regiments, the Second and Third of Westchester seemed to be the favorites. (Ap. G. 78, 79) The former was known as "The Miller Regiment," on account of the numerous men of that name therein.

THE MILITIA OF CONNECTICUT

It has been impracticable to classify the service in Connecticut by Regiments; therefore the arrangement is according to individual service of those bearing the names of the Refugees. (Ap. G. 82-101) A very concise statement of the early formation of the Connecticut Troops may be found in Hall's "Life of Gen. Samuel H. Parsons," pp. 1-4.

The lack of Cavalry was one of the chief causes of defeat at the Battle of Long Island. Profiting by this experience, Washington had the 2d and the 4th Light Horse, of Connecticut, on out-post duty from New Rochelle to White Plains; and when the Battle at the latter place came on, he had sufficient notice of the approach of the enemy. The 2d Light Horse was re-organized soon afterward, and it served throughout the War.

THE SPY SYSTEM

Gen. Washington had his own schemes for obtaining information as to the intentions and the movements of the enemy. He never entrusted secrets of this nature to others, not even to those members of his Military family with whom he was most intimate. Apparently Maj. Tallmadge was an exception. (Ap. H. 38) No records are extant showing Washington's methods, because he inked none. He kept his secret relating to spies as well as he kept his secret relating to the constant shortage of powder.

With Sir Henry Clinton, it was different. He kept a "Secret Record," a part of which came to light but a few years ago. That part has been made public; and an excerpt, relating to Long Island and Connecticut, will be found in Ap. H. 35. We are indebted to Sir Henry for the excerpt, because it shows the double life which the spies were obliged to lead. Prominent among them was Maj. Robert Rogers, from Lake George, mistrusted by Washington, who finally proved to be a Colonel in the British Army.

In other parts of the "Secret Record," not quoted herein, the most conspicuous example of double life is named in the character called "Hiram." According to all accounts he was trusted, feared, believed and disbelieved — by both sides. He was William Heron, of Redding, Connecticut. The only important criticism of Gen. Parsons' conduct during the War came from Heron. In fact, if Heron is to be believed, Parsons was a traitor. This accusation is fully met in Hall's "Life of Parsons," pp. 418-460.

Gen. Parsons, himself, had spies in New York City, and on Long Island. (Same ref., pp. 396, 397) Several of the Refugees stand out conspicuously in this service. Lt. Henry Scudder, of Huntington, Dr. William Lawrence and Silvanus Dickerson often gave important information relative to the enemy. Capt. Caleb Brewster, of Setauket, acted as the secret agent of Congress from 1778 to the end of the War. His operations, on Long Island Sound, gave to Washington and the Congress accurate and minute information as to the intentions of the enemy. (See Scudder, Lawrence, Dickerson and Brewster in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn." For Lawrence, see also Ap. E. 48, 120)

CHAPTER EIGHT—MILITARY EQUIPMENT AND PAY

From about the year 1700 the Colony of New York enacted, yearly, a law which was usually entitled: "An act for settling the Militia of this Province and the making of it useful for the security and defense thereof." It was provided therein that Every Foot Soldier must provide himself, and appear and muster with a good, well fixed musket or fuzee, a good sword, belt and cartridge box, six cartridges of powder, a horn and six sizable bullets. At home, he must always have on hand one pound of good gunpowder and three pounds of sizable bullets.

For want of these articles, a fine of 20 shillings and prison charges were imposed until the fine was paid. At his discretion, the Captain was allowed and authorized to levy upon and sell the delinquent's goods. "In case the offender be unable or refuse to pay, and he have no goods to distress, he shall ride the wooden horse, or be laid by the neck and heels in a public place for not to exceed an hour." It was also provided that Every Soldier belonging to a Troop of Horse shall appear twice a year for a drill and muster, provided with a good, serviceable horse, not less than 14 hands high, covered with a good saddle, housings, breast plate and crupper, a case of good pistols, a good sword or hanger, one-half a pound of good powder and twelve sizable bullets, a pair of boots and suitable spurs, and a carbine well fixed with a belt, swivel and a blanket, under penalty of ten shillings for the want of a sizable horse, and ten shillings for want of each or either of the other articles.

The Chief Militia Acts of the Legislature of New York, were passed: Apr. 3, 1778; Oct. 9, 1779; Mar. 11, 1780 and Feb. 21, 1781.

CLOTHING

On Sept. 15, 1775, the New York Committee of Safety supplied a Committee with £4,000; and empowered it to employ a vessel in order to purchase Powder and Arms,—a portion of each; but the whole amount for either Muskets or Powder. Failing in this, to use the whole for saltpetre. Failing in this, "Twenty Tons of Lead to be purchased and the residue of the money invested in 2½ & 3 point Blanketts fit for a Soldier to cover himself with or wrap himself in — and if Blanketts cannot be procured that they direct the Money to be Invested in such Coarse Wollens as are fit for Soldiers Coats, the Cloths to be Blue Brown or Drab Colours." (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 1. 139h)

On Oct. 3, 1776, The New York Convention appointed Robert Harpur (Chairman), Abraham P. Lott and Nathaniel Sackett a Committee to take charge of all the Flax belonging to the Convention; to hire spinners; and to have the flax manufactured into yarn and cloth as speedily as possible. (Same ref., 30. 16, 30; 52. 16, 17) The following fabrics were used in the Army: Forest Cloth, Blue Duffel, Red Baize, Royal Rib, Nankeen, Brown Jean, Fustian, Dimmity, Corduroy, Oznabrigs, Blue Shalloon, Blue Strouds, King's Blue, Saxon Green, White Rattinette, White Jean, White Shalloon. Duffels were either Red, Blue or Drab. Osingbrigs, or Oznabrigs (probably named from Osnabrueck, in Prussia), was a thin canvas originally used for the smaller sails of ships. (Same ref., 40. 10; 51. 10, 39; 52. 7)

As the War progressed, the securing of Clothing became more difficult. Laws were passed by the Legislature of New York: Apr. 4, 1778; May 30, 1780; and Mar. 7, 1781. Acting under these laws, Gov. Clinton appointed William Floyd and Isaac Roosevelt Commissioners to procure Clothing, and Money on Loan, presumably to pay for the Clothing. The agents on Long Island and in Connecticut were Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell. (Same ref., 52. 67 A. to C.)

SHADY TRANSACTIONS

On Nov. 17, 1780, Ezra L'Hommedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Middletown, Connecticut, that there was little prospect of raising Specie for the purchase of Clothing for the Troops. Therefore he, with Col. William Floyd and John Sloss Hobart, had a plan to raise about £10,000 in cash and as much in Clothing, "the particulars of which Col. Floyd will inform you. In transacting this business, it will be difficult to save our Reputations, and prevent popular clamor, unless great precaution is used." He then stated that the Governor of Connecticut would give assistance, upon formal application from the Governor of New York. The plan was for Gov. Clinton to grant Warrants of Impress for the articles; to use a small force in executing the Warrants; and to convey the articles to Connecticut where Gov. Trumbull would furnish men and boats to transport the Goods. (Clinton Pap., 6. 419, 420) To this, Gov. Clinton replied, on Dec. 22, by asking

Gov. Trumbull to co-operate. He also stated that he had given a Warrant of Impress to Maj. John Davis to be used in Suffolk County, New York. On the same date, Gov. Clinton issued instructions to Maj. Davis, with a letter to Mr. L'Hommedieu. Maj. Davis was cautioned to make the Impress the least burden possible; to guard against the capture of the Clothing by the enemy; to have the Goods conveyed rapidly toward Hartford; and to draw upon the Refugees in Connecticut in case Gov. Trumbull should not furnish the men and boats. Maj. Davis was to borrow money in Suffolk County and meet the expense. Maj. John Keese was ordered to furnish Maj. Davis with a horse, conveyance for his baggage, and cash. (Same ref., 6. 510-512) On the same date, Gov. Clinton wrote to Mr. L'Hommedieu informing of his letter to Gov. Trumbull, and his directions to Maj. Davis. (Same ref., 6. 512, 513) On May 2, 1781, Mr. L'Hommedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton stating that he had advanced considerable money of his own for purchases of Clothing; but the Clothing sent on by Maj. Davis "will come vastly cheaper." He advised Gov. Clinton to take out of the Clothing "any articles you might want for yourself and family." He also stated that on the next day there would come on, at Middletown, the Trial for the goods and Clothing taken from the Whigs of Long Island, so as to test the validity of the Commission which took the goods. (Same ref., 6. 823, 824) On Nov. 29, 1781, Gov. Clinton wrote to Isaac Roosevelt that Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell, and probably some of the Clothing, had been captured. He recommended that the work be carried on by Capt. Thomas Grinnell, and Thomas McFarren. (Same ref., 7. 528, 529, 584, 585) Thomas Grinnell was Capt. of the Frigate "Congress." ("N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.," p. 269) It is quite certain that the proposition made by Obadiah Wright, in December, 1781, related to the same business. (Ap. E. 192) The whole transaction showed that both Governors winked at the Illicit Trade. (Chap. 23)

Nathaniel Fanning had some Clothing which the State of New York purchased with the understanding that he should be paid after the War. The Clothing was seized and condemned; but he appealed to Gov. Clinton, in May 1781, for a permit to remove to Connecticut other goods which had not been seized. (Clinton Pap., 6. 831)

UNIFORMS

The Militia which joined Washington, before Boston, may have suffered by comparison with the seasoned Soldiery opposed to them. They did not belong to a standing Army; and War was not their occupation. Their personal appearance has often been criticized. The critics have overlooked the important fact that if the men had not come to Washington just as they were when the emergency arose, he would have had no Army; and there would have been no War.

But even the Militia of that date sometimes made a better appearance. In 1775, the "Uniform Dress" of Capt. John Skidmore's Company, Jamaica, Long Island, consisted of a linen frock reaching below the knee, with a fringe around the neck and arms, and a white feather in the hat. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 36) This outfit was much like that of the Rangers from the Colonies South of Pennsylvania. The fringed hunting shirt was made from green homespun. The rest of the Uniform consisted of substantial buckskin leggings and moccasins, and caps made of coon skin. The hair was uncut, and altogether the Rangers presented a very quaint appearance.

The Albany County Horse had Blue coats, and hats laced with silver; the New York County Horse, Blue coats and breeches, Scarlet waist-coats, and hats laced with gold.

On Nov. 4, 1775, the Massachusetts Provincial Congress prescribed Brown as the regulation color for the Troops—the several Regiments being distinguished by different colored facings. Most of the Troops from that State wore the Brown coat during that year.

In 1775, the Connecticut Troops wore Red coats; but changed them for Brown in the following year. The Governor's Guard of Connecticut wore Scarlet coats.

On June 28, 1775, the New York Provincial Congress directed that the four Infantry Regiments be uniformed as follows: 1st, Blue with Crimson cuffs and facing; 2d, Light Brown with Blue cuffs and facing; 3d, Gray with Green cuffs and facing; 4th, Dark Brown with Scarlet cuffs and facing.

On July 16, 1775, Col. John Lamb, of the N. Y. Artillery of the Continental Army, requested his men to wear Blue with Buff facing.

In 1777, a law was passed that all Artillery should wear Blue coats with Red trimmings.

In one of his Orders, Washington stated that the Blue should be what was known as Dutch Blue.

Prior to October, 1779, according to the Regular Orders, the Regiments were uniformed as follows:

9th Va., 5th Md., 9th and 13th Penn., U. S. Invalid and 2d Canadian — Brown coats faced with Red, Green, Buff or White, respectively.

13th Va., 2d and 3d N. J., 3d and 11th Penn. and 7th Md. — Blue coats faced with Yellow, Red or White, respectively.

6th Md. Line — Gray coats faced with Green; Gray waist-coats and breeches.

1st and 3d S. Ca. and 6th Va. — Black coats faced with Red.

1st Va. and 5th S. Ca. — Buckskin hunting shirts and leggings; Officers of the latter, Red coats faced with Black.

Cavalry of "Light Horse" Harry Lee — Short Blue jackets faced with White; White waist-coats and Blue breeches.

4th Light Dragoons (Moylan's) — Short Green jackets; Red waist-coats; buckskin breeches; leather caps trimmed with bear skin. Early in the War they had Scarlet coats.

3d Va. Continentals, Nathan Hale's New Haven and L. Paulding's N. Y. — Sky Blue coats with Pale Blue or Red facing, respectively.

On Aug. 16, 1779, the United States War Office sent to the Governors of the several States the style of Uniform agreed upon for the Continental Army. The color was Ground Blue, with vests and overalls of White. The facings were as follows: White — New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut; Buff — New York and New Jersey; Scarlet — Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia; Blue, with button holes trimmed with White tape or worsted lace — North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. (Clinton Pap., 2. 201, 202)

In the same year, a General Order provided that the Uniform of the Troops raised by New York and New Jersey should be Blue Coats faced with Buff and lined with White; buttons White, White undercloaths. For the Five Continental Regiments, the Uniform was Blue, faced with Buff, White lining and buttons, White Vests and Overalls. Serjts — Better Cloathing than the Rank and File, with worsted Epuletts. Drummers and Fifers — Buff faced with Blue, trimmed with Blue tape and Epuletts. For the Five Companies of Artillery — Blue, faced and lined with Scarlet, Yellow buttons and tape; Drummers and Fifers — Scarlet faced with Blue. For the Dragoons — Short Blue coats,

(From Craven's "Mattituck")

White facing and lining, White buttons and under cloaths. The other Corps of Infantry credited to the State to be in the State Uniform. (Rev'y MSS., 52. 28, 65)

On Nov. 27, 1779, the Continental Congress resolved that each year every Officer of the Line and Staff should be supplied with 1 hat, 2 watch coats, 1 body coat, 4 vests (1 for winter and 3 for summer), 4 pairs of breeches (2 pairs for winter and 2 pairs for summer), 4 shirts, 6 pairs of socks (3 of worsted and 3 of thread), 4 pairs of shoes — "for which they shall not pay more than one-half in advance of the price that was paid for the same articles before the commencement of hostilities in April, 1775." The Continental Uniform was described in this way: Under the coat was a White cloth vest, and the knee breeches were of the same color. The top boots reached nearly to the knees. The three cornered hat was surmounted by a plume of Buff, Red or White. The buttons on the coat were not of a distinctive character, but were usually of metal or bone.

PAY

On Aug. 1, 1775, the New York Provincial Congress resolved that each enlisted man of the Militia be allowed 53s. 4d. per month in such manner as the Troops of Connecticut and Massachusetts Bay receive their pay; that they be allowed one blanket and one Regimental coat; that they be allowed 10s. for the use of their Arms; and that, if they have no Arms, Arms shall be furnished them to be either returned or paid for at the close of the Campaign. (Rev'y MSS., 30. 30) There are many elaborate Tables "Calculated for the Use of the Militia Officers of the State of New York to shew them at one View the Amount of there pay from one day to three Months at the present pay of the American Army." (Same ref., 17. 5) The laws of Oct. 4, 1780, and Apr. 21, 1787, referred more particularly to the payment of the Soldiers.

In 1775, the Continental Congress ordered that the Pay of the Army should be, in "Lawful" money, a slight discount from "New York" money. The Congress, on Oct. 7, 1776, established the Monthly Pay of the American Army, commencing Jan. 1, 1777, and extending to May 27, 1778. For more detailed information, see Rev'y MSS., 14. 45, 47, 48; 30. 26, 36; 31. 79 (No. 21), 161, 172, 186.

BOUNTIES

Bounties, in money, were paid by the New York Provincial Congress, in August 1776, to men raised in Queens County for the purpose of guarding the stock in that County. (Ap. A. 5) On Aug. 15, 1780, Capt. Nathaniel Norton wrote to Gov. Clinton suggesting that he and Maj. John Davis, (both of them Refugees) should go to Long Island after money for Bounties to newly enlisted men. (Clinton Pap., 6. 103)

On Oct. 8, 1776, the Continental Congress resolved that a suit of clothes should be given "as a Bounty to the Soldiers who shall list during the War." (Rev'y MSS., 31. 119) Acting under this Resolution, the New York Provincial Congress, on Sept. 3, 1777, declared that the "Articles of Cloathing Delivered the Continental Troops of the State of New York as a Bounty are as follows, Vizt. 2 shirts, 2 pair shoes, 2 pair stockings, 1 pair B. skin breeches, 2 Frocks, 1 Hatt, 2 pair Overalls and 1 Jacket or Vest." The total value was £13. 17. 4. (Same ref., 14. 61)

On Mar. 9, 1779, the Continental Congress recommended that each State should fill its complement of men by drafts; that a Bounty of $200 should be given to each draft; and that each State should be credited for $200 for each recruit it brought into the field for three years. (Same ref., 31. 119)

A law of the State of New York, passed July 1, 1780, provided that a soldier enlisting in the Continental Battalions from the Levies should have a Bounty of one and a half bushels of Wheat for each month of his service; and that the same Bounty should be paid to every man joining the Levies from the Militia—the Wheat to be taken by Impress, and the paper money given therefor to be receivable for Taxes.*

PENSIONS

The important laws of the State of New York, relating to Pensions were passed:—Mar. 10, 1779; Mar. 18, 1783; Apr. 17, 1784; Apr. 22, 1786; and Mar. 26, 1794. On Mar. 5, 1783, a Concurrent Resolution of the Legislature provided that certain soldiers, having produced the necessary evidence conformable to the Acts of Congress and the Law of the State, are entitled to receive one half of their monthly pay from the time of their being wounded.

In 1789, an accounting showed the United States debtor to the State of New York, for Pensions, to the amount of about $91,000. (Rev'y MSS., 31. 153) The Pensioners, so far as named in these MSS., will be found in "N. Y. in the Rev'n," pp. 271-273. Vols. 15 and 16 of the MSS. should be consulted for further details.

Individual instances of Pensions of the Refugees will be found in the biographies of Joseph Knapp, Jr. and Lt. Robert Harris, from New York City; and Israel Reeve, from Long Island.

CHAPTER NINE—ARMS AND MILITARY STORES

After serving for some time as the Commissary of Military Stores for the New York Provincial Congress, Peter T. Curtenius was succeeded by Col. John Lasher, on May 9, 1777. All of the transactions relating to Arms and Stores were carried on by Col. Lasher after that date. Both Curtenius and Lasher were Refugees from New York City.

* Further information will be found in the Rev'y MSS., 1.94, 128; 14.61—66, 73, 82; 30, 30; 31. 119, 127; 40. 63. The Land Bounty Rights are fully described in "N. Y. in the Rev'n," pp. 12, 14; and in the "Supplement" to the same, pp. 199-216.

Before the Americans evacuated New York City, in 1776, all the Stores were carried to White Plains. (Chap. 3) There was also a Military Storehouse at Wallkill, 1776-1778. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 51. 34) The accounts of Richard Norwood, Provincial Storekeeper, "for sundries furnished and cash disbursed" commencing Feb. 19, 1776, show to whom the Stores were delivered. (Same ref., 51. 35) The Committee of Conspiracies, Feb. 15, 1777, paid George Adriance for transporting Ammunition to the house of John Carpenter, at Nine Partners; also, on the same date, Capt. Swart "for bringing Ammunition up from the River." (Same ref., 40. 98)

On Jan. 16, 1777, the New York Committee of Safety appointed Capt. James Weeks Assistant Commissary of the Arms, Ammunition and Stores belonging to the State, at Fishkill; and resolved: "that he receive into his care all the Arms which shall be delivered in store at Forts Montgomerie and Constitution by the disbanded soldiers, and that he cause the same to be conveyed to this Place (for the use of such of the new Levies as are unprovided) without delay." (Same ref., 30. 27)

CANNON

Soon after its appointment, the Committee of 100 in New York City (Ap. H. 4) took over 50 Cannon and 12 Blunderbusses from citizens of that place. This was done, May to September, 1775. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 42, No. 44) Some of them were loaned to Capts. Sebastian Bauman and Alexander Hamilton for the use of the United States. (Same ref., 51. 45) Others were loaned to Connecticut, being delivered at New Haven by Capt. Isaac Sears, later a Refugee, and Thomas Ivers. (Ap. E. 195) The Cannon which were taken at Ticonderoga are mentioned in Chapter One.

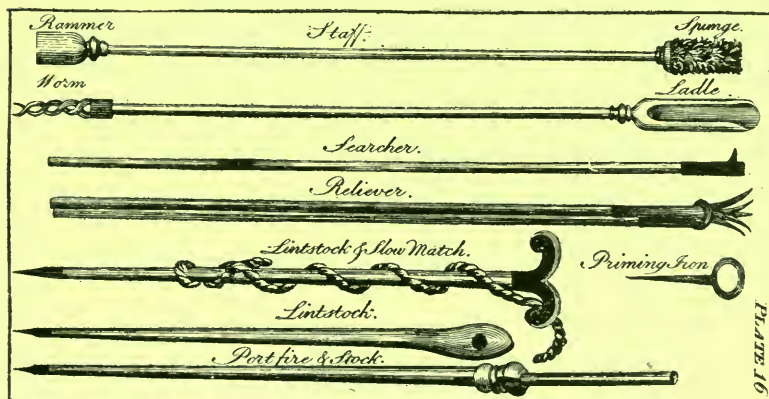

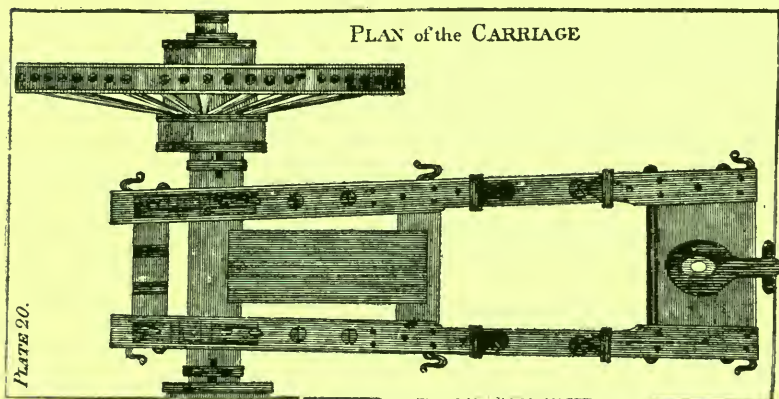

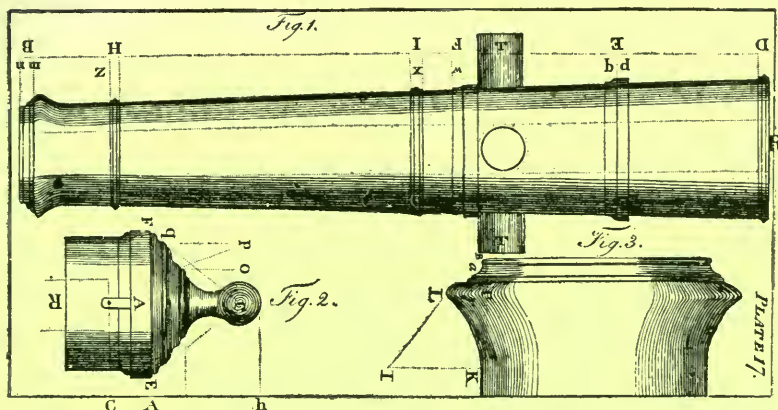

In 1792, Capt. William Stevens, who had served in Col. Lamb's Regiment during the War, published an exhaustive work on "A System for the Discipline of the Artillery of the United States of America." Several of his illustrations are reproduced on p. 103.

In January, 1776, the Committee of Safety authorized Col. McDougall to make carriages for the Cannon taken in the City. (Rev'y MSS., 1. 83) Later in the year, Cannon and Military Stores, described as "the property of the King of Great Britain," were taken from the Battery; and other Cannon were taken from individuals—all by order of the Committee of 100. A total of 216 pairs of Cannon, taken in this manner, was afterward charged against the United States—the value being stated as £4,560. (Same ref., 31. 132) Many of these Cannon were captured by the enemy at Kings Bridge, in 1776. (Same ref., 31. 127) In March, several field pieces were sent to Virginia. (Same ref.,

MUSKETS

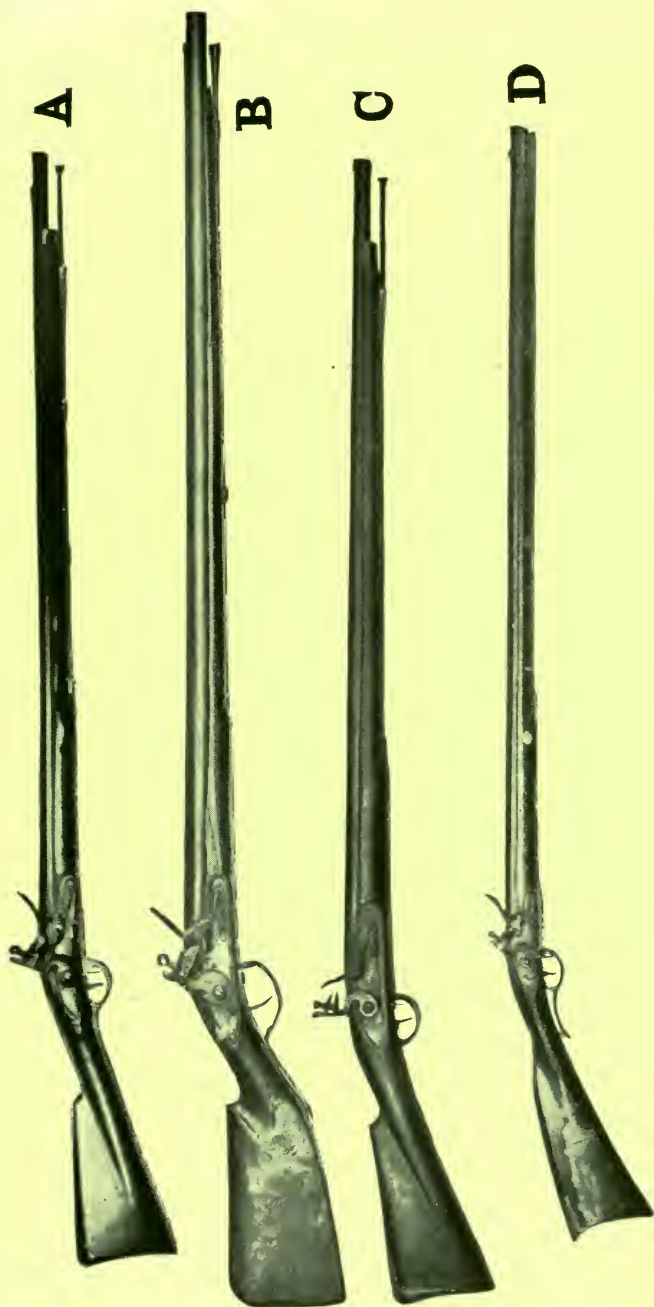

As the first Commissary of the New York Provincial Congress, Mr. Curtenius had the furnishing of small Arms and Military Stores. Here is his description of a source of supply, in 1775:

The muskets of the Corporation [New York City] were taken out of the Armoury by a Number of Citizens under the Command of Capt; [Isaac] Sears (shortly after the News arrived of the Lexington Battle) and carried into Capt. Vandykes Fire Alley after which a Committee was appointed to deliver them into the hands of such Citizens as were well-affected to the freedom of America. In the month of June or July following the Provincial Congress passed a Resolve to Raise 4 Redgiments of Contintl Troops and the troops being in want of Muskets the P. Congress published a Resolve that all Citizens possessed of Corporation muskets should deliver them to the proper officer at the Barraks which was done & Colol McDougalls Regimt had 434 of them & the remainder went up to New Windsor for Colol Clintons Redgiment. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 45, 50)

In the same year, the Committee of 100 took 500 other Muskets in the City which were sent North to Gen. Schuyler. (Same ref.) Friend and foe, alike, were laid under contribution in Suffolk County. In Chapter 13 it is stated that 1,000 Muskets were taken from the voters of Jamaica, in January, 1776, because they had decided to send no Deputies to the Provincial Congress. From May 16 to May 23, in that year, George Smith, William Clark and Nathaniel Roe, appointed by the County Committee to procure Arms for the use of the Army, took 14 Muskets and delivered them to Col. Henry B. Livingston for the use of his Regiment. They were taken from Charles Tucker, David Smith, Nathaniel Davis, Desire Hawkins, Austin Roe, Azel Gerard, Daniel Roe, Daniel Davis, Jesse Roes and William Smith—one each; except that Hawkins and Roe gave up two each; and Smith, three. The total value was £30. 14. 0. (Rev'y MSS., 40. 53)

In accordance with the Resolution of the Continental Congress, Mar. 10, 1776, £203.4.0 worth of Arms was taken from the disaffected in New York City. (Mil. Ret., 27.49)

On Dec. 29, 1776, Col. Livingston brought from the Eastern end of Long Island 73 Muskets, many Bayonets and some Powder, all of which were delivered to Capt. Nathaniel Platt, in New Haven. It was stated that some of this property was taken from the Tories. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 56. Also Ap. A. 22) On Jan. 17, 1777, the New York Committee of Safety appointed a Committee to inquire why the Arms and Powder had not arrived at Fishkill, which was then the chief depot of supplies. (Ap. A. 30) They must have arrived by Mar. 3; for, on that date, Capt. Platt was paid the expenses of bringing the property to Fishkill. (Ap. A. 36) On Feb. 3, 1777, the New York Committee of Safety received from Ezra L'Hommedieu an account of Capt. Daniel Collins for the expense of removing Powder, Small Arms, &c. from Long Island to Guilford. (Ap. A. 35)

A. "BROWN BESS" MUSKET. B. COLONIAL "QUEEN ANNE" MUSKET. C. COMMITTEE OF SAFETY MUSKET (1776). D. AMERICAN RIFLE, FULL STOCK
(From "Fire Arms in American History"—See Ap. J.)

As late as Feb. 24, 1787, the New York Assembly received a Petition from Col. David Pierson, and others, Militia Officers of Suffolk County, relative to the transportation of Arms across the Sound during the late War (Ap. B. 27); and, on Mar. 3, 1790, there was a Petition from David Howell, of Ulster County, formerly of Suffolk County, relative to his claim for repairing Small Arms, in 1776, for the use of the United States. (Ap. B. 35)

The Muskets were of various patterns, many of them left over from the recent War with France. The leading types were the "Brown Bess"—a survivor of Queen Elizabeth's time, the "King's Arm" and the "Queen's Arm." Other Muskets were made by the numerous gun-smiths in the Colonies; and still others were captured from the enemy. England had prohibited the exportation of Arms to America, in 1774. In 1777, about 23,000 Muskets were imported from France. (Charles Winthrop Sawyer's "Fire Arms in American History")

RIFLES

These Arms were the product of the Colonial gun-smiths. They were superior to the similar weapons of Central Europe, carried by the Hessians. After 1777, the European weapon was not reckoned with, owing to the capture of the Hessians at Trenton, Bennington and Saratoga.

Lexington, Bunker Hill, and the Siege of Boston—all three set the ratio of five British losses to the American's three. Parliament was petitioned to end the War. Howe, confined to Boston, wrote of "the terrible guns of the rebels." He proved it by capturing a "rebel" and exhibiting him and his marksmanship in England. As a result, British enlistments fell off—hence the Hessians.

The Riflemen were in evidence at Saratoga and at Yorktown, under Morgan and others. In fact, the American Rifle won the War. (Sawyer, as above)

ASPONTONS

A scarcity of Side-Arms led to the use of the Asponton, Esponton or Spontoon, which was often carried by the non-commissioned Officers of the American Army. Occasionally, it was used by Officers of a higher rank. In the portraits of Gen. Wooster and Gen. Sullivan, each is represented with an Asponton.

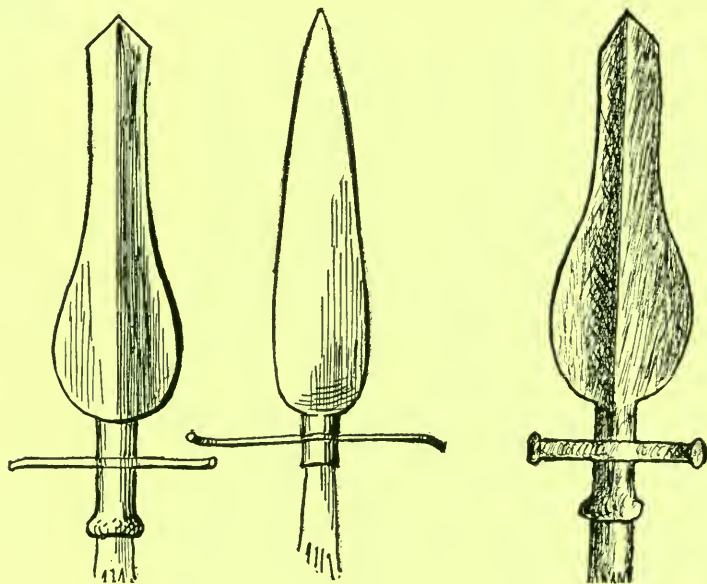

The weapon, if it can be called one, was a light lance shod with a point at the lower end. The head was of varying shapes. A cross-bar below the head served as a guard against the sword or the bayonet; and, perhaps, as a hook for catching the bridle of a horse. The material was iron, brass being used very rarely. In the illustrations on p. 107 the length of the heads is about seven inches.

POWDER

In an "Account of Powder lent for Continental Service," in 1775, the items, in pounds, are:—June 23, to the Army of Cambridge, 1,000; June 24, to Albany, for the Companies sent up to remove the Cannon and Stores from Ticonderoga, 300; to the Troops marching to the Northern Frontier, 100; to the Troops raised on Long Island when order'd to the Eastward to defend the Cattle borrowed from Gen. Wooster, 235; to the Ports in the High Lands, 200; June 13, the Camp at Cambridge, 655. Total, 2,490. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 61)

On June 2, 1775, Henry Remsen, Lewis Pintard, Thomas Marston and Jacobus Lefferts, a Committee of the New York Provincial Congress, borrowed £3,987. 14. 0. on subscription. They hired the Sloop "Harlequin," and sent it after Powder. The loan was repaid, on Sept. 1, the subscribers declining to receive interest. (Same ref., 30. 5) On Sept. 15, Jacobus Van Zandt,

ASPONTONS

Lewis Pintard and Henry Remsen stated to the Congress that they had chartered the Sloop "Nancy" (formerly the "Charlotte") by order of the Congress "to go on a Voyage to Bordeaux and to return to any port in North America between Cape Henlopen and Rhode Island." The sloop was loaded with Clothing and Gunpowder at Bordeaux, but unloaded at St. Eustatius, for prudential motives, the American coast being "crowded with Men of War and Privateers." The cargo, which cost £4,000, was placed on two armed vessels, landed in Providence, carried overland to Fishkill and delivered to the Congress. Some of the Powder was sold to the Committee of Safety of South Carolina, and it was delivered in Charleston. (Same ref., 1. 139a) On Dec. 19, the Congress paid £5,000 to John Vanderbilt, Comfort Sands and Jacobus Van Zandt to employ Ships; to load the same with Wheat, for Europe; and to bring Powder from some indefinite place, if possible. (Same ref., 30. 32)

Nor was the supply more plentiful in the adjoining Colony of Connecticut. On Dec. 8, 1775, Abraham Davenport wrote to Gov. Trumbull for permission that two of his neighbors in Stamford, Bates and Selleck who "own a vessel of about fifty tons," might take with them to the West Indies "cattle and provisions," and carry back "military stores." He recommended that the application be granted, especially "as we have but a few pounds of Powder in our Town stock." (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 210)

The brigantine "Grant," June 10, 1776, brought 250 barrels of Powder from Marseilles to the West Indies on the way to the Province of New York. On July 8, 1776, 53 casks of Powder arrived in Providence, Rhode Island. They were forwarded, through Windham, Connecticut, to Red Hook, in Dutchess County, New York. In August, of the same year, all the Powder in New York City was taken by boats to Albany, Fort Constitution and Stamford, Connecticut, to escape the invasion of the British. The Powder for Fort Constitution was afterward sent to Gen. Schuyler, at the North. (Rev'y MSS., 1. 182; 51. 62-64)

EFFORTS TO MANUFACTURE

This was, apparently, the end of the importation of Powder. The event had been anticipated. On Mar. 14, 1776, the New York Provincial Congress paid £34.10 for printing 3,000 pamphlets, of 40 pages each, containing essays on the making of Salt Petre and Gun Powder, and offering cash inducements for the manufacture of either. (Same ref., 30. 47) Encouraged by this offer, numerous Powder Mills were started among the hills of the Hudson, and some distance back from the River. One of them was conducted by John R. Livingston (Same ref., 30. 35, 37); another, in Orange County, by John Carpenter; and a third, in Ulster County, by Henry Wisner, Jr. and Moses Phillips. The latter made about 15,000 pounds in the year ending June 9, 1777. (Same ref., 51. 68) The Mills were guarded by the Militia. (Same ref., 30. 44; 51. 60)

Between May 21 and Aug. 30, 1776, Col. William Allison, by direction of the Congress, spent considerable money for Salt Petre; a part of which "was purchased in New York [City] shortly before the [American] Evacuation and could not be got out and therefore lost." (Same ref. 51. 66) The Congress, on Sept. 19, 1776, appointed Henry Wisner, Sr., Robert Yates, William Harper, Matthew Adgate and Dr. Joseph Crane a Committee to make Discoveries and Assays of Sulphur, Lead and Flint; and voted $500 to the Committee. The Committee, 1776-1778, expended £1,389. After the preliminary investigations, Matthew Cantine, William Harper and Maj. Jonathan Lawrence were created Commissioners to Explore Mines of Lead and Sulphur, and to Erect works for the manufacture of Salt, Sulphur, &c. This Committee established Salt Works among the Oneida Indians; and Sulphur works at Schoharie, both in Central New York. (Same ref., 30. 41; 51. 69, 71; 52. 136) Dr. Crane and Maj. Lawrence were Refugees from Long Island.

Similar efforts were made on Long Island through David Gels-ton, also a Refugee. On Oct. 14, 1776, he reported to the Committee of Safety that 1,000 pounds of Powder had been removed from Suffolk County to Saybrook. (Jour. Prov'l. Cong.) On the same date, the Committee appointed him, with others, a Committee to have Salt Petre made in that County and removed to Connecticut (Misc. Pap. 35. 343; 38. 248); and, on Dec. 28, the Committee of Safety voted money to pay for the removal. (Ap. A. 26)

The Legislature of New York, in 1778, resolved that Powder should be delivered on the order of the Governor or the Council of Safety. A large Magazine was located at Fishkill; but there was a larger one at Albany. The latter was in charge of Henrick Roseboom, who was about 70 years of age at the time. For many years before the breaking out of the War, he had stored Powder for the Colony. On June 10, 1777, an entry in his books showed that 100 barrels of Powder had been "loaded by order of Mr. Philip Van Rennselaer, 25 wagons, each 4 barrels." This large requisition was sent to the North for the operations which ended in the surrender of Burgoyne in October, of that year. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 61)

Such were the efforts of the Province and State of New York to secure Powder. As will be seen, much of it went elsewhere. Still it was the one necessity which was always lacking in the Continental Army; and this was the greatest trial to Washington. He kept his secret well — the constant lack of Powder. Not only did the enemy never guess it, but even the intimates of Washington's Military Family did not suspect it; or suspecting, they had the sense to keep still.

LEAD

Scarcely less of a trial was the want of Lead. There was absolutely no hope of bringing any from England. A small quantity was brought from Connecticut. In the Province of New York, the researches of the Committee, above named, failed to discover any paying mines of the article, although small mines were worked in the Counties of Albany, Columbia, Dutchess and Ulster. (Clinton Pap. 2. 489, 498) The supply was still so short that pewter dishes, of all sorts, were sacrificed; and at Fort Montgomery, even the weights of fishing nets were used. (Rev'y MSS. 51. 19)

In this emergency, the City of New York proved to be a valuable mine. In November, 1775, Capt. Isaac Sears led a party to the printing office of James Rivington, which destroyed his presses and recast his type into the form of bullets. On June 5, 1776, Samuel Prince and two assistants, took the Leads from the City Hall and the Exchange; and, on July 12, 36 bars of Lead, weighing 1,069 pounds, were taken from Jacobus Depeyster. (Same ref., 51. 84, 88) But the greatest source of supply was the Window

Leads which were ordered, by the Provincial Congress, to be taken early in July, 1776, while the Fleet of the enemy was threatening outside. (Chap. 2) Daniel Dunscomb was in charge of this work; and he gave receipts for the Lead so taken, at 9d. per pound. One form was this (Same ref., 51. 91):

1776 State of New York to Paulus Banta, Dr.
 July For 124 lb. Window Lead taken from my House by Order of Convention for public use as pr Danl. Dunscomb's Certificate at 9d pr W. £4.13.

A fac-simile of another form, adopted when the claims were paid, is given on another page. (Same ref.)

On Feb. 14, 1785, a deposition of Edward Blagge stated:

that sometime in the Month, of July in the year of 1776, a Number of Men came to the house of Capt. George Codwise and took from the Windows of the Dwelling House of the said George Codwise a Number of Leaden sash weights & put them in a Cart with a Number of Others, & when this deponent ask'd what Authority they had for so doing he was answer'd "twas by Public Authority." (Same ref., 51. 100)

The Auditor General, Peter T. Curtenius, in making his Account against the United States, afterward stated:

The reason that their is no account of Purchases Produced by P.T.C. is because by a Resolve of the Provincial Congress the Window Leads were taken out of the Windows of the Inhabitants in the City of New York & deliv'd to P. T. Curtenius the Commissary of the Provincial Congress amounting to Something above 100 Tons wt for which the Citizens were paid for by the Treasurer of the State after the War was over at 9d pr lb this is the reason why It does not appear in P T C acct of Purchases — the 4 Ton 7.1 — was sent by P T C to Brigr Genl Geo. Clintons Encampment at Westchester the 12 Ton was Sent up to Orange County as a place of Safety & afterwards was delivd to J Rudduch who was a Contlnl Officer & the remainder Say 6324 was Sent up to Albany & delivd to Phil Vanrenselear who was a Military Store Keeper for the United States. (Rev'y MSS., 51.)

The 100 tons thus collected proved a valuable asset to the Americans all through the War. Everyone was laid under contribution. Even the Convention of the Dutch Church and Samuel Fraunces, who kept the "Tavern," did not escape. Prominent friends of America, like Maj. Sebastian Bauman, Aud. Gen. Curtenius and Dan'l Dunscomb were treated the same with the prominent Tories, Theophylact Bache, Hugh Gaine, Whitehead Hicks, and James Rivington. In the list of "Refugees from N. Y. City" who left when the enemy took possession, are the following whose Window Leads were taken: John Alsop, James Beekman, Abraham Brasher, Samuel Broome, Capt. George Codwise, John Cruger, Gerardus Duyckinck, William Gilbert, Henry Kip, John Lee, Philip Livingston, Col. Abraham P. Lott, Capt. Daniel Phoenix, Thomas Randall, Isaac and Nicholas Roosevelt, Comfort Sands, John Schuyler, Capt. Isaac Sears, John Smith, John Taylor, Thomas Tucker, Peter Vander Voort and James Van Vack. From the list of "Refugees from L. I. to Conn." appears the name of Rev. Abraham Keteltas. The total number of houses visited was nearly 500. (Rev'y MSS., 51.)

THE STATUE OF GEORGE III

On July 9, 1776, the recently signed Declaration of Independence was read to the Troops in the City. Powder was scarce, and the Clothing of the American Troops was not suitable for a parade. So the enthusiasm of the Troops and the people found vent in other ways. In the evening of that day they pulled from its pedestal an Equestrian Statue of George III. which had been erected in Bowling Green on Aug. 21, 1770. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book," N. Y. Pub. Lib'y, p. 66) The Statue being of lead, was broken in pieces, and the greater part was conveyed to Litchfield, Connecticut. (Chap. 2) There, in the rear of the house of Gen. Oliver Wolcott, it was made into 40,000 bullets, many of which helped to stop Burgoyne at Saratoga, in the next year.* The ladle used in this work is now with the Litchfield Historical Society. The head of the Statue was rescued by a Loyalist, and sent to England as an evidence of "the infamous disposition of

* The following was preserved among Gov. Wolcott's papers:

"An equestrian statue of George the Third of Great Britain was erected in the City of New York, on the Bowling Green at the lower end of Broadway. Most of the materials were of lead, but richly gilded to resemble gold. At the beginning of the Revolution this statue was overthrown. Lead being then scarce and dear, the statue was broken in pieces and the metal transported to Litchfield, a place of safety. The ladies of this village converted the lead into cartridges for the army, of which the following is an account.

the ungrateful people of this distressed country." Other fragments, comprising the tail of the horse and a part of the saddle, having reposed at Wilton, Connecticut, until 1871, are now with the New York Historical Society; together with the slab on which the Statue rested. The white marble pedestal was removed from the Green, in 1818.

Not content with the metal secured from Window Leads and from the Statue, the Provincial Convention, directly after the capture of Long Island, Aug. 27, 1776, ordered the removal of all the door-knockers and bells in the City. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) Thus, everything of value in this line had been removed before the enemy took possession.

Omitting the many details connected with minor articles in the provision line, we take up the two of the most important.

SALT

The Commissioners who were charged with the work of finding Salt were Matthew Cantine, William Harper and Maj. Jonathan Lawrence. (Rev'y MSS., 52. 136) On July 30, 1776, the Provincial Convention offered to loan £500 to the first five persons who would establish works for extracting Salt from Sea water; and, two days later, that amount was voted to Alexander Robertson, Col. Marinus Willett, Peter Sim and their Copartners. (Same ref., 30. 39) They established works at Huntington and Cold Spring, on Long Island; but the works were destroyed before they were fully in operation. (Same ref., 52. 137, 1 to 5)

Early in 1777, Francis Lewis, agent of the Province of New York for the sale of Prizes taken by the Privateer "Montgomery," made vain efforts to purchase Salt. (Same ref., 1. 169) On May 15, the Council of Safety voted £13,000 to Col. Abraham P. Lott to purchase and transport Salt to the Province (Same ref., 30. 61); and, on June 7, the Council voted £4,000 to Col. Peter R. Livingston to purchase Salt in the Eastern States. (Same ref., 30. 62) Part of this Salt was brought from Simsbury and Turkey Hill, in Connecticut, to The Oblong, in New York. (Same ref., 52. 139) On Aug. 1, the Council voted £2,100, in addition, to Col. Livingston for the above named work, the same to be paid to James Robinson; and, on Aug. 12, £350 to Elias Hasbrouck for transporting Salt from Canaan to Radley's Landing, on the Hudson River. (Same ref., 30. 64)

The Commissioners were also to investigate mines of Lead. (See "Lead" above) In 1777, they made trial of numerous Salt Springs in the Valley of the Mohawk River. (Rev'y MSS., 51. 71) A letter from Peter Sim to the Commissioners, dated Dec. 14, 1778, stated that he had been asked to go to the Onondaga Salt Springs and take charge of making Salt for the Troops. But the Indians were so hostile, and the enemy so active, that he was ordered not to go. Then he was ordered to examine a Salt spring at Cherry Valley. He went as far as Schenectady, when he was obliged to come back "until it should please God to deliver us from our destructive enemies." (Same ref., 52. 137) On Jan. 13, 1782, the General Assembly of Connecticut allowed Walter Seaman to import Salt on condition that he loan to the Treasury three-fourths of the amount it brought on sale. (Ap. E. 181-183)

Of those who were most active in this work, Maj. Jonathan Lawrence was a Refugee from Long Island; and Francis Lewis, Walter Seaman and Col. Abraham P. Lott were Refugees from New York City.

Several other Refugees from Long Island were also active. On June 9, 1777, Dr. Platt Townsend memorialized the Council of Safety asking for an arrangement with the Council in Connecticut so that he could make Salt from Sea water in that State. The arrangement was made. (Ap. A. 42) In October, John Sloss Hobart was in Sharon, Connecticut, to gather Salt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) In October, 1778, David Parsons, late of Southampton, Long Island, was allowed, by the General Assembly of Connecticut, to return to Long Island, in order to exchange his wheat for Salt and German Steel; and to import the same to Connecticut. (Ap. E. 11) On Sept. 21, 1779, Nathan Fordham, Obediah Jones and Maj. Nathaniel King were allowed to bring salt from Long Island. (Ap. D. 34) The same permission was given to Jesse Wood, on Nov. 4 (Ap. D. 41); and to Hugh Gelston, on Dec. 3. (Ap. F. 114) On Mar. 20, 1780, Rev. John Storrs was allowed to bring Salt from Southold, Long Island, to Connecticut (Ap. D. 44); and, on Apr. 11, Amaziah and Selah Corwin had a like permission. (Ap. F. 115)

FLOUR

On Nov. 4, 1776, the New York Council of Safety sent to the Counties of Dutchess, Orange and Ulster, its Resolution forbidding the exportation of Flour and Meal "out of this State." (Rev'y MSS., 30. 69) This was done on account of the large demands of the New England States. The Council having failed in its effort, a law was passed, on Mar. 14, 1778, to prevent such exportation. This was the celebrated "Embargo Act," which caused many protests, and some retaliatory laws by the Eastern States. In spite of the protests, the law was quite rigidly enforced. Stores of Flour and Bread were kept at Fishkill Landing, Newburgh, Kings Ferry and the Continental Village. Before it was repealed, the Embargo was responsible for much of what was called "The Illicit Trade." (Chap. 23)

CHAPTER TEN — OATHS AND PAROLES

"Long Island was surrendered August 29, 1776. In October, Governor Tryon came to Huntington, called the people together, and by threatening imprisonment and banishment, compelled the Committee, by a written declaration, to disavow and condemn all their proceedings, and obliged them and the people generally to take the Oath of Allegiance. The Committees of the other Towns and of the County [Suffolk] were compelled in the same manner to sign a similar declaration and the pledge to take the same Oath." (Silas Wood in his short "History of Long Island" — a MSS. in the Congressional Library, at Washington.)

ALLEGIANCE TO THE CROWN

What was true of Huntington soon became true all over the Island. The general form of the Oath was this:

I do swear upon the evangelist of Almighty God, that I hold true and faithful allegiance to his Majesty King George the Third of Great Britain, his heirs and successors; and hold an utter abhorrence of congresses rebellions etc., and do promise never to be concerned in any manner with his Majesty's rebellious subjects in America. So help me God.

In some cases, like the following, Gov. Tryon signed his certificate to the Oath:

I Do hereby certify that Aged 26 of Southampton
Township, has voluntarily sworn before me, to bear Faith and true Allegiance to his Majesty King George the Third, and that he will not, directly or indirectly, openly or secretly, aid, abet, counsel, shelter or conceal, any of his Majesty's enemies, and those of his Government, or molest or betray the Friends of Government; but that he will behave himself peaceably and quietly, as a faithful Subject of his Majesty and his Government. Given under my Hand on Long Island, this 22d Sept. 1778.

The Oath was more often administered by a Commissioner appointed by Gov. Tryon. Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co." p. 49) records that Col. Abraham Gardiner administered the Oath of Allegiance to the people of East and South Hampton. He surrounded the house of Col. Jonathan Hedges at Sagg, and the house of Col. David Mulford at East Hampton, and forced them to take the Oath.

Not only Col. Gardiner, but the other two Colonels afterward became Refugees and served the cause of the Americans. This question in casuistry — the binding of an Oath secured by force — was well set forth by Hon. Henry P. Hedges in his "Sag Harbor Address," in 1910:

What should they do? Take the oath and live? Refuse, and die? They took the oath but in heart were as devoted to their country and as hostile to their oppressors as before. This is a subject avoided by writers, but fidelity to historic truth demands expression. When residents of Sag-Harbor and the Hamptons took this oath, as they in fact did, they reasoned thus: Refusing, I die with no benefit or help to my family, friends or country's cause; living, I may be a help to all, ministering to aged parents, to sick and dying of family and friends, protector of wives, sisters and children from brutal assaults on their purity and honor. In law and morals, fraud or force annuls a deed or contract, and undue influence voids a will, and why not an oath? To hold an oath procured by force, valid, is to hold force the law and above the right. When Col. Gardiner as commissioner, with a company, surrounded the house of Col. Jonathan Hedges, of Sagg, and at the point of the bayonet compelled the old hero to take the oath, what else could he do? What else could Col. Hedges do? It was this or death. They were both known as patriots then and after. If Col. Gardiner did not compel Col. Hedges and others to take the oath he was liable to all the penalties of Martial Law just as Col. Hedges was if he did not take it. At this very time Nathaniel Gardiner, son of Col. Gardiner, was a Surgeon in the American Army and served as such until the end of the war. Who can doubt the patriotism of the father?

The Suffolk County Historical Society, at Riverhead, Long Island, has a printed petition in the form of an Oath of Allegiance to the King, prepared for signatures in Queens County. It is addressed to Lord Richard Howe and Gen. William Howe. The date is Oct. 26, 1776. Accompanying this is a request to Gen. Tryon asking him to present the petition.

In order to avoid taking the Oath, many became Refugees to Connecticut. Others, too indigent or too infirm to leave, took the Oath perfunctorily, in order to escape insult, imprisonment and confiscation. Rev. Samuel Buel (Ap. I. 2), of East Hampton, made vain efforts to have Gov. Tryon modify the Oath so that the signers would not appear to be "Subjects of His Majesty, King George." A meeting of the men of East Hampton and Southampton, at the Sagg Meeting House, Sept. 14, 1776, for a like purpose had no effect. (Onderdonk, "Suffolk Co.," p. 46)

FIDELITY TO THE STATE OF NEW YORK

During the War, the American side on Long Island was in no shape to enforce an Oath of Fidelity. That side had already enforced its Oath, in "The Associations." (Chap. 13) But in other parts of the State of New York, not in the power of the enemy, an Oath renouncing Allegiance to the King was required. Here is one of the Oaths administered by the Commissioners of Conspiracies for Albany County ("Minutes," pp. 831, 832):

I do solemnly and without any mental Reservation or equivocation whatsoever Swear and call God to Witness that I believe & acknowledge the State of New York to be of Right a free and Independent State and that no authority or power can of right be exercised in or over the said State but what is or shall be granted by or derived from the People thereof and further that as a good Subject of the said free and independent State of New York I will to the best of my Knowledge and Ability faithfully do my duty, and as I shall keep or disregard this oath so help and deal with me Almighty God.

SERVICE TO THE UNITED STATES

On Oct. 21, 1776, the Continental Congress passed a law relative to Oaths. This was repealed on Feb. 3, 1778, and a more stringent Oath was provided for all Military and Civil Officers, which Washington was required to administer to the American Officers before they left Valley Forge in June, 1778. (Chap. 6) It was the answer of the Congress to the efforts of the Conway Cabal. The Oath taken by Lord Stirling is reproduced, below.

I William Alexander Lord of Stirling
Major General in the Armies of the United States do acknowledge the UNITED STATES of AME-^{f. Americk} RICA, to be Free, Independent and Sovereign States, and declare that the people thereof owe no allegiance or obedi-^{ence} ence to George the Third, King of Great-Britain; and I re-

PAROLES

Paroles were usually taken, by either side, from Prisoners of War. Here is one which was required by the enemy:

I Caleb Laurence an inhabitant of Rye in the County of Westchester in Province of New York and a Capt. of Militia in the Province aforesaid do acknowledge myself a Prisoner of War to the King of Great Britain and being permitted to go to the American Lines on parole do pledge my faith and word of honor that I will not do or say anything prejudicial to his Majesty or his subjects and that I will Return and deliver myself up to the commanding officer of his Majesty's out-post, at or near King's Bridge, or to the Commissary of Prisoners for his Majesty whenever summoned, in witness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and Seal this 27 May 80.

Witness Thos Devanport

Caleb Laurence

(Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y., 4. 10)

The Paroles required by the Americans were sometimes preceded by rather interesting causes. On Oct. 14, 1776, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote to the New York Committee of Safety that Col. Phineas Fanning, Maj. Thomas Conkling and George Howell had been thought to be disaffected; but profess themselves to be friendly. (Ap. A. 18) Colonel Livingston, on the same date, reported to Gen. Washington, that Col. Platt Conkling, of Huntington, and Col. Phineas Fanning, of Southold, had been ordered to be seized with their papers. Henry C. Platt ("Huntington Address," 1876) then proceeds:

Col. Conkling was seized and examined; no papers were found on him, and upon explaining his situation, was at once released and allowed to return to Long Island. Col. Fanning was also seized, but he was permitted to go before the Provincial Convention and "clear his character," which he did, to the full satisfaction of the patriot leaders.

About the time of writing his letters, Col. Livingston secured the following pledges:

I promise on my word of honour not to forward or assist the subjects or Allies of the King of Great Britain in their operations against any of the United States of America during the present War. I also further promise that I will return to my usual place of abode in Suffolk County and remain in said County until required by the Convention of the State of New York or General Washington, when I promise to appear before them in person.

Given under my hand at Guilford this 17th Day of Oct., 1776.

(Misc. Pap., 35. 687)

Phineas Fanning

I promise on honour not in any wise to forward or assist the subjects or Allies of the King of Great Britain in their operations against the United States of America neither to correspond or have any connection with them during the present War. I also forthwith promise that I will return to the State of Connecticut when required and submit to any determination the State of New York may make concerning me.

CHAPTER ELEVEN — PRISONERS

In the Chapters on "Predatory Excursions" and "Whale-Boat Warfare" (22 and 25) it is stated that much of the activity of this nature on Long Island Sound was for the purpose of securing Prisoners. The object was two-fold: first, to make the Tories less harmful by capturing some of them; and, second, to provide for an exchange of American Prisoners held by the enemy. The constantly growing number of captive Americans made the second object of greater importance than the first.

NON-COMBATANTS ARE TAKEN

Both sides made Prisoners of many in civil life, not combatants, whose convictions did not suit the captors. Hence, each side had an array of Political Prisoners; while the Americans had small chance of securing enough Military Prisoners to offset the large numbers taken after the Battle of Long Island and as late as the disasters in the Highlands of the Hudson, in the fall of 1777.

From many instances of the taking of Civil, or Political, Prisoners, a few may be selected. Two are noted in the biographical sketches of the Refugees from Long Island — Ebenezer Dayton and Jonas Youngs; while others will be found in Ap. F. 120 and 126. Raids of this sort were engineered by certain of the Refugees in Connecticut. Their favorite points of attack were Setauket and Huntington. Thompson ("Long Island," I. 210) quotes the "New York Gazette," of July 17, 1780, as saying:

We hear from Setauket, that last Friday night a party of rebels surrounded the dwelling house of Doctor Punderson, took him prisoner, and carried him to Connecticut; and on that night the same party took Mr. William Jayne, Jun. The rebels told Mrs. Punderson that they had taken the doctor to exchange for John Smith, and Mr. Jayne for William Phillips, who were taken at Smithtown, at the widow Blydenburgh's, on a trading party.

On the other hand, the British often made raids of this sort from Long Island to Connecticut. The captures of Rev. Moses Mather and Gen. Silliman are described in Chapter 22.

Hall ("Life of Parsons," p. 135) speaks of a number of the disaffected who had been brought from Long Island, and lodged with the Commissary of Prisoners, at Hartford. None of them, he observes, have Military Commissions; and the well-affected inhabitants of Long Island are anxious to have them kept in Connecticut.

We learn of Suspected Persons being taken as Prisoners; like Jonathan Osborn. (Ap. D. 18) Also, of attacking parties which went from Connecticut to Long Island and were captured. For instance — the bad luck that befell Maj. Jesse Brush, Capt. Cornelius Conkling, Capt. John Conkling, Capt. Joshua Rogers and Lt. Joshua Farley. (Ap. F. 124)

PRISONERS TO THE AMERICANS

The New York Committee of Safety took the first charge of Prisoners, whether Tories, Suspected Persons, or soldiers in the British Army. Detailed work was left to the Committees of the several Counties. Later, the Commissioners of Conspiracies took charge; also assisted by the County Committees. On account of the proximity of the enemy, and the activity of Delancey's "Rangers," the County of Westchester confined few Prisoners; and those few, in the gaols at White Plains and Bedford. In Dutchess County, the gaols at Poughkeepsie, Dover and Amenia were the principal ones in use. But, as the enemy advanced up the River, the Prisoners were taken across to Orange County, where the chief gaol was at Goshen. The following bill was sent in by the Keeper of this gaol:

1776		The American States.....Dr.
Octobr	20	A Vomit for John McClean a Scotch prisoner.....	£o.	1.	3
	16	Febrifuge Powders..... ditto	o.	8.	0
Novr	21	A Vomit..... ditto	o.	1.	3
	16	Febrifuge powders repd... ditto	o.	8.	0

Finally, the greater number of the Prisoners to the Americans were moved Northward to Ulster County, where the gaol at Kingston was placed in the hands of the Committee of that place. (Same ref., 40. 69) Want of accommodations on land led the Council of Safety to establish Prisons on ships in the River, off Esopus, near Kingston. This group of ships was known as "The Fleet Prison." On May 27, 1777, the Council appropriated £120 to the use of Gilbert Livingston and Maj. Jacobus Van Zandt or either of them, "a Committee appointed by the recent Convention to provide Vessels for the Disaffected Apprehended in Rhinebeck and Livingston Manor." (Same ref., 30. 61) Several ships were built, in May and June, 1777; and Mr. Livingston's accounts mention "32 trees cut on Mr. Gasbeck's Land a 2s.—£3.12.0." (Same ref., 50. 39)

The situation in which Suspected Persons found themselves was not always pleasing. An instance, in Dutchess County, shows this. Several having chosen to be sent within the British Lines, rather than to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, attended before the Commissioners of Conspiracies at Fishkill, in March, 1777. A dispute having arisen as to the property they should take with them, they were advised to send a delegation to the Convention at Esopus. This they did, and their application was referred to a Committee of the Convention. The complainant continues:

After being there a few Days and the Committee not likely to Report soon we were advised to go home and to Return again the next week; that within this Time the British came up to Peckskill and Committed some waste there, and that a Report Prevailed that Genl. Washington would not Suffer any Person to be Sent within the British Lines, and that soon after many of those Persons who had expected to have been Sent within British Lines were Sent on Board the Shipping at Esopus Landing called the Fleet Prison. (Same ref., 40. 85)

Many of the Prisoners were sent to Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Pennsylvania. (Rev'y MSS., 40. 94) In Massachusetts, they were confined at Worcester and Springfield. In Connecticut, some of the more noted were confined at Middletown, where there was a large body of the American Refugees from Long Island. Others were held in the gaol at Hartford. Lynde Lord, the High Sheriff, had charge of the Prisoners in the gaol at Litchfield. (Clinton Pap., 4. 641) Among his Prisoners were: Gov. William Franklin, of New Jersey, a son of Dr. Benjamin Franklin; and David Matthews, Mayor of New York City. Ezekiel Williams was the Commissary of Prisoners, at Wethersfield, and Ezra Williams was his Deputy. (Same ref., 3. 223)

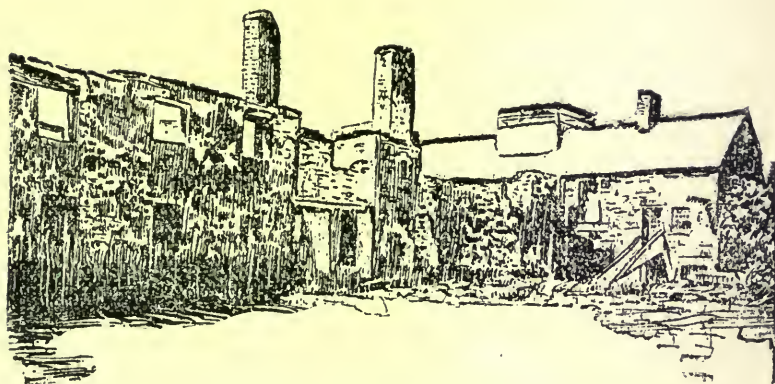

The largest, and best known, of the Prisons in Connecticut was at Simsbury. The copper mines at that place had been worked in the reign of Queen Anne; and, subsequently, down to 1773, by various parties. In the latter year, Connecticut bought a lease, and made them its State Prison for malefactors of all sorts. It was soon named "The Newgate of Connecticut." Although in a state of ruin, the Prison is sufficiently preserved to show what the Prisoners endured. It is in the Town of East Granby, about three miles from Granby Street.

During the Revolutionary War, the treatment of British Prisoners and Tories at Simsbury did no credit to those in authority. It furnished a pretext for the treatment of American Prisoners in, and about, the City of New York. Whatever may have been the reasons alleged in favor of the treatment at Simsbury, it has no apologist to-day. Chapter 14 on the "Treatment of the Loyalists," shows the steps which led up to the climax of cruelty, at Simsbury.*

PRISONERS TO THE BRITISH

Various estimates are made of the number of Americans who were taken Prisoners at the Battle of Long Island in 1776; in the immediate operations about New York City; at the Battle of Germantown; and at the capture of Forts Clinton and Montgomery, in the Highlands. Something like 5,000 would be a conservative figure; but constant additions were made to this number. Outside the City, the Prisoners were, for the most part, confined on the Western end of Long Island. Some were kept at Lloyd's Neck; but the larger number were at Flatlands, New Lots, Gravesend, New Utrecht and Flatbush.

In 1780, and before, Gov. Clinton pledged the faith of the State of New York to any persons on Long Island who would advance money to Col. William Allison and Col. James McClaghry. (See the reproductions on p. 123) The precise wording was this:

Any Person upon Long Island who will advance to Colo. William Allison for the Use of himself and the other Officers of this State Prisoners of War the Sum of Five hundred Pounds in specie shall be repaid soon as conveniently may be; for which the Faith of the State is hereby pledged. (Rev'y MSS., 14. 105)

Col. Allison (Ap. I. 1) was taken at Fort Clinton, Oct. 6, 1777. He was a Prisoner at New Utrecht, in 1778. ("Penn. Mag. of Hist. and Biog.," 1893)

The following forms of receipts were given by the Prisoners:

We the Subscribers, received of Coll William Allison the Sum fixed opposite our respective Names for Money Sent in by his Excellency Genl George Clinton for the Use of the Officers taken up the North River at Forts Montgomery and Clinton. New Utright Long Island Novr. 27th, 1777. (Rev'y MSS., 14. 110. 9)

We the Subscribers do acknowledge to have received of his Excellency George Clinton Esquire Governor of the State of New York the Sums affixed to our several names annexed as witness our hands the day and year above written, recd. by the hands of Col. James McClaghry. Long Island October 23d. 1779. (Same ref., 14. 110. 8)

We the Subscribers do hereby Severally acknowledge to have received of his Excellency George Clinton Esqr. by the hands of Colonel William Allison the respective Sums annexed to our names it being Money advanced for our uses while Prisoners on Long Island and paid to us on or about the following dates Viz. Augst 8th and Octr. 30th, 1780. (Same ref., 14. 110. 1)

The money thus collected was used not only for the relief of the American Prisoners on Long Island, but also for the Prisoners on the Ships and in the several Prisons in New York City. On Nov. 3, 1781, Col. Allison wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Goshen, accounting for the receipts in his hands, and stating that Col. McClaghry had other receipts. He hoped that the distribution of the monies, made by them, would be approved. (Clinton Pap., 7. 481) On Nov. 13, 1781, Gov. Clinton made an accounting for the Specie advanced by him for the Prisoners on Long Island. The account ran from Nov. 21, 1777 to August, 1780; and the total was £2,772. 5. 3. (Same ref., 7. 501) Evidently this figure was but a small part of the whole; for, in Gov. Clinton's final accounting, it is stated that he received £25,556. 17. 6. from this source. (Same ref., 31. 6)

Among those who were paid from this fund were the Refugee Prisoners: Qr. Mr. Nehemiah Carpenter, Capt. Joseph Crane and Lt. John Furman. (Account of Lewis Pintard in Wilson's "Hist. of N. Y. City," 4. 293)

On May 24, 1780, a number of the American Officers petitioned Gov. Clinton, from Long Island, stating that they had been confined for three years; and that they had appealed in vain to the Continental Congress for an exchange. They asked the Governor for relief. (Clinton Pap., 5. 750-752) On May 27, one of the captive Officers, not named, described to Gov. Clinton the hardships and the neglect which they had endured. (Same ref., 5. 764-766)

The condition and prospects of the Prisoners on Long Island were improved by an incident which took place on Dec. 10, 1777. Gen. Parsons, at that time, was carrying out an Expedition against the East end of Long Island. This proved successful, in the main. (Chap. 26) But, unfortunately, that part of it entrusted to Col. Samuel B. Webb, on the "Schuyler," accidentally met the British ship "Falcon;" and Col. Webb, Col. John Ely (Ap. I. 4) and over 60 others were made prisoners. (Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons," pp. 134-136. Clinton Pap., 2. 608) On Dec. 18, Gov. Clinton wrote to Gen. Putnam: "Colonels Webb and Eli's misfortune gives me real concern." (Clinton Pap., 2. 587)

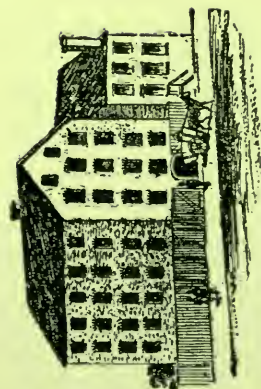

By this capture, Gen. Parsons lost two of his best friends and most faithful helpers. But to those who were already Prisoners the gain was appreciable. Col. Webb made long continued efforts for an exchange, in one case for Lt. Col. Campbell of the British forces; and, finally, being successful, he returned to the Army. ("Life of Parsons," as above. "Rivington," Dec. 12, 1777) All through his captivity, Col. Webb was also moving for the exchange of other Prisoners; and, most effectually, by the exertions of his brother James who was the Commissary of Connecticut, charged with the exchanges. (Rev'y MSS., 14. 105)

Col. Ely, a physician of Saybrook, married a daughter of Rev. William Worthington (Ap. I. 15), the Minister in the West Parish of that Town. Early in 1777, Gen. Washington had become alarmed at the prevalence of small pox in the Army; and he placed Gen. Parsons in charge of the inoculation of the Connecticut Troops. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 88, 89) Dr. Ely was a specialist in this work; and, being confined with the Prisoners on Long Island, he continued his practice among them. His son, Capt. Worthington Ely (Ap. I. 4), led a sortie, captured a British Officer of equal rank, and made all the arrangements for an exchange. But his fellow Prisoners would not listen to the plan. They begged Dr. Ely to remain; and he did so until nearly the end of the War.

By far the larger number of Prisoners to the British were confined in, and about, New York City. The chief Prison was the Provost, constructed as a jail, in 1758. This building stood on the North East corner of the City Hall Park. Later, it was used as the Hall of Records, or Register's Office, until it was torn down in 1893. It is stated that, after the capture of Burgoyne, the news was sent to Col. Ethan Allen, then a Prisoner, in a loaf of bread. When he read the concealed note he is said to have called down through the chimney to the Prisoners below: "Shout, you rebels! Burgoyne is taken." Another story is that, on Evacuation Day, Provost Marshal Cunningham refused to release his Prisoners until Washington's Troops approached the Prison; and that he then threw down the keys at the door and made his escape with the last detachment of the British forces.

THE "JERSEY" PRISON SHIP

THE SUGAR HOUSE IN LIBERTY STREET

THE PROVOST PRISON

Beside the Provost, several Sugar Houses were used as Prisons. They were: the Van Cortlandt, on the corner of Thames and Lumber Streets, demolished in 1852; the Rhinelander, on the corner of William and Duane Streets; and the more notable one at 34 and 36 Liberty Street, which was demolished in 1840. Even Churches, and other buildings were occupied as temporary Prisons. Among them was the Middle Dutch Church, at Nassau and Liberty Streets, afterward the post-office, one of the largest Prisons; but, in the latter years of the War, it was used as a riding school for Cavalry. Other buildings used for jails were: the Brick Church, at Beekman Street and Park Row, now the site of the Potter Building; the North Dutch Church, Fulton and William Streets; Columbia College, at the end of the Park; the Bridewell, in the Park near where the City Hall now stands; the City Hall, then at Nassau and Wall Streets; the Quaker Meeting House, in the present Pearl Street; the Presbyterian Church in Wall Street; the Scotch Church in Cedar Street, and the French Church in Pine Street. The two Episcopal houses of worship then standing, St. Paul's and St. George's, were not used as Prisons; and Trinity had just been destroyed by fire. The Methodist Church in John Street, and the Lutheran Church in the Swamp were also spared.

Through the efforts of Lewis Pintard, Commissary of Prisoners, access to those in the City was made easy and systematic. Supplies of flour, clothing, &c., often came from the outside (Rev'y MSS., 31. 79. 2); but it is stated that the supplies did not always reach those for whom they were intended.

All of the Prisons mentioned above being full, resort was had to a number of Ships formerly in use for the transport service, chiefly for cattle. The most noted was the "Jersey." Others were:—the "Scorpion" the "Falmouth," the "Good Hope," the "Chatham" and the "Prince of Wales." They were anchored in the channel between what is now the Cob Dock and the inner shore of the Bay, the old "Jersey" being at the West side, nearly opposite what is now the West entrance to the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

While the deaths in the Prisons on shore were frequent, the mortality on the Prison Ships was far worse—as many as 15,000 in the latter case. In 1808, the bones of many of the Prisoners were given public burial in Brooklyn, by the Tammany Society of New York; and, in 1826, a monument was erected to their memory at the Wallabout. In 1873, the bones interred by the Tammany Society, in 1808, were reinterred in Fort Greene Park, Brooklyn, and, on June 16, 1900, still other bones, exhumed from the Navy Yard, were buried in the same Park, in what is known as "The Martyr's Tomb."

On Jan. 1, 1777, about 200 Prisoners were taken from the Ships at Brooklyn; and carried by a cartel ship to New Milford, Connecticut, where 46 of them died. A Monument to them has been erected at that place. Still another Monument is in Trinity Church yard, New York City.

Much has been written as to the cruelties practiced in all of these Prisons. It may be that Simsbury was partly to blame for them; and it may be that they were responsible, to some extent, for Simsbury. Whatever may be said, or claimed, none of the practices should have been allowed, whether at Simsbury, or in New York; and no such practices would be tolerated among civilized Nations to-day. *

EXCHANGES

Much of the work of exchanging Prisoners was done by Lewis Pintard, mentioned above. Melancton Smith, of Dutchess County, was on a Committee to superintend the return of Prisoners from Connecticut. For Flags of Truce used in exchanging Prisoners, see Chapters 18 and 22.

The many basic disagreements between the American and the British authorities on the ratio of exchange was the cause of so large a number of Prisoners in, and about, New York City. There seemed to be no trouble in exchanging Officers. The disagreement came over the exchange of privates. A private in the British Army represented a large investment in transportation and maintenance. If captured, time and money were required to replace him. On the other hand, the Americans had the advantage of being at home. If they lost a Prisoner to the enemy, another man was readily forthcoming. The British authorities desired an exchange of privates, man for man — a scheme which the Americans did not favor. †

CHAPTER TWELVE — CIVIL GOVERNMENT

Those parts of the work of the Continental Congress which related to the small field of our inquiry are noticed, from time to time, in these several Chapters. The Secret Pact of 1775, however, was of great importance, for it followed closely upon, and was directly the outcome of the Associations. (Chap. 13)

The Delegates from the Province and State of New York to the Continental Congresses, 1775-1782, will be found in Ap. A. 60.

*See Sarah B. Kennedy's "Joscelyn Cheshire."

†The disagreements are explained at length in the "Clinton Papers;" in Sparks' "Life of Washington;" in Lossing's "Field Book;" and in the "Penn. Mag. of Hist. & Biog." 1893. Much interesting information relating to the Prisoners may be found in the "Haldimand Papers"; the "Dartmouth Papers"; Domiol's "French in the American Army"; and Brymner's "Reports." Lists of the Prisoners, on both sides, so far as mentioned in the Rev'y MSS. in the N. Y. State Library, are given in "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Supplement."

THE PROVINCIAL CONGRESSES

After an existence of 92 years, the New York Colonial (or General¹) Assembly finally adjourned on Apr. 3, 1775. The four Provincial Congresses met from May 22, 1775, to May 13, 1777. The earlier Delegates to the First Congress seem to have been elected, in Suffolk County at least, by the Committees of the several Towns. It is recorded that the Committees met at the County Hall on Apr. 6, and elected Col. William Floyd, Col. Nathaniel Woodhull, Col. Phineas Fanning, Thomas Tredwell, John Sloss Hubbard (Hobart) and Thomas Wickham. The Committees met again at the same place on May 5, and reelected Messrs. Woodhull, Tredwell, Hobart and Wickham; apparently dropped Messrs. Floyd and Fanning; and added John Foster, Ezra L'Hommedieu and James Havens. The record of the first meeting was signed by Robert Hempstead, Chairman; that of the second, by William Smith Chairman. (Cred. of Del., 24. 19)

In Queens County, on Apr. 12, Zebulon Williams was elected a Delegate from Oyster Bay; and Jacob Blackwell, from Newtown. (Same ref., 24. 9) On Apr. 17, John Talman was elected from Flushing. (Same ref., 24. 17)

Later, (in July, 1775, when the greater part of the Associations were signed) the Associators of Suffolk County chose the Delegates. In Queens County, there was opposition to such choice down to the end of the year. (Chap. 13) Indeed, there was always a question whether the Delegates from Queens had a good title to their seats. On May 9, 1777, the Congress ordered the State Treasurer to advance £200 to the County for the wages of the Deputies, "it being impracticable to assemble a County Committee therein." (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 40. 49) George Townsend was Chairman of the Queens County Committee.

Peter Van Brugh Livingston was President of the First Provincial Congress; and Nathaniel Woodhull was one of the Presidents Pro Tem. Woodhull was President of the Second and Third Congresses, and one of the Presidents of the Fourth Congress. Livingston was Treasurer of the three Congresses after the First. Pierre Van Cortlandt (Ap. I. 13) was one of the Presidents of the Fourth Congress.

The First Provincial Congress formed the Committee of Safety, from its own Members, with power to open all letters directed to the Congress and to answer the same; to examine Suspected Persons; to take such measures as they should think proper to carry into execution all orders, resolutions and recommendations of the Continental Congress; to comply with any requisitions made of the Generals of the Continental Army; to superintend and direct the Military affairs of the Province; and to convoke at any time the Provincial Congress should emergency require it. The Committee, therefore, seemed to be superior to the Congress. At the conclusion of the last Provincial Congress, the Council of Safety was appointed to have power during the few months preceding the first meeting of the Legislature at Kingston, Sept. 10, 1777. This Council also had great powers, but they were not so great as the powers delegated to the Committee of Safety.

Nath Woodhull

Just before the final adjournment of the last Congress, or Convention, on Mar. 18, 1777, Gouverneur Morris carried a motion that the Delegates be allowed to smoke in the Convention Chamber "on account of their health being endangered by the effluvia from the jail below". (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n)

More detailed information as to the Provincial Congresses, the Committee of Safety and the Council of Safety is contained in "New York in the Revolution—Supplement," pp. 104-152. The Delegates to the Provincial Congresses from New York County and from the Counties on Long Island will be found in Ap. A. 56-59.

The migratory character of the several Congresses is related in the last named reference. The Records of the Colonial Assemblies and of the earlier Congresses were kept in New York City as long as the sessions were held there. But, by March, 1776, the threatened invasion of the enemy caused the Records to be taken from the house of Nicholas Bayard by a Committee of the Convention, consisting of Abraham

Hasbrouck, Joseph Gasherie, Christopher Tappen and Dirck Wynkoop. On June 6, the Records were put on board of a vessel and taken to Kingston, New York, where they were stored until October, 1777. (Rev'y MSS., 30.48; 31.43) Then they were removed further inland, on account of the disasters to the American arms in the Highlands. Much of the outside work of the Congresses was carried on by expresses. (Ap. C. 218)

THE LEGISLATURES

New York declared itself an Independent State by adopting the first Constitution, at Kingston, on Apr. 20, 1777. This remarkable document was penned by John Jay; and intimately associated with him were Gouverneur Morris (Ap. I. 9) and Robert R. Livingston. An outline of its provisions appeared in the "Magazine of American History" for April, 1887.

to the Highlands, only to meet and Montgomery. (Chap. 5)

The first Legislature met, at Kingston, Sept. 9 to Oct. 7, when it adjourned at the approach of the enemy. The Senate met in the old Senate House, with Pierre Van Cortlandt as the President. Robert Benson and John McKesson had been Secretaries to several of the Provincial Congresses. Benson now became Secretary of the Senate; and McKesson, of the

The Council of Appointment, a revival of the Colonial Executive Council, was formed with autocratic powers. While such powers were necessary during the remainder of the War, yet the abuse of them became so great that the Council was abolished, in 1821.

In July, 1777, Gen. George Clinton took the oath, as first Governor, in front of the old Court House, at Kingston. He had left his duties in the Highlands; but, immediately after assuming the office, he returned with disaster at Forts Clinton

The Legislature met, in 1778, at Poughkeepsie. Later Legislatures met there; and also in New York, and in the old Stadt Huis, in Albany. The Federal Constitution was ratified, at Poughkeepsie, in 1788; and, in 1789, Washington took the Oath as President of the United States on the balcony of Federal Hall in Wall Street, New York City.

By a law of Mar. 21, 1781, the office of Surveyor-General was revived so that two Regiments might be raised on Land Bounty Rights. Gen. Philip Schuyler was the first incumbent. He took a Census in 1783. In the following year, he was succeeded by Simeon DeWitt (Ap. I. 4) who held the office until 1835.

TEMPORARY GOVERNMENT OF THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT

As the War drew near to a close the Legislature began to make laws for what was known as The Southern District, the most of which had been occupied by the enemy. The District included the Counties of Kings, New York, Queens, Richmond, Suffolk and Westchester. On June 29, 1778, a preliminary law was passed. A law of Oct. 23, 1779, provided for a Temporary Government in this District "whenever the enemy shall be dispossessed, and before the Legislature can convene." On Mar. 27, 1783, the above law was amended so that those in authority might make any Convention with the Commander-in-Chief of the British force for speedily obtaining possession of the Southern District. A final law was passed on May 12, 1784.

The Council which had this work in charge, consisted of Abraham Becker, Egbert Benson, Jeremiah Clark, Gilbert Cooper, Daniel Dunscomb, Gilbert Drake, John Sloss Hobart, Jacob G. Klock, John Lansing, Jr., Johannis E. Lott, William Malcomb, Richard Morris (President), Henry Rutgers, Jacobus Swartwout, Rutger Van Brunt and Peter Pra. Van Zandt. Of these, Hobart was a Refugee from Long Island to Connecticut.

As the enemy gradually abandoned the outlying Counties and concentrated all of his forces in New York, he was closely followed by the Council. So that, in Westchester County, we find that a Civil Government was established in May, 1783, six months before the final Evacuation of New York City. (Rev'y MSS., 31.19) The Evacuation, and the remarkable "entertainments" attending the same, are described in Chapter 19.

THE FINANCES

The Accounts of Abraham Lott, the last Treasurer of the Colony of New York under the Crown, had not been settled when Peter Van Brugh Livingston (Ap. I. 7) took charge, as Treasurer of the Provincial Congress. (Rev'y MSS., 30.31, 44, 46) His receipts—June 17, 1775, to Apr. 26, 1776—were £161.823.3s.9d. (Same ref.,

Gerard Bancker Esq^r
Treasurer

32.2) The Vice-Treasurer was Gerard Bancker. (Ap. I. 2) His Accounts began Aug. 28, 1775; and ended Mar. 31, 1778, on his appointment as State Treasurer under the First Constitution. (Same ref., 30.69) This office he held for 20 years—Apr. 1, 1778 to Mar. 16, 1798. During this time he had settled with nearly all the creditors of the State, and with the United States.

During the War, the iron chest of Treasurer Bancker became historic. It was moved about, like the Provincial Congress, from Rochester to Hurley, Poughkeepsie and Kingston. The contents of the Treasurer's chest comprised a miscellaneous lot of Securities; including English Money, and the Money issued by the Continental Congress, the Provincial Congresses and the State—all of it in various stages of depreciation. There were also Certificates: Claim, State Agent's, Levy, Depreciation, Principal, New Principal and Interest. The chest also contained the fines paid by Quakers who did not serve in the Army; the amounts paid in by the Commissioners of Forfeitures, and other bodies which worked in special lines; and debts due to Tories, or Suspected Persons, which became debts due to the State of New York. The Treasurer paid bills for expenses incurred during his term of office; and also bills which had come from the Treasurer of the Provincial Congress.

The Exchange of State and Continental Securities, directly after the War, was conducted by a Board of Commissioners consisting of William Denning, Henry Remsen and Comfort Sands. The latter was the Auditor-General from July 24, 1776 to Apr. 8, 1782. (Rev'y MSS., 32.11, 13, 92)

When the effects of the late Gen. (Lord) Stirling were sold, in 1783, Treasurer Bancker bought a larger iron chest, which he used to the end of his term of office. On retiring from office, the Treasurer availed himself of the privilege of those days, and took the chest with him. A hundred years later, in 1898, the chest was sold, with many other interesting effects, for the estate of the late James A. Bancker, in Philadelphia.

Three days after Mr. Bancker's retirement from office, a law was passed, Mar. 19, 1798, directing that all the Papers in the hands of the late Treasurer, should be lodged in the Office of the State Comptroller. (Same ref., 32.14) The papers remained in that Office until 1910; when, as a part of the "Revolutionary MSS." they were transferred to the New York State Library.

By 1777, the Continental paper money had depreciated so much that it was of little value; and it was contrived to borrow money for the use of the Army from the Whigs of Long Island. Perfect secrecy was preserved in these transactions; but before the year 1782, loans to a large amount had been obtained. Maj. Hendrick Wyckoff crossed the Sound frequently, and was concealed in the house of Peter Onderdonk at Cow Neck; from thence he came to the house of his father at New Lots. By this means a large amount of money was procured, and safely conveyed to the headquarters at Poughkeepsie.

Among those who contributed were John Carll, and Capt. Thomas Wicks—both Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut. It is said that $200,000 was advanced by the farmers of Kings County.

It was also decided that exchanges should be effected of confidential Officers, who were to be agents in these transactions; and Col. William Allison, a Prisoner, was the first to receive a loan. After his exchange, he carried a considerable amount to Gov. Clinton. The details of these transactions are given in Chapter 11.

On Oct. 14, 1780, the New York Legislature authorized the Governor to appoint Commissioners to Procure a Sum in Specie for the Redemption of one sixth of the Bills emitted under the Act of the Congress of Mar. 18, 1780. They were also to dispose of Forfeited Lands. It was provided that when the Commissioners of Specie began to act, the Commissioners of Forfeitures should cease to sell Lands, except those already advertised for sale. The Commissioners of Specie thus became a sort of connecting link between the Commissioners of Sequestration and the Commissioners of Forfeitures. They were: David Gelston, John Lansing, jr., Maj. Jonathan Lawrence, John H. Slegt and Christopher Yates. Of these, Gelston and Lawrence were Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut.

The power to audit Claims against the State of New York was given to the Auditor General soon after the formation of the State. Two incumbents held the Office down to 1797, when the Comptroller succeeded the Auditor-General. The Comptroller inherited all the valuable papers of the Auditor-General relating to the Revolutionary War.

The first Auditor General, Comfort Sands, was appointed by the Fourth Provincial Congress, or Convention, July 24, 1776; and he held the Office until Apr. 8, 1782. His salary was £300. a year. Among his duties was that of certifying to the correctness of the Treasurer's Accounts. He was succeeded, as Auditor General, by Peter Theobald Curtenius, Apr. 8, 1782; who held the Office until Samuel Jones, the first Comptroller, was appointed, Mar. 15, 1797. Mr. Curtenius had already served as Commissary. (Chap. 9)

Mr. Curtenius had more laborious duties than those of Mr. Sands. The War being nearly at an end, the claims were more numerous, and the Currency was in a state of confusion. When the War ended, the claims of New York against the United States were of the most importance. It became the duty of the Auditor-General to settle such claims; or, at least, to advise the several Commissioners what should be done. In this work, Mr. Curtenius proved to be one of the leading financiers of his time. He was, probably, second to no one in the State of New York, aside from Alexander Hamilton. Mr. Curtenius had an accurate knowledge of every debtor to the State. It is unfortunate that both the Auditor-General and the Treasurer left few papers giving an account of the Moneys actually received and expended.

Peter A. Curtenius, State Auditor

SETAUKET HARBOR

THIRD DIVISION — EFFECTS OF THE BATTLE OF LONG ISLAND — THE REFUGEES

CHAPTER THIRTEEN — THE ASSOCIATIONS

In the First and Second Divisions (Chapters 1-12), we have told a short story of the Revolutionary War; and we have given an outline of the service therein, both Military and Civil. All of these matters concerned the people of America, as a whole. In this Third Division (Chapters 13-20), we proceed to show who the Refugees from Long Island and New York City were, and why they were called by that name. Then, in Division Four, we resume the story of the War in so far as it was of local interest to Connecticut and to those parts of the State of New York known as Long Island and Westchester County — a story in the making of which the Refugees had a considerable part.

To a large extent, the Battle of Golden Hill (Chap. 2) and similar demonstrations were the outcome of what had transpired in the Colonial Assembly of New York. That body, on Nov. 29, 1769, had concurred in the Virginia Resolutions declaring that the Colonial Assemblies, alone, had the right to tax; but it had cut the claws of this declaration by furnishing supplies to the Troops. A denunciatory circular, prepared by Alexander McDougall, was published; and, for this, McDougall was imprisoned. Later, he was a Refugee from New York City, and a Major General.

PRELIMINARY EVENTS IN 1774

Three Parties arose, in New York City, as a result of the retaliatory measures directed against Boston, in 1774. The Assembly was dominated by the "Peace Party." The People were divided between the "Tribunes," mostly mechanics, who favored the Boston plan of a suspension of trade; and the "Patricians," the lawyers and others, who sought unity of effort in a General Congress. The latter prevailed; and the Committee of Fifty-One was appointed, May 16, 1774. (Ap. H. 1)

On June 17, the inhabitants of East Hampton, on Long Island, voted to defend the liberties of British America; to cooperate in order to be saved from the burdens they feared; and to sustain a non-importation agreement. (Ap. H. 1) On June 21, the Town of Huntington, also on Long Island, went still further in a "Declaration of Rights," maintaining that the taxes laid by Parliament were unconstitutional; and that any means to enforce such taxes were subversive of Constitutional liberty. (Ap. H. 2)

On Nov. 15, 1774, the Committees of Correspondence for the County of Suffolk, New York, met at the County Hall at Suffolk

Court House, now Riverhead. It was recommended to the several Towns to send a subscription for the employment and relief of the distressed poor in Boston, and to procure a vessel to receive and carry donations to that City. The proceedings of the Continental Congress, which had met in Philadelphia, Sept. 4, 1774, were also approved.

The Committee of Fifty-One, in New York City, was dissolved, in November, 1774, having served its purpose of securing united action. It was succeeded by a Committee of Sixty, elected on November 22. (Ap. H. 2) This Committee, in March, 1775, issued a call to the several Counties in the Province of New York to elect Deputies to a Provincial Convention to be held in New York City on Apr. 20; the Convention to choose Delegates to the Continental Congress. This action by the Committee followed the refusal of the General Assembly to elect such Deputies. The Convention, having elected the Deputies, adjourned on Apr. 22.

While action was being taken by the several Committees, the private citizens, especially in New York City, were stirred by a succession of what were called "broad-sides," varying in size from a hand bill to a large poster. They dealt with every real, or fancied abuse, over such names as "Brutus," "Cassius" and the like. The main subject of discussion was the dispute with England; but many broadsides were aimed at the Episcopalians and the lawyers.

THE COMMITTEES OF 1775 IN NEW YORK CITY

The "broadside" was of little use after Apr. 23, 1775, when the news of the Battle of Lexington arrived. The time for talk and writing was over; and the time for action had come. The Committee of Sixty, on Apr. 26, issued a call for a meeting to be held on May 1 for the purpose of electing a Committee of One Hundred. This was done; and the new Committee became known as the Provisional War Committee, the Committee of Resistance, or the Committee of Safety of New York City. (Ap. H. 3, 4)

Acting on the suggestion of the Continental Congress, the inhabitants of the City, on Apr. 29, 1775, adopted a Form of Association pledging support to the Continental Congress and to the Provincial Convention. This form was sent to all the Counties in the Province of New York. The full text of the Form appears in Ap. H. 4; a reduced fac-simile, as signed on Shelter Island, appears on page 141. It will be noted that the signers pledged themselves to follow their respective Committees in sustaining the Congress and the Convention.

Down to this time, while nearly all the Members of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100 were opposed to the Home Government, yet there were many Loyalists on those Committees. But after the Committee of 100 had commenced its work, the Loyalists gradually dropped out; and thenceforth the dwellers in every community were either Associators or Non-Associators.

THE ASSOCIATION ON LONG ISLAND

In Kings County the Association seemed to make no headway. If the pledge was signed, no documentary evidence exists as to the fact. Indeed, while Suffolk County had acted affirmatively six months before, and while Queens County was unwillingly signing the Association, Kings County, by a petition dated in December, 1776, was congratulating Gov. Tryon and pledging itself to the Crown. (Ap. H. 5)

The attitude of Queens County was of unusual interest. On Sept. 27, 1775, the Provincial Congress received a letter from the Committee of Great Neck and Cow Neck, consisting of Daniel Kissam, Henry Stocker, William Thorne, Benjamin Sands, William Cornwell, John Cornwell, John Mitchill, Sen., John Burtis, Simon Sands, Martin Schenck, Daniel W. Kissam, Peter Onderdonck, Adrian Onderdonck and Thomas Dodge. They complained that they could not take proper measures for their common safety while considered as part of the Township of Hempstead. Therefore, they resolved not to be considered a part of that Township; except so far as was consistent with peace, liberty and safety; but, instead, they declared themselves to be an entire, separate, and independent beat or district, so long as the general conduct of the people of Hempstead was inimical to freedom. (Thompson's "Long Island," I. 198, 199) Some of these Committeemen afterward signed the Association. (Ap. H. 6) A few also signed elsewhere. (Ap. H. 7) With these two exceptions the original form of Association (Ap. H. 4) was not used in Queens County.

On Nov. 5, 1775, the inhabitants of Jamaica refused to vote for seven Deputies to the Provincial Congress. The vote was: Ayes, 221; Noes, 747. When news of this action reached the Continental Congress, measures were taken to disarm all of the disaffected. (Mil. Cte. 25.107) Hearing of what was to come, the inhabitants of Queens County, on Dec. 6, signed a declaration asserting their right to carry arms, and asking to be let alone. (Ap. H. 8) But the Continental Congress was determined. Col. Nathaniel Heard, with 600 Minute Men and 300 Regulars, came to the County and took over 1000 Muskets, and other fire arms, from the disaffected (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," pp. 40-47); for which Thompson ("Long Island") states payment was made.

Persuaded, or rather coerced, by this treatment, the inhabitants of Queens County, on Jan. 19, 1776, signed a modified form of the Association, together with a statement that they had delivered all of their arms to Col. Heard. (Ap. H. 9) A few who did not sign were summoned before the Continental Congress. (Pet. 32.89) The disaffected had evidently grown in numbers by Oct. 21, 1776, on which date David Colden, for the Inhabitants of the County, wrote to Gov. Tryon whose term of office, (according to the decree of the Provincial Congress) had expired on Apr. 19, preceding. (Ap. H. 9) Colden described his opponents as "disobedient," and his friends as "well-affected;" and he looked forward to the time when the Country would be restored to the King. (Ap. H. 9) The estate of Colden was afterward forfeited.

In Suffolk County, there was quite a different situation. The great majority of the inhabitants signed the Association. (Ap. H. 10-33) In East Hampton, everyone signed (Ap. H. 28); and the fact was reported to the Provincial Congress by Thomas Wickham, July 22, 1775. Henry C. Platt ("Huntington Address" — 1876) states that only 236 in the whole County refused to sign.

NO MORE NEUTRALITY

The line was now drawn sharply between the Associators, or the American Associators, and the Non-Associators. The latter were mentioned by name in Suffolk County, and they were sometimes called "Recusants," "Very Bad Men" &c. (Ap. H. 10-33) In Dutchess County, one of the recording Clerks wrote: "Tho out of my limits I am compelled to remind you Gentlemen of Esqr., who is Notoriously Wicked." The same Clerk con-

IN DUTCHESS COUNTY

As soon as the enemy had secured possession of Long Island, in September, 1776, Gov. Tryon recommended "that all Committees meet as soon as possible for the purpose of revoking all their proceedings under Congress, and dissolving their unlawful Associations." (Van Tyne's "Loyalists.")

SECRET PACT OF THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS

After every community had been divided into Associators or Non-Associators, the Continental Congress took action regarding the secrecy of its meetings. The following was signed by every Member, on Nov. 9, 1775:

Resolved — That every Member of the Congress considers himself under the ties of virtue honor & love of his country not to divulge directly or indirectly any matter or thing agitated or debated in Congress before the same shall have been determined, without leave of the Congress; nor any matter or thing determined in Congress which a majority of the Congress shall order to be kept secret, and that if any Member shall violate this agreement he shall be expelled this Congress & deemed an enemy to the liberties of America & liable to be treated as such & that every Member signify his consent to this agreement by signing the same.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN — TREATMENT OF THE LOYALISTS

The relative merits of Whig and Tory, Loyalist and American, are not under discussion here. The Loyalist side has been ably set forth by Sabine. Later than Sabine, that side of the controversy has been treated more judicially by Flick and Van Tyne who have made it appear that the Loyalist was the Conservative who desired no change, and the American was the Radical who insisted on a change. Translated into the language of to-day, the Loyalist was the "Stand-patter;" the American was the "Insurgent."

Just where, and how, the contest between the American party and the Tory party commenced cannot be determined. Each side made out that the other was to blame in the beginning; and that its own acts were retaliatory upon the other. The real beginning may never be known any more definitely than in the case of the College students and the farmer. The farmer asked the students a double price for his wood because the students stole his turkeys; and the students stole the turkeys because the farmer asked too much for the wood. In the case of the Tories, as in the case of the students, probably both sides were to blame.

ATTITUDE OF THE PROVINCIAL CONGRESS

Henry Remsen, Lewis Graham and John Sloss Hobart, the latter a Refugee from Long Island, were appointed a Committee of the New York Provincial Congress to apprehend Tories. Early in the War a law was passed providing for the removal of the families of persons who had joined the enemy. It was enacted that,

Because of the information given to the enemy by the wives of those who had fled, the Justices of the Peace, or in their absence the Supervisors, or in the absence of both Justices and Supervisors, the Commissioners of Conspiracies, shall give notice to the said wives to depart this State, or to go to the Enemy's Lines within this State, within 20 days, with their children not above 12 years of age. If they fail to depart, they are to be treated as enemies of the State; but permission to remain may be given by the above named authorities to parties of good character, not dangerous to the State or to the United States. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 50. 75)

The treatment of the Tories elsewhere in the Province and State of New York, aside from Long Island and New York City, is given with much detail in "New York in the Revolution — Supplement." The Chapters on the Council of Safety, the Committee of Safety, the County Committees and the Commissioners for Conspiracies are of especial interest. The Minutes of the Commissioners for Conspiracies in Albany County have been published recently by the State Historian, Victor Hugo Paltsits; wherein it is shown that suspected persons were made to furnish Recognizances in from £100 to £200 to appear when wanted, and that they often forfeited the sums so advanced.

The County Committees were, in effect, subordinate agents of the Committee of Safety which was appointed by the Provincial Congress. The Committee of Pawling's Precinct, Dutchess County, on Apr. 20, 1776, authorized three parties,

To Disarm all Persons that are Disaffected to the Libertys of the united Colonys that have not or refuse to associate with the united Colonys according to the Resolves of the Continental Congress. Take a sufficient number of your men to assist you herein and for your So Doing this shall be your warrant. (Rev'y MSS., 40. 38)

PERSECUTED IN NEW YORK CITY

The Loyalists, or Tories, as their opponents called them, were proscribed in Boston after Lexington and Bunker Hill. But, earlier than that, in 1774, Rivington's "Gazette" was full of the persecutions of Tories in, and about, New York City. The persecutions ceased, for a time, after the capture of the City by the enemy; but they were revived after the American victories at Trenton and Princeton. (Van Tyne's "Loyalists," p. 126) Van Tyne further states that tarring and feathering were the chief punishments given to the Tories; but there was little loss of life.

In 1776, before the American Evacuation, Pastor Schankirk wrote in his Journal:

Here in town very unhappy and shocking scenes exhibited. On Monday night some men, called Tories, were carried and hauled about through the streets, with candles, forced to be held by them, or pushed in their faces, and their heads burned; but on Wednesday in the open day the scene was far worse; several, and among them gentlemen, were carried on rails; some stripped naked and dreadfully abused. Some of the generals, and especially Putnam, and their forces had enough to do to quell the riot and make the mob disperse.

We have seen, in Chapter 13, that those who refused to sign the Association were known as Non-Associators. They were disarmed early in the efforts of the Committee of 100 (Ap. H. 4) in New York City. Apparently, this Committee was not directly responsible to the Provincial Committee of Safety. Some time after the close of the War, the State Treasurer had many claims for compensation on this account; but before being paid they were passed upon by the Auditor General, Peter T. Curtenius. Two of his comments are of interest:

Claim of Manuel Josephson, £7.4 for arms taken from him by the Committee of the City and County of New York for not signing the Association. I am acquainted with Mr. Josephson who I believe has always been a friend to his Country. He left this city a little before the evacuation in 1776 and removed with his Family to Phila & where he now resides. He ought to be paid. (Rev'y MSS., 31. 79. No. 12)

John Richardson's claim £54.18 for Armes taken from him by the Committee of the City & County of N. York for refusing to sign the Association. I was a member of the Committee at the time & Knew him to be an Inveterate Tory. He has twice applied to the Legislature for relief & failed. At one time the Committee to whom his petition was refer'd Reported Favorable, but the House did not agree with the Committee. Altho there is no law that Sequesters the property of non-associators who adhered to the enemies of this Country, I think in equity & good Conscience they ought all to be upon the same footing as those who were Enemies & had property sold by the Commis'rs Sequestra'n & therefore I think Richardson ought not to be compensated by the State. (Same ref., 31. 79. No. 13)

On June 23, 1776, David Mathews, Mayor of New York City, was examined by Philip Livingston, John Jay and Gouverneur Morris as to the aid he had furnished to the enemy. (Misc. Pap., 34. 366) His case was only one of many, showing that the Loyalists were among the most prominent of the citizens. In the earlier stages of the controversy, some of them had served on the Committees of 51, 60 and 100, in 1774 and 1775. (Ap. H. 1, 2, 4) They had thus far committed themselves to resist the Crown; but, afterward, they became loyal to it.

HUNTED ON LONG ISLAND

In Queens County, the Loyalists were disarmed as early as the latter part of 1775. In January, 1776, Washington sent Gen. Charles Lee to take action against the Tories on Long Island; and his treatment was very severe. Capt. Ephraim Bailey seized the cattle and agricultural implements of the Tories; and sold them at one half their value to pay the fines. Col. John Sands and Lt. Col. Benjamin Birdsall also hunted the Tories. (Field's "Battle of Long Island")

Benjamin Sands, as Chairman of the Committee of Cow Neck, issued this order on Mar. 18, 1776:

Whereas sundry disaffected persons have moved into this neighborhood, whereby the district, instead of an asylum for the good and virtuous, is become a nest to those noxious vermin * * *. Resolved, That no manner of person presume to move into this district after the 1st of April next, without a certificate signed by the Chairman of the Committee of the district whence he removed, that he is friendly to the cause of his bleeding country. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.", pp. 53, 54)

On Mar. 21, Col. Birdsall wrote to the Provincial Congress from Oyster Bay, informing as to the conduct of the people in the South Eastern Part of Queens County, and enclosing a song "that is frequently sung with jolity and healths drank damnation to Congress." In July, he wrote to Col. Sands, from the same place, relative to a "swamp drive," after the Tories. (Ap. A. 5)

While the Committee of Kings County was a negligible quantity, and the Committee of Queens County appears with only the names of George Townsend and John Talman, the Committee of Suffolk County shows several names in the inquiry we are making. In the County Committee were: William Clark, Daniel Howell, Nathaniel Roe and George Smith. In the Brookhaven Committee, Thomas Helme; in the Southold Committee, Robert Hempstead; in the Southampton Committee, Thomas Cooper, Silas Halsey, Maltby Gelston and Henry Herrick. There were many other Committeemen whose names do not appear in the original documents which make up the Appendixes, A. to H.

On Aug. 11, 1775, Congress was informed by letter, dated the 3d, from Thomas Helme of Brookhaven, Chairman of the Committee of Safety of that Town, that Parson James Lyon, Benjamin Floyd, Doctor Gilbert Smith, Joseph Denton, Richard Floyd and John Baylis, Inn-keeper, had, from the beginning, taken every method in their power to seduce the ignorant, and counteract every measure recommended for the redress of grievances, damning all Congresses and Committees, and wishing them in Hell. They had also been suspected of furnishing the vessels of the enemy with provisions. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 198)

CONFISCATION OF PROPERTY

The War had not advanced far before the State of New York began to confiscate the personal estate, and to declare forfeited the real estate, of all who were not friendly to the American cause. Laws to this effect were passed in 1778, 1779 and 1784. Other laws were passed, from time to time; in fact, the State had not completed the legislation on this subject when the War of 1812 began.

The Southern District included the Counties of Kings, New York, Queens, Richmond, Suffolk and Westchester. It was in charge of Philip Van Cortlandt and Isaac Stoutenburgh, the Commissioners of Forfeitures. In 1788 and 1789, the Treasurers of the Counties of Queens, Suffolk and Richmond paid to the State Treasurer Certificates issued for Claims against Forfeited Estates. (Rev'y MSS., 45.34; 46. 15-28, 31) The total of the Sales was £502,709.

The work of the Commissioners of Sequestration and the Commissioners of Forfeitures is set forth in "New York in the Revolution — Supplement," pp. 242-258 and 260-271. Of course, during the War, this work could not be carried on in those parts of the State which were occupied by the enemy; but, with the return of Peace, the laws became operative everywhere. Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 213) names 10 prominent Loyalists on Long Island "who were subjected to the penalty of attainder, all of whom left the State, and most of them retired to some part of the British Dominions." Mr. James F. Young writes:

It is not surprising that reprisal was made after 1783; although very few writs of attainder were executed on Long Island. Exasperated by their Tory neighbors, persistently, worse than the Troops, the reason for the small number of writs was probably in the fact that few of the Tories on the Island had any estate to lose.

THE TABLES ARE TURNED

In Chapter 13 it has been shown that on Long Island, excepting the Western end, a great majority favored the Associations, and that those who did not sign were treated with contempt. The earlier paragraphs of the present Chapter show how the Loyalists were persecuted by the Associators who, naturally, supposed that they would not be troubled by the enemy. It was a sad day for the Associators when the enemy left Boston and advanced upon New York. The Battle of Long Island, and the occupation by the enemy, brought good fortune to the Tories; but the Associators had to choose between a miserable existence at home, or a flight across the Sound to Connecticut. Thousands of them made the latter choice, and they were joined by many from New York City. These were the American Refugees — of whom we know something already, and of whom we are to learn considerably more.

EXPATRIATION

Once more the tables turned. It was evident that the American Refugees — exiles for nearly seven years — would return to their homes. (Chap. 20) The prospect of the so called "Rebels" being restored to power became apparent after actual hostilities had ended, in 1781, and while the Articles of Peace were pending. The exodus of Loyalists began in 1782. (Van Tyne's "Loyalists," p. 289) While the Evacuation of New York City did not take place until November, 1783, we find among the Official Records of June 17, preceding, a "Return of the Refugees Embarked for Nova RECEPTION OF NEW-YORK 'LOYALISTS' IN ENGLAND.

This allegorical picture was painted by Benjamin West. Religion and Justice, aloft, are extending the mantle of Britannia; and, in an opening glory, the Genii of Great Britain and America are binding up the broken fascies of the two countries — emblematic of the Treaty of Peace. Britannia holds out her arm and shield to receive the Loyalists. The group near the Crown of Great Britain has representatives of the Law, the Church and the Government. At the head of the Loyalists, with a large wig, stands one of their strongest friends in England — Sir William Pepperell; and directly behind him is the son of Dr. Benjamin Franklin, Governor William Franklin, of New Jersey, who remained loyal to the end. An Indian Chief extends one hand toward Britannia; and, with the other, points to those who have been made widows and orphans by the War. Scotia." The Return, signed by Sir Guy Carleton, showed that 698 men, 421 women, 1001 children and 352 servants — a total of 2472, had embarked for four separate localities in Nova Scotia. Within the year 1783, about 29,000 departed. (Van Tyne, p. 293) The Loyalist Refugees left at intervals down to, and including, the day of the Evacuation. In their flight, they were joined by many Loyalists from other parts of the State of New York, and from Connecticut and New Jersey. They went not to Nova Scotia alone. Many settled in New Brunswick and in Canada; and many of the prominent men of the Dominion of Canada have been their descendants. Loyalists from the Southern States went to the British West Indies. A handful of the whole number passed their remaining days in England.

It is stated by Sabine ("America Loyalists," p. 58) that at least 20,000 Loyalists were in the Military Organizations which fought for the King in America. Nearly all of them went into exile, but many of the Officers were transferred to the Regular Army of England. It is estimated that a total of 60,000 left the United States for the Northern Colonies; of which number 25,000 went to Canada. (Flicks "Loyalism in N. Y.") Adolphus, a writer on this subject, estimates that the British Government had expended $15,000,000 on the Loyalists by the year 1790. Other writers have named a total of double that amount.

The story of the exiled Loyalists rivals, in pathos, that of the French Acadians.* The impartial observer must concede that they had the right to choose on which side of the controversy they would stand; and that, declaring for the Crown, it was their misfortune to have chosen the losing side. Even in their exile, they still hoped that they might return, and that their property would be restored. Hence, they welcomed the War of 1812 as a means to that end. But, once more, and finally, they were disappointed.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN — RELIGION AND CUSTOMS ON LONG ISLAND

In Chapter 16 we shall learn that much of the emigration from New England to Long Island came through religious, and not commercial, motives. This is declared, specifically, to have been the reason for the settlement at Southold. (Whitaker, p. 58.) As the communities on Long Island were new, they had no such complications as arose in Milford, Connecticut, where the enterprising Edward Wooster founded the "unorthodox" plantation of Paugasset, now Derby. Wooster, it seems, had planted a Village before he had organized a Church. On Long Island, the two always went together; as they did in the earlier days of New England. Howell ("Southampton," pp. 464-466) states that the

*The complete story may be found in the pages of Sabine, Flick, Van Tyne and Trevelyan. Consult, also, Judge Thomas Jones' "History of N. Y." For Carleton's final treatment of the Loyalists, see Clinton Papers, 8. 269-278.

Mosaic Laws of Massachusetts were the early Laws in Southampton; and he quotes from "Hutchinson Papers" to show what the crimes and the penalties were.

As in New England, the Minister on Long Island was the leader of the whole community. He was often the only Physician and Surgeon available in those small and remote settlements. The hiring of a Minister was usually accompanied by a contract, like the Agreement of Rev. Aaron Woolworth (Ap. I. 15) with the Members of his Congregation. (Ap. H. 34) The salary was paid by a tax; which, unpaid, led to the sale of the property of the delinquent. While the pews were free, yet the sittings were in charge of a Committee which arranged the Congregation according to age, or social or political prominence. The men sat on one side; and the women, on the other — the wives ranking as their husbands. In front of the high pulpit sat the Elders and Deacons. Then came the Communion Table; in front of which sat the Magistrates, facing the Congregation.

PRESBYTERIANS VS. CONGREGATIONALISTS

The question is often asked; "Why did many of the early settlers on Long Island become Presbyterians when their recent environments in New England had been Congregational?" The writers of Church History have the answer. Neal ("Puritans," II. 468) states that "in the reigns of Queen Elizabeth and King James I. the Puritans were for the most part Presbyterians." Hodge ("Presbyterian Church," I. 22) says: "The Congregationalists, or Independents, were a mere handful, compared with the whole number of the Puritans." Hodge then proceeds to show that while a majority of the Puritans emigrating to Massachusetts were Presbyterians, yet many of the master minds among them were Congregationalists; and that while the Presbyterian Puritans in England were ready to unite with the Episcopalians in a modified form of Episcopacy, the same class of Puritans in New England were ready to adopt a modified form of Congregationalism. At an early day, the Colony of Connecticut reported to the Lords of Trade that the Congregationalists were the more numerous. At the same time, nearly all of the Congregational Churches in Connecticut elected Elders as a part of the Presbyterian organization. Thus, instead of the Cambridge Platform, they preferred the Saybrook Platform of 1708, with its provision for Elders. (Same ref., pp. 31, 33-35, 38)

Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," p. 18) says: "The Puritans being unable to adopt the Constitution of the Church of England, in 1586, established a government for their Churches, by Pastors, Elders and Deacons."

In the American Church History Series, Vol. 6, "Presbyterians," Rev. Robert Ellis Thompson, D.D., states that those of that faith had able supporters in John Eliot and the Mathers. He further states that later on, under the Saybrook Platform, the Churches found themselves drawn toward the Presbyterians of the Middle States rather than to the Congregationalists of Massachusetts; and that they freely described their position as Presbyterian. (pp. 14, 15) The migration from New England to Long Island was largely Congregational; and yet two of the Ministers who were among the early emigrants were Presbyterians — Francis Doughty, in 1642, and Richard Denton, in 1643. (Same ref., p. 25. See also Chap. 16, below)

Rev. Charles A. Briggs, D. D., in "American Presbyterianism," pp. 93-108, states that the Presbyterian Colony at Salem and the Congregational Colony at Plymouth were in accord. The Presbyterian Ministers of New England made a happy accommodation with the Congregational Ministers, as their brethren in England subsequently did. According to the Cambridge Platform, as well as the Westminster Directory, the Congregational Presbytery should have existed in every local Church; but it was afterward found to be impracticable. So that, gradually, the Congregational Presbytery passed out of use in New England. Dr. Briggs then mentions Rev. John Youngs, of Southold, as the first Puritan Minister in New York; Rev. Abraham Pierson, of Southampton, as the second; Rev. Francis Doughty, of Newtown, as the third; Rev. Joseph Fordham, of Hempstead and Southampton, as the fourth; and Rev. Richard Denton, of Hempstead, as the fifth. In all, he states that there were eight Puritan Ministers in the Province of New York, in 1678. Doughty was the first Presbyterian Minister in New York City; and Denton was the second.

The outline, given above, shows why the Presbyterian form was adopted by many of the Churches on Long Island. The change was not due to the cutting of political ties with Connecticut; for the new political ties with New York were not desired, as is shown in Chapter 16.

Thus far, references have been made to published works. Quite as interesting comments have been made, in response to recent inquiries, which comments will be found in Ap. H. 40. A Table relating to the Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers on Long Island down to the end of the Revolutionary War is given in Ap. H. 39.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 52-61) outlines the history of the Episcopal Church on Long Island. He states that while the Statutes of Uniformity did not extend to the Colonies, and while the Constitution of the Colony gave equality among all denominations, yet the Colonial Governors and other Officials favored the Episcopal Church, and often provided maintenance for it. In many localities, this was resisted by a majority of the people; and this contest was on when the Revolutionary War began. Wood further states that the first Episcopal Ministers were sent over, and supported, by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. The first Church was at Hempstead; and the first Minister, Rev. John Thomas, was there, in 1704. Later, Rev. Samuel Seabury, Sr., left his Congregational Church at Groton, Connecticut, and took charge of the Episcopal Church at Hempstead. His son, Rev. Samuel Seabury, Jr., who had charge of the Church at Jamaica, 1756-1765, was afterward the first Bishop of Connecticut.

The Table (Ap. H. 39), mentioned above, contains interesting facts relating to the Episcopal Ministers on Long Island.

THE "GREAT AWAKENING"

In 1740 and 1741 there came an ecstatic religious movement known as "The Great Awakening." Those who joined in the movement were called, at first, "New Lights" and "Congregational Separatists;" and their efforts seemed to be confined, for the most part, to Long Island and Connecticut.

The excitement, in New London, began with the "night-preaching" of Mr. Gilbert Tennant. He was soon joined by other Ministers in Connecticut, notably by Rev. Johnathan Parsons, of Lyme, the father of Gen. Samuel H. Parsons. The work of Parsons seemed to be in the nature of reconciling the opposing factions. The most ardent enthusiast was Rev. James Davenport, of Southold on Long Island, who made several visits to New London and other places in Connecticut. (See Davenport, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.")

So general had the disorders become that, late in 1741, a Grand Council of Ministers was held at Killingworth. The Council condemned as disorderly the preaching of one Minister within the parish of another, without the consent of the latter. This doctrine was enacted in a law of the General Court, in May, 1742. In spite of this, Davenport continued to be active. Moved by his exhortation to cast their idols away, many of his followers in New London burned their books and much of their clothing.

The movement soon failed for want of leadership. Davenport was ordered from the Colony by the General Court. He wrote a recantation, in 1644, wherein he condemned the burning of the books and clothes.

Scarcely was this brief excitement over when Whitefield arrived in Norwich, New London and Lyme, in 1745. From Lyme, he crossed over to Long Island, being ably assisted by Rev. Johnathan Barber, of Groton, who was afterward ordained at Oyster Ponds, Long Island.*

A PEACEFUL COMMUNITY

Go to Long Island to day, and you will find the same deeply rooted religious convictions, the same spiritual atmosphere, the same strict observance of the duties between man and man — and all of them in descendants who bear the surnames of those who settled in the same localities nearly 300 years ago. Other communities have changed; Long Island has not. The reason is largely geographical. Shut off by the Ocean on the South and the East; separated from Connecticut by a considerable body of water; the only outlet, by land, to the West, and that, not along the line of a main thoroughfare of travel — Long Island might be said to be “in a pocket.” But it is fortunate for the people of Long Island that they are so situated. The other communities which have changed might well give up their strenuous days for the happiness and content that are to be found on the Island.

And this peaceful condition has had an effect upon the longevity of the inhabitants. In the first three months of the year 1911, there were recorded, in Suffolk County, 314 deaths of persons over 10 years of age. Of these, 68 per cent were over 50 years of age. In detail, 24 were between 50 and 60 years old; 50, between 60 and 70; 78, between 70 and 80; 51, between 80 and 90; 12, between 90 and 100; and 2 were over 100 years old.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

In many ways the people lived as simply as their relatives in New England. Tallow candles and, later, whale-oil were used for lighting. Often but one newspaper, a weekly, was taken in a village, and this was passed from house to house. The village samp pounder consisted of a spring pole, a sapling fastened to a short post in the ground. The pole passed over a higher post at the other end, where a pounder was attached. Under the pounder a large post had been driven; the top of which was hollowed out into a sort of basin where the corn was placed, after having been soaked. Then the spring pole was pulled up and down by handles fastened on each side of the pounder, until the corn was mashed into samp. On Saturday afternoons a large crowd always gathered to pound samp for the Sunday dinner.

On page 153 are shown two of the simpler forms of houses which were occupied during the Revolutionary War. Other houses, occupied by the Refugees, are shown in their respective biographies, in Part Two of this work.

One of the merchants had a peculiar method. If a customer tendered a dollar bill for fifty cents' worth of goods, he would cut the bill in two, keep one half and tell the customer to bring the other half some other day, and he would take it for fifty cents. He thus secured that man's custom for so much trade anyhow, and when the second half of the bill was returned, he would paste the two halves together. (Ackerly's “Cent'l Address,” Riverhead, 1892.)

There was an abundance of fish of all kinds from the ocean, and from the larger Rivers. The streams and ponds of Long Island abounded in fresh water fish. In 1783, one of the newspapers in New York City reported 23 different kinds of fresh fish for sale in the market. On Long Island there were deer, hares, and rabbits in abundance; and the air was filled with wild fowl in the seasons of flight. Of vegetables and fruits there was so much to spare that large exports were made; while the wharves were filled with pineapples, oranges and plantains from the West Indies.

Sugar was imported in large quantities for the refineries; while molasses supplied the numerous distilleries, which made the standard drink of the people, Jamaica rum. The drink of the more wealthy was Madeira wine which was kept in large quantities in their cellars.

Apparently, there was no effort to corner the market in any of the necessities of life. Yet, on Feb. 26 and on June 24, 1780, the State of New York passed laws to limit the prices of clothing and supplies, and to prevent a monopoly of cattle.

PERSONAL ADORNMENTS

The various fabrics used in the Army are mentioned in Chapter 8. In addition to these, the following are named in Ap. E. 120, 127, 128: Calamaneo, Camblit, Gauze, Cambrick, Lawn, Red Durant, Green Durant, Silk Crape, Calico, Corded Dimmity, Check Linnen, Moreen, Sattin Pealing, Broad Cloth and Tammies. To these may be added: Prunella, Lute-string and Sarsanet. One of the leading importers advertised that he had Embossed Serges, Royal Rep, Doulass, Muslin Taffatus, Cotton Lungee, Silk Romalls, Silk Loretos, Silk Purdets and Flowered Petticoating. Many of these fabrics were for evening dresses.

The men wore long-waisted coats of velvet, silk or satin-lined, silver or gold-embroidered; buttons of precious metal; cuffs and jabots of rich Flemish or Spanish lace; long waistcoats of brilliant pattern; small-clothes, silk stockings, and diamond or paste-buckled shoes. The stuffs were rich, and heavily brocaded in bunches of gold and silver of a large English pattern. Their gloves were of white dressed-leather, with lace trimmings. They had wigs or perukes; they carried cocked hats, and wore silver-hilted swords which hung from richly embroidered sashes. The women dressed their hair high or low, according to the latest mode; wore stiff laced bodices; skirts with deep panniers; hooped petticoats of considerable width; high heeled colored shoes; and, later, slippers of satin or white dressed-kid. They carried fans of the latest pattern.

In the day-time the men were all busy, and the housewives had no time on their hands. Their gowns were of plain, sensible material, woolen or calico, made short, with aprons of linen; their hats were small, their hoods were quiet; and yet, at home, they always wore a muslin cap. The working classes wore Fustian or Home-spun stuffs, short coats or tunics with knee breeches of corduroy, woolen stockings, and felt hats, or caps of ordinary fur. Their breeches and waistcoats were sometimes made of leather.

SILVER PLATE AND PEWTER

Perhaps in no other way were the customs of Revolutionary times on Long Island shown as interestingly as in the use of silver plate and pewter. There was no intermediate product, like plated silver. The pewter was for everybody; the silver plate for the few. The most noted silversmith of the time was Capt. Elias Pelletreau who was a Refugee from Southampton to Simsbury, Connecticut, during the War. He carried on his work at Simsbury, and resumed it on his return to Southampton. Much of his work is in existence today. His great grandson, Mr. William S. Pelletreau, described the work in an Address at the 250th Anniversary of Southampton, in 1890. It seems that, in 1772, Capt. Pelletreau made for Hugh Smith, Esq., of Moriches, a three-pint tankard which weighed 35 ounces, 7 pennyweights; which, at 9s. 4d. an ounce, came to £16. 10s. 10d. The making (or "fashioning," as it was called) cost £4. 8s. 8d. Engraving a "cipher," or the initials of the owner in monogram, which was done in a very artistic manner, cost 6s.; the whole cost being £21. 5s. 6d. A porringer was a silver dish holding about a pint, beaten from a lump of silver, with an ornamental handle added. The silver weighed eight ounces, 12 pennyweights, and at 9s. 3d. an ounce, was worth £3. 19s.; the "fashioning" was 20s., making the whole cost £4. 19s. Gold buttons for a coat cost £2. 5s. 8d.; shoe buckles, £1. 8s. 7d.; six teaspoons, £1. 8s. 3d.; and a three cornered hat, £1. 8s. Mr. Pelletreau then showed the equivalents in days' work, at the prevailing rate of wages, three York shillings, or 37½ cents: tankard, 141 days; porringer, 33 days; gold buttons, 15½ days; shoe buckles, 10 days; six teaspoons, 9½ days; and three cornered hat, 9 days.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN — THE RELATIONS BETWEEN LONG ISLAND AND CONNECTICUT

The first attempt to settle Queens County, on Long Island, was made, in 1640 by 12 men (afterward 20) who were Freeholders of Lynn, in the Colony of Massachusetts Bay. They called themselves "Undertakers." They owned a sloop, by shares, which was to convey them to some Plantation. The latter they were to own pro rata according to the shares held in the sloop. A voyage between Lynn and the new Plantation was provided for, once in every four months. In 1637, by request of Charles I., the Plymouth Colony gave a grant of the whole of Long Island to the Earl of Sterling. By a Patent, dated Apr. 17, 1640, James Farrett, as agent for the Earl of Sterling, conveyed to Daniel Howe, Job Sayre, George Wilbe, William Harker and their associates, the right "to sitt down upon Long Island aforesaid, there to possess, improve and enjoy, eight miles square of land, or as much as shall contain the said quantity. And they are to take their choice to sit down upon as best suiteth them." John Winthrop fixed the quit-rent; and the settlers were required to purchase the land from the Indians who had the "lawful right." Farrett signed and sealed the deed. It was witnessed by Theophilus Eaton, Governor, and John Davenport, Minister, of New Haven. (Southampton Town Records, 1. 1, 9)

FIRST SETTLEMENT IN QUEENS COUNTY

The party proceeded to Cow Bay, now Manhasset, in Queens County, now Nassau County. They had hardly landed before a party of soldiers, under orders from the Dutch Governor at Fort Amsterdam (New York City), arrested six of the party and took them as Prisoners to the Fort. This was in May, 1640. They were soon discharged; but not until after they had signed a paper stating that they had settled on the "Territory of the States General without knowing the same, being deceived by Mr. Farrett, Scotchman." They also promised to remove from the territory immediately. ("Colonial Hist. of N. Y.", 2. p. 146 et seq.)

According to earlier records, the party went to "Matthew Garretson's Bay;" and the Hempstead Records show that, at a General Town Meeting, in 1663, it was concluded that Thomas Hicks, John Ellison and Thomas Ellison shall have "ye Little Neck or poynt of land lying of the East side of Matthew Garrison's bay which Neck is commonly called Mad Nans Neck" &c. Wm. Jecocks to Jonah Fordham "my dividint of land at the Little Neck between Hows bay and Matthew Garretson's Bay"—called, at present (1912), "Douglaston." On the latest maps there is a Highway to "the old House (Hows) Landing;" undoubtedly referring to the landing place of Capt. How and party—as there is no "old House" there to justify the name. Further reference can be found, in the Hempstead Records, to "howes harbor," "hous bay Swamp;" "the head of Hous Bay" being the North end of the line of division between Flushing and Hempstead. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

Three years afterward, the first effectual attempt by the English to settle Queens County was made at Hempstead, by other emigrants from Wethersfield by way of Stamford. It is supposed that a part of these settlers, were natives of Hemel Hempstead, distant about 20 miles from London. Hence, the name of the new settlement.

A small company of settlers had removed from Watertown, Massachusetts, to Wethersfield, Connecticut, in the jurisdiction of the Connecticut Colony. Six of the seven voters in the Church at Wethersfield had come from Watertown; the seventh voter had joined the Church, later. Unfortunate differences of opinion arose; and the voters stood, four to three. The Peace Commissioners came from Hartford; the Church Committee came from Watertown; and Rev. John Davenport came from the New Haven Colony. All were agreed that peace could not be restored without a separation.

RIVALRY BETWEEN NEW HAVEN AND HARTFORD

The New Haven Colony consisted of Settlements along the coast of Connecticut, with the Capital at New Haven. The Hartford Colony, beside the Capital at Hartford, consisted of Wethersfield and Windsor. There was a sharp rivalry between the two—temporal, in regard to the growth and success of their Settlements; and spiritual—in that the New Haven Colony, along with Massachusetts Bay, required that all voters and office holders should be Church members; while the Connecticut, along with the Plymouth Colony, more liberally allowed others beside Church members to vote and to hold office. Rev. Abraham Pierson, the first Minister at Southampton, Long Island, being in accord with the New Haven tenet, removed to Branford, Connecticut, when Southampton joined the Connecticut Colony, in 1644.

This rivalry had led the New Haven Colony, through its agent, Capt. Nathaniel Turner, to purchase a large tract of land to the Westward of Norwalk. In spite of the rivalry, this tract was offered to those of the Wethersfield Church who desired to move. The decision of the General Court of New Haven showed how the title was taken:

Whereas, Andrew Ward and Robert Coe of Wethersfield were deputed by Wethersfield men the 30th of the 8th Month, commonly called October, 1640, to treat at New Haven, about the Plantation lately purchased by said Town called Toquams, which being considered of it was agreed upon by the said Court and Justices aforesaid that they shall have the said Plantation upon the terms following: first, that they shall repay unto the said Town of New Haven all the charges which they have disbursed about it, which comes to £33 as appears by a note or schedule hereunto annexed; secondly, that they reserve a fifth part of said Plantation to be disposed of at the appointment of this Court to such desirable persons as may be expected, or as God shall send hither, provided that if within one whole year such persons do not come to fill up those lots so reserved that then it shall be free for the said people to nominate and present to this Court some persons of their own choice which may fill up some of those lots so reserved if this Court approve of them; thirdly, that they join in all points with this Plantation in the form of Government here settled, according to agreement betwixt this Court and Mr. Samuel Eaton, about the Plantation of Totokett. These Articles being read together with Mr. Samuel Eaton's agreement in the hearing of the said parties or deputies, it was accepted by them and in witness thereof they subscribed their names to the articles in the face of the Court.

SETTLEMENT OF STAMFORD

But this paper did not represent all the title secured by the first settlers of the future Stamford. The settlers in New England, to their credit be it said, never thought their titles complete until they had bought the land of the Indians, the rightful owners, as noted in the first attempt to settle Queens County, above. Royal Grants and special privileges were secondary to the Indian ownership. It would have been better for Settlements, elsewhere, if they had adopted the policy originated in New England and carried thence to the Settlements on Long Island. The new settlers at Toquams, later Rippowams, later Stamford, proceeded to extinguish the Indian title by purchase. And so thoroughly was this done, that six papers were required before the transactions were closed.

In the First Book of the Stamford Records, may be found this entry — the missing letters and words being supplied:

Then follow certain details as to the mode of payment to the New Haven Colony, and the assessment upon these 20 men — the whole payment being in bushels of corn.

By the year 1642, the number of Pioneers had risen from 20 to 59. A list is given, below, in order to make more clear the signatures of the 20, and also to show many of the names that are soon to appear in Hempstead. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 25)

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 3, 4) states that Thurston Raynor had been a Delegate from Wethersfield to the first General Assembly, under Gov. Haynes, and was, as well as Mr. Guildersleeve, a Magistrate for Stamford; Capt. Underhill had been greatly distinguished in the Military affairs of New England; Ward [Huntington does not state that Ward went to Hempstead], Coe and Mitchell were also Commissioners for Stamford, the former a Judge of the first Court held in New Haven, in 1636, and the latter called, in the history of that period, a "capital man." In "Picturesque Stamford" (pp. 34-39) it is stated that Underhill had recently arrived in Stamford, on his return from England. Alvord ("Historical Address, Second Centennial of Stamford" — 1841), after mentioning Raynor, Mitchell, Ward and others, says:

They were the Civil and Religious Fathers of the Colony, who assisted in forming its free and happy Constitution; were among its Legislators, and some of the chief pillars of the Church and Commonwealth, who, with many others of the same excellent character, employed their abilities and their estates for the prosperity of the Colony. They were among the earliest inhabitants of New England, coming through Wethersfield from Watertown in Massachusetts, and from that noted company who arrived with John Winthrop and Sir Richard Saltonstall.

* The first 29, including Simpkins were from Wethersfield. ("Picturesque Stamford," p. 33)

SETTLEMENT OF HEMPSTEAD

Early in 1644 a considerable number of these men crossed the Sound and began the settlement of the present village of Hempstead, afterward Queens County, now Nassau County. They gave a qualified allegiance to the Dutch Government which had driven out their predecessors four years before. Huntington ("Stamford," pp. 73-77) states that the Stamford men complained that they had no votes, no liberties and no justice—because the New Haven men made the laws, and laid the rates.

The removal was not made until, in 1643, a Committee had visited Hempstead and purchased the land from the Indians. So far as can be ascertained, the following were the emigrants to Hempstead—those named by Huntington (p. 73), as from Stamford, being marked †:—

Matthew Mitchell	Samuel Clark	James Pyne
Thurston Raynor	Jeremiah Wood†	John Coe†
Rev. Richard Denton†	Thomas Weeks	Simon Seiring†
Andrew Ward	Joseph Jessup	Henry Pierson†

Edmond Wood†	John Smith, Sr.	Robert Jackson†
Jonas Wood, O.	John Smith, Jr.	John Karman†
John Ellison†	John Fordham†
Benjamin Coe†	Thomas Sherman†

It is evident, therefore, that a considerable part of the settlers in Hempstead came from Wethersfield by way of Stamford.

Huntington also states that Elias Bayley and the son of Rev. Richard Denton, went to Hempstead; Edwin Jessup and William Graves, to Newtown; Thomas Weeks, to Huntington and Oyster Bay; and Capt. John Underhill, to Oyster Bay.

Capt. Underhill came with the Winthrop Expedition, in 1630; and made several moves, involuntary and otherwise, before coming to Stamford. He came to Oyster Bay, in 1662-3, having been previously at Setauket and Southold. Elias Bayles (or Bayley) was a son of John; who was at Southold, in 1655, and went Westward to Hempstead and Jamaica. Thomas Wickes (Wicks, Weekes, Weeks) went early to Huntington; but the Thomas, at Oyster Bay, was the son of "Francis Weekes," as the family rendered it—perhaps a survival of "At the Wickets." (Mr. George W. Cocks)

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 3, 4 and 2.6) gives these additional names of early settlers in Hempstead: John Toppin, Richard Lawrence, Henry Hudson, Richard Valentine, William Smith, John Hicks, Edward Raynor, and Richard Lewes. The Hempstead Records add the name of John Seaman.

*Of Halifax, Eng. Of Oram, Eng.

Charles B. Moore, author of the "Index," gives these additional names, in a list of the Proprietors of Hempstead, in 1647 (N. Y. Gen'l & Biog'l Rec., 10. 9-14): Robert Ashman; Samuel Baccus (Backus); Daniel, Nathaniel, Richard and Samuel, sons of Rev. Richard Denton; John Foucks; Christopher and Thomas Foster; John Hudd (Hubbs); Thomas Ireland; John and William Lawrence; Roger Lines; Richard Ogden; William Rogers; Joseph and William Scott; John Sewell; William Shadden (Shadding, Shadenye, Chadeayne); Abraham and James Smith; Thomas Stephenson; John Storge (Storye); John and Samuel Strickland (Sticklan); Nicholas Tanner; William Thickstone; William Washburn; Daniel Whitehead; Henry Whitson; Thomas Willett; Robert and William Williams; Terry Wood.

OTHER SETTLEMENTS IN QUEENS COUNTY

Flushing was settled by a Company from England by way of Holland. Capt. John Underhill was there in 1648-9; but his name does not appear on the first (extant) book until much later. (G. W. C., as above. Also N. Y. Col. Doc. Also Waller's "Flushing.")

The unpublished Records of Oyster Bay are in charge of Mr. George W. Cocks, who makes this statement:

The Expedition for the settlement of Oyster Bay was organized by the Rev. William Leverich, late of Lynn, then of Sandwich, Cape Cod, where he arranged with Samuel Mayo, owner of the Sloop "Desire" of Barnstable, Capt. John Dickinson, to bring his and Peter Wright's goods, etc., to Oyster Bay. They (Leverich, Mayo and Wright) bought of the Indians, in 1653, a certain tract; and took as copartners Wm. Washbourne, John Washbourne, Thomas Armitage, Daniel Whitehead, Anthony Wright, Robert Williams and Richard Holbrook — some of whom came from Stamford.

In Kings County, Flatbush was settled by a Company from Holland.

SETTLEMENTS IN SUFFOLK COUNTY

Of the Western Towns in Suffolk County, Huntington was settled, in 1646 and 1653, by a Company from Sandwich, Massachusetts (Huntington Town Records, Vol. 1); and Brookhaven, about 1655, by people from the vicinity of Boston. To the Eastward, Shelter Island, Gardiner's Island, and other Settlements were founded by emigrants from New England.

East Hampton was settled, in 1648, by parties, from Lynn, Massachusetts, and the neighboring Towns. Southold was settled by a colony from New Haven, in 1640. It is claimed that on the 18th of June, 1639, Matthew Sunderland leased of James Farrett lands in the Town of Southold, and on Sept. 4, 1639, took a receipt for rent paid thereon; and, a second time Sept. 9, 1640. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 36) This claim has led to a long controversy between Southampton and Southold, as to the priority of settlement; and the controversy continues to this day.

The grant to Matthew Sunderland, shown in the Southold Records, was for "Two Necks of land on either side of Oysterbay (the water)" — Lloyd's

The river is depicted with a winding, shaded path. Numerous small, rectangular shapes represent buildings or settlements, often clustered along the riverbanks and roads. The map is framed by a double-line border. The overall color scheme is muted, with shades of brown, green, and grey.

Neck, on the East; and Hogs Neck, or Island, on the West, now known as Centre Island. (G. W. C., as above)

Returning, now, to the party which attempted to settle in Queens County, and was driven out by the Dutch — we find the beginning of Southampton in a paper dated June 12, 1640, by which James Farrett conveyed to Edward Howell, Daniel Howe, Job Sayre, and their associates all land "lying and being bounded between Peaconneck and the Easternmost Point of Long Island with the whole breadth of said Island from Sea to Sea with all land and premises contained in said limits, except those lands already granted by me to any person. * * they being drove off by the Dutch from the place where they were by me planted, to their great damage." A tract eight miles square was located by an instrument, dated July 7, 1640, witnessed by Thomas Dexter and Richard Walker, and signed by Farrett. It conveyed this property to Edward Howell, John Gosmer, Edmund Farrington, Daniel Howe, Thomas Halsey, Edward Needham, Allen Breed, Thomas Sayre, Henry Walton, George Wells (or Welby), Wm. Harker and Job Sayre. The Earl of Sterling confirmed the instrument of July 7, on Aug. 20, 1640. According to Mr. George W. Cocks, this was the same party that was driven from Matthew Garretson's Bay.

There also came to Long Island many Huguenot settlers who mingled freely with the other settlers. They did not establish themselves in any one place. Among them we find the names of Bonticu, Bouseau, Boisseau, Casset, Elderan, Fournier, Lefoy, L'Hommedieu, Pierrepont and Pelletreau.

Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," p. 13) gives the order in which the several Towns on Long Island were settled:

Brooklyn, 1636	Flushing, 1645	Newtown, 1655
Flatlands, 1636	East Hampton, 1648	Jamaica, 1656

EMIGRATION TO NEW ENGLAND

By this time — 1640-1642 — there was a check in the emigration to the New England Colonies. Bancroft ("United States," I. 414-415) states that the Reformation of Church and State, the attainder of Strafford and the impeachment of Laud, the great enemy of Massachusetts, caused all men to stay in England in expectation of a new world. He further states that 298 ships had brought over 22,200 emigrants to New England before the assembling of the Long Parliament; and that the cost of the Plantations had been almost $1,000,000. In a little more than 10 years, 50 towns and villages had been planted; and between 30 and 40 churches, built. This decreased emigration, it should be observed, did not retard the settlement of Long Island.

CONFEDERATION OF LONG ISLAND WITH NEW ENGLAND

From what has gone before, it will be observed that the greater part of Long Island was settled from Connecticut and Massachusetts. A still closer bond of union came, on Mar. 29, 1643, when a Confederation was formed, styled, "The United Colonies of New England." The constituent parts of the Confederacy were: Massachusetts Bay, with 30 Towns; Plymouth, with eight Towns; Connecticut, with six Towns, including, Saybrook and Southampton; and New Haven with five Towns, including Southold. (Palfrey's "New England," p. 275)

Southampton came under the protection of the New England Colonies, in 1644; Southold, in 1648; East Hampton, in 1657; Brookhaven, in 1659; Huntington, in 1660; and Oyster Bay, in 1662. (Wood, as above, p. 24)

Writers upon Representative and Confederated Government have sought by the analogies of the Achaean League, of the Grecian and Roman Republics, of the Swiss Cantons, of the Dutch Republic, of the Iroquois or six Indian Allied Nations, of Ecclesiastical and Church government, to derive therefrom the origin of the government of these United States. Theories these, all far fetched. Our magnificent constellation of republics and their union were born upon our own soil, nurtured by successive generations of freemen, evolved from colonial childhood and "The United Colonies of New England." (Hon. Henry P. Hedges' "Southampton Address,"—1890)

At a meeting in New Haven, in 1655, Capt. Thomas Topping, of Southampton, and Capt. John Youngs, of Southold, appeared with a letter, and urgently asked for powder and shot and aid, against Ninigret and the Narraghansetts. (Plymouth Col. Rec., 10. 149) The Commission to Major Mason to go to Southampton with 19 men, is dated May 15, 1657. (Conn. Col. Rec., 1. 299)

Thus, for about 20 years, the Confederation proved a bond of strength for Long Island.

The New Haven Jurisdiction and the Connecticut Government continued separately until Gov. Winthrop secured a Charter from Charles II., in 1662, merging the two. This was resisted by New Haven and Southold; but, finally, it was accepted. (Whitaker's "Southold," pp. 68-71) Southold had been under the New Haven Jurisdiction for 22 years when the Charter of 1662 was granted. The Town had an existence of but two years under that Charter before New York proved its claim to Long Island. Then came the brief Dutch Restoration in New York; the defiance of the Long Islanders, backed by the Government of Connecticut; and the final Peace, with Long Island owned by New York. (Whitaker, as above, pp. 68-71, 132 et seq.)

RESPECTIVE CLAIMS OF NEW YORK AND CONNECTICUT

Under the Charter of 1664, Granted by Charles to James, the Connecticut River was made the Eastern limit of his [Gov. Nicolls'] territory, and New York would thus embrace more than half of Connecticut, a large part of Massachusetts, including the Berkshire region, and all Vermont. But Connecticut, by its earlier Charter of 1662, was entitled to all the land to the Pacific ocean,— "the South Sea," as it was called,—or at least to the borders of the Dutch; and now it pointed out to the Commissioners that to limit its boundary to the Connecticut River would deprive it of the best portion of its domain. The Connecticut Government, under Governor John Winthrop, had in fact laid out for itself an extensive Province; it ruled over all the East end of Long Island; it claimed control over "The New Haven Colony" and Stamford, and it had even intruded its officials into Westchester County and occupied a part of New Netherland. But under Stuyvesant a line was drawn limiting it on the West. New Haven, under Davenport's guidance, still refused to submit to the Hartford Government, and Stamford professed to be independent of both. The quarrel between the rival settlements was at its height when Nicolls, by his prudent compromise, founded the present State of Connecticut. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. of N. Y. City," I. 311, 312)

LONG ISLAND A PART OF NEW YORK

It was a sore trial to the people of Long Island to come under the control of New York, with "Yorkshire" as the new name of their fair territory. And they had to share even that name with Staten Island. In the new Shire of York, Suffolk County was the East Riding; Queens County, the North Riding; and Kings County, Newtown and Staten Island, the West Riding. Their relatives and friends were in Connecticut; and with that Colony they were affiliated by religious and social ties. History records that they paid four times, to as many successive Governors of New York, for the title to lands which had been theirs 25 years before the English supplanted the Dutch. Therefore, it was not strange that they resisted the arbitrary acts of the Colonial Governors for 100 years, even down to the time when events were rapidly bringing on the struggle known as the Revolutionary War.

Their emigrant life began under Charles I. It was peaceful under the Protectorate. It was stormy under Charles II. and James II. The Revolution, William and Mary, and Anne proved to be none too friendly; while, under the Three Georges, their state grew worse and worse until the climax of 1775. All this was intensified because they were living under a Colonial Government not of their choice. Their physical and commercial progress was retarded. Still retaining the religious ideals of New England, they were shut off from participating in New England's prosperity by a political fate which linked them with an uncongenial Government. A single incident is enough. When Gov. Nicolls had to issue a Proclamation, he was obliged to send it to Cambridge, in the hated Colony of Massachusetts Bay, for want of a printing press in his own Colony of New York.

So that, when the emergency arose, through the British occupation of the Island in 1776, it was natural for the American Refugees to flee to Connecticut rather than to other parts of New York which were not yet in the possession of the enemy. Physically, Connecticut was the nearest land; mentally, Connecticut was the most congenial. Hence "Over to the Main" was an expression which they often used in describing their flight.

FORMER NAMES OF PLACES ON LONG ISLAND

Various localities on Long Island, in Westchester County, New York, and in Connecticut, are now known by names wholly different from the names in use during the Revolutionary War. For instance, in Westchester County, the Saw Pits is now Port Chester.

On Long Island, called Nassau Island, after the accession of William and Mary, we have these transformations — the first name mentioned being the older one: Old Parish, Jamesport; Steeple Church, Upper Aquebogue; Ashford, Setauket; Queen's Village, Lloyd's Neck; Drowned Meadow, Port Jefferson; Old Man's, Mt. Sinai; Hallett's Neck, Astoria; Success, Lakeville; Musketo Cove, Glen Cove; Franklinville, Laurel; Sagg, Sagaponack; Rocky Point, East Marion; St. George's Manor, Mastic; Smithfield, Smithtown; Stirling, Greenport; Kachauge, Cutchogue; Oyster Ponds (said to have been the scene of Cooper's "Sea Lions"), Orient; Cow Neck, Manhasset; Cow Bay, Manhasset Bay; Cow Harbor, Northport; Newtown, Elmhurst.

North Haven and New Suffolk were called Hog Neck. Martincough, or Hog's Neck or Island, was on the West side of Oyster Bay, Ketchebonock was a part of Westhampton. The Fire Place, in East Hampton, nearest to Gardiner's Island, was used for signaling to the ferry. On the first settlement of Southampton, some of the settlers removed to another place, not far away; they then called the first settlement "Old Town." There was a settlement in the Wyoming Valley, Penn., known as Connecticut Farms; and probably another of the name on Long Island, but it has not been located. A Connecticut Farms, in New Jersey, is now Union.

In Thompson's "History of Long Island" will be found the boundaries of the several Towns of Suffolk County. It must be borne in mind that, in the Revolutionary days, the present Riverhead was a part of Southold; that Babylon was a part of Huntington; that Gardiner's Island was, and still is, a part of East Hampton; and that Nassau County was a part of Queens County. It is also interesting to note that, 100 years before the War, Gravesend had been laid out as the English Capital of Long Island.

ANCIENT NAMES IN CONNECTICUT

In Connecticut, we have a series of changes, quite as entertaining. Red Hill was the modern New Haven; Newfield, Bridgeport; Horseneck, Greenwich; Middletown Upper Houses, Cromwell; while long before the Revolutionary War, Newtown was not the modern Newtown, but Hartford.

Pattaquasset was the Indian name for the first Society, or Parish, of Saybrook, now known as Old Saybrook. Pautapaug, Pattopaug, Pettipaug, Pettypog, Potrog, Potapauge, Potypoge and Puttypough—all these were old names for the Second Parish of Saybrook, now called Essex and Deep River. Pachaug, Pochaug and Pochogue stood for the Third Parish, now Westbrook. Pataconk and Pattaquonk were the names of the Fourth Parish, now Chester.

Berlin was incorporated from the Town of Farmington. It had been known as the Parish of Kensington, in Farmington. In 1772, the Society of Kensington was again divided by the formation of the Society of Worthington. (Barber's "Hist. Coll. of Conn.," p. 65) Simsbury was named in 1670. In 1835, the Town of Bloomfield was incorporated. It had been known as the Parish of Wintonbury, being taken from parts of the names, Windsor, Farmington and Simsbury—Win-ton-bury.

New Fairfield was incorporated, in 1740. It is North of Danbury. Killingworth was named, in 1667. Clinton was taken from Killingworth, in 1838. The Eastern part of East Guilford, now Madison, was called Hammonasset; the dividing line between Hammonasset and Killingworth, now Clinton, being the Hammonasset River. Darien was formerly the Parish of Middlesex, in the Town of Stamford. It was incorporated, in 1820. Woodbury was named, in 1674. Roxbury was taken from it, in 1796. Portland was incorporated, in 1841, from Chatham. Gildersleeve is a post-office and school district in Portland.

One Rope Ferry was across an inlet of the Sound, at the mouth of the Nyantic River. Another Rope Ferry, and probably the one most frequently mentioned, was at the mouth of the Connecticut River. Until very recently it was owned by the LeCount Family. In ancient times, the boat was pulled across by a rope. A new bridge now takes the place of the old ferry.

The Pocatic River is mentioned several times in the movements of the Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut. As this name appears in none of the Colonial Records, 1678-1679, it is probable that the Paucatuck River was intended. This was on the Eastern Boundary of Connecticut. It was spelled: Pawatuck, Paukatuck, Paukatuck and Pacatuck. (Douglas-Lithgow's "Dict. of American Indian Names." Also Conn. Colonial Rec.) Eight Mile River was an East branch of the Connecticut, emptying into it at Lyme. It is now called the Lieutenant River. Eight Mile Brook was an East Branch of the Housatonic, flowing into it at Oxford.

Ripton was a Parish of Stratford which, in 1789, became the Town of Huntington. On a Map of Connecticut, about 1791, is the word "Landing" on the Housatonic River opposite the mouth of the Naugatuck, about where Shelton is today. The Point of Rocks does not appear on any Map, but in Dr. Steiner's "History of Guilford" (p. 209) we find "In the harbor, on 'Point of Rocks' to the East of the mouth of West River, is the Point House — There has been a hotel on this point since 1797"; and again, "Another landing by the British occurred in December, 1777, when some unknown damage was suffered by Timothy Shelley to his house and goods at Point of Rocks." (p. 435) Dr. Steiner (p. 186), referring to the regulations for taking oysters in Guilford, mentions an ordinance of 1775 applying to oysters and clams on the flats in the harbor, North of a line from Point of Rocks to Hogsite Point. He also called it Hogshhead Point. The latter name is in the "Topographical Atlas of Connecticut," as the East point at the mouth of East River, in Guilford.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN — OVER TO THE MAIN

The strategic center of the Eastern end of Long Island was Sag Harbor, the harbor of the interior village of Sagg, lying partly in the Town of Southampton, and partly in the Town of East Hampton. While the Settlements along the North coast had their own harbors, Sag Harbor was the natural place for debarkation of all the Refugees from the Hamptons. Thus, Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 48) wrote: "Sept. 15th. [1776] Wharves at Sag-Harbor crowded with emigrants."

Doubtless the wharf principally used was the one for which, in 1770, several citizens of the Hamptons petitioned the Trustees of East Hampton for permission to build and maintain — it being on East Hampton territory. (East Hampton Town Records) Among the petitioners were Col. John Hulbert, Maj. Uriah Rogers, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, Matthew Jagger, Obadiah Jones, David Gelston and John Foster; who, as Refugees, made use of the wharf in a way not dreamed of when it was built.

Before the War, Sag Harbor was, in the State of New York, next in importance to New York City. The products of farms and forests, hides, tallow, beef, pork, hoops, staves, cattle, horses, shoes, grain and salt fish, from all Eastern Long Island were shipped at Sag Harbor for the West Indies, and for trade in other markets. * * * The War changed all this. Her wharves, stores and houses were held by her adversaries. Her shipping was gone. Her trade was ruined. The products of her fields were seized by her foes and by professed friends. The aged, infirm, sick, dying and dead were without medical relief. * * * And while Saratoga and Yorktown gave relief elsewhere, yet Sag Harbor was the last to look upon the retreating ships of the enemy. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges' "Sag Harbor Address" — 1909)

PREPARATIONS FOR THE FLIGHT

The Committee of Southold had anticipated the result of the Battle of Long Island (Aug. 27, 1776) by sending its cannon and ammunition to Saybrook. (Ap. A. 9) Two days after the Battle, the Convention recommended to the Inhabitants of Long Island "to remove as many of their women, children and slaves, and as much of their live stock and grain, to the main, as they can; and that this Convention will pay the expense of removing the same." (Ap. A. 13)

This was the first general permission for the removal. As far as known, the County Committees issued few permits. The Committee of Southampton, however, issued a permit, on Aug. 31. (Ap. A. 46) The enemy having discovered the exodus, tried to prevent it, as was reported to the Convention on Sept. 7. (Ap. A. 15)

"OVER TO THE MAIN"—LONG ISLAND SOUND, NEAR GREENPORT, L. I.

(From the Wood Studio, Greenport)

On Sept. 18, the Governor and Council of Safety of Connecticut resolved:

That the Committees of Inspection in the several Towns where such distressed people come, be and they are hereby advised to provide such things as they shall judge necessary for the support of the people aforesaid, until the sitting of the General Assembly in October next, keeping an exact account of their expenses thereof, and that they lay the same with the circumstances of those people before said Assembly for such orders and advice as they shall give thereon. (Ap. D. 1)

VARIOUS AUTHORITIES IN CONNECTICUT

In the previous Chapter, it has been shown that it was both necessary and natural that the Refugees should cross to Connecticut. It now remains to show how the Civil and Military machinery contributed to their crossing. And here we are met, at once, with that characteristic of all communities in New England — local self-government. Let an emergency come, like that of the sudden arrival of the Refugees, and the local Authorities were the first to meet it. In the earlier months of the exodus from Long Island, they had the power of deciding not only who should come over, but also who should go back; and they were autocratic.

They described themselves variously. Sometimes they signed as "The Authority of _____"; or "The Civil Authority of _____"; or even as Selectmen, Justices of the Peace, or Committeemen. This confusion is misleading; and it should be explained. The Civil Authority of a Town rested with the men who had been appointed to act for the Town. Such Authority might be the Selectmen with a Justice of the Peace; or a Town Clerk with a Justice; or either the Selectmen or the Committeemen; or even, singly, a Town Agent, or a Town Clerk.

The names given below are of those, only, who had business with the Refugees from Long Island; and who appear in the several Appendixes which form Part Three of this work.

Justices of the Peace — Abraham Davenport, Charles Webb (Ap. I. 14), and Benjamin Weed, of Stamford; Andrew Ward (Ap. I. 14), Augustus Collins, Elias Grave, William Starr, Samuel Brown (Ap. I. 2), Nathaniel Ruggles (Ap. I. 10), John Burgis and Thomas Burgis, Jr., of Guilford; Samuel Barker, of Branford; Caleb Cook, Eliakim Hall, Aaron Lyman and Caleb Hall, of Wallingford; John Felch, of Canterbury; Robert Fairchild, Daniel Judson and Samuel Whiting, of Stratford; Moses Shipman, Samuel Field, William Worthington (Ap. I. 15), Benjamin Williams and John Shipman (Ap. I. 11), of Saybrook; Joseph Clark, Nathaniel Chauncey, Matthew Tallcott, Seth Wetmore, Isaac Miller and Elijah Treadway, of Middletown; James Wadsworth, of Durham; Solomon Whitman, Silas Heart and Noadiah Hooker, of Farmington; Samuel Tracy and Elisha Lathrop, of Norwich; Jabez Chapman (Ap. I. 3), Dyar Throop, Timothy Gates and John Chapman, of East Haddam; Benjamin Payne, of Hartford; Aaron Elliott, George Elliot, John Pierson and Theophilus Morgan, of Killingworth; Ephraim Terry, of Enfield; Joseph Wells, of Haddam; Nathaniel Miner and Paul Wheeler, of Stonington; David Sage, of Chatham; Ezra Selden, William Noyes, Samuel Ely, Richard Wait and Dr. Eleazer Mather (Ap. I. 8), of Lyme.

Selectmen — Joseph Church, John Skinner, Joseph Sheldon and Jonathan Bull, of Hartford; Stephen Norton, Simeon Parsons, Jr. and Phineas Spelman, of Durham; Isaac Bull and Ezekiel Rice, of Wallingford; Silas Dunham, Joseph Kellogg and Moses Bartell, of Chatham; Cad Stanley, of Farmington; Joseph Curtiss, James Booth and John Brooks, of Stratford; Daniel Cone, Ebenezer Emmons, Ebenezer B. Cone, 2nd, Ithamer Harvey, Ebenezer Cone, Jr. and Barzillai Beckwith, of East Haddam; Silo Knapp, Samuel Richards, Isaac Weed, Jonathan Warring and Charles Webb, of Stamford; Stephen Lane, Daniel Redfield, Aaron Kelcey and Martin Lord, of Killingworth; Chauncey Whittlesey, Hugh White, Elijah Hubbard, Amos Hosford and Thomas Goodwin, of Middletown; Joshua Huntington, Ezra Bishop, Andrew Tracy, Jr. and Jabez Perkins, Jr., of Norwich; David Parker and Joseph Parker, of Groton; Thomas Hoit, William Starr, David Bishop, Joel Tuttle, John Elliot, Ebenezer Fowler, Timothy Munger, Nathaniel Stone, James Munger, Jr., John Hotchkiss, Thomas Hart, Reubin Stone, Nathaniel Allis, Abraham Chittenden, Increase Pendleton and Nathaniel Hall, of Guilford; Asa Bushnell, Samuel Sanford, Simeon Lay, Abner Kirtland, Jeremiah Kelcy, Ira Bushnell and Joseph Spencer, of Saybrook.

Committees of Inspection, so far as they were related to the Refugees, with their Chairmen and Clerks — Benoni Hilliard, Chn., of Killingworth; Joel Hays and Brewster Higley, Jr., of Simsbury; Humphry Lyon, Chn., of East Haddam; David Avery, of Groton; Nathaniel Brown, Chn., of Middletown;

Timothy Jones, Jr., Jonathan Fitch, Abraham Agur and Hezekiah Sabin, of New Haven; Samuel Field, Clk., Richard Dickinson, John Cochran and Abraham Pratt, of Saybrook; Elijah Backus, Samuel Leffingwell, Jr., Elisha Fitch, Samuel Tracy, Jonathan Huntington, Azariah Lathrop and Dudley Woodbridge, of Norwich; Joseph Mather, Chn., Elihu Ely, Clk., Marvin Wait and Thomas Mulford, of Lyme; Titus Hurlbut, Nathaniel Shaw, Jr. (Ap. I. 11), Marvin Wait, John Hempsted and Joseph Hurlbut, of New London; Dudley Woodbridge, Chn., Nathaniel Miner, John Denison and John Brown, Jr., of Stonington; Samuel Brown, Clk., Timothy Todd, Nathaniel Ruggles, Nathan Stone and Timothy Hill, of Guilford.

On Aug. 31, 1776, The Committee of Inspection for Guilford, Connecticut, complied with the request of the New York Provincial Congress, asking the assistance of the Committee in removing the People and Stock from Long Island. Nathaniel Ruggles, Samuel Brown, Solomon Leete, Nathaniel Stone and Samuel Lee, Jr., were appointed to give such assistance. (Misc. Pap., 35. 143) In September, the Committee employed Capt. Joab Scranton, with his sloop "Humbrod" and his crew, to bring over many of the Refugees, their effects and their stock. (Ap. C. 139) Among the stock were several hundred sheep which were suitably marked and put into the Guilford flock. (Ap. C. 217) The marks were, in some instances, the same which had been in use by the owners on Long Island before they came to Connecticut, and which were in use after their return to Long Island. In September and October, Samuel Brown, having bought the sloop "Polley" of Capt. Benjamin Vail, loaned her to Capt. David Landon who brought 237 passengers and their effects from Southold and Shelter Island to Guilford. (Ap. A. 20. Ap. C. 164) Samuel Brown was a brother-in-law of Capt. Landon. (See Landon, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn")

In August, 1776, the New York Convention requested the Committee of Saybrook to assist in the removal of stock from Long Island, and to aid such of the Inhabitants as wished to remove. The Committee, therefore, appointed Capt. John Cochran (Ap. I. 3) and Capt. Richard Dickinson (Ap. I. 4) to hire ships and to provide for the keeping of the Refugees at Saybrook until they could be removed elsewhere. (Ap. C. 42, 43) Both of the Captains were Members of the Saybrook Committee. In October, they hired Capts. Ephraim Jones, Ichabod Cole, Nathan Pendleton and Noah Miller for this service. (Same ref.) At other times, they hired: Capt. Zebulon Stow (Ap. C. 144); Capt. Isaac Bates (Ap. C. 10); and Capt. John Vail. (Ap. A. 25. Ap. C. 177)

The claims of the Saybrook Committee for expenses and services were £492. 19. 1¼ and £57. 19. 0¼; which amounts were deducted from the total of all the claims by the Refugees, and "to be settled hereafter, they not being supported by proper vouchers." (Ap. C. 4, Nos. 36, 184) The State of New York, by a law of Apr. 21, 1787, provided "that the Treasurer of the State issue certificates to the Treasurer of Suffolk County for such sums, bearing interest at 5 per cent. from Mar. 8, 1779, as he has received from the Committee of Seabrook and Guilford in Connecticut, for cattle and sheep transported from the said County, and by them sold"; and the Treasurer of the County was directed to pay the same to the respective persons to whom such cattle and sheep belonged. Another law, on Mar. 9, 1790, declared that

Whereas the Treasurer of the State having, on Sept. 28, 1779, received £639. 8s. 9d. from the Committee of Sea Brook, in Connecticut, in accordance with the law of Nov. 4, 1778, said monies having arisen from the sale of cattle and other effects belonging to the inhabitants of Suffolk County and for which no claimants appeared — the said Treasurer of this State is authorized to issue to the Treasurer of Suffolk County a certificate for said monies which shall be distributed by the Supervisors of said County to such of the inhabitants thereof as the said Supervisors shall determine the same to belong for their cattle and other effects so sold.

Finally, Selah Strong, Treasurer of Suffolk County, signed the following:

Received June 22d, 1790 from Gerard Bancker, Treasr., a Certificate for Thirty one Pounds & Seventeen Shillings, being the Specie Value of Six hundred and thirty nine pounds, eight Shillings and nine pence, on the 28th day of September 1779, which Sum was paid into the Treasury of the State of New York by the Committee of Sea Brook, in Connecticut, for Cattle &c belonging to the inhabitants of Suffolk County, and is now repaid in pursuance of an Act, entitled "An Act for the relief of Henry Haydock & others," passed the 9th day of March, 1790.

Selah Strong Treasurer

No. 47.752 — £31.17.— dated September 28th, 1779. (Rev'y' MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 49. 100)

The Committee of Lyme, in a less degree, also employed Captains of ships to bring over the Refugees. Capt. William Johnson was thus hired, in Sept., 1776, as certified by Joseph Mather, Chairman. (Ap. C. 186. Ap. I. 8) The claim of this Committee for £333. 11. 9½ was not allowed, at first, for the same reasons which delayed payment to the Saybrook Committee. (Ap. C. 4. No. 187) On Feb. 14, 1777, the Committee of Stonington made this statement: "These certify that the Committee of this place never engaged any persons or vessels to fetch any goods or famalys from Long Island: But that all that went from this place went at there Own Resque." This was in reply to a complaint by Capt. Isaac Sheffield that the risk he ran should be assumed by the Committee of Stonington, as such risks were assumed by the Committees of New London, Groton "and others Westward." (Ap. C. 212)

OTHER AIDS TO THE REMOVAL

On Sept. 15, 1776, Gov. Trumbull wrote to Col. Henry B. Livingston (Ap. I. 7) stating that he had left to the judgment of Col. Oliver Wolcott the direction of proper means to bring the People and Stock from Long Island — Col. Wolcott to use the services of Capt. Christopher Leffingwell (Ap. I. 7), of Norwich, and an armed vessel, at his discretion. (Misc. Pap., 34. 289) Col. Wolcott evidently acted promptly; for, in the same month, Col. Livingston made a raid in Suffolk County and took off 3,129 sheep and 400 head of horned cattle. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address,"—

1876) Acting by the order of Gov. Trumbull, Capt. Leffingwell hired two vessels which brought stock &c. from Long Island to New London and Norwich. Capt. William Rockwell was Master of one of the vessels. Capt. Leffingwell's first report to the Governor, dated Sept. 16, 1776, stated that he had brought to New London families and effects, including 200 horned cattle and 500 sheep. His second report, dated Oct. 1, 1776, stated that he had brought over, and delivered to the Committee at Norwich, 152 horned cattle and 790 sheep. The New York Committee of Safety, Jan. 27, 1777, ordered that he be paid £130. 3. 4; and Capt. Henry Billings receipted for the same on the following day. (Ap. A. 32. Ap. C. 95)

The Committee of New London, on Sept. 7, 1776, reported to Gov. Trumbull that several vessels had been sent to Long Island, and more were to be sent; but it was doubtful if many more Refugees would cross, as those who were left seemed inclined to stay "and submit on as good terms as they can get." (Ap. E. 1, 2) How much they were mistaken is shown in the "New London Gazette," of Sept. 22, 1779: "Last Friday 35 young men came from L. I. to Saybrook, who left their homes on account of being ordered to work on the fortifications on the West end of L. I., apprehending they should be ordered thence to the West Indies." (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 87)

Christ: Leffingwell

On Dec. 24, 1776, the New York Committee of Safety ordered the State Treasurer to pay £44. 5 to John Field for services and expenses in transporting some of the Inhabitants of Nassau Island, with their families, stock, &c., to the State of Connecticut, by the authority of the Committee of New London. (Ap. A. 25)

The Committee of Norwich, on Oct. 1, 1776, was authorized to proceed in the same way as the other Committees, relative to the Refugees and their property, and to lay its accounts before the New York Convention. (Ap. D. 2)

THE RESPONSIBILITY CENTRALIZED

On Feb. 20, 1777, the Governor and Council of Safety of Connecticut resolved to suspend for six weeks the operation of all restraining laws, so as to authorize the Civil Authority and the Selectmen of the Towns to allow and license boats for bringing the Refugees over; having first made inquiry as to the integrity of the Refugees so applying, and on the condition that no deceit be practiced. (Ap. D. 6) On June 27, a Committee of the New York Council of Safety reported, and the Council resolved, subject to the approval of Gov. Trumbull, that the entire responsibility of permitting the Refugees to come to Connecticut should rest with Obadiah Jones, Col. John Hulbert and Thomas Dering, or any two of them; and that they were authorized to remove such of the Refugees as were willing from Connecticut to Dutchess County, New York, to be under the care of Abraham Schenck and Gideon Ver Valen. (Ap. A. 44)

From this, it would seem that the Authorities of the State of New York intended that the removal to Connecticut should be only temporary. But the Refugees did not take kindly to a residence in Dutchess County, in the charge of two Commissioners who were already caring for a much less desirable class of citizens which had been brought out from New York City. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.," p. 119)

On July 3, the Governor and Council of Safety of Connecticut ratified the action of June 27, by the New York Council of Safety; terminated the powers of the Authorities, Selectmen and Committees of Inspection in Connecticut; and placed the full responsibility for removals to Connecticut, and trips to Long Island, with Messrs. Jones, Hulbert and Dering. (Ap. D. 7) In accordance with this, the New York Assembly, on Sept. 23, 1777, received a letter from Messrs. Hulbert and Dering, dated at Middletown, Connecticut, Aug. 26, 1777, asking for instructions as to permitting the Refugees from Long Island, to return thither. (Ap. B. 1)

In January, 1780, the Governor and Council of Safety of Connecticut took to themselves the power to regulate permits to bring families and their effects from Long Island. (Ap. D. 43)

The experience of the Refugees in Connecticut and their homecoming are described in Chapter 20.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN — THE SITUATION ON LONG ISLAND

In the five Chapters preceding, it has been shown that the lines were drawn sharply between the Americans and the Tories; that the Battle of Long Island, on Aug. 27, 1776, so turned the tables that a large proportion of the former were forced to leave the Island; and that, as Refugees, they naturally turned to the nearest main-land, Connecticut, wherein dwelt a community congenial by ties of religion and kin. We have now to record the more unhappy lot of those who stayed at home. To this end the narrative is resumed from the point where it was dropped in Chapters 2 and 3.

DISBANDING OF THE MILITIA

On Aug. 28, the day after the Battle, Colonels Smith and Reimsen were ordered to join Gen. Woodhull; and Gov. Trumbull was asked to send to the Island 1000 Troops from Connecticut. (Ap. A. 11, 12) On Aug. 29, the New York Provincial Convention received a letter from Col. Smith stating that he had orders to march his Regiment to New York, and there await further orders from the Convention. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n.) This body, having sent John Sloss Hobart and James Townsend as a Committee to advise and assist Gen. Woodhull, the Committee reported, on Aug. 30 and 31 by letters from Huntington, that Gen. Woodhull had been captured, and the Militia had been dispersed. They came at once to Huntington and tried to rally the remnants of the Militia at that point. They ordered the Suffolk County forces to rendezvous there; and sent to Col. Mulford, of East Hampton, to come and take the command. Col. Floyd, of the 1st Regiment was at the Continental Congress. Then followed reports from Officers of the 1st Regiment. Lt. Col. Gilbert Potter had gone to Connecticut. Maj. Jeffrey Smith had, on Aug. 29, ordered the four Companies of Brookhaven Militia to march at once to Platt Carl's at Dix Hills, in Huntington. When they had marched as far as Epenetus Smith's in Smithtown, the Militia waited to hear from the Major, who had gone to Huntington to consult with Hobart and Townsend. At Huntington, Maj. Jesse Brush thought it unsafe to proceed. The Qr. Mr., Ebenezer Dayton, made a report. Capt. Samuel Thompson feared the force was too small, and dismissed his Company. Adj. Philip Roe was in favor of making a stand. Maj. Smith returned to Smithtown; told the Militia that their force was not large enough to cope with the enemy; and advised that the Militia should disband. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n. Also Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

The New York Committee of Safety, on Sept. 3, recommended to the Committees of Westchester County and Connecticut to allow no armed soldiers to return to Long Island. (Ap. A. 14) On the same date, the Committee ordered Gen. George Clinton to apprehend and detain as many as possible of the men belonging to the Regiments of Colonels Smith and Remsen (Clinton Pap., 1. 332); and, on Sept. 18, Gen. Clinton reported "none of Smith's or Remsen's Regiments have yet joined me, nor do I believe they intend." (Same ref., 1. 354)

On Sept. 6, Lt. Col. Benjamin Birdsall wrote to the Provincial Congress, from Fishkill, stating that Col. Smith had discharged none of his men; "but when he parted with me, at New Rochelle, he intended to make a stand on the East end of Long Island. Most of his men, tho' scattered, are only awaiting further orders." On Sept. 12, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote, from Saybrook, to his brother, Robert R. Livingston, Jr., that he had been obliged to retreat to Saybrook because most of the people thought the Island had been abandoned, and had taken the Oath of Allegiance to the King; but he was about to set out for Huntington with 400 men; and, if successful, would yet save Suffolk County. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n.)

On Oct. 5, Gen. George Clinton wrote to Col. Livingston that the Convention had lately ordered the Regiment of Col. Smith to join him at Kings Bridge. Very few of the Regiment had reported for duty on account of the absence of Col. Smith on Long Island, and the dispersion of his men on the Island and along the Connecticut shore as far East as New London. Gen. Clinton therefore ordered Col. Livingston to gather all such men into his Detachment. (Clinton Pap., 1. 370. Also Chap. 7) They were ordered to rendezvous at New Haven on Oct. 21. (Same ref., 1. 382) On Oct. 7, Mr. Hobart wrote to the Committee of Safety describing the situation of the inhabitants of Long Island; advising them to leave the Island; and suggesting that a Regiment of Refugees be formed. (Ap. A. 17) He also stated that Gen. Woodhull was dead; that he had just returned from a Council of War at New Haven; that he had heard that 300 of the enemy, at Huntington, were trying to force the Long Island Militia to join the British Army; that success in that effort would cause most of the people on Long Island to leave; and that the Convention should make more definite provision for the Refugees. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n.)

The Committee of Safety, on Nov. 8, made provision for paying those men of Col. Smith's Regiment who were outside of the territory then possessed by the enemy. (Ap. A. 19) In December, certain arms and ammunition were brought from the East end of Long Island by Col. Livingston. They were delivered to Capt. Nathaniel Platt, at New Haven; and, later, they were removed to Fishkill. (Ap. A. 22, 30, 36)

FORTIFICATIONS AND HEADQUARTERS

When the Americans deserted their defensive works in Brooklyn, on Aug. 29, 1776, the British occupied and strengthened them. Several of their best Regiments went to Newtown. They encamped along Middleburg Avenue, from the Heights of Blissville to Woodside. Gen. William Howe made his headquarters in a house on the Avenue. Some distance further along the highway, toward Woodside, was the camp of the Queen's Own; and between that location and Gen. Howe's headquarters the Hessians had their camp. The officers of the Queen's Own occupied the old Brogaw house, in the rear of which were the Hessian barracks. Nearly all of these relics of the Revolutionary time have been destroyed by the recent improvements of the Pennsylvania Rail Road Company.

Huntington seemed to be the strategic base of the enemy. There was a small earthwork near the Episcopal Church. A larger Fort was on Gallows Hill, so named from the execution of two American spies. On the West side of Lloyd's Neck was Fort Franklin which the American Militia of the Town were compelled to build. This Fort commanded the entrance to Cold Spring Harbor and Oyster Bay Harbor. A companion Fort, on the East side of the Neck, commanded the entrance to Huntington Bay and Northport Bay. (See the large map in Chap. 25) These Forts, together with the shipping of the enemy, protected the cutting and transportation of much of the wood used during the British occupation of New York City.

Gaines' "New York Mercury," June 28, 1779, gave this account of affairs in Huntington:

The rebellious part of the inhabitants in this Town, who were kept in awe, while the troops were stationed east of us, are now become more insolent than ever, and publicly threaten to have all the loyalists carried off to Connecticut. The principal of these miscreants (rebels), are Nathaniel Williams, Eliphalet Chichester, Stephen Kelsey, John Brush, Jonas Rogers, Marlboro Burtis and Israel Wood, several of whom smuggled goods out of New York to this place, for the sole purpose of supplying the rebels in Connecticut.

BRITISH PROTECTION PAPER — ORIGINAL OWNED BY MRS. ELIZA LUPTON MATHER, GRAND-DAUGHTER OF CAPT. JOSIAH LUPTON

(From Craven's "Mattituck")

It may have been incidents like the above which led Col. Benjamin Thompson (Ap. I. 13), afterward the noted scientist Count Rumford, to erect Fort Golgotha on the site of the Burying Ground. This was done in the Fall of 1782, in spite of the Provisional Treaty of Peace, and the Truce which had existed since the capture of Yorktown. It was in vain that the inhabitants protested against the use of gravestones for tables and ovens, and the tearing down of the Presbyterian Church for barracks. Not only were their protests unavailing, but they were forced to work on the Fort.

The following is from the Address by Hon. Henry C. Platt, at Huntington, in 1876:

Among the more important British officers, who came to Huntington, were Gen. Sir Wm. Erskine, who went from Huntington to Southampton; Gen. Tryon, who went from Huntington to Southold; Brig. Gen. Leland, Brig.

Gen. DeLancey, Col. Tarleton, who marched from Smithtown, through Huntington to Jericho; Col. Simcoe, of the Queen's Rangers; Col. Hewlett (Tory), of Hempstead; Col. Abercrombie; Col. Bruinton; Col. Croger; Col. DeWormb, of the Hessian Yagers; Col. Ludlow, at one time in command of the Fort at Lloyd's Neck, who forced Jonas Rogers and others to go to New York with their teams after cannon; Col. Upham; Col. DeLancey; Col. Benj. Thompson, Lieut. Carr of the 17th Light Dragoons; Majors Green, Gilfillan, Campbell, Terpenney, Gwin, Ferguson, and Major Hubbel of the "Loyal Refugees;" Captains Cutler, Cameron, Royle, Boam, Ellison, Gore, Stephenson, Woolley, Stewart, Thomas, DeSchoenfeldt, of the Anspach Regiment, and numerous others.

To the East of Huntington were the Fortifications at Fort Slongo and Setauket; and to the South East, those at Fort St. George. (See the Maps in Chap. 25) The chief defensive works at the East end of the Island were at Sag Harbor — a Fortification on Meeting House Hill consisting of a breastwork, enlarged and strengthened by palisades which extended Southerly toward the old Burying Ground. Maj. Charles Cochran commanded; but his headquarters were often at Bridge Hampton. (See the Maps in Chap. 24)

Oyster Bay was also an important point. Col. Simcoe and his Rangers built a redoubt there, in 1778-1779. His headquarters were at the house of Samuel Townsend.

When Tryon was in Southold, he occupied the house of Peter Vail. Erskine made his headquarters in the house of Dr. William Smith. (See "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") Onderdonk ("Suffolk and Kings Counties") states that in February, 1779, fourteen Companies of Light Infantry, 700 men, were quartered at Southampton. In March, the force was increased to 2,500 men by the coming of General Henry Clinton with a body of Troops. In April, 500 foot and 50 horse were in Southold; and 100 men and two field pieces, at Sag Harbor.

The several attacks by the Americans, on Lloyd's Neck, Fort Slongo, Setauket, Fort St. George and Sag Harbor are described in Chapter 26.

REQUISITIONS BY THE ENEMY

On Sept. 2, 1776, directly after the Battle of Long Island, Gen. Oliver Delancey gave orders to Col. Phineas Fanning; and, three days later, he was recruiting for his own Army, at Jamaica. In the same month, both he and Gen. Erskine were issuing Proclamations and Orders to the people of Suffolk County. This is one of them:

You are hereby ordered to preserve, for the King's use — loads of hay, bushels of wheat, of oats, of rye, of barley, of Indian corn, and all your wheat and rye straw, and not to dispose of the same, but to my order, in writing, as you will answer the contrary at your peril. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 55)

Onderdonk also (pp. 75, 82, 86) states that, in 1778, Troops from New York were at the East end of the Island to collect provisions for the British Army; that, in 1779, a Fleet of the enemy lay at Sag Harbor to protect the removal of hay and wood; and that 500 men were requisitioned to be employed on the new works at Brooklyn, they to furnish a large quantity of fascines and pickets. Refusal to comply would lead to expulsion from Long Island and the confiscation of property. Thus material aid in carrying on the campaign of the enemy was required in addition to Allegiance to the Crown.

PROTECTION AND PERMITS

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 189) states that Gen. Howe gave Certificates of Protection; but he required, as a condition, the wearing of the "Red Rag," the badge of Loyalty. The several forms of Oaths which were required are described in Chapter 10. Permits to leave Long Island, or to go to it from Connecticut, were issued by the British Authorities. The two examples, below, show the forms which were used. In the first, Mayor Mathews, of New York City, on Apr. 5, 1780, addresses the Office of Police:

We beg leave to recommend Mr. Isaac Hubbard to the Commandant for a Flag to proceed to Stamford in Connecticut in order to bring from thence a sister of his who he wishes to have here as he is in a Situation to support her, and her Situation at present is rather disagreeable as being among Rebels.

The second document is an Order, given by Maj. Gen. James Pattison on Apr. 7, 1780:

Permission is given to Captain Chapman and Mrs. Aspinwall to pass with a Flag of Truce (in a small Schooner navigated by the four Hands, named in the margin) from Long Island to Stamford in Connecticut — Mrs. Aspinwall for the purpose of fetching her Effects — And Captain Chapman for the purpose of bringing Miss Hubbard from Stamford to Long Island.

[Names in the margin] William Hubbard, Isaac Hubbard, Fyler Dibble,

DISTRESS OF THE INHABITANTS

At the very beginning of the British occupation, Sept. 5, 1776, David Gelston wrote to the Provincial Convention that he could not describe the distresses which he saw, and heard of, on Long Island. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n.)

Not only did the people of Long Island suffer the loss of property, for which promises to pay were given and never honored (Chap. 20), but they also suffered in many ways which, in modern times, would not be tolerated — that is, in the treatment of non-combatants. The charges made against Cochran were hardly offset by the considerate conduct of Erskine. There were many alleged excesses by the British Troops. Perhaps the treatment of the Tories in the Mohawk Valley had its retaliation on Long Island; or, perhaps, the events in the Mohawk Valley followed the events on Long Island.*

I.," pp. 117-120; Hedges' "East Hampton;" Hedges' "Southampton Address" — 1890, pp. 35, 36; Hedges' "East Hampton Address," 1899; Hedges' "Bridge Hampton Address" — 1776, pp. 13-15; Hedges' "Bridge, Hampton Address" — 1910, p. 58; Howell's "Southampton," pp. 68-77; Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 65-67; and Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 120-126.

Those who remained on the Island fared much worse than the Refugees who fled to Connecticut. Some of the latter, however, testified to their experiences before they left the Island. Their statements are scattered through their several Biographies in Part Two of this work—reference being made to the original documents in Part Three. Perhaps the most pathetic stories are those of John Foster (Ap. B. 33); and William Lawrence. (Ap. B. 30, 31)

LETTER FROM MAYOR MATHEWS — ORIGINAL OWNED BY MR. N. HUBBARD CLEVELAND
(From Craven's "Mattituck")

The final relief came, on Nov. 19, 1783, when Sir Guy Carleton wrote to Gov. Clinton that he intended to evacuate all of the Island to the East of Hempstead on the 22d of the same Month. (Clinton Pap., 8, 283)

THE LOSS OF SURGEONS AND PHYSICIANS

In addition to their other trials, the people of Long Island were deprived of Surgical and Medical relief, by the absence of those who, if present, would have ministered to their wants. The "Rev'y MSS," in the State Library, Albany, New York, mention 40 Surgeons and Physicians who were in the Hospital Service

BRITISH PERMIT FOR FLAG OF TRUCE — ORIGINAL OWNED BY MR. N. HUBBARD CLEVELAND
(From Craven's "Mattituck")

Nine of these were the following: Jonathan Havens, from Shelter Island; Silas Halsey, Jr. and William Lawrence, from Southampton; Benjamin Chapin, from Bridge Hampton; David Conkling from Southold; Gilbert Potter, from Huntington; Nathaniel Gardiner, from East Hampton; Walker, from Sag Harbor; and Joseph Crane, from Long Island. Beside the nine, it is known that these Physicians served during the War: George Howell, Samuel Latham, Henry White, Shadrach Hildreth and William Burnett, of Southampton; Samuel H. Rose, of Bridge Hampton; Jeremiah Hedges, of Sag Harbor; Joseph Sackett, of Newtown; Samuel Thompson, of Brookhaven; Platt Townsend, of Queens County; and Benjamin Anthony, of Long Island — 11 more, or the very considerable total of 20 from Long Island, alone. This number might be increased if it were allowable to include Ministers of Churches, like David Rose and Samuel Buell, who often attended to the physical needs of their parishioners. All of the 20 except Latham, Hildreth, Burnett and Rose, were Refugees to Connecticut, and their biographies will be found in Part Two of this work.

CHAPTER NINETEEN — THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK CITY

The opening paragraph of the last Chapter gave the reason why there were American Refugees from Long Island. Chapters 13 to 17 have given the reason in more detail. The same reason accounts for the Refugees from New York City — like cause and like effect. Our narrative is now taken up where we left it before the Battle of Long Island, in Chapter 2, and after the loss of New York City, in Chapter 4. Previous to the Battle, however, many of the women and children had been removed from the City (Ap. A. 6); and some of them had been taken to Dutchess County, New York. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.," pp. 118-125)

RESTRICTED BOUNDARIES

The small map in Chapter 4 outlines the City as it was in the Revolutionary days. A larger map in Chapter 2 shows the relative location of Brooklyn. The City of that time lay wholly below Broome Street, from Broadway on the West to Division and Suffolk Streets on the East. Beyond Broome Street, to the North, the Island was occupied by farms, or landed estates, bearing such names as Van Cortlandt, Apthorpe, Morris, De Lancey, Bayard, Jauncey, Stuyvesant, Keteltas, Kip, Watts, Murray, Dyckman, Herring and Duane. The topography of the upper part of the Island is described in Chapter 4.

A line passing through Reade street, and extending to Catharine Street, on the East River, marked the Northern limit of the solidly-built part of the City. The Broad Way was the beginning of the Albany Road; and the Bowery, the beginning of the Boston Road. Formerly, these two great Avenues had been rivals. But, with the arrival of a semi-idle British soldiery, places of low amusement sprang up in the Bowery, which ever after made that Avenue characteristic of "the under-world;" while Fashion took the only choice left — the Broad Way.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

The City Hall, later Federal Hall, stood on Wall Street at the corner of Nassau. (Chap. 12) The Provost, or Jail, was at the northern part of the Commons, near the present City Hall. (Chap. 11) Close by was the Poor House. The Hospital was on Broadway where the snake-like Pearl Street begins at the North. Kings (now Columbia) College stood on Church Street at the end of Park Place. The Exchange was at the foot of Broad Street, near Pearl. The Governors of the Province, down to 1773, had dwelt within the walls of Fort George, at the Battery.

The location of the several Churches is described in Chapter 11, under the sub-division "Prisoners to the British."

The only Theater worthy the name was on the North side of John Street near Broadway. It was opened in 1767; but closed in 1773, by reason of the general depression. On Dec. 1774, the Provincial Congress recommended the suspension of all public amusements, and no further performances were given. When the British held the City, amateurs re-opened the John Street Theater under the name of "Theater Royal;" and plays were given from January, 1777 to June, 1781, the receipts being for the benefit of the poor of the City. Here Maj. John André distinguished himself, both as an actor and a scene painter.

PRIVATE HOUSES AND TAVERNS

Within the City proper, few houses were noted for their fine appointments. At 1 and 3, on the West side of Broadway were the Kennedy and Watts Houses. In the former, Washington, Putnam and other of the Continental Officers had their headquarters before the Battle of Long Island. Sir Henry Clinton used it for the same purposes after the British occupation. The most famous dwelling was the Walton House, in Franklin Square, now known as No. 324 Pearl Street. The finest houses were wholly outside the City, among the estates at the North. Above the Hospital a succession of hills sloped toward the Lispenard Swamp, on the West; and toward the Fresh Water Pond, the site of the Tombs, on the East. The latter had an outlet to the North River through Canal Street. The Eastern hills led up to higher hills at Grand Street and Bayard's Mount, the seat of the family of that name. The Beekman House, on First Avenue corner of 50th Street, was, for a time the headquarters of the British Generals Howe and Clinton. The American spy, Nathan Hale, was confined in the Beekman green-house.

Coffee Houses were established soon after the English had conquered the Dutch. The most popular of these, at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, was the Merchants', kept by Cornelius Bradford (See "The Refugees from N. Y. City"), on Wall Street at the corner of Water. The Coffee Houses were succeeded by Taverns, or Inns. Chief among them were: the Burns' City Arms, in lower Broadway, scene of the opposition to the Stamp Act, and later known as the Atlantic Garden; The King's Arms, near the above; The Province Arms; The Bull's Head, on the site of the Old Bowery Theater; and The Blue Bell on Broadway at 181st Street. After the British occupation, in 1776, many refugees from American persecution came to the City. They formed Societies which held meetings at such places as Hicks', on Broadway, or Lenox's, the sign of Joseph Brant. The Military went to Roubalet's, formerly The Bunch of Grapes; and, after the War, John Cape's State Arms of New York. It stood on Broadway at Thames Street. The British Officers frequented Strachan's at the Fly Market.

The most celebrated Tavern stood on the South East corner of Broad and Pearl Streets. It was built by the Delancey family, on land conveyed by Col. Stephanus Van Cortlandt to Estienne de Lancey, his son-in-law, in 1700. For some time it was occupied as a residence by Col. Joseph Robinson; then by Delancey, Robinson & Co., as a store; and, later, it passed by sale into the hands of Sam Fraunces the most noted publican of the day, afterward the steward of President Washington's household. Fraunces opened the place as a tavern, in 1762, under the sign of Queen Charlotte, the popular Queen of George III. Here the Chamber of Commerce was organized, in 1768; here the leading Societies, like St. Andrew's and St. Patrick's, met; here the merchants of New York met to protest against the Stamp Act; here the Sons of Liberty sometimes assembled, and an 18 pound ball from the British ship Asia came crashing through the roof on an August night in 1775, when the Sons were removing cannon from the Battery; here, also, met the Social Club, until it was disrupted by the War. On the second floor was the historic "Long Room" in which Washington bade farewell to his Officers, on Dec. 4, 1783. (Gordon's "American Revolution," 4. 383. Marshall's "Life of Washington")

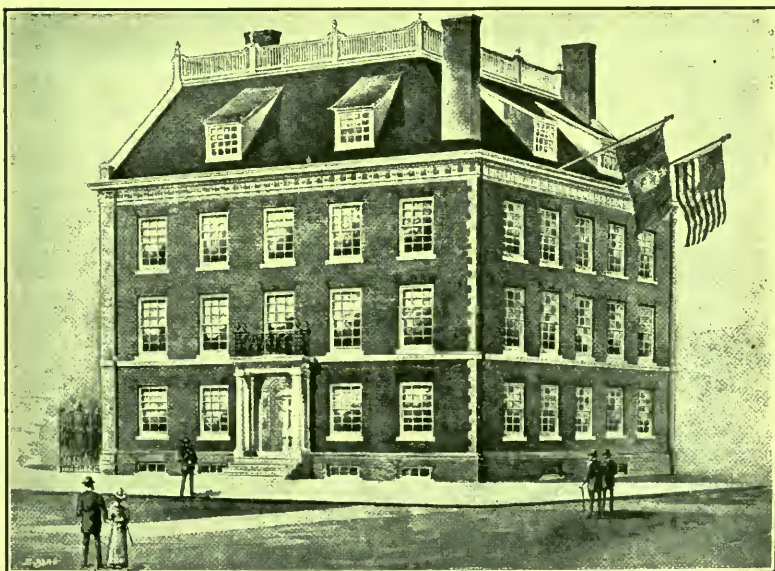

After the War, two stories were added to Fraunces' Tavern, and the building was used for commercial purposes until 1904. It was then purchased by the Sons of The Revolution; and formally occupied by them on Dec. 4, 1907. The building has been restored to the original, as nearly as possible, both in dimension and in detail. The "Long Room" is still on the second floor at the right on entering. At each Annual Meeting of the Sons, on Dec. 4, Col. Tallmadge's account of Washington's Farewell is read. (Tallmadge's "Memoir" pp. 96-98)

THE BRITISH OCCUPATION

On Sept. 15, 1776, six days after the enemy had taken possession of the City, a fire started on the wharf near White Hall. This destroyed all of the buildings, including Trinity Church and the Lutheran Church, on the West of Broadway as far North as Rector Street. As Washington was then watching Howe, after the Battle of Harlem Heights (Chap. 4), it was natural that each side charged the other with setting the fire. The British had not forgotten the threat of the Americans to burn the City if they lost it. (Same ref.) It was estimated that 1,000 houses, about one fourth of the City, were consumed. On Aug. 3, 1778, a smaller fire, starting at Cruger's wharf, destroyed the tract South of Pearl Street, between Coenties Slip and Old Slip.

The ruins made by the two fires remained through the British occupation. There was no reason for rebuilding; and, if there had been a reason, no money was available. The coast-wise trade was dead, and the wharves crumbled through neglect. Many of the more prosperous merchants had fled, taking their goods with them; and they were succeeded by small traders and hucksters. Streets which had been opened before the War became waste land again. Even the necessary repairs on buildings were not made. Public buildings and private houses were used as Prisons or Hospitals or barracks — with the attendant decay. So that, by the end of the occupation, in 1783, the population had dwindled from over 20,000 (Chap. 1) to less than 10,000.

In population, wealth and resources, New York was now a bad third as compared with Philadelphia and Boston. Her returning exiles did wonders in the way of rebuilding; and they had made great progress down to the Inauguration of Washington, in 1789. But, in spite of these efforts, the glories of Wall Street were short lived; the dream of the City as a National Capital was soon over; and Philadelphia secured the prize for a time. The result might have been different if New York had been able to recover sooner from the blight of the British occupation. Of all the American Cities, it paid the heaviest toll to the conflict for Independence. As the event proved, it would have been more to her interest if the conflict had been settled at Boston, in 1776. (Chap. 2)*

EVACUATION DAY

On Mar. 24, 1783, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, Robert R. Livingston, notified Washington at West Point that a General Peace had been declared; and, on Apr. 9, it was proclaimed by the Town Major, from the steps of the City Hall. From this time on, the exiled Whigs began to return and take possession of their deserted, and often ruined, houses and estates. Their residences are mentioned in their respective biographies, in Part Two of this work.

The preliminaries to the Evacuation were arranged between Washington and Carleton, at Dobb's Ferry; and between Gov. Clinton and Carleton, through Egbert Benson. (Clinton Pap., 8. 139-144) On Nov. 18, a meeting of returned Exiles, at Cape's Tavern, resolved to preserve order on the day of the Evacuation, which had been fixed for Nov. 25. (Ap. B. 42) On the morning of that day, the American Army, under the command of Gen. Knox, marched from Harlem to the Bowery, where it remained

The Committee appointed to conduct the Order of receiving their Excellencies Governor CLINTON and General WASHINGTON, BEG Leave to inform their Fellow-Citizens, that the Troops, under the Command of Major-General KNOX, will take Possession of the City at the Hour agreed on, Tuesday next; as soon as this may be performed, he will request the Citizens, who may be assembled on Horseback, at the Bowling-Green, the lower End of the Broad-Way, to accompany him to meet their Excellencies Governor CLINTON and General WASHINGTON, at the Bull's Head, in the Bowery---the Citizens on Foot to assemble at or near the Tea-water-Pump at Fresh-water.

ORDER OF PROCESSION.

A Party of Horse will precede their Excellencies and be on their flanks---after the General and Governor, will follow the Lieutenant-Governor and Members of the Council for the temporary Government of the Southern Parts of the State---The Gentlemen on Horse-back, eight in Front---those on Foot, in the Rear of the Horse, in like Manner. Their Excellencies, after passing down Queen-Street, and the Line of Troops up the Broadway, will alight at CAPE's Tavern.

The Committee hope to see their Fellow-Citizens, conduct themselves with Decency and Decorum on this joyful Occasion.

CITIZENS TAKE CARE!!!

THE Inhabitants are hereby informed, that Permission has been obtained from the Commandant, to form themselves in patrols this night, and that every order requisite will be given to the guards, as well to aid and assist, as to give protection to the patrols: And that the countersign will be given to, THOMAS TUCKER, No. 51, Water Street, from whom it can be obtained, if necessary.

until 1 o'clock; when, the British posts being withdrawn, the American column marched in and took possession of the City, "Nothing could have been more grateful to New York," wrote Mr. John Austin Stevens, "than this disposition; for in Knox's Artillery command was the favorite Regiment, commanded by Col. John Lamb, and officered by men who like himself were of the earlier Patriots and Sons of Liberty." The order of the Procession is given in Clinton Papers, 8. 297-299. The Resolutions of the Exiles and their conduct of the Procession are in Ap. B. 42.

It is worthy of note that it was the State of New York, and not the United States, which took possession of the City; also, that it was not so much the State as the Temporary Government of the Southern District which was in evidence. (Chap. 12) On the evening of Nov. 25, Gov. Clinton gave a dinner to Washington and other General Officers of the Army. (Clinton Pap., 8. 299-300) The interesting items of the several Entertainments are given in Ap. C. 219-221.

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 232) gives the story of an eyewitness of the Evacuation:

I was at the Provost, or City Prison, about ten o'clock in the morning, when an American guard relieved the British guard at that place. The latter joined a detachment of British Troops, then on parade in Broadway, which wheeled on the right, into platoons, and marched down Broadway to the Battery, where they embarked in boats, and went on board of the shipping lying at anchor in the North River. About eleven o'clock I saw General Washington and suite, at the head of a detachment of American Troops, march down Pearl Street to the Battery; on their arrival, they expected to set the American Stripes on the flag-staff, but they found the halliards unrove and the staff slushed. The departing salute was fired; and, before the last gun, the American Flag waved in the wind at the top of the staff — an American sailor having managed to climb the staff with an halliard, which he rove and descended; when the Colors were hoisted to the tree top amid the huzzas of thousands of spectators. The sailor received his hat crown half full of silver pieces for the service.

THE EVACUATION OF NEW YORK CITY BY THE BRITISH NOVEMBER 25, 1776
(From an Old Print)

CHAPTER TWENTY — THE RETURN TO LONG ISLAND

We now resume the story of the Refugees in Connecticut as we left it at the end of Chapter 17. It must be remembered that while the greater part of them came from Long Island, yet a considerable number came from New York City.

The Census which was taken on Long Island in the Summer of 1776 has proved of great value in identifying the Refugees. (Ap. A. 47-55) It was also important, because it was taken just before the British occupation. Based on this Census, the Provincial Convention, on July 20, estimated that there were, on Nassau (now Long) Island: 25,000 to 30,000 people; 100,000 horned cattle, and a much larger number of sheep.

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 286 et seq.) gives a partial statement of the population of the Island. The full statement is given by Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," p. 157), as follows:

Kings.....	2,150	3,623	3,986	4,495	5,740	8,303
Queens.....	7,895	10,980	13,084	16,014	16,983	19,336
Suffolk.....	7,675	13,128	13,793	16,440	19,444	21,113
Total.....	17,720	27,731	30,863	36,949	42,167	48,752

ESTIMATED NUMBER OF THE REFUGEES

Various estimates have been made as to the number of the Refugees who came to Connecticut; but the larger of the estimates, as many as 20,000, are not warranted by the Claims made by the Refugees in Appendix C. It is unlikely that any considerable number neglected to make a Claim. In Appendix C., four Captains brought 121 heads of families; representing 676 individuals, and 58 single persons. The average for all was a little over four to a family. Ninety-seven Refugees taken at random, and some of them single, made a total of 579, or less than six to a family. The whole combined, 276, or more than a quarter of the number of Refugees on record, by name, represented 1,313 individuals; or less than five to a family. Thus, while there were families reporting 13, 14, 16 and 18, respectively, yet the smaller families and single individuals bring the average down to less than five. This ratio applied to the whole number of Refugees who are named would make the total not to exceed 5,000, in any case. This was a considerable proportion of the 13,000, named by Wood, above, as the population of Suffolk County, in 1771.

More accurate estimates could be made if the Refugees had given the names of the members of their families; for, in some cases, they probably included slaves.

SUFFERING IN CONNECTICUT

The Refugees had a long and hard experience in Connecticut. The people of that State were not unfriendly; they did all in the way of aid and comfort that could have been expected, and all the Records available show few complaints by the Refugees. Although the people of Connecticut had their own problems to solve, they were both cordial and generous to the visitors. But, after all, the experience was one that the Refugees would not have cared to repeat. If they had known what was before them, it is doubtful if many of them would have left Long Island.

Early in their enforced exile, on Apr. 14, 1777, about 170 of them who were voters petitioned the New York Convention asking that they might be represented in the Convention. (Ap. A. 39) This was denied, on the ground that they were residing in, and under the care of, another State. Then, disfranchised both in New York and in Connecticut, they became subject to Poll and Military Taxes in the latter: until they were obliged to petition for exemption. (Ap. E. 32) And, worse still, they were obliged to petition Gov. Clinton for leave to purchase bread in the State of New York. (Ap. B. 3)

What the Refugees suffered is set forth at length in Appendix E. Perhaps the most pitiful of the stories there narrated were told by Dr. Jonathan Havens (Ap. E. 39); David Welden (Ap. E. 51); Benjamin Marvin and others (Ap. E. 111); and Samuel Clark. (Ap. E. 189-192) To the above, the petition of David Vail and John Clark might be added. (Ap. F. 3) See also Chapter 22.

CLAIMS FOR EXPENSES.

In making out their Claims, the Refugees often put their animals before themselves and their families:— as, "two loads of effects, 2 hogs and 10 in family;" "one load of effects, 1 cow, 1 hog & 6 in family;" "two loads of Household stuff, 5 hogs & 7 in family." "Household Goods" frequently appeared as "Household Gods." In fact, phonetic spelling seemed to be quite common. The requests of the Claimants to pay others than themselves were also of interest:—

Pleas to pay the money Due to me from you to the Barer of this order and in So doing you will oblig yours to Serve.

I Dsiar that you wold a Low 5/6 I paid to a Strangr to bring part of my family that was sick from Sebrock to potrog and my Sun Nathanl paid one Doler to Capt Whitsley for bringing him and his mare a Crose the Sound to the mane this is facts by me.

The Claims were sworn to by the Refugees before a Justice of the Peace; and sometimes they were certified by Col. Henry B. Livingston of the 4th Line. The Committee of Inspection of the Town wherein the Claim was made then passed upon it. The Committee occasionally cut down the Claim from one third to one half, "by an overcharge" or "by a deduction on almost everything."

Finally, the three Auditors approved of the Claim, and the Claimant received his pay, either from the Auditors or from the Treasurer of the State of New York.

There is a conspicuous instance of "graft" as it existed in those days. The owner of a boat made a Claim for freighting his own goods, swore to his Claim before himself as Justice of the Peace and approved his Claim as Clerk of the Committee of Inspection of the Town in which he lived.

TREATMENT OF THE CLAIMS

On Nov. 26, 1776, the New York Committee of Safety provided that a Committee, not named, should collect the Accounts, or Claims, of those who had left Long Island. (Ap. A. 21) On Dec. 3, the Committee of Safety asked Col. Livingston to send an Account of the families, and their effects, which he had brought to Connecticut. (Ap. A. 22) In accordance with the action first named above, the Committee, on Dec. 31, appointed three of the Refugees, Thomas Dering, John Foster and Capt. Thomas Wickham a Committee, or Board of Auditors, to pass upon the Claims of the Refugees. (Ap. A. 21) Other Accounts were procured by Ezra L'Hommedieu, Thomas Tredwell, Burnet Miller and David Gelston (also Refugees) by a resolution of the Committee of Safety, Jan. 17, 1777. (Ap. A. 30) The same Committee, on Jan. 27, ordered Matthew Adgate, Simon Stevens and David Gelston, as a Committee, to report upon some method of reimbursing New York for the expense of transporting stock and effects from Long Island (Ap. A. 33); and, on Apr. 14, the New York Convention appointed Gouverneur Morris, John Sloss Hobart and Gen. John Morin Scott a Committee to approach the Continental Congress as to the propriety of charging the expense to the United States. (Ap. A. 41)

Meantime, on Dec. 24, 1776, a claim of £674. 9. 0 Lawful, or £899. 5. 4 N. Y. Currency, had been received by the Auditors of the New York Provincial Congress. Those Auditors were: Matthew Adgate, Alexander Webster and Benjamin Newkirk. (Ap. A. 25. Ap. C. 95) On Mar. 17, 1777, Messrs. Adgate and Webster resigned. Thereafter, in addition to Mr. Newkirk, the Auditors of the Congress were Jacob Cuyler and Christopher Tappen.

In January, 1783, a Resolution was passed in the Upper House of the Connecticut Legislature, but it was negatived in the Lower House. This provided that the Committee on Pay Table should collect the Claims of the Selectmen of Norwich for "supporting, nursing and doctoring some Refugees from Long Island, in great distress, sickness and want;" and that such Claims should be charged to the State of New York. (Ap. E. 194) What became of these Claims is not recorded.

ACCOUNTS OF THE AUDITORS

The Auditors in Connecticut, Messrs. Dering, Foster and Wickham, transacted nearly all of their business at Middletown. They charged per day—for time, 12 s. each; for board, 2 s.; and for horse-keeping, 6 d. These services aggregated:—Dering, £24. 14. 3 (Ap. C. 1); Foster, £95. 6. 5. (Ap. C. 2); Wickham, £13. 3. 0. (Ap. C. 3. See also Ap. C. 5. Nos. 125–127) There were frequent items "for liquor for the Committee," that is, for the Auditors. Wickham was often absent, on service as the Captain of a Privateer; and the Claims were passed upon by the other two Auditors. The private Claims of the Auditors were: Dering, £91. 6. 3. (Ap. C. 7); Foster, £78. 6. 0 (Ap. C. 8); Wickham, £19. 11. (Ap. C. 9)

The Auditors had completed the greater part of their work by Mar. 3, 1777. On that date they wrote a letter to the New York Convention and sent with it "a great bundle of Accounts" as described in the Convention Proceedings of Mar. 17. (Ap. A. 37) These Accounts are printed in full in Appendix C. Later information was sent by Messrs. Dering and Foster, on Aug. 7. (Ap. A. 45) On Oct. 4, 1777, David Gelston receipted for the Claims of 185 Refugees—a total of £1,797. 14. 7 Lawful, or £2,396. 19. 5 York. This was paid to Mr. Gelston, Oct. 4, 1777. (Ap. C. 4) The Accounts, proper, of the Auditors included the Claims of 124 Refugees as well as the Claims of the Auditors for Expenses—a total of £2,292. 5 Lawful, or £3,056. 6. 8 York. This was also paid, Oct. 4. (Ap. C. 5) The final settlement of the Auditors was for £519. 17. 5 Lawful, or £693. 3. 2 York; which was paid to David Gelston and Ezra L'Hommedieu, Nov. 3, 1778. (Ap. C. 6)

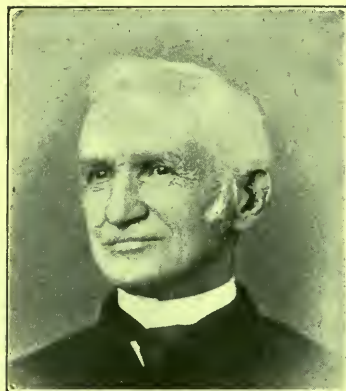

Thus the total expense to the State of New York was £4,609. 17. 0 Lawful, or £6,146. 9. 3 York. "Lawful" described what was Lawful money in Connecticut. "Add $\frac{1}{3}$ to bring into York" meant that the fraction, if added, made the equivalent in the prevailing currency in the State of New York.

Some of the comments of the Auditors were amusing:—

The within named..... is at a great distance but well known to Mr. John Foster who informes he directed him to charge at the rates allowed others vizt 10 shillings pr Cart Load &c & believes he has charged them agreeable to directions.

For the Remainder of the Acct we Leave it to ye Consideration of the Convention at the Same time Make no Doubt But that all the Sums were paid as the Gentns Character is Well Known to us, but Doubting our Authority to Determin it have Referd it as above

THE RETURN BEGINS

As the theater of the War, in 1780, had shifted to the Southern States, the British Troops were withdrawn from the Eastern end of Long Island; thus giving a chance for the return of the Refugees. In March of that year, John and Timothy Wells had leave to return from Preston to Long Island (Ap. D. 46. Ap. E. 57-59); and, in April, Dr. Silas Halsey petitioned to return to his home in Southampton, reciting that the enemy had "withdrawn from that part of the Island and left them in the peaceable enjoyment of their estates." (Ap. E. 54-56)

On May 29, 1781, Maj. John Davis wrote from Saybrook, to Gov. Clinton, that many of the inhabitants of Suffolk County had requested him and Capt. John Grinnell to apply to the Governor for permission "to move off from Long Island into the State of New York." (Clinton Pap., 6. 915) On Aug. 20, following, Capt. Grinnell wrote, from Danbury, to Gov. Clinton that he was waiting for the decision of Gov. Trumbull and Council as to whether Gov. Clinton's Permits to sundry persons to remove from Long Island shall be useful to them; that Col. Floyd had advised that the goods be landed at Fairfield, instead of Middletown; and that men were needed on the Island, to keep the plunderers from robbing the wagons. Capt. [George] Codwise, he thought, would be a proper man to command them. As soon as he had Gov. Trumbull's answer, Capt. Grinnell asserted, he expected that Lt. [Caleb] Brewster would convey him across the Sound. (Same ref., 7. 237, 238)

These movements toward Long Island, with many others, anticipated the notice of Sir Guy Carleton, on Nov. 19, 1783, that he intended to evacuate all of the Island East of Hempstead on Nov. 22. (Same ref., 8. 283)

A SAD HOME-COMING

In Chapter 19 we have seen how the gloom of the dwellers in New York City was changed to joy when the enemy finally departed. There had been losses of property and of business; but all was forgotten for the moment in the satisfaction of once more possessing the City. Fire-works, illuminations, entertainments, the presence of the Commander-in-Chief of the Army — all these added to the spectacular effect.

There was nothing spectacular on Long Island. The situation there was a tragedy. Nearly all of the Refugees were men of small means. They returned one by one; not in large groups, as was the case in New York. They found their properties wasted, and often destroyed altogether. Their average age was older than that of the Refugees from the City; and, in discouragement and poverty, they must begin life anew. And while New York suffered beyond the fate of any other City; yet Long Island suffered more than any other rural district, save perhaps the Valley of the Mohawk.

The records of mortgages for the years immediately following the War show that many men who had been wealthy were forced to borrow money on their lands. Among these were: John Gardiner, Capt. Peter Hallock, Jonathan Osman, Obadiah Hudson, Parshall Howell and the Corwins. Most of these men were unable to weather the storm, and lost everything. Many fine properties that had been handed down from father to son for more than a hundred years passed to other families. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 133)

BACK TO LONG ISLAND
(From "Historic Huntington")

THE ENEMY DEFAULTS

Much of this suffering and loss might have been avoided if the enemy had paid the obligations to which he was committed by giving receipts for property that had been taken.

Sir Guy Carleton, in Apr., 1783, when Evacuation was at hand, instituted a Board of Commissioners for the purpose of adjusting such demands against the British Army as had not been settled. The Claims of the people of the Town of Huntington alone, for property taken from them for the use of the Army, which were supported by the receipts of British Officers, or by other evidence, amounted to £7249, 9s. 6d.; and this amount was not supposed to comprise one fourth part of the property which was taken from the people of Huntington without compensation. These Claims were sent to New York to be laid before the Board of Commissioners. But the Board sailed for England without attending to them; and the owners of the property were left without redress. If the other Towns on the Island suffered half so much in proportion as Huntington, the loss sustained by Long Island alone, during the War, exceeded $500,000. (Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 119)

This exceeded the loss in Westchester County; which was estimated at £70,000., or $175,000. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.," p. 251) There was probably further loss in Westchester, as the above related only to damages by the American Army.

INGRATITUDE OF THE STATE

Nor was this all that the end of the War brought to the inhabitants of Long Island. Wood (Same ref., p. 120), goes on to say, in substance, that much as the people of Long Island had suffered from the oppression and cruelty of their invaders, they were not permitted to taste the sweets of liberty until it was in some degree embittered by the unkindness of their friends. It was their unhappy lot, resulting principally from their geographical position, to be abandoned, in a great measure, by their Country, and to fall into the power of the enemy. It was their misfortune and not their fault, that they were not within the American lines. They had been disarmed, and were now in subjection to the enemy, instead of being employed in the field against him.

For all this, an Act was passed, Mar. 17, 1783, by which those on Long Island, as in other places, who should be prosecuted for damages to the property of others, which had been committed even under Military Orders, were prohibited from pleading that matter in justification, or giving it in evidence under the general issue, to prevent or diminish a recovery. But, still worse, by an Act of May 6, 1784, a tax to raise £100,000, was levied upon the Southern District (the portion of Long Island being £37,000) to be appropriated as a compensation to other parts of the State; the former not having been in a condition to take an active part in the War against the common enemy. (Wood, as above)

The Refugee, John Lloyd, Jr., stated that he expected to be thus taxed. (Ap. E. 137)

Wood (as above) justly observes that both of these Acts were flagrant violations of the doctrine of equal rights, and of the immutable principles of justice. They were partial and oppressive in their operation. They proved that an abuse of power is almost always consequent upon the possession of it; and that such abuse is not confined to those only, who, in every age and nation, have been stigmatized as the enemies of free government. This sentiment is concurred in by Hedges ("Bridge Hampton Address" — 1910, p. 59); and by Thompson. ("Long Island," I. 211-214)

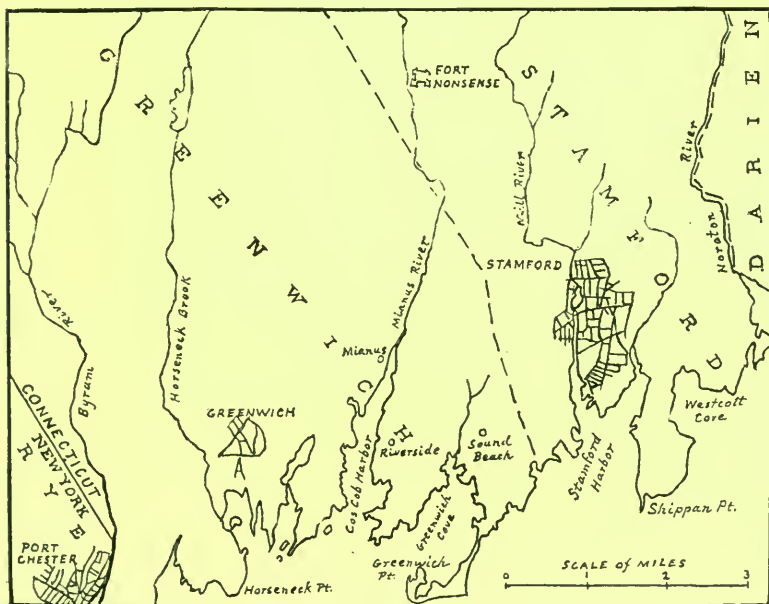

FOURTH DIVISION—LOCAL CONDUCT OF THE WAR

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE — WESTCHESTER COUNTY AND CONNECTICUT

The six Chapters (21-26) of this Fourth Division might have followed the Second Division in order to close the active part of the War. But they have been deferred until now because it seemed best to interpolate, in the Third Division, the story of the Refugees—the main object of this work. After learning who the Refugees were, what they did and what became of them, we are ready to end the story of the Revolutionary War with incidents, local to Westchester County and Connecticut, in which many of the Refugees took a prominent part.

Maps of the coast lines of Long Island, along the Sound, and views of several of the harbors, may be found in Chapters 23-26. The vicinity of Stamford, and the mouth of the Connecticut River, are represented in this Chapter; while the coast line of Connecticut from Greenwich to Norwalk, the harbor of New London and the vicinity of Norwalk are shown in Chapter 26.

STRATEGIC IMPORTANCE OF WESTCHESTER

The County of Westchester, New York, stretches North from New York City along the Hudson River to Peekskill, at the beginning of the Highlands (Chap. 5); and North East, on Long Island Sound, to Port Chester. Midway between the River and the Sound are the heights of North Castle whither Washington retreated after the Battle of White Plains. (Chap. 4) Col. Tallmadge made them the center of his operations. (Chap. 26) A line of defensive works extended from Peekskill through North Castle to the vicinity of Stamford, in Connecticut. The camp and works at Redding, Connecticut, formed a reserve station at the rear. These works defended New England from attack by land. North of the works the hills rose higher, both in Westchester and in Connecticut — a region which the enemy never visited for fear that his base might be cut off. The sole exception was Tryon's Raid on Danbury. (Chap. 26)

Westchester, therefore, was a "buffer" between New York and New England. A portion of it, called "The Neutral Ground," owed allegiance to neither side. Here dwelt the British "Cow Boys" and the American "Skinners" — characters of such easy virtue that they would plunder Whigs and Tories alike and then meet to divide the spoil. The Cow Boys were assisted by a class known as "The Refugees." They, also, were Tories; and not to be confounded with the American Refugees from Long Island and New York City.

The Military organization of the Tories was under Col. James de Lancey who was captured, in 1777, and confined at Hartford; where the Whig Committee of the County begged that he be kept. (Clinton Pap., 2. 564-566) The Americans had several Regiments of Militia under Colonels Drake, Thomas, VanCortlandt, Crane, Ludington and Benedict ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," pp. 149, 204-217), which served the defensive works, and did scout duty along the shores of Long Island Sound. Many of the Refugees from Long Island served in these Regiments. The chief Raid of the enemy into Westchester took place in 1779, when Tarleton tried to capture Sheldon's Light Dragoons.*

THE DEFENCES OF CONNECTICUT

The trend of the Fortifications, noted above, was toward the South East; and at the extreme, on the Sound, somewhat ambitious works went by the name of "The Fort" said to have been laid out by Putnam. The location is about three and a half miles North West of Stamford. Later, and unappreciative, generations have called it "Fort Nonsense." It was anything but that; for not only did it serve its purpose as a part of the defensive chain, but it also proved its usefulness more than once. It was the one point, in this locality, which all of the enemy's raiders feared to put between themselves and their bases of retreat. Tryon dodged it in his Raids on Danbury and Ridgefield, in 1777; and on Norwalk, in 1779. (Chap. 26) After his attack on Greenwich, also in 1779, Tryon advanced toward Stamford which, already, had been warned by the fleeing Putnam. (Same ref.) Gen. Lee, in command of the American Troops, and supported by the Fort, made a stand on Palmer's Hill. Tryon crossed the Mianus River; but withdrew when he saw the strength of the position and the danger of a flank movement. At times, the Fort had a garrison of 800 men. It is still well preserved.

FORT NONSENSE — NEAR STAMFORD, CONN.

Stamford had a strategic position. The harbor lay between Palmer's Hill and Richmond Hill on the West, and Noroton Hill on the East. It was more secure than Greenwich at the West, Middlesex (now Darien) and Norwalk at the East, or Danbury and Ridgefield at the North. Here was a depot of supplies of Medical and Military stores; and here Hospitals for sick and wounded Continental soldiers were established. ("Picturesque Stamford," p. 76) Directly opposite to Huntington and Lloyd's Neck, on Long Island, it was a constant menace to the enemy at both places. Col. Tallmadge (See "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") made it a point of departure in his Raids on Long Island. (Chap. 26) Capt. Ebenezer Jones left the harbor on his celebrated adventure with a sloop of the enemy (Chap. 25); and Capt. Niles, of the famous "Spy" cruised between Stamford and Nantucket, in 1776. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 224.

Also Chap. 24) On Jan. 22, 1776, Gen. Lee, with 1,200 Continentals, came to Stamford; and there he remained while the Committee of Safety in New York City was declining the help of "outsiders" in preparing against the invasion of the enemy — a hesitation which was turned to acceptance by Gen. Waterbury. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 224. Also Chap. 3)

NEW LONDON

New London had the only Fortification on the Connecticut shore when the War began, and this was a small battery of nine guns. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 509, 510) As the War progressed, new defences were built, all of which were finally merged into Forts Trumbull and Griswold, but even these were helpless against the Raid of Arnold, in 1781. (Chap. 26) From 1776 to 1781, New

London was in constant fear of landings from the numerous Ships of the enemy which cruised through the Sound. It was natural to expect retaliation upon the port which harbored many of the American Privateers (Chap. 24); but nothing serious had taken place before Arnold came. (Caulkins "New London," pp. 524-534)

Capt. Nathaniel Shaw, Jr. (Ap. I. 11), was the trusted friend of Gov. Trumbull, and the confidential agent of the Continental Congress. About his old stone house centered the more important transactions of the War in this locality. The New London County Historical Society has been fortunate in securing the house for a permanent home. Within its walls are, the Chamber occupied by Washington, Trumbull and other distinguished guests; the tables on which Washington and his Officers dined after the siege of Boston, and before the troubles about New York commenced; and relics of Arnold while he was still loyal to the American cause. (See p. 84)

As Naval Officer of the Port, Capt. Shaw had charge of the exchanges of American Prisoners of War. (Chap. 11) He kept many of them at his house until they had recovered from their sufferings in New York City. It was while attending certain returned Prisoners that his wife, Lucretia, contracted a disease from which she died.

THE INTERIOR PROTECTED

While other places on the shore of Long Island Sound beside Stamford and New London were protected, none of them became prominent during the War except the Forts at New London, at the time of Arnold's Raid. (Chap. 26) The defences at Norwalk, Guilford and New Haven were inconsiderable (Same ref.); while the Fort at Saybrook was never attacked. And yet, however weak, all of these defences kept the British from penetrating the interior for fear of arousing the Militia by an Alarm; or of their retreat being cut off by the loss of their boats. So that their efforts were confined to Raids (Same ref.), or to Excursions like the capture of Rev. Moses Mather and his congregation. (Chap. 22)

Thus every one in Connecticut was safe, unless he dwelt within striking distance of the Sound. The upland communities knew no physical disturbance from the War. Middletown, Simsbury and Hartford held Prisoners in security. (Chap. 11) Even Lyme and Saybrook were exempt from disturbances. Gov. Trumbull (Chap. 1) carried on the conflict, for Connecticut, from his War Office, in Lebanon; while the women of Litchfield were secure when they melted the statue of George III. into bullets. (Chap. 9) As Hon. Henry P. Hedges wrote ("Southampton Address"—1890):

MOUTH OF THE CONNECTICUT RIVER
(Drawn specially for this work)

European travellers in America about the time of the Revolution wrote of their surprise at the attainments and the brilliant conversation of the women they met in public assemblies, surpassing the female leaders of society in the capitals of Europe. When at a brilliant assemblage of the President and high government officials and foreign ministers at Philadelphia in 1790, the English Minister said courteously to Senator Tracy, of Connecticut,

"Your American women would be admired even at St. James;" his reply was—"Yes, I have no doubt of it,—they are admired even at Litchfield Hill."

Middletown, Connecticut, was the resort of many of the American and French Army Officers when they were not in actual service—which circumstance may account for the eminently polite and hospitable character of the inhabitants to the present time. (Nicoll H. Dering's MS. Record of the Life of Thomas Dering—about 1818).

OTHER INCIDENTS OF THE CONTEST

Toward the close of actual hostilities, in 1781, the march of Rochambeau and his Frenchmen from Newport to the Hudson River was an incident which deserves mention. This took place in the summer, after the important Conference at the Webb House, at Wethersfield. (Chap. 6) The route of Rochambeau was across the whole State of Connecticut. At Saybrook, he was entertained by Col. John Ely and his family. At Stamford, he made his headquarters at the historic Webb Tavern, sometimes known as the Old Washington House. (See p. 84)

It is said that, Lafayette held a reception at the Davenport House on Davenport Ridge, about five miles North of Stamford.*

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO — PREDATORY EXCURSIONS

From that moment [the abandonment of Long Island] the two coasts were hostile; and an inveterate system of smuggling, marauding, plundering and kidnapping took place on both sides, in comparison with which a common state of honorable warfare might be taken for peace and good neighborhood. On the Connecticut side this was done under the covert of secrecy. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 522)

In Chapter 17 it has been related that, at first, the Local Authorities of Connecticut controlled the movement of the Refugees across the Sound; and that, after several months, the control passed from them to a Committee of the New York Provincial Congress. It was quite easy for the Refugees from Long Island to find an asylum in Connecticut. Not so, in regard to their temporary return; as they soon found to their consternation.

DIFFICULT TO RETURN TO LONG ISLAND

While the Civil Authorities of Connecticut had been superseded as agents through whom the Refugees might go back, the Authorities were alive as to the trips the Refugees desired to make to their former homes. So we find the Authority and Selectmen of Guilford, Branford, Haddam, and other Towns, giving permission to return, temporarily, while, at Saybrook, the power was assumed by Capt. John Shipman, Jr., Commandant of the Fort. In other localities, it was delegated to Col. Jabez Chapman, Col. St. John, Col. William Ledyard, Brig. Gen. Andrew Ward, Brig. Gen. Gold S. Silliman and Jabez Hamlin, the Naval Officer at Middletown.

On May 5, 1777, Gov. Trumbull addressed the Committee of Saybrook in answer to its query for instructions, through Obadiah Jones Chairman of the Committee having in charge the temporary return of the Refugees. He thought the Refugees should apply to the State of New York for directions as to their removal. He said that he should not, and advised the Committee not to, give Permits for such removal; and as to the removal of stock, "it will be serving the enemy." (Ap. A. 46) By this time, the Local Authorities of Connecticut were no longer allowed to give Permits, for that power had passed over to the General Assembly; but the Local Authorities might recommend that Permits be issued. In January, 1780, the Connecticut Legislature passed a Resolution giving to the Governor, and to the Council of Safety in the recess of the Assembly, the authority to grant Permits if the persons applying were well recommended by the Civil Authority in, and Selectmen of, the Towns in which such Refugees resided; and "always provided they never give permission to carry on any kind of provision except stores for the voyage, nor to bring off any British goods or merchandize." (Ap. D. 43)

Permits to go to Long Island by a Flag of Truce became more and more difficult to obtain as the War progressed. Much of the difficulty arose from the Predatory Excursions and the Illicit Trade. (Chap. 23) Finally, Permits were given sparingly by Gov. Trumbull. The Army Officers in Connecticut required good reasons before they would grant requests. Gen. David Waterbury was one of the most strict of the Officers; and he spoke with authority. (Ap. D. 49) In the end, but few Flags were allowed; except for the exchange of Prisoners. (Chap. 11) A fac simile of a British Permit for a Flag of Truce is on p. 179; Gov. Trumbull's Permit, on p. 203.

SAD PLIGHT OF THE REFUGEES

There was good reason for occasional visits to Long Island by the Refugees. The greater part of them had left their homes on short notice, and with little provision for the future in money, clothing or food. Supplies of all must be had. They had been forced to abandon everything they could not lease or sell; and even the leases were of little value. Stock, which could neither be taken away nor sold, was abandoned. The temporary return meant an almost hopeless effort to collect a rental; the taking of a pitiful sum in barter; or ruinous mortgages on their land, the sole basis of their prosperity. While farming, as then conducted, was somewhat crude, yet meat, hides and tallow were among the more valuable assets; and shorn of these, they suffered. The Refugees were also deprived of hay and cordwood, which were easily transported by sloop along the Sound. But they had lost their vessels, and they were compelled to furnish both wood and hay to the enemy.

To these deprivations, add the suffering of their families from insufficient food and clothing, and the situation of the Refugees was most pitiful. Listen to the words of three of them:

Your Memorialist was drove from the City of New York on the arrival of the British Troops with a large Family, and at a very Considerable Expence, arriv'd at this Place where he has Resided for more than Two Years past.

From a Constant attachment to the American cause, he was obliged with his wife & family of small children to fly from his home in New York in the year 1776 & to take refuge in the Country, to the total stop and ruin of his business.

Being firmly attached to the American Cause Took an Active part on principle of her Cause Being Just, and fearing we Should fall a Sacrifice to the Relentless Rage of more than a Barbarous foe — removed with our wives and Little ones into this State for refuge.

See, also, Chapter 20.

ABUSE OF PRIVILEGES

The earlier errands of the Refugees to Long Island for supplies were necessary, as has been stated above; and the privilege of returning temporarily was not abused. Gradually, however, the zeal of some of them to injure the enemy led them to injure their own friends also. So that, even if the Refugees returned to procure supplies, they were liable to be robbed before they could return to Connecticut. It was then but a step to an active participation in the Illicit Trade. The Predatory Excursions, therefore, became a connecting link between the legitimate efforts of the Refugees to procure supplies and the illegitimate Trade.

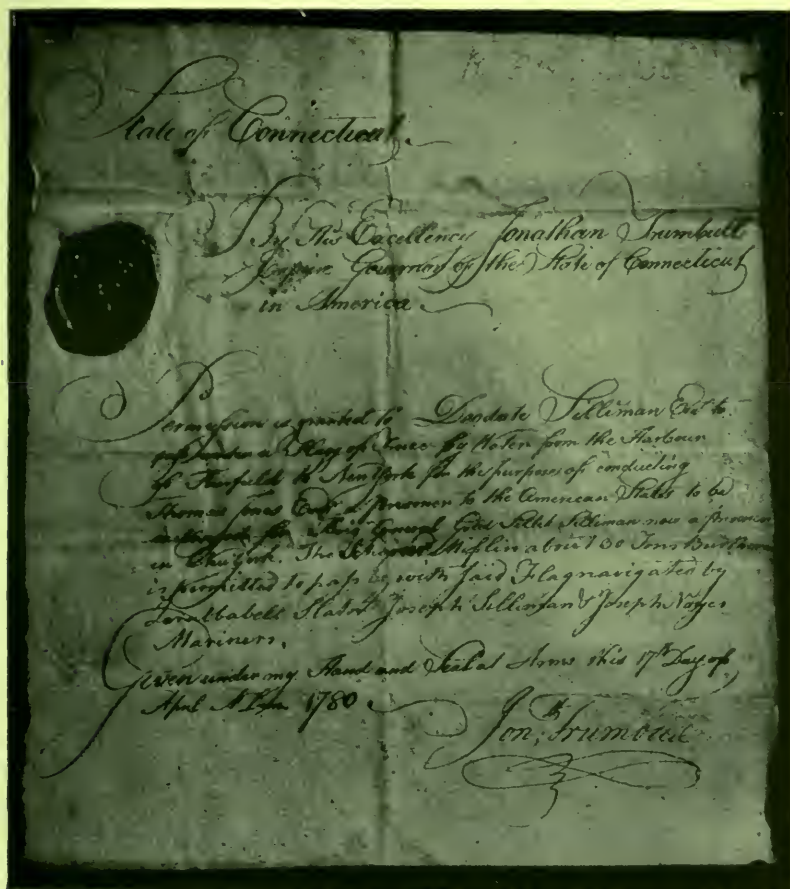

As early as January, 1776, John Brickell, of Queens County, complained that he had been robbed. (Ap. A. 45)

Rev. Samuel Buell (Ap. I. 2), on Sept. 22, 1776, while the Refugees were still fleeing to Connecticut, wrote "The people are as a torch on fire at both ends, which will be speedily consumed; for the Continental Whigs carry off their stock and produce, and the British punish them for allowing it to go. I hope the Whigs will not oppress the oppressed, but let the stock alone."

On Sept. 2, 1777, the Connecticut Committee of Safety approved a commission, issued to Capt. Peter Griffing, to guard the sea coast and Sound and Islands on the coast of that State, and to make Prisoners of such as he shall take in arms or carrying on War against these States. (Ap. D. 8) But, as there was complaint that Capt. Griffing had plundered certain of the Refugees, he was notified to appear before the Governor and Council on Aug. 18, 1778. (Ap. D. 8, 12) Gov. Trumbull also notified Capt. Jesse Leavenworth, on Aug. 4, 1778, to restore certain property which he had taken. (Ap. D. 12) On Aug. 11, Gov. Trumbull wrote to Capt. Jonathan Vail and Capt. Jeremiah Rogers as to complaints, which had been made, and directed them to appear before him and the Council on Aug. 18. (Ap. D. 16) The Governor also, on Aug. 11, notified Capt. Peter Hallock and Capt. Jonathan Salmon to restore certain property which they had taken. (Ap.

D. 15) All of these Captains, with the exception of Leavenworth, were Refugees.

Ebenezer Dayton, called by the enemy "the head of the banditti," made many daring Excursions from Connecticut. So completely were the inhabitants terrorized by "the Whale-Boat men" that they placed iron bars at their doors and windows. And the worst of it was that the outrages often came from those who were supposed to be the friends of the outraged. This is nowhere else so clearly set forth as in the Memorial of Jonathan Havens and several other Refugees. (Ap. E. 4-9)

THE PRACTICE APPROVED

What should be expected of the private soldier, or of the non-combatant, when Gen. Parsons wrote this, in December 1776: "to encourage the brave and spirited to enter the service, the General promises them all the plunder they shall take from the enemy, to be equally divided among the officers and men according to their pay." The abuses which followed led Washington, on Jan. 21, 1777, to limit "the indulgence to scouting parties as a reward for the extraordinary fatigue, hardship and danger they were exposed to." (Hall's "Life of Parsons," pp. 86, 87)

Even the Courts of Connecticut sustained the legality of the practice. Parsons brought a test case — William Scudder of Long Island vs. Lt. Col. Gray. The decision was that private property, within the Lines of the enemy, was liable to be plundered by any subject of the United States. On May 2, 1779, Parsons sent a copy of the proceedings, and his protest, to President Jay, of the Continental Congress; but it is evident that the Congress did nothing. A letter addressed by Parsons to Washington, on May 15, took strong ground against the plundering; and this letter, also, seemed to have no effect. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 242-244) The plain truth was that the plundering was backed by public sentiment.

At a meeting of the Connecticut Council of Safety, May 22, 1779, it was voted, That his Excellency the Governor be desired to deliver to Col. Davenport three blank commissions to be by him filled up for persons to go to Long Island to take and capture the enemies of the United American States: Such persons as commissioned to give sufficient bonds not to plunder any of the inhabitants of said Island or to exceed the instructions that may be given them. (Conn. State Records, 2.346)

EXCESSES OF THE PRACTICE

"At 2 o'clock last Thursday morning, a party of twelve rebels seized at Coram, in Suffolk County, two wagons loaded with dry goods, the property of Obediah Wright of Southampton. These marauders had been several days on the Island, visited most parts, and committed many robberies; especially at the house of Col. Floyd, Setauket, which they robbed of goods, and cash to a considerable amount; and took some property of Mr. Dunbar, who rides down the Island occasionally, and happened to lodge in the house that night." ("N. Y. Gazette," Feb. 16, 1778 — as quoted in Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 206) On Oct. 22 and 23, 1778, Eleazer Whitman and Simeon Crossman robbed Arthur Dinge, Nehemiah Heart, Jr. and Philip Platt, all of Huntington. (Clinton Pap., 4. 199, 200)

Lt. Caleb Brewster wrote from Fairfield, Connecticut, Aug. 20, 1781, to Gov. Clinton that, on the 14th inst., about midnight, two boats landed at Miller's Place. The crew of one of them demanded entrance at the house of Capt. Ebenezer Miller; and asked for his arms; which were given up. His son, on opening an upper window, was shot dead. The other crew visited Mr. Andrew Miller, and when he opened the door "one of the party struck him with the breech of his gun, broke the bone over his eye, tore his eye all to pieces, broke his cheek bone and left him for dead." Other parties plundered the houses of Simon Flint and Gilbert Flint, at Oyster Bay; and hung the latter until he was almost dead. Still other parties went to Great Neck and treated Maj. Richard Thorne and Esqr. Coulne in the same way. "There's not a night but they are over if boates can cross; people cant ride the roades but what they are robbed." (Clinton Pap., 7. 233, 234)

On Sept. 21, 1781, a number of the inhabitants of Southold and Shelter Island protested to Gov. Clinton against the plunderers. They had been obliged to make Prisoners of some of those lawless men. On Friday, the 14th, two boats loads of them, from Connecticut, took sheep from Joseph Havens, at Southampton; and on the 15th they ransacked the houses of Nicoll Havens, Capt. James Havens, and the Widow Payne, on Shelter Island. On Sunday, the 16th, they landed at Southold, robbed David Gardiner, knocked down Joseph Peck, beat Mr. L'Hommedieu and his wife ("aged persons") and threatened to fire the house of the Widow Moore. The complaint was signed, among others, by the Refugees Judge Samuel Landon, James Havens and Joseph Peck. (Same ref., 7. 343-346)

Excursions of this sort were not confined to Long Island and Connecticut. In the neighboring County of Westchester, New York, we read that on Nov. 18, 1777, Gen. Tryon sent Troops to burn the houses at Phillips Manor, on the Hudson. The women and children were turned into the street, and the men were made Prisoners. In retaliation, the house of Oliver DeLancey was burned. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 127-132) Both the Whigs and the Tories had representatives among the roving bands which carried on this kind of warfare.

Like all Tragedies, the Predatory Excursions were occasionally relieved by a Comedy. Certain raiders of the enemy were sighted one Sunday just before they reached Sag Harbor. It was time for the evening service; in fact, the bell was ringing. All of the village maidens were told to join the choir, whether or not they could sing. The visitors were attracted to the Church by the melody; and the musical service was unusually long. In the meantime, the parents had buried the family silver and the visitors lost the object of their raid. To this day, the silver is occasionally uncovered in the back yards of Sag Harbor.

EXCURSIONS AFTER PRISONERS

Gen. Sir Henry Clinton, on May 1, 1779, put Ens. Glover in charge of eight men with the order to cross the Sound and capture Gen. Gold Selleck Silliman at his home among the hills of Fairfield County. This was done in the night. On returning, Colonel Simcoe of the Queen's Rangers cried out, "Have you got him?" "Yes!" "Lost any men?" "No!" "That's well! Your Sillimans are not worth a man, nor your Washingtons!"

It was then the turn of Gen. Silliman's friends to capture a Tory on Long Island. This they did, under one Hawley, on Nov. 6, by breaking into the house of Judge Thomas Jones, who lived at Fort Neck, now South Oyster Bay. (Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 646) They re-crossed the Sound, and took their Prisoner to Fairfield; where, history records, Mrs. Silliman gave him at least one breakfast. (Schenck's "Fairfield," 2. 378 et. seq.)

Gen. Silliman being a Prisoner at Flatbush, Long Island, a proposition that he be exchanged for Judge Jones was made Nov. 25, 1779. Gen. Silliman approved of it: and, on Nov. 27, it was approved by the British Commander-in-Chief, as attested by John André, Dy. Adj. Gen. (Clinton Pap., 5. 387, 388) The exchange was evidently not effected until April, 1780, when Gov. Trumbull gave permission to Deodate Silliman and three Mariners to convey Judge Jones by water for the purpose of an exchange. According to Henry C. Platt ("Huntington Address,"—1876) the exchange was made in the middle of the Sound, opposite Huntington. (P. 203)

Rev. Blackleach Burritt (Ap. I. 2), of Greenwich, was taken Prisoner, in June, 1779, by an excursion of the enemy. He was confined in one of the sugar-houses in New York City for 14 months. Rivington's "Gazette," of June 23, had this to say:

Some days ago a party of rebels came over to Treadwell's farm, Long Island, conducted by a Maj. [Jesse] Brush, and carried off Justice Hewlett and Capt. Youngs. Since which time the [Tory] Refugees went over to Greenwich in Connecticut, and returned with 13 prisoners, among whom was a Presbyterian Parson, named Burrit, an egregious Rebel, who has frequently taken arms, and is of great repute in that Colony. 48 head of cattle and 4 horses were brought in with the prisoners. The [British] Militia guard also have taken a whale boat with three solitary Jonathans [rebels] on board.

Historically, the most interesting capture of Prisoners took place at Middlesex (now Darien), Connecticut, July 22, 1781. It was on a Sunday, and the Rev. Moses Mather had just opened the afternoon service in the Church, of which he had been the Minister for many years. Without any warning, the Church was surrounded by a band of Tories who had crossed the Sound in seven boats. Nearly all of the visitors were former residents in Middlesex; and then living, temporarily, on Lloyd's Neck. They were led by a former neighbor, Capt. Frost. A summons to surrender was given. The men and older youths were tied, by twos, arm in arm. Only a few escaped. With the Minister at the head, the line of march was taken to the boats. After reaching Lloyd's Neck, some were allowed to return on parole.

Authorities differ as to the number of the captives; but it was probably about 50. Twenty-six were taken to the Provost, in had been made on Sept. 16, for the exchange of Dr. Mather. The latter was the special target of Capt. Cunningham, keeper of the Provost; who announced, from time to time, that the Doctor was to be executed. The physical comfort of Dr. Mather was attended to by Mrs. Irving, mother of Washington Irving, who sent supplies of food and clothing. Not all of the 26 Prisoners returned to Middlesex, for some had died in the Provost. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 210-212. Lossing's "Field Book," 1. 414. "Life of Parsons," p. 401.) Huntington (p. 227) also states that previously, on Aug. 3, 1779, Dr. Mather and four sons had been captured at the parsonage and carried off to New York by eight Tories, of whom five were the Doctor's parishoners.

Moses Mather V. D. M.

EFFORTS TO END THE PRACTICE

On Dec. 25, 1778, Gov. Clinton wrote to Gen. Parsons, in reply to a letter, that he had always been opposed to the sending of small parties to Long Island, except on particular occasions, and then under the conduct of a discreet officer, "because our friends were sometimes plundered by them." (Clinton Pap., 4. 199) He had given no authority to any of the parties, he wrote to Gen. Putnam on the same date. (Same ref., 4. 424)

On Oct. 2, 1779, both branches of the New York Legislature concurred in a Resolution requesting Gov. Clinton to issue a Proclamation forbidding all persons to plunder the inhabitants of Long Island, or any other locality in the power of the enemy. It was declared that any offender should be punished to the utmost rigor of the law. It was further requested of the Governor that he should ask the Executives of Connecticut and New Jersey to issue similar Proclamations. This action produced little effect. In fact, says Onderdonk, the situation was still worse after the Spring of 1780 when the British Garrisons were withdrawn from Oyster Bay, Huntington and Brookhaven, and the works were demolished. ("Queens Co.—2d Ser.," p. 15)

On Apr. 10, 1781, Ezra L'Hommedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton; from Middletown, relative to an edict by the Governor and Council of Connecticut giving permission to go on Long Island and take British goods from the inhabitants. By this means many good Whigs there have lost their all; and, some of them have come over to Connecticut to see if the Governor of one State has a right to take the property of the inhabitants of another State. He suggested that the Governor should remonstrate with Gov. Trumbull. (Clinton Pap., 6. 757, 758) In consequence of this, on Apr. 16, Gov. Clinton informed Gov. Trumbull of the facts and asked his assistance in suppressing the Raids. (Same ref., pp. 778, 779) On Apr. 27, Gov. Trumbull replied that the commanders of boats were under bonds of £2,000 each to follow instructions; that if the people of Long Island had suffered, they had their remedy at law; that the design of issuing commissions was to suppress dangerous intercourse; and that, if the good intention had been contravened, the perpetrators should be punished. (Same ref., pp. 803, 804) On June 7, Benjamin and Selah Havens wrote from Moriches to Gov. Clinton that they had been robbed by Capt. [Zebulon?] Stow, of New London, to the amount of £1,200; and that they had a list of the goods. They prayed the Governor to have the goods restored to them. (Same ref., 7. 19)

Both branches of the New York Legislature again took up the matter, on June 28, 1781. A Resolution was passed declaring that the inhabitants of Long Island had a right to protection from the State of New York. The Governor was requested to lay the matter before the Congress of the United States; and to write to the Governor of Connecticut, showing the unhappy consequences which had arisen from his commissions authorizing persons to land and to take the property of the inhabitants of Long Island. The Clinton Papers (7. 176) state that, on Aug. 7, the Congress requested Gov. Trumbull to revoke all commissions to seize goods on Long Island, or elsewhere in the State of New York. On Aug. 20, Gov. Clinton wrote to Gov. Trumbull that he supposed the commissions to cross over to the Island had been given for the good of the common cause; but he feared the evils were more than the good. He quoted the opinion of the Legislature that such commissions were illegal, and asked Gov. Trumbull to reconsider the matter. (Clinton Pap., 8. 234-236)

Abraham Davenport had already written to Gen. Washington, from Stamford, Connecticut, on Aug. 10. He mentioned the exposed situation of that locality; and stated that, within a short time, several inhabitants had been killed or wounded, and 60 had been made captive and robbed of their property. He asked that a part of the Army might be detached as a guard. ("Life of Parsons," p. 391)

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE — THE ILLICIT TRADE

The Predatory Excursions, as we have seen in the preceding Chapter, were often undertaken as a means of securing property to be used in a nefarious barter. At first, that is early in 1777, certain legitimate commerce was allowed. In February, Ezra L'Hommedieu was permitted to transport a cargo of rum, sugar &c. to Connecticut. (Ap. A. 35) In May, 1778, Col. John Hulbert and David Gelston applied for leave to hire teams to bring from Boston to Connecticut, "sundry goods and merchandise;" but they were refused. (Ap. E. 3) By this time, numerous Refugees had petitioned for leave to go to Long Island for provisions, grain and flax for their families. Such permissions were usually granted, but subject to inspection; and further stipulations were made — for instance:

To search said boat and see that no goods, provisions or money are on board at the time of her departure, and that on their return they shall exhibit to said Shipman a true manifest of the grain they shall have brought from said Long Island on board said boat. (Ap. D. 28)

To carry on no provisions except for stores, nor bring off any kind of British goods or merchandise. (Ap. D. 47)

To examine and see that no articles are introduced from the enemy and contrary to law. (Ap. D. 33)

To see to it that no illicit trade or doings be carried on colour of said permission. (Ap. D. 35)

To take care that said boat be strictly inspected at the time of her departure, to prevent any provision being carried off in said boat except what is necessary for the support of the crew during their voyage, and also again to inspect said boat before any article is unladed on the return thereof, and if any British goods or merchandizes are brought therein to seize the same. (Ap. E. 26)

HOW THE TRADE WAS CONDUCTED

The reason for these restrictions was that a condition had come about which was not at all creditable to any of the parties concerned. The boycott of English goods was the first protest against the Stamp Act and other measures of which the Americans complained. But, the War once commenced, there seemed to be no principle involved in securing the former luxuries. Tea from China tasted better than tea from sassafras or sage. Silks from India were preferred to homespun. These, and similar, articles had never been given up by the Loyalists. It was easy for them to secure what they wanted in exchange for produce, or anything else they had to offer; and it continued to be easy for them all through the War.

But for the Americans, especially for those outside the Lines, it was not so easy. Their wants were satisfied, in part, by the sale of prizes which were brought to friendly ports by American Privateers. The supply from this source did not equal the demand. So there sprang up a new line of business known as the "Illicit Trade," or the "London Trade," the operations of which extended from the Thames River, in Connecticut, to the Shrewsbury River, in New Jersey, — the center of the traffic being Long Island Sound, and the chief actors being the whale-boat men. The Trade consisted in buying imported goods in New York City, professedly for pro-British customers; in carrying the same to Long Island; and in smuggling them over to Connecticut to be exchanged for provisions. Or, the order would be reversed. A boat with provisions would leave Connecticut, or Long Island; and, through a secret meeting with a boat out from New York City, an exchange of provisions for English goods was made.

What was undertaken, at first, in a spirit of adventure soon grew to a size both enormous and profitable. The owner of a store on Long Island would arrange to be robbed by one of the Predatory Excursions mentioned in the last Chapter. The owner of a boat would allow himself and his load to be captured. In both cases the property seized was confiscated and sold, or exchanged, for the benefit of all who were in the plot. And when there was no collusion, the robbers having secured their trading capital for nothing, made a clear profit on everything for which their ill-gotten gains had been exchanged. The hardship of this kind of "trading" was shown conspicuously in the case of the Refugees: Dr. William Lawrence (Ap. B. 30, 31. Ap. D. 42); and Richard Seaman. (Ap. D. 26. Ap. E. 119-123) The latter case, more than any other on record, gives detailed information as to the number of points involved. Then there was the pathetic story of Samuel Clark who went on the bond of Obadiah Wright (the latter having been prosecuted for carrying on the Illicit Trade), both Clark and Wright being Refugees (Ap. E. 189-192); and, included in this, the affidavits of Joshua Hobart, implicating not only himself, but Seaman, Wright and others. (Ap. E. 192) The latter reference illustrates the various complications of the Trade.

PERMISSION AND CONNIVANCE

Legitimate trade, or the removal of one's household goods, had no chance when opposed by armed bands. Everything of this nature had to be protected by special permission; as in the cases of Elias Parshall and Samuel Hazard. (Ap. D. 33, 37) On May 3, 1781, Ezra L'Homedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton in favor of David Gardiner and Nathaniel Fanning whose goods had been taken under a pretext. (Clinton Pap., 6. 830, 831) To such an extreme was this sort of enterprise carried that murder was sometimes committed. Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.") states that in August, 1783, a boat's crew visited Setauket and killed Capt. Solomon Davis who had been commander of a vessel in the London Trade.

Maj. Benjamin Tallmadge relates his adventure with one of the American armed ships, the "Shuldham," in the Winter of 1782-83. Hearing that the ship was due in Norwalk on a certain day, laden with English goods, he met her on her arrival. He informed the Captain of his suspicions. Whereupon the Captain weighed anchor and ran across the Sound nearly to Lloyd's Neck before he could be persuaded to return, by the threats of Tallmadge.

SCENE OF MUCH OF THE ILLICIT TRADE

On reaching Norwalk once more, the Captain disappeared; and Tallmadge found that the goods in the hold tallied with his invoice. ("Memoir of Tallmadge," pp. 75-77)

Onderdonk ("Scrap Book"—1851. N. Y. City Pub. Lib'y, pp. 50, 51) remarks that the State of Connecticut connived at this Trade for a time; but revoked permission, in 1781. The date was earlier. In April, 1779, the State revoked all licenses issued by Civil Authorities and Selectmen to Refugees and others to go from Connecticut to any place in the possession of the enemy; for the reason that such licenses "have been abused for the purposes of carrying on a clandestine and Illicit Trade with the enemies of the United States, and to keep up an unwarrantable and dangerous intercourse with them." (Ap. D. 22) This was followed, in May, by a law declaring the forfeiture of all goods imported into the State from the territory possessed by the enemy unless the owner could show that said goods were not in transit to or from the enemy. (Ap. D. 23) Under this law, in 1780, Rev. David Rose asked a permit to visit Long Island "and procure proof that certain captured goods were bought, and not captured, on Long Island." (Ap. F. 118)

POPULARITY OF THE TRADE

Apparently, these enactments had no effect upon the existence of the Trade. Everybody, from the highest to the lowest, seemed to carry it on. The State of New York winked at the Trade in order to procure clothing for the Army. The British allowed it, so far as it would yield cattle and provisions, although they forbade any but a Loyal subject to carry goods out of New York City. The mixed bands which carried on the Trade were composed of Whigs, Tories, Refugees, American and British soldiers, and camp followers from both Armies. So that, whenever an investigation was ordered it could not proceed far without hitting friends of the party, or the power, which was making the investigation.

And there seemed to be no disgrace in the practice; for nothing popular is ever disgraceful. It is mentioned as, a matter of fact, that the Refugee William Hart was engaged in the Trade. (Ap. F. 128) Capt. John Conkling had a pass from Connecticut "to cross the Sound in the Illicit Trade." (Ap. F. 117) Even Governors Clinton and Trumbull seemed to use the Trade to secure Clothing for the Army. (Ap. E. 192. Also Chap. 8) And, as a climax, in 1780, Dr. George Howell and Capt. Jesse Leavenworth were seized as participants in the Illicit Trade, "but showed a permit from the President of the Continental Congress." (Ap. F. 119)

DISGRACE AND DISAPPROVAL

There was, however, a certain disgrace if the enterprising agents were caught.

Akin to this marauding system [See Chap. 22] was the contraband trade—an illicit dealing with the enemy and furnishing them with supplies for the sake of their gold, and their goods. This was not often carried on by the Tories * * for they were too narrowly watched to allow of the risk; but by men who were Patriots in pretension, but yet lovers of money, rather than lovers of their Country. This trade was entered into by many people who were otherwise considered fair and honorable in all their dealings; but if discovered by their countrymen, they were marked for opprobrium and insult. A more odious occupation could not be mentioned, nor could anything be said of a man better calculated to hold him up to public indignation than to call him "a Long Island Trader." (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 522, 523)

That Gen. Washington disapproved of the Illicit Trade is shown in his correspondence with Gen. Parsons, in 1779. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 274, 275) On Oct. 14, 1780, Parsons wrote to Col. Eliphalet Lockwood, complaining of the Guards of the latter, and stating "There's not a guard on the Coast but is taxed with being concerned in the Trade." (Same ref., pp. 300, 301) On Mar.

A SAFE SHELTER FOR THE ILLICIT TRADE

(Photograph by Belle J. E. Rowell)

13, 1781, Parsons wrote to Gov. Trumbull enclosing the examinations of 47 men belonging to Greenwich, Stamford, Stanwich and Norwalk — all of whom were concerned in supplying the enemy, and in Illicit Commerce. He asked the Governor how far he should proceed in apprehending the persons named. (Same ref., pp. 343-345) Gen. David Waterbury, also, was active in suppressing Illicit Trade, disguised under Flags of Truce. (Ap. D. 49)

EFFECT OF THE EMBARGO

The "Embargo Act," passed by the State of New York, Mar. 14, 1778, was responsible for some of the Illicit Trade. This measure forbade the export of grain and flour from New York to the less productive States of New England. Protests and retaliatory laws followed in Connecticut; but, in New York, the law was quite rigidly enforced. In 1780, a Convention in Boston recommended to the several States which had Embargo Acts, a repeal of such acts; but a continuance of the Embargo on provisions carried by water — so as to prevent the Illicit Trade. ("Mag. Am. Hist'y," Mar. 1884, p. 224) The Embargo was removed, on Aug. 25, 1780, by a Proclamation in which Gov. Clinton urged vigilance in preventing all Illicit Trade with the enemy. (Clinton Pap., 6. 174-176) On Sept. 30, Gov. Trumbull issued a Proclamation repealing the Inland Embargo Acts of Connecticut. This led to the repeal of the Embargo Act by the Legislature of New York, June 21, 1781. In October, 1781, the Legislature of Connecticut debated the amendment, or repeal, of the laws of that State "respecting Embargo." (Conn. Archives — Rev'y War — 21.356½)

PREVENTION OF THE TRADE

It was not until Yorktown had surrendered, and a Truce existed while both sides were waiting for the Treaty of Peace, that the State of New York took a really serious action. The stable was locked after the horse had been stolen. A law of Apr. 13, 1782, "more effectually to prevent Illicit Trade with the enemy," provided that goods which shall have been brought from any place within the possession of the enemy into any part of the State not in the possession of the enemy shall be considered contraband. This was operative after May 1, 1782. On July 22, following, a law "To prevent Illicit Trade with the enemy" declared contraband all goods manufactured in Great Britain, imported into New York or any other State. By a law of Mar. 21, 1783, this law was to become inoperative when a Treaty of Peace had been declared between the United States and Great Britain.

Whatever may have been the result in New York, the Trade continued to flourish in Connecticut down to the very end. It is stated that British merchandize became so plenty, in 1783, that auction sales of European goods were held twice a week at Norwich. Some of them, however, may have been the spoil of Privateers.

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR — PRIVATEERS

The people of Long Island and the shore of Connecticut were at home on the Sea. They well remembered the large profits that came as a result of their Privateering enterprises in the late War with France. They were, therefore, ready to take up this branch of the Service in the Revolutionary War.

The State of New York built a number of Frigates, at Poughkeepsie, for the Continental Congress. Among them were the "Congress," 28 guns, and the "Montgomery," 24 guns. The State charged the United States "for the Expence of building and fitting out Armed Vessels for the Defence of the Harbour;" and its bill for Armed Ships was £2,715. 11. 2½, in 1776 and 1777. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y., 1. 177 and 31. 127) On Mar. 21, 1776, the Committee of Safety voted money to Capt. William

Mercier to equip the Vessels lately purchased by the Congress, and ordered to be fitted out and armed by the Marine Committee. (Same ref., 1. 183) This Committee, appointed on the same date, consisted of Thomas Randall, Capt. Anthony Rutgers, Capt. William Denning, Jacobus Van Zandt and Joseph Hallett. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.)

If space would allow, it might be shown how well this Committee performed its work for the few months preceding the arrival of the enemy's Fleet and the capture of New York City. But our inquiry is more especially as to the operations about Long Island and the shore of Connecticut; and the part the Refugees had therein.

THE CONTINENTAL SHIPS

On Apr. 17, 1776, the Continental Congress, licensed Capt. William Rogers, of the Sloop "Montgomery" to prey upon the commerce of Great Britain; and, on Apr. 19, the New York Committee of Safety gave several instructions to Capt. Rogers, including one to cruise along the coast between Sandy Hook and Cape May, or from Sandy Hook to the East End of Long Island. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) It is not certain, but it is probable, that this was the Capt. Rogers who was a Refugee. (See "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.")

The Sloop "Schuyler" (formerly the "Sally") was fitted out for the account of the United States, and the command was given to Capt. Pond. (Rev'y MSS. 1. 172) Later, the command was given to Capt. James Smith. On Mar. 2, 1776, the Provincial Congress advanced money to Capt. Smith for wages, arms &c. The Committee of Safety had charge of the Sloop, in 1777. (Same ref., 1. 137) According to a report made by Daniel Tillinghast, of Providence, Feb. 11, 1777, there were 56 men, 6 carriage guns and 12 swivels on the "Montgomery;" and 50 men, 6 carriage guns and 4 swivels on the "Schuyler." (Same ref.)

On Dec. 4, 1776, the New York Committee of Safety named Victor Bicker, jr., Lt. of Marines for the Sloop "Congress;" directed him to enlist 30 Marines for the same term as the Continental Troops; and declared it to be their duty to guard the "Congress" and "Montgomery" "and such other Vessels and Stores, belonging to the Continent, as may be laid up with them." (Same ref., 1. 138) The "Congress" had taken six prizes before June, 1776; and the cargoes were landed at Huntington, Long Island. (Same ref., 1. 139)

Nearly all the cruises of the "Montgomery" were along the shore of Connecticut, and along the Southern shore of Long Island. (Same ref., 1. 151, 152) In July, 1776, she lay off Fire Island. (Same ref., 1. 168 c.) Before June, 1776, the "Montgomery" had taken these six prizes:—Sloop "Charlotte," Brig "Pembroke," Brig "Speedwell," Schooner "Hiram," Ship "Crawford," and Sloop "Nancey." (Same ref., 1. 168 d.) In the same year, the "Montgomery" took the "Blue Mountain Valley" (Same ref., 1. 153), and it is stated that Capt. William

Rogers was the first man on board. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 534) This was important to Capt. Rogers, because the first boarder was entitled to three shares (instead of one) in the prize money.

On Oct. 10, 1776, John Sloss Hobart wrote to the Provincial Congress, from Fairfield, Connecticut, that he had supplied Capt. Rogers with funds.

Early in 1777, the Schooner "Hannah" was taken by the "Montgomery," and the cargo was sold, in Baltimore, on Feb. 5. The cargo consisted of Cheese, Ale, Port Wines, Handkerchiefs, Stockings, Spices, Linen, Shoes, Beef, Pork and Peas; of which Col. Richard Henry Lee bought two hampers of Port Wine. The net proceeds of the sale were £8,684. 13. 1½. (Rev'y MSS., 1. 149, 169) On Mar. 22, 1777, Messrs. Lux and Bowly, of Baltimore, acknowledged the receipt of £361. 4. Current Money, from "William Rogers Esqr., Commander of the Sloop Montgomery * * * which said Sum is left in our Hands by him, as he is now bound to Sea on a Cruise against the Enemies of America." (Same ref., 1. 157) The New York Convention appointed Francis Lewis as its Agent for the sale of Prizes taken by the "Montgomery," and he directed the sale at Baltimore. (Same ref., 1. 169) Mr. Lewis was a Refugee from New York City. On July 5, 1777, Eliphalet Wood, a Refugee from Long Island, acknowledged the receipt of $30. from Joshua Rogers, "being for one Quarter part of all My Prize Money due from the Sloop Montgomeria Late Commanded by William Rogers." (Same ref., 1. 159) It is shown, in the claim of Sarah Rogers, Widow and Administratrix, that Capt. William Rogers landed some of his Prize goods at Huntington, Long Island. (Same ref., 31. 79, No. 4)

SHIPS BELONGING TO NEW YORK

The New York Convention received information, on July 27, 1776, that the Ships of the enemy, between Montauk Point and Block Island, were capturing Ships laden with provisions. By request, Gov. Trumbull sent the "Spy" after them. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n)

Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.") gives several items relating to the Refugees, which are of interest:

Rivington's Gazette May 20, 1778 — The head of the Banditti who captured 5 vessels loaded with lumber and produce for the market of N. Y. was Ebenezer Dayton &c.—p. 73.

Capt. Eben Dayton, on the sloop "Ranger", 45 men and 6 guns, taken in South Bay by a British Privateer Nov. 20, 1778, and carried to N. Y. City.—p. 78.

New London, Feb. 5th, 79. Last Saturday the "Ranger," a British Privateer Brig, of 12 guns, that had been cruising in the Sound, was taken from a wharf at Sag-Harbor, after a short resistance, by the Brig "Middleton," Capt. Sage, Sloop "Beaver," Capt. [William] Havens, Sloop "Eagle," Capt. [Joseph] Conkling. On Sunday these 3 again sailed for Sag-Harbor, where they discovered 7 British vessels just arrived, one a Brig of 8 or 10 guns, when a fair prospect appeared of making capture of the whole, but the wind ahead, the "Middleton" struck on the Middle ground, in beating up the Harbor, 1/4 of a mile from the shore, where she was bravely defended for 4 or 5 hours by her crew, against an incessant fire from the Brig, and several field pieces on shore; after being hulled by 30 shots under water, and the vessel careening by the tides falling, the guns could not be worked, all except 4 left the ship, and were taken on board the other 2 vessels. Those on their return took 2 brigs from Cork, via N. Y., with rum, wine and 12,000 bushels of oats, for the troops on Long Island.—"p. 80. (See also Caulkins' "New London," p. 540)

Grinnell being ashore at Sag-Harbor with several men, were betrayed and taken prisoners by a Hessian major and 20 light horse. They had 2 armed boats with them which the enemy were about setting on fire, but Capt. [Thomas] Wickham in an 8 gun sloop from Stonington about the same time coming too near the boats brought them off.— p. 106.

Early in the War, the Privateers belonging to the Province of New York were under the authority of the Provincial Congress, or its substitute, the Committee of Safety; but, after the formation of the State, in 1777, the power to name Commanders of the Privateers passed to the Council of Appointment. From the Minutes of that body, it appears that the following Refugees were commissioned as Captains of Armed Vessels:—Apr. 2, 1778, Titus Conkling, the "Refugee," Daniel Griffing, the "Revenge" and John Ingraham, the "Retaliation;" Mar. 6, 1779, Joshua Rogers, the "Greyhound;" Apr. 28, 1781, Nathaniel Norton, the "Suffolk." The commissions of Wm. Smith Scudder, the "Ranger," Valentine Ryder, the "Resolution," and James Vincent, the "Porpoise," were recalled by the Council of Appointment, June 29, 1781, because the Captains had landed on Long Island, and allowed their men to plunder the inhabitants.

The Minutes of the Pension Board (p. 109) note the service of Lt. Robert Harris, of the Sloop "Reprisal," and Capt. Lambert Weeks. Lt. Harris was a Refugee from New York City.

THE CONTRIBUTION OF CONNECTICUT

There were in the Privateer Service others of the Refugees whose records are in the Archives of Connecticut. They were as follows, the figures in parentheses referring to the subdivisions of Appendix G. in which the names may be found:

Continental Frigate "Trumbull"—Capt. Henry Billings (84); Thomas Jones (92); David and Ebenezer Miller (94); Joseph Peck (96); William Taylor (99); William Webb (100).

Continental Frigate "Confederacy"—James Brown (85); John Gardiner and John Griffing (90); Jonathan Osborn (95); Joseph Smith (98); David Tuthill (99); Ebenezer Wade (100).

Privateer "Marquis de Lafayette"—William Miller (94); Nathan Smith (98); John Williams (100).

"John"—Capt. Benj. Conkling; "Eagle" and "Revenge"—Capt. Edward Conkling; "Whim," "Revenge" and "Venus"—Capt. Joseph Conkling (86).

Sloop "Beaver"—William Havens (91); Galley "Juno"—Capt. O. Norris (95); "Suffolk"—Capt. Nathaniel Norton (95); "Regulator"—Capt. S. Overton (95); Ship "Alfred"—Lt. Nathaniel Richards (97); Sloop "Industry"—Capt. J. Salisbury (98); Brigantine "Minerva"—Mate William Warner (100); "Fox"—Capt. A. Woodhull (100).

Jesse Wickes, of Norwalk, was allowed to cruise in Long Island Sound. (100)*

Still others of the Refugees were active. Capt. Peter Hallock, Capt. Jonathan Salmon, Capt. Jeremiah Rogers, Capt. David Landon and Capt. Jonathan Vail had small Armed Boats on the Sound. (Ap. D. 15, 16, 48) Beside being Capt. of the "Revenge," Daniel Griffing and Capt. Augustus Peck, fitted out and sailed the Sloop "Randolph," with New London as headquarters.

Capt. Peter Griffing and Capt. Jesse Leavenworth also commanded Armed Boats on the Sound. (Ap. D. 12) Capt. James Harris was in the Service. (Ap. F. 1) Capt. Nathaniel Shaw, Jr., of New London, fitted out some of the Connecticut Privateers; and that Port was one of the chief centers of their activities. In fact, those activities caused the retaliatory Raid of Arnold on New London, in 1781. (Chap. 26)

* The service of these Privateers is given at greater length in Caulkins' "New London," pp. 538-541.

On the 9th of March, 1783, Capt. Caleb Brewster took command of a sloop at Fairfield, for the purpose of attacking the "Fox," a British armed vessel in the Sound; and as soon as he came near, he ordered his men to board her with fixed bayonets, himself leading the way. In less than two minutes, she became their prize. Captain Johnson, of the "Fox," and two men, were killed, and several others wounded; while Captain Brewster had not a person injured. One of these, the "Adventure," Capt. Ebenezer Hathaway, was captured; and Hathaway and his crew were imprisoned at Simsbury, Connecticut. (Sir Henry Clinton's "Secret Record," June 8, 1781, in Ap. H. 35) In 1779, Gen. Parsons had planned to destroy all the Shipping of the enemy. But the loss of the "Defence" left only the "Confederacy" and the "Oliver Cromwell" available; and he was obliged to give up the attack. (Hall's "Life of Parsons," pp. 220-222)

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE — WHALE-BOAT WARFARE

The Privateers were ably supported by a less dignified flotilla known as Whale-Boats, or row-boats, similar to those employed in the whale fisheries. Boats of this sort were 30 feet, or over, in length and sharp at either end. They were moved with from two to ten pairs of oars. As they were very light, they were both speedy and silent. Given, a boat of this sort with a crew always accustomed to handling it, the only condition needed for effective service was a safe and secret landing place. The Northern shore of Long Island and the Southern shore of Connecticut, with their small bays and coves, furnished many places of this sort. The favorite harbors were: Setauket, Port Jefferson, Huntington and Old Man's, on the Island; and Greenwich, Stamford, Norwalk, Guilford and Black Rock on the Connecticut shore. In Westchester County, New York, the Saw Pits (now Port Chester), Rye and Mamaroneck were attractive.

One of the earlier objects of the Whale-Boat Warfare was to find provisions to feed the American Army, as much as could be transported; and the other, to destroy the balance of the produce and property in order that the British might not be able to capture it for their benefit. Both objects, in their results, were disastrous to the people of Long Island. Another object was the securing of Prisoners from the enemy. (Chap. 11) But the final, and by far the greater, object was to inflict as much damage as possible upon the property of the enemy and those who sympathized with him.

THE WARFARE STARTS EARLY

On Sept. 30, 1776, directly after the Battle of Long Island, Washington sent an order to Gen. George Clinton to take with him Lt. Col. Hurlbut; to proceed immediately to Fairfield; and there in consultation with Gen. Lincoln, of Massachusetts Bay, John Sloss Hobart of New York and Col. Henry B. Livingston, to plan an Expedition to Long Island. An Expedition of men, vessels, and Whale-Boats under Col. Livingston, was fitted out to attack the British forces at Huntington, in October, 1776. Mr. Hobart then, on Oct. 10, wrote to the Provincial Congress, from Fairfield, that all of the preparations were complete. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) It was a great disappointment to all that, on the day before they were to start, they received orders from Washington to abandon the enterprise, as all their forces were needed elsewhere. This led Mr. Hobart to write to Gen. Clinton, on Oct. 17, from New Haven, complaining that the Expedition had been given up because the Troops had been "ordered from hence just as our Expedition is on the point of execution." (Clinton Pap., 1. 382) The Journal of the Provincial Congress, however, mentions an Expedition to Brookhaven, in October or November, in which Capt. Caleb Brewster and Lt. George Smith were engaged; but it is evident that it was a small affair, and without important results.

ALONG THE NORTH SHORE OF LONG ISLAND — FROM OYSTER BAY TO FORT SLOGO

As the Island was dominated by the enemy, most of the Whale-Boat men came from Connecticut. Among them were numerous Refugees, including Lt. Henry Scudder and Maj. Jesse Brush, of Huntington. Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 71) quotes a British paper of Feb. 26, 1778, to the effect that "a gang of ruffians" stripped the Schooner "Clio" of her sails; and that Capt. Peter Griffing and Capt. Wilmot Goldsmith, late residents of Southold, were in the party. The same writer ("Queens Co.," pp. 168-203) gives numerous instances of Excursions of this sort from Connecticut to Hempstead, North Hempstead and Oyster Bay, for the capture of boats and supplies. Again ("Suffolk Co.," Nos. 610 and 621) he describes two journeys of Capt. Daniel Roe to secure the effects of himself and others.

AUTHORIZED BY THE NEW YORK PROVINCIAL CONGRESS

Capt. Samuel Lockwood, of Greenwich, in the service of the United States, was in command of the Whale-Boats on Long Island Sound. (Ap. B. 42. Also "Connecticut Men in the Revolution," pp. 557, 576) Gen. Parsons, on Aug. 29, 1777, ordered Col. Samuel B. Webb to proceed with Whale-Boats to any part of Long Island, and to destroy the supplies of the enemy. (Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons," p. 110). On May 29, 1778, the New York Provincial Congress authorized Gov. Clinton to commission Capt. David Landon to take the effects of the enemy, both by sea and land. (Ap. D. 48) There were also the Expeditions of Captains Adam Hyler and William Marriner, of New Brunswick, New Jersey. They operated all through the War between Egg Harbor, Staten Island and the Western end of Long Island. (Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 645, 646)

AN EXCITING ADVENTURE

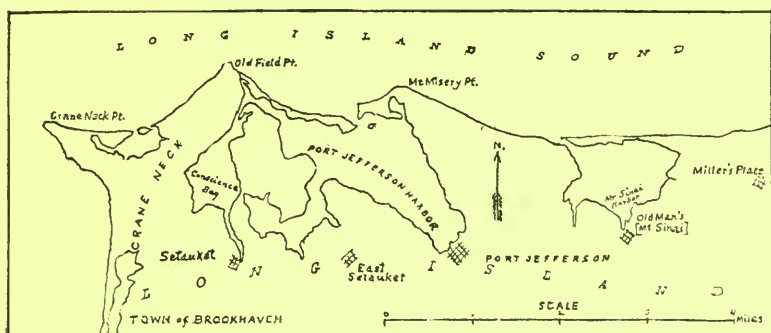

One of the most stirring incidents of this kind of Warfare took place on Long Island Sound. The Whale-Boat Fleet of Stamford, under command of Capt. Ebenezer Jones, came out of the fog, and directly upon a War Ship of the enemy. Capt. Jones loudly protested against the fault of the English Officer in allowing a strange boat to get so near him, unchallenged. He claimed to be an inspector sent by the English Commander. Then, still denouncing the want of proper precautions, he went aboard with his crew, keeping up the loud words. Meanwhile, he gave the signal for the other boats. They surrounded the enemy, and the vessel was captured. About the same time, a smaller vessel of the enemy was boarded by men from one Whale-Boat; while men from another Whale-Boat entered the cabin windows. The crew surrendered, and the vessel was brought to Stamford. (Rev. J. D. Alvord's "Stamford Address." Also Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 217, 238) Perhaps the most celebrated action, in the Whale-Boat Warfare, was that of Dec. 7, 1782, known as "The Boat Fight."

As it was undertaken as part of a Raid on Huntington, Long Island, it is described at the end of Chapter 26. Indeed, nearly all of the Raids described in that Chapter were Whale-Boat Expeditions on a large scale.

In this way the Americans made such inroads into the fighting strength of the enemy on the water, that no vessel belonging to him was considered safe if it were not well armed; and, sometimes, not even then. So that, in the end, the "Board of Associated Loyalists" was dissolved, and its headquarters on Lloyd's Neck was abandoned.

THE ENEMY STRIKES BACK

But it must be understood that this kind of Warfare was not one-sided. The enemy often gave as good blows as he received. There were inviting bays and inlets along the shore of Westchester County, New York, and they were utilized. Anyone who is familiar with the history of that County will recall the Enterprises of Capt. Fade Merritt; and, particularly, the visit to the old Mott homestead and the courage of the young Quaker, Anne. Nor did even Connecticut escape. Miss Mabel C. Holman relates that a quantity of contraband goods had been taken from the Tories and placed in a small house near the mouth of the Connecticut River, at Saybrook. William Tully, the owner, was set to watch the house. One night eight Tories came to the house and demanded entrance. Tully refused to open the door. Without further words it was broken in. Taking his old flint gun, Tully fired. The musket-ball passed through the first man, who still advanced; but the one directly back of him dropped dead. Tully turned upon the other six, wounding one with his bayonet. The remainder escaped by the windows. When the first man whom Tully shot discovered that the ball had passed through him he dropped dead, with one hand on the window and the other grasping a chest of tea.

STATUS OF THE ENTERPRISE

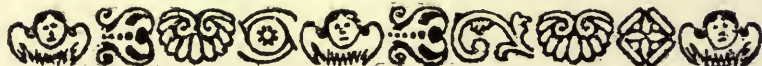

Lossing, in his "Story of the U. S. Navy," says: "So expert and successful were these unlawful Whale-Boat Expeditions, that the same kind of vessels were finally used for purely Military purposes." (See, also, "Field Book," 2. 645, 646)

The Whale-Boat Warfare, legitimate in the campaigns of that time, began early and lasted nearly through the War. The use of it was soon abused in the way of Predatory Excursions; and later, in the form of the Illicit Trade — as Chapters 22 and 23 have shown. In other words, the Excursions and the Trade were off-shoots of the Whale-Boat Warfare; and perhaps produced by it, and the spirit of adventure which it developed.

IN THE WAR OF 1812

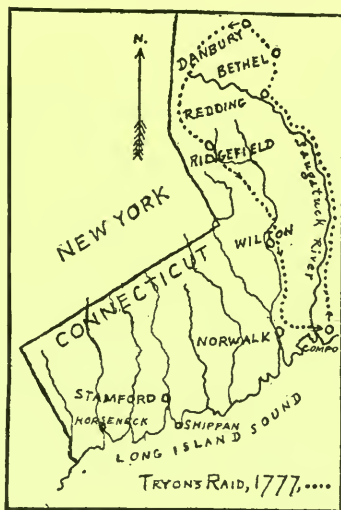

The Whale-Boat business along the Sound was resumed in the War of 1812. The following, from Long Island, enlisted in the Corps of Sea Fencibles between Aug. 14, 1814 and Jan. 1, 1815. The figures relate to their respective ages at the date of enlistment.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX — RAIDS

The beginning of the Raids across Long Island Sound was in 1777, when Gen. Tryon attacked Danbury and Ridgefield—both in Connecticut. On Apr. 25, 2,000 men landed at Compo, on the Eastern side of the Saugatuck River. They were under Tryon, in person, Gen. Agnew and Gen. Erskine. Marching a short distance inland, they camped for the night. Early the next morning they reached Redding, eight miles from Danbury. In the meantime, Gen. Silliman had gathered 500 Militia near Redding; where he was joined by Gen. Wooster and Gen. Arnold, who had hastened from New Haven. The Americans pursued the enemy to Bethel, within four miles of Danbury, where they halted so that they might cut off his retreat. A large quantity of Military stores in Danbury was captured and destroyed. The calamity might have ended there if several Americans had not fired upon the enemy from a house, in the earlier part of the day. The house was burned, and the Americans perished in it. This probably made the burning of the whole village an afterthought, as the enemy was leaving on the morning of Apr. 27.

Tryon, fearing that his escape would be impossible by the route taken to reach Danbury, made a feint toward New York; but, at Ridgeway, he turned South toward Ridgefield. Here Wooster disputed his progress, but the odds were too great. Wooster received a wound from which he died a few days later. Arnold threw up a barricade in the main street which temporarily checked the progress of the enemy. He was flanked, his horse was shot, and the Americans were powerless. Col. Abraham Gould of Fairfield, was among the slain. The enemy, after burning a part of Ridgefield, marched to Wilton, and forded the River above the Saugatuck bridge in order to avoid the Militia which Arnold had concentrated there. The Americans kept up a running fire from the rear, causing the enemy considerable loss. It is doubtful if so many would have escaped if Marines had not been landed from the boats of the enemy.*

MEIGS TO SAG HARBOR

In retaliation for Danbury, what was known as the Meigs Expedition to Sag Harbor, on Long Island, was undertaken. The object was to destroy the provisions which had been collected by the British garrison stationed at that point.

The possession of Sag-Harbor by the British was important. Their Fleet commanded the harbor of New York, the Sound and Gardiner's Bay, wherein their men-of-war often lay at anchor. Sag-Harbor was a convenient centre for collecting supplies; it was easy thence to distribute them, and the naval supremacy of Britain enabled it to take and hold this port at little cost. (Hedges "East Hampton")

Gen. Parsons, who had suggested the plan, entrusted the execution of it to Lt. Col. Return Jonathan Meigs. The latter, having made ample preparations embarked from New Haven, on May 21, 1777, with 234 men in 13 Whale-Boats. He went directly to Guilford, Connecticut; but on account of the sea, he could not cross the Sound until the 23d. At one in the afternoon of that day he left Guilford with 170 men, protected by two Armed Sloops, arriving at Southold, Long Island, about six o'clock. The Troops of the enemy, on that part of the Island, had left for New York two or three days before. Meigs ordered the Whale-Boats to be carried over the land to Peconic Bay. Having re-embarked, he arrived on the other side of the Bay, within four miles of Sag Harbor. It was now midnight. The boats were left in a wood, under a guard; and the remainder of the detachment marched to the Harbor, where it arrived at 2 in the morning of the 24th. While one division attacked the Fort, and captured the garrison, the other division proceeded directly to the shipping at the wharf. An Armed Schooner fired upon them from a short distance; but this did not prevent the Americans from executing their purpose. There were destroyed—12 brigs and sloops, one of which was an Armed Vessel; 120 tons of hay; corn; oats; 10 hogsheads of rum, and a large quantity of merchandize. The Hospital, on Brick Hill, was taken; and a foraging party, from DeLancey's Brigade, was captured. Of the enemy, six were killed and 90 were taken Prisoners. Meigs lost not a man, either in killed or wounded. He returned to Guilford at two in the afternoon, having been absent but about 25 hours.

Many of the Refugees to Connecticut were members of this Expedition; and one of them, Capt. John White of Sagg, acted as pilot. In the yard of the Presbyterian Church, at Sag Harbor, a boulder-monument records the date as May 23.

On May 25, Parsons wrote to Gen. Washington, from New Haven, relating the success of the Expedition; and, on May 29, Washington replied, commending Col. Meigs. The Continental Congress voted a sword to Meigs as a tribute to his enterprise and valor.*

There was a counter-retaliation against Guilford. A month later, three Ships of the enemy landed at Sachem's Head, and burned the house of Solomon Leete. In 1781, the enemy again attacked. They burned the house of Daniel Leete, on Leete's Island; but they were repulsed when they advanced toward Guilford.

PARSONS TO SETAUKET

Early in the same year, 1777, Col. Richard Hewlett, of the Tory Troops, had taken possession of the Presbyterian Church at Setauket on Long Island. He occupied the building as a barrack, and surrounded it with breastworks and a stockade. Several guns were mounted on the breastworks, and cannon were placed in the windows of the Church. (See Map on p. 223)

The importance of dislodging the enemy was apparent to Gen. Putnam. Therefore, on Aug. 16, he ordered Gen. Parsons to attack the stockade; to capture the garrison; and to bring off, or destroy, all the Military stores. Parsons, on the same date, ordered Col. Samuel B. Webb to report with his Regiment. From Fairfield, Connecticut, on Aug. 21, Parsons issued orders that, private property must be respected on this Expedition. The attack was made early in the morning of Aug. 22. ("Hall's Life of Parsons," pp. 108-110. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," pp. 65-67) Other accounts have given Aug. 14 as the date of the attack; but Aug. 22 is authentic.

The Expedition consisted of about 500 men, and it was strengthened by several pieces of Artillery. With the Expedition were the Refugees Capt. Caleb Brewster and Zachariah Greene. The latter, 20 years later, was installed as Pastor of the Church which he attempted to take from the enemy on this occasion.

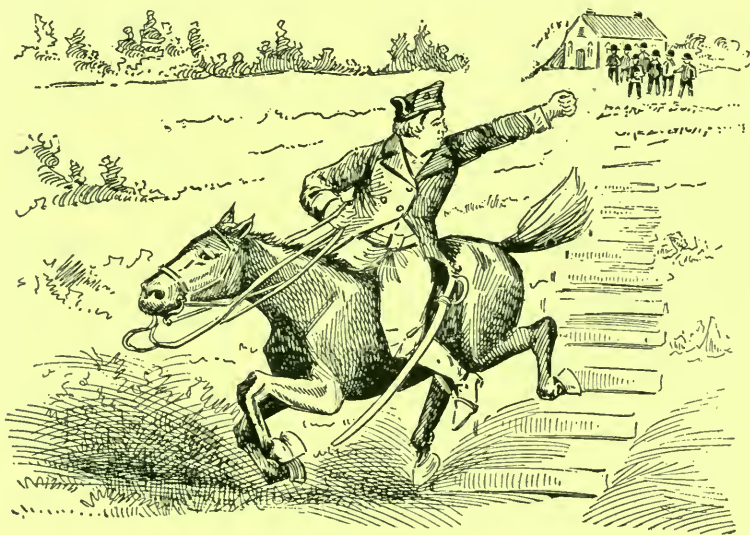

Crane Neck Bend, about three miles from Setauket, was the place of landing. Leaving the boats with a guard, the Expedition marched quietly to the neighborhood of the garrison. A Flag of Truce was sent to Col. Hewlett, demanding surrender. This being refused, the attack commenced. Little injury was done to either side. It was then learned that several British Ships were in the Sound. Fearing that the retreat might be cut off, Parsons ordered the men back to the boats. The party returned to Connecticut with a few horses and a small quantity of Military stores. (Thompson's "Long Island," I. 205, 206)

* See Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons," pp. 97-99. Thompson's "Long Island," I. 203-205.

FAILURE OF PARSONS, MEIGS AND WEBB

Not satisfied with the result of this Expedition, Gen. Parsons undertook a more ambitious one which he attempted to carry out on Dec. 10, 1777. The object was to destroy not only Military stores but also the timber prepared for barracks in New York City. The Expedition moved in three divisions. The Eastern division, under Parsons, left Norwalk, Connecticut, on the evening of Dec. 9 and crossed to Hookaback, near Southold, on Long Island. Parsons destroyed the timber, and took a number of Prisoners.

The Western division, under Col. Meigs, was to have crossed from Saw Pits (now Port Chester), New York, to Hempstead, on Long Island; and thence to Jamacia, where an attack against a

PUTNAM RIDING DOWN THE HILL

Regiment of the enemy had been planned. Meigs was unable to start on account of the heavy sea.

Meantime, the third division, under Col. Samuel B. Webb, had already started from Norwalk. This division was to land at Huntington, on Long Island, and support either of the other divisions, as required. Unfortunately for Col. Webb, and Col. John Ely who was with him, a British Sloop of War was encountered, and many of the party were captured. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 134-136. Also Chap. 11. See Map on p. 221)

The "Connecticut Gazette," of Dec. 24, 1777, contained the following account:

N. London, Dec. 19. A plan having been formed to bring off or destroy a magazine of military stores which the enemy had at Setauket, on L. I., and to destroy some shipping loaded with timber at Southold, on Tuesday night of last week, part of 2 Battalions of Troops embarked from this State, under convoy of the sloop "Schuyler," and "Spy" and "Mifflin," schooners. Unfortunately next morning, just before light, the "Falkland," a British Frigate, in her passage from N. Y. to Newport, came across the "Schuyler" and 2 smaller vessels, when the latter run ashore on the Island, but the former in attempting to get in with the land, run on a spit of same (Called Old Man's) and was taken with about 60 troops, on board, among them Cols. [John] Ely and Samuel Webb &c.

TRYON TO GREENWICH AND NEW HAVEN

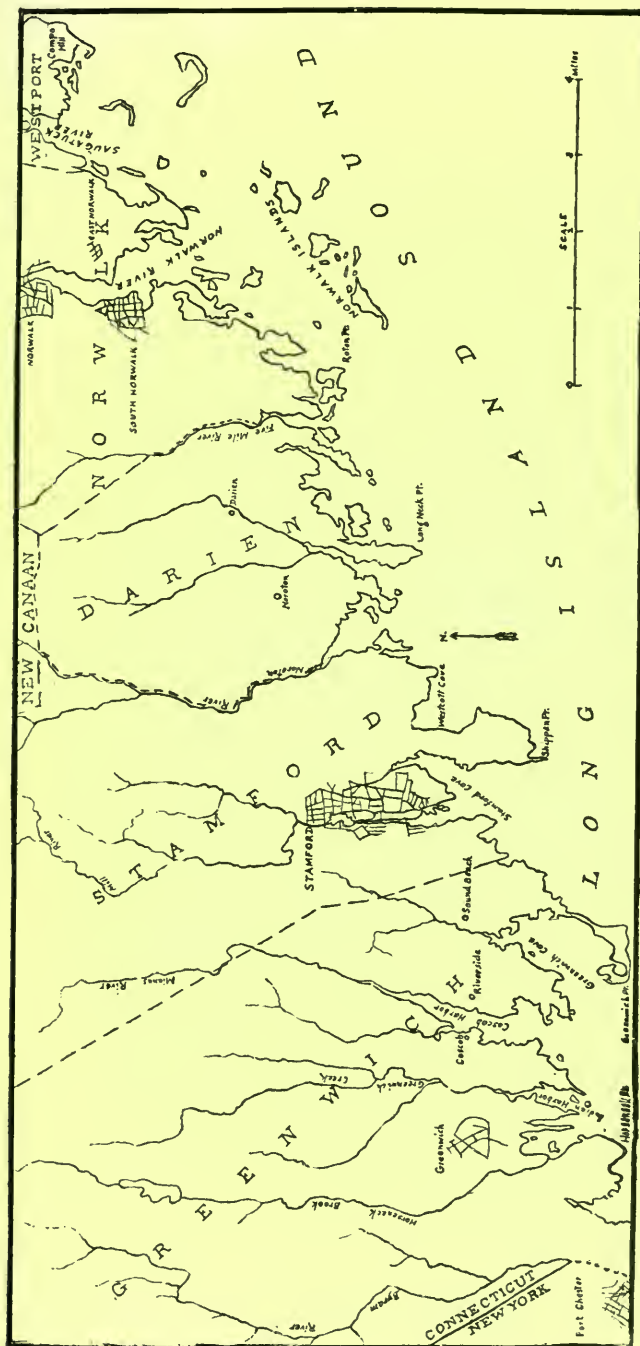

Tryon came to Connecticut again, in 1779, in order to draw the American Troops from the Highlands of the Hudson. On Feb. 26, he made a small Raid on Rye, New York, and Greenwich, Connecticut, attended by the usual plundering of the inhabitants. It was at this time that Gen. Putnam rode down the steep rocks of "Put's Hill" and escaped capture. A suitable tablet records the incident. Putnam rallied the Militia toward the East. Tryon, by that time, had crossed the Mianus River on his way to Stamford. But he was turned back, and retreated in some disorder. ("Picturesque Stamford," p. 86. Also Chap. 21)

On the morning of July 5, with three divisions, Tryon landed at New Haven. Townsend ("British Invasion of New Haven," p. 9) states that the only defenses were earthworks at the head of Bridge St., on Beacon Hill, at the West River and at Black Rock. After a stout resistance by Col. Sabin and Capts. Bradley and Hillhouse, Tryon took the City, and burned the shipping and buildings at Long Wharf. Among his Prisoners was Rev. Naph-tali Daggett. (Ap. I. 4) On the next day, he burned several dwellings at East Haven. The original plan was to burn the City; but that was abandoned because the Militia began to arrive in large numbers. A Monument to the memory of the defenders was dedicated, in 1911.

TRYON TO FAIRFIELD AND NORWALK

Tryon embarked for Fairfield, where he landed on the morning of July 8. His progress was not opposed. The village was without Troops, and wholly defenceless. Whatever may be said of Tryon elsewhere, the plundering and burning of Fairfield cannot be defended; and the excuses given by him at the time were not worthy of a soldier. The Militia, indeed, came in force; but not until after the village had been destroyed. (Schenck's "Fairfield," 2. 386)

The heroine of Fairfield was Eunice Dennie, wife of Thaddeus Burr. Mr. Burr was away from home at the time of the Raid. He was one of the most prominent citizens of Connecticut. At his home, many well known men had been entertained; among them, Tryon and other British Officers. Mrs. Burr reminded Tryon of his former social visits, and demanded his protection. Tryon gave it, in writing; but his followers, disregarding the paper, burned the Burr mansion with all its valuable contents. The complete story is told in "Chapter Sketches. Conn. D. A. R., 1901," pp. 65-78.

ALONG THE SOUTH SHORE OF CONNECTICUT — FROM PORT CHESTER TO COMPO HILL

Returning to Huntington for supplies, Tryon once more crossed the Sound and landed at Norwalk on the morning of July 12. Here the brutalities, fire, and pillage, shown at Fairfield were enacted on a larger scale. It is stated that Tryon enjoyed the spectacle of destruction as he sat in a rocking chair at his headquarters. (Hall's "Life of Parsons," pp. 251-257; Lossing's "Field Book," 1. 422-431) The place from which he watched the conflagration is on East Avenue in the village of Norwalk. The spot is marked by a tablet, bearing this inscription:

From the Summit of this Hill Maj. Gen. William Tryon witnessed the burning of Norwalk, by the British Troops under his command, July 11 and 12, 1779.

TALLMADGE TO FORT FRANKLIN

We come, now, to the remarkable activities of Maj. Benjamin Tallmadge, who was recalled from the Highlands to retaliate upon the enemy on Long Island. In all of his Expeditions he made his headquarters at North Castle, just over the border, in the State of New York. He was then midway between Stamford and the Hudson River, and ready to strike in either direction. (See Tallmadge's Map, p. 237) His first Expedition was on Sept. 5, 1779. On that date, at 8 in the evening, he embarked from Shippan Point, in Stamford, with 130 dismounted men of his Light Dragoons. At 10 o'clock he had reached the stockade, on Lloyd's

(From Tallmadge's "Memoir")

Neck, Long Island, called Fort Franklin. He attacked 500 Tories; captured the most of them; and returned with them to Connecticut without the loss of a man. No attempt was made to take the Fort. ("Memoir of Tallmadge," p. 47. Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 627)

TALLMADGE TO FORT ST. GEORGE

Encouraged by this, Tallmadge undertook a larger enterprise, in 1780. In the Autumn, of that year, certain Tories from Rhode Island took possession of the mansion of Gen. John Smith, at Smith's Point, Mastic, Long Island. They built a triangular stockade and named it Fort St. George. A Fort had been built on the site, 1686-1690, by the grandfather of Gen. Smith, Col. William Smith — known as "Tangier" Smith.

Thus protected, the Tories began to cut wood for the British Army in New York City. On the appeal of Gen. Smith, it was decided to dislodge the enemy. In the afternoon of Nov. 21, with about 80 of his men, Tallmadge crossed from Fairfield to Old Man's (now Mt. Sinai), on Long Island. The rain prevented any further progress that night. Early in the morning of Nov. 23 the march began. When two miles from the Fort, William Booth (Ap.I. 2) was taken as a guide. Tallmadge led his column through the Grand Parade; the ramparts on the other side were mounted by the smaller detachments; and with the watchword "Washington and Glory" the Fort was captured. A few of the garrison having fired from one of the houses after the capture, Tallmadge pleaded for, and saved, those who had forfeited their lives by such conduct. The Ships tried to escape; but the guns of the Fort being turned upon them, they were secured. The Ships, stores and the whole stockade were destroyed. The more valuable of the goods were strapped to the backs of the Prisoners; and the return march began at 8 in the morning. On the way, Tallmadge mounted a dozen men on horses taken from the enemy, made a detour to Coram, and destroyed a large quantity of hay. By midnight, the boats had returned to Fairfield without the loss of a man. The captives included the Commandant, a Lieutenant, a Surgeon, 50 rank and file, and many others of the garrison. For this exploit, Tallmadge received the thanks of Washington and the Continental Congress. ("Memoir of Tallmadge," pp. 58-63. Also Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 627, 628) The Refugees: Capt. Caleb Brewster, Capt. Benajah Strong and Heathcote Muirson, were members of this party. (Thompson's "Long Island," pp. 513-516. See also Brewster, Strong and Muirson in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.")

FRENCH AND AMERICANS TO FORT FRANKLIN

Before Tallmadge acted again, another attack was made upon Fort Franklin, on Lloyd's Neck. On Apr. 20, 1781, Gen. Parsons wrote to Washington advising such an attack. ("Life of Parsons," p. 354) On July 12, a small party of Americans and French, guided by Heathcote Muirson (mentioned above), attacked the Fort. They were repulsed. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 221 et. seq. Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1851, N. Y. City Pub. Lib'y., pp. 7, 8)

Then followed, on Aug. 22, a letter from Parsons to Gov. Trumbull and the Connecticut Council of Safety describing in detail the defences on Lloyd's Neck; on Oct. 18, a letter from Gen. William Heath to Parsons agreeing that the Fort should be reduced; and, on Nov. 8, a letter from Parsons to Gov. Trumbull outlining his (Parson's) efforts to secure information as to the strength of the Fort, his preparation to embark on Oct. 27 and 28, his final preparation to make the attack on Nov. 6, and his disappointment on receiving a countermanding order. ("Life of Parsons," pp. 395, 396, 404, 407, 408)

There was no further attack on Lloyd's Neck; and the enemy soon afterward abandoned it as too dangerous a place to hold. The Board of Associated Loyalists, which made its headquarters there, had been dissolved by reason of the injury it caused to the enemy. (Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 627)

ARNOLD TO NEW LONDON

We have now to record the final, and most shameful, Raid of the enemy. New London, Connecticut, had been the headquarters of the American Privateers (Chap. 24), and many prizes had been taken to that port and sold. With the double object of punishing New London and diverting American Troops from the Southern campaigns, the enemy decided to attack that City. On the West side of the harbor stood Fort Trumbull; on the East side, and further up the River Thames, stood Fort Griswold. Gen. Benedict Arnold, once the friend of America, was selected by Sir Henry Clinton to make the attack. His land and marine forces, consisting of about 1,500 men, appeared off the harbor of New London on Sept. 6, 1781. Fort Trumbull was speedily captured. New London was set on fire, and practically all of it was consumed.

The garrison at Fort Griswold, reinforced by the garrison from the abandoned Fort Trumbull, numbered about 137. It was commanded by Col. William Ledyard. (See Ledyard in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") The attacking force, under Col. Eyre, was far superior. The story of the capture; the unconditional surrender of Col. Ledyard; the reputed thrust of Ledyard's surrendered sword through his body by Maj. Bromfield; and the final massacre of nearly all of the surrendered men — all this has been told so often that it needs no repetition here. If Tryon's conduct toward the unarmed and defenceless at Norwalk and Fairfield had no excuse, the conduct of Arnold at New London has no apologist. Thereafter he was shunned even by those for whose friendship he attempted to betray West Point.

Capt. Elias Henry Halsey, David Palmer, and perhaps others of the Refugees from Long Island, were among those who were slain at Fort Griswold. A bright picture of the ministering angel is that of Fanny Ledyard, a niece of Col. Ledyard and herself a Refugee. On the morning after the attack she brought wine, water and chocolate to cheer the wounded who were still within the Fort. (See Ledyard, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.")

A granite Monument, 135 feet high, was erected near the Fort, in 1826-1830. The names of those who were killed are on a tablet on the North side of the Monument. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n," pp. 577, 578. Caulkins' "New London," pp. 545-572. Allen's "Hist. of the Battle of Groton Heights.")

Over the entrance to the Monument is the inscription:

This Monument was erected under the patronage of the State of Connecticut, A. D. 1830, and in the 55th year of the Independence of the U. S. A., in Memory of the brave Patriots who fell in the Massacre at Fort Griswold, near this spot, on the 6th of September, A. D. 1781, when the British under the command of the traitor Benedict Arnold, burned the towns of New London and Groton, and spread desolation and woe throughout this region.

TALLMADGE TO FORT SLOGO

Returning to the exploits of Maj. Tallmadge — On Treadwell's Neck, eight miles east of Lloyd's Neck, and near Smithtown, Long Island, a party of Tory wood-cutters had built a square, stockaded Fort, with a ditch and abatis. They called it Fort Slongo, after a British Officer. Tallmadge assembled a detachment of his Light Infantry at the mouth of the Saugatuck River, near Norwalk. By his order, Maj. Lemuel Trescott was placed in charge of the Expedition. Fort Slongo was reached early in the morning of Oct. 3, 1781. A plan of the Fort had been furnished by Lt. Henry Scudder, of Huntington, who was a Refugee to Connecticut. (See Scudder, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") The Fort was captured without loss, and the block-house was burned. ("Memoir of Tallmadge," p. 68, 69. Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 628, 629. Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 105)

THE MONUMENT AT GROTON, CONN.

On Oct. 6, Gen. Heath wrote from Continental Village to Gov. Clinton informing him that a detachment from his Army had captured Fort Slongo in the morning of the 3d inst. Of the enemy, two were killed; two, mortally wounded; and 21 were made Prisoners — including two Captains and one Lieutenant. His command met with no loss. The amount of small arms, ammunition, clothing &c., that was taken was considerable. On Oct. 8, Gov. Clinton wrote to Heath, complimenting him for the result of the Expedition. (Clinton Pap., 7. 374, 375, 385) See Map on p. 221.

TALLMADGE AND "THE BOAT FIGHT"

The final effort of Maj. Tallmadge was in 1782. Having learned that a considerable body of British Light Horse and Infantry had gone to Huntington, Long Island, he "conceived the plan of beating up their quarters." On the evening of Dec. 5, he had gathered on Shippan Point, near Stamford, a choice body of Infantry and dismounted Dragoons to the number of 700. A severe storm prevented the embarking that night, and all of the next day. On Dec. 7, three boats of the enemy were discovered, laying their course from Norwalk to Huntington. Tallmadge ordered several of his boats to pursue, under command of the intrepid Capt. Caleb Brewster. (See Brewster, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.") By the time the boats of the enemy had reached the middle of the Sound, Brewster was upon them. Two of them were easily captured; but the third escaped. Brewster received a ball in the breast, which passed through his body. Although, apparently, Brewster had had his death wound, yet he recovered and lived to the age of about 80.

TALLMADGE'S MAP OF HIS OPERATIONS

This action has generally been called, by way of distinction, "The Boat Fight." At the time, it was considered, in connection with its attendant circumstances, one of the most valorous and extraordinary engagements of that period. It was, indeed, a perilous adventure; and yet the contest lasted but twenty minutes.

There was, now, no use of attempting an attack on Huntington, for the enemy was fully aware of Tallmadge's intentions. He returned to his camp, on Dec. 8, and reported his disappointment to Washington. The latter, having failed in a simultaneous movement down the Hudson River toward New York City, was sympathetic and thankful. He thought that the failure of both Expeditions was "Providential," because the Preliminary Treaty of Peace had been signed, and many lives would have been lost unnecessarily if both of the Expeditions had been carried out. ("Memoir of Tallmadge," pp. 70-75. Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 513-516. Schenck's "Fairfield," 2. 398)

PART TWO—BIOGRAPHICAL

CAPTAINS AND MASTERS OF SHIPS

Those parts of the Revolutionary MSS. (now in the New York State Library, at Albany, N. Y.) which are given in Appendix C. show that 129 Captains, or Masters, of Ships brought the Refugees and their effects from Long Island to Connecticut. Probably there were many more whose names do not appear in the MSS.

Of the 129, there are 48 who also appear as Refugees. Biographical sketches of them will be found in "The Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut"—beginning on page 257. The 48 were:

Barns, Nathaniel	Fordham, Daniel	Ingraham, Samuel, Jr.	Sherrill, Recompence
Bayley, Gamaliel	Ephraim	Jagger, Jeremiah	Topping, Stephen
Beebe, Samuel	Nathan	Jones, Ephraim	Vail, Benjamin
Cole, Ichabod	Griffing, Daniel	King, Benjamin, Jr.	Elisha
Conkling, Benjamin	Jasper	Landon, David	John
John	Peter	Latham, Hubbard	Jonathan
Joseph	Hallock, Joseph	Rogers, Jeremiah	Joseph
Cooper, Zebulon	Havens, Daniel	Russell, Hezekiah	Webb, James
Corwin, James	Joseph	Salmon, Jonathan	John
Timothy	Walter	Sayre, David	White, William
Dyer, Nathaniel	Horton, Barnabas	Nehemiah	Wiggins, David
Farnam, Onis	Ingraham, John	Schellinger, Isaac	James

The remaining 81 Captains, or Masters, were from Connecticut, for the most part; although some of them were from Long Island. Their Biographies begin on the following page. The 81 were:

Bates, Isaac	Harris, James	Morris, Elisha	Spencer, Obadiah
Benton, Edward	John	Pelton, Ithamar	Spink, Richard
Billings, Henry	Haton, Elias	Pendleton, Amos	Stanton, Thomas
Bonticou, Peter	Howell, Peter	Ephraim	Stow, Zebulon

Griffeth, Joshua	Mason, Elijah	Scranton, Joab	Wilson, John
Hale, Daniel	Miller, Noah	Sears, Elkanah
Haley, Benjamin	Miner, John	Shaler, Samuel
Jeremiah	John 2nd	Sheffield, Isaac

The Revolutionary MSS. which are given in Appendix C. mention these Ships: schooner "Elizabeth;" sloop "Polley" and schooner "King Prussia," Capt. David Landon; schooner "Ranger," Capt. Joshua Griffeth; sloop "Nancy," Capt. Isaac Bates; schooner "Peggy," Capt. Eliphalet Budington, owner; sloop "Martine," Capt. Jasper Griffing, owner; schooner "Molley," Capt. Jacob Riley; sloop "Homberd," Capt. Thomas Leete; sloop "Humbrod," Capt. Joab Scranton; sloop "Dove," Capt. Elijah Mason, owned in part by Gov. Trumbull, and engaged in trading between Middletown and the W. Indies.

Unfortunately, no other Ships are mentioned by name; but there were many more than the above. As Long Island Sound is very narrow toward the Western end, it is probable that whale-boats and small sloops, perhaps without names, were used by the Refugees from Huntington, Smithtown and Setauket.

As a rule, the initiative in sending Ships, came from Long Island; but Capt. Richard Dickinson (Ap. I. 4) and Capt. John Cochran (Ap. I. 3) of the Army, had charge of sending Ships to Long Island, by order of the Committee of Saybrook, Connecticut. (Ap. C. 42, 43)

Almost without exception, those who sailed the Ships were called by the title of "Captain" in the documents which are given in Appendix C. But some of them, notably the Pendletons, had no such title; for they belonged to the Army, in Connecticut, and were Officers therein.

In the following Biographies, a different form of reference is used. Hitherto, in this work, reference has been made, for instance to "Appendix B. 16," or "Ap. B. 16." In this Part Two—Biographical, the reference is simply "B. 16."

BATES ISAAC, CAPT.—By the authority of the Prov'l Cong., he was employed by the Committee of Saybrook to use the sloop "Nancy" to bring the families and stock of certain Refugees from L. I. to Conn. His claim was paid to Capt. David Whittlesey. (C. 5 No. 113; C. 6, 10) He may have served in Conn. (G. 83)

It is possible that he was from Haddam, Conn., his ancestors having removed thither from Hingham, Mass.; and some of them going, later, to Claremont, N. H. (Mr. W. G. Bates) Or, he may have come from an ancestor who removed from L. I. to Conn. about 1750. (Mr. Albert C. Bates)

BENTON—Edward 1 came from England to Guilford, Conn., where he d. in 1680. (Benton Gen.) Edward 2, supposed to have been a son of Edward 1, was on the Records of Wethersfield, Conn., about 1660. His son, Edward 3, m. Mary Hale. (Stiles' "Wethersfield," pp. 96, 97, 261, 334)

BENTON EDWARD, CAPT.—(Perhaps son of Edward 3)—In 1776, he brought, for the most part from Southold to Guilford, some of the effects of these Refugees: Sept., Joshua Reeve (C. 129); Sept. and Oct., Daniel Booth (C. 166); Oct., Ezra L'Hommedieu (C. 180); same month, Abijah Windes (C. 181); same month, James Corwin (C. 35); Nov., Joshua Horton. (C. 72) He may have served in Conn. (G. 84)

BILLINGS—This family is traced through 15 generations to John Billings of Rowell, who took his name from the place of his abode, about four miles from the borough of Northampton, England. William 1, the emigrant to Dorchester and Braintree, Mass., was in the 9th gen. from John. He removed to Stonington, Conn., where he owned much land. He m., in Dorchester, Feb. 12, 1657-8, Mary ———; d. Mar. 16, 1713. His son, William 2, b. in 1660 (Wheeler's "Stonington," p. 236); m. in 1689, Hannah (b. in 1672), dau. of Roger Sterry; d. in 1738. He was in the early Colonial Wars. His son, Capt. Roger 3, b. Mar. 19, 1708; m. in 1729, Abigail (b. in 1708), dau. of William Denison. (Wheeler, as above) the inference being that he had been hired by Leffingweil (P. 171. Also C. 95) who was his uncle by marriage. He d. in 1797.

BILLINGS HENRY 4, CAPT.—(Capt. Roger 3, William 2, 1)—On Jan. 20, 1777, he received for the claim of Capt. Christopher Leffingwell (I. 7) —

He was Lt. on the Brig-of-War "Defence;" Capt. of the Privateer "Trumbull;" and he gave other service of that nature in Conn. (G. 84. Also P. 218)

He was b. Apr. 19, 1746; m. in 1770, Lucretia (b. in 1749), dau. of Benajah 3 Leffingweil, a brother of Capt. Christopher. (Wheeler as above. Also Miss Lucretia W. Smith)

BONTICOU—BONTECOU—BONTECOUX—Pierre 1 came from La Rochelle, France, to New Amsterdam (N. Y. City) in 1689. He was a merchant there as late as 1724. He m. Marguerite Collinot. His son, Timothy 2, b. June 17, 1693; m. (1), Mary ——— who d. in New Haven, Nov. 5, 1735; m. (2) Sept. 29, 1736, Mary (b. in 1704, d. in 1760), dau. of David Goodrich; d. at New Haven, Feb. 14, 1784, aged 91. He learned the trade of silversmith in France. When Tryon invaded New Haven, in 1779 (Chap. 26) he was living at the house of his son, Capt. Peter 3. The invaders were disposed to hang him, although he was 86 years old. In the house were the wife and daughter of Capt. Peter. The invaders tried to kidnap the girl, but they were prevented. (Bontecou Gen.)

Timothy 3, son of Timothy 2, m. (1) Susanna Prout; (2) Susan Gordon. Thomas 4, son of Timothy 3, was a Master Mariner, engaged in trade between New Haven and N. Y. City. He was captured during the War. He was b. in New Haven in 1766; d. in 1805. (Dr. R. Brinsmade Bontecou)

BONTICOU PETER 3, CAPT.—(Timothy 2, Pierre 1)—On Jan. 8, 1777, the Conn. Council of Safety permitted the sloop "William," Peter Bonticou, Master, with eight men, to sail for Bordeaux with 270 casks of flax seed. In Sept., 1776, he moved from L. I. to Conn. the effects of the Refugees: Daniel Haines, Capt. Daniel Hedges, Matthew Osborn, James Jennings, Elisha Mulford, Lineus Dibble, Isa Franks, Capt. John Franks and Capt. Jonathan Tuthill. The Committee of New Haven approved his claim of £64.0.10 as reasonable; and it was paid to Samuel Thacher, Apr. 15, 1777. (A. 40. Also C. 14)

He lived at New Haven where he built what is known as the "Wooster House." He was Capt. of the barque "Hawke," in the trade to Ireland and the W. Indies. During the War he returned from a voyage to the W. Indies; was captured in the harbor of N. Y. City; and confined in the Prison ship "Jersey." He escaped; but contracted the small pox on his way to New Haven, and d. at Huntington, L. I., in 1779. (Bontecou Gen. Also R. B. B.)

He was b. in 1738; m. Nov. 14, 1762, Susannah Thomas. His children who had descendants were: Polly Augusta 4, b. Aug. 13, 1763, m. Capt. Nathaniel Storer, d. Mar. 28, 1849 (she was the girl whom the enemy tried to kidnap); James 4, below; Sarah 4, b. in 1775, m. Justus Trowbridge, d. Jan. 9, 1861; David 4, below.

James 4, a sea Capt., b. in New Haven, Aug. 6, 1766; m. Joanna, dau. of Samuel Clark; d. July 12, 1806. His dau., Jane 5, m. Charles P. Bishop, of New Haven; his dau., Grace 5, m. Elisha Peck, of New Haven.

David 4, b. Mar. 17, 1777; m. Oct. 1, 1796, Polly (b. in 1776, d. in 1861), dau. of Samuel Clark; d. May 5, 1854. He removed to Coeymans, N. Y. and Troy, N. Y. His children were: Peter 5, below; Elizabeth 5, m. Leonard Witbeck; Susannah 5, m. Moses Northrup; James Clark 5; Sarah 5, m. Gilbert D. Golden; David 5; Samuel Storer 5; George 5; Edward 5; Francis 5—all of whom were prominent in Troy. (Bontecou Gen.)

Peter 5, b. at New Haven, Jan. 26, 1797; d. at Troy, N. Y., Mar. 20, 1868. He m. (1) Apr. 29, 1823, Samantha Brockway (b. in 1803, d. in 1824); (2) Aug. 6, 1828, Sophia Thompson (b. in 1806, d. in 1850). He had, 1st wife: Reed Brockway 6, below. 2d wife: James 6; Samantha Brockway 6; David 6; Julia 6; George 6; David 6; Elizabeth 6, below; Charles 6; Susan 6. Reed Brockway 6, b. at Troy, N. Y., Apr. 22, 1824; m. July 18, 1849, Susan Northrup (b. in 1828, d. in 1911); d. Mar. 27, 1907. His children were: Joanna 7; Anna Louise 7; Josephine 7; Horatio Brinsmade 7; Reed Brinsmade 7 (below). Reed Brinsmade 7, M. D., b. in Washington, D. C., Dec. 1, 1864; m. May 4, 1890, Lula May (b. in 1870), dau. of John M. Vail, of East Marion, L. I. They live in Troy, N. Y. (R. B. B.) Their children are: Susan May 8, b. Nov. 12,

1891; Louise Cluett 8, b. Nov. 29, 1892; Marion Alice 8, b. Sept. 24, 1896; Eleanore Grace 8, b. Apr. 28, 1898 (Vail Gen. p. 300); also Reed Vail 8, b. Mar. 27, 1904. Elizabeth 6, m. J. W. A. Cluett, and had eight children of whom two survive: Jessie Agnes 7, m. C. Vanderbilt Barton, lives in N. Y. City; and Louise Boutcou 7, m. Harvey Denison Cowee, lives in Troy, N. Y. (R. B. B.)

BRADLEY—Peter 1, mariner, settled at New London, Conn.; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Jonathan Brewster; d. June, 1662. His Wid. m. (2) Thomas Youngs (See Youngs in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."), of Southold, L. I., and this event transplanted the Bradley Family to L. I. Peter's son, Peter 2, b. Sept. 7, 1658; m. May 9, 1678, Mary Christophers; d. Aug. 1, 1687, leaving a son Jonathan 3 of Southold. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 278, 279)

Francis 1 settled at Fairfield, Conn., in 1660, having come thither from Branford, Conn. He had a son, John 2; and a grandson, Joseph 3. (Bradley Gen.)

BRADLEY JOSEPH, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he moved part of the effects of Ezra L'Hommiedieu from Southold to Guilford. (C. 180) He may have served in Conn. (G. 85)

While he may have been a son of Jonathan 3, he was probably Joseph 4 (Joseph 3, John 2, Francis 1). If so, he was b. in 1746; m. Martha Betts; d. in 1828. In 1791, he removed from Conn. to Albany Co., N. Y. His children were: Isaac, Joseph, Daniel, Thankful and Sarah. (Bradley Gen.)

BUDINGTON—Walter, a single man, settled near New London, Conn., in 1679; d. in 1689. His nephew, Walter, Jr., d. in 1713. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 264, 324) It was, perhaps, his son Eliphalet who m. Apr. 15, 1739, Thankful Jones. (Vital Statistics, 3. 48)

BUDINGTON ELIPHALET, CAPT.—In Nov., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Elisha Miller to Stonington in the schooner "Peggy." (C. 102) Same month, Capt. Nathaniel Barns authorized him to receipt for his (Barns') claim. (C. 203) In May, 1778, he receipted for the claims of Capt. Joseph Vail and Zophar Wood. (C. 162, 163) His claim for bringing to Stonington in the "Peggy," the families and effects of certain Refugees was paid to David Gelston, Dec. 3, 1777. The Refugees were: Samuel Sherrill, John Parsons, Stephen Pierson, Capt. Isaac Schellinger, Elisha Miller, Jacob Conkling, Peleg Miller, Lois Talmage and David Loper. (C. 204) If he was a son of Eliphalet, above, he was b. May 12, 1743. (Vital Statistics, as above)

Eliphalet Budington

CARD WILLIAM, CAPT.—On Sept. 7, 1776, he brought Capt. Thomas Wickham's corn from Gardiner's Island to the Pocatic River (C. 9); and, same month, the goods of John Hudson from the Rope Ferry to Stonington. (C. 79) He may have served in Conn. (G. 86)

COLLINS—James 1 came from England to Mass., in 1669. He had a son Daniel 2, or grandson, Daniel 3, b. in 1710; m. in 1731, Alice Pell. (Wheeler's "Stonington," p. 319) A Peter d. at New London, Conn., in 1655. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 271, 272)

COLLINS DANIEL 4 or 3, CAPT.—(Daniel 3 or 2, James 1)—He had a claim for removing powder, small arms etc. from L. I. to Guilford, Conn. Ezra L'Hommiedieu sent the claim to the Committee of Safety, Feb. 27, 1777. (P. 104. Also A. 35) He served in Conn. (G. 87)

He was b. Mar. 10, 1732; m. (1) Dec. 26, 1756, Dorothy Wells, (2) Anne Potter, Wid. of John Hilliard, of Stonington; d. Apr. 6, 1819. He lived at Stonington, Conn.; and had a large family. (Wheeler, as above) For many years he kept the tavern, in Stonington, which was built by his father, Daniel, about 1700. (Wheeler's "Homes of our Ancestors, in Stonington," pp. 19, 20)

DAVIS—John, probably from Ipswich, Mass., was one of the planters of Pequot, Conn., in 1651. His son Andrew, of Groton, Conn., m. Mary, dau. of Thomas Bailey; d. in 1719. Andrew probably had sons: Andrew, Jr., Comfort and William. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 364) See Davis, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

DAVIS JOHN, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought the effects of Maj. Silas Cook from Southampton to Guilford. (C. 30) On Nov. 7, 1777, his claim was receipted for by William Mulford. (C. 108) He served in Conn. (G. 88)

He may have descended from one of the sons of Andrew, above.

FELLOWS—William 1 came from England to Ipswich, Mass., before 1641. His son, Isaac 2, b. in England; m. Jan. 29, 1672, Joanna Brown. Isaac's son, Ephraim 3, b. Sept. 3, 1679; m. May 19, 1703, Hannah, dau. of Nathaniel Warner. Nathaniel 4, son of Ephraim 3, b. June 22, 1713; m. Mar. 2, 1737, Hopestill Holdredge. (Wheeler's "Stonington," pp. 367, 368) He was probably the one whom Griffin ("Journal," p. 69) calls Dea. Nathan, and states that he was living at Stonington, in 1784.

FELLOWS ELNATHAN 5, CAPT.—(Nathaniel 4, Ephraim 3, Isaac 2, William 1)—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Oct., Lemuel Pierson, 3d (C. 124); same month, Silas Cooper, to Stonington (C. 31); same month, Theophilus Halsey, Southampton to Stonington (C. 65); Sept., Oct. and Nov., Matthew Jagger, Bridge Hampton to Stonington (C. 84); Dec., Capt. Henry Halsey, L. I. to Mystic. (C. 63)

He was b. Aug. 13, 1751. (Wheeler, as above) He was a Dea. and a carpenter. His father, Nathaniel, built a grist mill. He had 13 children. ("Old Houses in Stonington," pp. 115, 161)

Elnathan Fellows

FITCH JOSEPHUS, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he removed from L. I. to Stonington a part of the effects of Silvanus Pierson. (C. 199) He was probably the Capt. Fitch who took Rev. Henry Van Dyke a Prisoner. (D. 32)

He may have been Joseph 3 (Joseph 2, James 1), b. Feb. 14, 1711; m. in 1738, Zerviah, dau. of Daniel Hyde, of Lebanon, Conn. Joseph 2, of Stonington, m. Sarah Morgan. James 1 m. Priscilla Mason. (Miss Lucretia W. Smith)

FULLER ASA, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he loaned his vessel to Capt. Benjamin King, Jr. to freight the goods of the latter from Sag Harbor to Middletown. (C. 216) He served in Conn. (G. 89)

It is possible that he was from Windham, Conn.; perhaps from Thomas or Edward, who were early in Plymouth, Mass. (Fuller Gen.)

GEARS JOHN, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sineus Dibble, to Guilford (C. 40); Sept., Edward Wick, East Hampton to Guilford, perhaps called "John Dutch" (C. 158); same month, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, Southampton to Simsbury (C. 128); Oct., Ezra L'Hommiedieu, Southold to Guilford (C. 180); same month, Stephen Bayley and Capt. James Corwin, to Guilford. (C. 12, 35)

He may have been from George Geer who was in New London, Conn., in 1665; d. in 1727. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 373)

GOLDSMITH WILMOT, CAPT.—From Southold, L. I. In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sept., Joshua Goldsmith, Saybrook to Chester (C. 56); same month, John Griffing and sons, up the Conn. River from Saybrook (C. 60); same month, Capt. Peter Hallock (C. 62); same month, John Terry and Capt. David Wiggins, to Saybrook (C. 145, 184); Nov., Lt. Selah Reeve (C. 130); Dec., Col. Jonathan Hedges, to Stonington. (C. 205) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15) He was one of the most daring of the Captains. (P. 222) He probably served in Conn. (G. 90)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was probably related to the Goldsmith Refugees. See Goldsmith, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn." He m. Eunice ———. His children were bapt.: Dec. 17, 1775, Unice and Daniel; Apr. 14, 1776, Samuel. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

GRAY ———, CAPT.—On Sept. 13, 1776, he brought to Conn. four passengers and goods for Israel Youngs, Sr. (C. 160) He may have served in Conn. (G. 90)

GREENFIELD STARR, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sept., Lt. Abraham Rose, to Haddam (C. 133); same month, Obadiah Gildersleeve, to Chatham (C. 55); Nov., Lt. Obadiah

Havens, Shelter Island to Saybrook (C. 69); William King, to Lyme (C. 93); Jan., 1777, Elias Mulford, to Middletown. (C. 109)

His given name would indicate that he was from Middletown, Conn.

GREGORY JABEZ, CAPT.—From Norwalk, Conn. On Oct. 24, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. for the families and goods of Pierson Brush, Samuel Vail, Ezekiel Wickes, Abner Crossman, Dr. Jonathan Havens and Ezekiel Hubbard. (F. 21) On Dec. 18, 1781, Gen. Waterbury wrote to Gov. Clinton denying a request that Capt. Gregory be allowed to go to L. I. with a Flag; and stating that all Flags must be taken by Officers belonging to the command of Gen. Waterbury. (D. 49) Capt. Gregory served in Conn. (G. 90)

As there is no Gregory Gen., the record of Capt. Jabez is rather meager. His g. grandson, Dr. James G. Gregory, of Norwalk, Conn., states that Capt. Jabcz d. Oct. 24, 1824, aged 83 ys., 9 mos. He m. Mercy St. John, who d. Oct. 28, 1839, aged 100.

GRIFFETH JOSHUA, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sept., Lt. Abraham Rose, to Haddam (C. 133); same month, and Nov., David Gelston (C. 196); Oct., Lemuel Pierson, 3d (C. 124); Nov., Lemuel Pierson, Jr. (C. 123); same month, Maltby Gelston. (C. 54) Between Sept. 5 and Oct. 10, 1776, he made six trips from L. I. to Saybrook and East Haddam with his schooner "Ranger," carrying many passengers and their goods. (C. 57)

He may have served in the 2d Line (G. 44); or in the 7th Dutchess. (G. 69) A Joshua Griffin served in the 2d and the 5th of the Line (G. 44, 49); and in the 2d Dutchess. (G. 64)

Joshua Griffeth One of his name d., in Chatham, Conn., July 1, 1813, aged 77. (Mr. Frank F. Starr) Another is buried at Patterson, Putnam Co., N. Y.

HALE DANIEL, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought part of the effects of the following Refugees: John Foster, up the Conn. River to Rocky Hill (C. 8); Sept., Capt. Elias Pelletreau, Southampton to Simsbury (C. 128); same month, Capt. Samuel L'Hommiedieu, Saybrook to Middletown (C. 175); same month, Mrs. Jerusha Gardiner, Saybrook to Hartford (C. 53); same month, Obadiah Gildersleeve, six in the family, Saybrook to Middletown (C. 55); Oct., Abraham Miller, Saybrook to Hartford. (C. 100) He may have served in Conn. (G. 91)

It is possible that he was Daniel 5 (Joseph 4, 3, John 2, Thomas 1), of Newbury, Mass., b. June 3, 1745. Or, Daniel 5 (Moses 4, 3, John 2, Thomas 1), of Mass., b. Sept. 30, 1756; served in the Army; d. Mar. 25, 1848. (Hale Gen.)

HALEY BENJAMIN, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Charles Topping from Southampton to Stonington. (C. 173)

HALEY JEREMIAH, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought part of the effects of the following Refugees: William Deval (C. 39); Silas Cooper, to Stonington (C. 31); Sept., Capt. Edward and Capt. Joseph Conkling, to Groton (C. 23); same month, Dr. Jonathan Havens, to East Haddam (C. 66); same month, Daniel Moore, Southampton to Stonington (C. 106); Sept., Oct. and Nov., Matthew Jagger, Bridge Hampton to Stonington (C. 84); Nov., Capt. Joseph Conkling. (C. 25)

Both Capt. Benjamin and Capt. Jeremiah belonged to a sea-faring family. Jeremiah may have been a son of John who m. Mary Saunders, of Groton Center, Conn. If so, he m. Catherine, dau. of Ambrose Hilyard. (Wheeler's "Stonington," pp. 408, 409)

HARRIS—Walter came from England to Weymouth, Mass., in 1632; and moved thence to Pequot Harbor Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 269-271) The relationship between Walter and Lt. James is not known.

HARRIS JAMES, CAPT.—(Son of Lt. James)—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Capt. David Howell, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 76); Sept., Capt. Jeremiah Rogers, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 208); same month, Maj. Uriah Rogers, Sag Harbor to Saybrook and Killingworth (C. 209); same month, Jonathan Conkling, to Saybrook (C. 26); same month, Jonathan Cook, to Saybrook (C. 29); same month, Col. Abraham

Gardiner (C. 52); same month, Dr. Silas Halsey, Jr., Saybrook to Killingworth (C. 64); same month, Elias Pierson (C. 126); same month, David Gelston, to Saybrook (C. 196); same month, Aaron Isaacs, East Hampton to Haddam (C. 207); same month, Nathaniel Huntting, Abraham Miller and Silas Norris, to Saybrook (C. 81, 100, 112); same month, Capt. Elias Pelle-treau, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 128); same month, Lt. Abraham Rose, to Haddam (C. 133); same month, Edward Wick, East Hampton to Guilford (C. 158); same month, Col. John Hulbert, to Saybrook (C. 182); Oct., Henry Herrick, Saybrook to Haddam (C. 206); same month, Walter Howell, to Saybrook (C. 75); Nov., Thomas Topping, Sag Harbor to Rocky Hill (C. 151); same month, Lt. Obadiah Havens, Shelter Island to Saybrook (C. 69); Sept., Oct., and Dec., Isaac Howell, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 78); Dec., Capt. David Pierson, to East Haddam. (C. 210)

He had a wharf and a store at Saybrook. (C. 78. E. 5, 6) He was in the Privateer service. (P. 218. F. 1) Men of this name served in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); and in Conn. (G. 91); but they were probably younger than Capt. James.

He was b. Jan. 26, 1699; m. (1) Ann Gilbert, (2) Mercy 4 Thacher. The date of his death is unknown. His only dau. d. after inoculation for the small pox. He went to Colchester, Conn., in 1718; to Saybrook, in 1729; to New London, in 1747; and, finally, to Saybrook, in 1748. (N. Y. Gen'l & Biog'l Rec., 42. 270)

HARRIS JOHN, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of Elias Pierson from L. I. to Saybrook. (C. 126)

While it is probable that he was from Conn., like Capt. James, above, yet he may have been John 4 (Henry 3, George 2, 1)—the ancestor, George 1, being the first of the Family in Southampton, in 1657. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 282) A John signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) Many of the name served in Conn. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n.")

See Harris, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn.;" also in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

HATON ELIAS, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of Silas Norris from L. I. to Moodus. (C. 112)

HOWELL PETER, CAPT.—From Southold. (Mr. William S. Pelle-treau) In Oct., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of Henry Herrick from Southampton to Haddam. (C. 206)

He may have been Peter 6 (Zebulon 5, 4, Joseph 3, Edward 2, 1), as given by Howell. ("Southampton," p. 307) If so, he was b. Dec. 9, 1749; and was lost at sea. See Howell, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

JOHNSON NATHAN, CAPT.—From Stonington. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he moved the effects of Jacob Conkling from East Hampton to Saybrook. (C. 24)

JOHNSON WILLIAM, CAPT.—From Lyme. He was employed by the Committee of Lyme. (P. 170. C. 186) In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: William King, to Lyme (C. 93); Sept., Israel Reeve, to Lyme (C. 187); Oct., John Clark, to Lyme, (C. 194); Oct. Thomas Hutchinson, to Guilford (C. 82); Sept. and Nov., Serjt. Joshua Salmon, to Lyme (C. 134); Oct. and Nov., Capt. Peter Hallock; same months, James Wells. (C. 193) On June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185) He may have served in Conn. (G. 92) See Johnson, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

Wm Johnson

JONES JAMES, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of Thomas Dering's effects from Shelter Island to Middletown in the schooner "Elizabeth." (C. 7) He may have served in Conn. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n") See Jones, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

KNIGHT ROBERT, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought part of the effects of the following Refugees: George Fordham (C. 50); Sept., Daniel Haines (C. 197); same month, Capt. Daniel Hedges, to Moodus (C. 183); same month, Capt. Samuel L'Hommedieu (C. 175); same month, Col. John Hulbert, to Saybrook (C. 182); same month, Obadiah Gildersleeve, Moodus to Middletown (C. 55); same month, Nathaniel Huntting, to Saybrook (C. 81); same month, Timothy Matthews, Sag Harbor to Haddam (C. 99); same month, Lt. Abraham Rose, to Haddam (C. 133); Oct., Silas Norris (C. 112); Nov., Capt. David Sayre, to East Haddam (C. 137); same month, Maltby Gelston (C. 54); Oct. and Nov., David Gelston (C. 196); Dec., James Wells. (C. 193)

If he lived on L. I., he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

LATIMER-LATTEMORE—Robert 1, m. Ann ———; d. in New London, Conn., about 1671. His son, Capt. Robert 2, b. Feb. 5, 1663-4. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 288) He m. June 8, (1695?), Elizabeth Buttolph, who d. Apr. 13, 1752, aged 83. He d. Nov. 7, 1728. Peter 3, son of Capt. Robert 2, bapt. Sept. 5, 1703. (N. London 1st Ch. Rec., p. 467) He m. Apr. 23, 1732, Hannah Pickett. (N. London Rec.) Hempstead (p. 377) says: "Son John and Daniel Starr and Peter Lattimore having come from N. London on Wednesday last and are going to East Hampton with their boat—May 29, 1741."

There seems to be no connection between this branch of the Family and the early planter, of Wethersfield, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 144, 288, 289)

LATIMER PETER 4, CAPT.—(Peter 3, Capt. Robert 2, Robert 1)—In Sept., 1776, he brought from Southold to New London a part of the effects of Rev. John Storrs, Elton Overton and Nathaniel Overton. His claim was paid to Capt. John Vail, Apr. 22, 1778. (C. 179)

LEAVENWORTH—Thomas 1, came to America after 1664; d. in 1683. His son, Thomas 2, b. in 1673; m. Mary Jenkins; d. in 1754 at Ripton, Conn. Son of Thomas 2, Rev. Mark 3, b. about 1711 at Stratford, Conn.; graduated at Yale College, in 1737; d. Aug. 20, 1797. He m. (1) Ruth Peck; (2) Sarah Hull. (Leavenworth Gen.)

LEAVENWORTH JESSE 4, CAPT.—(Rev. Mark 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Waterbury and New Haven. He appears to have been in the Illicit Trade. On Aug. 4, 1778, Gov. Trumbull wrote to him relative to an excursion that he had made to L. I. (D. 12) On Aug. 27, 1779, the Conn. Council of Safety allowed him to export to Bedford, Mass., certain stores for the schooner "Betsy," bound for the W. Indies. (Records, State of Conn., 2, 390) On Aug. 10, 1780, he was seized for his operations in the Illicit Trade; but showed a permit from the President of Congress. (Pages 202, 212, 218) He also acted as a spy for Gen. Parsons. (Hall's "Life of Parsons," p. 201) He served in Conn. (G. 93)

He was b. Nov. 22, 1740; and graduated at Yale College. He m. (1) July 1, 1761, Catharine Frisbie, Wid. of Capt. Culpepper Frisbie and dau. of John Conkling of East Hampton, or Southampton; m. (2) Eunice Sperry. He d. at Sackett's Harbor, N. Y., Dec. 12, 1824. His children were: Melines Conkling 5, b. Jan. 4, 1762, d. July 20, 1823; Ruth 5, b. Feb. 25, 1764; Dr. Frederick 5, b. Sept. 4, 1766, d. May 17, 1840; Catharine 5, b. in 1768, d. June 25, 1815; Jesse 5, b. in Aug., 1771, d. Jan. 1, 1830; Mark 5, b. Aug. 31, 1774, d. Sept. 5, 1849; Gen. Henry 5, b. Dec. 10, 1783, d. July 21, 1834. (Leavenworth Gen.) The latter was in the War of 1812.

LEETE THOMAS 5, CAPT.—(Solomon 4, William 3, Andrew 2, Gov. William 1)—In Sept., 1776, he made five trips from Southold to Guilford in the sloop "Homberd," carrying 196 passengers, cattle &c. (C. 94)

He was b. Mar. 3, 1749; m. June 30, 1773, Anna Norton, of Guilford, Conn.; d. May 27, 1830. He lived at Guilford; and had no children. (Leete Gen.) He was a brother of Elijah Leete, the Refugee. See Leete, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

L'HOMMEDIEU CONSTANT 3, CAPT.—(Peter 2, Benjamin 1)—From Southold. In Dec., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of John Paine to Conn., which (by a N. B.) "is supposed to be in his account;" but the account, or claim, is missing. (C. 171) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

He did not remain in Conn. any length of time. He was b. ———, ———; m. Oct —, 1758, Deborah, dau. of John and Dorcas Young; d. ———. His children were: William 4, b. June 10, 1759; Nathaniel 4, b. Aug 19, 1762; Deborah 4, d. y.; Sarah 4, b. Aug. 1, 1767; Hannah 4, b. Sept. 21

1769, d. Apr. 17, 1854; John 4, b. Jan. 31, 1772; Betsy 4, b. Oct. 1774. Nathaniel Constant 5, son of Nathaniel 4, b. Mar. 4, 1810, had the original L'Hommedieu Bible. I have never been able to trace any other children of Peter 2, except his son, Capt. Constant 3. (Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu)

See L'Hommedieu, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

LESTER—Andrew 1, came to New London, Conn., from Gloucester, Mass., in 1650; he d., in 1669. He m. (1) Barbara ———; (2) Joanna, Wid. of Robert Hempstead; (3) Ann ———. His sons were: Daniel 2, b. Apr. 15, 1642, d. Jan. 11, 1716–17; Andrew 2, b. Dec. 26, 1644, d. in 1708; Timothy 2, b. July 4, 1662, had no descendants; Joseph 2, b. June 15, 1664; and Benjamin 2. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 67, 286, 287) Caulkins' statement as to the marriage of Andrew 1 to Wid. Hempstead is disputed.

LESTER ANDREW, CAPT.—In partnership with Capt. Noah Lester, below, he brought "people and stock" from L. I. to Conn., in 1776; but the items of his claim do not appear. The claim was paid to James Wells. (C. 192) He may have served in Conn. (G. 93)

LESTER NOAH, CAPT.—Aside from the partnership with Capt. Andrew Lester, above, he also, in 1776, brought goods and corn from L. I. to Guilford for Adj. John Tuthill. (C. 152) His claim was paid to David Gelston and Ezra L'Hommedieu. (C. 6)

Both Capt. Andrew and Capt. Noah probably descended from Andrew 1. The Refugees of this name seem to have had an ancestor, Joseph. See Lester, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

LOCKWOOD SAMUEL, CAPT.—From Greenwich. Before Sept. 14, 1780, he took from L. I. the suspects, Cable and Ludlam. (F. 122) This was done as a part of his Whale-Boat Service for the U. S. on the Sound. (P. 222. Also B. 42. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.", p. 250) He acted as a spy for Gen. Parsons. (Hall's "Life of Parsons," p. 201)

He had an amphibious service—for he was also in Col. Lamb's Art'y (G. 50, 93); in Col. Moylan's Light Dragoons ("Archives," as above); and perhaps in the 4th Westchester. (G. 80) He served in Conn. (G. 93)

The Lockwood Gen. gives no lineage; but, p. 116, it is mentioned that he broke the teeth of Dea. Daniel Lockwood, of Greenwich, who was a Churchman. See Lockwood, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

McALPIN DANIEL, CAPT.—In Dec., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of Capt. Henry Halsey to Groton, in the sloop "Lively." (C. 63)

MANWARING—Oliver, son-in-law of Joshua Raymond, was in New London, Conn., in 1664. Capt. Peter Manwaring, probably a nephew of Oliver, was in New London before 1700. He was shipwrecked and drowned, in 1723. His children were daughters. Thomas, probably a younger brother of Capt. Peter, m. in 1722, Esther Christophers, and is the ancestor of The Lyme, Conn., branch of the Family. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 145, 241, 366, 367. Hempstead's "Diary," pp. 11, 16, 17, 22, 23, 46, 135) Thomas was m. Feb. 14, 1721–2. (Vital Statistics, 2, 67)

MANWARING PETER, CAPT.—From Shelter Island. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) It is also stated that he was from Lyme. (C. 202) In 1776, he moved from Lyme to Westerly, R. I., a part of the effects of James King. (C. 202) As he served in Conn. (G. 94), he was probably from Lyme.

He was a son of Thomas, above; and was b. June 7, 1730. (Vital Statistics, as above)

MASON—Maj. John 1, b. about 1600; d. in 1672. He was at Dorchester, Mass., in 1630; at Windsor, Conn., in 1635; at Saybrook, in 1647; and at Norwich, in 1660. He m. (2) about 1639–40, Anne Peck. (Perkins' "Old Houses of Norwich," pp. 533–535) His son, Capt. John 2, of Norwich, b. in 1646; m. Abigail Fitch; d. in 1676. Capt. John 3, son of Capt. John 2, b. in 1673; m. MASON ELIJAH 4, CAPT.—(Capt. John 3, 2, Maj. John 1)—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Oct., Ezekiel Sandford, to East Haddam (C. 135); Nov., David Gelston (C. 196); same month, Daniel Howell, Sag Harbor to Saybrook. (C. 73) In Sept., Oct. and Nov., he was employed 42 days in transporting stock from L. I. to Conn. (C. 98) In

Nov., he receipted for the claim of Zachariah Pierson. (C. 125) He served in Conn. (G. 94) He was bapt. June 12, 1715; m. Martha Brown; d. Mar. 27, 1798. (Perkins, as above)

Elijah Mason

MILLER NOAH, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he made one trip with his boats to L. I. for Refugees, by order of the Committee of Saybrook. (P. 169. Also C. 42, 43) He may have served in Conn. (G. 94) It is possible that he was from Lyme.

See Miller, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

MINER—MINOR—Thomas 1, was one of the early settlers at New London, Conn., in 1647. He m. Grace, dau. of Walter Palmer; and d. Oct. 23, 1690. He had sons: John 2, Joseph 2, Thomas 2, Clement 2, Ephraim 2, Manasseh 2 and Samuel 2. Clement 2 had sons: Joseph 3, Clement 3 and William 3. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 60, 72, 143, 326, 327) John 2, b. at Charlestown, Mass., in 1635; m. Oct. 14, 1658, Elizabeth Booth; d. Sept. 17, 1719. He lived at Fairfield, Conn. His wife d. Oct. 24, 1732, aged 98. His son, John 3, b. Sept. 9, 1659. Ephraim 2, m. Hannah Avery, and had a son, John 3, b. Apr. 19, 1685; m. May 5, 1709, Mary Eldredge. John 4, son of John 3, b. Apr. 15, 1714. (Wheeler's "Stonington") Another John, son of Rufus and Mary Miner, b. Sept. 18, 1741. (Miss Grace D. Wheeler)

Thomas 1 removed to Quamabaug, near Stonington, Conn., in 1653-4; where he lived until his death, in 1690. The original house was destroyed; but his descendants, in the 9th generation, still live in the house erected on the site of the original house. (Mr. George W. Betts. Also Miner Gen.)

MINER JOHN, CAPT.—In 1776, he removed a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Silas Cooper, to Stonington (C. 31); Sept., Aaron Isaacs, East Hampton to

John Miner

Haddam (C. 207); same month, Lt. Elias Halsey, to Stonington (C. 198); Oct., Capt. William White, to Saybrook (C. 156); same month, Daniel Haines, to East Haddam (C. 197); Sept., Oct. and Nov., Matthew Jagger, Bridge Hampton to Stonington. (C. 84)

Either he or John 2d probably served in Conn. (G. 94)

MINER JOHN, 2d., CAPT.—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sept., Burnet Miller, East Hampton to Stonington (C. 101); same month, Serjt. John Mulford and Aaron Isaacs, Jr., to Stonington (C. 110); Dec., Silvanus Pierson, to Stonington. (C. 199)

His will, drawn Dec. 28, 1762, executed Mar. 5, 1782, mentions his brother Rufus, only. (Wills, 4. 57) On Oct. 14, 1776, he signed a Rev'y War Memorial. (Chesebrough Gen., p. 541)

It is difficult to identify Capt. John and Capt. John, 2d. They were more likely cousins, or uncle and nephew; probably not father and son.

John Miner 2

MORRIS ELISHA, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of James King to Saybrook. (C. 202)

PELTON ITHAMAR, CAPT.—In Nov., 1776, he brought a large quantity of the effects of Thomas Dering from Shelter Island to Middletown. His claim was paid to Thomas Dering. (C. 7)

He was probably the one mentioned in Pelton Gen., p. 284, who was b., at Chatham, Conn., in 1744; m. in 1787, Elizabeth Hall; d. at Chatham, in 1806-7. He followed the sea all of his life. During the War he commanded REDFIELD—William 1, was in the vicinity of New London, Conn., in 1654; d. in 1662. His son, James 2, was on the Rate List of 1666. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 279, 280) Redfield Gen. states that William 1 came from England to America, about 1635. He was in Boston and Cambridge, Mass., as early as 1639, and occupied a homestead. His son, James 2, b. about 1646. Theophilus 3, son of James 2, b. in 1682. Richard 4, second son of Theophilus 3, b. June 18, 1711. He lived at Killingworth, Conn., and was a sea Capt. He m. (1) Mary Chatfield, of Killingworth, the mother of Capt. Eliphalet, the eldest son, below.

REDFIELD ELIPHALET 5, CAPT.—(Richard 4, Theophilus 3, James 2, William 1)—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Sept., Israel Youngs (C. 160); same month, Isaac Howell (C. 78); same month, Peter King, to Middletown (C. 90); Nov., Alsop Paine. (C. 118)

He was b., at Killingworth, July 24, 1736; m. June 15, 1767, Anna Stannard; date of death unknown. It is stated that he was a mariner. His children (all b. at Clinton, Conn.) were: William 6, b. Feb. 3, 1768, m. Oct. 1, 1790, Rhoda Tooker, or Tucker, and was a pilot on L. I. Sound; Mary 6, b. Mar. 10, 1771, m. Jabez Waterman, of Glastonbury, Conn.; John 6, b. Aug. 1, 1773, d. at sea; Anne 6, b. Nov. 17, 1782, m. Capt. James Farnham, of Clinton, son of Jehiel and Mary Farnham; Sarah Ann 6, b. May 14, 1792, m. William Vail, d. July, 1857. William Vail, son of Daniel and Ann Vail, was a pilot on the N. Y. and Hartford line of steam-boats. (Redfield Gen.) William 6 Vail (Daniel 5, Stephen 4, Thomas 3, Jeremiah 2, 1), b. at Chatham, Mass., May 6, 1791; m. in 1812, Sarah Ann Redfield; lived at Clinton. He had seven children. (Vail Gen., pp. 145, 146)

REDPATH JOHN, CAPT.—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Zebulon Thompson, Sag Harbor to Puttypough (C. 149); Oct., Capt. William White, to Saybrook (C. 156); same month, Lt. Silas Jessup, to Saybrook (C. 88); Nov., James Sayre, to East Haddam. (C. 136)

RILEY JACOB, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Capt. Daniel Hedges from Saybrook to Chester. (C. 183) In the same month, he brought, in the schooner "Polly," or "Molly," probably to Wethersfield, passengers and goods for these Refugees: John Moore, Daniel Rackett, David Welden, ——— Bayley, Jonathan Wells, Lt. Daniel Reeve, ——— Case, Esq., Jonas Youngs, Jonathan Rackett, Wid. Abigail Brown and Duncan Tuthill. (C. 131)

He was probably a descendant of the first of the Family in Conn., in 1643. There is buried, at Rocky Hill, Conn., Mrs. Abigail, wife of Capt. Jacob Riley. She d. Aug. 8, 1788, aged 41. (Rocky Hill Rec.)

ROBINSON—Rowland 1 came to America, in 1675. He m. Mary Allen; d. in 1716. His son, Gov. William 2, b. in 1693; d. in 1751. Gov. William 2, m. (1) Martha Potter; (2) Abigail, Wid. of Caleb Hazard, and dau. of William Gardiner. (Robinson Gen.)

ROBINSON THOMAS, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Sept., Capt. Thomas Wickham, wheat to Stonington (C. 9); same month, Col. Abraham Gardiner (C. 52); same month, Dr. Jonathan Havens, to East Haddam (C. 66); same month, Elias Halsey, to Stonington (C. 198); same month, Aaron Isaacs, East Hampton to Stonington (C. 207); Oct., Jonathan Paine, to East Haddam (C. 172, 174); Nov., Esq. John Mulford, to Stonington (C. 110); same month, Daniel Moore, Southampton to Stonington (C. 106); Dec., Col. Jonathan Hedges, to Stonington (C. 205); same month, Serjt. Samuel White (C. 211); same month, Capt. Stephen Topping, Southampton to Stonington. (C. 173) He may have served in the 5th Line (G. 49); in the Ass'd Exempts of Dutchess (G. 71); or in Conn. (G. 97) It is possible that he was

Thomas Robinson

Thomas 3, son of Gov. William 2. If so, he was b. in 1730; m. Sarah Richardson; d. in 1817. (Robinson Gen.)

See Robinson, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

ROCKWELL WILLIAM, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, from Norwich, he sent a bill of expenses for bringing stock from L. I. in the sloop "Patty." He went to Montauk and East Hampton after the stock, in company with Capt.

Joseph Mather, by order of Col. Oliver Wolcott. (C. 132) In Sept. and Oct., same year, as Master of the Sloop "Polly" he made several trips from L. I. to New London and Norwich, by order of Capt. Christopher Leffingwell. (C. 95) He may have served in the 2d Westchester (G. 78); and in Conn. (G. 97)

Probably he was William 5 (James 4, Joseph 3, Samuel 2, Capt. William 1). William 1 was of Norwich, Conn. (Rockwell Gen.) Many of the name are buried at Middletown, Conn. (See also Page 171; and A. 32)

ROLAND EDWARD, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Thomas Hutchinson to Guilford. (C. 82)

See Ruland, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

RUGGLES EZEKIEL, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Edward Wick from East Hampton to Guilford. (C. 158)

He may have been Ezekiel 4 (Thomas 3, John 2, John 1). John 1 was of Roxbury, Mass.; and Thomas 3 was of Guilford, Conn. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 25 164 and 28 214)

RUSSELL JOHN, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Adj't. John Tuthill to Guilford (C. 152); and, in Sept. of that year, he brought the effects of Dr. Benjamin and Margaret Chapin from Saggs to Conn. (C. 17) He may have served in the 1st Line (G. 43); in the 4th Line (G. 48); in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); in the 7th Dutchess (G. 69); in the 4th, or the Ass'd Exempts, of Westchester (G. 80, 81); and in Conn. (G. 97)

He may have been the John, of Bridge Hampton, L. I., who bought land in East Hampton, L. I., in 1760. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 437) Or, he may have been John 5 (Thomas 4, Joseph 3, John 2, 1), of Providence, R. I. If so, he was b. Apr. 12, 1737; m. Martha Martin; d. July 8, 1813. He was a Comm'y, and fitted out boats for his brothers, Joseph and William. (Russell Gen.) See Russell, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

SALSBURY J., CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Ens. Jacob Conkling, East Hampton to Saybrook (C. 24); Lt. Obadiah Havens, to Saybrook. (C. 68) He commanded the Privateer sloop "Industry." (Page 218. Also G. 98)

SANFORD SAMUEL, CAPT.—In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Joseph and Jonathan Conkling to Chester. (C. 27) He probably served in Conn. (G. 98)

He may have been from Southampton or East Hampton. See Sanford, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

According to the Sanford Gen, he may have been Samuel 5 (Samuel 4, John 3, 2, 1), b. in R. I., Nov. 21, 1716; or, Samuel 6 (Restcome 5, Samuel 4, John 3, 2, 1), b. Oct. 11, 1737.

SCRANTON—John 1, came from England to Guilford, Conn., in 1639; d. Aug. 27, 1671. While his descendants are numerous, the name Joab does not appear among them. (Mr. Charles G. Stone) John 1 m. twice; as did his son, John 2. John 3, b. about 1676; d. in 1723. Noah 4, b. in 1715; d. in 1760. (Scranton Gen.)

SCRANTON JOAB, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, under the direction of the Committee of Guilford, he brought over a number of the Refugees, with their stock. He used his sloop "Humbrod," with Giles Tabe (or Taber) Master. His claim of £ 5.9 4½ was approved by the Committee. (Page 169. Also C. 139)

It is probable that he was Job 5 (Noah 4, John 3, 2, 1), of Madison, Conn. He was b. Feb. 28, 1750; m. Mehitabel ———, of Saybrook; and had William, Abel and Betsy. (Scranton Gen.)

SEARS ELKANAH 5, CAPT.—(Joshua 4, Paul 3, 2, Richard 1) — In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of these Refugees: Sept., Col. John Hulbert, to Middletown (C. 182); Dec., Capt. David Pierson, to Moodus. (C. 210) He was in the Privateer service. (Sears Gen.)

It is related of Capt. Elkanah that his vessel was captured by a British ship; and he and one of his men were made prisoners, and were confined on board the ship. From what he saw and heard, he suspected that preparations were making for their execution in the morning. He told his suspicion to his man, and proposed to escape by swimming ashore. The man thought the attempt desperate; but Sears replied "I would rather trust my neck in the water than to the rope." About midnight they eluded the sleepy guard, and let themselves into the water; but they were soon discovered, and fired upon. Sears reached the shore but his man gave out. Sears then took a boat, picked the man up, and both escaped in safety. Nothing daunted by his hair-breadth escape, he went to work immediately to fit out another vessel. (Miss Carrie D. Sears)

In 1746, he removed with his parents to that part of Middletown, Conn., now called Chatham. After his marriage, he lived on a farm, West of Pocotopaug Lake, in E. Hampton, Conn. In 1778, he deeded land there to his son Isaac who, afterward, removed to the State of N. Y. In 1795, other land, in E. Hampton, was deeded to his son Willard who remained there. He devised $15,000 to his children. In 1780, he was on a Committee to provide necessities for the Continental Army. (Miss C. D. S.)

For his ancestry, see Sears, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn." He was b. Apr. 12, 1734; m. Jan. 6, 1757, Ruth White; d. at E. Hampton, Conn., Nov. 24, 1816. His children were: Isaac 6, b. Nov. 3, 1757; Willard 6, b. Sept. 8, 1760; Ruth 6, b. Mar. 13, 1763, d. y.; Ruth 6, b. Mar. 21, 1765, m. Joshua Bailey, d. in 1830; Rachel 6, b. Sept. 9, 1768, m. Nathaniel Bailey, d. Sept. 19, 1850. (Sears Gen.) He also had a son, Benjamin 6. (Miss C. D. S.)

Willard 6 served in the Rev'y War. He had sons: Willard 7, of Cobalt, Conn., whose dau. now lives in Boston, Mass.; Ogden 7, d. in S. Berne, N. Y., leaving two daughters who had children: Stephen Griffith 7, below; Elijah Clark 7, below; and Selden Philo 7, of W. Hartford, Conn. The two last named joined the Sons of the American Revolution as "real Sons." Stephen Griffith 7, of E. Hampton, Conn., had: Clark Osprey 8, of E. Hampton; Cushman Allen 8, M. D., of Portland, Conn.; Mary Elizabeth 8, m. Bennett Gillette; and Caroline D. 8, of E. Hampton, Conn. Elijah Clark 7, removed to Canton, S. Dak., and d. there, in 1911, aged 105. He had six children, of whom: one son lives in N. Dak.; another in Indiana; one dau., in Los Angeles, Cal.; and another, in Chicago, Ill. Cushman Allen 8, M. D., has been a practicing physician for 40 years. His son, Walter Chadwick 9, M. D., of

Providence, R. I., m. (1) Caroline Sheldon, of Burlington, Vt., and had Cushman Allen 10, b. in 1901; m. (2) Irene M. MacMillin. (Miss C. D. S.)

Elkanah Sears

SHALER—SHAILER—SHAYLER—Thomas 1 was at Haddam, Conn. He m. in 1671, Alice, dau. of Jared Spencer—also a first settler. Thomas 1 sailed for the W. Indies, in 1692; and was lost at sea. (Savage's "Gen'l Dict.") He had a son, Thomas 2, b. about 1674; m. in 1696, Catharine ———; and had sons, Samuel 3 and Hezekiah 3. Samuel 3 had a son, Asa 4; a grandson, Samuel 5; and a g. grandson, Samuel 6, who was a sailor, and d. without issue. (MS. Record, by Mr. William G. Shailer, in the possession of Mr. William W. Shailer, Ivoryton, Conn.)

SHALER SAMUEL, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of these Refugees: David Gelston, from L. I. to Conn. (C. 196); same month, Capt. Joseph Tillinghast, Saybrook to Haddam (C. 176); same month, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, East Haddam to Simsbury (C. 128); Oct., Henry Herrick, Saybrook to Haddam. (C. 206)

He may have been Samuel 4 (Hezekiah 3, Thomas 2, 1); or, Samuel 6 or Samuel 5 (Asa 4, Samuel 3, Thomas 2, 1)—(MS. Record, as above)

SHEFFIELD—Joseph 1, came from England to Portsmouth, R. I., before 1643. His son, Ichabod 2, m. in 1694, Elizabeth Manchester. He had a son, Ichabod 3. (Records of Sarah Bradford, of New Orleans, La., in 1904—secured by Mrs. Charles B. Nichols, Albany, N. Y.)

SHEFFIELD ISAAC 4, CAPT.—(Ichabod 3, 2, Joseph 1)—In Sept. 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees to Stonington: Silas Cooper (C. 31); Serjt. Samuel White (C. 211); Elisha Miller, (C. 102); Matthew Pierson, Jr. (C. 127); Silvanus Pierson (C. 199); in Nov., Col. Jonathan Hedges. (C. 205) From Sag Harbor to Stonington, Sept. 1776: David Parsons, Capt. Stephen Topping, Matthew Pierson, David Hand, Col. David Mulford, Jeremiah Halsey, Anthony Ludlam, Robert Sheffield, Joseph Ellis, John Parsons and Burnet Miller. (P. 170. Also C. 212) He receipted for the claims of Capt. Amos Pendleton (C. 213) and Capt. Ephraim Pendleton. (C. 214)

He was b. Sept. 30, 1695; d., probably in 1778—although the Bradford Rec. states, Mar. 7, 1773. His son, Acors 4, b. June 10, 1741; m. Nov. 25, 1761; d. ———. Children of Acors 4: Lois 5, b. Sept. 25, 1762, m. B. Cutler, d. Oct. 17, 1820; Mary 5, b. Feb. 24, 1768, m. John Rathbone, d.

Mar. —, 1840; Sarah 5, b. Aug. 7, 1769, m. Edmond Flemming, d. Apr. —, 1844; Acors, Jr. 5, b. Dec. 24, 1771, d. Dec. 20, 1808; Elizabeth 5, below; Nancy, 5, b. Aug. 7, 1778, m. William Pendleton; Hannah 5, b. Mar. 16, 1781, d. Oct. 2, 1828.

Elizabeth 5, b. Dec. 20, 1774; m. Dec. 31, 1803, William Nexsen (b. in 1772, d. in 1842); d. Dec. 24, 1825. Nexsen child—Elizabeth 6, b. Sept. 5, 1806; m. May 26, 1829, Andrew E. Brown (b. in 1803, d. in 1875); d. Mar. 4, 1886. Son of Elizabeth 6 Brown—Hamilton Bogart Brown 7, b. Mar. 31, 1851; m. Sept. 3, 1879, Caroline G. Squire (b. in 1857); d. Nov. 13, 1910. Their dau., Elizabeth Sheffield Brown 8, b. June 23, 1880, m. June 19, 1909, Rev. Charles Harold Fitch, of Bramford, Ipswich, England. Mrs. Fitch has in her possession a china tea caddy and a bowl beautifully decorated, with Chinese faces, gardens, etc., a carved ivory fan and other works of art, which Capt. Isaac Sheffield brought from China. They have been handed down to the oldest living Elizabeth, by direct line. It has been the custom for these Elizabeths to receive the sprinkling in baptism from this bowl. (Bradford Rec. Also Dr. Charles L. Squire) See Sheffield, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

Isaac Sheffield

SPENCER—Thomas 1 was a freeman at Cambridge, Mass., May 14, 1634; at Hartford, Conn., in 1637; Serjt. of a Train Band, in 1650. His son, Obadiah 2, was a freeman at Hartford, in 1658; m. Mary Disborough; d. in 1712. ("Mem'l Hist. Hartford," p. 259) Obadiah 3, son of Obadiah 2, b. in 1666; m. Ruth —; d. Aug. 22, 1741. He had six children. (Same ref., p. 205. Also Goodwin's "Gen'l Notes")

SPENCER OBADIAH, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought from Southold to Guilford these Refugees, with their families and effects: Samuel Griffing, Capt. Daniel Griffing, Adjt. John Tuthill, John Darrow, Wid. Mary Hubbard and Wid. Mehitable Tuthill. (C. 59) He probably served in Conn. (G. 98)

He may have been Obadiah 4 (Obadiah 3, 2, Thomas 1), as above. Or, Obadiah 7 (Obadiah 6, 5, Thomas 4 &c). If so, Obadiah 7 must have been b. before 1741. ("The Thomas Spencer Family, of Hartford")

SPINK RICHARD, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought from L. I. to New London the effects of the Refugees: John Conkling, Isaac Overton, John Overton and Elton Overton. (C. 178)

He was probably from the Eastern part of Conn., and related to those of the name in R. I. He m. (1) Alice (?) (2) Elizabeth(?). Calling him the first generation, one line of descent is: Richard 1 Spink; Lydia 2 Spink, m. Jeremiah Johnson; Betsy 3 Johnson, m. Jonathan Collins; Jane 4 Collins, m. Christopher Spencer, of Guilford, and had in the 5th gen., Frederick C. Spencer, Edward S. Spencer and Walter T. Spencer. (Sarah Brown Fowler) Another line is: Richard 1 Spink; Ishmael 2 Spink, m. Deliverance Hall; Shibnah 3 Spink, m. Deborah —; Shibnah 4 Spink, m. Delight Clothier. (Mrs. Louise M. Clothier)

My grandfather, Capt. Joseph Spink was a coaster, the owner and master of his vessel. While Washington was in, and near, New York, in 1776, Capt. Spink loaded his vessel with supplies at New London and sailed to Brooklyn. On his return, he was halted by Tories; but was released, and returned to New London. He made a second trip successfully; but was again captured and held a Prisoner till the end of the War. His wife had died before this. He had two daughters; of whom Betsey was the eldest. Capt. Spink was 40 years old when he was captured. He died at Branford, Conn., in 1836, aged 100. (Mr. William B. Rowe)

STANTON — Judge Thomas 1 was on the bench at the first Court of New London Co., Conn., in 1666. Before this, he had been an Indian interpreter. He d. before 1688. His sons were: Thomas 2, d. in 1718, aged 80; John 2, d. in 1713, aged 72; Joseph 2, bapt. in 1646; Daniel 2, d. before 1688; and Robert 2, d. in 1724, aged 71. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 249, 296, 297) Robert 2 had a son, Thomas 3. Thomas 2 had a son, William 3. (Stanton Gen.)

STANTON THOMAS, CAPT.—From Stonington. (C. 211) In Sept., 1776, he brought three horses to Stonington for Capt. Nathan Fordham. (C. 51)

He may have been the Thomas who signed a Rev'y Memorial, Oct. 14, 1776 (Chesebrough Gen., pp. 540, 541); or the Lt. Thomas who was with Col. Douglass' Conn. State Troops, at Boston, in Mar., 1776 (Same ref., p. 386); or Qr. Mr. Thomas, on the "Oliver Cromwell," Apr. 28—June 7, 1779, and was killed. (Conn. Hist'l Soc. Collections, 8. 263)

The Stanton Gen. is not clear as to the several Thomases. Capt. Thomas may have been Thomas 4 (William 3, Thomas 2, 1), b. July 11, 1713; m. Elizabeth Bell and had nine children; d. Jan. 24, 1784. Or, Thomas 5 (son of Thomas 4), b. Nov. 22, 1747. Both Thomas 4 and Thomas 5 were from Stonington, Conn. (Stanton Gen.) It is more likely that he was Thomas 4 (Thomas 3, Robert 2, Thomas 1), b. in Stonington, in 1729; m. Sarah Chesebrough, and had 11 children; d. in 1799. (Stanton Gen. Chesebrough Gen.)

STOW ZEBULON, CAPT.—From Middletown "Upper Houses," (now Cromwell). In Sept., 1776, the Committee of Saybrook hired Zebulon Stow and Co. to transport the families, stock etc. of a number of the Refugees to Saybrook and along the Conn. River, as follows: Tuthill and King, Daniel Tuthill and Maj. Nathaniel King, Capt. Joseph Havens, Lt. Obadiah Havens, Braddock Corey, Capt. Nathan Post, Jonathan Conkling, Abraham Hand, Elias Mulford, Abraham Sayre, Edward Howell, Capt. Daniel Hedges, Hunting Miller, Cornelius Basset, Samuel Mulford, Peter King, William Deval, Elisha King, Henry Hallock, Zebulon Pierson, Samuel Parsons and Jonathan Fowler. The claim was paid to Joseph Smith, one of the owners. (Pp. 169, 208. Also C. 144)

Capt. Zebulon 5 (Joseph 4, Thomas 3, 2, John 1), bapt. June 28, 1747; m. (1) Rosetta Riley, (2) Hannah Warner. (Adams' "Middletown Upper Houses," p. 701) He d. Apr. 6, 1802, aged 62. (Tombstone at Cromwell)

TABE (TABER?) GILES, MASTER—See Capt. Joab Scranton, above. He may have lived at Lyme, Conn.

See Taber, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

TITUS JOHN 5, CAPT.—(John 4, 3, Abel 2, Robert 1)—In Oct., 1776, he moved the family and goods of Capt. Calvin Moore from L. I. to Middletown. (C. 104)

A John Titus, of Queens Co., signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9) A Capt. John Titus served in Kings Co. (G. 41); and a private of the name, in the 1st Line. (G. 43) This Capt. John was of the Dutch Family of Titus, whose original name was De Vries. (Mr. Edmund D. Titus)

The Ancestry of Capt. John, as given above, is from the N. Y. Gen'l & Biog'l Rec., 12. 98. See also Titus, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn." He was a son of John and Susannah (Rogers) Titus. He was born at Huntington, L. I., July 15, 1745; bapt. there, June 24, 1752; m. Dec. 27, 1767, Abigail Johnston; d. in 1789-90. He was master of a coasting vessel. Some time after the Revolution, seeing a British War vessel bearing down on him, and fearing a press gang he, with his young son Thomas, jumped over board, hoping to swim the three miles to shore; but both were drowned. (E. D. T.)

His children were: Ebenezer 6, b. May 20, 1768; Anna 6, b. Sept. 28, 1770; Thomas 6, b. Nov. 1, 1773; Mary 6, b. Apr. 13, 1776; Elizabeth 6, b. Aug. 1, 1779; Susanna 6, b. Feb. 27, 1782; Abigail 6, b. Aug. 24, 1784; John 6, b. Mar. 30, 1787; William 6, b. Feb. 1, 1789. (E. D. T.)

TRUMAN—TREMAM—TREMAMINE—Joseph 1 came to New London, Conn., in 1666; d. in 1697. He had sons, Joseph 2 and Thomas 2. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 337) Joseph 2 had a son, Eleazor 3, b. Dec. 6, 1705; m. Mary Clark. (Truman Gen.)

TRUMAN CLARK 4, CAPT. (Eleazor 3, Joseph 2, 1)—Probably from Sag Harbor. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) In 1776, he brought William Deval and has grain from L. I. to Conn. (C. 39) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

East Hampton Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. at New London, Sept. 26, 1736. (Truman Gen.)

See Truman, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

TUTHILL PETER, CAPT.—From Southold. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) In Oct., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Serjt. Maj. Patrick Sinnott from Saybrook to Chester. (C. 142) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He may have served in Conn. (G. 99)

See Tuthill, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

WARNER WILLIAM, CAPT.—He commanded the sloop "Betsey," In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Capt. Thomas Wickham, passengers and freight, to Stonington (C. 9); Daniel Howell, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 73); Serjt. Samuel White, Sag Harbor to Stonington (C. 211); Silvanus Jennings, the same (C. 201); John Squire, to Stonington (C. 143); David Gelston. (C. 196) Also, in Nov., Capt. Joseph Conkling. (C. 25)

He was in the Privateer service (See Page 218). He probably served in Conn. (G. 100) Men of this name served in the 2d Line (G. 44); in the 4th Dutchess (G. 66); and as a Lt., in the Ass'd Exempts of Westchester. (G. 81)

He may have been William 6 (Caleb 5, Daniel 4, 3, 2, William 1 who came to Ipswich, Mass., in 1637). If so, he was b. in 1756; d. at Ipswich, in 1827. ("Posterity of William Warner," p. 9) Or, William 6 (Daniel 5, Robert 4, Seth 3, Robert 2, Andrew, Sr., 1). If so, he was b. at Middletown, Conn., in 1747; m. Sarah ———; d. in 1821. (Warner Gen.) William, of Canaan, Conn., was in the Rev'y Army with nine of his sons. One of the sons was known as Capt. William. (Mr. Wilbur F. Warner)

See Warner, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

WATROUS—formerly WATERHOUSE—Jacob 1, one of the early settlers at New London, Conn., d. in 1676. His sons were: Isaac 2, settled in Lyme, Conn.; Abraham 2, settled in Saybrook, Conn.; Jacob 2; John 2; Joseph 2; and Benjamin 2. Jacob 2 had sons: John 3, William 3, Robert 3, Joseph 3, and Gideon 3. John 2 had a son, Jacob 3. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 177, 295)

WATEROUS EBER, CAPT.—In 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Sept., Benjamin Paine, Southold to Middletown (C. 119); Sept. and Oct., Ens. Daniel Conkling, to Stonington. (C. 21)

It is probable that he belonged to the Lyme branch.

WHITMORE—WHITTEMORE—In Conn., this name is often known as Wetmore. Francis 1 was in Cambridge, Mass., about 1630. (Whitmore Gen.)

WHITMORE ———, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he brought household goods for Joseph Topping from Saybrook to Middletown. (C. 150)

He was probably in the 4th or 5th gen. from Francis 1.

WHITTLESEY—John 1 came to Saybrook, Conn., in 1635. He had a son, Eliphalet 2; and a grandson, Eliphalet 3. (Whittlesey Gen.)

WHITTLESEY DAVID, CAPT.—In Sept., 1776, he brought Nathaniel Griffing and his mare across the Sound, probably to Saybrook. (C. 60) In Dec., 1778, he receipted for the claim of Capt. Isaac Bates. (C. 10)

He may have been David 4 (Eliphalet 3, 2, John 1). If so, he was b. at Newington, Conn., Aug. 18, 1750; m. (1) in 1779, Abigail Judson, m. (2) Martha Pomeroy; d. Jan. 31, 1825. He had six children. (Whittlesey Gen.)

WILCOX DAVID, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought freight to Stonington for Silvanus Jennings. (C. 201) He may have served in Dubois' Levies (G. 59); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 100)

WILCOX HEZEKIAH, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought to Stonington a part of the effects of Zophar Wood (C. 163); also freight for Silvanus Jennings. (C. 201)

WILCOX JOHN, CAPT.—In Oct., 1776, he loaned his boat to Ens. Jacob Conkling for the transportation of Refugees and their goods from L. I. (C. 157) He may have served in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); in Conn. (G. 100); or as private or Lt. in the 2d Line. (G. 44)

It is possible that he was a son of William, who m. Elizabeth Brown, June 5, 1727. If so, he was b. at Stonington, Conn., July 16, 1734. (Vital Statistics, p. 151)

WILLARD ———, CAPT.—In 1776, he brought the wife, children and household goods of Capt. David Howell, from Sag Harbor to Saybrook. (C. 76)

WILLIAMS CHARLES, CAPT.— From Saybrook. In 1776, he brought a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Ezekiel Howell, to East Haddam (C. 77); Nathaniel Hunting, to Saybrook (C. 81); Isaac Jessup, to Saybrook (C. 87); Timothy Matthews, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 99); Abraham Miller, to Saybrook (C. 100); Daniel Howell, to Saybrook (C. 73); Capt. Joseph Tillinghast, to Haddam (C. 176); Col. John Hulbert, to Saybrook (C. 182); Benjamin Sayre, to Saybrook (C. 136); John Mitchell Cook. (C. 28) In Oct.: Lewis Osborn, to Haddam (C. 115); Joshua Hildreth, to Saybrook (C. 70). In Jan., 1777: Elias Mulford, to Saybrook. (C. 109) He may have served in the 2d or the 4th of the Line (G. 43, 44, 47, 48); or in Conn. (G. 100)

Capt. Williams was probably related to the several branches of the Family in N. London and Stonington, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 348-350)

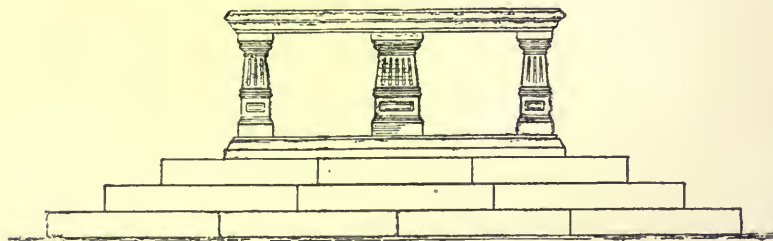

See Williams, in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."

Capt. Williams lived near the Fort on Saybrook Point. One night, being alone, and hearing the rubbing of boat keels on the beach, he ran out and shouted to imaginary guards: "Turn out, guards, turn out." Taking to their boats, the enemy fled, none the wiser. The following inscription is on a stone in the burying ground, at the Point: "Daniel, son of Capt. Charles and Mrs. Temperance Williams who fell in the action in Fort Griswold on Groton hill on the 6th of Sept. in the 15 year of his age." This little lad being desirous of seeing Fort Griswold was allowed to take the place of a neighbor for two or three days, who was at home on a furlough. It was upon one of these days that Benedict Arnold entered the Thames, burning New London, and the terrible massacre on Groton Heights took place. The boy [was killed while passing powder to the soldiers. His mother had made him a new red flannel shirt for the trip, and it was by this that his parents were able to identify him as he lay among the dead after the battle. (Miss Mabel C. Holman)

WILSON JOHN, CAPT.— In Sept., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of these Refugees: Timothy Matthews, Saybrook to Haddam (C. 99); Thomas Topping, Sag Harbor to Rocky Hill (C. 151); Gideon Fordham, and family, Saybrook to Rocky Hill. (C. 49) On July 29, 1778, he receipted for his claim. (C. 159)

Several men of the name served in the War, and he may have been among them. The service was in all five Regts. of the Line (G. 43-49); Add'l Corps of the Line (G. 55); several Regts. of the Levies (G. 57, 58, 60, 61, 62); and many in Dutchess, Orange and Westchester. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n") As his activities seem to have been in Conn., it is more likely that, if he served in the Army, he served from that State. (G. 100)

THE REFUGEES FROM LONG ISLAND TO CONNECTICUT

While nearly all who are named in the following pages were Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut; yet there were several who went from Long Island to some of the adjacent Counties in the State of New York, or to New Jersey. There were also a few who went from other parts of the State of New York, and even from Nova Scotia, to Connecticut. Such instances are so rare that it has been impracticable to make other sub-divisions, or to complicate the subject with further classifications. Every instance of a Refugee not from Long Island to Connecticut is fully explained in the text.

The Public Documents of Connecticut contain little in regard to the Refugees who came to that State from Canada and Nova Scotia. Only two cases of this sort have appeared in the present inquiry. (Ap. E. 25) The migration seemed to increase after the War. On Apr. 13, 1787, the Congress of the United States passed a Resolution in regard to such Refugees. (Ap. E. 193) In 1790, Benjamin Mooers was the agent for distributing the lands assigned to them in the State of New York. (Ap. B. 34) On Mar. 30, 1797, the State passed a law providing that, if the land ran short, the deficiency should be made up to the Refugees in some other way.

The story of the Refugees from Canada and Nova Scotia should be the subject of a special research. It cannot be undertaken in this work.

In the following Biographical Sketches, references to the several Appendixes are not made as in Part One — (Appendix A. 16, or Ap. A. 16); but simply — (A. 16).

ABBOTT—The first of the name on L. I. was probably James 1, who was b. in Somersetshire, Eng., about 1660, and came to Newtown about 1690. He m. Martha ———, and had: James 2, who lived at Foster's Meadow, near Hempstead; Isaac 2 and Benjamin 2, both of whom removed to N. J.; Daniel 2; William 2; Elizabeth 2, m. Thomas Whitson, Jr.; and one other dau. Daniel 2 was b. about 1705-10. Tradition states that he removed to Conn. about 1730, where he m. and had a family. (Mr. A. S. Abbott) Rev. Benjamin 3 (1732-1796), son of Benjamin 2, was a celebrated Methodist preacher on L. I. and in N. J.

ABBOTT JAMES 3 (Daniel 2, James 1. This is given as a possible line, by Mr. A. S. Abbott)—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 82) The Ens. of the name, who served in Conn., was a Prisoner. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 41)

A James Abbet, of Huntington, refused to sign the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) A James Abbott m. Jan 1, 1778, Hannah Denison. (Windham—Hampton, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

ALBERTSON—This name is mentioned in O'Callaghan's "Register of New Netherlands" as early as 1647. Jan Albertson, his wife and six children came from Stemeyck, Holland, before 1650. In 1663, Jan Albertson, with his wife and one child, was killed by the Indians. His son, William 2, received a commission as a soldier, in 1653. William 2 had a son, William 3. (Mr. Charles L. Albertson) It is believed that Jan Albertson was the ancestor of the L. I. branch of the Family; also, through his son William, of the N. J. branch, and of the branch in the Southern States. ("Hist of Atlantic City, N. J.")

ALBERTSON DANIEL 4 (William 3, 2, Jan 1)—From Southampton, E. Dist. (Bridge Hampton), to Orange Co., N. Y. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) Another Daniel, from Queens Co., also signed, in 1776. (H. 9)

Mr. Daniel Albison of Southampton Suffolk Co. Desires permission to move with his family and Effects into the State of N. York, at the Walkill, he having made a purchase at s'd place. (Clinton Pap., 6. 157) While this document is not dated, the previous one is dated Aug. 31, 1780; and the one following, Sept. 1st. 1780. Also my grandfather (Daniel, Jr.) frequently stated that he was 12 years of age when they moved, and he was born May 27, 1768. Therefore I assume 1780 to be correct. He d. about 1800 at the Minisink, Orange Co., and is buried in the Pine Hill Cemetery. (C. L. A.)

Onderdonk ("Scrap Book—1866," p. 22) states that on Oct. 10, 1781, he had permission to remove his property from L. I.; that, the next year, he wanted a permit to remove to Walkill; and that he was from Southampton.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) One dau. m. Daniel Fullerton. The son, Nathaniel 5, removed to the West. The son, Daniel 5, had 11 children, of whom: Lewis 6, whose son Charles L. 7, now lives at Waverly, N. Y. The latter has in preparation a History of Waverly, including the Albertson Family.

Mr. George W. Cocks thinks that William 3, or William 2, was b. before 1700; d. Apr. —, 1764. A William, of Musketa Cove, m. Barbara Simkins—probably ancestor of Daniel, of Queens Co.

ALLEN JAMES—From Queens Co., probably to Guilford. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); and probably in Conn. (G. 82)

ALLEN NATHANIEL—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7. 33); and probably in Conn. (G. 82)

ALLEN SAMUEL, SERJT.—"From parts of the State now in the possession of the Enemy." In Feb., 1779, he petitioned the N. Y. Legislature for relief from the Comm's of Sequestration. (B. 2) As the other petitioners were from Huntington, it is probable that he also came from that Town.

He was a Serjt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10), and he served in the 1st and 4th of the Line. (G. 43, 48) He may have served in the Green Mountain Boys (G. 55); in Malcom's Levies (G. 58); in the 1st or the 4th Westchester (G. 77, 80); or as Surg. Mate in Dubois' Levies. (G. 59) Several of this name served in Conn.; and he may have been the one who was killed at Ft. Griswold, Sept. 6, 1781. (G. 82) He may, also, have been the one who furnished one or more soldiers at his own expense. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 17)

On Apr. 23, 1803, a Samuel Allen m. Rachael Buffet. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

ANDERSON ESTHER—wife of JOHNSON ANDERSON, of New Haven. On July 14, 1781, she was permitted to go to L. I. with two small children. (F. 42) See Anderson, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

ANTHONY BENJAMIN, SURG.—On Apr. 17, 1776, Dr. John Jones certified that he had examined Dr. Anthony as to his qualifications for a Surg. and had found them satisfactory. (Page 180. Also Mil. Ret., 27. 110) He was in the Privateer service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 269)

A letter from Gov. Clinton to Gen. Washington, without date, but probably in 1779, mentions Dr. Anthony a Refugee from L. I. who complained that certain dry goods belonging to him had been seized by Capt. Henry Scudder. (Clinton Pap., 4. 582, 583)

ARTHUR JESSE—From Smithtown. Hon. Henry C. Platt ("Huntington Address"—1876) states that he was from Huntington. On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, at Smithtown, in 1775. (H. 32)

Sam^l Allen

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 48) On Dec. 26, 1775, he m. Vileta Smith. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.) He was among the Male heads of Families, in 1776. (Smithtown Town Rec.)

Jesse Arthur

ARTHUR PLATT—(Probably a brother, or near relative, of Jesse, above)—From Smithtown. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32); also in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) On Mar. 9, 1778, he m. Elizabeth Tillotson. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.) Samuel and Daniel Tillotson were among the Male heads of Families, in 1776. (Smithtown Town Rec. See also Tillotson)

AVERY—Savage ("Gen'l Dict.") mentions several of the name who came to Mass.: Christopher, to Gloucester; John, to Dorchester, in 1642, d. in 1654; Thomas, to Salem, in 1633; Dr. William, to Dedham, in 1654, d. in 1687. Caulkins ("New London," pp. 67, 72, 331, 332) states that James 2, of Gloucester, son of Christopher 1, came to New London, Conn., in 1650; and that his numerous descendants in New London and Groton are from his sons James, Thomas, John and Samuel.

Sixteen of the name were in Ft. Griswold when it fell, Sept. 6, 1781. Of these, nine were killed, and three were wounded. (Chap. 26)

AVERY NATHAN—From Brookhaven to Saybrook. On Feb. 15, 1783, he was permitted to return to L. I. (F. 96) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18) He may have served in Conn.; and, if he was at Ft. Griswold, he was taken Prisoner. (G. 82)

There was a Nathan Avery, son of Humphrey and Mary (Baldwin) Avery, b. Oct. 24, 1751, at Brookhaven, L. I. This Nathan d. after 1789. In his father's will, made Sept. 9, 1789, he is mentioned as being "in a state of lunacy." Provision is made for him to be cared for by his brothers, Thomas, Humphrey and Roger. He never married. I know of no other Nathan who could have been the one mentioned. (Hon. Elroy M. Avery)

BAILEY see BAYLEY.

BAILEY JONATHAN, SERJT.—He served in the 4th and 5th of the Line (G. 48, 49); and probably in Conn. (G. 83) In one of these enlistments he was a private. He may have been Jonathan 6 (Adam 5, Joseph 4, John 3, 2, Thomas 1). See Bayley, below.

There is doubt as to his being from L. I. It is more likely that he belonged to the Mass. Branch. He became a physician, and removed to New Windsor, N. Y., where he d. His g. g. grandson, Joseph W. Gott, resides at Goshen, N. Y.

BAILEY JOSEPH—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and probably in Conn. (G. 83)

BAKER—The first of the name on L. I. was Thomas 1, who came to Southold; and moved thence to East Hampton, where he appears in 1660. (Whitaker's "Southold," pp. 45, 49. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 244-246) He appears as a witness, at Southold, in 1667. (Moore's "Index," p. 6) Joshua and William Baker were early settlers at New London, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 362, 363)

BAKER JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and probably in Conn., including service on a Privateer. (G. 83. Also Page 218)

BAKER THOMAS, LT.—From East Hampton. In Apr., 1782, he was permitted to go to L. I. (F. 55) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); in the Art'y of Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 5); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and probably in Conn. (G. 83) He may have served as Ens., also, in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) It is possible that he was a private in the 3d Line, Malcom's or Graham's Levies, the 2d Dutchess or the 2d Orange. (G. 46, 58, 60, 64, 73)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was probably Thomas 5 (Jonathan 4, 3, Nathaniel 2, Thomas 1). If so, he was b. July 24, 1742; d. Nov. 27, 1825. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 245) may have been the soldier above named. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 25) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 51)

BARNES, BARNs, BARNSES, BARENSE, BAREND—This Family, in East Hampton, is descended from William 1, whose parentage has not been ascertained with absolute certainty. Tradition stated that he was son of Charles and Mary (Hand) Barnes who have been traced at East Hampton in the period, 1655–1663. This tradition was, apparently, confirmed by Mr. Richard Wynkoop in an article in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.—1906. Later investigation convinced Mr. Wynkoop that Charles was the father of Shamgar and Benjamin Barnes; and that the other Family of William, was of different parentage from that assumed in his first article. He, therefore, published a supplemental article in the Record—1910, which is followed, herein, down to the biography of Capt. Eli Barnes.

So far as known, the two Families in East Hampton, were not related. Charles 1, the schoolmaster of East Hampton, was a son of William and his second wife, Thomasin, dau. of Owen Shepherd, of Kirby Bedon, in Norfolk, Eng.; and a grandson of Edward and Dorothy (Drurye) Barnes, of Soham, Cambridgeshire. He m., about 1658, Mary, dau. of John and Alice (Stanborough) Hand, of East Hampton. Among their children was, probably, Shamgar 2, of East Hampton, and Elizabethtown, N. J. Shamgar 2, b. in East Hampton, in 1670; d. at Middletown, Conn., Dec. 13, 1750; (Barnes Gen.—1903, p. 194) His first wife d. Apr. 20, 1704. (East Hampton Town Rec., p. 555) He m. (2) Nov. 2, 1704, Elizabeth Flood. (Same Rec., p. 521)

William 1, of East Hampton, d. Dec. 1, 1699. His wife, Elizabeth, d. Feb. 28, 1724, "aged near 80." He was a large land owner at East Hampton. Among his children were: Dea. Benjamin 2; Stephen 2; Isaac 2; and William 2.

Dea. Benjamin 2, of Branford, Conn., b. about 1671; m. Abigail ———; d. July 23, 1740. His children were: Eleanor 3, bapt. Dec., 1700, m. John, son of Richard and Amy Baldwin; Abigail 3, bapt., Aug., 1701, m. Joseph Darwin; Daniel 3, bapt. June, 1704, m. Anne, dau. of Moses Brockett, removed to Litchfield, Conn.; Nathaniel 3; Timothy 3, bapt. July, 1710, m. Phoebe, dau. of Thomas and Johanna (Farnham) Barnes, removed to Litchfield; Ebenezer 3, bapt. Feb. 7, 1714; Thankful 3, bapt. May 27, 1716, m. Stephen Lee, of Litchfield. (Record, 41. pp. 275–278. Also 37. pp. 144, 145. Also 38. p. 38) Nathaniel 3, bapt. Oct., 1707; m. Nov. 16, 1732, Elizabeth, dau. of Isaac and Rebecca (Frisbie) Bartholomew. She was b. Apr. 12, 1704. (Bartholomew Gen.—1885) In June, 1703, Dea. Benjamin sold to Nathaniel Barnes of East Hampton "all that privilege both in the Town Plot [East Hampton] and also at Meantauke that was given me by the Last Will and Testament of William Barnes, deceased." The consideration was £20. On June 13, 1716, he conveyed to Isaac Barns, for £2.10 s., three acres of land in the Eastern plain, at East Hampton, "it being one half of a Close formerly in the improvement of our brother Nathaniel Barns, Deceased." (Deeds in possession of Mr. J. H. Barnes)

Stephen 2, b. ———; m. Mary Barnes; removed to Branford, Conn., 1701–2. He had a son, Stephen 3, b. Jan. 2, 1705; m., Jan. 5, 1725, in Branford, Martha, dau. of Thomas Wheadon; d. Mar. 27, 1777. She d. in Southington, Conn., Mar. 18, 1773, aged 66. (Barnes Year Book—1907)

Isaac 2, b. about 1675; m. Apr. 19, 1704, Anna, dau. of Noah and Elizabeth (Taintor) Rogers. She was b. Apr. 14, 1675; d. Aug. 27, 1749, "aged about 70 years." Among his children was: Capt. Isaac 3, b. Jan. 29, 1705; m. (1) June 17, 1725, Sarah (bapt. Apr. 21, 1700, d. Oct. 22, 1736), dau. of David Conkling, m. (2) Mar. 7, 1737, Hannah, dau. of Ananias and Hannah (Ludlow) Conkling; d. Apr. 22, 1772. She was b. Oct. 21, 1715, bapt. Dec. 11, 1715, d. Mar. 9, 1803.

William 2, m. Mary Rogers; d. Aug. 26, 1706. His son, William 3, b. Jan. 17, 1702; m., Oct. 11, 1722, Martha, dau. of Josiah and Mary (Churchill) Edwards; d. Mar. 30, 1726. Among his children were: William 4, b. Aug. 16, 1723, m. Dec. 4, 1746, Jemima Sherrill, d. July 3, 1814; Martha 4, b. Mar. 4, 1725, the Refugee, below; and Joseph 4, bapt. Dec. 28, 1726. (Record, 41. pp. 275–278. Also 37. pp. 213, 262, 265. Also 38. p. 36)

BARNES ELI. 5, CAPT. (William 4, 3, 2, 1; nephew of Martha, below; brother of Jeremiah, below)—From East Hampton, with his aunt Martha, in such haste that the bread which had been mixed on L. I. was baked in Conn. (Miss Georgiana A. Kelsey)

He was bapt. Feb. 24, 1754; m. Patience, dau. of Daniel Wilcox, one of the first settlers of E. Berlin, Conn.; d. June 15, 1815. He built a house on the present Main St. of that village, and opened a tavern. The house is occupied by his descendants to-day. (Miss G. A. K.)

His dau., Jemima 6, m. Samuel Kelsey. Their children were: Miranda 7, Almira 7 and Eli Barnes 7. Miranda Kelsey 7, m. Alfred Wilcox, and had: Almira, Roxana, Walter, James, Horace, Charles and Robert. The latter, Robert Wilcox, resides in Mass. Almira Kelsey 7, m. Willis Wilcox, and had: Adelia, Samuel, Joseph and Laura. Adelia Wilcox, m. William Mildrum and had: Willis, Emily, Edith, Mary, Carrie, Nettie, Lucy, Hattie, Ernest and Bertha. Eli Barnes Kelsey 7, m. Aurelia Bailey and had: George; and Isadora

CAPT. ELI BARNES — EAST BERLIN, CONN.

A. George Kelsey m. (1) Frances L. Tucker, and had: Georgiana A., Minnie J. and Howard G. He m. (2) Mrs. W. Fowler, and had: Gertrude B. and Wallace—all of E. Berlin. (Miss G. A. K.)

BARNES, ISAAC 4 (Isaac 3, 2, William 1; brother of Capt. Nathaniel, below)—From East Hampton to Litchfield, about Oct., 1780; and from that place, Feb. 22, 1781, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to bring from L. I. his wife, furniture, &c., stating that he had married about eight or nine months before. This was granted. (E. 142, 143) It is possible that he served in Conn. (G. 83); and that he was the Isaac, of New York, who sent a petition to the N. Y. Ass'y, Mar. 1, 1785. (Ass'y Jour.)

He was b. at Amagansett, Feb. 5, 1758; m. ————Child. The dates of his marriage and death do not appear in the Ch. Rec.; nor does his marriage appear in the Child's Gen. His sister Keziah, m. Jeremiah Sherrill. (See Sherrill) The first mention of him in the Town Rec. is in 1800, when he was elected to a Town Office; and the name of Isaac Barnes appears in the list of Town Officers from that time until 1828. His father and grandfather, both named Isaac, appear on the Town Rec. as men of affairs, being large landholders. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Some confusion has arisen because an Isaac Barnes signed the Association, from Shelter Island, in May, 1775. (H. 31) Mr. Edwin Vincent thinks that this Isaac and Isaac 4, son of Isaac 3, were the same. Mr. Vincent further states: On May 20, 1781, Isaac Barns and his son were bapt. Two years later he had his son Nathaniel bapt. (East Hampton Town Rec., 5, 508, 510) The Isaac Barns, who was prominent in East Hampton affairs from 1800 to 1828, was undoubtedly the son of Matthew (1744-1802) and Charlotte Barns of Amagansett. He was b. Feb. 24, 1773; m. Nov. 27, 1795, Catharine (1777-1842), dau. of Nathaniel and Abigail (Conkling) Baker; d. Feb. 2, 1858. The above named was Matthew 4 (Isaac 3, 2, William 1), brother of Isaac 4, above; and of Capt. Nathaniel 4, below.

Isaac Barnes

BARNES JEREMIAH 5 (Brother of Capt. Eli, above)—From East Hampton, probably to Conn. first; and thence to Plattsburgh, N. Y. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

He was b. in 1756; m. June 26, 1781, Phebe, dau. of Jonathan and Elizabeth Schellinger, of Amagansett; d. at Plattsburgh, in 1840. He had: Jeremiah, Jr. 6, b. Oct. 19, 1785, m. Mary Farnsworth; Jonathan 6; Fannie 6; Maris 6; Hannah 6; Horner 6; Henry 6; and Elizabeth 6. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1906)

BARNES JONATHAN 4 (Stephen 3, 2, William 1)—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and probably in Conn. (G. 83)

He was b. Feb. 21, 1731; m. Aug. 4, 1757, Elizabeth Woodruff; d. Jan. 7, 1807. She d. Feb. 8, 1814. They had nine children, of whom these have been identified: Jonathan 5, bapt. Mar. 23, 1777; Talmage 5, bapt. Nov. 21, 1778; a dau. 5, bapt. Feb. 19, 1780; a son 5, bapt. Dec. 24, 1782. (East Hampton Town Rec., 5. N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1906)

Mr. Vincent states that the above named children were those of Jonathan 4 (Isaac 3, 2, William 1), a brother of Isaac, above, and Capt. Nathaniel, below. He was b. May 4, 1752; m. Mar. 26, 1776, Phebe, dau. of Nathaniel and Mary (Fithian) Talmage, of East Hampton; d. in 1822. She was b. Oct. 23, 1756; d. June 18, 1848. They had seven children: Jonathan 5, b. Dec. 23, 1776; Talmage 5, b. Oct. 20, d. Dec. 8, 1778; Mary 5, b. Jan. 11, 1780; Talmage 5, b. July 6, 1782; Phebe 5, b. May 2, 1787; Jeannette 5, b. Mar. 25, 1790; David 5, b. May 21, 1794. (Family Bible, owned by Mr. J. H. Barnes, of East Hampton) The U. S. Census of 1790 showed that there was but one Jonathan Barnes Family in East Hampton, in that year: Jonathan, Sr.; sons Jonathan and Talmage, under 16 years old; wife Phebe, and daughters Mary and Phebe. On June 23, 1786, Jonathan 4 was appointed Capt. of a Co. in a Regt. of which David Pierson, Esq., was the Lt. Col. As Capt. Barns, he had his dau. "Genette" bapt. May 2, 1790; and his son David, bapt. in July, 1794. Mr. Vincent also quotes Barnes Gen. (1903) and Barnes Family Year Book (1908) as to Jonathan 4 (Stephen 3, 2, William 1), first named above. His wife, Elizabeth, whom he m. Aug. 4, 1757, was a dau. of Hezekiah and Sarah (Mason) Woodruff. She d. Feb. 13, 1814; he d. Jan. 7, 1807. Their home was in the Shuttle Meadow district, of Southington, Conn. (Year Book) Their children were: Jonathan 5, b. Mar. 13, 1763, m. Feb. 19, 1780, Rachel Steel, d. Sept. 24, 1829 (Gen.); Elizabeth 5, b. Oct. 21, 1764 (Year Book); Mary 5, b. Mar. 4, 1767, d. July 6, 1772 (Year Book); Stephen 5, b. Feb. 12, 1769, m. Sally Andrews, d. Nov. 14, 1823 (Gen.); Sylvia 5, b. Aug. 7, 1771 (Year Book); Lois 5, b. in 1772 (Year Book); Levi 5, b. June 28, 1777 (Year Book); Joel 5, b. Jan. 6, 1780 (Family Bible. Year Book says, b. in 1779), m. Rebecca Stevens, d. Mar. 15, 1819 (Gen.); Freeman 5, b. Apr. 28, 1783 (Year Book), m. Jan. 3, 1805, Lowly Bennett. (Gen.)

BARNES NATHANIEL 4, CAPT. (Brother of Isaac, above)—From Amagansett, in East Hampton, to Stonington; and thence to Westerly R. I., probably late in the War. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he settled in New London and left descendants there. Mr. Vincent states that Acors 6, grandson of Capt. Nathaniel, was the one who settled in New London. Nathaniel 4 was Capt. of a Ship; also of a Privateer. (Page 239) In Sept., Oct., and Nov., 1776, he brought over part of the effects of these Refugees; Col. Abraham Gardiner (C. 52); Nathaniel Hunting, to Saybrook (C. 81); Burnet Miller, to Stonington (C. 101); Nathaniel Mulford, to Saybrook (C. 111); Serjt. Maj. Patrick Sinnot, to Saybrook. (C. 142) His claim for expenses was paid to David Gelston, Dec. 3, 1777. (C. 203) He may have served in Harper's Levies (G. 56); and, as a Capt. in the Conn. Militia. (G. 83)

He is called "Mariner" in all conveyances. A deed of Dec. 9, 1782, shows him to have been, at that time, still residing in East Hampton. On February 14, 1785, Nathaniel Barnes, late of Stonington, Conn., now of Westerly, R. I., Mariner, bought of Hannah Stanton Park, for £105, ten lots of land in Lottery Village, now Avondale. (Westerly Land Evidence 11. 238. Supplemented by Mr. Vincent) He d. before Nov. 14, 1817, when George and Sally (Barns) Brown of Putnam, N. Y., quit-claimed to Joshua Robinson of Stonington, Conn., for $60, all right, etc., in three lots of land—the same lots which were formerly owned by Nathaniel Barnes, late of Westerly, deceased. (Same Evidence, 14. 380)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. Mar. 18, 1740; m. about 1768, Elizabeth Brown, of Westerly, who d. Mar. 5, 1826, in her 85th year. (Tombstone at Westerly) The date of his death is uncertain. According to Hurd's "New London County," he d. at Charleston, S. C. He had: Nathaniel 5, below; Benjamin 5; Elizabeth 5, b. Apr. 27, 1775, m. Dec. 9, 1798, Amos Cross (1768-1823), d. Nov. 17, 1856; Nancy 5, m. Joshua Robinson of Stonington; Sally 5, m. Dec. 19, 1804, at Westerly, George Brown. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1906)

Nathaniel 5, b. Sept. 12, 1769; m. in 1791, Nancy, dau. of Amos and Ann (Poster) Pendleton; d. Oct. 15, 1819. She was b. July 22, 1771; d. Apr. 30, 1835. It may be that Amos Pendleton was the Capt. of that name. (See "Capts. of Ships") The children of Nathaniel 5 were: Nathaniel 6, b. Feb. 23, 1792, drowned off Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 15, 1811; Acors 6, b. May 13, 1794, m. May 25, 1817, Hannah (1799-1893), dau. of Trustum and Martha (Wilcox) Dickens, of Stonington, Conn., removed to New London, d. Nov. 18, 1862; Benjamin 6, b. July 8, 1796, m. (1) Feb. 2, 1817, Martha (1799-1841), dau. of James and Martha (Saunders) York, of Westerly, m. (2) Nov. 15, 1841, Joanna (1800-1890), dau. of William and Joanna (Frink) Vincent, of Stonington, d. June 24, 1873, at Kirkland, N. Y.; Amos 6, b. Feb. 13, 1799, m. Jan. 13, 1832, Margaret (1801-1872), dau. of Trustum and Martha (Wilcox) Dickens, of Stonington, d. May 30, 1894; Catharine Ann, 6, b. Dec. 25, 1801, m. Feb. 23, 1830, Elias Babcock (1805-1880), son of Samuel and Abigail (Holmes) Hinckley, of Stonington, d. Oct. 4, 1863, at Clinton, N. Y.; Elizabeth 6, b. Apr. 23, 1803, m. Jan. 31, 1827, Edward Denison (1805-1885), son of Charles and Elizabeth (Denison) Palmer, of Stonington, d. Mar. 23, 1884, at New Hartford, N. Y.; Sarah, or Sally, 6, b. Nov. 24, 1805, m. Jan. 31, 1827, Joseph Rudd (1802-1869), son of Joseph and Phalla (Hinckley) Vincent, of Stonington, d. Feb. 4, 1892, at Westerly; and Lydia Pendleton 6, b. Jan. 27, 1810, m. (1) 1829, Joseph (1802-1835), son of James and Abigail (Fox) Fitch, of Montville, Conn., m. (2) Oct. 12, 1840, George (1803-1878), son of Jeremiah and Charlotte (Hurd) Stevens, of Onondaga, N. Y., d. Mar. 4, 1884, at Syracuse, N. Y. (Record, as above. Supplemented by Mr. Vincent)

BASSETT—Robert, probably from New Haven, is mentioned as being in Stamford, Conn., in 1651. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 49) See "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

BASSETT CORNELIUS—From East Hampton to Saybrook; and, later, to Mansfield. On Sept. 18, 1776, his effects were brought over by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and probably in Conn. (G. 83) He was b. about 1755. (G. 31)

BASSETT, WILLIAM—From East Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and probably in Conn. (G. 83) It is possible, that the service in Conn., credited to William Barrett, belongs to William Bassett. (G. 83)

BAYLEY—BAILEY—The spelling "Bailey" was not adopted by the L. I. branch until about 1814. The Mass. branch, apparently, changed the spelling more than a century earlier. The latter branch originated with Thomas 1, who came from England and was made Freeman in the Mass. Colony, in 1640. Among his sons was John 2, who had a son John 3. The line then runs: Joseph 4, Adam 5, Jonathan 6. (Bailey Gen., Hollis R. Bailey)

The first of the name on L. I. was John 1, b. in England, in 1617. In 1654, he came to New Haven, and thence to Southold. Afterward he appeared at Jamaica; and in Westchester Co., N. Y. He had sons: John 2, Stephen 2, and Joseph 2, who removed to Huntington where he appears in the Town Records, 1664–1694. (Moore's "Index," pp. 6, 54, 55) No proof that John 1 was the father of Stephen 2 is known to exist. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

An Elias Bayley went from Stamford, Conn., to Newtown, L. I., where he was living in 1657. He was attorney to Rev. Richard Denton. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 49) John 1, above, is said to have had a son, Benoni 2, b. at Danbury, Conn., in 1696; whose family Bible is owned by his descendant, Mr. Joseph Trowbridge Bailey, of Philadelphia. (Mr. Hollis R. Bailey)

Stephen 2, m. (1) Abigail ———, (2) Mary ———; d. Apr. 23, 1715. He appears in the Southold Town Rec., 1676–1711. (Moore, as above) He m. (1) Aug. 8, 1673, Abigail Cooper, who d. in 1685; m. (2) in 1688, probably Mary ———, who d. Dec. 15, 1712. His children were: Stephen 3, b. in 1674, d. in 1759, of whose family we have no account; Nathaniel 3, b. in 1679; Israel 3, b. in 1689; Jonathan 3, d. y.; Jonathan 3, b. in 1694; and several daughters. (Liber D, or E, MS. Southold Town Rec. Also Salmon Rec.) Moore (as above) also gives to Stephen 2 a son, Dea. Benjamin 3, below; but the two records, quoted above, do not confirm this. They make him Dea. Benjamin 4 (Stephen 3, 2, John 1). As it cannot be determined, we follow Moore, as to the generations.

Dea. Benjamin 3, b. in 1699; m. Nov. 19, 1723, Susanna Conklin; d. Nov. 10, 1770. She d. Nov. 1, 1769, aged 66. (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec. Salmon Rec. Tombstones at Southold)

He had sons: Benjamin 4; Jonathan 4, d. y.; Stephen 4; Capt. Gamaliel 4; Capt. Jonathan 4; and Nathaniel 4. (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.) All of his sons, except the first Jonathan, were Refugees, below; and all of them followed the sea for a time. His dau., Susanna 4, m. Capt. Barnabas Horton. (See Horton)

BAYLEY ——— His, (or her?) horses were brought from L. I., in 1776, by Capt. Jacob Riley. (C. 131)

BAYLEY ———, WIDOW—From Southold to New London. On May 11, 1780, her petition to go back with one cow was granted. (E. 86, 87)

BAYLEY BENJAMIN 4 (Dea. Benjamin 3, Stephen 2, John 1)—From Southold to Killingworth. Between Sept. 1 and Oct. 31, 1776, with two passengers and effects, he was brought over by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 20) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1726. (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.) He removed to Orange Co., N. Y. (Ruttenber & Clark's "Orange Co.")

BAYLEY GAMALIEL 4, CAPT. (Dea. Benjamin 3, Stephen 2, John 1)—From Southold to Killingworth and Lyme. As Capt. of a ship, in Sept., 1776, he brought his own goods and those of Joseph Peck from Southold to Killingworth. (C. 11) He also assisted Capt. Joab Scranton in transporting Refugees and their effects to Guilford. (C. 139) In the same month, he brought over a part of Dr. Jonathan Havens' effects to E. Haddam. (C. 66) In Sept. and Oct., more of his own effects were brought to Killingworth by Capt. Benjamin Conkling; and to Guilford, with five passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 20, 164) He had permission, both on Jan. 24 and on Mar. 20, 1780, to return to L. I. after produce for the use of his family—his residence being given at both Lyme and Hartford. (D. 44) In Oct., 1780, he was permitted to take Rev. John Storrs over to L. I.; and, on Jan. 11, 1783, while residing in Lyme, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family, six in number, household goods &c. (F. 23, 89. Also Page 239) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. Jan. 16, 1738. (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.) A Gamaliel, m. July 9, 1760, Esther Peck. (Salmon Rec.)

He removed to Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y. (Ruttenber & Clark's "Orange Co.") He was killed at the Battle of Minisink, and his name is on the Monument at Goshen.

BAYLEY JOHN 3 (John 2, 1)—From Jamaica. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 27, 32, 35); and probably in Conn. (G. 83) He was taken Prisoner at the Battle of L. I., but escaped.

He was b. Aug. 16, 1757; m. Mar. 19, 1783, Mary Thompson; d. May 27, 1827. His children were: Amos 4, Ephraim 4, Mary 4, Jane 4 and John, Jr., 4. A John Bayley m. Experience, dau. of Thomas 4 Gildersleeve. (See Gildersleeve)

His son, John, Jr. 4, b. in Dutchess Co., N. Y., July 22, 1794; m. Milicent, dau. of Ebenezer Wright, of Somers, N. Y.; d. Apr. 19, 1830. He changed the spelling of the name to Bailey, in this branch. The son of John, Jr., Theodore W. 5, b. in Rockland Co., N. Y., Jan. 2, 1819; d. in N. Y. City, May 19, 1891. He was the father of Edward H. 6, of N. Y. City.

BAYLEY JONATHAN 4, CAPT. (Dea. Benjamin 3, Stephen 2, John 1)—From Southold. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, his effects were taken to Killingworth and Guilford by Capts. Benjamin Conkling and David Landon—the latter reporting four passengers. (C. 20, 164) He was in Guilford, in 1777; as appears by the following, the original of which is in the possession of Mr. William Wirt Bailey, Middletown, N. Y.—

Guilford March ye 6th ye 1777. Received of [Capt.] Jonathan Bayley the sum of seventeen Pounds two [Shillings?] and Eleven pence New York currency for Ephram Sayer, Isaac Liskam, James Benjamin — Per me [Capt.] Jonathan Vail.

Mr. Bailey has, also, a receipt given to Capt. Jonathan Bayley by Theophilus Morgan, on March 2, 1777, showing that Capt. Bayley was in Killingworth on that date. It is evident that he remained but a short time in Conn.; for he had already lived in Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., before he took title to a farm, in that Co., Mar. 4, 1777.

He signed the Association in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He served as Capt. in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 4, 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 19, 38), by appointment of the Committee of Safety, May 3, 1776. In this latter service he marched his Co. the whole length of L. I. and took part in the Battle of Aug. 27, 1776. The following extracts are from the Note Book of Capt. Jonathan Bailey, as transcribed by his son, Jonathan 5. (See Page 41) The Note Book is owned by Miss Antoinette Elmer, of Waverly, N. Y.—

My father [Capt. Jonathan Bayley] followed his trade until the Revolutionary War broke out. He then raised a company of volunteers and went into the army, under Washington, on Long Island. The Americans had thrown up an entrenchment across the island (Manhattan Island) from the north to the East River, in which our troops lay, the British being in sight, a little to the east. Here, I will mention a circumstance. A party from the British started out from their camp straight toward the American lines. It was supposed to reconnoitre and try the strength of their works. Washington rode along in the rear and seeing them coming, said to his troops, "Lay still in your entrenchments till they come so near that you can count the buttons on their coats and can tell the color of their eyes; then, all rise at once and make sure of your aim, and I will warrant they will retreat." They did so. They all fired at once and they did retreat and ran back like a flock of sheep. He said their regiment had been on duty all day and all night. They were told the next day, they might go the next night upon the hill into an old, forsaken house there and get some rest and sleep. They did so. Early next morning they paraded down to the lines, when behold, the troops were all gone; nobody at all to be seen. What to do they did not know. They supposed they had marched down to Brooklyn in order to cross the river to New York. They concluded to follow on. They were not willing, a single regiment, to stay there in the face of the whole British army. There being a good many cedar rails in the place, they thought to deceive the enemy by heaping them in piles and setting them on fire, leading the enemy to suppose that all the troops were still there, then to walk off without any one giving any orders. They first walked on awhile, then raised a trot and finally got on a run; did not get far away when they met Gen. Putnam riding back, saying, "Who gave you orders to leave the lines?" They had not a word to say; nobody had given them any orders to leave the lines. He said there were some tents left standing; they must wheel about, march back and strike the tents and bring them, which they did; then march to Brooklyn. There the troops were huddled together at the ferry like a flock of sheep for washing. Boats being busy in carrying them across, they fell in a little below the rest. Seeing some boats start from New York, their Colonel beckoned to them and they got over before a good many of the rest. After crossing they marched up to Harlem, or King's Bridge, where the Americans were stationed. They had to march in open sight of the British ships in the East River, which kept up a constant fire on them. The balls went mostly over their heads. In order to march at ease they marched at trailed arms. There came a ball which passed between their ranks and struck a soldier's gun and knocked it against his leg, which knocked him down and broke his gun to pieces. He jumped up saying: "Damn their blood, they spoiled my gun."

Later, he served as Capt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) After serving his term of enlistment he removed to Goshen, Orange Co., where he lost his first wife. He then removed to Stewart Town. He took part in the Battle of Minisink, and had many narrow escapes from the Indians. He purchased a tract of land of Judge Wickham, at Ridgebury, and d. there.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. June 28, 1745 (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.); m. (1) Sept. 4, 1769, Phebe Horton; m. (2) Sept. 11, 1783, Wid. Keturah (Conkling) Dunning (Salmon Rec.); d. Feb. 17, 1814.

His son Col. Jonathan, Jr. 5, who commenced to write the name Bailey, was b. at Ridgebury, Aug. 29, 1784; m. Oct. 7, 1806, Catharine Stewart; d. Mar. 5, 1860. He was Maj. in the 1st Regt., of N. Y. Militia in the War of 1812. He was appointed Col. of the 148th Regt., in 1816, by Gov. Tompkins, having been both 3d Maj. and 1st Maj. The son of Col. Jonathan, Jr. 5, Col. Benjamin F. 6, b. in 1814; m. (1) Harriet Bailey, (2) Ellen Stewart; d. in 1886. He was made Col. of the same Regt., in 1842, by Gov. Seward; and his son, William Wirt Bailey 7, b. in 1844, was severely wounded at Chancellorsville, Va., during the Civil War, being a member of the 124th N. Y. Vols. Mr. Bailey lives at Middletown, N. Y. His brother, Edwin Augustus 7, b. in 1849; d. July 16, 1911. William W. 7 has a son, William Franklin 8; and grandsons, Richard Madden 9, and Howard Pierson 9—making the sixth generation living in sight of the late home of Capt. Jonathan Bailey. Jessie 7, dau. of Col. Benjamin F. 6, m. Joseph Stewart, now (1912) 2d Asst. Post Mr. Gen. of the U. S.

Col. Jonathan Jr. 5, had a dau., Charlotte 6, who m. Richard Allison Elmer. Their dau., Antoinette Elmer, lives at Waverly, N. Y.; and has, in her possession, the Note Book of Capt. Jonathan, mentioned above, and the Order Book of Col. Jonathan, Jr., in the War of 1812. Her brother, Howard Elmer, was President of the 1st Nat'l Bank, at Waverly; and her brother, Richard A. Elmer, Jr., was 2d Asst. Post Master Gen., under President Garfield.

Jonathan Bailey

BAYLEY NATHANIEL 4 (Dea. Benjamin 3, Stephen 2, John 1)—From Southold, probably to Lyme or Guilford.

He was b. Jan. 9, 1749 (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.); m. (1) at Southold, Sept. 24, 1771, Mary Peck (Salmon Rec.), (2) at Goshen, N. Y., Mar. 29, 1782, Margaret Wickham. His children (first wife), were: Mary 5, b. Nov. 8, 1776; and Esther 5, b. June 9, 1779. His children (second wife), were: Benjamin 5, b. Apr. 25, 1783; Israel Wickham 5, b. Feb. 11, 1788; Abigail 5, b. Aug. —, 1784; Nathaniel 5, b. Sept. 10, 1786; Columbus 5, b. June 28, 1789; and Barcas 5, b. Feb. 8, 1791.

Nathaniel Bayley

BAYLEY STEPHEN 4 (Dea. Benjamin 3, Stephen 2, John 1)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with nine in the family and his effects, he was brought over by Capts. Benjamin Conkling and Thomas Leete (C. 18, 94); also, in Oct., 1776, by Capts. John Gears, Peter Griffing, Benjamin Conkling, John Vail and John Ingraham. (C. 12)

He may have been the Stephen Bailey, Ens. in the 2d Co., 7th Regt. of Conn. (Records State of Conn., 2,300) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) It is possible that he was the Stephen Bayley who m. Mary Terry, in Enfield, Conn., and removed to Vermont about the year 1783. (Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald)

He was b. in 1728. (Liber E, MS. Southold Town Rec.) His son, Stephen, Jr., 5, m. Mary, dau. of John Boisseau, the Refugee, of Southold. (Vail Gen. p. 37. See also Boisseau) Stephen Jr., 5, b. Sept. 25, 1761; m. Nov. 23, 1782; had nine children; d. Sept. 28, 1824. (Bailey Bible owned by Mr. Charles G. Corey).

BEARDSLEY PHILON, MRS.—Of Stratford. On Nov. 2, 1780, she was permitted to go to her husband, on L. I., with her children. (F. 24) Philo Beardsley served in Conn. (G. 84)

BECKWITH—BECKWORTH—BECKET—Matthew 1, b. about 1610, came from England to Hartford about 1645. He removed to New London and Lyme about 1651-2. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 70) He d. Oct. 21, 1680. His Wid., Elizabeth, m. Samuel Buckland, and d. before 1690. Among his sons was Joseph 2, b. later than 1637; (Caulkins says, 1640); m. Susannah ———; d. about 1708, in the French War. His Wid. m. in 1715, Capt. Joseph Way. His son, Capt. Joseph 3, b. at Lyme, Apr. 15, 1679; m. May 18, 1699, Marah Lee; said to have d. Aug. 9, 1741. His Wid. m. (2) May 16, 1745, Daniel Sterling, (3) Capt. Riggs, and d. in 1759. Joseph 4, b. at Lyme, June 4, 1700; m. Esther Smith, (who d. Dec. 4, 1777); d. Aug. 6, 1783. (Beckwith Notes 1. 4, 5, 10, 24) There is no trace of the Family on L. I. after the War. They probably returned to Lyme or New London. Caulkins ("New London," p. 298) states that Matthew Beckwith, one of the early settlers, d. in 1681; also, that his sons John and Benjamin remained at N. London, but his sons Joseph and Nathaniel settled at Lyme.

Mr. Albert C. Beckwith and Mr. S. M. Fox have found evidence that the wife of Matthew 1 was named Mary; and that if Buckland m. an Elizabeth, she may have been a dau. of Matthew 1, and perhaps a Widow. They doubt if Matthew 1 had a son, Benjamin; as they are unable to find a Benjamin earlier than the fourth gen.

BECKWITH PHEBE, MRS.—From Brookhaven to Guilford and Lyme. As the wife of Phineas (below) she authorized James Wells to collect Phineas' claim against the State of N. Y.; which Wells did, July 21, 1778. (C. 190)

Phoebe Beckwith

BECKWITH PHINEAS 5, QR. MR. SERJT. (Joseph 4, 3, 2, Matthew 1) —From Brookhaven to Guilford and Lyme, Sept. 8, 1776, by Capt. Jasper Griffing. His expenses were paid by John Wait, probably his brother-in-law. (C. 190)

In 1759, he served in Capt. Budd's Co., N. Y. Provincials. He lived at Brookhaven, in 1775. (Beckwith Notes, as above) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); and in Conn. (G. 84) He signed the Association, in Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20)

He was b. at Lyme, Conn., about 1735; m. Nov. 24, 1757, Phebe Waite, of Lyme (who was b. Sept., 1734, d. Oct. 28, 1791); d. July 24, 1822. His son, Phineas 6, of Lyme, m. Dec. 14, 1796, at Wethersfield, Mary, or Betsy, Brown. (Beckwith Notes, as above. Lyme Ch. Rec. as to the marriage of Phineas)

Another Phineas appears in the Southold Census, of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) His wife was Sarah ———. On Oct. 18, 1771, Phineas and Sarah Beckwith had children bapt.: Joseph, Abigail, Lois, Phebe, Elizabeth and Richard; and, on July 4, 1773, Phineas, "Son of Phineas." (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

BEEBE—This Family is from Joseph 1, of Plymouth, Mass., who purchased Plum Island, about 1670. His son, Samuel 2, m. Feb. 9, 1681, Elizabeth Rogers. He had a son, Samuel 3, who m. Jan. 1, 1717, Ann Lester. Samuel 3 had 12 children, among whom was Lucretia 4 who m. Thomas Lester. (See Lester) Another child was Samuel 4. The latter had five sons, among whom were Capt. Samuel 5 and Lester 5, the Refugees, below. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 200, 201. Also Moore's "Index," pp. 6, 139)

The above does not agree with the "Beebe Gen." which is later and more reliable. Therefore, it will be followed here. The Family, in America, originated with John 1 who arrived in 1650, with his wife Rebecca. Caulkins ("New London," pp. 70, 338) states that John and Samuel were at N.

London, in 1651. John's son, Samuel 2, also arriving in 1650, settled at New London. He was bapt. in 1633; m. (1) Agnes Keeney, (2) Mary. A son of Samuel 2, Samuel 3, b. in 1660-2; m. Feb. 9, 1681, Elizabeth, dau. of James Rogers, of New London. He was of Southold in 1713-4; and d. in 1741-2. Samuel 4, son of Samuel 3, b. in 1697; m. Ann Lester; d. in 1763. He also was of Southold. Samuel 5, son of Samuel 4, b. at New London, in 1721; m. Hannah Harris; d. in 1768. A Samuel, m. Rebecca, dau. of Samuel Brown. (See Brown) Caulkins (p. 339) states that Samuel 1 m. Agnes Keeney; and that Samuel 2 m. Elizabeth Rogers, and was one of the owners of Plum Island.

BEEBE LESTER 6, CAPT. (Samuel 5, 4, 3, 2, John 1)—From Southold. On Jan. 11, 1783, he was permitted to go on L. I. and bring off money &c. for his family. (F. 88) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); also in Col. Smith's Regt., as private and Corp. (G. 38) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He was captured by the enemy; but paid for his liberty. After the War, he removed to Sag Harbor; and, later, in company with Henry Ekford, became a noted ship-builder in N. Y. City. He lived at Flushing for several years. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 156-158)

Census of 1776: Males above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) It was probably his sister, Mary, who. m Samuel Newbury (see Newbury), and removed to Poland, Herkimer Co., N. Y. Many of this branch of the family are buried there.

He was b. in 1754, possibly at New London; m. Bethial, dau. of Benj. Brown, of Orient; d. at Sag Harbor. (Beebe Gen., No. 279. Also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 156-158. See also Brown) His children were: Lester 6, who is buried at Sag Harbor; Polly 6; Eliphalet 6; James 6; Jason 6; and Thomas 6. Jason 6 had a son, Thomas Lester 7; a grandson, Jason William 8; and a g. grandson, William Thomas 9, now living in Brooklyn.

BEEBE SAMUEL 6, CAPT. (Brother of Capt. Lester, above)—From Southold to Stonington. As Capt. of a ship, in 1776, he moved a part of the effects of the following Refugees: Capt. Thomas Wickham, to Stonington (C. 9); James King, to Stonington (C. 202); Sept., Daniel Moore, to Stonington (C. 106); same month, Joseph Topping, to Saybrook and Middletown (C. 150); same month, Aaron Isaacs, Jr. (C. 83); same month, Burnet Miller, to Stonington (C. 102); Dec., Capt. Henry Halsey, to Groton. (C. 63. Also Page 239) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

BENJAMIN—Richard 1, probably son of John of Watertown, Mass., m. Anna —; d. about 1681. He had sons, Richard 2, and Simeon 2. Richard 2, b. in 1645; m. Elizabeth —; d. Sept. 29, 1730. Among his children were: John 3, b. in 1684, m. Abigail —, d. Nov. 24, 1745; Richard 3, d. Oct. 30, 1716; Jonathan 3, d. Mar. 20, 1726; David 3; Joshua 3; and Joseph 3. Simeon 2, m. — Waite; d. before 1698. Among his children were: William 3, b. in 1677, m. Elizabeth Terry, d. Sept. 15, 1757; and John 3, probably m. Mary Reeve, in 1732-3. (Moore's "Index," pp. 7, 56, 57) Richard 2 had a son Nathan 3. (Mr. James F. Young) Among the descendants of Richard 2 are Dr. Richard H. and Horace H., both of Riverhead, L. I.

The "Benjamin Gen." (which relates wholly to the descendants of John of Watertown) states that Richard 1 was a brother of John 1; that Richard 1 settled at Watertown, Mass., and was a Proprietor, in 1642; and that he moved to Southold, with his family, in 1663.

Dr. John B. Lewis, of Hartford, Conn., gives this origin:—John 1, with his son Richard 2, and dau. Mary 2, sailed from England in the ship "Lion," Capt. Mason, June 27, 1632; and arrived in Boston, Sept. 16, 1632. He settled in Watertown, Mass., and d. there. Among his eight children were: John 2; Richard 2, b. in England, m. Anna, d. about 1681; Mary 2, d. in 1642 leaving a will in which she mentions her "Aunt Wines." Richard 3, son of Richard 2 and Anna, b. in 1645. His father removed to Southold when Richard 3 was about eight years of age. He m. Elizabeth —; and settled in Cutchogue. (See Liber A, Southold Rec. for transcript of deed to Thomas Tusten, wherein family names appear) Bethia 4, dau. of Richard 3, m. in 1708-9, Thomas 3 Booth. (See Booth)

BENJAMIN JAMES—From Southold to Guilford. On Mar. 6, 1777, he was in Guilford. (See Receipt in Capt. Jonathan Bayley) He signed the Association at Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

BENJAMIN NATHAN 4, LT. (Nathan 3, Richard, 2, 1)—From Southold to Saybrook, in 1777; and afterward to Guilford. (A. 43) On May 26, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return with his wife and children; which was granted. (E. 96, 97) He was a Lt. in Capt. Josiah Lupton's Co. of Colonial Militia, in 1775. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 13)

He was one of the pioneers who went into the western part of Southold Town (since 1792 Riverhead) known as the "Great Woods," or the "3rd Survey" and there built his house, and reared his family. He probably settled there as early as 1750. Then, and many years later, there were no roads that any wagon could travel on, only stone-boats or ponderous ox-carts. Travel was all foot or mounted. There was little in that section to tempt soldier marauders, yet they came in small parties, levying on the inhabitants to supply their needs, getting milk and its products, flesh of course, sometimes killing it themselves, other times compelling the owner and his friends. Mr. B. was a large man, enterprising, and industrious, and when they attacked his store of hay and rye, his cider and meat barrel, and turned their horses in his grain field, he got wrathful, and defied "all the British this side of h—." But numbers count, and he got the worst end. He got away, but didn't stay long. There was no need. The troops soon left, no doubt to spoil some one else. He had a large farm. He owned the highest cliffs on the Sound shore, nearly half mile wide, from the Sound to the Manor Line, nearly, or quite four miles long. Some of his descendants still live on portions of the old place, but a dozen or more prosperous farmers also occupy its level acres. (Mr. James F. Young)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1733; m. Feb. 13, 1775, Jemima Aldridge (Aldrich); d. May 14, 1805. They had three sons and Nathan Benjamin three daughters.

BENJAMIN NATHAN 5 (Probably son of Nathan 4, above)—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36, 37) He was b. about 1759. (G. 37)

BENJAMIN NATHANIEL—In Sept. 1776, with seven in the family he was brought over (probably to Guilford) by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94)

It is probable that this statement as to Nathaniel should have been made for Nathan, above. A Nathaniel Benjamin does not appear in the County Rec. or in the Salmon Rec. Nor is the name in the Cemetery Registers of Southold, Mattituck, Old Parish (Jamesport), Steeple Church (Upper Aquebogue) or Baiting Hollow. He might have been from Southampton or Brookhaven. A man of this name served in the 4th Orange. (G. 75) Inquiry of members of the closely related Fanning Family gives no one of this name.

BENNETT JOHN—From Huntington, or Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 24, 27, 33); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

BENNETT WILLIAM—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and in Conn., possibly as a Privateersman also. (G. 84)

BETTS—The L. I. Family of this name was wholly distinct from the Family that was, and still is, so numerous in Fairfield Co., Conn.; unless the original settlers were brothers, which is doubtful. (Mr. George W. Betts) The Ancestor on L. I. was Capt. Richard 1, b. in Hertfordshire, Eng., in 1613; settled at Newtown, Mass., in 1636; went thence to Ipswich, in 1642; and removed, finally, to Newtown, L. I., in 1654. He was Magistrate and Sheriff. He d. Nov. 18, 1713. ("The Sacketts of America," pp. 20, 21) His dau. Elizabeth 2, m. Capt. Joseph 3, Sackett. (Same ref. See also Sackett)

BETTS JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); and may have served in Conn. (G. 84) He may have been related to Thomas Betts who was a voter in Queens Co. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co."); or to a Thomas who was Jus. of the Peace in that Co., in 1783.

BETTS THOMAS, JR., MRS.—On Oct. 15, 1782, her husband, who lived at Norwalk, Conn., petitioned to the effect that he had lately married a wife on L. I.; and that her father had lately died, leaving her some property. He asked that his wife have permission to return from L. I. to Conn. with certain furniture, clothing and cash. This was granted. (E. 162, 163)

She was Elizabeth 4, Smith (Solomon 3, Daniel 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull). (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 454. See also Smith)

He was the Thomas, Jr. (b. in 1753), who served as a Serjt., in Conn. (G. 84) His father, Thomas, Sr., also served in Conn. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n")

Thos Betts Jr

Both he and his wife lived at Norwalk, Conn.; and they are buried there, in the Union Cemetery. He had a son, George Washington; and a grandson George Whitfield Betts, Sr., now of N. Y. City.

BIRDSALL—BURCHAM—Henry 1 was at Salem, Mass., as early as 1639. He d. there before Nov. 15, 1651, at which date an inventory of his estate was taken. Nathan 2, his son, in 1654, disposed of five acres of the real estate. He is next heard of at New Haven; next, at East Hampton; thence to Southold; and thence, to Hempstead, where he, in 1667, becomes one of seven Purchasers of Matinecock, later adjudged to be in Oyster Bay. The name of Nathan's wife is yet unknown. He d. in 1696. His son, Benjamin 3, m. Mercy Forman; and had John 4, who m. Elizabeth Langdon, and d. in 1764. (Mr. George William Cocks. Also Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies")

BIRDSALL BENJAMIN 5, COL. (John 4, Benjamin 3, Nathan 2, Henry 1)—From Oyster Bay to Dover, Dutchess Co., N. Y., in 1777. On Mar. 24, 1777, he petitioned the Committee of Dutchess Co. for permission to bring his family from Oyster Bay to that Co.; and that they might occupy the farm of some one who had gone over to the enemy. Gen. Scott certified that Col. Birdsall had done good service throughout the previous winter. The Committee allowed him to occupy the farms of Moses Northrop and Archibald Campbell. (Pet., 33. 616) Gen. Washington was instrumental in effecting this. (A. 38) Authorities differ as to the way in which he was captured, early in 1778. (B. 24. Also Clinton Pap., 2. 648) In Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons" (pp. 147, 148) it is stated that he was captured, with a Flag, on L. I., and that Parsons wrote to Sir Henry Clinton about him, on Feb. 23, 1778. Col. Birdsall had already, on Jan. 23, asked Gov. Clinton to help him. (Clinton Pap., 2. 688) After several months of imprisonment in the Provost, he was exchanged. (B. 24)

Previous to this, in 1776, he had attended the Prov'l Cong. with a petition from the inhabitants of L. I. concerning the removal of the stock. (Field's "Battle of L. I.," p. 322) Just before the Battle, he was very active in driving the Tories from the vicinity of Huntington. (A. 5. Also Page 145) The Committee of Safety, Nov. 9, 1776, paid him for bringing Prisoners from L. I. to Norwich, and thence to Fishkill. (A. 19) He delivered horses to Gen. Mifflin for the use of the U. S. (B. 38) He was in Dover, N. Y., Feb. 17, 1781; and, from there, wrote to Gov. Clinton that he could not attend the Legislature on account of a conspiracy in that locality. (Clinton Pap., 6. 646)

He was a Capt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 22) He was at Brooklyn before the Battle of L. I. (Page 41); and, after the Battle, on Sept. 6, 1776, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. that Col. Smith expected to make a stand on the E. end of the Island. (Page 173) Afterward, he joined Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regt. (the 4th Line) with about 68 of Col. Smith's men. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) The title of Col. was given while he was in captivity. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 493) He also served as Lt. Col. in Graham's Levies (G. 60); and as Lt. Col. and Maj. in the 5th Dutchess. (G. 67) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y from Queens Co., 1777-1783. (B. 43-48. Also Civil List)

About 1768, the brothers Benjamin and Daniel Birdsall came to Newburgh, N. Y. from L. I. (Ruttenber's "Newburgh," p. 368) The Benjamin Birdsall who came to Newburgh in 1768 was not he of John and Elizabeth (Col. Benjamin, of Oyster Bay); but might have been Benjamin, son of Nathan and Jane (Langdon) Birdsall, b. in 1743, and subsequently commissioned Maj. 5th Regt., Col. Morris Graham, Dutchess Co. You will observe, in looking over the Rev'y Records, that the services of the two Benjamins were coincident and in different localities; and so, impossible to have been performed by the same person. This is not the only reason, but I have had this matter under discussion and settled years ago with the aid of the Lt. Colonel's relatives. (Mr. George William Cocks) Assuming that Mr. Cocks is correct, the service as a private, in the 5th Dutchess and the 4th Ulster ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," pp. 245, 264) was that of the other Benjamin, named by Ruttenber.

Col. Benjamin, of Oyster Bay (son of John 4), b. Sept. 17, 1736; m. Jan. 5, 1763, Freelove, dau. of Maj. William and Phebe (Jackson) Jones, of Oyster Bay; d. July 30, 1798. (Thompson's "Long Island" 2. 492-3) Mr. Cocks states that he was b. Sept. 16. He had these children, according to Bunker ("L. I. Genealogies"): David 6; Benjamin 6; Phebe 6, m. Jackson; Elizabeth 6, m. Jackson Althouse; Margaret 6, m. (1) Jacob Seaman, m. (2) Dr. Timothy Tredwell; Mary 6, m. ——— Wright; Charlotte 6, b. in 1764, m. Zebulon Seaman; Thomas 6, m. Phebe Jackson. Benjamin 6, was a large land owner along the Mohawk and Genesee Rivers. (Senate Jour., Feb. 23, 1790. Also Ass'y Jour., Jan. 24, 1789; Mar. 2, 1792. Law of Feb. 4, 1793)

Further details of the eventful life of Col. Birdsall may be found in Fields' "Battle of L. I.," pp. 101-106 and 322-325. Also in Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 492-494.

Benj Birdsall. L. I.

BISHOP—The first of this name was Richard 1, of Salem, Mass., who d. Dec. 30, 1674. He had three sons; of whom, John 2 was the first in Southampton, L. I., in 1652. John 2 had several children; of whom, Samuel 3, who d. in 1734, being then an old man. Samuel 3 had sons, Samuel 4 and John 4. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 203)

In Conn., Rev. John Bishop came to Stamford, in 1644. He m. (1) Rebecca ———, (2) Joanna, Wid. of Rev. Peter Prudden, of Milford, and Wid. of Capt. Thomas Willett. He d. in 1694. His children were: Stephen, Joseph, Ebenezer, Benjamin and Whiting. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 49, 50, 269, 270) Another authority states that a John Bishop came from England to Guilford; and d. there in Jan., 1660.

BISHOP DAVID 5 (John 4, Samuel 3, John 2, Richard 1)—Probably from Huntington to Guilford; although he may have been from Southampton, W. Dist. While at Guilford, he probably served as a Selectman. (E. 34, 44, 72, 135, 136, 160) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and in Conn. (G. 84)

David 5 was of Huntington. He had sons, David 6 and Edward 6. (Howell as above, p. 205) If Howell has named the right David, he omits several of David's brothers and sisters. We find that the will of David, of Huntington, 14 Aug., 1781, names the children of his brother, Nathan Bishop, as Nathan, Enos, Sarah, Unis and Hannah; brother Parson; sister Hannah (Hoit); brother's son, Benjamin; brother James' Wid., Sarah; sister Abigail's son, James Chichester; Nathaniel Fitch and wife Rachel. (N. Y. Wills, 34. 359)

In Conn., a Lt. David Bishop m., Dec. 13, 1781, Ruth Tuttle (North Haven Ch. Rec.); and, on Feb. 10, 1782, Sarah and Abigail, children of David Bishop, bapt. "on his wife's account." (Fairhaven Ch. Rec.)

BISHOP JOHN 5. (Probably a brother of David, above, and also a brother of Armstrong Bishop, of Bridge Hampton. If not, then:—John 5, Samuel 4, 3, John 2, Richard 1). Two of this name served in Col. Smith's Regt.—one from Queens Co. (G. 27); and one from Southampton. (G. 30) Evidently the latter was the Refugee. He probably served in Conn. (G. 84)

Census of 1776, Southampton W. Dist.: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 53) Another of the name appears in the same Census: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. The latter is not named in A. 53. He m. Mary ———; had children, John, Isaac, Charity and Solomon; d. in 1811. The John who had the line, Samuel 4, 3, John 2, Richard 1, had children, Pamela, John, Jerusha and Mercy. (Howell, as above)

A John Bishop m. Jerusha, dau. of John White (See White). In Conn., a John Bishop m. Apr. 13, 1777, Lucretia Darling. (Norwich-Lisbon, Ch. Rec.)

BISHOP SAMUEL 5 (Samuel 4, 3, John 2, Richard 1; brother of the second named John, above). He served in Col. Smith's Regt. as a Corp. (G. 7, 30); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 53) He had sons, Samuel 6 and Jeremiah 6. (Howell, as above)

BLACHLY—BLATCHLEY—BLATSLEY, BENJAMIN, ENS.—From Huntington to Norwalk. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's Address—1876) In 1780, he was at Norwalk. (F. 124) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was an Ens. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 32) Possibly he was a son of Benjamin Blachly who d. Dec. 17, 1741, aged 59; and is buried in the West Cemetery, North Madison, Conn.

BLACHLY DANIEL (Possibly a brother of Benjamin, above)—From Huntington, probably to Killingworth. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); also in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

The Huntington 1st Pres. Ch. Records state that, on Nov. 23, 1742, Daniel Blatchley m. Prudence Wiser; and that both were bapt. Sept. 11, 1764. They had: Mary, m. ——— Hubbs; Sarah, m. Samuel Smith; Hannah, m. Alexander Rodgers; Phebe; Jemima; Rhoda, m. Zebulon Rogers; Free love; Jane, probably m. Charles Peters; Benjamin, m. Sarah Wheeler, Mar. 23, 1774 (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); Daniel, probably m. Jan. 27, 1780, Rubina Stevens (Killingworth, Conn., Ch. Rec.); and Ebenezer, m. Sarah Jarvis. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

BLACKWELL—Robert 1 came from England, in 1661. He m. Mary Manningham, or Manning, of Manning's Island, and changed the name to Blackwell's Island. He d. in 1717. His son, Jacob 2, b. Aug. 4, 1692; m. May 10, 1711, Mary Hallet; d. Dec. 1, 1744. She was b. Oct. 22, 1687; d. in 1743. (E. Guernsey Rankin, M. D.) The confusion in the names, Manningham and Manning, has recently been cleared up by obtaining a copy of the will of Captain John Manning from the Secretary of State, Albany, N. Y. In this will (Patents-Book 1., p. 146), he states that "after the decease of the said John Manning and Bridget, his wife, or the longer liver of them, then to the use and behoof of Mary Manningham, the daughter of the said Bridget by a former husband." It is apparent that Captain Manning's step-daughter did not assume his name, but retained the name of her own father. (Mr. W. T. Blackwell)

BLACKWELL JACOB 3, COL. (Jacob 2, Robert 1)—He served in the French and Indian War. In Oct. 1782, the Authorities of Conn. allowed him to bring a horse from L. I. (F. 73)

He was Col. in the Queens Co. Militia, 1775-1776. On Aug. 8, 1775, he was on a Committee to arrange the Militia of the Colony. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) He was a Delegate, from Queens Co., to the 1st, 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses (A. 56, 58, 59); and a Member of the Committee of Correspondence of that Co. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," pp. 18, 23) On Mar. 7, 1776, the Prov'l Cong. wrote to him, and others in Queens Co., urging the importance of organizing the Militia. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) He was a Deputy to the Prov'l Cong. which elected Delegates to the Cont'l Cong. (Page 130. Also Civil List)

He was b. in 1717; m. Feb. 19, 1755, Lydia Hallet, of Hallet's Cove, now Astoria, L. I.; d. in 1780. His residence was in what was afterward called Ravenswood, L. I., opposite the present Blackwell's Island. In Revolutionary times his property was confiscated by the British; and, in consequence the door of his residence bore the mark (Λ) of a traitor. He fled to Hopewell, N. J. When the house was pulled down, in 1903, the door was removed to the Jamaica Historical Society. His will was published in the "N. Y. Eve'g Post," Feb. 8, 1908, to illustrate the customs of the period. (E. G. R., M. D.)

He had sons: Joseph 4, James 4 and Jacob 4. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") Joseph 4 was a Refugee from the City. (See "The Refugees from N. Y. City")

BOERUM NICHOLAS—From Kings Co. to Fishkill, N. Y. On Jan. 13, 1782, Maj. Hendrick Wykoff wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Fishkill, that said Boerum had a legacy in the hands of said Wykoff's father; and that Boerum wished to go from Elizabethtown to L. I., with a Flag, in order to receive the legacy. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1865-6. Also "Kings and Suffolk in the Olden Time," p. 15)

He furnished one or more soldiers at his own expense. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 17) He was probably related to Lt. William Boerum (G. 42)—probably the Capt. William Boerum who was with Gen. Woodhull, Aug. 26-28, 1776. (Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 139)

BOISSEAU—The Huguenot, John 1, came to Southold about 1690. He m. (1) Elizabeth ———; (2) Deborah 3, dau. of Nathaniel Moore. (See Moore) He d. June 14, 1756, aged 80. His sons: John 2, b. about 1690, and who may have m. Deborah Moore, above (Salmon Rec. states that he m. Deborah Moore, in 1725); Nathaniel 2, reputed b. in 1690, d. in 1780. (Moore's "Index," p. 8) John 2 d. in 1756. (Salmon Rec.)

I have the French Bible, printed in 1636; and on the inside of the cover is the name Jean Boisseau. My ancestors went from Rochelle, France, at the time of the persecution. They fled to Holland; and, about 1689, they settled in Southold, where their descendants are to-day, in the 5th and 6th generations. The old homestead is still standing in Southold. (Mr. John H. Boisseau)

BOISSEAU JOHN 3 (John 2, 1)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he was brought over by Capts. Jonathan Vail and David Landon—11 passengers with the latter. (C. 13, 164) His claim for expenses was allowed. (C. 4) He returned to Southold with his family. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. ———; m. Oct. 21, 1755, Hannah, dau. of John Jr., 3, and sister of Capt. John 4, Vail (see Vail); d. in 1807. (Salmon Rec.) His children were: John 4, b. Feb. 23, 1759, m. June 24, 1783, Anna, dau. of Samuel Case, d. Jan. 14, 1835 (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 321. Also Salmon Rec.); Nancy 4, b. Feb. 23, 1761, m. Peter Vail, Jr. (see Vail); Elizabeth 4, b. Feb. 24, 1763, m., as his second wife, Nathaniel, son of Obadiah Vail; Mary 4, b. May 1, 1765, m. Stephen Bayley, Jr., (See Bayley); Phebe 4, b. Jan. 20, 1768, m. George Ledyard (See Ledyard); Nathaniel 4, b. June 22, 1770, m. Ruth Booth; Benjamin 4, b. Nov. 30, 1772, m. Elizabeth Dyer (See Dyer); Ezra 4 d. y. (Vail Gen. pp. 36, 37)

Benjamin 4 had: Ezra 5, Caleb 5 and John 5. John's son, John H. 6, and grandson, John Summer 7, are now in Southold; and so are Ezra's son, Ezra L. 6, and grandson, Ezra Emery 7. (J. H. B.—1911) Ezra L. 6, d. Mar. 12, 1912.

BOND JACOB—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); and probably in Conn. (G. 84) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

BOOTH—Gregory left Eng., in 1635. Humphrey was at Charlestown, Mass., in 1656. John, of Scituate, Mass., had a son, John, b. in 1661. The first one in Southold was an Associate, in 1652. John 1 m. Hannah, probably King; d. Dec. 17, 1705 or 1708. John 2, d. 1708 or 1720. His sons: Obadiah 3, m. Elizabeth Pain; Daniel 3. Thomas 2, m. Mary ———; d. in Feb. 1706. His sons: John 3, d. 1708 or 1720; Thomas 3, b. in 1686, m. Bethia Benjamin, d. Dec. 19, 1765, his dau. Anna, probably m. Freegift Wells (See Wells); James 3, d. Feb. 5, 1708; Giles 3, d. Elizabeth Moore; George 3, b. in 1696, d. in 1773; Mehitable, or Mary 3, b. in 1699, m. Jonathan Bradley; Constant 3, b. in 1701, m. Mary King. Constant 3 had: Samuel 4, m. Mary Brown; John 4; George 4; William 4; Prosper 4; Mary 4, m. Charles du Tée; Hannah 4, m. James Peat, or Peet. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

Dr. John B. Lewis, of Hartford, Conn., makes a statement, from which the following is condensed:

John 1 probably emigrated to America before attaining his majority. When he arrived, or where he first settled, or whom he married, is not known. It is not unlikely that he was first with the Mass. Bay Colony, as he appears to have been intimate with Nathaniel Sylvester (See Sylvester, in Dering), who settled at Dorchester, Mass., about 1630. The first proven record we have of him is in 1652, in which year we find him residing on Shelter Island where he and Sylvester made purchase of the rights held by certain Indians. (Southold Town Rec., Liber A., p. 74) The Southold Town Recs. of Deeds furnish the only authentic mention of the names of his children. (Liber C., pp. 148, 173-175) His sons: Thomas 2, below; John 2, d. April 6, 1720; Charles 2, m. Abigail Lupton, dau. of Wid. Mary Lupton.

Thomas 2, b. about 1646; m. Mary ———; d. Feb. 4, 1706. His children: Capt. William 3, below; John 3, d. Jan. 31, 1727; Giles 3, d. Oct. 30, 1706; James 3, d. Feb. 5, 1708; Mary 3, m. in 1702, ———; d. in 1738; Thomas 3, b. in 1686, m. Bethia Benjamin, 1708-9, Dec. 19, 1755—his dau., Jule-Anna m. Freegift Wells (See Wells)—his dau., Bethia, m. Joseph Reeves, son of Benjamin and Deliverance Wells Reeves. (See Reeve)

Captain William 3, b. about 1666; m. Hannah, dau. of Samuel and Frances (Ludlum) King; d. Mar. 11, 1723. His children: William 4, b. May 25, 1689, d. May 22, 1712; Hannah 4, b. Feb. 22, 1691, m. in 1722, Richard Hudson; Samuel 4, b. July 7, 1693, m. in 1727, Elizabeth Moore, d. in 1732; George 4, b. Apr. 28, 1696, d. Nov. 1713; Mehitable 4, b. Oct. 9, 1699, m. in 1722, John Barnes; Constant 4, below; Mary 4, b. Aug. 30, 1703, m. in 1727, Peter Hallock, d. Feb. 25, 1761; Martha 4, b. Aug. 27, 1706.

Constant 4, b. Jan. 8, 1701; m. Oct. 7, 1725, Catherine King; d. Mar. 27, 1774. His children: William 5, b. Nov. 23, 1727; Samuel 5, b. Feb. 27, 1729; John 5, b. Apr. 9, 1732, d. in 1787; Mary 5, b. July 21, 1736, m. Feb. 1, 1770, Charles du Tée, d. Oct. 19, 1793; Hannah 5, b. in 1739, m. James Peet; George 5, b. Mar. 30, 1741, d. in 1774; Joseph 5 (See Capt. Joseph, below); Constant 5, b. Mar. 3, 1745; Katherine 5, b. in 1748.

BOOTH DANIEL—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Cpts. Edward Benton and John Vail—the latter, with four passengers. (C. 166) His claim was paid to Samuel Brown, Nov. 27, 1777. (C. 164) In Feb. 1781, his petition to take back his family of 12, with supplies and cattle, was negative, although he was well recommended by the Authorities of Guilford. (E. 151, 152) A similar petition was granted, in Jan., 1783. (E. 158, 159) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Daniel Booth above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was probably a son of John 2. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

BOOTH HENRY—From Southold to Norwalk, where he was in Sept., 1777. (F. 111) He served in the 3d Line (G. 46); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

BOOTH JOSEPH 4, CAPT. (Constant 3, Capt. William 2, John 1)—From Southold. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, a load of his effects was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He may have served in the 3d Dutchess (G. 65); and in Conn. (G. 84) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—Above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) If his ancestry, as stated above, is correct, he was b. in 1743; m. in 1771, Elizabeth King; d. in 1795. (Dr. J. B. L.)

There was a Capt. Joseph, of Enfield, Conn. (Booth Gen.)

DANIEL BREWSTER — OLD TOWN CLERK'S OFFICE — MIDDLE ISLAND, L. I.
(Loaned by Mr. R. M. Baylis)

JOHN BREWSTER — EAST SETAUKET, L. I.
(Loaned by Mr. O. B. Ackerly)

BOOTH PROSPER—He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

He was probably a son of Constant 3. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

BOWDEN—BOWDOIN—Onderdonk ("Scrap Book," Pub. Lib'y, N. Y. City) mentions a Rev. Bowden who was a Loyalist. The Bowden family did not appear, in Southampton, until 1817, when George Bowden came there, from England. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 205) George was shipwrecked on Montauk Point. His descendants live in Southampton today. (Mr. Livingston Bowden)

BOWDEN —, MRS. On Sept. 13, 1781, she was allowed to return to Jamaica, with her sister. (F. 44)

BOWER HEZEKIAH—From Bridge Hampton, in Southampton, to Chester. In Sept. 1776, "one passenger" (probably himself) was brought from Sag Harbor to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was probably a son of Daniel Bower—the Family now extinct in the town of Southampton. Hezekiah lived at Saggaponack. He returned from Conn.; and was living about the year 1800. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

BOWER ZEPHANIAH—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and probably in Conn. (G. 84)

BOWNE—William was a Freeman in Mass., in 1647; but he appears in the Records of Gravesend, L. I., in 1646. John appears in the same Records, in 1647; James, in 1665; and Andrew, of N. Y. City, in 1680. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1. 108) John was a son of Thomas, of Matlock, Derbyshire, Eng. He was b. in 1627; d. in 1695. He was, later, of Flushing, L. I., where he m. in 1656, Hannah Feake, or Feeks. Her sister, Elizabeth, m. Capt. John Underhill. (Same ref., 1. 159) This was, perhaps, John the Quaker who was exiled by Gov. Stuyvesant; but was afterward welcomed back. (Furman's "Antiquities of L. I.," pp. 113-115)

There was a Thomas, b. in 1595. His son John, of Flushing, b. in 1627; m. (1) Hannah Feeks; d. in 1695. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies") This was the John, of Flushing, named above.

BOWNE JOSEPH—From L. I. to Newburgh, N. Y. On Dec. 4, 1779, Uriah Mitchell (see Mitchell) wrote to Gov. Clinton stating that Joseph Bowne desired to bring his wife and two children out from N. Y. City where they resided at that time. (Clinton Pap., 5. 402) He probably served in the 2nd Dutchess. (G. 64) He is on record as Clerk of the Committee of Flushing, June 27, 1776. (Misc. Pap., 35. 645)

Joseph Bowne, Clerk of the Sub-Committee for Flushing "to carry out the resolution of the Continental and Provincial Congresses," is believed to have been the son of Joseph, who d. before June 20, 1753. Joseph was a son of Samuel and Hannah (Smith) Bowne; m. Sept. 13, 1735, Sarah Lawrence; d. Jan. 5, 1740. Sarah Lawrence was a dau. of Obadiah and Sarah Lawrence. Joseph (the Refugee) was the third child of her son Joseph, mentioned in the will of his grandmother, Sarah Lawrence. He m. about Feb. 2, 1762, Sarah, dau. of Jacomiah and Elizabeth (Jones) Mitchell, of North Hempstead, L. I. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

BREWSTER—The first to arrive in America was Elder William, 1, in 1566-7, at Scrooby, Eng.; d. April 10, 1643, at Plymouth, Mass. He removed to Holland. In 1620 he came over on the first voyage of the "Mayflower," and was the fourth signer of the Mayflower Compact, Nov. 11, 1620 (Old Style). He had children: Jonathan 2; Patience 2; Fear 2; a child, 2, sex not stated; Love 2; and Wrestling 2, d. y.

Hon. Jonathan 2, b. Aug. 12, 1593, at Scrooby, Eng.; d. Aug. 7, 1659 (1661 in Caulkins' "New London," p. 276; also see Conn. Col. Records, 1. 362), at Poquetannock (near New London), Conn. He m. April 10, 1624, Lucretia Oldham, who d. March 4, 1678-9, at Poquetannock. He arrived on the ship "Fortune," Nov. 9, 1621; lived at Plymouth and Duxbury, Mass., and at Poquetannock. He was Dep'y G. C. Ply. Col., 1639, 1641-1643; removed to New London, in 1649; was Dep'y G. C. Col. Conn., 1650, 1655-1658; and was Asst. G. C. Col. Conn., 1657. He had children: William 3,

NATHANIEL BREWSTER—"THE PLANTING GROUND"—SETAUKET, L. I.
(Loaned by Mr. W. T. Cox)

WILLIAM BREWSTER—MIDDLE ISLAND, L. I.

Mary 3, Jonathan 3, Benjamin 3, Elizabeth 3, Ruth 3, Grace 3 and Hannah 3. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., Apr. 1911) Benjamin 3, m. in 1659, Anna Dart. (Caulkins, as above, p. 277)

From Elder William 1 and Hon. Jonathan 2 descended the only Refugee of the name—Capt. Caleb. It seems to be agreed that Capt. Caleb was a son of Rev. Nathaniel who was in Setauket, in 1655; was Minister of the Church at that place; and d. in 1690, said to have been aged 95. He is supposed to have m. Sarah, dau. of Gov. Roger Ludlow. (See Ludlow) Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," p. 49) does not mention Caleb as a son of Rev. Nathaniel. Neither the pedigree quoted above nor the Brewster Gen. mentions Rev. Nathaniel; but it is not denied by those who are familiar with the history of this Family that he may have been a son of Jonathan 2. Indeed, it is positively so stated. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 27. 34) But Wood (as above, p. 47) doubts this. A tombstone at Seymour, Conn., records that Rev. Nathaniel was a son of Jonathan 2. If so, the Refugee was Capt. Caleb 4, as is claimed by his descendant Mr. Alfred Seelye Roe. Mr. Roe thinks that Thompson ("Long Island") is wrong in making Rev. Nathaniel a nephew of Elder William; when he was either a son, or a grandson. Another descendant of Elder William 1, Capt. John Reynolds Totten, thinks that Rev. Nathaniel was the son of a son of Jonathan 2; thus making Rev. Nathaniel 4, and Capt. Caleb 5. Still another informant puts Capt. Caleb a generation later, thus: Capt. Caleb 6, Benjamin 5, Daniel 4, Rev. Nathaniel 3, Jonathan 2, William 1. Mr. Selah B. Strong thinks that Capt. Caleb was a son of Daniel 4; but he is positive that Rev. Nathaniel could not have been a son of Jonathan 2, because they seemed to be about the same age. If Capt. Caleb was a son of Benjamin 5, then he was probably one of the two sons over 16 years of age, by the Census of 1776. That Census gave this record to Benjamin, of Brookhaven: Males—over 50 years, 1; over 16, 2. Females—over 16, 4; under 16, 1. (A. 51)

BREWSTER CALEB, CAPT.—From Setauket, in Brookhaven. He was in Norwalk, in 1780; and in Fairfield, Mar., 1781; at which time he was allowed to take Ebenezer Platt to L. I. (F. 5) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19, 21)

He was 2d Lt. of Minute Men, in Brookhaven, Dec. 22, 1775 and Apr. 4, 1776, in Col. Smith's Regt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. Also G. 4, 6, 18, 35) He was Ens. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); and Capt.-Lt. in the 2d Art'y of the Line. (G. 50)

He was in the Whale-Boat Expedition to Brookhaven, late in 1776 (Pages 220, 222); and he was prominent in Gen. Parsons' Raid on Setauket, in 1777, and in Maj. Tallmadge's attack on Fort St. George, in 1780. (Pages 83, 228, 234, 237, 238) In 1781, he reported that a raid on Miller's Place had been made (Pages 204, 205); and, in the same year, he captured an armed boat from the enemy, and brought both boat and crew to Black Rock Cove. (Page 219)

In 1778, he was employed as a confidential and secret agent of Congress; and he devoted himself, through the remainder of the struggle, in procuring and transmitting the most minute, accurate and important intelligence relative to the movements and intentions of the enemy at different points, and, particularly in New York and on Long Island; for which he was uncommonly well qualified. (H. 35. Also Chap. 7)

He was badly wounded in "The Boat Fight," on Dec. 7, 1782. [Chap. 26] During this short, but terrible, conflict, his shoulder was pierced by a rifle ball, which passed out at his back. His prudence and resolution enabled him to keep this occurrence a profound secret till the enemy surrendered; when he found himself exhausted from the effusion of blood. After reaching the shore, he was confined, under the hands of a Surgeon, for some time. For the injury thus received he was placed upon the Pension Roll of the Army, and continued to receive a gratuity from his Country for the remainder of his life. On Mar. 9, 1783, he captured the British Ship "Fox." [Chap. 24] He participated in several other important and hazardous engagements, while attached to the Line of the Army.

On June 21, 1790, Gen. Henry Knox, U. S. Sec'y of War, reported to the House of Representatives on the petition of Capt. Brewster [reciting his services, as above]. That he performed this arduous and hazardous service with fidelity, judgment and bravery, and to the entire approbation of Gen. Washington, appears by his letter written to Captain Brewster, as well as by his certificate, bearing date June 10, 1784. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 513-516)

He was a Pensioner, in 1790; and a Member of the Cincinnati. ("N. Y. State Soc'y of the Cincinnati")

He was Lt. and then Capt. of the Revenue Cutter for the district of New York from 1793 to 1816, excepting three years. He was Sheriff of "Suffolk Co.," 1810 and 1812-1814.

He was b. at Setauket, in 1747; m. Apr. 18, 1784, Anne, dau. of Jonathan Lewis, of Fairfield, Conn.; d., at Black Rock, Conn., Feb. 13, 1827, aged 79. (Thompson, as above. Also Fairfield, Conn. Ch. Rec.)

BRICKELL JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and as a Privateersman, in Conn. (Page 218. Also G. 85) On Jan. 20, 1776, he petitioned the Prov'l Cong. for protection, having been plundered by certain disorderly parties. (Page 202. Also A. 45)

BROWER—Several members of this Family, names not known, went from L. I. to Albany, N. Y. On Oct. 30, 1776, the Albany County Committee ordered that the Treasurer pay Mr. William Van Ness £30, to be delivered to the Committee appointed to furnish two of the Brower Family Refugees from Long Island with such necessaries as they may stand in need of. This was addressed to Mr. G. Lansing, Jr. Treas'r; and signed by Mat. Visscher, Sec'y. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 40. 17)

It is possible that the Refugees were Nicholas Brower and his children. He was a son of Nicholas who ran back to Annekje Jans and Dominie Bogardus. Nicholas, the son, b. Mar. 8, 1747; m. May 7, 1771, Mary, dau. of Benjamin Birdsell; d. ————. At the beginning of the War he had three children; Nicholas B., b. Apr. 26, 1772; Martha, b. Jan. 15, 1774; Benjamin F., b. Mar. 1, 1776. ("Gen'l Ex.," June, 1908) After the War, certain of this name inter-married with the Vail Family in Southold. (Vail Gen., pp. 136, 138) A William Brower was a Lt. in Kings Co. (G. 42)

It may be that the Refugees were the Family of Samuel Brower, consisting of himself, wife and six children. They came from N. Y. City. On July 4, 1776, they were stopping with Thuris Du Bois, near Fishkill Landing. The comment, by D. Brinckerhoff, Jr., is: "This Family was not returned to me but applied for Assistance as a Refugee from New York. I assisted them but expect they can do for themselves now." (Rev'y MSS., 49. 5)

The line now represented in Utica, N. Y. is from William Hendrickse who settled in New Amsterdam about 1650. He, later, moved to Albany; and, after his death, his sons settled in Schenectady, N. Y., where our line resided until my father moved to Utica. (Mr. A. Vedder Brower)

An interesting sketch of the Browsers of Kings County may be found in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 9. 126.

BROWN—Griffin, who is usually unreliable as to generations, makes the following statements ("Journal," pp. 18, 19, 208-211, 241, 242):—Israel, Richard and Samuel were of the first six settlers in Oyster Ponds (now Orient), 1645 to 1650. Israel 1 had a son, Joseph 2, who m. Dorothy Tuthill, and had sons, Joseph 3 and Benjamin 3. Joseph 3, b. in 1731 or 1733; m. Mehitabel, dau. of Jeremiah 4 Vail; and had 18 children. Benjamin 3, m. Mary Tuthill; and had a son, George 4, and a dau. Bethial 4 who m. Capt. Lester Beebe. (See Beebe) Richard 1 had sons, Richard 2, Samuel 2 and David 2. Richard 2 had a son, Richard 3, b. in 1700; d. in 1776. The latter had sons, Ens. Richard 4, Samuel 4 and Christopher 4. Ens. Richard 4 had a son, Richard 5, and a grandson, Richard 6. Samuel 2 had a dau. Rebecca, who m. Samuel Beebe. (See Beebe) I doubt Griffin's statement that an Israel was early on L. I. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

Moore ("Index," pp. 8, 9, 59-62), apparently, makes Israel 1, as given by Griffin, Israel 2; and without definite lineage. Israel's son, he makes Joseph 3; and grandsons, Joseph 4, Benjamin 4, Jeremiah 4 and Joshua 4. Richard 1 d. at Southold in 1655; had Richard 2, d. in 1686-7. Richard 2 had sons: Jonathan 3, d. in 1704; Richard 3, m. Dorothy King; Walter 3, d. about 1711; William 3, d. 1725-1732. Jonathan 3 had: Jonathan 4, d. in 1710, aged 57; and perhaps Daniel 4, d. before 1774. Richard 3 had sons: Richard 4; Henry 4; and Samuel 4, b. about 1688, whose dau., Mary, m. Amon Taber. (See Taber) Richard 4, b. about 1684; m. Anna Youngs; d. 1765-1771. His son, Richard 5, b. about 1705. Henry 4, d. 1774-1781, had: Henry 5, Peter 5 and Richard 5. Richard 4 also had sons Peter 5 and Christopher 5, both of whom d. y. Walter 3 had Walter 4, who m. (1) Abigail ———, (2) Mary Youngs, (3) Mehitabel Horton. William 3 had: Elijah 4; Thomas 4; William, Jr., 4; John 4; and David 4. John 4, d. in 1705, had sons: Asa 5; and Benjamin 5. David 4 had: Reuben 5, Nathan 5, David 5, William 5 and Obadiah 5.

Later, and more accurate, information is given by Miss Lucy D. Akerly in The N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 29. 220 and 31. 65, 166. Lt. Richard 1, was at Southold, 1686-7. Of his four sons: Ens. Richard 2, d. in 1701; and William 2, b. in 1659, d. in 1733. Ens. Richard 2 had Capt. Richard 3, b. in 1684; m. in 1704-5, Anna Youngs; d. 1765-1771. Capt. Richard 3 had a son, Richard 4, b. in 1708, m. Hannah Hawke, d. in 1776; also a grandson, Christopher 5. William 2 had: David 3, b. in 1695, m. Elizabeth Simmons, d. in 1756; Elijah 3, b. in 1700, m. Mary Mather, d. in 1775; and Thomas 3, b. in 1702; d. in 1759. David 3 had: David 4, Reuben 4 and perhaps William 4. Elijah 3 had William 4 and David 4. Thomas 3 had Samuel 4.

BROWN ABIGAIL, WID.—From Southold, probably to Guilford. With two in her family, and her goods, she was brought over, in Sept., 1776, by Capts. Jacob Riley and Thomas Leete. (C. 94, 131) She was probably living at Oyster Ponds in 1775. (Griffin) It was perhaps a younger one of the name who was a pensioner in Conn. (G. 85)

BROWN CHRISTOPHER 5 (Richard 4, 3, 2, 1)—From Southold, probably to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with four in the family and his goods, he was brought over to Conn. by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He was living at Oyster Ponds, in 1775. (Griffin) In that year he signed the Association. (H. 10)

It is probable that he was not Capt. Christopher. (Brown Gen. No. 57) He may have served in the 3d Westchester (G. 79); and probably did serve in Conn. (G. 85)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. Apr. 30, 1745. If he m. Hannah Terry; his dau. Mehitable, m. Capt. Caleb Dyer. (See Dyer) He was the father of Dea. Peter Brown; and grandfather of Edmond P. Brown, a noted shipmaster. (Griffin)

BROWN DAVID 4 (David 3, William 2, Lt. Richard 1; brother of Reuben below)—From Southold, probably to Guilford. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 85) He was b. about 1757.

A David Brown, m. Oct., 1786, ——— Rogers, step-dau. of Zopher Ruland. (Smithtown Ch. Rec. See also Ruland)

BROWN GEORGE 4 (Benjamin 3, Joseph 2, Israel 1, according to Griffin)—From Southold, probably to Guilford. On Oct. 14, 1782, he was permitted to bring his family, furniture &c., from L. I. (F. 68) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He probably served in the 1st Line (G. 43); also in Conn. (G. 85); and was a Serjt. in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48)

He was living at Oyster Ponds, in 1775. (Griffin's "Journal")

BROWN HENRY—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and in Conn. (G. 85) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) Another Henry, from Brookhaven, also signed. (H. 20) The Refugee was probably the son of a Minister. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; Females—under 16, 4. (A. 54) Another Henry, of Southold: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55)

BROWN HENRY, JR. 5 (Henry, Sr., 4, Capt. Richard 3, Ens. Richard 2, Lt. Richard 1)—From Southold to Lyme. It is probable that he was the one, with no given name supplied, who was brought over in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. John Vail, five in the family. (C. 177) A Henry, Jr., signed the Association, from Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and through the War, in Conn. (G. 85) He was a Corp. in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); and was at Valley Forge, 1777-1778.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 5. (A. 55) He was not the son of Henry, the Refugee, above; but the son of Henry, Sr., who d. Sept. 28, 1776; and his wife, Mary Paine, who d. three days later. (Mattituck Ch. Recs.) He was b., at Oyster Ponds, in 1738; m. (1) Sarah ———, who, d. at Lyme; m. (2) ———, who d. Both wives are buried at Lyme, but their tomb-stones cannot be found. He m. (3) Sarah Cobb, with whom, and his son Elijah 6, he removed to New Lyme, O., in 1821; where he d. Jan. 20, 1831; and his wife, Apr. 1, 1838. They are buried at New Lyme. By his first wife he had: David 6,

Mary 6, Hepsibah 6, Mehtable 6, Bula 6 and Henry 6; by his second wife, Esther 6 and Elijah 6.

David 6 lived at E. Haddam, Conn., and had: Betsy 7, m. —Wade; Sally 7; Mary 7, m. —Maynard.

Mary 6, m. Stephen Sterling, and lived at Hamburg, Conn. They had Sterling children: Stephen 7, m. Sarah Marvin, and had: Ansel Marvin 8; Mary Elizabeth 8; Sarah Esther 8 (the two latter now in Hamburg); and Stephen Parker 8, (m. Anna Warner and had Sara Warner 9). They also had John 7, who had: Olive 8 and Florence 8.

Hepsibah 6, m. Chapman McCreary and removed to New Lyme, O., where they d. They had McCreary children: Erastus 7, lost at sea; and Ulysses 7, who had two sons in Conn. Their other children took the name Carey, after removing to Ohio; Harry 7, m. Lucy Ann Chapman, and had Erastus 8, Hepsibah 8, Ulysses 8, Bula 8, Plummer 8 and Thankful 8; Rodney 7, m. Juliet Chapman, and had Mariette 8 (m. Albert Remick, and had Perry 9 and Lola 9 who m. Hoyt Gallup); Fabius 7, m. Sarah Splitstone.

Bula 6, b. in 1774; m. James Baldwin, of Chester, Conn. Their children were born at Chester; but they migrated to Rome, O., and d. there. They had Baldwin children: James Henry 7, m. Susan Clark, of Chester, and had James Henry 8 (m. Nancy Dodge and had children, Bernard W. 9, Ida May 9, m. Judge Caldwell, and Fred 9, all of whom live in Jefferson, O.), Ashbel C. 8 (m. Sophia Smith, and had Forrester 9 who lives in Cincinnati, O.); Mary Ann 7, m. Rumsey Reeve (See Reeve); Ruth 7, m. Hezekiah Arnold, of Conn., and had no children; Hannah 7, m. Elihu Meigs, of Conn., who d. there, (the Widow and children went to Ohio) and had Elihu 8 (m. Mary Ann Peck and had Charles 9, Leon E. 9 and Clifton 9), Charles 8 (m. Frances Bishop and had a son living in St. Louis), Bula 8 (m. William Ashley); Bula 7, m. Zachariah Clarke, of Conn., and had John Egbert, of Geneva, O.; Elma 7, m. Griswold Bishop of New Lyme, O., removed to Pontiac, Mich., and had Bula 8, Harriet 8 (m. in Mich.), Frances 8 (m. Charles Meigs), Sylvanus 8, Phebe 8 (m. Edwin Miller), Sophronia 8 (m. J. Platt); Sophronia 7, m. Ezra B. Miller, lived in Rome, O., and had Edwin 8 (m. Phebe Bishop), Charles 8 (m. Miss Espy of Espyville, Pa.), and Ashbel 8 (m. (1) Francelia Bishop, (2) Hattie Bishop, and had Charles 9 and Maude 9); Harriet Amelia 7, m. Henry Putnam, of Rome, O., removed to Hutchinson, Minn., and Chicago, Ill., and had Winslow 8, Jeanette 8 and James 8.

Henry 6, b. in 1776; m. Zarviah Ladd, of Conn.; and removed to Rome, O. After his death, the family removed to Iowa. He had: Nancy 7, m. Zachaeus Armstrong, and had children; Harriet 7, m. —Hampton; Gilbert 7, m. —Chilson, and had children; Helen 7, m. —Rains and had son, George 8. Helen 7 is Mrs. Helen A. Rains, of Mt. Ayr, Iowa, the well known poet and writer.

Esther 6, m. Sylvester Rogers, of Conn., and emigrated to Rome, O. They had Rogers children: Elijah 7, m. Sarah Williams and had Frances 8 (m. Erastus Griswold), Maria 8 (m. Eugene Galbreath), Martin VanBuren 8 (m. Ellen Messenger), Mary 8 (m. James Fitch), Marion 8 (m. Fenemore Peck, and had Strong Lyman 9), Antoinette 8 (m. George Flagg), and John S. 8 (m. Paulina Clement, and had Pearl 9 and May 9); Mary 7 m. Col. Albert Marvin and had a son, a lawyer in Cleveland, O.; Lucy 7, m. William Jarvis and had Lucy 8 (m. E. J. Graves, and lives in Cleveland, O.).

Helen Brower and had Capitola 9 and Blaine 9); Mary Ann 7, m. William Deming; Bula 7, m. Marcena Miller, and had Oakley 8 (who had Myrtie 9 and Lynn 9).

This record of Henry Brown, Jr., by Mrs. H. Amelia Reeve Chapin, Rome, O.

BROWN JAMES—He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 85) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He was on "The Confederacy." (Page 218)

If he was from Southold, Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55) If he was Rev. James, from Southampton, E. Dist. (Bridge Hampton), Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 1. (A. 54) Rev. James was the second Minister at Bridge Hampton. He was from the R. I. Browns. He was b. about 1720; d. Apr. 22, 1788. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges' "Bridge Hampton Address" 1886) His dau. Elizabeth, m. Slias Cooper. (See Cooper)

A James Brown m., May 5, 1782, Hannah Higby. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.) BROWN RUBEN 4, SERJ.T. (David 3, William 2, Lt. Richard 1; brother of David above.)—Probably from Franklinville (now Laurel) to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over, with four passengers and goods, by Capt. Jonathan Vail; and, in Oct., one passage and freight to Guilford, by Capt. John Ingraham. (C. 15) A Reuben signed the Association, from Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20)

He served, both as private and Serjt., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36, 37); perhaps in Weissenfels' Levies and the 4th Westchester (G. 57, 80); and probably in Conn. (G. 85)

He was b. about 1734; m. Elinor Youngs, Sept. 26, 1765. The Census of 1776 gave him a son and a dau., both under 16 years old. A. (55) His son David, bapt. July 31, 1768; and his dau. Elizabeth, Aug. 1, 1773. His wife d. Sept. 15, 1786, in her 30th year; and he d. Feb. 24, 1794, in his 61st year. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Cemetery) He should not be confounded with another Reuben Brown. (Brown Gen. No. 87)

BROWN SAMUEL—Probably from Oyster Ponds to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with two in the family, he was moved over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15) Another Samuel, from Southampton, also signed. (H. 33) One of this name was a private and a Corp. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); and it is stated that he was from Southampton. Others served in the 3d Line; Weissenfels', Malcom's, Dubois' and Graham's Levies; and the 4th Westchester (G. 46, 57, 58, 59, 60, 80); and in Conn. (G. 85)

The name occurs several times in the Rev'y MSS., State Lib'y, Albany, N. Y.—thus leading to confusion. It is certain that Samuel, the Refugee, was not the Jus. of the Peace, in Conn. (I. 2) Nor is it likely that he was the Samuel 4 (Joseph 3, Joseph 2, Israel 1), b. July 19, 1767, who went on the N. River boats, with Augustus Griffin, in 1788. (Griffin's "Journal") It is still less probable that he was No. 52, in the Brown Gen., b. in 1734; or No. 54, b. in 1722; or the son of No. 54, b. in 1753.

If he was the son of Richard, who d. in 1686, his dau. Mary, m. Amon Taber, Sr. (See Taber) A Samuel, of Southold, son of Edward, b. Aug. 4, 1702. (Southold Town Rec., MSS. Liber E.)

The Census of Southold, in 1776, showed one male and two females (one probably his wife) over 16 years old; and two males under 16. (A. 55) A Samuel Brown m. Elizabeth Howell Dec. 7, 1752; and another (probably) m. Harmony Tuthill, Feb. 14, 1799. A Samuel Brown d. Dec. 1, 1792. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

BROWN WILLIAM 4 (Daniel 3, Jeremiah 2, Rev. Chad 1; although he may have been a brother of David and Reuben, above)—From Shelter Island. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 307) In Sept. and Oct. 1777, he was moved from Shelter Island up the Conn. River by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He served in the 4th Line. (G. 48) There was a Capt. of this name in the 1st Line (G. 43); there were privates in the 3d line, Malcom's and Willett's Levies, the 2d, 3d and 4th Westchester (G. 46, 58, 62, 78, 79, 80); and several of the name served in Conn. (G. 85) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) Another William, from Brookhaven, also signed. (H. 20)

He was not of the Southold Browns; but from Rev. Chad who came from England to Providence, in 1638. He was one of the original proprietors; and, in 1648, he was ordained the first pastor of the Baptist Church. (Mallmann, as above, p. 45) He was b. July 31, 1754; m. about 1775, ——— Allen. The Census of 1776 showed no increase in his family. (A. 49)

William Brown

Another William, of Southold (apparently not a Refugee), by the Census of 1776 had, exclusive of himself and his wife, a family of one male and two females over 16 years old; and two males and two females under 16. (A. 55) He is probably the one who d. at Franklinville, Apr. 23, 1783. He m. Margaret Munrow, Apr. 30, 1767; and she d. Dec. 11, 1786. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) The Smithtown Ch. Rec. states these marriages: Nov. 15, 1783, William Brown and Mary Soper; May 15, 1792, William Brown and Ruth Terry.

BRUNT MARY, MRS.—On Oct. 24, 1780, permission was given to her one child to go to L. I. (F. 20)

BRUSH JOHN 1 of Southold, was the father of Thomas 2, and Richard 2 who removed to Huntington, L. I., where there are numerous descendants to-day. Thomas 2 had: Thomas 3, Richard 3, John 3, and Rebecca 3. (Moore's "Index," p. 9. Also Hon. Henry C. Platt) The will of Thomas 2, of Huntington, Apr. 5, 1698, mentions wife Sarah, brother John Brush, BRUSH—EAST SETAUKET, L. I.

and John Wickes, executor; names sons, Thomas, Jacob and Timothy Brush; and daus., Rebecca, Sarah, Susannah, Elizabeth, Mary, Martha. Proved April 26, 1699. (Lester Will Book)

Thomas 1, b. in England in 1610, according to Huntington Town Rec. He came to America before 1653; as he owned land in Southold, in that year. Having sold his home at Southold, he came to Huntington, about 1656, and was the ancestor of the Huntington branch. He m. Rebecca, dau. of John and Mary Conklin; d. in 1675. His children were: Richard 2, below; Thomas 2, John 2; and Rebecca 2. Richard 2, b. about 1635-6; m. Johanna, or Hannah, dau. of John Corey; d. about 1711 without a will, giving his property to his sons by deed. His son, Robert 3, b. June 30, 1685; name of wife unknown. Jonathan 4, son of Robert 3, b. in 1712; m. Aug. 26, 1736, Elizabeth, dau. of Josiah Smith; d. Oct. 8, 1787. His children were: Jonathan 5; Elizabeth 5; Smith 5, m. Sarah Smith; Joshua 5, b. Sept. 13, 1743, m. July 23, 1764, Margaret dau. of Joseph Ireland, d. in 1781; Daniel 5, m. Hannah Phillips; Josiah 5; Susanna 5, m. Daniel Nostrand; Robert 5, the Refugee, below; Amy. 5, m. Stephen

Burtis; Theodosia 5, m. John Needham; and Hepzibah 5, not m. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall. Mrs. M. A. Brush, in "Brush Notes.")

BRUSH ELIPHALET.—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt, 1876) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) Possibly Eliphalet 5, Reuben 4, Robert 3, Richard 2, Thomas 2. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

BRUSH GILBERT—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33, 34); and probably in Conn. (G. 85)

BRUSH JESSE 5, MAJ. (Thomas 4, 3, Richard 2, Thomas 1)—From Huntington to Conn. He was a Capt. in Col. Floyd's Regt.; and was promoted to Maj., Dec. 12, 1775. (G. 1. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was with Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull, near Jamaica, Aug. 26-28, 1776; and advised that the Militia should not proceed. (Pages 41, 173. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 139) He may have served in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78) In Feb., 1779, he petitioned for relief from the Comm'r's of Sequestration. (B. 2) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was on the Committee of Huntington; and on the Committee of the 1st Regt., in 1775. (G. 1) On Nov. 20, 1778, he was paid £480 for apprehending Claudius Smith under a proclamation by Gov. Clinton. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y. 31. 3) On account of his activities he was especially the target of the British. (Pages 206, 222) He was driven from the Island, and his farm was seized. Afterward, he drove the then occupant from it; and, until lately, it has been held by his descendants.

He was taken Prisoner in Oct., 1780 (Page 120. Also F. 124); and confined in the Provost, in N. Y. City. While there, his name was struck from the roll of Prisoners of War, and put on the criminal roll. (Clinton App., 6. 722. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 94; and "Scrap Book," 1866, p. 20. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 199) In June, 1781, he was paid the expenses of a guard to attend the Comm'r's of Conspiracies for Westchester Co. (Minutes of Comm'r's of Conspiracies for Albany Co., p. 807)

He was b. in 1752; m., Jan. (?) 1774, Dorothy, dau. of Zephaniah Platt (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); d. July 12, 1800. She d. Dec. 16, 1835, aged 84. His son, Jesse, d. Feb. 15, 1815, aged 40. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

BRUSH PIERSON—From Huntington to Norwalk. He was in Norwalk in 1780; and Capt. Jabez Gregory, of that place was permitted to go to L. I. and bring over his (Brush's) family. (F. 21)

BRUSH ROBERT 5 (Jonathan 4, Robert 3, Richard 2, Thomas 1)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33, 34); and, possibly, in the 2d Orange. (G. 73) He served at the Danbury Raid; at Ridgefield; in an excursion to Peekskill; and in the Conn. Militia, a part of the time on coast guard duty. (N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n Year Book—1909, p. 353) In Jan., 1780, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was b. Oct. 14, 1751; m. Laura Starr; d. Oct. 29, 1835. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

The father of Robert was from Huntington; and, at one time, a civil officer, a supervisor perhaps, of that Town. I do not recall his Christian name; nor that of Robert's mother. The progenitors of Robert were the same as those of the late Conklin Brush, sometime Mayor of Brooklyn, and the late Prof. Geo. J. Brush of Yale University. After the Revolution, Robert settled at North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y., where he owned land and a mill on the Titicus River which he operated. He was warden and vestryman of St. James' P. E. Church, at Salem. He went to Pine Plains shortly before his death. I am quite sure that he had brothers and sisters; but I have lost track of their names. Robert Brush b. at Huntington, L. I., in 1752; m. Laura Starr, of Bethel, Conn.; d. at Pine Plains, Oct. 29, 1835. His children were: Alfred, a resident of Pine Plains; Robert Starr; Laura, m. Charles Knox, of N. Y. City and Carmel, N. Y.; Mary, m. Joel Clark, of Danbury, Conn.; Schuyler, not m., studied law in N. Y. City, d. in 1818. My father, Starr Brush Knox, was the son of Chas. Knox and Laura Brush. (Mr. Schuyler B. Knox)

Robert Brush

Conklin Brush, above, was Conklin 7, Phillip 6, Joshua 5, Jonathan 4, Robert 3, Richard 2, Thomas 1. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

BRUSH THOMAS, MAJ.—From Huntington; although, in one place, it is stated that he was "from parts of the State now in the possession of the enemy." (B. 2) He was a Lt. in Col. Floyd's Regt.; and, also, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 1, 6, 16, 33); and, probably, a Lt. in the 4th Line. (G. 48) In Nov., 1776, he was rewarded for bringing Prisoners from L. I. to Norwich, Conn. (A. 19) In Feb., 1779, he petitioned for relief from the Comm'rs of Sequestration. (B. 2) As Maj., he went over to L. I., in Oct., 1780, and was captured. (G. 10) He was one of the "Sons of Liberty." (Leake's "Life of John Lamb," p. 4)

It is probable that he was the Thomas, Jr. mentioned in Thompson's "Long Island." (1. 199) Also in Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876. Both Thomas and Thomas, Jr., signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) Thomas, Jr., was on the Committee of Huntington.

BRYANT GILBERT 5 (Augustine 4, Alexander 3, Richard 2, Alexander 1)—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was bapt. May 9, 1744; m. Apr. 16, 1769, Mary Chichester. Among his children were: David Chichester 6, bapt. Dec. 9, 1770, m. Ruth Bryant; Augustine 6, bapt. Dec. 13, 1772, m. about 1805, Martha ———; and Gilbert 6, m. Oct. 22, 1800, Mary Conklin. Descendants of Augustine 6 are living in Illinois. Mrs. Henry Brush, and son Gardiner, of Huntington, are also descendants. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

A Gilbert Bryant m., Oct. 22, 1800, Mary Conkling (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); another, m., about 1812, Maria Smith. She may have been a dau. of Jacob Smith, son of Nathaniel Smith, and back to Richard 1 Bull—Smith. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 458) The latter Gilbert was not the Refugee.

BUELL ELIAS, JR. 5 (Maj. Elias 4, Capt. Peter 3, Samuel 2, William 1. See I. 2 for the earlier generations)—He was evidently visiting on L. I., and came over to Conn. with his own cousin, Mrs. Jerusha Gardiner. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton. See also Gardiner. See also I. 2)

He was b. at Coventry, Conn., Apr. 17, 1768; removed to Waterbury, Vt., where he d. Sept. 17, 1808. He m., about 1794, Catharine Thompson. He had: Caroline C. 6; Abigail P. 6; and Samuel T. 6. (Buell Gen.)

BUFFETT—John 1 was the first of this Family on L. I. He m. Hannah Titus. He had sons: Joseph, Sr. 2, who lived at Dix Hills, and was, for several years, Overseer of the Highway to The Bushy Plains (Huntington Town Rec.); and Nathaniel 2. Joseph, Sr. 2 had sons: Josiah 3, below; Capt. John 3, of Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1), who is buried near Syosset; Jesse 3 who is buried at Huntington; and Joseph, Jr. 3 who removed to Smithtown, about 1768, and was killed about 1782, by a party of raiders from Huntington Barracks. Joseph, Jr. 3 had sons: Isaac 4; Rev. Platt 4, Pastor of a Church in Greenwich, Conn.; and Josiah 4, d. y. Isaac 4 had a son, Judge William Platt 5, b. in 1793, d. in 1874; whose son, William Theodore 6 now (1912), at the age of 83, lives in Jersey City, N. J. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder. Mr. William T. Buffett)

BUFFETT JOSIAH 3 (Joseph 2, John 1)—From Huntington. In Jan., 1780, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32)

It is a Family tradition that Josiah Buffett was taken Prisoner during the Rev'n by the British—but managed to escape and to remain in hiding, visiting his family at night, until the Sound freezing over he escaped to Conn. (Josiah 6 Buffett)

Hon. Henry C. Platt ("Old Times in Huntington") includes Josiah Buffett in a list of Refugees from Huntington "who at various times crossed the Sound to Conn. on service in the Patriot Cause." In Huntington Town Rec. (Vol. 3. p. 62) is an incomplete list of Huntington men who never surrendered, or took the Oath of Allegiance to the Crown, and had their farms confiscated: "The farm of Josiah Buffett by Stanton & Burdseye," Record dated. Apr. 13, 1780. In 1782, Josiah Buffett is listed as a taxpayer. But it would appear that he never retrieved his fortunes; for, June 1, 1786, having died, his property is disposed of under letters of Administration granted to John Brush, creditor. In letters of Administration he is described "Josiah Buffett mariner, of Huntington."

The name appears, in Islip, in the Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; Females—above 16, 1. (A. 47) It is evident that this was not the Refugee.

He was bapt. Mar. 28, 1736; m. Rachel Wicks; d. in 1786. It is probable that the Wid. Rachel m. (2) Joseph Gould. His children were: Elizabeth 4, b. in 1762; Abigail 4, b. in 1764, m. Feb. 24, 1788, Gilbert Scudder, d. Dec. 5, 1840; Phebe 4, bapt. Nov. 16, 1766, m. Samuel Gorham, and lived in Conn.; Mary 4, b. in 1768, m. Jacob Mott, lived at Northport, L. I. and has descendants there; Sarah 4, bapt. May 6, 1771, m. Isaac Losee, and lived at Huntington; Jesse Wicks 4, b. Sept. 2, 1773, m. Hannah Judson, lived at Schaghticoke, N. Y., d. July 30, 1842; Rachel 4, b. Oct. 8, 1782, m. Samuel Allen, d. July 23, 1861, is buried at Zanesville, O., and has descendants in the West; Hannah 4; Jesse Wicks 4 has descendants at Schaghticoke, including Mr. Charles H. Buffet. Abigail 4, m. Gilbert Scudder, has these descendants—7th gen.: Henry G. Scudder, Middletown, N. J.; Gilbert Scudder, Huntington, L. I.; Hewlett Scudder, San Diego, Cal.; Mrs. Theodore Lowndes, S. Norwalk, Conn. 8th gen.: Henry R. Scudder, City of Mexico, Mex.; Olive Cornelia Scudder, Huntington, L. I.; Howard, Everett and Nellie Lowndes, S. Norwalk, Conn.; Mary Lowndes, m. Dr. Albertus Segar,

Josiah Buffet

Willimantic, Conn.; Louisa Lowndes, m. Minot Smith, S. Norwalk, Conn.; Quincy B. Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Naomi Street, m. John R. Miller, of N. Y. City; Charles H. Street, of Huntington. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

BURR—John 1, b. in England about 1600; d. in Fairfield, Conn., about 1670. He had sons: Jehu 2, John 2, Nathaniel 2 and Daniel 2. (Burr Gen.) Chief Justice Peter Burr had a grandson, Thaddeus, who was prominent in Fairfield during the Rev'y War. The wife of Thaddeus, Eunice Dennie, was a heroine during the Raid on Fairfield. (Page 230. Also "Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R.—1901," p. 65)

BURR DANIEL, SERJ.T.—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); and probably in Conn. (G. 85)

BURROUGHS—John 1, was at Salem, Mass., in 1637. He was one of the first settlers at Newtown, L. I., in 1652. He was b. in 1617; m. (2) Wid. Reed; d. in Aug., 1678. (Moore Gen., p. 251)

BURROUGHS JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); and probably in Conn. (G. 85)

He lived at Newtown, L. I.; where both he and his wife d. His children were: Theodorus, Jacob, John, Joseph, Sarah Ann and Grace Catherine. (Mr. Theodore Burroughs)

CARL—CARLE—CARLEY—CARLL—The name is spelled in these several ways. Sometimes it is of Quaker origin. (Griffin's "Journal") The first of the name was Ananias 1 Carle, of Hempstead, who settled in Huntington about 1698. His son, Ananias 2, m. Hannah Platt who survived him and m. (2) Rev. Ebenezer Prime as his third wife. (See Prime) Ananias 2 had: Phebe 3 who m. Lt. Henry Scudder (See Scudder); Mary 3 who m. Obadiah Platt; and Capt. Timothy 3, of the Rev'y Army, whose g. grandson David now lives at Huntington. Another statement is that Timothy 1 was the father of Ananias 2; and that the latter, beside Phebe 3, Mary 3 and Capt. Timothy 3, had several other children including Platt 3 and John 3. If this is true, John 3 may have been the Refugee, below. Still another statement is that Thomas, who first appears in Hempstead in 1658, m. Sarah, dau. of Jonas Halstead, and was the father of Ananias 1. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

The name is also said to be of Scotch origin. Thomas 1, of Hempstead, m. about 1656, Sarah, dau. of Jonas Halstead. He d. in 1675. He had: John 2; Elizabeth 2, m. James Beatty; Joseph 2; and Timothy 2, b. about 1672, m. before 1697, Mary (b. Jan. 11, 1672), dau. of Epenetus Platt 1st. Timothy 2 was identified with Hempstead until 1706, in which year he appears in the Huntington Rec. He had six children, of whom: Ananias 3, b. about 1703; m. Hannah Platt (probably John 2, Isaac 1); d. in 1750. He had: Capt. Timothy 4, m. Hannah Scudder; Mary 4, m. Obadiah Platt; Ananias, Jr., 4, m. Jerusha Scudder; Silas 4, m. Mary Rogers; Platt 4, m. Phebe Smith; John 4, below; and Phebe 4, m. Lt. Henry Scudder (See Scudder)—(Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

CARLL JOHN 4, SERJT. (Ananias 3, Timothy 2, Thomas 1)—From Huntington. On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32)

He served in Col. Smith's Regt. as a private (G. 7); and, later, as a Serjt. (G. 13, 32). He advanced money on Gov. Clinton's Promise to pay. (Page 136. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 168). A John was in the 4th Dutchess (G. 66); and applied for a pension. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 271). A John was in the 3d Line and in the 6th Dutchess (G. 46, 68); also in the one fourth part of Capt. Philip Valentine's Co., drafted July 25, 1776. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.—2d Series," p. 6). A John Carley served in the 5th Line, and in the 5th and 7th Dutchess. (G. 49, 67, 69)

He was b. in 1741; m. Jan 5, 1785, Sarah White (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); d. Mar. 21, 1822. He had: Ezra 5, b. Jan. 5, 1796, m. Drusilla Bunce, d. Dec. 24, 1860; Stephen 5, b. Aug. 3, 1798, m. Martha ———, d. Dec. 7, 1849; John Jr., 5, m. Feb. 20, 1812, Margaret Walters; also three daughters, not m. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

John Carll

CARMAN—KARMAN—JOHN 1 came to Lynn, Mass., in 1631; thence to Sandwich, Mass.; thence to Stamford, Conn., in 1641; thence to Hempstead, L. I., in 1644. (Wood Gen. Also Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies." Also Chap. 16.) He m. Florence ———, and had: John 2; Caleb 2 (b. in 1645—N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 9—d. in 1646); Mary 2, m. John Wood; Adam 2, who remained at Hempstead; Joshua 2; and Caleb 2. (Wood Gen.) John 2, b. in 1633; m. Hannah ———; d. in 1684. His son, John 3, m. Hannah Seaman, and d. before 1759. John 3 had a son, John 4. (Bunker, as above)

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 3, 4) states that John 1 went from Stamford to Hempstead, in 1642—which was two years ahead of the real migration. Huntington ("Stamford," p. 55) records that his child was the first one born in the Colony of Hempstead. In "The Descendants of Edward Tredwell" (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1911), there is a confirmation, in 1686, of an exchange of land on Hicks' Neck, between John 2 Tredwell and John 2 and Caleb 2 Carman, sons of John Carman 1.

CARMAN JOHN 4, LT. (John 3, 2, 1)—Probably from Huntington, whence he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29). Another John, of Queens Co., also signed in 1776. (H. 7, 9). He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 15); and he may have been a pensioner in Conn. (G. 86)

CARPENTER—The founder of the settlement on L. I. called Mosquito Cove, was Joseph 1 Carpenter. His first wife, Hannah, was a dau. of William and Abigail Carpenter, of Rehoboth, Mass. His son, Joseph 2, of Mosquito Cove, b. at Pawtuxet, R. I., about 1660; d. at Mosquito Cove between Sept. 9, 1687 and 1690. He is said to have a wife, Ann, or Anne, and sons: Joseph 3, b. Oct. 16, 1685; and Thomas 3, b. Aug. 15, 1687. (Carpenter Memorial) In 1667, Joseph 1 petitions for land at Mosquito Cove, for a saw-mill. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co. in Olden Time," p. 6)

Joseph 1, b. in England, in 1635; d. in 1683. He m. (1) in 1659, Hannah Carpenter, (2) in 1674, Ann Weeks. Joseph 2, m. Anne Willetts. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

It is more probable that Joseph 2, m. Mary, dau. of Thomas and Jean Thorneycraft; and had a son, Thomas. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

Captain John 1 Carpenter, b. in Conn., in, or about, 1658. His will was proved July 30, 1732, at Jamaica. Increase 2, son of John 1, b. at Jamaica about 1688; m. ——— Bergen; d. about 1776. He bought land at Jamaica, in 1709. He was one of the executors of Capt. John's will, about 1738. He had sons: Increase 3, below; Jacob 3, John 3, William 3, David 3 and Luke 3. A dau., Elizabeth 3, m. Benjamin Wiggins. John 3 was Sheriff of Orange Co., N. Y. (Carpenter Memorial)

CARPENTER INCREASE 3, QR. MR. (Increase 2, John 1)—From Jamaica to Dutchess Co., N. Y. He kept an Inn a mile East of Jamaica. A meeting was held in his house, in 1774, to protest against the tax on tea. On Mar. 27, 1776, a Company of Militia, 40 persons, was formed at Jamaica. Ephraim Baylis was Capt.; Increase Carpenter was First Lt. ("Refugees of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 287)

He served as Lt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 21, 27); and also as Qr. Mr. (G. 11) He may have served as a private in the 4th and in the Ass'd Exempts, of Dutchess. (G. 66, 71) On Dec. 16, 1776, the Committee of Safety ordered that he should be paid for his services. (A. 23) He was mentioned in Col. Josiah Smith's Diary, just before the Battle of L. I. (G. 39) Soon after the Battle, Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull was captured at his Inn; and he (Carpenter) was obliged to flee. (See Woodhull) Col. Joseph Robinson was present at the capture. (See Robinson)

He was b. at Jamaica, in Apr., 1743; m. in 1758, Mary Bailey. She d. Jan. 23, 1825. He d. Apr. 20, 1807. His will was dated Mar. 13, 1805, at Jamaica. The will of his Widow, Mary, was dated June 19, 1820; it was proved Mar. 1, 1825. His children, all b. in Jamaica: Oliver 4; Nancy 4, m. Peter Baker; Mary 4, m. Zophar Weeks; Samuel 4, m. Jane Hendrickson; James 4, m. Elizabeth Waters; George 4, m., Martha Pantine; Ann 4, m. ——— Smith; David 4, m. Hannah Waters.

CARPENTER NEHEMIAH, Qr. MR.—From Jamaica, probably to Dutchess Co., N. Y. He was evidently a near relative of Qr. Mr. Increase, INN OF LT. INCREASE CARPENTER—NEAR JAMAICA, L. I.

above; for he was a private in the same Co. in Col. Smith's Regt. whereof Increase was a Lt. (G. 7, 27) He probably fled from L. I. at the same time. He was Qr. Mr. in the 3rd, 4th and 5th of the Line (G. 46, 48, 49); and, as such, was a Prisoner. (Page 124. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.", p. 41. Also Penn. Mag. Hist'y and Biog., 1893) He was also Ens. in the 2nd and 5th of the Line (G. 44, 49); and he may have served as a private in Pawling's Levies and in the 4th Dutchess. (G. 61, 66)

He signed the Association at Newburgh, N. Y., in 1775. Gen. James Clinton recommended him as Qr. Mr. of the 2d Line. He was captured in the assault on Ft. Montgomery, Oct. 6, 1777; but exchanged, in Oct., 1780. He was then appointed Ens. in the 2d Line. He was a member of the Cincinnati. ("N. Y. State Soc'y of The Cincinnati") On May 24, 1780, with other Prisoners on L. I., he petitioned Gov. Clinton for an exchange. (Clinton Pap., 5. 750-752) On Mar. 24, 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, from New Windsor, Orange Co., N. Y., complaining that his rank as Ens. had suffered while he was in captivity. (Same ref., 6. 717)

CASE—According to Moore ("Index," pp. 11, 63-65), the ancestor was William 1, from England to R. I. in 1635. He was b. about 1606; d. about

CASE — MOORE — SOUTHDOLD, L. I.

CASE — MOORE — SOUTHDOLD, L. I.

(This house belonged to Dr. Micah Moore who married Abigail, Widow of John Ledyard. Their daughter, Julia, married Matthias Case)

1681. His son, Henry 2, was at Southold in 1658. He m. Tabitha——. Henry's son, Samuel 3, b. in 1687; d. in 1755. He m. Zuviah——, and had: Israel 4, below; and Lt. Moses 4, b. in 1723, d. in 1814. Henry's son, Benjamin 3, b. in 1692; d. in 1772. He m. (1) Esther——, (2) Mehitable Homan. (3) Mary Overton. He had a son Benjamin 4, who, according to Moore, may have been Benjamin, the Refugee, below.

Information later than Moore is to the effect that Moore was not accurate in his statements as to William 1; and that there is no authenticated connection between him and Henry who was the first of this Family on L. I. Henry 1, b.——; m. Nov.——, 1658, Martha, only dau. of Matthias Corwin; d.——, 1664. His son, Henry 2, b. Sept. 5, 1659; m. Tabitha Vail; d. Apr. 16, 1720.

A son of Henry 2, Samuel 3, m. Zurviah, dau. of Lt. Joshua Horton; d. May 10, 1757. Samuel 3 had a son, Israel 4, the Refugee, below. He also had a son, Lt. Moses 4, b. Sept. 9, 1723; m. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 22) He signed the Association in 1775.

Moore's Case

(H. 12. See also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 236, 237) From him are descended Mr. Albertson Case, of Southold, and Mr. Jesse L. Case, of Southold and Peconic.

Another son of Henry 2, Benjamin 3, b.——1692; d. Nov. 14, 1774; aged 82. (Salmon Rec.) His will was dated at Southold, Nov. 6, 1774; proved, Nov. 18, 1774. In it he mentions: wife, Mary; son, Benjamin; and daus., Theodosia and Mary. (Liber of Wills N. Y. Court, 29. 263) He m. (1) Nov. 1, 1741, Esther Homan; (2) Dec. 8, 1755, Mary Overton. There was a Mehitable, wife of a Benjamin, who d. Oct. 29, 1751. (Salmon Rec.) Another statement, by Mrs. H. Amelia Reeve Chapin, is that he m. (1) Esther——; (2) Nov. 11, 1741, Mehitable Homan; (3) Dec. 8, 1755, Mary Overton. The statement as to the latter is also in the Southold Ch. Rec. His children, by wife Esther: Benjamin 4, below; Theodosia 4, m. June 17, 1753, Israel Reeve (See Reeve), d. Apr. 2, 1808; Mary 4, m. Dec. 10, 1758, Abner Wells; Jemima 4, d. in 1745; Abigail 4, d. in 1752. (Doc. Hist. N. Y., 1. 453. Also Census List, 1698. Also Moore's "Index," p. 65. Also Mrs. Chapin)

CASE———His household goods were brought from L. I. to Conn. by Capt. Jacob Riley, in 1776. (C. 131)

CASE BENJAMIN 4 (Benjamin 3, Henry 2, 1; or William 1, according to Moore's "Index")—From Southold to Lyme. On Sept. 10 and Oct. 1, 1776, five passengers and household goods were brought over by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 19) Also, from Southold to Eight Mile River, Nov. 1, 1776, eight passengers, by Capt. James Webb. (C. 154) He may have served in Conn. (G. 86)

Census of 1776: Males—Above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 7. (A. 55) He was b.——; m.——; d. at Lyme, Nov. 22, 1776; and his son Benjamin d. at Lyme, Dec. 4, 1776. (Rev. Ezra Horton's Diary. Also Salmon Rec.)

A Benjamin Case, with his wife, Mary Manning, lived for a time at Farmington, Conn. They had a son, John M. Case. (Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald)

CASE ISRAEL 4 (Samuel 3, Henry 2, 1; or William 1, according to Moore's "Index")—From Southold to Guilford, Sept., 1776, with four in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leece (C. 94); and, Nov. 18, 1776, by Capt. Jonathan Vail. (C. 16)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b.——; m. (1) Nov. 24, 1761, Eunice King, (2) June 16, 1792, Wid. Mary Hart. (Salmon Rec. Also Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 321) He d., of small pox, March 29, 1799; his Wid. Mary, d., Jan. 30, 1803; and his son [probably] Israel at Southold, Feb. 26, 1840, aged 66. (Salmon Rec.)

About the year 1800, several members of the Family removed from Southold to Poland, N. Y. Another branch settled at Roxbury, N. J. (Miss Elizabeth Edith Case)

CEBRA JAMES—From Queens Co. to Milford. On Feb. 7, 1782, he was permitted to bring from L. I. an estate left to him by his mother and sister. (F. 46) Apparently, he did not serve on L. I.; but his son James served in Conn. (G. 86) He was Clerk of Queens Co., 1780-1788.

He was the official weigher at the Custom House in N. Y. City. He m. Catherine van Horn, Wid. of Cornelius Beekman. Her sister m. James Rivington, the Tory printer, in N. Y. City. His son James was killed in the War. The heirs of the son, James, were granted 400 acres of government Land in Ohio. A dau. of James, Sr., the Refugee, m. Col. Joseph Robinson (See Robinson). Elizabeth, another dau., m. Orange Webb, Jr. (See Webb) Margaret, (called "Peggy"), another dau., lived with her father after the death of her mother. (Miss Katherine E. Havens)

CHAPIN—Dea. Samuel 1 came to Springfield, Mass., in 1642. He had a son, Henry 2; a grandson, Benjamin 3; and a g. grandson, Benjamin 4. (Chapin Gen.)

CHAPIN BENJAMIN 5, DR. (Benjamin 4, 3, Henry 2, Dea. Samuel 1) and MARGARET, his wife—From Bridge Hampton to New Haven, Sept. 15, 1776, with six passengers, by Capt. John Russell. His claim was paid to Thomas Tredwell, Apr. 19, 1777, who paid it to Mrs. Margaret Chapin. (C. 17) He was in the Hospital service. (Page 179. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.", p. 44)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. May 29, 1736; m. Mar. 4, 1760, Margaret Colston; "Suppose he d. in Ludlow." (Chapin Gen.) He must have d. before Apr. 19, 1777, when his claim was paid, as above. The Chapin Gen. does not mention that he was on L. I., or that he was a Dr.

CHAPMAN—William 1 was first in New London, Conn., in 1657. He had children: John 2, William 2, Samuel 2, Jeremiah 2, Joseph 2, Sarah 2 and Rebecca 2. John 2, b. about 1653, removed to Colchester, Conn. William 2, m. Hannah, dau. of Daniel Lester, and probably settled at Groton, Conn. Samuel 2 removed to Waterford, Conn. Joseph 2 removed to Norwich, Conn.; where he d., June 10, 1725. Jeremiah 2 remained at New London; where he d., Sept. 6, 1755, aged 88. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 340) A branch, probably not from William 1, removed to Lyme and Saybrook, Conn., in 1636.

CHAPMAN WILLIAM 3 (William 2, 1)—He was described as "of Long Island" in the Stamford Ch. Rec.; wherein it is recorded that he m. Margaret Loder, Jan. 1, 1782. He probably served in Conn. (G. 86) There seems to be no trace of him on L. I.

If the ancestry, given above, is correct, he was b. Aug. 29, 1728. (Chapman Gen.)

CHAPPELL—George was at New London, Conn., in 1649; and William, in 1659. John, probably a brother of William, was at Lyme, Conn., in 1678. George had sons: John, who removed to Flushing, L. I.; George, who had sons, George and Comfort; Nathaniel; and Caleb, who removed to Lebanon Conn., and had a son, Amos, who settled in Sharon, Conn. William d. in 1689-90. His sons were: John, b. in 1671-2; William; Christian; and Joseph. The descendants of John and Joseph are numerous. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 60, 325, 326, 352, 353)

CHAPPELL BENJAMIN—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington, in Oct., 1776, with six passengers, anvil, bellows, etc., by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He served in the 2d and 4th of the Line, both as a private and an Armorer. (G. 44, 47, 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) It is possible that he moved to Sharon, Conn.

CHAPPELL BENJAMIN, JR.—From Southampton, E. Dist., to Stonington, with his father, as above. He served in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48)

He may have been the noted steel engraver of two generations ago.

CHESTER.—Capt. Samuel 1, from Boston to New London, Conn., in 1653. He m. (1) Mary ———, (2) Hannah ———; d. in 1710. Among his children was Capt. John 2, bapt. May 29, 1692; m. Nov. 1, 1716, Mary Starr; d. Jan. 1, 1771. She d. Apr. 15, 1774. He had a son, John 3, b. Sept.

9, 1717; m. Abigail ———; d. Nov. 7, 1762. Simeon 4, son of John 3, b. Mar. 24, 1763; m. Matilda Chester; d. Oct. 12, 1824. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 145, 353. Also Starr Gen.)

CHESTER SIMEON, 3 (Capt. John 2, Capt. Samuel 1)—From Nova Scotia to Middletown, in 1776. He was a native of Groton; and left Nova Scotia on account of his sympathy with the American cause. In Oct., 1779, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to use some of the lands of those who had gone over to the enemy; which was negative. (E. 25)

Simeon Chester

He was b. Mar. 20, 1733; m. Elizabeth Bent, of Boston. He was an own cousin of John Starr, also a Refugee. (See Starr. Also Starr Gen.)

CHICHESTER—MRS.—From Huntington probably to Stratford. On Nov. 2, 1780, she was allowed to go, with her children, to her husband on L. I. (F. 24) Probably she was the wife of Eliphalet Chichester; who, the British said, was one of the worst Rebels in Huntington. (Page 175) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33) It is possible that she was the wife of James Chichester who was in the Privateer service.

Eliphalet signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was b. in 1737; m. (1) Sept. 11, 1758, Mary Pine; d. in 1804. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

CLARK—CLARKE—The descendants of this name in Conn. seem to have come from George 1, of Milford. This Family was closely allied with the Marvins and the Wolcotts. (Salisbury's "Genealogies," 3, Part 1, pp. 215-242. Also "Biog'l Rec., Middlesex Co., Conn.," 1903)

Samuel, of Wethersfield, Conn., came to Stamford, Conn., in 1640. Savage ("Gen. Dict.") says that he was in Milford, Conn., in 1669; and went thence to Hempstead, L. I. He lived at New Haven, in 1685. He m. Hannah, dau. of Rev. Robert Fordham. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 29. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 9. Also Chap. 16. See also Fordham)

The first of the name, Samuel 1, was in Southampton, in 1654. The name is now extinct there. He had a wife, Susanna; and d. in 1679. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 211) Moore ("Index," p. 11) makes Richard 1 a son, or a brother of Samuel, of Southampton. He then (pp. 65, 66, 139) gives—Thomas 2, m. Mary ———, d. Oct. 17, 1733; and Samuel 2, b. in 1675, m. Deborah ———, d. in 1755. Thomas 2, had a son, Thomas 3, m. Elizabeth ———; and a grandson, John 4. Samuel 2, had sons, Samuel 3, and Edmund 3. Whitaker ("Southold," p. 45) states that Richard was among the early settlers at Southold.

As few of the early Clarks on L. I. left wills that were recorded, our knowledge of them is fragmentary. The first Clark to reside in Mattituck was Samuel; who had sons, Joshua and William, and probably other children. Joshua in his will, 1789, mentions no children of his own; but mentions his nephew, Samuel L., and Samuel the son of Samuel L. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) The son of Samuel was probably the Joshua of whom Griffin ("Journal," pp. 207, 208) tells this story:

It was a pleasant day in the summer of 1780 that Dr. Joshua Clark, a respectable physician in the parish of Mattituck, mounted his horse, rode east to Southold village, about six miles, and stopped at the dwelling of a Mr. Chase, who was a poor, but respectable man, with a wife and two daughters, Polly and Ann. The doctor was a widower at the time, of about 70 years of age. His business was urgent, being no less than to obtain the hand of Polly as a wife, with the consent of the parents, and that, too, without further courtship. His proposals were generous and frank, if she would willingly consent. She modestly assented, although only in her seventeenth year. A message was sent to Judge Samuel Landon, who lived within thirty rods. The judge, who was more than 80 years of age, soon arrived at the house. With a dignity and gravity natural to old age, he, with solemnity on the interesting occasion, then pronounced them man and wife. The entire time of its occurrence was not more than one and a half hours, when the drama closed, with the doctor's exit with his young bride, mounted on the same old roan with him, she seated on a pillion, as was the fashion in those honorable days.

CLARK CORNELIUS (—————) —From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 29); and in the 4th Line. (Same ref. Also G. 48) One of the name was in the 2d, the 3d (as Lt.) and the Associated Exempts of Westchester. (G. 78, 79, 81)

CLARK ELISHA 5 (Probably, Samuel, 4, 3, 2, 1; son of Samuel, below. See Howell, as above)—From Southampton to Stonington and Saybrook.

From L. I. to Saybrook (no date) by Capt. Daniel Fordham. (C. 48) From Sag Harbor to Stonington, Sept., 1776, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton (C. 214); and Oct., 1776, to Stonington by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30) An Ens. of the name was appointed in the 8th Co., 1st Bat'n, June, 1776. (Conn. Colonial Rec., 15. 426) One of the name served in Conn. (G. 86)

There were two of the name in the Census of 1776, both of them from Southampton. Elisha, E. Dist: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) Elisha, W. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 53)

CLARK JOHN 3 (Thomas 2, 1)—From Southold to Lyme. In Oct., 1776, he was brought over by Capt. William Johnson. His claim was paid to James Wells. (C. 194) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he was brought over, six in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) On Feb. 28, 1781, he petitioned Gov. Trumbull for permission to return to L. I. with his family; which was granted. (Page 188. Also F. 3)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) If this is the John, he d. Sept. 20, 1798. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) It is not certain which John signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16)

He was probably son of Thomas, son of Thomas. This John m. Rachel Soper, July 11, 1762. In the Record of Marriage, he is called "Junior"; probably to distinguish him from an older John, perhaps an uncle. John and Rachel had children: John 4, below, Hannah 4, Ebenezer 4, and Mary 4. He is probably the John, buried in Mattituck, who d. July 24, 1826, but of this I am not certain. (Rev. Charles E. Craven)

CLARK JOHN, JR. 4 (Son of John, above)—From Southold. While, apparently, he did not serve on L. I., yet he may have been one of the Johns who served as follows: 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th, Art'y and 1st Canadian—all of the Line (G. 43, 44, 46-49, 51, 52) Or, he may have served in Weissenfels'

Levies, Pawling's Levies, the 4th Orange and the 4th Westchester. (G. 57, 61, 75, 80) He also belonged to Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48) Reproductions of his Pension and his Land Bounty Right, are on Page 99. Several of the name served in Conn., and one had a pension from that State in 1831, aged 71. (G. 86) One of the name was killed at Fort Griswold. The late Joseph Wells, of Laurel, stated to the author that John Clark was a young man at the time of the War; that he returned to Laurel and d. there at the age of over 90; that he had a large family; and that many of his descendants are on the Island now. On his tombstone, at Laurel, are the words "A Soldier of the Revolution."

John Clark

Two of the name appear in the Southold Census of 1776. One: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 4. (A. 55) The other: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. Oct. 27, 1762; m. Mar. 1, 1796, Elizabeth, dau. of Maj. John and Joanna (Mapes) Corwin; d. Oct. 28, 1855, aged 93. He had six sons and three daughters. Mrs. Susan Post and Miss Betsy Clark, of Greenport, are his granddaughters. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) Mrs. L. W. Young, a descendant, lives in the homestead, at Laurel.

CLARK SAMUEL 4 (probably Samuel 3, 2, 1; father of Elisha, above. See Howell's "Southampton," p. 211)—From Southampton, E. Dist., to Saybrook. The full story of his sufferings and his trials as a bondsman for Obadiah Wright, also a Refugee, is told on Pages 188, 210; also in E., 189-192.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54) Two of his sons were with him at Saybrook; but the eldest, who had been in the Army, was drowned before 1787. (E. 191)

Sam^l Clark

CLARK STEPHEN ()—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and probably in Conn. (G. 86)

A Stephen, of East Hampton, L. I., m. Feb. 28, 1782, Prudence Hale. (Chatham-Portland, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

CLARK WILLIAM, LT. ()—From Brookhaven. In 1776, Capt. Ebenezer Dayton brought two of his horses to Conn. (C. 38) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 35); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and probably in the 3d Westchester. (G. 39) He was on the Suffolk Co. Committee. (Pages 104, 145)

Three of the name, from Brookhaven, signed the Association, in 1775: William, Corp. (H. 27); William, Sr. (H. 26); William. (H. 18)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 51)

William, of Mattituck, moved to Brookhaven, I think, as William, of Brookhaven. His will was proved in 1789. He had a wife from Mattituck; a dau., Puah (the name of the mother of William, of Mattituck); and two daughters who m. in Mattituck. The only son mentioned in the will is William, dec'd., who left a son William. But he may have had other sons. He had a grandson Jonathan Terry. (Rev. Charles E. Craven)

CLEVELAND—This Family came to Southold later than some of the other settlers. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 122. Also "The Gen. of Benjamin Cleveland.")

CLEVELAND JOSEPH ()—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with five passengers, by Capt. David Landon (C. 164) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. June 27, 1728; m. Feb. 12, 1750, Mary Horton; d. Nov. 13, 1798, and is buried in Southold. His son, Joseph, d. in 1840; and his son, Lazarus, d. in 1847. His son, Joseph, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37), and was but 17 years old at the time of enlistment.

Nathaniel Hubbard Cleveland is the sole survivor of the Cleveland and Hubbard Families, in Southold. He was b. June 17, 1834; m. Dec. 31, 1899, Virginia Horton. He is a son of Moses C. Cleveland, b. July 4, 1795; m. 2d May 11, 1833, Eney, dau. of Nathaniel Hubbard. Moses C. Cleveland was a son of Moses Cleveland who was b. Dec. 6, 1770; m. Jan. 23, 1793, Parnel, dau. of Jonathan Conkling. She was b. Feb. 16, 1772; d. Nov. 6, 1857.

(Liber D.; Southold Town Rec.) Joseph Cleveland, son of Moses, b. Mar. 13, 1803; d. Mar. 13, 1852. (Same Rec.)

The house shown in the illustration was owned first by Moses Cleveland; then, 1795–1883, by Moses C. Cleveland; and, since 1883, by Nathaniel Hubbard Cleveland.

CLINTON GEORGE, MRS.—From Kingston, N. Y., to Sharon, Conn. Soon after the fall of Forts Clinton and Montgomery, Oct. 6, 1777 (Chap. 5), Col. Hugh Hughes wrote to Gov. Clinton that Sharon seemed to be a safe place for Mrs. Clinton. (Clinton Pap., 2. 417) While there is no proof that Mrs. Clinton went to Sharon, yet it is probable that she went: (1) because, a few days after the Forts had fallen, the enemy captured and burned Kingston; and (2) Sharon was the headquarters of John Sloss Hobart (see Hobart), a Refugee, who was the particular friend and adviser of Gov. Clinton.

COE—Robert 1, b. in England, in 1596; m. Ann ———. He came to Watertown, Mass., in 1634. In 1635, he removed to Wethersfield, Conn. In 1640, he was of the number who removed to Stamford, which he represented in the Gen'l Court. He removed to Hempstead, L. I., in 1644.

MOSES CLEVELAND—SOUTHOLD, L. I.

His son, Robert 2, went to Jamaica, L. I., in 1656. His son, Benjamin 2, went with him to Hempstead, and thence to Jamaica. His son, John 2, accompanied him from England to Wethersfield, Stamford and Hempstead; went thence to Newtown, L. I., and to Greenwich, Conn., in 1660. He was one of the purchasers of Rye, N. Y.; but returned to L. I. where he was appointed a Magistrate. He had sons: John 3, Robert 3, Jonathan 3, Samuel 3, and David 3. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 29, 30) Benjamin 2, b. in 1629, was one of the Patentees of Jamaica. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 9, 10. See also Coe Gen. and Maltby Gen.)

COE BENJAMIN 5, CAPT. (Benjamin 4, ——— 3, Benjamin 2, Robert 1—according to Coe Gen.)—From Newtown to Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y.; whence he returned to Queens Co. after the War. On June 17, 1776, he was promoted from Lt. to Capt. of the Newtown Company, in Queens Co. (G. 40) He was a Capt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 14, 25); and a Prisoner after the Battle of L. I. ("N. Y. Sons of Rev'n, Year Book, 1909," p. 379) He was at Brooklyn before the Battle. (Page 41) When the Whigs of Queens Co. celebrated the event of Peace, at Jamaica, in Dec., 1783, he was among the signers of an address to Gov. Clinton. (Thompson's "Long Island,"

1. 212) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1777 to 1783, and 1790; a Member of the Council of Appointment, 1808 and 1811; and was the second First Judge of the County Court of Queens Co., 1793-1806. (A. 43-48. Also Civil List)

He m. Phebe, dau. of Rev. Simon Horton (See Horton) who went with him to Orange Co. (Horton Gen., p. 170. Also Coe Gen.) He had children: Grover 6 and Abigail 6, the latter of whom married the Hon. James Burt, of Orange Co. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 144)

COGGESHALL WILLIAM
—From Newport, R. I. to Middletown. On May 16, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. to return with his family, provisions &c.; which was granted. (E. 68)

COLE—COLES—COWLES—John was in New London, Conn., in 1651. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 77) James was one of the original Proprietors of Hartford, Conn. ("Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R."—1901, p. 193) Later, members of this Family were found at Oyster Bay and Mosquito Cove, L. I.

COLE ICHABOD, CAPT.—A Refugee at Lyme, probably from Oyster Bay. In Nov., 1782, he asked permission to sell his farm, of 20 acres, on L. I. (F. 131) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

In 1776 (no month named), as Capt. of a ship, he brought over to Conn. a part of the effects of George Fordham and Grover L'Hommedieu. (C. 50, 96) In Sept., 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Samuel L'Hommedieu; and, in Oct., a part of the effects of Nathan Fordham. (C. 51, 175) In Oct., 1776, he made five trips to L. I. for Refugees, by order of the Committee of Saybrook, through Capt. Richard Dickinson and Capt. John Cochran. (Pages 169, 239. Also C. 42)

He may have descended from Samuel, son of Samuel, son of Robert 1 Cole, of Mosquito Cove. The second Samuel may have m. a dau. of Ickabod Hopkins. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

CONCLIN—CONCKLIN—CONCKLYN—CONKLIN—CONKLINE—CONKLING—The name was spelled in these several ways in the Parish Registers, by the Town Clerks, and by the individuals themselves. Even members of the same family spelled the name differently—a husband, Conkling; and his wife, Conklin. It is proper, and less confusing, to reduce all to the more modern, and generally accepted, spelling—Conkling. The Huntington branch, however, consistently spells the name—Conklin.

Ananias Conkling was made a freeman at Salem, May 18, 1642. He removed to East Hampton, in 1650; and his brother John, to Southold, where he d. in 1694, aged 64. (Savage's "Gen'l Dict.," 1.441) It is probable that this Ananias was the one who m. Feb. 23, 1630-1, Mary Launder. (Register of St. Peter's, Nottingham, Eng.)

Ananias 1 removed to East Hampton, in 1650. Probably he did not tarry long in Southold. We follow, for the most part, the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 27. 152; which is condensed in Hedges "East Hampton," pp. 251-253.

Ananias 1, d. in 1657, had: Jeremiah 2, b. in 1634, m. Mary, dau. of Lion Gardiner (See Gardiner), d. Mar. 4, 1712; Cornelius 2, no dates given; and Benjamin 2, m. Hannah Mulford, d. in 1709.

Jeremiah 2 had: Cornelius 3; David 3, probably d. in 1738; Lewis 3, who had Cineus 4; and Ananias 3, m. Martha Stretton. Cornelius 3, had Elisha 4, b. about 1695; m. Jan. 1, 1717, Esther Parsons. David 3, had Samuel 4, bapt. Mar. 3, 1702. Ananias 3 (son of Jeremiah 2) had Joseph 4. Cineus 4, bapt. Oct. 19, 1718, and had: Isaac 5, Benjamin 5 (the Refugee, below) "and possibly others."

Cornelius 2, had: Cornelius, Jr., 3, m. in 1715, Deborah Mulford; William 3, m. Nov. 26, 1718, Ruth Hedges.

Benjamin 2, had: John 3, d. in 1746; and Ananias 3, m. Hannah ———. John 3 had John, Jr. 4, m. in 1717, Dorcas Murdock. Ananias 3 had: Henry 4, bapt. Feb. 22, 1701, m. Nov. 5, 1724, Mary Jones; Nathan 4, b. in 1705, m. Phebe Parsons; and Lemuel 4, b. in 1713.

The first of the name known in Huntington appears to have been John 1, probably brother of Ananias 1, above, who was b. about 1600; and had a son John 2, b. in England, in 1630. John 1 came from England, having m. Elizabeth Allseabrook, Jan. 24, 1625, at St. Peter's, Nottingham; and lived in Salem, Mass., in 1649. He m. (2) Mary ———. John Conclin, Sr., with his son Timothy 2, came from Southold and settled in Huntington. His other sons, John, Jr. 2, Jacob 2, Benjamin 2, and Joseph 2, settled at Southold. Miss Lucy D. Akerly thinks that he did not have sons, Benjamin 2 and Joseph 2. John, Sr. and his son Timothy 2 owned land at West Neck. They were both freeholders, and their names appear in the Records and Rate Bills. Timothy 2 was one of the purchasers from the Indians under Gov. Fletcher's Patent of 1694. He had four sons, Timothy, Jr. 3, John 3, Jacob 3 and Cornelius 3, all residing on West Neck during early life. Cornelius 3 went to Cold Spring; John 3 moved to Clay Pitts; Timothy 3 remained on West Neck, and the Conklins of Huntington are mostly his descendants. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington address"—1876) Timothy 2 and his sons probably lived at Hashamomock for a time. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

It has been stated that John 1 was one of the original settlers at Southold; and one of those who constituted the Church of Rev. John Youngs thereat. (Griffin's "Journal," "Hallock Ancestry" &c.) Moore ("Index," pp. 12, 13, 67-71) shows that he was in the Southold Town Rec., 1655-1683; and gives him sons, Capt. John 2, Benjamin 2 and Timothy 2. Mr. J. Wickham Case, in a note on John Conklin, speaks of Benjamin 2 and Joseph 2 as sons assigned to John 1 [in Moore's "Index;"] but he thinks they were grandsons. (Southold Town Rec., 1. 90) Mr. Case is probably right—as the will of John 1 does not mention sons, Benjamin and Joseph. (Session Book 1. Riverhead, L. I.)

The statement of Savage as to the death of John has been followed by many, including Griffin; but it refers to John 2, son of John 1. John 1 d., at Huntington, Feb. 23, 1684. The tombstone, at Southold, is that of John 2, who d. Apr. 6, 1694. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 29. 117) Previous to 1683, he [John 1] had removed to Huntington. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 33)

Capt. John 2, b. in England, in 1630—1; m. perhaps (1) Mary ———, (2) Sarah Horton, Wid. of William Salmon (See Salmon); d. Apr. 6, 1694, and is buried at Southold. He is in the Southold Town Rec., 1655-1683. (Moore, as above) His son, John 3, b. ———; d. Mar. 4, 1705-6. His will was proved in 1706. (Southold Town Rec.) Among his children were: Mary 4, m. 1716-7, Benjamin L'Hommedieu (See L'Hommedieu); Thomas 4, of Shelter Island, b. in 1695, m. June 29, 1732, Rachel 4 Moore (See Moore), d. 1782-3; and Henry 4, b. in 1690, m. (1) Temperance Bayley, m. (2) Wid. Mary Budd, and d. July 26-27, 1753. Mary, Wid. of Henry 4, m. Sylvanus Davis, and d. July 28, 1771. Henry's will was proved Jan. 16, 1754. (Southold Town Rec.) Sons of Henry 4: Henry 5, b. in 1717; John 5, b. 1720-1, d. Dec. 24, 1757; Thomas 5, b. in 1728. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 300. Also Moore, as above) Thomas 5 bought land at Aquebogue, Jan. 30, 1754. (Southold Town Rec.)

The Southold Conklins lived originally in Hashamomock (E. of Southold Village); and then many of them settled in Aquebogue. The Aquebogue Conklins are the ones most frequent (John, Benjamin, Joseph, Thomas, Nathaniel, Henry, David, Samuel &c.) in the Church Register. It looks to me as if the Conklings, who were Refugees from Southold, were mostly of Aquebogue. Since 1792, their region has been in Riverhead Town; but in Revolutionary days it was in Southold. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) Miss Lucy D. Akerly thinks that they removed from Southold to Huntington.

Timothy 2 was at Huntington, in 1666. (Moore, as above) Researches later than Moore make Timothy 2, son of John 1. Timothy 2 (1640-1720) had sons: Timothy 3 (1670-1743), of West Neck; John 3 (1673-1751), of Clay Pitts; Thomas 3 (b. in 1674-5); Jacob 3 (1675-1754), of West Neck, m. Hannah, dau. of Epenetus Platt 1st, and was sometimes called "The Pirate;"; Cornelius 3 (b. in 1687), of Cold Spring Harbor.

Timothy 3 had sons: Jacob 4, b. in 1697; Timothy 4, b. in 1698, probably removed to Greenwich, Conn.; Jeremiah 4, b. in 1708; Thomas 4 (1704-1793); David 4, b. in 1714; Stephen 4. Thomas 4 had sons: Thomas 5 (1731-1802), who served in the Revolutionary War; Timothy 5 (1732-1811); Hubbard 5 (1736-1806); Ezekial 5, (1741-1820); David 5 (1744-1787). Timothy 5 had: Lt. Timothy 6 (1754-1831), the Refugee, below; Corp. Ezra 6 (1756-1815); Jonathan 6, bapt. in 1759; Abel 6 (1763-1827); Keturah 6 (1768-1770). Col. Timothy, Corp. Ezra and Jonathan served in the Revolutionary War. Jonathan 6, m. a dau. of Capt. Jonathan Titus. (See Titus) He removed to Onondaga Co., N. Y. His son, Jonathan Titus 7, served in the War of 1812. Corp. Ezra 6 m. Sarah (1756-1819), dau. of Isaac Platt, 3d, and twin sister of Mary, above. He had: Platt 7; Erastus Harvey 7; Ezra 7; Nathan Woodhull 7; Elizabeth 7; Experience 7; Letitia 7; Matilda 7; Maria 7. Platt 7, of Clam Point, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Jeremiah Wood 3d., and had: Ansel 8 and Brewster 8 (twins); Warren 8; Frank 8; Jeremiah 8; William 8; Mary 8; Matilda 8; Elizabeth 8. Erastus Harvey 7 m. (1) Ruth, sister of Elizabeth, and dau. of Jeremiah Wood 3d, and had: Charles 8; Ezra 8, d. in California; Maria 8, m. Frederick G. Sammis; Sarah 8, m. Henry Downs; Deborah 8, m. Jesse Gould. Erastus Harvey 7, m. (2) Sarah Allen, and had: Ruth 8, m. Charles Fancher; Erastus H. 8; and Caroline 8. Ezra 7 m. Jane A Brown, and had: Seaman 8; Sarah Maria 8; Mary Emeline 8. Nathan Woodhull 7, m. in Jamaica, L. I. Elizabeth 7, m. Silas Ketcham, and had Ketcham children: Silas T. 8; Ezra C. 8; Woodhull 8; Henry 8; Jane 8; Maria 8; Elizabeth 8; Sarah 8. Experience 7 m. Ebenezer Prime and had Prime children: Edward Y. 8, father of the late Rear Admiral E. S. Prime, of Huntington; Ezra C. 8; Henry R. 8; William C. 8; Claudius B. 8; Nathaniel Scudder 8; Matilda 8; Marietta 8; Ann 8; Mary 8; Sarah 8; Margaret 8. Letitia 7, m. Woodhull Woolsey, and had Woolsey children: Phebe 8; John K. 8; Ezra 8; Newell 8. Matilda 7 m. Brewster Wood, son of Jeremiah Wood, and had Wood children: Edwin 8; William J. 8; George C. 8; Brewster 8; Deborah 8. Maria 7 m. Gilbert Platt, and had Sarah Platt 8. Gilbert Platt's second wife was Ida Wood, dau. of Jeremiah Wood, 3d. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

John 3 had Capt. John 4 (1704-1757), who was the father of Capt. John 5, the Refugee, below.

Jacob 3 had sons: Epenetus 4 (1704-1757); Col. Platt 4 (1711-1780) a drill-master in the Revolutionary War, was offered the Colony of the 1st (or West) Regt. of Suffolk Co., but declined (G. 1); Jacob 4 (1714-1741); Jesse 4 (1716-1789); Israel 4 (1719-1777). Epenetus 4 had Capt. Elkanah 5 (1737-1787); who had Elkanah 6 (1773-1842), who m. Rebecca, dau. of Shubal Smith, a Tory.

Cornelius 3 had Thomas 4, also of Cold Spring; and a grandson, Richard 5, b. in 1726, d. July 24, 1787, aged 61. He m., Feb. 20, 1749-50, Rebecca Titus, who d. Jan. 22, 1793, aged 62. (Huntington Ch. Rec. and Tombstones) Richard 5 had: Richard 6; and Capt. Titus 6, the Refugees, below; also Capt. Enoch 6. The latter, during the War of 1812, built the Privateer, "Arrow," 20 guns and 120 men. In 1814, she was given a commission by the United States. She sailed from the Port of New York in Sept. of that year; but neither vessel, Captain, nor crew ever returned. Stephen B. 7, son of Richard 6, was an officer. Capt. Enoch left a wife and three children. ("Historic Huntington")

CONKLING ABRAHAM 4 (William 3, Cornelius 2, Ananias 1; brother of Jacob, Jr., below, and William, below)—From East Hampton. He served in Weissenfels' Levies. (G. 57) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

CONKLING DANIEL 5, ENS. (Henry 4, Ananias 3, Benjamin 2, Ananias 1; brother of Lt. Edward, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington. On Sept. 12 and Oct. 29, 1776, his effects were brought over by Capts. Eber Waterous and Hubbard Latham. (C. 21) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12, 28) He served as Ens. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); as Corp. in the 4th Line (G. 47); and as private in the 2d and 4th of the Line. (G. 44, 48) He may have served in the 1st Orange. (G. 72) The N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. (27. 152 et seq.) states that he served in the 1st Line, and in Weissenfels' Levies; but the Official Records do not confirm the statement.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 52) He was b. Apr. 24, 1737; m. (1) Abigail Parsons, (2) Hannah Hutchinson; d., at Rensselaerville, N. Y., Sept. 25, 1816. His children were: Daniel 6, b. July 19, 1763; Josiah 6, b. in 1770; Mary 6, m. Daniel Dayton; Henry 6; Abigail 6; Samuel 6, b. Sept. 5, 1789, d. Nov. 10, 1818; John T. 6, b. Apr. 2, 1792; and Clarissa 6, b. June 14, 1795, m. Thomas Lloyd, d. Dec. 9, 1821. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 27. 157)

An older Daniel, of Southold—Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) Still another Daniel, m. June 22, 1783, Gloriana Foster. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.) He may have been the one who loaned money to the State of N. Y. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 195)

CONKLING DAVID, DR. (Perhaps David 5, 4, 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1)—From Southold to Guilford and Middletown. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with three passengers and his effects, he was brought to Guilford by Capt. David Landon (C. 164); and, probably in the same year, he went to Middletown. (C. 22) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he asked leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) On Dec. 2, 1778, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family, furniture and a horse. (D. 21) Evidently he did not go at that time; for, in 1779, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions (B. 3); and, on Sept. 13, 1782, a permit for him to return from Guilford was reconsidered. (F. 57) He was in the Hospital service. (Pages 179, 180. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) If the line, given above, is correct, he was b. in 1721; m. (1) Sept. 20, 1772, Lydia Moore (who d. July 30, 1806), (2) Nov. 3, 1806, Susely Baly. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

David Conkling

He was in the Aquebogue Rec. after the Revolution. (Rev. Charles E. Craven)

A David, of L. I., m. May 17, 1775, Parnell Perkins, of Norwich, Conn. (Lyme, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING DAVID 5 (Thomas 4, Timothy 3, 2; John 1; brother of Thomas, below)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

On Aug. 8, 1777, he was taken Prisoner and confined in the Provost, in N. Y. City, for holding correspondence with the Rebels; and, on Feb. 6, 1778, he was still a Prisoner there. (Clinton Pap., 2. 723) In 1780-1 he was in the Illicit Trade. (E. 192. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 77) His house is now the home of the Huntington Historical Society.

He was b. Aug. 24, 1743-5; m. Sybel Wheeler (1744-1788); d. Dec. 3, 1787. His children were: Almeda 6, below; Phebe 6, b. July 10, 1770; David 6, b. Apr. 12, 1772, d. Jan. 10, 1858; Keturah 6, b. Aug. 7, 1774, m. Simon Losee Jarvis (Jarvis Gen.); Ruth 6, b. Sept. 3, 1776, m. Dec. 28, 1791, Thomas Scudder (Scudder Gen.), d. Dec. 22, 1864; Daniel 6, b. Oct. 11, 1778; Philetus 6, b. June 12, 1781; Ansel, or Azel 6, b. Oct. 27, 1783, lived in N. Y.; and Thomas 6, lived at Ronkonkoma Lake. Almeda 6, b. May 3, 1768; m. Sept. 26, 1787, Abel Brush; d. Feb. 29, 1852. Sybel 7 Brush (1791-1877) m. July 23, 1807, Ananias White. Henrietta 8 White (1824-1899) m. in 1843, John B. Weeks. Susan Emma 9 Weeks m. Oct. 25, 1865, Philip Pearsall, and had a dau., Nettie E. (Family Bible of David 5. Also Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

DAVID CONKLIN—HOME OF THE HUNTINGTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY—HUNTINGTON, L. I.

(Photographed by Mr. Alfred Sammis specially for this work)

A David, of Shelter Island—Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 47) A David served in the 3d Line (G. 46); and perhaps in the 2d Orange. (G. 73)

CONKLING EBENEZER ()—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) He was in the Privateer service ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 269); and one of the crew of the armed sloop "Montgomery," in 1776. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. June 28, 1776) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

Another Ebenezer, of East Hampton, signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 28); and still another, served in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78)

CONKLING EDWARD 5, CAPT. (Joseph, One, 4, below, Ananias 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Ananias, above, and Capt. Joseph, below) —From Sag Harbor, in East Hampton, to Groton. In Sept., 1776, his goods, with those of his brother, Capt. Joseph, were brought over by Capt. Jeremiah Haley. (C. 23) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He commanded the sloop "Beaver," in 1779. (Hedges "East Hampton." Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 80) He was Capt. of the Privateer "Eagle;" and, in 1779, he lost his life in the service. (Page 218. Also G. 87. Also Caulkins' "New London," p. 542) A Lt. Edward served in the 3d Line. (G. 45)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was bapt. Sept. 29, 1745. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING EDWARD 5, LT. (Henry 4, Ananias 3, Benjamin 2, Ananias 1; brother of Ens. Daniel, above)—From Sag Harbor Point, in East Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); and in the 4th Line, perhaps as a private, also. (G. 47, 48) About Nov. 14, 1777, he resigned from the 4th Line. (Clinton Pap., 2. 519) It is probable that he was in the service at Sag Harbor, in 1776.

An Edward appears in the Census of 1776 for Southampton, E. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. in 1732. (East Hampton Ch. or Town Rec.)

CONKLING ELISHA 5. (Elisha 4, Cornelius 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Serjt. Jeremiah, below)—From East Hampton. He was a Refugee. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

CONKLING JACOB, ENS. ()—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) On Jan. 12, 1776, he was elected Ens. in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1) He also served in the 4th Line. (G. 48) He was probably the one who had a warrant to recruit for the 1st Suffolk Co. Company, in the 3d Line. (G. 45) He may have been the private in Capt. Nathaniel Platt's Co., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32)

Privates of this name served as follows: Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); 3d Line (G. 46); Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57); 4th Westchester (G. 80); and possibly in Conn. (G. 87) These Records of service may belong, in whole or in part, to Ens. Jacob, Jacob, below, or Jacob, Jr., below; and they may not belong to any of the three. There was a Capt. Jacob in the 4th Orange. (G. 75)

CONKLING JACOB ()—From Southold to Stonington and Killingworth. He was probably from Hashamomock. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) In Sept., 1776, with 10 in his family, he was brought to Stonington, probably, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) Between Sept. 1 and Oct. 31, 1776, his effects were brought to Killingworth by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 20) In Oct., 1776, he borrowed a boat of Capt. John Wilcox and moved some of the Refugees to Conn. (C. 157) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 10, 12) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) A Jacob, m. in Jan., 1774, Mary Soper. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING JACOB, JR., 4. (William 3, Cornelius 2, Ananias 1; brother of Abraham, above, and William, below)—From East Hampton to Saybrook. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with 10 passengers and his effects, he was brought over by Capts. Nathan Johnson, J——Salisbury, Isaac Schellinger, and John Vail. (C. 24) In the same months, with nine in his family, he was moved up the Conn. River by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I for provisions. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. in 1734. Dates of m. and d. not given. His children were b. from 1759 to 1775. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING JEREMIAH 5, SERJT. (Elisha 4, Cornelius 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Elisha, above)—From East Hampton to Stonington and Chester. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved to Stonington by Capts. John Miner 2d and David Sayre. (C. 103, 138) In the same month, one person and goods, he was moved to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., both as private and Serjt. (G. 7, 31); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. in 1722. The dates of m. and d. not given. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) He was probably the Jeremiah, Sr., of East Hampton, who went to Dutchess Co., N. Y., with his son,

Jeremiah, Jr., in 1781 or 1782; and d. in 1784. (Hunting's "Hist. Little Nine Partners," p. 324)

A Jeremiah, of similar age, in the Census of Smithtown: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 48)

CONKLING JOHN 5, CAPT. (Capt. John 4, John 3, Timothy 2, John 1; father of Capt. Cornelius, above)—From Huntington. On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) On April 18, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I., and to bring back leather and cloth belonging to John Sloss Hobart. (E. 42, 43) On June 13, 1780, he had a pass to cross L. I. Sound in the Illicit Trade. (Page 212. Also F. 117) He was Capt. of a ship. (Page 239. Also references, above) In Oct., 1780, he was taken Prisoner. (Page 120. Also F. 124) On land, he may have been a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

Capt. John 4, d. Sept. 14, 1757, aged 53. His dau., Mary 5, sister of Capt. John 5, the Refugee, m. Mar. 16, 1751-2, Thomas, the Refugee, below. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime) In "N. Y. Wills" (Liber 20) is this record: "John Conkling of Huntington, wife Mary, sons Cornelius, Joseph and John, daughter Elizabeth wife of Samuel Conkling, daughter Hannah wife of Solomon Ketcham, daughter Mary wife of Thomas Conkling; daughters Ruth, Lavinia and Sarah. Dated 17 Aug. 1757: proved Sept. 1757."

John Conkling

CONKLING JOHN 5 (John 4, 3, Capt. John 2, John 1)—From Southold to New London. On Jan. 15, 1777, with his family and goods, he was moved over by Capt. Richard Spink. (C. 178) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) Another John, from Brookhaven, also signed. (H. 20) The name appears in the 2d, 3d and 5th of the Line (G. 44, 46, 49); Additional Corps and Artificers of the Line (G. 54, 67); Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); Harper's, Weissenfels', Malcom's and Pawling's Levies (G. 56, 57, 58, 61); the 2d, 3d, 6th and 7th Dutchess (G. 64, 65, 68, 69); the 1st and 2d Orange (G. 72, 73); and the 3d Westchester. (G. 79) John of the 5th Line was taken Prisoner at Ft. Montgomery in Oct., 1777. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 223) One was a Serjt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 37)

The Census of 1776 showed two of the name in Southold. The first: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 4. The second: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 55) If the line given above is not correct, the difficulty of identifying John, the Refugee from Southold, is not solved by a study of the Mattituck Ch. Rec.—for we find therein Johns: m. to Desire —; to Elizabeth —; to Sarah Hubbard; and to Hannah Petty; also the baptisms of several children. The Smithtown Ch. Rec. also shows Johns: m. to Martha Smith; and to Ruth Barto.

CONKLING JONATHAN ()—From Southold to Guilford. After Sept. 5, 1776, with four passengers and effects, he was brought over by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 18) In Sept. and Oct. 1776, with two passengers, he was brought over by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) In 1779, he petitioned for leave to purchase bread in N. Y. (B. 3) In April, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return with his family and his effects; which was granted. (E. 34-36) In May, 1780, he was permitted to take some stock with him. (E. 60, 61)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

There is a mystery about this Jonathan, who was over 50 years of age in 1776. He does not appear in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. (27. 152 et seq.) Nor does Moore ("Index") mention him. It is not probable that he was the father of Jonathan, Jr., below.

Jonathan Conkling

CONKLING JONATHAN Jr., 5 (Cineus 4, Lewis 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Benjamin, above, Joseph, Two, below, and Lt. Nathaniel, below—see the latter for explanation)—From Southold to Saybrook and Chester. In Sept., 1776, his effects were brought to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and, same month, with eight passengers to Saybrook, West Parish (now Westbrook), by Capts. James Wiggins and James Harris. (C. 26) On Sept. 13, and Oct. 8–12, 1776, his effects, with those of Joseph, Two, below, were brought to Saybrook and Chester by Capts. Samuel Sanford and Joseph Hallock. (C. 27) On Mar. 28, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for his effects, being recommended by the Authorities of Middletown. (D. 47) On May 16, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return to L. I. with his family, furniture and stock. In the petition he mentioned that his father had returned to L. I. "last Spring;" but he did not give the name of his father. He was recommended by the Authorities of Saybrook; and the petition was granted. (E. 62, 63) He signed the Association in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Evidently, he was the younger of the Jonathans; and possibly the one

Jonathan Conkling

(b. about 1754) who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38). He also served in the 3d Line (G. 46); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and possibly in the 3d and 4th Westchester. (G. 79, 80)

The Census of 1776 gave a Jonathan, of Southampton, E. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) Another Jonathan, b. at Essex, Conn., in 1742; m. Jan. 25, 1780, Elizabeth Conkling (Mattituck Ch. Rec.); d. at Southold, Mar. 12, 1832. She was b. about 1760; d. at Southold, about 1830. ("L. I. Traveler"—No. 2256) Still another Jonathan, b. Sept. 29, 1743; m. Parnel Booth (1752–1799); d. May 22, 1815. His children were: Parnel, b. Feb. 16, 1772; Samuel, b. Sept. 1, 1776; Hester, b. March 7, 1779; William, b. Feb. 18, 1783; Polly, b. April 17, 1785; Repsey, b. April 9, 1787; Charity, b. Dec. 10, 1789; Bradley, b. Dec. 12, 1791; Fanny, b. April 1, 1796. (Same ref., No. 2510)

Moore ("Index") gives only Jonathan 5, of Southold, b. in 1728—(Henry 4, John 3, Capt. John 2, John 1). He was probably too old to have been Jonathan, Jr. The indications are that Jonathan, Jr., was: Jonathan, b. in 1743, m. Parnel Booth; or, as is most probable, Jonathan, of Col. Smiths' Regt., b. in 1754—which seems to confirm his line from Cineus 4.

A Jonathan, m. Deborah Titus, Wid. of Jesse Platt. (See Platt and Titus)

CONKLING JOSEPH 5, CAPT. (Joseph, One, 4, below, Ananias 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Ananias, above, and Capt. Edward, above) —From Sag Harbor, in East Hampton, to Stonington and Groton. In Sept., 1776, his effects were brought over by Capt. David Sayre (C. 138); and, same month, his effects, and those of his brother, Capt. Edward, were brought over by Capt. Jeremiah Haley. (C. 23) In Nov., 1776, with his family and freight, he was brought over by Capts. Jeremiah Haley and William Warner. (C. 25) He had returned to East Hampton by 1790 (Mr. H. B. Alexander); and he owned property at Sag Harbor, in 1800. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) Like his brother, Capt. Edward, he was active as a Privateersman. He commanded the "Whim," the "Revenge" and the "Venus;" and he was bondsman for the "Jay" and the "Game Cock." (Pages 216, 217, 218, 239. Also G. 87)

He was bapt. May 6, 1739. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) He was living in 1799. (H. B. A.)

Joseph Conkling

CONKLING JOSEPH (ONE) 4 (Ananias 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; father of Ananias, above, Capt. Edward, above, and Capt. Joseph, above) From Sag Harbor, in East Hampton, to Stonington. He was from Sag Harbor Point. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He returned to Sag Harbor and d. there. (Mr. H. B. Alexander) He was a large land-owner at Sag Harbor; and, in 1775, conveyed 12 acres to his son Edward, mariner. (East Hampton Town Rec.) He may have signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 4. (A. 52) He was bapt. Nov. 13, 1709; m., Jan. 14, 1730–1, Esther Jones; d. Feb. 13, 1792. (East Hampton Ch. Rec. Also H. B. A.)

CONKLING JOSEPH (TWO) 5 (Cineus 4, Lewis 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Benjamin, above, Jonathan, Jr., above, and Lt. Nathaniel, below—see the latter for explanation)—From Southold to Saybrook, Sept. 13, and Oct. 8 and 12, 1776, by Capts. Samuel Sanford and Joseph Hallock. He came over with his brother, Jonathan Jr., above. It was stated that Joseph remained at Saybrook with his family. (C. 27) He may have signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 37)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 5; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

A Joseph, in Aquebogue, had Ananias, bapt. in 1755; Joseph and Mary had Joseph, bapt. in 1758; John and Elizabeth had Joseph, bapt. in 1759; Benjamin and Bethiah had Joseph, bapt. in 1774. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) A Joseph, of St. George's Manor, over 50 years old, had no family. (A. 50) He probably signed the Association in 1775. (H. 20) A Joseph, from Huntington, also signed. (H. 29)

Men of this name served as follows: Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33); 2d Line, as private and Corp. (G. 44); 3d Line (G. 46); Malcom's Levies (G. 58); 1st Orange, as private, Lt. and Capt. (G. 72); 2d Orange (G. 73); 4th Orange, as Ens. (G. 75); 1st Westchester. (G. 77) In the Pay Roll of Capt. Daniel Roe's Co. there is a Joseph Lonkling, which may have been intended for Conkling. (G. 48)

CONKLING NATHANIEL 5, LT. (Cineus 4, Lewis 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1; brother of Benjamin, above, Jonathan, Jr., above, and Joseph, Two, above)—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he asked leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He may have signed the Association, from Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20) He served as a private and a Lt. in the 4th Line. (G. 46) He is called Capt. in the Family Rec. (Mrs. Ellen C. Beckwith)

He was b. about 1757; m. ————Jemima (1765-1833), dau. of Christian Higgins (see Higgins); d. Mar. 23, 1817, aged 60. (Tombstones at Lyme, Conn.) He removed from Guilford to Hartford; and thence to Lyme, where he d. His children were: William Higgins 6, below; James 6; Libbie 6; Elizabeth H. 6, below; Capt. Nathaniel R. 6, below; Benjamin 6, below; Gordon Bailey 6, b. about 1803, d. in 1831; John A. 6; Joseph Henry 6, below; Dolly 6; Edmund F. 6; and Mary Anne 6. (Higgins Family Bible)

William Higgins 6, b. at Hartford, Conn., in 1788; m. Eliza Gardner; d. in 1867. He was a ship-master; removed to Baltimore, Md., and was owner of several ships in the foreign trade. His son, William Higgins, Jr., 7, has been President of the Savings Bank of Baltimore for many years. Capt. Nathaniel R. 6, b. about 1794; m. ————Miner, of Lyme; d. in 1888. His dau., Mrs. Ellen C. Beckwith, now (1912) lives at Lyme, Conn. Benjamin 6, m. ————Bailey; lived at Middletown, Conn.; and had no children. Joseph Henry 6, b. about 1801; m. ————Avery, of Stonington; d. in 1878. His daughters, Harriet 7 and Jane 7 now live in the old homestead, at Lyme. Elizabeth (Betsy) 6, m. Edward H. Sumner, of Middletown, Conn.; where her dau. Mrs. Robert A. Pease, now lives. (Higgins Family Bible. Also Mrs. Ellen C. Beckwith and Mr. William Higgins Conkling)

Recent information enables us to clear up these mysteries: (1) Cineus 4 had Isaac 5, Benjamin 5 (the Refugee) "and possibly others"—as stated in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.; (2) the absence, in the Rec., of the names and lineages of Jonathan, Jr., Joseph, Two, and Lt. Nathaniel—all of whom were Refugees; (3) the incomplete state of the Family Records relating to these three Refugees.

I have always understood there were four brothers who came from England and settled at Conklingville, L. I.; from which place they were driven by the English in 1776, or thereabouts. * * * My father William Higgins 6 had five uncles [brothers of Lt. Nathaniel 5] in the Revolutionary war; one of whom was a Col., who equipped a Regiment at his own expense. (Mr. William Higgins 7 Conkling)

Two Conkling brothers, known to have been from L. I., settled in Lyme, Conn., in the latter part of the 18th Century, where their descendants may still be found. One m. a Miner, of Stonington; the other, an Avery, of Groton. (Mrs. Ellen E. Salisbury)

Hon. Roscoe Conkling was my cousin. (W. H. C., as above)

The latter statement is important. It identifies Lt. Nathaniel 5 as son of Cineus 4, and brother of Benjamin 5. From Lyme, we learn that Joseph,

Two, was a brother of Lt. Nathaniel; and as he came over with Jonathan, Jr. (C. 27) he was evidently his brother. Hence we have the sons of Cineus 4: Benjamin 5, Jonathan, Jr., 5, Joseph, Two, 5 and Israel 5 (who had a Rev'y War record, although not a Refugee)—four of the "five uncles," brothers of Lt. Nathaniel 5.

As Benjamin m. a Hand, and Lt. Nathaniel m. a Higgins, Mrs. Salisbury's notes relative to marriages, may refer to Jonathan, Jr., or Joseph, Two.

CONKLING NATHANIEL, SERJT. ()—From South-old. He served in Col. Smith's Regt., as private and as Serjt. (G. 7, 20, 37) He probably served on L. I before he went to Orange Co., N. Y. (Miss Antoinette Elmer)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1740. (G. 37) He m. Martha

His children were bapt. as follows: Mary, Nathaniel and Samuel, May 12, 1765; Eneas, May 3, 1767; Joshua, Oct. 7, 1770; Elizabeth, Dec. 18, 1772. His son, Nathaniel, Jr., m. Elizabeth Garner, Apr. 26, 1784. She d. May 13, 1786. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

Another Nathaniel probably a son of Col. Platt, of Huntington, m. Phebe 4 (Nathaniel 3, Richard 2, Richard 1—Bull) Smith. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 454. See also Smith)

CONKLING PETER ()—It is claimed, by his descendants, that he removed from L. I. to what is now Washingtonville, Orange Co., N. Y. They state that Peter was in the Rev'y War, although the Official Records do not show any service; also that he had a wife and sons, Frank, William and Ananias. (Mrs. Ananias Conklin, Bridgeport, Conn.)

CONKLING RICHARD 6 (Richard 5, Thomas 4, Cornelius 3, Timothy 2, John 1; brother of Capt. Titus, below)—From Huntington. He was a seaman in the Privateer service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269) As Richard, Jr., he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was among those who took refuge from the British in New England. He skirmished with the British at the time they took Danvers and was wounded in the hand. He was a Prisoner in the British Fleet, and as such was confined in the Barbadoes jail. At one time he was a Prisoner on the Admiral's ship in N. Y. Harbor; he escaped and made his way to his home at Cold Spring Harbor. His return was reported and the British attacked the house, firing through the barred door, where he stood until the rest of the family had escaped to a neighbor's. He then retreated through a swamp and the woods to the shore where his vessel lay. During the War of 1812 he captured a vessel loaded with grain and flour for the British. ("Historic Huntington")

He was b. about 1757; m. Mary Bernard; d. Aug. 11, 1818, aged 61. His Wid. d. Aug. 6, 1828, aged 66. (Huntington Ch. Rec. and Tombstones) He had sons: Stephen Bernard 6, who was lost at sea, on a Privateer, in the War of 1812; and Titus 6, whose son Titus 7 now lives at Huntington.

CONKLING SAMUEL 5, LT. (Samuel 4, David 3, Jeremiah 2, Ananias 1)—From Sag Harbor, in East Hampton, to Chester. In Sept., 1776, with three persons and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 94) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 52) He was b. in 1726; d. in 1802. He had several children. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING SAMUEL (ONE), (Probably son of Lt. Samuel, above)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); in the 3d and 5th of the Line (G. 46, 49); in DuBois' and Pawling's Levies (G. 59, 61); and perhaps in the 7th Dutchess. (G. 69) One of the name was a Prisoner. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt.," p. 41)

He was b. in 1754 (G. 31); d. in 1828. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING SAMUEL (TWO)—From Huntington. He was a son of Philip who was bapt. May 13, 1739; m., Jan. 8, 1761, Mary Bennett, who was bapt. June 23, 1739. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

He was an outspoken Rebel. The British tried to take his team away from him, but he resisted so energetically, with his stout axe, that they were glad to desist. He knocked a British officer down with his fist. The soldiers put chase for him. He ran to his house, through the hall way, and out the back door, just as his pursuers came in the front. He escaped across the fields into the woods, and hid in a barn at Cold Spring. The British searched every house and barn in Cold Spring, and came in the barn, where he was secreted under a mow of hay, without discovering him. The next night, he made his way through the fields to the brick yards at West Neck, where Richard Conkling then lived, and borrowing a row-boat there, he escaped under cover of night, to the Connecticut shore, where he remained, doing good service in the Patriot cause, to the end of the Revolution. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

He was probably bapt. Jan. 4, 1761; m. Nov. 18, 1785, Martha Smith. (Huntington Ch. Rec.) She was b. about 1769; d. Aug. 18, 1822, aged 53. (Tombstone at Huntington) He was b. Oct. 5, 1763; m., Nov. 18, 1786, Martha Smith. His children were: Clarissa; Strong, bapt. April 5, 1811; Azreal (?); Strong, m. Mary Davis, date not known, and had issue—DeWitt C. now living in Huntington, and Isabel or Isobell. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime) Another Samuel, from Brookhaven, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 51)

CONKLING SELAH (Perhaps a son of Thomas of Huntington, below)—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in the 3d line (G. 46); and in Capt. Daniel Roe's Co. (G. 48)

He d. Sept. 15, 1797, aged 45. (Tombstone at Huntington)

Selah Conkling

CONKLING SHADRACH 5 (Thomas 4, John 3, Capt. John 2, John 1; brother of Capt. Benjamin, above)—From Shelter Island. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) It is claimed that he was the Refugee; and that Conklin Shaddain [q. v.] was the wrong spelling for Shadrach Conkling. A comparison of the autographs makes it almost certain that they were not the same man. If they were the same, then it was Shadrach Conkling who, on Jan. 7, 1780, petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32)

Shadrach Conkling

He was b. 1739-40; not m.; d. Jan. 23, 1827. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 109, 300)

CONKLING SILVANUS, LT. ()—He was probably from Southold; although he may have been from Brookhaven, or Huntington. He was at Fort Montgomery on Jan. 4, 1777. (A. 29) He was a Lt. in the 4th Line, and an Ens. in the 3d Line. (G. 45, 47, 48. Also Clinton Pap., 2. 519, 520; and 4. 5) He may have served as a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in Conn. (G. 87) His service in Col. Smith's Regt. was from Bridge Hampton. (G. 29) The record in the 4th Line states that he d. Oct., or Dec., 7, 1778. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," 1. 211) If he served in Conn., he d. Jan. 25, 1778. (G. 87) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

CONKLING THOMAS 6, MAJ. (Thomas 5, Henry 4, John 3, Capt. John 2, John 1)—From Aquebogue, in Southold. On Oct. 16, 1776, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote, from Saybrook, that Maj. Thomas Conkling, and others, had been thought to be disaffected; but profess themselves to be friendly. (A. 18. See also Pages 118, 119) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) His title probably came from the Colonial service.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55) This, however, may relate to Thomas 5.

He was b. —; m., Aug. 10, 1786, Hannah Demmon; d. Nov. 12, 1789. It is stated that his wife, Hannah, d. Dec. 6, 1785. This might have been Anna Hallock who, on Oct. 16, 1777, m. Thomas Conkling, the title of Maj. being omitted. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His sons were: Thomas 7, bapt., in 1787, as Prince Thomas, and later known as Thomas P.; and Jonathan Dimon 7, bapt. in 1790, and later known as Dimon. (Rev. Charles E. Craven)

CONKLING THOMAS 5 (Thomas 4, Timothy 3, 2, John 1; brother of David, above)—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) In 1780, with others, he was taken in a wood-boat on L. I Sound, and imprisoned at Hartford. It was stated that he would aid the American cause, if liberated.

(F. 120) He probably did aid the cause; for he had already served in Col. Smith's Regt., from Huntington (G. 7, 33, 38); and he had also served in Terry's Regt. (G. 8) Later, he served in the 3d Line (G. 46); probably in the 5th Line (G. 49); and perhaps in the 2d Orange. (G. 73) A Thomas was a pensioner in 1833, age 77. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428)

Thomas Conkling

He was b. about 1731; m. Mar. 16, 1752, Mary, dau. of Capt. John 3, Conkling above; d. Mar. 26, 1802. (Huntington Ch. Rec. and Tombstones)

A Thomas 4 (William 3, Cornelius 2, Ananias 1), b. in 1739. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) A Thomas, appears in the Shelter Island Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. Also a Thomas, Jr.: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 49) A Thomas, of Shelter Island (brother of Capt. Benjamin, above) b. in 1733; m. in 1760, Phebe Glover; d. Feb. 4, 1783. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 300)

CONKLING TIMOTHY 6, LT. (Timothy 5, Thomas 4, Timothy 3, 2, John 1)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 34); and, perhaps, as a private in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

He was b. in 1754; ——— m. Mary, dau. of Isaac Platt, 3d; d. in 1831. His children were: Col. Isaac 7; Jesse 7; Elkanah 7; Timothy Titus 7; Sarah 7; Ruth 7; Emma 7; Keturah 7. Col. Isaac 7, m. Hannah, dau. of Solomon Ketcham (See Ketcham), and had: Jonas P. 8; Washington 8; Irene 8; Therina 8; Cornelia 8. Jesse 7, m. Phebe Wood, of N. Y. City, and had: Elbert 8; Ida 8 and Isaac 8 (twins); Nelson 8; Timothy 8; Jesse 8; Phebe 8; Mary 8; Kate 8; Richard L. 8. Elkanah 7, never married. Timothy Titus 7, m. Amelia Rhemp, and had: David Woodhull 8, and Mary Elizabeth 8, m. Joseph M. Hendrickson. Sarah 7, m. Richard Lewis. Ruth 7, m. George Sammis, of West Neck, and had Sammis children: Frederick G. 8; Stephen 8; Warren G. 8; Henrietta 8, m. Nathan B. Conklin. Emma 7, m. Obadiah Rogers, of Cold Spring, and had several sons and daughters. Keturah 7, m. Joseph Smith Roe, and had Roe children: Maria 8; Susan 8 and Eliza 8 (twins); James 8; Isaac Watts 8; Smith Roe 8; Susan 8, m. Smith Rowland, of Huntington. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876. Also Todd Gen. by Capt. Richard H. Greene)

CONKLING TITUS 6. CAPT. (Richard 5, Thomas 4, Cornelius 3, Timothy 2, John 1; brother of Richard, above)—From Huntington. In Feb., 1779, as a Refugee, he petitioned both branches of the N. Y. Legislature asking relief from the Comm'rs of Sequestration. (B. 2) He was Capt. of the Privateer "Refugee." (Page 218. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt.," p. 98) He probably engaged in the Privateer service as a seaman, also. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 269) He was b. in 1757; m. Jemima ———; d. in 1818, in N. Y. City. He had no children. His wife had the use of the property until her death. They were buried in the Old Dutch Church in Brooklyn, N. Y.; and, afterward, their bodies were removed to Greenwood when the Church was torn down. After his death, his nephew, Titus 7, son of Richard 6, above, was his principal heir. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

CONKLING WILLIAM 4 (William 3, Cornelius 2, Ananias 1; brother of Abraham, above, and Jacob, Jr., above; father of William, Jr., below)—From Sag Harbor, in East Hampton, to Chester. In Sept., 1776, one person and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) Soon afterward, with five in the family and his goods, he was taken up the Conn. River by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He may have served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. in 1719; had several children; probably d. in 1783. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

CONKLING WILLIAM, JR. 5 (Son of William, above)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48) One of the name served in the 2d Dutchess (G. 64); and in the 2d and 4th Orange. (G. 73, 75) On June 25, 1775, the Prov'l Cong. issued a warrant to William Conkling as 2d Lt. (G. 1) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

He was b. in 1757; probably d. in 1843. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) He was b. in 1756. (G. 31)

COOK—The emigrant from England, Isaac, m. Sarah Curtis, of Wallingford, Conn., and lived there until his death, in 1712. He left but one son. (Mr. William L. Cook) The son was probably Ellis 1, who came from Lynn, Mass., to Southampton, where he appears in the list of 1644. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 212-214) Ellis 1, may have been either a brother or a son of Francis who came over in the "Mayflower." (Mr Addison M. Cook) Ellis 1 m. Martha, dau. of John 1 Cooper (See Cooper); d. in 1663. His children were: Mary 2; Martha 2; Elizabeth 2; Ellis 2, d. in 1706; Abiel 2, b. in 1663 (posthumous), whose descendants live at Northampton, Mass.; and John 2. The latter, b. about 1656; d. in 1719. His children were John 3; Martha 3, m. Joseph Fordham; Obadiah 3, b. in 1687, d. in 1733; Jonathan 3, b. in 1700, d. in 1756; and Elias 3. The latter, b. in 1690, had: Nathan 4; Mary 4; Mehitable 4, m. John Mitchell, in 1762 (see Mitchell); Abigail 4, m. Daniel Williams, both drowned Mar. 25, 1764; David 4, below. (A. M. C.) Elmira, probably dau. of Obadiah 3, m. Alanson Topping. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) For other Cook descendants, see Haines and Hunting.

COOK DAVID 4 (Elias 3, John 2, Ellis 1; father of Jonathan, below)—From Bridge Hampton. He remained on his farm during the greater part of the War; but, having been deprived of his only horse, he enlisted in the 5th Line, May 3, 1780, and served until Dec. 6, following. (G. 49. Also A. M. C.) He may, also, have served in Weissenfels', or in Pawling's Levies. (G. 57, 61) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1720; m., Dec. 14, 1742, Hannah, dau. of Elnathan Topping; d. Dec. 15, 1814. His children were: Mehitable 5, m. Nov. 30, 1769, David Haines (See Haines); Silas 5, b. in 1756, lost at sea; Sarah 5, m. Richard Williams; Jonathan 5, the Refugee, below; David 5, b. in 1752, removed to the "Genesee Country;" Theophilus 5, b. in 1761, m. Phebe, dau. of Capt. Daniel Hedges (See Hedges), d. in 1842; Samuel 5, b. in 1764, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Jeremiah, and sister of Simeon Halsey, d. in 1833; and Nathan Topping 5. The latter, b. in 1768; m. in 1792, Mary, dau. of Capt. David Howell (See Howell); d. in 1822. His children were: Mehitable 6, b. in 1793, d. in 1878; Richard Williams 6, b. in 1796, m. in 1822, Polly Pratt, d. in 1822; David Howell 6, b. in 1798, m. Ann L. Reynolds, d. in 1841; Phebe 6, b. in 1801, d. y.; Phebe 6, b. in 1806, m. Robert Post, d. in 1883; Lyman Beecher 6, b. in 1803, d. in 1883; Adeline Cecelia 6, b. in 1811, m. David P. Rose, d. in 1845; Orlando Henry 6, d. y.; Alanson 6, b. in 1808, m. (1) Caroline, (2) Frances M., both daughters of Elisha Halsey, d. in 1892. Son of Alanson 6 by his first wife, Addison M. 7, of Bridge Hampton, b. June 28, 1847; m. Dec. 24, 1877, Anna, dau. of Henry M. Rose. A dau., Caroline Halsey 8, b. in 1879; m. in 1903, William D. Stoots of N. Y. City. (A. M. C.)

COOK HANNAH—Wife of JEDEDIAH, below.

COOK JAMES, ADJT. ()—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and probably in Conn. (G. 87) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

COOK JEDEDIAH () and his wife, Hannah, with three small children, were allowed to go from New Haven to L. I. (F. 42)

COOK JOHN MITCHELL (Perhaps son of Nathan 4; and thus nephew of David 4, above and Mehitable 4, above, who m. John 4 Mitchell)—From Bridge Hampton. His effects, and four passengers, were brought over from Sag Harbor, Sept. 14, 1776, by Capts. Charles Williams and Benjamin King. (C. 28) On Sept. 5, 1776, his goods were landed at Saybrook; and, on Sept. 20, 1776, at Chester, in both cases by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

John Mitchell Book

COOK JONATHAN 5, CORP. (David 4, above, Elias 3, John 2, Ellis 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook and Chester. On Sept. 5, 1776, his goods were landed at Saybrook by Capt. Joshua Griffith; and, on Sept. 20, at Chester, by the same Capt. (C. 57) On Sept. 26, with three passengers and effects, he was brought to Saybrook by Capt. James Harris. (C. 29) In Feb., 1781, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for permission to pass through the State on his way to Black River, N. J., where he wished to settle with his family; which was granted. (E. 140, 141) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) He may have served in Col. Smith's Regt., both as a private and a Corp. (G. 7, 12, 29, 30)—at which time he was 22 years old. He may, also, have served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

Jonathan Cook

Census of 1776: Southampton, West Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 53) He was b. in 1754. After the War, he settled in the "Genesee Country," with his brother David 5. (A. M. C.)

Another Jonathan, m., July 2, 1777, Hannah Hudson; and had several children, b. between 1761 and 1789.

COOK NATHAN ()—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and he may have been a pensioner in Conn. (G. 87)

COOK REBECCA, Wid. of MAJ. SILAS, below—From Bridge Hampton to Guilford. Her claim for removal was paid to Lewis Osborn, Jan. 3, 1778. (C. 30, 158)

COOK SILAS, MAJ. ()—From Bridge Hampton to Guilford. He also went to Saybrook and Stonington. (Hon Henry P. Hedges) His claim for expenses was made, Feb. 17, 1777; and afterward paid to his Wid., Rebecca. (C. 30, 158) The claim states that he was deceased on that date; and that he, with eight passengers and effects had been brought over by Capt. John Davis, though the date of removal is not given. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) It may be that he had served as a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29) The title, Maj., probably came from service in the Militia.

COOPER—This Family is from John 1, of Lynn, Mass., who came from Olney, in Buckinghamshire, Eng., in 1635, with his wife and children: Mary 2, John 2, Thomas 2 and Martha 2 who m. Ellis 1 Cook. (See Cook) He was one of the 20 heads of families who formed the Association for the settlement of Southampton, in 1639. He was made freeman at Boston, Dec. 6, 1636; was one of the elders of the Church when it was organized at Lynn, and in 1638 he is recorded as owning 200 acres of land in that Town. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 217, 218. Also Whitaker's "Southold," p. 31) Moore ("Index," p. 13) mentions Thomas, from Hingham, Eng. to Hingham, Mass., 1633-1638. He owned lands in Southold, in 1654; and was on the Southampton Census List of 1698. He also mentions Margaret, Samuel and James; but does not make them related to Thomas.

John 2 had sons: Thomas 3, who had sons, Capt. John 4 and Abraham 4; James 3, who had a son, James 4; and Samuel 3. Thomas 2 had sons: Thomas 3, who had a son, David 4; also Caleb 3, who had numerous descendants. (Howell, as above) Another statement is that Thomas 3 had Caleb 4.

Hannah, dau. of Abraham (perhaps Abraham 4, Thomas 3, John 2, 1—and sister of Abraham 5, below) m. Stephen 4 Woodhull, and was the mother of Abraham Cooper Woodhull, the Refugee. (See Woodhull) Prudence, dau. of Ananias, m. in 1777, James 4 Sayre. (See Sayre)

COOPER ABRAHAM 5 (Abraham 4, Thomas 3, John 2, 1; father of John, below)—On Aug. 31, 1776, the Committee of Southampton permitted him to remove his family to Conn. (A. 46) From Southampton to Saybrook, Sept. 2, 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in the 5th Line (G. 49); also in the 1st Canadian Regt. of the Line (G. 52); and probably in Conn. (G. 87)

He was b. about 1717; m. Hannah (or Joana) Howell; d. at Southampton, in 1784. The "Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton" states that he d. at Saybrook in Dec., 1776. His children were: John 6, the Refugee, below; Abraham 6, b. Jan. 1, 1761; Gilbert 6, b. Feb. 26, 1763; Hannah 6, b. Aug. —, 1765, m. Henry Rhodes; Mehitabel 6, b. Feb. 9, 1768, m. Benjamin Huntingt (See Huntingt); Foster 6; Jane 6, b. Sept. 10, 1770. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 221) This tallies with the Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 53)

COOPER ELIAS 6 (Thomas 5, Capt. John 4, Thomas 3, John 2, 1)—From Southampton. Howell ("Southampton," p. 221) states: "He was probably a Refugee in Conn., where he d. Mar. 19, 1777." He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 53) He was b. Sept. 30, 1734; m. Apr. 11, 1758, Ruth Rogers, who was b. Sept. 8, 1734. His children were: Charles 7, b. Aug. 19, 1759; Obadiah 7, below; Susanna 7, b. Nov. 19, 1762; Apollos 7, below; Elias 7, b. May 21, 1769; and Hannah 7, b. May 19, 1773.

Obadiah 7, b. Dec. 22, 1760, had: Elias 8; Oliver 8, of Quoque; and Apollos 8. (Howell, as above)

Judge Apollos 7, b. Feb. 2, 1767 (Howell, as above); b. in 1779. (Howell, p. 225) He removed to Utica, N. Y., as a young man; and d. there, in 1839. He m., in 1797, Sibyl Ellis, who was b. Apr. 5, 1777, d. in 1829. His children were: Hiram 8, b. in 1798, d. y.; Benjamin F. 8, below; Elias 8, b. in 1803, d. not m.; Albert Ellis 8, b. in 1807, d. in 1815; Charles 8, below; Cornelia 8, below; and probably Caleb 8, d. y.

Silas Cooper

COOPER ZEBULON 5, CAPT. (Probably James 4, 3, John 2, 1)—From Southampton (Mr. William S. Pelletreau); and was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43) From Feb. to June, 1776, he carried cash from P. T. Curtenius, Comm'y, to John Foster. (B. 2) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), on Sept. 2, 1776, he brought the effects of John Foster from L. I. to Saybrook. (C. 8) On the same date, he brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook, the following Refugees, with their families—94 passengers: John Foster, Samuel L'Hommedieu, Obadiah Gildersleeve, Nathan Fordham, Esq., Abraham Cooper, Abraham Sayre, Zebulon Cooper, Widow Jacobs, Elias Howell, Silas Halsey, Elias Post's wife, Silas Halsey's wife, David Howell, Uriah Rogers, Joshua Sayre's daughter, Ebenezer Jagger, Jeremiah Post, Ryal Howell and Sylvanus Howell. He made four additional trips from Sag Harbor, and one from Shelter Island, to Saybrook, between Sept. 2, and Nov. 14, 1776, bringing a total of 171 passengers. His claim was paid. (C. 32) In 1779 (probably), he petitioned Gov. Clinton for permission to purchase bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 53) He m. Mary, dau. of John 5 White, and sister of Ephraim White, the Refugee. (See White) Just before the War he occupied a house in Southampton, which Capt. Stephen Howell occupied during the War. (See Howell, for illustration)

Zebulon Cooper

COOPER ZEBULON, JR. (Possibly son of Capt. Zebulon above)—He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) Zebulon W. Cooper, of Montrose, Pa., may have been a descendant.

COOPER ZOPHAR 6, CAPT. (Samuel 5, 4, Samuel 3, John 2, 1)—From Southampton. On Aug. 31, 1776, the Committee of that Town permitted him to remove his family to Conn. (A. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 53) He had children: Ananias 7; Mary Hathaway 7; Nathan 7; Ruth 7, m. Philip Marshall; Hannah 7, m. Gamaliel Marshall; and Lucinda 7. He was grandfather of Capt. Mercator, who d. in 1872. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 218, 219)

COREY—CORY—John 1 probably d. between 1680 and 1686. Among his sons was John 2, b. in 1686; m. Dority Hobart; d. in 1754. Among the children of John 2 were: Abijah 3, below; and Abraham 3. (Moore's "Index," pp. 13, 14, 71, 73) John 2, of Southold, Dec. 26, 1753, wills to his wife Dorothy and children—Abijah 3, John 3, Elizabeth 3, (Laws) and Dorothea (Dickinson); and grand-children Bradick Cory 4, and Mary Wiggins 4. Proved Aug. 24, 1754. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 424. Also Moore's "Index," p. 71) A Jacob was among the early settlers in Southold, in 1641; (Griffin's "Journal," p. 16)

A Jonathan m. (2?) Patience ———, and had: Jonathan, Elnathan, Mary (m. Smith), Lois (m. Moore) and Temperance (m. Shepard)—according to the "Calendar of Early N. Y. Wills." Jonathan, Sr., was probably from L. I. to Orange Co., N. Y. Jonathan Jr., lived at Mapes Corners, a settlement of L. I. people, in that Co. He served in the 16th Albany; and in the 3d Orange. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," pp. 131, 255) He m. Lucy Knapp, of Goshen, N. Y. His dau., Mary, m. Lewis, son of James Hall. (Miss Mary T. Hall)

COREY ABIJAH 3 (John 2, 1; uncle of Braddock, below)—From Southold to Branford, Sept., and Oct., 1776, with six passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) From L. I. to Guilford, Oct., 1776, with two passengers. (C. 33) On Jan. 22, 1782, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y. of Conn. for permission to return to Southold in order to sell his grist mill and to bring the proceeds to Branford, which was granted. (E. 164, 165) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55); so that he could have been the Abijah who m. Naomi ———; and whose dau., Mary, was bapt. Mar. —, 1757.

Abijah Corey

(Mattituck Ch. Rec.) If the Census included his wife, then the dau. Mary was named as over 16 years old.

Another Abijah, perhaps his son, d. at Southold, Dec. 7, 1840, aged 75. (Salmon Rec.)

COREY BRADDOCK 4 (Abraham 3, John 2, 1; nephew of Abijah, above)—From Sag Harbor to Saybrook, Sept., 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and, Oct. 3, to E. Haddam, by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 54) On the tombstones, at Sag Harbor, it is recorded that he d. Feb. 1, 1809, aged 74; and his wife, Charity, d. Feb. 12, 1775, aged 33. His birth, therefore, was about 1735.

CORNWELL—CORNELL—and sometimes, on L. I., spelled CONN—This is a family of Quaker origin, from Thomas 1, b. in England about 1595; m. Rebecca Briggs; emigrated to Boston about 1638, and thence to R. I.; d. about 1655. Among his children were: Richard 2 (from whom, in the 8th gen., descends Rev. John Cornell, compiler of the Cornell Gen.); and John 2. The latter had a son, Richard 3; whose son, Benjamin 4, b. Sept. 18, 1723; m. Abigail Stevenson; d. Aug. 25, 1771. Benjamin 4, emigrated from R. I. to Westchester Co., N. Y. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 1911. Supplemented by Rev. John Cornell)

William 1, was of Middletown, Conn. (Dr. E. E. Cornwall's "William Cornwall and his Descendants")

CORNWELL BENJAMIN 4, SERJT. (Benjamin 3, John 2, William 1)—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 15, 24); and, as a private in the Levies of Du Bois and Pawling (G. 59, 61); in the 5th Dutchess (G. 67); and probably in Conn. (G. 87)

He had served, previously, in the French and Indian War. He was b. in 1736. ("William Cornwall &c.," p. 25)

A Benjamin 5 (Benjamin 4, Richard 3, John 2, Thomas 1), evidently not the Refugee, b. Aug. 23, 1761; m. (1) Alice Sutton, (2) Parmelia Farrington; d. May 20, 1841. His children were: John 6, Jesse 6 (2), Jane 6, Silas 6, Phebe 6, Thomas 6 (2), Dorcas 6, Mary 6 and Benjamin 6. (Rev. J. C., as above)

CORNWELL RICHARD 5 (Timothy, 4, 3, Jacob 2, William 1)—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and probably in Conn. (G. 87)

He was bapt. in 1762; d. Oct. 2, 1787. ("William Cornwall &c.")

CORUM JAMES—On Oct. 6, 1776, he was brought over to Guilford by Capt. John Gears. (C. 35)

CORWIN—CURWIN—Like most names, this had many variants in the early records: Corwin[n]e, Curwin[n]e etc. It appears once in the Southold Rec. (Vol. 2, p. 506) as Curin; and once in the Mattituck Rec. (p. 319) as Curring—forms which indicate a pronunciation sometimes heard in the last Century. The other forms which appear would indicate that the usual pronunciation of the name did not differ materially from that usually heard today. The spelling has now become stereotyped in the two forms given—the latter of the two forms being rather more usual in the Massachusetts branch. (Prof. Robert N. Corwin)

George Curwin (b. in 1610; d. in 1685) was the founder of the Mass. branch of the Family. He had a son, Jonathan (b. in 1640; d. in 1718); and a grandson, Rev. George (b. in 1683; d. in 1717) who was the author of the pedigree chart given on p. 8 of the Corwin Gen. That Matthias Corwin, the first settler on L. I., was a brother of George, above, appears in the chart; in the Hist. Coll. Essex Inst., 17. 331; and in the New Eng. Hist'l & Gen'l Reg., 26. 343.

Matthias 1 came from England to Ipswich, Mass., before 1634. He appears in the Records of that Town, 1635-1639. In 1639-1640, he removed to Southold, L. I. (Corwin Gen. Also Thompson's "Long Island." Also Whitaker's "Southold") Griffin ("Journal," pp. 15, 16) states that he was one of the 13 original settlers there, in 1641. His name appears, in 1652, in the Printed Records of the Town, 1. 12; and, on Dec. 11, 1656, he was one of five appointed to order the Town's affairs. (Town Rec., 1. 330) He d. in 1658. His will, dated Aug. 31, 1658, names wife, Margaret; dau., Martha; and sons, John 2 and Theophilus 2. (Town Rec., 1. 442, 443) The Records do not mention a son, Daniel 2, who is named by Moore. ("Index," pp. 14, 74-76)

Moore and the Corwin Gen. make so many conflicting statements that (unless otherwise noted) the later researches of Prof. Robert N. Corwin are followed in what appears, below.

John 2, d. Sept. 24, 1702. (Salmon Rec.) The Census of 1698 and his will, proved Oct. 14, 1702 (Pelletreau's "Early L. I. Wills"), showed that his sons were: John 3, b. in 1663, d. in 1729; Matthias 3, b. in 1676, d. in 1769; and Samuel 3, d. in 1705. John 3 had sons: Benjamin 4, d. in 1721; John 4, b. in 1705, d. in 1754; and David 4. (Corwin Gen. Also Prof. R. N. C.)

Theophilus 2, m. Mary ———; d. between 1686 and 1692. His Wid. m. Samuel Youngs. (Southold Town Rec., 2. 286) His sons (Census of 1686 and 1698) were: Theophilus 3, below; John 3; Daniel 3, below; and Samuel 3, b. in 1706, d. in 1784.

Theophilus 3, b. in 1678; d. Mar. 18, 1772, aged 84. His wife, Hannah Ramsey, d. Aug. 11, 1760, aged 77. (Tombstones at Mattituck) His will mentions: sons—Samuel 4 (deceased), Timothy 4 and Jonathan 4; grandsons—David 5 (son of Samuel 4), Theophilus 5 (eldest grandson), Theophilus, Jr., 5 and Amaziah 5 (father deceased); only dau.—Hannah Harvey 4; grand-dau.—Annie 5. (N. Y. Wills, 23. 391. Also Southold Town Rec., 2. 5, 8-19) The will of John, proved July 1, 1740 (N. Y. Wills, 13. 421), mentions wife Elizabeth, father Theophilus and brother Samuel; from which it might seem that he was John 4, another son of Theophilus 3.

Daniel 3, m. (1) Mary, dau. of Simeon Ramsey, and sister of Hannah, wife of his brother Theophilus 3. (See will of Simeon Ramsey—N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y Coll., 1893) He m. (2) Jan. 21, 1723, Elizabeth Cleaves (Salmon Rec.), who d. in 1774, aged 86. (Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton) His will, proved in Oct., 1747, mentions: wife, Elizabeth; sons—Nathan 4, Daniel 4 (b. in 1726, d. about 1800), Jedediah 4 (b. in 1728, d. in 1799), Silas 4 (b. in 1731, d. in 1806) and John 4 (b. in 1732, d. in 1815); several daughters; and grandsons—Edward 5 and Separate 5.

Those of the Family who were Refugees suffered much loss of property. (Page 193)

CORWIN AMAZIAH 5 (Timothy 4, below, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1; brother of Thomas, below)—From Southold to Lyme, in 1779. (Corwin Gen.) As he favored the Prov'l Cong., the Tories soon compelled him to seek refuge in Conn. On Apr. 11, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. for grain, salt, &c. (Page 115. Also F. 115) He served in Conn. (G. 87) An Amaziah was a pensioner, in 1833. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," Page 428)

Prof. Corwin thinks it possible that he was Amaziah 5 (John 4, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1), own cousin to Amaziah, son of Timothy, above. If there were two Amaziahs, the elder must have been the Refugee and the soldier.

The younger Amaziah, bapt. Jan. 31, 1762; m. Joanna Brown, Apr. 3, 1785. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) He d. Oct. 2, 1841, aged 79; his Wid., Joanna, d. Aug. 6, 1842, aged 89; his son, Webb 6, d. Aug. 29, 1838, aged 40. (Tombstones at Mattituck) He had five children, including Timothy 6, Ebenezer 6, Samuel 6 and Amaziah 6. (Mr. James F. Young)

CORWIN JAMES 5, CAPT. (John 4, 3, 2, Matthias 1)—From Southold to Guilford, Sept., 1776, with four in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leete (C. 94); and, Oct. 6, by Capts. Edward Benton and John Gears. (C. 35) On May 29, 1779, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y. of Conn. for relief from taxation; which was granted (E. 12); and, on Oct. 28, 1779, he was allowed to go to L. I. to secure the movable estate belonging to his wife—her father having lately deceased at Southold. (D. 36) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in 1776, he brought a part of the effects of Thomas Hutchinson from L. I. to Guilford. (C. 82)

Two of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) One of them may have been the Refugee; and the other, the Capt.

The James who was probably the Refugee, had (Census of Southold, 1776): Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. ; m. Feb. 17, 1763, Prudence, dau. of Lt. John, and sister of Rev. Benjamin, Goldsmith. (Salmon Rec. See also Goldsmith)

JAMES CORWIN—MATTITUCK, L. I.

On June 10, 1785, he was recommended from the Church at Southold to the Church at Guilford, Conn.; and accepted. (Salmon Rec.) He had a dau., Lydia. (New Eng. Hist'l & Gen'l Reg., 58. 302; and 59. 63. Also Smith's "Guilford," p. 102)

The other James (perhaps, also, James 5), b. at Mattituck, L. I., Aug. 22, 1741; m. Oct. 27, 1763, Mehitable, dau. of William Horton (Salmon Rec. and Corwin Gen. See also Horton); d. Nov. 9, 1791. His wife d. Oct. 27, 1795. His children were: William 6, George 6, Martin L. 6, James 6, Mehitable 6, Benjamin 6, Elizabeth 6, John 6 and Moses 6. (Salmon Rec.) He built the "Old Corwin House" in 1763. (See illustration) His brother, Dea. John 5, d. in this house, in 1817; and Dea. John's son, Maj. John 6, d. there in 1816. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 53) He removed to a place near Middletown, N. Y., with his wife, and both d. there. (Corwin Gen. p. 102) A grandson of Martin L., Martin 8, now (1910) lives at Howell's Depot, Orange Co., N. Y. (Mr. James F. Young)

CORWIN JONATHAN 5 (Jonathan 4, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1; brother of Selah, below)—From Southold to Norwich, in Sept., 1776. On May 30, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y. of Conn. for permission to return with his family and property that he might aid his infirm parents; negative (E. 81)—although he was well recommended by prominent men of Norwich who stated that he had married in Conn., while a Refugee. (E. 82, 83) He then, Feb. 21, 1781, petitioned again, stating that he had a father on L. I.; that his own family consisted of his wife and two small children; and that, beginning in 1777, he had served for two campaigns in the Conn. Line. (E. 84) This petition was granted. (E. 85)

The name of Jonathan appears several times in the records of the War: Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); 3d Line (G. 46); and in Conn. (G. 87) One of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15)

Two Jonathans, from Southold, appear in the Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. Also: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

There were several Jonathans who descended from the emigrant, Matthias, through both sons, John and Theophilus. Taking the line of Theophilus as the probable one, we have Jonathan 4, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1, as given above. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 75. Also Corwin Gen.) The latter was probably the elder Jonathan named in the Census. He was b. in Dec., 1721; d. Apr. 11, 1798. (Tombstone at Mattituck) He m. Dec. 15, 1748, Rachel, dau. of Isaac and Phebe Howell. (Salmon Rec. Also Craven's "Mattituck," p. 113) She was b. in 1729; d. May 14, 1785. (Corwin Gen. Also Salmon Rec. as to d.) She d. May 17, 1785, aged 56. (Tombstone at Mattituck) She d. May 10, 1785. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. Also Goldsmith Rec.) They had six sons and three daughters. (Suffolk Co. Wills—Lib. A., p. 528) Among the children were: Jonathan 5, bapt. July 28, 1754; Selah 5, bapt. Jan. 16, 1757 (both of them Refugees, below); Rachel 5, b. Dec. 9, 1772, d. Dec. 10, 1792; Jason 5, b. May 2, 1773, d. Apr. 12, 1775 (Mattituck Ch. Rec.); Isaac 5, bapt. in 1759, d. Sept. 10, 1777; Hannah 5, bapt. July 22, 1764; Infant 5, d. Oct. 7, 1777; Richard 5, d. Nov. 21, 1767. (Prof. R. N. C.)

The Refugee, Jonathan 5, bapt. July 28, 1754; m. (1) May 26, 1774, Elizabeth Corwin; d. Jan. 4, 1785. (Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 322, 346) He was the younger Jonathan named in the Census; and the one with the record of Military service. It is probable that he m. (2) Feb. 4, 1778, Hannah Hazen, of Norwich, Conn. (Norwich Ch. Rec.) The Wid., Hannah, and children, Hannah 6, Jason 6 and Rebecca 6, bapt. Oct. 30, 1785. (Craven, p. 292) She m. (2) June 19, 1794, John Howell; d. Dec. 25, 1831, aged 78. (Craven, p. 333)

Jonathan Corwin

CORWIN MARY, WID.—From Southold. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with her effects, she was brought over to Conn. by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) Her dau., Mary d. May 3, 1772, aged 25; and she d. in 1784. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) If she was the "Widow Corwin" in the Census of 1776, she had a son and two daughters, all over 16 years old. (A. 55)

CORWIN NATHAN 5 (Nathan 4, Daniel 3, Theophilus 2, Matthias 1)—From Southold to Guilford, with his wife and two children, Sept. 17, 1776, by Capt. Onis Farnam; also his effects, Oct. 26, 1776, by Capt. Jonathan Vail. (C. 34) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36, 37); and also in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) In Capt. Paul Reeve's Co., Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 37, reference above) Nathan is stated to have been 27, in 1776; and Nathan Jr., 16. The former was the Refugee, according to Prof. Robert N. Corwin. The latter, m. June 14, 1781, Lydia Young (Mattituck Ch. Rec.); d. June 21, 1830. (Salmon Rec. Also Tombstone at Aquebogue) He was Nathan 5, Jedediah 4, Daniel 3, Theophilus 2, Matthias 1. (Prof. R. N. C.)

Nathan 4, above (Daniel 3, Theophilus 2, Matthias 1), b. in 1714; m. in Feb., 1737, Phebe Howell; d. before 1783. His Wid. d. June 20, 1783. (Salmon Rec. Also Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton) Apparently he was not in the Census of 1776.

Nathan 5, the Refugee, son of Nathan 4, b. about 1749; m. Aug. 5, 1771, Mary Williamson. He had: Mehitable 6, bapt. Sept. 20, 1772; Phebe 6, bapt. May 2, 1773; Nathan Howell 6, bapt. June 2, 1776; James 6, bapt. Sept.

Nathan Corwin

18, 1785; and perhaps another child. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55)

CORWIN NATHANIEL—From Southold to Lyme. On Aug. 19, 1778, the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. authorized the Selectmen of Lyme to permit him to go to L. I. for his effects; and to return to L. I. if they thought it expedient. (D. 17) On Apr. 24, 1782, he was permitted to go to L. I. and return (F. 55); and, on Nov. 1, 1782, liberty was granted him to return to L. I. with his family, cattle, &c. (F. 83) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) His ancestry up to Matthias, the emigrant, is not traced; and his age is not recorded. He m. Deborah Hutchinson, Jan. 1, 1767; d. Oct. 20, 1783. In the Census of 1776 he is stated to have had three children; eventually, he had five—all sons but one. He is buried in the Southold Cemetery. (Corwin Gen. Also Southold Ch. Rec.)

CORWIN PETER 5 (Silas 4, Daniel 3, Theophilus 2, Matthias 1)—He is said to have been a Refugee. He was b. in 1762; bapt., at Aquebogue, July 22, 1764; d. Sept. 30, 1850. He m. Jemima Youngs, Apr. 1, 1787. She was b. June 30, 1766; d. June 25, 1850. (Corwin Gen. Also Mattituck and Aquebogue Ch. Rec.) She was a dau. of Israel 5 Youngs, the Refugee. (See Youngs) Their dau., Elizabeth Halliok 6, bapt. Sept. 28, 1788—the parents living at "Nu Burge," N. Y.; their son, Israel Youngs 6, bapt. June 9, 1793—the parents at "Goshen," N. Y. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) There were four other daughters. It is said that he left the Island for Morris Co., N. J., in 1794. His son, Israel 6, d., unmarried, at Minisink, N. Y., in 1846; and his will is at Goshen, N. Y. (Mr. James F. Young)

Another Peter, son of Joshua, b. Dec. —, 1757; d. Sept. 20, 1779. There is no record of his removal from L. I. (J. F. Y.)

CORWIN SELAH 5 (Jonathan 4, above, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1; brother of Jonathan, above)—From Mattituck to Lyme. On Apr. 11, 1780, he was allowed to return to L. I. for grain, flax, &c. (Page 115. Also F. 115) He served in Conn. (G. 87)

He was bapt. at Mattituck, Jan. 16, 1757; date of death not given. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) He m. (no date given) Johanna Halleck, b. in 1757. (Hallock Ancestry) She d. May 11, 1846, aged 89. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Their children were: Rachel 6, b. in 1785; Joanna 6; Lydia 6; Selah 6; Elizabeth 6; Lydia 6; Lucretia 6; Maria 6; and Peter 6. (Hallock Ancestry, p. 63)

CORWIN THOMAS 5 (Timothy 4, below, Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1; brother of Amaziah, above)—From Southold to Lyme. On Feb. 12, 1778, he, with others, petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief, they having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs; granted in May, 1778. On Apr. 11, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. for grain, flax, &c. (E 4-9) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and probably in Conn. (G. 87)

He was b. at Mattituck, in 1752; m. July 11, 1776, Elizabeth Clark, who was b. in 1757. (Corwin Gen. Also Mattituck Ch. Rec.) He d. Feb. 16, 1826, aged 74; his Wid., Elizabeth, d. Sept. 15, 1832, aged 75. Their son Thomas 6, d. Mar. 7, 1856, aged 70. (Tombstones at Mattituck) They had six sons and four daughters. (Corwin Gen.)

CORWIN TIMOTHY 4 (Theophilus 3, 2, Matthias 1; father of Amaziah and Thomas, above)—From Southold to Guilford, with three in the family, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) One of his name served in the 4th Orange (G. 75); and another applied for a pension. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 272)

A Capt. Timothy Corwin (Page 239) brought over to Conn. a number of sheep, &c. for Israel Youngs, Sept. 26, 1776; but which Timothy it was does not appear. (C. 160) A Serjt. Timothy fell at Forts Clinton and Montgomery, Oct. 6, 1777. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," pp. 549, 550)

Returning to Timothy, the Refugee—He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. ———; m., Jan. 24, 1750, Mary Webb; d. at Franklinville (now Laurel), Aug. 30, 1792. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Beside his two sons who were Refugees, he had Timothy, who m. Apr. 13, 1775, Jemima Brown. (Same Rec.)

CROWDER—COWDER JONATHAN—He is described as a Refugee from N. Y., resident in Stamford, Conn., who m. Sally Hoit, May 31, 1781. (Stamford Ch. Rec.) He may have been related to Anthony Crowder who served in the 1st Line. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 20)

CRANE—Benjamin 1, probably from Mass., was in Wethersfield, Conn., by 1655. He was b. about 1630; m. Mary Backus. He had nine children—of whom: Lt. Jonathan 2, b. Dec. 1, 1658; m. Deborah Griswold; d. June 6, 1735. He had 10 children—of whom: Joseph 3, b. at Windham, Conn., May 17, 1696; m. about 1719, Mary Couch; d. Aug. 20, 1781. He removed to Fairfield, Conn.; and thence to South East, now in Putnam Co., N. Y. He had eight children. (Crane Gen.) He may have m. (2) Sarah Scudder; for, on Jan. 11, 1799, Sarah Scudder (See Scudder), Wid. of a Joseph Crane, petitioned for compensation relative to land in Jessup's Patent sold by the Comm'rs of Forfeitures. (Ass'y Jour.)

CRANE JOSEPH 4, DR. AND CAPT. (Joseph 3, Lt. Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1)—From L. I. to Dutchess Co., N. Y. On Oct. 8, 1781, John Field wrote to Gov. Clinton, from So. East Precinct, asking permission for his wife and the wife of Dr. Joseph Crane to go, with a Flag, from Stamford, Conn., to Oyster Bay, or Mosquito Cove, L. I., as they both had aged and infirm parents on the Island; and also considerable property. (Clinton Pap., 7. 387) He was a Capt. in the 2d Orange (G. 73); and a Prisoner on L. I. (Page 124. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 41) He was a Surg. in the 3d Dutchess (G. 65); and he served in Conn. (G. 87) He was connected with the Hospital service (Page 180); and was one of a Committee to make discoveries and assays of Sulphur, Lead, &c. (Pages 108, 110. Also Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 30. 41)

He appears in the proceedings of the Prov'l Cong. as follows: Feb. 26, 1776—Memorial stating his service in 1775, and asking for the command of an Art'y Co.; Mar. 16, 1776—Recommended as Capt. Lt. of Capt. John Grinnell; Mar. 30, 1776—Resignation of Grinnell and appointment of Capt. Sebastian Bauman; Apr. 2, 1776—Joseph Crane commissioned as Capt. Lt. He was a Delegate from Dutchess Co. to the 4th Prov'l Cong., or Convention. (Civil List) On Nov. 18, 1784, he described himself "of Dutchess County" in petitioning for relief from prosecution on account of goods seized under a Flag of France. (B. 18)

He was b. Oct. 2, 1722; m. Esther Belden; d. Oct. 14, 1800. He had 13 children, of whom: Dr. and Capt. Joseph 5, b. Feb. 13, 1749; d. Nov. 21, 1825. (Crane Gen.) Joseph 5, m. in 1775, Rosannah Cock. (Mr. George W. Cocks) It is claimed by some that many of the activities credited to Dr. and Capt. Joseph 4, above, really belonged to the son, Dr. and Capt. Joseph 5; but the probabilities are in favor of the father.

CROSSMAN—John 1 came from England to Taunton, Mass., in 1639. His son, Robert 2, m. Sarah Kingsbury. A son of Robert 2, John 3, b. in 1654; m. in 1689, Joanna Thayer; d. in 1727. A son of John 3, Benjamin 4, b. in 1708; m. in 1737, Bethiah Haskins; d. in 1792. All of the above lived at Taunton. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 77 et seq.)

CROSSMAN ABNER 5 (Benjamin 4, John 3, Robert 2, John 1)—In Oct., 1777, Capt. Jabez Gregory was permitted to bring his effects from L. I. to Conn. (F. 21) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

He was b. at Taunton, Mar. 18, 1746; m. Apr. 11, 1776, at Queens Village (now Lloyd's Neck), Betsey Barker; d. Dec. 25, 1812. He is buried at Lloyd's Neck. (G. and B. Rec., as above) He may have been the father of Gilbert Crossman who m. Betsey Finch, of Lloyd's Neck. She was b. in 1770.

CRUTTENDEN JONATHAN—On Oct. 12, 1782, he was permitted to go to L. I. and to bring back to Conn. household goods &c. (F. 74) He served in Conn. (G. 87)

It is possible that he descended from Abraham Cruttenden who settled at Guilford, Conn., in 1639; m. Mary ———; d. in 1669. (Maltby Gen.)

CULVER—COLVER—This Family descends from Edward 1, the emigrant, who came to Dedham, Mass.; moved thence to Roxbury, Mass., and to Groton, New London and Mystic, Conn. He was b. in Groton, Eng., about 1600; came in the ship with Gov. Winthrop; and received grants of land, in 1652 and 1654, for services in the Pequot War and in building the Fort. He m. Ann, dau. of John Ellis, in 1638; d. in Groton, in 1685. (Dedham Rec.) He had several children, of whom: Gershom 2, bapt. Dec. 3, 1648 (Howell's "Southampton," p. 228. Also Caulkins' "New London," p. 309); bapt. Sept. 20, 1646; m. Mary Howell; d. in June, 1716. (Mr. Frederick B. Richards) Gershom 2 had several children, of whom: David 3, b. in 1680; Gershom 3, who had a son Gershom 4. (Howell, as above, pp. 228, 229) David 3, b. in 1675; d. in 1756. (Dr. J. E. Culver)

CULVER DAVID 4 (David 3, Gershom 2, Edward 1; father of David, Jr., below)—From Southampton to Hebron. On Oct. 23, 1782, he was allowed to go to L. I. and to bring back household goods &c. (F. 77) He served in Willett's Levies (G. 62); also in Conn. (G. 87) He was at the Battle of Germantown. ("Year Book, Sons of Rev'n, State of N. Y."—1909, p. 390) He was from Northampton, L. I. (F. B. R.)

He was b. in 1716; m. in 1758, Mary Young; d. Aug. 3, 1814. (F. B. R.) Among his children were: David 5, below; Mary 5, m. Dec. 3, 1786, Rev. Caleb D. Rogers, of Springfield, Mass.; and John 5, m. Feb. —, 1782, Dinah Post. (Dr. J. E. C.)

CULVER DAVID, JR. 5 (Son of David, above)—Probably from Southampton to Hebron with his father. He, also, served in Conn. (G. 87); but as the Conn. Recs. do not distinguish the service of father and son, consult the Year Book, mentioned above.

He was b. Sept. 1, 1758; m. (1) June 4, 1786, Abigail E. M. Curtice; d. Mar. 4, 1848. She d. Oct. 6, 1797. He had, by his first wife: David 6, b. June 2, 1787; Ira Y. 6, b. Jan. 5, 1789; Anson 6, b. July 25, 1790; Asahel 6, b. June 22, 1792; Abigail 6, b. Aug. 21, 1794; and James 6, below. He m. (2) Nov. 18, 1798, Lucy Clark—by whom he had: Benjamin 6, b. Sept. 2, 1800; Alvah 6, b. June 29, 1803; Seba 6, b. Dec. 29, 1805; Martha 6, b. July 6, 1809; and Mary 6, b. July 22, 1811. He m. (3) in 1824, Mary French—by whom he had: Samuel J. 6, b. Dec. 27, 1825; and Silas N. 6, b. Sept. 9, 1828. (F. B. R.)

James 6, b. Sept. 11, 1796; m. June 19, 1823, Kezia Lee (Salisbury's Gen.); d. Apr. 15, 1872. The 10 children of James 6, all b. at Sandy Hill, N. Y. (as shown in the Rec. of F. B. R.), were:

His children were: Mary Richards 8, b. in N. Y. City, June 11, 1889; and Edward Peck 8, b. at Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Nov. 4, 1892.

Thomas Lee 7, b. May 31, 1844; m. at Fort Miller, N. Y., June 3, 1885, Anna DeGarmo (b. Sept. 15, 1862, d. Aug. 30, 1892); d. in N. Y. City, Sept. 2, 1911. His children were: Stewart Lee 8, b. in N. Y. City, Aug. 9, 1887, d. July 13, 1889; James Lee 8, b. at Jersey City Heights, Mar. 25, 1891, d. Apr. 8, 1892.

William Lee 7, b. Sept. 24, 1846; drowned in the Hudson River, at Sandy Hill, Aug. 1, 1860.

CULVER GERSHOM 5 (Gershom 4, 3, 2, Edward 1; father of William, below)—From Southampton to Saybrook and Rocky Hill, with eight passengers, Sept. 24, 1776. (C. 36) On July 25, 1778, he receipted for the claim of Elias Peirson and brother. (C. 126) On Nov. 16, 1779, he was permitted to go to L. I. after grain &c. (D. 47 and E. 49); and, on Mar. 28, 1780, he was permitted to go over and bring away his effects. (D. 47) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 12); and it is mentioned that he was 86 years old at the time. In the Census of 1776 he appears as the sole survivor of his family, and "over 50 years old." (A. 53) He returned to Southampton. Gershom Culver (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

CULVER WILLIAM 6 (Son of Gershom, above)—From Southampton On Oct. 12, 1782, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family of four, his household goods, &c. (F. 64) He served in Conn. (G. 87); and afterward returned to Southampton. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

In the Census of 1776, beside one female over 16 years old, probably his wife, he had a son under 16 years old. (A. 53) This must have been his son, Merritt 7, who m. Caroline———; and had: William 8, George 8, Charles 8, and others. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 229) He had a son Merritt; whose son, Henry Culver, is now (1911) one of the Trustees of Southampton Village. (W. S. P.)

DAINS—DANES—John 1, b. in 1674; m. (1) Abigail Pain, (2) Wid. Mary Overton who d. his Wid. He d. May 14, 1751. Among his children was Peter 2, living in 1760. (Moore's "Index," p. 76) Later information than Moore comes from a Family Bible in the hands of the descendants of Peter, the Refugee, below. From this, and from other records, we learn that Abraham 1 Daynes is said to have m. Dec. 27, 1670, Sarah, dau. of William Peake.

DAINS PETER 2 (John 1)—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept., 1776, with three in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leete (C. 94); also, Southold to Guilford, Sept. and Oct., 1776, with nine passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) The second named reference states that he was from Shelter Island or Southold. It was probably the latter. Census of 1776, in Southold: Males—above 16 years, 3. Females—above 16, 5; under 16, 3. (A. 55) Hon. Henry P. Hedges thought he was from Bridge Hampton; the name being common there, and two who bore it having signed the Woolworth Agreement of 1787. (H. 34) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

John 3 Dains, son of Peter 2, is said to have m. Susan Stevens, Nov. 21, 1777. He d. aged 34, and is probably buried at Southold. Peter Dains 4, son of John 3, b. at Guilford, Conn., Oct. 14, 1780; m. Nancy Jayne; d. July 20, 1864. He is buried in the Old Parish Burying Ground at Patchogue, L. I. Nelson 5, son of Peter 4, b. at Oakdale, L. I., Aug. 13, 1811; m. Nov. 26, 1831, Eliza, dau. of Jonathan Smith; d. Apr. 8, 1885. He lived at Blue Point, L. I.; and is buried in the Cedar Grove Cemetery, Patchogue. Among his children were Thomas 6 and Ruth Amelia 6.

Thomas 6, b. at Patchogue, Jan. 12, 1835; m. Sept. 16, 1855, Sarah Smith, dau. of John Bunyan Hallock; d. Feb. 13, 1910. His son, William Thomas 7, b. at Blue Point, Mar. 12, 1859; m. June 12, 1881, Sarah Terry, dau. of Albert Thompson Moger. He now (1912) lives at Patchogue; and has a son, Albert Spencer 8, b. Mar. 22, 1898.

Ruth Amelia 6, b. at Blue Point, Nov. 14, 1846; m. Dec. 2, 1866, George D., son of Daniel G. and Charlotte, Gerard; d. Aug. 11, 1899. Her son, Wilmot Davison Gerard, b., at Patchogue, Oct. 4, 1875; m. Oct. 4, 1899, Lilly May, dau. of William H. and Nancy Parsons. He now (1912) lives at Patchogue.

DARROW—George 1 came to New London, Conn., between 1675 and 1680. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 264) He had sons: Christopher 2, bapt. Dec. 1, 1678, m. Elizabeth Packer; George 2, bapt. Oct. 17, 1680, m. (1) Mary , m. (2) Elizabeth Marshall; Nicholas 2, bapt. May 20, 1683. (Caulkins, p. 347)

George 1 m. Mary ; d. in 1698. Nicholas 2, m. Millicent, dau. of Thomas Beebe. His son, Nicholas 3, b. Mar. 9, 1731; m. Mary Griffin. George 3, son of Christopher 2, b. Aug. 11, 1706. (Miss Lucretia W. Smith)

DARROW JOHN (Perhaps a son of Nicholas 3 or George 3)—From Southold to Guilford, Sept., 1776, with five in the family, by Capt. Jasper Griffing. (C. 59) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

John Darrow, of Southampton, b. in 1739; d. aged 90. (Griffin's "Journal" p. 95) He may have been a son of Major Christopher Darrow, of the French and Indian War, who lived in the North Parish, Norwich, Conn.; or, of Elder Zadoc Darrow who lived at Waterford, near Norwich. The name is common in New London to-day. The late Capt. Leavitt Darrow, of Thomaston, Conn., may have been a relative of John Darrow.

DAVENPORT—This Family, in America, is from Rev. John 1, b. in Coventry, Eng., in 1597. In 1637, he arrived at Boston in the "Hestor," and settled in New Haven in 1638. He was pastor of the First Church. He m. Elizabeth Wooley; and they d. Mar. 15, 1669, and Sept., 1676, respectively. His son, John 2, b. in 1635, in London, came to New Haven in 1639; and, in 1666, removed to Boston, where he d. in 1676. He m. Abigail, dau. of Abraham Pierson. Rev. John 3, b. in Boston, in 1669; graduated at Harvard, in 1687, and was ordained at Stamford, Conn., in 1694, where he continued as Pastor until his death, Feb. 5, 1731. By his first wife, Mrs. Martha (Gould) Selleck, he had seven children; one of whom, Martha, m. Rev. Eleazer Wheelock, the first President of Dartmouth College. By his second wife, Mrs. Elizabeth (Morris) Maltby, he had sons; Col. Abraham 4, and Rev. James 4. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 270, 271. Also "Picturesque Stamford," p. 61 et seq.)

Col. Abraham Davenport 4, (Rev. John 3, John 2, Rev. John 1) b. at Stamford, in 1715; graduated from Yale, in 1732. He m. (1) in 1750, Elizabeth Huntington; (2) Mrs. Martha Fitch. He became Judge; and, in his later life, was a Member of the Conn. Senate, during which time he distinguished himself by an act of which Whittier wrote:

On the memorable "dark day," May 17, 1780, when in his place in the Senate chamber, he declined to show the fear which prevailed among his colleagues. To a proposition to adjourn he replied: "I am against adjournment. The Day of Judgment is either approaching or it is not. If it is not, there is no cause for adjournment; if it is, I choose to be found doing my duty. I wish, therefore, that candles may be brought." (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 381-383. Also "Picturesque Stamford," p. 69 et seq.)

Ab. m Davenport

Rev. James Davenport 4 (Rev. John 3, John 2, Rev. John 1) b., at Stamford, in 1716; graduated from Yale, in 1732; ordained as the fourth pastor at Southold, L. I., Oct. 26, 1738; and dismissed in 1746. (Hedges' "Bridge Hampton Address"—1876. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 397) He was a friend of the Evangelist Ferris, and a leader in the "New Light" Movement. (Page 151)

DAVENPORT JAMES 5 (Son of Rev. James 4, above)—On Sept. 26, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. for his wife and his effects. (F. 17) He served in the 1st Line (G. 43); and probably in Conn. (G. 88)

DAVENPORT JOHN 5, REV. (Son of Rev. James 4, above)—Probably a Refugee. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 119) Having recently graduated from Princeton, he was ordained, in June, 1774, by the Presbytery in East Hampton, L. I., and was directed to supply the Churches of Mattituck and Cutchogue alternately until the next stated meeting. He continued to supply them for two years. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16)

On Dec. 28, 1775, he m. the Wid. of Rev. Nehemiah Barker, the ceremony being performed by Rev. John Storrs. He was then 23 years of age, and his wife's oldest daughter was 20. Prime tells us that "notwithstanding the disparity in their ages" this proved a happy marriage. After leaving Mattituck and Cutchogue, in 1776, he continued for several years within the bounds of Suffolk Presbytery, and then removed to Deerfield, N. J. He died at Lysander, N. Y., July 13, 1821. (Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 117, 150, 319. Also Whitaker's "Southold," p. 321. Also Huntington's "Stamford," p. 386)

A John Davenport appears in the Census of 1776, in Southold: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55)

DAVIS—An Eben, or Evan, appears in the Southold Rec., 1683-1712. He d. in 1719. His son, Silvanus, b. in 1698; m. (1) Mary Moore, (2) Mary Gillam; d. in 1781. Eben probably had Benjamin, and others. (Moore's "Index," p. 76) It may have been this Benjamin who came from Scotland. (Steiner's "Guilford etc.," p. 138) John was an early settler in Brookhaven. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

DAVIS BENJAMIN ()—From Southold, probably, to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, his effects were transported to Guilford. (C. 37) He d. at Southold, June 10, 1805, aged 76. (Salmon Rec.) He served in the 2d Line, Pawling's and Dubois' Levies; and he may have served in the 4th Orange. (G. 44, 59, 61, 73) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

DAVIS DANIEL ()—From Brookhaven to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with 12 in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He was in Col. Smith's Regt., and in the 7th Co. (G. 7, 35); also in the 1st Line, Additional Corps, and in Pawling's Levies. (G. 43, 54, 61) He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and probably in Conn. (G. 88) He may have been the Daniel Davis who was killed at Fort Griswold. He was a descendant of John, of Brookhaven. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 27)

The above Military record may include two of the same name; as there were two in the Census of 1776. The first: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. The second: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 4. (A. 51)

A Daniel, m. Mar. 24, 1789, Johannah Robins. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)
DAVIS ISAAC, LT. ()—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1. Also Mil. Ret., 26. 63, 81, 84) It is possible that he served in Conn. (G. 88) Several of the name, from Brookhaven, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 19, 21, 26, 27)

He was b. Oct. 4, 1741; d. Apr. 20, 1814. (Tombstone at Coram)

An Isaac appears in the Census of 1776, in Southold. He was under 50 years old; and his wife (probably) over 16. There were no children. (A. 55)

DAVIS JAMES, LT. ()—From Southold to Guilford. (Steiner's "Guilford etc.," p. 138) In Sept., 1776, with five in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He was 2d Lt. in the 2d Brookhaven Co., Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1. Also Mil. Ret., 26. 81, 84) He may have served as a private in the 5th Line (G. 49); the 4th Orange (G. 75); and in Conn. (G. 88) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776, in Southold: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) If he was the James who m. Mary Bailey, then his dau., Lucretia, m. Capt. Melletiah Overton. (See Overton) He was a grandson of Benjamin, from Scotland; and he d. at Guilford, July 4, 1814. (Steiner, as above)

DAVIS JOHN, MAJ. ()—From East Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He was commissioned, by the Provincial Cong., as 1st Lt., June 29, 1775. (G. 1) He was 1st Lt. in the Suffolk County Co. of the 3d Line (G. 45); also, possibly, a private in the 4th Co. of Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24) He was Capt. in the 4th Line (B. 40. G. 48. Also Clinton Pap. 4. 5); and, as such, was at Fort Montgomery, in Jan., 1777. (A. 29) He was Maj. in the 4th Line (G. 47. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 510); and possibly he served in Conn. (G. 88) In Dec., 1776, he took arms and ammunition from the Tories on L. I. (A. 22) George Howell, a Refugee whose loyalty was questioned (See Howell), apparently had a grudge against Maj. Davis. (Clinton Pap., 7. 336, 337, 384, 584, 585) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26) Another John, from Brookhaven, also signed. (H. 27)

In 1780, Capt. Nathaniel Norton wrote to Gov. Clinton suggesting that he and Maj. John Davis be sent to L. I. for hard cash to be used as bounties for the Army. (Page 100. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 103) Later, Maj. Davis and Capt. John Grinnell were Agents of the Clothing Comm'rs to secure money and clothing on L. I. (Page 96. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 528, 529. Also Rev'y MSS, N. Y. State Library, Albany, 52. 67 A.) While on this duty, he was captured at Sag Harbor, Nov. 3, 1781. (Page 217. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 528, 529. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 106) In 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton as to permits to remove from L. I. (Page 192) During his captivity, the legality of his commission was questioned. (Clinton Pap., 7. 584, 585) He was imprisoned in N. Y. City; and, by tradition, d. of poison there. The Ch. Rec. of North Branford, Conn., has this entry:

Feb. 1782. Heard of the death of Major John Davis, being a prisoner in New York. He was a native of ye Island, and lived among us with his family on account of ye enemy having possession of ye Island—himself an officer in the Continental Army—supposed to be starved to death in Prison.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) In 1772, he m. Puah, dau. of John 4 Parsons. (See Parsons) His son, John Parsons, bapt. Nov. 23, 1777. (Northford, Conn., Ch. Rec.) Another John Davis is noticed among the "Captains of Ships" (Pages 239, 242, 243); another was a Capt. in the Albany and Tryon Militia; and still another, in the Penn. Line.

DAVIS JOSHUA ()—From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 23) He served in the 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 44, 46); perhaps in the 3d and the Ass'd Exempts of Orange (G. 74, 76); and probably in Conn. (G. 88)

He m. Jan. 1, 1783, Abigail Redfield, of Greenfield. (Fairfield, Conn., Ch. Rec.) It is stated therein that he was from L. I.

DAVIS WILLIAM ()—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 88) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 24, 26, 27) Another William, from Huntington, also signed. (H. 29)

DAVISON ISAAC ()—From Huntington or Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); also, in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10)

DAYTON—This family descends from Ralph 1 Dayton, Bedfordshire to Boston and New Haven, in 1639. He went thence to Southampton, and thence to East Hampton. He was a Representative, at Hartford, Conn. His son, Samuel 2, remained in Southampton; but afterward removed to Brookhaven, where he d. in 1690. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 229) His descendants are quite numerous in that Town, particularly in the villages of Patchogue and Port Jefferson. There are also some in the town of Riverhead; and others in the village of Speonk, in the town of Southampton. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Samuel 2 had a son Isaac 3, who removed to Setauket, and afterward to New Haven. From him are descended nearly all of the name in Conn. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 232. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 253-257) Moore ("Index," p. 14) states that Ralph 1 was in the Southold Rec., 1650. About 1655, he m. the Wid. of James Haines, of Southold. (Howell, as above) According to his will, his children were: Robert 2; Samuel 2; Alice 2 (m. Thomas Baker); and ——— 2 (m. Brinley). (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Robert 2 had a son Beriah 3. The East Hampton branch descends from Robert 2. (Howell, as above)

DAYTON CHARLES R. 8 (Josiah C. 7, Josiah 6, Capt. John 5, John 4, Beriah 3, Robert 2, Ralph 1)—of East Hampton. While he was not a descendant of a Refugee in a direct line; yet his ancestry was connected closely with the ancestry of the Refugees. For this reason, and because of his service in preparing this work, it seems proper to record in this place the estimate of a personal friend.

He was b. at East Hampton, Dec. 25, 1828; m. Dec. 16, 1858, Sarah F. Sherrill; d. at East Hampton, May 9, 1911. In 1852, 1853, and 1856-1857, he was Engrossing Clerk of the N. Y. State Senate. His father had been a Member of the N. Y. State Assembly. In 1858 he was elected County Clerk of Suffolk Co., but he declined a renomination. From 1862 to 1865, he was Journal Clerk of the Assembly. In the latter year he became Journal Clerk of the Senate; and he was continued in that office by his political opponents through the exciting days of 1870 and 1871. In speaking of those days, he told the writer that, before he accepted the place, he had made two conditions:—first that he should not change his political faith; second, that he should be absolute master of the desk, so that no crooked work therein might be charged to his account. In 1872, he became the Clerk of the Senate; and from 1874 to 1877, he was the Assistant Clerk; and, later, he once more became the Journal Clerk. His service in the Senate covered about 30 years; after which he entered the insurance business, in N. Y. City; and then retired to East Hampton to spend the remainder of his days. His wife was a dau. of Hiram L. Sherrill. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 335. See also Sherrill) He left an only son, Charles S. Dayton, of East Hampton.

Those who knew Charles R. Dayton can bear witness to his kind disposition. In closing his tribute, the late Judge Henry P. Hedges wrote: "The Town of East Hampton may well exult in the honesty, the honorable career, the moral victory, the industrial public and private achievement of this one of her citizens." [Frederic G. Mather]

DAYTON EBENEZER, QR. MR. and CAPT. (Probably from Samuel 2)—From Coram, in Brookhaven, to Bethany (now Seymour), Conn. (Jour.

C. R. Dayton

Prov'l Cong.) In Sept., and later, 1776, he made three trips from Southold to Milford, carrying his family and effects. He then joined a detachment of Col. Henry B. Livingston's 4th Line. (C. 38) Previous to this, he had been Qr. Mr. of the East Hampton Co., Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 26) He also signed as Clerk. (H. 27) After the Battle of L. I., he made a report on the same (Page 173); and he took the pay rolls of Capt. Selah Strong's Co. to Conn. (Page 90)

He made many daring raids on L. I. (Pages 120, 203, 216)

The head of the banditti, who captured five vessels loaded with lumber and produce for the market of N. Y., was Ebenezer Dayton, a noted peddler who lately lived in Coram. (Livingston's "Gazette," May 20, 1778)

On Aug. 14, about 20 rebels, at Coram, made prisoners of Isaac Smith and five of his sons. I. Smith escaped. The well known Eben Dayton was at the head of this party. (Livingston—Aug. 28, 1779)

Between these adventures, on Nov. 20, 1778, with the sloop "Ranger," 45 men and 6 guns, he was taken in the South Bay by a British Privateer, and carried to N. Y. City.

(Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 78) Following this, there was another episode which is described in Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 195, 196:

Ebenezer Dayton, a merchant and pedlar, residing in Bethany, Connecticut, and travelling as such on Long Island and in East-Hampton before the Revolution, was widely known. In 1780 his store in Bethany was broken open and robbed of £450, in gold, silver and other property, by Tories from Long Island, who were arrested, convicted, sentenced, and escaped from prison to Canada. After the Revolution, Dayton visited East-Hampton with fancy goods for sale, arriving Saturday evening. On Sunday although having symptoms of the measles, and against the advice of the hostess who had entertained him, he persisted in attending Church service, thereby notifying the public of his presence by occupying a conspicuous seat in the Church, and indirectly advertising his goods. News of his indiscretion was spread over the town on the dismissal of the afternoon audience from the Church, and the indignation of the people was so obvious that he left in the early morning following. He was pursued by a few young men, overtaken, brought back to the village, rode on a rail through the street, ducked repeatedly in Town Pond, and subjected to other indignities before his release. Nearly one hundred took the measles, of whom several died. To this day tradition perpetuates the story of the "Dayton Measles." Col. Aaron Burr, then a young aspiring lawyer, advocated the suit of the pedlar, and under his powerful presentation the jury rendered a verdict of One Thousand Dollars, damages against the young men. One of them was a Chatfield whose father, to raise money for payment of the damages awarded against his son, sold "Chatfield Hill" to a Latham. Both Thompson and Prime record the tradition substantially as my mother told it. Popular opinion in that day justified the young men. The friends of those who died from the contagion so contracted were not moved by the verdict from that opinion. This is almost if not the only case where the supremacy of law has been questioned by the people of the Town, from its settlement.

DAYTON JESSE 5 (Beriah 4, 3, Robert 2, Ralph 1)—From East Hampton to Saybrook and Chester. In Sept., 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Chester, with three passengers and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was bapt. in 1735; m. Hannah ———, who d., in 1769. He had children: Susanna 6, Jacob 6, David 6, Jane 6, Martha 6, Hannah 6 and Jasper 6—the baptisms of whom are entered in the Ch. Rec. between 1761 and 1778. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

DERING—Henry 1 was a merchant, in Boston, Mass. He came from England, in 1639. His son, Henry 2, also a merchant, in Boston, m. (1) Ann Benning, (2) Elizabeth Atkinson. The latter was the mother of Thomas 3, below.

in 1784; and settled at Sag Harbor, where he was Collector of Customs and Post Master for many years. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 373)

He was b. July 3, 1763; m. Dec. 27, 1793, Anna Fosdick (see Fosdick); d. Apr. 30, 1822. Two of his nine children were: Lodowick Fosdick 5, below; and Anna Charlotte 5, below.

Lodowick Fosdick 5, b. Dec. 29, 1807; m. Apr. 23, 1840, Eliza Gracie Mulford; d. June 22, 1860. His children: Henry Packer, 2d, 6, below; and Edward Mulford 6, below. Henry Packer, 2d, 6, b. Apr. 3, 1842; m. Apr. 20, 1876, Martha Frederick; resides in Englewood, Ill.; and has a son, Frederick 7. Edward Mulford 6, b. Aug. 15, 1847; m. Mar. 8, 1880, Helene Field Raynor; resides in Philadelphia, Pa.; and has children—Marion R. 7, Helen F. 7, Eliza G. 7, Edward M. 7 and Gertrude B. 7.

Anna Charlotte 5, b. Jan. 2, 1811; m. Jan. 2, 1833, Wm. R. Sleight; d. Apr. 8, 1905. Sleight children: Brinley Dering 6, below; Hannah 6, below; William R., Jr., 6, resided in Maine, d. Feb. 12, 1901, and had children and grandchildren; and Anne F. 6, b. Apr. 9, 1851, and resides at Sag Harbor. Brinley Dering 6, b. Mar. 11, 1835; m. Oct. 17, 1865, Susan J. Hedges; has been a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y; resides at Sag Harbor, and has three sons. He graduated at Yale, in 1858. For 12 years he was a Magistrate in the Town of East Hampton; for 44 years, a member of the Board of Education, in Sag Harbor; for 53 years, editor of the "Sag Harbor Corrector;" and has been Pres't of the village of Sag Harbor. He was clerk of the Foreign Affairs Committee. U. S. House of Reps., 1886-1888; and Patent Comm'r, 1893-1895. Hannah 6, b. Mar. 30, 1841; m. Oct. 29, 1862, David Steuart; resides at Sag Harbor, and has children. (For the later Sleight descendants, see Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 180, 181)

MRS. MARY SYLVESTER DERING
(Painted by Blackburn in 1754)

DERING MARY SYLVESTER, MRS. She was a dau. of Brinley 3 Sylvester (Nathaniel 2, 1). She was b. in 1724; m. Mar. 9, 1756, Thomas Dering, below; d. Aug. 19, 1794. (Mallmann, p. 177) In 1776, she went to Middletown, Conn., with her husband and children—Elizabeth, Henry Packer and Sylvester. On Jan. 14, 1790, the N. Y. Senate received a petition from her, as a Wid. (Senate Jour.)

Inasmuch as five of the leading families among the Refugees—Dering, Gardiner, L'Homedieu, Lloyd and Prime—have a common Ancestor in Nathaniel Sylvester, it seems proper to outline the first three generations.

Nathaniel 1 Sylvester b. in England; m. in 1652, Grissel Brinley, dau. of Thomas and Anne Brinley. Thomas Brinley, b. at Exeter, Eng., in 1591; m. Anne Wase; d. in 1661. He was Auditor of the Revenues, of Kings Charles I, and II. (For a more complete account, see Moore's "Index," pp. 36-38, 115, 142, 143)

With his brother, Constant, and two others, Nathaniel purchased, June 9, 1651, of Stephen Goodyear, grantee of the Earl of Sterling, the great estate of Shelter Island. (See map on Page 219) Thomson's "History of Long Island" shows how the right of Constant was confiscated and sold to his brother Nathaniel by the Dutch Governor; and, also, how the Governor compelled payment. It was then known as Sylvester Manor, in the East Riding of Yorkshire.

Nathaniel is honored as having given protection and shelter to Shattuck and Southwick fugitives from the persecutions in Mass. under the successive rules of Governors Endicott and Bellingham. Hence the name Shelter Island; although some derive the name from the Indian term—"the Island sheltered by Islands." A Monument to his memory was erected, on the Island, by his L'Hommedieu descendants, July 17, 1884. (See Page 256)

Nathaniel 1 had 11 children, of whom: Grissel 2, b. Aug. 12, 1654; m. James Lloyd; Nathaniel 2, below; Patience 2, b. Nov. 1, 1664, m. in 1694, Benjamin L'Hommedieu, d. Nov. 2, 1719. Nathaniel 2, b. Dec. 31, 1661; m. Margaret, dau. of Isaiah Hobert, of East Hampton. He had four children, of whom: Brinley 3, below; Margaret 3, b. , m. Oct. 2, 1723, Rev. Ebenezer Prime, d. Sept. 26, 1726.

Brinley 3, b. Nov. 23, 1694; m. Dec. 2, 1718, Mary, dau. of Thomas Burroughs of N. Y. City; d. Dec. 24, 1752. He had two daughters; the younger of whom, Mary 4, m. Thomas Dering, below.

The original Manor House was built, by Nathaniel Sylvester, of yellow bricks from Holland. The present House was built by Brinley Sylvester, in 1735. An interesting account of the estate and the Manor House is given in Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 46, 47. Also in the Mag. Amn. Hist., Nov., 1887.

The several proprietors, to date, have been: Nathaniel Sylvester; Giles Sylvester, son of Nathaniel; Brinley Sylvester, son of Nathaniel 2d, and grandson of Nathaniel 1st, who d. in 1752; Thomas Dering's wife, daughter of Brinley Sylvester; Gen. Sylvester Dering, son of Thomas; Mary Catharine L'Hommedieu, dau. of Ezra L'Hommedieu (See L'Hommedieu), g. g. grand dau. of Nathaniel Sylvester 1st, niece of Sylvester Dering's wife, and wife of Samuel Smith Gardiner (See Gardiner); Phebe Gardiner Horsford, daughter of Samuel Smith Gardiner, wife of Prof. Eben N. Horsford, and g. g. granddaughter of Nathaniel Sylvester. The Manor House now (1912) belongs to his daughter, Miss Cornelia Horsford.

Gen. Sylvester Dering, 2d, states that the estate passed to Samuel Smith Gardiner by sale from the Widow and children of Gen. Sylvester Dering.

SYLVESTER MANOR, SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y.
(From Mallmann's "Shelter Island")

DERING SYLVESTER 4 GEN. (Thomas 3, below, Henry 2, 1)—From Shelter Island to Middletown, in 1776, along with his father, Thomas, his sister, Elizabeth, above, and his brother, Henry Packer, above. In May, 1779, he receipted for the claims of Selah Reeve and William Wells. (C. 130) On Mar. 28, 1780, he was permitted to bring grain &c., from L. I. (D. 47) On Oct. 17, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. and bring back certain moneys due his father. (F. 18) On Oct. 14, 1782, he petitioned to remove from L. I. certain effects of his aunt, Mrs. Sarah Thomas; which was negative. (E. 172, 173) He served in the Commissary Dept. of Conn. (G. 88) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) For some time he was a Maj. Gen. of the Militia. (N. Y. Council of Appointment Minutes. Also Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 102, 103. Also Thompson's "Long Island," i. 373) Mallmann, as above, gives the inscription on a tablet erected to his memory.

He was b. Nov. 27, 1758; m. Dec. 6, 1787, Esther Sarah, dau. of Nicoll and Sarah (Fosdick) Havens; d. Oct. 8, 1820. His children were: Margaret Sylvester 5; Charles Thomas 5; Sarah Frances 5; Nicoll Havens 5; and Henry Sylvester 5.

Margaret Sylvester 5, b. Sept. 11, 1789; m. Jan. 5, 1809, Rev. Richard F. Nicoll; d. Aug. 25, 1847. For her 10 children, see Mallmann, p. 178.

Sarah Frances 5, b. Feb. 24, 1792; not m.; d. Oct. 5, 1833. (Rev. Egbert C. Lawrence)

Nicoll Havens 5, M. D., b. Jan. 1, 1794; m. (1) June 6, 1826, Frances Huntington, (2) Oct. 1, 1844, Sarah H. Strong; d. Dec. 19, 1867. Among his seven children were: Anne Huntington 6, b. Aug. 16, 1828; m. July 1, 1856, Charles S. Wilson, of Utica, N. Y., d. Oct. 22, 1910; Sarah Sylvester 6, b. July 13, 1831, not m., d. May 10, 1893; Catharine Mary 6, b. Feb. 21, 1833, not m., d. Apr. 12, 1901; Frances Huntington 6, b. Nov. 18, 1834, not m., d. Feb. 7, 1901; Gen. Sylvester, 2d, 6, m. Feb. 24, 1864, Ella Virginia Bristol; resides in Utica, N. Y. His sons: Nicoll Havens 7, b. in 1865, d. y.; Brinley Sylvester 7, b. May 18, 1874. (Mallmann, as above. Also Gen. Sylvester Dering, 2d)

Henry Sylvester 5, M. D., b. Sept. 29, 1804; m. Apr. 29, 1839, Harriet Eliza Hulse; d. Oct. 2, 1871. His four children were: Sarah F. 6, b. Mar. 1, 1840, m. June 10, 1868, Rev. Edward P. Sprague, of Salem, N. Y., d. Mar. 6, 1910—surviving children, Vesta Dering Sprague, of Salem, and Dering J. Sprague, of Beaver, Pa.; Charles Thomas 6, b. Jan. 21, 1842, m. Oct. 26, 1875, Mary Bailey, d. Sept. 23, 1889; Mary Sylvester 6, b. Aug. 28, 1847,

m. Apr. 29, 1896, Rev. Egbert C. Lawrence, of Schenectady, N. Y.; and Henry 6, b. Dec. 8, 1850, m. Nov. 19, 1891, Carrie Sangston, and resides in New Brunswick, N. J. (Mallmann, as above. Also Rev. Egbert C. Lawrence)

DERING THOMAS 3 (Henry 2, 1)—From Shelter Island to Middletown. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with seven passengers and his effects, he was brought to Guilford by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) In Sept. and Nov., other of his effects were brought to Middletown by Capts. Jasper Griffing, James Jones and Ithamar Pelton. (C. 7)

The seven passengers, above noted, must have included Mr. Dering; his wife; his children Sylvester, Elizabeth and Henry Packer; and, probably, two servants. The portraits of Thomas Dering and his wife, Mary Sylvester, were furnished by Gen. Sylvester Dering, 2d.

Thom^d. Dering

He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) He was Chairman of the Shelter Island Committee, in 1776. In the N. Y. Prov'l Conv'n, July 26, 1776, it was stated that he and Ezra L'Hommedieu had given assurances that the stock at Montauk would be protected. (A. 3) On July 29, he paid $2,000 to Col. Josiah Smith for the bounties and equipments of his Regt. (G. 39) On Aug. 27, 1776 (the date of the Battle of Long Island) the N. Y. Committee of Safety appointed him, with others, to report measures for the sale of cattle on Nassau and Shelter Islands. (A. 10) On Nov. 26, the Committee of Safety provided for a Committee to collect the Accounts, or Claims, of those who had left L. I.; and, on Dec. 31, 1776, he was appointed a member of such Committee, along with John Foster and Capt. Thomas Wickham. (A. 21) On Mar. 17, 1777, the Committeemen, above noted, sent their Accounts to the Convention. (A. 37) On June 12, 1777, he was one of 45 Refugees to address a letter to the Committee of Safety, from Saybrook, asking permission to go to L. I. for supplies &c. (A. 43) In reply to this letter, the Council of Safety, June 27, 1777, appointed him, together with Col. John Hulbert and Obadiah Jones, a Committee to give permits to the Refugees in Conn. to pass to L. I. for their effects; and to remove certain of the said Refugees from Conn. to Dutchess Co., N. Y. (Page 172. Also A. 44) The appointment of the aforesaid Committee was approved by the Gov. and Council of Conn., July 3, 1777. (Page 172. Also D. 7) On Aug. 7, 1777, he and John Foster addressed the Council of Safety relative to the Claims of the Refugees; which letter was referred to the Aud. Gen. (A. 45) On Sept. 23, 1777, he and John Foster asked instructions from the N. Y. Ass'y relative to allowing the Refugees to return to L. I. (Page 172. Also B. 1) It is stated that he was in Conn. Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778; and that, on Apr. 22, 1779, he wanted to go to L. I. for his effects. (F. 18) The claim for his transportation will be found in C. 7.

In all of this public service, the value of Thomas Dering's work is most apparent in the Accounts, or Claims, of the Refugees. They are found, in full, in Appendix C. A study of them shows that he paid close attention to his duties as Auditor. (Pages 189, 190, 192)

The following is condensed from a Family Record written by Dr. Nicoll H. Dering about 1820. It is owned by Gen. Sylvester Dering, 2d, of Utica, N. Y. Another extract appears on Page 200.

In 1760 Thomas Dering removed to Shelter Island, where his wife and her sister inherited, on the death of their father, the Sylvester family mansion, and about 1200 acres of land.

At the breaking out of the difficulties between the Colonies and the Mother Country, Mr. Dering sympathized strongly with the spirit of freedom. He took a decided stand for liberty and the establishment of Independence. He was a Delegate from Suffolk Co., to the 3d Provincial Congress, whose sessions (in N. Y. City) were held May 18-June 30, 1776. He was also a Delegate to the 4th Provincial Congress, or Convention, which assembled at White Plains, July, 1776, of which General Nathaniel Woodhull of Brook Haven was President; which Convention unanimously adopted the Declaration of Independence as passed by the Continental Congress at Philadelphia, July 4, 1776. He was also a Member of the Convention to form a Constitution for the State of New York, which met at Fishkill in August, 1776. [Note—See A. 58, 59; and Civil List]

After the Battle of Long Island, he took his family to Middletown, Conn., where he remained until the restoration of peace in 1783. While in Middletown, he resided in a house near to the Revd. Enoch Huntington.

On his return to Shelter Island, he found that great depredations had been made upon his woodlands while the Island was in the possession of the British. Some 4000 cords of wood had been cut, and taken away, by order of Lord Percy and General Clinton, for the use of the troops and ships stationed at Rhode Island under their command.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 49) He was b. in Boston, Mass.. May 16, 1720; m. Mar. 9, 1756, Mary Sylvester, above; d. Sept. 26, 1785. His descendants are named in the descendants of his children, Elizabeth, Henry Packer and Sylvester, above. Beside these he had a son, Henry Sylvester 4, who d. y. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 177)

DEVAL—DUVALL—The former was the spelling of the name at the time of the Rev'y War; the latter is the spelling today. (Rev. J. E. Mallmann)

DEVAL WILLIAM—From Shelter Island to Saybrook. In 1776, his effects were moved over by Capts. Jeremiah Haley, Clark Truman, Hubbard Latham and Daniel Fordham (C. 39); and, in Sept., 1776, to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144)

While Benjamin and John Daval signed the Association, in 1775, on Shelter Island, there is no record that William did so. (H. 31) A William, from Suffolk Co., did sign. (H. 10) He owned a house and lot in Sag Harbor, in 1800. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) His son, Frankling, d. on Shelter Island, Dec. 16, 1780, aged 2-4-4 (Salmon Rec.); and he is buried there. (Mr. Ralph G. Duvall)

A William Davall appears in the Census of 1776 in Southampton, East; Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 54)

DEVORE JOHN—From Cow Neck. He belonged to James Brown's crew; and was a Refugee, living at Stamford, Conn., in Dec., 1782. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 59)

DIBBLE—This was an East Hampton Family. The first appearance on the Ch. Rec. is the marriage of Thomas 1 Dibble, in 1699, by Rev. Nathaniel Hunting, being the first marriage he performed after his settlement. Next, is the baptism of a son of George Dibble, in 1705; and, in 1707, a child of Samuel Dibble, showing that they were in East Hampton as early as 1670.

Thomas 2 was b. in 1706; and Joseph, in 1771. The names of Christopher and Simon also appear; but not the name of Daniel. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Thomas 2, m. in 1734. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52)

Nathan Daboll, author of the Arithmetic, was of this Family—the name being changed. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Another branch lived in Conn.; but it had certain relations with L. I. It belonged to the Tory side. On May 2, 1778, Fyler Dibble, with 16 wood cutters, was taken off Lloyd's Neck. His estate, at Stamford, was afterward confiscated. He removed to Nova Scotia. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 207) Fyler and Frederick Dibblee were the only ones of that name who came from L. I. to New Brunswick; or, as it then was, Nova Scotia. Their descendants live in Woodstock, N. B., to-day. Frederick was a son of Rev. Dr. Ebenezer Dibblee. (T. Carleton L. Ketchum, Woodstock, N. B.) Rev. Ebenezer Dibblee, once a Congregational Minister, took Orders in England, in 1748, and became Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Stamford, Conn. He remained as such until he d. in 1799. ("Sketches of Church Life in Colonial Conn." p. 84. Also Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 52, 263, 388) A tablet to his memory may be seen in St. John's Church.

DIBBLE DANIEL ()—From East Hampton. John Hubbard, of Southold, made a deposition relating to him. (F. 113) It is assumed that he was from East Hampton because the name was common in that Town between 1700 and 1800. He may have served in the 2d, and in the Associated Exempts, of Westchester (G. 78, 81); also in Conn. (G. 88)

DIBBLE LINEUS ()—From East Hampton, probably. On Sept. 19, 1776, his effects were moved over to Conn. by Capt. Peter Bonticou. (C. 114) On Apr. 3, 1778, he receipted for the claim of Joshua Horton; signing his name "Linus." (C. 72) As no Lineus, or Linus, appears in either the Town or the Ch. Rec. of East Hampton, it may be that he is identical with Sineus, below—although the autographs indicate otherwise.

DIBBLE SINEUS ()—From East Hampton and Southold to Guilford. In 1776, his effects were brought to Guilford by Capt. John Gears. (C. 40) On Feb. 26, 1781, he petitioned Gov. Trumbull for permission to return to L. I. to secure the avails of an estate, and to bring the same to Guilford. He was well recommended by the Authorities in Conn.; and the petition was granted. (F. 2) In the petition, he describes himself as "late of Southold." He must have removed to that place after 1771—for the Ch. Rec. of East Hampton notes the births of his three children from 1753 to 1771; and the death of a child, in 1763. There is no record of his death. The fact that his name does not appear among those who signed the Association, in 1775, would indicate that he either was not living in East Hampton at that time or that he resided elsewhere. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

The Census of 1776, in East Hampton, showed: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52)

He m. Polly 5, dau. of Daniel Baker. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 244) He d. Oct. 13, 1797, in the 60th year of his age. (Tombstone at North Guilford, Conn.)

DIBBLE THOMAS 3 (Probably Thomas 2, 1)—From East Hampton. On July 30, 1782, he was described as young man who desired to purchase a business in Conn. (F. 56) He probably served in Conn. (G. 88)

DICK JOHN—From Sag Harbor to Chester, in Sept., 1776, one person and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He served in Conn. (G. 88)

DICKERSON, or DICKINSON—According to Whitaker ("Southold," pp. 46, 53, 122), these surnames are interchangeable on L. I.—those bearing them having sprung, alike, from Southold's Philemon Dickerson. Moore ("Index," pp. 15, 76, 77) states that Philemon 1, b. in England, was at Salem, Mass., in 1639; settled at Southold, 1646–1650; m. Mary Paine; and d. in 1672, aged about 74. His son, Peter 2, b. in 1648; m. Naomi Mapes; d. in 1720–1. Peter's son, John 3, m. Abigail Reeve; had sons, John 4, Selah 4, and William 4; d. in 1758. Thomas 2, son of Philemon 1, d. in 1704. His son, Thomas 3, m. Abigail Reeve; had sons, Thomas 4, Daniel 4, Joshua 4 and Joseph 4; d. in 1724, aged 53.

Linus Dibble

The above lineage of Philemon 1 is followed in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 30. pp. 180-183, 247-253. It is stated, further, that Peter 2 m. (1) a dau. of Thomas Reeve, (2) Naomi, dau. of Thomas Mapes. Also, that Joseph 4, son of Thomas 3, d. in 1740. The Rec. (22. 212 et seq.) gives the descendants of Mahlon (1770-1858), of N. J.

Nathaniel, of Wethersfield, Conn., and Hadley, Mass., came to America, in 1632. (Dr. Robert C. Dickinson)

DICKERSON JOHN 4 (John 3, Peter 2, Philemon 1; brother of Selah, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with six passengers and effects, he was moved over by Capt. David Landon. (C. 41, 164) He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and possibly in Conn. (G. 88) He may have served, in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. ; m. in 1748, Elizabeth Corey. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., as above) The Ch. Rec. of N. Guilford, Conn., states that she d. suddenly, Jan. 12, 1778, aged 40—"wife of John Dickinson from L. I." There must, therefore, be an inaccurate statement of the marriage in the Rec.

DICKERSON JOSEPH (Also spelled "DICKSON") ()

—On Oct. 24, 1780, permission was given to his wife and two children to return to L. I. (F. 20) He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10)

DICKERSON SELAH 4 (John 3, Peter 3, Philemon 1; brother of John, above)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with six in the family, he was moved over by Capt. Thomas Lecte; and, same month, with three in the family. (C. 94, 165) In Nov., 1777, his claim was collected by Samuel Brown. (C. 164) In Feb., 1781, he asked permission to take his family of six, his cattle and supplies back to Southold; which was negatived, although he was well recommended by the Authorities of Guilford. (E. 151, 152) On Jan. 6, 1783, he again asked permission; which was granted. (E. 160, 161) In C. 164, 165, the autograph is Dickenson. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in 1731; d. in 1809. He m. (1) Nov. 5, 1754, Sarah Overton (Southold Ch. Rec.); m. (2) Susannah Robertson. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., as above)

His surviving children were: Samuel 5, below; and Selina 5 who never married. Samuel 5, b. in 1776; m. Julia Wells (b. Sept. 4, 1772, d. Mar. 4, 1840). He d. at Hopewell, Orange Co., N. Y., Feb. 7, 1829—whither he had removed, in 1821. His children, all of them b. at Southold, were the following—Susan 6, b. Nov. 6, 1792; not m.; d. at Hopewell, Nov. 26, 1851. Sarah 6, b. Aug. 3, 1796; m. Abraham Torrey, of Orange Co.; d. Aug. 17, 1857. Mary 6, b. June 2, 1801; m. John Case, of Southold; d. at Middletown, N. Y., Mar. 6, 1865. Martha 6, b. Sept. 16, 1803; m. John Shorter, of Orange Co.; d. at Hopewell, Feb. 7, 1828. Albert 6, b. Dec. 27, 1805; m. Eliza Weller, of Orange Co.; d. at Hopewell, Nov. 12, 1833. Adaline 6, b. Feb. 16, 1808; m. Hugh Colwell, of Orange Co.; d. at Newburgh, N. Y., . Harriet 6, b. Aug. 1, 1811; m. George H. Dickerson, of Orange Co.; d. at Newark Valley, N. Y., Apr. 11, 1889. Eliza 6, b. Nov. 6, 1815; not m.; d. at Van Etten, N. Y., .

Julia 6, b. ; m. John Norris, of Orange Co.; d. at Van Etten, N. Y., Jan. 24, 1875. (Mr. Samuel Dickinson)

DICKERSON SILVANUS ()

—To Saybrook. On July 9, 1778, he was allowed to send to L. I. for his effects. (D. 10) He obtained pensions for secret service as a spy. (Page 93. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 85) He was, possibly, the one who served in the Fortifications, at N. Y. City, in Mar., 1776; and who, in June, 1779, was a Cornet in Sheldon's 2d Light Dragoons. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," pp. 86, 248) He served in Conn. (G. 88)

Selah Dickenson

DICKINSON—See DICKERSON, above. Also Ap. I. 4.

DICKINSON AMOS ()—He was probably from L. I. He served in Conn. (G. 88)

DICKINSON BRADDOCK ()—From Southold to Middletown. On Jan. 20, 1783, he was allowed to go to L. I. and bring off monies due him from John Overton, Jr. (F. 92)

DOWNING BENJAMIN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); and in Conn. (G. 88) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

He was a son of George and Phebe (Valentine) Downing. He was b. July 22, 1722; d. Oct. 17, 1805. He m. (1) Phebe, dau. of Silas Willets; (2) Martha (Hopkins) dau. of Daniel and Amy Weeks. Children by 1st marriage: Silas, m. Phebe Rushmore; Benjamin, m. Loretta Weeks. Children by 2d marriage: Daniel, m. Margaret Duryea; Amy (twin with Daniel), m. (1) Thomas Williams, (2) Amos Willis; Abraham b. June 1, 1774, not m., d. Aug. 2, 1794; Isaac (twin with Abraham), m. Charity Dodge; Phebe, b. Apr. 14, 1776, d. Oct. 5, 1778; Esther (twin with Phebe), m. (1) William Kirk, (2) H. Hinman; Samuel, m. Rachel Lax; George, b. Nov. 30, 1780, m. Mary Jackson; Ann (twin with George), m. Derrick Craft; Phebe, m. (1) Trestram, or Tristram, Dodge, (2) Obediah Willis; Charity, m. Henry Downing. ("Doc'y Hist. Dutch Congregation of Oyster Bay—Pamphlet 3"—by Henry A. Stoutenburgh. Also Family Bible owned by Mrs. Richard Downing, E. Norwich, N. Y.)

DRAKE—Garrardus 1, with his family, came from England and settled in N. J. He descended from one of the brothers of Sir Francis Drake. He had children: Garrardus 2, below; Dr. Francis 2; William 2; and Lorana 2. Dr. Francis 2 d. in England. William 2 settled in Westchester Co., N. Y., town of Veroneck, now Mamaroneck. He m. Sarah, dau. of Judge Barrett of Essex Co., N. J. (Rev. George L. Thompson)

DRAKE AARON 3 (Garrardus 2, below, Garrardus 1)—From Sag Harbor to Hadlyme and East Haddam, with his father, in 1776. One of his sons m. a dau. of Judge Brady, of N. Y. City. Among his living descendants are: Mrs. Leon, of Sag Harbor; and Delia Davis, Barney Archbold, Emmett Drake and Almon P. Drake, of Southampton. (Rev. George L. Thompson)

DRAKE GARRARDUS 2 (Garrardus 1; father of Aaron, above)—From Sag Harbor to Hadlyme and East Haddam, in 1776. On Oct. 21, 1782, he was allowed to return to L. I. with his family, wearing apparel, provisions &c. He was brought back by Capt. Josiah Burnham. (F. 75)

In 1756, he settled with his family, two miles west of Sag Harbor, on Noyac Bay, Town of Southampton. In the Fall of 1776, likely in Sept., Garrardus put his farm, by written contract, in the care of Paul Payne; and, taking his family with him, passed over to Conn. and remained there until 1782, when he returned to his farm. William Thompson, who m. his second dau., Martha, was also a Refugee in company with the Drake family. The two families sojourned at Hadlyme, Conn., the home of Moses Drake, the oldest son of Garrardus. On Nov. 22, 1782, they were still at East Haddam; for, on that date, Garrardus made his will, dating it East Haddam. (Rev. G. L. T.)

It is evident from this, that he remained in Conn. for a month, or more, after he had been given permission to return to L. I.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. before 1700; was about 90 when he went to Conn.; d., at Sag Harbor, May 20, 1797, aged 112. He m. Martha Russell, of Veroneck, N. Y. His children were: Moses 3, noted above; Lorana 3, m. Jonathan Thompson; Martha 3, m. William Thompson, the Refugee (See Thompson); Elizabeth 3, m. (1) Brown, m. (2) ; Aaron 3, the Refugee, above. (Rev. G. L. T.)

DRAKE JOHN ()—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, he and Richard Terry transported their effects, as above; and, in Oct., 1776, he was charged with one passage over. (C. 44, 148) In

Sept. and Oct., 1776, five passengers from Southold to Guilford were charged to him by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He was an Ens. in the 1st Southold Co. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He may have been a Lt. in Col. Drake's Regt., Scott's Provisional Brigade. (C. 10) He may have served in the 6th and 7th Dutchess, as Capt., Lt. or private (G. 68, 69); or in the 3d Westchester, as Capt. or private. (G. 79)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) He d., at Southold, about 1800, aged about 95; and his wife d. there, aged over 90. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 162) Mr. William S. Pelletreau states that he lived at "Brick Kilns," near Sag Harbor; and that probably he was a son of Garrardus 2. It is more likely that he was from another stock—perhaps John 1 who came from England to Boston, in 1630; and thence to Windsor, Conn., in 1635. He had a son John, grandson John; and perhaps more descendants of the name. (Salisbury's "Genealogies," 1. 215-217)

John Drake

DYER—Capt. Caleb 2d is said to have been the first of the name to settle on L. I. He came to Oyster Ponds.

DYER NATHANIEL, CAPT. ()—From Oyster Ponds (now Orient) to Stonington. Beside being a Refugee, he was also Capt. of a ship (Page 239); and, as such, moved a part of the effects of James King from L. I. to Stonington. (C. 202) I think he was from Oyster Ponds. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

He was probably related to Elizabeth Dyer who m. Benjamin Boisseau, about 1800. (Vail Gen., p. 37. See also Boisseau) Also to Capt. Caleb Dyer, of New London, Master of the American Frigate "Shelaila," 36 guns, which left New London, in 1780, and was never heard from afterward. Capt. Caleb's son, Capt. Caleb, m. Mehitable, dau. of Christopher Brown. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 240, 241. See also Brown)

EDWARDS—The first of this family to settle on L. I. was William 1, who came to East Hampton, from Lynn, Mass., with his wife Ann, in 1653. He d. about 1685. Among his children was John 2. Among the children of John 2 were: Josiah 3, d. in 1713; William 3; and John 3, b. in 1678, d. in 1728. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 238, 239) Griffin ("Journal," p. 238) mentions William 1 as one of the first settlers at East Hampton, in 1648. Moore ("Index," p. 77) mentions John, of Southold, who had three males and four females in his family, in 1686; and d. about 1730. Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Matthias among the early settlers at Southold.

Mr. David M. Edwards, in Hedges' "East Hampton" (pp. 238 et seq.), states that William 1 came from England to East Hampton, about 1650, passing through Lynn and Taunton, Mass. He m. Ann—; d. in 1685. Among his sons was John 2, m. Mary Stansborough; d. in 1693. John 2 had sons: Thomas 3, below; Josiah 3, m. Mary Churchill, d. in 1713; John 3, m. Anna—, d. in 1727; and William 3, below. Thomas 3, b. in 1668; m. Mary—; d. in 1736. He had John 4, b. about 1699; m. Mary Dibble; d. after 1760—whose son, Thomas 5, b. in 1717, m. Anna Barnes, d. in 1784.

EDWARDS EBENEZER ()—From Sag Harbor, in Southampton, to Farmington. In Sept., 1776, with three passengers, he was moved from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213) On May 17, 1780, on being well recommended by the Authorities of Farmington, he was allowed to return to L. I. with his family. (E. 78-80) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He lived at Scuttle Hole, near the road to Sag Harbor. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He may have been the one who m. Esther Brown, Oct. 19, 1760. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

Another Ebenezer, from East Hampton, removed to Southampton. He was known as "Major Ben." He was not married; and the place and date of his death are unknown. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He was Ebenezer 5 (Ebenezer 4, William 3, John 2, William 1). He was also at Farmington; and, afterward, lived in N. Y. City. He was b. about 1736; d. about 1780. (Mr. David M. Edwards)

EDWARDS ISAAC 6 (Thomas 5, John 4, Thomas 3, John 2, William 1) —From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and probably in Conn. (G. 89) The Church and Town Records agree in stating that he was b. in 1760; m. Ruth Homan; d. in 1825. He had children b. from 1775 on. He lived at "The Springs;" and he held Town offices. His name does not appear among the Signers of the Association, in 1775. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton. Also Hedges, as above, p. 262)

EDWARDS JOHN 5 (John 4, 3, 2, William 1) and MERCY (Van Scoy), his wife—From Sag Harbor, in Southampton, to Guilford, in Nov., 1776. (C. 45) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) A John, of Smithtown, refused to sign. (H. 32)

He served, from Bridge Hampton, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and, possibly, in Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57); and in Conn. (G. 89) He was a pensioner, in 1830. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428)

He lived near Sag Harbor; and was a near relative of Ebenezer (above). He returned to L. I. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Census of Southampton, E. Dist., 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 5; under 16, 2. (A. 54) This probably refers to his father, John 4.

He was b. in 1749; m. Mercy Van Scoy (probably a Wid.); d. in 1829. He had: Russell 6; Isaac 6; John 6; Abraham 6; Patience 6; and Matsie 6. (Hedges, as above, pp. 260, 342)

Mercy 4 (Josiah 3, John 2, William 1) was a cousin to John, above; whom she m., although she was older. (Howell, as above) She was a dau. of Josiah Edwards whose wife was a Churchill, of Wethersfield, Conn. After the death of the parents, the children lived with their mother's family, at Wethersfield. (Hedges, as above, p. 258)

Another John, b. in Amagansett, in 1739; d. in Sayville, in 1826. He was in the French and Indian War, in Northern N. Y., in 1758-9. Returning to L. I., he removed to Sayville, in 1761. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He may have been the one who, from Islip, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 30) If so, he was in the Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 47) The Military service, noted above, may have belonged to this John. He was the ancestor of the late David M. Edwards, of Sayville, L. I.

ELLIS JOSEPH—From East Hampton to Stonington. He was moved over by Capt. Hubbard Latham, with his family—probably in Sept., 1776. (C. 46) In the same month, his effects were brought to Stonington by Capt. David Sayre (C. 138); and, same month, he was charged with nine passengers by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212) He served in the 5th Line (G. 49); and probably in Conn. (G. 89)

In the Town Rec. of East Hampton, a deed, given by ——— Conkling, in 1775, describes a tract of land, bounded "by a highway that parts the two towns and Joseph Ellis' land;" which shows that a man of that name lived in East Hampton at that time. In the Ch. Rec. of East Hampton, among the deaths, are these entries: "1766, Capt. Ellis child;" "1776, Capt. Ellis wife." (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

EVERETT, Mrs.—On Nov. 10, 1780, Henry Wisner wrote from Goshen, N. Y., to Gov. Clinton asking permission for Mrs. ——— Everett to go to N. Y. City; and thence to L. I. (Clinton Pap., 6. 402, 403)

She may have been the wife of Lt. Thomas Everit, of the Kings Co. Mil. (Page 41)

EYRES BENJAMIN—From East Hampton. He was a Refugee and a pensioner. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 52)

FANNING. By tradition, this Family is traced back to Dominicus Fanning who was Mayor of a City in Ireland, under Charles 1. He was taken Prisoner at the battle of Drogheda, in 1649; and was beheaded by Cromwell. His son, Edmund, b., in Kilkenny, Ireland; m. Catherine Hays, dau. of the Earl of Connaught; emigrated to America, and settled in Stonington, Conn., about 1649. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 206. Also Tombstone at Riverhead, L. I.)

The foregoing assertions are disproved, and many of the statements on the elaborate tombstone, at Riverhead, are questioned, by Mr. Walter F. Brooks, in the Fanning Gen.—wherein it is recorded that Edmund 1 was in Stonington, about 1653; and that he was also on Fisher's Island and in New London. The name of his wife was Ellen. He had five sons; one of whom, Thomas 2, m. Frances Ellis, of Stonington.

The Fanning Family is closely related to the Benjamin Family. The members of both were large land owners in Stonington and Groton, Conn.

Thomas 2 had a son, James 3, who served as a Capt. in the French and Indian War. He settled on L. I. before 1718, being the progenitor of all of the name there. He first settled in Smithtown, where he m. Hannah, dau. of Justice Richard Smith, granddau. of the Patentee of Smithtown. (See Smith) Hannah's sister, Sarah, m. Nathaniel Woodhull, and was the mother of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull. Capt. James 3 Fanning, m. (2), Widow Thankful Chesebrough. He d. in June, 1779. (Fanning Gen.) There is, however, a record that Capt. James Fanning d. Apr. 15, 1779. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. Also Salmon Rec.) A Lydia Fanning m., as his first wife, Gen. John 4 Smith. (See Smith)

Capt. James Fanning had nine children, among whom were: Col. Phineas 4, below; Gilbert 4; James 4; Thomas 4; and Col. Edmund 4. The latter graduated at Yale College, in 1757. He was a prominent lawyer in N. Carolina during the rule of Gen. Tryon; and, later, he accompanied Tryon to N. Y. as his Private Sec'y. He was Col. of a Loyalist Regt. during the War; and afterward, he was Lt. Gov. of Nova Scotia. He d. in London, in 1818, aged 79 years. (Fanning Gen.)

FANNING DAVID 5, LT. (Thomas 4, Capt. James 3, Thomas 2, Edmund 1)—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); and in Conn. (G. 89) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18) He graduated at Yale College, in 1769. The property of his father, Thomas, was confiscated.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 51) He was b. in 1752; m. in 1773, Jane 5 Smith. (Col. Josiah 4, Nathaniel 3, Richard 2, Richard 1—Bull)—(Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 454. See also Smith)

FANNING GILBERT, JR., 5 (Gilbert 4, Capt. James 3, Thomas 2, Edmund 1)—From Brookhaven to Stonington. On Apr. 24, 1780, he asked permission to return to L. I. on business relating to certain lands, in Stonington. (F. 43)

He was b. at Stonington, where his father lived. Jan. 30, 1757; d. on the Wallabout Prison Ship "Jersey," in 1782. He was a nephew of Col. Phineas Fanning, below. (Fanning Gen. 1. 157)

FANNING JAMES 5 (James 4, Capt. James 3, Thomas 2, Edmund 1—known as James, 3d.)—From Southold. On Mar. 4, 1783, he was described as a Whig, lately from N. Carolina, who wants to go to L. I. to bring off flax, &c. (F. 43) He probably served in Conn. (G. 89)

James Fanning was a blacksmith; and, for many years, a store-keeper. He had a family of ten children; was a man of character, and a good Congregational Church man. Though more than a century has passed, a forge is still in use where he set it up, also the store where he did business. The memory of few men is so well kept. It is said that when the British troopers came, with horses, to his forge for shoeing, he would not beat iron for an enemy, not for money, and would not be compelled. And it is easy to believe that he had need of refuge, though tradition says it was short owing to the intercession of his uncle, Col. Phineas, in his favor. (Mr. James F. Young)

In the Southold Census of 1776 two of the name appear. One was over 50 years old, and had no family. The other was under 50 years old, and had a son and a dau. both under 16, and one female (probably his wife), over 16. (A. 55)

He was b. in Aquebogue, Dec. 1, 1742; m. Apr. 13, 1775, Mary, dau. of Purrier Reeve. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. See also Reeve) She was b. in 1755; d. Nov. 20, 1822. James Fanning, 3d, d. at Aquebogue, June 6, 1812. He had 10 children. (Fanning Gen., 1. 135-137, 231-233)

James Fanning Jun.

FANNING NATHANIEL 5 (Col. Phineas 4, below, Capt. James 3, Thomas 2, Edmund 1)—From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 21); and in Conn. (G. 89) In 1781, his goods, which had been brought to Conn. from L. I., were seized for irregularities. (Page 210. Also Clinton Pap., 8. 31) On May 3, 1781, Ezra L'Hommiedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Middletown, that some of the clothing intended for the Troops had been taken from Nathaniel Fanning who was friendly to America. He asked a permit from Gov. Clinton (so that one would follow from Gov. Trumbull) allowing him to remove his goods to Conn. (Page 96. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 831)

He was b. Mar. 22, 1755; m. Dec. 22, 1780, Anna, dau. of David Wells; d. Oct. 10, 1826. His wife d. Mar. 20, 1810. They had 10 children. He lived at Aquebogue and Franklinville. (Fanning Gen.)

A Nathaniel, was with Paul Jones in the Privateer Service. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 307)

FANNING PHINEAS 4, COL. (Capt. James 3, Thomas 2, Edmund 1) —From Aquebogue, in Southold. On July 8, 1775, he wrote from Southold to the Prov'l Cong. asking for more powder; but it was refused on the ground that there was none to send. (Mil. Com., 25. 129) On July 8, 1775, he was appointed Muster Master of the Troops to be raised in Suffolk Co.; and, on Aug. 7, 1775, he was directed to take command of the Militia, sent by Gen. Wooster to prevent the seizure of cattle on the East end of L. I. for the British Army in Boston. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.)

Aug. 7th, 1775—Col. Phineas Fanning was sent to the East end of L. I., to take command of the Troops raised there, to prevent cattle being taken off by the enemy. On the next day, he informs Congress that on his way, he met an express, saying that the Ministerial Fleet, of thirteen sail of square rigged vessels, had come to anchor off Gardiner's Island. That an enemy's boat had attacked Rufus Tuthill, while landing fifty sheep from Plumb Island, drove him away, took his boat and 20 of his sheep, which they carried off. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197)

On Oct. 16, 1776, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote, from Saybrook, that Col. Fanning, and others, had been thought disaffected; but professed themselves to be friendly. (A. 18) It seems that he had been apprehended for driving cattle to Howe's Army. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 56) As a sequel to this, on Oct. 17, 1776, Col. Fanning, at Guilford, signed a parole not to assist the subjects of Great Britain as against the United States; to return to Suffolk Co.; and to remain there until required to appear before the Convention or Gen. Washington. (Pages 118, 119) After the Battle of L. I. he reported to Gen. Oliver Delancey. (Page 176)

On Aug. 11, 1778, Gov. Trumbull wrote to Capts. Peter Hallock and Jonathan Salmon that they must make good the loss of six oxen which they had taken from Col. Fanning. (D. 15) On Sept. 5, 1781, the Conn. Council of Safety gave permission to Col. Fanning to return to L. I. with his daughter. (F. 43)

A Phineas Fanning signed the Association, from Brookhaven, in 1775 (H. 20); but it does not appear whether he was Col. Phineas, or Serjt. Phineas, below.

Phineas Fanning came to Aquebogue with his parents; but, later, lived at Laurel, and passed his days there. He served in the French and Indian Wars, in 1746-47. In his young manhood he was a shipmaster in the European trade. His name appears on the County Co. roster of Capt. James Fanning, his father, for an Expedition against Canada, in 1746, which failed to start. Also, as a Lt. in Capt. James Fanning's Co., 1st Battalion of Foot, in Oct., 1747. A Justice of the Peace, in Suffolk Co., in 1763. He held a Colonel's Commission from George III., in 1775. Yet he was popularly rated as a Federalist; and was, with his brother-in-law, Maj. John Wickham, elected a Member of the 1st Provincial Convention to elect Members to the first Congress to sit in Philadelphia. They both openly opposed such an election; and, being in the minority, both withdrew. He was, later, allied with the Royalists; was arrested, and was sent to N. Y. a prisoner; but was soon released. He took no active part in the contest afterward. His estate, large and valuable, reaching from Sound to Bay, was not attainted; and he remained popular with his neighbors. Tory that he undoubtedly was, his very friendliness disarmed criticism. His farm, nearly one-half a mile wide, is still partially in the possession of his descendants. (Mr. James F. Young. Also Pages 88, 130)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. at Smithtown, Aug. 2, 1724. He m. (1) Jan. 12, 1749, Mehitable Wells, who was b. Oct. 7, 1728, d. June 4, 1778. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) He m. (2) Mar. 7, 1779, Mary, Wid. of John Hubbard. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) She was a dau. of Barnabas and Keziah Terrill; and was b. in 1735, d. Sept. 18, 1806, aged 71. (Tombstone at Mattituck) Col. Phineas Fanning d. at Westhampton, June 2, 1796. (Tombstone, Old Parish Cemetery, Jamesport, L. I.)

According to the Mattituck Ch. Rec., these children of Col. Fanning were bapt.: Esther 5, Aug. 30, 1752; Nathaniel 5, May 18, 1755; William 5, July 29, 1764; Mehitable 5, June 6, 1773. It is stated that he had a son, Phineas 5, who had sons: William 6, of New York; and P. W. 6, of Wilmington, N. C. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 241. Also No. 39, pp. 144-148, Vol. 1. Fanning Gen.)

FANNING PHINEAS 5, SERJ.T. (Jonathan 4, 3, Edmund 2, 1)—called "of Conn.," probably because most of his time was spent there. He served in Conn. (G. 89. Also Conn. Hist'l Collections, 8. 216)

He was b. at Groton, Conn., Nov. 16, 1743; m. Zerviah Stanton. (Fanning Gen.)

FARNAM ONIS, CAPT.—To Guilford. On Sept. 17, 1776, he was brought over, with his wife, two children and effects. (C. 34) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Sept., 1776, he brought, from L. I. to Killingworth, part of the effects of Jeremiah Rogers (C. 208); and, same month, from Southampton to Killingworth, part of the effects of Uriah Rogers. (C. 209)

FIELD JOHN—On Dec. 24, 1776, by approval of the Authorities of Conn., the Committee of Safety paid his claim for services and expenses in transporting people and stock from L. I. to Conn. (A. 25) On Oct. 8, 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton from S. E. Precinct, N. Y., asking permission for his wife and the wife of Dr. Joseph Crane to go, with a Flag, from Stamford to Oyster Bay, or Mosquito Cove, as they both had aged and infirm parents on the Island; and also considerable property. (Clinton Pap., 7. 387) A John Field served in Conn. (G. 89)

The Census of East Hampton, in 1776, contained a John Field, under 50 years old, and his wife, over 16. (A. 52)

FILER THOMAS—From East Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in the 4th Regt. of the Line from Nov. 21, 1776, to Oct. 31, 1777. (B. 40. G. 47, 48) The family tradition is that he was killed by a fellow soldier, at Poughkeepsie; or by a friend, while duck hunting. His Wid. and children, as Refugees to Conn., were paid £6, through David Gelston, Jan. 7, 1778. (C. 5. No. 104) Among his sons was Zephaniah Filer, of Troy, N. Y. (B. 40)

Samuel Filer (or Fyler, as it was then spelled) came to East Hampton some 30 years after the settlement of the Town, and his was the only family of that name that ever lived there. He had two sons, Zephaniah and Thomas. The former moved to Troy, N. Y., where his descendants now live. Thomas lived and died at East Hampton. But two of his descendants now live in East Hampton, Henry C. and his son Hugh; and they have no knowledge of their ancestor, Thomas, having been a Refugee. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Mr. Jonathan T. Gardiner, also of East Hampton, confirms Mr. Dayton in the statement that Thomas returned to that place and died there. See also Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 272.

Evidently, there were two of the name—Thomas Filer. A Thomas Filer was a pensioner in 1833, age 79. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428) The Census of 1776 shows a Thomas Filer, under 50 years old, and probably his wife; with 2 males and 3 females, all under 16. (A. 52)

FILEY JAMES—On Mar. 6, 1782, he was allowed to go to L. I. after some money. (F. 50)

FLOYD—The members of this Family come from Richard 1, the emigrant from Brecon, in Brecknockshire, Wales, to Setauket, in Brookhaven, in 1656. He m. Susannah ———; d., about 1700. Among his children were: Col. Richard 2, below; and Susannah 2, m. Edmund (1st) 3 Smith (Adam 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull. See Smith). Col. Richard 2, b. May 12, 1665; m. Margaret, or Martha, dau. of Matthias 1 Nicoll (see Nicoll); d. Feb. 28, 1728. He had several children, among whom: Nicoll 3, below; and Charity 3, m. Benjamin 3 Nicoll (see Nicoll). Nicoll 3, b. Aug. 27, 1705; m. Tabitha 4 Smith (Jonathan 3, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull. See Smith); d. Mar. 8, 1753. He lived at Mastic, where he was a farmer on an extensive scale. He had eight children, of whom: Ruth 4, the eldest, m. Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull (see Woodhull); Gen. William 4, the eldest son, below; Richard 4, below; Charity 4, m. Ezra L'Hommedieu (see L'Hommedieu); Tabitha 4, below; and Katharine 4, m. Col. Thomas Thomas. (See Thomas)—(Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 431-434. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 37 and 27. 5) Richard 4 had David Richard 5, who was permitted to take the name of Floyd-Jones. (N. Y. Laws of Mar. 14, 1788, and Apr. 8, 1795) Tabitha 4 was the second wife of Daniel 3 Smith. (Daniel 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull. See Smith) After his death, Jan. 13, 1763, she m. Daniel Reeve. (See Reeve) Her will is given below:

FLOYD WILLIAM 4, GEN. (Nicoll 3, Richard 2, 1)—From Mastic to Middletown, in 1776, with his wife Hannah, above, and family. He was Col. of the 1st Regt. of Suffolk Co., vice Platt Conkling, declined. (Page 88. Also G. 1) It has been asserted that his Regt. was at the Battle of L. I. (Page 40) Afterward, he had the title of Gen. in the Suffolk Co. Militia.

On his representation, and that of Ezra L'Hommedieu, the Conn. Council of Safety, May 29, 1778, gave Capt. David Landon a roving commission to seize the property of the enemy. (Page 222. Also D. 48) On June 10, 1779, Gen. Floyd's overseer, William Philips, was granted liberty to go to

L. I. after certain property belonging to Gen. Floyd. (D. 30) On Apr. 19, 1780, Gen. Floyd memorialized the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., reciting that the Tories had taken possession of his property on L. I., and asking permission to send for such stock and effects as might be found; which was granted. (E. 46, 47) In 1780-1, he was one of the Comm'rs to procure Clothing for the Army. (Pages 94, 96) In 1781, he recommended that the goods of certain Refugees should be landed at Fairfield, Conn. (Page 192) From the Cont'l Cong., he wrote, Apr. 16, 1783, to Gov. Clinton that he should soon proceed to his former home on L. I. (Clinton Pap., 8, 138, 139) He was a frequent correspondent, and a confidential adviser, of the Governor. He was an Executor of Col. Josiah Smith's estate. (See Smith)

He was elected a Delegate to the First Prov'l Cong., in 1775. (Page 130) As a Member of the Cont'l Cong., 1774-1783, he signed the Secret Pact, of 1775 (Page 142); also the Declaration of Independence. (A. 60, 61. Also Civil List) He was in attendance at the Cong. when the Battle of L. I. was fought. (Page 173) He was also a Member of the U. S. House of Reps., 1789-1791. (Civil List)

In the newly formed State of N. Y., he was made a Member of the Council of Safety, Oct. 7, 1777; and was President of the same for a time. He was a Member of the Council of Appointment, 1784-1787; Senator from the Southern Dist., 1777-1791 and 1808 (B. 43-48. Also Civil List); and Delegate to the Hartford Convention, in 1779. (Page 78) In 1795, he was a candidate for Lt. Gov., as the opponent of Stephen Van Rensselaer. He was a Delegate to the Convention of 1801 which revised the Constitution of N. Y. State; and, later, was elected to the State Senate. He was a Presidential Elector on several occasions, serving as such until within a year of his death. In 1803, he removed to a large tract of land in Westernville, N. Y., which he had purchased in 1784. Here he spent the remainder of his days.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 50) He was b. Dec. 17, 1734; d. Aug. 4, 1821, in his 87th year. He m. (1) Hannah Jones, above; (2) Johanna Strong (see Strong). She was b. in 1747; d. in 1826. Children, by his first wife: Nicoll 5, above; Mary 5, above; and Catharine 5, m. Rev. William Clarkson. Children, by his second wife: Ann 5, m. (1) George W. Clinton, son of Gov. George Clinton, (2) Abraham Varick, of Utica, N. Y.; and Eliza 5, m., as his first wife, James Platt (See Platt), of Utica, N. Y., one of whose children was William F. Platt, of Oswego, N. Y.

With his wife, Johanna, Gen. Floyd is buried near his later home, at Westernville. The tombstones, shown herewith, were at Westernville until 1895, when they were removed to Mastic. A sarcophagus now takes their place, on which is inscribed:

In Memory of General William Floyd who died Aug. 4, 1821, aged 87 years. He was born at Mastic on Long Island. An ardent supporter of his country's rights, he was honored in life for the sincerity of his patriotism, and the Declaration of Independence will be to his memory an imperishable monument.

Johanna Strong widow of General William Floyd. Born at Setauket L. I., 1747. Died 1826.

TOMBSTONES OF GEN. WILLIAM FLOYD AND MRS. JOHANNA FLOYD—FORMERLY AT WESTERNVILLE, N. Y., NOW AT MASTIC, L. I.

(Loaned by Mrs. Montgomery Sicard)

FORDHAM, FERDON, FORDON—thus variously spelled. The founder of the Family on L. I. was Rev. Robert 1, b. in Sacomb, Hertfordshire, Eng., in 1603. He received degrees at Cambridge University, in 1625 and 1629. He came to America, in 1640; and soon thereafter he was at Stamford, Conn. Thence he went to Hempstead, L. I., as one of the patentees. (Chap. 16) He was the first Minister of Hempstead, 1643-1647. In 1647, he became the second Minister of Southampton; and remained such until his death in 1674. His descendants were among the founders of Sag Harbor; and some went to Montrose, Pa. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 245, 246)

He had seven children. His dau., Hannah 2, m. Samuel 1 Clark. (See Clark) His son, Joseph 2, Capt. of the Militia at Southampton, d. in 1688. He had four children, of whom: Nathan 3, b. about 1672; was a farmer at Mecox; d. before 1712. He had several children, of whom: John 4; and Nathan 4, b. between 1698 and 1705, d. in 1773, his will proved Jan. 9, 1774.

While none of the Fordham Refugees, below, appear to have been at Guilford, Conn.; yet they, or others of the name, were there, and their sheep were put into the Guilford flock. (C. 217)

FORDHAM DANIEL 5, CAPT. (Nathan 4, 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Rev. Robert 1; father of Capt. Nathan, below; brother of Capt. Ephraim, below, and George, below)—From Sag Harbor to Saybrook. As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Oct., 1776, he brought from L. I. to Saybrook part of the effects of Silas Jessup (C. 88); and the effects of William Deval, date and place not mentioned. (C. 39) On Mar. 7, 1777, at Middletown, he swore to a claim for bringing over the effects of Elisha Clark, Daniel Haines and Joseph Stanbrough. (C. 48) At Middletown, Nov. 25, 1777, he receipted for the claim of his brother, George (C. 50); and, same place and date, for the claim of his brother, Capt. Ephraim, for bringing to Connecticut the effects of certain Refugees. (C. 47) He was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43) Having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief, Feb. 12, 1778; which was granted in the following May. (E. 4-9) On Mar. 6, 1783, he was permitted to take to L. I. cattle and boards for repairing the house of his son [Capt. Nathan, below], who was a Prisoner. (F. 103) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) In the Army, he was Ens. of the 8th Co., Col. Mulford's Regt. of Minute Men. (G. 2) He took part in the Battle of L. I. (Official Pap., N. Y. State) In 1780, he loaned money to the State. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.," p. 195) After returning to Sag Harbor, he continued as a mariner; and, later, as an inn-keeper.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. Dec. 6, 1730; m. Nov. 14, 1756, Phebe Jessup; d. June 12, 1816, aged 86. His wife, b. Gideon Fordham

FORDHAM JOHN (Son of Nathan, Esq., below)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. On Nov. 21, 1777, at Middletown, he receipted for the claim of his father, Nathan. (C. 51) The Gen. Ass'y of Conn., Oct. 11, 1782, authorized the Governor to permit John and Nathan Fordham to return with their families and effects. (F. 61) Probably he served in the 2d Line (G. 44); or as John Furdon, Serjt. Maj. in the 5th Line. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—the Rev'n," p. 220)

FORDHAM NATHAN, ESQ. (Father of John, above)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. He was on the Committee of Sag Harbor. (Jour. Prov'l. Cong.); and also on a sub-Committee of Sag Harbor, April 2, 1775, relative to cannon and ammunition. (Same ref. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk County," p. 17) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) On Sept. 2, 1776, his family was moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) On Sept. 10, three horses were brought over by Capts. James Wiggins and Ichabod Cole. His claim was receipted for by his son John, Nov. 21, 1777. (C. 51) Having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief, Feb. 2, 1778; which was granted, in May, 1778. (E. 4-9) From East Haddam, July 27, 1779, he petitioned the Gov. and Council of Conn. for permission to go to L. I. for salt from his estate. He was vouched for, as a Friend to Liberty, by Jabez Chapman and Major Uriah Rogers. (F. 8, 9) The petition was granted, Sept. 21, 1779. (D. 34) On Mar. 20, 1780, with others, he was allowed to go to L. I. after provisions, including salt (D. 44); and, on Sept. 14, 1782, with two others, he was allowed to go to L. I. (F. 59) On Oct. 11, 1782, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family and effects. (F. 61) On Nov. 5, 1782, he helped Adj. John Gelston to secure a permit. (F. 10)

FORDHAM NATHAN 6, CAPT. (Son of Capt. Daniel, above)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) In 1776, as Capt. of a ship (Page 239), he brought to the Rope Ferry part of the effects of John Hudson. (C. 79) He enlisted at Sag Harbor; and served a part of the War under Capt. John Davis and Col. Henry B. Livingston; for which, he was a pensioner in 1833, aged 76. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428) He was a Prisoner on L. I. (F. 103)

I am informed by an old lady now nearly 90, who belongs to the family of Capt. Daniel Fordham's wife, Phebe Jessup, that Capt. Nathan Fordham when a young man was confined on one of the prison ships with his brother Frederick, and that the latter died soon after his release. This seems to be confirmed by the gravestone of Frederick in the Old Burying Ground, at Sag Harbor, which bears witness that he was born March 27, 1765, and died June 25, 1782. As the old lady remembers Nathan well, she must be right in her story. (Mr. Herbert Latham Fordham)

He was b. Aug. 7, 1757; m. Mary Howell; d. Jan. 7, 1838, and is buried in Oakland Cemetery, Sag Harbor. He had: Nathan 7; and Capt. Jeffery 7, below. Nathan 7, had a son, Samuel 8, of Sag Harbor, who d. about 1911, at an advanced age. He stated that his grandfather, Capt. Nathan, sailed the sloop "Polly." According to "Old Paths and Legends of the New England Border" (p. 89), this sloop sailed between Sag Harbor and Albany.

Capt. Jeffery 7, b. Oct. 29, 1792; m. Phebe Corey; d. June 14, 1879. He was a mariner at Sag Harbor; and he is buried in the Oakland Cemetery there. His children were: Nathan H. 8, below; Thomas Dering 8, below; Josephine 8, d. y.; and Phebe 8, b. in 1839, d. in 1908. Nathan H. 8, b. in 1830; m. Sophronia E. Edwards; d. in 1890. His children: Charles 9, d. y.; Mary Eloise 9, m. Brewster Smith, lives at Greenport, L. I., and is the only surviving descendant of Nathan H. 8. Thomas Dering 8, b. Feb. 11, 1833; m. Lydia M. Latham; d. Aug. 27, 1875. His children: Fanny Webb 9, d. y.; Ida May 9, d. y.; Herbert Latham 9, b. Nov. 23, 1869, m. June 21, 1900, Inez Grenell Robbins, no children. Herbert Latham 9, of N. Y. City and Greenport, is the only surviving descendant of Thomas Dering 8. All of those who are deceased are buried in the Oakland Cemetery, Sag Harbor; except Thomas Dering 8, who is buried at Orient Point, L. I. (H. L. F.)

FOSDICK—The members of this Family came from Stephen 1, b. about 1583; m. (1) ———, (2) Sarai Witherell who survived him; d. May 21, 1664, aged 81. He came, with his wife and eight children, to Charlestown, Mass., in 1635. John 2, b. about 1626; m. (1) at Charlestown, Mass., in 1648, Anna (Shapley) Branson, dau. of Capt. Nicholas Shapley; d. Sept. 17, 1716. He had 11 children, of whom: Capt. Samuel 3, b. at Charlestown, Dec. 15, 1655; m. in New London, Conn., Nov. 1, 1682, Mercy (b. Jan. 16, 1660, d. Nov. 25, 1728), dau. of John Pickett and Ruth Brewster; d. Aug. 27, 1700. He was a Corp. in Capt. Mosely's Co. in the Narragansett War, 1675-6. He settled at New London, Conn., in 1680; where he was a large land owner, and prominent in Civil and Military affairs. He was a Deputy in the Gen. Court of Conn., 1694-1700; and one of the patentees of the Town of New London, in 1699. He was also Capt. of a Co. raised for the defense of the Colony. His residence was on Fosdick's Neck, now Shaw's Point. He owned a farm on Plum Island; and another, near Stonington. He had eight children, among whom: John 4; Samuel 4; and Dea. Thomas 4.

John 4, b. Feb. 1, 1693-4, removed to Guilford, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 344)

Samuel 4, b. at New London, Sept. 16, 1684; m. at New London, July 13, 1706, Susan, dau. of Ezekiel and Susanna (Keeney) Turner. He removed to Oyster Bay, L. I., where he was living, in 1750. (Caulkins', as above) Some of the descendants of Samuel 4 removed to Wethersfield, Conn.; and others, to New Orleans, La., and Western N. Y. Among his descendants are: Raymond B., of New York City; Robert A., of Stamford, Conn.; and the late Robbins I., of St. Paul, Minn., who furnished the above information.

Dea. Thomas 4, b. Aug. 29, 1696; m. (1) in 1720, Esther Updike, (2) in 1755, Grace Minor; death not recorded. He was the only one of the children of Capt. Samuel 3 who remained in New London, where he was a man of much prominence. (Mr. Raymond B. Fosdick) His son, Thomas 5, also of New London, b. Apr. 30, 1725; m. Nov. 28, 1748, Anna, dau. of Jonathan and Catherine (Nicoll) Havens; d. Apr. —, 1776. His son, Richard 6, m. Sept. 20, 1796, Phebe, dau. of Capt. Samuel L'Hommedieu. (See L'Hommedieu) His dau., Sarah 6, m. Nicoll Havens, and was the mother of Esther Sarah Havens who m. Sylvester Dering (See Dering); also the mother of Mary Catherine who m. Ezra L'Hommedieu (See L'Hommedieu)—(Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 241)

FOSDICK ANNA 6 (Dau. of Thomas 5; sister of Capt. Nicoll, below)—Probably from Shelter Island to Stonington, with her brother, in 1783. (F. 108) She was b. May 23, 1769; m. Dec. 22, 1793, Henry Packer Dering (See Dering); d. Feb. 21, 1852. (Mallmann, p. 241)

FOSDICK FRANCES 6 (Dau. of Thomas 5; sister of Capt. Nicoll, below)—Probably from Shelter Island to Stonington, with her brother, in 1783. (F. 108) She was b. Apr. 10, 1764; d. Nov. 13, 1790. (Mallmann, p. 241)

FOSDICK NICOLL 6, CAPT. (Thomas 5, 4, Samuel 3, John 2, Stephen 1)—Of Shelter Island and Stonington. On Mar. 25, 1783, he had permission to bring his two sisters, above, from L. I. (F. 108)

He was b. Apr. 18, 1750; m. Jan. 19, 1784, Abigail Eldredge; d. Jan. 21, 1821. He had nine children. (Mallmann, pp. 241, 243, 244) He was an own cousin of Mrs. Sylvester Dering and Mrs. Ezra L'Hommedieu. (See Thomas 5, above) He served in the Army, from Conn.; and he was in the Privateer service. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 574, 575) His brother, Thomas Updike (b. Mar. 6, 1754, d. Aug. 11, 1811), was an Ens. in the Co. of Capt. Nathan Hale. He commanded the sloop which was sent up the Hudson River, Aug. 16, 1776, to burn the British frigate "Phoenix." (Caulkins, p. 534)

FOSTER—This Family, on L. I., came from Christopher 1 who left London, in 1635; and was made freeman, at Boston, in 1637. He removed to Lynn; and went thence to Hempstead, in 1647; and to Southampton, in 1651. With him was his wife, Frances, and several children, of whom: John 2; Joseph 2; and Nathaniel 2. The latter was the founder of the branch in Huntington. John 2, b. in 1634, had, among others—John 3, b. in 1662; m. Hannah Abbott; and had sons, John 4 and Thomas 4. John 4, b. in 1695; m. (1) Sibyl Howell; d. in 1762. Thomas 4, m. Hannah Hildreth. One of his sons, Timothy 5, m. Bethiah Howell. Christopher 3, son of John 2, had a dau., Abigail 4, who m. David Haines. (See Haines. Also N. Y. Wills, Lib. 16. 266) Joseph 2, b. about 1638; d. in 1708. His son, Joseph 3, b. about 1665; d. in 1704. Joseph 4, son of Joseph 3, d. in 1767. Daniel

3, son of Joseph 2, b. in 1676; m. Lydia Wood; d. in 1744. Jonas 4, son of Daniel 3, b. in 1711. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 247-252. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 10, 11)

FOSTER ASA 6 (Timothy 5, Thomas 4, John 3, 2, Christopher 1)—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and in Conn. (G. 89)

He m. Sarah Trowbridge, of Conn.; and, in 1819, he removed to Hamilton Co., O. He had: Edward 7, who had Charles Sydney and two daughters; Thomas Fitch 7; Hannah 7, m. Philander Allen; Mary 7; Elizabeth 7; and Chloe 7. (Howell, as above, p. 255)

FOSTER CHRISTOPHER 5 (Joseph 4, 3, 2, Christopher 1; brother of Prudence, below)—From Southampton to Conn. On Oct. 21, 1782, permission was given to have his son's apparel brought from L. I. by Jonathan Cruttenden. (F. 74) He served in Conn. (G. 89) He returned to Southampton, and d. there.

He was probably b. about 1740. (Howell, as above, p. 252)

FOSTER CRUDANCE—See PRUDENCE, below.

FOSTER JAMES 5 (John 4, 3, 2, Christopher 1; brother of John, below)—From Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He served, as a Drum., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 29); as a private, in the 1st and 3d of the Line (G. 43, 46); possibly in the 3d Dutchess (G. 65); and in Conn. (G. 89)

FOSTER JEDEDIAH 5 (Jonas 4, Daniel 3, Joseph 2, Christopher 1)—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and in Conn. (G. 89) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 53) He m. Elizabeth, dau. of Jonah Howell; and removed to Palmyra, N. Y., about 1800. He had: Joel 6; Abraham 6; Cyrus 6; Zenas 6; and Pliny 6. (Howell, as above, p. 252)

FOSTER JOHN 5 (John 4, 3, 2, Christopher 1; brother of James, above; father of Lt. John, Jr., below)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam and Rocky Hill. On Aug. 9, 1776, Col. Josiah Smith lodged with him at Sag Harbor. (G. 39) In Sept., 1776, part of his effects were moved to Rocky Hill by Capt. Daniel Hale; same month, other parts to Conn. by Cpts. Ephraim Pendleton and Zebulon Cooper. (C. 8) Same month, still other effects were moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) In Oct., 1776, he was in Saybrook with his family; where he was entertained by Capt. Richard Dickinson, to whom his claim for expenses was paid. (C. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

He was one of the petitioners for a wharf at Sag Harbor, in 1770. (Page 166) In Aug., 1775, powder was sent to him for the Militia of Eastern L. I. (Page 88) He was elected a Delegate to the First Prov'l Cong. (Page 130)

On Nov. 15, 1774, the Committee of Correspondence of Suffolk Co. met at the Court House, now Riverhead, and voted donations to the distressed poor of Boston—said donations to be called for at the several harbors by a vessel to be secured by John Foster. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co." Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 16) In 1775, he was a Delegate to the 1st Prov'l Cong. (A. 56); which Cong., in July, permitted John Foster, "of Southampton" to ship a cargo of live stock to the W. Indies in exchange for Military Stores. (Page 27. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197) In the same year, Cong. ordered 200 pounds of powder to be sent to him and Ezra L'Hommedieu. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 20) On Feb. 3, 1776, the Prov'l Cong. voted £50 to him for the purchase of tow cloth; and, on Feb. 28, he wrote from Southampton to John McKisson, Sec'y of the Cong., as to the purchase of the cloth. (C. 5, No. 56. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was one of the bondsmen for the Privateer "Eagle." (G. 87)

As a Refugee, on Sept. 14, 1782, he petitioned, from East Haddam, for permission to go to L. I., which was granted (F. 58, 59); and, on Dec. 2, he was allowed to carry boards to L. I. for repairing his house. (F. 87) His claims were paid. (C. 8) Still as a Refugee, (and in company with the Refugees, Thomas Dering and Capt. Thomas Wickham) he was, on Dec. 31, 1776, appointed by the N. Y. Committee of Safety, Auditor of the claims of all the Refugees (A. 21); and reports were made thereon Mar. 17 and Aug. 7, 1777. (A. 37, 45) The claims are given in Ap. C. (See also Pages 189, 190, 192) On Nov. 3, 1783, he described his sufferings in a petition asking for the use of a house in N. Y. City. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book, 1866," N. Y. City Pub. Lib'y., p. 24) On Jan. 31, 1785, he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y relative to a vessel taken for the U. S., in 1776. (B. 19)

He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 10); and, later, was 1st Lt. in Capt. Pierson's Co., same Regt. (G. 6, 29) He also served in the 4th Line (G. 48); and in Conn. (G. 89) This record, however, may belong to John Foster, Jr., below.

The story of his loss of property will be found in Ap. B. 33. (See Page 178) Once the owner of a prosperous shipping business at Sag Harbor, he became the victim of adverse fortune. He rests in an unknown grave, in the old Burying Ground, in Southampton. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He m. Mary, dau. of Ephraim White—(See White). Howell ("Southampton") continues his line no further.

John Foster

FOSTER JOHN, JR. 6, LT. (John 5, above, John 4, 3, 2, Christopher 1)—From Sag Harbor to Saybrook. In Oct., 1776, he receipted to Capt. Richard Dickinson for the amount paid for entertaining the members of his father's family, at Saybrook. (C. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) On Feb. 23, 1776, he was appointed 1st Lt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 41. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was a pensioner in 1834, age 85. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428)

John Foster Jun

FOSTER PETER (

)—From Sag Harbor. He served in Conn. (G. 89) He m., in May, 1779, Hannah Vail. (East Haddam, Conn., Ch. Rec.) She was Hannah 5 (Obadiah 4, John 3, 2, Jeremiah 1)—(Vail Gen.)

FOSTER PRUDENCE 5 (Joseph 4, 3, 2, Christopher 1; sister of Christopher, above)—From Southampton to Chester. In Sept., 1776, she was brought from Sag Harbor to Chester, two persons and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason, her name being written "Crudance." (C. 98)

In the Census of 1776, Southampton W., the only ones recorded in her family were two females over 16 years of age. (A. 53) Who the second one was, is a mystery. She was b. in 1736. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 252)

A Prudence Foster, d. Dec. 25, 1858, aged 73; and is buried at Portland, Conn. She must, therefore, have been born in 1785; and could not have been in the Census. It is possible that she was related to Prudence, the Refugee.

FOURNIER—John, Sr., came from France to Aquebogue before 1756. (Griffin's "Journal") Howell ("Southampton," p. 256) gives the tradition that Francis, the Refugee below, came from France and assisted during the Rev'y War; and that he afterward resided at Red Creek.

FOURNIER FRANCIS 1—From Southold. He was in the Town as early as 1750. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, as "Francis, Frenchman," he was moved over to Conn., with six in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) Having, with his son, been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief, Feb. 12, 1778; which was granted, in May, 1778. (E. 4-9) He signed the Association, in Brookhaven, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48) After the War, he resumed his work as a horticulturist. From 1762 to 1767, he excelled in the raising of the grape—having over 1500 vines at one time. (Furman's "Antiquities of L. I.," p. 92)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) According to this, he was b. before 1726. He m. Mar. 6, 1761, Esther Clark. Their children, bapt.: Anna 2, July 29, 1764; Peter 2, Feb. 8, 1767; Joshua 2, Aug. 27, 1769; Barnabas 2, May 17, 1772. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Howell ("Southampton," p. 257) gives him a son John 2, who had: Ann 3, m. Dea. John White; Francis 3; and Oliver 3. Howell does not mention Anna 2; but he gives the children of Peter 2 and Barnabas 2. Peter 2 had: Hiram 3, b. in 1800; Peter 3, b. in 1805; John 3; and Franklin 3. Peter 3, m. Maria Bishop, and had: Frances 4; Arabella 4, b. in 1832; John F. 4, b. in 1834; Justina 4, b. in 1839, m. James L. Sanford; Fanny M. 4, b. in 1844, m. John Albertson; and Anne E. 4, b. in 1849. Barnabas 2, had: Barnabas 3; and Joshua 3.

The documents (E. 4-9) mention Francis Fournier and son; but the name of the son is not given. He was probably John 2, who also served in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48)

FWOLER—This Family, in America, was probably from Philip, b. in Marlborough, Eng., about 1590; emigrated to Ipswich, Mass., in 1634. His children remained in Mass.; but some of their descendants moved to New Hampshire. ("Hist. of Washington, N. H.," p. 429) One L. I. branch is from Christopher 1, who came to Southampton about 1678; and who had a son, Richard 2. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 257) Another L. I. branch is from William 1 who came to New Haven, Conn., in 1637. His son, Henry 2, removed to Westchester Co., N. Y., and d. in 1704. In 1684, he conveyed his house and home-lot to his son, William 3, then living at Flushing, L. I. Dr. P. Van B. Fowler of Centr. Moriches, L. I., is in the 10th gen. in this branch. (Fowler Gen. Also Dr. P. Van B. F.) Certain of the Westchester descendants are mentioned in B. 7.

FWOLER GEORGE—From Sag Harbor to New London. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213) In 1780-1, he was in the Illicit Trade. (E. 192) He served in the 2d Line (G. 44); and in Weissenfels' Levies. (G. 57)

It is probable that he was a son of John 3, son of Richard 2; and, if so, he was b. Aug. 14, 1759. (Howell, p. 257) Another George, was in Westchester Co., N. Y., during the War. (B. 7)

FOWLER JONATHAN—To Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over from L. I. by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with his family and effects, he was taken up the Conn. River by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He served in Conn. (G. 89)

Another Jonathan, was in Westchester Co., N. Y., during the War. (B. 7)

FOWLER WILLIAM—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); perhaps in the Dutchess Ass'd Exempts (G. 71); and in Conn. (G. 89) It is probable that he descended from William 3, of the Westchester branch.

FRANKLIN—John was among the early settlers at Southold. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 46) The N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. (23. 127) gives no facts relating to the Family on L. I.

FRANKLIN ABEL—From Block Island to Groton. On Jan 7, 1783, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return with his wife, three grand children, furniture, cattle, &c.; which was granted. He described himself as "an aged man." (E. 184, 185) He may have served in Conn. (G. 89)

Abel Franklin

FRANKS ISA—From Southold to New Haven (probably). He was brought over by Capt. Peter Bonticou, along with several other families—Bonticou's claim being paid Dec. 31, 1776. (A. 40. C. 14)

FRANKS JOHN, QR. MR. and CAPT—From Southold to Saybrook. He was given a pass by the N. Y. Conv'n, July 20, 1776, so that he might reach his home. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On Nov. 2, 1779, he was allowed to bring grain from L. I. to Saybrook for his family (D. 38); and, on Oct. 23, 1782, he was allowed to bring money and salt. (F. 78) In 1780, he took to Gov. Trumbull and the Conn. Council of Safety a recommendation of Capt. Paul Reeve by the Authorities of Saybrook. (E. 90) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He was generally known as Capt. Franks; for he had that office in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 5) Later, he was Pay Mr. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48. Also Clinton Pap., 2. 520); and, on Aug. 31, 1778, he was recommended by Lt. Col. Regnier for the vacant Lieutenantcy.

(Clinton Pap., 4. 4) He also acted as Comm'y of Supplies at the East end of L. I. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," 1. 537) He probably served in Conn. (G. 89)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He came directly from England; and was married twice. His second wife, Jane, d. about 1840. He was Postmaster and Town Clerk at the time of his death. (Mr. John H. Boisseau) He d. Mar. 3, 1825, in Southold, aged 85 (Salmon Rec.); and he is buried in the old Cemetery there. He had no children. (Mr. Albertson Case)

FRANKS JONATHAN—From Southold, probably. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved to Conn. by Capt. Peter Bonticou. (C. 14)

FURMAN—The Family Record states that John first settled at Patchogue, L. I.; that he had one son, Gabriel; that the latter settled in New York City or Brooklyn; and that he had sons, William and John. William lived in Long Island City, and had two children. John lived in Patchogue, and had six children. (Hon. George H. Furman)

Zebulon, b. in Brooklyn, in 17—; m. Dorothy Risley. Either Zebulon or his son settled at Patchogue, and either may have been the father of John, who was b. at Patchogue, and m. Ruth Ackerly. John had five children: Sally; Joel; Hester; John, below; and Katie. John, 2d, b. Feb. 6, 1806; m. Freeloove Hulse, who was b. Apr. 22, 1812. He had: Mary; Joel, who was the father of Hon. George H. of Patchogue; Salem; Caroline, who m. James A. Kemp, and was the mother of Prof. James F. Kemp; John; and Jeannette. (Prof. James F. Kemp)

FURMAN JOHN, LT.—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 14, 25); and probably in Conn. (G. 89) As Lt., he furnished one, or more, soldiers at his own expense. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 17) He was a Prisoner. (Same ref., p. 42) He was a Lt. in the 1st Line and the 5th Line (G. 43, 49); was taken Prisoner at Ft. Montgomery, and was confined at Gravesend, L. I., in 1778. (Page 124. Also "Penn. Mag. Hist. & Biog.," 1893. Also "N. Y. State Soc'y Cincinnati") On May 24, 1780, with other Prisoners on L. I., he petitioned Gov. Clinton for an exchange. (Clinton Pap., 5. 750-752)

He may have been the John who m. Ruth Ackerly, above. Or, John, son of Gabriel, above. If the latter, his father, Gabriel, may have been a Refugee. See Furman in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

GARDINER. The members of this Family, among the Refugees, were descended from Lion 1, who came from Holland, through London, to Saybrook, Conn., in Nov., 1635. A civil engineer, by profession, he had been engaged by Lord Say and Seal and Lord Brooke (from whose combined names the settlement at the mouth of the Connecticut River was called) to build a fort; and, later, he commanded it throughout the Pequot War. He also built the first fort in Boston. Becoming dissatisfied with the management of affairs on both sides of the Atlantic he purchased, on May 3, 1639, the Island (which still bears his name) from the Indians at the price of 12 coats of trading cloth. (T. Lechford's Note Book) Thus, Gardiner's Island became one of the earliest settlements within the present limits of the State of New York. It is three miles long; one mile wide; and is four miles from the Eastern end of L. I. It was held through eight generations of unbroken descent as an entailed and independent barony, until its final annexation to the State of New York, in March, 1788.

Lion 1 lived on the Island until 1653, when he removed to East Hampton. He d. there, in 1663; and his tomb is one of the most elaborate on L. I. The succession of Proprietors of the Island has been, by generations:—Lyon 1; David 2 (who was the first white child born in the colony of Conn.), b. in 1636, d. in 1689; John 3, b. in 1661, d. in 1738; David 4, b. in 1691, d. in 1751; John 5, b. in 1714, d. in 1764; David 6, b. in 1738, d. in 1774; John Lyon 7, b. in 1770, d. in 1816; David Johnson 8, b. in 1804, d. in 1829; John Griswold 9 (brother of the foregoing), b. in 1812, d. in 1861; Samuel Buel 10 (brother of John G. and David J.), b. in 1815, d. in 1882; David J. 11; John Lyon 12 (brother of David J. 11), b. in 1841, d. in 1910; Lion 13, b. in 1878.

Lion 1, b., in England, about 1599; m. Mary Wilemson Deurcant (b. about 1601, d. about 1665). His son, David 2, b. Apr. 29, 1636, at Saybrook,

Conn.; m. June 4, 1657, Wid. Mary Leringham; d. July 10, 1689. David 2 had sons; John 3, below; David 3, below; and Lion 3. His dau., Elizabeth 3, m. James 1 Parshall. (See Parshall)

John 3, b. Apr. 19, 1661; d. June 25, 1738. He m. (1) 1691, Mary King (b. in 1669, d. in 1707); m. (2) Sarah (b. in 1676, d. in 1711), dau. of John Chandler, and Wid. of William Coit; m. (3) Elizabeth (b. in 1669), dau. of John Allyn and Wid. of Alexander Allen; m. (4) Oct. 4, 1733, Elizabeth (d. in 1747, aged 64), dau. of Stephen Hedges and Wid. of Daniel Osborn, of East Hampton, L. I. His son, John 4, b. in 1693; d. Jan. 19, 1724-5; lived at New London, Conn., and had a son John 5. His son David 4, b. in 1691.

David 3, b. in 1662; m. Martha, dau. of Col. John Youngs (See Youngs); d. in 1732. His dau., Mary 4, m. David 2 Parshall. (See Parshall) He had a son, David 4. (Moore's "Index," pp. 17, 18, 78, 79, 143, 144. N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 40, 41. Also 23. 159. Also 27. 9 et seq. Also 42. 212, 213) David 4 had sons: David 5, and John 5.

David 4, who was the 4th Proprietor, had a dau., Mary 5, who m. Nathaniel 4 Huntingt. (See Huntingt) Also sons: Col. Abraham 5, below; and

John 5, the 5th Proprietor. The latter m. (1) Elizabeth (Chatfield) Mulford; m. (2) Deborah Avery who, after his death, m. Gen. Israel Putnam. John 5 had sons: David 6, John 6 and Septimus 6. David 6, m. Jerusha, dau. of Rev. Samuel, Buell. (See Jerusha Gardiner, below) John 6, m. Rachel 6, dau. of Col. Abraham 5, below, and Wid. of Col. David Mulford. (See Mulford) He had an estate known as Eaton's Neck. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 40, 41, 45. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 277-285)

GARDINER ABRAHAM 5, COL. (David 4, John 3, David 2, Lion 1; father of Dr. Nathaniel, below)—From East Hampton to Saybrook. On Sept. 9, 1776, with seven in his family, and his effects, he was brought over by Capts. Nathaniel Barns, James Harris, David Sayre and Thomas Robinson (C. 52); and, in Oct., 1776, other of his effects were brought to Stonington by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Although, in 1774, he was a member of the Committee of Correspondence of East Hampton (H. 1); yet, as a Col. in His Majesty's service, he sought to require the males of the Town to take the Oath of Allegiance to the King. For this, Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he should not be unduly blamed; as he afterward was, apparently, loyal to the American cause. (Pages 116, 117) In 1775, he was informed by the Fleet of the enemy that it would come again. (Page 28) About 1740-1745, he erected the residence shown in the illustration, the finest house in the Town at the time. During his absence of about a year, at Saybrook, the house was used as headquarters by Gov. Tryon, Sir William Erskine and Sir Henry Clinton. Officers from the British Fleet in Gardiner's Bay were also billeted there. The house is now occupied by Mr. David J. Gardiner.

He was a son of David, 4th Proprietor of Gardiner's Island. He was b. Feb. 19, 1721; m. June 12, 1745, Mary, dau. of Nathaniel 3 (Richard 2, 1—Bull) Smith (See Smith), of Moriches; d. Oct. 25, 1782. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 380) In the Census of 1776 he is put down as over 50 years old. Beside himself, and probably his wife, there were in the family: one male and one female over 16 years old; and one male and one female under 16. (A. 52)

His son, Dr. Nathaniel 5, was the Refugee, below. His dau., Rachel 6, m. (1) Capt. David Mulford, Jr. (See Mulford); m. (2) John 6, Gardiner, of Eaton's Neck, whose line was, John 5, David 4, 3, 2, Lion 1. His dau., Mary 6, m. Judge Isaac Thompson. (See Thompson) His son, Capt. Abraham 6, m. Phebe Dayton; and their son, Samuel S. 7, m. Mary, dau. of Ezra L'Hommedieu. (See L'Hommedieu) The daughters of Samuel S., Mary 8 and Phebe 8, m. Prof. Eben N. Horsford. (See Dering and L'Hommedieu)—(N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 41) Abraham 6, had a son, David 7, b. May 2, 1784. This David was a N. Y. State Senator, 1824-1828; and was author of "The Chronicles of East Hampton."

Abraham Gardiner

His dau., Julianna, 8, m. President John Tyler. David 7 was killed by the explosion of a gun on the U. S. Frigate "Princeton," on the Potomac, Feb. 28, 1844.

GARDINER DAVID, JR., 5 (David 4, 3, 2, Lion 1; brother of Dr. John below)—From Southold to Hartford. On Mar. 15, 1781, he petitioned the Gov. and Council of Safety of Conn. for permission to go to L. I. to secure evidence against a certain whale-boat party which had taken his property; this was granted, Mar. 16. (F. 4) A David Gardiner served in Conn. (G. 90) On May 3, 1781, Ezra L'Hommedieu wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Middletown, that David Gardiner would wait on him to ask permission to remove from L. I. to Conn. Some of his goods had been taken from him wrongfully. He was a friend to America, and had given information of a plot to take him. (Pages 205, 210. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 825, 830)

David 2, the 2d proprietor of Gardiner's Island, had a son David 3, who resided in Southold; who also had a son, David 4, who was probably the one in the Mattituck Burying Ground—his death occurring Mar. 2, 1748, in his 43d year. David Jr. was probably a son of the last named David. If so, he was a brother of John Gardiner, below. A David Gardiner, in July, 1796, m. Julia, dau. of James Havens, the Refugee. (See Havens) She was b. May 30, 1771.

In the Census of 1776, two of this name appear, in Southold. Both were under 50 years old; and perhaps they were father and son. Including their wives, the first David had, in his family, two females over 16 years old, and three under 16; the second had one female over 16, and one male and one female under 16. (A. 55)

GARDINER GAIUS—To Norwalk, where he was living in Sept., 1779. (F. 111)

His name does not appear in the Gardiner Gen.; and the Ch. Rec. and Town Rec. of East Hampton do not show it. Probably he came from the Southold branch.

GARDINER JEREMIAH—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was charged with two passengers to Stonington, by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); also in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

In the Census of 1776, a Jeremiah appears. But the Refugee is probably the one from East Hampton who, apparently, had a son over 16 years old, and four sons under 16. (A. 52) His name does not appear in the Gardiner Gen. The Ch. Recs. of East Hampton show that he was b. in 1741; m. in 1754; joined the Church in 1764. Several of his children were b. between 1754 and 1780; and a son d. in 1775. The Town Recs. show that he was a cattle owner, in 1764; and that he frequently held several Town offices between that date and 1787. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He returned from Conn. to East Hampton, where he d. (Mr. Jonathan T. Gardiner)

GARDINER JERUSHA, MRS.—From East Hampton to Hartford. With her family, she was brought from Saybrook to Hartford, by Capt. Daniel Hale, in Sept., 1776. (C. 53) The Census of 1776 gave her two sons under 16 years old. (A. 52)

She was the Wid. of David 6 (John 5, David 4, John 3, David 2, Lion 1), the 6th Proprietor of Gardiner's Island, b. Oct. 8, 1738; d. Sept. 8, 1774. She was a dau. of Rev. Samuel Buell (1. 2), and was b. Nov. 5, 1749; m. Dec. 15, 1766; d. in 1782. Probably she went to Conn. with her own cousin Elias Buell Jr., who was a Refugee. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton. See also Buell) She returned; and, in 1779, m. (2) Isaac Conkling, of Amagansett, and d. there. (Mr. Jonathan T. Gardiner) Buel Gen. states that she m. (2) Dec. 4, 1778. Her son, John Lyon Gardiner 7, the 7th Proprietor, m. Sarah, dau. of John Griswold, Esq., of Lyme, Conn. She was a niece of Gov. Roger Griswold; and a granddau. of Gov. Matthew and Ursula (Wolcott) Griswold. (Lamb's "Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 633) John Lyon's sons, David Johnson Gardiner 8 and John Griswold Gardiner 8, became, in turn, the 8th and 9th Proprietors. Her son, Isaac Conkling, Jr., b. about 1780.

GARDINER JOHN 5, DR. (David 4, 3, 2, Lion 1; brother of David, Jr., above)—From Southold to Norwich. On Aug. 4, 1778, Gov. Trumbull wrote to Capt. Jesse Leavenworth advising him to settle with John Gardiner for a stallion taken from him (D. 12); and, on Mar. 28, 1782, the Governor was authorized to permit the said Gardiner to go to L. I. to bring off his wife and household goods. (F. 53) On June 23, 1778, he receipted for the claim of Obadiah Hudson. (C. 80)

He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15) He served as Surg. Mate on the Frigate "Confederacy." (Page 218. Also G. 90) After the War, he practised medicine in Southold. (Dr. Frank Overton's "Hist. Suff. Co. Med'l Soc'y"—1907) He was the proprietor of Gardiner's Neck, the Indian Pessepuncke Neck, in Mattituck. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 126) He lost much property on account of the War. (Page 193)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1750; d. Oct. 21, 1823, aged 74. (Overton, as above) His dau., Martha 6, bapt. in 1759. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His wife, Mary, d. Nov. 12, 1781, aged 51; and his wife, Hannah, d. Mar. 10, 1787, aged 57. He d. Oct. 19, 1795, aged 68. (Tombstones at Mattituck) His wife, Mary, was probably the dau. of Dea. James Reeve. (See Reeve)

A John, of Orange Co., N. Y., m. Christine Finch. He probably left L. I. before the War. (Miss Mary T. Hall)

Another John, m. (1) Abigail Worth; (2) Peggy, dau. of Maj. Calvin Moore. (See Moore) He is buried at Southold. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 127)

Still another John, of Easthampton, was on the Committee of Correspondence for that Town, in 1774. (H. 1) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52)

GARDINER JOSHUA—He appears to have had a small claim for expenses of removal. (C. 4)

From the fact that his name does not appear in the Gardiner Gen., the Ch. Rec. or the Town Rec. of Easthampton, it is probable that he belonged to the Southold branch. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He is unknown to me. (Mr. Jonathan T. Gardiner)

GARDINER MARTHA, MRS.—From Plum Island. On Feb. 15, 1785, she was allowed to return to the Island with cattle. (F. 98) She was the wife of Col. Thomas, below.

John Gardiner

GARDINER NATHANIEL 6, DR. (Son of Col. Abraham, above)—From East Hampton. On Oct. 25, 1782, he petitioned to return to East Hampton. (F. 130) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He was a Surg. in the 1st New Hampshire Infantry during a part of the War. (Mr. Jonathan T. Gardiner) He was Surg. Mate in the Hospital Service (Page 180. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 44); he also served in Conn. (G. 90) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1786, 1788-90. (Civil List)

After the War, he returned to East Hampton (Hon. Henry P. Hedges); and occupied the house which had been built by his father, Col. Abraham. See pages 351 and 352.

An interesting story is related by Hon. Henry P. Hedges in his Bi-Centennial Address, at East Hampton:

The unfortunate Major André was, for several weeks, quartered at the house of Col. Abraham Gardiner; and his gentlemanly deportment, and generous feelings won the esteem of the family. Dr. Nathaniel Gardiner, son of Col. Gardiner, was on a visit to his father at this period.

Having come within the British lines, he was liable to be seized as a spy, and though the family took every precaution to conceal his presence, it was soon perceived that André was not without knowledge of it. He forbore, however, any allusion to it, and subsequently expressed his regret that their relative situation had prevented him from soliciting an interview. André afterwards repaired to New York, and his unfortunate fate is well known. During the night preceding his untimely death, the young Surgeon, whom he had thus encountered, enjoyed by a strange coincidence, and in the capacity of an enemy, the melancholy pleasure of his society. He left with the family several memorials of friendship.

Dr. Gardiner was b. Jan. 11, 1759; d. Mar. 25, 1804. He m. Jan. 27, 1784, Elizabeth, dau. of Thomas Dering, of Shelter Island. (See Dering. Also Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 177) She was b. Apr. 21, 1762; d. Mar. 18, 1801. Their children were: Maria Sylvester, 7, b. in 1784, d. Nov. 9, 1804; Robert Smith 7, b. Sept. 10, 1786, d. Jan. 19, 1824; Elizabeth Packer 7, b. June 4, 1788, m. Reuben Bromley.

GARDINER THOMAS, COL.—From Plum Island. In May, 1780, a permit to remove his produce from the Island was asked by his son-in-law, David Palmer. (F. 116) His wife was Martha Gardiner, above.

On Aug. 22, 1775, it was stated to the Suffolk Co. Committee, that an officer of the "Ministerial Fleet," had informed Col. Gardiner that they would come again with a force sufficient to take the stock from L. I. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197) The Jour. of the Prov'l Cong. states that, in Oct. or Nov., 1776, he was on a whale-boat expedition to Brookhaven. It is possible that, later, he served in the 1st Line and in the Art'y of the Line. (G. 43, 51)

GATES WILLIAM—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32) One of the name served in Mass. (Gates Gen.)

He m., Feb. 24, 1781, Margaret McRaa. (Fairfield, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

GELSTON—The following notes, (unless otherwise stated) are taken from the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., July, 1871. There are, also, some statements from the Patterson MSS.—East Haddam Families.

The brothers, Rev. Samuel Gelston and Hugh Gelston, came from Belfast, Ireland. Rev. Samuel, fifth Minister in Southampton, b. in 1692; came to New England in 1715; and, going to Maryland, was engaged to preach, being licensed by the Presbytery of Philadelphia, Sept. 21, 1715. He labored a short time in Kent County; and, Sept. 17, 1716, accepted a call to Southampton, where his brother, Hugh Gelston, Esq., had preceded him. He was the colleague of Mr. Whiting, and was ordained Apr. 17, 1717. Remaining here about ten years, he was dismissed, and returned to the South. He d. Oct. 22, 1782, aged 90 years. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 339, 340) He returned to Ireland, and probably was never married. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

The name is often spelled and pronounced Gillson. In fact, when the Refugees went to East Haddam, Conn., the natives persisted in calling the name Gilson. The name takes the form of Jillson in the State of N. Y., near Lake Champlain. Efforts have been made to show that those who use these variants descended from Rev. Samuel; but, as he had no family, that descent is impossible. It is more likely that the descent is from Dr. Samuel 2, son of Judge Hugh 1, and brother of Dea. Maltby 2, the Refugee, below. From Dr. Samuel 2 probably descend certain others of the name, Gelston. Prominent among them was Capt. Cotton Gelston, of Hudson, N. Y., a shipmaster who suffered much at the hands of the French; and whose descendants finally secured redress through the French Spoliation Claims. The N. Y. Ass'y, Jour., Feb. 23, 1788, records a petition from him relative to the omission (at the custom house) of an entry of coals imported in the ship "Hudson;" and the Senate Jour., Feb. 28, 1798, states that he, with others, had protested against obstructing the Hudson River with fishing nets.

Judge Hugh 1, b. in 1697, came to Southampton in 1717, where he became a merchant. In 1752, he was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Suffolk Co., L. I. This position he held for 21 years, under the Colonial Government, being re-appointed in 1764 and 1771. Baylis ("Suffolk Co.") and Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 339) make the appointment end in 1764. He d. Dec. 8, 1775, aged 78 years. (Thompson, as above)

He m. (1) in 1717, Mary (b. in 1664), dau. of John Maltby, Jr., and Susannah Clark, of Southampton. John, Jr., was a son of John Maltby, of New Haven, who was lost at sea, in 1676. The Wid. of John then m. Edward Howell who brought the children to Southampton; where John Jr., m. Susannah, Clark. A family of this name, in Hadlyme, Conn., claims descent from him. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 431) Mrs. Mary Gelston d. July 23, 1737. Judge Hugh 1 then m. (2) Mrs. Mary Pelletreau, Wid. of Francis Pelletreau. (See Pelletreau) He had 11 children by his first marriage; and three, by his second—of whom: Susannah 2, m. Col. Josiah Smith (See Smith); Dea. Maltby 2, below; Sarah 2, m., as second wife, Elias Pelletreau. (See Pelletreau)

David Gelston

GELSTON DAVID 3 (Maltby 2, Hugh 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. Capt. Joshua Griffith brought his goods thither, Sept. 13; and his cattle, Sept. 20, 1776. (C. 57) Other of his goods were brought to Saybrook, Sept. to Nov., 1776, by Capts. James Harris, Samuel Shaler, William Warner, Robert Knight, David Sayre, Joshua Griffith, Pettit and Elijah Mason. He paid for the removal of the goods of Maltby Gelston, David Sayre, John Gelston and Mehitable Mitchell. He also collected the claims of Daniel Haines, Elias Halsey, Silvanus Pierson, John Miller, Sylvanus Jennings, James King, Capt. Nathaniel Barns and Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 196-204) In Dec., 1777, he receipted for the account of Silvanus Pierson. (C. 199) In the N. Y. Convention, Aug. 28, 1776, the Governor of Conn. was requested to send 1,000 Troops for the protection of the inhabitants, and the security of the stock on Nassau Island. Letters were written asking assistance in removing the stock, &c.; and David Gelston was ordered to proceed to Conn. with the letters. (A. 12) As Chairman of the Committee of Safety of Suffolk Co., it became the duty of Maltby 2 to send a delegate, which he did in the person of his son, David 3, to Governor Trumbull of Conn., asking for a part of the Conn. Militia to defend L. I.; stating in his letter to the Governor that unless said Troops were furnished, the loyal people would be obliged to become Refugees. (Miss Marie A. Gelston) In Sept. 1776, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. as to the distress on L. I. (Page 177)

In 1770, he was one of the petitioners for a Wharf at Sag Harbor. (Page 166) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) He was a Member of the 2d, 3d, and 4th Prov'l Congresses, 1775-1777, the latter being empowered to establish a new form of government. (A. 57-59. Also Civil List) On Oct. 14, 1776, he reported to the Committee of Safety that 1,000 pounds of powder had been removed from Suffolk Co. to Saybrook. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On the same date, he was appointed one of a Committee to have saltpetre made in Suffolk Co. and sent to Conn. (Misc. Pap., 35. 343 and 38. 248); and, on Dec. 28, 1776, the Committee of Safety voted money to pay the expenses of making the same. (Page 110. Also A. 26) On Jan. 17, 1777, he was appointed by the Committee of Safety one of a Committee to procure accounts of the disposition of vessels, effects, etc., brought from L. I. to Conn.; and to inquire why certain arms and ammunition had not been delivered at Fishkill. (A. 30) On Jan. 27, same year, he was similarly appointed to report a method of reimbursing the State for its expenses in transporting the effects of the Refugees from L. I., and of accounting for the same in the State of Conn. (Page 33. Also A. 33) On Oct. 4, he receipted for the claims of 185 Refugees—a total of £1,797.14.8 Lawful, or £2,396.19.5 York. (C. 4) On Jan. 7, 1778, he paid the claim of the Wid. and children of Thomas Filer. (C. 5, No. 104) On Nov. 3, 1778, he and Ezra L'Hommedieu received from Gerard Bancker, Treas'r, £693.3.2 to pay additional claims. (C. 6) In May, 1778, he and Col. John Hurlbut asked of the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. permission to bring certain goods from Boston; which was allowed in the Upper House, but negatived in the Lower House. (Page 209. Also E. 3) In 1780, he was one of the Comm'rs to raise specie for redeeming a part of the bills emitted. (Page 136. Also Rev'y MSS, N. Y. State Lib'y, 42. 113) He was Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1777; Member of the N. Y. Ass'y from Suffolk Co., 1777-1785 (B. 43-48. Also Civil List); Speaker of the Ass'y 1784-5; Member of the Council of Appointment, 1792-3; Senator from the Southern Dist., 1791-4, 1798 and 1802; and Delegate to the U. S. Cong., 1788. (Civil List) In 1786, he removed to New York, and was soon afterward Surrogate of the City. In 1801, he was made Collector for the Port of New York, the duties of which he discharged until Dec., 1820. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y.")

He was b. July 7, 1744; m. (1) ——— Sanford; m. (2) Phebe (b. in 1753 or 1759, d. in 1811), dau. of John Mitchell (see Mitchell), of Bridge Hampton; m. (3) Mary, dau. of Col. Joseph Robinson, and Wid. of Nathaniel Hazard. (See Robinson and Hazard, the latter in "The Refugees from N. Y. City") He d. Aug. 21, 1828. The Census of 1776 gave him two children under 16 years of age. (A. 54) These were: Phebe 4 (b. Sept. 2, 1770, d. Jan. 13, 1836), who m. Oct. 10, 1789, Col. Nicoll Floyd (See Floyd); and Maltby 4, President of the Manhattan Company, who m. Margaret, dau. of Dr. Thomas Jones, of New York City. (Thompson's "Long Island," i. 340. Also Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") Another dau. of Dr. Jones m. Hon. DeWitt Clinton. Maltby 4 had: Margaret L. 5, d. in 1866, not married; John 4, not m.; and Mary 4, m. Henry Winthrop, and left a large fortune to Princeton College. Other children of David 3 were: John Mitchell 4, and Maria 4—both of whom d. unmarried.

GELSTON HUGH 3, SERJT. (Maltby 2, Hugh 1)—From Southampton to East Haddam (probably). In Nov., 1779, he petitioned to winter his horses on L. I. (F. 112) On Dec. 3, 1779, he was allowed to go to L. I. for 300 bushels of salt. (Page 115. Also F. 114) This comment was made by Hon. Henry P. Hedges:

I think Gelston was going to get this salt from the old salt works on Hog Neck, located on or near the old Mitchell farm, lately owned by Samuel L. Gardiner, deceased, and probably operated in the Revolutionary time or before. The salt was produced by evaporation of salt water.

He served as private and Serjt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 12, 29, 30) He may have been the ——— Gelston who was Qr. Mr. in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

He was b. Nov. 19, 1754; m. Puah, dau. of David Corwithe, of Bridge Hampton; d., without issue, Apr. 26, 1828. He removed to Sag Harbor about 1806.

Hugh Gelston

GELSTON JOHN 3, ADJT. (Maltby 2, Hugh 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. In Nov., 1776, his expenses of removal were paid to his brother David. (C. 196) On Jan. 24, and Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for provisions, flax, &c (D. 44); also, in Apr., 1782. (F. 54) On Mar. 6, 1783, he was allowed to go to L. I. with his wife and dau. (F. 106) In Nov., 1782, he requested of Gov. Trumbull permission for his father, Dea. Maltby, to send two cows to L. I. (F. 10) He was Adj. of Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) He signed the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y from Suffolk Co., 1791-1795. (Civil List) For many years he was in the office of the Collector of the Port of N. Y. along with his brother David. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

He was b. Aug. 1, 1750; m. (1) Phebe Foster, Wid. of Nathan Morehouse; m. (2) Phebe Herrick, of Southampton; d. in 1831. It is also stated that he m. Phebe (b. in 1759), dau. of John and Mehitable Mitchell. (See Mitchell)

MALTBY GELSTON — BRIDGE HAMPTON, L. I.

(Photographed specially for this work)

The Census of 1776 gave him a young daughter (A. 54) who must have been the one mentioned in Thompson's "Long Island" (1. 340); although she does not appear in the Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. The Rec. states that he had a son, John 4, b. June 24, 1779, at East Haddam; not m., lived in N. Y. City. (Miss Lucy Gelston) His son, Jeremiah 4, d. at E. Haddam, in 1779. (Tombstone) The Rec. says nothing of a son who, with the dau., was surviving in 1843, according to Thompson. (Same ref.) The dau. was Elizabeth 4. Both son and dau. were unmarried. John Gelston (Miss Lucy Gelston)

GELSTON MALTBY 2, DEA. (Hugh 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. He was a Magistrate of the Town and Surrogate of the County before the Revolution. In Feb., 1776, he certified to the election of Officers of a Co. of Minute men. (Page 88) He was Chairman of the Committee of Southampton, in the same year. (Page 145. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong. See also David 3, above) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) His efforts to secure protection from Gov. Trumbull having failed, and his patriotism being well known, it was unsafe for him to remain on L. I. So he sought refuge in Conn., taking with him his family, and such of his household effects as could be carried, leaving many cherished possessions behind them. (Miss Marie A. Gelston) His sons, David, Serjt. Hugh, Adj. John, Thomas and Capt. William were also Refugees.

On Sept. 5, 1776, with six in the family and his goods, he was landed at East Haddam; on Sept. 13, his cattle were brought to Saybrook; and, on Sept. 20, his cattle and additional goods were brought to East Haddam—all by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) In Nov., 1776, still other of his goods were brought over by Capt. Robert Knight, James Wiggins and Joshua Griffeth (C. 54); and, same month, his expenses of removal were paid to his son David. (C. 196) On Jan. 24, and on Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for provisions, flax &c. (D. 44) On Nov. 5, 1782, he was allowed to take two cows to L. I. (F. 10); and, on Mar. 6, 1783, he was allowed to take to the Island, cattle and boards for repairing his house and building a barn. (F. 107) He returned to the Island after the War. In the meantime his house had been occupied by the British; and his wife's bed room, used by General Lord Erskine as a horse stable. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

He was b. Mar. 20, 1723; m. ———, Mary Parsons; d. Sept. 22, 1783. He was a farmer in Bridge Hampton, and a Dea. in the Congregational Ch. In the N. Y. Gen' land Biog'l Rec. it is stated that he was much esteemed as a peacemaker. (Miss Lucy Gelston) According to the Census of 1776, there were in his family, beside himself, one son over 16 years of age; his wife and two daughters, over 16; and one dau. under 16. (A. 54) This would tally with the six passengers to Conn., above. The son was probably William 3; as his sons, David 3, John 3 and Thomas 3 are given in the Census as heads of families. His wife d. Feb. 28, 1785, at East Haddam; and she is buried there. The tombstone records her age as 64. Of his daughters:—Elizabeth 3, m. Capt. David Pierson (See Peirson); Jane 3, m. David Sayre (See Sayre); Mary 3, b. July 3, 1758, m. (1) James Green, mariner, of East Haddam, who was lost at sea, m. (2) Caleb Rogers of Bridge Hampton; Abigail 3, b. Sept. 28, 1763, d., Jan. 2, 1781, at East Haddam, and is buried there. (Record)

Maltby Gelston

GELSTON THOMAS 3 (Maltby 2, Hugh 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. On Sept. 20, 1776, with three in the family and five passengers, he was brought over by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) The Census of 1776 showed that, beside himself and wife, there was a dau. under 16. (A. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 33); also, the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34) He was known as the wit of Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

He was b. Apr. 7, 1752; m. ———, Mary, dau. of David Corwithe, of Bridge Hampton; d. ———, at Bridge Hampton. He had five children, of whom: Laura 4, m. Capt. Jeremiah Ludlow, of Bridge Hampton; and Thomas 4 and Leander 4 settled at St. Louis, Mo. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

Thomas Gelston

GELSTON WILLIAM 3, CAPT. (Maltby 2, Hugh 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. In Nov., 1779, he petitioned to winter his horses on L. I. (F. 112) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in Conn. (G. 90) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Immediately, on settling in Conn., a call for additional troops was sounded, and he joined the Revolutionary Army, being at that time only nineteen. He was taken prisoner and confined in the prison ship, "Jersey," in Wallabout Bay. More fortunate than thousands of others who found death there, he was paroled and afterward exchanged. He joined the whale-boat fleet, as Captain, and fought until the close of the war. For these services he was pensioned for life. (Miss Marie A. Gelston) He also served as a Privateersman. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

He was b. Sept. 3, 1756. He m. at East Haddam, July —, 1781, Scena (Asenath) Sears, dau. of Matthew and Martha Warner Sears (See Sears)—(Miss Lucy Gelston. Also E. Haddam Ch. Rec.) She d. Mar. 7, 1846, aged 86. He d. June 24, 1840. Both are buried at East Haddam. On his tombstone is recorded: "A Revolutionary Patriot; he took up arms in defense of his country in its great struggle for liberty, and has always been a supporter and admirer of its institutions." His Wid., Scena, d. Mar. 7, 1846. The house in which he lived is occupied by the family of his g. grandson, John Maltby 6.

Miss Marie A. Gelston, g. grand dau. of William, relates an interesting story concerning the marriage of Capt. William 3 and Asenath Sears:

To buy the wedding gown it was necessary to cross the Sound to L. I. This was perilous; for the British confiscated all the goods that were captured. But Asenath ran the risk; secured some yards of silk; and, wrapping them about her, managed to reach East Haddam in safety. The gown does not survive; but the descendants have the half dozen cups and saucers that came over with it.

Excluding from the 10 children of Capt. William 3 those who removed to a distance, or who left no issue, we record:—

William 4, b. Apr. 22, 1787; m. Oct. 21, 1821, Lucy, dau. of John Bigelow and Temperance Spencer (who was b. Sept. 10, 1798, d. June 14, 1880). He d. Mar. 7, 1875. (Tombstones at E. Haddam) He served in the War of 1812. His children were: Laressa 5; Abby Ann 5, m. Henry E. West, of New London, Conn.; Maltby 5, a jeweler in N. Y. City; Mary Jane 5; John Bigelow 5; and Lucy 5. The two latter now (1912) live at E. Haddam. John Bigelow 5, m. Oct. 29, 1862, Sarah Brainerd Ackley. His children: John Maltby 6; Rebecca 6, of White Plains, N. Y.; Hollister 6; William Isaac 6; Sarah Ackley 6; George Hugh 6; and Mary 6. John Maltby 6, m. Fanny Benedict, and had: Ruth 7, Roy 7 and Ethel 7. John Maltby 6, d. Apr. 11, 1912; his wife d. in 1910.

Henry 4, b. ———; m. Ann M., dau. of ——— and Phebe Howell. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

George Sears 4, b. Aug. 13, 1805; m. ————1845, Marie Antoinette Minnell; d. Mar. 6, 1890. He resided at Ft. Hamilton Harbor, now Brooklyn, N. Y. Children:—George Sears, Jr., 5; Marie Antoinette 5; Mary Stuart 5; Thomas Henry 5; and Lillian Mathilda 5. George Sears, Jr., 5, d. without issue. Thomas Henry 5 had a son and a dau., both married. (Miss Marie A. Gelston)

William Gelston

GIBSON JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); in the 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 44, 48); in Willett's Levies (G. 62); in the 5th Dutchess (G. 67); and in Conn. (G. 90)

GILDERSLEEVE—Richard 1, was an original proprietor of Wethersfield, Conn., having land in Naubuc (now Glastonbury) also. He contemplated removing to the New Haven Colony, because, on June 4, 1639, he was one of 70 freemen who met to settle a government (New Haven Col. Records, pp. 1, 2); which he did by going to Stamford, Conn., in the Spring of 1641. He remained in Stamford until 1644; when he removed to Hempstead, L. I., procuring with others a patent from the Dutch. In 1656, he was a subscriber to the Dutch patent for the settlement of Newtown (Riker's "Annals," pp. 26, 27); and fulfilled the duties of Magistrate there. This was only temporary, as he finally became permanent in Hempstead. (O'Callaghan's "Reg. of New Netherlands," p. 85); as Vol. 1 of Hempstead Records testifies. (Prof. Willard H. Gildersleeve) The Church disagreements at Wethersfield, and the resulting settlement of Stamford and Hempstead, are described in Chap. 16. An interesting account of the early generations is given in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 9 et seq. While he was at Stamford, Richard 1 was a Representative in the Gen'l Court of the New Haven Colony. He had a son, Richard 2, who was closely identified with him. Richard 2 was Town Clerk. His will was proved, at Jamaica, L. I., in 1691.

Richard 2 had a son, Thomas 3, from whom is descended Hon. Henry A. Gildersleeve, of New York City, late Justice of the Supreme Court. Richard 2 also had a son, Richard 3. The latter, (Hempstead Rec., Vol. 2) settled in Huntington, L. I., and the Refugees from Huntington are his descendants. His son, Thomas 4, of Huntington, was a private in Capt. Thomas' Co., in 1715 ("N. Y. State Archives" 1. 519); and Trustee, 1739-1740. Of his children: Elizabeth 5, m. John Wood; Stephen 5, m. Elizabeth Whitehead; Mary 5, m. Moses Vail; Benjamin 5, the Refugee, below; Philip 5, m. Sarah Brewster; Obadiah 5, the Refugee, below; and Experience 5, m. John Bayley. (Prof. W. H. G.)

GILDERSLEEVE ALATHEA, MRS.—Probably from Southold to Middletown. On Mar. 28, 1780, with her child, she was allowed to go to L. I. for some of her effects. (D. 47) The name of the child is not known.

She was the Wid. of Henry 6 Gildersleeve, the Refugee, below. She was Alatheia 5, dau. of Elton 4, Overton; b. in 1755, d. May 19, 1831. (See Overton) It is evident that she returned to L. I. to be married to Jonathan Tuthill (See Tuthill), on Apr. 27, 1780. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

GILDERSLEEVE BENJAMIN 5 (Thomas 4, Richard 3, 2, 1; brother of Obadiah below; father of Serjt. Daniel, below, Lt. Finch, below, and Richard, One, below)—From Huntington to Norwalk. (Prof. W. H. G.) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was bapt. Apr. 19, 1724; m. Oct. 10, 1745, Elizabeth Highbe. He had several children beside the three named above. (Prof. W. H. G.)

GILDERSLEEVE DANIEL 6, SERJT. (Son of Benjamin 5, above; brother of Lt. Finch, below, and Richard, One, below)—From Huntington. There was a Gildersleeve who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and he may have been the man. An applicant for a Pension had the same name. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 272) He was a Corp. in Sandford's Co., Malcom's Regt., enlisted May 1, 1777; also Qr. Mr. Serjt. He d. in the service, at Valley Forge, Mar. 5, 1778. He was bapt. June 7, 1747. (Prof. W. H. G.) A Daniel Gildersleeve, m. Elizabeth Gildersleeve, Feb. 19, 1777. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

GILDERSLEEVE FINCH 6, LT. (Son of Benjamin, above; brother of Serjt. Daniel, above, and Richard, One, below)—From Huntington to Norwalk. On Dec. 11, 1781, he asked a permit to go from Norwalk to L. I. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1886, p. 22) On Dec. 18, 1781, Gen. Waterbury allowed him to go to L. I. with a Flag. (D. 49) He served in the 3d Line and in the Add'l Corps of the Line (G. 46, 54); also in Weissenfels' and Malcom's Levies. (G. 57, 58) He was appointed Qr. Mr. Sept. 1, 1777. (Prof. W. H. G.) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was bapt. Feb. 17, 1751; m. Mary, dau. of Capt. William and Lydia (St. John) Seymour; d. in 1812. In 1791 he removed to a farm in Dutchess Co., now a part of Putnam Co., N. Y. He had: Frederick 7, Dr. Thomas 7, Rev. William 7, Rev. Benjamin 7, John R. 7, Lydia 7 and Betsy 7. Many of his descendants live in Virginia, Ohio and Colorado. Frederick 7 had: Romulus 8, below, of Penn Yan, N. Y.; and John Finch 8, of Fleming, N. Y., who had Frank Perry 9, of Union Springs, N. Y. Romulus 8 had: Frederick Peck 9, of Oak Park, Ill., who had Clyde 10, of Chicago. Rev. Benjamin 7, D. D., was a graduate of Middlebury College, and a celebrated evangelist. He, finally, lived at Tazewell, Va. He had: Prof. Basil Lanneau 8, the well known philologist of Johns Hopkins University, who has two children—one of them being Raleigh C. 9, an architect in N. Y. City; Dr. John R. 8, Pres't of the Va. Med. Soc'y; Benjamin 8, below; Gilbert Snowden 8, below; and Joanna Frances 8, who m. Rev. H. B. Pratt, a Missionary to S. America, and had a son Benjamin G. Pratt, of N. Y. City. Benjamin 8, of Abingdon, Va., had: Benjamin 9, of Damascus, Va., who had Benjamin 10; and Basil Greenway 9, who had Basil Greenway 10. Gilbert Snowden 8, of Gratton, Va., had: John R. 9, Benjamin E. 9 and Gilbert S. 9. Rev. William 7 had: Dr. William Cowper 8, below; James Hervey 8, of Denver; Charles Leland 8, of Butte, Mont.; and George Whitfield 8, of Denver, whose son, George S. 9, is a well known engineer of Detroit, Mich. Dr. William Cowper 8, of Denver, had: Leland H. 9, of Ohio, who had—Charles 10, Frederick 10, William 10 and Eugene H. 10; William D. 9, who had—Robert M. 10 and William A. 10; and Frank B. 9, of Denver. (Prof. W. H. G.)

GILDERSLEEVE HENRY 6 (Son of Obadiah, below; brother of Philip, below and Richard, Two, below)—From Huntington to Middletown (probably). He served in Capt. Pierson's Co., Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 29)

He was b. Apr. 30, 1755; m. Jan. 29, 1778, Elethan (Alatheia) Overton (Chatham—Portland, Conn., Ch. Rec. See also Alatheia, above); d. Nov. 26, 1779. It was stated, in the Ch. Rec., that both were from L. I. Gen. Seth Overton was appointed administrator of his estate. (Middletown, Conn., Probate Rec., 4. 442)

GILDERSLEEVE OBADIAH 5 (Thomas 4, Richard 3, 2, 1; brother of Benjamin, above; father of Henry, above, Philip, below, and Richard, Two, below)—From Huntington, via Sag Harbor, to Chatham, or that part of Portland now called Gildersleeve. On Sept. 2, 1776, some of his effects were moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) In Sept., 1776, he and his effects were moved as follows: Capt. Daniel Hale, six people and goods, Saybrook to Middletown; Capt. James Wiggins, L. I. to Moodus; Capt. Robert Knight, Moodus to Middletown; Capt. Starr Greenfield, L. I. to Chatham. On Jan. 12, 1778, his claim for expenses was paid to his son Philip. (C. 55) From Nov. '76, to Oct. '78, Obadiah Gildersleeve, of Sag Harbor, at New Haven. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co." p. 79) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

In the Census of 1776, Southampton East, an Obadiah Gildersleeve appears with three males in the family over 16 years of age; 2, under 16; 3 females over 16; and 1 under 16. (A. 54)

He was bapt. May 28, 1728; m. Feb. 14, 1750, Mary, dau. of Richard and Esther (Chichester) Dinge, of Huntington. They were married by Rev. Ebenezer Prime. He removed to Sag Harbor, L. I., in 1762, and was engaged in ship-building. He continued in this work after leaving L. I., in 1776. His home was at Chatham, Conn. His wife, b. in 1725, d. June 2, 1798, aged 73. He then, with his dau. Esther, removed to South Glastonbury, Conn., where he d. Jan. 5, 1816, aged 88. He and his wife are buried at Gildersleeve, Conn.

The births of the children of Obadiah 5, as given below, are recorded in the Family Bible which was torn and worn so that some dates are missing. The Bible, itself, is missing now; as the Bidwell heirs had it (Elizabeth 6). Henry 7, b. in 1785, removed to Canada, founded a branch there, and named his eldest son Overton Smith 8, b. in 1825. This shows the feeling of kinship to the Overtons of Chatham, Conn. (Prof. W. H. G.) Esther 6, b. Oct. 10, 1751, d. Sept. 14, 1826; Mary 6, b. Dec. 25, 1753, m. Henry Fuller, of Chatham, Conn., and had two children—Eliza and Henry Fuller, of Barkhamsted, Litchfield Co., Conn.; Henry 6, the Refugee, above; Philip 6, the Refugee, below; Elizabeth 6, b. Apr.—, 1759, d. Jan. 1, 1841, m. Timothy Russell, of Chatham, Conn., a Rev'y soldier, and had Russell children—Charlotte m. (1) Noah Wrisley, (2) Samuel Goodrich, Mary, m. Geo. Bidwell, and Daniel m. Mary Bidwell (Trinity Ch. Rec., Portland, Conn.); Sarah 6, b. Jan. 2, 1762, d. Aug. 6, 1843, m. Samuel, son of Moses and Desire (Ranney) Willcox of Chatham, their eight children bapt. in Trinity Ch., as above; Obadiah 6, b. Aug.—, 1763 ("Heads of Families 1790—Connecticut," p. 61), m. Dec. 3, 1786, Cloe Bushnell, removed to Hartland, Conn., in 1790, was listed in Litchfield, Conn., later removed to Ohio; Richard 6, the Refugee, below; Bailey 6, b. Dec.—, 1767, d. Jan. 11, 1773.

Obadiah Gildersleeve

GILDERSLEEVE PHILIP 6 (Son of Obadiah, above; brother of Henry, above and Richard, Two, below)—From Huntington to Portland, with his father, Obadiah. On Jan. 12, 1778, his father's claim for expenses of removal was paid to him. (C. 55) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); also in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

He was b. at Huntington, L. I., July 2, 1757; m. May 4, 1780, Temperance, dau. of Capt. James and Temperance (Tryon) Gibbs, of Windsor, Conn.; d. Oct. 26, 1822. His wife was b. Apr. 9, 1756; d. Sept. 22, 1831. Both are buried at Portland. He removed, with his father, Obadiah, to Sag Harbor, in 1763; and continued in the ship-building business with him after the removal to Conn. He was master carpenter on the ship-of-war "Connecticut" (514 tons, 20 guns), 1799, which Gen. Seth Overton contracted to build for the Government. (Prof. W. H. G.) His children were: Jeremiah 7; Betsy 7; Henry 7 (founder of the Canadian branch); Lathrop 7; Sylvester 7, below; and Cynthia 7. Sylvester 7, b. Feb. 25, 1795; m. (1) Dec. 19, 1814, Rebecca

Dixon (b. in June, 1794, d. Aug. 10, 1824); m. (2) Nov. 17, 1828, Emily Shepard (Cornwall), (b. July 21, 1804, d. July 14, 1877, aged 72). He d. Mar. 15, 1886, aged 91. Among his sons were: Henry 8, and Ferdinand 8. Henry 8 had sons: Oliver 9, Sylvester 9 and Henry 9—all of whom had sons. Ferdinand 8, and Henry 9, with their families, continue to reside at Gildersleeve, Conn. Henry 9 is the father of Prof. Willard H. Gildersleeve. Oliver 9 was in the business until his death, July 27, 1912. (Mr. Ferdinand Gildersleeve)

The ship-yard, at Gildersleeve, has produced many notable vessels, some of them Privateers in the War of 1812; others for the U. S. Government; and still others for commerce. The line of shipbuilders is: Obadiah 5, Philip 6 (both Refugees), Sylvester 7, Henry 8, Oliver 9 and Alfred 10—the last one is in the business at present. The mercantile firm of S. Gildersleeve & Sons was established by Sylvester 7, in 1821; and it is continued, at Gildersleeve, by his son Ferdinand 8 and his grandson William, eldest son of Ferdinand. (F. G.)

GILDERSLEEVE RICHARD (ONE) 6 (Son of Benjamin, above; brother of Serjt. Daniel, above, and Lt. Finch, above)—He served in the 3d Line (G. 48); and he was in the Naval service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

He was bapt. Aug. 19, 1753. He was captured by pirates, in Tripoli, before 1792. (Prof. W. H. G.)

GILDERSLEEVE RICHARD (TWO) 6 (Son of Obadiah, above; brother of Henry, above, and Philip, above)—From Huntington to Portland with his father, Obadiah. He was b. Aug.—, 1765; d. Mar. 21, 1782. He is buried at Gildersleeve, Conn. (W. H. G.)

GILMORE ROBERT—He was absent from L. I., a part of the time, having served in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in the 1st Westchester. (G. 77) He does not appear in the Census of 1776. He was the husband of Sarah, below. Another, of his name, acted as a spy for Sir Henry Clinton. He was from New Hampshire; and his estate was confiscated, in 1778. (Sabine's "Loyalists,"—1st Ed., p. 324)

GILMORE SARAH—On Mar. 6, 1782, she was allowed to go to her husband Robert, above, with a Flag, accompanied by two sons, four daughters and her effects. (F 49)

GLOVER—Members of this Family were among the early settlers in Southold (Bayles' "Suffolk Co."); and in Oyster Ponds, now Orient. Simon, the first settler, d. in 1760. (Griffin's "Journal") The first of the name in Southold was Samuel, Sr., 1, whose wife was Sarah ———. He came in 1698. He had a son, Samuel, Jr., 2, who had a wife, Martha. Samuel, Jr., 2, had sons: Charles 3, of Oyster Ponds, who m. Elizabeth Paine; and Simon 3, who d. about 1763. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 217, 218)

Moore ("Index," pp 18, 79, 80) states that Charles 1 came from England to Salem, Mass., about 1632; and went to Southold, 1650–1652. He m. (1) Elizabeth ———, who d. Mar. 6, 1647; m. (2) ———, who was divorced, in 1649; m. (3) Wid. Esther Sanders. He was a Lt. in the Colonial Army; and d. in 1665. Among his children was Lt. Samuel 2, b. June 20, 1644; m. Sarah Moore; d. in 1715. Samuel 2, had Samuel 3, b. in 1680; m. Martha ———; d. in 1732. His son, Charles 4, of Orient, d. in 1746, and had: Lydia 5, m. Jonathan King (See King); Elizabeth 5, m. in 1756, Jeremiah Vail (See Vail); and Grover 5, a bachelor, b. in 1742, d. in 1803. Moore thus differs materially, and rightly, with Griffin, above.

Charles 4, above, m. (1) Martha ———, who d. May 5, 1713, aged 36; m. (2) in 1731, Elizabeth Paine, b. in 1710, d. in 1803. Samuel 3 also had a son, Simon 4, who d. about 1763. He was the father of Ezekiel 5, below. (Mrs. A. F. Lowerre)

GLOVER EZEKIEL 5 (Simon 4, Samuel 3, 2, Charles 1)—From Southold to Lyme, in 1776. His claim for transporting 15 passengers, and their effects, reads as if he might have been Capt. of a ship. (C. 188) On June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim for expenses to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) Either he, or his son, Ezekiel, Jr., 6, was a Drum. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); also a private in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8)

The Census of 1776 showed that he was over 50 years old; that he had a son over 16; and a son and a dau. both under 16. (A. 55) He m., Jan. 5, 1758, Mary, dau. of John Terry 3d. (Salmon Rec.), and had: Ezekiel, Jr., 6, below; Jeremiah 6; Charles 6; and Mary 6.

Ezekiel, Jr., 6, b. Nov. 12, 1758; m. Phebe, dau. of Richard and Zipporah (Tuthill) Brown; d. Jan. 19, 1842. She was b. Feb. 10, 1765; d. Aug. 15, 1855. His children were: Erastus 7, b. Ezekiel Glover

GLOVER GROVER ()—From Southold to Lyme. On July 13, 1780, he asked liberty to go to L. I. after hay; which was not allowed. (F. 15) On Mar. 22, 1781, he was allowed to go and bring off flax &c. (F. 33) On Dec. 27, 1781, he was allowed to bring over produce and money due him. (F. 45) On Mar. 6, 1783, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his cattle &c. (F. 104) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) Griffin ("Journal") does not mention the married Grover.

There was a bachelor, Grover 5 (Charles 4, Samuel 3, 2, Charles 1), mentioned by Griffin ("Journal," pp. 29, 218), who was b. in 1742, d. in 1803. He believed that he was the true heir of Hon. Richard Glover, a Member of the British Parliament, who d. in 1755, leaving a large estate, and no heirs of his body in Eng. (Mrs. A. F. L.)

GLOVER MEHITABLE—From Southold. On Nov. 1, 1782, she was permitted to return to L. I. with her children, goods &c. (F. 82)

There is nothing to show who she was. Possibly she was the wife or the Wid. of Grover, above.

GOLDSMITH—Moore ("Index," pp. 18, 80-82, 140) mentions a Ralph, in Mass., in 1661; and in Southold, 1664-5. Also a Thomas, in Southampton, in 1653; d. in 1703. As Moore is not reliable in these statements, and others relating to the descendants of the above-named, we turn to other sources of information.

Howell ("Southampton," p. 427) states that Thomas had land granted in Southampton, in 1651; and that he was a farmer. He removed to Killingworth, Conn., in 1678. He is called a great-uncle of John, of Southold.

Thomas is first mentioned as an inhabitant of the Town of Southampton, in Apr., 1651, when a £100 allotment was granted to him. No mention is made as to where he came from; but, as he is named in connection with others who came from Hempstead, we conclude that he had formerly lived there. He was chosen freeman, Oct. 6, 1652. He removed to Killingworth, Conn., in 1678, where he d. in 1684, without issue. His nephew, John 1, remained in Southampton, but soon went to Southold, and was the ancestor of a numerous family. His son, John 2, was in Southold, 1680-1725. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

GOLDSMITH DEBORAH—She may have been the first wife of John, below. A Deborah, wife of John, d. Sept. 20, 1795, aged 60. She is buried in the Goldsmith Cemetery at Moose Hill, Guilford, Conn.

GOLDSMITH EZRA, SERJT.—From Southold. He served in the 4th Line (G. 47); and was drowned in L. I. Sound, in 1783.

He may have been a son of Joshua, below, and Bethiah ———; bapt. Jan. 4, 1756. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

GOLDSMITH JEREMIAH—He served in the Artificers of the Line ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 67); and in Conn. (G. 90)

He is buried at Middletown, or Cromwell, Conn.

GOLDSMITH JOHN—From Southold to Guilford. Between Sept. 10 and Oct. 1, 1776, 11 passengers were charged to him when his effects were brought from Southold to Lyme by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 19) In Feb., 1781, he petitioned the Gen'l Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return to L. I., with his family of eight, his cattle, furniture, &c.; which was negatived. (E. 133) On Feb. 7, 1782, he was permitted to bring from L. I. his furniture, farming utensils &c. (F. 47)

Two of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12, 20) One was from Brookhaven; and the other, probably, from Southold. One, or more, of the name served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36, 37, 38); in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48) If he was a Lt., his dau., Prudence, m. James Corwin. (See Corwin)

A John, was named in the Southold Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) A John, m. (1) Deborah Terry; (2) Lois Hand. His son, Jeremiah, d. July 17, 1780, aged 15; and he is buried in the East Cemetery, North Madison, Conn. A Keturah, m. Richard Hudson. Her mother was, probably, a Terry. Her dau., Elizabeth, m. William Webb (See Webb), a Refugee.

John Goldsmith

GOLDSMITH JOSHUA (Probably son of Joshua)—From Southold to Chester. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over by Capts. James Webb and Wilmot Goldsmith. It is stated that he was a blacksmith. (C. 56) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 4. (A. 55)

A Joshua, probably father of the Refugee, d. Apr 4, 1732. (Tombstone at Mattituck)

The following were wives of several Joshuas: Bethiah ———; Mary (probably Sears); Ruth Reeve. Of the latter, son Elijah, bapt. June 14, 1752; Isaac and Rebecca, bapt. Sept. 15, 1754. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Ruth, probably the wife of Joshua the Refugee, was a dau. of Thomas Reeve (See Reeve); and a sister of Thomas Reeve. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 113)

Joshua Goldsmith

GOLDSMITH NATHAN—From Southold. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, his family of four, and effects, were brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) A Nathan, b. Aug. —, 1747; d. Aug. 26, 1796, at Cutchogue, aged 49. (Salmon Rec.) On Feb. 21, 1773, he m. Elizabeth Goldsmith. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

If Nathaniel was intended, instead of Nathan, he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55)

GOLDSMITH WILLIAM—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in Conn. (G. 90)

For Capt. Wilmot Goldsmith see "Captains and Masters of Ships."

GOULD—GOLD—The first of the Family known in Huntington was Ebenezer 1, who lived on West Neck prior to the Revolution. He was a descendant of Ebenezer Gould, of Fairfield, Conn., who was one of the principal men there, in 1658. Ebenezer 1 had: Ebenezer 2, and Joseph 2. Joseph 2, had: Benjamin 3. Ebenezer 2, had: Ebenezer 3, below; and Conklin 3. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) Ebenezer 1, lived at Lloyd's Neck. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) Ebenezer 2, b. in 1724; m. Rebecca Conklin; d. Nov. 29, 1804. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

GOULD JOHN 3 (Ebenezer 2, 1)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); in the 2d and 3d of the Line (G. 44, 46); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); in the 3d and 4th Westchester (G. 79, 80); and in Conn. (G. 90)

He was bapt. in 1757; m. Charlotte Suffin. His children were: Jesse 4; Cornelia 4, m. Capt. Lemuel Brown; and Clarissa 4, m. Capt. ——— Bell. (Mrs. G. S.)

GREENE—William 1 came from Devonshire, England, to Charlestown, Mass., in 1664. He m. Hannah —; and had a son, Samuel 2. The latter, b. in 1723; m. Jane White; removed to Hanover, N. H., where he d. Aug. 21, 1807. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 399, 425, 426)

GREENE ZACHARIAH 3, REV. (Samuel 2, William 1)—From Brookhaven. He was known as "The Fighting Parson." (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 299-305) He took part in Gen. Parsons' Raid on Setauket, in 1777. (Page 228) The enemy had fortified the Church as a block-house. He was, afterward, the Pastor of the same Church. He served at Dorchester, Throgg's Pt. and White Plains, in 1776; and in Penn., in 1777. (Thompson, as above) He was disabled in the service; was an applicant for a pension; and a pensioner, it being stated that he served in Conn. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt." p. 272. Also "N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 428) He graduated at Dartmouth College, in 1781; entered the Ministry; settled at Cutchogue, in 1787, and at Setauket, in 1797. (Thompson, as above. Also Woods "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 33)

He was b. Jan. 11, 1760; m. (1), June 28, 1786, Sarah, dau. of Simon Fleet, of Huntington; (2), Sept. 14, 1793, Abigail, dau. of William Howard, of Newtown. His children, by first wife, were: Lewis Fleet 4; Sarah Fleet 4; and Samuel White 4. His children, by second wife, were: Mary Howard 4, m. Benjamin F. Thompson (See Thompson); Herman Daggett 4; Abigail White 4; William Howard 4; and Susan Howard 4. (Thompson, as above) He d. at the home of his dau., Mrs. Thompson, in Hempstead, June 21, 1858, aged 98 ys., 4 mos. and 10 days. He had been Pastor, or senior Pastor, at Setauket, for 61 years. (Dr. John Ordronaux' "Eulogy"—1859) Dr. Ordronaux also printed a letter written by Mr. Greene, dated Aug. 23, 1855. Mr. Greene stated therein that, at the age of 95, he walked a mile every day; that he had had five sons and seven daughters; that a grand dau. m. Maj. Vanderhoff, of Astoria, L. I.; and that a grandson, Samuel W. Greene, lived in San Francisco.

GRIFFING—GRIFFIN—GRIFFEN—GRIFFIS—The first emigrant to America was Jasper 1, who came from Wales to Southold, L. I., in 1670. He d. there Apr. 17, 1718. Among his children were: Jasper 2, who settled in Lyme, Conn., and has descendants there; Robert 2, who remained in Southold; John 2, who removed to Riverhead, L. I. (Griffin's "Journal" pp. 67, 84-101, 114-116, 125, 168, 170, 186) The next important contribution was the Griffing Gen., by Miss Clara J. Stone—1881. Still later information was given in an article on "Jasper Griffin" &c., by Edmund J. Cleveland, in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22. 191, Oct., 1891; from which the following is condensed—

Maj. Jasper 1, b. in Wales, in 1648. He came to Mass. before 1670. In 1675, with his wife, Hannah, he came to Southold, L. I. He d. Apr. 17, 1718. It is said that he had 18 children. Among them were: Edward 2; Jasper 2; John 2; Susanna 2; and Robert 2.

Edward 2, b. about 1670, is said to have settled on L. I. about 1697. His son, Edward 3, the Refugee, below. His son, Jonathan 3, settled at White Plains, N. Y. He had no children of his own; but he adopted Jonathan Griffin Tompkins 4 (father of Gov. Daniel D. Tompkins 5) to whom he bequeathed a large property.

Jasper 2, b. at Southold, about 1675; m. Apr. 29, 1696, Ruth Peck (See Peck); d. aged about 90. Soon after 1718 he removed to Lyme, Conn.,

Augustus Griffin.

where he spent the rest of his life. His son, Lemuel 3, b. in 1704 (other statements say 1706 or 1707); m. Phebe Comstock. A son of Lemuel 3, George 4, b. at East Haddam, Conn., July 10, 1734; m. Mar. 9, 1762, Eve Dorr; d. Aug. 6, 1814. Both he and his wife are buried in the old Cemetery, at North Lyme. George 4 had several children, one of whom was Phebe 5, b. May 4, 1768; m. Nov. 25, 1794, Joseph 3 (Enoch 2, Richard 1) Lord. Their dau., Phebe Griffin Lord 6, m. Daniel Rogers Noyes, of Stonington; and their grand dau., Josephine Noyes 7, m. Charles H. Ludington, of N. Y. Saltus; Katharine 8; Arthur Crosby 8; and Helen Gilman 8, m. Sept. 30, 1907, Arthur Grinnell Rotch. Rev. Edward Dorr Griffin 5, D. D., son of George 4, b. Jan. 6, 1770; m. May 17, 1796, Frances Huntington; d. Nov. 8, 1837. He was Pastor at Boston, and elsewhere; and President of Williams College for 15 years. George 5, LL. D., son of George 4 was a celebrated lawyer.

John 2, b. about 1676; m. Hannah ———; d. in 1714.

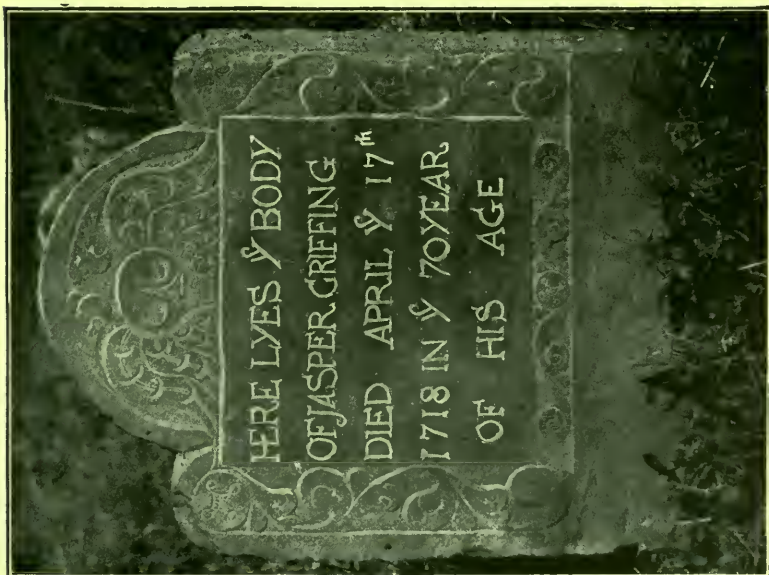

Susanna 2, b. about 1684-5; m. Oct. 3, 1704, Joseph Peck. (See Peck)

Robert 2, b. in 1685; m. Lydia Kirtland; d. in 1729.

From "Stephen Griffing, his Ancestry and Descendants"—1911—we learn that Maj. Jasper 1 and his wife, Hannah, are buried at Southold (See Page 397); and that they had 14 children. John 2 had at least three children: John 3, the Refugee, below; Deborah 3; and Phebe 3. Robert 2, m. in 1709, had seven children. He succeeded to the property of his brother, Edward 2. The eldest son of Robert 2, was Samuel 3, the Refugee, below. (Pages 6-10) The interesting work, named above, will be quoted hereinafter as "S. G. A."

GRIFFIN AUGUSTUS 5 (James 4, below, Samuel 3, Robert 2, Jasper 1) —From Oyster Ponds (now Orient) to Middletown with his father, James. He was the author of "Griffin's Journal." In 1790, he taught school in Orange Co., N. Y. With some others of the family, he dropped the final "g" from the name.

He was b. Feb. 2, 1767; m. Lucretia Tuthill; d. May 16, 1866, aged 99. His wife d. May 18, 1849. (Griffin's "Journal") Among his children were: Harriet Lucretia 6, m. Capt. Abner Wells; and Sidney L. 6. His grandson, William G. Wilcox 7, lives at Orient.

TOMBSTONES OF JASPER I GRIFFING AND HIS WIFE, HANNAH — SOUTHOLD, L. I.
(From "Stephen Griffing, his Ancestry and Descendants")

GRIFFING DANIEL 4, CAPT. (Samuel 3, below, Robert 2, Jasper 1; brother of James, below, Capt. Moses, below and Capt. Peter, below; father of David, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over, with six in his family, by Capt. Jasper Griffing. (C. 59) Same month, a horse and cow were brought over by Capt. Peter Griffing. (C. 58) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He was a Lt. in the French War, in 1760; and Capt. of a Co. two years later. He marched to Ticonderoga, in 1775. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) In May, 1775, he became Capt. of the 1st Suffolk County Company, afterward in the 3d Line. (G. 45, 46) His commission was dated June 29, 1775. (G. 1) On Feb. 26, 1776, he was nominated for Maj., but evidently was not appointed; as, in Dec. of the same year, he asked to have his rank raised. (Jour. and Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) He was at Ft. Montgomery, Jan. 4, 1777 (A. 29); but left in the same month. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He served in the 4th Line; but resigned. (G. 48) He may have served in Conn. (G. 90) Evidently he tired of the Army; for in the Proceedings of Feb. 26, 1778, he is described as Capt. of the "Revenge." (Pages 218, 239. Also, "N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 269; and "Supplement" to same, p. 98)

About 1780, in company with Capt. Augustus Peck, he fitted out the Privateer sloop "Randolph," and made New London, Conn., the home port. (Page 218) Their operations were confined to the waters back of Long Island, up toward New York. They captured numerous prizes and carried them into New London. In company with another small craft, they attacked and captured a British Sloop of War—quite an achievement for crafts of that size. They came into New London with prizes two days before Arnold captured it; and, of course, suffered the fate of all the shipping in that port. (Mr. Robert A. Griffing)

He was b. May 12, 1736; m. in 1758, Martha Case (b. June 13, 1737); d. June 22, 1822, aged 87. After living at Guilford he removed to Clinton, Conn., and d. there. His children were: David 5, below, Daniel 5, Micajah 5, Robert 5 and Parnel 5. So far as I am able to trace, the only descendants who bear the family name are those of his son Robert 5, whose son Daniel 6, a sea captain, has as descendants: William J. Griffing, Frances P. Griffing, Robert A. Griffing and his daughter Jessie. Robert's son, Richard 6, was a Home Missionary to what is now Wisconsin. He founded what is now the First Baptist Church of Milwaukee. His descendants are: Emma G. Smith and dau. Winifred, of Pewaukee, Wis.; and Sherman B. Griffing, of Bryant, S. Dak., whose children are, Pearl, Lester, Elmer, Vena, Julia, Edith, Gladys, and Robert A. The descendants of Robert's dau., Emma 6, are, David and Hattie Austin, of Brooklyn, N. Y. (R. A. G.)

GRIFFING DAVID 5 (Son of Capt. Daniel, above)—From Southold to Guilford, with his father, Capt. Daniel, above. When only a lad, he was in the Army with his father. He was afterward captured by the British and confined in one of the hulks, (Prison ships) in N. Y. harbor. (R. A. G.) His enlistment must have been irregular, as his name does not appear in the official records.

GRIFFING EDWARD 3 (Edward 2, Jasper 1)—Before the War began he removed from L. I. to White Plains, N. Y.; and thence to Dutchess Co., N. Y. Many of his descendants live along the Hudson River, and in Nova Scotia and Canada. He served in Conn. (G. 90)

He was b. in 1708; m. ———— Taylor; d. in 1785.

GRIFFING JAMES 4 (Samuel 3, below, Robert 2, Jasper 1; brother of Capt. Daniel, above, Moses, below, and Capt. Peter, below; father of Augustus, above)—From Oyster Ponds to Middletown. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he was moved over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) On Oct. 18, 1782, permission was granted to him to return to L. I. with his family of nine, his household goods, &c. (F. 71) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32); in the 2d and 3d of the Line (G. 44, 46); possibly in Harper's Levies (G. 56); and probably in Conn. (G. 90) A James Griffis served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32) He resigned, and returned to Southold to care for the houses of his father and Ezra L'Homme-dieu. He suffered much at the hands of the British and the Tories, often remaining in hiding for days at a time. (R. A. G.) He returned to L. I. in 1777. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 96)

He was b. Oct. 14, 1739; m. Deziah Terry; d. at Oyster Ponds, Dec. 10, 1824, aged 85. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 94-100)

His children were: James 5, b. Jan. 1, 1765; Augustus 5, above; Deziah 5, b. Nov., 1768; Elisha 5, b. Dec. 2, 1770; Lucinda 5, b. Mar. 31, 1773; Moses 5, b. Mar. 7, 1775; Parnel 5, b. Sept. 6, 1777; Peter Warren 5, b. Apr. 12, 1780; Samuel 5, b. Apr. —, 1782; Lucretia 5, b. Apr. —, 1784; Samuel Caddle 5, b. Jan. 5, 1787, d. Sept. 24, 1854; Austin 5, b. Apr. —, 1789. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 101)

In 1880, his descendants, John M. Griffing and Ambrose F. Griffing, were living at East Marion; and Edmund Griffing, at Orient. (R. A. G.)

A James, m. Mahetable, dau. of John 4 Moore. (See Moore)

GRIFFING JASPER, SR. 3 (Robert 2, Jasper 1; father of Capt. Jasper, Jr., below; brother of Robert, below and Samuel, below)—From that part of Southold now known as Riverhead to Guilford. He went over in 1776, and he bought the "old Stone House" which the State of Conn. bought about the year 1900. His descendants spelled their name "Griffin." No descendants of his name remain. The house was in the possession of his descendants until purchased by the State. It was inherited by Mrs. Sarah B. Cone, g. granddau. of Jasper, Sr. of Stockbridge, Mass., lately deceased, who is the only one I am able to trace. (R. A. G.) Augustus Griffin ("Journal") states that he saw Jasper, Sr., and his brother Robert, below, at Guilford, in 1787.

He was b. Mar. 7, 1722; m. Jan. 14, 1746, Mindwell Stone; d. at Guilford, Nov. 1, 1800. Another statement is that he m. (2) in 1761, Rachel Lee. Among his children were: Capt. Jasper, Jr. 4, below; and Nathaniel 4, b. in 1767, d. in 1845, who m. Sarah, dau. of Samuel and Hannah (Landon) Brown, of Guilford. (I. 2) A Hannah, perhaps his dau., m. Daniel 3 Vail. (Vail Gen., p. 34)

GRIFFING JASPER, JR., 4, CAPT. (Son of Jasper, Sr., above)—Of Guilford. He was Capt. of a ship (Page 239); and afterward Master of a Privateer. (Griffin's "Journal") In Sept., 1776, he transported as follows: Thomas Dering's effects from Shelter Island, and up the Conn. River to Middletown—this claim being paid by Mr. Dering (C. 7); the families of Capt. Daniel Griffing, Samuel Griffing, John Tuthill, John Darrow, Wid. Hubbard and Wid. Tuthill, from Southold to Guilford (C. 59); part of Benjamin Pain's effects up the River to Middletown (C. 119); Phineas Beckwith, Guilford to Lyme. (C. 190) He probably served in Conn. (G. 90)

He was b. Mar. 29, 1748; m. Jemima, dau. of Peter Vail and Bethiah Landon; d. Nov. 30, 1807, at Richmond, Mass. She was b. —, 1753; d. May 20, 1801. They had: Samuel 5, d. y.; Julia 5, m. John Colt; Samuel 5, d. s. p. in 1801; Henry 5; John 5, b. Oct. 18, 1784, was a Methodist preacher; Osmyn 5, m. and removed to Canada where he d.; and Clarissa 5, m. Rossiter Parmele, and lived at Louisville, Ky. (Vail Gen. p. 47) John Griffing, of Cutchogue, claims descent from John 5.

GRIFFING JOHN, SR. 3 (John 2, Jasper 1; father of John, Jr., below, Joseph, below, Nathaniel, below, and Stephen, below. He is known as John, Jr., in the S. G. A.)—From Riverhead to Guilford. He was called "John, of Riverhead." He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) In Sept., 1776, with his family, 15 passengers, and goods he was brought up the Conn. River by Capt. Wilnot Goldsmith. (C. 60) He probably resided at Middletown. (S. G. A., p. 12)

He was a prominent Whig. At the request of his neighbors he became a "tea-spy," as they called a man whose business it was to detect and prevent the use of tea and other imported articles upon which the English Government had levied duties on the inhabitants. As he died without will his property descended to his son and namesake, John, Jr. The mother of the late Charles and Gamaliel Vail was [Thankful] one of his daughters, and I well remember hearing them comment on the injustice of the English law of promogeniture. John Griffing

L. I. His son, Nathaniel Herrick 6, D.D., had sons: Edward Herrick Griffin 7, D.D., LL.D., of Baltimore; Henry L. 7, D.D., of Bangor, Me.; and Solomon B. 7, L.H.D., of Springfield, Mass.

GRIFFING JOHN, JR. 4 (John, Sr., 3, above, John 2, Jasper 1; brother of Joseph, below, Nathaniel, below, and Stephen, below)—From Riverhead to Guilford, with his father, in 1776. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., being at that time 38 years old. (G. 7, 37) He also served in the 2d Line (G. 44); and in Weissenfels', Dubois' and Pawling's Levies. (G. 57, 59, 61) He may, also, have served in the 2d, 6th or 7th Dutchess (G. 64, 68, 69); and in Conn. (G. 90) He was on the "Confederacy" in the Privateer service. (Page 218)

He was b. Sept. 16, 1737; m. Deborah Wells. (S. G. A., p. 12)

GRIFFING JOSEPH 4, CAPT. (John, Sr., 3, above, John 2, Jasper 1; brother of John, Jr., above, Nathaniel, below, and Stephen, below)—From Riverhead to Guilford with his father, in 1776. He seems to have been the only one of the Refugee sons of John, Sr., who remained in Conn. He was Capt. of a trading vessel. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He may have served in the 2d Line (G. 44); in Malcolm's Levies (G. 58); in the 2d, 5th or 6th Dutchess (G. 64, 67, 68); or in Conn. (G. 90)

He was b. Apr. 4, 1756; m. Ruth Hart. (S. G. A., pp. 12, 13) Griffin ("Journal,") states that he was b. Sept. 6, 1755; d. about 1797.

GRIFFING MOSES 4, CAPT. (Samuel 3, below, Robert 2, Jasper 1; brother of Capt. Daniel, above, James, above, and Capt. Peter, below)—From Oyster Ponds to New London. For a time he was confined on the Prison-ship "Jersey," in N. Y. harbor. (R. A. G.)

My grandfather, Moses Griffing [5, son of Moses the Refugee] married Sybil King, Jan. 22, 1788. All of Orient Point.—From Southold Parish Records. My father, Charles Clermont Griffing, [6] b. Feb. 2, 1802, had one Sister, Frances [6] who often told me how her Father [Moses 5], a boy of about 14 yrs. of age, used to carry provisions to our soldiers at night, with his Father's [Moses'] ox-cart.—They had removed to the Conn. shore and his drive was north of New London, near a place, now called Montville. It was the first Moses [4] who was a Refugee, with his family. My only Authorities are Mattituck records (Craven's book) Griffin's Journal (quite imperfect) and the Stone Genealogy. (Mrs. Mary Griffing Hudson)

GRIFFING NATHANIEL 4 (John, Sr., 3, above, John 2, Jasper 1; brother of John, Jr., above, Joseph, above, and Stephen, below)—From Riverhead to Guilford, with his father, John, Sr., above. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) In Sept. 1776, his effects were moved across the Sound, probably to Saybrook, by Capt. David Whittlesey, it being stated that he was a son of John, Sr. (C. 60) His name appears in a list of Prisoners in the Provost, N. Y. City, Feb. 6, 1778. It is stated that he was taken July 2, 1777, "a dangerous person; and having a permit from John Shipman, of Conn." (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book,"—1866, p. 19) Probably he did not serve in Conn.

He was b. Jan. 13, 1750. (S. G. A., p. 12) He m. July 10, 1783, Mary Albertson. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

GRIFFING PETER 4, CAPT. (Samuel 3, below, Robert 2, Jasper 1; brother of Capt. Daniel, above, James, above, and Capt. Moses above)—From Oyster Ponds to Guilford. He was at Oyster Ponds in 1775 (Griffin's "Journal"); and he signed the Association, in that year. (H. 10) He was Capt. of a ship. (Page 239) In Sept., 1776, he brought the freight of Capt. Daniel Griffing from L. I. to Guilford. (C. 58) In Oct., 1776, he transported as follows:—part of Stephen Bayley's goods to Guilford (C. 12); part of Selah Reeve's goods from L. I. (C. 130); part of Col. Thomas Terry's goods L. I. to Saybrook. (C. 147)

On Sept. 22, 1777, the Conn. Council of Safety commissioned him as Capt. of a Co. of Rangers to guard the sea coast, Sound and Islands of that State. On Aug. 4, 1778, he was summoned before Gov. Trumbull and Council to explain his conduct as Capt.; and, on Aug. 25, same year, action was taken in regard to one of the Prisoners taken by Capt. Griffing on L. I. (Pages 202, 222. Also D. 8, 12, 18) He was Capt. of an armed boat. (Page 218. Also Rec. of the State of Conn., 2. 107, 115) He was master of a fine sailing craft which was captured by the British sloop-of-war "Swan." (Griffin's "Journal") It is possible that he was the Peter Griffing who served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); also in the 2d and 6th Dutchess (G. 64, 68); also, as a Serjt., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38)

Evidently he returned to L. I., as I find that two of his sons afterward moved to Guilford, Conn. I do not think that any of his descendants bearing his name live there now. One from the female side married Edward M. Leete of that place. (R. A. G.)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. Sept. 2, 1742; m. Patience, dau. of Amos Taber, Sr. (See Taber); d. on the "Jersey," Prison-ship, about 1782. (Griffin's "Journal")

Peter Griffing

GRIFFING ROBERT 3 (Robert 2, Jasper 1; brother of Jasper, Sr., above, and Samuel, below)—From Riverhead to Guilford—Griffin ("Journal") states that he saw him, at Guilford, in 1787. He may have been Capt. Robert who had a commission to cruise on L. I. Sound in a Whale-Boat. If so, he was b. in 1720; d. in 1796. (N. Y. Sons of Rev'n Year Book—1909, p. 455) A Lt. Robert, m. Oct. 16, 1786, Elizabeth Baldwin. (N. Branford, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

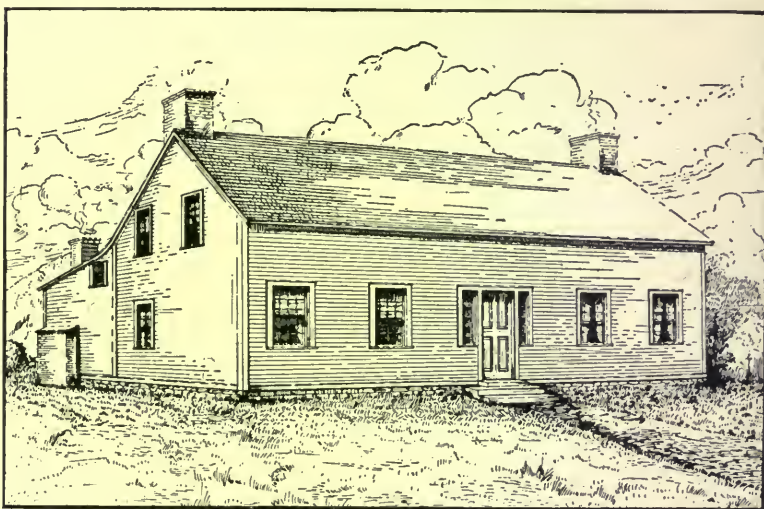

A Robert, m. Abigail Peck. (See Peck)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. in 1710; d. in 1789. He m. (1) Elizabeth, dau. of Nathan 2, Landon (See Landon); m. (2) May 25, 1756, Martha, dau. of John, Jr., 3, Vail (See Vail), who m. (2) Medad Stone. His children were: Capt. Samuel 4, b. July 20, 1733, d. s. p. about 1762; Capt. Seth 4, b. Oct. 12, 1734, d. Apr. 9, 1788; Capt. Daniel 4, the Refugee, above; Lydia 4, b. Nov. 13, 1737, d. Oct. 1, 1754; James 4, the Refugee, above; Experience 4, b. in 1741, m. Augustus Peck (See Peck), d. about 1796; Capt. Peter 4, the Refugee, above; David 4, b. Feb. 3, 1743, d. Aug. 11, 1763; Capt. Moses, 4, the Refugee, above; Joshua 4, b. Aug. 20, 1749, d. Sept. 15, 1771; Aaron 4, b. Feb. 15, 1752, d. in 1754; Elizabeth 4, b. Feb. 17, 1755, m. Solomon Stone, d. in 1838—grandmother of Miss Clara J. Stone (d. Mar. 15, 1880) who prepared the Griffing Gen.; an infant 4, d. y.; Mary 4, b. Apr. 20, 1758, m. Medad Stone, d. Feb. 4, 1794; Parnol 4, b. Sept. 1, 1759, d. in 1764; Jared 4, b. June 16, 1762, d. May —, 1844; and Aaron 4, b. June 10, 1764, d. Feb. 14, 1842. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 91-94)

GRIFFING STEPHEN 4, ENS. (John, Sr., 3, above, John 2, Jasper 1; brother of John, Jr., above, Joseph, above, and Nathaniel, above)—From Riverhead. He served in the 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 44, 48); and perhaps as a private in the 6th Dutchess. (G. 68) He also served in Conn. (G. 90) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) In addition to the Military services referred to, above, it is stated, in the "Stephen Griffing Ancestry," that he was a private in Capt. Jonathan Bailey's Co., 3d Westchester; and in the 4th Conn. Batt'n. Col. John Ely. He took part in the Battle of Saratoga, and in Sullivan's Expedition. After the arrest of Maj. John André, he was assigned to guard André's confederate, Joshua Smith. The S. G. A. also gives his interesting Journal, now the property of Dr. Cyrus S. Merrill, of Albany, N. Y. Dr. Merrill m. Mary Ellen 7 Griffing (Stephen 6, John 5, Ens. Stephen 4), who d. Sept. 22, 1905. She was prominent, in the D. A. R.; and was Regent of the Mohawk Chapter. (S. G. A.)

He was b. at Riverhead, Jan. 22, 1754; m. July 3, 1781, Elizabeth, dau. of Daniel and Margaret Streit Uhl; d. Mar. 1, 1841. She was b. Sept. 18, 1763; d. Aug. 27, 1856. After the War, he lived at Staatsburg, Dutchess Co., N. Y., for several years; and, in 1800, removed to Thurman, (Athol) N. Y., where he purchased a homestead which is still held by a descendant. He is buried at Thurman. His children were: John 5, b. Aug. 23, 1782, m. in 1806, Catherine McEwen, of Athol, d. June 1, 1828; Sarah 5, b. Nov. 26, 1783, m. James I. Cameron, of Caldwell, N. Y., d. Mar. 20, 1881; James 5, b. Sept. 8, 1786, m. Mrs. Catherine Thurman Cameron, d. Feb. 5, 1854; Margaret 5, b. Apr. 16, 1788, m. in 1807 Duncan Cameron, of Athol, d. Jan. 23, 1864; Hannah 5, b. Mar. 18, 1790, m. May 18, 1816, Levi Pawling, of Staatsburg, N. Y., d. Mar. 24, 1884; William 5, b. Apr. 17, 1792, m. Sept. 19, 1813, Jane McEwen, of Athol, d. May 22, 1867; Nathaniel 5, b. Oct. 20, 1794, m. July 20, 1823, Susan Boyd, d. June 19, 1889; Stephen 5, b. Aug. 10, 1796, m. Feb. 25, 1819, Mary Coon, of Ballston, N. Y., d. Nov. 23, 1885; Henry 5, b. Jan. 18, 1799, m. in 1822, Margaret Lindsay, of Northumberland,

N. Y., d. Mar. 21, 1885; Elizabeth 5, b. June 14, 1805, m. in 1829, Timothy Bowen, d. Dec. 18, 1887. (See S. G. A. for the descendants to date)

GRIFFING TIMOTHY. ()—Probably related to Capt. Jasper, above; as, on Feb. 17, 1777, at Guilford, he made oath that the claim of Capt. Jasper for bringing several families to Guilford was just and true. (C. 59) Thankful, wife of a Timothy Griffin, d. Nov. 2, 1793, aged 36. She is buried at Leete's Island, Guilford, Conn.

GRINNELL JOHN, CAPT.—From Huntington to Conn., with his family, in 1776. On Feb. 5, 1781, he petitioned to return to L. I. to recover some debts. (F. 125) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) On June 28, 1775, he was appointed Capt. of the 5th Suffolk County Company, afterward in the 3d Line. (G. 45, 46) The first commission was issued by the Prov'l Cong., on June 29. (G. 1) On Dec. 6, 1775, he was recommended as Capt. of a Co. of Matrosses; and, on Jan. 22, 1776, he was appointed Capt. of a Co. of Artillery. The latter office he declined, Mar. 27, 1776; and, owing to complications, he resigned three days later. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) On Nov. 3, 1781, in an enterprise with Capt. Thomas Wickham and Maj. John Davis, at Sag Harbor, he was taken Prisoner. (Page 217. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 528, 529) In 1781, he expected that Capt. Caleb Brewster would convey him across L. I. Sound. (Page 192) He was kept in the Provost, in N. Y. City, until Mar. 26, 1782. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 106) In the same year, Nov. 22, Gov. Clinton sent word that he wished Capt. Grinnell to spy out the British forces on L. I. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., 2d Series," p. 17; also "Scrap Book—1866," p. 23)

The legality of his commission on L. I. was questioned. (Clinton Pap., 7. 584, 585) On Mar. 7, 1781, the Commissioners to procure Monies on Loan, and Clothing for the Line, employed him to negotiate the said business on L. I. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y., 52. 67A. Also Chap. 8) It seems that he had procured a quantity of Money and Clothing; and had contracted for more to be delivered to him at Southold, whither he repaired. Then came his capture. The Assembly took the ground that his captivity arose from an enterprise outside of the work on which he had been employed; and refused his pay for the time he was in captivity. (Ass'y Jour., Apr. 23, 1784; Mar. 5, 1785) On Apr. 2, 1785, he prayed for a settlement of his accounts. (Sen. Jour.) George Howell seemed to have a grudge against him. (Clinton Pap., 7. 336, 337, 384, 584, 585)

He m. Catherine ———. His son, William Henry, bapt., Aug. 14, 1774, at Oyster Bay. His son, John Lloyd, bapt. Jan. 25, 1775. (St. Johns' P. E. Ch. Rec., Huntington—on file at St. George's P. E. Ch., Hempstead, L. I.)

GRINNELL THOMAS, CAPT. After the capture of Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell, on Nov. 3, 1781, as stated above, he was appointed to continue their work of procuring Money on Loan, and Clothing for the Line. Thomas McFarren was associated with him. (Page 96. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 528, 529) He was Capt. of the Frigate "Congress." (Page 96. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 269) He was probably related to Capt. John, above.

HAINES—HAINS—HAYNES—HINDS—The name is spelled in these several ways. The Refugees, Daniel 5 and David 5, signed the name, Hains; and one signed both Hains and Haines. James I came from England to Salem, Mass., about 1637; m. Mary ———; removed to Southold, L. I., and d. there, Mar., 1652-3. He had Benjamin 2, b. about 1643; m. Joana ———; d. in 1687. Benjamin 2 had James 3, b. in 1673; m. (1) Sarah ———, (2) Temperance ———; d. about 1732. He lived in Bridge Hampton, L. I. He had Dea. James 4, b. in 1702; m. Martha ———; d., about 1782. His son, James 5, was probably the ancestor of the New Jersey branch, including the late Gov. Haines. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 284-5. Also Moore's "Index," p. 19) Benjamin 2 also had Samuel 3; whose dau., Ruth 4, m. Lt. Abraham Rose. (See Rose)

James and John were among the early settlers at Southold. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 467) Lydia, dau. of a Benjamin Haines, m. Henry 3 Harris. (See Harris)

The illustration, given on Page 375, shows what is generally known as the Haines House.

HAINES DANIEL 5 (Dea. James 4, James 3, Benjamin 2, James 1; brother of David below)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. On Sept. 19, 1776, with eight passengers and some of his effects, he was moved over by Capt. Peter Bonticou. (A. 40. C. 14) Same month, and Oct., 1776, other effects were brought over to Moodus by Capts. James Wiggins, John Miner and Robert Knight. The claim for expenses was paid to David Gelston. (C. 197) Still other effects were brought over by Capt. Daniel Fordham. (C. 48) In Feb., 1777, from East Haddam, he petitioned to go to L. I. (D. 44); which was granted, Apr. 5, 1782. (F. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) It is possible that he served as Lt. in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

The following, relating to the descendants of Daniel 5, is furnished by his grandson, David 7, who now (1912) lives at Middletown, Conn.; except that further information is given as to Lemuel 6.

Daniel 5, b. Oct. 22 (O. S.), 1740; m. (1) Nov. 16, 1762, Eunice Howell (d. Jan. 7, 1774, aged 32); m. (2) Elizabeth Howell (b. at Bridge Hampton, Mar. 8, 1745, d. at Lebanon, Conn., 1796). He d. Nov. 16, 1826, at Lebanon, whither he had removed from East Haddam, Apr. 17, 1786. He had: Betsey 6, Emma 6 and Polly 6—beside the six named below.

Sylvanus 6 removed from East Haddam to Lebanon with his father and d. there. He was twice married. His eldest son, Silvanus 7, removed to Knowersville, N. Y., and had three children. The eldest, Joseph C. 8, removed to Newark, N. Y., became a school teacher, Mayor and Post Master. His Wid. and two sons now reside there.

Asa 6 removed from East Haddam to Hartland, Conn., in 1789; to Granby, Conn., in 1806; to Vernon, Trumbull Co., Ohio, in 1849. Many of his descendants live at Vernon, among them being Francis Haynes.

Lemuel 6, b. in 1767; m. Mary Howell; d. Apr. 15, 1856, aged 88. He returned to Bridge Hampton after the War. Among his children were: Daniel Howell 7, b. in 1789, whose dau. Mary m. Edward White; and William 7, of New Jersey.

Miss Maria E. Rose has this additional record of the children of Lemuel 6:—

Nancy 7, m. Dea. Stephen Rose, of Water Mill, L. I. They had Rose children: Maria E., now living at Water Mill; and Helen B., m. Orlando H. Rogers, of Bridge Hampton. Rebecca 7, m. Samuel Edwards, of Amagansett, L. I. They had Edwards children: Thomas, below; Mary, m. Charles Barnes, of Amagansett, d. s. p.; Nancy, m. George Stratton, and removed to Ill., where her descendants now live. Thomas Edwards had: Maria and Julia. Maria m. Charles Hand and had: Julia Hand, m. Frank Barnes, and lives at Amagansett—their dau., Bessie Barnes, m. Wallace H. Halsey, of Bridge Hampton. Julia m. Jeremiah Parsons, of Amagansett, and had Parsons children: Frances, m. ——— Griffing, and lives at Sag Harbor; and Frederick, m. Anna Hathaway, the latter now living at Denver, Col.

Hannah 6, b. Apr. 21, 1772; m. Erskine Abel. Her living descendants include: Mrs. Anson Holbrook and Mrs. Amasa Hunt, both of Columbia, Conn.; and Mrs. William Strong, of Colchester, Conn.

Daniel, Jr., 6, of Lebanon, Conn., b. Apr. 6, 1780; m. (1) Amelia Porter (d. June 6, 1828); m. (2) Nov. 26, 1829, Lucy W. Tarbox (d. Sept. 11, 1888). He lived at Lebanon; d. Oct. 16, 1843. Among his nine children, the fourth was David 7, b. in Lebanon, May 25, 1825; removed to Middletown, Conn., where he still (1912) resides. His son, Daniel T. Haines 8, of Middletown, b. in 1851; m. Eudora Gates. He has been Sec'y of the Middlesex Banking Co. for 30 years. He has sons, Frederick 9 and Robert 9. Frederick 9 has sons, Frederick, Jr., 10 and Donald 10. His son, C. W. Haines 8, b. in 1854; m. Mary Huntington, of Norwich; and has daughters, Faith 10 and Marion 10. He is a graduate of Yale, and a lawyer at Colorado Springs, Col., where he has resided since 1886. His son, Hon. Frank D. Haines 8, of Middletown, b. in 1866; m. Nellie Burke, of Middletown; and has sons, Elmer 10 and Warren 10. He was one of the Judges of the City Court of Middletown; and, since 1904, has been the State's Attorney for

Daniel Hains

Middlesex Co. A sister of David 7, Elizabeth Halsey Haines 7, lives in N. Y. City. Another sister, Amelia 7, m. George W. Cheney, 2d, of S. Manchester, Conn.; and had Halsey Haines 9. All three are deceased.

HAINES DAVID 5 (Dea. James 4, James 3, Benjamin 2, James 1; brother of Daniel, above). Howell ("Southampton," p. 285) states that Daniel 5 and David 5 were brothers. But Miss Elizabeth Halsey Haines states that a list of his family, certified to by Daniel 5, above, does not mention David. On the other hand, Mr. Addison M. Cook states that the dau. of Dea. Jeremiah 6, Clarissa J. 7, below, was a woman of remarkable intellect, and wonderful memory; and that she always maintained that David 5 was a brother of Daniel 5.

David 5—From Bridge Hampton, to East Haddam (probably). He may have served in the 2d Westchester (G. 78); or in the 2d Ulster. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," pp. 192, 261) He probably served in Conn. (G. 91) One of his name was a Prisoner. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 42) He signed

David Hains —

HALL PETER—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); in the 3d Dutchess (G. 65); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

HALL WILLIAM—from Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); and he may have served in the 1st and 2d of Line (G. 43, 44); in Malcolm's, Graham's and Willett's Levies (G. 58, 60, 62); and probably in Conn. (G. 91) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

HALLOCK—HALLOCK—and probably a diatonic of HOLYOKE. The name was also spelled in other ways, both on L. I. and in Mass. (Hallock Ancestry, 1906, pp. 9-12) As Moore ("Index," pp. 19, 20, 84-86) is not reliable, we follow "Hallock Ancestry."

Peter 1 bought land of the Shinnecock Indians, in 1626. The tract was in the present Town of Southold, L. I. He held it for two years, and then returned to England. In 1640, he came to New Haven with the Eaton and Davenport Pilgrims. He selected 13 settlers for Southold, with Rev. John Youngs as their Pastor. They landed at Hallock's Point, already so named in the previous trip of Peter 1, in 1626. It is said that he was the first of the 13 to step on shore, in 1640. That part of Southold is still called "Hallock's Neck," and the beach extending from it, "Hallock's Beach," which is now a public park. (See Page 163) He returned to England for his wife, who, when he married her, was a Wid., with a son by her former husband, Mr. Howell. (See Howell) He promised that, if she accompanied him, her son should share with his son in his property.

Peter 1 had an only son, William 2, below. His dau., Abigail 2, m. Caleb Horton. (See Horton) William 2, m. Margaret ———; d. Sept. 28, 1684. He had five daughters, and four sons:—Thomas 3; Peter 3; William 3; and John 3. A dau., Elizabeth 3, m. Richard Howell.

Thomas 3 had a son, Zerubabel 4, who had sons: Joseph 5, and William 5. Craven ("Mattituck," p. 73) states that Thomas 3 was the ancestor of most of the Hallocks of Mattituck, Laurel and vicinity.

Peter 3 had several children, among whom: Peter, Jr., 4; and Noah 4. Peter, Jr., 4 had a son, Maj. Peter 5, who had sons: Joseph 6; and Dea. Jabez 6, who was the grandfather of Maj. Gen. Henry W. Halleck. Peter, Jr., 4 also had a son, William 5. Noah 4 had a son William 5, the William, Sr., the Refugee, below.

William 3 had several children, among whom: William, Jr. 4; and Zebulon 4, who had a son, Jonathan 5.

John 3 lived at Setauket; m. Abigail Swazey. Both of them d. in 1737. He had sons:—John 4; Peter 4; Benjamin 4; William 4; and Jonathan 4. John 4, was a Friends' Preacher, and so were several of his descendants. They moved to Westchester Co., N. Y., and scattered from there. Benjamin 4 had a son, Benjamin, Jr., 5. William 4 had a son, William 5, and a grandson, William 6. Jonathan 4 had a son, Jonathan 5. Peter 4 had six sons: Peter, Jr., 5, below; Moses 5; Thomas 5; Joshua 5; John 5; and Zebulon 5. (Hallock Ancestry) Peter, Jr., 5, m. Anna Greene; who d. about 1832, aged over 100. They had: Isaac 6; Israel 6, father of Fitz Greene Halleck, the Poet; Peter, 3d, 6; Joshua 6; and Anna 6, m. Richard Keese. Peter, 3d, 6, m. Mary, sister of Richard Keese; d. at Peru, N. Y., in 1846, aged 82. He had five daughters, and sons: Joshua 7; Rev. John Keese 7; Isaac 7; George 7; and Joseph Addison 7. Rev. John Keese 7, b. in 1798; removed to Erie, Pa.; d. in 1885. He had seven daughters, and sons: E. Arnold 8, Isaac W. 8, and John Keese, Jr., 8. His dau., Nancy J. 8, m. Hon. James Campbell. They had Campbell children: Mary R. 9, m. Rev. Thomas J. Sherrard, who were the parents of Virginia 10 (See William, Sr., below); Hallock C. 10; Mary C. 10; and Robert A. 10. (Mrs. Mary R. Sherrard) ...

HALLOCK BENJAMIN, JR., 5 (Benjamin 4, John 3, William 2, Peter 1)—From Setauket to New Milford. He was b. Sept. 13, 1729; m. Aug. 7, 1755, Phebe Prindle of the Congregational Connection in Sherman, Conn., who d. in 1831, aged 91. He settled near Gaylordsville, New Milford, Conn., and d. Nov. 18, 1796, aged 67, having sons: William 6, Daniel 6, Benjamin 6, Jesse 6, Benajah 6, Luke 6, Joseph Denton 6 and Amos 6. (Hallock Anc.)

HALLOCK HENRY ()—In Sept., 1776, his effects were brought over to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 22)

HALLOCK ISRAEL 6 (Son of Capt. William, 5, below; brother of William, Jr., below, Zebulon, below, and Zephaniah, below)—From Stony Brook (Brookhaven) to Guilford. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 13) In Sept., 1776, his family of nine, and his effects, were brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He, afterward, removed to Derby, Conn.; and, with his brother Zephaniah, below, established a ship-building business. (See Zephaniah, below)—(Hallock Anc.)

HALLOCK JEREMIAH 6 (Son of William, Sr., 5, below; brother of Moses, below)—He served in N. J. (See William, Sr., 5) He may have been the Rev. Jeremiah 6, on Page 379.

HALLOCK JONATHAN 5 (Jonathan 4, John 3, William 2, Peter 1)—His place of residence is not known. His father, Jonathan 4, wills in 1768, to sons Jonathan, Gershom, and Daniel; and Jonathan 5, in 1794, wills to his sons Jonathan, and David, father of Jonas. (Hallock Anc.) It is possible that he was Jonathan 5 (Zebulon 4, William 3, 2, Peter 1).

He served in the 5th Line (G. 49); and, possibly, in the 4th Orange, both as Ens. and private. (G. 75)

HALLOCK JOSEPH 6, CAPT. (Maj. Peter 5, Peter 4, 3, William 2, Peter 1)—From Southold to Guilford, with nine passengers, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. David Landon (C. 164); same trip, apparently in his own ship (Page 239), with sundries, Oct., 1776 (C. 61); L. I. to Chester, Oct., 8, 1776, by Capts. Joseph and Jonathan Conkling. (C. 27) Joseph, son of Maj. Peter, fell as Commander of an armed vessel in the War of the Revolution by the last shot before the attacking force surrendered. (Hallock Anc.) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Another Joseph, perhaps Joseph 5 (Zerubbabel 4, Thomas 3, William 2, Peter 1—Hallock Ancestry)—From Southold to Guilford, with nine in the family, Sept., 1776, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43) He had sons: Benjamin, William, Joseph and Isaac. The son, Joseph, was father of George, who had a dau. Lucy, and sons Benjamin A. of Brooklyn, and Joseph N., editor of the Southold "Traveler" and for several years in the N. Y. Ass'y. (Hallock Anc.)

A Joseph, by the Southold Census of 1776, was not over 50 years old. He had one daughter over 16; and five sons and two daughters under 16. (A. 55)

A Joseph, d., at Southold, Jan. 31, 1806, aged 67. (Salmon Rec.)

A Joseph, m. Abigail Hubbard, Sept. 16, 1762; m. Lucretia Bally, Jan. 16, 1805. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) A Joseph, served in the 2d Art'y of the Line (G. 50); and in Pawling's Levies. (G. 61)

Oct., 1776, Joseph Halliock lost three children, at Guilford. (Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton)

HALLOCK MOSES 6 (Son of William 5, Sr., below; brother of Jeremiah, above)—He served in N. J. (see William, Sr., 5); also in Pawling's Levies. (G. 61) He may have been the Rev. Moses 6, on Page 379.

HALLOCK PETER 5, CAPT. (Peter 4, 3, William 2, Peter 1)—He is carried through the Hallock Ancestry as Maj.; but the Mil. Recs. of N. Y. show that he was a private in Col. Josiah Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37) He was Capt. of an armed boat (Rec. of the State of Conn., 2. 110); and, as such, was sometimes more active than was for his own good. (Pages 202, 218. Also D. 15) In Sept., 1776, part of his effects were moved from Southold to Conn., by Capt. Wilmot Goldsmith; in Oct. and Nov., same year, another part, by Capt. William Johnson; and, in 1780, he was at Lyme, and was permitted to go to L. I. for grain &c. (C. 62) Peter Hallock, and others, at Lyme, allowed to go to L. I. for grain, wool &c. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 89) He lost much by the War. (Page 193)

He was b. ——— 1729; d. May 13, 1791. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Thus he was but 47 when the Census of 1776 was taken; and was, probably, included among the three sons between 15 and 50—the father (Peter 4) confessing to over 50. (A. 55)

Peter, Jr. (probably Capt. Peter) m. Anna, or Joanna, Brown, Jan. 2, 1772. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Joanna, dau. of Peter (probably Peter 4) and Joanna, bapt. Sept. 18, 1757; Frederick, son of same, bapt. June 1, 1760. Peter Hallock (Same Rec.)

HALLOCK WILLIAM 5, CAPT. (William 4, John 3, William 2, Peter 1; father of Israel, above, William, Jr., below, Zebulon, below, and Zephaniah, below)—From Stony Brook to Greenwich, and all along the Sound to New London. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He was in command of picket boats, and suffered much.

He was b. about 1722; d. about 1782. He m. Sarah Saxton, of Huntington. Her sister, Harriet, m. Zephaniah Platt, whose sons surveyed and settled Plattsburg, N. Y. (Hallock Anc. See also Platt)

HALLOCK WILLIAM, SR., 5 (Noah 4, Peter 3, William 2, Peter 1; father of Jeremiah, above and Moses, above)—He was in the Army, at Ticonderoga; his sons, Moses 6 and Jeremiah 6, enlisted in 1779, and served in New Jersey; Moses one term, and Jeremiah two terms. (Hallock Anc.) Moses also served in Pawling's Levies. (G. 61) See Moses 6 and Jeremiah 6, on Page 378.

He was b. at Southampton, in 1730; d. at Goshen, Mass., Oct. 21, 1815. (Hallock Anc.) He m. Alice Homan; and had nine children, including Rev. Jeremiah 6 and Rev. Moses 6, below. Rev. Moses 6, m. Margaret Allen; was for 45 years Pastor in Plainfield, Mass.; d. in 1877, aged 77. He had one dau., and sons: William A. 7, below; Leavitt 7; Gerard 7; and Homan 7, Missionary printer in Malta and Smyrna, and grandfather of Rev. Gerard B. F. 9, D.D., of Rochester, N. Y.

Rev. William A. 7, D.D., was Sec. of the Am'n. Tract Soc'y for 50 years, and author of the 1st ed. of the Hallock Ancestry. He had daughters: Harriet J. 8; and Frances E. 8. Harriet J. 8, m. Rufus Park, of N. Y. City; and had a son, William Hallock Park 9, M.D., LL.D., Director of the Bacteriological Laboratory of the N. Y. Board of Health, and author of "Bacteriology in Medicine and Surgery." Frances E. 8, m. John Edgar Johnson, of N. Y. City, now of Ossining, N. Y. Their third child is Rev. William Hallock Johnson 9, Ph.D., who. m. Virginia Sherrard, above. They have sons: Hallock Sherrard Johnson 10; Roswell Park Johnson 10. (Mrs. M. R. S.)

Gerard 7, was editor of the "N. Y. Jour. of Commerce." His son, Charles 8, Ph.D., b. Mar. 13, 1834; graduated at Amherst College, in 1854; resides at Plainfield, Mass. He is a well known author, geographer, genealogist, naturalist and explorer. He founded "Forest and Stream."

HALLOCK WILLIAM, JR., 6 (Son of Capt. William 5, above; brother of Israel, above, Zebulon, below, and Zephaniah, below)—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31, 37), and elsewhere, for five years; and was one year a Prisoner in the old Sugar-house, New York City.

He was b. about 1750. (G. 31) He was the grandfather of Mr. Edwin H. Hallock, of Derby, Conn. He was b. in 1764; m. Oct. 7, 1788, Ruth Hawkins (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); had 7 children; d. in 1817. (E. H. H.)

HALLOCK ZEBULON 6 (Son of Capt. William 5, above; brother of Israel above, William, Jr., above, and Zephaniah, below)—From Southold to Guilford, with nine in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776. (C. 94) On Apr. 13, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return to L. I., in order to provide for his family and his aged father; which was granted. (E. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12, 13)

Two of the name appear in the Southold Census of 1776. One: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. The other: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 55) The first might have been Zebulon 4, son of William 3; the second, Zebulon 5, son of Peter 4. The Zebulon 4, named above, had a son Zebulon 5, b. in 1727, who afterward removed to Orange Co., N. Y.

A Zebulon, m. Elizabeth ———. Their children were bapt. as follows: Patience, Apr. 5, 1767; Zebulon, June 28, 1767; Henry, Jan. 2, 1771; Elizabeth, May 6, 1772; Martha, May 1, 1776. (Mat-tituck Ch. Rec.)

Zebulon Hallock

Mr. Edwin Hallock, of Derby, Conn., gives this line—Zephaniah 5, and Israel 5, above, William, Jr., 4, John 3, William 2, Peter 1. He states that the ship-builders were younger men.

HALLSEY—HALSEY—HULSE—HULSEY—Thomas 1, the emigrant, was b. about 1591, at Great Gaddesden, in Hertfordshire, Eng. He was living in Naples, in 1621. He came to Lynn, Mass., about 1637; and to Southampton, in 1640. He d. in 1678-9. It is said that his first wife was murdered by the Indians. His second wife was Anne, Wid. of Edward Johnes, whom he m. July 25, 1660. (Halsey Gen. Also Howell's "Southampton," pp. 262, 263) The descendants of Thomas 1, below, were all native to L. I.; but some of the later descendants moved to Orange Co. and Otsego Co., N. Y.; to Susquehanna Co., Penn.; and to New Jersey. His son, Thomas 2, about 1660, built the house now known as "The Hollyhocks," at Southampton. Later, it was owned by Elias Pelletreau, Jr. (See Pelletreau)

HALSEY ABRAHAM 5 (Ethan 4, Thomas 3, Isaac 2, Thomas 1; brother of Thomas, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook; where, on Sept. 24, 1776, he was witness to a payment to Walter Howell for Capt. James Wiggins, on account of Wid. Phebe Halsey, below. The witness, however, may have been Abraham (son of Phebe) who was then about 24 years old. (C. 75) He is said to have been at Ticonderoga, in 1775. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges' "Bridge Hampton Address,"—1876) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); also in the 2d and 4th of the Line; and became a Prisoner, Mar. 2, 1781. (G. 44, 47, 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

He m. Celia (or Aphelia) Cook, and had three children: Hannah 6; Free-love 6; and Josiah 6. (Halsey Gen. pp. 73, 125)

HALSEY ELIAS 5, LT. (Abraham 4, David 3, Thomas 2, 1; brother of Dr. Stephen, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, part of his effects were brought from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Amos Pendleton (C. 213); and, same month, with his family, and other effects, by Capts. Ephraim Pendleton, John Miner and Thomas Robinson. Capt. Miner charged for five passengers; also for the passage of Elias' wife and three children. The claim was paid to David Gelston. (C. 198) He was a Lt. in the French and Indian War.

He was b. Feb. 3, 1730; m. Hannah Howell; and was living in 1815. His children were: Elias 6, Hezekiah 6, and Prudence 6. (Halsey Gen. pp. 55, 84) He lived in the homestead which was occupied by the late Hon. Henry P. Hedges.

The name appears twice in the signatures to the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787; and, in one case, it is spelled "Hallsey." (H. 34) Probably one of the signatures was that of his son Elias. It was evidently his son who was under 50 years old, by the Census of 1776; wherein he also stated that there was one male and one female over 16, and two males and one female under 16. (A. 54)

Elias Halsey Elias Hallsey

HALSEY ELIAS HENRY, CAPT. See CAPT. HENRY, Page 381.

HALSEY ELIZABETH. (Wife of CAPT. HENRY, below)

HALSEY HENRY 5, CAPT. (Henry 4, Daniel 3, 2, Thomas 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Groton, in Dec., 1776, by Capts. Samuel Beebe, Elnathan Fellows and Daniel McAlpin. His claim for expenses was attested by his wife, Elizabeth, in Feb., 1777. (C. 63) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He was a Lt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); and, afterward, became Capt. of a Privateer in the harbor of New London. He was killed, at Ft. Griswold, Groton Heights, Sept. 6, 1781. (Pages 235, 236. Also G. 9. Also Caulkins' "New London," p. 559)

He was b. in Bridge Hampton, and was probably bapt. Elias Henry; but he was usually called Henry—and named so, as being under age, in his father's will which was proved June 28, 1740. His own will, proved June 9, 1785, names his wife Elizabeth. (Halsey Gen. pp. 53, 75) He and his wife were the only ones included in the Census of 1776, both being under 50 years old. (A. 54)

HALSEY JEREMIAH 5 (Jeremiah 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, part of his effects were brought over from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Amos Pendleton; and, same month, another part, and eight passengers, by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212, 213) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

He was b. ———— 1737; m. Elizabeth (Woodruff?); d. Sept. —, 1782. His wife was b. ———— 1742; d. Oct. 16, 1831. It has been stated that her maiden name was Conkling; and that, as the Wid. of Jeremiah, she m. a Woodruff. His children were: Simeon 6, Amos 6, Luther 6, Jeremiah 6, Elizabeth 6, Jerusha 6, and Eunice 6. The Census of 1776 showed that there were, in his family, one male and one female over 16 years old; and three males and three females under 16. (A. 54)

He was not the Jeremiah (b. in 1743; d. in 1829), who was a native of Stonington; and, later, lived at Preston. This Jeremiah was a Deputy in the Gen. Ass'y of Conn.; and was very active in the War. It is not certain whether it was he, or the Refugee Jeremiah, who was appointed by the Gen. Ass'y, Jan. 1780, to prepare the proofs and testimony relating to the controversy between Col. Wm. Worthington, Serjt. Ephraim Kelsey, Dr. William Lawrence and Richard Seaman. (E. 120) Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that the Refugee, Jeremiah, became a noted lawyer in Stonington. ("Bridge Hampton Address"—1910)

HALSEY JOHN. Either John 5 (Joshua 4, Joseph 3, Isaac 2, Thomas 1), who was living in Southampton, in 1769, according to the Town Records (Halsey Gen. p. 67); or John 6 (Israel 5, Josiah 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1), who was under age in 1744, and named in the will of his brother William, in 1786. He m. Mercy Fish. (Halsey Gen. p. 79)

He was from Bridge Hampton; and signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He went to Guilford; and his sheep were put in the flock there, Sept. 26, 1776. (C. 217)

A John, served in the 2d Line. (G. 44)

A John, m. Hannah Downs, Jan. 3, 1782. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

In the Census of 1776 for Southampton West, John Halsey, over 50 years old and his wife are given, and no children (A. 53); while, in the Census for Southampton East, another John and his wife are given as over 16 years old, with no children. (A. 54) The latter was probably the Refugee.

HALSEY JOSIAH 6 (Probably son of Israel 5, and thus a brother of one of the Johns, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Preston. At Preston, he had the oversight of some of the British Prisoners. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

He was probably b. about 1753; for he was under 50, by the Census of 1776, and so was his wife. He had three sons and one dau., all under 16. (A. 54)

HALSEY MATTHEW 6 (Matthew 5, Jeremiah 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton. He served as a private in the Battle of L. I. He then took out Letters of Marque and captured some Hessian Troops at New London. The winter of 1777-1778 being very severe, he skated from N. Y. City to Newark; and traveled thence to Valley Forge, where he joined his command. (Halsey Gen. pp. 84, 85) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. at Bridge Hampton, July 25, 1753; m. (1) ——— Rose; (2) Ruth Leonard. About 1795, he removed to Otsego Co., N. Y.; and from thence to Bennett's Flats, where he d. Jan. 28, 1841. His house, at Bridge Hampton, was occupied by relatives until very recently. (Halsey Gen. pp. 84, 85) Mr. Francis Whiting Halsey, the well known author, of N. Y. City, is his g. grandson.

HALSEY PHEBE, WID. (Elijah 5 (Elijah 4, Jeremiah 3, Thomas 2, 1) —From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, she paid Capt. James Wiggins for his charges in moving Walter Howell's effects to Saybrook. (C. 75) She might, therefore, have been of Walter Howell's family.

Elijah, her husband, b. in 1732; d. June 10, 1765, and is buried at Mecox. His will, proved June 21, 1765, names his wife Phebe, son Abraham (not 14 years old) and daughters Phebe and Lucretia. Wid. Phebe d. Mar. 26, 1793, aged 62, and is buried at Mecox. (Halsey Gen. pp. 59, 60) The son, Abraham, witnessed the above named payment to Capt. Wiggins. (C. 75)

The Census of 1776 showed that she had one son over 16; one under 16; and two daughters over 16. (A. 54)

HALSEY PHILIP 6, CAPT. (Zebulon 5, Josiah 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Windsor, Conn. Hearing that the British Dragoons were to be billeted in Southampton, he joined several companions and fled, in the night, to Windsor, where he remained. (Halsey Gen. p. 78. Also Howell's "Southampton," p. 277) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., as a private and a Fif. (G. 7, 30) He was a Capt. in the Continental Army; and was with the last Company that evacuated N. Y. City. (Halsey Gen. p. 78) If this latter statement is true, he was in the Continental Army from some State other than N. Y.; probably from Conn. (G. 91)

He was b. at Brookhaven, in 1760; m. Esther, dau. of Elisha Moore, of Windsor; d. Sept. 4, 1846. (Halsey Gen. p. 78)

HALSEY SILAS 4 (Daniel 3, 2, Thomas 1; father of Dr. Silas, Jr., below)—From Southampton to Saybrook and Killingworth. On Sept. 2, 1776, he, with his wife and effects, was taken from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 12); was a Committeeman to certify the election of a Company of Minute Men, in Southampton, before Feb. 23, 1776 (Page 88. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 25); and was Chairman of the Committee of Safety in Southampton on the breaking out of the War. (Page 145)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b., at Southampton, Jan. 17, 1718; m. ——— Susannah Howell; d. at Ovid, N. Y., Jan. 3, 1786. His will, proved Jan. 24, 1786, names wife, Susannah; daughters, Susannah and Catherine; and son, Silas, Jr. (Halsey Gen. p. 53)

A younger Silas, b. about 1752, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30)

HALSEY SILAS, JR., 5, DR. (Son of Silas 4, above)—From Southampton to Saybrook and Killingworth. In Sept., 1776, with his family and effects, he was moved from Saybrook to Killingworth by Capt. James Harris. The Auditors vouched for his character. (C. 64) In 1779, with others, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) Having received permission from the British Gen. Erskine to return to Southampton, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for liberty to go; which was granted, in Apr., 1780. (Page 192. Also E. 54-56) Halsey Gen. erroneously states that it was in 1779. The petitioner was well recommended by the Authority and Selectmen of Killingworth. (E. 55) Returning to Southampton, he resumed the practice of medicine, as one of the successors of Dr. William Smith. (Page 179) He was also connected as a Surg. with the Hospital Service of the Army. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt.," p. 45) He was Sheriff of Suffolk Co., 1787-1791. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co.") In 1792, he removed to Ovid, N. Y. He was Clerk of Seneca County; Member of Ass'y; and State Senator. In 1804 he was a Member of Cong. (Halsey Gen. pp. 75, 76)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b. in Southampton, Oct. 17, 1743 (N. S.); d. at Ovid, N. Y., Nov. 19, 1832. He was m. three times:—(1) Nov. 8, 1764,

Sarah Radley, of Elizabeth, N. J., (b. July 9, 1745, d. at Killingworth, Aug. 25, 1778); (2) Hannah (Jones) Howell (b. Feb. 4, 1753, d. Dec. 4, 1810);

Silas Halsey

(3) Abigail Howell (b. Feb. 18, 1731, d. aged 75). His sons Jehiel 6 and Nicol 6 were, also, Members of Cong. (Halsey Gen. pp. 75, 76)

Mr. Charles W. Halsey, of N. Y. City, is his g. g. grandson.

HALSEY STEPHEN 5, DR. (Abraham 4, David 3, Thomas 2, 1; brother of Lt. Elias, above; father of Serjt. Stephen, below)—From Bridge Hampton. On July 26, 1776, Col. Samuel Drake wrote from his camp at Greenwich to the Prov'l Cong. at White Plains, asking for a warrant for the pay of Dr. Stephen Halsey who had acted as Surg. for his Regt. since the 8th inst. (Misc. Pap., 34. 488) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 12, 33); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. at Bridge Hampton; m. twice, one of his wives being Mary Moore, of Southold. He had children: Serjt. Stephen 6, Capt. Henry 6, Hugh 6, Avery 6 and Jemima 6. (Halsey Gen. pp. 55, 84)

The portrait, given herewith, is from an old print.

HALSEY STEPHEN 6, SERJT. (Son of Dr. Stephen 5, above)—From Bridge Hampton. He served, as a private, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30, 37); and as a Serjt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

He was b. in 1757; m. Hamutal, dau. of Lt. Philip Howell (See Howell); d. Jan. 25, 1837. After the War he became a physician. (Halsey Gen. p. 84)

HALSEY THEOPHILUS 5 (Nathan 4, Jeremiah 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington and East Haddam.

He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capts. David Sayre and Ephraim Pendleton (C. 138, 214); and, on Oct. 20, from Southampton to Stonington by Capts. Hubbard Latham and Elnathan Fellows. (C. 65) On May 22, 1779, he was allowed, with others, to bring grain from L. I. (D. 28); and, on Jan. 24 and Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to bring flax. (D. 44) With several others, on Feb. 26 (and for himself, on May 26), 1781, he asked permission to return to L. I. with his family and effects; but this was not granted, although the Selectmen of East Haddam recommended it. (E. 145, 146)

Theophilus Halsey

HALSEY THOMAS 5 (Ethan 4, Thomas 3, Isaac 2, Thomas 1; brother of Abraham 5, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Haddam. On Oct. 12, 1776, he had passage from Sag Harbor to Haddam with Capt. Robert Knight.

Stephen Halsey

(C. 133) He is said to have been at Ticonderoga, in 1775. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges' "Bridge Hampton Address"—1876) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and in the 2d and 4th of the Line. (G. 44, 47, 48) In some of these enlistments he is stated to have lived in Southampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

He was b. _____; m. _____, Mary Paine, d. _____.
(Halsey Gen. p. 73)

HALSEY TIMOTHY 6, SERJT. (Cornelius 5, Ephraim 4, Isaac 3, Thomas 2, 1; brother of William, below)—From Bridge Hampton. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was a Refugee. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 12, 30)

He was b. Jan. 1, 1753; m. Nov. 8, 1780, Abigail Jagger. He removed to Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y.; and d. there, Apr. 21, 1825. His children were: Apollos 7, Cephas 7, Hiram 7, Walter 7, Nancy 7, and Sophia 7. (Halsey Gen. pp. 79, 135, 136)

HALSEY WILLIAM 6 (Cornelius 5, Ephraim 4, Isaac 3, Thomas 2, 1; brother of Serjt. Timothy above)—From Southampton. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30)

He was b. in Southampton, Aug. 14, 1754; was a farmer, and d. at Westhampton, Apr. 2, 1823. He m. Susannah Jagger, of Westhampton. (Halsey Gen. p. 79) On Oct. 20, 1777, William Halsey m. Susannah Gagger, both of Ketchebonock. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His children were: Shepherd 7, Harvey Walter 7, Polly, or Mary 7, Patty, or Martha 7, Miriam 7, Susan 7, Betsey, or Elizabeth 7, Harriet 7 and William 7. (Halsey Gen. pp. 79, 136, 137)

He m. Susannah 5 (Stephen 4, Jonathan 3, John 2, Jeremiah 1) Jagger. She was b. July 25, 1755. Her uncles, Ebenezer and Matthew Jagger, were Refugees. (See Jagger) William 6 Halsey had: Miriam 7, m. Jonathan Cook; Patty 7, m. _____ Howell; Polly 7, m. _____ Howell; Susan 7, m. Charles Hart (see Hart); Shepherd 7, m. Jerusha Conkling; William 7, not m.; Betsy 7, m. Nicholas Rogers; Harriet 7, m. Herrick Raynor; and Harvey 7, m. Sarah Kimberly. (Notes of Mr. Nathaniel Reeves Hart)

William Halsey Hart, my father, told me that he heard his mother [Susan, dau. of William Halsey] say that, during the Revolution, British Soldiers were quartered on William Halsey's house. One night Mrs. Halsey went to the kitchen to get some hot water for a child. In doing so, she woke up some of the soldiers; some of whom cursed her, and threatened to kill her if she did not get out and leave them undisturbed. (Mr. Nathaniel Reeves Hart)

Wilmur (perhaps intended for William) Halsey. Census of 1776, for Southampton, E. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

HAND. The members of this Family on L. I. came from John 1 who was on the whaling list, in Southampton, in 1644. He came from County Kent, Eng. In 1648, he was one of the Company to found a new Plantation at East Hampton. John 1 b. _____; m. Alice Stanbrough; d. in 1663. He had eight children, of whom: Stephen 2, and James 2. James 2 had a son, James 3; and a grandson, Capt. Samuel 4. (Hand Gen. Also Howell's "Southampton," p. 277. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 285-290) One branch of the Family went to Richmond, Mass.; and another, to Guilford, Conn., where it intermarried with the Meigs Family. Among the descendants of Capt. Samuel 4 were:—Nathan 5; Samuel 6; Hon. Augustus 7, of Essex Co., N. Y.; Judge Samuel 8, of Albany, N. Y.; and Judge Billings L. 9, of N. Y. City.

HAND ABRAHAM 5 (Capt. Samuel 4, James 3, 2, John 1)—From East Hampton to Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) The Council of Safety, on Jan. 15, 1777, gave him permission to return. (D. 3) It may be that he did not return at once; for an Abraham Hand served in Conn. (G. 91)

He was b. in 1741; and signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) His son, Abraham 6, bapt. in 1766, removed to Ovid, N. Y., taking the Family Bible with him. Hence further details of Abraham 5 cannot be had. (Mr Charles R. Dayton) This might have been the one named in the Census of 1776 as under 50 years old; with two sons and one daughter, all under 16. (A. 52)

HAND DANIEL, JR., 6 (Daniel 5, John 4, Stephen 3, 2, John 1)—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 29); and in Conn. (G. 91) He was bapt. in 1744. (Howell, as above, p. 278)

HAND DAVID 7, CAPT. (David 6, Silas 5, Capt. Samuel 4, James 3, 2, John 1; nephew of Gideon, below. In Hedges' "East Hampton," he is: David 6, 5, 4, Josiah 3, Shamgar 2, John 1, and thus a brother of Gideon below)—From Sag Harbor to Stonington. He was from Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) His effects were moved, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. Isaac Sheffield, John Miner, 2d and David Sayre, the latter charging for 11 passengers. (C. 103, 138, 212) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and in the 2d Line. (G. 43) Howell ("Southampton," pp. 76, 77) relates the following—

David Hand of this township, residing in Sag Harbor, was a sailor both in privateers and vessels of the navy during the Revolution. He experienced, with many others, the horrors of the Jersey prison ship. On one occasion a small frigate of the navy was captured after a short action by a British vessel of superior armament, off the harbor of Charleston. Being a carpenter he was detailed to make repairs on the prize with promise of pay by the English commander. After the repairs were completed, he was taken in a boat to the British frigate. When about half way between the two vessels, at a signal from the coxswain, the oars were hove up, and after a fruitless struggle on his part, his clothes were taken by the sailors and divided among them. On their arrival at the British vessel, he marched up to the commander and demanded restitution of his clothing, but gained no further satisfaction than a surly, "Go and find them—I have got nothing to do about that." He then asked for his promised pay for repairs of the American frigate, and he was equally unsuccessful. Completely disgusted with the "perfidious Albion," he said to the captain: "All I ask now is, to begin at your taffrail rail, and fight the whole ship's crew forward, and die like a man." The captain, of course, paid no attention to this, and he was ordered forward among the other prisoners. Having survived all the dangers of the war, he lived long, a man of note and respectability honored by his fellow citizens for his bravery and manly virtues.

He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34) The Census of 1776 has a David, with this record:—Three males over 16, and three males under 16; four females over 16. (A. 54) This could not have been Capt. David's family; but it might have been that of his father, David 6, who d. in 1767. Capt. David was b. ———— 1759; d. Feb. 29, 1840.

(Howell's "Southampton," p. 280) He was g. grandfather of the late Capt. Nathan P. Hand, David Hand of Sag Harbor.

HAND GIDEON 6 (Silas 5, Capt. Samuel 4, James 3, 2, John 1; uncle of Capt. David, above. In Hedges' "East Hampton," the line is: David 5, 4, Josiah 3, Shamgar 2, John 1, and thus a brother of Capt. Daniel, above)—From Sag Harbor to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton. (C. 214) Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34)

Gideon Hand
HAND JOHN, JR., 6 (John 5, 4, Stephen 3, 2, John 1; brother of Joseph, below)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam, Sept. 5, 1776, by Capt. Joshua Griffeth (C. 57); and, same month, from Sag Harbor to Chester, with his goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29)

His father, John 5, had numerous children; and the Census of 1776 probably records his family thus:—Above 16 years old, males 3, females 2; under 16, males 4, females 3. (A. 52) John, Jr., 6, b. Sept. 31, 1754; m. Mar. 6, 1778, Mary Jones; d. May 29, 1809. He was the grandfather of Hon. Alfred Hand, of Scranton, Pa. (Hand Gen. Also Howell's "Southampton," p. 281)

In the Ch. Rec. of East Hampton there was another John Hand, Jr., who had children, bapt. in 1770, 1778 and 1781; and a wife who d. in 1781. He d. in 1826. I find no record of his birth. He does not appear to have been a son of John 5, but I think was a nephew. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Hon. Alfred Hand gives more information of John, Jr., 6; and names his descendants down to date—

After the War, John, Jr., 6, removed to Athens, Greene Co., N. Y. He carried on a trade between that place and Cuba. During one of these trips he d., May 30, 1809, in Cuba. As he was a Protestant, the burial was not allowed on the Island; but on account of his popularity, burial was given on the shore between low and high water-mark. He had these children: Alfred 7, below; Elisha J. 7, below; Cynthia 7, b. HAND JONATHAN ()—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and in Conn. (G. 91)

A Jonathan, of L. I., m. Feb. 7, 1781, Abigail Weed. (Wethersfield-Rocky Hill, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

HAND JOSEPH 6 (John 5, 4, Stephen 3, 2, John 1; brother of John, Jr., above)—From Bridge Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29, 31); and in Conn. (G. 91)

He was b. Dec. 20, 1755. (G. 31. Also Howell's "Southampton," p. 281)

HARLEY—HARLOW—It is probable that the latter is the correct way to spell this name. Rev. Jacob E. Mallmann states that the original form was Harley; that Capt. Robert, below, after clearing from some foreign port, discovered that his name had been spelled Harlow—hence Harlow was adopted.

HARLEY ROBERT, CAPT.—From Southold to Saybrook; where he was, in 1777. (A. 43) Griffin ("Journal," p. 224) states that Robert Harlow was from Oyster Ponds; commanded a ship from Philadelphia; and had been dead for some years, in 1857. He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

The Census of 1776 showed that, in his family, there were: one male and three females over 16 years old; and one male and three females under that age. (A. 55) He m. Phebe Brown. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 248; wherein are given the children of his son, Robert, b. in 1772)

HARLEY THOMAS—From Shelter Island. With others, he petitioned Gov. Trumbull, probably in 1779, for permission to go to L. I. for supplies of food. (B. 3) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31)

Thom^s Harley

In the Census of 1776, he is stated to have had in his family, one male and one female over 16; and one male and one female under 16. (A. 49)

HARRIS—The first of the name, George 1, was in Southampton, in 1657. His son, George 2, probably b. about 1660; d. in 1753. Henry 3, b. about 1699; d. about 1782. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 282) Henry 3 was probably the one recorded in the Census of 1776 as being over 50 years old; with no family beside his wife. (A. 53) He m. Lydia, dau. of Benjamin Haines. (See Haines)

HARRIS HENRY 4 (Henry 3, George 2, 1)—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

He was the Henry, Jr., of the Census of 1776, which gave him two males and three females over 16 years old; and two males and two females under 16. (A. 53) He m. (1) Ann —————; m. (2) Abigail —————. His son, Henry 5, b. Aug. 16, 1764; m. Jan. 25, 1792, Phila, dau. of Joseph Rugg; d. Nov. 21, 1851. His children were: Harvey 6; Mary 6; Ann 6, m. ———— Hodgdon; Amanda 6, b. Aug. 8, 1798, m. July 4, 1820, Judge William H. Jessup (see Jessup), d. June 13, 1883; Joseph 6; Phebe 6; and Harriet 6, m., as 2d wife, Moses Taylor. (Mrs. W. H. McCartney) See also Harris, in "Capts. and Masters of Ships."

HART—Moore ("Index," p. 20) mentions a Jonathan 1, or John 1, who m. Hannah Budd. He had a grandson, John 3. John 1 was in the Southold Records, 1663-1667. One by the name of Hart was at Newtown, L. I., in 1666.

Dea. Stephen 1 came from England to Cambridge, Mass., about 1632; and was in Hartford, with Rev. Thomas Hooker, in 1635. Later, he settled at Farmington. ("Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R."—1901, p. 195)

Cornelius 1 was of Huntington, L. I. It is said that he was a son of Dennis and Mary (Smith) Hartt. He m. Elizabeth Wicks. His will was proved May 9, 1774. (N. Y. Wills, 29. 97) He had four sons and three daughters, of whom: Cornelius, Jr., 2; and Rev. Joshua 2, below. Cornelius, Jr., 2 had a son, Ebenezer 3, who m. Margaret Howell (see Howell); a grandson, Charles 4, who m. Susan Halsey (see Halsey); a g. grandson, William Halsey 5, m. Abigail Denton, dau. of Joshua Reeve (See Reeve); and a g. g. grandson, Nathaniel Reeves 6, lately deceased, of Stamford, Conn. (Notes of Mr. Nathaniel R. Hart)

HART MOLLY—From Southold (probably), to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, she was brought over, with three passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) She may have m. Benjamin 4 Moore. (See Moore) A Mary Hart was a pensioner in the Military Rec. of Conn. (G. 91)

HART WILLIAM—From Huntington to Saybrook (probably). He was engaged in the Illicit Trade. (Page 212. Also F. 128) One of the name served in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); in Pawling's Levies, (G. 61); and, perhaps, as Maj. or Serjt. in Conn. (G. 91)

HARTT JOSHUA 2, REV. (Cornelius 1)—From Smithtown. He suffered many indignities from the enemy, and was a Prisoner in N. Y. City. On one occasion being chained to a negro Prisoner, a British officer inquired, "How do you like your company?" To which, he retorted, "Better than yours!" At another time, when preaching at Smithtown Branch, a bullet was fired at him, lodging in the wall just above his head, where the mark remained for many years. (Evelyn Briggs Baldwin, in N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., Apr., 1911) On May 28, 1777, Col. Josiah Smith and Rev. Mr. Hartt, were brought to the Provost, in N. Y. City, where Hartt fell sick, and lay at death's door. Col. Ethan Allen kneeled down and made so fervent a prayer by his side, and otherwise cheered him up, that he recovered and was admitted on parole. (Prime's "Rev'y Incidents of L. I.," p. 632)

He was b. at Huntington, Sept. 17, 1738; graduated at Princeton College, in 1770; ordained by the Suffolk Presbytery, in 1772; and installed as Pastor at Hempstead, in 1772; and at Smithtown, in 1773. (H. 39) To preaching the Gospel he added farming, teaching school and land surveying; his diary containing many entries covering these activities. After 1783, with others, he surveyed the State lands in Oneida Co., N. Y.; and, in 1790, he visited the Indians of that vicinity, as a Missionary. He preached many sermons justifying the War of 1812. He d. at Fresh Pond, L. I., Oct. 3, 1829. (Baldwin, as above. Also Woods' "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 33)

Census of Smithtown, in 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 48) On his tombstone, in the Hartt plot, at Northport, L. I., are the words: "d. Oct. 3, 1828, in 90th yr." This would seem to make him b. in 1739—thus correcting the dates given in the last paragraph. He m. Feb. 9, 1773, Abigail Howells, of Moriches, L. I. His children were: Elizabeth Catherine 3, m. Alexander Bryant; Frances Howell 3, m. William Rudyard; John Locke 3, m. Tryphena —————; Abigail 3, m. Benjamin Ketcham; Sarah 3, m. Isaac Scudder; Mary 3, m. Samuel

Johnson; Charles Joshua 3, not m.; David Howell 3; Gloriana 3, m. (1) Isaac B. Arthur, (2) David Rice; and James Fordyce 3, m. Adeline Sammis. His living grand children are: Mrs. Mary Wicks, Wachapreague, Va.; Mrs. James B. Cooper, Babylon, L. I.; Joseph Ray Hartt, Huntington, L. I.; Charles J. Hartt, Los Angeles, Cal.; James Fordyce Hartt and David G. Hartt, Northport, L. I. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

HAVENS—Moore's "Index" (pp. 140, 141), and Howell's "Southampton" (p. 428) are fragmentary, relative to this Family. The Havens' Gen. is incomplete. The authority on the earlier generations is Austin's "Rhode Island Dictionary." The chief authority on all the generations is Mallmann's "Shelter Island," which is followed closely in this sketch, unless otherwise noted.

The members of this Family descend from William I, who was b. in England; was an inhabitant of the Island of Aquidneck, in 1638; d. in 1683. His son, George 2, b. in 1653; m. Eleanor Thurston, in 1674; was a freeman, in Kingston, R. I., in 1687; d. Feb. 21, 1706-7. In 1695 he bought 1,000 acres on Shelter Island of the proprietor, Nathaniel Sylvester. His son, George 3, lived on Fisher's Island. George 2, had, also, sons: John 3, and Jonathan 3.

John 3, m. Sarah, dau. of John and Sarah (Horton) Conkline, and had seven children, among whom: William 4, Lt., the Refugee; and John 4. The latter, b. in 1711, d. in 1797, m. Patience, dau. of Daniel Tuthill (See Tuthill), and had eight children. Among the eight were: Mehitable 5, m. John Moore (See Moore); Bethiah 5, m. Daniel Rackett (See Rackett); and Jeremiah 5, m. Bethiah Conkling and was the grandfather of the late Joseph Conkling Havens, of Moriches.

Jonathan 3, b. in 1681, m. Hannah Brown, d. in 1748. His will was dated, Sept. 22, 1746, proved Aug. 13, 1748. (N. Y. Wills. Lib. 16. p. 324) He had ten children. Among them were: Sarah 4, m. Alexander 4 King (See King); George 4, d. in 1733-4, who had a son, George 5, d. in 1770; Jonathan 4, b. in 1709, m. Catherine Nicoll, d. in 1774, whose son, Nicoll 5, was the father of Jonathan Nicoll 6, below, and Rensselaer 6—the latter the father of Miss Katharine E. Havens, of Stamford, Conn.; Constant 4, b. in 1713, d. in 1761, whose dau. Abigail 5, m. Col. Thomas Terry (See Terry); Joseph 4, b. in 1714, d. in 1775; William 4, d. in 1763. Jonathan Nicoll 6, b. Jan. 18, 1757; not m.; d. Oct. 25, 1799. He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 31) He was a Delegate to the N. Y. Convention to ratify the U. S.

Jonathan N^o Havens.

Constitution, in 1788; a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1786-1795; and a Member of the U. S. Cong., 1797-1799. (Civil List)

HAVENS DANIEL, CAPT. ()—From Sag Harbor; as is probable by the Census of 1776 in Southampton, E. Dist., below. He was from Shelter Island. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau) He was Capt. of the ship "Beaver." (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Sept., 1776, he transported a part of Capt. Daniel Hedges' effects from Sag Harbor to Pochog (C. 183); same month, part of Nathaniel Hunting's effects from L. I. to Saybrook (C. 81); and, in Nov., 1776, part of Lt. Obadiah Havens' effects from Shelter Island to Saybrook. (C. 69) It is possible that he served in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in Conn. (G. 91) He fitted out the brig "America," and made a very successful whaling voyage. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 640)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) Evidently he d. at an early age; for, on Feb. 13, 1783, his Wid., Hannah, was allowed to return to L. I. with her family and effects. (F. 93)

HAVENS GEORGE 6 (George 5, 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; brother of Lt. Obadiah, below)—Probably from Sag Harbor, according to the Census of 1776 in Southampton, E. Dist., below. There is no record of his going to Conn.; but, on Mar. 28, 1782, Gov. Trumbull was authorized to permit him to return to L. I., with his family, to secure furniture, provisions &c. (F. 53)

Daniel Havens

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He m. Nov. 22, 1781, Lucretia Devison (Saybrook, Conn., Ch. Rec.); some records say Denison.

HAVENS HANNAH, WID.—(See Capt. Daniel, Page 388)

HAVENS JAMES 5 (William 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; brother of Capt. Walter, below, and William, below)—From Shelter Island up the Conn. River, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) In 1781, he suffered from a raid on Shelter Island. (Page 205. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 343-346. He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 31); and was a Delegate to the Prov'l Cong., in that year. (A. 56. Also Civil List) He served in Conn. (G. 91) After his return to L. I., he was probably a Capt., in the Suffolk Co. Militia; as a statement of his death gives him that title.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 49) He was b. Feb. 12, 1742; m. Elizabeth Bowditch; d. Mar. 15, 1810. He had 11 children. (Mallmann, p. 242) His dau., Julia 6, m. David Gardiner (See Gardiner); his dau., Elizabeth 6, m. Jonathan Thompson. (See Thompson)

James Havens

HAVENS JONATHAN 5, DR. (Constant 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. Between Sept. and Dec. 1776, his family and effects were moved over by Capts. Jeremiah Haley, Thomas Robinson and James Wiggins. (C. 66) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) Having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned for relief, Feb. 12, 1778; which was granted, in May, 1778. (Page 203. Also E. 4-9) On Mar. 20, 1780, he was one of several Refugees living at East Haddam who were permitted to go to L. I. for provisions, flax &c. (D. 44) On Apr. 11, 1780, he petitioned to return, stating that he had come to East Haddam with his wife, seven children, his sister's dau. and two servants; and that two children had been born since. The petition was granted. (Page 185. Also E. 39-41) His sister was Abigail 5, Wid. of Col. Thomas Terry (See Terry); and the dau., Elizabeth 6. (Mallmann, p. 242) In Oct., same year (somewhat contradictory to the above), Capt. Jabez Gregory was permitted to bring a part of Dr. Havens' effects from L. I. to Conn. (F. 21) He was a Surgeon, connected with the Hospital Service. (Page 179. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 45)

I have a letter written in Sag Harbor by Dr. Jonathan Havens, in 1798, to his son Tyler, in N. Y. City, urging the latter to come to Sag Harbor on account of the fever in the City. (Miss Addie Sayre)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1738; m. Abigail Tiley, or Tyler; d. Apr. 22, 1801. He had nine children (Mallmann, p. 242), among whom, Capt. Gabriel 6 was a noted mariner. Griffin ("Journal," p. 57) states that eight of his children survived him.

Jonathan Havens

Elizabeth, dau. of a Jonathan Havens, m. David Howell, in 1751. (See Howell)

HAVENS JOSEPH, CAPT. (Probably a son of William and Ruth)—From Sag Harbor; as by the Census of Southampton, E. Dist., below. Mr. William S. Pelletreau states that he was from Shelter Island. On Sept. 26, 1776, he, apparently, transported his own goods from L. I. to Conn.; and his honesty was vouched for by the Auditors. (C. 67) In the same month, his effects, with six passengers, were moved over to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) The goods moved over may have belonged to Joseph, Sr., below. As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in the same month, he brought from L. I. to Conn. part of the effects of Sam'l L'Hommedieu; and, from East Hampton to Haddam, part of the effects of Aaron Isaaca. (C. 175, 207) In 1781, he suffered from a raid on Shelter Island. (Page 205. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 343-346). If he served in the Army, he was in the 1st and 3d of the Line (G. 43, 46); and in Conn. (G. 91) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1745; d. Oct. 18, 1827. He m. Pebebe Havens (William 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; sister of James, above), b. Apr. 22, 1753, d. Mar. 12, 1806. He had eight children. (Mallmann, p. 243)

Another Joseph 4 (Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1) was b. in 1714. His first wife, Mary Watts, d. in 1768. In 1769, he m. Jemima Glover, by whom he had one son, Joseph 5, b. May 18, 1772, d. Oct. 13, 1775. She d. May 18, 1772. He afterward moved into the Town of Southampton, from whence his will is dated. He d. May 31, 1775. (Mallmann pp. 44, 239, 240) His sister, Sarah 4, m. Alexander King. (See King. Also Mallmann, as above) She was buried at Middletown, Conn., May 13, 1790. (Tombstone at Middletown) This was evidently the Joseph, later of Bridge Hampton, who wills, Oct. 12, 1771, to his wife Jemima, and to his brothers and sisters. A codicil, Apr. 29, 1775, states that his wife d. in giving birth to a son, Joseph. The will was proved, May 31, 1775. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 428)

The second named Joseph could not have been a Refugee, as he d. in 1775, a few days after signing the Association, on Shelter Island. (H. 31) Joseph, Jr. signed from the Island, and also from Suffolk County. (H. 10, 31) Joseph, Jr., was evidently Capt. Joseph the Refugee. [Note—The "Jr." does not always mean that the father had the same given name]

Joseph Havens Joseph Havens Jr.

A Joseph m. Mar. 20, 1781, Amy Buchanan. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

HAVENS OBADIAH 6, LT. (George 5, 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; brother of George, above)—From Shelter Island to Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved over by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) On Oct. 2, same year, his freight was taken from L. I. to Saybrook by Cpts. James Webb and J. Salsbury. (C. 68) In Nov., 1776, other of his effects were brought from Shelter Island to Saybrook by Cpts. James Harris, Starr Greenfield and Daniel Havens. (C. 69) He was in Saybrook with William Havens, in 1777. (A. 43) It is stated that he was in Saybrook from Nov. 1, 1776, until Oct. 1, 1778. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) It does not appear how he had the title of Lt.

Obadiah Havens Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 4. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 49)

HAVENS WALTER 5, CAPT. (William 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; brother of James, above, and William, below)—From Shelter Island. As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Oct., 1776, he moved a part of the effects of Lewis Osborn from L. I. to East Haddam. (C. 115) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 49) He m. Lois Tuthill; d. May 1, 1806. He had three children. (Mallmann, p. 242)

Another Walter 6 (Constant 5, 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; nephew of Dr. Jonathan, above), had five children. (Mallmann, p. 245) Probably he was not Capt. Walter.

HAVENS WILLIAM 4, CAPT. and LT. (John 3, George 2, William 1—brother to the second named Jonathan; although Mallmann thinks this line is wrong)—From Southampton, E. Dist., probably Sag Harbor. His commission as 2d Lt. was issued by the Prov'l Cong., June 29, 1775. (G. 1) He acted for Col. Henry B. Livingston in securing vessels for the Refugees. (C. 98) He served in the 2d, 3d, and 4th of the Line. (G. 44-48) He resigned from the latter, Nov. 14, 1777. (Clinton Pap., 2. 519, 520) He served in Conn. (G. 91) At Southampton, Jan. 21, 1794, he made affidavit that he was the only surviving officer of Capt. Davis' Co., 4th Line. (B. 40) He was Capt. of the armed ship "Beaver." (Pages 216, 217, 218) He signed the Association, from Suffolk County, in 1775 (H. 10); and, perhaps, as William, Jr., from Shelter Island. (H. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—under 16, 1. (A. 54) Dates of b. and d. not given. He probably m. Ruth ———, who d. in 1759. He had eight children. (Mallmann, pp. 163, 164) This seems to tally with the Census.

William Havens William Havens Junr

HAVENS WILLIAM 5 (William 4, Jonathan 3, George 2, William 1; brother of James, above, and Capt. Walter, above)—From Shelter Island to Saybrook. He was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43) With others, probably in 1779, he asked permission to go to L. I. for provisions. (B. 3) On June 9, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return with his wife and three children. He was well recommended by the Authority and Selectmen of Saybrook; and permission was given. (E. 76-77) On Mar. 28, 1782, Gov. Trumbull was authorized to permit him to go to L. I., with his family, for furniture, provisions &c (F. 53); and, on Mar. 6, 1783, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family and his effects. (F. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 49) Date of b. not given; d. about 1802. He had five children. (Mallmann, p. 243)

HAWKINGS—HAWKINS—Robert 1 came from England to Charlestown, Mass., in 1635. (Mr. Israel G. Hawkings)

HAWKINGS ZOPHER—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7. 35) Afterward, he served in the 4th Line. (G. 48. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 29) He was a Prisoner. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 42) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19)

He was b. Jan. 24, 1757; m. ——— Juliana Bayles; d. Oct. 26, 1847. His children were: Moses, b. Oct. 16, 1804; Mary, b. Jan. 9, 1806; Ruth, b. May 19, 1808; Sarah (twin with Ruth); Elizabeth, b. Apr. 6, 1811; and Samuel, b. July 17, 1816. (I. G. H.)

HAZARD—For the earlier generations, see Hazard in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

HAZARD CATHARINE, MRS.—From Newtown to Fishkill, Dutchess Co., N. Y. On Jan. 4, 1777, she was allowed to go to L. I. in order to bring her children and family to Fishkill. Her three sisters were allowed to go with her (A. 28) She was a dau. of Judge Abraham Schenck (See Schenck); and the wife of Morris Hazard, below. (A. 28)

HAZARD MORRIS 5 (William 4, Judge James 3, Jonathan 2, Thomas 1) —He was a voter in Newtown. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.") He was the husband of Catharine, above. He was in the Continental service (A. 28); but he was not in that service from the State of New York. In Apr., 1777, he had leave, from the British, to remove his three children from Newtown to Peekskill, N. Y. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 53) In 1779, his child was in the care of his father-in-law, Judge Abraham Schenck, on L. I.; and Gov. Clinton gave permission to his wife to "come out into the country," under certain conditions of an exchange. (Clinton Pap., 5. 222, 223) In Oct., 1781, it was reported that he had been seen in consultation with Mayor Matthews of N. Y. City; and, while he was suspected, in accordance with the custom of the time, it is evident that nothing was done. (Clinton Pap., 7. 453-456)

HEDGES—HODGES—The ancestor of the Families of this name in Southampton, Bridge Hampton and East Hampton was William 1 who came from England and was listed among the inhabitants of Southampton, in 1644. When the settlement of another Town to the Eastward was projected, in 1649, he was one of the first to join it. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 287) He was probably in Taunton, Mass., in 1643. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 290) He had sons: Isaac 2 and Stephen 2. Isaac 2 had a son, Isaac 3; and grand sons, Samuel 4 and David 4. Stephen 2 had sons:

Daniel 3, who had sons—Daniel 4, and Col. Jonathan 4, below; William 3, who had sons—David 4 and Jeremiah 4; and John 3, who had a son—Stephen 4. (Hedges, as above, p. 291 et seq.)

HEDGES DANIEL 5, CAPT. (Daniel 4, 3, Stephen 2, William 1; brother of Dea. David, below)—From Bridge Hampton, or Sagg, to Guilford. On Sept. 19, 1776, part of his effects were moved over by Capt. Peter Bonticou. (C. 14) In the same month, other of his effects were brought from Sag Harbor to Chester by Capts. Elijah Mason, Jacob Riley, Robert Knight, David Sayre, Daniel Havens and James Webb—his claim being receipted for by Col. John Hulbert. (C. 98, 183) On a date not given, still other effects were brought over to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, five passengers to Guilford by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) He was Lt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2, 9); and Capt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6) On July 26, 1776, he responded with one-fourth of his Co. to guard the stock. (A. 4) He was a Member of the N. Y.

ELISHA O. HEDGES—BRIDGE HAMPTON, L. I.
(The Hampton Printing and Publishing Co.)

Ass'y, in 1788. (Civil List) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11, 28) In 1787, he signed the agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. May 11, 1734; m. (1) Oct. 27, 1756, Sarah Baker (b. Aug. 6, 1735); m. (2) Susanna Pierson. He had 12 children. (Howell, p. 288. Hedges, p. 295, q. v. for descendants)

A Daniel, m. Jerusha, dau. of John 4 Hunting. (See Hunting)

Another Daniel, in the East Hampton Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52)

HEDGES DAVID 5 (Jeremiah 4, William 3, Stephen 2, William 1)—Probably from Bridge Hampton to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with six in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) On Nov. 7, 1777, his expenses were refunded. (C. 5. No. 16) He, or some other David, signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); and he, or some other David, served in Conn. (G. 91)

Daniel Hedges

Southampton, E. Dist., Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was bapt. in 1737. (Hedges, p. 291. Howell, p. 290)

Another David (ancestry not given), of Southold. Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 55) He was bapt. Oct. 16, 1715. (Hedges, p. 293) He d. Aug. 15, 1776, aged 66. (Salmon Rec.) The deaths of five of his children are recorded in 1754; and the death of a dau., in 1774. (Same Rec.) As he was dead before the flight to Conn. began, he could not have been the Refugee.

Another David 4 (William 3, Stephen 2, William 1), bapt. Jan. 9, 1715. (Hedges, p. 291. Howell, p. 290) Probably he was not the Refugee.

We come, now, to Dea. David 5 (Daniel 4, 3, Stephen 2, William 1; brother of Capt. Daniel, above)—He was b. June 15, 1744; m. (1) Wid. Charity Howell, (2) Wid. Phebe Sandford; d. Nov. 8, 1817, and is buried at Sagg. His son, Zephaniah 6, was the father of Hon. Henry P. 7, below. He was a Delegate to the 4th Prov'l Cong., in 1777 (A. 59); a Member of the Convention of 1788 to adopt the Constitution of the U. S.; and a Member of the N. Y. State Ass'y, 1786-9, 1804 and 1806-7. (Civil List) He was elected a Deacon of the Church at Bridge Hampton, in 1767; and an Elder, in 1801. He signed the agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34) See Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 295, 297.

(The Hampton Printing and Publishing Co.)

The figures from the Census of 1776, given to David the Refugee, above, may have belonged to Dea. David. There was a tradition that the Refugee was Dea. David himself. A note of inquiry to his grandson, Hon. Henry P. Hedges, brought this characteristic answer:—

I believe my grandfather, Dea., David Hedges, did pay his passage to Conn. as a Refugee, and was reimbursed therefor; and that he did not go, and for the following named reasons:—

1. There is a tradition, in our family, that he and his brother Daniel started to go together; and at a hill one-half a mile north on the road to Sag Harbor, Daniel went on; and David returned home with his ox cart load of goods.

2. My father, born in 1768, must have known if they went; and it is incredible that he would not have told me. He did tell me that he and his father carted hay grown in Sag Harbor to Meigs' Expedition, May 23d, 1777.

3. My aunt Sally, when over 90, told me she was born in Sagg, May 6th, 1777.

4. Old men, 70 years ago, told me that Dea. Hedges led the meetings all through the Revolutionary War; the Minister having resigned and left, in 1775, and the church having no Minister until 1787, when Woolworth came.

The illustration on Page 393 shows the house which was built and occupied by Dea. David, in 1810.

Hon Henry P. 7 (Zephaniah 6, Dea. David 5, Daniel 4, 3, Stephen 2, William 1) was b. Oct. 13, 1817; m. (1) Gloriana Osborn, (2) Mary G. Hildreth; d. Sept. 26, 1911, aged nearly 94. Other statements relative to his family and his descendants are given in his "History of East Hampton," p. 295.

Judge Hedges was for many years, the oldest living graduate of Yale. He had held many important offices in Church and State. As the "grand old man" of Suffolk County, he was well-beloved. His Historical books and Addresses are well known to the student. When this work on "The Refugees" was begun, he took a lively interest in it—helping much with his advice and with valuable information. Much of what he gave in this way, now preserved in these pages, might never have been made public. I wish to record, in this form, my appreciation of his assistance. On this page appears one of many kind letters that came from him. As far as practicable, he revised those biographies, in Part Two of this work, in which he was most interested; and I regret that he was called away before the publication of the book. [Frederic G. Mather]

HEDGES HANNAH, WID.—From East Hampton to Guilford. She was from Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) She was the Wid. of Jonathan 5. (Samuel 4, Isaac 3, 2, William 1) He was b. in 1706; m., Oct. 9, 1729, Hannah Conkling; d. Jan. 16, 1763. They had six children between 1730 and 1750. (Howell, p. 292. Hedges, p. 293) The Census of 1776, for East Hampton, showed but one in her family beside herself, a female over 16. (A. 52) She went from East Hampton to Guilford, with five in the family, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94)

HEDGES JEREMIAH 6, DR. (Timothy 5, Stephen 4, Daniel 3, Stephen 2, William 1—this line by Howell)—From Bridge Hampton and Sag Harbor. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He was a graduate of Yale, in 1764; and is said to have been a Surg. in the Rev'y War. (Page 180) He probably served in Conn. (G. 91) He d. in 1797, and is buried at Sag Harbor. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that Dr. Jeremiah was a Refugee. He had a son Capt. Jeremiah of Sag Harbor; who is probably the one named on the tombstone as having d. June 12, 1832, aged 69. It was probably this Capt. Jeremiah who obtained liberty from the Town Meeting "to erect a home below the cliff at Sag Harbor on Common land." (East Hampton Town Rec.)

HEDGES JONATHAN 4, COL. (Daniel 3, Stephen 2, William 1; father of Jonathan, Jr., below)—From Bridge Hampton, or Sag Harbor, to Stonington. He resided in Sagg. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with nine in the family and part of his effects, he was moved over by Cpts. Ephraim Pendleton and David Sayre (C. 138, 214); and, in Oct., Nov. and Dec., 1776, other effects were moved by Cpts. Hubbard Latham, Isaac Sheffield, Wilmot Goldsmith and Thomas Robinson. (C. 205) There were paid to him the claims of Henry Herrick, Aaron Isaacs, Jeremiah Rogers, Maj. Uriah Rogers, Capt. David Pierson and Samuel White. (C. 206-211) On his memorial, Dec. 2, 1778, his wife was permitted to return to L. I. to reside, with a son aged 9 and a daughter aged 15; and another son was permitted to bring some grain back to Conn. (D. 20) He served as Lt. Col. in Col. Mulford's 2d Regiment. (G. 2) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also, the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34)

Early in the War he was forced to take the Oath of Allegiance to Geo. III. (Pages 116, 117)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1725; m. Sept. 11, 1746, Phebe ———; d. June 3, 1804. He had nine children. (Howell, pp. 289, 290. Jonathan Hedges Hedges, pp. 298, 299)

HEDGES JONATHAN 5, JR. (Son of Col. Jonathan, above)—From Bridge Hampton or Sag Harbor. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31) Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was a Refugee. He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also, the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. May 2, 1749; removed to Newark Valley, Tioga Co., N. Y., after the War; d. Apr. 10, 1835. (Hedges, p. 298. Howell, pp. 289, 290) Jonathan Hedges jun

HEDGES MATTHEW 5 (Stephen 4, John 3, Stephen 2, William 1—this line given by Howell). Hedges makes him Matthew 5 (Stephen 4, William 3, Stephen 2, William 1)—From Southold to Guilford. He was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776; but no mention is made of the removal of his family. (C. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 13) He was in Capt. Josiah Lupton's Co., in 1775. (Prof. Robert N. Corwin)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 4. (A. 55) He was bapt. June 15, 1735; m. (1) Jan. 1, 1760, Hannah Hudson (d. Mar. 27, 1779), m. (2) Feb. 20, 1780, Naomi Wells. He d. about 1820. The baptisms of four children between 1768 and 1776, and of one child in 1779, are recorded. A son, Matthew, bapt. Nov. 3, 1773. (Aquebogue Ch. Rec.) The baptisms of 11 more children are recorded at East Hampton. His wife, Naomi, d. in 1795. (East Hampton Town Rec.)

Matthew Hedges was an Easthampton man, living on the North side (Baiting Hollow, in Southold) for many years. Having to seek refuge, caused him much suffering, and cost his first wife her life. His two oldest daughters, Julia and Ruth, m. Corwin brothers, John and Abel. The mother, Hannah, and the three daughters, Julia, Ruth and Charlotte, lie in the Cemetery at Baiting Hollow, a few rods only from where Matthew lived, from 1766 to 1776. Soon after his return from Conn., he went to East Hampton; and, with his second wife, rests in a private burial plot on what was his farm. (Mr. James F. Young)

HEDGES STEPHEN 5 (Stephen 4, John 3, Stephen 2, William 1; brother of Matthew, above—this line is given by Howell, p. 291)—From East Hampton to Stonington. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. His effects were brought from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Amos Pendleton, in Sept., 1776. (C. 213) In 1774, he was on the Committee of Correspondence for East Hampton. (Page 27. Also H. 1) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11, 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. about 1724; m. Mary Miller; d. in 1801. (Howell, p. 291) Hedges (pp. 291, 292) makes him Stephen 4 (John 3, Stephen 2, William 1), bapt. June 6, 1702; m. Jan. 1, 1748-9, Mary Miller, and had three children. Hedges also (pp. 291, 293), gives a Stephen 4 (William 3, Stephen 2, William 1), bapt. Nov. 1, 1724; d. in 1801. [Judge Hedges' corrections in his own copy of his "East Hampton," make the dates—1684 and 1761] He m. Dec. 21, 1727, Amy Mulford, and had 11 children.

A younger Stephen appears in the Southampton, E. Dist., Census of 1776: Males—above 16 yrs. 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

In Sept. and Oct., 1776, his effects were moved to Stonington by Capts. David Sayre and Hubbard Latham (C. 70, 138); and, in Oct., to Saybrook by Capt. Charles Williams. (C. 70) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 33); also, the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He had sons: David 7; and Patrick G. 7, of N. Y. City. (Howell, as above) Mr. Edward A. Hildreth, of Bridge Hampton, is a descendant.

Joshua Hildreth

HILL WILLIAM—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); in the 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 44, 48); possibly in the 6th and 7th Dutchess (G. 68, 69); and probably in Conn. (G. 91) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

HINCHMAN—In the "Heralds' Visitation of London," 1633-1634 (Heralds' Office, C. 24, 3,999 b.), is recorded by Thomas Hinchman, a pedigree of the Hinchman or Hinchman Family, dating back to the reign of Henry VII. We learn from the pedigree that Thomas' g. grandfather's name was Crosborough; and that, in the reign of Henry VII, it was changed to Henchman or Hinchman. This Family of Crosborough, of Great Dodington, County of Northampton, seems to have been of Saxon descent. It is recorded by Mr. John Gough Nichols, in his "Topographer and Genealogist," Vol. 2. p. 45, that it was a "family of great antiquity and respectability, having been seated at Great Dodington at a very distant period"—he having for his authority the Hodilows of Grafton Underwood in the same County. This Family is of the Families of Plantagenet, De Bohun, Courtenay, De Moels, Peeverell, Botreaux, Clarendon, Malmesbury, Hungerford, Henchman, Buckerfield, Pinkney, Mallet, Wyche, Devenant, Saltonstall, Townson, Ingelow and Pritchard—as appears by a book of the Family published in London in 1868.

Richard, of Wellingboro, Co. Northampton, m. Alia (Alice) dau. of Pindex (Pindar), Esq., of Wellingboro. His son, Thomas, of Wellingboro, m. Mary, dau. of—Freeman, Esq., of Irchester, Co. Northampton. Thomas son, Thomas, of London (Scynner), living Anno 1633, m. Ann, dau. of—Griffith, of Carnarvon. Edward, second son and second child of Thomas and Ann, of London, was a merchant, at London, living in 1633. He m. a dau. of John Platt, son of Sir Hugh Platt, Baronet. (Mr. Mortimer L. Hinchman)

Edward 1 and Thomas 1, sons of Edward, above, came to Boston, Mass., in 1637, with Rev. John Fiske, of Chelmsford. Edward 1 was at Charlestown, Mass., in 1637, with wife Elizabeth and sons, Daniel 2, Thomas 2 and John 2. He was at Marshfield, in 1652; and at Chelmsford—both in Mass.—in 1657. He was b. about 1600; d. in 1668. His Wid. m. in 1672, Rev. John Fiske. Maj. John 2 came to Oyster Bay, L. I., about 1657; m. (1) in 1660, Elizabeth Emmons; m. (2) Sarah ———; d. at Flushing, L. I., in 1688, where he was a patentee, 1666–1688. He was Commandant at Ft. Merrimac, Maine Dist., in 1687–8. His son, Thomas 3, was of Flushing, L. I. Dr. Joseph 4, of Flushing, son of Thomas 3, m. Mary Bloodgood. (M. L. H.)

HINCHMAN ANNA, WID.—From Southold to Guilford, with seven passengers and her effects, in Sept., 1776. (C. 71) There is no record of her return to L. I. Her father and four of her brothers were Refugees. (See Griffing)

Census of 1776: Males—under 16 years, 5. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55) She was a dau. of John and Sarah (Paine) Griffing (See Griffing), of Riverhead, L. I.; b. Nov. 3, 1741; m. Feb. 24, 1757, Dr. Joseph 5 Hinchman (Mattituck Ch. Rec.); d. at Danville, N. J., in 1835, and is buried at Rockaway, N. J. (Miss Anna M. North) After the death of Dr. Hinchman, she m. ——— Nugent; who may have been Arthur B. Nugent, also a Refugee. (See Nugent) Dr. Hinchman was dead before the Census of 1776, and thus not a Refugee. But his Wid. and children (notably Dr. Joseph and Nathaniel) were Refugees—and, therefore, entitled to the biographical notices given below.

Annar Hinchman

Dr. Joseph 5 Hinchman (Dr. Joseph 4, Thomas 3, Maj. John 2, Edward 1) was a Surg., and his brother James 5 was a Surg. HINCHMAN NATHANIEL 6 (Dr. Joseph 5, above, Dr. Joseph 4, Thomas 3, Maj. John 2, Edward 1; brother of Dr. Joseph 6, above)—From Jamaica, L. I. He served in the 19th Mass. Regt., under Gen. Warren; and was at Bunker Hill, and at the siege of Boston. He was at Chester, N. J., in 1800. He was b. at Jamaica, L. I., in 1758; m. in 1804, Sally Rose; d. at Flanders, N. J., in 1823. His son, George Washington 7, b. at Flanders, N. J., Nov. 4, 1809; m. in 1833, Harriet Blackwell Ward; d. June 14, 1885. He lived in N. Y. City; was City Marshal, 1844-1869; and finally lived at Ravenswood, L. I. William A. 8, son of Geo. W. 7, b. Sept. 6, 1834; m. Nov. 24, 1859, Sarah J. Van Pelt, of Newtown, L. I.; d. Aug. 6, 1898. He lived in N. Y. City, L. I. City and Brooklyn, N. Y. His son Mortimer L. 9, b. in N. Y. City, Feb. 8, 1868; m. at Canton, N. Y., Nov. 25, 1894, Helen Fisher Jackson. He lives in Brooklyn; but he has lived, also, in N. Y. City, L. I.

City, Canton, N. Y. and Rutland, Vt. His children are: Ralph M. 10, b. Aug. 30, 1895; Glenn J. 10, b. Dec. 23, 1897; and Joseph 10, b. Jan. 17, 1906. George W. 7, also had: George W. Jr., 8; and Douglas 8. (M. L. H.)

HITCHCOCK—Matthias 1 came to America on the bark "Susan Ellen," in 1635.

HITCHCOCK DANIEL—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 28); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

He was probably a son of Joseph. If so, he was b. Dec. 9, 1741; m. ——— Rogers, of L. I.; d. Aug. 24, 1802.

HOBART—The founder of the Family, in America, was Rev. Peter 1, who came from England, and was at Hingham, Mass., in 1636. (N. E. Gen'l and Hist'l Reg., 9. 149) Moore ("Index," pp. 21, 86, 87) states that he had sons: Rev. Joshua 2, b. in 1629, d. in 1716, who was the second Minister at Southold (H. 39); Josiah 2, b. in 1634, d. in 1711. The latter was probably Capt. Josiah, of East Hampton, whose dau., Margaret 3, m. Nathaniel Sylvester. Moore gives Rev. Joshua 2 these children: Daniel 3; Peter 3; John 3; and Irene 3, m. Ebenezer Way. (See Way) Whitaker ("Southold," pp. 167-182, 242-245), in his sketch of Rev. Joshua 2, states that Peter 1 had 11 children, among whom was David 2; who had a son, Rev. Noah 3. Griffin ("Journal," pp. 201, 202) mentions certain descendants of Rev. Peter 1 who lived in Southold, in 1857. Rev. Joshua 2 had a brother, Rev. Jeremiah 2, who settled at Hempstead. (H. 39. Also Woods' "First Settlements on L. I," pp. 32, 33, 35, 36, 40) Rev. Joshua 2 was the first of the Ministers on L. I. to practise medicine. (Overton's "Hist. Suffolk Co. Medical Soc'y"—1907) Rev. Noah 3, b. at Hingham, Mass., Jan. 12, 1706; m. Sept. 2, 1735, Ellen, dau. of John Sloss. (Schenck's "Fairfield Co., Conn.," 2. 451)

Later researches, by the Mass. branch, show that the first of the name, at Hingham, was Edmund, father of Rev. Peter 1, who arrived in 1633. It has also been stated that Edmund may have been a son of Lord Chief Justice, Sir Henry Hobart; but there is no proof of this. (Miss Grace Agnes Hobart)

HOBART JOHN SLOSS 4 (Rev. Noah 3, David 2, Rev. Peter 1)—He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 29); and he was one of the "Sons of Liberty." (Leake's "Life of Col. John Lamb," p. 4) He went from Huntington to Sharon, in 1776. (E. 42) As a Delegate to the Prov'l Cong. (Page 130), he was allowed to return in order to save his cattle from the enemy, June 24, 1776. (A. 1) He was on a Committee to secure certain of the Tories. (Pages 29, 143) He supplied Capt. William Rogers with funds. (Page 216) On Aug. 21, the Prov'l Cong. appointed him on a Committee to notify the Cont'l Qr. Mr. of the State to properly equip Col. Josiah Smith's Regt. at once. (A. 5) On Aug. 27, 1776 (Battle of L. I.), the N. Y. Committee of Safety appointed him on a Committee to report measures for the sale of fat cattle on Nassau and Shelter Islands. (A. 10) Several days later, he reported to the Cong. the capture of Gen. Woodhull (Page 174); and that Col. Smith's Regt. was to meet at New Haven. (Page 90) On Oct. 12, the Committee received a letter from him, dated Fairfield, Conn., Oct. 7, describing the condition of the people on L. I., and suggesting that a Regt. of Refugees be formed. (Page 174. Also A. 17) On Oct. 17, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, complaining that an Expedition against the enemy on L. I. had failed because the Troops had been ordered away. (Page 220. Also Clinton Pap., 1. 382) He was on a Committee to regulate the Fleet Prison, off Esopus. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 235) On Apr. 14, 1777, he was made one of a Committee in the Prov'l Cong. to send a letter to the Cont'l Cong. relative to the removal of families and stock from L. I. (A. 41) On Apr. 24, the Cong. gave him leave of absence "having been long absent from his family, who are exposed to the ravages of the enemy." (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) The Council of Safety, June 24, referred to him and Zephaniah Platt a letter from certain Refugees, at Saybrook, asking leave to go to Nassau (Long) Island for necessaries. (A. 43) On Oct. 9, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Sharon, relative to certain supplies that he had sent (Clinton Pap., 2. 396); and on Oct. 30, he was still at Sharon, engaged in gathering salt. (Page 115. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) From Sharon, also, on Apr. 18, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. that permission be given to Capt. John Conkling to go to L. I. for leather, cloth and other property of said Hobart; which was granted. (E. 42, 43) He was at Sharon on Nov. 6, 1780, and May 10, 1781. (Clinton Pap., 6. 387, 854) In Nov., 1780, he was on a Committee to raise money and clothing (Pages 94, 96); and he was active in urging the U. S. to pay the claims of the Refugees. (Page 189. Also A. 41)

He was b. in Fairfield, Conn., May 6, 1738; m. Mary Grinnell, of N. Y. City; d. s. p. Feb. 4, 1805. (Schenck's "Fairfield," 2. 451) He graduated at Yale, in 1767; studied law, and practised in N. Y. City. He removed to Huntington, where he became one of the Committee of Correspondence, in 1774. (H. 2) He was a Delegate to the four Prov'l Congresses, 1775-1777. (A. 56-59. Also Civil List) Here he served on several Committees beside those noted above, the chief of which were: May 30 and Aug. 8, 1775, to arrange the Troops; Feb. 17, 1776, to conduct the War; Mar. 7, 1776, to report a plan for forming Military Companies; ———, to apprehend Tories. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) He was a Member of the 1st Council of Safety, May 3, 1777; a Member of the Convention of 1777 to frame a Constitution for the State of N. Y.; a Delegate to the Hartford Convention, 1779-80; and a Delegate to the N. Y. Convention to ratify the U. S. Constitution, in 1788. (Civil List) He was a Member of the Council for the Temporary Government of the Southern Dist. (Page 133. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 169) In 1777, he was appointed a Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court, where his associates were Richard Morris and Robert Yates. The following appears in the Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y., 30. 2:

[Audited Mar. 6; and paid Nov. 19, 1779]

He resigned this office at the end of 1797; and, in Jan. 1798, was elected to the Senate of the U. S. The story of his life is recorded in the Ass'y Jour. of Jan. 19, 1798; wherein is given his letter to the Speaker, dated, Albany,

Jan. 18. After referring to his recent election as a U. S. Senator from N. Y., he reviews his public life and shows that he is embarrassed by a large debt contracted in buying a farm. He then concludes:

In this situation of my private affairs, I might, perhaps, hesitate between the honor of serving in the Senate of the U. S., and the inevitable danger of thereby increasing my pecuniary embarrassments; but when I have said that my support for many years past, and the greater part of the little property I at present possess, have been derived from the bounty of the Legislature, I ought to have no will of my own on the subject; my Country has the right to determine whether my poor abilities can be of any further use to the Community, and to point out the way in which they shall be employed. I therefore go without hesitation, in obedience to the commands of the Senate and Assembly, to take a seat in the Senate of the Congress of the U. S., relying firmly on the experience I have already had, that the Legislature of my own State will not suffer an old servant to drink of the bitter cup of poverty and distress in the evening of life.

After serving a few months in the Senate, he was appointed a Judge of the U. S. Dist. Court for N. Y.; which office he held until his death, in 1805. He lived at Eaton Manor during the War. (Civil List) In 1800, he was living at Westchester Co., N. Y. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 202)

His excellent record is set forth by Thompson. ("Long Island" 1. 474-5) His friend, Judge Egbert Benson, caused a plain marble slab to be affixed in the wall of the chamber of the Supreme Court in the City Hall, N. Y. City, to the memory of Judge Hobart, with the following inscription:

John Sloss Hobart was born at Fairfield, Connecticut. His father was a minister of that place. He was appointed a judge of the Supreme Court in 1777, and left it in 1798, having attained sixty years of age. The same year he was appointed a judge of the United States District Court for New York, and held it till his death in 1805. As a man, firm—as a citizen, zealous—as a judge, distinguished—as a Christian, sincere. This tablet is erected to his memory by one to whom he was as a friend—close as a brother.

HOBART JOSHUA ()—From Brookhaven to Conn. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He was in the Illicit Trade (Page 210. Also E. 192); but that fact should not always be held against a man. (See Chap. 23)

HOLLY JOSIAH—From Dutchess Co., N. Y., to Branford. On Aug. 6, 1778, he was allowed to take salt to the State of N. Y. to be exchanged for flour. (D. 13) He served in the 6th Dutchess. (G. 68)

HOPKINS—Stephen 1 came over on the "Mayflower," in 1620. He was b. in 1585; m. (2) Elizabeth Fisher; d. in 1644. Of his eight children, Giles 2, b. in 1605; m. in 1639, Catherine Wheldon; d. in 1690. He had 10 children, of whom: William 3, b. in 1660; m. Rebecca ———; d. June 26, 1718. He removed from R. I. to Shelter Island. His son, Samuel 4, b. in 1710; m. Dec. 30, 1733, Dorothy Conklyn; d. Jan. 12, 1790. He was at Shelter Island, in 1730. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 39, 44, 45, 48, 50, 182)

HOPKINS SAMUEL 5 (Samuel 4, William 3, Giles 2, Stephen 1)—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35); in the First Line (G. 43); and in Conn. (G. 91) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 24) It was evidently his father, Samuel 4, who appeared in the Brookhaven Census of 1776: Males—over 50 years, 1; over 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—over 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 51)

He was b. Apr. 4, 1744; d. Sept. 8, 1807. He m. (1) in 1773, Elizabeth (b. in 1751, d. in 1777), dau. of John Robinson; m. (2) Nov. 6, 1780, Elizabeth (b. in 1759, d. in 1795), dau. of John 4 Woodhull. He had 12 children. (Mallmann, as above, p. 182) His son, Samuel 6, b. Nov. 20, 1781; m. Dec. 11, 1816, Maria (b. in 1793, d. in 1880), dau. of Merritt S. Woodhull; d. Dec. 9, 1866. Samuel Judson 7, son of Samuel 6, b. Dec. 3, 1836; m. May 16, 1864, Sarah K. (b. in 1843, d. in 1911), dau. of Hendrick H. Hallock; d. Jan. 27, 1911. He had sons: Philip Hallock 8, below; Rupert Henry 8, below; Samuel Ernest 8, below; and Merritt Judson 8, below. (Mallmann, as above, pp. 183, 186, 192)

Philip Hallock 8, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is in the N. Y. Naval Office. He was b. Jan. 29, 1866; m. Oct. 10, 1895, Lulu M. Howland (b. June 5, 1875). Children: Eleanor Ruth 9, b. Nov. 24, 1897; and Dorothy Howland 9, b. Feb. 28, 1900. Rupert Henry 8, of 103 College Ave., West New Brighton, S. I., N. Y., Prof. of Physics in Curtis High School, New Brighton, and principal of Evening School 20, Port Richmond, S. I., N. Y. He was b. Nov.

24, 1869; m. Dec. 25, 1899, Charlotte V. H. Burden (b. Jan. 26, 1875). Children: Ralph Burden 9, b. Oct. 21, 1900; Lucia Katherine 9, b. Nov. 5, 1904; and Rupert Woodhull 9, b. Apr. 27, 1907. Samuel Ernest 8, of Miller's Place, Long Island, N. Y. He was b. June 20, 1875; m. (1) Oct. 1, 1901, Betina Marguerite Davis (b. Oct. 10, 1880, d. May 10, 1902), m. (2) Nov. 28, 1903, Maude Stokes (b. Sept. 5, 1885). Children: Lillian 9, b. Dec. 12, 1904, d. in infancy; Marcelle Catherine 9, b. Nov. 12, 1907; and Maude Ernestine 9, b. Nov. 13, 1909. Merritt Judson 8, of Miller's Place, N. Y. He was b. Nov. 16, 1879; m. Dec. 24, 1896, Edith Ross Burden (b. Sept. 9, 1883). Child: Elizabeth Hallock 9, b. Nov. 20, 1911. (Prof. Rupert Henry Hopkins)

HOPPING—Probably all of this name, on L. I., descend from Stephen 1, who came from England to Dorchester, Mass., about 1640; and went thence to Southampton, L. I.

HOPPING DANIEL—From East Hampton. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was a Refugee. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31) He was b. about 1759. (G. 31)

HOPPING HENRY—From East Hampton to Guilford; and, Onderdonk says, to East Haddam, in 1780. Probably in that year he asked a permit to cross to L. I. (F. 123) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 52)

In the East Hampton Ch. Rec. is a Henry Hopping who was bapt. in 1710, and m. in 1753; and a man of that name who d. in 1777. The name does not appear anywhere else in the Rec. In the Town Rec. the name does not appear. A man of that name was one of the signers of the Association, in 1775; and, of course, a resident of East Hampton at that time. Either the date of his flight to Connecticut, in 1780, or the date of his death, in 1777, must be an error. There is no Genealogy of the Family; and the date of their coming to East Hampton is not known. The first name upon the Rec. is John Hoppin who drew some land in Wainscott, in 1700. Henry was the son of Matthias, who must have also come to East Hampton at an early date, although his name does not appear in the Town Rec. till 1736. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

HORTON—The ancestor of this name, on L. I. was Barnabas 1, who was b. at Mowsley, Leicestershire, Eng., about 1600. (Moore's "Index," p. 22) He was one of the original settlers at Southold; and one of the 12 who constituted the Church of Rev. John Youngs, in 1640. He d. July 13, 1680, aged 80. (Tombstone at Southold) The house which he erected at Southold was known as the "Old Castle." His son, Capt. Jonathan 2, built the West part of the house a few years later. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 229. See Page 406) Moore (pp. 22-24, 88-92) has been pains-taking in regard to this Family; but later, and more accurate, information is found in the Horton Gen. (G. F. Horton, Phila., 1876), which is followed, below. "The Early Hortons, of Westchester Co., N. Y.," may be found in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., Jan. and Apr., 1905.

Barnabas 1, b. July 13 (O. S.), 1600, came to Hampton, Mass., in 1635-1638; to New Haven and to Southold, in 1640, with his wife Mary and sons, Joseph 2 and Benjamin 2. His other sons were: Caleb 2, Lt. Joshua 2 and Capt. Jonathan 2. His dau., Sarah 2, m. William 1 Salmon. (See Salmon)

Joseph 2, b. about 1632-1635; m. Jane Budd; removed to Rye, N. Y. Moore states that he m. Abigail, dau. of John Vail. (See Vail)

Benjamin 2, b. about 1634-1637; m. Anna Budd; removed to Rye, about 1665, where he d. s. p. Nov. 3, 1690.

Caleb 2, b. in 1640; m. Abigail, dau. of Peter 1 Hallock (See Hallock); d. Oct. 3, 1702. His son, Jonathan 3, b. in 1668; m. Bethia Conklin. He had a son, Jonathan 4, b. in 1694, m. Elizabeth Goldsmith.

Lt. Joshua 2, b. about 1643; m. Mary Tuthill; d. in 1729. Among his children were: Ens. Joshua 3; and Ephraim 3. Ens. Joshua 3, b. in 1669; m. (1) Elizabeth, dau. of Simon Grover, (2) Wid. Mary Gillam; d. about 1744. Ephraim 3, b. in 1686; m. Martha Vail. His son, Joseph 4, b. in 1708; perhaps m. Deliverance Reeves.

Capt. Jonathan 2, b. Feb. 23, 1648; m. Bethia, dau. of William 1 Wells; d. Feb. 23, 1707. Among his children were: William 3, b. in 1677, m. Christina Youngs; Jonathan 3, b. Dec. 23, 1783, m. Mary Tuthill, and was the father of Rev. Azariah 4, who was Missionary to the L. I. Indians, 1741-1750; and Dea. James 3, b. in 1694, m. Anna Goldsmith, d. May 16, 1762. He was the father of Rev. Ezra 4, who m. Mary, dau. of Robert Hempstead. (See Hempstead) He kept a valuable Diary.

HORTON BARNABAS 4, CAPT. (Dea. James 3, Capt. Jonathan 2, Barnabas 1; father of Barnabas, Jr., below, and Capt. James, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with six passengers and his effects, he was brought over by Capts. David Landon, John Vail and Jonathan Vail; and his claim for expenses was paid to Samuel Brown, Nov. 27, 1777. (C. 164, 169) On May 8, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return to L. I. with his family, stock &c.; which was granted. (E. 72, 73) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He is mentioned as Capt. of a ship. (Page 239)

BARNABAS HORTON — SOUTHOLD, L. I.

There were two of the same name in the Southold Census of 1776. The first: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. The second: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

He was b. in 1720; m. about 1742, Susanna 4, dau. of Dea. Benjamin Bayley. (See Bayley) According to the Salmon Rec., he d. Apr. 17, 1787, aged 61 years, 6 mos. His children were: Barnabas, Jr., 5, below; Abigail 5, m. Gershom Terry; Anna 5, m. Joseph Wickham; Julia Ann 5, m. Jonathan Wells; Susanna 5, m. Gilbert Case; Col. Benjamin 5, m. (1) Mehitable Osborn,

Barnabas Horton

(2) Harmony Reeves; Capt. James 5, below; Bethia 5, m. William Rogers; Gilbert 5, m. Keturah Terry; and Jonathan 5, m. Bethia Hallock.

HORTON BARNABAS, JR. 5 (Son of Capt. Barnabas, above; brother of Capt. James, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with four passengers and his effects, he was moved over by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

He was b. Mar. 7, 1745; m., Nov. 3, 1773, Mehitable Wells. His children were: James Wells 6, b. Oct. 28, 1774, m. Mary Terry; Justus 6, b. June 13, 1776, m. Nancy Conklin; Bethia 6, b. Aug. 25, 1799, m. Joshua Billard; Barnabas B. 6, b. Dec. 16, 1803, m. Eliza Case; Harrison 6, b. Nov. 28, 1811, d. y.; William 6, b. May 27, 1810, m. Elizabeth Dickerson.

A Barnabas, m. Nov. 18, 1767, Abigail Dickinson. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

If the Refugee was the Barnabas Horton who removed from Conn. to Orange Co., N. Y., he served in the 1st Orange (G. 72); and the Council of Safety, on June 13, 1777, received a return from Elihu Marvin, Chairman of Cornwall Precinct, dated Mar. 1, 1777, certifying that Barnabas Horton had been chosen Ens. in Capt. Thomas Horton's Co. in Col. Jesse Woodhull's Regt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.)

HORTON JAMES 5, CAPT. (Son of Capt. Barnabas, above; brother of Barnabas, Jr., above)—From Southold to Guilford, with three in the family, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) A James Horton served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); in the 2d and 4th Orange (G. 73, 75); and, as a Capt., in Conn. (G. 91) Capt. James, the Refugee, served in the War of 1812.

He was b. Sept. 1, 1757; m. (1) Wid. Elizabeth Wood, (2) Elizabeth Milliken; d. July 30, 1825. His children were: Elizabeth 6, b. in Guilford, Mar. 14, 1783, d., not m., Sept. 25, 1864; Julia Ann 6, b. May 16, 1785; Hector Youngs 6, b. Mar. 15, 1789, m. Dency Tuthill; Mary 6, b. June 2, 1792, d., not m., Aug. 20, 1841; James Edwin 6, b. Mar. 1, 1797, m. Rejoice Horton, d. July 7, 1843; Ezra 6, b. Mar. 17, 1802, m. Hannah Bloomingburg; Comfort 6, b. Aug. 27, 1809, d. Oct. 23, 1809.

HORTON JONATHAN 5 (Son of Dea. William, below; brother of William, Jr., below)—From Southold to Guilford, with five in his family, by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776 (C. 94); also, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with three passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164, 167) On Nov. 27, 1777, his claim for expenses was paid to Samuel Brown. (C. 164) In Apr., 1780, his petition to return to L. I., with his family and effects, was granted. (E. 34-36) On May 6, 1780, he asked leave to include young cattle with his effects; which was granted. (E. 60, 61) He might have served as Maj. or Capt. in the 1st Westchester (G. 77); or in the Separate Exempts of Westchester. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 217)

Two men of this name appear in the Southold Census of 1776. The first: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—under 16, 2. The second: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

It is uncertain just who he was. He could not have been Dea. Jonathan 5 (son of Capt. Barnabas 4, above), who was b. in 1765; d. in 1819. It is not likely that he was Jonathan 5 (Jonathan 4, 3, Caleb 2, Barnabas 1), b. about 1730; m., about 1752, Bethia Horton; and removed to Orange Co., N. Y. He may have been Jonathan 4 (William 3, Capt. Jonathan 2, Barnabas 1; brother of Dea. William, below). If so, he was b. in 1710; m. about 1730, Abigail Horton. His children were: David 5; William 5; Joshua 5; Mehetabel 5; Abigail 5; Phebe 5; and Hannah 5. It is probable that he was a son of Dea. William, as indicated in the first line of this sketch. If so, he was b. between 1731 and 1743. (Horton Gen. p. 184)

Jonathan Horton

HORTON JOSHUA 6 (Joshua 5, Joseph 4, Ephraim 3, Lt. Joshua 2, Barnabas 1)—From Southold to Guilford. He was brought over with five in his family, by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776 (C. 94); with four passengers, by Capt. David Landon, in Sept. and Oct., 1776 (C. 164); and, with three passengers, by Capts. Jonathan Vail and Edward Benton, in Nov., 1776. (C. 72) In Apr., 1780, his petition to return to L. I., with his family and effects, was granted. (E. 34-36) In Feb., 1781, although well recommended by the Authorities of Guilford, a similar petition was negatived, his family being stated to number six. (E. 151-152) In the N. Y. Senate, a petition relative to a farm was presented by him, on Apr. 9, 1782. (B. 8) On Jan. 6, 1783, he made a final petition to the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return, stating that there were seven in his family; which was granted. (E. 160, 161) In the N. Y. Ass'y, a petition relative to unappropriated lands was presented by him, Feb. 18, 1784. (B. 15) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) It is possible that he served in the 2d Dutchess, or in the 4th Orange. (G. 64, 75)

The Census of 1776 probably named the family of his father, Joshua 5. There were: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 55)

He was b. Sept. 22, 1751; d. in Putnam Valley, N. Y., Nov. 11, 1811. He went to Orange Co., N. Y.; m. about 1777, Phebe Rumsey. He removed to Phillipstown, now Putnam Valley, where he settled. His children were: Isaac 7, John 7, James 7, Cyrus 7 and Jasper 7. (Horton Gen., p. 173)

A Joshua, of Bridge Hampton, signed the Agreement with Rev. Aaron Woolworth, in 1787. (H. 34) Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was the Refugee. The details of removal, as given above, belong to Joshua, of Southold.

Joshua Horton

HORTON SIMON 4, REV. (Ens. Joshua 3, Lt. Joshua 2, Barnabas 1)—From Newtown. In Prime's "Ecclesiastical History of L. I.," p. 304, he is called Simon; although he is called Simon Grover in the Horton Gen. He escaped to Conn. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 102) He afterward removed to Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y.; but returned to his home at Newtown, after the War. (Horton Gen., p. 170) On Feb. 14, 1784, a petition came to the N. Y. Ass'y from him and others of Newtown, the subject of which was not stated. (B. 13)

He was b. Mar. 30, 1711. He graduated at Yale, in 1731; was bred a Congregationalist; but was installed Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Connecticut Farms, L. I. [perhaps N. J.], between Sept., 1734, and Sept., 1735. In 1746, he accepted a call to Newtown, L. I., where he labored until 1772; when he resigned, and remained in retirement until his decease, May 8, 1786. (H. 39. Also Hatfield's "History of Elizabeth, N. J.")

He was twice married. His first wife, Abigail Howell, d. May 5, 1752; and, Jan. 7, 1762, he m. Elizabeth, dau. of Samuel Fish, Esq. He had but one child, Phebe 5, who m. Hon. Benjamin Coe. (See Coe) He was an exile during the Rev'y War, with his son-in-law, at Warwick, Orange Co., N. Y. They returned to Newtown, in the fall of 1783. (Horton Gen., pp. 171, 172)

HORTON WILLIAM 4, DEA. (William 3, Capt. Jonathan 2, Barnabas 1; father of Jonathan above, and William below)—From Southold to Conn. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with three in his family, his cattle and effects, he was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

The Census records but one William living in Southold, in 1776. He was over 50 years old; and the only member of his family was a son under 16 years old. (A. 55) Dea. William, b. in 1708; m. Jan. 21, 1730, Mehitabel, dau. of Joshua Wells; d. Sept. 26, 1788. His children were: William 5, below; Jonathan 5, above; Mehitabel 5, b. Sept. 29, 1743, m. James Corwin (See Corwin); Hannah 5; Asenath 5; and Bethiah 5. (Horton Gen. p. 184)

The Mattituck Ch. Recs. contain the marriages of four by the name of William: 1., to ———, who was the mother of Mary who m. Capt. Benjamin 4 Vail, and Hannah who m. Jonathan Vail (See Vail. Also Vail Gen.); 2., to Wid. Sarah Conkling, Apr. 8, 1773; 3., to Wid. Mary Case, Dec. 17, 1780; 4., to Deliverance Corwin, Nov. 11, 1787.

HORTON WILLIAM 5 (Son of Dea. William, above; brother of Jonathan, above)—He had an active Military service in the 2d Line, in Du Bois' Levies and in Willett's Levies (G. 44, 59, 62); in the 1st and 3d Westchester (G. 77, 79); and perhaps in the 1st and 3d Orange. (G. 72, 74) A William, Jr., signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

He was b. about 1732; m. (1) Patience Corwin, (2) Martha Gardiner, (3) Mary Goldsmith. (Horton Gen. p. 187)

HOWARD WILLIAM—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); perhaps in the 1st Line and Dubois' Levies (G. 43, 59); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

HOWELL—HOEL—The progenitor of the Southampton branch of this Family was Edward 1, who came from Buckinghamshire, Eng., to Boston, in 1639. He was made a freeman there, and removed to Lynn. In 1639-40 he was one of the leaders in founding a new settlement at Southampton, L. I. He was b. in 1560; d. in 1656. He had sons: Henry 2; Maj. John 2, whose dau., Susannah 3, m. Col. Henry Pierson (See Pierson); Edward 2; Richard 2; Arthur 2; and Edmund 2. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 300, 301) Howell is followed, below—Moore ("Index," pp. 92, 93) being fragmentary.

The Southold branch of the Family comes from Richard Howell the son-in-law of the first William Hallock. From Richard and Elizabeth (Hallock) Howell descend the Howells of Mattituck and vicinity. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 75) The said Richard Howell was a son of the Wid. Howell, who m. Peter 1 Hallock. (See Hallock)

About 1730, certain members of the Family removed to Orange Co., N. Y. Others went to Susquehanna Co., Pa. The ancestor of the Philadelphia branch came directly from Wales, in 1697.

HOWELL DANIEL 5 (Edward 4, Richard 3, 2, Edward 1; twin brother of Ezekiel, below, and father of Edward, below)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook and East Haddam, 10 persons and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) From Sept. to Dec., 1776, his effects were brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook, or Stonington, by Capts. Ephraim Pendleton, Nathan Pendleton, Charles Williams, James Wiggins, William Warner and Elijah Mason. (C. 73, 214) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 6, 44); also, in Feb., 1781. (E. 145) Permission was given, in Apr., 1782 (F. 54); also on Sept. 14, 1782. (F. 59) Previous to his going to Conn., he was a Member of the Suffolk Co. Committee. (Page 145) He was Chairman of the Committee of Correspondence, in Southampton, Aug. 1, 1775; and, as such, certified to the List of Associators. (H. 33) He signed the Association (H. 11, 20); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776, Southampton, E. Dist.: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. Mar. 21, 1725. Another Daniel, of Southold, Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

Daniel Howell

HOWELL DAVID 6, CAPT. (David 5, Abraham 4, Capt. Abraham 3, Maj. John 2, Edward 1; brother of Capt. Stephen, below, and father of David 3d, below, and Paul, below)—From Southampton to Killingworth. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. In the fall of 1776, his family and effects were moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capts. ————Willard, John Ingraham, Joseph Vail, and James Harris. (C. 76) From Southold, and now, Nov. 6, 1778, of Killingworth. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 77) On Nov. 11, 1778, he asked permission to go to L. I., having been plundered of produce on L. I., by Capt. Peter Griffing. (D. 8) In 1779, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) In Apr., 1780, he petitioned to return to L. I.; but it was negative. (E. 94, 95) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 12, 18, 33); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He served as Capt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2, 9. Also Ross' "Long Island" 1. 217, 218); also in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 29) On July 26, 1776, with one-fourth of his Co., he responded to the call to guard the stock. (A. 4)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 53) His father was known as "Money David." Capt. David, b. ————; m. Oct. 30, 1783, Ruhamah Sill (Lyne, Conn., Ch. Rec.); d. ————. A David, Sr., m. Nov. 13, 1764, Mary Monrow. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

An older David, perhaps David 5, father of Capt. David, Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 53)

Howell's "Southampton" (pp. 318, 319), as interpreted by Mr. Addison M. Cook, makes Capt. David—David 5 (Henry 4, Lemuel 3, Arthur 2, Edward 1)—thus placing him a generation earlier than stated above, and not the brother of Capt. Stephen. Assuming this to be correct, Capt. David, b. Dec. 29, 1739; m. Mehitable Halsey; d. Dec. 27, 1789. His children were: Mary 6, b. in 1774, m. Nathan Topping Cook, d. in 1860; Fanny 6, b. in 1776, m. Barzillai Halsey, d. in 1852; Elizabeth 6, b. Oct. 11, 1777, m. Nov. 1, 1807, Rogers Halsey, d. May 29, 1861, aged 83; Henry 6; Col. Levi 6, b. in 1781, was a Lt. Col. in the War of 1812, d. s. p. Mar. 8, 1863; David 6, of N. Y. City, d. s. p.; and Clarissa 6, m. Job Haines.

HOWELL DAVID, 3d, 7 (Son of Capt. David, above; brother of Paul, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Killingworth. His family and effects were moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper, Sept. 2, 1776. (C. 32) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and possibly in the 4th Orange. (G. 75) He must have returned to L. I.; for he signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

HOWELL DAVID 5 (Israel 4, Col. Matthew 3, Maj. John 2, Edward 1)—From Southold to Killingworth. He was called Capt.; which has led to many complications with Capt. Daniel, above. His father lived at Southampton; but afterward removed to Moriches. The son, David, probably removed to Southold, later; for Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 77) states that, on Nov. 6, 1778, he was despoiled of dry goods in Southold by Capt. David Landon; and that he was then living in Killingworth.

He was at Moriches when the Census of 1776 was taken: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 50) He was b. June —, 1724; m. Jan. 20, 1751, Elizabeth, dau. of Jonathan Havens (See Havens); d. Feb. 13, 1809. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 241) His dau., Margaret 6, m. Ebenezer Hart, from whom descended the late Nathaniel Reeves Hart, of Stamford, Conn. (See Hart)

A David Howell, with others, of Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., sent a petition to the N. Y. Ass'y, relative to Lotteries, on Apr. 24, 1784. (B. 17)

Another David, of Ulster Co., N. Y. (formerly of Suffolk Co.), sent a petition to the Ass'y, relative to his claim for repairing small arms, in 1776, for the use of the U. S. (Page 106. Also B. 35. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 55)

HOWELL EDMUND 5, LT. (Elisha 4, 3, Arthur 2, Edward 1. If this is his line, Elisha 4 was brother of Lemuel 4, whose dau., Charity, m. David Hedges)—From Southold (probably), to Colebrook. On Oct. 23, 1782, he was permitted to bring furniture, clothing &c. from L. I. (F. 80) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); also in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 3. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong. June 29, 1776) He fought with Arnold on Lake Champlain; and d. at Hadlyme, Conn. (Mr. Herbert T. Hedges)

He m. (1) Oct. 29, 1760, Rachel Tuthill, who d. Nov. 23, 1774, aged 37; m. (2) Mar. 27, 1775, Betliah Downs; and, possibly m. (3) Phebe—. The baptisms of several of his children are recorded. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HOWELL EDWARD 6 (Daniel 5, above, Edward 4, Richard 3, 2, Edward 1)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. He also went to Saybrook, Hartford and Colebrook. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) On Sept. 13, and 25, 1776, his cattle and effects were brought to East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffith (C. 57); and, on Sept. 16, a cow, by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) In Feb., 1781, he petitioned to return. (E. 145) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); also in the 3d Line (G. 46); and he may have served in the 3d Orange. (G. 72)

He was b. in 1756; d. in 1834. He had a son Daniel 7, of Hadlyme, Conn. It may be that he, and not Lt. Edmund, above, fought with Arnold &c.

An Edward, on Oct. 4, 1779, m. Clemmone Albertson—both of Ketchabonock, now Westhampton. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) An Edward, of L. I., m. Apr. 15, 1778, Abigail Kirtland. (E. Haddam, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

HOWELL ELIAS 5 (Arthur 4, Elisha 3, Arthur 2, Edward 1; or Jedediah 4, Lt. Hezekiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1; or, and most probable, Elias 4, Josiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought over by Capt. Zebulon Cooper (C. 32); and, about that time, he helped David Howell to get away to Saybrook. (C. 76)

He was in Saybrook, June 12, 1777, and asked permission to go to L. I. (A. 43) On July 28, 1777, he was permitted to pass to and from L. I. (A. 46) In 1779, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) On Nov. 3, 1779, he was permitted to go to L. I., and return to Conn. again; and, on May 22, 1781, he asked permission to go, with his family and effects, to his aged father. (D. 39) On Mar. 28, 1782, Gov. Trumbull was authorized to permit him to return with his family and effects. (F. 53) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

If his line through Elias 4 is correct, he was b. about 1746; m. Abigail, dau. of Stephen Rogers. He had five sons, including Elias. This does not tally with the Census of 1776, Southampton, W. Dist.: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53)

An Elias, on Mar. 24, 1795, m. Mehitabel Youngs of N. Jersey. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HOWELL EZEKIEL 5 (Edward 4, Richard 3, 2, Edward 1; twin brother of Daniel, above)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. In Sept.,

EZEKIEL HOWELL — POXABOGUE, NEAR BRIDGE HAMPTON, L. I.

(Photographed specially for this work)

1776, his effects were brought over by Capts. James Wiggins, David Sayre and Charles Williams. (C. 77) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I.; which was granted, in Mar., 1780. (D. 6, 44) In Feb., 1781, he asked for permission to return; which was given, in Apr., 1782. (E. 145. F. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 12); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. Mar. 21, 1725; m. Lucy—; d. in 1802. He had children: Abigail 6, Hannah 6, Stephen 6, and Demas 6. His house at Poxabogue, is still standing. (See illustration)

Mr. William S. Pelletreau thinks that Ezekiel 6 (Jeremiah 5, 4, Jonathan 3, Edward 2, 1) was the man. He was b. in 1753; d. in 1825. He rode express at the beginning of the War; and his son, Parmenas, was a noted portrait painter. This Ezekiel was from Southampton. But this Ezekiel does not tally with the Census, above; and in D. 6.

The names of Daniel and Ezekiel are so mentioned that the inference of their being brothers is natural.

Ezekiel Howell

HOWELL GEORGE 6, DR. (Zebulon 5, 4, Joseph 3, Edward 2, 1)—On Aug. 10, 1780, he was in the Illicit Trade, with Capt. Jesse Leavenworth, and was apprehended; but showed a permit from the President of Cong. (Page 212. Also F. 119) He is mentioned as a Dr. (Page 180)

He was b. June 27, 1757; d. in Missouri. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 307)

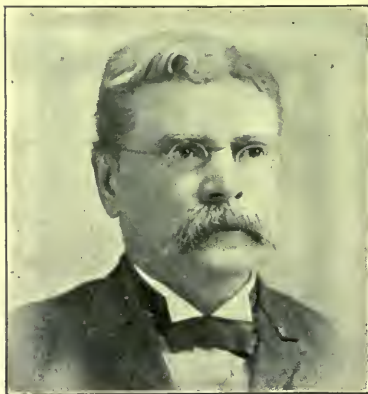

HOWELL GEORGE 6 (Edward 5, Jedediah 4, Lt. Hezekiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1; and, if so, a nephew of Elias, above. It is possible that he and Dr. George, above, were the same)—On Oct. 16, 1776, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote to Congress, from Saybrook, that George Howell and others had been thought to be disaffected; but profess themselves friendly. (Page 118. Also A. 18) He signed a pledge. (Page 119) Later, probably in 1780, he wished to bring his secreted effects from L. I. (A. 18) Evidently he had a grudge against Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell, as shown in several letters to Gov. Clinton. (Clinton Pap., 7. 336, 337, 384, 584, 585) A letter from him to Gov. Clinton, dated Southampton, Sept. 17, 1781, recited that he had been imprisoned unjustly, and driven out of Conn., by Gov. Trumbull. He announced his allegiance to America; and would deposit £1000 in the Bank as a guarantee. On Oct. 8, 1781, Gov. Clinton wrote to Gov. Trumbull asking for information relative to said Howell. (Clinton Pap., 7. 336, 337, 384) It is probable that he served in the 2d, 4th and 5th of the Line (G. 44, 47, 48, 49); and he may have served in the 4th Orange. (G. 75) He was a Serjt. in the 4th Line. (G. 47) He was a witness to the will of William Morpeth; and was probably at Valley Forge. (See Morpeth)

George Howell

A George, m. Phebe Raynor, Jan. 3, 1790—both being from Westhampton. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

In the Southold branch appear a George and his son, Dr. George; but the meagre record in Howell's "Southampton," (pp. 321, 322) seems to make them too young to have been the two named above.

HOWELL GEORGE ROGERS 8, REV. (Capt. Charles 7, Capt. Oliver 6, Zebulon 5, 4, Joseph 3, Edward 2, 1)—He was not a Refugee, nor the descendant of a Refugee; but a sketch of his life is fitting in this place.

George R. Howell

He was b., at Southampton, June 15, 1833; m., Aug. 18, 1868, Mary Catherine, dau. of Norman and Frances Hale (Metcalf) Seymour, of Mt. Morris, N. Y.; d. Apr. 5, 1899. His son, George Seymour 9, b. Aug. 20, 1869; d. Mar. 9, 1891.

Although a Clergyman, yet he devoted the greater part of his life to literary pursuits. He made many contributions to local history, including his "History of Southampton"—1st Ed., 1866; 2d Ed., 1887. He was Archivist of the State of N. Y. and Sec'y of the Albany Institute for many years. A genial, whole-souled gentleman, he was a man whom everyone was glad to call his friend. [Frederic G. Mather]

HOWELL ISAAC (ONE) 4 (Jonathan 3, of Watermill, Edward 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook and Middle Haddam. In Sept., Oct. and Dec., 1776, he was brought over, with his wife and seven children, by Capts. James Harris, Benjamin King and James Wiggins. (C. 78) He may have served in the 4th Orange. (G. 75) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He enlisted, Apr. 24, 1762, in Capt. Griffin's Co.; was then aged 19; hence b. about 1743. (Mr. Robert M. Reeves)

Isaac Howell

HOWELL ISAAC (TWO) 4 (Isaac 3, 2, Richard 1)—From Southampton, probably in 1776, with his family to the "Green River Country" in the Town of Hillsdale, Columbia Co., N. Y. In 1795, he removed to Franklin, Delaware Co., N. Y. where he remained until his death. (Mr. Theodore Fitch)

He was b. in 1735; m. Abigail Freeman (b. in 1738); d. Oct. 15, 1816. His children were: Nancy 5, b. Nov. 20, 1766; Isaac 5, b. Oct. 2, 1768; Abraham 5, b. Jan. 5, 1771; Polly 5; Clarissa 5, below; Simeon 5, b. Feb. 4, 1776; Fanny 5; and Jacob 5, b. Sept. 4, 1779. Clarissa 5, b. Jan. 4, 1774; m. Sept. 7, 1795, Col. Silas Fitch, of New Canaan, Conn.; d. Aug. 4, 1862. With her husband, she accompanied her father, Isaac 4, to Franklin, in 1795; at which place her son, Rev. Silas Fitch, and grandson Theodore Fitch, were born. (Mr. Theodore Fitch)

The statement as to the Census, of 1776, given in Isaac (One), above, may possibly apply to Isaac (Two).

HOWELL JONATHAN (Either Jonathan 5, Jeremiah 4, Jonathan 3, Edward 2, 1; or Jonathan 4, brother of Isaac, One, above; or, more likely, Jonathan 3, John 2, Richard 1, the founder of the Southold branch)—In Feb., 1777, he was permitted to go to L. I. for flax, wool &c. (D. 44)

A Jonathan Howell served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30, 35) Another Jonathan, signed the Association on Shelter Island, in 1775. (H. 31) The Gen. shows no one of that name to have been on the Island at that time. It may be that he crossed over from Southold to sign.

If he was Jonathan 5, or Jonathan 4, above, he was in the Census of 1776, Southampton, W. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 53)

If he was Jonathan 3, of Southold, the Census showed: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) This Jonathan, of Mattituck, was treated harshly by the enemy. (Griffin's "Journal")

In the Mattituck Ch. Rec. (See Craven's "Mattituck") we find: Jonathan, m. Bertha ———, and d. Mar. 26, 1804; Jonathan, m. Dec. 27, 1774, Hannah Williamson; Jonathan, m. Dec. 4, 1776, Mary Howell—both of Ketchabonock; Jonathan, Jr., d. Sept. 11, 1791; Bethia, wife of Jonathan, Jr., d. Nov. 24, 1786.

HOWELL JOSHUA 4 (Thomas 3, of Bridge Hampton, Edward 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Chester. In Sept., 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Chester, four persons and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20, 33)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

A younger Joshua, of Southold: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 4. (A. 55) This Joshua probably m. Sarah Warner, Jan. 16, 1807. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HOWELL PAUL 7 (Son of Capt. David, above; brother of David 3d, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Conn. On Feb. 12, 1778, having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned from Conn., for relief; which was granted in May, 1778. (E. 4-9)

He was b. Mar. 21, 1725; and lived at Poxabogue, near Bridge Hampton, in a house that is still standing. (Mr. Edward S. Burgess)

HOWELL PHILIP 5, LT. (Philip 4, Elisha 3, Arthur 2, Edward 1)—Howell ("Southampton," p. 318) has another Philip; but his ancestry is not clear. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he went from Bridge Hampton to Conn. He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 33); also, the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

HOWELL RECOMPENCE (Ancestry not determined. His name does not appear in Howell's "Southampton")—From Southold to Guilford. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. In Sept.

Jonathan Howell

Philip Howell

and Oct., 1776, with four passengers, he was brought over by Capt. David Landon (C. 164); and, in Dec., with two passengers, by Capt. Jonathan Vail. (C. 74) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he asked permission to go to L. I. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15)

Census of Southold, 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He m. Martha ———; and his dau., Bethiah, was bapt. Nov. 6, 1774. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HOWELL RICHARD ()—From Southampton. He was "on the Main" (i. e. Conn.), from Nov. 1, 1776 to Oct. 1, 1778. (F. 110) If this was the man, he was Richard 4 (b. in 1727, d. s. p. in 1793), Obadiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1.

The Census of 1776, in Southampton, contains no such name; while, in Southold, it contains three—(A. 55)

(1) Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2.

(3) Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1.

If he was from Southold, he might be Richard 3, Richard 2 (d. in 1769), Richard 1, founder of the Southold branch. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 320, 321)

The older Richard, (1) above, was probably the Capt. Richard who d. Nov. 13, 1783, aged 72. (Tombstone at Mattituck) His title came from the sea; for he does not appear in the Mil. Rec. of N. Y.

A Richard Howell, Jr., perhaps (3) above, m. Rhoda Corwin, Mar. 18, 1779; their son, John, bapt. Aug. 3, 1784. Rhoda d. Aug. 12, 1784; and Richard m. (2) Mary Osborn, July 16, 1786. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) A Richard Howell refused to sign the Association, in 1775. (H. 17)

HOWELL RYALL 5 (Ryall 4, d. in 1764, Obadiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1—the line suggested in Howell's "Southampton," p. 317)—From Southampton to Saybrook, East Haddam and Hartford. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper (C. 32); and, on Sept. 5, to East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffith. (C. 57) On Oct. 27, 1779, he was permitted to return to Southampton, and to take away certain of his effects (D. 35); and, on Oct. 22, 1782, a similar permission was given, it being stated that he resided at Hartford. (F. 76) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 53)

HOWELL SYLVANUS 4 (Obadiah 3, Richard 2, Edward 1)—From Southold to Killingworth. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was moved from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) In 1779, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) On Apr. 20, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for leave to go to L. I. to lease his farm and to bring away produce; negatively, although well recommended by the Authorities of Killingworth. (E. 94, 95) On Nov. 11, 1780, with others, he prayed Gov. Trumbull for relief, having been plundered of produce on L. I. by Capt. Peter Griffing. (D. 8)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b. in 1737; m. ———; d. June 13, 1806.

HOWELL STEPHEN 6, CAPT. (David 5, Abraham 4, Capt. Abraham 3, Maj. John 2, Edward 1; brother of Capt. David, above)—From Southampton to East Haddam. The details of his removal are not given. Having been plundered by Lt. Jacob White and Samuel Combs, he petitioned for relief, Feb. 12, 1778; which was granted, in May, 1778. (E. 4-9) On May 22, 1779, with others, he was permitted to go to L. I. after grain (D. 28); and, on Jan. 24 and Mar. 20, 1780, for flax. (D. 44) In Feb., 1781, he asked permission to return to L. I. (E. 145); and permission was given, in Apr., 1782. (F. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 12); also, the Killingworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He was in the Battle of L. I.; a Capt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); also, in Col. Drake's Regt., Gen. Scott's Provisional Brig. (G. 10) He may have served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

We have a Commission given to Stephen Howell by Gov. Tryon, Aug. 28, 1772, under King George III., as Lieut. of a Company of Foot in the 2d Battalion of the Suffolk Regt. of Militia; also a Commission given to Stephen Howell by Gov. Clinton, Nov. 1, 1786, as Capt. of a Company in the Suffolk Co. Regt. of Militia. (Mrs. L. M. Swan, g. granddau. of Capt. Stephen)

After returning from Conn., he removed to Sag Harbor. In 1785, in company with Col. Benjamin Hunting, he fitted out the brig "Lucy," a whaling vessel, for Southern waters, which proved a successful venture. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 640) He owned a large property at Sag Harbor.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b. at Southampton, Oct. 23, 1744; d. Jan. 18, 1828. (Tombstone at Sag Harbor) He m. (1) Susanna ———; m. (2) Eunice, dau. of Abner Howell. He had sons: David 7; Lewis 7, who d. s. p.; and Silas 7. David 7 had a son, Matthew 8. Silas 7 had children: Mary 8, m. Benjamin Hunting (see Hunting); Elmira 8, m. Nathaniel Gardiner; Stephen 8; Cornelius 8; Gloriana 8; Nathan P. 8; Silas 8; John E. 8; Gilbert

8; and Augustus 8. Augustus 8 m. Phebe R———, and had a dau., Anna 9, b. in 1853. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 305)

Among the children of Silas 7: Mary 8, my grandmother, m. Benjamin Hunting, and lived in Sag Harbor. They had Hunting children: Eloise A.; Margaret B.; and Benjamin F. Elmira 8, left two Gardiner children: Harriet, of Sag Harbor; and Edward. Augustus 8, left one dau.; and Gilbert 8, left a dau. (Miss Annie A. Cook)

Among the sons of Silas 7: Nathan 8, lived in Sag Harbor; Cornelius 8, d. y.; Gilbert 8, lived in Brooklyn; John 8, went to sea; Augustus 8, lived for a long time in China. The only living descendants of the sons are the two daughters of Gilbert 8 and Augustus 8. (Mrs. L. M. Swan)

HOWELL WALTER 5 (Samuel 4, Jonah 3, Edward 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capts. James Harris and James Wiggins. (C. 75) He signed the Association, in 1775 (A. 33); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54)

HUBBARD. The first, or the son of the first, of this Family to come to Southold was Isaac 1, b. in 1694; d. in 1771. His wife was Bethiah, dau. of Thomas Goldsmith. (Moore's "Index," p. 82) He was probably son of Dea. George, who came to Boston in 1633; went thence to Wethersfield, Conn., in 1635. He m. Mary Bishop; d. in 1683. (Maltby Gen.) They had sons:—Richard Steers 2, who d. in 1796, aged 72; William 2, of Southold, d. in 1771, aged 44; Isaac 2, below; John 2, d. at Mattituck, in 1775, aged 36; Thomas 2, d., at Guilford, Conn., aged about 20. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 234, 235) Richard Steers 2, m. Esther, dau. of Zerubbabel Hallock. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 113) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 55) Isaac 2, b. in 1734; m. Deborah, dau. of Henry Conkling, of Southold; d. at sea, in 1767. His wife, b. in 1733; d. in 1806. Both are buried at Mattituck. (Mr. Nathaniel Hubbard Cleveland)

The name, Steers, perhaps came through Elizabeth ———, who m. John Wheeler, of New London. As his Wid., she m. Richard Steer. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 130. See also Wheeler)

Nathaniel Hubbard Cleveland, g. grandson of Isaac 2, is the sole survivor of the Hubbard Family in Southold. (See Cleveland)

HUBBARD DANIEL 3 (Richard Steers 2, Isaac 1; brother of Richard Steers, Jr., below)—From Southold. He was in the Privateer service; was captured and confined on one of the Prison ships. He survived, and became master of a ship in the East Indian trade. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 235)

He was bapt. Apr. 18, 1762. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HUBBARD EZEKIEL (————)—Probably from Southold to Guilford, as Capt. Thomas Leete, of Guilford, brought him over in Sept., 1776. He was described as a "single man." (C. 94) That he was in Guilford, or vicinity, is further shown by the fact that Capt. Jabez Gregory, of Norwalk, was permitted to bring his effects over, in Oct., 1780. (F. 21) He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); and he may have served in the 6th Dutchess. (G. 68)

HUBBARD JOHN 3 (John 2, Isaac 1)—From Southold, probably to Guilford. On a date not named, he made a deposition relative to Daniel Dibble, a Refugee. (F. 113) He served in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

Griffin ("Journal," p. 235) states that he succeeded his father as keeper of the inn at Mattituck; that he was in this business, 1776 to 1828; and that Jefferson and Madison were his guests, in 1785 or 1786.

He m. Bethiah, dau. of Maj. Silas and Bethiah Horton, who d. Oct. 9, 1807, aged 46. He d. May 19, 1825, aged 61. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstones) The same Records state that there was a John 3 (William 2, Isaac 1) bapt. Aug. 17, 1758, whose mother's name was Mary ———. This one may have been the Refugee.

HUBBARD MARY, WID.—From Southold to Guilford, with three in her family, by Capt. Jasper Griffing, in Sept., 1776. (C. 59) She was the Wid. of John 2, above; and the mother of John 3, the Refugee, above. Her husband d. in 1775. Their children were: Barnabas 3, John 3 and Thomas 3, all bapt. Dec. 3, 1769; and Mary 3, bapt. Aug. 19, 1770. Barnabas 3 d. in 1774. This left her two sons and a dau., all under 16 years of age—as stated in the Census of 1776. (A. 55) She was the dau. of Barnabas and Keziah Terrill; b. about 1735; m. John Hubbard 2, Sept. 16, 1762; d. Sept. 18, 1806, in her 71st year. On Mar. 7, 1779, she m. Col. Phineas Fanning, then a Widower. He d. June 2, 1796. (See Fanning)—(Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstones)

The Census of 1776 notes another Widow Hubbard who had one dau. over 16, and two sons under 16. (A. 55)

HUBBARD RICHARD STEERS, JR., 3, SERJT. (Richard Steers 2, Isaac 1; brother of Daniel, above)—From Southold to Norwich. On Aug. 25, 1778, he was given the custody of one Jonathan Osborn and his effects. (D. 18) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., as private, Corp. and Serjt. (G. 7, 20, 37) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

He was bapt. Sept. 16, 1753. He m. Mary Havens, and had: Unice 4, Gennet 4, and Erastus 4. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) For many years he was a Dea. in the Rutgers Church, N. Y. City. He d. in 1821, aged 70. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 235)

HUBBARD SAMUEL ()—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); in Willett's Levies (G. 62); and probably in Conn. (G. 91)

HUBBS JAMES, CORP. ()—From Huntington to Norwalk, where he was in 1780. (F. 124) He served as a Corp. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 13, 32) He signed the Association, as "Jacobus," in 1775. (H. 32)

He m. Mary Blatchley; d. Apr. 17, 1809, aged 68. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

He is buried at Commack, L. I. It is probable that he has descendants in the vicinity of Northport, L. I. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

HUDSON—Although Henry Hudson was one of the early settlers in Hempstead (Chap. 16); yet the origin of this Family on L. I. was through Jonathan 1, b. in Eng., May 8, 1658; m. June 17, 1686, Sarah ———; d. Apr. 5, 1729. He removed to Lyme, Conn., and thence to Shelter Island. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 203) Moore ("Index," p. 141) incorrectly states that he had a wife, Mary. Among his children were: Jonathan 2, Richard 2 and Samuel 2. Jonathan 2, b. Jan. 6, 1690; m. May 30, 1728, Mary Jennings; d. in 1745. Richard 2, b. ———; m. (1) June 8, 1723, Hannah, dau. of Ens. John 2, Booth (See Booth), m. (2) Mar. —, 1746, Keturah Goldsmith. (Mallmann, as above) A dau. of Richard 2 and Keturah, Elizabeth 3, m. William Webb. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. See also Webb)

While Richard 2 is supposed to have m. a second time, yet it is evident that he did not marry Keturah Goldsmith; at any rate, in 1746, for he d. before Apr. 15, 1738. It is probable that the husband of Keturah was a younger Richard, perhaps Richard 3 (Jonathan 2, 1), who went from L. I. to Orange Co., N. Y., between 1740 and 1750. (Miss Emma I. Hudson) It was Richard 3 who m. Keturah Goldsmith; and had Elizabeth 4, who m. William Webb. (Family Bible, quoted by Capt. Richard Henry Greene)

Samuel 2 m. Grissel, dau. of Benjamin and Patience L'Hommedieu (See L'Hommedieu), and granddau. of Nathaniel Sylvester. He served as County Clerk of Suffolk Co. from 1722 to 1730. In 1746, with his brother Jonathan, he joined Capt. James Fanning's company of Volunteers and served in the Expedition against Canada. He d. Oct. 12, 1781. (Mallmann, pp. 42, 203)

HUDSON ———, Wid.—On Nov. 2, 1780, she was permitted to return to N. Y. (F. 26) There is no further information about her.

HUDSON HENRY 3 (Samuel 2, Jonathan 1)—From Southold to East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffeth, on Sept. 20, 1776. (C. 57) In the same month, his goods were brought from Sag Harbor to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12, 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. as private and as Corp. (G. 7, 37)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1735; m. (1) Apr. 10, 1766, Jemima Havens, who d. Feb. 3, 1786; m. (2) Oct. 11, 1787, Wid. Ester Brown, dau. of Col. Phineas Fanning. She d. Aug. —, 1817. He d. Mar. 3, 1815. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. Also Mallmann, p. 203) Mallmann (Same ref.) gives his seven children. His children were bapt.: Henry 4, Jemima 4 and Benjamin 4, May 1, 1774; George 4, May 5, 1776; Joseph 4, May 23, 1779. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

HUDSON ISAAC 4 (Son of Obadiah 3, below)—From Southold to Norwich with his father. He was b. at Mattituck, in 1770. He m., and lived at Whitestone, L. I. Of his children there is no record. One son was named Augustus. (Miss Emma I. Hudson)

HUDSON JOHN (Ancestry not determined; though he may have been John 4, Nathaniel 3, Samuel 2, Jonathan 1, but probably too young for that line. He, and his son John, Jr., belonged to the Southampton branch)—From Southampton to Stonington, late in 1776, by Capts. Hubbard Latham, William Card and Nathan Fordham. He came with his wife and son, probably John, Jr., below, who receipted for his father's claim, Feb. 27, 1778. (C. 79) On May 17, 1779, he was allowed to go to L. I. and to bring off his mother, with her furniture &c. (D. 25) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 28, 30) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); in the 1st and 3d of the Line (G. 43, 46); and probably in Willett's Levies (G. 62); and in Conn. (G. 91)

John Hudson

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 53) A John, of Islip, was in the Census: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 5. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 47)

HUDSON JOHN JR. (Son of John, above)—From Sag Harbor to Stonington. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges. Also D. 25) On Feb. 27, 1778, he received for his father's claim. (C. 79) That he was from Sag Harbor is confirmed by the Census of 1776 for Southampton E. Dist.: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above, 16, 1. (A. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29) Probably he m. Patience Hallock, Mar. 18, 1790. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

John Hudson Jun^r

HUDSON JOHN LEVERETT 4 (Son of Obadiah 3, below)—From Southold to Norwich with his father, in Sept., 1776. He paid part of the expenses of removal. (C. 80)

He was bapt. Nov. 9, 1755 (Mattituck Ch. Rec.); m. Helen ———; d. Oct. 7, 1785. His wife also d., in 1785.

In Vol. 2 (pp. 334, 515) of Southold Town Rec., is recorded the sale of a slave, Hager, to James Reeve on Jan. 6, 1785.

HUDSON JOSEPH 4 (Son of Obadiah, below)—From Southold to Norwich with his father. He was bapt. in Sept., 1765. The names of his wife and children do not appear.

His son, William Leverett 5, was b., in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 11, 1794. He entered the U. S. Navy, in 1814, as a sailing master; and, in 1826, he had reached the grade of Lt. In 1838, and for five years thereafter, he was Capt. of the "Peacock" in connection with Capt. Wilkes' Exploration of the South Seas. He was Capt. of the "Niagara" when that ship laid the first Atlantic Cable, in 1858. For his services on that occasion he received valuable gifts and marks of distinction from the Governments of Great Britain and Russia. Upon his return, he was ordered to the Boston Navy Yard, serving as Commandant, 1859 to 1862. He d. Oct. 15, 1862. His wife, Eliza ———, d. Aug. 23, 1882. His children, b. between 1818 and 1843, were: Anna Eliza 6, m. James H. Clark, Jr.; William Henry 6, m. Pamela M. Pike; James Young 6; Jane Caroline 6, m. (1) Charles E. Knapp, (2) John P. Moore; Helen Dean 6, m. John S. Isaacs; Stephen Rapaljai 6, m. Sarah A. Besetie; John Woolsey 6; Sarah Van Buskirk 6; Harriet Cutler 6; Susan Peters 6, m. William H. Chase. (Miss Emma I. Hudson)

HUDSON OBADIAH 3 (Richard 2, Jonathan 1—This is the Ancestry given in Craven's "Mattituck," p. 46. He does not appear in Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 203)—From Southold (Mattituck) to Norwich, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. John Webb (C. 80); also, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with 10 in his family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. about 1724; m. Dec. 12, 1749, by Rev. Wm. Throop, to Bethiah, dau. of Capt. Isaac Hubbard; d. Apr. 29, 1791. His wife, b. Mar. 27, 1729; d. July 31, 1809. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstones) The first among his ten children are not recorded as having been bapt. at Mattituck. It may be that he did not come to Mattituck until about 1753; and that they were bapt. elsewhere. The Records show that three of them d. before the Census. The two sons, named in the Census as over 16 years old, were: John Leverett, above, and Obadiah, Jr., below. Two sons, Joseph, above, and William, below, were under 16 when the Census was taken. There was also a minor son, Isaac, above.

Obadiah 3 was a tanner, and the owner of a large property at Mattituck. During the War he suffered financial losses from which he never recovered; losses which eventually compelled him to sacrifice his fine estate. In 1788, he mortgaged his property to Jared Landon and John Wells, Esquires, for the large sum of £900. (Page 193. Also Miss Emma I. Hudson)

HUDSON OBADIAH, JR., 4 (Son of Obadiah 3, above)—From Southold to Norwich with his father. He was bapt. Nov. 16, 1758; m. July 12, 1787, Chloe Pike, who d. about 1815. He d. in 1846. There was a family tradition that he served in the Revolutionary War; but the Mil. Records do not show such service. His declining years were spent with his children at Northport and Commack, on L. I. His children were:—Mary 5, m. Jacob Snell; Bethiah 5, m. (1) ——— Lane, (2) Thomas Armstrong; Harriet 5, m. John Ruland; Obadiah 3d, 5, below. (Miss Emma I. Hudson)

Obadiah 3d, 5, b. Apr. 4, 1797; m. Dec. 23, 1826, Sarah Ann Craft; d. Sept. 7, 1880. She was b. July 6, 1807; d. Dec. 31, 1898. They lived at Farmingdale, Nassau Co., N. Y. Their children were:—Phebe Elizabeth 6, m. William Southerland, and was the mother of Rear Admiral William Henry Hudson Southerland, of the U. S. Navy who was conspicuous in the late War with Spain, who commanded the "New Jersey" during the recent cruise of the American Fleet around the World and who is now (1912) Commander-in-Chief of the Pacific Fleet; William Henry 6, m. Mary Gerow, and was the father of George H. 7, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Emeline 6, d., not m., aged 70; Joseph 6, m. Caroline M. Ward, and is the father of Emma Isabelle 7, of Peekskill, N. Y.; Mary Amelia 6, m. Wesley Ketcham; Oscar 6, of Brooklyn, N. Y., m. Mary Ann Ketcham, and had five children among whom is Mervin Obadiah 7, of Amityville, N. Y.; Caroline Darling 6, m. Albert Augustus Hallock, of Farmingdale, N. Y.; George Otis 6, m. Elizabeth Kain, and has sons George 7 and Henry 7, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Edwin Ruthven 6, late of Port Jefferson, N. Y., m. Ella Wheeler. (Miss Emma I. Hudson)

HUDSON THOMAS ()—From L. I. to Guilford, with two in his family, by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776. (C. 94)

HUDSON WILLIAM 4 (Son of Obadiah 3, above)—From Southold to Norwich with his father. He was bapt. June 1, 1760; m. Jan. 17, 1781, Mary Woodhull (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); d. ———. She was b. Dec. 22, 1759; d. June 7, 1847. (N. Y. Gen'l. and Biog'l. Rec., Apr., 1873) Their children were: Hannah 5, m. John Ketcham; Elizabeth 5, m. Richard P. Taylor; Mary Ann 5, m. John Woodhull; John Leverett 5, m. Julia Ann Conkling. (Miss Emma I. Hudson)

HULBERT—HURLBUTT—Thomas 1, was one of the garrison at Saybrook Fort, in 1636; settled in Wethersfield, Conn., about 1640. Stephen, probably a descendant of John 1, came to New London, after 1690. He was b. in Wethersfield; m. about 1696, Hannah Douglass, and had sons: Stephen (d. in 1725), Freelove, John, Capt. Titus and Joseph. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 358) The Cemetery at Portland, Conn., contains many of the name.

HULBERT JOHN, LT. COL.—He signed his name "Hulbert;" and it is so spelled in the Jour. of the Prov'l Cong. and in the Records of the 3d Line. It has been claimed, however, that the proper spelling is Hurlbert or Hurlburt—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam and Middletown. In Sept., 1776, with his effects, he was brought over by Capts. James Harris, Charles Williams, Robert Knight and Elkanah Sears. He collected his own claim for expenses; also, the claims of Daniel Hedges, Capt. James Wiggins and Capt. David Wiggins. (C. 182) On June 27, 1777, the N. Y. Council of Safety authorized him, together with Obadiah Jones and Thomas Dering, to permit such of the Refugees as they thought best to return to L. I. for their effects; and to remove from Conn. to Dutchess Co., N. Y., those Refugees who were willing to go. They gave such permits. (Page 172. Also A. 44) On July 3, following, the Council confirmed the appointment of the before-named Committee, and made its power absolute by restricting the Authorities of Conn. (Page 172. Also D. 7) On July 28, from Saybrook, he and Obadiah Johnes gave permits to Refugees to go to L. I. (A. 46) On Aug. 26, he and Thomas Dering sent a letter from Middletown to the N. Y. Ass'y asking instructions as to permitting the Refugees to return. (Page 172. Also

B. 1) In May, 1778, he and David Gelston asked permission of the Conn. Ass'y to bring certain goods from Boston; which was refused. (Page 209. Also E. 3) On May 22, 1779, and on Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to bring grain and provisions from L. I. (D. 28, 44); and, on Apr. 5, 1782, he was allowed to pass over to the Island. (F. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 33); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

On June 29, 1775, he was commissioned as Capt. (G. 1) The people of East Hampton asked that his Co. should protect them. He also gave the early movements of his Co. (Page 27) On July 27, 1775, as Capt., he reported enlistments for the 3d Suffolk County Co., afterward the 3d Line. He also served, as Capt., in the 3d Line. (G. 45, 46) From Southampton, also as Capt., July 27, 1775, he reported to the N. Y. Prov'l Cong. that he was progressing with the enlistments. (Mil. Ret., 26, 57) On Sept. 23, it was stated that he was on the way to Ticonderoga. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On Feb. 20 and on June 10, 1776, he was appointed Lt. Col. of Col. Josiah Smith's Regt. of Suffolk County Minute Men. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. Also G. 4) On Apr. 10, 1776, he certified to the good character of Capt. [Zebulon?] Cooper. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) In Sept., 1776, he was asked, by Gen. Washington, to help an Expedition from Conn. to L. I. (Page 220) On Nov. 24, 1776, Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote, from Peekskill, to the Committee of Arrangement of the Militia, that Lt. Col. Hulbert had gone to L. I.; and that it was improbable [Col. Hulbert] would accept his commission. (Mil. Com., 25, 444) On Dec. 9, Col. Hulbert, in a letter to the Committee, declined the appointment. (Am. Archives, 4th Series—3, 1140) He did, however, serve as Lt. Col. of Col. Drake's Regt. in Scott's Provisional Brig. (G. 10) A private of his name, served in Conn. (G. 91)

He was a very prominent citizen of Sag Harbor. In 1770, he petitioned for a wharf at that place. (Page 166) He owned a large tract of land including that whereon the Library and the residence of Mrs. Russell Sage have been built. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) After all of his public service, misfortune clouded his declining years.

INGRAHAM—The founder of the Family, in America, was Richard 1, an original settler of Rehoboth, Mass., in 1643. From him descended: Jarret 2, John 3 and John 4.

INGRAHAM JOHN 5, CAPT. (John 4, 3, Jarret 2, Richard 1)—From Southold to Guilford, with his family of four, by Capt. David Landon, in Sept. and Oct., 1776. (C. 164) He was Capt. of a ship; and, as such, transported a number of the Refugees and their effects from L. I. to Conn. (Page 239) On Oct. 16, 1776, he receipted to Ruben Brown for payment of his claim for bringing the latter's effects from L. I. to Guilford. (C. 15) On Oct. 24, he signed as a witness to Capt. John Gears' receipt for a claim against Ezra L'Hommedieu for transportation from Southold to Guilford. (C. 180) Same month, he brought from L. I. to Guilford a part of the effects of Stephen Bayley. (C. 12) In 1776 (date not given), he brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook a part of the effects of David Howell (C. 76); also, from L. I. to Guilford, a part of the effects of John Tuthill. (C. 152) He was, also, Capt. of the Privateer "Retaliation." (Page 218. Also "N. Y. in the Revolution," p. 269; also "Supplement" to same, p. 98.) A man of his name served in the 17th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 238)

He was b. at Bristol, R. I., June 19, 1738; m., at Southold, July 29, 1761, Mary, dau. of Capt. Benjamin (wife Martha Bourne), and sister of Ezra, L'Hommedieu. (See L'Hommedieu) She was b. on Shelter Island, Apr. 9, 1740. (Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu) He lived at Bristol after his marriage, and his children were b. there; except the last one who was b. after his removal to Newport, R. I., in 1767. In 1776, he was living in Southold; and the Census of that year showed that he had a son and a dau., both under 16 years old. (A. 55) In 1776, he removed to Guilford. (C. 164) Thence, in 1793, he removed to Middletown; where, on June 12, he m. his second wife, Prudence, Wid. of Stephen Babcock. In 1798, he removed to New London; and, in 1799, he was on the Committee of Health in the epidemic of that year. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 585) In 1807, he removed to Brooklyn, N. Y., where he d. Aug. 18, 1822. Among his descendants were:—Nathaniel Gibbs 6; Daniel Phoenix 7; George Landon 8, now Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division, N. Y. Supreme Court; and Phoenix 9, a lawyer in N. Y. City.

Jn^o Ingraham

INGRAHAM SAMUEL, JR., CAPT. (Probably a nephew, or near relative, of Capt. John, above)—From Southold (probably) to Lyme, in 1776. From Lyme, on June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim for expenses to James Wells; which was done Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185) He was Capt. of a ship (Page 239); and, as such, transported a number of the Refugees and their effects. On Oct. 14, 1776, he brought over a part of the effects of Daniel Tuthill in his sloop "Risley" (C. 191); and, on Oct. 16, a JESSUP—The ancestor of this Family was John 1, who is said to have come from Yorkshire to Mass. in 1620. He was in Hartford, in 1637; in Wethersfield, before 1640; and in Stamford, Conn., as one of the original settlers, in 1640. Thence he went to Southampton as early as 1649. Among his children, by his wife, Mary, was John 2. The latter had several children, among whom were: Isaac 3 and Henry 3. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 332-334) The late Morris K. Jessup came from the Conn. branch.

Edward, came to Stamford, in 1641; to Newtown, L. I., 1653-1662, to Westchester, N. Y., in 1662, where he d. in 1666. John 1 was in Hartford, in 1637; in Wethersfield, before 1640; in Stamford, in 1641; on L. I., about 1654; in Westchester, in 1664; and back to L. I., in 1673. In the Stamford Records the name is also spelled: Gesoppe, Gisseppe, Gisseppe and Gishop. (N. E. Gen'l Reg., 10. Also Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 36, 54)

A Joseph, came from Wethersfield to Stamford, about 1640; returned to Wethersfield; and appeared in Hempstead, L. I., about 1644 (Chap. 16) A Hannah, m. (as second wife) Oliver 5, son of Col. Josiah Smith. (See Smith)

JESSUP ISAAC 5 (John 4, Isaac 3, John 2, 1; cousin of Silas, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook and Chester. In Sept., 1776, he was brought to Saybrook, four passengers, by Capts. Charles Williams, James Wiggins and Ephraim Fordham (C. 87); and, same month, to Chester, two persons and goods, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 33); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1729; m. in 1765, ———. His wife was b. in 1737. He d. at Bridge Hampton. He had four children, among whom was Phebe 6, who m. Lemuel Pain, and had numerous descendants by the name of Payne, Sayre, Warren, Lenbuseher, Galbraith, Gramesly, Hildreth and Snider. (Miss Addie Sayre. Also Family Bible)

His ancestry, as given above, is from the Jessup Gen. Howell, as above, omits his name; but gives that of his nephew Isaac 6 (John 5, 4, Isaac 3, 2, 1) who was b. Mar. 11, 1757. He m. Apr. 14, 1777, Mary Albertson "both of Ketehebonack;" and when a son, Josiah Woodhull, was bapt., Feb. 24, 1783, it was recorded that the parents were "now living at Goshen," Orange Co., N. Y. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) It was probably the nephew, Isaac, who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and, later, in the 1st Orange. (G. 72)

Isaac Jessup

JESSUP SILAS 5, LT. (Lewis 4, Isaac 3, John 2, 1; cousin of Isaac, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook, in Oct., 1776, by Capts. Joshua Griffith, John Redpath, Hubbard Latham and Daniel Fordham. (C. 57, 88) On Mar. 28, 1782, Gov. Trumbull was authorized to permit him to return to L. I. to bring off his effects. (F. 53) It is probable that he was the "Mr Jessup" who, on Aug. 14, 1781, brought a letter to Capt. John Grinnell which caused the latter to ask Maj. John Davis to help Jessup in bringing his effects from L. I. (Clinton Pap., 7. 198) He was a Lt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); and it is probable that he served at Sag Harbor, in 1776. He was the owner of the peninsula called Noyaek, known as Jessup's Beach, in Southampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) His sister, Ruth, m. Zachariah Rogers. (Jessup Gen. See also Rogers)

JOHNES OBADIAH 4 (Dea. Samuel 3, Samuel 2, Edward 1)—From Southampton to Saybrook. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

On Aug. 31, 1776, he acted as Clerk of the Southampton Committee when permits were given to several Refugees to leave L. I. He was at Saybrook, Apr. 10, 1777, as Moderator of a meeting of 170 Refugees, asking to be represented in the N. Y. Convention. (A. 39) On May 3, he wrote a letter to Gov. Trumbull, relative to the situation of the Refugees. (A. 46) On June 12, 1777, he headed a petition of 45 Refugees, at Saybrook, asking the Committee of Safety of N. Y. for relief. (A. 43) On June 27, 1777, the Council of Safety of Conn. authorized him, together with Thomas Dering and Col. John Hulbert, to permit such of the Refugees as they thought best to return to L. I. for their effects; and to remove from Conn. to Dutchess Co. those Refugees who were willing to go; and, on July 28, permits were given. (Page 172. Also A. 44) On July 3, 1777, this was confirmed, and the powers of the Committee were enlarged. (Page 172. Also D. 7) In 1779, probably, he was among a number of Refugees who petitioned Gov. Clinton for permission to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) On Sept. 21, 1779, he was allowed to bring salt and farm produce from L. I. (Page 115. Also D. 34) On Mar. 13, 1780, he petitioned, and on Mar. 28, he was permitted, to go to L. I. for provisions and effects. (F. 1. D. 47) In 1770, he petitioned for a wharf at Sag Harbor. (Page 166)

An Obadiah, or an Obadiah, Jr., served in Col. Smith's Regt., and may have been a Drum. (G. 7, 30) He figured in the Predatory Excursions. (Chap. 22)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b. Feb. 7, 1715; d. Dec. 18, 1790. He m. (1) Apr. 21, 1741, Esther Pithian, who was b. in 1721, d. Jan. 20, 1759. He m. (2) Elizabeth Miller of East Hampton. He had a son, Dr. Gardiner 5; who had a son, Nicholas 6. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 335, 336) He m. Elizabeth Miller, May 17, 1781. (Lyme, Conn., Ch. Rec.) His dau., Mary, m. Capt. Jeremiah Rogers. (See Rogers)

Obadiah Johnes

JOHNES PAUL 5, LT. (William 4, Dea. Samuel 3, Samuel 2, Edward 1; nephew of Obadiah, above)—From Southampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); also, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 12, 30); and in the 3d Regt. of Suffolk Co. (G. 39)

He was b. Nov. 5, 1748; d. Oct. 6, 1776. He had children: Elias 6, William 6 and Elizabeth 6. (Howell, as above, p. 337)

JONES THOMAS ()—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); in the 4th Line (G. 48); and probably in Conn. (G. 92) He was in the Privateer service on the "Trumbull." (Page 218) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12, 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 53) He was b. about 1745. (G. 30)

Another Thomas, a Drum, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 31), was from East Hampton. The Church and Town Records of East Hampton do not contain his name. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

KELSEY—William 1 was, apparently, the first of the name on L. I. He had a son, Stephen 2; and a grandson, Daniel 3. The latter, in his will, dated in 1750, mentions son Stephen, probably the Refugee, below. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

KELSEY STEPHEN 4 (Daniel 3, Stephen 2, William 1)—From Huntington to Conn. He was on the Committee of that Town; and also on the Committee to raise the 1st Regt. in 1775. (G. 1) The enemy said that he was one of the principal Rebels in Huntington. (Page 175) On June 24, 1776, he was paid £3, for detecting a conspiracy in the Army. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. both as private and Corp. (G. 7, 16, 33)—the name being also spelled Kelly. He probably served in Conn. (G. 93) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

According to Bayles' ("Suffolk Co.") Gaine, on June 28, 1779, spoke of him as engaged in the Illicit Trade. If this was so, he was probably the one described by Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 103) "———Kelsey, largely engaged in the Illicit Trade."

He was b. about 1732; m. Mar. 31, 1752, Ann Platt; d. June 15, 1812, aged 80. His wife d. Dec. 12, 1819, aged 86. (Tombstones at Huntington) His son, Stephen 5, m. Dec. 11, 1780, Elizabeth Conkling. (Mrs. G. S. Also Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

A Stephen, of Worthington, Conn., m. Aug. 12, 1792, Hannah Hart. (Farmington—Berlin, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

KETCHAM—According to "Farmer's Register," the first of the Family in America were: Edward Ketcham of Ipswich, Mass., 1637; John Catcham, in 1648, of the same place; and Edward, John and Samuel Ketcham, of Huntington, in 1672. John is generally placed as Edward's son. Moore ("Index," p. 25) and Whitaker ("Southold," p. 37) mention John, of Southold—probably the last named John. In 1652-3, he had a deed from Stephen Goodyear. In 1663, he was a Deputy to the Government at Hartford; and, in 1665, a Deputy to the first N. Y. Ass'y, at Hempstead. He was in the Huntington Rec., in 1668; and was rated at Huntington and at Newtown, in 1675.

An Edward, was in Oyster Bay, in 1700 (?) He m. Mercy Harcurt; and had a son, Daniel; as per will of Richard Harcurt, 1696. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

KETCHAM ALEXANDER, LT. ()—From Huntington to Norwalk (F. 20); whence, on Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) On July 11, 1775, he was mentioned for 2d Lt. by Capt. John Grinnell. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 45, 46) He was with Gen. Woodhull on L. I., Aug. 26-28, 1776. (Page 41. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 139) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

A Lt. Ketcham, probably Lt. Alexander, was captured and killed, in Oct., 1780. (F. 124)

Alexander Ketcham

KETCHAM CARLL ()—From Huntington to Norwalk (F. 20); whence, on Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) On Nov. 9, 1776, the N. Y. Committee of Safety paid him for bringing Prisoners from L. I. to Norwich, and thence to Fishkill. (A. 19) On Oct. 24, 1780, permission was given to his wife Hannah to go to L. I. and leave the two children. (F. 20) He served in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78)

Hannah, wife of Carll, d. Jan. 29, 1805, in her 53d yr. (Tombstone, Old Cemetery, Huntington)

KETCHAM CARLL ISAAC, LT. ()—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 34) He signed the Association, in 1775, as Isaac Carll Ketcham. (H. 29)

Isaac Carll, d. Apr. 16, 1808, in 57th yr. (Tombstone, Old Cemetery, Huntington) A dau. of "Isaac and Hannah" is also buried there.

Thus it is possible that what has been stated, above, of Carll really belongs to Lt. Carll Isaac; and that they were one and the same.

KETCHAM SOLOMON, 2d, 5 (Solomon, 1st, 4, Philip 3, John 2, Edward 1, of Ipswich)—From Huntington. He served as a Privateersman ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269); also on the Frigate "Congress," and was afterward a pensioner. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime) He was a pensioner in 1833, aged 77. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 248)

He was a son of Solomon 1st, who was Town Clerk of Huntington, 1751-1781. He remained at home during the War, and was forced to work on the Fort on Lloyd's Neck. (Rear Adm'l E. S. P.) He had a son, Capt. Solomon 3d. Solomon 1st signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

The tombstones in the Old Cemetery at Huntington, record: Solomon 1st, d. Sept. 21, 1781, in 58th yr.; Solomon 2d, d. Feb. 19, 1851, aged 93-10-13; Capt. Solomon 3d, d. Mar. 28, 1852, aged 67. Solomon 1, m. Hannah Conkling. Solomon 2, m. Rebecca Platt, who d. Apr. 17, 1834, aged 77. His dau., Hannah, m. Isaac 6 Conkling (See Conkling)—(Rear Adm'l E. S. P.)

KETELTAS—Evert Pietersen Keteltas m. Grubje Arents. His son, Jan Evertzen, m. Altje Schepoes—and their son, Capt. Abraham Keteltas, m.

Jeanne d'Honneur, dau. of Johannes d'Honneur who m. Mar. 13, 1694, Jane Maynard, of Stonington, Conn. This is said to have been the origin of the Family.

KETELTAS ABRAHAM, REV. (Son of Capt. Abraham, above)—From Jamaica to Dutchess Co., N. Y. In Feb., 1784, he described his removal, and asked the N. Y. Ass'y for relief. (B. 14) He was a Member of the 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses, from Queens Co. (A. 58, 59) When, on June 30, 1776, he attended the former, with credentials from the Queens Co. Committee, it was ordered that, as he was a Minister, he be allowed to attend at such times as he thought proper. He was a Member of the Convention of 1777 which framed the N. Y. State Constitution.

He must have been living, at least temporarily, in N. Y. City, in July, 1776; for at that time, the window leads were removed from his house in a general effort to secure material for bullets for the American Army. (Page 112)

His sister, Jane, m. James Beekman. (See Beekman and Keteltas, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City") He m. Sarah, dau. of Hon. William Smith. His dau., Sarah, m. John Fish; and their son, Abraham Keteltas Fish, m. Catharine Bedlow Beekman. Rev. Abraham was probably related to Peter Keteltas a Refugee from N. Y. City. (q. v.)

He was the son of Abraham Keteltas, a merchant of N. Y. City, who came from Holland, in 1720. He was b. in that City, Dec. 26, 1732; graduated at Yale, in 1752; and settled soon after in the borough of Elizabeth, where he continued till his removal to Jamaica, where he spent the residue of his life, except during the Revolutionary period, devoting himself to the Churches on Long Island and in Conn. The Commander-in-Chief, knowing his ability to advise, frequently consulted him. He possessed a large and valuable library which occupied much of his leisure. He published some excellent discourses, and wrote an eulogy upon Rev. Mr. Whitefield, the original of which is in the Library of the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y. His wife, Sarah, was a dau. of Hon. William Smith, Judge of the Supreme Court of the Colony, and sister to William Smith, the Historian of New York, afterward Chief Justice of Canada. She was b. in 1732; and d. Oct. 12, 1815, having issue eleven children. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 111, 113) The following is inscribed upon his monument, in Jamaica:—

Sacred to the memory of Rev. Abraham Ketteltas, obit 30 Sept., 1798, aged 65. He possessed unusual talents, which were improved by profound erudition, and a heart firmly attached to the interests of his country. It may not, perhaps, be unworthy of record, that he had frequently officiated in three different languages, having preached in the Dutch and French languages in his native City of New York.

KING—Much of what follows, is from the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., Apr., 1901, by Mr. Rufus King; also 1902, pp. 71-75 and 145-149, by Miss Lucy D. Akerly. Thompson's "Long Island" and Griffin's "Journal" (pp. 103, 216) are very inaccurate in regard to this Family. Moore ("Index," pp. 25, 95, 96, 97, 141, 142) is not reliable.

The ancestor was William 1 Kinge, who came from the South of England to Salem, Mass., in 1635, with his wife, Dorothy, and several children. He was b. about 1595; d., intestate, about 1650-1. His Wid. and several children removed to Southold, L. I. Papers on file at Salem mention among his children: William 2, Samuel 2, and John 2. Samuel 2, b. in Eng. about 1633; m. Oct. 10, 1660, Frances Ludlam; d. Nov. 29, 1721. He lived at Oyster Ponds; and he was the ancestor of the L. I. branch. He had sons: William 3, b. in 1661, d. in 1740; Samuel 3, b. in 1675, d. in 1725; Capt. John 3, b. in 1677, d. in 1741-2. Samuel 3 had, among other sons: Ens. John 4, b. July 15, 1699; m. June 25, 1724, Mary Corey, d. June 28, 1753. (King MSS. Also Salmon Rec. See also Corey. See also Maj. Nathaniel, below)

KING ABIGAIL (Wid. of Benjamin, Jr., below)—From Oyster Ponds to Middletown. On Mar. 6, 1783, she was permitted to return to L. I. with her children, provisions, etc. (F. 102)

She was a dau. of Col. Thomas and Abigail (Havens) Terry, b. about 1753; d. Mar. 5, 1823. She m. (1) in 1777, Capt. Benjamin King, Jr.; (2) John Cleaves Terry, son of William and Elizabeth (Cleaves) Terry. He was b. Feb. 8, 1744; d. Sept. 6, 1823. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 245. See also Terry)

KING ALEXANDER 4 (Capt. John 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of Benjamin, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Middletown, in 1776. Apparently, he moved himself and his family. (C. 89) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and probably in Conn. (G. 93)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 54) He was b. Sept. 18, 1713; m. Dec. 15, 1737, Sarah, dau. of Jonathan 3 Havens. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 239. See also Havens) She d. aged 71; and was buried at Middletown, Conn., May 13, 1790. (Middletown Ch. Rec.) Her husband probably survived her.

Alexander King

KING ANN—From Southold, probably, to Conn. In Sept. and Oct., 1777, with three in the family, she was moved over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177)

A Wid. Anna King, d. Sept. 27, 1807. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

KING ASA 5 (Zebulon 4, Samuel 3, 2, William 1)—From Oyster Ponds to Conn. He was b. about 1724. He returned to Oyster Ponds and d. there Sept. 16, 1796. His wife, Mary, was living in 1790. He left no descendants, I believe. (Mr. Rufus King) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

KING BENJAMIN 4, SERJT. (Capt. John 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of Alexander, above; father of Capt. Benjamin, Jr., below)—From Oyster Ponds to Saybrook, where he was in 1777. (A. 43) On Mar. 6, 1783, he was at Lyme; and he was allowed to return to L. I. with his family, stock and provisions. (F. 101) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served, as a private, in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and, as a Serjt., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. June 26, 1722; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Mrs. Elizabeth King; d. Sept. 3, 1793.

Another Benjamin, perhaps a son of Alexander, and a grandson of Capt. John, from East of Water Mill. Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

Still another Benjamin, said to have been a Refugee from Southold to Berlin, Conn. Several sons are said to have come to Berlin with him. He m. Lois Raymond; d. about 1790. He had daughters: Catherine; Clarissa; and, perhaps, Gloriana Havens, who m. Ephraim Higby. Catharine, b. in 1774; m. John Hubbard; d. Nov. 26, 1824. Clarissa, b. ———; m. (1) Sept. —, 1799, Samuel Guy, (2) June 7, 1814, Isaiah Yale; d. Sept. 15, 1858. Samuel Guy d. Aug. 4, 1811, aged 34, and is buried at Berlin. His dau., Ann, b. July 31, 1800; m. Mar. 3, 1816, ———. Yale children: Harriet, b. Sept. 25, 1816; Jane, b. June 16, 1817. It is stated that the flight of Benjamin and his family was so sudden that the bread which had been mixed on L. I. was baked at Saybrook. (Mrs. S. J. Hall) A similar incident is related elsewhere. (See Capt. Eli Barnes)

KING BENJAMIN, Jr., 5, CAPT. (Son of Benjamin, above)—From Oyster Ponds to Middletown, where he was in 1776-7. (C. 86) In Oct., 1776, he sent goods from Sag Harbor to Middletown in Capt. Asa Fuller's ship. (C. 216) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in 1776, he moved part of the goods of these Refugees: Sept. 14, John Mitchell Cook (C. 28); Sept., Aaron Isaacs, East Hampton to Haddam (C. 207); same month, Peter King, L. I. to Middletown (C. 90); Sept., Oct. and Dec., Isaac Howell, Sag Harbor to Saybrook (C. 78); Oct., Abraham Miller, L. I. to Hartford (C. 100); same month, Henry Herrick, Sag Harbor to Haddam (C. 206); Dec., Jonathan Pain, L. I. to E. Haddam (C. 172); same month, Elias Jennings, L. I. to Middle Haddam (C. 86); Jan., 1777, Elias Mulford, L. I. to Middletown (C. 109); Sept., 1777, Jeremiah Sherrill. (C. 141) He also commanded a Privateer. (Chap. 24)

He was b. Sept. 23, 1750; m. in 1777, Abigail, dau. of Col. Thomas Terry (See Abigail, above. Also Terry); d., at Lyme, April 19, 1780. (Tombstone at Lyme) He had sons:—Edward Conklin 6, b. Aug. 2, 1778, d. Oct. 12, 1827; Benjamin, Jr., 6, b. June 13, 1780, d. Apr. 12, 1850. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 245. Also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 132, 133)

Benjamin King

KING ELISHA ()—In Sept., 1776, with eight passengers and his effects, he was brought over to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144)

Griffin ("Journal," p. 224) mentions an Elisha King, Capt. of a ship, who d. about 1828. He was son of Samuel who m. Hannah ———. The N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., frequently quoted above, notes a Samuel 3 (Samuel 2, William 1) who m. Hannah ———; but he is given no son Elisha. An Elisha, m. Mary, dau. of Orange Webb, Sr.; and had no children. (See Webb)

KING EPHRAIM 4 (Samuel 3, 2, William 1)—From Oyster Ponds to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he signed a petition for relief. It was probably his son, Ephraim, Jr., 5, who signed with him. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. May 11, 1709; probably m. in Feb., 1732, Elizabeth Vail, as stated by Griffin ("Journal," p. 216), although it does not appear in the Vital Gen. He had a son, Jeremiah 5, m. Hannah 6, dau. of Joseph 1st Youngs; d. Sept. 28, 1786, in his 45th year. His son, Rev. Ezra 6, b. July 24, 1784. (Youngs Gen. See also Youngs)

Mallmann ("Shelter Island," p. 315) mentions an Ephraim who d. July 8, 1820. He m. Mehitable ———, who was b. in 1736, and d. Feb. 2, 1809. This was probably the Ephraim, Jr., 5, noted above.

KING GILBERT 6 (John 5, below, Ens. John 4, Samuel 3, 2, William 1)—From Oyster Ponds. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36, 37); also in Conn. (G. 93)

He was b. July 16, 1758; m. Sept. 4, 1806, Bethiah, Wid. of John Wiggins. She was a dau. of Capt. Benj. 4 Vail. (See Vail) After the War, he removed to Newburgh, N. Y., where he d. Jan. 10, 1835. She d. Nov. 23, 1839. Both are buried in the Old Town Cemetery, at Newburgh.

KING JAMES 5 (William 4, 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of William, below)—From Oyster Ponds to Stonington, in 1776. He was moved over by Cpts. Elisha Morris, Peter Manwaring, Samuel Beebe, Nathaniel Dyer and Joseph Vail. His claim was paid to David Gelston. (C. 202) He may have served in either the Line or the Levies ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 95); or in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. July 16, 1718; m. Oct. 30, 1751, Katherine Sheffield; removed to Poland, Herkimer Co., N. Y., about 1800; and d. there Sept. 25, 1802, aged 84. He is buried at Poland with three of his children: Bathshua, b. in 1754, d. Aug. 18, 1842, aged 89; Abigail, b. in 1760, m. Amos Beebe, d. July 12, 1803, aged 42; Mary b. in 1763, m. Silas Beebe, d. Dec. 12, 1847, aged 84. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 33. Also Rev. Howard L. Rixon. Also Tombstones at Poland)

James King

KING JEREMIAH 5, SERJT. (David 4, William 3, Samuel 2, William 1, Thompson, "Long Island," 2. 524, erroneously makes him Jeremiah 3, William 2, John 1)—From Oyster Ponds to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for relief. (A. 43) His claim for expenses of transporting his effects from L. I. to Lyme was paid to James Wells, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 195) On Dec. 13, 1780, he was allowed to bring from L. I. the rents of his farm. He was then, and on July 16, 1783, residing at Lyme. (F. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., as a Serjt. (G. 19, 38); also, as a private, in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 6; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. Sept. —, 1737; m. —

1763, Deborah Dominy, of East Hampton; d. Jan. 8, 1819.

KING JOEL ()—To Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for relief. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

KING JOHN 5 (Ens. John 4, Samuel 3, 2, William 1; father of Gilbert, above; brother of Maj. Nathaniel, below)—From Oyster Ponds to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for relief. (A. 43) In May, 1780, his petition to go from New London to L. I. with one cow was granted. (E. 86, 87) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 18, 28)

Several of this name served in the War; but probably they were younger men. The record is:—Col. Smith's and Col. Terry's Regts. (G. 8, 38); 1st, 2d and 3d of the Line (G. 43, 44, 46); Add'l Corps, Line (G. 53); Malcom's and Graham's Levies (G. 58, 60); 4th Orange (G. 75); and one may have been a pensioner in Conn. (G. 93)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. Dec. 18, 1727; m. Mar. 13, 1754, Abigail Brown; d. July 14, 1792. He was the ancestor of Mr. Rufus King now living at Yonkers, N. Y.

KING, JONATHAN 5 (Jonathan 4, William 3, Samuel 2, William 1)—From Oyster Ponds. He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 93) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 18)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. —; m. Feb. 29, 1750, Lydia 7 Glover (See Glover); d. —. She d. in 1828, in her 95th year. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 161)

Another of the name, from St. George's Manor, Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 50)

KING, MARY—From Oyster Ponds, probably, to Middletown, where she lived 1776–1778. (F. 110)

She may have been the wife of Capt. Henry, brother of Capt. Benjamin, above; or the dau. of James, the Refugee, above.

KING NATHANIEL 5, MAJ. (Ens. John 4, Samuel 3, 2, William 1; brother of John, above)—From Oyster Ponds to Saybrook, with cattle, etc., in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Stow. There were 11 passengers between him and Daniel Tuthill. (C. 144) From Saybrook, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for relief. (A. 43) In 1779, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) On Sept. 21, 1779, he was permitted to bring salt and farm produce from L. I. (Page 115. Also D. 34) On Mar. 28, Apr. 11, and in May, 1780, he was permitted to bring wool, flax, &c. (D. 47. F. 11. E. 91, 92, 93) A like permission was granted on Mar. 28, 1782; Oct. 15, 1782; and Feb. 15, 1783. (F. 53, 69, 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in the French and Indian War (N. Y. Hist. Soc'y Coll., 1891, p. 202); also under Col. Thomas Terry, in 1758. (See King Family, in N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.) He may have served in the 3d and the 5th Dutchess. (G. 65, 67) It is probable that he received his title either before, or after, the Revolutionary War.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. May 8, 1731; m. Dec. 17, 1761, Experience, dau. of Gideon Youngs; d. Oct. 1, 1822. He d. in 1822, aged 92. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 162, 281) His dau., Experience 6, m. Capt. John Cochran. (I. 3. See also Glover) She d. June 11, 1842, aged 66. (Griffin, p. 281)

It will be noted that the Census does not tally with this record of his birth. Another discrepancy is shown in his petition (E. 91, 93) where he states that he had aged parents with him in Saybrook, in 1780. The Ch. Rec. states that his father, Ens. John 4, was b. July 15, 1699; m. June 25, 1724, Mary Corey; d. June 20, 1753. It is probable, therefore, that the "aged parents" were Gideon Youngs and his wife, Rachel Rackett—parents of Maj. Nathaniels' wife. They d., respectively, on Dec. 15, 1780, and Nov. 23, 1787. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly. Also Youngs Gen.)

Nathaniel King

KING PETER ()—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and, same month, to Middletown, with six passengers, by Capts. Eliphalet Redfield and Benjamin King, Jr. (C. 90) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He probably served in Conn. (G. 93)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 4. (A. 54)

KING RICHARD 6 (Son of William, below; brother of William, Jr., below)—From East Hampton to Lyme, probably. On Aug. 22, 1778, he receipted for the claim of his brother William, Jr. (C. 92) On Mar. 17, 1779, he receipted for the claim of his father, William King. (C. 93) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He may have served with the Dutchess Minute Men (G. 70); or in the 4th Ulster. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 265)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. Dec. 10, 1755. (Liber E. MS. Southold Town Rec.)

Richard King

KING SAMUEL 6 ()—From Bridge Hampton to Middletown; whence, on May 15, 1783, he petitioned for release from the gaol in which he had been confined for going to L. I. without a permit. (E. 188) It may be that he was in Dutchess Co., N. Y., in 1781. (B. 6) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and probably in Conn. (G. 93)

He returned to L. I. after the War; and the one from Dutchess Co. must have been another man. (Miss Mary Josephine Briggs)

His ancestry is not determined; but he is placed in the 6th gen. from William 1 as the gen. to which it is probable that he belonged.

His dau., Lydia 7, b. in 1763; m. James Brooks, of Haddam, Conn., one of Washington's Guards; d. at Laporte, O., Dec. 3, 1847. They had Brooks children: Sally 8, b. in 1774, d. in 1863; Samuel 8, below; Hannah 8, b. in 1789, d. in 1870; Hezekiah 8, b. Apr. 10, 1791, d. July 24, 1862; Fanny 8, b. Mar. —, 1793, d. in 1856; Stephen 8, b. in 1796, d. in 1856; David 8, b. in 1798, d. in 1881; James 8, b. in 1800, d. in 1835; Elisha 8, b. in 1801, d. in 1879; Calvin 8, b. in 1806, d. in 1852; and Heman 8, b. in 1809, d. in 1866. Samuel 8, b. Feb. 27, 1780; m. Nov. 4, 1810, Sophia Johnson; d. Dec. 10, 1874. His children were: Lydia King 9, b. in 1811, d. in 1851; Henry Job 9, b. in 1813, d. in 1882; Julia Leek 9, b. in 1815, d. Sept. 29, 1901; Ira Kimball 9, b. in 1818, d. in 1869; Samuel Curtis 9, b. in 1820, d. in 1898; Stephen Smith 9, b. in 1822, d. in 1883; Edmund West 9, b. in 1825, d. in 1898; Sophia 9, below; Emeline 9, b. in 1830, m. William W. Foote. (See Addenda, Appendix I. 16; Mary Lucinda 9, b. in 1832, d. in 1845; and Rev. William Myron 9, b. Mar. 5, 1835, and lives at Los Angeles, Cal.; Sophia 9, b. Apr. 3, 1828; m. Apr. 13, 1854, William Nelson Briggs, of N. Ridgeville, O.; d. Feb. 4, 1907. They had Briggs children: Frank William 10, below; and

Mary Josephine 10, b. July 19, 1861, and lives in Buffalo, N. Y. Frank William 10, b. Mar. 7, 1857; m. June 17, 1882, Edith Elizabeth Darling, and lives at N. Ridgeville, O. He had: Edith Marion 11, b. Dec. 23, 1886, d. Feb. 5, 1896; and Elizabeth Darling 11, b. Apr. 13, 1888. (Miss M. J. B.)

Hannah, who m. (1) Nathaniel Tuthill, Sr., (See Tuthill), (2) Jonathan Rackett (See Rackett), was Hannah 4 (Samuel, Jr., 3, Samuel 2, William 1). (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

KING THOMAS (

)—From Stirling (now Greenport) to New London, Sept. 12, 1776, with 13 passengers and effects. (C. 91) He served in the Line, Add'l Corps (G. 55); and in Willett's Levies. (G. 62)

KING WILLIAM 5 (William 4, 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of James, above; father of Richard, above, and William, Jr., below)—From Oyster Ponds to Lyme. In 1776, with his family and goods, he was brought over by Cpts. William Johnson and Starr Greenfield. In Mar., 1779, his son Richard receipted for his claim. (C. 93) He, or one of his name, served in the 1st, 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 43, 44, 47, 48); in Pawling's Levies (G. 61); in the 2d Dutchess (G. 64); and in the 4th Orange. (G. 75) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. Apr. 6, 1710; m. July 26, 1738, Elizabeth Beebe; d. ———. He had: Elizabeth 6, b.

LONDON—LANGDON—Moore ("Index," p. 97) states that the ancestor of this Family on L. I. was Nathan 1 who came from Wales to Southold, where he appears in the Records, 1688–1717. He m. Hannah ———; d. Mar. 9, 1718, in his 54th year. (Tombstone) Nathan 1 had: Nathan 2; James 2; Hannah 2; and Samuel 2, the Refugee below. Nathan 2, b. in 1696; m. Patience Osborn; d. Sept. 28, 1750. Nathan 2 had: Samuel 3, m. Bethia, dau. of Henry Tuthill (See Tuthill); and Elizabeth 3, m. Samuel Griffing. (See Griffing) James 2 m. (1) in 1707, Mary, dau. of John 2 Vail. (Vail Gen., p. 34. See also Vail) She d. Aug. 20, 1722; and he m. (2) Wid. Mary Wilmot. He d. Sept. 19, 1738. He had sons: Joseph 3, James 3, Daniel 3, David 3, John 3 and Nathan 3. Hannah 2, m. John Vail, Jr., 3, and d. May 13, 1773. (Vail Gen. p. 36. See also Vail) Griffin ("Journal," p. 148) makes Samuel 2, son of Nathan 2—thus advancing the generations by one number.

Other Landons were at Hempstead, where Joseph, Sr., had settled as early as 1705. He had sons Samuel and John. (Hempstead Town Rec., 2 &c.) There is no known connection between the Landons of Hempstead and the Landons of Southold.

LONDON DAVID 3, CAPT. (Samuel 2, below, Nathan 1; twin brother of Maj. Jonathan, below)—From Southold to Guilford. As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Sept. and Oct., 1776, he brought from Southold and Shelter Island to Guilford, 237 persons (including the family of his father, Samuel) and their effects in the sloop "Polley," owned by his brother-in-law Samuel Brown. (Page 169. Also C. 164) In Oct., 1776, he witnessed a receipt by Capt. Edward Benton of money from Ezra L'Hommedieu. (C. 180) In Dec., 1776, he moved the effects of Henry Moore from Southold to Guilford (C. 107); and, same month, he brought a load in the schooner "King Prussia," his claim including payments to Cpts. Jonathan and John Vail. (Page 239. Also C. 168) On May 29, 1778, he was given a roving commission to seize the goods of the enemy on L. I. Sound. (Pages 218, 222. Also D. 48) On Nov. 6, 1778, he took dry goods from David Howell, near Southold. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 77) In 1781, he complained that he had been plundered. (Page 205) Once in Conn., Dec. 18, 1776, he became a member of the Committee to raise Volunteers for the Army (Mr. Henry H. Landon); and, on July 5, 1779, he acted as Capt. of the Militia in the New Haven Alarm. (G. 93)

He was b. Oct. 30, 1743; m. Oct. 18, 1763, Rebecca dau. of Dr. Nathaniel Ruggles, of Guilford; d. May 15, 1782. (Steiner's "Guilford &c.," p. 138)

David Landon

LANDON JONATHAN 3, MAJ. (Samuel 2, below; Nathan 1; twin brother of Capt. David, above)—From Southold to Dutchess Co., N. Y.; where he served in the 2d and 6th Regts., both as private and Maj. (G. 64, 68) He was a Member of the 2d N. Y. Council of Safety, in 1777; and Lt. Col.

He was b. Oct. 30, 1743; m. ———, Isabella Graham; d., at Pine Plains, Dutchess Co., ——— 1815. Some of his descendants are there now; but only in the female lines. He had: Richard Montgomery 4; Rebecca 4; Mary 4; and Arabella 4, m. Amos Ketcham. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

He was not the Capt. Jonathan whose dau., Rebecca, m. Henry Peters, of Southold; and who was named as the executor of said Peters. (Suffolk Co. Wills, Lib. B. p. 447)

LANDON SAMUEL 2, JUDGE (Nathan 1; father of Capt. David, above, and Maj. Jonathan, above)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he was brought over, with 10 passengers and effects, by his son Capt. David. On Nov. 27, 1777, his claim was paid to his son-in-law, Samuel Brown. (C. 164. I. 2) On May 8, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return to L. I. with his family, stock etc.; which was granted. (E. 72, 73) In 1781, he suffered from a raid on Shelter Island. (Clinton Pap., 7. 343-346. Also Chap. 22)

He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

He was Judge of Suffolk Co., 1764, 1771 and 1775. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co.") He also acted as Justice of the Peace. (Page 292. Also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 207, 208)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. May 20, 1699; d. at Guilford, ——— 1782. He m. (1) Bethia, dau. of Henry Tuthill; (2) Mary Youngs. His children who lived to maturity, were: Capt. David 3 and Maj. Jonathan 3, above; Hannah 3, m. in 1747, Samuel Brown, of Guilford (I. 2); Nathaniel 3, said to have m. ——— Terry, and removed to Wyoming, Pa., where some of his family were massacred; Samuel 3, d. s. p.; Bethia 3, b. Jan. 4, 1730, m. Sept. 20, 1750, Peter 4 Vail, d. Feb. —, 1816 (Vail Gen., p. 47. See also Vail); Jared 3, m. (1) Martha Hutchinson, (2) Deborah Reeve, (3) Christian Conkling. Judge Jared 3 was the only son who remained at Cutchogue, in Southold, where he has descendants in the female lines. (Miss L. D. A.) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1789-1790; 1796-1802; and 1804-1806. (Civil List) His will, proved Mar. 15, 1816, named dau. Mary 4, wife of William Hubbard, of Guilford; dau. Bethia 4; son Henry 4; grandson Samuel Hutchinson. (Suffolk Co. Wills, Liber D., p. 20) He had a son, Capt. Elijah 4. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 148) Samuel Hutchinson, above, was probably intended for Samuel Hutchinson Landon. Henry 4, m. Mehitabel Reeve (see Reeve), Wid. of John Griffin. (Miss L. D. A.)

In the North Branford, Conn., Ch. Rec. are these entries: Baptized, North Branford, March 23, 1777 Elijah & Mary—Grand Children to Sam^l Landon Esq^r. were Baptized on their Grand parents account. They being Refugees from Long Island—Upon account of the trouble of an army. Died, March 1777 Coll^m Sam^l Landon he belonged on Long Island. Came over here wth his father upon the account of How's Army having possession of Long Island. [Col. Sam^l, above, was probably Samuel 3, who d. s. p.]

LATHAM—William 1 came over in the "Mayflower." His son, Cory 2, was early in New London and Groton, Conn. He had sons: Thomas 3;

Sam^l Landon

Joseph 3; and perhaps John 3. A dau., Jane 3, m. Hugh Hubbard. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 312) Col. William, of Groton, was a descendant of Cory 2; he d. in 1792. Griffin ("Journal," pp. 34, 35) states that descendants of Cory 2, by emigration from Middletown, Conn., to Sag Harbor, became the progenitors of those bearing the name on the East end of L. I. Among them were Capt. Jonathan Fish Latham and his sons, Joseph, Elias, Daniel and Moses. This is doubted by Mr. Herbert L. Fordham, who states that the father of Jonathan Fish came directly from Conn. to the vicinity of Orient, L. I. The Hempstead branch of the Family comes from Joseph, who came directly from England, and was at Manhasset, in 1718. (Mitchell Rec. owned by Mr. Singleton Latham Mitchell)

LATHAM HOBART, or HUBBARD, CAPT. () —

From Sag Harbor, Sept. 18, 1781, he petitioned Gov. Clinton stating that his wife, family and property, at that place, were at the mercy of the British. He had also suffered by the American Boats. He desired to remove to Conn. under such restrictions as were for the public good; which was granted. (Clinton Pap., 7. 338) On Apr. 28, 1776, he delivered tow cloth from John Foster to Peter T. Curtenius, Comm'y of the Prov'l Cong. (C. 2) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in 1776, he moved the families and effects, either in whole or in part, of the following Refugees:—Joseph Moore, to Canterbury (C. 106); William Deval (C. 39); Joseph Ellis (C. 46); Capt. Thomas Wickham (C. 9); Silvanus Jennings (C. 201); John Hudson, to Stonington (C. 79); Zophar Wood, to Stonington (C. 163); Sept., 1776, Aaron Isaacs, East Hampton to Haddam (C. 207); same month, Matthew Pierson, Jr. (C. 127); same month, Charles Topping, Southampton to Stonington (C. 173); same month, Silas Cooper, to Stonington (C. 31); Sept. and Oct., Ens. Daniel Conkling, to Stonington (C. 21); same months, Daniel Moore, Southampton to Stonington (C. 106); Oct., Silvanus Pierson, to Stonington (C. 199); same month, Col. Jonathan Hedges, to Stonington (C. 205); same month, Robert Sheffield, to Stonington (C. 140); same month, Theophilus Halsey, Southampton to Stonington (C. 65); same month, Joshua Hildreth, to Stonington (C. 70); same month, Silas Jessup, to Saybrook (C. 88); same month, Lemuel Pierson, 3d (C. 124); Nov., Burnet Miller, to Stonington (C. 101); Dec., Samuel White, to Stonington. (C. 211)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was living at Sag Harbor, in 1800; at which time he owned property there, and was taxed for a slave. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

LAWRENCE—The L. I. Family of this name claims a distinguished ancestry in England, as set forth in the several printed pedigrees of Lawrence. This claim was disputed by the late William H. Whitmore, of Boston; who asserted that the brothers, John, William and Thomas Lawrence, who came to New York, in 1635, had no known ancestor of the name in England. Mr. Whitmore's statement was promptly criticized by Mr. Watson Effingham Lawrence, whose death brought the discussion to an end. (See the early Vols. of the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Record)

John 1 was one of the original patentees of Hempstead, in 1644; and one of the patentees of Flushing, in 1645. Soon afterward, he removed to New Amsterdam (now N. Y. City); and thereafter his descendants seem not to have lived on L. I. Capt. William 1 was associated with his brother, John 1, as a patentee of Flushing. He m. (2) Elizabeth, oldest dau. of Richard (Bull) Smith the patentee of Smithtown. (See Smith) Among his children was Maj. William 2, who m. Deborah, youngest dau. of the above named Richard Smith. (See Smith) His son, Obadiah 3, m. Sarah ———, and d. in 1732. Thomas 1, the youngest of the three brothers, appears in a tax list of Newtown, in 1655. He was one of the patentees, in 1666. He was the proprietor of a large tract along the East River. He d. in 1703. His descendants are numerous in N. York, N. Jersey, Conn., and elsewhere. Among his five sons was John 2, who alone remained at Newtown. He m. Deborah, dau. of Richard Woodhull, one of the patentees of Brookhaven. He d. in 1729. Among his three sons was John 3, b. in 1695; m. in 1720, Patience Sacket; d. in 1765. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 362-369)

John 1, b. in Eng. about 1618; m. Susannah ———; d. in 1699. He came to America, in 1635; was a patentee at Hempstead, in 1644; Member of the N. Y. Gov. Council, in 1673; Mayor of N. Y. City, in 1691; Sheriff of Queens Co., in 1691; and Judge, 1698-9. He had sons: Joseph 2, John 2 and Thomas 2.

William 1, younger brother of John 1, m. (1) ———, (2) Elizabeth, dau. of Richard Smith; d. about 1690. He had a son, Maj. William 2. His Wid., Elizabeth, m. (2) Capt. Philip Carteret; m. (3) Col. Richard Townley. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 3. 124, 129. Also, 10. 11, 12. Also, 22. 35. Also, 27. 3) Maj. William 2 had a son, Obadiah 3; whose son, Dr. William 4, m. in 1736, Zipporah Coles, d. in 1772, aged 62. (Mr. George W. Cocks. Also Tombstones at Mosquito Cove) William 1 also had a son, Joseph 2.

LAWRENCE DANIEL 4, COL. (John 3, 2, Thomas 1; brother of Maj. Jonathan, below, and Thomas, below)—From Newtown to Milford, where he lived seven years. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 102) On May 10, 1776, he was promoted from Lt. to Capt. of a Light Horse Co. (G. 40) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, from Queens Co., 1777-1783. (B. 43-48. Also Civil List) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

He was b. about 1739; m. ——— Van Horn, of N. Y. City; d. 1807, aged 68. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 374, 375)

LAWRENCE JONATHAN 4, MAJ. (John 3, 2, Thomas 1; brother of Col. Daniel, above, and Thomas, below)—From Newtown to Rhinebeck, Dutchess Co., N. Y. Through commercial pursuits and inheritances from his brothers John and Nathaniel he was enabled to retire from business, in 1772, when about 35 years old. In that year he received the commission of Capt. in the Prov'l Militia from the Royal Government. (Thompson, 2. 369, 370) On the organization of the Militia by the Prov'l Cong., in 1775, he was appointed Maj. of the Brigade, composed of the Militia of Queens and Suffolk, of which Nathaniel Woodhull was at the same time appointed Gen. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. Also Johnston's "Campaign of 1776, etc.," p. 131) In 1776, he was promoted from Capt. of one of the Newtown Companies to Brig. Maj. (G. 40) He accompanied Gen. Woodhull on his Expedition to prevent supplies from falling into the hands of the enemy. After the Battle of L. I., he was cut off from his family; but they managed to escape, and joined him near Fishkill, N. Y. With Mrs. Lawrence were five children, the eldest being nine years old, and the youngest about one year. (Thompson, 2. 370, 371) On Aug. 29, 1776, directly after the Battle, the N. Y. Committee of Safety directed him to give orders to Col. Smith's Regt. as to its transportation to N. Y. City. (A. 13) In 1775, he was a Commissioner for the erection of Fortifications at the Highlands. (N. Y. Sons of Rev'n. Year Book—1909, p. 516) In 1778, he joined the Expedition against Rhode Island, and served on board the man-of-war "L'Hector," of Count d'Estaing's Fleet. He probably served as Aide to Gen. S. H. Parsons. In Oct., 1781, he went from Middletown, Conn., to Gov. Clinton with a request that he might bring certain goods from L. I. to Conn. (Hall's "Life of Parsons," pp. 430, 431)

In 1780, he was appointed one of the Comm'rs of Forfeitures for the Southern Dist.; and also one of the Comm'rs of Sequestration for Dutchess Co. (Thompson, 2. 372) He was a Delegate to the 1st, 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses. (A. 56, 58, 59) He was appointed Senator from the Southern Dist., and served 1777-1783. (B. 43-48) He was a Member of the Council of Appointment during the greater part of the War. (Sons of Rev'n. Year Book, p. 516) In 1776, he was one of the Comm'rs to procure salt from sea water. (Pages 114, 115. Also Rev'y. MSS., N. Y., State Lib'y, 52. 136, 137) In 1778, he was one of the Comm'rs to fill the five Cont'l Battalions. (Same ref., 17. 3 and 42. 112-114) From 1777 to 1779, he was one of the Comm'rs to explore mines of lead and sulphur, and to erect factories of salt and sulphur; and during this work he explored the salt springs in the Mohawk valley. (Pages 108, 110. Also Rev'y. MSS., 51. 71 and 52. 136) In 1780, he was one of the Comm'rs to raise specie for redeeming a part of the bills emitted (Page 136. Also Rev'y. MSS., 42. 113); and, in 1786, he was one of a Committee to number bills of credit. (Law of Apr. 18) After the War he retrieved his lost fortune by investments in Land Bounty Rights and in public lands. (Thompson, 2. 374) He was the first Port Warden of N. Y. City, in 1800. (Civil List) He was a Member of the N. Y. State Cincinnati.

He was b. Oct. 4, 1737; d. Sept. 4, 1812, aged 75. He m. (1) Judith, dau. of Nathaniel Fish of Newtown, who d., aged 18, and by whom he had Jonathan 5. He m. (2) Ruth, dau. of Andrew Riker, of Newtown, who survived him, and by whom he had issue: Judith 5, Margaret 5, Samuel 5, Andrew 5, Richard M. 5, Abraham R. 5, Joseph 5, John L. 5, and William Thomas 5. (Thompson, 2. 374)

LAWRENCE THOMAS 4 (John 3, 2, Thomas 1; brother of Col. Daniel, above, and Maj. Jonathan, above)—From Newtown. On Oct. 10, 1776, he appeared before the Prov'l Convention with a letter from Gen. Scott asking permission to visit his family on L. I. (A. 16. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 53)

A Thomas Lawrence, served in the 1st Westchester (G. 77); also in Conn. (G. 93) One of the name was a Lt. in the 1st and 2d Vol. Regts. of the Militia, 1775-6 ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—the Rev'n", p. 542); also in Col. John Lasher's Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.", p. 218)

He was b. in 1733; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Nathaniel Fish, of Newtown; d. in 1816, aged 84. He served in the French War. In 1784, he was appointed one of the Judges of Queens Co. His son, Nathaniel 5, was a Lt. in the N. Carolina Line, in the Rev'y War; and was Attorney Gen. of N. Y. State, 1792-1795. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 375)

Onderdonk ("Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 57) mentions a Thomas, nephew of Col. Jonathan, who was at West Point, and wanted a Flag to visit his wife. It may be that the Military service, noted above, belongs to the nephew.

LAWRENCE WILLIAM 5, DR. (Dr. William 4, Obediah 3, Maj. William 2, William 1)—From Oyster Bay to Southampton, late in 1776; and thence, in 1779, to Saybrook and Killingworth. (B. 30, 31. E. 48) At first, he was suspected of being a Tory, was imprisoned and certain of his property was confiscated; but, afterward, some of it was restored. (B. 30, 31. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.," pp. 240, 256) The story of his troubles, in 1776, is pathetic. (Page 178. Also B. 31) Evidently he made good his claim to be a loyal American; for, on Nov. 22, 1779, Col. William Worthington wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Saybrook, that the bearer of the letter was Dr. William Lawrence, from L. I., who had resided at Southampton about three years:

He has been very Serviceable in procuring intelligence from the Enemy while he lived there, which has been Regularly Conveyed to Gov. Trumbull by me. He left the Island last week, fearing to stay longer. I sent him to Gov. Trumbull who gave him a permit to take his effects off the Island, some of which are merchants' goods. I hope that you will favor him. (Clinton Pap., 5. 368, 569)

Not long after this, Dr. Lawrence, under a permit dated Nov. 11, 1779, moved his goods to Saybrook; where, on Nov. 27, 1779, they were seized by Ephraim Kelsey, Serjt. of the Guard. On Dec. 18, Kelsey was ordered to return the goods on payment of reasonable expenses. (Page 210. Also D. 42) In May, 1780, a Committee of the Conn. Gen. Ass'y investigated the conduct of Col. William Worthington, Supt. of the Guard at Saybrook, as to the goods of Dr. Lawrence and Richard Seaman, also a Refugee. In these proceedings Dr. Lawrence was called a spy. (Page 93. Also E. 48, 120, 121) On May 16, 1780, he asked permission to go to L. I. to care for his family; which was negatived. On June 30, 1780, he requested a pass for his wife and Elizabeth Simmons, or Seaman, to go to L. I. and remain there—he to return after settling his mother's estate. (E. 48) On the latter date, permission was granted to his wife and sister to go to L. I. (F. 14) From this it would appear that his sister might have been the wife of Richard Seaman, the Refugee. (See Seaman) On Mar. 30, 1781, he asked permission to bring his furniture from L. I.; which was negatived. (F. 7)

Although he belonged to the Flushing branch of the Family, he settled at Oyster Bay. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 365) He evidently returned from Southampton occasionally; for the "N. Y. Journal", Feb. 10, 1778, described an accident to Dr. Lawrence "of Mosquito Cove" (now Glen Cove). During a part of his exile he was a Surg. in the Hospital service. (Page 179. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.," p. 45)

He was b. —————; m. in 1763, Phebe Latting. (See Latting, in N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.)—(Mr. George W. Cocks)

On Aug. 14, 1776, a Lt. William Lawrence, of one of the Newtown Companies, was promoted to Capt. (G. 40) A William Lawrence, taken Feb. 14, 1778, was a Prisoner at Gravesend. (Penn. Mag. Hist. & Biog.—1893)

LEDYARD—The first of this Family on L. I. was John 1 who came from Bristol, Eng., to Southold, in 1716. He m., about 1727, Deborah, dau. of Judge Benjamin Youngs, a grandson of Rev. John Youngs. He removed to Groton, Conn., about 1727; and thence to Hartford, where he was elected Mayor. Among his 10 children were: Col. William 2, below; Capt. John 2; and Capt. Youngs 2. Both of the latter were sea-faring men, and both died abroad. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 522-523) Capt. Youngs 2 was the father of Dr. Isaac 3 and Maj. Benjamin 3, the latter a Refugee from N. Y. City. (See "The Refugees from N. Y. City")

Col. William 2 Ledyard was b. at Groton, Conn., about 1750; m. Anna, dau. of Nathaniel Williams. He had nine children. His Military service is recorded in "Conn. Men in the Rev'n." He gave permission to the Refugees to return to L. I. (Page 201. Also D. 46. E. 83, 130. F. 4) He commanded Ft. Griswold, at Groton, when it fell by the Raid of Arnold, Sept. 6, 1781. His tragic death is described on Page 235. More complete accounts of his death, and the tablets erected to his memory appear in Allen's "History of Groton Heights;" in Caulkins' "New London;" and in "Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R.—1901," pp. 368-374.

Wm Ledyard

Capt. John 2, m. May 6, 1750, his cousin Abigail, dau. of Robert Hempstead, the Refugee of Southold, and Mary Youngs his wife. (See Hempstead) She was the mother of Capt. John Ledyard 3, the celebrated traveler; Fanny Ledyard 3, the Refugee, below; and George 3, who m. Phebe Boisseau. (See Boisseau) After the death of Capt. John 2 at sea, Mar. 17, 1762, she m. Dr. Micah Moore, Jan. 6, 1765. By Dr. Moore she had three daughters; of whom Phebe afterward m. Joseph P. Wickham of Southold, son of Parker, son of Joseph. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 138. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 401) Her dau., Julia, m. Matthias, son of Lt. Moses Case (See Case), who succeeded his mother-in-law as keeper of the tavern at Southold. (Mr. Albertson Case) Dr. Moore d. in 1776, leaving his Wid. with seven children. She passed through many trying scenes during the War. An officer of the enemy having threatened to burn her house, she replied: "Sir, I am a Widow, but feel myself perfectly secure under the protection of that Providence which has thus far sustained me." The officer withdrew. (Page 205. Also "Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R.—1901," p. 367. Also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 139, 140) She d. Mar. 7, 1805. (Mr. Albertson Case) Pictures of the Case-Moore house are on Page 289.

LEDYARD FANNY 3 (Capt. John 2, John 1)—From Southold to Groton. On Mar. 26 and on Apr. 13, 1781, she stated that she had a small shop at Southold, and asked permission to remove to Conn, with her effects; which was granted. (F. 34, 38)

She was visiting with her uncle, Col. William 2, on that fateful Sept. 6, 1781, when Ft. Griswold fell. On entering the Fort, the first sight she beheld was the body of her dead uncle. She ministered to the wounded and dying long after the enemy had left. (Page 235. Also Griffin's "Journal," p. 140. Also "Chapter Sketches, Conn. D. A. R.—1901," pp. 365-371)

She was b. about 1754; m. Richard Peters, of Southold; d. Jan. 15, 1816, aged 62. He d. Oct. 23, 1810, aged 57. ("Chapter Sketches &c." Also Salmon Rec. Also Tombstones at Southold)

LEE—"Salisbury's Gen." (3. 1-76), beside much original research, draws upon Walworth's "Hyde Gen."; Hill's "Lee Gen."; the "Notes of Rev. Joseph Lee," the Refugee, below, and several other sources. There were five families, between whom no relationship has been traced: John, to Ipswich, Mass., in 1632; John, to Hartford, in 1635, and Farmington, in 1641; Richard, to Virginia, in 1641; Thomas, to Boston, about 1700; and Thomas. The latter, Thomas 1, d. on the passage to America, leaving a Wid. and children who settled in Saybrook, in 1641. The Wid. was Phebe, dau. of ——— Brown, who came to Saybrook at the same time; and afterward removed to Providence and became the ancestor of the distinguished family in that City. The son of Thomas 1, Lt. Thomas 2, m. (1) Sarah Kirtland, of Saybrook; (2) Mary DeWolf. He d. in 1705. Among his children was John 3, who m. Elizabeth Smith, of Lyme. He d., in 1716. (Salisbury, Gen. 3. 1, 7, 9, 10, 11) Mary (De Wolf) Lee, Wid. of Lt. Thomas 2 Lee, afterward m. Samuel Hyde; whose first wife was Jane Lee, sister of Lt. Thomas 2. Phebe Hyde, dau. of Samuel Hyde and Jane Lee, m. May 21, 1683, Matthew Griswold. (Miss Emily A. Lee)

Thomas 2 came to America, in 1640-1; and was one of the early settlers at Lyme, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 175, 176) His descendants are recorded in the Lee Gen., the Hyde Gen. and the Salisbury Gen.

He had large possessions at Lyme, where he was freeman, May 12, 1670. He represented Lyme at the Gen'l Court, at Hartford, Oct. 8, 1685; and was recorded both as Ens. and Serjt. He d. Dec. 5, 1704. Among his 14 children, the eldest was John 3, who, like his father, was prominent in the Colony. He was b. Sept. 21, 1670; d. Jan. 17, 1726. He was the father of Rev. Joseph 4, the Refugee, below; also, of Benjamin 4. The Huntington branch descends from the latter.

On his death bed, John 3 issued the following remarkable document:—

The solemn charge of John Lee, of Lyme, Conn., given on his death bed to his children, Jan. 13, 1726; who departed this life on the 17th of the same month, in the assurance of faith.

"I charge you my dear children that you fear God and keep his commandments, and that you uphold his public worship with as great diligence and constancy as you can, and that you be constant in the duty of secret prayer twice every day, and all the days of your life, and all of you that come to be heads of families that you be constant in family worship evening and morning with your families, besides your prayers at meat, and that in your prayers you pray for converting grace for yourselves and others, and that God would show you the excellency of Christ, and cause you to love and believe in him, and show you the evil of sin and make you hate it and forever flee from it, and that you may never give over until you have obtained converting grace from God. Furthermore I charge you to choose death rather than deny Christ in any degree. Also I charge you that you never turn Papist or Heretic, but serve God in the way that you have been brought up, and avoid all evil companions lest you be led into temptation and a snare. Also be very careful to avoid all excess in drinking, also to avoid profaneness and all other sins. Also I charge you always to be dutiful to your mother and kind to one another.

This I leave in charge to all my posterity to the end of the world, charging every person of them to keep a copy of this my dying charge to my children.

This is my dying charge to my children.

John Lee.

LEE JOSEPH 4, REV. (John 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Oyster Ponds to Lyme, in 1775. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 39. Also Vail Gen. pp. 71, 72) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 10); and he may have served in Conn. (G. 93)

He was b. Nov. 24, 1705; m. Aug. 21, 1727, Mary Allen of New London; d. Aug. 29, 1779, probably at E. Lyme, Conn., where he is buried. For some years he ministered to the Presbyterian Church at Oyster Ponds. On the breaking out of the War he removed to Lyme. His Wid. d. Oct. 13, 1805, in her 99th year. Of his 10 children, only five lived to grow up: Lemuel 5, 1728-1748-9; Dr. Samuel 5, 1730; Dr. Joseph 5, 1737-8; and Rev. Jason 5, 1740. (Salisbury, 3. 10, 36, 37) His dau., Elizabeth 5, m. Mar. 24, 1768, Abraham Vail; d. Feb. 12, 1825. (Vail Gen. p. 71. See also Vail) Rev. Jason 5, a pioneer in the Baptist Church, d. in 1810. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 616)

LEETE—Gov. William 1 was b. in Eng., about 1612; m. three times; d. Apr. 16, 1683. He came to New Haven, Conn., about 1639; and was Gov. of the Colony, 1676-1683. His son, Hon. Andrew 2, b. in 1643; m. Elizabeth Green; d. Oct. 31, 1702. Andrew's son, William 3, b. Mar. 24, 1671; m. Hannah Stone; d. Jan. 26, 1736. Solomon 4, son of William 3, b. in Sept., 1722; m. Zipporah Stone; d. Sept. 6, 1803. (Leete Gen.)

LEETE ELIJAH 5 (Solomon 4, William 3, Andrew 2, Gov. William 1)—From Southold to Guilford. On Nov. 3, 1780, he was permitted to go to Southold and bring over his wife and her furniture. (F. 27)

He was b. Dec. 21, 1753; m. (1) Betsy Brown, of Southold, L. I., who d. Aug. 28, 1782, aged 30, leaving one child; m. (2) Leah (Robinson) Truby, who d., leaving three children; m. (3) Ruth (Savage) Leete. He d., at Guilford, Conn., Apr. 19, 1825. (Leete Gen.) He was a brother of Capt. Thomas Leete. (Page 246)

L'HOMMEDIEU—The first of the name who came to this country was Benjamin 1, b. in 1657, at La Rochelle, France; and came to America with John Bourchard, his stepbrother, Feb. 1, 1686. From Newport, R. I., they proceeded to a spot, about 20 miles from N. Y. City, which they called New Rochelle, after their native place. From thence they went to Southold, L. I., where they settled. (Mrs. Cornelia L'Homedieu, Nantucket, Mass.) They went to Southold in 1690. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co.," p. 366) Benjamin 1 appears in the Southold Records, 1694-1712. (Moore's "Index," p. 98) Benjamin 1 was a son of Pierre L'Homedieu and Martha Peron. He was b. in 1657; m. in 1694, Patience, dau. of Nathaniel and Grissell (Brinley) Sylvester, of Shelter Island. (See Sylvester, in Dering) She was b. Nov. 1, 1664; d. Nov. 2, 1719. Benjamin L'Homedieu d. Jan. 4, 1749. (Moore, as above)

The ancient family Bible of Benjamin, the Emigrant, is now owned by Mr. Sylvester Youngs L'Homedieu, of East Orange, N. J. The following is copied from it:

The first temps that I com to this country I lande at Rod Island the first 168- (m. Patience Sylvester)

Children. Benjamin, born Monday, Dec. 3, 1694.

Sylvester 2, the Refugee, below, was the father of Grover 3 and Capt. Samuel 3, both Refugees, below.

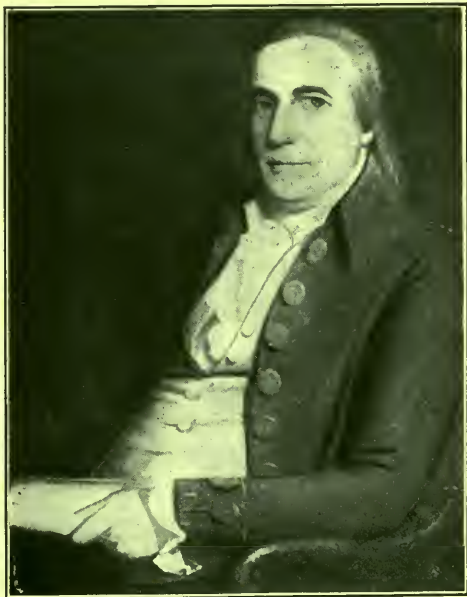

John 2, b. Jan. 11, 1707; m. Feb. 22, 1727, Mary, dau. of Jonathan Hudson. The sister of John 2 (son of Benjamin 1), Grissell 2, m. Samuel 2, son of Jonathan Hudson. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 203. See also Hudson) John 2, in his will, dated Jan. 3, 1777, mentions his children: Mary 3; John 3; Benjamin 3; and Henry 3, the Refugee, below. He d. Jan. 25, 1777, aged 70. (Hon. Frederick L'Homedieu. See also Moore, as above)

L'HOMMEDIEU EZRA 3, HON. (Capt. Benjamin 2, Benjamin 1)—From Southold to that part of Middletown known as "The Upper Houses," now Cromwell. In Sept., 1776, he was paid, by Capt. Barnabas Horton, for the freight of a horse (C. 171); in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with 10 passengers, he was moved from Southold to Guilford by Capt. David Landon (C. 164); also, in Oct., 1776, by Capts. Joseph Bradley, John Gears and Edward Benton—his claim being paid along with that of Abijah Windes. (C. 180) On May 21, 1779, acting for the Auditors, he paid to Capt. Richard Dickinson his claim for removing Refugees. (C. 42, 43) On June 10, 1779, permission was given to bring certain other of his effects from L. I. (D. 30) His residence at Southold was destroyed some years ago. While in Cromwell, he lived in what is now called "The Penniman House," in the rear of the Baptist Church.

As Clerk of the Committee of Suffolk Co., on Nov. 15, 1774, he certified to the vote of a donation of supplies to the distressed poor of Boston, and to the securing of a vessel to carry the supplies thither. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co." Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 16) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) In 1775, the N. Y. Prov'l Cong. ordered 200 pounds of powder to be sent to him and John Foster. (Page 88. Also Onderdonk, p. 20) In the Convention, July 12, 1776, it was stated that he and Thomas Dering had given assurance that the stock at Montauk would be protected. (A. 3) On Aug.

27, 1776, he was one of a sub-Committee of the N. Y. Committee of Safety to report upon the sale of cattle on Nassau and Shelter Islands. (A. 10) On the same date, he caused the Committee of Safety to inform Gen. Washington that the Committee of Southold had mounted three 6-pounders and one 3-pounder, and that ammunition was needed; and, on Nov. 15, 1776, he informed the Committee of Safety that the guns had been removed to Saybrook. (A. 9) The Committee of Safety, Dec. 3, 1776, requested him to write to Col. Henry B. Livingston asking an accounting for the families and stock that he had removed from L. I. (A. 22) On Jan. 17, 1777, the Committee of Safety appointed him on a Committee to procure the accounts of expenses for the removals from L. I., and to inquire as to the delivery of powder and arms at Fishkill. (A. 30) The Committee of Safety, Feb. 27, 1777, sent to him,

Ger. L'Hommedieu

at Guilford, permission to transport a cargo of rum, sugar &c., to the State of N. Y. (Page 209. Also A. 35) He also sent to the Committee the claim of Capt. Daniel Collins for removing powder &c. from L. I. to Conn. (Page 104. Also A. 35) On his representation, and that of Col. William Floyd, the Conn. Council of Safety, May 29, 1778, gave Capt. David Landon a roving commission to seize the property of the enemy. (Page 222. Also D. 48) On Nov. 3, 1778, he and David Gelston received from Gerard Bancker, Treas'r, £693.3.2 to pay certain claims of the Refugees. (C. 6) Other claims were paid to him. (Pages 189, 190. Also C. 180, 181) Jan. 6, 1779, he was refunded expenses of sending from Poughkeepsie to Kingston for money to pay the Refugees. (C. 5, No. 128) In Nov., 1780, he wrote to Gov. Clinton as to the raising of money and clothing. (Pages 94, 96) On Apr. 10, 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton that certain Whigs had been plundered. (Page 208) On May 2, 1781, from Middletown, he wrote to Gov. Clinton asking a commission for Capt. Nathaniel Norton to cruise on L. I. Sound in an armed boat. (See Norton) On May 3, 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton in favor of David Gardiner and Nathaniel Fanning, whose goods had been taken from them wrongfully. (Page 210. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 830, 831)

In 1776, he was a Loan Officer for Suffolk Co.; and, 1784-1810, he was County Clerk. He was a Member of all four of the Prov'l Congresses, 1775-1777 (Page 130. Also A. 56-59); and a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1777-1783. (B. 43-48) In the N. Y. Senate he represented the Southern Dist., 1784-1792, and 1794-1809. (Civil List) He was a Delegate to the Cont'l Cong., 1779-1783, and 1788. (A. 60. Also Civil List) In 1779, he was appointed a Delegate to the Hartford Convention. He was a Member of the N. Y. Council of Appointment, 1784 and 1798; and a Regent of the University, 1787-1811. This remarkable service for over 40 years would be extended to over 80 years if the several offices held by him were placed consecutively. It was allowable, in those days, for a man to hold two, or more, rather inconsistent offices at the same time—a practice that would not be tolerated to-day.

PENNIMAN HOUSE — CROMWELL, CONN.

Residence of Ezra L'Hommedieu, 1776-1783. Photographed specially for this work

For instance, George Clinton was Clerk of Ulster Co. for a part of the time when he was Gov. of N. Y. His term of office-holding, if consecutively placed, was over 90 years. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt.", pp. 161, 162. See also Clinton I. 3) Mr. L'Hommedieu was a close second.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. at Southold Aug. 30, 1734; and graduated at Yale College, in 1754. During his long public service he found time for agricultural pursuits; and he was, practically, the founder of the County Fair. In 1784, he and Capt. Hugh White purchased a patent of 6000 acres at Whitestown, Oneida Co., N. Y. He was probably there for a time; as he was a Comm'r to treat with the Indians. (Wager's and Jones' "Histories of Oneida Co.") Rev. Ephraim Whitaker, D. D., has recently discovered that the Prince Talleyrand acted as agent, or manager, for this patent during his enforced exile to the U. S., in 1794-5.

He m. (1) Charity Floyd, sister of Col. William Floyd. She d. in 1785, without children. (See Floyd) His mother and his wife, Charity, accompanied him to Conn. He m. (2) Mary Catherine Havens, of Shelter Island,

The baptismal dates of his children were: William 4, Aug. 12, 1764; Henry 4, Mar. 17, 1765; Jerusha 4, Feb. 22, 1767; Spencer 4, Jan. 1, 1769; John 4 and Jemima 4 (twins), Apr. 18, 1773; Enoch 4, Dec. 9, 1770; Jason 4, June 16, 1776. His son, John 4, had a son, Charles 5, who was the father of Hon. Frederick 6 L'Hommedieu, of Deep River, Conn. (Hon. F. L'H.)

L'HOMMEDIEU MULFORD. ()—From Southampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

He may have been the Henry Mulford L'Hommedieu, eldest son of Nathaniel L'Hommedieu, mentioned in the will of William Mulford which was proved Aug. 6, 1773. (N. Y. Wills, Lib. 39. p. 509)

L'HOMMEDIEU SAMUEL 3, CAPT. (Sylvester 2, below, Benjamin 1; father of Sylvester, Jr., below, and brother of Grover, above)—From Sag Harbor to Saybrook and Middletown, in Sept., 1776, by Capts. Daniel Hale, Robert Knight, Ichabod Cole and Joseph Havens—his claim, and that of Capt. Joseph and Phebe Tillinghast, being receipted for by himself on Nov. 14, 1777. (C. 175) Capt. Zebulon Cooper had already, on Sept. 2, 1776, brought the members of his family from Sag Harbor to Saybrook. (C. 32) He was also at East Haddam. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 44) On May 23, 1780, he was permitted to carry to L. I. his son, Sylvester L'Hommedieu, Jr., and required to return. (F. 13. See, also, Sylvester, Jr., below) His commission as Lt., granted by Gov. Tryon, is now in the Library of the L. I. Hist'l Soc'y. He was a Capt. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2, 9); and in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6) On July 26, 1776, he responded with one-fourth of his Co. to guard the stock. (A. 4) He took part in the Battle of Long Island (Mr. W. S. Pelletreau); and, probably, served at Sag Harbor, in 1776. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) Certain claims of Refugees were paid to him. (C. 175, 176) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 521.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. Feb. 20, 1744; m. in 1774, Sarah, dau. of Charles White; d. Mar. 7, 1834. Mr. William S. Pelletreau states that, on Nov. 26, 1776, he m. Sarah, dau. of Ebenezer White, of Southampton; that she d. Nov. 18, 1822; and that both Capt. Samuel and Sarah are buried at Sag Harbor. He lived at Sag Harbor; and owned property there, in 1800. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He was a Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1801. (Civil List) He was not a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y in 1832. It was his son, Samuel, Jr. (Civil List) He was, for many years, a Justice of the Peace, at Sag Harbor, and was known as "Old Squire L'Hommedieu."

His will, dated June 20, 1830 (Book F. pp. 408 to 413), mentions his son Samuel, and two daughters, Betsey L'Hommedieu and Polly Gardner. In the codicil, he mentions his grandson Sylvester L. Fosdick. After his death, in 1834, the Surrogate's Record mentioned Charles, Anna M., William and Mary Fosdick, grandchildren of Samuel L'Hommedieu. All the following heirs appeared in court: Betsey L'Hommedieu, Polly Gardner, wife of John T. Gardner; Charles W. L'Hommedieu; Richard L'Hommedieu; Mary Long, wife of Jacob Long. (Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu)

The following information relative to the children of Capt. Samuel has been furnished by Miss Addie Sayre, Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu, Col. Joseph J. Slocum and Mallmann. ("Shelter Island," pp. 244, 310) (1) Sylvester, Jr. 4, the Refugee, below. (2) Charles 4, m. Apr. 24, 1800, Sarah Saterlee. He removed from Sag Harbor to Cincinnati, O., by horse and wagon, in 1804. Sam^l L'hommedieu

L'HOMMEDIEU SYLVESTER 2 (Benjamin 1; father of Grover, above, and Capt. Samuel, above)—From Southold to Conn., with his effects and two in the family, by Capt. John Vail, in Sept. and Oct., 1776. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He and his wife were probably the ones who were beaten by the raiders, in 1781. (Page 205)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years; 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) The second female was, probably, his dau., Elizabeth. He was b. Jan. 7, 1703; m. Elizabeth More; d., Mar. 9, 1788, and is buried at Southold. He was living on Shelter Island, in 1730. In 1732, he was Town Collector and Constable. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 39, 43) Mr. William S. Pelletreau states that he m. in 1737, Elizabeth Booth; and that he d. Mar. 9, 1783. Mr. Charles Collard Adams and Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu also state that he m. Elizabeth Booth, in 1737.

L'HOMMEDIEU SYLVESTER, JR., 4 (Son of Capt. Samuel, above)—From Sag Harbor to Saybrook and Middletown. That he was b. about 1771, is evident in the permission given to his father, May 23, 1780, to take him to L. I., he being nine years old at the time. (F. 13) In 1809, he was Port Warden of N. Y. City. (Civil List)

He m. Thankful ———. (Miss Addie Sayre) He d. s. p.

L'HOMMEDIEU WILLIAM 4 (Eldest son of Henry, above)—From Southold to Saybrook, where he was, in 1777. (A. 43) He was but 14 years old at that time, having been b. June 18, 1763. He m. Mercy Carter, and resided in Westbrook, Conn. He d. Nov. 20, 1841. His children were: William 5; Polly 5; Abigail 5; Anne 5 and Phebe 5, twins; Phebe 5; William 5; John 5; Carter 5; and Ellsworth 5. (Hon. Frederick L'Hommedieu)

LESTER—The emigrant to America was Joseph 1, who came from Eng. to Plymouth, Mass., in 1690. Daniel 2 was probably his son. He was b. Jan. 15, 1707; m. in 1738, Elizabeth Darrow, who was b. June 27, 1719. See Page 247 for the ancestor, Andrew 1.

LESTER SYLVESTER 3 (Daniel 2, Joseph 1)—From Southold to Lyme, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 19) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. at New London, Conn., May 8, 1740; m. Apr. 5, 1770, Mary, dau. of Capt. Thomas Moore. (See Moore) She was b. at Southold, Aug. 28, 1747. Their second son, Thomas Storrs 4, b. Nov. 11, 1781; m. Jan. 17, 1810, Mary Halsey, dau. of William Albertson. She was b. Oct. 5, 1788; d. Apr. 24, 1867. Thomas Storrs 4 was a brilliant lawyer, and the successor of Hon. Ezra L'Hommedieu. He was Dist. Att'y for the 1st Dist. (L. I. and Richmond Co.), 1815–1817; and a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1808, 1811, 1814 and 1817. (Civil List) He d. Sept. 13, 1817, aged 36. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 113)

LESTER THOMAS (Probably a son, or a nephew, of Sylvester, above)—From Southold. He was killed by a wad, at New London, between Nov. 1, 1776, and Oct. 1, 1778. (F. 110) He served in the 1st Line. (G. 43)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He m. Lucretia 4, dau. of Samuel 3 Beebe. (See Beebe) She was b. Dec. 29, 1732; d. Nov. 12, 1799. After the death of her husband she became a nurse. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 181, 200)

LEVERIDGE, or LEVERICH, GABRIEL, SERJT.—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 14, 25); and probably in Conn. (G. 93)

Possibly he was a descendant of Rev. William Leveridge or Leverich, who settled at Dover, N. H., in 1633; went thence to Sandwich, Mass.; to Huntington, L. I., in 1658; and to Newtown, L. I., in 1670. (H. 39) He had: Caleb and Eleazer—the former, only, having issue. (Thompson's "Long Island" 2. 143, 144) A Gabriel Leverich, m. Apr. 2, 1779, Hannah Thorpe. (Fairfield, Conn., Ch. Rec.) A Gabriel Leverich, d. about 1906, in Brooklyn, N. Y., aged about 70. (Mr. George C. Leverich)

LEWIS—John 1 had a son, Jonathan 2; and a grandson, John 3, of Long Swamp, Huntington, L. I.

LEWIS SAMUEL 4 (John 3, Jonathan 2, John 1)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 34); and probably in Conn. (G. 93) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

A Samuel, m. July 2, 1778-9, Abigail Waterbury. (Stamford-Darien, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

LISCOMB ISAAC (————)—From Southampton to Guilford, where he was on Mar. 6, 1777. (See receipt in Capt. Jonathan Bayley, Page 265) If he served in Col. Smith's Regt., he was b. about 1759. (G. 7, 30)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53) This refers to an older Isaac, perhaps father of the above.

LLOYD—The first of the name in America was James 1 who came to Boston, in 1673. He m. Grissel, dau. of Nathaniel Sylvester, the proprietor of Shelter Island. She was b. Aug. 12, 1654. (See Sylvester, in Dering) In his will, her friend, Latimer Sampson, left to her one-half of his estate of 3,000 acres on what is now Lloyd's Neck. All of the parties interested in the estate of Nathaniel Sylvester united in a quit-claim deed, to James Lloyd, of the Latimer Sampson property, on Lloyd's Neck—a facsimile of which appears in the "Mag. of Amer. Hist.," Nov., 1887. James 1 secured the other half by purchase; and, by becoming the proprietor, gave his name to the peninsula. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 293) James 1 had eleven children. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 177) Moore ("Index," p. 26) mentions Thomas 2, b. about 1673, as one of them.

SECOND LLOYD MANOR HOUSE, 1764—LLOYD'S NECK, L. I.

(From Schmidt's "Memoranda, &c.")

James 1 had a son, Henry 2, b. Nov. 28, 1685; m. (1) Nov. 23, 1708, Rebecca (b. Nov. 15, 1688, d. July 27, 1728), dau. of John Nelson, of Boston; m. (2) Mary ———, (d. Nov. 10, 1749). He d. Mar. 18, 1763. His children were b. on Lloyd's Neck; except Henry 3 and John 3. Henry 2 devised the estate of Lloyd's Neck to his surviving sons, Henry 3, John 3, James 3 and Joseph 3; the first of whom, by espousing the Royal cause in the Revolution, lost his portion by confiscation, which was purchased from the Commissioners of Forfeitures, by his nephew John 4. (Thompson's "Long Island," I. 492-494)

The children of Henry 2 were: Henry 3, m. ——— Hutchinson, removed to Nova Scotia; John 3, below; Margaret 3, m. William Henry 3 (Col. Henry 2, Col. William 1—Tangier) Smith, of St. George's Manor (See Smith); James 3; Joseph 3, below; Rebecca 3, b. Oct. 31, 1718, m. Melancthon Taylor Woolsey (See Woolsey); Elizabeth 3; William 3; Nathaniel 3; and James 3. (Thompson, as above)

LLOYD JOHN 3, LT. (Henry 2, James 1; brother of Joseph, below; father of John, Jr., below)—From Huntington. He served in the 3d Line (G. 46); also in the 4th Line, it being stated that he served, Nov. 21, 1776, to May 24, 1778, and that he was in Litchfield Co., Conn. (G. 47, 48. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 218) He served in the 1st Dutchess Minute Men ("Archives," p. 284); for which place he had been recommended Feb. 13, 1776. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) He was Judge of the County Court of Queens Co., 1781-1795. (Civil List)

He was in the Town Rec. of Stamford, Conn., in 1727—wherein the births of these children are given: Henry 4, July 22, 1743; John 4, below, Feb. 22, 1744; Rebecca 4, Jan. 2, 1746-7; Abigail 4, Feb. 13, 1750; Sarah 4, July 2, 1763. His wife was Sarah ———. He held several prominent offices during the Revolutionary War. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 187, 188)

He was b. Feb. 19, 1710-11; d. Apr. 10, 1795. (Lloyd Family Tablet) He m. Sarah, dau. of Rev. Benjamin Woolsey. (See Woolsey) His son, Henry 4, d. a bachelor, Jan. 22, 1825; and his part of the estate was afterward purchased by his nephew, John Nelson 5. His dau., Rebecca 4, m. John Broome, afterward Lt. Gov. of the State of N. Y. (See Broome, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City") His dau., Abigail 4, m. Dr. James Cogswell. His dau., Sarah 4, m. James Hillhouse, of New Haven. (Thompson, as above)

LLOYD JOHN, JR., 4 (Son of Lt. John, above);—From Huntington to Hartford, with his family, in 1776. On Feb. 28, 1781, he petitioned for relief from a tax upon his stock and a poll tax; which was granted. He stated that he expected to be taxed on his return to L. I. (Page 194. Also E. 137, 138) From Danbury, on Jan. 12, 1782, he asked permission to go to L. I. to collect debts due to him, and to bring back 1,000 bushels of salt; which was granted. (E. 139) He was a Regent of the N. Y. University, 1784-1787. (Civil List) About 1786, he sued the estate of Benjamin Conkling for trespass. (B. 25)

He was about 30 years old when the Revolution began; and having, in 1780, become entitled to a part of the Neck, by devise from his uncle Joseph, he suffered much in his property by the enemy, who kept possession of the Neck during the War. He received an appointment in the Commissariat, the very responsible duties of which he discharged with a fidelity which met the approbation of the Commander-in-Chief. On his return to his farm, in 1783, he m. Amelia, dau. of Rev. Ebenezer White, of Danbury, Conn. The office of Judge of Queens Co. was tendered to him by Gov. Jay; which, from his love of retirement, he declined. His children were: John Nelson 5, b. Dec. 30, 1783; Angelina 5, b. Sept. 12, 1785; and Mary Amelia 5, b. Feb. 19, 1791. Angelina 5, m. where he d. in 1658. He m. Susannah ————. His son, Joseph 2, b. Aug. 6, 1638; m. ———— Beacham; d. Apr. 14, 1717. He had a son, Joseph 3, of whom no particulars are given. Son of Joseph 3, John 4, b. July 1, 1713; m. Feb. 8, 1730-1, Abigail Morehouse. (Lockwood Gen. See also Page 247)

LOCKWOOD EPHRAIM 5, LT. (John 4, Joseph 3, 2, Robert 1; probably brother of Serjt. John, below)—There is doubt as to his being a Refugee, although he served as Lt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. which contained many Refugees. (G. 10) He probably served, also, in Conn. (G. 93); and may have served as Capt. in the 3d and 4th Westchester. (G. 79, 80)

He was b., Jan. 4, 1741; m. (1) ————, (2) Susannah Lockwood. He removed from Conn. to the State of N. Y. (Lockwood Gen.)

LOCKWOOD JOHN 5, SERJT. (John 4, Joseph 3, 2, Robert 1; probably brother of Lt. Ephraim, above)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); possibly, in the 5th Line and in Weissenfels' Levies (G. 49, 57); and probably in Conn. (G. 93) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was b. Oct. 12, 1736. His son, Reuben 6, b. in Western Conn., Apr. 17, 1762. (Lockwood Gen.)

LOPER—Those of this name in America are said to have descended from Lyon, or Leon, de Lopez, a Spaniard who came from the W. Indies. He had a son, Samuel Loper, who served in the French War; and a grandson, Samuel Fyler Loper, who served in the Rev'y War. They settled at Guilford, Conn., before the latter War; but there is a family tradition that Samuel and two of his brothers came from L. I. Samuel, the first, had a son David. Samuel Fyler Loper had two daughters, and sons: Henry, Horace, Edward and Samuel. Henry was my father. (Prof. S. Ward Loper)

Lion Loper moved to North Guilford, Conn., from East Hampton, L. I., about 1745. From him are descended, James Douglas Loper, of Guilford, Conn., and his son, Charles D. Loper, of Chicago. (Mr. John H. Loper)

Samuel Fyler Loper was probably not of Spanish origin. The East Hampton Ch. Recs. give, Nov. 19, 1718, marriage of Samuel Filer to Joanna Loper. She was probably a dau. of Lion Loper; but might have been Joanna, dau. of James and Elizabeth Loper, b. Feb. 6, 1688. (Boston City Recs.) James seems to have been in Boston, and at Cape Cod, after 1684. (J. H. L.)

Isaac Loper, of Bridge Hampton (b. in 1743, d. in 1812), mentions in his will sons: Jason, Jared, David and Luther. He gives land to Jared; "also my great Bible." Jason and Jared, lived near him, and inherited the Farms. David moved to Noyac; and Luther, to Islip. My father, Isaac, b. Oct. 25, 1810, was son of Luther; son of Isaac, of Bridge Hampton. A grand dau. of Jared, Mrs. Mary Frances Osborn, lives at Derby, Conn. (J. H. L.)

Capt. Jacob 1 was from Holland, and a Member of the Council of New Amsterdam. In 1646, he m. Cornelia, dau. of Cornelius Melyn, and had: Jacob 2, Janneken 2, and perhaps others. In 1653, his Wid. m. Jacob Schelinger. (Col. Hist. N. Y. Also N. Amsterdam Dutch Ref. Ch. Rec.) James 2 (probably the Jacob 2, above, as the names are used interchangeably in the East Hampton Town Rec.), m. in 1674, Elizabeth, dau. of Arthur Howell, and grand dau. of Lyon Gardiner. He had: Lyon 3, who is in the East Hampton Town Rec., 1696-1736; Arthur 3; and perhaps others. At this point a generation has probably been omitted; so that we have—James 5, of East Hampton, b. about 1717, d. in 1790. He had: Daniel 6; William 6; Amos 6; James 6, below; and Abraham 6, below. Daniel 6 signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 28); and he was in the Census of 1776, with two males over 16 years old, one of whom was probably David 7, below. (Dr. Arthur C. Loper)

Dr. Loper states, further, that Capt. Jacob 1 came from Stockholm, Sweden; that, at one time, he was stationed at Caracoo Islands, W. I.; that he came to New Amsterdam, before 1642; and that he was a Lt. Capt. in the service of the Dutch W. I. Co. Arthur 4 [See the next paragraph, below] had sons: John 5, James 5 and Isaac 5. Isaac 5 had sons: Luther 6, David 6, Jared 6 and Jason 6.

Arthur 3, son of James 2, of East Hampton, m. Patience, dau. of George Havens and Elinor Thurston. He removed to N. J. The fact that he had relatives living there may have influenced his moving. He was in Elizabethtown, in 1700. (N. J. Recs.) The will of Arthur, of Salem Co., mentions, wife Patience; children, David 4, Arthur 4, Thurston 4, John 4, James 4, William 4, Jonathan 4 and Phebe 4. All except David were under age. The land was in Piles Grove Precinct. The will proved, June 13, 1720. This gives us the fourth gen., through Arthur. I know of no record to establish the tradition that Arthur returned to L. I.; m. Sally Rogers; moved onto land North of Bridge Hampton, and probably established the branch of the Family there. The Bridge Hampton Ch. Recs. give brothers and sisters: John, James, Isaac, Patience and Mary. We assume them to be children of Arthur 4 and Sally Rogers. (J. H. L.)

LOPER ABRAHAM 6, SERJT. (Son of James 5; brother of James, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 97, 138) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served as a private and as a Serjt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); in the 3d and 4th of the Line (G. 46, 48); also, as a Serjt., in the 4th Line. (G. 47) He probably returned to L. I. (Dr. A. C. L.)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. about 1737. (G. 31)

LOPER DAVID 7 (Son of David 6, above)—Probably from East Hampton to Stonington. He is mentioned as a soldier who was brought over, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He returned to L. I. (Dr. A. C. L.)

LOPER JAMES 6 (Son of James 5; brother of Serjt. Abraham, above)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); also in the 4th Line. (G. 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 28)

He was b. about 1737. (G. 31)

LUDLAM—LUDLOW—LUDLUM—The name was spelled Ludlam until about the time of the Revolution; but since that time it has been spelled Ludlow. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 339)

I am satisfied that Ludlam is the only name they can rightfully claim. Ludlow is a Family of an altogether different origin. It is well understood, in Bridge Hampton, when and why they changed Ludlam into Ludlow. It was simply the freak of a schoolmaster, who had better have been in other business. (Mr. Addison M. Cook)

In the Western part of L. I., the name is still Ludlam; except that, in Jamaica and Hempstead, the name is spelled Ludlum. See Riker's "Newtown," p. 20; also Liber A., p. 166, County Clerk's Office, Jamaica—for early instances. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

The Family of Ludlow should be considered briefly before passing on to Ludlam; especially as Ludlow will be found in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

I think that Roger Ludlow, Dep'y Gov. of Mass. and Conn., must have been a brother of Edmund the Regicide; and when Goffe and his companion were about to enter Fairfield to escape arrest, Roger thought best to escape as "It is said Goffe saw a face in church that he thought he knew" (seeing a resemblance to his fellow Regicide Edmund). As Roger wished to change his name, I think it was quite natural for him to take Williams, or William, and Ludlam in place of Ludlow. Edmund's father was Sir Henry; and William's son was Henry, and grandson also, which looks as though Roger's father's name may have been Henry. I do not know that Roger Ludlow's place of hiding was ever known unless this is the solution. It has been stated that William 1 repeatedly urged his eldest son, William 2, to return to England and claim inheritance. But nothing ever came of it. William 1 was evidently afraid to return; and William 2 may have been afraid, also. (Dr. Charles L. Squire. See also Russell)

Roger Ludlow was a son of Thomas, of Wiltshire, Eng. Thomas was great uncle to Lt. Gen. Edmond Ludlow the Regicide. Roger m. the sister of Gov. Endicott. She d. in England. His dau., Sarah, m. Rev. Nathaniel Brewster. (See Brewster) He had an elder brother, Gabriel; and a younger brother, George. (N. Y. Gen'l & Biog'l Rec., 27, 2, 3)

Returning, now, to Ludlam—The family connection, in England, is uncertain; and there is no trace in the New England Records of William 1 Ludlam, who came from Matlock, Derbyshire, to Southampton. His name is not on the list of 1649; but his sons are on the list of 1657. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 339)

William 1 had a wife, Clemence, sister of Rev. Robert Fordham. He d. in 1665, at Southampton. Of his sons: William 2, b. in 1628; d. in 1667-8.

He lived in Huntington at the time of his father's death. He had a son, John 3. (N. Y. Gen'l & Biog'l Rec., 15. 93) Joseph 2, lived at Watermill, in 1665; thence to Oyster Bay, in 1675; and thence to N. J. Henry 2 had a son, William 3, who d. in 1732; also a son, Henry 3, whose son, Henry 4, of Bridge Hampton, d. in 1761. A dau. of Henry 3, Rachel 4, m. Thomas Squier, and removed to N. J. (See Squire) Anthony 2 had a son, Anthony 3; and a grandson, Anthony 4. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 339)

John 3, b. in 1653; m. a dau. of Nehemiah Smith, of Jamaica; d. there, in 1707. He had sons: William 4, b. at Southampton, in 1653 (1683?), d. Mar. —, 1732; and Henry 4, d. Dec. —, 1749. (Dr. Charles H. Ludlum)

LUDLAM ———. —In 1780, Capt. Samuel Lockwood took him from L. I. (F. 122)

LUDLAM ANTHONY 5 (Anthony 4, 3, 2, William 1)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212) It is stated, in the East Hampton Town Rec., that Anthony Ludlam, of Southampton, entered his cattle for pasturing on Montauk; also that, in 1740, Samuel Ludlam did the same thing. The East Hampton Ch. Rec. has this entry: "1713—Old Mrs. Ludlam died." Samuel was a brother of Anthony; and the death recorded may have been that of their mother, Wid. of Anthony 4. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Anthony 5 signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. ———; m. Elizabeth ———; d. in 1809. He had: Capt. Anthony 6, who m. Abigail, dau. of Jesse Halsey, and d. Nov. 12, 1843; Elias 6; Mary 6, m. ——— Rose; Hannah 6, m. ——— Halsey; Zerviah 6, m. ——— Cook; Elizabeth 6; Jerusha 6; Puah 6; Abraham 6; and Bilgah 6. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 340)

LUDLAM GEORGE, CORP. (————)—Probably from East Hampton. On Sept. 14, 1782, he was permitted to go to L. I. to assist his father in removing his family to Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y., by way of Conn. (F. 60) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); also in the 4th Line. (G. 46)

LUDLAM STEPHEN 5 (Henry 4, 3, 2, William 1)—From Bridge Hampton.

Stephen Ludlam

His father was known as "Henry, of Bridgehampton." Stephen was a Refugee. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

LUDLAM WILLIAM 4, CAPT. (Either William 3, Henry 2, William 1; or Henry 3, 2, William 1. If the latter, he was a brother of Rachel 4, who m. Thomas Squier)—From Jamaica. He was in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 21, 27, 36); and was at Brooklyn before the Battle of L. I. (Page 41) A private of this name served in the Line, Canadian Regt. (G. 52); and in the Ass'd Exempts of Orange. (G. 76) On Dec. 2, 1776, he was given a Commission, as Capt. (Jour. Committee of Safety); and, on Dec. 31, by the Convention. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On Dec. 16, 1776, the Committee of Safety ordered that he should be paid for his services. (A. 23)

If he belonged to Bridge Hampton, as was claimed by Hon. Henry P. Hedges, the Census of 1776 showed: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 4. (A. 54) He signed the Association, in 1775, and 1776. (H. 9, 12)

He was probably William 6 (William 5, 4, John 3, William 2, 1) Ludlum, known as William, Jr., of Jamaica. He was b. Oct. 5, 1746; d. Nov. 22, 1816. He was appointed Capt. after a letter to the N. Y. Prov'l Cong., dated July 26, 1776, from Joseph Robinson and Noah Smith of the Queens Co. Committee of Safety. He succeeded John J. Skidmore, who had been promoted to Maj. His Company was made up of men from Jamaica, and vicinity. It originally belonged to Col. John Sand's Regt. of Militia; but, later, was transferred to Col. Josiah Smith's Regt. What service this Company rendered, I cannot tell; though I think it acted as a patrol on the beaches. In his Company, was Nehemiah Ludlum, perhaps a younger brother of Capt. William, b. in July, 1751, d. June 18, 1827; also Nicholas Ludlum, who evidently d. before the pay roll was completed. (Dr. Charles H. Ludlum. See also G. 27)

LYON HENRY, CORP. ()—Probably from Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 18, 35); and possibly in Conn. (G. 93)

He was probably a descendant of Richard, of Fairfield, Conn. (Dr. A. B. Lyons. Mr. Sidney E. Lyon) He may have been a descendant of Thomas, brother of Richard. Henry, another brother of Richard, was of Newark, N. J. (Dr. A. B. L.)

A Henry Lyons, from Brookhaven, refused to sign the Association, in 1775. (H. 22)

McCALLUM DUNCAN—From Bridge Hampton to Chester. In Sept., 1776, with six passengers, he was taken from Sag Harbor to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He may have been a brother of Mallom, or Malcom, Maccolum, of Southampton, who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 30) He may have been the Duncan McConnell who stated that he had deserted from the enemy, and was confined as a disaffected person. He petitioned for a hearing. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He served in Conn. (G. 94)

On May 19, 1779, Capt. Nehemiah Seelye complained to the Comm'rs of Conspiracies of Albany Co., that Duncan McConelly had spoken disrespectfully of the Cong. of the U. S. His testimony was confirmed. (Minutes of the Comm'rs, pp. 344, 345, 348)

McCLOSKEY—The members of this Family came to America from County Derry, Ireland. Henry McClosky was champion of the Ribbonmen as against the Orangemen. For the sake of peace, nearly all of his children emigrated. One of them, a farrier, was on Washington's Body Guard. Two others settled in Brooklyn—one, the father of Cardinal McClosky; the other, the father of Henry, the first editor of the present "Brooklyn Eagle." Two others settled in Philadelphia and Pittsburg, respectively, where they have descendants now. Still another, my ancestor, settled in N. Y. City where all of his children were born. It is possible that the L. I. branch came from Thomas, father of the Cardinal. (Mr. J. J. McClosky)

McCLOSKEY, or McCLOSSEY, BETTY, MRS.—From L. I. to Ridgefield. On Nov. 2, 1780, she was allowed to go to L. I. with five children, clothing &c. (F. 25)

McCLUER JAMES—From Southold to Hartford; from whence, on May 26, 1781, he petitioned that he might remove his family and merchandise from L. I. to Conn. He stated that he had been liable to plunder by both sides on L. I. (E. 148, 149) Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 102) gives his name in a list of those who had been robbed.

The "Year Book, N. Y. Sons of Rev'n."—1909, page 534, has James McClure (b. in 1727, d. in 1796), Adj't., Col. Long's N. H. Mil., Sept. 25, 1776; Capt.-Lt., Lamb's 2d Cont'l Art'y, Jan. 1, 1777; transferred to Col. Proctor's 4th Cont'l Art'y; Capt. Apr. 19, 1781—July 15, 1783.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. _____; m. _____

Abigail _____; d. Dec. 9, 1786. His wife d. Oct. 8, 1778. His dau., Elizabeth, bapt. Aug. —, 1756; son, James, Jr., Sept. 2, 1759; dau., Abigail, Dec. 2, 1761. His son, James, Jr., d. Sept. 8, 1784. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

James McCluer

McDANIEL, or McDONALD, WILLIAM—He was a lad employed by Mrs. Catharine Hazard, and went with her from Newtown, L. I. to Fishkill, N. Y. (A. 28. See also Hazard) It is possible that he served in the 1st Line. (G. 43)

McFARREN THOMAS—From L. I. to Norwich. After the capture of Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell, on Nov. 3, 1781, he was appointed to continue their work of procuring money on loan, and clothing for the Line. Capt. Thomas Grinnell was associated with him. (Pages 94, 96. Also E. 192. Also Clinton Pap., 7. 528, 529) From Norwich, on Dec. 29, 1781, he wrote to Gov. Clinton that he had moved his goods to Norwich by permission; and that the goods had been detained. He, therefore, asked for a letter to the Authorities of Conn. (Clinton Pap., 7. 627-8) Possibly he was the one who petitioned the Senate of N. Y., Mar. 14, 1785, to refund certain quit rents in N. Y. City. (B. 21)

MARVIN—The ancestors of this name were Capt. Reignold 1 and, by tradition, his younger brother, Matthew 1. Capt. Reignold is said to have arrived in Boston about 1634; thence to Hartford and to Farmington, by 1639. Thence he removed to Lyme, Conn., where he d., in 1662. His well-preserved tombstone has this inscription: "This Deacon Aged 68—is Freed on Earth from serving—May for a Crown no longer wait—Lyme's Captain Renold Marvin".

Capt. Reignold's only son, Lt. Reinold 2, b. about 1633-4; m. about 1663, Sarah, dau. of George Clark, of Milford. He held important civil offices beside being Lt. of the Train Band at Lyme. He d. in 1676. He had five children, of whom: Dea. Samuel 3, b. in 1671; m. May 5, 1699, Mary Graham; d. in 1743. He had ten children, of whom: Thomas 4, b. Mar. 4, 1704, m. Mehitable Goodrich, d. about 1763; and Capt. Matthew 4, b. Nov. 7, 1706, m. in 1732, Mary Beckwith, d. Dec. 25, 1760. (Salisbury's Gen. 3—Part 1.

pp. 88, 104-106, 109, 112-114, 117, 123, 127, 140, 141)

Matthew 1 came to Boston, and thence to Hartford, in 1635; thence to Norwalk, in 1650. He was b. about 1600; d. about 1680. He m. (1) Elizabeth ———; (2)

Mrs. Alice Kellogg. He had eight children, among whom: Matthew 2, b. about 1627; m. Mary ———; d. in 1712.

Among the sons of Matthew 2 was John 3, b. Sept. 2, 1678; m. (1) Mar. 22, 1704, Mary Beers, (2) Apr. 27, 1721, Rachel St. John. John 3 had several children, among whom were: Lt. John, Jr. 4, the Refugee, below; and Gen. Elihu 4. The latter was b. Oct. 10, 1719; m. Abigail Yelverton; d. Aug. 17, 1803. He resided at Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y.; and served as Col. and Brig.

CAPT. REIGNOLD MARVIN, LYME, CONN.

(Photographed specially for this work)

Gen. in the Rev'y War. (Salisbury, as above, pp. 88-92, 97, 98, 103, and Ped. Chart. Supplemented by Mr. D. H. Van Hoosear)

Robert 1, of Southampton, m. Mary Browne; settled at Hempstead, in 1650; d. about 1683. His son, John 2, m. Hannah, dau. of John Smith. Robert 3, son of John 2, m. Phebe ———. John 4, son of Robert 3, b. in 1722; m. in 1755, Mary Smith. He had: Jacob 5, Sarah 5, John 5, Phebe 5, Mary 5 and Susanna 5. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies")

Robert [perhaps Robert 1, above] and his brother, John, came from England to Hempstead, date unknown. Sons of Robert: John, b. Aug. 24, 1733; Jacob, b. Oct. 18, 1755, m. Mary Peters. Jacob's children: Robert, b. Aug. 12, 1781, m. Ann Tredwell, no children; Jane P., b. Nov. 6, 1790, not m.; Mary, b. Dec. 30, 1793, not m. and Harry P. Harry P., b. Oct. 22, 1799; m. Pellatiah Williams; had six children, of whom two survive—Robert, of Rockville Center, L. I., b. Nov. 14, 1849; and Richard, of Port Washington, L. I., b. Nov. 14, 1853. John, brother of Robert (and son of Jacob above), had a son Henry, or Harry, who lived in Hempstead. Arabella, dau. of Henry, now lives in Brooklyn. (Mr. Robert Marvin)

MARVIN BENJAMIN 5, CAPT. (Lt. John, Jr. 4, below, John 3, Matthew 2, 1; brother of Adj. Ephraim, below)—From Brookhaven to Norwalk, with his father, Lt. John, Jr. On Feb. 5, 1780, he petitioned for an exemption from taxes, which was granted. (Page 188. Also E. 111, 112) As a Lt., on Jan. 4, 1777, he wrote from Ft. Montgomery certifying to the good conduct of Lt. Benjamin Titus (A. 29); and, on Jan. 5, 1777, he wrote from the same place asking for the pay of a Capt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was commissioned as 2d Lt., June 29, 1775 (G. 1); and served as Lt. in Capt. Griffin's Co., in 1775-6 (Jour. Prov'l Cong.); in the 3d Line (G. 45, 46); and, as Lt. and Capt., in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 6. (A. 51) He was b. at Wilton, Conn., Sept. 30, 1737; m. Mehitable Marvin; d. June —, 1822. Mehitable 5 (Thomas 4, Dea. Samuel 3, Lt. Reinold 2, Capt. Reignold 1, sister of Matthew, below), b. Nov. 19, 1738; d. Sept. 25, 1810. Among the sons of Capt. Benjamin, who probably went with him to Norwalk, were: Benjamin, Jr. 6, b. Nov. 17, 1762, served in the Cont'l Army, removed to Charlton, Saratoga Co., N. Y., and d. there aged 95; and Thomas 6, who removed to Alburgh, Vt., and has many descendants in Northern Vt. (Salisbury, as above, pp. 99, 141)

MARVIN EPHRAIM 5, ADJT. (Lt. John, Jr. 4, below, John 3, Matthew 2, 1; brother of Capt. Benjamin, above)—From Brookhaven to Norwalk with his father, Lt. John, Jr., below. On Feb. 5, 1780, he petitioned for an exemption from taxes, which was granted. (E. 111, 112) In Apr., 1780, he was still at Norwalk. (E. 111) He was, apparently, a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and, on Apr. 4, 1776, was appointed Adj. (G. 4. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was a Prisoner, Dec. 6, 1776, to May 8, 1778. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt." p. 43. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n." p. 545) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18)

He took the Census of Brookhaven, in 1776, wherein he appears: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 51)

He was b. Dec. 26, 1745. His son, Ephraim 6, b. Apr. 1, 1766; m. May 3, 1779, Mercy Sears; d. Oct. 13, 1810. (D. H. Van H.)

MARVIN JOHN, JR., 4, LT. (John 3, Matthew 2, 1; father of Capt. Benjamin, above, and Adj. Ephraim, above)—From Brookhaven to Norwalk. On Oct. 11, 1782, he was allowed to go to L. I. after his family of eight persons, their apparel, &c. (F. 63) It is probable that his title came through the French War. One of his name served as a private in the 3d Westchester (G. 79); also, as a Serjt., in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18)

He was b. July 22, 1705; m. Abigail, dau. of Samuel 4 St. John. He lived at Wilton, Conn.; in 1748, removed to Sharon, Conn.; and, in 1770, with his family, to Brookhaven, where he d. Aug. 25, 1775—one account says 1783. (Salisbury, as above, p. 98) The latter date of his death is correct, if he was the Refugee. He had 14 children.

A younger John, perhaps son of the above—Brookhaven Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 51)

MARVIN MATTHEW 5 (Thomas 4, Dea. Samuel 3, Lt. Reinold 2, Capt. Reignold 1; brother of Mehitable who m. Capt. Benjamin, above)—From Brookhaven. He served in the 2d Line (G. 44); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and he may have served in the 6th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n." p. 108) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 25)

He was b. at Simsbury, Conn., on June 7, 1754. After the death of his father, in 1763, he made his home with his sister at Brookhaven. He took part in the Battles of Brandywine, Trenton and Monmouth; and was one of the 68 men selected to storm the redoubt at Yorktown. About 1784, he m. Mary Weed, of New Canaan, Conn.; removed to Walton, Delaware Co., N. Y., and d. there, Sept. 2, 1846. He had six children. Many of his descendants are now in Walton, or its vicinity. (Salisbury, as above, pp. 140, 141)

MARVIN SETH 5, CAPT. (Gen. Elihu 4, John 3, Matthew 2, 1; own cousin of Capt. Benjamin, above, and Adj. Ephraim, above)—From Brookhaven to Norwalk, where he was in 1780. (E. 32) He came from Huntington. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18) He served as Capt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt.

(G. 10); in the 1st and 4th Orange (G. 72, 75); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79) His service in Orange Co. may have been because his father had already moved, or was about to move, to Blooming Grove. (Salisbury, as above, p. 103) His rank as Col. probably came after the War. One of his name served as a Lt. in the 4th Line (G. 48); and, as a private, in the 3d Line (G. 46), and in the 1st Orange. (G. 72) He may have served in Conn. (G. 94)

His name appears as Capt. and Surveyor in the Ulster Co. Patents. (Rev'y MSS., Vol. 27, State Lib'y, Albany, N. Y.)

Seth marvin

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 51)

Another Seth 5 (Capt. Matthew 4, Dea. Samuel 3, Lt. Reinold 2, Capt. Reignold 1; cousin of Mehitable, above, and Matthew, above), b. July 12, 1733; was in the Rev'y service; d. in 1776, or 1777. (Salisbury, as above, p. 142) This Seth was probably not the Refugee.

MASTEN BARENT—From Cow Neck. He belonged to James Brown's crew; and was a Refugee, living at Stamford, Conn., in Dec., 1782. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 59)

MATTHEWS ELIAS (Probably son of Timothy, below)—From Southampton to Haddam and E. Haddam with his father. In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 44) He was at Haddam, Jan. 9, 1779, on which date he authorized Lt. Arnold Hazelton to collect Timothy Matthews' claim for expenses of removal. (C. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He was a Drum Maj. in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 30); and he was evidently on good terms with Col. Smith. (G. 39) He may have served in Conn. (G. 94)

Elias Matthews

MATTHEWS TIMOTHY (Probably father of Elias, above)—From Southampton, E. Dist. (probably Sag Harbor), to Haddam and E. Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, one passenger and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Elijah Mason (C. 98); same month, and Oct. 21, with seven passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capts. Charles Williams, John Wilson and Robert Knight; and, on Jan. 9, 1779, his claim was paid to Lt. Arnold Hazelton. (C. 99) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Timothy Matthews

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

MERRILL CHARLES ()—From L. I. to Hartford; whence, on Mar. 6, 1782, he asked for leave to go to L. I. to bring off furniture belonging to his wife. (F. 51)

MILLER—John 1 was early in East Hampton. He probably had sons: John 2, Andrew 2 and George 2. The latter had: John 3, George 3 and Jeremiah 3. John 3 had: Daniel 4, who had, John, Sr., 5, the Refugee, below, and Timothy 5. George 3 had: Nathan 4, who had Uriah 5. Jeremiah 2 had: Josiah 4; Eleazer 4; and Jeremiah 4, removed to New London, Conn., and prominent there. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 305-309) See Page 248.

Andrew 2 had: Andrew 3, who had William 4. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 309-311) Andrew 2 was the first settler in what is now called Miller's Place, in Brookhaven. In 1693, he was a Delegate to the Convention of the English Towns of L. I. which met to confer with the Dutch Commanders. He is probably the one mentioned by Moore ("Index," pp. 101, 102) who m. Margaret —; removed to Miller's Place; d. before 1720. His tombstone states that he d. in 1725, aged 85. (Mr. Elihu S. Miller)

MILLER ABRAHAM 5, JUDGE (Eleazer 4, Jeremiah 3, George 2, John 1; brother of Burnet, below)—From East Hampton to Saybrook and Hartford. In Sept., 1776, he was moved to Saybrook by Capts. James Harris and Charles Williams; and, in Oct., to Hartford, with four passengers, by Capts. Daniel Hale, Recompeance Sherrill and Benjamin King, Jr. (C. 100) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) One of his name served as Lt. in the 2d Westchester (G. 78); and as a private in Pawling's Levies (G. 61); the 1st Orange (G. 72); and the 1st, 2d and 3d Westchester. (G. 77, 78, 79)

He was Supervisor of the Town for ten years; Town Clerk, in 1792; a Justice of the Peace for several years, and commonly called "Judge." He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1796-1798, and 1800-1802. (Civil List)

He was b. in 1725; d. in 1802. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) Hedges ("East Hampton," p. 306) states that he was b. Jan. 16, 1742; d. Mar. 19, 1820, aged 77. Also that his children were daughters.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) None of his descendants are at East Hampton now.

An Abraham, perhaps of the Brookhaven branch, m. Mar. 7, 1797, Sarah Akerly. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

Abraham Miller

MILLER BURNET 5 (Eleazer 4, Jeremiah 3, George 2, John 1; brother of Judge Abraham, above)—From East Hampton to Stonington. He was moved over from Sag Harbor, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Isaac Sheffield (C. 212); in Oct., by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton (C. 214); and, in Sept. and Nov., with fourteen passengers, by Capts. Amos Pendleton, John Miner, Peleg Pendleton, Hubbard Latham and Nathaniel Barns. (C. 101) He was at Stonington, Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79) These statements contradict the assertion that he did not go to Conn., but retired within the American Lines. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

He was Supervisor of the Town of East Hampton, 1746-1777; Justice of the Peace, in 1763; Town Clerk, 1746-1777; and acted as such, in 1774, when he was appointed on the Committee of Correspondence for the Town. (H. 1) He was Chairman of the Committees of East Hampton and Southampton, July 5, 1775; and, as such, he asked for Troops to prevent the capture of stock (Page 27. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.); and, same year, he was on a Committee, at Sag Harbor, relative to cannon and ammunition. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 17. Also, Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He may have been in Dutchess Co., N. Y., in July, 1778, when one of his name was robbed of goods; which were taken from the robber by Capt. Jacob De Forest, who was ordered to return them to the owner. ("Minutes of Comm'r's Conspiracies, Albany Co.," p. 246)

He was a Delegate to the 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses. (A. 58, 59) He was on the Committee of Safety in both Congresses. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.," p. 134) On Aug. 27, 1776, he was appointed on a sub-Committee of the Committee of Safety to report upon the sale of cattle on Long and Shelter Islands (A. 10); and, on Jan. 17, 1777, he was on a similar sub-Committee to report upon the expenses of bringing the Refugees from L. I. to Conn., and to inquire as to the delivery of arms and ammunition at Fishkill. (A. 30) The claims of several of the Refugees were paid to him. (Page 189) He was a Member of the Constitutional Convention, of 1777; and a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1777-1783. (B. 43-48)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. Oct. 15, 1719; m. (1) Elizabeth, dau. of John 4. Huntting. (See Huntting) She was a sister of the wife of Jeremiah, below. He m. (2) Lucretia Conklin. He d. in 1783. He had sons: Dr. John 6, and Dr. Matthias Burnet 6, below.

MILLER DAVID 6 (Timothy 5, Daniel 4, John 3, George 2, John 1; brother of Elisha, below, and Peleg, below)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 31); and probably in Conn. (G. 94) He was on the Privateer "Trumbull." (Page 218) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

The Census of 1776 showed that he was under 50 years old; that he had no wife; and that he had a son over 16 years old. David, Jr., 7, also under 50 years old; with two females over 16 years old. (A. 52)

The Miller Gen. states that there was a David 6, son of Timothy, who lived at The Fire Place. The East Hampton Ch. Rec. says that he was b. in 1738; d. in 1824. He had seven children, b. 1779-1797. The David Miller, in Col. Smith's Regt., was 19 years old in 1776; and hence must have been b. about 1757. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

MILLER EBENEZER 5, CAPT. (William 4, Andrew 3, 2, John 1)—From Brookhaven. On Sept. 5, 1775, he was chosen Capt. of the 2d Brookhaven Co. in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1. Also Mil. Ret., 26. 81, 84) He may have served in Conn. (G. 94) He was on the Privateer "Trumbull." (Page 218) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 23) In 1781, a raid upon his house was made; and his son, William 6, was killed. (Page 204)

He was b. June 13, 1737; m. Sarah, dau. of Capt. Benaiah Strong (see Strong); d. Nov. 15, 1785. She was b. June 14, 1740; d. Feb. 18, 1836. His children were: Isaac 6, b. Oct. 26, 1761, m. Eliza Cleaves, d. July 2, 1814; Martha 6, b. Feb. 9, 1763, m. Nathaniel Miller; Charity 6, d. y.; William 6 (mentioned above), b. Apr. 15, 1766; Charity 2d 6, d. y.; Clarissa 6, b. Sept. 15, 1772, m. Samuel Brown, d. May 11, 1812; and Benajah Strong 6, b. Jan. 11, 1774, m. Sarah Conkling, d. June 19, 1813. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 310, 311)

MILLER ELISHA 6 (Timothy 5, Daniel 4, John 3, George 2, John 1; brother of David, above, and Peleg, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington (C. 204); and, in Sept. and Nov., 1776, with five passengers, by Capts. Budington, Samuel Beebe and Isaac Sheffield. (C. 102) He served in the 2d Line (G. 44); in the 5th Line (G. 49); and probably in Conn. (G. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. in 1749; d. in 1820. He always lived at "The Springs." He was a man of affairs, and the g.-grandfather of George A. Miller, the present Supervisor of the Town. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He m. Abigail Tuthill, and had: Temperance 7, m. Nathaniel Dominy; Elisha 7, d. y.; Dr. Nathaniel 7, of Brookhaven; Barnabas 7; Catharine 7; Tuthill 7; Cynthia 7; and Asa 7. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 308)

MILLER HUNTING 6 (Jeremiah 5, below, Josiah 4, Jeremiah 3, George 2, John 1)—From East Hampton to Saybrook, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 28); and he served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31)

He was b. in 1754; d. Apr. 1, 1832—a man of prominence in the community. He had: Nancy 7, 1st wife of David Hedges, Jr.; and Mary 7, m. Wilkes Hedges. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 306)

MILLER JACOB ()—From East Hampton to New Haven in the Rev'y War. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 308) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) Men of this name served in the 2d and 3d of the Line (G. 44, 46); in the 3d, 5th and 6th Dutchess (G. 65, 67, 68); in the 2d and 3d Westchester (G. 78, 79); and in Conn. (G. 94)

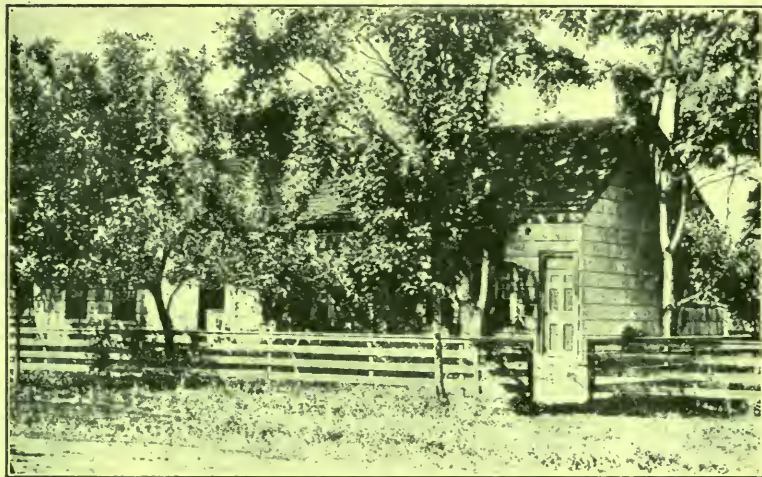

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. _____; m. Elizabeth Filer. He had a son, Rev. Samuel, later of Wallingford, Conn. (Hedges, as above)

MILLER JASON ()—From East Hampton. In Apr., 1782, he was permitted to go from Conn. to L. I. (F. 55) He probably served in Conn. (G. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

In 1781, he was elected Constable; and, in 1791, he had a son bapt. I have searched the Town and Church Records carefully, and find nothing from them. No record of his birth, marriage or death, and no mention made of him in the Genealogy; but he was one of the signers of the Association, in 1775, showing that he was a resident in East Hampton then, and a person "capable of bearing arms." I find but one Miller in East Hampton who remembers ever having heard of him; and he knows nothing further than is given above. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

MILLER JEREMIAH 5 (Josiah 4, Jeremiah 3, George 2, John 1; father of Hunting, above)—From East Hampton. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, he was taken up the Conn. River, with three in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) On Jan. 10 and 15, 1777, he was permitted to return to L. I. (D. 3) One of his name served as Ens. in the 1st Line (G. 43); and as a private in Graham's Levies (G. 60), and in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. in 1727; d. July 11, 1794. He m. Ruth dau. of

John 4 Huntting. (See Huntting) She was a sister of the wife of Burnet, above. He had: Huntting 6, above; Jeremiah, Jr. 6, b. in 1748, d. in 1803; Mary 6, m. Rev. Samuel Buel. (I. 2)—(Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 306)

A Jeremiah, was Naval Officer at New London before 1778. (Rec. State of Conn., 2. 137) Temperance Mulford Miller was my mother. (Mr. G. E. Hoe)

MILLER JOHN, LT. ()—From East Hampton. On Feb. 23, 1776, he was appointed 1st Lt. of Capt. Ezekiel Mulford's Co. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 31. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He may have served in Conn. (G. 94)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52)

[NOTE—As there were at least six of this name in East Hampton, and three of them sons of Johns, at the time of our inquiry, it is almost impossible to identify the Lt. John, John, and John, Jr., who appear to have been Refugees. Some of them were descendants of Daniel; and, apparently, all of them were from John 1.]

MILLER JOHN ()—From East Hampton to East Haddam, where his claim was paid to David Gelston, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 200) He was at East Haddam, Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) Men of his name served as follows: 2d, 4th and 5th of the Line (G. 44, 48, 49); Malcolm's, Graham's and Pawling's Levies (G. 58, 60, 61); 4th and 6th and Minute Men of Dutchess (G. 66, 68, 70); 1st and 4th Orange (G. 72, 75); 2d, 3d and 4th Westchester (G. 78, 79, 80); also in Conn. (G. 94)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He may have been the father of Lt. John, above; or of John, Jr., below. Hedges ("East Hampton," p. 307) gives a John, Sr. 5 (Daniel 4, John 3, George 2, John 1), bapt. Mar. 16, 1706-7; d. Mar. 1, 1791. He had a son, John, Jr., 6, d. Nov. 11, 1808, aged 69. The latter had a son, John 7, d. Oct. 26, 1836, aged 69.

MILLER JOHN, JR. ()—From East Hampton to East Haddam, with two passengers, by Capt. James Wiggins, in Nov., 1776. (C. 215) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

MILLER MATTHIAS BURNET 6, DR. (Burnet 5, above, Eleazer 4, Jeremiah 3, George 2, John 1)—From East Hampton. He was b. Oct. 15, 1740 (1749?); m. Phebe, dau. of Judge Isaac Smith (see Smith), of Dutchess Co.; d. Feb. 2, 1792. On Jan. 2, 1777, he was appointed Surg. to the N. Y. State forces that were in actual service. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He was, at that time, a Delegate to the 4th Prov'l Cong. (Civil List) His son, Morris S. 7, was a Member of the U. S. Cong. from Oneida Co., N. Y. A son of Morris S., Rutger B. 8, was also in Cong. and a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y; and a dau. of Morris S. m. the late Gov. Horatio Seymour. A son of Rutger B., Morris S. 9, is a lawyer in N. Y. City. Margaret 7, dau. of Dr. Matthias B. 6, m. Dr. Oliver Davidson. Her son, Morris Miller Davidson, was the father of Silvanus Miller Davidson, of Fishkill-on-Hudson, N. Y., who has a son Malcolm Hayward Davidson. Maria 7, dau. of Dr. Matthias B. 6, m. Hon. John Schuyler. His dau., Angelica, m. (1) Clarkson Floyd Crosby, of N. Y. City, and had: Col. John Schuyler Crosby; Mrs. William A. Thompson; and Mrs. W. Murray Alexander. Angelica Schuyler, m. (2) Gen. John Taylor Cooper, of Albany, N. Y. Eliza 7, dau. of Dr. Matthias B. 6, m. Rev. Charles Coe. Her dau. was Mrs. James Brown, of N. Y. City, the mother of John Crosby Brown and George Hunter Brown. (Mr. Silvanus Miller Davidson)

MILLER NATHAN 6 (Uriah 5, Nathan 4, George 3, 2, John 1)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 31); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and possibly in Conn. (G. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

He was b. in 1746; d. in 1834; eight children b. between 1775 and 1792. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 308, 309. Also Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

MILLER PELEG 6 (Timothy 5, Daniel 4, John 3, George 2, John 1; brother of David, above, and Elisha, above)—From East Hampton to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

The East Hampton Ch. Rec. states, in 1757, "Baptized, a child of Tim Miller's," probably referring to Peleg. In his will, in 1769, Timothy names several sons, among them Peleg, and states: "The son of Peleg removed to Franklinville, N. Y. where his descendants now reside." From which it would appear that the Peleg he names was b. earlier than 1757. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He was probably b. in 1757. (G. 31)

MILLER WILLIAM ()—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and he may have served in Conn. (G. 94) He was on the Privateer "Marquis de Lafayette." (Page 218) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 23) From Orange Co., N. Y., in 1783, he may have petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y relative to Lotteries. (B. 17) Under the name of Guilielmus Miller, he appears in the Census of 1776: under 50 years old, and having two females over 16. (A. 52) He was b. about 1740. (G. 31)

MILLS—James, who m. ———— Fortune, was in Southold, by 1660; Isaac and Samuel, in Southampton, in 1683; and Isaac and Isaac, Jr., there, in 1698. James, was in N. Y. City, in 1700. Samuel, b. in 1631; m. in 1658, and had 16 children; d. at Jamaica, about 1726, aged 95. He had a son, Isaac; though Isaac may have been son of James. Timothy, probably son of Isaac, settled at Mill's Pond, Smithtown. (Moore's "Index," p. 27)

The Southampton branch of this Family came from Richard 1 who was freeman, in 1650; and Town Clerk, in 1651. In 1683, Samuel 2 and Isaac 2 pay taxes. Probably they were his sons. Samuel d. in 1685, leaving Richard 3. Isaac 2 was in Bridge Hampton, Sagg or Mecox, in 1694. He had a son Isaac 3; and probably a son, Jonathan 3. There was a David, b. Dec. 9, 1693. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 432, 433)

Rev. Joseph Mills, b. Mar. 13, 1739; d. Mar. 18, 1774. He graduated at Princeton, 1756; and was Minister at Jamaica, 1762-1774. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 111) Rev. William Mills, graduated at Princeton, 1756; Minister at Jamaica, 1762-1773; d. in 1773. (H. 39. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I." pp. 32, 33)

MITCHELL—This was neither the Queens Co. branch, described by Thompson ("Long Island," 2. 508-510); nor the Conn. branch, described by Salisbury. (Gen. 1. 171-203) It was an older branch that appeared in Bridge Hampton, in 1649 or 1650. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 342, 343) John 1 bought land in Mecox, in 1686. He may have been a son of Matthew, who came to Charlestown, Mass., in 1635; removed to Hempstead; and thence to Stamford, Conn., where he d. (Howell, as above) The said Matthew was b. in 1590. In 1635, he came to Wethersfield, Conn., by way of Springfield, Mass., and Saybrook, Conn. It is not certain that he went to Hempstead, L. I. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 280-282) He went to Hempstead. (Chap. 16. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 3, 4) He was a large owner of land at Wethersfield. He went thence to Stamford, Conn., in 1640; and d. in 1646. His children were: Jonathan, David, Susanna and Hannah. His son David went from Wethersfield to Stamford, in 1640; and thence to Stratford, Conn. His son, Rev. Jonathan, went to Stamford in the same year; but afterward was a Minister, at Cambridge, Mass., for many years. He was eulogized by Rev. Cotton Mather in his "Magnalia." (Huntington, as above, pp. 37, 38, 58, 278-280)

John 1 had a son, John 2, b. in 1660; m. (1) Sarah ———, (2) Phebe ———; d. in 1717. (Howell, as above) John 2 had a son, John 3, b. in 1684; d. in 1762, aged 78. Among his children was John 4, d. June 21, 1774, aged 56. (Tombstones at Bridge Hampton)

MITCHELL MEHITABEL, WID.—From Bridge Hampton to Conn. In Nov., 1776, her expenses of removal were paid by David Gelston. (C. 196) The Census of 1776 showed that she had two sons, both under 16 years old. (A. 54) She is buried at Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

She was evidently the Wid. of John 4 (John 3, 2, 1), who was b. in 1719; d. in 1774. She was Mehitabel 4, dau. of Elias Cook. (See Cook) She d. Nov. 3, 1810, aged 84. (Tombstone at Bridge Hampton) Her children were: Phebe 5, b. in 1759, m. John Gelston (see Gelston); Stephen 5; James 5; and John 5. Stephen 5, b. in 1762, had: Nathaniel 6, and John 6. Nathaniel 6, had: Stephen 7; and Edward 7, b. in 1834. James 5, b. in 1765; m. Lucy Conkling; d. in 1815. He had: Mary 6, b. in 1790; Samuel 6, b. in 1792; Phebe 6, b. in 1795, m. Judge Hugh Halsey; Edward 6, b. in 1799; and Catherine 6, b. in 1808, m. Josiah H. Post. (Howell, as above)

MITCHELL URIAH, QR. MR. (Son of Robert)—From Hempstead to Newburgh, N. Y. In 1779, Gov. Clinton gave permission to his wife, her family and effects, "to come out into the country" under certain conditions of an exchange. (Clinton Pap., 5. 222, 223) On Dec. 4, 1779, Uriah Mitchell wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Newburgh, asking permission for the family of Joseph Bowne to come out from N. Y. City. (Same ref., 5. 402. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 56. See also Bowne) He was one of those who voted in favor of sending Deputies to the Prov'l Congress, at Jamaica, Nov. 7, 1775; but he was outvoted. (Chap. 13) On Sept. 1, 1776, he was employed to carry to Fishkill information from the Committee in N. Y. City. (Misc. Pap., 36. 291) He served in the 4th Dutchess. (G. 66) He was Qr. Mr. of Gen. McDougall's Brig., 1777-1778; and Post Qr. Mr., at Newburgh, N. Y., to July, 1782. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 252)

On Dec. 8, 1783, he petitioned the N. Y. Council of Appointment for leave to take the estate of G. D. Ludlow—the latter having cut the wood from Mitchell's place. (Onderdonk, as above, p. 64) He was appointed Sheriff of Queens Co., Feb. 16, 1784. (Onderdonk, as above, p. 66)

He was a son of Robert and Phebe (Denton) Mitchell, of North Hempstead (now Cow Neck). He m. Feb. 27, 1735, Susannah Hubbs. His children (St. George Ch. Rec.): Susannah, m. Sept. 31, 1751, Henry Stocker, or Stockam; and Robert, b. Aug. 5, 1736. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

MORE—MOOR—MOORE—The ancestor of the Southold branch was Thomas 1, according to Moore's "Index" (pp. 27-29, 102-104), which is followed, below. Howell ("Southampton," p. 433) uses but a part of the "Index."

Thomas 1, was in Salem, Mass., in 1636; and in Southold, about 1640-1650. He m. (1) Martha, dau. of Rev. Christopher, and sister of Rev. John, Youngs (see Youngs); m. (2) Catharine Lane. He d. June 25, 1691. He had sons: Thomas 2, Nathaniel 2, Benjamin 2 and Jonathan 2.

Thomas 2, b. in 1649; m. about 1662, ——— Mott; d. about 1711. His son, Thomas 3, b. in 1663; m. Jane ———; d. in 1738. REV. JOHN MOORE—NEWTOWN (NOW ELMHURST), L. I.
(Loaned by Mr. Oliver H. Perry) had: Jonathan 4; and Benjamin 4, who went to Orange Co., N. Y. (See Benjamin 5, the Refugee, below)

The earlier generations of the Moores of Southold, by Charles B. Moore, will be found in the "N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.," 15. 57. Apr., 1884. Dr. Micah Moore, of Southold, m. Wid. Abigail Ledyard. (See Ledyard) Pictures of the house in which they lived are on Page 289.

The Newtown, L. I., branch is clearly set forth by Prof. James W. Moore in: "Rev. John Moore of Newtown, and some of his Descendants." It is quoted below with the designation of "Newtown." Rev. John 1, b. about 1620, was at Lynn, Mass., in 1641. About that date, he m. Margaret, dau. of Edward Howell, of Southampton. He d., at Newtown, Sept. 17, 1657. He had sons: Capt. Samuel 2; and Joseph 2. His dau., Elizabeth 2, m. Content 2 Titus. (See Titus) The house in which he lived was built about 1657. It is the ivy-covered part, in the picture.

Capt. Samuel 2, had sons: Capt. Samuel 3; Joseph 3; Benjamin 3; and Nathaniel 3. Capt. Samuel 3 had a son, John 4. (See the Refugee, below) Joseph 3 had a son, Benjamin 4. (See the Refugee, below) Benjamin 3 had a son, Lt. Samuel 4, the father of Rt. Rev. Benjamin 5. The son of the latter, Prof. Clement C. 6 Moore, wrote "'Twas the Night before Christmas."

Nathaniel 3 had a son, Capt. John 4; a grandson, Samuel 5; and a g. grandson, Samuel 6. The son of the latter, Prof. James W. 7, of LaFayette College, wrote the work on "Rev. John of Newtown, &c." He was b. June 14, 1844; d. Feb. 28, 1909.

The Southampton branch is from Joseph 2, son of Rev. John 1. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

MOORE ANN 5 (Daniel 4, Joseph 3, 2, Rev. John 1)—From Southold to Conn. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, she was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177)

The ancestry, given above, is on the supposition that Ann was a sister of Hannah, below; and of Joseph, and perhaps Henry, the Refugees, below. It is more likely that she was a Wid. from Southold. The Census of 1776, in Southold, showed that there were three Widows by the name of Moore; but their Christian names are not given. The first had a dau. over 16 years old, and four daughters under 16; over 16; the third had two sons under

Charles B. Moore

A full account of his life and his work may be found in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., July, 1894.

MOREHOUSE—On the Bridge Hampton list of 1683 is the name of John 1, who d. Oct. 10, 1701, leaving John 2, Mary 2 and Phebe 2. John 2 had a wife, Zerviah, and sons: John 3, Nathan 3 and Gideon 3. John 3 had: John 4, Nathan 4, Isaac 4, Phebe 4, and Zerviah 4. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 433)

The Gershom Morehouse Gen. gives the branch which originated in Thomas 1, who purchased land in Fairfield, Conn., in 1653, and d. in 1658. His eldest son, Lt. and Sheriff Samuel 2, b. in 1637; d. in Fairfield, in 1687.

Samuel's son, Daniel 3, b. in 1678; m. Hannah Adams; d. in 1739. Ens. Abraham 4, son of Daniel 3, b. about 1700; m. Elizabeth Patterson; d. in 1761. Thomas 1 went from Wethersfield to Stamford, Conn., about 1640. (Chap. 16)

MOREHOUSE ANDREW 5, COL. (Abraham 4, Daniel 3, Samuel 2, Thomas 1)—From Dutchess Co., N. Y., to Saybrook. On May 16, 1781, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., stating that he desired to remove to Saybrook; and asking leave to land his provisions and goods at Ripton Landing and at New London; which was granted. (E. 124, 125) Before his removal, he had been a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y from Dutchess Co., 1777-1779. (Civil List) Apparently, he returned to Dutchess Co. after the War; for we find petitions from him, and others, to the N. Y. Ass'y from that Co., in 1785 and 1787. (B. 26) He served as Col. and Lt. Col. of the 3d Dutchess; and he may have been a private in the same Regt. (G. 65) He also served in Conn. (G. 94) Also "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 494)

He was b. ———; m. at Saybrook, July, 13, 1783, Sarah Sherril (Saybrook Ch. Rec.); d. ———. She may have been Sarah 4 (Recompence 3, 2, Samuel 1; sister of Capt. Recompence), bapt. Mar. —, 1759; or Sarah 4 (Henry 3, Recompence 2, Samuel 1; sister of Corp. Henry), bapt. in 1742, d. in 1803. (See Sherrill)

Andrew Morehouse

It may be that two Andrews are described, above. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that Andrew, the Refugee, was from Bridge Hampton.

MOREHOUSE SARAH (Probably Wid. of one of the above named)—From Bridge Hampton to Middletown. On Mar. 28, 1780, she petitioned for leave to go to L. I. and leave her two children with their grandfather. (D. 47)

MORGAN JOHN—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); and probably in Conn. (G. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) It may be that he first crossed L. I. Sound from Conn. to Huntington.

There are several Johns in the Morgan Gen.; but all of them belonged in Conn. Caulkins ("New London," pp. 311, 312) states that James was early in N. London; but his descendants are not given as late as the Rev'y War.

The James Morgan Gen. (p. 96) mentions a John who might have been a son of the Refugee. He was b. May 23, 1782; m., Apr. 13, 1812, Esther Parsons, of East Hampton. He removed to Clinton, Conn.; and d. there, Dec. 11, 1859. His wife d. May 28, 1858.

MORPETH WILLIAM—Probably from L. I. He served in the 2d and 4th of the Line (G. 44, 48); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

The following letter was furnished by Mr. William S. Pelletreau. William Morpeth d. soon after it was written. It was probated as a will, on Apr. 10, 1783; upon the oath of Serjt. Daniel Tappen (Topping) and Serjt. George Howell, of the 4th Line. Capt. Daniel Fordham was mentioned as "late of Southampton, now of Saybrook, Conn." He was really from Sag Harbor, in Southampton. (See Fordham)

Camp Valley Forge—March 8, 1778.

Sir—I have written to you several times and never yet favoured with your answer, which would give me much pleasure to receive. These few lines will I hope find you and your family in good health as I am at present. God only knows how long. Should it please Him to take me out of this life, but vain and transitory, I bequeath you my personal substance, both wages, which is due me in the Regiment and the army, and all other debts that is due to me elsewhere. Your kind answer would favour and oblige. With my love to you and family, I am your friend and humble servant

Wm. Morpeth

To Capt. Daniel Fordham, Seabrook, Connecticut Govment

MORRELL JAMES, LT.—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); and in Conn. (G. 94)

There were, at least, four of the name in Revolutionary times. One removed to Philadelphia before the War. Another, son of Abraham, was a Tory; and is believed to have been the James mentioned in Sabine's "Loyalists." The third had no military service. The fourth was probably James, the Refugee, who lived at Flushing. He was b. Apr. 5, 1748; m. Nov. 21, 1767, Sarah, dau. of John Willetts, Jr., and Elizabeth Lawrence, of Flushing; d. May 6, 1813.

She was b. May 7, 1749; d. Aug. 20, 1810. Both are buried in Grace Churchyard, at Jamaica. His will, dated July 25, 1812, was proved July 6, 1813. On July 22, 1813, letters of administration on her estate were issued to her son-in-law, Robert Degrushe, who m. their dau., Fanny. Their other children were: John W.; Robert; Elizabeth, m. ——— Voorheis; and Maria, m. ——— Freeman. In 1818, the dau., Elizabeth, applied for a pension; stating that her father was 1st Lt. in Col. Malcom's Regt. The claim was not allowed for want of sufficient proof. He also served in Capt. Judson's Co., in the Light Horse Militia of Conn. (Mr. Francis V. Morrell)

MORSE—One of the first settlers of Dedham, Mass., was John 1 Morse. His son, Rev. John 2, was b. there, in 1639; and commenced his ministry of 12 years at Newtown, L. I., in 1694. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 144) Wood ("First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 32, 33) says, 1697. (H. 39)

MORSE JOHN—He was probably from L. I. He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); and possibly in Conn. (G. 94) It may be that he was the one who d. Aug. 18, 1791; and is buried at the side of Christ Church, Guilford, Conn.

MOTT—The members of this Family descend from Adam 1, b. in Eng., in 1606; went to Boston, in 1636; was a freeman at Hingham, Mass., in 1637. He had a wife, Sarah, and several children, of whom: Adam 2, b. in Eng. in 1623. (Mr. Edward D. Harris)

MOTT SAMUEL—From L. I. to Preston; whence, on Apr. 17, 1780, he gave to the Conn. Gen. Ass'y a strong recommendation of Rev. Timothy Wells and others. (E. 58) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and probably in Conn. (G. 94) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

Thompson ("Long Island," 2. 57, 520) makes him Samuel 5 (William 4, 3, Adam 2, 1), b. in 1751; m. Sarah Franklin; d. Apr. 1, 1791. He had: William 6, Walter 6, Samuel 6 and Sarah 6.

Mr. Edward D. Harris, in his "Descendants of Adam Mott, of Hempstead," gives a Samuel 5 (Samuel 4, John 3, 2, Adam 1), b. in 1742; m. Amy Raynor; d. in 1793. He had: William 6, Willet 6, Elijah 6, Samuel 6, Joseph 6 and Benjamin 6. Also Samuel 4 (William 3, 2, Adam 1) who, Harris states, was a merchant in N. Y. City and father of William F. 5 and Samuel F. 5.

Bunker ("Long Island Families," p. 259) gives Samuel 4 (William 3, Adam 2, 1), who had sons: William F. 5, b. in 1785, m., Phebe Merritt, d. in 1867; Walter 5, b. in 1786; and Samuel 5, b. in 1789.

Mrs. Natalie R. Fernald gives a Samuel 4 (Joseph 3, 2, Adam 1), b. Feb. 5, 1736; m., (1) Dec. —, 1789, Margaret (probably Williams), who d. June 14, 1819. He m. (2) Susanna —; and removed to Vermont. Also a Samuel 4 (Jacob 3, Joseph 2, Adam 1), who m. Anna —.

A Col. Samuel Mott, m. Jan. 23, 1788, Mrs. Abigail Stanton, of Groton. (Preston—Griswold, Conn., Ch. Rec.) Samuel, the Refugee, was probably a descendant of Adam of Hingham, or of Nathaniel of Braintree. (E. D. H.)

MUIRSON—Rev. George 1 Muirson was the English Church Missionary of Rye, N. Y., who preached and baptized in all the Towns from Greenwich to Stratford, Conn., 1702–1709. Col. Caleb Heathcote "fully armed escorted the clergyman into Stratford to celebrate a Prayer Book Service." (Miss Lucy C. Jarvis' "Sketches of Church Life in Colonial Conn." pp. 15, 19, 22) Rev. George 1, m. Gloriana 2, dau. of Col. William 1 (Tangier) Smith; and her sister, Martha (nicknamed "Patty"), m. Col. Caleb Heathcote. (See Smith) Col. Heathcote came from England, in 1692, and was a Member of the Council. (Bolton's "Episcopal Ch. in Westchester Co." Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 445) He obtained a patent in Westchester Co., N. Y., of which one boundary was 18 miles along the Boston Post Road. As Heathcote Manor, this tract has been developed recently. He d. in 1721, and left all of his large property to his wife for her life time; and afterward, to his six children. (Heathcote Gen. Also Miss Martha T. Smith)

There were Heathcotes at Southampton, 1710–1712. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 428) A "Mr." Heathcote, probably a Minister, had charge of the Presbyterian, or Congregational, Ch., at Jamaica, L. I., 1730–1734. (H. 39)

Rev. George's son, Dr. George 2 Muirson, of Brookhaven, who was a Tory, by the Census of 1776, had two sons over 16 years old. (A. 51) Dr. Muirson, who was well known for his skill in treating small-pox, established two Hospitals on Shelter Island for inoculation. (N. Y. "Mercury," quoted in Onderdonk's "Scrap Book," p. 14) He was one of the most distinguished physicians of his time. (Miss M. T. S.)

He was b. about 1708; d. at New Haven, Conn., Feb. 20, 1786, aged 79. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 439) He was a posthumous son. (Prof. Theodore S. Woolsey) He m. (1) Anna 3, dau. of Col. Henry, and granddau. of Col. William 1 (Tangier) Smith. (See Smith) She was a niece, by marriage, of Dr. George's mother, Gloriana Smith Muirson. Mrs. Annie (Smith) Muirson is buried in Col. Smith's Cemetery. The tombstone has this inscription: "My dear Mollie was laid here on the 25th of October, 1768—George Muirson." (Mr. Selah B. Strong) Mr. Strong thinks that the inscription relates to his second wife, Mary. Dr. George m. (2) Mary, dau. of Rev. Benjamin Woolsey. She is buried at Setauket. His dau., Ann, m. Benjamin, son of Rev. Benjamin Woolsey. (See Woolsey) He also had daughters, Esther and Catherine. (Miss M. T. S.)

MUIRSON HEATHCOTE 3, LT. (Dr. George 2, Rev. George 1)—From Setauket, in Brookhaven, to Fairfield. He graduated at Yale College, in 1776. On June 20, 1780, he petitioned that he might bring his effects from L. I. to Conn. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book—" 1866, p. 20) On June 21, 1780, Gov. Clinton recommended him to the Gov. and Council of Conn. as a proper person to be allowed to remove from L. I., stating that he had always been friendly to the American Cause "and, by a conduct different from that of the most of his Family, is likely to sustain heavy losses." (Clinton Pap., 5. 869, 870) He was at Fairfield, July 8, 1780; and from there he made a second appeal to Gov. Clinton, June 19, 1781. (Clinton Pap., 5. 869, 870, 951. Same—7. 32, 33) In Nov., 1780, he was a volunteer, with Capt. Caleb Brewster and Capt. Benajah Strong, in Maj. Tallmadge's successful raid on Mastic. (Page 234) Being well acquainted with the enemy's Fort on Lloyd's Neck, he acted as a guide in the attack of July 12, 1781; where he lost an arm, and d. in consequence. (Page 234. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 222) After being wounded, he was taken on board a French Man-of-War; was shown every attention; and was brought to Newport, R. I., where he d. He was given a public funeral. (Miss M. T. S.) He was buried in Trinity Churchyard, Newport, and a tablet to his memory may be seen in the Church. (Prof. T. S. W.)

MULFORD—John 1 and his brother, William 1, came from England to Salem, Mass., in 1638. They went to Southampton; and thence to East Hampton, where they were among the earlier settlers, in 1649.

John 1, b. in 1606; m. Freideswide, Wid. of William Osburn, of Salem; d. in 1686. His eldest child was Capt. Samuel 2, b. in 1644; m. (1) Esther ———, m. (2) Sarah Howell; d. in 1725. In 1716, he went to England and had the duty on whale oil removed. His sons were: Samuel 3, b. in 1678, d. in 1743; Timothy 3, b. in 1681, d. in 1741; Elias 3, b. in 1685, d. in 1760; and Capt. Matthew 3, b. in 1689, m. Elizabeth Chatfield, d. in 1774. (N. E. Hist'l and Gen'l Reg., Apr. 1880—by William Remsen Mulford. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 311, 312)

William 1, m. Sarah Akers; d. in 1687. His son, Thomas 2, b. in 1655; m. Mary Conkling; d. in 1732. Among the sons of Thomas 2 were: Jeremiah 3, father of Capt. Ezekiel 4, of the Rev'y War (Page 41. Also G. 4, 6, 23, 31, 39); and Thomas 3, b. in 1689, d. in 1765. (N. E. Hist'l and Gen'l Reg., as above. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 311, 314, 315)

The Mulford House, at East Hampton, is where John Howard Payne (See Paine) spent his childhood. Tradition states that he wrote "Home, Sweet Home," within its walls; but it is probable that it was written in Paris.

MULFORD DAVID 4, COL. (Capt. Matthew 3, Capt. Samuel 2, John 1; father of Capt. David, below, and Ens. Matthew, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought, with his cattle, from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212) On Jan. 16, 1777, his negro, Jack, was allowed to return to L. I. (D. 3)

He had a Colonial Commission from Gov. Clinton, dated Oct. 13, 1748; also one signed by Gov. DeLancey, in 1758. In 1774, he was appointed on the Committee of Correspondence for the Town. (H. 1) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 28) On July 8, 1775, he was appointed one of the Muster Masters in Suffolk Co. (Page 88. Also Proceedings Prov'l Cong.); and he acted as such. (G. 30, 31) He was 1st Col. of the 2d Regt. of Suffolk

Co. (Page 88. Also G. 2, 9) On July 22, 1776, by order of the Convention, Col. Smith sent an Express to him and Col. Thomas Terry; and on July 29, 1776, Col. Smith sent them money to pay the enlisted men. (G. 39) He was on the march to Brooklyn while the Battle of L. I. was in progress. (Page 40) His men were dispersed, and went to their homes, or to Conn., by order of the Commanding Gen. After the capture of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull, Col. Mulford took command of the Regiments at Huntington. (Page 173. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 46) On Sept. 7, 1776, he was plundered by Col. Abraham Gardiner; and was obliged, by him, to take the Oath of Allegiance to the Crown. (Page 116. Also Onderdonk, as above)

David Mulford

NEWBURY—NEWBERRY—Thomas 1 came from England to Dorchester, Mass., in 1634; d. about 1635-6. He had a wife, Jane, and sons: Joseph 2, Benjamin 2, and John 2. Benjamin 2, m. Mary Allyn, and removed to Windsor, Conn. He had: Thomas 3, b. in 1657, d. in 1688, also of Windsor; and Benjamin 3. Thomas 3 had sons: Joseph 4, b. in 1684, d. in 1751; and Benjamin 4, b. in 1686, d. in 1709. Joseph 5, son of Joseph 4, b. in 1709-10, d. in 1797. He had a son, John 6, b. Aug. 6, 1756; m., in 1781, Elizabeth Ellsworth; d. Apr. 23, 1825. He had 11 children. In the War, he was with the Army at West Point. (Newbury Gen.) This John 6 was probably not the Refugee, below.

Some of the Family on L. I. removed from Southold to Poland, Herkimer Co., N. Y., about 1794-5. This territory, the Royal Grant, had been confiscated after the War; and was then being settled by people from L. I. and Conn. (Mr. William W. Newberry)

NEWBURY JOHN ()—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. when a part of it was from Queens Co. (G. 24) Hence his place of residence is indefinite. He may have served in Conn. (G. 95) He was a claimant for damages by the American Army. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 252)

NEWBURY SAMUEL 5 ()—From Southold (Plum Island). On Feb. 15, 1783, he was allowed to carry his aged mother to L. I. with articles for his family subsistence and for the repair of his house. (F. 97) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38)

He was b. Oct. 26, 1746; m. Mary Beebe, probably sister of Capt. Samuel Beebe (See Beebe); d. Aug. 28, 1809, at Poland, where some of his descendants now live. After his death she m. David Overton (See Overton). His children were: Elisha 6, no children; Lester 6; Hannah 6, not m.; Mary 6; Samuel 6, no children; Henry 6, not m.; Abel Palmer 6; Eunice 6, not m.; and Joseph 6. (Mr. C. E. Baker)

Lester 6, b. Jan. 21, 1783; m. Dec. 28, 1811, Lucretia, dau. of Jonathan Vail. (See Vail) His children were: Eleanor Anne 7, b. Jan. 14, 1813, m. Maynard Baker, and had son William C. Baker 8 (who m. Lovina Popple and had Florence Baker Throbbald 9 and C. E. Baker 9), also Lester 8 not m., and Polly 8 not m.; Mary 7, b. Aug. 7, 1815, not m.; Henry Jackson 7, b. Oct. 13, 1818, not m.; Hezekiah Wilbur 7, b. Dec. 4, 1821, m. Achsah Swezey and had, George S. 8 (b. in 1851, m. in 1882, Sarah De Graff, and had, Nellie 9, Florence 9 and Georgia 9), William W. 8, (b. in 1855, m. in 1884, Florence Howe, and had, Ralph 9 and Freda 9), Samuel 8 (m. Dec. 10, 1904, and had, Ellen 8, Viola 8, Vrealon 8 and Lester 8. (Vail Gen. p. 118. Also Mr. C. E. Baker) About 1880, Richard Sears 7 removed, with his family, from Poland to Santa Barbara, Cal. (Mr. William W. Newberry)

Mary 6, m. Ezra Stillman. Their children were: Nathaniel 7, who had, Edward 8, Alice 8 and Addie 8; George 7; and Nancy 7.

Samuel 6, b. Jan. 20, 1788, or Jan. 22, 1789; m. May 19, 1816, Mary (Polly) dau. of Jonathan Vail, and sister of Lucretia, above, wife of Lester 6. Mary (Polly), b. Nov. 24, 1790. (Vail Gen. p. 118)

Abel Palmer 6, b. Sept. 26, 1793. His children were: Samuel 7, Cyrene 7, and Martha 7.

Joseph 6, m. Mercy Pooler. His children were: Samuel 7, not m.; Joseph 7 (whose dau. Anna 8, m. Willis Atwater, and had Norman 9, Joseph 9, and Florence 9); Mary Jane 7, m. Peter Newman, and had, Howard N. 8 (m. Hattie Buel, and had Elsie 9, Ira 9, and William 9), Ina 8, first wife, and Betsy 8, second wife, of H. R. Rhodes (who had Herbert Rhodes 9, m. Alice Peters, and had Ina Jane 10). Elsie 9, m. Bruce Gorham, and had Laura 10. Ira 9, m. Lena Wood. (C. E. B.)

NEWCOMB—Capt. Andrew 1 was in the Charlestown, Mass., Records, in 1666. He had a son, Andrew 2; and a grandson, Simon 3. Simon 3 had sons: Hezekiah 4, and Thomas 4. Hezekiah 4 had a son, Silas 5; and a grandson, Lt. Daniel 6, b. in 1741, m. Irene Field, d. about 1794. Thomas 4 had a son, Zazzeus 5; and a grandson, Daniel 6. (Newcomb Gen.)

NEWCOMB DANIEL (Possibly one of the Daniels named above)—From L. I. to Norwalk. On Dec. 11, 1781, he wanted a permit to go to L. I. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1866, p. 22) On Dec. 18, 1781, Gen. Waterbury allowed him to go to L. I., and to bring a negro back to Conn. (D. 49) One of his name served as a Lt. in the 4th Dutchess. (G. 66) Another, perhaps, as a private, in the 6th and the Ass'd Exempts of Dutchess (G. 68, 71); and in Conn. (G. 95)

NICHOLSON WILLIAM—From Bridge Hampton to Groton. On Feb. 15, 1783, he was allowed to return to L. I. with cattle &c. (F. 95)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54)

NICOLL—NICOLLS—NICHOLS—Matthias 1 Nicholls, or Nicoll, came to America, in 1664. He was Colonial Sec'y, Mayor of N. Y. City and Judge. He d. in 1687. His dau., Martha 2, m. Col. Richard Floyd. (See Floyd) His son, Col. William 2, was the first Clerk of Queens Co., and Speaker of the N. Y. Ass'y. He m. Anna, dau. of Jeremiah, and Wid. of Killian Van Rensselaer, the Patroon. ("N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.," 22. 38. Also Woods "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 144-149. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 390 et seq.) Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Francis Nichols among the Early settlers at Southold.

Col. William 2 had a son, Benjamin 3, who m. Charity, dau. of Col. Richard Floyd (See Floyd), and lived at Islip. He was b. in 1694; d. in 1724. (Thompson, as above) Benjamin 3 had sons: Benjamin 4, and William 4. Benjamin 4, b. Mar. 17, 1718; m. Mary Magdalen Holland; d. in 1760. He graduated at Yale, in 1734. Thompson gives him one son, Benjamin, Jr. 5. William 4, b. Oct. 7, 1715; m. Joanna d'Honneur; d. Mar. 1, 1780. He was known as "Lawyer," or "Clerk" Nicoll. (Thompson, as above) His son, Benjamin 5, b. Sept. 4, 1764; m. Dec. 6, 1784, Anne, dau. of Col. Richard Floyd (See Floyd); d. Sept. 19, 1828. He removed to Shelter Island. (Thompson, as above) This Benjamin 5 was probably too young to have been the Refugee, below.

A Henry Nicoll, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull. (See Woodhull) After his death, she m. (2) Gen. John Smith. (See Smith)

NICOLL BENJAMIN, JR. (Perhaps Benjamin, Jr., 5, above)—From Smithtown. He served as a private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); also as a Corp. (G. 32) He was probably the Benjamin Nicolls in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and, as Benjamin Nichols, he may have served in Conn. (G. 95) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) There was a Benjamin on Shelter Island after the War. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 74, 80, 96) I have no record of a Benjamin having lived in Conn. (Mr. William G. Nicoll)

NICOLL ROBERT ()—From Smithtown, or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and probably, as Robert Nicols, in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) There was no Robert in the Nicoll Family, above mentioned. (W. G. N.)

NORRIS—It is stated that Robert had been in Southampton, since 1667. In 1683, Peter and Robert were both tax payers, and lived to the East, probably at Sagg. Peter had a wife, or dau. Sarah; and daughters, Hannah and Elizabeth. Robert had a wife, Hannah, and children: Robert, Oliver Hannah, Mary and Sarah. In 1683, Oliver was taxed in East Hampton. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 434) Probably Oliver and Silas, the Refugees, were in the 2d or 3d, generation, below.

Nicholas, b. about 1640, settled at Hampton, N. H., about 1663; and has many descendants there. (Norris Gen.)

NORRIS OLIVER ()—From Shelter Island; where he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) On June 12, 1777, he, with many others, signed a petition to the N. Y. Committee of Safety, asking leave to go to L. I. and to return. (A. 43) He was taken Prisoner, on Aug. 12, 1777, having a permit given by Capt. Hulbert. He was a Prisoner in the Provost, in N. Y. City, on Feb. 6, 1778. (Clinton Pap., 2. 723) He was the Commander of the Privateer "Juno." (Page 218. Also G. 95)

Oliver Norris

NORRIS SILAS ()—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, with four in the family, he was brought to Stonington by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton (C. 214); and, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with seven passengers, to East Haddam by Capt. James Harris, James Wiggins, Robert Knight and Elias Haton. (C. 112) In Feb., 1777, he was allowed to go to L. I. for flax. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 33)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54)

NORTH BENJAMIN, LT.—From Queens Co. to Norwalk. In Feb., 1780, his petition to return to L. I. was granted. (E. 111, 112) He was an Ens. and a Lt.; and served in N. Y. City, in 1775 and 1776. (G. 40. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 542) He also served as Lt. in Col. Lasher's Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 218)

He m. Sarah 5, dau. of Ezekiel Wickes. (See Wickes)

NORTH GABRIEL—From Queens Co. to Norwalk. In Feb., 1780, his petition to return to L. I. was granted. (E. 111, 112) Evidently he afterward removed to Delaware Co., N. Y.; for, on Jan. 5, 1799, he was one of the petitioners from that Co. to the N. Y. Ass'y praying that a part of the Town of Colchester be annexed to the Town of Walton. (Ass'y Jour.)

NORTON—This Family descends from Rev. John 1, who came from England and was the second Minister of Ipswich, Mass., in 1636. His son, George 2, came to Brookhaven, in 1660. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 495)

Thomas Norton, 17th "Signer" at Guilford, in 1639, was probably son of William Norton of Ockley, Eng., who was one of Mr. Whitfield's Church Wardens in that place. In May, or June, 1639, he was at New Haven, Conn.; and went from that Town to Guilford with the first inhabitants. He may have been the ancestor of the Long Island Nortons. See Smith's and Steiner's "History of Guilford, Conn." (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Humphrey Norton among the early settlers at Southold.

NORTON GEORGE (Perhaps a grandson of George 2)—He may have been from Huntington, as he served in Capt. Thomas Wickes Co., in Col. Smith's Regt., which was from that Town. (G. 34) He served in Conn., also. (G. 95) One of the name signed the Association, in 1775, from Brookhaven (H. 24); and another, from Huntington. (H. 29)

His dau., Temperance, b. June 19, 1749; m. in 1772, Israel Titus; d. Oct. 26, 1789, and is buried at Huntington. He was b. Feb. 16, 1744; d. Aug. 15, 1811. (Mr. Edmund D. Titus. Also Titus Gen.)

His dau., Sarah, b. in 1757; m. Dec. 16, 1775, John Titus (See Titus); d. Oct. 23, 1792. (E. D. T. Also Titus Gen.)

His son, George, Jr., m. Sept. 1, 1767, Sarah 5 Titus, of Huntington. He had: Ruth, and Henry. Ruth, b. in 1781; m. John Titus (son of John, above). He lived at Somers, N. Y. Henry, b. May 15, 1773; m. in 1796, Mary, or Polly, Titus (dau. of John, above); d. Aug. 11, 1836. He lived at North Salem, N. Y. (E. D. T. Also Titus Gen.)

NORTON NATHANIEL, CAPT. (Son of Nathaniel, son of John—Family Tree, owned by Miss Emma L. Norton)—From Brookhaven to Guilford. On Feb. 26, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., stating that his family had returned to L. I., and asking leave to go there after clothing, &c.; which was granted, under certain restrictions. (E. 30, 31) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26, 27)

He was a Lt., at Brookhaven, Aug. 7, 1775 (Jour. Prov'l Cong.), by a Commission issued by the Cong., June 29, previous (G. 1); in the 3d Line (G. 45).

46); in the 4th Line. (G. 47. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 5) He was a Capt. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); and served until the end of 1781, when the five Regiments of the N. Y. Line were consolidated. He was then appointed to a more important work, noted below; but his pay as Capt. was continued to the end of the War, and he became entitled to his due succession of rank, by a resolution of Cong. He took part in the Battle of Monmouth, and he was a member of Gen. Sullivan's Expedition against the Six Nations. ("N. Y. State Cincinnati." Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 494) He also served in Conn. (G. 95) In 1776, he went to L. I. after money for bounties. (Page 100) On Aug. 15, 1780, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Camp Tappen, that he had enlisted a number of men on the Frontiers, and that he could have done better with hard cash. He proposed that Maj. John Davis and himself should procure such cash from the inhabitants of Suffolk Co. who are "our stanch friends and who have a considerable quantity of hard cash." The Gov. replied that the plan was practicable; but he would not engage in it unless it was adopted by the Legislature. (Clinton Pap., 7. 103, 122) On May 2, 1781, Ezra L'Hommedieu wrote from Middletown asking the Gov. for a commission for Capt. Norton to cruise in L. I. Sound in an armed boat, as he might bring a number of families from L. I. to the interior of the State of N. Y. (Clinton Pap., 6. 824) Then followed, still in 1781, a secret commission by Gov. Clinton to Capt. Norton to obtain the money on L. I.; and, to conceal the object in view, he was appointed to the command of a small armed vessel, the "Suffolk," in which he cruised between Sands Point and New Haven. (Page 218. Also Thompson, as above. Also G. 2. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 254)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 51) He was b., at Brookhaven, in 1742. [Miss Emma L. Norton says, 1743] He served in the French War, 1756–1760; and was at Oswego in the latter year. After the Rev'y War he became a Member of the Cincinnati, and returned to his farm. In 1790, he became an Elder, and later a Minister, in the Baptist Church. He had pastorates in Conn. and at Herkimer, N. Y. This work he relinquished, in 1805. He d. Oct. 7, 1837, being at that time the oldest member of the Cincinnati. He is buried near the Baptist Church, at Coram, L. I. One of his children was Dr. Samuel Norton, of Coram, who d. in 1840. (Thompson, 2. 494, 495)

Nathaniel Norton

He was b. in 1743. He preached at Baiting Hollow, L. I., at the time of his marriage to his second wife, the mother of Samuel. This was before he went to Herkimer. He preached in New York quite a while when very old; and he was keeping house there, with his third wife, when he d. (Miss E. L. N.)

Prof. Robert N. Corwin quotes from the Manual of the Congregational Church in Baiting Hollow:

It [The Cong. Ch. in B. H.] arose in part from the faithful labors of Capt. Nathaniel Norton, who, during the Revolutionary War, commanded some sailing craft, and as early as 1781 was the leader of religious meetings in this place.

Arthur B. Nugent

NUGENT ARTHUR B.—On Feb. 28, 1781, he petitioned for leave to return to his business on L. I.; which was not allowed. (E. 144) He may have m. Wid. Anna Hinchman. (See Hinchman)

OSBORN—OSMAN—No such name as Osman appears in the Southampton Records. Others following Thompson, who gives it, have been perplexed at finding no traces of the name. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 435)

In the latter part of the eighteenth century the Osman and Osborn names became singularly confused. This confusion misled for a time even such a careful writer as the late J. Wickham Case. In a note in Southold Printed Records, Vol. 1, p. 98, on 1st Thomas Osborn, Mr. Case identifies the families, saying, "They changed their family name Osborn to Osburn in 1778 (See Vol. D. 136)." This he corrected in a later note, Vol. 2, p. 536, where he explains, "These two names became confounded on the Town Records in 1778, the name being written Osman by the Town Clerk when he should have written it Osborn." * * * The confusion of the names Osman and Osborn must have been general. * * * It was not so impossible to the ear as it appears to the eye. One was pronounced "Osm'n," and the other "Osb'n." (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 74)

On the other hand, many authorities are of the opinion that Osborn and Osman are the names of wholly distinct Families.

Whitaker ("Southold," p. 46) mentions Thomas Osborn among the early settlers at Southold. Hon. Henry P. Hedges ("East Hampton," pp. 317-326) gives a history of the Osborns of East Hampton. Thomas 1 had a son, Thomas 2, who d. at East Hampton, in 1712. Thomas 2 had sons: Joseph 3, b. about 1671, m. Mary Hedges, d. Oct. —, 1743; and Daniel 3, m. Elizabeth Hedges, d. in 1713. Joseph 3 had a son, Joseph 4, who had sons: Joseph 5, and Lewis 5, the Refugees, below. Daniel 3 had a son, Daniel 4, m. Elizabeth Austin; d. in 1757. Daniel 4 had sons: Daniel 5, and Jonathan 5, the Refugees, below. Hedges (pp. 324-326) states that the Osborns of Wainscott, L. I., were from John 2 (son of Thomas 1), who had a son Thomas 3, b. about 1660, d. in 1745.

OSBORN ABRAHAM ()—From East Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

The Gen. gives the name of no man who could have been a Refugee; but I find in the East Hampton Ch. Rec. there was an Abraham Osborn, b. in 1736; and one who d. in 1772. Whether they were the same, it is impossible to tell. There is no record in East Hampton of any Abraham who was 19 years old, in 1776. There was one in East Hampton, in 1775, who was one of the signers to the Association. I think he must have been the one b. in 1736. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

He was b. about 1757 (G. 31); m., Jan. 11, 1782, Dorothy Booge. (East Haddam, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

OSBORN DANIEL 5 (Daniel 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1; brother of Jonathan, below)—From East Hampton up the Conn. River, with six in the family, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) If he was the one named in the Census of 1776 as being over 50 years old and having no family (A. 52), the acquirement of the family of six within a few months is a mystery. Another mystery is that, while he was b. in 1720 and d. in 1792, and while as a resident of East Hampton he became a Refugee, yet his name does not appear among the signers of the Association—that document stating that it had been signed by every male in East Hampton capable of bearing arms. (H. 28) He may, however, have signed in Brookhaven. (H. 20)

He was b. May 11, 1720; d. Dec. 4, 1792. He had a sister, Rebecca 5, b. in 1722, probably not m., d. in 1804. (Hedges, p. 322) He may have m. Mary Hunting; and, if so, he had a dau., Rebecca 6, b. May 4, 1768; m. Dec. 8, 1796, Solomon Moon, of Queensbury, Warren Co., N. Y. Their dau., Mary 7, was the mother of Mrs. Cooley. (Dr. James S. Cooley) Dr. Cooley continues:

This Osborn family were Patriots. They were surrounded by Tory neighbors. The feeling was so strong against the Patriots that Mr. Osborn abandoned his farm in East Hampton and crossed to Conn., in the night, taking his family and his household furniture with them. The daughter, Rebecca, was then 14 years old, and the crossing to Conn. was made the night after the surrender of Cornwallis, which surrender was not known for many days thereafter.

The same Census showed another Daniel, in Southold, who was also over 50 years old; and who had a wife, but no children. (A. 55) He was probably Capt. Daniel, mentioned by Hedges (p. 318); who in his will, proved in 1782, named a son Daniel; and who was probably the Daniel, Member of the N. Y. Ass'y from Suffolk Co., in 1787, 1788. He was the father of the late Hull Osborn and Dr. Thomas Osborn, of Riverhead. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Men of this name served in the 5th Line (G. 49); in the 4th Orange (G. 75); and in Conn. (G. 95) There was a Dr. ——— Osborn in the Hospital service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.—Spt.," p. 45)

OSBORN ELISHA 5 (Elisha 4, Thomas 3, John 2, Thomas 1)—From East Hampton to E. Haddam, with two passengers, in Sept., 1776. (C. 113) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

His father, Elisha 4, was in the Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Elisha 5, was also in the Census: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 52) He was b. Nov. 10, 1734; m. Dec. 15, 1758, Alice Edwards; is said to have d. in 1802. He had: Capt. Thomas 6, b. Oct. 3, 1759, m. Mary Conkling, removed to Columbia Co., N. Y.; Miriam 6, b. Jan. 29, 1761, not m.; Capt. Nathan 6, b. Apr. 16, 1763, removed to Columbia Co., N. Y.; Climenia 6, b. July 28, 1765, m. Gamaliel Edwards; Elisha, Jr., 6 b. Apr. 19, 1769, m. Mary Edwards, d. Dec. 9, 1856; Alice 6, b. Feb. 17, 1771, not m.; and John Stratton 6, b. Apr. 25, 1775, m. Puah Terbell, d. Aug. 22, 1852. (Hedges, pp. 325, 326)

OSBORN JONATHAN 5 (Daniel 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1; father of Joseph, Two, below; brother of Daniel, above)—From East Hampton. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and on the "Confederacy." (Page 218. Also G. 95)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. Apr. 14, 1725; m. June 10, 1753, Elizabeth Dibble; d. Jan. —, 1782. He had: Joseph 6, the Refugee, below; Jonathan 6, b. Jan. 4, 1760, m. Hetty Van Scoy, d. Jan. 31, 1846; Henry 6, b. in 1762, m. Hannah, dau. of Dea. Abraham Mulford, d. Dec. 11, 1836; Samuel 6, b. Mar. —, 1767, m. Fanny Wilcot, d. in 1859; and Dea. Daniel 6, m. Esther, dau. of Dea. Abraham Mulford. (Hedges, p. 322)

A Jonathan 5 (Jedediah 4, Thomas 3, John 2, Thomas 1)—From Bridge Hampton. He was a private in Capt. Hallock's Co.; and took part in the Battles of L. I. and Trenton. He was b. June —, 1737; m. Mary, dau. of Thomas Miller; d. Nov. —, 1814. (Hedges, p. 324)

Another Jonathan, of Southold, by the Census, was under 50 years old; and had a wife, but no children. (A. 55) He signed the Association. (H. 15) He was probably the one who m. Elizabeth Hallock, and lost five small children in Aug., 1756; or the one who m. Sarah Hallock, Dec. 18, 1786. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) It was a Jonathan, of Southold, who, on Aug. 25, 1778, as a Prisoner, asked that some of his effects might be brought from L. I. to Conn. (Page 120. Also D. 18) This Jonathan suffered much loss from the War. (Page 193)

OSBORN JOSEPH (ONE) 4 (Joseph 3, Thomas 2, 1; father of Lewis, below)—From East Hampton to Haddam, in Nov. 1776, by Capts. James Wiggins and David Sayre. (C. 114) On Jan. 10, 1777, he was permitted to return to L. I. with his family. (D. 3) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. about 1704; d. Nov. 21, 1786. He had: Joseph 5; Lewis 5; Mulford 5, d. s. p.; Charles 5; Temperance 5; Hedges 5; Mary 5, m. W. Hedges; Phebe 5, m. Zephaniah Filer. (Hedges, pp. 320, 321)

OSBORN JOSEPH (TWO) 6 (Jonathan 5, above, Daniel 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); and in Conn. (G. 95)

He was b. Aug. 11, 1754; m. Mary, dau. of Capt. Ezekiel Mulford; d. Aug. 11, 1844. He had: Mulford 7, d. y.; Sylvanus 7; Joseph 7; and Mulford 7. (Hedges, p. 322, 323) Joseph 7, b. Sept. 21, 1789; m. Maria Murdock, dau. of Dea. Abraham Hunting; d. Dec. 29, 1872. His son, Sylvanus M. 8, b. Aug. 28, 1815, had a dau., Mary Frances 9, who m. Samuel M. Gardiner. He was the father of Robert S. Gardiner, of Derby, Conn.; Frances F. Gardiner, and Edward E. Gardiner. (Hedges, pp. 322-324. Also Mr. Robert S. Gardiner)

Another Joseph, from East Hampton, b. in 1733; and still another, b. in 1738. It is not likely that they were the Refugees. A Capt. Joseph served in the 81st Exempts of Westchester. (G. 81)

OSBORN LEWIS 5 (Joseph 4, above, Joseph 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From East Hampton to Saybrook and Haddam. In Sept., 1776, his effects were brought to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and, in Oct., 1776, to Haddam by Capts. Charles Williams, Walter Havens and James Wiggins. (C. 115) On Jan. 3, 1778, he receipted for the claim of Sineus Dibble (C. 40); and for the claims of Edward Wick and Wid. Rebecca Cook. (C. 158) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He was a large land owner, and held several Town offices.

He was b. about 1747; m. Jerusha Gardiner; d. Sept. 14, 1783. He had: Dea. Abraham 6, b. Jan. 1, 1776, m. (1) Martha, dau. of Daniel Hedges, (2) Mercy, dau. of William Huntting (Hedges, p. 321); also Septimus 6, father of Charles 7, who was the father of Joseph S. 8 Osborn now living at East Hampton. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Lewis Osborn

OSBORN MATTHEW (Possibly a son of Joseph 4, above; and brother of Lewis, above)—From East Hampton to Saybrook and East Haddam. On Sept. 19, 1776, his effects were brought over by Capt. Peter Bonticou (C. 14); and, same month, from Saybrook to East Haddam, by Capt. James Wiggins. (C. 116) Capt. Bonticou's claim was paid Apr. 14, 1777. (A. 40) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) Mr. Joseph S. Osborn doubts if Matthew was a brother of Lewis.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. in 1738. He had children b. in 1768 and 1771. His wife d. in 1782. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.)

OSBORN ZEBEDEE 4 (Thomas 3, John 2, Thomas 1; uncle of Elisha, above)—From East Hampton to East Haddam. He was brought over, with two passengers, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. James Wiggins. (C. 117) On Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for flax. (D. 44) In Feb., 1781, he petitioned for leave to return to L. I. (E. 145) He may have served in Conn. (G. 95) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. before 1745. (Hedges, p. 324) The Ch. Recs. state that he d. in 1785.

Zebedee Osborn

OVERTON—A tradition is to the effect that the original settler on L. I. was Gen. Robert Overton, who served with Cromwell. There seems to be no evidence to show that he ever came to Southold. In fact, some branches of the Family pronounce the tradition to be absolute fiction.

John Elton appears in the Southold Rec., 1652-1683. In 1654, he m. Anna, dau. of Barnabas Wines, Sr. (See Wines), of Southold, and Wid. of Francis Nichols of Stratford, Conn. John Elton d. in 1675, leaving the bulk of his estate to his nephew, Isaac 1 Overton, son of his sister Hannah Elton Overton. His will was proved June 3, 1675. (Dr. John B. Lewis. Also Moore's "Index," p. 16. Also Southold Town Rec., 1. 123—Notes of J. Wickham Case) Dr. Lewis gives this complication, which would annoy even an expert genealogist:

About 1645 Anna, daughter of first Barnabas Wines, married Francis Nichols of Stratford, Conn. Nichols died in 1650; his Wid. returned to Southold; married John Elton, and under date of April 30, 1654, she, as the wife of Elton, obtained from him a release of certain properties in accordance with an ante-nuptial agreement or marriage settlement duly recorded in Liber A. p. 61, Southold Records. Elton died in 1675; and, in 1686, his Widow married John Tooker, first obtaining from him a bond or marriage contract—Liber C. p. 106. Tooker died; and under date of September 9, 1693, we find record of bond in the sum of £300—Liber C. p. 197—given by Col. John Youngs, eldest son of Pastor Youngs, to fulfill and keep a specified agreement of marriage with the Widow, Anna Nichols, Elton, Tooker, nee Wines.

Isaac 1 Overton, b. in England, and emigrated to this country prior to 1652. He was then in his early childhood, and under the care or guardianship of his widowed mother Hannah (Elton) Overton; and, of his uncle John Elton. About 1670, he m. Sarah _____, whose family name is unknown. He d. in 1688. (Dr. John B. Lewis) He appears in the Southold Recs., 1675-1688. (Moore, as above, p. 30. Also Whitaker's "Southold," p. 46) His children were: a dau. 2, unnamed, b. about 1671; Isaac 2, below; John 2, below; and Thomas 2, d. Oct. 24, 1706. (Salmon Rec. Also Moore, as above, p. 106)

Isaac 2, b. in May, 1673 (Dr. John B. Lewis), b. in 1683 (Moore, p. 106); m. Abigail, dau. of Nathaniel Moore (Southold Town Recs., p. 123. See also Moore); d. Nov. 4, 1723 (Moore, p. 106), d. Nov. 7, 1723, aged 40½. (Salmon Rec.) His children were: Nathaniel 3; John 3 and James 3, the Refugees, below; and Elton 3, d. July 17, 1769. (Salmon Rec. Also Moore, p. 106) He probably had other children.

John 2, d. Dec. 28, 1706. (Salmon Rec. Also Moore, p. 106) Isaac, "The Strong Man," was probably a son of John 2 or Thomas 2. The prevailing opinion is that he was a son of John 2. He d. Mar. 4, 1740. (Salmon Rec.) Griffin ("Journal," p. 153) relates stories showing his great strength; and states that he d. in 1744, aged 60. If so, he was b. about 1684. It has been stated, further, that John 2 had sons: Thomas 3, Maj. William 3, and perhaps others. Also that Isaac 3, the "Strong Man," removed to Coram, L. I.; and Maj. William 3, to East Patchogue, then known as "Jew Street." (Mrs. Charles W. Parks) Maj. William 1 is unknown to me. (Dr. Frank Overton)

Many tales are told of the "Giant's" Strength. At a Town Meeting he offered to lie on his back and allow any six men to hold him down by his hands and feet. When all were ready, the Giant gave one spring and brushed them off like so many flies. He was of so great stature that a large iron bed had been provided for him. Shortly before his death, he became involved in a discussion with a man of ordinary size. It was at meal time. The man spat upon the Giant's plate. He was enraged at the insult; and, reaching across the table, picked up his opponent and threw him out of the window with such force that the frame was broken. A short time after this, the Giant suddenly died. It was supposed that he had been poisoned by the man whom he threw out of the window. In his death struggle, he grasped the top posts of his iron bed and crushed, or broke, them in pieces, saying "I've been a strong man, but Death is stronger than I."

Placing, tentatively, Isaac "the Strong Man" as Isaac 3, we find the tradition that he had 12 children. The name of but one, David 4, is apparent. He was b. in 1712 (Mrs. Yetta Overton West); m. (1) Anna Hulse, m. (2) Susannah, dau. of Nehemiah 4 Palmer, of Conn. Mrs. D. R. Davis, of Coram, has the Bible of David 4, in which these entries are found. The first six children, are by his first wife; the other six, by his second wife: David 5, b. Aug. 29, 1739; Maj. Isaac 5, below; Anna 5, b. Jan. 30, 1743; Abigail 5, b. Apr. 15, 1745; John 5 and James 5, b. Jan. 12, 1747; Palmer 5, b. Jan. 6, 1750; Susanna 5, b. Oct. 20, 1751; Nathaniel 5, b. May 29, 1753; Messenger 5, b. Mar. 15, 1756; Justus 5, b. Aug. 20, 1757; Nehemiah 5, b. May 20, 1760.

Of these, Nathaniel, Messenger and Justus were members of a Brookhaven Co., in Col. Floyd's Regt., Isaac Davis, Lt. (Mrs. C. W. P.) The Official Records do not contain their names, as of Col. Floyd's Regt. In regard to service elsewhere, the Records are silent as to Justus. There was a Nathaniel in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37), and a Messenger, also. (G. 35)

David 5, m. ———, Mary Davis; d. Mar. 24, 1826. (Tombstone at Coram) He probably came to Coram from Southold. He had a son Davis 6, b. in 1770; m. Deborah, dau. of Nathaniel Wells; d. May 8, 1835. His son, Davis, Jr., 7, had children: Rev. Floyd 8, b. Nov. 6, 1822, d. Aug. 22, 1855; Daniel Terry 8, b. Apr. 17, 1825, m. Charry A. Hawkins, d. Apr. 7, 1865; Buel Davis 8, of Stamford, Conn., b. Nov. 19, 1830, m. (1) Susan Smith, (2) Betty Lockwood, d. Mar. 20, 1898; Oakley Atwood 8, of Patchogue, b. Feb. 16, 1833, d. May 22, 1911—his Wid., Mary, d. July 13, 1911; Whitman 8, of Bayport, b. Jan. 8, 1838, m., Dec. 24, 1863, Lydia Ann Terry. Daniel Terry 8 was the father of Rev. Daniel H. 9, now living at Islip, who m. (1) Caroline Terry (d. May 11, 1911), (2) June 22, 1912, Ethel Elaine Edwards; and had, by his first wife, Jonathan Terry 10, and Daniel H., Jr., 10. Whitman 8 had: Inez Blanche 9, b. June 20, 1870, m. Bertram G. Smith—children, Paul W. 10, and Lydia M. 10; Yetta 9, b. Apr. 18, 1875, m. Apr. 10, 1911, George Nathaniel West; and Ralph Terry 9, b. June 15, 1882, m. Edna M. Costello. (From Family Bible of Davis 7, by Mrs. Y. O. West) Oakley Atwood 8, had a son, Floyd Alward 9; and a grandson, Grant Martin 10, now of N. Y. City. Other children of Daniel Terry 8 were: Mary 9, m. Madison Smith, had 11 children, of whom 10 are living; Emma Violet 9, m. Anderson Smith, had a dau., Elizabeth 10; Amelia Rosa 9, m. Edward Snyder; Caroline Morrell 9, m. William L. Davis and had, Percy 10, William L., Jr., 10 and Harold 10; and Wilmot Davis 9, m. (1) Emma Wingett, (2) Minnie Kucher, by first wife, had Mildred 10, by second wife had Lloyd 10 and Fannie 10. Mildred m. Joshua Baker; lives at Sayville; and has Roland 11 and Monetta Violet 11. (Rev. Daniel H. Overton) Floyd Alward 9, lived at Patchogue; d. Jan. —, 1910. (Dr. F. O.)

Palmer 5, d. Dec. 14, 1805. His wife, Lucretia, d. Sept. 5, 1815, aged 60. (Tombstone at Coram. Also Mrs. Martha T. Overton) He had a son, Joshua 6; and a grandson, Lewis 7, who was a famous teacher. The latter was the grandfather of Mrs. D. R. Lewis, of Coram. (Dr. F. O.)

Nathaniel 5, d. Jan. 10, 1803, aged 50. His Wid., Deborah, d. Nov. 18, 1806, aged 45. His son, Nehemiah 6, b. in 1781; d. Nov. —, 1806, aged 25. (Tombstones at Coram) His dau., Abigail 6, b. in 1788, m. Anslem Davis; d. Feb. 22, 1824. (Tombstone at Middle Island) Deborah Ann Davis 7, m. William Frear, of Troy, N. Y. Martha B. Frear 8, m. Charles W. Parks. His son, Albert 6, b. about 1795; m. Mary, dau. of Joseph B. Roe; d. s. p. about 1870. His son, Nathaniel Palmer 6, b. June 17, 1801; m. Fannie Roe, sister of Mary, above; d. Jan. 3, 1859. (Mrs. C. W. P.)

Susanna 5, d. Jan. —, 1818. (Tombstone at Coram)

Justus 5, m. (1) Ruth ———, (2) Nancy ———; d. May 4, 1842. (Mrs. Y. O. West)

Nehemiah 5, b. May 21, 1760; d. Nov. —, 1806. (Mrs. Y. O. West) By family tradition, he fired the British haystacks, at Coram. (Page 233. Also Mrs. Martha T. Overton) He was b. May 20, 1760; d. Feb. 20, 1831. His place is now owned by the Wid. of Webster Overton. He was the ancestor of Robert S. Overton, of Westport, Conn., and John Roe Smith, of Patchogue, L. I. (Mrs. C. W. P.)

Mr. Grant M. Overton gives Isaac 3 "The Giant," beside David 4, above, also: Nathaniel 4, b. in 1708, m. ——— Coleman, and had, Nathaniel Coleman 5; John 4, m. in 1734, Jemima Hulse, and had, Elton 5, and Joshua 5; James 4, m. in 1745, and had, Isaac 5, b. in 1763, Nathaniel 5 and John 5.

A Delia Overton, of Southold, b. Mar. 17, 1782; m. David Harmon; d. July 2, 1841. He was b. Jan. 20, 1772; d. Aug. 17, 1859. He had a son, Samuel, the grandfather of Rev. Willard P. Harmon, of Riverhead, L. I.

A David Overton, may have m. about 1810, at Cold Brook, Herkimer Co., N. Y., Mary Beebe, Wid. of Samuel 5 Newbury. (See Newbury) This David Overton is buried at Cold Brook.

A Mary Overton, m. James 4, Griffing. (See Griffing)

Joel Overton, d. Sept. 15, 1776. (Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton)

OVERTON AARON 5 (David 4, Isaac 3, John 2 or Thomas 2, Isaac 1; brother of Maj. Isaac, below)—From Southold to Norwich with his brother, Maj. Isaac. (E. 129, 130) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and in Conn. (G. 95) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

An Aaron, m. Apr. 3, 1783, Sarah Ayers. (Norwich-Lisbon, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

OVERTON ELTON 4 (Nathaniel 3, below, Isaac 2, 1; father of Maj. Seth, below; brother of Nathaniel, Jr., below)—From Southold to New London. In Sept., 1776, his cattle were moved over by Capt. Peter Latimer. (C. 179) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with 10 in the family, he was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) In Jan., 1777, some of his effects were brought over by Capt. Richard Spink. (C. 178) He returned to Southold. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. in 1733; m. Apr. 25, 1754, Sarah Reeves (Southold Ch. Rec. Also Salmon Rec.); d. Dec. 13, 1810. (Salmon Rec.) The following record of his children is from Dr. John B. Lewis:—

1. Alathea 5, b. in 1755; d. May 19, 1831. She m. (1) Jan. 29, 1778, Henry Gildersleeve (who d. Nov. 26, 1779); and, as his Wid. was a Refugee with a child (see Gildersleeve), the name of the child is not known. She m. (2) Apr. 27, 1780, Johnathan Tuthill, and had children. (See Tuthill)

2. Isaac 5, b. in 1758. He was Pastor of the Church at Oyster Ponds (now Orient) from 1794 until his death, Aug. 31, 1799. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 40)

3. Gen. Seth 5, below.

4. A dau. 5, probably b. about 1761.

Naomi and Sarah were sisters. Sarah, wife of Drake, died May 14th, 1811. Field, husband of Naomi, died August 14th, 1816. Drake subsequently married Naomi, Widow of Field. Drake died November 30, 1837. Naomi died June 20th, 1849, Widow of Drake.

9. Jonathan 5, b. Feb. 7, 1774; m. Dec. 1, 1793, Bethia Wells. Their dau., Arminda 6, b. Sept. 12, 1794.

OVERTON ISAAC 5, MAJ. (David 4, Isaac 3, John 2 or Thomas 2, Isaac 1)—From Southold to New London and Norwich. On Sept. 13, 1776, some of his cattle were brought to New London by Capt. Peter Latimer. (C. 179) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with 10 in the family, he was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) In Jan., 1777, some of his own and the effects of his father, David, were brought over by Capt. Richard Spink. (C. 178) On Mar. 22, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for provisions, &c. (D. 47) On Feb. 20, 1781, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., stating that he lived at Norwich, that his invalid brother Aaron was with him, and that his father, David, was nearly 80 years old and needed his services on L. I. He asked leave to return with his family of 10 persons, cattle and effects; which was granted. (E. 129, 130) He signed the Association, in 1775; and he may have signed in Brookhaven, also. (H. 12, 18, 27) On Apr. 4, 1776, he declined the office of Adj't. of Col. Smith's Regt., to which he had been appointed Feb. 20, preceding; but he was made 2d Maj. on May 30, 1776. (G. 4. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.)

Isaac overton

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 4. (A. 55) He was b. Feb. 5, 1740-1. (Family Bible of David 4, Page 487) He was b. Feb. 20, 1740-1. (Mrs. C. W. P.) He had several sons, among whom: Maj. Isaac 6, b. in 1765, d. in 1838, and is buried at Bellport; Rev. Stephen 6, b. Jan. 25, 1772, d. Sept. 23, 1830. A granddau. of Maj. Isaac 5, Mrs. Caleb Cutler, lives at Hackettstown, N. J. (Dr. Frank Overton) See Whitaker's "Southold" (p. 276), for Rev. Stephen 6.

Maj. Isaac 6 had: Col. Isaac 7, d. in 1880; William 7; Nancy 7; Clara 7; and others. Col. Isaac 7 had a son, Isaac L. 8, of Patchogue, who d. in 1896. His Wid., Martha T., and son, James L. 9, are at Patchogue. William 7 had: Edward 8, and William 8. Edward 8 was the father of Frank 9, M. D., of Patchogue, who has, Edward 10, and Mary 10. William 8 had: Joseph W. 9, of Bellport, who had, William 10, and Emma 10, m. Thomas Wright of Bellport; Imogene 9, of Bellport; and Charles Edward 9, of Los Angeles, Cal., has three sons. Nancy 7, m. Isaac Ketcham, and has descendants in N. Y. City. Clara 7, m. Clark Homan, and has descendants. (Dr. F. O.)

An Isaac, m. Mar. 8, 1786, Susan Brown. (Salmon Record) Probably the same Isaac, m. Wid. Susanna Brown, Mar. 8, 1786. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) Still another Isaac, of Brookhaven, Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 51) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 27)

OVERTON JAMES 3 (Isaac 2, 1; brother of John, below, and Nathaniel, below; father of John, Jr., below. His brothers and his son were Refugees)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with three in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) In Jan., 1777, some of his goods and cattle were brought to New London by Capt. Richard Spink. (C. 178) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35) He signed the Association, in 1775, and he may have signed in Brookhaven, also. (H. 12, 26, 27)

Apparently, he was not in the Census of 1776. Two of the name, both younger men, were named. James, of Southold: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) James, of Brookhaven: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 51) A James, son of a Nathaniel, bapt. Nov. 18, 1750. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

James 3, the Refugee, date of birth not given. He m. Oct. 15, 1745, Mary Goldsmith. (Mrs. E. A. Bell. Also Salmon Rec.) Another James, m. Feb. 15, 1774, Lydia Horton. (Southold Ch. Rec.) Either one may have been the younger James in the Census, above. It is probable that James 3 had several children. He certainly had sons: Isaac 4; John Jr., 4, the Refugee below; and Nathaniel 4.

Isaac 4 b. Sept. 20, 1763; m. Dec. 17, 1790, Abigail, dau. of Capt. Elisha Vail (see Vail); d. July 24, 1833. His children were: William Horace 5, below; Julia 5, b. Oct. 27, 1793; Laurinda 5, b. Apr. 19, 1796; and Silas 5, b. Feb. 19, 1801. (Vail Gen. p. 80) William Horace 5, b. Oct. 17, 1791; m. Martha Horton; d. in 1851. His son, Franklin H. 6, m. Esther Horton; and had a son Silas F. 7, b. in 1844, m. Louise Fitz. Silas F. 7 had a son, Franklin F. 8, b. in 1873, m. Susan Sweet and has two young children; also a dau., Julia F. 8, b. in 1879, m. E. A. Bell. Silas F. 7 and his descendants live at Peconic, L. I. (Mrs. E. A. B.)

OVERTON JOHN 3 (Isaac 2, 1; brother of James, above, and Nathaniel, below)—From Southold to New London. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with two in the family, he was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35) He signed the Association, in 1775; and he may have signed the Association in Brookhaven, also. (H. 10, 12, 27)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He m. Jan. 1, 1733 (1734?), Jemima Hulse. (Salmon Rec.) A John, probably this one, d. Oct. 25, 1783. (Salmon Rec.) Miss Frances J. Overton states that he went from Conn. to the Wyoming Valley, and that he returned.

OVERTON JOHN, JR., 4 (James 3, above, Isaac 2, 1)—From Southold to New London, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with nine in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) In Jan., 1777, some of his goods and sheep were brought over by Capt. Richard Spink. (C. 178) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He had evidently returned to L. I. before Jan. 20, 1783; for, on that date, Braddock Dickinson was allowed to go to Southold to bring off monies due him from John Overton, Jr. (F. 92)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He may have m., Feb. 5, 1755, Elizabeth Hopps (Southold Ch. Rec.); or, Feb. 5, 1756, Elizabeth Reeve (Salmon Rec.); or, Aug. 28, 1793, Sarah Clark. (Salmon Rec.)

OVERTON JOSHUA (Perhaps Joshua 5, John 4, Isaac 3, "Giant", John 2, Isaac 1)—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept., 1776, with seven in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He may have m. Apr. 9, 1767, Anna Hulse; or, Sept. 25, 1801, Phebe Rogers; or, Nov. 28, 1805, Bethiah Terry. (Salmon Rec.) He may have been the Joshua who d. Mar. 28, 1811. (Salmon Rec. See also Terry)

OVERTON NATHANIEL 3 (Isaac 2, 1; brother of James, above, and John, above; father of Elton, above, and Nathaniel, Jr., below)—From Southold to New London and Guilford. On Sept. 13, 1776, some of his cattle were brought to New London by Capt. Peter Latimer. (C. 179) In Sept., 1776, with two in the family, he was brought over to Guilford by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with five in the family, he was brought over to New London by Capt. John Vail (C. 177); and, same months, with two passengers, to Guilford, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) On Mar. 21, 1780, from Groton, he asked leave to return to Southold. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 90)

On the latter date, he was about 73 years of age. He returned to Southold, and d. there. (Dr. John B. Lewis) He signed the Association, in 1775; and he may have signed in Brookhaven, also. (H. 12, 26, 27)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1708; d. Oct. 29, 1779 (Salmon Rec.); d. Oct. 29, 1780. (Dr. John B. Lewis) He m. (1) May 23, 1732, Alathea Way (See Way); m. (2) Aug. 29, 1754, Mary Terry. (Southold Ch. Rec.) Salmon Rec. states that the date of marriage was Aug. 25, 1754. His children were:

Elton 4, above; Melletiah 4; Nathaniel, Jr., 4, below; and Daniel 4, d. Sept. 12, 1764. (Dr. J. B. L.) Daniel 4 and a sister, d. Sept. 12, 1764. (Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton) Melletiah 4 had a son, Melletiah 5, m. Jan. 29, 1799, Lucretia Davis. His children were: Richard 6, b. May 23, 1802; Marietta 6, b. Aug. 12, 1805; Lucretia 6, b. Aug. 18, 1807; Gilbert Davis 6, b. July 12, 1812, d. July 30, 1849; Pamela 6, b. June 15, 1819. (Dr. J. B. L. Also Southold Town Records, Lib. D.)

"American Ancestry" (3. 40) makes Melletiah 5, son of Nathaniel, Jr., 4, below, and proceeds—Melletiah 5, of Southold, b. July 31, 1776; m. Dec. 30, 1799, Lucretia Davis; d. Nov. 1, 1839. His son, Gilbert Davis 6, of N. Y., b. at Southold, July 12, 1812; m. Jan. 17, 1838, Julia F. Westcott; d. July 30, 1849. His sons: Capt. Gilbert E. 7, b. Mar. 18, 1845, m. Feb. 28, 1873, Jane D. Watkins; and Albert R. 7, b. Mar. 28, 1848, m. Therese de Angelis. He had, also: Eugene 7 and Gwendolen 7, of Los Angeles, Cal. (Mr. Eugene Overton)

OVERTON NATHANIEL, JR., 4 (Nathaniel 3, above, Isaac 2, 1; brother of Elton, above)—From Southold. In the citations from Appendix C., given in Nathaniel, Sr., above, the original documents make no distinction between Nathaniel, Sr., and Nathaniel, Jr. It is probable that the citations which mention Guilford as the point of arrival relate to Nathaniel, Jr.; so that it can reasonably be stated that he went from Southold to Guilford. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in 1734; m. in 1768, Keziah Coleman; d. Feb. 15, 1817. ("American Ancestry," 3. 40) He d. Jan. 8, 1793. (Dr. J. B. L.) A Nathaniel, m. Oct. 11, 1778, Elizabeth Overton. (Salmon Rec.)

The above is the record of Nathaniel, Jr., of Southold, who served in the Army. The Coram branch of the Family claims that the Military service belongs to Nathaniel 5 (David 4, Isaac 3—The Giant, John 2, Isaac 1). See references to the earlier generations on Pages 486-488.

OVERTON SETH 5, GEN. (Elton 4, above, Nathaniel 3, Isaac 2, 1)—From Southold to Chatham. This Town was incorporated, in 1767; and was formerly a part of Middletown. (Bailey's "Early Conn. Marriages," Book 3, p. 74) He lived in that part of the Town now known as Portland. On June 16, 1780, the Selectmen of Chatham reported to the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. that he was engaged in the Illicit Trade. (E. 65, 66) On Oct. 16, 1780, he asked leave to go to L. I. and bring his aged parents to Conn.; which was negative. (E. 67) He was in the Privateer service, in Conn. (Page 218. Also G. 95) He fitted out a Privateer at his own expense. (Mr. C. O. Sherman) He contracted to build the ship-of-war, "Connecticut." (Page 361) He was administrator of the estate of Henry Gildersleeve. (Page 361. See also Gildersleeve) He probably received the title of Capt. from his Privateer service. He was afterward Brig. Gen. in the Militia of Conn., 1807-1809. (Dr. J. B. L.)

He was b. in 1759; bapt. Dec. 15, 1765 (Southold Ch. Rec.); d. in 1852, aged 93. (Dr. J. B. L.) His tombstone, at Portland, states that he d. Aug. 17, 1852, aged 94. In the same Cemetery are buried others of the name, Overton.

A Seth Overton, m. Apr. 15, 1779, Mehitable White. (Chatham—Portland, Conn., Ch. Rec.) This brings up the question as to the marriage of Gen. Seth, over which there has been some controversy.

My information touching the bachelorhood of Gen. O. was wholly verbal, and came mainly from those who knew him personally. Not one of them is now living. One of them was Mr. James Clark, my brother-in-law; who, in the summer of 1843, when I was eleven years of age, took me with him on an outing by water, and a part of our trip was up the Conn. River to Middletown. We lived on board the boat; but, at Middletown, left her and went across to Portland to call on General O., whom James knew. That was about seventy years ago; but it was a great event for a lad of my age, and I have always remembered much about it. I had been told that he, General O., lived there as a bachelor; and others, in Southold, had told the same story. So far as I know, the fact never was questioned or discussed. I could name several Southolders who knew about it; but they are now, all of them, long since dead. James Clark died 13 years ago. He was then over 80 years of age. It looks to me, on the information given, that my informants were mistaken, although I cannot quite reconcile it to my mind how they could be. (Dr. John B. Lewis)

Seth Overton

I am reasonably sure he m. Mehitable White. * * * The Overton estate was eventually settled, a few years ago, when the last Overton died, in Gildersleeve, Conn. A professional genealogist was employed by the estate to trace and prove all collateral heirs, as the direct heirs were extinct. I am sure that Gen. Seth had many descendants. (Prof. Willard H. Gildersleeve)

Gen. Seth came from Southold, L. I., to Portland, then a part of Chatham, called East Middletown. I was 10 years old when Gen. Seth d. He wore a blue coat, with bright brass buttons. There are none of his descendants in Portland at the present time. (Mr. Charles H. White)

Mr. White quotes a record from "Memorials of Elder John White and his Descendants": "Capt. Noadiah White's daughter, Mehitable, b. June 21st, 1754; m. April 15, 1779, Gen. Seth Overton, of Chatham. He was a Justice of the Quorum, 1806-1818. She died Aug. 20, 1828, age 74. He died Aug. 17, 1852, age 94. They had: Seth 6, b. Mar. 5, 1780; Prudence 6, b. Feb. 6, 1783; Charlotte 6, b. Mar. 10, 1785; Augustine 6, b. Mar. 24, 1787; and Oliver 6, b. Aug. 22, 1789, was a lawyer in Bellefontaine, Ohio, d. in 1825."

The marriage of Seth Overton and Mehetable White is entered on the Records of the Portland Cong'l Ch., and is in harmony with the White Genealogy. The record in the White book was written by a near relative of Mrs. Overton, Ebenezer B. White of Portland, and is probably correct. The dates of the children were probably taken from the Family Record which I never saw, and is now supposed to be in California. According to the Pittsfield "Sun," Gen. Overton m. (2) in N. Y. City, Oct. 19, 1831, Sarah, dau. of Jacob Ward, of Pittsfield. She survived her husband, but how long I do not know. (Mr. Frank Farnsworth Starr)

PAIN—PAINE—PAYNE—In a Family Bible, the name is spelled both Pain and Payne. (Miss Addie Sayre)

I have in my possession, a leaf, probably from a Family Bible, giving the first account of my ancestors. It says that "Thomas Payne and katheren harssant, daughter of Thomas harssant of Cransford, were married at Cooklie, July 20, 1578." His son, Thomas Payne, b. Dec. 11, 1586, "Married Elizabeth on the 22nd nouember; Anno 1610." Thomas 1 and Elizabeth, with their children, Mary 2, Thomas 2 and John 2, sailed from Yarmouth, Eng., on or soon after May 10, 1637, in his own vessel, the "Mary Anne"; and arrived in Salem, Mass., in Aug., 1637. He petitioned, Aug. 28, 1637, for a small parcel of land, next his house, which was granted to him. He d. in Salem, probably late in 1639, leaving a will dated April 10, 1638, which was proved in Salem in 1644. I have visited Cooklie and Cransford, in Eng.; and have visited the neighborhood of Southwold and Wrentham, twice, about 10 and 12 years ago. Some of the settlers of Southold, L. I., came from Southwold, Suffolk Co., Eng.; but I found no record in the Church Register, at Southwold, of my ancestors. I did find the burial notice, in the Wrentham Church Record, of Nathaniel Payne (youngest son of Thomas 1), substantiating my own Bible Record. Hatten's "Original Lists" supports the belief that Wrentham was the English home of the Family. According to an English book, "Perlustrations in Yarmouth," Thomas Payne was a Puritan; bought the "Mary Anne" for the emigration of his family; and brought with him some relatives, friends, and other Puritans. (Dr. N. Emmons Paine)

The "Eastham branch" descends from Thomas 1, the emigrant to Eastham, Cape Cod, Mass. Thomas 1 had a son, Elisha 2, of Barnstable, Mass., and Canterbury, Conn. Elisha 2 had Abraham 3, of Canterbury. Rev. Thomas 4, son of Abraham 3, b. in 1724; m. Abigail, Wid. of Dr. Daniel Hull. He was Pastor of the Church at Cutchogue, 1748-1766. He and his descendants appear as residents of Southold along with the descendants of Thomas 1, of Salem—thus leading to much confusion. (Dr. N. E. P. Also Paine Gen., Vol. 2) Elisha 2 also had a son, Rev. Elisha 3, b. about 1692; d. in 1775. He became the Minister at Bridge Hampton, L. I., in 1752. (Hedges' "B. H. Bi-centennial Address"—1886) Of the same branch, probably, was Elisha, son of Cornelius who m. Constant Havens. Elisha lived on Gardiner's Island and, later, on Shelter Island. In 1748, he m. Deliverance Tuthill; and d. in 1761, leaving a Wid. and several children. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 43) She was probably the Wid. Payne whose house was attacked, in 1781. (Page 205) Another Wid., of Southold, had a son over 16 years old. (A. 55) See H. 39 for Rev. Thomas and Rev. Elisha.

The children of Thomas 1, of Salem, were b. in Eng.: Mary, 2, 1611, m. Philemon Dickerson; Peter 2, 1616-17; John, Sr., 2, 1620. Widow Elizabeth Payne moved to Southold with her sons, Peter 2 and John 2, as early as 1657 (See Whitaker's "Southold," p. 47), and died in 1658. Peter 2 was the progenitor of the present Paynes of Southold. He also d. in 1658. (Mr. Baldwin T. Payne)

Peter 2 m. Mary ———; d. in 1658. Vail Gen. [p. 29] states that, as the Widow Paine, she m. May 24, 1660, Jeremiah Vail, the emigrant. Peter 2 had several children, of whom: John 3. He was mentioned in deeds, and elsewhere, as Jr., and as "Capt." He was b. about 1653; m. (1), about 1679, Mary ———; m. (2) Mar. 21, 1692, Jemima, dau. of Joseph and Elizabeth (Preston) Alsop, of New Haven, who survived him. His will, proved Oct. 3, 1707, named his wife Jemima; his sons, Allsup 4, below, John 4, Peter 4; and daughters, Mary 4, m. Abraham Corey, Martha 4, m. Henry Case. It is stated that his dau., Mary 4, m. Benjamin 3 Vail. (See Vail)—(B. T. P. Also Original Wills, N. Y. Surrogate's Office) The Census of 1698 added: Eliza 4, and Jemima 4. (Paine Gen.)

PAINE ALSOP 4 (John 3, Peter 2, Thomas 1; father of Benjamin, One, below, and John, One, below)—From Southold to Middletown, in Nov., 1776, by Cpts. Benjamin Conkling and Eliphalet Redfield. On Dec. 12, 1777, his claim was paid to his wife, Phebe. (C. 118) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

This account of the removal, written by his son John, is furnished by Dr. N. Emmons Paine:—

1776. September the 2 day lefte longe ise land to go to the main, that was a monday. On a thursday the 5 day we moved to martin miner's house att lime, and September the 21 day moved from their to mr Daniel miners house.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in Southold, in 1698; m. (1) Feb. 20, 1727-8, Deborah Bayley. She d. May 24, 1731, probably at the birth of an unnamed child. He m. (2) Jan. 12, 1731-2, Phoebe Mary, dau. of Isaac Moore, of New Haven. She d. Oct. 30, 1791. Alsop Pain d., at Southold, Mar. 6, 1795. (Dr. N. E. P.) He m. Phebe 4 (Thomas 3, 2, 1) Moore of Southold. (Moore's "Index." See also Moore) See Phebe, below.

Of the children: Lydia 5 d. y.; Daniel 5, b. Nov. 1, 1732, d. y.; Deborah 5, Twin with Daniel 5, b. Oct. 31, 1732, m. (1) Ebenezer Frothingham of Middletown, Conn., Apr. 20, 1757, m. (2) Abijah Wines, July 2, 1765. (See Wines) He is called "Parson" Frothingham in Atkins' "History of Middlefield, Conn." Jemima 5, b. May 30, 1738; m. (1) Peter Wines, Dec. 3, 1756, m. (2) Elihu Stow, of Middletown, in 1760. (Mr. Frank Farnsworth Starr) He also had sons: Benjamin (One) 5, below; and John (One) 5, below. The "Hist. of Middlefield" gives the descendants of Elihu Stow and Jemima Paine. Dr. N. Emmons Paine states that the eldest child, not named, d. y.; and that Lydia 5, b. Sept. 13, 1735, d. Nov. 2, 1750.

PAINE BENJAMIN (ONE) 5 (Alsop 4, above, John 3, Peter 2, Thomas 1; brother of John, One, below)—From Southold to Guilford and Middletown. In Sept., 1776, he was brought to Middletown by Cpts. Eber Waterous and Jasper Griffing (C. 119); in Oct., 1776, to Guilford by Capt. Jeremiah Vail (C. 120); and, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with two passengers, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) He was at New Haven, Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79) Several of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12, 13, 20) He may have been a Jus. of the Peace in Hartford Co., Conn., in 1780. (E. 58)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. Mar. 25, 1744; m. Feb. 26, 1767, Bathsheba Conkling. They removed to Wading River, L. I.; where he d. Sept. 28, 1781, and his Wid. d. Feb. 10, 1782. There is much uncertainty as to their children. (B. T. P.) It is probable that the children were: Benjamin 6, b. ———; Seth 6, b. in 1769 (?); Ebenezer 6, b. in 1772 (?); and Abigail 6, b. in 1775 (?)—(Dr. N. E. P.)

PAINE BENJAMIN (TWO) 5, SERJT. (Rev. Thomas 4, Abraham 3, Elisha 2, Thomas 1, of Eastham)—From Southold. It is claimed that the Military service of Benjamin Paine belonged to him. (Mr. Robert B. Cone and Mr. Harry F. Payne) The service was in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and, as Serjt., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38. Also Mr. Harry F. Payne); and, as Serjt., from Cutchogue, in Col. Terry's Regt. ("Year Book, 1900-1903, Conn. Sons of American Rev'n," p. 469) He took part in the Battle of L. I. (Mr. Robert B. Cone) He may have served in Conn. (G. 96) He was a pensioner in 1833, aged 82. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 429) This Benjamin was the one who changed the spelling of his name to Payne. (Mr. Edward T. Payne)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. July 3, 1751; bapt. July 21, 1751; m. Oct. 21, 1790, Deliverance Wells; d. _____, 1838. (Paine Gen. 2. 260) Mr. Edward T. Payne, of Glen Cove, L. I., is a descendant.

A Benjamin, m. Jan. 8, 1781, Mary Hedges. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

PAINE EPHRAIM ()—From Sag Harbor to Stonington, in Oct., 1776, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton. (C. 214) If he went directly thereafter to Dutchess Co., he was probably the Assemblyman and Senator from the Middle Dist. (Proceedings and Journals) Probably he was in Dutchess Co., in 1781; as, in that year, he was authorized to collect a claim due to Col. Roswell Hopkins for the sending of expresses. (C. 218)

PAINE JOHN (ONE) 5 (Alsop 4, above, John 3, Peter 2, Thomas 1; brother of Benjamin, One, above)—From Southold to Middletown, in 1776, with his father Alsop. (q. v.) In Sept., 1776, one passenger and cattle were brought from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213) In Nov., 1776, he assisted his father to remove. (C. 118) In 1777, he was in Saybrook. (A. 43) Two of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Southold Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 6. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) This evidently refers to another John who had an older family than John, son of Alsop.

He was b. May 27, 1739; m. (1) Feb. 14, 1762, Mary Booth, who d. Oct. 22, 1801, aged 70; m. (2) in 1803 (?), Sarah, dau. of Joseph Rogers of Southampton, and Wid. of Moses Halsey. She d. Feb. 19, 1826. There is, in the possession of his descendants, the "Qualification of John Paine, son of Alsop, for the office of Coroner, in the County of Suffolk, State of New York," dated Feb. 11, 1784, and signed by Gov. George Clinton.

The children of John 5 were: John 6, b. May 21, 1763; Joshua 6, b. Mar. 28, 1765; Ezra 6, below; Phineas 6, below; David 6, b. Nov. 8, 1771; Stephen 6, b. May 22, 1774; and Elizabeth 6, b. Jan. 29, 1782.

Ezra 6, b. Mar. 24, 1767; m. in 1790, Elizabeth Weeks; removed to Whites-town (now Deerfield), N. Y.; d. Sept. 21 [Sept. 1—Paine Gen.], 1828. His son Dr. John Alsop 7, b. July 10, 1795; m. Jan. 15, 1824, Amanda Kellogg; practised in Utica and Albany, N. Y., Newark, N. J., &c.; d. June 16, 1871. Dr. John Alsop's son, Dr. Horace Marshfield 8, b. Nov. 19, 1827; m. Apr. 15, 1852, Charlotte Mann; practised in Clinton and Albany, N. Y.; d. Dec. 5, 1903. Children of Dr. Horace Marshfield, in 9th generation:—Dr. Nathaniel Emmons, of the private Hospital at West Newton, Mass., and consulting physician of several Hospitals; Dr. Howard Simmons, of Glens Falls, N. Y.; Dr. Clarence Mann, of Atlanta, Ga.; and Emily Florence, m. Nov. 1, 1911, Dr. John Morgan Howe, of N. Y. City. (Dr. N. E. P.)

Phineas 6, b. Apr. 25, 1769; m. Jan. 9, 1799, Hannah, dau. of Silas Woodruff (See Woodruff); d. May 18, 1849. His children were: Charles Henry 7, b. Aug. 11, 1800, m. Jan. 30, 1825, Hannah, dau. of Jonathan Tuthill (see Tuthill), d. Mar. 31, 1869; Silas Woodruff 7, b. Dec. 2, 1801, d. May 12, 1891; Hannah 7, b. Sept. 21, 1803, d. Mar. 12, 1876; Elmira 7, b. Sept. 21, 1805, d. Dec. 21, 1877; Maria Adelia 7, b. Sept. 1, 1807, d. Aug. 20, 1844; _____ 7, b. Apr. 10, 1810, d. Apr. 19, 1810; Edwin 7, b. Feb. 2, 1812, d. Dec. 27, 1818; Hubbard Corwith 7, b. Sept. 17, 1813, d. Mar. 2, 1880; Elias Woodruff 7, b. Jan. 30, 1816, d. Sept. 24, 1881; Joshua 7 (twin with Elias W.), d. July 26, 1887; and Jane Maretta 7, b. Mar. 18, 1818, d. Dec. 29, 1835. A son of Charles Henry 7, Baldwin Tuthill 8, now lives at Southold, L. I. He was b. in 1841. His dau., Jessie King 9, b.

John Paine

in 1866; m. William I. Hagerman. His dau., Grace Tuthill 9, m. Halstead Rhodes. (Mr. Baldwin T. Payne) See Addenda (I. 16)

PAINE JOHN (TWO)—(Son of Jonathan, below. Probably from the Eastham branch)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. In Dec., 1776, and in Feb., 1777, he was moved over by Cpts. Constant L'Hommedieu and Benjamin Conkling. (C. 171) He receipted for the claims of his father, Jonathan, Capt. Stephen Topping, Charles Topping, David Topping, and other Refugees. (C. 171-174) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 31); and possibly in Willett's Levies (G. 62), the 1st Orange (G. 72), and in Conn. (G. 96) He lived at Hog Neck (now North Haven), near Sag Harbor.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 4. (A. 54) He was b. in 1737; d. in 1813. His son, John, Jr., b. June 8, 1758; m. Dec. 20, 1783, Patience, dau. of Isaac 1 Van Scoy; d. June 17, 1815. (Miss Addie Sayre) His children were: Charles Watson, Mercy, Clara, Lucretia, John, Silas, Betsey, Phebe and Timothy. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 342) Charles Watson, b. Apr. 15, 1788; m. Mary Crowell of Chatham, Cape Cod, Mass.—[thus confirming the origin in the Eastham branch]; d. Jan. 14, 1861. Charles Watson, 2d, m. Maria Hildreth, and had: Charles Watson, 3d; and Maria L'Hommedieu, m. Joseph Fahys—both now living at Sag Harbor. Mrs. Fahys owns the old homestead of John Paine. (Miss Addie Sayre)

PAINE JONATHAN (Father of John, Two, above. Probably from the Eastham branch)—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, with 10 persons and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) In Oct. and Dec., 1776, with seven passengers, he was brought over by Cpts. Thomas Robinson, David Sayre, James Wiggins and Benjamin King Jr. His claim was receipted for by his son John. (C. 172) He may have served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He lived at Hog Neck (now North Haven), near Sag Harbor.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 5. (A. 54)

PAINE PETER ()—From Sag Harbor to Stonington, with 5 passengers, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Amos Pendleton (C. 213); and, in Sept., or Oct., 1776, with hogs, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton. (C. 214) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31) As he was only 28 at that time, it is probable that he was one of the two Peters in the Census of 1776, each of whom was under 50 years old; and beside his wife, had two sons and a dau., all under 16 years old. (A. 54)

Jonathan Paine

Phebe Paine

PAINE PHEBE, MRS.—Wife of Alsop, above. (q. v.)

PALMER DAVID ()—In May, 1780, he asked leave to take the produce of his father-in-law, Col. Thomas Terry (See Terry), from Plum Island. (F. 116) He may have served in the 4th Line (G. 48); in the 6th Dutchess (G. 68); and in Conn. (G. 96) One of the name fell at Ft. Griswold, in 1781. (Pages 235, 236)

PARKER—Jeremiah 1 came from Wales to Bridge Hampton. He had a son, Jeremiah 2, who had sons: John 3, of Virginia; and Rodney 3, of Bridge Hampton. Rodney 3 had sons: James L. 4; John 4; William H. 4, b. in 1836; and several daughters. A John, was in Noyac, 1690 and 1696. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 343, 435) Another John, was in Southold, in 1698. (Vail Gen. p. 27) The latter is probably the one mentioned by Moore ("Index," p. 142), b. in 1658, d. in 1727, and is buried at Mattituck. His dau., Abigail, m. Joseph Wickham.

PARKER JEREMIAH ()—Probably from Bridge Hampton, as he signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He served in Conn. (G. 96)

He m. July 11, 1782, Eunice Goodrich. (Wethersfield—Rocky Hill, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

Jeremiah Parker

PARKER JOHN ()—Probably from Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 28) Several of the name served in Conn. (G. 96)

PARSHALL—PARSHEL—PARSELL—PERSHALL—The branch, in Southold, was probably from James 1 who was there, in 1698. (Vail Gen. p. 27) James 1, probably d. before 1711. He had sons: Capt. Israel 2, d. in 1738; Benjamin 2; and David 2, b. in 1682, d. in 1726. The latter had sons: David 3 and Jonathan 3. (Moore's "Index," pp. 108, 109)

The Parshall Gen. is followed, below, unless otherwise noted. James 1 came from England to Southold, about 1679. He m. Elizabeth, dau. of David Gardiner, the 2d Proprietor of Gardiner's Island. (See Gardiner) His son, David 2, b. in 1682; m., about 1705, Mary 4 (David 3, 2, Lion 1) Gardiner (See Gardiner); d. Jan. 25, 1725-6. David 2 had a son, David 3, m. Dec. —, 1736, Sybil White; d. about 1760. David 3 was the father of Elias 4, Serjt. James 4 and John 4—the Refugees, below.

PARSHALL ELIAS 4 (David 3, 2, James 1; brother of Serjt. James, below, and John, below)—From Southold to East Haddam. On Sept. 21, 1779, he stated that he had built a small vessel on L. I. and had come to East Haddam in her, bringing a part of his family and goods. He asked for protection, and for permission to bring the rest of his family; which was granted. (Page 210. Also D. 33, 36) On Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. after grain, salt, &c. (D. 44) On Feb. 2, 1784, the N. Y. Ass'y received a petition from Elias Parshall, insolvent debtor. (B. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) On Mar. 9, 1769, he m. Anna Young. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) She must have been his second wife, as the Census would indicate. He was b. in 1746; d. June 20, 1823. He m. Mar. —, 1767, Anna, dau. of Christopher and Anna (Wells) Youngs, of Aquebogue. (C. Youngs' Family Bible) Among his children was Elias 5, b. about 1776; d. in 1854. The "Partial" Bible says: b. in 1771; d. in 1856. He m. (1) about 1796, Jane Tingley; m. (2) Wid. Mary Grove. In 1797, he removed to Fayette Co., Pa. His children, all by his first wife, were: Elias 6, below; Nathaniel 6; James 6; Jane 6, m. Bernard Daniels; Anne 6, m. ———— Deffenbaugh; John 6 and Eliza 6, twins. (Mrs. George E. Pomeroy)

Elias 6, b. Aug. 3, 1797; m. in 1816, Hannah Matilda Grove (b. in 1800; d. in 1880). He d. July 4, 1882. His children were: Vincent 7, b. Dec. 12, 1817, m. Eliza Ann Crow, d. May 25, 1898; Harvey 7, b. July 19, 1819, d. July 5, 1833; William 7, b. Sept. 14, 1821, m. Martha Hawks, d. July 4, 1883; Reuben 7, b. Nov. 9, 1823, d. in 1884; Emily 7, b. Sept. 25, 1825, m. Dec. —, 1845, John Thomas Worthington, d. June 12, 1901; Mary 7, b. Aug. 30, 1827, m. Thomas Lyons, d. in 1904; James 7, b. Aug. 21, 1829; m. Mary Higginbotham, d. in 1903; Maria 7, b. in 1831, m. David Porter, d. Sept. —, 1873; Hamilton 7, b. Jan. 10, 1833, d. Oct. —, 1833; Nelson 7, b. Feb. 22, 1834, d. July —, 1834; Elizabeth 7, b. Mar. 9, 1836, m. George Porter; Caroline 7, b. Jan. 27, 1838, m. Thomas Weltner, d. ————; Hannah Matilda 7, b. Feb. 2, 1840, d. Oct. —, 1844; Stephen 7, b. Feb. 13, 1842, d. Nov. —, 1844; Sarah Helen 7, b. Apr. 11, 1844, m. Melancthon Crow; Lauretta 7, b. Aug. 17, 1845, m. George W. Neff. (Mrs. G. E. P.)

PARSHALL JAMES 4, SERJT. (David 3, 2, James 1; brother of Elias, above, and John, below)—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt., part of the time as a Drum. (G. 7, 25, 36, 37) He was a Serjt. in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) While on a furlough at Saybrook, in 1780, he was captured; placed on the ship "Falmouth;" was soon exchanged; but became sick, and unable to rejoin his Regt. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n." p. 210) He served in Dubois' Levies (G. 59); took part in the Battles of Saratoga and Monmouth; was at Valley Forge; was in Sullivan's Expedition, and helped to build the dam at Otsego Lake; and was one of the guards over Maj. André. ("Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 508)

He was b., probably at Southold, in Sept., 1754; d. at Middlefield Center, Otsego Co., N. Y., Apr. 24, 1836. In 1795, he removed to Cherry Valley, same Co.; and, afterward, to Middlefield. He m. (1) Deborah Clark, and had sons: Israel 5; James 5; and Miner 5. He m. (2) Dorothy Longbottom, and had: George 5; Gilbert 5; David 5; Debbie 5; and Lucy 5. Many of his descendants live in the Counties of Delaware and Otsego, in the State of N. Y. The descendants of these children, in the 5th gen., are given down to the 7th gen. in "James Parshall and his Descendants, by James C. Parshall—1900."

PARSHALL JOHN 4 (David 3, 2, James 1; brother of Elias, above, and Serjt. James, above)—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 36, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 96) He was a pensioner, in 1832, age 75. ("Conn. men in the Rev'n.")

He was b. at Southold, May 5, 1757; m. Phebe Coddington; d., at Middlefield, N. Y., Sept. 10, 1838. He had a son, Elias 5, and perhaps other children.

Elias 5, b. Feb. 20, 1793; m. Mary Campbell; d. Sept. 4, 1870. He had: James Everette 6, and Henry E. 6. ("James Parshall" &c., as above)

PARSONS—One of the early settlers at East Hampton, in 1649, was Samuel 1 Parsons, the first of the name on L. I. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He was about 20 years old at the time. His parentage and birthplace are not known. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 343)

Samuel 1, b. in 1630; m. (1) Hannah ———, and probably m. (2); d. July 6, 1714. Among his children were: John 2, b. in 1660, d. in 1715; and Seth 2, b. Sept. 2, 1665, d. Sept. 19, 1725. John 2 had a son, Samuel 3, b. in 1693; d. in 1752. (Parsons Gen.) A dau. of Seth 2, Puah 3, bapt. in 1716, m. Recompence Sherrill. (See Sherrill)

Later information is found in Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 300-326. Samuel 1 came from Lynn, Mass., to East Hampton, in 1649.

PARSONS DANIEL ()—From East Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) Not from East Hampton. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) From Sag Harbor to Stonington, with goods and cattle, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton, in Sept., 1776. (C. 214) He may have served in Conn. (G. 96)

Possibly he was the Daniel Pierson who signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

PARSONS DAVID ()—From Southampton to Stonington and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Stonington by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212) On Oct. 27, 1778, he asked permission to go to L. I. to exchange his wheat for salt and steel, and to import the same; which was granted. (Page 115. David Parsons) Also E. 10, 11) He may have served in Conn. (G. 96)

There is some mystery about this man. His name appears in neither the Associations, of 1775, nor in the Census of 1776. I should be inclined to think that he was Capt. David Pierson, below, as both went from Southampton to East Haddam. But the documents noted above (E. 10, 11) mention his name as Parsons; and his autograph convinces that he was not identical with Capt. Pierson. It may be that he was Corp. David Pierson. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

PARSONS ELIJAH (

Elijah Parsons

)—He appears at Middletown May 2, 1778; at which place and time the claim of Eliphalet Warner was paid to him. (C. 153)

It is possible that he was Elijah Pierson; but the autograph makes it improbable.

PARSONS JOHN 4 (Seth 3, Samuel 2, 1; father of John, Jr., below, and Stephen, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over by Capt. Eliphalet Budington (C. 204); and, same month, with seven passengers, by Capt. Isaac Sheffield. (C. 212) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 3; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was bapt. in 1706; d. in 1793. He m. (1) Oct. 25, 1729, Wid. Martha (Edwards) Barnes, and had: Puah 5, bapt. Sept. 6, 1730; Mary 5, bapt. in 1732; Mercy 5, bapt. in 1733; Elizabeth 5, bapt. in 1735. He m. (2) Wid. Phebe (Mulford) Chatfield, and had: John Jr., 5, below; Abigail 5, bapt. Sept., 1741; Seth 5, bapt. Mar., 1749; Elnathan 5, bapt. in 1753; and Stephen 5, below. Some of the descendants of Elnathan 5 removed to New Brunswick, N. J., and to Glens Falls, N. Y. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 344. Also Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 326, 327) Seth 5 removed to New Baltimore, N. Y. Puah 5, m. in 1772, Maj. John Davis, the Refugee (see Davis)—(Hedges, as above).

PARSONS JOHN, JR., 5, SERJ. T. (Son of John, above; brother of Stephen, below)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); and, as a private and a Serjt., in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) He may have served in Conn. (G. 96) He was in the Privateer service, on the "Oliver Cromwell." (Page 218)

He was bapt. in 1737. (Hedges, p. 327)

PARSONS SAMUEL 5 (Samuel 4, John 3, Samuel 2, 1; father of Samuel, Jr., 6, below)—From East Hampton to Saybrook. On Sept. 30, 1776, with two passengers and his effects, he was moved over by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. in 1725; m. in 1747, Mary Merry. His children were: Merry 6, bapt. Jan. —, 1748; Mary 6, bapt. Oct. —, 1749; Puah 6, bapt. in 1751; Samuel 6, below; and Hannah 6, bapt. May —, 1768. (Parsons' Gen. Also Hedges, p. 327)

PARSONS SAMUEL, JR., 6 (Son of Samuel 5, above)—From East Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); in the 2d Art'y of the Line (G. 50); and in Conn. (G. 96)

He was bapt. in Aug., 1753. (Hedges, p. 327) He was b. about 1753-4. (G. 31)

PARSONS STEPHEN 5 (Son of John 4, above; brother of John, Jr., above)—From East Hampton. He might have been the one, instead of Stephen Pierson (see Pierson), who was brought over to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204)

He was bapt. in 1754; d. in 1851. He had 13 children. The Ch. Recs. of East Hampton give the baptisms of the first seven, the last being in 1796. It was probably soon after that date that he removed to Hoosick, Rensselaer Co., N. Y. Five of the first seven children were sons, one of whom was Stephen 6, b. in 1785; m. in 1809, Hannah Thorne, of New Baltimore, Greene Co., N. Y.; d. July 13, 1820. Stephen 6 was the father of the late John D. 7, of Albany, N. Y., the partner of Thurlow Weed in the Publishing firm of Weed, Parsons and Co., at Albany. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Stephen 5 also had: John D. 6, b. in 1782; Silas E. 6, bapt. in 1783; Darius 6; Andrew 6, bapt. in 1788; Hannah 6, bapt. in 1789; Phebe C. 6, bapt. in 1796; Sylvanus 6; Anson 6; Melvin 6; Samuel 6; Amanda 6; and Caroline 6. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 328)

PECK—This family comes from William 1, b. in 1601; m. Elizabeth ———. He was at New Haven, in 1637. (Maltby Gen.) He came to America, in 1637; m. (1) Elizabeth ———, (2) Wid. Sarah Holt; d. in 1694. (Peck Gen.) The Gen. throws little light on the ancestry of Capt. Augustus and Joseph, the Refugees, below. A Joseph (said to have been Joseph 3, Joseph 2, William 1), m. Susannah 2 (Jasper 1) Griffing. (See Griffing) A Ruth (said to have been Ruth 3, Joseph 2, William 1), m. Jasper 2 (Jasper 1) Griffing. (See Griffing)

PECK AUGUSTUS, CAPT. (—————) —From Southold to Killingworth. Between Sept. 1 and Oct. 31, 1776, with three passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capts. Benjamin Conkling and Calvin Moore. (C. 20, 121, 122) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He may have served in Conn. (G. 96) It is certain that he served on the Privateer "Randolph" along with his brother-in-law, Capt. Daniel Griffing. (Page 218. Also Mr. Robert A. Griffing. See also Griffing)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. ———; m. Experience, dau. of Samuel Griffing (See Griffing); d. about 1790. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 92) He removed to Clinton, Conn., where he d. He had: John; and Abigail, who had a son, William; who had a dau. Mary, who m. Capt. Chauncey Hull. She now lives at Clinton, with her son, William P. Hull, and her dau., Cora Hull. (Mr. Robert A. Griffing) William P. Hull has a dau., Norma Alta. Cora Hull m. _____ Johnston, of Riverside, R. I., and has a dau., M. Calferna. Mary and Charles, of East River, Conn., are children of Augustus Peck. (Mr. William P. Hull)

PECK JOSEPH ()—From Southold to Guilford and Killingworth. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with his goods, he was brought to Killingworth by Capts. Benjamin Conkling and Gamaliel Bayley (C. 11, 20); also, with five passengers, to Guilford, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) One of his name served in the 2d and the 6th Dutchess (G. 64, 68); and in Conn.—a part of the time on the frigate "Trumbull." (Page 218. Also G. 96) In 1781, he had rough treatment by the raiders. (Page 205) If he returned to L. I., he was probably the one who kept an Inn at Southold, in 1781. (Griffin's "Journal")

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 4. (A. 55) The Lyme, Conn., Ch. Recs. state that Joseph Peck m. Sally Miller, Dec. 21, 1780; and Anna Reed, Feb. 7, 1799.

CAPT. ELIAS PELLETREAU—SOUTHAMPTON, L. I.

(Loaned by Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

The Fairhaven, Conn., Ch. Recs. state that Liman, Joseph and Sally, children of Joseph Peck, were bapt. May 28, 1780; and Joseph, Aug. 18, 1782.

If he was Joseph 6 (Joseph 5, Jeremiah 4, Samuel 3, Jeremiah 2, William 1), he was b. in 1730; m. Elizabeth Peck; d. Dec. 4, 1822. He had 12 children. (Peck Gen.)

It is probable that what is given, above, relates to two distinct Josephs.

PELLETREAU—The first of this Huguenot Family to come to America was Elie, b. at Arces, then Province Xaintonge, France. He escaped from La Rochelle, following the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, to New York, on Oct. 9, 1692; and m. Marie Benoist there. His son, Francis 1, was the founder of the Family on L. I. He was b. in 1700; m. (1) Jane, Wid. of Richard Osborn, Sept. 16, 1721; m. (2), Sept. 4, 1734, Mary, Wid. of Joseph King, and dau. of Judge Thomas Chatfield. By his first wife, he had Elias 2; by his second wife, he had Hannah 2. He d. Sept. 26, 1737. Hannah 2, m. Edward, son of Rev. Sylvanus White, of Southampton. The Wid., Mary Pelletreau, m. Judge Hugh Gelston, as his second wife, Feb. 23, 1738; d. Sept. 1, 1775. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau; also Howell's "Southampton," p. 346; also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. of Gelston, July 1871; see also Gelston)

Francis 1 Pelletreau, in 1728, purchased the homestead of Samuel Woodruff. The house was built in 1686; and remained until 1881. It was known as "the house with the diamond windows,"—the rhomboidal panes being set in lead. In the Rev'y War, the house was used by the British for Commissary purposes. The house belonged to Capt. Elias 2, below, during the Rev'y War. Afterward, it belonged, in turn, to Capt. Elias' son, John 3; and his grandson, Charles 4. The place now belongs to the heirs of Josiah Foster. (W. S. P.)

By the Honourable

CADWALLADER COLDEN, Esq;

His Majesty's Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-York, and the Territories depending thereon in America.

To Elias Pelletreau Esq. & Co. Greeting

Of Expelling Special Trust and Confidence, as well in the Care, Diligence, and Circumpection, as in the Loyalty, Courage, and Readiness of you, to do his Majesty's good and faithful Service; HAVE nominated, constituted, and appointed, and I Do, by Virtue of the Powers and Authorities to me given by His Majesty, HEREBY nominate, constitute, and appoint you the said Elias Pelletreau to be Captain of the first Company of Militia for the Township of Southampton, in the said Colonization of the Kingdom of Militia for the County of Suffolk, whereof Richard Lloyd Esq. is Captain

you are therefore to take the said Company into your Charge and Care, as Captain thereof, and duly to exercise both the Duties and Soldiers of that Company in Arms. And as they are hereby commanded to obey you as their Captain _____ to are you likewise to observe and follow such Orders and Directions from Time to Time, as you shall receive from any or any other your superior Officers, according to the Rules and Discipline of War, in Pursuance of the Trust reposed in you; and for so doing this shall be your Commission.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Arms, in New-York, the twenty-second Day of May — in the Year of His Majesty's Reign, Annoque Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-five

By his Honour's Command,

COLONIAL COMMISSION OF CAPT. ELIAS PELLETREAU
(Loaned by Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

PELLETREAU ELIAS 2, CAPT. (Francis 1)—From Southampton to East Haddam, Hartford and Simsbury. On Aug. 31, 1776, the Committee of Southampton gave him permission to remove his family to Conn. (A. 46) On Sept. 5, 1776, certain of his goods were landed at East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffith. (C. 57) On Sept. 16, 1776, he made out a bill of expenses for removal of himself, his wife, goods and cattle from several places to Simsbury, by Capts. Daniel Hale, Samuel Shaler, James Harris and John Gears. (C. 128) On June 10, 1779, his son John, below, was allowed to go to L. I. for his effects. (D. 30) On Apr. 17, 1780, he petitioned for leave to send his sons John and Elias, below, to repair his house at Southampton, said house having been injured by the enemy; which was negative. (E. 71) Soon afterward, the following permit was issued; in consequence of which he, at once, removed from Simsbury to Saybrook:

Hartford County SS.

Simsbury, Sept. 4, 1780.

These certify whom it may concern, that the bearer, Capt. Elias Pelletreau, now of this town, at the beginning of the present war, removed from Long Island with his family, consisting of his wife, two sons, and a servant negro girl. He set up his trade of a Gold Smith in this town, and has performed his business to universal satisfaction, and is esteemed a judicious Gentleman and a friend of this and all the American States; and being now determined to remove with his family into the Town of Saybrook in this State, all persons are desired to permit the said Capt. Pelletreau and his said family to pass on their journey by land or water with their effects, without molestation, they behaving well as aforesaid, and that he and they may be treated with kindness and respect according to his character. Recommended by us.

John Owen
Ozias Pettibone } Justices of the Peace.

On Mar. 26, 1782, the Gov. of Conn. was authorized to permit Capt. Pelletreau to return to L. I. with his family and his effects. (F. 53) This he did, re-occupying the house left to him by his father, Francis.

In 1765, he had a Colonial Commission as Capt. in Capt. Richard Floyd's Batt'n. (Page 85. Also Page 500) In 1770, he was one of several petitioners for a wharf at Sag Harbor. (Page 166) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) In following his trade as a goldsmith, he made silver ware for all of the old families on the East end of L. I. For a description of his handiwork, see Pages 154, 155.

The Census of 1776 showed that he was over 50 years old; and that, beside his wife, he had two sons, both over 16 years old. (A. 53) He was b. at Southampton, May 31, 1726; m. Dec. 29, 1748, Sarah, dau. of Judge Hugh Gelston (See Gelston); d. Nov. 2, 1810. Of his children, Francis 3

He also had: Mary Amelia 6, b. June 19, 1842; m. June 14, 1865, Hon. John S. Havens; d. Aug. 29, 1898. They had four children: Eliza Havens 7, Archibald Sidney Havens 7, Aimee Havens 7 and Sarah M. Havens 7, all of whom are living. By his second wife, Jesse Woodhull 5 had one son: Robert S. 6, of Patchogue, b. Oct. 4, 1867; m. Dec. 24, 1895, Mary, dau. of Hiram S. Rogers, of Bridge Hampton. He has: John R. 7, b. Nov. 29, 1902; and Robert 7, b. Dec. 29, 1908.

Maltby 4, b. Mar. 23, 1791, m. Mary Jeraleston, and had: William Upson 5; Maltby K. 5; and Jane 5, who m. John P. Beauville.

The Raynor-Pelletreau house (Page 502), known as "The Hollyhocks," was occupied by Hugh Raynor during the Rev'y War. It was purchased by Elias Pelletreau, Jr., in 1815. It is now owned by Charles Atterbury. (W. S. P.)

PELLETREAU HANNAH—(See Capt. Elias, above).

PELLETREAU JOHN 3 (Capt. Elias 2, Francis 1; brother of Elias, Jr., above)—From Southampton to Simsbury with his father, in Sept., 1776. On June 10, 1779, he was allowed to go to L. I. for some of the effects of his father. (D. 30) In 1780, he was denied permission to go to L. I., with his brother Elias, in order to repair his father's house. (E. 71) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and took part in the Battle of L. I.

He was b. July 29, 1755; m. Apr. 9, 1785, Mary 5, dau. of Dr. William Smith (See Smith); d. Aug. 26, 1822. She d. Dec. 2, 1817, aged 58. His children were: William Smith 4, below; Nathaniel 4, b. Lyman Lewis, of Westfield, Mass.; Gilbert 5, d. in 1864; Alexander 5, b. Mar. 4, 1829; Mary Gelston 5, m. Capt. William Green; Frances 5, m. William I. Matthews. By his second wife he had: Helen 5, once President of the Pennsylvania Female College, Pittsburgh, Pa.; William Smith 5, of Southampton and New York City, the Historian of L. I. and the owner of the Dr. William Smith house, (Page 577), at Southampton; and George 5, at one time of Virginia City, Nev. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 347)

Wm S. Pelletreau

PERRY EDMUND—From Southampton to Chester, one person and goods, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31) He was b. in Mass., about 1746. (G. 31)

PERRY ELIAKIM—From Southold to Conn., five in the family and goods, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He probably served in Conn. (G. 96)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

PETERS—Andrew came to Andover, Mass., in 1657. One branch of the family went to Conn., and thence to L. I. (Mr. William R. Peters)

Dr. Charles 1 was living in Hempstead, in 1720; he d. about 1732. He had sons: Dr. Charles 2, d. in 1766; Valentine H. 2, b. in 1716, d. in 1786; John 2, b. in 1721, d. in 1806; Edward 2, b. in 1723, d. in 1780; and George 2, b. in 1726, d. in 1782. (Peters Gen.) So far as I know, there is no connection between the Peters of New England and those of L. I. (Mrs. Eleanor McClure Peters)

PETERS THOMAS—From Smithtown, or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and was paid one-half of his bounty, in 1777. (Page 90) He also served in the Navy. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 269); and in Conn. (G. 96)

It is probable that he came from the Conn. branch.

PHILLIPS—Rev. George, first Minister at Watertown, Mass., son of Christopher Phillips, was b. at Rainham, St. Martins, near Ronyham, in the Hundred of Gallow, Norfolk Co., Eng., in 1593. (From the Matriculation Books of Grenville and Cain's College, made for William Phillips, 12 Feb., 1848, and sent to the author of the Salisbury Genealogies, by Mr. Wendell Phillips—See also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 49, 50. Also Phillips Gen.)

Rev. George 1 was the common ancestor of the Family in America. He left Eng., in 1630. He was b. in 1593; preached at Watertown, Mass.; d. July 1, 1644. His son, Rev. Samuel 2, b. in Eng., in 1625; m. in 1651, Sarah, dau. of Samuel Appleton; d. Apr. 22, 1696. He was the Minister at Rowley, Mass. His dau., Elizabeth 3, m. Rev. Edward Payson. Rev. Samuel 2 had six sons, of whom Rev. George 3 was the first to live on L. I. He was b. at Rowley, June 3, 1664; graduated at Harvard, in 1686; settled at Setauket, 1697, and remained there until he d., June 17, 1739. (H. 39) He m. Elizabeth Hallett, and had sons: John 4, Daniel 4, George 4, William 4, and Samuel 4. George 4 settled in Islip; and, later, in Smithtown. William 4, b. ———; m. Oct. 27, 1737, Sybil, dau. of Richard Smith; d., at Smithtown, Jan. 1, 1778. His wife d. Oct. 31, 1767. William 4 had several children, of whom: William 5 and Ebenezer 5 were the Refugees, below. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 459, 460. Also Phillips Gen., p. 38)

PHILLIPS EBENEZER 5, LT. (William 4, Rev. George 3, Rev. Samuel 2, Rev. George 1; brother of Lt. William, below)—From Smithtown to Norwalk. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); possibly in Harper's Levies (G. 56); and probably in Conn. (G. 96)

He was b. July 15, 1753; m. Jan. 17, 1782, Mary Benedict, of Norwalk, Conn.; d. at Norwalk, Aug. 5, 1829. He had: Esther 6, d. y.; Esther 6, b. Apr. 17, 1788; Sally 6, b. Dec. 11, 1790; and Elizabeth 6, b. July 9, 1798. (Phillips Gen. p. 38)

PHILLIPS WILLIAM, JR., 5, LT. (William 4, Rev. George 3, Rev. Samuel 2; Rev. George 1; brother of Lt. Ebenezer, above)—From Smithtown to Milford, probably in 1777. He was overseer for Col. William Floyd. On June 10, 1779, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. and to bring from thence his effects, those of Col. Floyd and those of Ezra L'Hommedieu. (D. 30) He was a Prisoner, in 1780. (Page 120) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32)

He declined the appointment as 1st Lt. of the 5th Suffolk Co. Company in the 3d Line, July 15, 1775 (G. 45); for which the Prov'l Cong. had issued a warrant, on June 29. (G. 1) But, afterward, he may have served as a private in the 1st Line (G. 43); in the 3d Line (G. 46); in the 2d Dutchess (G. 64); and in Conn. (G. 96) He was one of Col. Josiah Smith's executors. (See Smith)

It was probably his father, William 4, who, as "Esq.," signed the Association, from Smithtown, in 1775 (H. 23, 32); and who appeared in the Smith-town Census of 1776 as being over 50 years old. (A. 48) The Census of Southampton, W. Dist., showed another William, of about the same age. (A. 53)

Lt. William, Jr., 5, b. May 27, 1741; m. ———; d. Mar. 27, 1799. He settled in the Eastern part of Brookhaven. He had a son, William 6.

(Thompson, as above) William 6, m. Mary ———; and had four sons and four daughters. (Phillips Gen. p. 38)

PIERREPONT—John 1 settled at Roxbury, Mass., about 1640. Rev. James was early in New Haven. His g. grandson Hezekiah B., d. in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1838. A son of Hezekiah B., Henry Evelyn, b. in 1808, d. in 1888. He has descendants in Brooklyn.

PIERREPONT SARAH, WID.—On Oct. 18, 1780, she was permitted to go to L. I. after the effects of her late husband, Samuel, Jr. He went from New Haven to L. I., and d. there. (F. 19)

Samuel Pierpont, Jr., m. Sarah Woolcot, Jan. 12, 1777. (North Haven, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

PIERSON—During the War this name was frequently spelled Peirson (See Ap. C.); and not only that way, but also Parson, Parsons, Person and Persons. Many of the Family spell it Peirson, to-day—notably in Western Mass. It will also be observed that all the autographs in the following biographies give the name as Peirson. On the other hand, we have the authority of the Pierson Gen. and of Howell's "Southampton" for writing it Pierson; and Hon. James H. Pierson, of Southampton, who has made a careful inquiry, declares to the same effect. It is certain that nearly all the descendants of the Refugees, of this name, have adopted the form, Pierson.

The founder of the Family on L. I. was Henry 1, who came from Lynn, Mass., to Southampton, in 1640. He m. Mary Cooper, of Lynn; d. in 1680-1. His sons were: Lt. Joseph 2; Col. Henry 2; Benjamin 2, who removed to N. J.; and Theodore 2. From Lt. Joseph 2, Henry 3, Samuel 4, Timothy 5, James 6, Capt. Philetus 7, descends Hon. James Henry 8, of Southampton. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 348-352)

Henry 1, was at Stamford, Conn., about 1640; and at Hempstead, L. I., by 1647. He had: John 2, Daniel 2, Joseph 2, Henry 2, Benjamin 2 and Sarah 2. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 12) He went from Stamford to Hempstead, in 1644. (Chap. 16. Also Huntington's "Stamford," p. 39)

The Family tradition is that Henry 1 d. at Southampton; and that his Wid. and son, Benjamin 2, removed to Elizabeth, N. J. (Hon. James H. Pierson)

Rev. Abraham was probably a brother of Henry 1. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 69. Also "Sage, Slocum and Allied Families") He settled at Southampton in 1640 (Page 150). He removed to Branford, Conn., in 1644; and to Newark, N. J., in 1667. His son, Rev. Abraham, was the first President of Yale College. (Page 150. Also H. 39. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 32, 36-38)

Col. Henry 2, b. in 1651; m. Susanna, dau. of Maj. John 2 Howell (See Howell); d. Nov. 4, 1701. Among his children were: David 3, b. in 1688, m. (1) Esther Conkling, (2) Elizabeth Conkling, d. in 1767; Theophilus 3, b. in 1690, m. Sarah Topping, d. in Sept., 1744—the g. grandfather of the late Hon. Henry R. of Albany, N. Y.; Abraham 3, b. in 1693, m. (1) Elizabeth Conkling, (2) Prudence ———; Josiah 3, b. in 1695, m. four times, d. in 1776.

In "The L. I. Traveler" (Note 2289. J. R. V.), the statement is made that Col. Henry 2 was the son of John 1 who came from England to Southampton, in 1645. This is not to be credited. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Theodore 2, b. in 1669, d. in 1726. His sons were: Job 3, b. in 1697, m. Hannah ———, d. in 1768; and John 3. (Pierson Gen. Also Howell's "Southampton," pp. 348-352)

PIERSON ABRAHAM 5 (Zebulon 4, below, Abraham 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of John, below)—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and in Conn. (G. 96) He signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

He had: Hunting 6, Ruth 6, Isaac 6, and Eliphalet 6. It was probably his grandfather, Abraham 3, who signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); and who, in the Census of 1776, was stated to be over 50 years old, with no family beside his wife. (A. 54)

Abraham Pierson

PIERSON DAVID 5, CAPT. (Lemuel 4, below, David 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Lemuel, Jr., below)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, with five persons and goods, he was brought from Sag Harbor by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) In Dec., following, other goods were brought over by Cpts. Elkanah Sears, James Harris and James Wiggins—the claim being paid to Col. Jonathan Hedges. (C. 210) On Mar. 20, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for provisions (D. 44); and, again, in Apr., 1782. (F. 54) On Feb. 24, 1787, with other Officers from Suffolk Co., he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y relative to arms transported across the Sound during the War. (Page 106. Also B. 27) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) On Sept. 9, 1775, as Chairman of the Bridge Hampton Committee, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. as to the raising of two Companies for the defence of the stock at Montauk. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 29); and in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) One of his name served as a Corp. in Conn. (G. 96) The title of Col. probably came to him after the War.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He was b. in 1751; m. Susanna ———; d. Feb. 15, 1829. (Howell, as above, p. 350) He had a son, Jesse 6, b. in 1780; d. in 1840. (Pierson Gen.) His grandson, David Emett, was the last of the name in Saggaponack. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Another statement is that Capt. David m. (1) Elizabeth, dau. of Dea. Maltby Gelston; m. (2) Hannah, dau. of Capt. James Green (2d Conn. L. Horse) of East Haddam, and Wid. of Joseph Hungerford. (Capt. Richard H. Greene) Elizabeth Gelston was b. Nov. 3, 1746 (See Gelston); d. Jan. 1,

David Pierson

1777, at East Haddam, and is buried there. (Miss Lucy Gelston. Also Tombstone) Hannah d. July 2, 1833, aged 78; and is also buried at East Haddam. (Tombstone)

PIERSON ELIAS 5, CORP. (Stephen 4, below, Theophilus 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Theophilus, below. Mr. William S. Pelletreau states that he was a son, and not a brother of Theophilus 5)—From Saggaponack, in Bridge Hampton, to East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, he was brought to Conn. by Capt. John Harris. His claim for his passage, and the passage of his brother, Theophilus, was paid to Gershom Culver, July 25, 1778. (C. 4, No. 21. Also C. 5, No. 107. Also C. 126) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 12, 30)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He had: Jeremiah 6; and Elias 6, bapt. Jan. 29, 1786. (Howell, as above, p. 351)

PIERSON JEDEDIAH 4 (John 3, Theodore 2, Henry 1)—From Southampton, E. Dist. (probably Sag Harbor or Bridge Hampton) to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over, with four in the family and his goods, by Capt. Ephraim Pendleton. (C. 214) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He had: Caleb 5, b. in 1764; Daniel 5, b. about 1770; Gordon 5, b. in 1787; and Peleg 5. (Howell, as above, p. 353)

Jedediah Pierson

PIERSON JOHN 5, SERJT. (Zebulon 4, below, Abraham 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Abraham, above)—It is possible that the references to C. 204 and 212 may belong to him instead of John Parsons. (q. v.) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., both as private and Serjt. (G. 7, 30); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and in the Add'l Corps of the Line. (G. 53)

John Pierson

His name does not appear in the Census of 1776; and little is known of his family.

PIERSON LEMUEL 4 (David 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; father of Capt. David, above, and of Lemuel, Jr., below)—From Saggaponack to Stonington and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved to Stonington by Capt. David Sayre (C. 138); and on Sept. 16, with ten in his family, he was brought to East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) He was probably the Lemuel who removed his goods from his house in spite of threats by the enemy; and whose wife had a kettle of hot water ready for the first man who entered the house. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 76) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1717; m. Apr. 9, 1741, Martha Stratton; d. ———. His children were: Phebe 5; Lemuel, Jr., 5, below; Jemima 5; Capt. David 5, above; and Isaac 5, b. in 1758. (Howell, as above, p. 350) Pierson Gen. (pp. 29, 30) states that Isaac 5 was b. in 1755. He removed to N. J., in 1788, and settled on a tract near Morristown, known as "Piersonville." He was called "Long Island Pierson" to distinguish him from the other branches in N. J. He has descendants in that vicinity.

Lemuel Pierson

PIERSON LEMUEL, JR., 5, SERJT. (Son of Lemuel, above; brother of Capt. David, above)—From Saggaponack to East Haddam. In Nov., 1776, he was moved over to Conn. by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 123) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) In 1803, he was elected an Elder in the Church at Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

It is evident that he was the Lemuel who had the Military record; although he is not named therein as Lemuel, Jr. His age, 36, in 1776, would denote that he was b. in 1740; whereas it is stated that the date is 1744. Clerical errors may account for this discrepancy. At any rate, Lemuel, Jr. is the only one bearing that given name who could have served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2); and in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 23, 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1744; m. (1) Sarah ———, (2)

Mary ———; d. Nov. 8, 1821.

Lemuel B. Pierson Jr.

His children were: Henry 6, and Franklin 6. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 350)

PIERSON LEMUEL, 3rd, 4 (Job 3, Theodore 2, Henry 1; father of Samuel, below)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. In Sept., and on Oct. 18, 1776, with three passengers, he was moved over to Conn. by Capts. Hubbard Latham, Joshua Griffeth and Elnathan Fellows. (C. 124) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1723. (Howell, as above, p. 352) This would have made him 53 at the time of the Census; a discrepancy that has yet to be explained. It is evident, however, that he was Lemuel 3rd; as Lemuel, Jr. was naturally the son of Lemuel, Sr. (See Lemuel and Lemuel, Jr., above) Lemuel 3rd, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Abraham Pierson, probably not the Refugee, above. His children were: Samuel 5, below; William 5, b. in 1762; and perhaps others. (Howell, as above, p. 352)

PIERSON MATTHEW 4 (Josiah 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; twin brother of Silvanus, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington and East Haddam. In September, 1776, he was moved over by Capt. Isaac Sheffield (C. 212); also, with one passenger and goods, by the same. (C. 127) On Sept. 27, 1776, with six passengers and goods, he was moved over by Capt. Ephraim

Pendleton. (C. 214) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. Mar. 2, 1725; m. Phebe, or Elizabeth, dau. of Samuel Moore (See Moore); d. Oct. 17, 1798. His children were: Squire Henry 5; and Lucretia 5, m. Caleb Russell, of Morristown, N. J. Squire Henry 5, m. Phebe Mulford, and removed to Richmond, Mass., in 1799. This branch of the Family continues to spell the name, Peirson. Squire Henry 5 had a son Josiah 6, bapt. in 1784. His sons were: Henry M. 7, and Joseph 7. Henry M. 7, of Pittsfield, Mass., had: Henry R. 8; Hattie E. 8; Fanny F. 8; Joseph E. 8; William R. 8; Frank E. 8; and Mary L. 8. (Howell, as above, p. 352)

Squire Henry 5, beside Josiah 6, had: Sophia 6, Betsey 6, Harriette 6 and Joseph 6. Josiah 6, m. Nabby Rossiter, and had: Mary Hedges 7, m.

Lucas; Henry Mulford 7; Sarah A. Rossiter 7, m. ——— Perkins; Melissa Rossiter 7, m. ——— Geer; Abbie E. 7, m. ———

Nichols; Phebe S. 7, m. ——— Dean; and Joseph 7. The latter, with his daughters, Alice E. 8, Gertrude Clark 8 and Martha Barnes 8, live at Richmond, Mass., in the house to which Squire Henry came, in 1799. (Miss Alice E. Peirson)

Howell (as above) gives to Matthew 4 a son, Silas 5, evidently of another line. He, Silas 5, m. Betsey Brown. He had four sons, but no descendants in the male line. His dau., Caroline 6, m. George A. Hildreth; d. in 1910, leaving three sons and three daughters. (Mr. Charles H. Hildreth)

Matthew Peirson

PIERSON MATTHEW, JR. 4 (Abraham 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Zebulon, below, but not son of Matthew, above)—From Sagaponack to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, one passenger and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Hubbard Latham. (C. 127) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He was b. in 1744. His children were: Hiram 5, and Silas 5.

Matthew Peirson

PIERSON SAMUEL 5 (Lemuel, 3d, 4, above, Job 3, Theodore 2, Henry 1)—From Sagg. It may be that the removal to Conn. (C. 144), credited to Samuel Parsons, above, refers to Samuel Pierson. He may have served in the 6th Dutchess (G. 68); or in Conn. (G. 96) If he served in Conn., he was g. grandfather of Mr. William Pierson Judson, of Oswego and Broadalbin, N. Y.

He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 12); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

His name does not appear in the Census of 1776. He was b. Jan. 1, 1753; m. Dec. 17, 1778, Jerusha Conkling of East Hampton; d. Oct. 13, 1838. His children were: Samuel D. 6, b. in 1786; Joana 6, m. Ebenezer White; Job 6, b. Sept. 23, 1791, removed to Rensselaer Co., N. Y., and has descendants in Troy, Surrogate, 1835-1840, Congressman, 1831-1835, d. about 1861 (Hon. Henry P. Hedges); and Esther 6.

Samuel Peirson

PIERSON SILVANUS 4 (Josiah 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; twin brother of Matthew, above)—From Sagaponack to Stonington, Sept. to Dec., 1776, with four passengers and goods, by Capts. Josephus Fitch, Isaac Sheffield, John Miner, 2d, and Hubbard Latham. The claim was paid to David Gelston. (C. 199) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. Mar. 2, 1725; m. Rebecca, dau. of David Lupton, of Boston; d. Aug. 23, 1795. Among his nine children were: Sarah 5; Margaret 5; Rebecca 5; and Martha 5. Margaret 5 m. Maj. John Jermain and had 9 Jermain children: Silvanus Pierson 6, m. Catharine Barclay, Albany, N. Y.; Mary 6, m. Daniel Latham, Sag Harbor, L. I.; Rebecca 6, m. Alden Spooner, Sag Harbor; Julia Ann 6, m. Rev. Nathaniel S. Prime, Sag Harbor (See Prime); John, Jr., 6, m. Sarah Delevan, Ovid, N. Y.; Alanson 6, m.

Sabra Rice, Albany; Caroline 6, m. Rev. Stephen Porter, Sag Harbor; George Washington 6, m. Cornelia Wendell, Cambridge, Mass.; and Margaret 6, m. Hon. Joseph Slocum, whose dau., Margaret Olivia, is now Mrs. Russell Sage. (Mr. Charles H. Hildreth. See also Slocum. See also Col. Ralph E. Prime's "Descendants of James Prime," for Jermain descendants)

Silvanus Peirson

PIERSON STEPHEN 4 (Theophilus 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; father of Elias, above, and Theophilus, below)—Probably from Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

He was b. in 1729; m. _____; d. _____, 1788. No children, beside Elias 5 and Theophilus 5, are given. (Howell, as above, p. 351) He may have had a dau., Content 5, who m. John Morehouse, and removed to N. J. Theophilus 5 d. in 1831, leaving several sons. (Mr. J. L. Engle)

Stephen Peirson

PIERSON THEOPHILUS 5, ENS. (Stephen 4, above, Theophilus 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Elias, above; not a brother of Capt. David, above, as has been stated)—From Bridge Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, five passengers and goods, he was moved over by Capt. Amos Pendleton (C. 213); and, in Oct., 1776, five passengers and goods, by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above

Theophilus Peirson

16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1743; m. _____; d. _____, 1831. His children were: Elias 6, Charles 6, Jeremiah 6, Paul 6, Harvey 6, and Solon 6.

PIERSON ZACHARIAH 5 (Capt. Nathan 4, Theophilus 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1)—From Sagaponack to Chester and East Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, one person and goods, he was moved to East Haddam by Capt. Elijah Mason; and, same month, five persons and goods to Chester, by the same Capt. (C. 98) In Nov., 1776, certain of his goods were moved to Chester by Capt. James Webb; and the claim was paid to Capt. Mason, in Nov., 1777. (C. 125) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29) A Zachariah Parsons is mentioned in the Privateer Service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269; and "Spt." to same, p. 169. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 533)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1750; removed to Richmond, Mass., and d. there Nov. 15, 1827. His children were: James 6, Silas 6, William 6, Myron 6, and others. His descendants retain the spelling

Zachariah Peirson

PIERSON ZEBULON 4 (Abraham 3, Col. Henry 2, Henry 1; brother of Matthew, Jr., above; father of Abraham, above, and John, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, his effects were moved over to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Stow (C. 144); and on Sept. 16, 1776, five in the family and goods, to East Haddam by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3.

Zebulon Peirson

(A. 54) Beside Abraham, above, and John, above, he had Williams 5—who had sons: Nathan 6, John 6 and Stephen 6.

PINE—PYNE—James 1 went to Stamford, Conn., in 1641; and to Hempstead, L. I., in 1664. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 39, 40) He probably went to Hempstead in 1643-4. (Chap. 16) He was in Hempstead before 1656; and thereafter he is frequently mentioned in the Town Records as a landowner and office holder. He was named in the Dongan Charter of 1685. He d. in 1686. His eldest son, John 2, m. Abigail ———; d. in 1703. He, also, was prominent in Hempstead. John 3, son of John 2, m. Grace Carman. In 1758, he removed to Fishkill, Dutchess Co., N. Y., where he resumed his occupation, that of a miller. By his will, proved Nov. 27, 1781, he devised his grist-mill to his sons Silvanus, below, and Philip; to his son, Joshua, below, his farm at Cow Neck, L. I. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 43. 1-5)

PINE JOHN 5, CAPT. (Joshua 4, below, John 3, 2, James 1)—From Hempstead to Westchester Co., N. Y., with his father, just before the War. He served as a Capt. of Westchester Co. Guides in the American Army with honor and courage. (Bolton's "Westchester Co.," 1. 25) He may also have served in the 5th Dutchess (G. 67); and in the 2d Westchester. (G. 78)

PINE JOSHUA 4 (John 3, 2, James 1; brother of Silvanus below; father of Capt. John, above)—From Hempstead to Fishkill. On Jan. 26, 1751, he m. Sarah de Milt of N. Y. City, and lived in Hempstead until shortly before the Revolution, when he removed to what is now the Bronx and engaged successfully in the flour business. But on the beginning of hostilities, he and his family were driven from their home by the British, and he removed to Fishkill, after having been imprisoned for several months. During the War he owned a sloop by means of which he conveyed supplies to the American Army. In 1785, he joined several other families in settling the town of Walton on the Delaware River in Delaware Co., N. Y., where he was a leading citizen and held various offices. He d. in 1802, leaving sons: Peter 5, Joshua 5, and Daniel 5; and daughters, Sarah 5, and Rachel 5. Joshua 5, m. Margaret Remsen, became Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, and represented the County in the Ass'y, in 1807. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 43. 5) His descendants are still living at Walton. (Mr. John B. Pine)

PINE SILVANUS 4 (John 3, 2, James 1; brother of Joshua, above)—On Dec. 11, 1781, Capt. Nathaniel Sackett asked Gov. Clinton to allow the son of Silvanus Pine to cross to L. I. Said Pine was heir to a considerable estate there. (Clinton Pap., 7. 575) This must have been the estate of Silvanus' father, John 3, above. He may have served in the 2d Dutchess. (G. 64)

He m. Judith ———, and carried on his father's business as a miller until 1799, when he d.; leaving Martha 5, Abigail 5, Thomas 5, Elizabeth 5 and Nancy 5. (Record, as above)

PLATT—The common ancestor of the Family in America was Richard 1, who came from Hertfordshire, Eng., to New Haven, in 1638. In 1639, he removed to Milford, Conn., where he lived until his death, in 1684. His sons, Isaac 2 and Epenetus 2, were prominently identified with the early history of Huntington, L. I., and both were patentees of the Town.

Isaac 2, b. in Eng., was in Huntington by 1666; d. July 31, 1691. As he was not the ancestor of Judge Ebenezer and Capt. Nathaniel, the Refugees, below, his descendants are not given in this place. They are fully recorded in the Huntington Town Recs. and in Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876. Isaac 2, probably m. Elizabeth, dau. of Jonas Wood. (See Wood) He had a son, Jonas 3; whose sons Obadiah 4 and Timothy 4 removed to Fairfield, Conn., while Jesse 4 and Isaac 4 remained at Huntington.

Epenetus 2, b. July 12, 1640; m. Mar. —, 1667, Phebe, dau. of Jonas Wood (see Wood); d. in 1696. He was in Huntington by 1666. Among his children were: Maj. Epenetus 3, and Jonas 3.

Maj. Epenetus 3, b. Apr. 14, 1674; m. (1) Hannah Marvin, m. (2) Elizabeth Smith; d. about 1745. Among his children were: Capt. Epenetus 4; Dr. Zophar 4; Uriah 4; and Phebe 4, m. Col. Benjamin Tredwell. (See Tredwell) Capt. Epenetus 4, b. about 1700; m. Oct. 31, 1723, Sarah Scudder; d. prior to Apr. 22, 1772. His descendant, Margaret, m. Judge Isaac Smith, Sr., of Dutchess Co., N. Y. (See Smith) Dr. Zophar 4, b. in 1705; m. Rebecca, dau. of Joseph Wood (see Wood); d. Sept. 23, 1792. Among his children were: Judge Ebenezer 5, the Refugee, below; Jeremiah 5, a Refugee from New York City; Elizabeth 5, who m. Daniel Phoenix; and Phebe 5, who m. Samuel Broome. (See Platt, Phoenix and Broome in "The Refugees from New York City") Uriah 4, b. in 1707, m. Mary Smith.

(Huntington Town Recs. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 272-274) Uriah 4 owned a large part of Hempstead Plains, including the site of Garden City. He had a son, Epenetus 5; and a grandson, Dr. Epenetus 6, who d. in N. Y. City, about 1777. Dr. Isaac Hull 8, grandson of Dr. Epenetus 6, now lives at Wallingford, Pa. (Dr. Isaac Hull Platt) [Note—Dr. Isaac Hull Platt died on Aug. 14, 1812; directly after sending the above information. He was b. May 18, 1853; m. Emma Haviland, who survives him, with sons—Haviland H. 9, and Philip G. 9]

Jonas 3, b. Apr. 24, 1684; and was drowned. He had an only son, Zephaniah 4, of Smithtown, b. in 1704; m. (1) Hannah Saxton, m. (2) Anna, Wid. of Richard and dau. of Job, Smith; d. Jan. 27, 1778. Sarah, sister of Hannah Saxton, m. Capt. William Hallock. (See Hallock) The sons of Zephaniah 4 were: Jonas 5, b. in 1731, m. Temperance 4, granddau. of Maj. Richard 1—Bull Smith (See Smith); Col. Zephaniah 5; Lt. Charles 5; Jeremiah 5; Capt. Nathaniel 5; and Daniel 5, who was in the Naval service. (N. Y. in the Rev'n, p. 269) After the War, Zephaniah, Nathaniel and Charles located lands on Lake Champlain, and founded Plattsburgh, N. Y. (Thompson, as above)

About 1770 Eliphalet Platt, went from Huntington to Dutchess County, N. Y., by way of Stamford and Sharon, Conn. Who his father was is not definitely determined. At about the same time that he went to that County, a John Platt and an Israel Platt were there also; the last of whom was a Captain in the Revolution. They, also, came from Huntington, as did Zephaniah Platt. What relation they were to each other is not determined. Possibly John, Eliphalet and Israel were brothers and cousins of Zephaniah; who, with his brothers, Charles, Nathaniel and Daniel, founded Plattsburgh, N. Y. His son, Zephaniah 2nd, as he was called, lived near Poughkeepsie for some time later. (Hon. Edmund Platt, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.)

Lt. Charles 5 evidently removed to Dutchess Co., N. Y., before the War. He was a private in the 5th Militia (G. 67); a Lt. in the Regt. of Minute Men (G. 70); and a Capt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," pp. 205, 213, 215) He signed the Association, in 1775; was Qr. Mr., and certified to the election of officers of the Militia, same year; and, in 1776, was Pres't of a Court Martial. ("Calendar of N. Y. Hist'l MSS.—Rev'y Pap.," 1. 72, 140, 142, 538) He was b. at Smithtown, L. I., in 1744; m. in 1772, Caroline Adriance, of Fishkill; d. in 1827. ("Rescript of Tredwell—Platt Gen.," by Mrs. Annie C. Maltbie, q. v. for many of his descendants) He d. at Plattsburgh, N. Y., May 29, 1831. ("Empire State Sons of Am'n Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 514. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 589)

Zephaniah 4 signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) He was in the Smithtown Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 2. (A. 48) It is probable that he did not leave L. I., owing to his advanced age. His son, Zephaniah 5, was probably the one known as "Zephaniah, of Dutchess Co.," Col. of the Ass'd Exempts ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 152); Delegate to the Prov'l Cong.; Member of the Dutchess Co. Committee, the Secret Committee to defend the Highlands and the Committee to remove the Prisoners from Kingston; and 2d Judge of the County. (See Index to "Calendar &c., above") Afterward, he removed to Plattsburgh. Probably it was his son, Zephaniah 6, who served in the 2d Dutchess ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 240); and who was recommended as a good officer. ("Calendar &c.," 2. 4, 37, 39) Zephaniah 5, m. Anna, Wid. of Ebenezer Smith. She was a descendant of Maj. Richard 1—Bull. (See Smith) Among the children of Zephaniah 5 were: Elizabeth 6, m. Gen. John Smith, a descendant of Col. William 1—Tangier (See Smith); and James 6, m. (1) Eliza, dau. of Gen. William Floyd (See Floyd), m. (2) Susan K., dau. of Col. Melancthon Lloyd Woolsey. (See Woolsey)—(Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 472-474)

PLATT EBENEZER 5, JUDGE (Dr. Zophar 4, Maj. Epenetus 3, Epenetus 2, Richard 1)—From Huntington to Hartford. In Aug., 1775, powder was sent to him for the Militia on the Western end of L. I. (Page 88) On Mar. 27, 1781, he petitioned for leave to return to L. I. and secure some hard money; which was allowed, he to accompany Lt. Caleb Brewster. (F. 5) On Aug. 7, 1781, he again petitioned for leave to go on the same errand; which was also granted. (F. 6) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was a Member of the Committee of Huntington; and he was also a Member of that Committee when the 1st Regt. was organized, in 1775. (G. 1) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); and in Col. Floyd's Regt. ("Calendar &c.," 1. 134) In 1784-5 and 1792-3, he was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y. From 1793 to 1799 he was first Judge of Suffolk Co. (Civil List)

He was b. in 1754; m. Dec. 2, 1781, Abigail, dau. of Joseph Lewis (Smithtown Church Records); d. June 26, 1839. His children were: Rev. Isaac Watts 6, of Bath, Steuben Co., N. Y.; Ebenezer 6, a banker of N. Y. City; Elizabeth 6, m. James Rogers; Rebecca 6, m. Edmond Rogers. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

PLATT JEREMIAH 5 (Zephaniah 4, Jonas 3, Epenetus 2, Richard 1; brother of Capt. Nathaniel, below)—From Smithtown. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32), in his brother's Co. He is said to have been confined on the Prison ship "Jersey," and d. Jan. 27, 1778. ("Rescript," as above, p. 28) He was b. in 1752; m. (1) Sarah Hedges, (2) Phebe Hedges. (Smithtown Town Recs.)

It may be that the "Rescript" errs in the matter of the Prison Ship; and his death. The Tombstone, at Smithtown, states that he d. Nov. 7, 1815, aged 63. His two wives are also buried there. He had a son, Jeremiah 6, b. in 1805; m. H. Amelia Smith; d. in 1845. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

See Also Jeremiah Platt, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City."

PLATT NATHANIEL 5, CAPT. (Zephaniah 4, Jonas 3, Epenetus 2, Richard 1; brother of Jeremiah, above)—From Smithtown. He served with Col. Henry B. Livingston, of the 4th Line, in Conn. On Dec. 9, 1776, Col. Livingston brought muskets and ammunition from the E. end of L. I. and delivered them to Capt. Platt. (A. 22) These were probably taken to Conn. and thence to Fishkill, as he was paid his expenses for bringing them there by the Committee of Safety, Mar. 5, 1777. (Pages 104, 174. Also A. 30, 36) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 7, 13, 32) He was at Brooklyn before the Battle of L. I. (Page 41) In Dec., 1776, his Co. was in Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regt. (Page 92) In 1776, he supplied many guns, and $5 to each man in his Company; and, on Mar. 3, 1777, he prayed the Prov'l Convention for relief. (Pet., 33. 278) On Mar. 8, 1777, the Convention ordered him to pay certain bounties in Col. Smith's Regt. (A. 23) He was reimbursed for these expenses. (Page 90) His relations with Col. Smith were, apparently, very friendly. (G. 39) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 48) He m. Phebe 4, dau. of Richard, and g. grand dau. of Maj. Richard 1—Bull, Smith. (See Smith) His children were: Isaac 6, Nathaniel 6, Hannah 6, Phebe 6 and Maria 6. (Thompson's

"Long Island," 2. 455) He was b. in 1741; m. Nov. 10, 1776, Phebe Smith. (Platt Gen.)

POST—Richard 1 appears in the Records of Southampton, relative to land transactions, in 1643, 1681, 1687 and 1688. He m. Dorothy ———; d. about 1689. Among his children was John 2, who m. Nov. 3, 1670, Mary ———; d. in 1687. John 2 had a son, Capt. John 3, who m. Mary Halsey; d. Mar. 3, 1741. Two of his sons were: Joseph 4; and Isaac 4, b. in 1712, d. May 8, 1785. The Wid. of his son, Isaac 5, removed to Montrose, Pa., with her family. (Blackman's "Hist. of Susquehanna Co., Pa.") Joseph 4, b. in 1704; m. Bethia, dau. of Henry Jessup; d. Sept. 27, 1780. He had several sons, among whom were: Joseph 5, Jeremiah 5 and Nathan 5. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 353, 354)

Richard 1 was probably a near relative of Stephen Post who, with Rev. Thomas Hooker, founded Hartford, Conn., in 1636. In 1649 he removed to Saybrook, Conn. His descendants moved to Vt., in 1700. (Mr. C. W. Post) A Richard, was one of the early settlers in New London, Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 60)

POST ELIAS ()—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook On Sept. 2, 1776, his wife was brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32)

POST JEREMIAH 5, LT. (Joseph 4, Capt. John 3, John 2, Richard 1; brother of Joseph, below, and Capt. Nathan, below)—From East Hampton to Saybrook. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) In 1776, he also helped David Howell to cross over to Saybrook. (C. 76) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) The Jeremiah who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30) was a younger man.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 53) He m. Mehitable ———; and had a son, Samuel 6, b. in 1766, d. in 1846.

POST JOSEPH 5 (Joseph 4, Capt. John 3, John 2, Richard 1; brother of Jeremiah, above, and Capt. Nathan below)—From Southampton. In 1776, he helped David Howell to cross over to Saybrook. (C. 76) He probably served in the 2d Dutchess (G. 64); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

It is not certain whether it was he, or his father, Joseph 4, who is recorded in the Census of 1776 as being over 50 years old, and having no family except his wife. (A. 53) He m. Sarah ———. He had a dau., Philena 6, who d. Mar. 10, 1780; and perhaps other children.

POST NATHAN 5, CAPT. (Joseph 4, Capt. John 3, John 2, Richard 1; brother of Jeremiah, above, and Joseph, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Saybrook in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144) On Nov. 5, 1782, he executed a bond to be sent to Jabez Chapman. (F. 10)

He was Capt. of the armed sloop "Revenge." ("Records of the State of Conn." 2. 346) He signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54)

POTTER—Nathaniel 1 came from R. I., to Huntington, L. I., in 1713; but returned, in 1734. He left sons: Gilbert 2 and Zebediah 2. The latter became a sailor; and settled on the Eastern shore of Maryland, where he d. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 472. Thompson follows closely the Huntington Town Records. 3. p. 8 et seq.)

POTTER GILBERT 2, DR.; LT. COL. (Nathaniel 1)—From Huntington to Conn. He studied medicine with Dr. Jared Elliott, of Guilford, Conn.; and, in 1745, was Surg. on a Privateer in the French War. In 1756, he was made Capt. of one of the Companies from Suffolk Co., and went to Ticonderoga. In July, 1758, when the detachment of Col. Bradstreet was on its way to Frontenac, the Troops became sickly; and a hospital being established at Schenectady, the Medical Dept. was assigned to Dr. Potter. (Thompson, as above. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 137) Returning to Huntington, he renewed the practice of medicine. He became a Member of the Committee of that Town; also of the Committee of the 1st Regt. (G. 1) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) Leake ("Life of John Lamb," p. 4) states that he was one of the "Sons of Liberty." He was appointed Lt. Col. of Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1) He was associated with Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull in protecting L. I. (Pages 29, 42. Also A. 6, 7) After its capture, he retired within the American lines (Page 173); and was employed in confidential, rather than active, service. He was in the Hospital service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n, Spt.," p. 45) In 1783, he returned with his family, and followed his profession with great success. (Page 180. Also Thompson, as above) One of his name served in the Dutchess Minute Men (G. 70); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

He was b. in Huntington, Jan. 8, 1725; m. Feb. 23, 1747-8, Elizabeth, dau. of Nathaniel Williams (see Williams); d. Feb. 14, 1786. (Tombstone at Huntington—whereon is carved "Memento Mori.") She was b. Mar. 9, 1728; d. Nov. 17, 1811. She was a noted woman during the War. In her husband's absence, she carried on his practice successfully until his return. (See Judge Nathaniel, below)

His dau., Martha 3, m. Gilbert Williams; whose son, Gilbert Potter 4, was the father of Martha Lucinda Williams 5 who m. Maj. Thomas Young. Maj. Young had: Caroline Williams 6, m. Ross W. Downs—Downs children,

Wilton Young, b. Oct. 16, 1898, and Carolyn Hudson, b. Oct. 27, 1902; Bertha Lucinda 6; and Ethel Fanning 6. Gilbert Potter Williams 4, had Robert Bruce 5, who m. Sarah Elizabeth Skilman. Robert Bruce Williams 5 had: Gilbert Potter 6, Emeline Avery 6, Catherine Macomber 6 and Gentry Skilman 6. Gilbert Williams, who m. Martha 3 Potter, had a son, Harry, who is mentioned in the sketch of Judge Nathaniel Potter, below. The children of Maj. Young and Robert B. Williams are all the living descendants of Dr. Gilbert Potter. (Miss Bertha L. Young. Also Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

Dr. Potter's dau., Sarah 3, b. Jan. 8, 1756, m. Capt. William Rogers (See Rogers), who was afterward lost at sea. (Thompson, as above) Dr. Potter's sons: Peleg (1) 3, Peleg (2) 3, and dau., Seraphine 3, d. y. His son, Nathaniel 3, was the Refugee, below.

POTTER NATHANIEL 3, JUDGE (Dr. Gilbert 2, Nathaniel 1)—From Huntington. He was b. Dec. 23, 1761; not m.; d. Nov. 24, 1841. (Thompson as above. Also Tombstone at Huntington) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1812 and 1814; and County Judge of Suffolk Co., 1823-1828. (Civil List)

Midshipman Hardy, during the Revolutionary War, was afflicted with the small pox, while on board of a British man-of-war in Huntington Bay. He was taken ashore and placed in the small pox Hospital, in the Eastern part of the village of Huntington. Dr. Gilbert Potter, being an active and zealous rebel, had fled to Connecticut with others, and joined the Patriots on the main shore. He left everything in Huntington in charge of his wife, Elizabeth Williams Potter, a dau. of Nathaniel Williams, an educated and remarkable woman, who not only took charge of all of his affairs during his absence, but assumed the doctor's medical practice; and, if tradition be true, she was as good a Doctor as her husband. In the course of her medical practice, she attended the young British Naval Officer, Midshipman Hardy, at the Hospital; and, taking a fancy to him, had him removed to her dwelling house where she doctored, nursed and attended him so faithfully that he recovered, and returned to his ship in the Bay. At this time, her son, (afterward Judge) Nathaniel Potter, was a young man in his teens, and living at home with his mother; although he, afterward, by his father's aid, fitted out a Privateer at Greenport; and, with a crew, captured several British prizes. The sequel to this incident is rather novel. In the War with Great Britain, in 1812, Midshipman Hardy of the Revolution had risen in rank, and was a British Commodore. He had command of a British Fleet, that sailed through Long Island Sound, and at one time, anchored in Huntington Bay. No British forces landed there, but they destroyed and captured all the American vessels within reach. Capt. Nathan Conklin was sailing a fast sloop, the "Amazon," owned by Judge Potter, from Huntington to Albany, when she was captured by Com. Hardy's fleet in the Bay. On board of the "Amazon" was a nephew of Judge Potter, a young man named Henry Williams [See Dr. Gilbert Potter, above]; or, as he was afterward more familiarly known in this village, "Uncle Harry Williams." He did not surrender very gracefully; in fact, he d—d the British, their Flag and their Commodore, in no very measured terms. The consequence was that Com. Hardy put him in irons, kept him a prisoner on board of his ship, and threatened to send him to Halifax. Judge Potter, on hearing of the capture of his sloop, ransomed her and went on board of Hardy's ship to look after young Williams. His astonishment may be imagined when he recognized Com. Hardy as the young midshipman of the Revolution, whom his mother had nursed and doctored years before in Huntington. A mutual recognition took place; and, upon learning that Henry Williams was the nephew of Judge Potter, he was at once released. The next day Hardy gave a grand dinner on his flag-ship in Huntington Bay; when Judge Potter, under a flag of truce, was dined with all the honors, and a glowing tribute to the memory of his mother, who had passed away. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

PRICE BENJAMIN—From Sag Harbor to Stonington, five passengers and goods, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46)

PRIME—The first in America was James 1, who probably came from Yorkshire, Eng., to New Haven, in 1638. Soon afterward he appeared among the early settlers of Milford, Conn. He m. Mary ———; d. in 1685. His son, James 2, of New Milford, Conn., b. about 1633; d. July 18, 1736, aged 103. He m. (1) Martha Merwin, dau. of Sarah Platt who was a dau. of Dea. Richard Platt, one of the early settlers of Milford; (2) Sarah ———. A son of James 2, Rev. Ebenezer 3, was the Refugee, below. (See "The Descendants of James Prime" for more full information)

PRIME BENJAMIN YOUNGS 4, DR. (Rev. Ebenezer 3, below, James 2, 1; father of Ebenezer, below)—From Huntington to New Haven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) On Apr. 12, 1781, his wife was allowed to go to L. I. to bring off his apparel and furniture. (F. 37) On

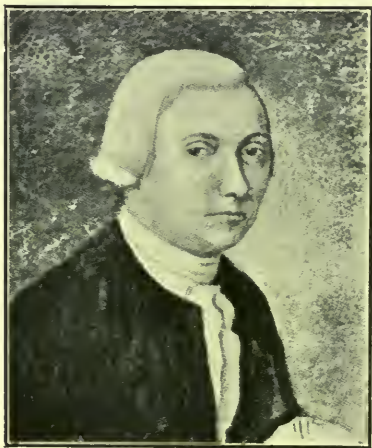

Jan. 5, 1784, he petitioned both branches of the N. Y. Legislature, stating his hardships and losses during the War, and asking relief from a law that prevented him from recovering debts due to his father, Rev. Ebenezer. (B. 12)

Somewhere on that journey they buried their silverware in a well. After the War, they returned to L. I. We have in the family two pieces of that silverware. (Col. Ralph E. Prime)

He was a diligent student, and made himself master of several languages, in all of which he could converse or write with equal ease. Although driven from his home, he indulged his pen with caustic severity upon the enemies of his country, and did much to raise the hopes and stimulate the exertions of his fellow citizens. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

He was a physician, a writer in the "American Whig," a public speaker, and the author of many patriotic songs and poems, one of which formed the basis of part of the phraseology of the Associator's Test Oath. [See H. 4] He belonged to the Sons of Liberty; and assisted in the destruction of the Statue of George III. He was the special object of the enemy's hatred, and was compelled to flee for his life with his wife and son Ebenezer, below. For seven years he lived in exile in Conn. He graduated from the College of New Jersey (Princeton), in Sept., 1751; in 1760, he received the honorary degree of A. M. from Yale College; in 1762, he went to England and spent some time in Edinburgh and London in medical studies. He then entered Leyden University, from which he received the Medical Doctor's degree in 1764.

Benj. Y. Prime

He travelled to Moscow; and, returning to N. Y. City, he practised medicine. He was driven from that city on account of his undisguised patriotic sentiments and went to Huntington; from whence he was driven to Conn. when the enemy took possession of L. I. ("The Descendants of James Prime")

He was b. in Huntington, Dec. 20, 1733; d. there, Oct. 31, 1791. On Dec. 18, 1774, he m. Mary Wheelwright, Wid. of Rev. James Greaton. "Dec. 29, 1774. Last Sunday sen-night, at Huntington, B. Y. The latter had: Edward Woodhull, Hannah Amelia and Ebenezer Prime. Ebenezer Prime Ketchum had a dau., Elizabeth, who m. Rev. George P. Noble, brother of Rev.

Franklin Noble (see Ebenezer, below); and a son, Herbert T. Ketcham, now Surrogate of Kings Co., N. Y.

Rev. Nathaniel Scudder 5, son of Dr. Benjamin Youngs 4, b. at Huntington, Apr. 21, 1785; m. Julia Ann Jermain, of Sag Harbor; d. Mar. 27, 1856. She was a dau. of John Jermain and Margaret, dau. of Silvanus 4 Pierson. (See Pierson) He was a Presbyterian Minister. His third son, Rev. Edward Dorr Griffin 6, wrote the "Notes of the Prime Family," relating to his branch of the Family. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime) His eldest son, Alanson J. 6, was the father of Col. Ralph E. 7, of Yonkers, N. Y. His second son was Rev. Samuel Irenæus 6, D. D.; and his youngest son was William Cowper 6, the author. Rev. George Wendell 7, was a son of Rev. Samuel Irenæus, D. D.

PRIME EBENEZER 3, REV. (James 2, 1; father of Dr. Benjamin Youngs, above)—From Huntington to Conn.; although it is stated that he remained on L. I. (B. 12) He graduated from Yale, in 1718; was licensed to preach, in 1719; and preached in Huntington for 60 years. (H. 39) He was a fearless advocate of American Independence; and, in his 77th year, was driven from his home by the enemy, and his library was destroyed. After his death, Col. Thompson (afterward Count Rumford) pitched his tent in the Huntington graveyard (Page 175) in order, he said, that he "might tread on the d—d old rebel's head whenever he went in and out of his tent."

He was b. at Milford, Conn., July 21, 1700; d. at Huntington, Oct. 2, 1779. He m. (1) Oct. 2, 1723, Margaret, dau. of Nathaniel Sylvester, 2d, and aunt of Mary Sylvester who m. Feb. 15, 1903, while a student at Cornell University.

The service which Rear Admiral Ebenezer Scudder Prime gave to his country is well known. He took a great interest in preparing this work; and his advice and his assistance were appreciated. He looked forward with pleasure to its publication. The author often came in contact with him, both personally and by correspondence; and he regrets the loss of a valuable helper and a sincere friend.—[Frederic G. Mather.]

RACKETT—The first of the name on L. I. was John 1, who settled at Rocky Point (now E. Marion), about 1690. He was there, with his wife, Elizabeth, in 1698. His son, Dea. John 2, b. about 1690, lived at Oyster Ponds (now Orient). Dea. John 2 had three children, of whom: John 3 and Jonathan 3, the Refugees below. Abigail, dau. of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Sherrill (See Sherrill), of East Hampton. Elisha 5 had: John Albert 6, b. in 1808; Elisha Sherry 6, b. in 1811; and Sydney Philander 6, b. in 1814. All three were Capt. of ships. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 129, 130) Elisha Sherry 6, m. Caroline, dau. of Abraham and Rebecca Tuthill; both d. in 1892. They had: Leander B. 7, b. about 1837, not m., still living; Adelia 7, m. O. D. Petty, d. Aug. 17, 1885, leaving Eugene E. 8, m. Lena Bower, no children, and Wilson L. 8, m. Annie Robinson, who d. Oct. 19, 1911, leaving Helen 9 (who m. Fred. Rackett, and has Malcolm 10), Ella 9 and Vera 9; Rev. E. Irving 7, of Bloomington, Cal., m. Clara Anderson—had John 8, d. y., and Kate 8, m. in 1911, George Complin; Elisha M. 7, of Orient, Justice of the Peace 18 years, now in the real estate business—had, D. Milton 8 and Ethel W. 8; E. Augusta 7, not m.; Alzina R. 7, not m., d. in 1889; Myron C. 7—had, Myron C., Jr., 8, Bertha 8, Walter 8 and Eva 8, d. in 1898, aged 14; and Charles 7, d. y. D. Milton 8, m. Rita, dau. of Andrew and Hattie Beebe; and had, Burton 9, and another son, d. y. (Mr. Elisha M. Rackett) See Addenda. (I. 16)

RACKETT JONATHAN 3 (Dea. John 2, John 1; father of Daniel, above, John, Jr., above, and Jonathan, Jr., below)—Probably from Oyster Ponds to Saybrook. In 1776, his goods were brought over by Capt. Jacob Riley. (C. 131) The Auditors paid his claim to James Wells, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. _____; m. _____, Hannah 4, dau. of Samuel King (See King), and Wid. of Nathaniel, the eldest son of Dea. Daniel, Tuthill. (See Tuthill) Aside from Daniel, John, Jr., and Jonathan, Jr., he had: Samuel 4, m. Rhoda, dau. of Reuben Youngs; Absolom 4, below; and Hannah 4, m. Sylvanus Brown. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 129) Absolom 4, m. Nov. 16, 1769, Hannah 7, dau.

Jonathan Rackett

RACKETT JONATHAN, JR., 4 (Jonathan 3, above, Dea. John 2, John 1; brother of Daniel, above, and John, Jr., above)—From Southold to Lyme, in Oct., 1776. He authorized James Wells to receipt for his claim; which was done June 19, 1778. (C. 190)

He was b. _____; m. Hannah, dau. of Daniel and Ruth Wiggins. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 129)

Jonathan Rack et Junior
He had: Absolom 5; Thomas V. 5; Hazard 5; Joshua G. 5; and William 5. (Youngs Gen. pp. 112, 113)

RAYMOND—Richard 1 came to Salem, Mass., about 1634. He m. Judith _____. In 1664, he removed to Saybrook, Conn.; and d. there, in 1692, aged about 90. (Raymond Gen.) Joshua was in the vicinity of New London, Conn., by 1668. He had a son, Joshua 2. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 425-426) He also had sons: John 2, Lemuel 2, Samuel 2, Richard 2 and Daniel 2. (Mrs. Edith Raymond)

RAYMOND JAMES, CAPT. (_____)—On July 4, 1777, the Conn. Council of Safety gave a permit to him, on his parole, to pass to L. I. and to return in 18 days. (Records of the State of Conn. 1. 342) He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); in the 2d and 4th Westchester (G. 78, 80); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 97) It was probably his son, James, Jr., who served in the 2d and Ass't Exempts of Westchester. (G. 78, 81) He took the Oath of Allegiance, in Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1777. (Misc. Pap., 30. 487)

REEVE—REEVES—REEVES—REVERE—RIVE—RIVES—Moore ("Index," pp. 33, 111-113) uses the form, Reeves. Howell ("Southampton," pp. 358, 359) states that the Southampton branch spelled the name, Reeves; the Southold branch, Reeve. Hon. Henry A. Reeves, states that the Refugees did not belong to his Southampton branch. It is evident that nearly all of them came from Southold.

Moore (as above) starts the line with James, who came from Wales; m. Mary, dau. of William Purrier; and had children, James, Thomas, William, John, Isaac, Joseph, and perhaps Jonathan. But when Moore, later on, gives the record of these sons, he uses the word "probably" so often that doubt is cast as to James being the father. Howell (as above), writing 15 years later than Moore, makes the original James the ancestor of the Southold branch only; while he asserts that James had a brother, Thomas, who was the ancestor of the Southampton branch. Griffin ("Journal," p. 195) agrees as to the two brothers; but he is mixed as to the generations. Miss Lucy D. Akerly also thinks that James and Thomas were probably brothers.

A William Reeve, aged 22, came in the "Elizabeth & Ann" 29 April, 1635, from London to New England and was of Salem, Mass., in 1668; but if, as conjectured by Savage, he was brother of John of Salem, he could not have been the William of the will, as his brother John had already sailed in the "Christian" for Boston in 1635, (aged 19) three years before the date of the will, which evidently refers to him as then still in England. Thos. Reeve, aged 24, who came in the "Mathew," 21 May, 1635, to St. Christopher's may have been the other brother. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 42. 174)

REEVE — WOODRUFF — LITCHFIELD, CONN.

(From "Historic Litchfield")

Still later research, as shown in Whitaker's "Southold" and Craven's "Mattituck," seems to prove that Thomas was the father of the James 1, of Moore; and that it was Thomas, and not James 1 (of Moore), who m. Mary Purrier. Also that Thomas was the father of the James 1 and the Thomas 1, of Howell. This was also the opinion of the late Theodore M. Banta.

Thomas 1, m. Mary, dau. of William Purrier; d. before 1666. His children were: Thomas 2, James 2, William 2, John 2, Isaac 2, Jonathan 2, Joseph 2, Mary 2 and Hannah 2. (Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 71, 72) The will of William Purrier names his grandchildren: James 2; Isaac 2; Mary 2, m. Thomas Terrell—while William 2 is mentioned as a brother, in the will of James 2. (Mr. Horace D. Reeve)

Thomas 2, b. about 1646; m. Agnes Rider; d. in 1682. Moore (as above) gives two of the name, Thomas 2, as brothers of James 2 and Joseph 2. One Thomas 2, m. Mary Terry, d. Feb. 4, 1705; the other Thomas 2, m. (1) Bethia Horton, (2) Mary Wells, and was the father of Rev. Abner 3. The latter was Lt. Thomas 2, b. in 1671; d. in 1738 ("Wells of Southold," p. 38); d. Nov. 9, 1738. (Moore, as above, p. 111)

Rev. Abner 3, b. in 1707 (Moore, as above); b. Feb. 21, 1708 ("Wells of Southold," p. 95); b. in 1710. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 259) He graduated at Yale, in 1731; and in 1735, was licensed, in Southold, to preach. He had pastorates at Smithtown, Fire Place, Huntington and Moriches. (H. 39) In 1763, he settled at Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y.; and, after 1770, was the Minister at Burlington, Vt., where he d. in 1795. He m. Mary Topping; and had sons, Topping 4, below, and Capt. Paul 4, the Refugee, below. (Whitaker, as above) His Pastorate at Smithtown began in 1735. He removed to Blooming Grove, in 1756. He d. at Brattleboro, Vt., May 6, 1798. ("Wells of Southold," p. 95. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 51) Topping 4, better known as Judge Tappan, founded the celebrated Law School at Litchfield, Conn. In 1773, he built the Reeve-Woodruff house, which is still standing at Litchfield. ("Historic Litchfield")

James 2, b. about 1651; d. May 6, 1698. His will was proved July 4, 1698; and recorded, p. 68 of parchment-covered book received from Thomas S. Lester. The will mentions children: James 3, Daniel 3, Isaac 3, Thomas 3, ——— (eldest dau.) 3; Hannah 3 and Deborah 3. (Mr. Robert M. Reeves) Howell (as above) gives Bethuel, in 4th gen. from James 2; but he does not give the intermediate ancestors of Bethuel who was probably the father of Daniel, the Refugee, below. Mrs. Ruth A. Silk states that she cannot prove Bethuel to be in the 4th gen. from James 2. She makes him Bethuel 4 (James or William, 3, 2, Thomas 1). Mrs. Silk then proceeds:

He bought at North Sea, near Southampton, land in 1758; lived and d. there in 1782. Hem. Mary Haines about 1752-3. His children: The eldest, Joel, b. in 1755; Daniel; Silas; Keturah; Jeremiah; Zebulon; and Bethiah. I do not know the order of birth. I know not what became of Silas, Jeremiah and Zebulon—the latter no doubt named for Zebulon Haines. The names Jeremiah and Daniel seemed, at that period, to be exclusive for the families of James 2 or William 2. It is quite noticeable that while these brothers settled at Mattituck, all descendants appear to be credited to James. The names Jeremiah and Daniel followed down in the families of Bethuel's sons, Joel and Daniel. Where the record has not been kept in the early Churches I cannot make it sure.

Hon. James 3, b. in 1672; m. Deborah (Satterly?); d. Mar. 14, 1732. His will, dated Jan. 15, 1731-2, names wife Deborah, son James, 2d, son Daniel; kinswoman Deborah, wife of David Howell, Jr.; grandson Joshua Wells; and son-in-law Nathaniel Warner. (H. D. R.) The will of his Wid., Deborah, dated Feb. 9, 1736-7, mentions sons, James and Daniel; daughters, Hannah, Deborah, Mary and Sarah; and grandson, Joshua Wells. (Original owned by Mr. Charles Gildersleeve) Hon. James 3 had Dea. James 4, b. in 1709; m. Mary, dau. of Robert Hudson; d. Apr. 27, 1781. Dea. James 4 had sons: James 5, Maj. Isaac 5, Lt. Selah 5 and Ebenezer 5, who were Refugees, below; also a dau., Mary 5, m. John Gardiner. (See Gardiner) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15) Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) Owing to his advanced age, his sons were noted by themselves in the Census. Hon. James 3 had a dau., Sarah 4, who m. Craveit Wells. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 390. See also Wells)

Dea. Thomas 3, b. in 1684; m. Mary Salmon (see Salmon); d. in 1761. His son, Thomas 4, b. in 1726; m. Keziah Mapes; d. in 1790. Thomas 4 had Daniel 5, the Refugee, below; also Thomas 5, who m. Parnel Hubbard, and had Mary 6, m. Dea. William Wells (see Wells); also Ruth 5, who m. Joshua Goldsmith. (See Goldsmith)

Joseph 2, b. in 1656; m. (1) Abigail ———, (2) Deliverance (Homan) Whitehair; d. in 1736. His will (made in 1722, proved in 1736) mentions wife, Deliverance, and children; among whom were Ens. Benjamin 3 and Hezekiah 3. The latter, m. (1) Jerusha Hallock, (2) Rachel Mapes; d. in 1770.

REEVE BENJAMIN (Son of Israel, below; brother of Israel, Jr., below, Luther, below, and Rumsey, below)—He served in the War, and d. on the Prison ship "Jersey." (Mrs. H. Amelia Reeve Chapin)

He was probably b. about 1754. (See Israel, below) He may have been the Benjamin who m. a dau. of Lt. John Corwin. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 142) Or the Benjamin who m. Deliverance Wells; whose son, Joseph, m. Bethia, dau. of Thomas 3 Booth. (See Booth) The latter was probably the Joseph whose will was dated Jan. 12, 1782. (N. Y. Wills, 34. 451)

REEVE DANIEL—He was brought from L. I. to Conn., as a passenger, by Capt. Jacob Riley, in 1776 (C. 131); and, also, from L. I. to Guilford by

Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776. (C. 94) He served in the 3d Line (G. 46); in Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57); and in Conn. (G. 97) A Daniel, Lt., a Daniel, and a Daniel, Jr., served in the 1st Orange. (G. 72) Probably Daniel, Jr., was a son of Daniel who went from L. I. to Orange County, N. Y., and d. there. (Mrs. R. A. S.)

A Daniel 5 (Thomas 4, Dea. Thomas 3, James 2, Thomas 1)—From Southold. He was bapt. Nov. 14, 1756. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) The name Daniel is common among the descendants of Dea. Thomas. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) There was a Daniel 4 (Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1) who may have been the father of Israel, below, and grandfather of the four sons of Israel, below. (Mr. Robert M. Reeves)

Another Daniel 5 (Bethuel 4), b. about 1758; d. Apr. 13, 1807. In June, 1775, he enlisted under Capt. Griffin; and also, from Westhampton, L. I., enlisted in the same Company, Oliver Russell, of the family in which Daniel 5 later married. Daniel 5 enlisted for a short term and served in Capt. Griffin's

JAMES WICKHAM REEVE — MATTITUCK, L. I.
(From Craven's "Mattituck")

Co. in the 3d N. Y. Line, commanded by Col. James Clinton, in the Revolutionary War. His name last appeared on a roll dated, Camp at Fort George, October 15, 1775, with remark, "On Command." His eldest son Jeremiah (my grandfather), I remember, said his father served in the Army under Col. James Clinton. Daniel 5 may have later served with the Levies. Daniel, the Refugee, was not m. He may have been Daniel 5, and may have been related to Selah, the Refugee, below. Bethuel 4 made his will naming 7 children and wife, Mary, showing the family to consist of 9 persons; and the Census of 1776 names the family of Bethuel Reeve: Males—2, under 50 and over 16; and 3, under 16 years; and Females—2 over, and 1 under, 16—in all 8 persons, and showing Bethuel 4 to be less than 50 years old. Who was missing in 1776? Daniel 5, we have seen, was in the Army in 1775. The British occupation of L. I. made it difficult to return home, and probably he continued in the Army; so that he may have been the Daniel drawn in the Weissenfels' Levies. Rev. Benjamin Goldsmith records the marriage of Daniel 5 Reeve, of Southampton, to Martha Russell, of Westhampton, on Feb. 14, 1782. He d. at Westhampton, and left 9 children and a second wife. My grandfather, Jeremiah 6, was his eldest son, b. Dec. 24, 1784; d. Mar. 13,

1852. When he was 16 years of age he removed with friends to Minisink, Orange Co., N. Y., settling near Westtown. He m. Hannah Decker Mar. 1, 1809. She was a descendant of a long line of early Holland settlers—Swartwout—Pell—Van Etten, and others. They had three children: Isaiah D. 7 (1811–1832); Daniel 7, b. Jan. 1, 1814; Martha G. 7, b. Sept. 22, 1819, d. Jan. 27, 1902, not m. In 1833, Jeremiah 6 was made an Elder in the Presbyterian Church at Westtown and held the office during his life. During the War of 1812, Jeremiah 6 was drafted; but he employed a substitute. Daniel 7, b. Jan. 1, 1814; d. Oct. 29, 1858. He m. Apr. 4, 1839, Ruth A. Carpenter, a descendant of William and Abigail Carpenter who came over on the "Bevis," in 1636, and settled at Rehobeth, Mass. She resided on a farm near Middletown, N. Y., where her parents had been wed, in 1804. The farm remained in the family until 1900. In Aug., 1839, Daniel 7 was appointed by Col. Childs, at Minisink, as Serjt. Maj. in the 148th Regt., N. Y. Militia, and held the same place as Field Officer when they disbanded about 1852–3. I have his commission. Their children were: Daniel Carpenter 8, b. Feb. 7, 1840, graduated at Union College, in 1863, and at the Albany Law College in 1865, practised at Middletown, N. Y., not m., and d. there, Feb. 9, 1871; an infant 8, d. in 1841; Martha J. 8, b. Sept. 18, 1842, d. Mar. 27, 1900, not m.; Ruth A. 8, b. Feb. 17, 1845, m. Edward Silk, resided in Middletown, N. Y., until 1902, when they removed to N. Y. City—they have one son, Reeve A. Silk; Valentine Hall 8, b. July 6, 1848, graduated at Wallkill Academy, carried on the ancestral farm, d. Feb. 14, 1886, not m. There remain, of the descendants of Jeremiah 6, but Mrs. Ruth A. Silk and her son, Reeve A. Silk, admitted to the bar, in 1901. (Mrs. R. A. S.)

A Daniel (not Daniel 5, son of Bethuel 4), after the death of Daniel Smith, Jan. 13, 1763, m. his Wid., Tabitha, who was a dau. of Col. Nicoll, and a sister of Gen. William Floyd. (See Floyd, wherein is a copy of her will) Her first husband was Daniel 3 (Daniel 2, Richard 1—Bull) Smith. (See Smith)

REEVE EBENEZER 5 (Dea. James 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1; brother of Maj. Isaac, below, Lt. James, below, and Lt. Selah, below)—From Southold to Morristown, N. J., and thence to Norwich, Conn. On Mar. 10, 1780, it was stated that he and his nephew Nathaniel, the Refugee, below (afterward Rev.), were Refugees from L. I. (F. 121) He m. Bethiah Hudson, Jan. 18, 1776. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His grand dau., Mrs. Mary D. Flack, stated that he was a Lt. in the Army. In 1908, she wrote, further:

My grandfather, Ebenezer Reeve, went from Southold to Morristown, N. J., after the British occupied L. I. Soon after, he left his farm, at Morristown, and went to Norwich, Conn., where his children were born. My father, Jeremiah, was the oldest, and the only son. There were two daughters. Ebenezer's wife d. while the children were still young; and he m. again. About 1802, John Kinsman, who settled Kinsman, Ohio, sent for Ebenezer to go there. He went, exchanging his farm at Norwich for 600 acres of land in Ohio. Jeremiah remained at Norwich for another year to complete his studies as a physician.

REEVE ISAAC 5, MAJ. (Dea. James 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1; brother of Ebenezer, above, Lt. James, below, and Lt. Selah, below)—From Southold. On Oct. 23, 1782, his wife, Sarah, was allowed to return to L. I. with her furniture, &c. (F. 79) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. in 1735. He m. (1) Hannah Tuthill, and had: Isaac T. 6, bapt. July 11, 1762; Hannah 6, bapt. Sept. 1, 1765; Phebe 6, bapt. Oct. 4, 1767; Mary 6, bapt. Dec. 3, 1769; and Charlotte A. 6, bapt. Aug. 17, 1764. His wife, Hannah, d. June 20, 1780, aged 41. He m. (2) Mar. 4, 1782, Sarah Cheeseborough, of Conn., and had: Deborah 6, bapt. Oct. 2, 1785; Elizabeth 6, bapt. Apr. 15, 1787; Eunice 6, bapt. July 5, 1789; and Selah 6, bapt. July 13, 1794, m. Charity ————. Maj. Isaac d. Oct. 6, 1814, aged 79. His Wid., Sarah, d. Mar. 19, 1815, aged 65. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstones)

Griffin ("Journal," pp. 196, 197) states that the first wife of Maj. Isaac was Phebe, dau. of Henry and Phebe Tuthill; and that her sister, Anna, m. John C. Symmes of Ohio, and was the mother of the wife of President William H. Harrison. Also, that Isaac T. 6, son of Maj. Isaac, m. Joanna, dau. of Judge David

Isaac Reeve

Wells; that he was Sheriff of Suffolk Co., in 1801, and, afterward, Assistant Judge of Queens Co.; and that he d. June 15, 1811.

REEVE ISRAEL (According to Mr. Robert M. Reeves, he may have been Israel 5, Daniel 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1. He was father of Benjamin, above, Israel, Jr., below, Luther, below, and Rumsey, below)—From Southold to Lyme. In Sept., 1776, with eight passengers, he was moved over by Capts. William Johnson and James Webb. (C. 187) On June 19, 1778, he requested that his claim be paid to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in 1730; m. June 17, 1753, Theodosia, dau. of Benjamin Case (see Case); d. June 6, 1813, and is buried on his farm, at Lyme, Conn. He was a Representative from that Town in the Conn. Legislature, 1793, 1795-1797. The Salmon Rec. states that his wife d. Apr. 2, 1808; and his dau., Sarah, Aug. 8, 1798. His four sons, Benjamin, Rumsey, Israel, Jr., and Luther, were Refugees and Rev'y soldiers. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

It is possible that Joseph was the emigrant who came over with Benj. L'Honmmedieu. We may have an ancestor in Solomon Reeve, son of Joseph, who (Solomon) m., in 1724, Sarah Rumsey, dau. of Simon Rumsey. We have been unable to find the record of their children. The name, Rumsey Reeve, is found among the descendants of Bethuel; and frequently among Israel's descendants, his second son being Rumsey. Records of other Rumsey Reeve's are found. However, as Solomon Reeve and his wife Sarah d. in Southold, in 1784 and 1783, at an advanced age, it does not seem probable that Israel fled to Conn., leaving his aged parents at Southold. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

The name Israel, in Southold, points to the Parshall family. Rumsey is another form for the family name Ramsey. Simon Ramsey, mariner, is a large landowner about 1711. Second Theophilus Corwin m. Hannah Ramsey, after 1698. I know of no early Reeve-Corwin marriage from which Israel could spring. Israel Parshall (d. 1738) left a dau., Experience, wife of Daniel Reeve. This may be the father of Israel Reeve. Experience (Parshall) Reeve was b. before 1725, when her mother died, and was m. before 1738, when her father died. Her husband, Daniel, was perhaps Daniel, the second son of Hon. James and Deborah. I imagine, though, that this latter Daniel went to Goshen, N. Y. At any rate, his son, Daniel, in 1762, his father being dead, lived in Goshen and deeded Matituck land left to his father by his grandfather. (Rev. Charles E. Craven) The Salmon Rec. states that Daniel m. Experience Parshall Nov. 11, 1736. They could not have been the parents of Israel, as the latter was b. in 1730. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

The family tradition is that Israel was French. We have always been told stories of our old French grandfather, Israel the weaver; that he was one of four, or more, brothers who came from France; that the spelling of the name was changed; it was supposed the spelling was Reeve, or was pronounced as if spelled Reeve; that the family was of noble birth, which was not impossible among the Huguenots. Our g. grandfather, Luther, used to be very proud of his French blood, which he called "royal blood." He said he was one-eighth French blood, which was worth more than all the rest. The "one-eighth" which he claimed makes me look farther than his father for his French blood. As I count it, the Frenchman should be his g. grandfather. However, as our grandfather told us of his grandfather, the Frenchman, we had always supposed he was indeed the immigrant. We have so far failed to find either the parents of Israel Reeve, or record of his coming to this country. As others theorize, and do not hesitate to publish his parentage as they see it, I feel that our family tradition as to his nationality should receive as much consideration as their theories; especially the one which calls him son of Daniel and Experience who were m. six years after he was born! Of the year of his birth we are positive. Among the descendants of Bethuel we find, practically, the same traditions as our own. That of four, or more, brothers from France; the change in the spelling or pronunciation of the name; and they add that one of the brothers went South and his name is Rive or Rives. They also have the name Rumsey in their family. As we knew nothing of this family except an occasional rumor of a Rumsey Reeve who lived in Willoughby, O., and had a prominent nose (as had my grandfather Rumsey) the tradition has not been handed from one to the other. After 10 years of research, we have not found the ancestors of Israel; nor they, the ancestors of Bethuel. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

Israel Reeve

REEVE ISRAEL, JR. (Son of Israel, above; brother of Benjamin, above, Luther, below, and Rumsey, below)—From Southold. He served in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) On Oct., 7, 1777, he was wounded at the Battle of Bemis Heights; and he was discharged, May 29, 1779. On Jan. 12, 1788, he petitioned the N. Y. Senate for his pay. (B. 28) He was an applicant for a pension. (Page 101) After the War he returned to Southold. He also served in the War of 1812; and he was, for some time, Warden of the State Prison, at Auburn, N. Y. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

He was b. in 1757; m. Fannie Lord; d. ————. His children were: Montgomery, m. Maria ————, and removed to San Francisco, in 1851; Theodosia, m. John Minton, d. Sept. 11, 1856—son James H., of

Salem, N. Y., and son, John H., of Westfield, N. Y.; Betsey, d. May 7, 1857, m. ——— Pomeroy—son Charles W. of Auburn, N. Y., whose dau., Cornelia m., in 1852, Lucius V. Parsons, of Chicago—and whose son, George, m. in 1858, and lived in Illinois; and Joseph Lord. Joseph Lord Reeve, b. Dec. 14, 1784. He m. (1) Sarah Anne ———, and had: LaFayette; Montgomery; Sophia; Charlotte; and another son. He m. (2) Catherine E. Blake, and had: Sobeisk; Parker Pillsbury, m. Mary Matthews; Sarah Charlotte, m. John Edward Petrie; John Minton, m. Dora Chambers; and Cynthia Terry, m. Lyman Newton. (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

REEVE JAMES 5, LT. (Dea. James 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1; brother of Ebenezer, above, Maj. Isaac, above, and Lt. Selah, below; father of Ens. James, below, and Rev. Nathaniel, below)—From Southold. He had a Colonial commission, as Capt. (Page 85. See Page 523) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16) He graduated at Yale; became a preacher for a time; and then took possession of his father's farm. He was also a Magistrate, and a useful man. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 195)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1731; m., Oct. 23, 1755, Anna, dau. of Barnabas Wines (See Wines); d. June 8, 1787. His Wid., b. in 1736; d. Feb. 3, 1800. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstones) His children were: Ens. James 6, The Refugee, below; Jeremiah 6, b. about 1757, d. in 1775; Rev. Nathaniel 6, the Refugee, below; John 6, had four sons and one dau., and d. aged 84; Samuel 6, emigrated to Western, N. Y., had a family, and d. about 1847, aged about 70; Timothy 6, spent most of his life in N. Y. City, and had a son, Timothy Wines; Ann 6; and Harmony 6, m. Col. Benjamin Horton and had nine children. (Mr. Horace D. Reeve)

The Mattituck Ch. Rec. calls Lt. James 5, "James, Jr.," several times—thus tending to confound him with Ens. James 6, below, and perhaps with another James, Jr.

REEVE JAMES, Jr., 6, ENS. (Son of Lt. James, above; brother of Rev. Nathaniel, below)—From Southold. He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 7, 37, 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 97) As James, Jr., he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15) The James, Jr., who applied for a Pension ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 273) was not this James; but James, eldest son of James who went to Orange Co., N. Y., before 1727. (Mrs. R. A. S.)

Ens. James was bapt. Oct. 30, 1756; d. Mar. 4, 1830. He m. (1) Aug. 1, 1779, Parnel 4, dau., of Col. Parker Wickham, who d. June 30, 1793, aged 36. (See Wickham) He m. (2) Mehitable Downs, b. about 1773; d. Dec. 19, 1865, aged 92. His children were: James Wickham 7; Irad 7, bapt. Feb. 12, 1792, d. Aug. 30, 1863; Hannah 7; Fanny 7; Edward 7; Phebe Moore 7; and Jeremiah 7. James Wickham 7, m. Phoebe Goldsmith, granddau. of Rev. Benjamin Goldsmith, and had: James 8, Mary 8 and Alice 8. Alice 8,

James Reeve jun was the mother of Anna Reeve Aldrich, the gifted writer, whose untimely death at the age of 26 years occurred June 28, 1892. (H. D. R.)

REEVE JOSHUA (ONE) 5 (Joshua 4, Benjamin 3, Joseph 2, Thomas 1)—From L. I. to Conn., and to Orange Co., N. Y. Moore ("Index," p. 113) names a Joshua 4 (Ens. Benjamin 3, Joseph 2, James 1—who may have been Thomas 1), who was probably the father of the Refugee. Mr. Robert M. Reeves, g. grandson of the Refugee, states that Joshua 4 had a brother, Daniel. Mr. Reeves states, that he had always thought his g. grandfather was not the Joshua (son of Benjamin) of Moore, but a grandson of Benjamin and a son of that Joshua; that Hezekiah, son of Joseph, had a son Joshua, also; and that Joshua (b. in 1746, d. in 1812), m. in 1771-2, Hetty Howell, and, in 1786, Mrs. Abigail Huff, and had: Joshua (b. in 1772), Lydia (b. in 1775), Howell (b. in 1777), Kitsey (b. in 1787) and James (d. before Nov., 1812).

Joshua 4 is not given by Howell ("Southampton," p. 359) among the sons of Bethuel. The view that Joshua 4 could not have been son of Ens. Benjamin is taken by Rev. Charles E. Craven who shows from "Deeds of Partition" (County Clerk's Office, Riverhead, Liber A. p. 35), a partition of the estate of Joshua Reeve, in 1788, to Joshua Reeve, Mehitable Reeve, Mary Reeve and Joseph Reeve, minors and heirs; to Ezra Woodhull, minor; and to Jared Landon, Esq. Jared Landon m. Dec. 21, 1778, Deborah Reeve (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 324); and Nathaniel Landon m. Apr. 17, 1757, Mehitable Reeve (Salmon Rec.)—both of them sisters of the decedent, Joshua.

On the other hand, there is to be considered a possible ancestor in David 3 (Joseph 2, Thomas 1) who settled in Deerfield, N. J., in 1684. His son,

My dear Sir
 I have the pleasure to receive your letter of the 10th inst. and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you the same. I am sorry to hear that you are not well. I hope you will soon be recovered.
 I am, Sir, your Obedient Son,
 David 3

COLONIAL COMMISSION OF CAPT. JAMES REEVE
 (From Craven's "Mattituck")

David 4, m. Mar. 1, 1716, Scruah (or "Zeriah") Hunter (See Moore and Salmon), and had sons: David 5; Joshua 5; James 5, g. grandfather of Miss Frances S. Locke; and Benjamin 5. His son, Joshua 4, had a son, Joshua 5 (1720-1749); and a grandson, Joshua 6 (1746-1812) who might have been Joshua, (One) g. grandfather of Robert M. Reeves. (Miss F. S. L.)

The line of Joshua (One)—(Joshua 4 &c.), as given above, is considered correct. He served in Capt. Griffin's Company, Suffolk Co. Militia. (R. M.

R.) During the War he removed to Orange Co., N. Y.; where his name appears in the Land Bounty Rights of the 1st Regt. (G. 72)

Joshua Reeve was one of the Committee of Safety and Observation in the Blooming Grove Dist. of Orange Co., N. Y. A Joshua, also signed the Association in Goshen; but this was in 1775. Joshua (One) the Refugee, was a shoemaker, and owned land on the Otterkill, between Goshen and Craigville, where were numerous industries and a mill. His first wife was related to the Howells of Blooming Grove. In 1782, he sold his share of the Land Bounty Rights, and 18 acres besides. Some time after his 2d m., and the birth of his daughter Kitsey, in 1787 (Goshen Ch. Rec.), he removed to Oak Orchard, passing, with other settlers, through the Great Beech Woods; and finally, bought land in the Town of Romulus, Seneca Co., N. Y. (near Ovid and between Seneca and Cayuga Lakes), on which he lived and where he d. before Nov. 16, 1812. (R. M. R.)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in 1746; m. (1) Mahetable (or Hetty), dau. of John Howell, of Orange Co.; m. (2) Apr. 27, 1786, Mrs. Abigail Huff, who probably d. in 1835, aged 80. He d. in 1812. The children—Joshua 6, Lydia 6 and Howell 6—by his wife, Mahetable, were b. at Southold. The children—Kitsey 6 and James 6—by his wife, Abigail, were b. near Goshen, N. Y. (See below) Lydia 6, m. Phineas Terry. (See Terry)

Joshua 6, b. Apr. 10, 1772; d. Sept. 3, 1829. He m. (1) Dec. 21, 1796, Sarah Simmons. They had: Lydia 7, m. Samuel Herbert; Simmons 7, m. Betsey Hatfield; Eliza 7, m. ———— Rutan; Milton 7, m. (1) Rebecca Lockwood, (2) Emeline Oakley; James 7. Joshua 6, m. (2) Mary (or Polly) Bailey. They had: Sarah Bailey 7, not m.; Abigail Denton 7, m. William Halsey Hart (See Hart); David Arnold 7, m. Mary Decker; Joshua Howell 7, m. (1) Ann Tuthill, (2) ————; Nathaniel Bailey 7, m. (1) Harriet McBride, (2) Ann Eliza Haff. This branch spelled the name, Reeves.

Lydia 6, b. May 11, 1775; m. about 1796, Phineas Terry; d. May 29, 1841. They returned to Westtown, Orange Co., N. Y., after their marriage. They had Terry children: Galen 7, m. Eunice Young; Mahetable 7, m. (1) William Wheeler, (2) Samuel Wells; Lydia 7, not m.; Martina (or "Tiny") 7, m. Absalom Green; Eliza 7, m. Rev. James Weed; Charlotte 7, not m.; Sarah 7, m. Rev. Luther Knight; William 7, not m.

Howell 6, b. Oct. 11, 1777; d. at Westtown, N. Y., Nov. 7, 1853. He m. (1), Apr. 10, 1802, Elizabeth Wood. They had: Mahetable 7, m. Benjamin Horton; Mary (or Polly) 7, m. Benjamin Wickham; Charles Wood 7, m. (1) Azuba Lee, (2) Mrs. Catherine Josephine (Aldrich) Millsaugh; Sarah Jane 7, m. Jesse Smith Hulse; George 7, m. (1) Lavinia Lain, (2) Martha Eliza Allison; Kitsey 7, m., as his 3d wife, Sylvanus Weed; James 7, m. Eliza Ann Howell; John Durland 7, m. Julia Livermore. Howell 6, m. (2) Mrs. Mary (Corwin) Pellett. They had: Gabriel P. 7, M. D., m. (1) Mary McDowell McCartee, (2) Julia Rumsey; Elizabeth 7, m. James David Stout; Howell 7, m. Sarah Eliza Decker.

Joshua (One) 5, by his second wife, Abigail Huff, had: Kitsey 6, b. Jan. 11, 1787, who m., as his 2d wife, Samuel Baker, and d. before Feb. 16, 1870; and James 6, d. a minor probably at, or before, the date of his father's death. (R. M. R.)

REEVE JOSHUA (TWO) (—)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with three passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capts. David Landon, Edward Benton and John Vail. (C. 4, 129, 164) On Apr. 14, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return with his family and effects; which was granted. (E. 34-36) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

He m. Mary Jennings, who d. June 4, 1779, aged 40. (Dr. Talcott's MSS. of Guilford, Conn., Families, in the New Haven Hist'l Soc'y. Also Salmon Rec.) His children were: Mary, b. about 1761, d. Apr. 1, 1764;

Abigail, b. about 1763, d. Oct. 7, 1772;
Mary, b. about 1765, d. Oct. 8, 1772;
Katury, b. about 1768, d. Oct. 3, 1772;
and Benjamin, b. in 1770, d. Oct. 23, 1772. The Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton states that Joshua (Two) lost one son and three daughters, in Oct., 1772. Hence he had no descendants.

Joshua Reeve

REEVE LUTHER (Son of Israel, above; brother of Benjamin, above, Israel, Jr., above, and Rumsey, below)—From Southold to Lyme. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); in the 4th Line (G. 48); and in Conn. (G. 97)

He was b. in 1760; m. Jan. 31, 1785, Anna, dau. of Richard and Mary Ann (Ely) Pearson; d. Dec. 13, 1843. His wife d. Nov. 27, 1844, aged 77. His children were b. at Lyme; emigrated to Ohio; and were followed by their parents, who d. at New Lyme, Ashtabula Co., O. This record is given by Mrs. H. Amelia Reeve Chapin, a descendant, who also sends the following, relating to the children of Luther:—

Benjamin b. Feb. 23, 1787, m. Martha Sill, d. Dec. 13, 1879 (children, below); Rumsey, b. Apr. 18, 1789, m. Mary A. Baldwin d. May 8, 1863 (children, below); Serepta, b. June 13, 1792, m. Elijah 6 Brown (See Brown)—Brown children, Laura, Oliver, Frederick, Mary Ann and Bula; Polly, b. in 1795, m. Abner Gee, d. Dec. 24, 1849—Gee children, Mary, m. Dodge, Cordelia, m. Summer, and Harriet, m. St. John and Taylor; Hannibal, b. Jan. 9, 1797, m. Eliza Latimer—children, Amos, Sally, Charlotte, LaFayette, Albert, Lucy, William and Garrison; Anne, or Nancy, b. Oct. 1, 1799, m. George Babcock—Babcock children, Rosetta, George, Miranda, Augustus, William, Cornelius, Mercy Ann and Julia.

Children of Benjamin, son of Luther: Julia, m. John Fitch—Fitch children, John, James, Maria and Austin; Lucien, m. Susan Chamberlain—his dau. is Mrs. Celia Marantette, of Mendon, Mich.; Sarah Ann, m. Dr. John Dunyan who joined the Mormons and went to Salt Lake—Dunyan children, Newton, Edwin, Dora and Doremus; Mariette, m. Lyman Norton—Norton children, Ann, m. Eugene Way, and Addie m. P. G. Hyde; Narcissa Y., m. Henry Bently—Bently children, Albert and Emma; and Harvey W., m. Elizabeth Dodge, removed to Wis.

Children of Rumsey, son of Luther: James Baldwin, b. Dec. 27, 1816, m. Adeline Riggs; Henry Luther, b. June 4, 1819, m. Mary Randall; John Rumsey, b. July 3, 1821, m. Sarah Carter; Israel Leonidas, b. June 23, 1823, m. Sophia Knowles; Hezekiah Arnold, b. Feb. 4, 1826, m. Lamira Peck; Leander Constantine, b. Sept. 6, 1828, m. Harriet Eliza Peck—among whose children was Harriet Amelia, m. I. Newton Chapin; Flavius Josephus, b. Dec. 2, 1830, m. Mary L. Alderman; Sophronia Marie Antoinette, b. Feb. 27, 1833, m. John Sobeiski Peck; Arthur Tappan, b. Dec. 18, 1835, m. Lovina Soper; and William Henry Harrison, b. Oct. 2, 1840, d. in the Civil War, July 24, 1862.

It is possible that the Refugee was Luther 6 (Israel 5, Daniel 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1). Another Luther, b. in 1779, d. in 1842, was too young to have been the Refugee. He was Luther 6 (Thomas 5, 4, Dea. Thomas 3, James 2, Thomas 1)—(Rev. Charles E. Craven). Mrs. Chapin thinks that the line—Luther 6 (Israel 5 &c), as given above, is not possible.

REEVE MARY, MRS. Possibly, but not probably, the Wid. of Dea. James 4, who d. Apr. 27, 1781. She d. May 21, 1782, aged 73. (Tombstones at Mattituck)

REEVE NATHANIEL 6, REV. (Son of Lt. James, above; brother of Ens. James, Jr., above)—From Southold. On Mar. 10, 1780, it was stated that he was at school at Chelsea, Conn.; and evidently in the care of his uncle Ebenezer, above. (F. 121) He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); and in Malcom's Levies. (G. 58)

At the beginning of the War he was a student at Yale. He removed to Woodbridge, N. J., and taught school. Soon afterward he joined the Army, and participated in the Battle of Monmouth. Of this period in Nathaniel's life, his son Samuel afterward wrote: "My father used to say he was very happy in the army, although he was nearly barefoot half the time. Father never thought of applying for a pension, and could not have gotten one if he had, as no care was taken to preserve any papers, discharge, etc. He always regarded it as a romantic episode of his youthful life, and was happy and thankful he had been permitted to render a little service to his country."

After the War he re-entered Yale, studied Medicine and Theology, and was licensed to preach, Nov. 9, 1791. He removed to Bedford Co., Va., and became a Medical Missionary. On Nov. 10, 1795, he m. Miriam Erwin, of Va. He returned to L. I.; and, on Sept. 19, 1804, was ordained to the Ministry, and installed as Pastor of the Church at Westhampton. He was Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at Deerfield, N. J., 1808-1817. He then returned to Mattituck, and retired from the active Ministry, in 1823. (H. D. R.)

He was b. Nov. 3, bapt. Dec. 29, 1760; d. Apr. 9, 1833. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstone) His Wid., b. Feb. 23, 1776, d. Dec. 19, 1841. (H. D. R.) Mr. Horace D. Reeve also sends the following, relating to the children of Rev. Nathaniel:—

His children were: Nathaniel, Jr., 7, below; Miriam 7, b. Feb. 3, 1798, d. Feb. 5, 1798; Harmony 7, b. May 21, 1799, not m., d. Jan. —, 1840; Anna 7, b. July 17, 1801, not m., d. REEVE PAUL 4, CAPT. (Rev. Abner 3, Thomas 2, James 1—or Thomas 1—according to Moore's "Index," pp. 33, 111–113)—From Aquebogue, in Southold, to Saybrook. He moved over with his wife, three sons and two daughters, and his stock—as appears in his petition, Apr. 20, 1780, to be allowed to return with his family and effects. The petition was negatived, although Capt. Reeve had the recommendation of the Authorities of Saybrook and the personal tribute of Rev. John Devotion. (E. 88–90) On Nov. 23, 1780, and on June 9, 1781, he was permitted to remove, with his family and furniture, to L. I. and to return at his convenience. (F. 30, 31, 40, 41) Previous to this, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for Provisions. (A. 43) It is probable that he was the Paul who signed the Association, from Brookhaven, in 1775 (H. 20); although there is said to have been another Paul who, later, removed to Newark, N. Y. The Refugee, Capt. Paul, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 20); and the

Muster Roll of his Co. is preserved. (G. 37) He gave considerable aid to Col. Smith before the Battle of L. I. (G. 36, 39) He was at Brooklyn before the Battle. (Page 41) He also served in the 4th Line. (Page 92. Also G. 48) On June 28, 1777, by order of the Committee of Safety, he was paid £ 100, to be conveyed to Obadiah Jones, Col. John Hulbert and Thomas Dering, the Committee to remove to Dutchess Co., N. Y., such of the Refugees from L. I. who chose to leave Conn. (A. 44. Also Rev'y MSS, N. Y. State Lib'y, 30. 63)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. about 1734 (G. 37); m. Bethiah —; d. about 1825. He was a brother of Judge Tappan Reeve, of Conn. His children were bapt. as follows:—Josiah 6, Paul 6 and Moses 6, Oct. 7, 1770; Bethia 6, Oct. 31, 1773; Mary 6, Aug. 4, 1776. (Mattituek Ch. Rec.) The son, Josiah 6, was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1798 and 1803; also Sheriff of Suffolk Co., 1803-1812 and 1815-1819. Paul Reeve (q^d) (Civil List)

REEVE PURRIER, 4 (Hezekiah 3, Joseph 2, James 1—or Thomas 1—according to Moore's "Index," pp. 33, 111-113)—From Southold to Saybrook. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37) It is uncertain whether he, or Purrier, Jr., served in Conn. (G. 97)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. —; m. Jan. 7, 1752, Mary L'Hommedieu; d. Nov. 28, 1782. His eldest child was Hezekiah 5. (R. M. R.) His other children were baptized: Purrier, Jr., 5, below, Mar. 30, 1755; Mary 5 and Mahitable 5, Aug. 12, 1764; Jerusha 5, Aug. 11, 1765; Isaac 5, Aug. 2, 1767; Elizabeth 5, —; Selah 5 (posthumous), Aug. 29, 1783. (Mattituek Ch. Rec.) Fanning Gen. states that his dau., Mary, b. Dec. 27, 1727, m. James 5 Fanning. (See Fanning) There is also a statement that he m. Sarah 3, dau. of Capt. Benjamin, and half sister of Ezra, L'Hommedieu. (See L'Hommedieu)

REEVE PURRIER, JR., 5 (Son of Purrier, above)—From Southold to Saybrook. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 97)

He was bapt. Mar. 30, 1755; m. Aug. 25, 1776, Mary Fordham, of Southampton. (Mattituek Ch. Rec.)

REEVE RUMSEY (Son of Israel, above; brother of Benjamin, above, Israel, Jr., above, and Luther, above)—He served in the War, and d. on the Prison Ship "Jersey." (Mrs. H. A. R. C.)

He may have been related to the Simon Rumsey Reeves who afterward lived in Hunterdon Co., N. J. He m. Phebe A lams; and, later, removed to Plattsburgh, N. Y. (Nos. 1095, 1096—"L. I. Traveler")

REEVE SARAH, MRS.—Wife of Maj. Isaac, above. (q. v.) Her maiden name was Sarah Cheeseborough.

REEVE SELAH 5, LT. (Dea. James 4, Hon. James 3, James 2, Thomas 1; brother of Ebenezer, above, Maj. Isaac, above, and Lt. James, above)—From Southold to Killingworth, with three in his family, by Capt. Thomas Leete, in Sept., 1776. (C. 94) In Oct. and Nov., 1776, his grain and stock were brought over by Capts. Peter Griffing, Benjamin Conkling and Wilmot Goldsmith; and his claim was paid to Sylvester Dering, May 29, 1779. (C. 130) On Nov. 10, 1781, he petitioned the Senate of N. Y. for relief, his farm at Killingworth being in danger of confiscation. (B. 5) He signed the Association, in 1775, from Brookhaven. (H. 20) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 3. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong. June 29, 1776) He may have served in the 4th Ulster. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 265)

At the beginning of the War he refused to take the oath to the King. He escaped in a scow to Conn., where he purchased an inland farm. (Ruttenber's "History of Newburgh, N. Y." p. 375) During, or after, the War he went to Little Britain, Orange Co., N. Y., and became a neighbor of the Daniel who had removed thither. (Mrs. R. A. Silk) He finally, in 1784, removed to Newburgh, N. Y. and was the progenitor of a family quite prominent in the annals of that Community. (Ruttenber, as above)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. about 1741; m. Keturah Strong; d. Feb. 21, 1796. Selah Reeve are conflicting as to Elizabeth 7, above. She may have m. (1) Enos Ketcham; (2) Hon. John W. Brown. One of the sons was Charles F. Brown, once Postmaster of Newburgh, N. Y. (R. M. R.)

RICHARDS—The members of this Family on L. I. may have descended from any one of the 12 American ancestors who are given in the Richards Gen.

RICHARDS NATHANIEL ()—From L. I. to Saybrook. On May 29, 1779, he was permitted to return to L. I. (D. 29) He served in Weissenfels' and Pawling's Levies (G. 57, 61); and in Conn. (G. 97) He was also in the Privateer service. (Page 218)

In the line of William Richards there was a Nathaniel, of Weymouth, Mass., b. Sept. 19, 1740; m. May 7, 1761, Deborah Blancher; d. Feb. 8, 1822. In the line of John Richards there was a Nathaniel, b. in 1729, m. Mary Leffingwell, d. s. p. A Nathaniel, b. in 1679, d. in 1749, had a son, Nathaniel, b. in 1709; and a grandson, Nathaniel, who m. (2) Sarah Bullard, d. in 1785. In the line of Samuel Richards, of Norwalk, Conn., his son John had a son, Nathaniel, bapt. Dec. 15, 1745; m. Molly Olmstead; d. July —, 1808. This Nathaniel may have been the Refugee. His children were: Joseph, m. Lydia Waterbury; Eliza A., m. Platt Price; Nathan, m. Hannah ————; Silas, m. Susan ————; Molly, m. ———— Baker; Ruth, m. Caleb Keeler; Phebe, m. Joshua Burt; and Rebecca, m. Lyman Seeley. (Researches of D. H. Van Hoosear. Also Richards Gen.)

The Census of 1790, in New London, Conn., gave a Nathaniel who had a son over 16 years old; one under 16; and four females.

ROBERT—Daniel 1, a Huguenot, came from France to the Island of Martinique, W. I., soon after 1685. Later, he was probably at New Rochelle, N. Y.; and, in 1703, he was in N. Y. City. His son, Christopher 2, lived first in N. Y. City and then at Flushing, L. I., where he remained during the Rev'y War. His son, Lt. John 3, the Refugee, below. His son, Dr. Daniel 3, b. in 1746; m. Mary, dau. of Judge William Smith (See Smith); removed to Mastic, L. I.; d. in 1804. Dr. Daniel 3 had, among others, William Smith 4, b. in 1794; m. Caroline E. Smith; d. in 1877. He had three sons, of whom John 5 who now (1912) resides on a part of the property at Center Moriches, L. I. John 5 has a son, Josiah Smith 6; and a grandson, John, 2d, 7. (Researches of Mr. Christopher R. Robert)

ROBERT JOHN 3, LT. (Christopher 2, Daniel 1)—Probably from Flushing, L. I. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 19, 28); and probably in Conn. (G. 97) In both Col. Smith's Regt. and in Conn., the name is spelled Roberts, as well as Robert. A John Roberts, of Huntington, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

Lt. John 3, b. Apr. 22, 1757; d. Dec. 2, 1810, at Yonkers, N. Y., where his grandson, Philip R. 5, now resides. (Researches of C. R. R.)

ROBINSON—It may be that the Family on L. I. came from the Pilgrim, Elder John Robinson, of Leyden. John Robinson, of Salem, Mass., in May, 1652, had land granted to him at Southampton; but he soon removed. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 436) Moore ("Index," p. 34) mentions William, who was in the Southold Records, 1635 and 1675. He had a son, William, who m. Abigail Coleman, in 1725. A Thomas, came to Hartford, in 1640; and removed thence to Guilford, Conn. See also Page 250.

ROBINSON DAVID ()—From St. George's Manor. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35); in the 4th Line (G. 48); in Lamb's 2d Artillery (G. 50); and perhaps in the 7th Dutchess. (G. 69) In the Mil. Records of Conn. he is mentioned as belonging to a N. Y. Regt. (G. 97)

ROBINSON JOSEPH 3, COL. (Joseph 2, 1)—From Jamaica to Woodbury. His grandfather, Joseph, came from Scotland to N. Y. City, when a young man, and m. ————Lispenard. Joseph 2, son of Joseph 1, b. in 1717, went to the W. Indies, where he m. Margaret Barnes, and had issue: Barnes 3, and Joseph 3. Col. Joseph 3 Robinson was b. at St. Croix, Danish W. Indies, in 1742. He came to N. Y. City, in 1760. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 132) He was a Member of the Queens Co. Committee of Safety (See Capt. William Ludlam, above); also a Delegate to the 1st Prov'l Cong., in 1775. (A. 56) He was made a Col. of the Provincial Militia at the commencement of the War; and was in the Regt. commanded by Gen. Woodhull, whom he left but a few minutes before the capture of Woodhull at the house of Lt. Increase Carpenter (See Page 288), in Aug., 1776. The Island being taken possession of by the enemy, Col. Robinson managed to get his family within the American lines, and lived with them at Woodbury, Conn., until peace was restored. He returned to Jamaica, in 1783; and d. there, in 1815. (Thompson, as above) He is buried in a vault in Trinity Church yard, N. Y. City. He was Surrogate of Queens Co., 1784 to 1815. (Civil List)

He m. a dau. of James Cebra (See Cebra), an inhabitant of Jamaica, by whom he had five daughters: Margaret 4, Mary 4, Ann 4, Sarah 4 and Elizabeth 4; but no son. Elizabeth 4, m. William Bleeker. Mary 4, m. (1) Nathaniel Hazard (See Hazard), by whom she had one dau., Maria; and after the death of her husband, she became the second wife of David Gelston (See Gelston), of N. Y., in 1814. (Thompson, as above. See also Hazard in "The Refugees from N. Y. City")

ROE—ROW—ROWE—The first of the name on Eastern L. I. was John 1, who may have been b. in Ireland, in 1628. He came to America, in 1655; to Southampton, in 1660; and to Drowned Meadows (now Port Jefferson), in 1667. He m. Hannah Purrier; and refers to wife, Sarah, in his will. He had: Mary 2, m. ————Corwin; Elizabeth 2, m. ————Mapes;

———2, m. Clark; John 2; and Nathaniel 2. Nathaniel 2, m. Hannah Reeve, of Southold, and had: John 3, who m. Wid. Joanna (Miller) Helme, of Miller's Place, and was the father of John 4; Justus 4; Rev. Azel 4, below; Capt. Daniel 4, below; Joanna 4; Amy 4; Capt. Austin 4; and Hannah 4, who m. Lt. Isaac Davis. (See Davis)—(Stiles' "Ancient Windsor, Conn.," 2. 660, 661) Rev. Azel 4, m. (1) Rebecca, dau. of Maj. and Dr. Isaac Foote of North Branford, Conn. (Stiles' "Ancient Windsor," 2. 660, 661), and Wid. of Rev. Caleb Smith of Newark Mts. (now Orange), N. J., under whom Azel had pursued his theological studies. She d. in 1794, the mother of Rev. Azel's eight children. He m. (2) Hannah, dau. of Rev. David

Bostwick, Pastor of the 1st Pres. Ch., N. Y. City, and Wid. (1) of Gen. Alexander McDougall (See McDougall, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City"), and Wid. (2) of ——— Barret, who was U. S. Consul to France. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 13. 89) Hence her marriage to Rev. Azel was her 3d. She d. Nov. 28, 1815; Rev. Azel, d. Dec. 2, 1815. He graduated at Princeton, in 1756; and was a Trustee of that College, 1778-1801. For 50 years he was Pastor of the Pres. Ch. at Woodbridge, N. J. His work is described in Sprague's "Annals of the American Pulpit." His dau, Betsy, m. Lambert Lockwood, of Bridgeport, Conn., and was the mother of Roe Lockwood, a well known publisher, in N. Y. City, 50 years ago. A dau. of Roe Lockwood, was the first wife of Rev. Samuel P. Leeds, D. D., long the College Pastor, at Dartmouth. A grandson of Rev. Azel, Azel Stevens Roe, was the celebrated novelist. (Hon. Alfred S. Roe)

Nathaniel 2 also had: Elizabeth 3; Hannah 3; Deborah 3; and Nathaniel 3, who m. Elizabeth Phillips, and removed to Orange Co., N. Y., some time before the Rev'y War. He had: James 4, who m. (1) Elizabeth Elting, (2) Cornelia Lott, the Wid. of Comfort Sands, late Aud. Gen. (See Sands, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City") James 4, removed from Kingston, N. Y., to Cornwall, Orange Co., N. Y., and d. there, in 1815. His son, Peter 5, was the father of Edward P. 6, the celebrated author. (Ruttenber's "Newburgh," pp. 371-373. Also Mr. Charles Cafferty) Nathaniel 3 has many descendants along the Hudson River, and in the Counties of Cortland and Tompkins, in the State of N. Y.

Hon. Alfred Seelye Roe thinks that the Roes of Brookhaven and Flushing, L. I., belong to the same line. Mr. Charles Cafferty states that David was in Flushing, in 1660; and that he may have been a brother of John, of Drowned Meadows.

William, came from Eng. to New London, Conn., about 1720. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 436)

ROE DANIEL 4, CAPT. (John 3, Nathaniel 2, John 1)—From Brookhaven to Middletown, Woodbury and Derby. He was in both Middletown and Woodbury, in 1780. (A. 29) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26, 27) In the same year, he was a Member of the Suffolk Co. Committee (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 199); and a Member of the Committee of the 1st Regt. (G. 1) In the French and Indian War he had a Commission as Capt. He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); in Col. Smith's Regt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.); in the 4th Line, wherein is the muster roll of his Co. (G. 48); and, possibly, in the 3d Dutchess. (G. 64) He was at Fort Montgomery, in Jan., 1777. (A. 29) On Sept. 20, 1776, he commanded a Whale Boat Expedition from Saybrook to Brookhaven for the purpose of bringing over to Conn. his family and the families of several other Refugees (Page 222. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," No. 610); and, on Oct. 28th, same year, he was one of a party to secure from Mastic the effects of Col. Floyd, and others. (Onderdonk, No. 621) In Dec., 1776, he valued the arms and ammunition which had been taken from the Tories on L. I. (A. 22); and a musket was taken from him. (Page 104)

Census of 1776: Males—under 16 years, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 5. (A. 51) It is evident that Capt. Daniel was absent at the time the Census was taken. He was b. Jan. 20, 1740; m. Apr. 22, 1762, Deborah, dau. of Joseph Brewster; d. Jan. 11, 1820. His children were: Daniel 5; Joseph Brewster 5; Deborah 5; John 5; Joanna 5; Charlotte 5; Ruth 5; Mary 5; Hannah 5; Rebecca 5 and Huldah 5 (twins); and Austin 5. The last four were b. while the family was in exile, in Conn. Daniel 5, b. Nov. 29, 1762; m. Feb. 15, 1787, Nabby Tucker, of Derby, Conn.; removed to Wayne Co., N. Y., in 1812; had 13 children; d. in 1852. Joseph Brewster 5, b. Sept. 8, 1764; m. (1) Polly Hammond, (2) Dorinda Howell; remained on L. I.; had eight children; d. in 1831. Deborah 5, b. July 31, 1766; m. Oct. 12, 1782, Truman Porter; d. about 1851. John 5, b. Oct. 9, 1768; m. Elizabeth Foster, of Quogue, d. Nov. 16, 1807. Joanna 5, b. Jan. 27, 1770; m. Laban Worth, d. in 1860. Charlotte 5, b. May 15, 1772; m. Daniel Brown (See Brown); removed to Windsor, Broome Co., N. Y., in 1812; d. about 1840. Ruth 5, b. May 19, 1774; m. Elisha Overton; d. May 12, 1847. Mary 5, b. June 23, 1776; d. May 3, 1792. Hannah 5, b. Apr. 8, 1778; m. Zophar

Hallock; d. Mar. 16, 1854. She was the grandmother of Clarence Wilbur Smith, of N. Y. City. Rebecca 5, b. Sept. 13, 1780; d. Oct. 7, 1785. Huldah 5 (twin with Rebecca); removed to Indiana; m. Levi Smith; d. in 1840. Austin 5, b. Oct. 18, 1782; m. May 19, 1810, Sally Roe. His son, Rev. Austin M. 6, m. Polly Catharine 8 Seelye (See Seelye); and lives at Fulton, Oswego Co., N. Y. His dau., Fanny 6 (Mrs. Timothy R. Smith), lives at Clyde, Wayne Co., N. Y. Hon. Alfred Seelye Roe 7, son of Rev. Austin M. 6, lives at Worcester, Mass. He has compiled the book "Capt. Daniel Roe, &c." from which much of the above information has been taken.

Daniel Roe

ROE WILLIAM, SERJ.T. (Son of John, below)—From Jamaica, or Flushing, L. I., to Stamford. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 17, 20, 26) He is mentioned by Onderdonk ("Queens Co., 2d Ser.," p. 58), as belonging to James Brown's crew at Stamford, lately from Cow Neck. Those of the name

CAPT. DANIEL ROE — SELDEN, L. I.

(Loaned by Hon. Alfred S. Roe)

who served, in the 6th and 7th Dutchess, and the 3d Orange (G. 68, 69, 74) were natives of those counties, respectively. (Mr. Charles Cafferty)

It is stated, in a local diary, that in 1782, he and Wright Thorneycraft arrived at Oak Neck under a Flag; so I presume Thorneycraft, who had been Serjt. of the Mosquito Cove Militia Co., had likewise been hunted away. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

He was a cordwainer, and lived in Lattingtown, in Oyster Bay. He rendered substantial service to the American cause during the Revolution. He was informed against; and was obliged to flee for his life, going to Stamford, Conn. In 1782, he was taken a Prisoner, but was afterward released. On Feb. 10, 1791, he bought land on the North Fork of the Licking Riv., in Mason Co., Ky. It is probable that he lived in Md. or Va., a few years before he settled in Ky. His name disappears from the Mason Co. records after 1811. No record of his death, or settlement of his estate, has been found. (Mr. Clarence Almon Torrey)

John Roe, father of the Refugee, Serjt. William, m. Nov. 10, 1717, Elizabeth Trieux, later Traux; d. at Oyster Bay, in 1772. His youngest son was Serjt. William, b., probably at Jamaica, about 1740. (Mr. C. A. Torrey) He

m. Mar. 24, 1764, Mary (b. Oct. 20, 1743), dau. of Charles and Catharine (Tillear) Feke, of Matinecock in the Town of Oyster Bay, L. I. He was living in 1811, as shown by deeds in Mason Co., Ky. His children were: Jacob, below; Charles, below; John, m. Ruth ———, and settled in Mason Co., Ky.; Daniel, below; Sally, below; Deborah, m. ——— Arms; Catharine, m. ——— Firman, d. in Washington, D. C.; and perhaps others. (G. W. C. Also C. A. T.) Trieux, Truax, above, may have been Grex. Feke, or Feake, is now spelled Feeks. (C. A. T.)

Jacob, b. in 1767; m. Margaret Dye; d. in 1841. His children were: William, d. s. p.; John D., below; Sarah, m. ——— Skinner; Ann, m. ——— Baugh; and Jane, m. ——— Jordan. John D., b. in 1803; m. Mar. 14, 1826, Louisa ———; d. in 1872. She d. July 1, 1878. His children were: Alice, b. Dec. 30, 1826, m. ——— King, d. at Maysville, Ky., in 1909; Charles H., b. Nov. 2, 1828, m. Mary Williamson, removed to Missouri—both deceased; William H., b. in 1831, m. Nov. 30, 1854, Mary Bains who d. Aug. 3, 1909—he lives with a dau., in Ky.; John, b. ———, m. Lizzie Howard—both deceased; and Edwin, b. Jan. 30, 1837, m. Martha (Bradley?)—he d. Oct. 26, 1875. (C. A. T.)

Charles, b. Sept. 27, 1768; m. Feb. 10, 1794, Barsheba (1778-1838), dau. of Michael and Mary Watson; d. Aug. 18, 1838. He lived in Mason Co., Ky., until 1810; thence he removed, in turn, to Ohio, to Wayne Co., Ind., and to South Bend, Ind. His children were: Mary, b. Apr. 23, 1795, m. James Stroud, or Strode, resided at Hagarstown, Ind.; William, b. Dec. 24, 1796, m. Mary Martindale, had 18 children, d. in Delaware Co., Ia., about 1877; Mahala, b. Aug. 23, 1798, m. James Wilcox, she was a "New Light" preacher, resided at Hagarstown, had no children; Ely, b. July 25, 1800, m. Margaret Martindale, had several children, d. Jan. 1, 1883; Watson, b. Apr. 23, 1802, m. Nov. 23, 1820, Eleanor Platts, had 11 children, d. Jan. 16, 1863—his dau., Susan Almira, m. Charles Oscar Torrey, and was the mother of Mr. Clarence Almon Torrey, of the University of Chicago Library; Louisa, m. Charles Conaway, or Conway; Harrison; Daniel, b. Oct. 15, 1807, m. May 22, 1828, Martha Runyon, had 9 children, d. Oct. 7, 1863; Charles, b. in 1809, m. Catharine Runyon, and had children; Emma, b. Mar. 14, 1811, m. about 1827, Nathan Hatfield, had 11 children, d. Jan. 17, 1881; Barsheba, b. in 1817, m. John Gordon, and had children; James, b. Aug. 3, 1820, m. Mary Ann Lamb, had children, d. Aug. 9, 1882. (C. A. T.)

Daniel, settled in Dayton, O., where he established a silk factory. He had sons: Edward, Thomas and Charles. (G. W. C.)

Sally, m. ——— Corwin, d. at Lebanon, O., at the home of her dau., Mrs. Hart. It has been stated that she was the step-mother of Hon. Thomas Corwin, of Ohio; but this is probably a mistake. (C. A. T.)

ROGERS—It seems to be authenticated that the members of this Family on L. I. descend from John Rogers, the Martyr. He had a son, Noah, of Exeter, Eng.; a grandson, John, of Dedham, Eng.; and a g. grandson, Thomas, who came over in the "Mayflower." The latter was the father of William 1, the progenitor on L. I. (Mrs. Metta Horton Cook)

There is no proof that William 1, of L. I., was a son of Thomas of the "Mayflower." (Miss Lucy D. Akerly)

Many people have tried to prove the truth of this assertion, but I think without success. I believe the record is that Thomas Rogers came over in the "Mayflower," bringing his son Joseph with him; and other children came afterward. I believe that no one has been able to prove that William 1, the progenitor of the L. I. Family, was one of those others. I also believe that the ancestry of Thomas of the "Mayflower" has never been authentically traced back to John the Martyr. (Miss Emily A. Lee)

Another line is given: John, the Martyr; Noah, of Exeter, Eng.; John, of Durham, Eng.; Josiah, who came to America with his brother Nathaniel; Isaiah; Thomas; Josiah; William; William. This is the direct line of the L. I. branch of the Rogers Family. Thomas, the ancestor of the line in the Susquehanna valley, was a brother of Dominie William Rogers, mentioned in the Sullivan Expedition. Thomas had five children: Solomon; Rachel, who m. Matthew Bunce; Bathsheba, m. Ebenezer Jarvis; Pamela, m. Elkanah Hart; and Phineas, m. Ruth Rogers, his cousin, dau. of Dominie William

Rogers, mentioned above. Phineas, and his sister Amelia Hart, came to the Susquehanna Valley about 1817. Phineas was the father of a very large family, and many of his descendants now reside in that vicinity. Among them is Hawley B. Rogers, of Waverly, N. Y. (Mr. Charles L. Albertson)

Dominie William Rogers was b. at Newport, R. I., July 22, 1751; d. Apr. 7, 1824. He was Brig. Chaplain in the Penn. Line, 1776-1781; and Prof. in the University of Penn., 1792-1812. His "Journal," June 15-Aug. 29, 1779, was first published in "R. I. Hist'l Tracts;" and reprinted in "Gen. John Sullivan's Indian Expedition, of 1779."

It has been claimed that the Dominie was called so because he was a teacher; and that he might not have been a Minister. If so, he may have been one of the several Williams, named below.

The Thomas, mentioned above, was half-brother of William who is mentioned in the Sullivan Expedition; but not of the "Dominie William" who was born at Newport, R. I. See note on Qr. Mr. Serjt. William, below. Thomas was a son of Dea. Josiah and his 2d wife, Rachel Arthur. He was b. Oct. 22, 1762; m. (1) Phebe ————, (2) Esther Buffett (nee Rogers, nee Hawley) whose first husband was the said William Rogers of the Sullivan Expedition. Thomas' children, all by his 1st wife, Phebe, were: Phineas, b. Nov. 20, 1786, m. Feb. 14, 1807, Ruth Rogers, dau. of his father's half-brother William, d. Mar. 26, 1878; Bathsheba, b. Mar. 22, 1789, m. Oct. 11, 1806, Ebenezer, son of Abraham Jarvis and Jerusha Chichester, d. ————; Solomon, b. ————, m. Nov. 23, 1816, Phebe Bunce, d. ————; Amelia, b. Mar. 20, 1795, m. Jan. 28, 1814, Elkanah Hartt, d. ————; Rachel, b. Apr. 9, 1797, m. Feb. 18, 1817, Matthew Bunce, d. ————; and Katurah, b. Oct. 17, 1802, m. ———— Oakes, d. ————. (Miss E. A. L.)

Moore ("Index," pp. 34, 114) mentions William, in the Southold Rec., 1681, 1683; and John, in same Rec., from 1698 to his death, in 1734.

From 1642 to 1646 William Rogers was a resident of Southampton. He was in Hempstead, for a time, previous to 1649; but from that date to 1655 he was again in Southampton. He is mentioned in the Huntington Town Rec., in 1656. (See note, below, by Samuel Orlando Lee) After that William 1 disappears; but his eldest son, Obadiah 2, resided in the homestead of William 1; and, apparently, remained in Southampton. It is possible that, about 1655, William 1 gave the homestead to Obadiah 2, and removed with his wife, Ann, and younger children to Huntington. His Wid. made a will in Huntington, in 1669. The sons, Noah 2 and John 2, removed to Branford, Conn.; and Branford Recs. show that they received a large inheritance from their father. John 2 left no issue. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 360, 361) Noah 2 had a son Hezekiah 3, of Huntington, who d. in 1780, or 1781. He m. Ruth ————, and had 10 children. (Howell, as above, p. 365) Obadiah 2, m. Mary ————, d. in 1689 or 1690. His sons: Obadiah 3, Jonah 3, Zachariah 3. Obadiah 3 m. (1) Sarah Howell, (2) Mary, Wid. of Edmond Clark. He d. May 5, 1729. His son, Capt. Obadiah 4, m. Abigail, dau. of William Herrick; d. Oct. 31, 1783. Jonah 3, of Bridge Hampton, had sons: Joseph 4 and William 4, both of Bridge Hampton; also Jonah 4. Joseph 4, d. in 1761. William 4, m. Rhoda ————; d. in 1775. Zachariah 3, of Bridge Hampton, had a son Stephen 4. (Howell, as above, pp. 361-365) From Noah 2, descend: Noah 3, b. in 1688, m. (1) Sarah Parmelec, (2) Elizabeth Wheeler, d. in 1766; Noah 4, b. in 1732, at Branford, d. in 1810, at Cornwall; Noah 5, b. in 1766, at Cornwall, had 11 children, d. in 1839; John Cornwall 6, b. in 1801, at Cornwall, d. at Berea, Ky., in 1874; John Almanza 7, b. at Cornwall in 1828, d. at Woodstock, Ill., in 1906; and Joseph Morgan 8, b. at Decatur, O., in 1861; now the editor of the "Philadelphia Inquirer."

Another branch of the Family, more local to Southampton, came from James 1, b., in Eng., in 1615; removed to New London, Conn.; d. in 1688. His son, Capt. James 2, of New London, b. in 1652; m. Nov. 5, 1674, Mary Jordan; d. in 1713. Capt. James 3, son of Capt. James 2, removed to Norwalk, Conn., and d. there July 16, 1733. He m. Elizabeth ————. His son, Capt. James 4, m. Mary Harris, and d. in the West Indies. (Howell, as above, p. 366)

William 1, d. in 1664. He was on the Hempstead List, in 1647; and was at Southampton, 1642-1655, a freeman there, in 1649. He owned land at New London, Conn., in 1652. Probably his sons were: Jonathan 2, of Huntington; Obadiah 2 (1634-1692), of Southampton; John 2, of Branford, Conn.; Samuel 2; and Noah 2, of Huntington and Branford. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 12)

A William, was one of the early settlers at New London, Conn. Also a James, the father of John who founded the sect known as "Rogerines." (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 95, 110, 201-221, 337)

William 1 is first mentioned in the Huntington Town Records in 1656, when he was one of three men to make the "East Purchase" from the Indians. His son, Jonathan 2, m. Rebecca ———. Jonathan 3, son of Jonathan 2, b. in 1668; m. (1) Mary ———, (2) Dec. 2, 1740, Wid. Mary Barker; d. Jan. 17, 1749-50. Jonathan 3 had Dea. Thomas 4, b. in 1698; m. (1) Ruth ———, (2) Phebe ———; d. Feb. 24, 1759. His son, Thomas 5, b. in 1728; m. Jan. 23, 1751-2, Mary Whitehead; d. Dec. 13, 1755. Dea. Josiah 5, also a son of Dea. Thomas 4, b. in 1730; m. (1) Jan. 15, 1754, Ruth Bunce, (2) Rachel Arthur; d. Oct. 2, 1791. (Mr. Samuel Orlando Lee)

ROGERS JARVIS (—)—From Huntington. On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34)

Jarvis Rogers

A Jarvis, m. Apr. 6, 1811, Marier Wicks. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

ROGERS JEREMIAH 5, CAPT. (Capts. James 4, 3, 2, James 1; brother of Maj. Uriah, below)—From Southampton to Killingworth. Hon. Henry P. Hedges stated that he was from Bridge Hampton. On Aug. 31, 1776, the Committee of Southampton permitted him to remove his family to Conn. (A. 46) In Sept., 1776, with five in his family and goods, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capts. Onis Farnam and James Harris. (C. 208) His claim was paid to Col. Jonathan Hedges. (C. 209) On Jan. 28, 1777, the N. Y. Committee of Safety paid him for keeping a lookout for the enemy's Fleet, at Southampton, in 1776. (Page 28. Also A. 34) On Aug. 11, 1778, Gov. Trumbull wrote to him relative to his conduct as the Capt. of an armed boat. (Pages 202, 218, 239. Also D. 16) In 1779, he asked leave to go to L. I. for supplies. (B. 3) On Apr. 20, 1780, he again asked leave for the same purpose, and to rent out his farm; which was negatived. (E. 94, 95) If he served in the Army, it was in the Art'y of Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 5); and possibly in Conn. (G. 97) It may be that he was one of the petitioners, in 1789, relative to the Sabbath. (B. 29)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 53) He was b. at New London, Conn., Apr. 27, 1743; m. Mary, dau. of Obadiah Jones (see Jones) of Southampton; d. at Clinton (now Hyde Park), N. Y., Aug. 11, 1810. She was b. Mar. 29, 1750; d. Nov. —, 1826. He had: Capt. Jeremiah 6, b. Jan. 15, 1772, was a famous sea Captain, d. Oct. 2, 1797; Obadiah Jones 6, b. about 1775, m. Clara Herrick, and had a dau., Harriet Jones 7; Warren 6, b. Dec. 20, 1777, while the family was at Killingworth; Edmund 6, who had, Rev. Ebenezer P. 7, John 7, Sarah 7, Julia 7 and Harriet 7; James 6 who had, Anna 7, Abigail 7, Josephine 7, Mary 7, and James 7; Harriet 6; Mary 6; Esther 6; and Elizabeth 6. Warren 6, m. (1) Sarah Ogden Platt, (2) Julia F. Gabriella, Wid. of Edward Griffin. They had: Theodore 7; Edward 7; Julia F. 7; Sidney 7; Warren 7; and Henry 7. Julia F. 7, m. June 1, 1854, J. Augustus Dix, of N. Y. City; whose son, Warren R. Dix, b. Nov. 23, 1855, m. Feb. 1, 1883, Elizabeth LeRoy Clark. (Howell, as above, p. 367)

A Jeremiah, m. Oct. 2, 1775, Ruth Wicks. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

ROGERS JOHN 5 (Joseph 4, Jonah 3, Obadiah 2, William 1; brother of Nathaniel, below, and Zachariah, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Chester. In Sept., 1776, with three passengers and goods, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) Others of the name signed from Huntington and Islip. (H. 29, 30) He signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) He was probably the one who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); in Pawling's Levies (G. 61); and perhaps in the 1st Orange (G. 72), and in Conn. (G. 97) John Rogers, Sr. and Jr. served in the 4th Line. (G. 48) It is probable that they were from Huntington.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He was b. in 1731; d. May 26, 1798. He had sons: John Topping 6, and Josiah 6. John Topping 6, b. in 1752; m. Sarah, dau. of Rev. James Brown; d. Oct. 9, 1816. She was b. in 1757; d. May 24, 1823. Their children: John 7; Nathaniel 7; Mary 7, m. David Halsey; and Jeremiah 7, b. in 1797. John 7 had: Charles R. 8; and Sarah 8, m. William Gardiner. Josiah 6 had: Euclid 7, and Charles 7. (Howell, as above, p. 363)

John Rogers

ROGERS JONATHAN 5, JUDGE (William 4, Jonah 3, Obadiah 2, William 1; brother of Capt. William, below)—From Bridge Hampton to Conn. in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with his brother, and six in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 12); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34) In 1800, he surveyed and made a list of the houses in Sag Harbor. In 1801, he was elected an Elder in the Church at Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1746; m. Mary, dau. of David Cooper; d. Jan. 26, 1819. She was b. in 1742; d. Nov. 30, 1815. He had daus.: Hannah 6, m. Sullivan Cook; and Abigail 6, m. Silas White. (See White)—(Mr. Addison M. Cook) His son, Benjamin 6, b. Nov. 29, 1769; m. Abigail —; d. Apr. 2, 1842. She was b. in 1769; d. Mar. 30, 1822. Benjamin 6 had: Benjamin Franklin 7, and Caleb 7. Benjamin Franklin 7, b. in 1803; m. Mary —, b. in 1809. He was Justice of the Peace, and one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in Suffolk Co. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) His children were: Melinor G. 8, b. in 1838; Mary H. 8, b. in 1840; Agnes 8, b. in 1842; and Phebe 8, b. in 1844. Caleb 7 m. Cordelia Halsey, and had: Minerva 8, b. in 1837; Benjamin F. 8, b. in 1839; Charles M. 8, b. in 1840; James 8; and Temperance 8. (A. M. C.)

Jonathan Rogers

Another Jonathan, from Southold, to whom instead of Judge Jonathan, above, the removal to Conn. may apply. (C. 177) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 5. (A. 55)

ROGERS JOSHUA, CAPT. (—)—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt) He served as Lt. and Capt. in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); as Capt. in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and possibly in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79) He was taken Prisoner in Oct., 1780. (Page 120. Also F. 124) One of his name served in Conn. (G. 97) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

There was a Capt. Joshua in the Privateer Service, Master of the "Greyhound," who paid out prize money. (Pages 216, 218)

A Joshua, m. Apr. 17, 1776, Mary Wicks. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

ROGERS JOSHUA 5 (Jonah 4, 3, Obadiah 2, William 1)—From Bridge Hampton to New London. In Sept., 1776, with five passengers, he was brought over from Sag Harbor by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213) On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen'l Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He had a son, Jonah, 6; whose sons were Jonah 7 and Chapman 7. Jonah 7 had a son, Jonah 8. Chapman 7, of Sag Harbor, m. Esther —, and had a son, Edward C. 8, b. in 1803. (Howell, as above, p. 363)

Joshua Rogers

ROGERS NATHANIEL 5, ENS. (Joseph 4, Jonah 3, Obadiah 2, William 1; brother of John, above, and Zachariah, below)—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) In the Battle of Long Island, in that famous orderly retreat, he swam in soldier blanket across the river, carrying his gun and ammunition over his head. (Mrs. Metta Horton Cook) A Nathaniel served in the 5th Dutchess (G. 67); and in Conn. (G. 97) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He had sons: Abraham 6, and Selah 6. (Howell, as above, p. 363)

A Nathaniel, of Colchester, Conn., m. Sept. 23, 1782, Sarah Tubbs. (Lyme, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

ROGERS RUTH, WID. (Possibly, of Hezekiah 3, of Huntington, Noah 2, of Branford, William 1)—On Jan. 11, 1783, she was permitted to return to L. I. with her family of six, cattle, &c. (F. 90) If she was the pensioner in Conn. (G. 97), she was b. about 1757; making her only 24 years old when Hezekiah 3 d. in 1780 or 1781. As Hezekiah, at that time, had grandchildren, she must have been his 2d wife; though Howell ("Southampton," pp. 365, 366) says nothing of this. To add to the mystery, she does not appear in the Census of 1776; except that, in Bridge Hampton, there was a Wid. Rogers who had a son over 16 years old, and four daughters under 16. (A. 54)

Hezekiah 4 (Obadiah 3, Jonathan, Sr., 2, William 1), m. Ruth Scudder. He d. in 1778, aged 75. She died in 1785, aged 82—probably too early to have been the Wid. Ruth. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

This Ruth, may have m. Oct. 2, 1782, Henry Smith, Jr.; d. Aug. 11, 1824, and is buried at Bay Shore, L. I. (Mrs. G. S.)

There is evidently a mistake as to the Wid. Ruth and Ruth. A third Ruth may have crept into the statements, above.

ROGERS RUTH 6 (Dea. Josiah 5, Dea. Thomas 4, Jonathan 3, 2, William 1; half-sister of Qr. Mr. Serjt., William, below)—From Huntington to Conn., Sept. 1, 1776, with her half-brother, Qr. Mr. Serjt. William 6, mentioned in the Sullivan Expedition.

She was b. Aug. 1, 1758; drowned, Sept. 8, 1780, while crossing the Sound to L. I. (Mr. Samuel Orlando Lee)

ROGERS SARAH, WID. ()—From Bridge Hampton. On Oct. 24, 1780, she was permitted to go to L. I. with one child. (F. 20)

The Census of 1776 showed that she had two daughters over 16 years old; and two sons and a daughter under 16. (A. 54)

ROGERS STEPHEN 6 (Thomas 5, 4, Jonathan 3, 2, William 1)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30, 32); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 97) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32)

He was bapt. Aug. 10, 1753. (Mrs. G. S.)

His name does not appear in the Census of Smithtown, in 1776. But there are two of the name in the Census of Southampton, W. Dist. Both of them were over 50 years old. One, beside his wife, had two sons and three daughters over 16 years old, and two sons under 16. The other, beside his wife, had a dau. over 16 years old, and two sons and two daughters under 16. (A. 53)

Stephen 5 (Capt Obadiah 4, Obadiah 3, 2, William 1), of either Southampton or Bridge Hampton, had a very large family, and many descendants. (Howell, as above, pp. 361, 362)

Stephen 4 (Zachariah 3, Obadiah 2, William 1), of Speonk, was probably too old to have been the Refugee. It might have been his son Stephen 5. (Howell, as above, pp. 364, 365) Hannah, dau. of a Stephen 5, m. Nathaniel Shipman. (See Shipman)

The Refugee was evidently Stephen 6, of Huntington; as first given, above. He was bapt. Aug. 10, 1753. (Mr. Samuel Orlando Lee)

ROGERS URIAH 5, MAJ. (Capts. James 4, 3, 2, James 1; brother of Capt. Jeremiah, above)—From Southampton to Saybrook, East Haddam and Killingworth. On Aug. 31, 1776, the Committee of Southampton permitted him to remove his family to Conn. (A. 46) On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought from Sag Harbor to Saybrook by Capt. Zebulon Cooper. (C. 32) Same month, with five in the family, from Southampton to Killingworth by Capts. James Wiggins, James Harris and Onis Farnam. The claim was paid to Col. Jonathan Hedges. (C. 209) On July 27, 1779, he was at East Haddam where he helped Capt. Nathan Fordham to a permit (F. 8); and from thence, on Mar. 20, 1780, he was permitted to go to L. I. for provisions, &c. (D. 44) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) In 1770, he was one of the petitioners for a wharf at Sag Harbor. (Page 166) He served as 1st Maj. of Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2) One of his name was a private in the 2d Dutchess. (G. 64)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 53) He was b. Sept. 21, 1737; m. Mary, dau. of Abner Howell; d. in 1814. She was b. June 15, 1746; d. Oct. 23, 1816. His children were: Dea. John 6; William 6; Mary 6; Cynthia 6; Henry 6, bapt. in 1787; and Dr. Howell 6.

Dea. John 6, b. in 1778; m. Mehitabel, dau. of George Mackie. His children were: Robert 7; Jesse 7; William 7; Augustus 7; Charles 7; George M. 7; James 7; Frances 7, m. Anthony Snyder; and Mary 7. George M. 7, m. Esther, dau. of Hiram Sanford. His children were: Hannah 8, b. in 1842; Hiram Sanford 8, b. in 1844; James 8, b. in 1846; Charles Sanford 8, b. in 1848; and George 8, b. in 1850. James 7, m. Adaline, dau. of Aaron Green; and had dau., Minnie 8, who m. David Burnett. (Howell, as above, pp. 366, 367)

Hiram Sanford 8, m. Elizabeth Halsey, and had: Mary 9, Ella 9, Elizabeth 9, Alice 9 and Helen 9. Mary 9, m. Robert S. Pelletreau, and had: John 10, and Robert 10. Ella 9, m. Philip Deyo, and had Philip, Jr. 10. Elizabeth 9, m. Walter C. Blasdale, and had: Helen 10 and Herbert 10. Alice 9, m. Charles A. Hildreth, and had: Pierson 10, and Elizabeth 10. Charles Sanford 8, m. Addie Rose, and had: Edgar 9, and Esther 9. James 7—his dau., Minnie (Burnett) 8, had: David 9, and Charles 9. (Mrs. Mary Rogers Pelletreau)

Uriah Rogers

ROGERS WILLIAM 5, CAPT. (William 4, Jonah 3, Obadiah 2, William 1; brother of Judge Jonathan, above)—From Bridge Hampton to Conn., in Sept. and Oct., 1776, with his brother, and six in the family, by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) He served in Col. Mulford's Regt. (G. 2, 9); in Col. Smith's Regt., first as Lt., then as Capt. (G. 5, 6) On July 26, 1776, he responded with one-fourth of his Co. to guard the stock. (A. 4) In the earlier part of his service, and even later than the death of his father, in 1775, he was known as William, Jr. He may have been the William who served in Conn. (G. 97)

Both he and his father signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 12); and he signed the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1744; m. Mary ———; d. Nov. 11, 1813. She was b. in 1746; d. Apr. 28, 1808. He had children: William 6; Caleb 6, b. Mar. 7, 1796, d. Feb. 3, 1842; and Hunting 6. William 6, b. in 1783; m. Susanna ———; d. in 1840. She was b. in 1778; d. Sept. 16, 1844. He had children: Capt. Jones 7; Richard 7; Hannah 7, m. Albert Halsey; Louisa 7, m. Daniel Halsey. Capt. Jones 7, b. in 1803; m. Hannah ———, d. in 1886. He had a son,

William Rogers

William 8, b. in 1844. Richard 7, b. in 1805; m. Elizabeth ———. He had children: Orlando H. 8, b. in 1835; Frances 8, b. in 1837; and Edwin 8, b. in 1840. (Howell, as above, pp. 363, 364)

A William, of Southold, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11) Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

He may have been the one who, as a private, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7); Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); Add'l Corps of the Line (G. 54); Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57); the 3d Westchester (G. 79); and in Conn. (G. 97)

ROGERS WILLIAM, CAPT. (NAVY)—()—From Huntington. He was in the Privateer Service as Capt. of the frigate "Congress" and the sloop "Montgomery." (Pages 215, 216. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n.," p. 269. Also "Spt." to same, p. 169. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n" pp. 530-533)

He m. Sarah, dau. of Dr. Gilbert Potter (See Potter), who survived him. (Page 216) He was lost at sea.

ROGERS WILLIAM 6, QR. MR. SERJT. (Dea. Josiah 5, Dea. Thomas 4, Jonathan 3, 2, William 1; half-brother of Ruth, above)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He may have served, as a private, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 34); and some of the service credited to William, of Southold, above, may have been given by William, of Huntington. The service (G. 38) was by an older man. He was Qr. Mr. Serjt. and Serjt. in Malcolm's Levies (G. 58); and Qr. Mr. Serjt. and Ens. in the 3d and 4th Westchester. (G. 79, 80)

He crossed L. I. Sound to Conn., with his half-sister, Ruth, above, Sept. 1, 1776. He enlisted in the Cont'l Army, in 1777; and was Qr. Mr. Serjt in Malcomb's Regt. He was with Washington at Valley Forge. Later, he joined Sullivan's Expedition. He was discharged from the Army, in 1780; and soon thereafter he removed to Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y. Early in 1806, he returned to L. I., and bought a farm at Crab Meadow. Returning to Salem to prepare to move, he was taken sick and died. His Wid. came to L. I., where she died. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

The following statement relating to Qr. Mr. Serjt. William 6 and his descendants was given by the late Mr. Samuel Orlando Lee:—

RULAND—ROWLAND—originally ROLAND—Jonathan 1 Rowland, m. in Hempstead, Martha, dau. of Benjamin Seaman. His son, Jonathan 2, m. Mary Marvin who d. in 1776. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies," p. 278) See Roland, Page 251.

RULAND JOHN ()—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

RULAND ZOPHAR ()—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79)

—Rogers, step dau. of a Zophar Ruland, m. David Brown, in Oct., 1786. (See Brown) A Zopher, m. Feb. 3, 1793, Milson Baly. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

RUSCOE—The progenitor of this Family was probably William, of Hartford, in 1639. He had sons: Nathaniel, b. Sept. 6, 1686; Ebenezer, b. Oct. 10, 1688; Ammi Ruhama; and Amijah R. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 436, 437)

David Rusco came to Huntington soon after 1700. The common ancestor of the Family in America is believed to have been William Rusco; who, with his wife, Rebecca, and children—Sarah, Marie, Samuel and William—came from London in the "Innocence" to New England, in 1635. David came from Southampton to Huntington. (Munsell's "Hist. Suffolk Co.," p. 35)

RUSCOE DAVID, SR. (Perhaps son of above David)—From Huntington. He was b. in 1724; m. Jan. 24, 1748-9, Jemima Scudder; d. Oct. 12, 1815, aged 91. His wife d. Apr. 10, 1799, aged 71. (Tombstones at Huntington) He had: Jemima; Mary; David, Jr., below; Nathaniel; Hannah; Sarah; Elizabeth; and Silas. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall) Silas d. Feb. 13, 1811, aged 46; his wife, Judith, d. May 9, 1823, aged 57. (Tombstones at Huntington) Silas m. Judith Platt. His dau., Mary Judith, m. Jan. 1, 1822, John

Platt Smith. They had, Mary Judith Smith, m. Sept. 12, 1848, Isaac Rogers, and left Rogers children: Herman, m. Cora Brock, and had a son, Reginald; Dr. Frank, m. Mary Banks, and had one son; and Agnes, m. James H. Conklin, no children. (Miss N. E. P.)

RUSCOE DAVID, JR. (Son of David, Sr., above)—From Huntington. Either he, or his father, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); and in Conn. (G. 97) Either of them may have signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) In the absence of proof, it is probable that the Military service was that of the younger David.

David Rusco and Silas Rusco, the sons of David Rusco, Sr., who lived in the house where William C. Scudder resides, were forced to work on the Forts, and to cart wood for the British. Silas Rusco was the father of David Rusco, now deceased, late of this village, and grandfather of Horace Rusco, now residing here. David Rusco (son of David, Sr.) played a trick upon some British soldiers, who came to steal hay from him, during the Revolution, and had to hide himself in a cave in the woods to escape their vengeance, until he found his way across the Sound to Connecticut, where he remained during the War. (Hon Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876)

PARSON JOHN RUSSELL — HOME OF THE REGICIDES — HADLEY, MASS.

(Photographed specially for this work)

David, Jr., b. July 5, 1754; m. Mar. 31, 1778, Hannah Platt; d. Jan. 10, 1805, aged 51. (Tombstone at Huntington) He had: Amelia, below; Elizabeth, bapt. Nov. 13, 1785; and, perhaps, Mary and Nathaniel. Amelia, b. Dec. 28, 1789; m. Nathaniel B. Ketcham; d. Sept. —, 1860. Their dau., Hannah Matilda, m. Jesse Platt Conkling, son of Jonathan Titus Conkling. Thirza, dau. of Jesse Platt Conkling, m. Rev. ——— Abbot, of Dayton, O. (Miss N. E. P.)

RUSSELL—The ancestor was probably William, to Southampton in 1657. He m. Elizabeth, dau. of Obadiah Rogers; d. in 1681. He had children: Oliver, b. May 7, 1671, removed to Cape May, N. J.; William; and Samuel. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 437) A William, came from Eng. to Cambridge, Mass., 1636–1643; and d. there, in 1662. ("Descendants of William Russell, of Cambridge") John, was at Woburn, Mass., in 1640. Rev. John, probably son of above, b. about 1626. He was at Cambridge, Mass., in 1636. Later, he was Pastor at Hadley, Mass., until he d. in 1692. He hid the Regicides, Whalley and Goffe in his house. (See Page 457) They died there, and were buried near the foundation of the house, which is still standing. ("Descendants of John Russell of Woburn," pp. 188, 189) Rev. John was a son of John, of Cambridge. He d. May 8, 1680, aged 83. ("Descendants of John Russell, of Cambridge, 1635," pp. 109-112)

Some of the descendants of Rev. John removed to Washington Co., N. Y., and to Chittenden Co., Vt. (Hon. Horace Russell)—(See Page 251)

RUSSELL HEZEKIAH, CAPT. ()—From Southampton (probably), to Chester and East Haddam. On Sept. 20, 1776, with two in the family and goods, he was brought to Chester; and, on Sept. 25, with goods, to East Haddam, by Capt. Joshua Griffith. (C. 57) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), on Sept. 29, he brought 92 passengers, their stock and effects from L. I. to Lyme. (C. 186) On June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185)

RUSSELL JONATHAN ()—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29); and in Conn. (G. 97) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 53)

RYERSON—Martin 1, m. May 14, 1663, Annetje Rapalje. (Ryerson Gen.)

RYERSON MARTIN, SERJT. (Probably a descendant of Martin 1)—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 15, 24); and in Conn. (G. 97) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

SACKETT—The first of this Family in America was Simon 1 who came from England to Boston, in 1631, with his wife Isabel and son Simon 2. Simon 1 d. about 1635. Simon 2, b. in 1630; m. Sarah Bloomfield; d. July 9, 1659. His son, Capt. Joseph 3, b. Feb. 23, 1656; m. (1) Elizabeth, dau. of Capt. Richard Betts, (2) ———, (3) Mercy Betts, Wid. of a brother of his first wife. (See Betts) He removed to Newtown, L. I.; d. about 1719. Among his children was Judge Joseph 4, b. in 1680; m. May 23, 1706, Hannah Alsop; d. Sept. 26, 1755. His wife was Hannah 2, dau. of Richard 1 Alsop. (See Alsop, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City") His son, Joseph 5, b. Mar. 5, 1707; m. Mar. 23, 1731, Millicent Clowes. ("The Sacketts of America")

SACKETT JOSEPH 6, DR. (Joseph 5, Judge Joseph 4, Capt. Joseph 3, Simon 2, 1; father of Adj. Peter, below)—From Newtown. Before the War, he had an extensive practice on L. I. (Page 180) During the War he lived at Paramus, N. J. After peace had been declared, he removed to N. Y. City. ("The Sacketts of America")

One of this name, and it may have been Dr. Sackett, wrote to Gov. Clinton, from Coldenham, Oct. 7, 1781. He stated that, during the winter before, he had requested of the N. Y. Ass'y a permit allowing him and his family to remove to L. I. or N. Y. City. He, again, requested the permit, stating that he had but a short time to live, and suggesting that he might be sent with a Flag. To this, on Oct. 31, the Gov. replied that he could do nothing "except by way of Exchange, which from your attachment to the Cause of your Country I am persuaded would not be agreeable to you." (Clinton Pap., 7. 382) If this was Dr. Joseph, he must have thought himself prematurely old at 48 years.

He was b. Feb. 16, 1733; m. Apr. 9, 1752, Hannah 3, dau. of Richard 2 Alsop (see Alsop, above); d. July 17, 1799. His children were: James 7, b. Mar. 20, 1755, not m.; Adj. Peter 7, below; Elizabeth 7, b. Jan. 16, 1772, m. Capt. David Tingley; and Joseph 7, b. Aug. 6, 1774, m. Margaret ———. ("The Sacketts of America")

SACKETT PETER 7, ADJT. (Dr. Joseph 6, above, Joseph 5, Judge Joseph 4, Capt. Joseph 3, Simon 2, 1)—From Newtown.

The Bearer Peter Sackett has Permission, to pass to Long Island to Visit his Friends there & return unmolested. Given at Poukeepsie in the State of New York this 14th Aug't 1779 G. C. [George Clinton] Gov'r.

He served under Gen. Montgomery; and returned as Serjt. Maj. of his Regt. He, afterward, served in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48) In 1777, he made incursions to L. I. and took Military stores and fire-arms from the Loyalists. A difference of opinion between him and Col. Livingston led to his leaving the 4th Line, Aug. 25, 1778. (For full account, see Clinton Pap., 5. 184) While he was in the Army, his father and his family had fled to Paramus, N. J. ("The Sacketts of America," p. 173)

He was b. Nov. 4, 1757; m., about 1779, Esther Palmer, dau. of a Loyalist; d. ———. He lived in N. Y. City and at Greenwich, Conn. His children were: Peter 8, Charles 8, Sarah 8, James Joseph 8, Hannah Alsop 8 and Esther Palmer 8. James Joseph 8 lived in Bridgeport, Conn. He m. Ann Block; d. Aug. 8, 1830. His son, Capt. SALMON—The name was variously spelled: Solloman, Solomon and Solomons. William 1 Salmon, b. in England, in 1610; m. (1) Katharine, probably b. Curtis (Southold Town Rec., 1. 164, 238), Wid. of Capt. Matthew Sunderland; m. (2) Sarah, dau. of the first Barnabas Horton (See Horton), of Southold. After his death, she m. Capt. John 2 Conkling. (See Conkling. Also Southold Town Rec., 1. 464) He had a son, John 2, who m. Aug. 23, 1683, Sarah Barnes; d. about 1697. His sons: William 3, b. in 1684; John 3, b. Nov. 19, 1698, m. in 1721, Lydia Paine, d. July 28, 1762. William 3 kept the "Salmon Record," 1698–1750. He m. in 1708, Hannah Bayley; d. May 10, 1759. His children were: Hannah 4, b. in 1710; Joshua 4, b. in 1712; William 4, b. in 1714; Nathaniel 4, b. in 1716, d. y.; Abigail 4, d. y.; Nathaniel 2d, 4; Stephen 4; and Abigail 2d, 4. William 4 was probably the one named by Griffin. ("Journal," p. 232) If so, he was the father of Capt. Jonathan, Joshua and William, the Refugees, below. He d. in 1800.

SALMON JOHN ()—He served in Col. John Lasher's Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 218); and, as well as John, Jr., in the 3d Dutchess. (G. 65)

SALMON JONATHAN 5, CAPT. (William 4, 3, John 2, William 1; brother of Serjt. Joshua, below, and William, below)—From Southold to Lyme. He was Capt. of a ship. (Page 239) In 1776, he took himself over, with two passengers and goods. (C. 189) On June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim for removal to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185) On Aug. 11, 1778, Gov. Trumbull wrote a letter to him advising caution in the use of his armed boat. (Pages 202, 218. Also D. 15)

If he had a Military record, he served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and in Col. Smith's Regt. both as private and Corp. (G. 7, 20, 37, 38)

According to the Census of 1776 he was under 50 years old; and he had no family beside one female, probably his wife. (A. 55) He removed to Blooming Grove, Orange Co., N. Y. (Griffin, as above)

Jonathan Salmon

SALMON JOSHUA 5, SERJT. (Brother of Capt. Jonathan, above, and William, below)—From Southold to Lyme, in Sept. and Nov., 1776, by Capts. William Johnson and James Webb. (C. 134) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. as a private (G. 8); and in Col. Smith's Regt., as a Serjt. (G. 38)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) He probably m. Oct. 14, 1783, Mary Hudson. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

SALMON WILLIAM 5 (Brother of Capt. Jonathan, above, and Serjt., Joshua, above)—From Southold to Norwalk. In Feb., 1780, he petitioned for leave to return; which was granted. (E. 111, 112) He served in the Art'y of the Line. (G. 51)

SAMMIS—The original founder of the Sammis Family, in Huntington, whose descendants are very numerous in that Town, was John 1 who had a grant of land made to him, lying at the head of Cold Spring Harbor. His descendants settled in various parts of the Town, notably on West Neck, and in the "Town Spot." (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) John 1 was admitted freeman of Conn., in 1664. He may have been a son of Richard and Esther, who were at Windsor, Conn., 1640–1650. John 1, b. as early as 1648; was at Huntington, in 1663; d. in 1693. He m. (1) Abigail Corey, by whom he had five children; (2) Mary Cornish, Wid. of

John Corey, Jr., and had two children. Sylvanus 3 (John 2, 1), b. in 1718; m. Deborah Jarvis. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

SAMMIS RICHARD ()—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt, as above)

SAMMIS WILLIAM 4 (Sylvanus 3, John 2, 1)—From Huntington to Conn. (Hon. Henry C. Platt, as above) He was at Norwalk in 1780. (F. 124) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33); and probably in Conn. (G. 98)

SANFORD—SANFORD (See Sanford, Page 251)—Three English pioneers of this name (brothers) each had a son, Ezekiel: Thomas; Robert; and Andrew.

Thomas, b. in 1607-8, in Essex Co., Eng., probably at Hatfield Broad Oak, son of Ezechiell of Much Hadham, Eng., who was a son of Thomas of Stanstead, Mountfitchet, Eng., who was a son of Richard Sanford who d. at Stanstead, Mountfitchet, Eng., in 1591.

The pioneer, Thomas, was in Dorchester, Mass., in 1634; and went to Milford, Conn., in 1640, where he d. in 1681. The first of his seven children was named Ezekiel, b. in 1637, at Dorchester, Mass.; d. late in 1683, at Fairfield, Conn. He had seven children, two of whom were: Ezekiel, b. Mar. 6, 1668, d. Mar. 2, 1728-9, at Fairfield, Conn.; and Thomas, b. May 2, 1675, d. May 20, 1759, at Fairfield. Thomas had 10 children, of whom: David, bapt. Feb. 24, 1711-12, d. in 1767, in Warwick, N. Y. He, David, had five sons: David, Thomas, John, Ephraim and Ezra; of whom David, John and Ezra are in the U. S. Census of 1790, at Warwick, N. Y. The son, Ezra, was b. there Apr. 5, 1747; and d. there Apr. 22, 1822. Many of his descendants still reside there.

The sixth child of the pioneer, Thomas, was Ephraim, b. May 17, 1646, at Milford, Conn., where he d. in 1687. Of his seven children, Samuel was the third, b. May 9, 1674, at Milford, and d. there in 1749. Samuel had 11 children, of whom: Joseph, b. July 5, 1701, was the third. Joseph settled at South Farms, Conn., where he opened the first dry good store in the place. He was a Member of the Colonial Legislature; Capt. in the Militia, &c. He d. there (Prospect Hill) Sept. 9, 1754. He had six children. The fourth child, Jonah, b. Aug. 1, 1735, m. Rhoda Woodruff, and d. there Jan. 21, 1817. He (Jonah) had six children, of whom Benjamin was the second. Benjamin took up a tract of forest in Cornwall, Vt., in 1784, where he d. July 1, 1833. He had 12 children, of whom Jonah was the fourth. Jonah was b. Nov. 30, 1790, in Cornwall, and d. in Hopkinton, N. Y., Dec. 25, 1867. He took up a tract of forest in Hopkinton, in 1815, where he ever after resided. He was a Member of Cong. in 1830, a Brig. Gen. of Militia, in 1832; a Judge of the Common Pleas Court; a Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1846; and Col. of the 92d Regt. of N. Y. S. Vols., in 1862, in the Civil War. Of his 14 children, Jonah, Jr., was the fifth. He was b. in Hopkinton Oct. 24, 1821, where he lived all his life, dying Oct. 18, 1886. He m. Clarinda Risdon Feb. 17, 1847. She d. Oct. 19, 1893. Jonah, Jr., was exceedingly successful as a farmer. He held various offices of trust; was Asst. Assessor of Int. Revenue; Supervisor of his Town for 16 years; and Member of Assembly for two terms. He had four children: Carlton E.; Silas H.; Alice C.; and Herbert J.—all living except Silas, who d. Sept. 15, 1912. Carlton E. Sanford, of Potsdam, N. Y., brought out a large 2 vol. Genealogy of Thomas Sanford with much data as to all other pioneer Sanfords, in 1911.

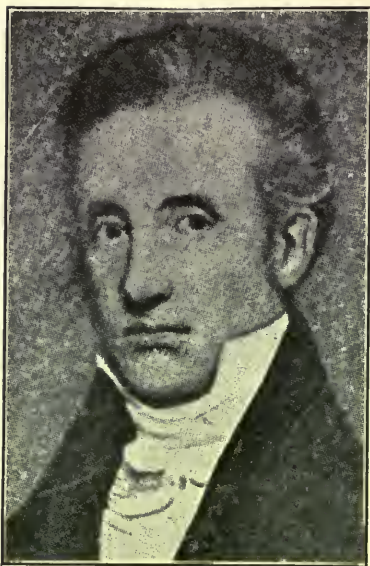

Robert (pioneer), settled in Hartford, Conn., about 1640; where he d. in June, 1676. He had a son, Ezekiel, b. Mar. 13, 1647, who d. in Southampton, L. I., in 1716. The son is not named in his father's will, of 1676; but he is in his mother's will, of 1682. He is also named in the distribution of his

(H. 6) On May 8, 1776, the N. Y. Prov'l Cong. ordered him to apprehend certain of the Tories (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 57); which he did. (Page 145) About June 24, he was promoted from Capt. to Lt. Col. (Onderdonk, p. 74); and he served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 11, 25) On July 20, the Cong. made a draft of one-fourth part of the Militia of the L. I. Counties; and he was appointed 2d Col. (A. 4. Also Onderdonk, p. 78) On July 25, he gave orders to Lt. Col. Birdsall. (Onderdonk, p. 81) In the same month, he was helping Col. Smith to organize the Militia (G. 39); and, just before the Battle of L. I., his men guarded the stock. (Page 29. Also A. 5) He took part in the Battle. (Page 41) Bounties were paid to his men. (A. 5) After the Battle, his house was surrounded by the enemy while he was at New Rochelle. He returned, and was captured; but he was liberated by Gen. Howe, Dec. 23. (Onderdonk, p. 109) He loaned money to the State of N. Y., on Gov. Clinton's promise to pay. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 169) A private, of his name, served in the 3d Westchester. (G. 79) See also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n., Year Book—1909," p. 620.

He was b. in 1735; m. in 1757, Elizabeth Jackson; d. in 1811. (Bunker, as above. See also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 463) It was, perhaps, his son, John Jr., who signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9)

SATTERLY HENRY—From Brookhaven. He served in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); and in the 4th Line. (G. 47) He d., at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Mar. 30, 1777. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n.," p. 218)

SAWYER—The ancestry of the L. I. branch of this Family is in doubt. The Mass. branch is descended from Thomas Sawyer and Marie Prescott, Lancaster, Mass. Thomas, William and Edward, sons of John, of Lincoln, England, came to Boston Colony, in 1636; settled in Rowley, whence Thomas went to Lancaster, with William and Prescott, being one of the principal men of the Town. Edward remained in Rowley; and William moved to Ipswich. (R. A. Y. 2156. "L. I. Traveler") Or the ancestor may have been William who came to Newbury, Mass., about 1682. (N. E. Hist'l and Gen'l Reg., Apr., 1874)

SAWYER MOSES ()—From Shelter Island to some part of Conn. not known. On Oct. 14, 1782, he was allowed to take his wife to L. I., he to return. (F. 66) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 31) Thompson ("Long Island" 1. 206) quotes from the "New York Mercury," of Mar. 10, 1778:

Moses Sawyer, who formerly lived at Shelter Island, came over from the main a few days since, and robbed the farm of William Nicoll, Esq., at said Island, of 110 bushels of wheat; and carried off grain belonging to Thomas Dering.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 49) According to Mallmann ("Shelter Island," p. 325), he m. Mehitable Horton; and had a son, Benjamin, who m. Abigail, dau. of John King.

SAYRE NEHEMIAH 4, CAPT. (Job 3, 2, Thomas 1; father of Capt. Abraham above)—From Southampton to Saybrook. As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), on May 17 and 19, 1779, he was allowed to go from Saybrook to L. I. with his boat and crew. (D. 24, 27) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 53) He was b. ———; m. Dec. 24, 1741, Bethiah, dau. of Abraham Cooper (See Cooper); d. Aug. 5, 1784. His children were: Elizabeth 5, b. Apr. 18, 1743, m. Capt. Zephaniah Rogers (See Rogers), d. Apr. 1, 1814; Capt. Abraham 5, above; James 5, b. July 3, 1748, m. Elizabeth Howell; John 5, b. Jan. 5, 1752, m. Mrs. Abigail Jarvis, was Clerk of Suffolk Co., d. s. p.; Hannah 5, b. Nov. 7, 1756, m. Capt. Obadiah Rogers, d. June 22, 1822; and Jane 5, b. Mar. 24, 1759, m. Obadiah Wright, May 24, 1777. (See Wright)—(Howell's "Southampton," pp. 378, 379)

SCHELLINGER—This name, apparently, was first seen in Amagansett, Town of East Hampton, though it is not known on what date. There are some of the name in Amagansett now. A Jacob Schellinger lived there just before the Rev'y War. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) Jacob 1 came to New Amsterdam, now New York, about 1653. He d. at East Hampton, June 17, 1693, aged 67. His son, Jacob 2, m. Hannah ———; d. Jan. 28, 1713. Jacob 3, son of Jacob 2, b. Nov. 22, 1702; m. Hannah ———; drowned Jan. 17, 1753. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 330, 331)

SCHELLINGER ISAAC 4, CAPT. (Jacob 3, 2, 1)—From East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, with four in the family and his goods, he was brought over by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) Same month, as Capt. of a ship (Page 239), he brought the effects of Jacob Conkling from East Hampton to Saybrook. (C. 24) With others, he petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to go to the State of N. Y. for bread. (B. 3) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He probably served in Col. Smith's Regt., both as private and Corp. (G. 7, 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was probably b. about 1740; d. about 1800. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He d. about 1800, leaving sons, Christopher 5 and Daniel 5; his family removed to N. J. (Hedges, p. 331)

SCHENCK—The ancestor, Johannes 1, b. in Holland, Sept. 19, 1656; m. Maria Magdalena DeHaes; d. at Bushwick, L. I., Feb. 5, 1748. His son, Johannes 2, b. Apr. 30, 1691; m. Maria Lott; d. Apr. 1, 1729. Son of Johannes 2, Judge Abraham 3, b. Aug. 6, 1720; m. Elsie Vandervoort; d. Oct. 2, 1784. He resided at Bushwick; also in N. J.; and finally, in Dutchess Co., N. Y. ("Memoir of Johannes Schenck") His dau., Catharine 4, m. Morris Hazard. (See Hazard) It was probably his son, Col. Abraham 4, who had a Military record in Dutchess Co., N. Y. (G. 71. See also "N. Y. in the Rev'n" and "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.") Col. Abraham 4 was b. Feb. 13, 1754.

Judge Abraham 3 was Supervisor, in Kings Co., N. Y., for the Town of Bushwick, 1751-1757. He was one of the Judges in that Co., 1761-1766; and he represented that Co. in the Colonial Legislature, 1759-1768. ("Memoir," as above) During the Rev'y War, he and Gideon Ver Veen were appointed to superintend the removal of the poor from N. Y. City to Dutchess Co. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," pp. 119-126) They were also appointed by the Council of Safety, June 27, 1777, to care for those of the Refugees from L. I. who chose to go from Conn. to Dutchess Co. (A. 44) Judge Schenck also loaned money to the State of N. Y. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 169) On Apr. 5, 1784, he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y relative to damages that he had sustained. (B. 16) His daughters, below, were Refugees.

SCHENCK ELSIE 4, ELIZABETH 4, and MARIA MAGDALENA 4 (Judge Abraham 3, Johannes 2, 1)—From Bushwick to Conn. On Jan. 4, 1777, they were allowed to return to their parents on L. I. on taking the oath that they would convey no papers or intelligence to the enemy. (A. 28)

Elsie b. Sept. 23, 1757; not m.; d. in 1782.

Elizabeth, b. Jan. 7, 1759; m. John McPherson.

Maria Magdalena, b. Jan. 23, 1762; not m.; d. Mar. —, 1779. ("Memoir," as above)

SCOTT SARAH—She was "lately from Long Island," as stated in the record of her marriage to Noah Baldwin, Dec. 5, 1776. (Saybrook, Conn., Ch. Rec.) A Sarah Scott, with Thomas Fenn, was admx. of the estate of Gershom Scott, Jr., of Waterbury, in Jan., 1779. (Records of the State of Conn., 2. 199)

It is not probable that she claimed descent from the ubiquitous Capt. John Scott who lived at Ashford (now Setauket) the century before. (Moore's "Index," p. 36. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 320-323) She may have been a dau. of Capt. John's son John; or of his son Jehamiah, of Southampton, whose will was made on Mar. 24, 1748, as shown in N. Y. Wills, Lib. 16, p. 433. (Moore, as above)

SCUDDER—The common ancestor of the Family on L. I. was Thomas 1, who was b. in Eng., and is believed to have been among the earliest settlers at Plymouth, Mass. His wife's name was Elizabeth. He resided at Salem from 1642 to 1657; and the Records of that Town show grants of land to "Old Goodman Scudder" (the term "Goodman" indicating an honorable position in the Puritan Church). He d. at Salem, in 1657. (Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address"—1876) Thomas 1, m. Elizabeth Lowers; d. in 1658. His son, Thomas 2, m. Mary, dau. of William and Clemence Ludlam; d. Nov. 14, 1690. Timothy 3, son of Thomas 2, m. Sarah Wood (1650-1738); d. about 1740. Timothy 4, son of Timothy 3, b. in 1696; m. Feb. 5, 1728, Mary, dau. of Thomas and Mary Whitehead; d. Apr. 25, 1778. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

A Sarah Scudder, m. Dr. Joseph Crane. (See Crane)

SCUDDER HENRY 5, LT. (Timothy 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Huntington to Conn. On Jan. 7, 1780, with others, he petitioned for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was on the Committee of Huntington, and on the Committee of the 1st Regt. (G. 1) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., and participated in the Battle of L. I. (G. 4, 6, 13, 32) He was allowed to cruise on L. I. Sound; and, on Dec. 25, 1778, he had charge of an expedition to L. I. (Clinton Pap., 4. 199, 424) He was probably the one named by Gov. Clinton, in 1778, as "a brave and honest man," the Capt. of an armed boat on L. I. Sound. (Clinton Pap., as above) Complaint against him was made by Dr. Benjamin Anthony, the Refugee. (Page 258. See also Anthony) He was one of the most active in planning raids against the Tories. (Page 222) He was taken Prisoner at the Battle of L. I.; but released by Col. Upham. He visited the British Forts and, as a spy (Page 93), went into the British lines for the Patriots, at the risk of his life. He drew a plan of "Fort Slongo," at Fresh Ponds, and forwarded it to the Americans, who afterward captured and burnt it. (Page 236) He had many hair-breadth escapes from capture—once hiding behind a log, while the British Cavalry were within a few feet of him. (Hon. H. C. P., as above) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1788, 1789, 1790 and 1792. He was, also, a Member of the Convention of 1788 to adopt the U. S. Constitution. (Civil List)

Further references may be found in the Huntington Town Rec.; Onderdonk's "Annals;" and Ross' "Hist. of L. I."

Mrs. Gilbert Scudder gives the following, relating to the family and the descendants of Lt. Henry Scudder—

Henry Scudder

SEAMAN—The ancestor on L. I. was Capt. John 1, who came from Essex, Eng., to Boston, about 1650. Soon afterward, he removed to Hempstead, and became Capt. of Militia and Justice of the Peace. He was the father of eight sons and eight daughters. He and six of his sons were patentees in the Town, in 1660. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 243, 244) One of his sons was Nathaniel 2; whose son, Samuel 3, was the father of Dr. Valentine 4 Seaman, the noted Surgeon. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 538) John 1 went from Wethersfield, Conn., to Stamford about 1640; and thence to Hempstead, about 1644. (Chap. 16) He m. (1) Elizabeth Strickland, (2) Martha Moore. His son, Jonathan 2, m. Jane ————. His grandson, David 3, m. Temperance Williams, and was a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, in 1732. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies")

SEAMAN RICHARD (————)—From Hempstead, or North Hempstead, to Saybrook. On May 17, 1779, he had permission to bring his family and goods to Saybrook where he had been boarding with Col. William Worthington for some time. He had also furnished information of the enemy to Col. Worthington. An invoice of the goods was shown at Middletown. (Pages 210, 243. Also D. 26. Also E. 119-123) He was in the Illicit Trade in 1780-1. (Clinton Pap., 7. 77. Also E. 192) He petitioned Gov. Clinton for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) His claim, with that of Dr. William Lawrence, was finally paid. (B. 30, 31) He served in Capt. Valentine's Co., July, 1776 (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., 2d Ser." p. 6); also in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24) He acted as a spy. (E. 120)

His wife may have been a sister of Dr. William Lawrence, the Refugee. (E. 48. Also F. 14) A Richard Seaman's marriage to Elizabeth ———— was annulled, Nov. 16, 1784. (Ass'y Jour.)

My grandfather was Richard Seaman, a lineal descendant of the original Captain John Seaman. His farm was within the compass of the British operations in the time of the Revolution, and he suffered much; but was never a Refugee, so far as I know. He d. in New York City, in the fall of 1843; and is buried in the Methodist Church Yard, at Searingtown, Long Island. (Mr. James A. Seaman)

SEAMAN WILLIAM, CAPT. ()—He was Capt. of "The Betsy." On Dec. 5, 1778, he was captured by the enemy near Oyster Bay. (Page 216. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 78)

SEAMAN ZEBULON 4 (David 3, Jonathan 2, Capt. John 1)—From Queens Co. His wife, Jean, lived on L. I.; and had permission to remove to Peekskill, N. Y. (Jour. N. Y. Prov'l Cong.) He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 6, 9)

He was b. in 1718; m. Phebe Valentine. He was in the Colonial Ass'y, 1769-1775. He took the premium offered by the Ass'y for the best home-spun linen. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies") His children were: Leah 5, b. in 1744; m. Thomas Willetts; Mary 5, b. in 1745; m. Jordan Seaman, d. in 1790; Zebulon 5, b. in 1747; m. Jane Jackson, d. in 1806; John W. 5, b. in 1749; m. Rebecca Demilt, d. in 1826; Martha 5, b. in 1755; m. Daniel Willets, d. in 1816; Leonard 5, b. in 1762; m. (1) in 1784, Mary Titus, (2) Leah Simonson, d. in 1821; Phebe 5, Esther 5, Rachel 5 and George 5, d. y.; Phebe 5, m. Samuel Searing. (Bunker's "L. I. Genealogies")

SEARS—Sears Gen. states that Richard 1, d. at Yarmouth, Mass., in 1676. He had: Paul 2, Lt. Silas 2 and Deborah 2. Paul 2 had a son, Paul 3; and a grandson, Joshua 4. (See Capt. Elkanah Sears, Page 251) From Lt. Silas 2 descends Dr. Keith Sears, of Matteawan, N. Y. Paul 2 had a son, Samuel 3; and a grandson, Joshua 4. (See Capt. Isaac Sears, in "The Refugees from N. Y. City")

Matthew, of East Haddam, Conn., was not a Refugee. His dau., Asenath, m. William Gelston (See Gelston), the Refugee. (Miss Lucy Gelston)

SEARS BENJAMIN ()—In Feb., 1781, he asked permission to return to L. I., with his wife. (E. 145) On May 26, 1781, he again asked permission, stating that his three children had been born since he left L. I. (E. 150) He may have served in the 3d Dutchess (G. 65)

Several Benjamins, are mentioned in the Sears Gen., but none as living at any time on L. I. One was b. in 1751, at Middletown, Conn.; and two

Benjamin Sears — were b. at Harwich, Mass., and later lived at South East, Dutchess Co., N. Y. There is no mention of a Matthew Sears in the Gen. (Dr. Keith Sears)

SEELYE—Hon. Alfred Seelye Roe, of Worcester, Mass., gives the following line—The first of the name in America was Capt. Robert 1 who came over with Gov. Winthrop, about 1630. He went to Conn.; and was at Huntington, L. I., in 1662. He was in the Indian War in New England, in 1675; and is said to have m. Mary, sister of Capt. John Manning. His son, Nathaniel 2, of New Haven, m. Mary Turney, in 1646. He was killed in the War with the Narragansetts. John 3, son of Nathaniel 2, d. at New Milford, Conn., in 1740. His son, Benjamin 4, from Fairfield Co., Conn., was one of the early patentees of Northern N. Y.—as appears on a parchment indenture owned by Mr. Roe.

Nathaniel 2 had a son, Lt. Nathaniel 3. The line then continues: James 4; Nathan 5; Seth 6; Samuel 7; Seth 8; William 9. The latter had: Frank Earle 10, and other children. (Mr. Frank Earle Seeley)

SEELYE NEHEMIAH 5, CAPT. (Benjamin 4, John 3, Nathaniel 2, Capt. Robert 1)—From Queensbury, Charlotte (now Warren) Co., N. Y., to New Fairfield, Conn., about July 15, 1777. He removed on account of the raids by Burgoyne's Army. On Oct. 12, 1779, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for the same pay and allowance that he had in the service in the State of N. Y. He stated his service in Conn. and was recommended to the favor of the Ass'y. (E. 23, 24) Previously, he had served in the Charlotte Co. Militia. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 133. Also "Archives of the State of New York—the Rev'n," pp. 275, 276) On May 19, 1779, he appeared before the Albany County Comm'rs of Conspiracies, and accused Duncan McConelly of having spoken disrespectfully of the Cong. of the U. S.; and his testimony was confirmed. (Minutes of the Comm'rs, pp. 344, 345, 348) It may be that the accused was Duncan McCallum, the Refugee. (See McCallum)

Capt. Nehemiah Seelye, my ancestor, was an Officer in the last French War, as well as in the Revolution. He was one of the original patentees of the Town of Queensbury, in which I am residing. He was a Town officer there continuously; except in 1777, when he was driven out by Burgoyne's Army. His ancestors probably came from Dutchess Co., N. Y.; and originally from Conn. (Mr. Elwyn Seelye)

Capt. Nehemiah also had a son David 6, who served in the 16th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 132; also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 545) The "Archives" also state that he was ordered out to Skensborough (now Whitehall, N. Y.); taken Prisoner, Mar. 7, 1780; and released, June 11, 1782. Reuben 7, son of David 6, b. in 1775; m. Cynthia Odell; d. in 1866. Reuben 8, son of Reuben 7, b. in 1808; m. Rizpah M. Haskins; d. ———, 1888. Elwyn 9, of Lake George, N. Y., son of Reuben 8, b. ———, 1848; m. ———, Elizabeth, dau. of Dr. Edward Eggleston, and has several children.

Returning to Mr. Roe's statement—Capt. Nehemiah was bapt. at New Milford, Conn., Sept. 18, 1743; d. at Kingsbury, Charlotte (now Washington) Co., N. Y., June 17, 1802. His farm lay on Burgoyne's route from Canada; and traces of the corduroy road, built by him across the farm, are still visible. His home was destroyed by the enemy; and with it, all family records, including the Bible. He was a bridge-builder by occupation, along with his farming; and it is said that he lost his life in connection with the building of a bridge. This statement is derived from family tradition.

The wife of Capt. Nehemiah was Mary Hopkins, who d. at Kingsbury, in 1834, aged 84. He had a son, Joseph 6, b. at Kingsbury, in 1776; d. at Rose, Wayne Co., N. Y., in 1854. Col. George 7, son of Joseph 6, b. in Chenango Co., N. Y., in 1806; d. in 1885. Col. George 7 had a dau., Polly Catharine 8, b. at Rose, N. Y., in 1827; m. Rev. Austin M. Roe (See Roe); d. June 16, 1908. Her son is Hon. Alfred Seelye 9 Roe.

Nehemiah Seelye

SERVICE JEFFRY JAMES—From L. I. to Conn. On Sept. 2, 1778, he laid before the Governor and Committee of Safety of Conn. proofs of his being a friend to the American cause, and was given protection. (D. 19)

SHADEN—SHADDEN—SHADDING—SHEDDAN—CHADEYNE—William Shadden was on the Hempstead List, in 1647. In 1658, he was named for Magistrate. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 13)

SHADEN CONKLIN—On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32)

The autograph would seem to settle the question that has been raised: was not his name Shadrack Conkling? (See Page 252)

A Capt. ————Sheddán was active on L. I. Sound, Dec. 3, 1781. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 229) On Oct. 15, 1781, Gen. S. H. Parsons wrote to Gov. Trumbull that Thaddeus Bell of Middlesex (now Darien) was at home on a parole from the Provost, in N. Y. City; and that he must return "unless he can effect this exchange for one Conkling Shadden, now in Hartford Gaol." (Hall's "Life of Parsons," p. 402)

Conklin Shaden

SHEFFIELD—Joseph 1, came to Portsmouth, R. I., before 1643. (See Page 252)

SHEFFIELD ROBERT—From East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, with two passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Isaac Sheffield, who was probably a relative. (C. 212) In Oct., 1776, his effects including blacksmith's tools, were brought over by Capt. Hubbard Latham. (C. 140) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) Onderdonk ("Suffolk Co.," p. 227) quotes the "Conn. Gazette," of July 10, 1778, in describing his adventures after he had escaped from one of the Prison ships.

The Census of 1776 showed that he was under 50 years old; and that he had no wife living; but he had a son over 16 years old, and a son under 16. (A. 52) On Dec. 21, 1780, he m. Temperance Doty. (Saybrook, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

SHELTON WILLIAM, MRS.—She was Susannah 6 Strong (Thomas 5, Selah 4, Thomas 3, John 2, 1; sister of Capt. Selah Strong the Refugee, below; also sister of Zipporah who m. Rev. Benjamin Tallmadge, below)—From Brookhaven to Stratford. On March 20, 1781, she, and her brother Capt. Selah Strong (See Strong), asked leave to visit their aged parents, at Brookhaven. (F. 127)

She m. William Shelton, of Conn. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 451)

SHERMAN—Thomas, was at Ipswich, Mass., in 1636. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 13) He was at Stamford, Conn., about 1640; and went thence to Hempstead, L. I., about 1644. (Chap. 16) Samuel, went from Wethersfield, Conn., to Stamford, about 1641. (Chap. 16)

SHERMAN ANTHONY, CORP. ()—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. On Sept. 5, 1776, with five in the family and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Joshua Griffeth. (C. 57) His claim was paid through Lt. Obadiah Havens. (C. 69) He served as Corp. and private in Col. Smith's Regt., and entered the Cont'l service. (G. 7, 29)

SHERILL—The original arrival, Samuel Sherrill, was shipwrecked at East Hampton. The incident is related by Hon. Henry P. Hedges. ("Anniversary Address, East Hampton," 1849; also "Hist. East Hampton," p. 333)

Samuel 1, b. in Ireland, about 1649; m. about 1676, ——— Parsons; d. at East Hampton, Apr. 29, 1719. His son, Recompence 2, b. about 1678; m. (1) Nov. 10, 1701, Sarah Parsons (d. in 1712); m. (2) Oct. 1, 1713, Margaret Cady. Among his children were: Recompence 3, below; Henry 3, b. in 1715, m. Nov. 4, 1736, Jane Conklin, removed to Richmond, Mass.; Samuel 3, perhaps the Refugee, below; Jeremiah 3, below; Jacob 3, below; and Abraham 3, bapt. Dec. 19, 1727. Recompence 3, b. in 1716; m. (1) Dec. 15, 1737, Sarah Leek (d. in 1738); m. (2) Apr. 10, 1739, Puah Parsons; d. Feb. 7, 1786. Among his children were: Capt. Recompence 4, below; and Sarah 4, bapt. Mar. —, 1759. Jeremiah 3, bapt. Aug. 13, 1721; m. (1) Sept. 7, 1749, Kezia Barnes (d. in 1750); m. (2) Aug. 2, 1753, Elizabeth Dayton; drowned at sea. His son, Jeremiah 4, below. Jacob 3, b. in 1722; m. (1) Aug. 11, 1746, Abigail Conklin; m. (2) about 1760, Clemence Hunting; d. July —, 1801. Among his children was Jeremiah 4, below. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 333-334—contributed by Mr. Teunis D. Huntington)

SHERILL HENRY 4, CORP. (Henry 3, Recompence 2, Samuel 1; brother of Samuel, Two, below)—From East Hampton to Richmond, Mass. He served in Col. Smith's Regt., both as private and Corp. (G. 7, 23, 31, 32); and marched with the Regt. the length of L. I. only to be told, at Jamaica, of the defeat of the Americans at the Battle of L. I. According to the Muster Roll (G. 31), he was b. about 1754; and he is supposed to have m. at East Hampton. The Census of 1776 showed that he was under 50 years old; and that, beside his wife, he had three daughters over 16 years old. (A. 52)

He was b. Sept. 29, 1753, at East Hampton; m. Lois Chitsey; d. Dec. 8, 1813, at Richmond, Mass. His children were: Zerujah 5, b. Mar. 16, 1785, m. Frederick Perry, d. Jan. 29, 1867; Henry 5, b. Oct. 6, 1786, not m., d. Jan. 20, 1816; Augustus 5, b. Mar. 26, 1789, m. Clarissa Whiton, d. Jan. 6, 1853; Laura 5, b. Apr. 4, 1791, m. Dr. Robert Worthington, d. Mar. 30, 1822; Joseph 5, b. July 21, 1793, m. Amanda Hicks, d. Apr. 27, 1862; Franklin 5, b. Aug. 2, 1795, m. Mary Ann Edwards, d. Apr. 10, 1850; Fanny 5, b. Aug. 12, 1798, d. Jan. 6, 1819; Mary 5, b. May 19, 1801, d. Oct. —, 1839; Eliza 5, b. Apr. 16, 1803, d. Sept. 7, 1808. (Sherrill Gen.)

The following extracts are from an article in "The Berkshire Courier," Great Barrington, Mass., Jan. 31, 1907. It was written by Mr. R. H. W.

Dwight, of Boston, a grandson of Rev. Edwin Welles Dwight and a g. grandson of Henry Sherrill—

The advent of the Sherrill family into Richmond came through the mother of Henry Sherrill, Jane Conkling, of whom it is said that during the Revolutionary war, the British attempted to search her house at East Hampton, Long Island, but the spirited old lady, then a widow, seized a fire shovel which lay on the hearth, and bade the red coated soldiers to cross her threshold at their peril. The old lady's pluck gained her her point, and the house was not searched. By reason of her sympathy with the American cause she thought East Hampton no fit place to live, as it was then under British control, so in 1782 or 1783, she, together with her two sons, (Henry and Samuel) immigrated to Richmond.

Henry Sherrill kept the country store in the old house at the junction of the Canaan and State roads. It was perhaps one of the largest in the country, and strange as it may seem now, Richmond in those days was of as great importance as a business centre as was Pittsfield.

In the "Minister's Tax List" of 1800, Henry Sherrill is given as the second largest contributor to the support of the gospel, religion being at that time a subject of taxation.

He erected the splendid house, now the home of Mr. Huntington, and sometimes called "Kenmore."

My grandfather came to Richmond in the year 1810. Three years afterward he m. Mary Sherrill, dau. of Henry Sherrill and Lois Chitsey. They lived in the house now occupied by Mrs. March and called "Goodwood," where all his children, including my father, the oldest child, were born. This house was presented to the bride by her father at the time of their marriage.

The only children of my grandparents now living are Mrs. Henry M. Field of Stockbridge and Mrs. Alexander D. Napier of Brooklyn.

SHERILL JEREMIAH 4 (Either Jeremiah 3, or Jacob 3, Recompence 2, Samuel 1)—From East Hampton to Haddam. In Sept., 1776, with two passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capt. Benjamin King, Jr. (C. 141) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) He served in the 3d Line. (G. 46) He enlisted March, 1775, in Capt. John Hulburt's Co. of Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regt. of N. Y. Troops. When his time expired he re-enlisted in the same Regt., but at this time in Capt. John Davis' Co. In Oct., 1832, he was awarded a pension for gallant services during the Revolution. (Sherrill Gen.)

There is doubt as to which of the two Jeremiahs was the Refugee.

Jeremiah 4, son of Jeremiah 3, bapt. Dec. 10, 1750; m. Ruth Hunting; removed to Dutchess Co., N. Y., in 1782; d. Aug. 21, 1827. (Hedges' "East Hampton," p. 334)

Jeremiah 4, son of Jacob 3, bapt. Dec. 10, 1750; m. Elizabeth Hand; d. Jan. 14, 1840, at Franklin, N. Y. He had: Vashti 5, m. ———— Edwards, of Franklin; Darius 5, b. in 1781, removed to Sandy Hill, N. Y., in 1792; Melinda 5, b. Jan. 18, 1786, m. Silas Webb, of Orient, N. Y.; Abigail 5, b. Mar. 22, 1790, m. (1) Elisha Rackett (See Rackett), (2) William Potter; Jeanette 5, m. (1) Amos Ryan, of E. Marion, N. Y., (2) Ebenezer Welden, of Greenport, N. Y.; Jeremiah 5, b. Oct. 7, 1799, removed to New Hartford, N. Y., about 1810; Caroline 5, d. about 1817; Charles 5, b. Feb. 9, 1804, removed to E. Marion, N. Y., about 1817, d. July 12, 1871. (Hedges, as above) Elizabeth, who m. Jeremiah 4, was a sister of Capt. Israel Hand, who removed to Sandy Hill, where he was interested in the leather business. Capt. Hand's nephew, Darius 5, then a boy, went with him. Darius 5 was the grandfather of Hon. Charles Hitchcock Sherrill, of N. Y. City, late U. S. Minister to Argentina. (C. H. S.)

A Jeremiah Sherrill m. Keziah, dau. of Isaac 3 Barnes. (See Barnes)

SHERILL RECOMPENCE 4, CAPT. (Recompence 3, 2, Samuel 1; brother of Sarah, below)—From East Hampton to Chester. He was brought over, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) As Capt. of a ship, in Oct., 1776, he brought a part of Abraham Miller's goods to Hartford. (Page 239. Also C. 100)

His father, Recompence 3, appears in the Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 52) He may have been the one who signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) It is certain that Capt. Recompence was again living at East Hampton, in 1787. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1866, p. 26)

Capt. Recompence had a son David, who had a son Hiram, who had sons Hiram and David, now living at East Hampton. While David knows nothing about any of the family having been Refugees, he has recently informed me that he recollects hearing his grandfather (David) say that when he was a small boy he went to Hartford in a vessel, with his father (Recompence) after the battle of Long Island. As he (David) was born in 1773, he must have been very young, and probably went over with his father, at the time he took some Refugees over. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

What the small boy saw, and remarked upon, is of importance in this inquiry; for the voyage to Hartford must have been the one noted above (C. 100); while the other voyage (C. 98) seems to prove that Capt. Recompence was himself a Refugee.

On the other hand, his g. grandson Mr. Hiram Sherrill thinks that Capt. Recompence was not a Refugee:

At the time the British were in East Hampton, he was arrested for giving food to a soldier. He was immediately discharged. This he told my mother, who told me. It also shows that he was residing in East Hampton at the time, probably with his family. Judging from the character of the man, as represented to me by my mother, it would take something more than a British soldier to cause him to abandon his home. He was a large hearted, generous and liberal man. He was one of the largest contributors to the building fund of Clinton Academy, in 1784.

He was b. May 11, 1741; m. Sept. 22, 1768, Naomi Burnham; d. June 7, 1839. His children were: Naomi 5, b. Aug. 14, 1769, m. Jesse Hedges; Seth 5, b. Jan. 6, 1771, removed to Swanton, Vt.; David 5, below; Nathaniel 5, b. July 28, 1775, d. Aug. 2, 1775; Nathaniel 5, b. Sept. 6, 1776, removed to Lysander, N. Y.; Burnham 5, b. Aug. 17, 1779, not m., drowned Oct. 11, 1811; Elizabeth 5, b. Feb. 23, 1783, m. Charles H. Havens; Sally 5, b. Sept. 8, 1785, drowned May 7, 1786. David 5, b. Dec. 3, 1772; m. Sally Lupton; d. Nov. 11, 1861. His son, Hiram L. 6, b. Nov. 24, 1810; m. Nov. 3, 1834, Adelaide Miller. He had: Sarah F. 7, b. Apr. 24, 1836, m. Charles R. Dayton (See Dayton), d. Apr. 25, 1895; David S. 7; and Hiram 7. David S. 7, b. Oct. 11, 1842; m. Mar. 3, 1868, Rosalie Dayton. He lives at East Hampton. Hiram 7, b. Apr. 16, 1853; m. (1) Anastasia Williams (d. in 1888); m. (2) Jan. 12, 1893, Sophronia Douglass. He lives at East Hampton. His children were: a son 8, b. Mar. 12, 1882, d. same day; Florence E. 8, b. July 14, 1884; and Adelaide M. 8, b. Sept. 13, 1886. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 334, 335)

SHERILL SARAH 4 (Sister of Capt. Recompence, above)—Probably from East Hampton to Chester. She was bapt. Mar. —, 1759. (Hedges, p. 334) On July 13, 1783, she m. Col. Andrew Morehouse. (See Morehouse) —(Westbrook, Conn., Ch. Rec.) According to Sherrill Gen., she may have been Sarah 4 (Henry 3, Recompence 2, Samuel 1; sister of Corp. Henry, above) If so, she was b. Apr. 18, 1742; d. in 1803.

SHERILL SAMUEL (ONE) 3 (Recompence 2, Samuel 1; twin brother of Jeremiah 3)—From East Hampton up the Conn. River, with three in the family, by Capt. John Vail, in Sept. and Oct., 1776. (C. 177)

He was bapt. Aug. 13, 1721. He afterward removed to Dutchess Co., N. Y. (Hedges, p. 334)

The Ch. Recs., of Westbrook, Conn., give the death of John Sherrill, son of Samuel Sherrill, 1778-10-28.

SHERILL SAMUEL (TWO) 4 (Henry 3, Recompence 2, Samuel 1; brother of Corp. Henry, above)—From East Hampton to Richmond, Mass.

He was b. Apr. 22, 1748; d. Aug. 10, 1840, in Richmond, Mass. He is supposed to have married in his native town. (Sherrill Gen.)

SHERILL WILLIAM ()—Probably from East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over, with five in the family, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204)

SHIPMAN NATHANIEL—Of Saybrook. On Nov. 3, 1779, he was permitted to go to L. I. to marry a wife, and to bring her and her effects away. (D. 40) On Nov. 7, 1780, he was given the same permission. (F. 28)

His wife was Hannah, dau. of Stephen 5 (Capt. Obadiah 4, Obadiah 3, 2, William 1) Rogers. (See Rogers) She was b. Jan. 5, 1754. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 361) See Shipman (I. 11)

SIMMONS ELIZABETH—Probably from Southampton to Saybrook. On June 30, 1780, Dr. William Lawrence (See Lawrence) asked for a pass to L. I. for her and his wife. They may have been sisters. (E. 48)

SIMMONS SAMUEL—He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 36); and probably in Conn. (G. 98)

SIMMONS SOLOMON—From Hempstead to Kent; where he m. He removed to Bradford Co., Pa.; and d. there. He has descendants in Conn. and on L. I.; but some of them removed to Pa. I am not certain that he was a Refugee. His surname may have been Seaman, or Seamans. (Mrs. William H. McCartney)

SIMMONS WALTER—He was allowed to bring over from L. I. his horse, clothing and baggage. (D 14)

SIMONS—The first settler on L. I. was John 1 who was at Salem, Mass., about 1638. He appeared at Hempstead in 1665; and at Southold, in 1683. (Moore's "Index," p. 38)

SIMONS MOSES ()—From Southold to Conn., with six in the family, in Sept. and Oct., 1776. (C. 177) On June 19, 1778, he requested the Auditors to pay his claim to James Wells; which was done, Jan. 6, 1779. (C. 185) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); in the 3d Line (G. 46); in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); in the 2d Westchester (G. 78); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 98)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) As an adult, he was bapt., Sept. 30, 1764. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) On Feb. 8, 1762, he m. Desire Penny. (Same Records)

SINNOT PATRICK, SERJ'T. MAJ.—From L. I. to Saybrook and Chester. In Oct., 1776, he was brought over by Capts. Nathaniel Barns and Peter Tuthill. (C. 142) He served as a private in the 2d Line (G. 44); and as a private and Serjt. Maj. in the 4th Line. (G. 47, 48)

SKIDMORE—Thomas 1, of Fairfield, Conn., had a son, John 2, who removed to Jamaica, L. I., and d. there in 1690. The latter had: Samuel 3, Joseph 3, John 3, and Abigail 3. Samuel 3 had a son, John 4. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 6. 55, 158) John 3 had a wife, Sarah, and children: Joseph 4, below; John 4; Thomas 4; and probably Abigail 4, and Temperance 4. His will was dated Jan. 10, 1728; probated, Feb. 17, 1737. His executors were Joseph 4, Joseph Whitman and John Whitman, Sr. (Lib. 13. p. 141. In Huntington Wills, Vol. 111, N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y Collection)

Thomas 1, b. in Eng., about 1600; came to Cambridge, Mass., about 1635. He had six children, of whom: John 2 (first to Stratford, Conn., and then to Jamaica), b. Apr. 11, 1643. He had sons: John 3, b. in 1663-4, d. Jan. 22, 1740-1; Samuel 3, b. about 1665, m. (1) Susannah, m. (2) Hannah —, a Widow. Samuel 3, had 12 children; among whom, Joseph 4, below. There was a John 3, of Huntington—his father, uncertain; either John 2, Thomas 2 or Joseph 2. (Skidmore Gen.)

SKIDMORE JOSEPH 4 (John 3, 2, Thomas 1—according to the Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.; or Samuel 3, John 2, Thomas 1—according to Skidmore Gen.)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32)

He (or Joseph 5) m., Sept. 23, 1782, Polly Bates. (Stamford-Darien Ch. Rec) He was b. at Jamaica, Apr. 12, 1712; m. Mary — (b. Sept. 25, 1716). His will, dated Mar. 16, 1784. (Skidmore Gen. p. 212) His children were: Samuel 5, b. Dec. 3, 1735; Nathan 5, b. July 5, 1738; Susannah 5, b. Mar. 4, 1741-2; Walter 5, b. June 26, 1744; Joseph 5, b. Apr. 20, 1747; and Mary 5, b. Mar. 1, 1751-2. (Jamaica Presb. Ch. Rec.) For full information of his descendants see Skidmore Gen. p. 212 et. seq.

SLOCUM—Anthony 1, with Giles and Edward (probably his brothers), came to Plymouth, Mass., and thence to Taunton. His son, Giles 2, d. in 1682. He had sons: Eleazer 3; and Rev. Peleg 3. The latter had a son, Joseph 4, of Newport, R. I. Joseph 4 had a son John 5, a grandson, William Brown 6; and a g. grandson, Joseph 7. Joseph 7, m. Margaret Pierson Jermain (See Silvanus Pierson). He had: Margaret Olivia, 8, m. Russell Sage (who d. July 22, 1906); Col. Joseph J. Slocum 8. The latter served in the Civil War. He m. Sallie 6, dau. of Stephen L'Hommedieu (See L'Hommedieu), who d. Sept. 5, 1895. He had: Col. Herbert J. 9, U. S. A.; Lt. Col. Stephen L'H. 9, U. S. A.; and Margaret Olivia 9, m. Sherman Flint.

(Mrs. Russell Sage. Also Slocum Gen. Also "The Sage, Slocum and Allied Families of America")

SLOCUM EBENEZER, JR. 5, LT. (Ebenezer 4, Eliezer 3, Giles 2, Anthony 1)—From Newport, R. I. to Hartford. On Nov. 2, 1780, he asked leave to return with his family, stock and provisions. (E. 102) He may have served in the 3d and 4th Dutchess. (G. 65, 66) He was Lt. in a Co. from Tiverton, 1775-6; and a member of a R. I. Regt., in 1781. (R. I. Colonial Rec.)

Ebenezer Slocum Jr. He was b. May 26, 1750; m. June 4, 1778, Wid. Rebecca (Burgess?) Briggs, of Dartmouth, Mass. They had a dau., Mary. (Slocum Gen.)

SMITH—An interesting account of the early sub-divisions of this Family, on Long Island, is found on pp. 192-194 of Furman's "Antiquities of Long Island." The BLUE SMITHS, who settled in Queens Co., were so named from a blue coat which was worn by their ancestor. Mr. George W. Cocks states that, before the Rev'y War, some of them settled about North Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y.

Tradition says that the WEIGHT SMITHS had the only set of scales and weights in their locality; and that their neighbors had to call upon them for the use of those articles. Mr. Cocks thinks that the name was probably a survival of Thwaite.

The ROCK SMITHS came from John 1 and his son John 2, who were in Stamford, Conn., in 1640-1. Thence they removed to Hempstead, L. I., where John 2, aged 60, deposed that he was called "Rock John" while in Stamford. (Chap. 16. Also Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 43, 44. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10 13) John 1 was in Hempstead in 1644. He was b. about 1615; d. in 1706. He was a Judge. (Bunker's "Long Island Genealogies") One branch settled between Rockaway and Hempstead; the other in Brookhaven. (Furman, as above) Many important facts relating to the ROCK SMITHS are stated on a monument which was erected, in 1909, in the Lake View Cemetery, at Patchogue, by Mrs. Ruth Newey Smith of that place. The original house, occupied by Lt. Jonathan Rock Smith, in 1698, is said to be in existence at Merrick, L. I.

Apparently, there were no Refugees among the several sub-divisions noted, above. Before considering the TANGIER SMITHS and the BULL SMITHS, from whom nearly all of the Refugees came, we will note the settlement of other localities by emigrants of the name.

Abraham 1 Smith seems to have been early on L. I., with sons: Abraham, William and John. John 2 settled in Delaware, before 1690. Abraham 2 and William 2 remained at Hempstead. Abraham 2 and John 2 were called sons-in-law of Robert Coe of Jamaica. Abraham 2 had a son Isaac 3; and Isaac had two sons, Micah 4 and Jacob 4. Micah's children were: Elizabeth 5, Phoebe 5, Micah 5, Isaac 5, and Richard 5. His wife was Phoebe. All named in his will in 1747. Jacob 4 made his will in 1657. He left a wife, Phoebe, and two sons, Isaac 5, and Thomas 5. (G. R. V—No. 2515, "L. I. Traveler") It may be that William 2 was the William who lived at Huntington; m. Hannah Scudder; d. before 1684. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 13) Abraham 2 and John 2, above, may have been step-sons. (G. W. C.)

Among the early settlers of Orange Co., N. Y., were four distinct Families of Smiths from different sections of L. I. Three of them were: ROCK, TANGIER and BULL; of the fourth, the Claudius Smith, every student of Orange Co. history knows.

The early Smiths of Dutchess Co., N. Y., seem to descend from none of the Families already named, but from Isaac and William, brothers, who came from Gloucester, Eng., in 1633. In 1639, they left Boston and settled at Hempstead, L. I. Isaac was killed by the Indians in 1640. He left three sons, John, Abraham, and Uriah. Abraham had sons: Isaac and Abraham. Isaac was b. in 1657; d. in 1745. He settled on the East side of Hempstead Plains. He had sons, Jacob and Uriah. Jacob was b. in 1690; d. in 1787. He was one of the Judges of the Supreme Court in Queens Co. His son, Isaac, b. Sept. 9, 1722; m. Jan. 2, 1743, Margaret, a descendant of Capt. Epenetus Platt, of Huntington. (See Platt) He removed from Hempstead, where his ancestors had resided for nearly a century, to Dutchess Co., where he d. May 29, 1795. He, also, was a Judge. He had sons: Jacob, Uriah, Platt, Philip and Isaac. The latter was Judge Isaac Smith, Sr., of Lithgow, Dutchess Co. Judge Isaac, Sr., had daughters: Mary, Fredore, Phoebe Elizabeth, Catharine and Margaret. Mary m. Morris Smith, who removed to New Orleans. Phoebe m. Dr. Matthias Burnet Miller, of Utica, N. Y., son of Burnet Miller, the Refugee. (See Miller) Jacob, eldest son of Judge Isaac Smith, Sr., b. Dec. 24, 1746; m. Rebecca Peters; d. Feb. 10, 1810. Judge Isaac Smith, Jr., m. Phoebe Lewis. His children were: Lewis, Margaret, Abbey, Louisa, Phoebe, Mary and Isaac. (Dutchess Co. Rec.)

The origin of the Smiths of Dutchess Co. is given somewhat differently in "The Bockée Family," by Miss Martha Bockée Flint. William 1 came from Gloucestershire, Eng., about 1635-6; to Hempstead, L. I., in 1639. He was killed by the Indians. His son, Abraham 2, of New Haven and Hempstead, had a son, Abraham 3. The latter had: Isaac 4, below; Abraham 4; and Esther 4, who became the 2d wife of "Mill John" Townsend. (See Townsend) Isaac 4, b. in 1657; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Capt. John Underhill; d. in 1746. His son, Jacob 5, b. Dec. 8, 1690; m. Frelove Jones, and perhaps (2) Phebe Platt; d. in 1757. Isaac 6, son of Jacob 5, b. Sept. 9, 1722; m. Jan. 2, 1744, Margaret Platt; d. May 29, 1795. He settled in Dutchess Co., in 1767-8. Among his 11 children was Phebe 7, m. Dr. Matthias Burnet Miller. (See Miller)

The TANGIER SMITHS descend from Col. William 1, who was the Gov. of Tangier, Africa, while it was a Colony of England. He settled in Brookhaven, L. I., in 1686, on what is now known as Strong's Neck. This tract and his other purchases were covered by the patent of St. George's Manor, issued by Gov. Fletcher, in 1693. (Furman, as above. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 442-448. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 139-144. See Thompson and Wood for more complete information)

He was Chief Justice of the Prov. of N. Y. for 11 years; Judge of the Admiralty Court of N. Y., N. J. and Conn.; and Probate Judge of Suffolk Co., N. Y.

He was b. at Newton, Northamptonshire, Eng., Feb. 2, 1655; m. Nov. 6, 1675, Martha Tunstall; d. Feb. 18, 1705. She d. Sept. 1, 1709. He had seven sons and six daughters, of whom: Col. Henry 2, below; Maj. William Henry 2, below; Martha 2, m. Col. Caleb Heathcote, Mayor of N. Y. City (See Muirson); and Gloriana 2, m. Rev. George Muirson. (See Muirson)

Col. Henry 2, b. Jan. 19, 1679; m. (1) Anna Shepard, (2) Frances Caner, (3) Margaret Biggs; d. —. He was Clerk of Suffolk Co., 1710-1716; and, for many years, a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of that Co. Among his children were: Mary 3, m. Edmund Smith, below; Anna 3, m. Dr. George Muirson (See Muirson); William Henry 3, m. Margaret, dau. of Henry 2 Lloyd (See Lloyd), and had a dau., Anna 4, who m. Selah Strong (See Strong); Henry 3, m. Ruth Smith; and Dr. Gilbert 3, m. Mary Biggs, and had a dau., Sarah 4, or Jane 4, who m. Abraham C. 5 Woodhull. (See Woodhull) Apparently, Dr. Gilbert 3 was a Loyalist. (Page 146)

Maj. William Henry 2, b. Mar. 13, 1689; m. (1) ———— Merit, of Boston, (2) Hannah Cooper; d. Jan. 27, 1743. He was the father of Judge William 3 (Page 576); and the grandfather of Gen. John 4. (Page 571) (Thompson and Wood, as above)

The Manor House which Col. William 1 erected, about 1690, is still standing; although it has been moved 100 feet from the original site. (See Page 565) Col. William 1 gave it to his son, Maj. William Henry 2. The house has been altered by successive generations, and somewhat enlarged. It is occupied by the seventh generation of his descendants. (Miss Martha T. Smith)

The BULL SMITHS, the most numerous of all, descend from Maj. Richard 1, who came from England with his father, Richard. Maj. Richard 1 is said to have trained and used a bull in place of a horse, for riding—hence the soubriquet. (Furman, as above) Others assert that the name arose from his buying of the Indians all the land that he could ride over in a day—the bull often being used instead of a horse, in those days.

Richard Smith, the elder, was a native of Gloucester, Eng. He came to America prior to 1637, bringing with him a goodly number of his relatives and "a large estate." He was a cultured gentleman, and being possessed of great strength and independence of character soon acquired marked prominence among his associates. In 1639, Richard Smith, leaving his family comfortably housed, amply provided for, surrounded by relatives, friends and faithful servants who had crossed the ocean with them, took his son Richard, Jr., (Maj. Richard 1—Bull) and such attendants as he deemed necessary; sailed down the Taunton river, and penetrated the virgin forests to the very heart of the Indian country of R. I. He purchased from the Sachems, and erected the first trading house south of Warwick. Later, he purchased from the Missequaue Indians 30,000 acres, his titles to which were subsequently confirmed by Patents from Governors Nicolls and Andros. Meantime, in R. I., Richard Smith was sovereign of a vast estate, holding many offices of trust from the Governing Bodies of both Conn. and R. I. He was a member of the General Court of Assistants. At another time, he held a Commission as Chief Magistrate of Kings Province, from Conn. In 1672, he was with Holland. The Council intrusted to him the putting of said Province (which embraced half the area of R. I.), in a state of defense. Richard Smith, the father, d. in the early part of 1679. Major Richard 1 Smith, (known as Bull Smith) seems to have been the same type of man, with his illustrious father; after the death of whom he became sole possessor of the vast estates in R. I. They owned jointly, while on L. I. Maj. Richard 1 acquired even greater prominence as Patentee and Founder of Smithtown. On Sept. 5, 1689, he presented to the Authorities of Conn., a petition asking compensation for services rendered and goods furnished to the Troops. In 1686, the Royal Government of Narragansett was established, with Maj. Richard Smith as Senior Justice and Chief Military Officer. On Mar. 26, 1687, Sir. Edmund Andros recommended him for appointment as one of his Council. In Apr., 1688, a Royal Commission was issued constituting Andros Gov. of all N. England, and annexing thereto the Provinces of N. York and the Jerseys under the N. England Government; with a Council of 42 persons, including Maj. Richard Smith. In 1690, War with the French and Indians raged along the frontiers; and Leisler's Government of N. Y. demanded assistance from all the Colonies. Under this call, Maj. Richard Smith, then over 75 years of age, took the field at the head of the Kings Province, R. I., Troops; and rendered efficient service. He d. at his L. I. home, in 1692; and was buried near his residence at Missequaue. His will, executed in R. I., was dated Mar. 5, 1691. His town estate and properties in the Province of N. Y. were mainly disposed of among his children by deeds of gift. (Mrs. Emily L. B. Fay)

Some of the above statements are doubtful. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

Deborah 2, m. Maj. William Lawrence. (See Lawrence) He was a son of Capt. William. (Record, as above)

The foregoing, relating to the descendants of Maj. Richard 1—Bull, is contained in Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 452-458 and in the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22, 35, 36. The following, concerning James 3 (Job, 1st, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull), is in the Researches of Mrs. Emily L. B. Fay:

James 3 m. Jerusha, dau. of Elnathan Topping, Jr., son of Capt. Elnathan Topping, of Wethersfield, Milford, and Southampton, who for many years was a Magistrate and a Member of the House of Deputies. In 1722, James 3 secured a patent of 2,000 acres of the annulled Capt. Evans' Grant, which is described in the Calendar of N. Y. Land Papers as located "in the County of Ulster adjoining lands of Thomas Nixon and Patrick Knight." There are no records showing that James 3, ever actually settled on this Patent, which would seem to be located in the Town of Montgomery, Orange Co., N. Y., near Smith's Clove. It is evident that James and his family removed from Smithtown, as there seems to be no record there of any of his grandchildren.

His children were: Matthew 4, probably a Refugee; Ezekiel 4, perhaps m. in 1747, Martha Holly; Capt. Austin 4, b. in 1728, m. Aug. 17, 1752, Sarah Knapp, d. in 1817; Nathaniel 4, probably a Refugee; Capt. Francis 4; Eunice 4; Keturah 4; Temperance 4; and Jerusha 4. Capt. Francis 4 and Capt. Austin 4 were in Orange Co., N. Y., residents of Woodbury Clove some 20 years prior to the Revolution. In 1765, Capt. Austin 4 and John Earl were "Overseers of Roads for Woodbury Clove"; and a few years later, Austin 4 was Capt. of the Woodbury Clove Military Co. A year later, the Military of the Colony was re-organized for active service. He was succeeded by his more active brother, Capt. Francis 4, who was at the time a Widower with two daughters, and perhaps other children. His dau., Elizabeth, m. John Weygant.

Unless otherwise noted, Thompson's "Long Island" has been consulted in preparing the following biographies.

He signed the Association, in 1775; although one of the signatures may have been that of some one else. (H. 18, 25) A private of the name, from Brookhaven, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 35); and the Military record given to Lt. John, below, may have belonged to Gen. John. It is probable that he was not a Refugee.

In 1780, the enemy had taken possession of his house; and had erected thereabout a stockaded fort, known as Fort St. George. Gen. Smith appealed to Maj. Tallmadge to dislodge the enemy; which Tallmadge did by one of his celebrated Raids, on Nov. 11. (Pages 232-234) The house is described in Col. William 1, Page 566.

He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1784-5, 1787-1794, 1798-1800; Member of the Convention of 1788 to adopt a Constitution for the U. S.; Member of the U. S. House of Representatives, in place of Jonathan N. Havens, deceased, 1799-1804; U. S. Senator, 1804-1813, when he resigned to become a Judge of the N. Y. Dist. of U. S. Court. (Civil List) In 1814, President Madison appointed him U. S. Marshal of the Southn. Dist. of N. Y., an office which he held until his death.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 5. (A. 51) He was b. Feb. 12, 1752; d. June 24, 1816. He m. (1) Oct. 7, 1776, Lydia Fanning (Smithtown Ch. Rec.), dau. of Sir Edmund Fanning (see Fanning); m. (2) Elizabeth, dau. of Judge Zephaniah Platt (see Platt); m. (3) Elizabeth, dau. of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull, and Wid. of Henry Nicoll. (See Woodhull and Nicoll) He had a son, William 5, by his first wife. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 448)

His Wid., Elizabeth, b. at Mastic, Nov. 30, 1762; d. Sept. 14, 1839, and is buried at Mastic. By his wife, Elizabeth, he had: Charles Jeffery 5; Robert 5; Egbert T. 5; and Sarah Augusta 5. William 5, m. Hannah Carman, grand dau. of Sir John Homan, of Scotland; and had four children. Hon. Egbert T. 5, had: William E. T. 6; Clarence G. T. 6; Martha T. 6, of Moriches, L. I.; and Eugenie A. T. 6. Sarah Augusta 5, m. John S. Lawrence, of N. Y. City. They had several children; among whom is Judge Abraham R. Lawrence, of N. Y. City. (Miss Martha T. Smith)

SMITH JOHN 5, DR. (Dr. William 4, below, Nathaniel 3, Richard, 2d, 2, Maj. Richard—Bull)—From Southampton. He succeeded to the medical practice of his father; and he occupied the ancestral home (See Page 577) before it was occupied by the British. The house was built by Dr. William, in 1759. While the British were in possession of Southampton, it was the headquarters of Gen. Sir William Erskine. (Page 176) The heirs of Dr. John sold it to William S. Pelletreau, Sr. It is now the property of his son, William S. Pelletreau, the Historian. It was made a two-story house, in 1878. (W. S. P.)—(See Page 577)

SMITH JOHN, LT. He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); and, as this Regt. included many who formerly served under Col. Smith, it is probable that he came from L. I. Several of the name had already served on L. I. The Lt. may have been the John who served, from Huntington; or from Queens Co.; or, from Brookhaven.

SMITH JOHN ENS. (John 4, Dr. Gilbert 3, Col. Henry 2, Col. William 1—Tangier; or John 5, Charles 4, Job 3, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); and was Ens., 3d Southold Co., Sept. 4, 1775. (Mil. Ret., 26. 79)

He was b. on L. I.; and m. there, before the War. Later, he lived at Saratoga, N. Y. With his son, Alexander, he was a Prisoner in N. Y. City. ("Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 540)

SMITH JOHN, CORP. ()—From Queens Co. He was known as "Rock John." He signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9) He served, as Corp. and private, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 19, 27, 28)

SMITH JOHN ()—From Westchester Co., N. Y., to Hartford, probably. He is so described by Frederick Bassett, a fellow Refugee from N. Y. City. (E. 17) He may have served in the 2d, 3d or 4th Westchester. (G. 78, 79, 80)

John Smith

SMITH JOSEPH 4 (Joseph 3, Job 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull; or son of Joseph 4)—On Nov. 12, 1777, at Middletown, he receipted for the claim of Capt. Zebulon Stow. (C. 144)

Col. Drake's Provisional Regt., which had many recruits from L. I., contained a man of this name (G. 10); and many of the name served in Conn. (G. 98) The name appeared in the 1st, 2d, 4th, 5th and Art'y of the Line. (G. 43, 44, 48, 49, 51) Those who thus served, outside of L. I., may have been two or more, of the following:

Joseph, of Queens Co. He signed the Association, in 1776 (H. 6); wherein it is stated that he belonged to Capt. Stephen Thorne's Co. He was in the one-fourth part of Capt. Philip Valentine's Co., drafted, July 25, 1776. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co. 2d Ser.," p. 6)

Joseph, of Smithtown, served in the Smithtown and Huntington Co., Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 32) Smithtown Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 48)

Joseph, of Huntington, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in the Huntington Co., Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 34) He, instead of the Joseph next above, may have served in the Smithtown and Huntington Co., same Regt. (G. 32)

Joseph, not identified as to residence, served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7)

A Joseph, was in the Privateer service. (Page 218)

A Joseph, "Late of Huntington, L. I.," m. Apr. 18, 1779, Hannah Whitney. (St. Johns Ch. Rec., Stamford, Conn.) A second, m. Apr. 6, 1785, Catharine Havens; and a third, July 2, 1798, Hannah Simonson. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

SMITH JOSHUA 4 (Daniel 3, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull)—From Brookhaven to Middletown, where he was on Apr. 27, 1780. (F. 124) No Military service, under this name, appears on L. I.; but there was considerable from the vicinity of Middletown, Conn. (G. 98) Men of this name served in the 2d, 6th and Minute Men of Dutchess (G. 64, 68, 70); and in the 4th Westchester. (G. 80)

As Abner, the Refugee above, also served in several of these Regts. along with Joshua, it is possible that they were related. Abner being from Smithtown, it is probable that the crediting of Joshua to Brookhaven was a mistake; and that he should have been credited to Smithtown. This theory is confirmed by the fact that no Joshua appears among the Associators, or in the Census, of Brookhaven; while both of these items appear as to Joshua, of Smithtown.

Assuming, then, that he was from Smithtown, he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32) Smithtown Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 48)

A Joshua, m. Oct. 19, 1793, Ruth Smith; and another, Aug. 20, 1795, Rebecca Willets. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

SMITH JOSIAH 4, COL. (Nathaniel 3, Richard 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull; brother of Dr. William, below)—From Moriches to New London; where he was from Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778. (F. 110) His papers were in my father's house when I was a boy; and they showed that his place was overrun by the British and Tory marauders, and he and his family went to Conn. (Mr. Robert S. Pelletreau)

He was on the Committee of Moriches to raise the 1st Regt., in 1775. (G. 1) On Feb. 20, 1776, he was appointed Col. of a Regiment of Minute Men; and, on July 20, he was appointed Col. of Troops to be raised by draft on Nassau (Long) Island. (Jour. Prov'l Cong. Also A. 4) Parts of three Regts. were merged into his Regt. (Pages 88-90) His activity before the Battle of L. I., Aug. 27, 1776, is shown in his Diary, July 23-Sept. 7, 1776. (G. 39. Also A. 1, 5) He was efficient during the Battle. (Pages 40-42. Also H. 36) Nor was he less active after the Battle. (A. 11, 13, 14, 23) On Aug. 28, he was ordered to help Gen. Woodhull destroy the grain and the stock. (Page 30. Also A. 11, 12) On Aug. 29, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. that he had orders to march his Regt. to N. Y. City; but the Regt. was scattered. On Sept. 3, the N. Y. Committee of Safety ordered Gen. George Clinton to detain as many as possible of the Regt.; but, on Sept. 18, Gen. Clinton reported that none of the men had joined him. On Sept. 6, Lt. Col. Benjamin Birdsall wrote to the Prov'l Cong. that Col. Smith had not discharged any of his men because he hoped to make a stand on the E. end of L. I.; and that his men awaited further orders. (Page 173) On Oct. 5, the N. Y. Prov'l Convention had already ordered Col. Smith's Regt. to join Gen. Clinton at Kings Bridge; but only a few had reported, as Col. Smith was on L. I., and his men were dispersed. Gen. Clinton then ordered Col. Henry B. Livingston to gather all such men into his detachment, and to rendezvous at New Haven, Conn. (Pages 90, 174) On Nov. 8, the N. Y. Committee of Safety provided pay for those of Col. Smith's Regt. who were outside the territory possessed by the enemy. (Pages 90, 174. Also A. 19) On Jan. 22, 1777, the same Committee authorized Oaths for those on the pay rolls of the Regt. (Page 90) Many men of his Regt. joined the 3d and 4th of the Line. (G. 45-48) The complete Muster Rolls of his Regt. will be found in Ap. G. 4-6, 11-38.

He was taken from his house, at Moriches, and put in the Provost Prison, in N. Y. City. An interesting incident is told in the biography of Rev. Joshua Hartt. (Page 387) His dau., Hannah, made such efforts for his release that a cold was brought on, resulting in deafness from which she never recovered. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 92)

He was Treas'r of the Suffolk Co. Committee, in 1776 (Jour. Prov'l Cong.); and Treas'r of Suffolk Co. from 1764 until his death. (Bayles' "Suffolk Co.")

A Samuel, from Huntington, signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 29); and another, from Queens Co., signed, in 1776. (H. 7, 9)

Men of this name were m., as follows: Jan. 10, 1786, to Patience Havens; Mar. 16, 1793, to Paninah Buccannon; Feb. 20, 1796, to Phebe Wheeler; Jan. 10, 1797, to Susannah Udle. (Smithtown Ch. Rec)

SMITH SYLVESTER ()—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 27); and possibly in the 2d Dutchess (G. 64); and in Conn. (G. 98) The service under the name of Smyth, in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7), may have been his.

SMITH URIAH, LT. ()—From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 27) He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); was chosen Lt., Aug. 29, 1775 (Mil. Ret., 26. 63); and served in Conn. (G. 98)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 51)

SMITH WILLIAM 3, JUDGE (Maj. William Henry 2, Col. William 1—Tangier)—Of St. George's Manor. He was Chairman of the Suffolk Co. Committee, in 1775-6 (Page 130. Also A. 50, 51); and also Chairman of the Committee to form the 1st Regt., Oct. 24, 1775. (G. 1) As Chairman of the Co. Committee, on Aug. 22, 1775, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. that his Committee had met for the purpose of protecting the stock on Gardiner's Island and Plum Island; that the Ministerial Fleet had threatened to take the stock from L. I.; and that great danger to property would follow if Gen. Wooster's Troops were taken away. (Page 28. Also proceedings Prov'l Cong. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 197) In Jan., 1776, also as Chairman, he certified to the organization of an Art'y Company in Col. Smith's Regt. (Page 90. Also G. 4) On May 15, he wrote to the Prov'l Cong. that the Tories supplied the British ships with water and provisions. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On Aug. 27, 1776, he was appointed on a Committee of the Cong. to sell the cattle on L. I. and Shelter Island. (A. 10) He was a witness to the signing of the Associations, in 1775. (H. 26)

During the War he was a frequent, and valued, correspondent of Gov. Clinton. (Clinton Pap.) While a Delegate to the 4th Prov'l Cong., or Convention, on May 3, 1777, he was elected to the Council of Safety; but he was excused on the ground that his family would be annoyed, and his estate confiscated, if he served. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) Onderdonk, in one of his "Scrap Books," states that Judge Smith was at Lloyd's Neck; but had left just before Maj. Tallmadge attacked it.

He was a Delegate to the 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses—1776-7 (A. 58, 59); Senator, in the N. Y. State Legislature, from the Southern Dist., 1777-1783 (B. 43-48); and Treas'r of Suffolk Co. 1802-1803. (Civil List) He was also County Judge and County Clerk for several years.

Judge William was not a Refugee. During the War, what time he was not at his home he spent at Esopus, or Kingston, with his friend Judge Zephaniah Platt; whose daughter, Hannah, was the second wife of his son Gen. John Smith. Tradition states that Judge William had 100 slaves, and that there was work enough for all on his great estate. It was his custom to plant an orchard in the corner of every lot, as soon as it was cleared. He kept a large quantity of land under cultivation. His surplus stock was sold. We have his account books; which give interesting information as to the prices of grain, cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry and eggs—the latter, 3d. a dozen. (Miss Martha T. Smith)

Census of 1776, in St. George's Manor: Males—above 50 years, 1, above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 50) He was b. in 1720; d. Mar. 7, 1799. He m. DR. WILLIAM SMITH—HEADQUARTERS OF LORD ERSKINE—SOUTHAMPTON, L. I.

(Loaned by Mr. William S. Pelletreau)

SMITH WILLIAM 4 (Timothy 3, Job 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull; or Obediah 3, Samuel 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull)—Probably from Southold; as his associates in Col. Smith's Regt. were from that Town. (G 7, 36) He served in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48) He was on the Southold Committee, in 1775.

THE DR. WILLIAM SMITH HOUSE TODAY—RESIDENCE OF MR. WILLIAM S. PELLETREAU

(See Page 571)

Several muskets were taken from him, in 1776. (Page 104) He probably served in Conn., also. (G. 98) One of the name was a pensioner in 1833, age 78. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 429)

If he was from Brookhaven, he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 19, 20) If from Islip, he signed. (H. 30) Islip Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2, under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A 47)

A William, m. May 29, 1779, Phebe Conkling. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

SOPER—Members of this Family were owners at Crab Meadow, in 1753. (Huntington Town Rec.) Amos, m. Bethia Foster. His will, probated in 1779, names children, including Jesse, below. (Same Rec.)

SOPER GILBERT (Son of William)—From Smithtown or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); also in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10)

He was b. Oct. 27, 1727. (Huntington Town Rec., 2. 357, 358)

SOPER JESSE (Son of Amos, above)—From Smithtown or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt., as private and Corp. (G. 7, 32); also, as a private, in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10)

He was probably b. in 1741. (Huntington Town Rec.)

SQUIRE—Howell ("Southampton," pp. 387, 388) mentions a John 1 Squires who was quite early in East Hampton; who m. Anna, dau. of William 1 Edwards. He assumes that George 2, m. Jane Edwards, was son of John 1. On this theory he gives, among others, these children to George 2: Recompence 3, m. Elizabeth Parsons, and had John 4, bapt. in 1739; John 3, whose son John 4, bapt. in 1715, and another John, bapt. in 1739; Thomas 3, bapt. in 1705, m. May 26, 1726, Rachel Ludlum, and removed to Elizabethtown, N. J. Hedges ("East Hampton," p. 335) outlines Howell, as above.

Another origin of the Family is advanced by Dr. Charles L. Squire, of Elmira, N. Y., who is preparing a Gen. He states that George, who d. at Fairfield, Conn., in 1691, speaks of his grandson, the above George 2, in his will, (John 1) "as for four years formerly, very weakly; ageually; very much more troublesome and chargable than otherwise he might have been to me, yet etc." Thomas 3, above, was a son of George 2 who m. Jane, a niece of Ann Edwards, in 1701. He also states that Thomas 3 d. Feb. 14, 1778; m. Rachel Ludlum, who was b. about 1700. Her line was Henry 3, Henry 2, William 1. (See Ludlum) Dr. Squire then proceeds: She was without doubt a grand dau. of the Dept. Gov. of Conn. Colony, in 1635, and compiler of the first Conn. Code, which was republished in Cambridge, in 1692. Ludlum being of the same name as the Regicide, and having some enemies in Conn., he was forced to leave Fairfield, removing with his family to Virginia and the family name changed to Ludlum. They afterward resided near E. Hampton, L. I., as early as 1660.

In his Pedigree Chart, Dr. Squire makes George, of Concord, Mass., and John, of Cambridge, Mass., the emigrant ancestors. George was b. in 1618; and had sons: George 1; Philip 1; and Serjt. Thomas 1. George 1, of Fairfield, Conn., b. about 1640; m. Ellen ———; d. Aug. 9, 1691. His son, John 2, of East Hampton, L. I., b. about 1660, m. Ann Edwards. John 2 had a son, George 3, of East Hampton, b. about 1680; m. Jane Edwards. George 3 had: Recompence 4, of East Hampton, b. about 1705, m. Elizabeth Parsons; and Thomas 4, also of East Hampton, b. about 1705, m. Rachel Ludlum. Serjt. Thomas 1, b. in 1643, d. in 1712, had a son, Thomas, Jr., 2; and a grandson, David 3, the father of David, Jr., 4, below. John 2, of East Hampton, L. I. (John 1, of Cambridge), was the ancestor of the L. I. branch. He was b. about 1659; m. Harriet Baker; d. before 1708. He had a son, John 3, of East Hampton, b. about 1694; a grandson, John 4, of East Hampton, b. about 1715, d. in 1758, and was father of John 5, of Sag Harbor, husband of Mrs. Margery Squire, below. Jonathan 5, brother of John 5, signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 28); but John 5 did not. It is probable that John 5 belonged in Squire Town, six miles from Southampton village. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

SQUIRE DAVID, JR., 4 (David 3, Thomas 2, Serjt. Thomas 1)—His name appears among the Refugees in the General Accounts of the Auditors (C. 4, No. 122); but there is no itemized claim. He served in Conn. (G. 98) A David Squire was Serjt. in a Co. stationed at Battery Pt., Fairfield Co., Mar. 21, 1778. (Records of the State of Conn., 2. 199)

He was b. at Woodbury, Conn., Sept. 17, 1736; m. Feb. 4, 1762, Rebecca 5, dau. of Thomas 4 and Rachel (Ludlum) Squire, above. (Dr. C. L. S.)

SQUIRE, JOHN 5 (Thomas 4, George 3, John 2, George 1; brother of Rebecca, above, and Mary, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, with five passengers and sheep, he was brought over by Capt. David Sayre. (C. 138) Same month, with goods and one passenger, he was brought over by Capt. William Warner. His claim was paid to his sister, Mary. (C. 143) After the War, he removed to Elizabethtown, N. J. (Dr. C. L. S.)

Probably he served in Conn. (G. 98); and he may have been the one who was appointed Comm'y in Fairfield Co., in Apr., 1780. (Records of the State of Conn., 2. 530)

He was b. in 1730, bapt. in 1739. He had: Mary 6, m. James Wade; John 6; Phebe 6, m. Webb; Caleb 6; Hannah 6; Daniel 6; and Jonathan 6. (Dr. C. L. S.) According to the Records of the Presbyterian Church at Westfield, N. J., they were bapt.: Daniel and Jonathan, Oct. 23, 1759; John, and some of his sisters, Oct. 5, 1760.

A John Squire, from Huntington, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) This John belonged to the Committee of Huntington. (Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 199) He was present, as Committeeman, at a meeting in Smithtown, Sept. 5, 1775, to nominate Field Officers of the 1st and 2d Regts. of Suffolk Co. (G. 1. Also Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 21) The Jour. of the Prov'l Cong. states that he was in Col. Smith's Regt.; but this does not appear in the Mil. Records.

SQUIRE MARGERIE, MRS.—From L. I. to Stratford. On Nov. 2, 1780, she was permitted to go to her husband on L. I. (F. 24)

She was a dau. of George and Sarah (Shaw) Cable; and b. Jan. 1, 1744 (?). About 1775, she m. John 5 (John 4, 3, 2, 1, of Cambridge) Squire, of Sag Harbor, L. I. He was b. in 1741; d. June 8, 1807. (Dr. C. L. S.) He d. June 2, 1807, aged 68. (Tombstone at Sag Harbor)

SQUIRE MARY 5 (Thomas 4, George 3, John 2, George 1; sister of Rebecca 5, above, and John 5, above—see John 5, above)—She m. Daniel Runyon, of Long Hills, N. J. (Dr. C. L. S.)

STANBROUGH—The first to Southampton, in 1644, was Josiah 1, who was at Lynn, Mass., in 1637. He m. (2) Alice, Wid. of Thomas Wheeler; d. at Sagg, in 1661. He had sons: Peregrine 2; and Josiah 2. Peregrine 2, b. in 1640; m. Dec. 15, 1664, Sarah James; d. Jan. 15, 1701-2. His sons were: John 3; and James 3, b. Oct. 28, 1679, m. Sarah Edwards. John 3, b. Dec. 11, 1665, had: Josiah 4, John 4, Peregrine 4 and Eleazer 4. Eleazer 4, of Sagg, b. in 1709, m. Mehitable ———. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 389, 390)

STANBROUGH ELISHA ()—From Southampton to Saybrook; whence, on Apr. 13, 1781, he petitioned for leave to return, stating that he had married in Saybrook. (E. 147) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

Rivington's "Gazette," of Jan. 3, 1778, stated that Selah Strong was captured and confined in the sugar house, in New York, "for surreptitious correspondence with the enemy." It is commonly reported in the family, that he was afterward confined on the Jersey Prison Ship. It is a family tradition, that his wife was in the habit of taking produce from the farm, to him on the ship, which she was enabled to do through the influence she had with some of the Tories. (Mr. Selah B. Strong)

He was a Delegate to the 1st, 2d and 3d Prov'l Congresses (A. 56-58); Senator from the Southern Dist., 1792-1800; Member of the Council of Appointment, 1794; First Judge of Suffolk Co., 1783-1793; and Treas'r of the Co., 1786-1802. (Civil List) As Treas'r, in 1790, he received to the N. Y.

TALLMADGE—TALMAGE—Howell ("Southampton," pp. 392-394) gives the ancestry of the more numerous branch, that of Southampton and East Hampton, which he starts with Thomas 1, of Boston, 1634; of Lynn, 1637-1639; and of Southampton, 1642. This branch spells the name, Talmage.

Thompson ("Long Island," 1. 424, 425 and 2. 461-463) also starts with Thomas 1, as above, in giving the ancestry of the Brookhaven branch which spells the name, Tallmadge. Thompson (1. 424) notes that Thomas 1 had a son, Thomas 2; and a grandson, Rev. Benjamin 3, of Brookhaven. But elsewhere (2. 461) he omits Thomas 2 and makes Rev. Benjamin 2, son of Thomas 1. Howell (p. 392) makes no mention of Rev. Benjamin as a son of Thomas 1. Thompson (1. 127) also makes these comments:

The first Recorder or Clerk of the place [Town of East Hampton] was Thomas Talmage, Jun.; and the Records of the Town, still extant in his hand-writing, are a beautiful specimen of chirography. He was the son of Enos Talmage, of New Haven, who, it is supposed, died here. Thomas Talmage, brother of Enos, made freemen of Boston, 1634, and Lynn, 1636, settled at Branford, whence he removed, and died at New Haven. Thomas, one of the descendants of Thomas Talmage Jun., accompanied his wife to England during the first part of the reign of Geo. I.; and being a gentleman of education, of polished manners, and a wit, was introduced to the King, by whose invitation he spent two weeks at Windsor. David, another descendant, died here in May, 1808, aged 78, and Stephen, great grandson of the first Thomas, died at Bridge Hampton, Sept. 25, 1842, aged 81.

MRS. MARY FLOYD TALLMADGE, WIFE OF COL. BENJ. TALLMADGE. MINIATURE ONCE OWNED BY THE LATE MARY FLOYD DELAFIELD, WIFE OF RT. REV. HENRY A. NEELY, OF MAINE

Benj Tallmadge

The "Tallmadge Genealogy" is a more reliable guide in what follows:

Thomas 1 came to Charlestown, Mass., in 1631; and went thence to Boston and Lynn. He was made a freeman, in 1634. A home lot was granted to him in Southampton, L. I., in 1642; and he was probably in East Hampton about 1650. It is probable that he d. in 1653. Among his children were: Capt. Thomas 2; and Robert 2.

Mr. James M. D. Dwight, of New Haven, Conn. (Hedges' "East Hampton," pp. 336-339) gives three brothers as the emigrant ancestors: William, settled in Boston, and left no descendants in the male line; Thomas, settled in Lynn, Mass., removed to Southampton, L. I., in 1642, and was the progenitor of the L. I. and N. J. branches; Robert, went to Southampton with Thomas, but removed to Conn., in 1643, and was the progenitor of the Conn. branch. This is followed by Mr. Henry D. White, of New Haven, who makes Robert, above, the emigrant ancestor in Conn. On the other hand, Mr. Cineus C. M. Tallmadge (Hedges, pp. 340-342) makes Capt. Thomas 2 and Robert 2, sons of Thomas 1; as given in the Tallmadge Gen.

Returning to the Tallmadge Gen.—Capt. Thomas 2 had a farm, at Lynn, in 1638. He was granted land at Southampton, in 1642. He was one of the founders of East Hampton, in 1649, where he d. in 1691. Hon. Henry P. Hedges ("East Hampton") states that he was the richest man in that Town. He had a son, Nathaniel 3, b. in 1643; m. Rebecca ———; also lived at East Hampton; d. Aug. 3, 1716. Among his children was John 4, b. in 1678; m. (1) Experience Miller, (2) Ann ———; d. Nov. 2, 1764. Among the 18 children of John 4 was Josiah 5, bapt., probably at East Hampton, Apr. 19, 1713; m. (1) Phebe Dibble, and removed to Branford, Conn.; m. (2) Hannah Williams; d. Oct. 22, 1792.

Robert 2 was in Boston, in 1640; and in Southampton, in 1644; d. in 1662. He m. Sarah Nash. His son, John 3, b. Sept. 11, 1654, m. Abigail Bishop; d. Apr. —, 1690. James 4, son of John 3, b. June 11, 1689; m. (1) in 1713, Hannah Harrison, (2) Mrs. Marcy Alling; d. in 1748.

Rev. Benjamin 5, son of James 4, b. Jan. 1, 1725; d. Feb. 5, 1786. He graduated at Yale College, in 1747. From 1752–1785, he was the Minister at Setauket, in Brookhaven. (H. 39. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I." p. 33)

COL. BENJAMIN TALLMADGE—LITCHFIELD, CONN.

(From "Historic Litchfield")

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 51) He m. (1) May 16, 1750, Susannah, dau. of Rev. John Smith, of White Plains, N. Y.; (2) Zipporah, dau. of Thomas 4, Strong, of Brookhaven. (See Strong) Beside his sons: Serjt. William 6, Col. Benjamin 6, John 6 and Samuel 6—the Refugees, below—he had: Isaac 6, b. Feb. 25, 1762. Another son, James 6, lived at Warren, Conn. He was a partner, in business, with his brother, Col. Benjamin. The John 6, above, may be intended for James 6. (Mrs. John A. Vanderpoel)

TALLMADGE BENJAMIN 6, COL. (Rev. Benjamin 5, James 4, John 3, Robert 2, Thomas 1; brother of John, below, Adj. Samuel, below, and Serjt. William, below)—From Brookhaven. Very full and interesting accounts of his life are given in his "Memoir," published by The Society of Sons of the Revolution in the State of N. Y.—1904; in "Chapter Sketches, Conn. Daughters of the American Revolution"—1901, pp. 256–278; and in "Historic Litchfield"—1907, by Miss Alice T. Bulkeley. Only an outline can be given here. The portrait is from the original sketch, drawn by Col. John Trumbull. It was presented to Mr. Frederick A. Tallmadge by Col. Trumbull, in 1848.

After graduating from Yale College, in 1773, he taught School at Wethersfield, Conn.; whence he responded to the Lexington Alarm, in 1775. He was Lt. and Adj. in Col. John Chester's Regt.; and, in 1776, was at the Battle of L. I., and in the operations about White Plains. In Dec., of that year, he received, from Gen. Washington, a commission as Capt. in Col. Elisha Sheldon's 2d Regt. of Light Dragoons, in the Continental service. He became Maj. of the Regt., in 1777. Although he took part in the Battles of Trenton, Princeton and Monmouth, yet his later, and chief, service was among the Highlands of the Hudson, and along the shores of L. I. Sound. He felt a justifiable pride in the appearance of his Troop, with their dapple-gray mounts, their black straps and their bear-skin holsters. With this equipment he made his headquarters at North Castle, just over the Conn. line, in Westchester Co., N. Y. From this strategic point, he was ready to move West to the Highlands, or South to L. I. Sound. (Pages 196, 197) His attacks on Lloyd's Neck, Ft. St. George and Ft. Slongo—all on L. I.—showed his enterprise.

BAPTISMAL BOWL—MARY FLOYD

(Pages 232-238) The unfortunate Maj. André remained under his charge until the execution; and the "Memoir" contains Col. Tallmadge's pathetic story of his Prisoner. The watch of Col. Tallmadge, which timed the execution, is now at Fraunces' Tavern, N. Y. City, the property of the Sons of the Revolution.

He enjoyed the confidence of Washington, who appointed him a secret agent. His activities in that line did not cease to annoy Sir Henry Clinton. (Page 92. Also H. 35, 38) He had an exciting adventure with a Capt. who was smuggling. (Pages 210, 212) In 1781, he certified as to the character of Abraham C. Woodhull, a Refugee from L. I. (E. 126) At the close of the War, he was given the rank of Col. His remarkable description of Washington bidding farewell to his Officers at Fraunces' Tavern is given on pp. 96-98 of the "Memoir." That description is read on Dec. 4, in the same place, at the Annual Meetings of the Sons of the Revolution. (Page 182) He was one of the incorporators of the Society of the Cincinnati, its first Treasurer, and afterward the President of the Conn. Society. His Military record, in general, may be found in the "Year Book—1909—Sons of the Rev'n, State of N. Y.," p. 660. His record in Conn. is in G. 99.

On his return to Brookhaven, a great reception awaited him. He soon removed to Litchfield, Conn.; where he bought, and occupied, a house which had been built by Thomas Sheldon. To this house came many prominent men, including LaFayette. Col. Tallmadge followed commercial pursuits for the rest of his life. He was President of a Bank, in Litchfield; and the first Postmaster. From 1801 to 1817, he was a Member of the U. S. Cong.

He was b. at Brookhaven, Feb. 25, 1754; d. at Litchfield, Mar. 7, 1835. He m. (1) Mar. 18, 1784, Mary, dau. of Col. William Floyd. (See Floyd) She was b. about 1764; d. June 3, 1805, in her 42d year. He m. (2) May 3, 1808, Maria, dau. of Joseph Hallett, who was a Member of the Committee of 51, in N. Y. City, in 1774. (H. 1) His Wid., Maria, d. Sept. 18, 1838.

Mr. Henry D. White states that Col. Benjamin m. (1) on Mar. 16, 1784; and that his wife, Mary Floyd, was b. May 6, 1764.

His children were: Col. William Smith 7, b. Oct. 20, 1785, was Lt. Col. in the War of 1812, not m., d. Aug. 18, 1822; Henry Floyd 7, below; Maria Jones 7, b. Mar. 25, 1790, m. Hon. John P. Cushman, of Troy, N. Y., had six Henry Floyd 7, b. June 11, 1787; m. Maria C. Adams; d. July 8, 1854. His children were: Mary Floyd 8; Cornelia 8; Benjamin H. 8, b. Mar. 29, 1816, not m., d. in 1862; Montgomery 8, b. Nov. 19, 1818, m. Nancy A. Eastman and had nine children, d. ———; Henry 8, b. about 1824, d. 1842-3.

Frederick Augustus 7, b. Sept. 10, 1794; m. Eliza Canfield; d. Sept. 17, 1869. He graduated at Yale, in 1811; practised law in N. Y. City; was Recorder, 1841-1846, and a Member of the U. S. Cong. He served in the War of 1812. His children were: Eliza Canfield 8, below; Julia F. 8, b. July 5, 1818, m. William Curtis Noyes and had three children, one of whom, Emily Caroline 9, m. John A. Vanderpoel and occupies the old homestead of Col. Benjamin Tallmadge, at Litchfield; William P. 8, b. Nov. 28, 1820, probably not m.; Frederick Samuel 8, below; Mary Floyd 8, b. May 26, 1831, m. Judge Edward Seymour.

Eliza Canfield 8, b. Aug. 1, 1816; m. John Parker White, of Philadelphia; d. Apr. 25, 1897. They had eight children, of whom Cora Elizabeth White 9, m. Henry R. Towne, of N. Y. City. They had two sons: John Henry Towne 10, m. Nora Swenson, and had a dau., Elinor; and Frederick Tallmadge Towne 10, of Stamford, Conn., who m. Constance Gibbons. He d. in 1906, leaving sons Meredith 11 and Frederick Tallmadge 11. The former is owner of the original sketch of Col. Benjamin Tallmadge, by Trumbull (Page 586); and, also, of the silver baptismal bowl used at the christening of Col. Benjamin's wife, Mary Floyd. (Page 588)

Frederick Samuel 8, b. Jan. 24, 1822; m. Julia Belden; d. July —, 1904. He graduated at Columbia, in 1845, and practised law in N. Y. City. He left a valuable legacy to the N. Y. Sons of the Rev'n, by which means Fraunces' Tavern, in N. Y. City, was purchased and restored to its original condition. A brief history of the Tavern is given on Page 182. Its former appearance and its present appearance are shown on Page 183. He had a son, Arthur Floyd 9, b. Feb. 19, 1860; d. July —, 1874.

MONUMENT, COL. BENJAMIN TALLMADGE — LITCHFIELD, CONN.

George Washington 7, b. Sept. 13, 1803; m. Laura Pease; d. Sept. 8, 1835. He lived at Tallmadge, O. His children were: Laura P. 8, b. Sept. 3, 1825, d. Mar. 26, 1832; George Washington 8, b. about 1828; Lt. Henry A. 8, b. Dec. 12, 1830, not m., served in the Civil War, d. Mar. 12, 1869, at Warren, O. (Tallmadge Gen.) Many of his descendants live in Ohio.

TALLMADGE JOHN 6 (Rev. Benjamin 5, James 4, John 3, Robert 2, Thomas 1; brother of Col. Benjamin, above, Adj. Samuel, below, and Serjt. William, below)—From Brookhaven. He served in the 1st and 4th of the Line (G. 43, 48); and probably in Conn., also. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19)

He was b. Sept. 19, 1759; d. Feb. 24, 1823. (Tallmadge Gen.)

TALLMADGE LOIS 5 (David 4, John 3, Capt. Thomas 2, Thomas 1)—From East Hampton to Stonington, in Sept., 1776, by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 204) She was of the Southampton and East Hampton branch; not of the Brookhaven branch, to which the other Refugees of the name belonged. Her father, David, bapt. in 1730; m. Lydia Pike; d. in 1808. She was bapt. in 1761. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 393)

Another Lois, 6 (Josiah 5, John 4, Nathaniel 3, Capt. Thomas 2, Thomas 1), b. at Branford, Conn., in 1753; m. Benjamin Hitchcock. She lived and d. at Waterbury, Conn. (Tallmadge Gen.)

TALLMADGE SAMUEL 6, ADJT. (Rev. Benjamin 5, James 4, John 3, Robert 2, Thomas 1; brother of Col. Benjamin, above, John, above, and Serjt. William, below)—From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 26, 27) He was a private, a Serjt., an Ens. and an Adjt., in the 4th Line, and a member of Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 47, 48); also a Lt. in the 2d Line. (G. 44. See also "The N. Y. State Cincinnati," of which he was a Member) He was probably a pensioner in Conn. (G. 99)

He was b. Nov. 23, 1755; m. July 3, 1783, Mary Hilton; d. Apr. 1, 1825. He lived at Rhinebeck and Charleston, N. Y., after the War. His children were: Mary 7, b. Aug. 3, 1784, not m., d. Samuel Tallmadge

TALLMADGE WILLIAM 6, SERJT. (Rev. Benjamin 5, James 4, John 3, Robert 2, Thomas 1; brother of Col. Benjamin, above, John, above, and Adjt. Samuel, above)—From Brookhaven. He was in the siege of Boston, in 1775-1776; and was in Lord Stirling's command at the Battle of L. I., where he was captured. Apparently his Military record was from Conn. (G. 99)

He was b. Oct. 17, 1752—the eldest son of Rev. Benjamin. He d. in a British Prison, in 1776. (Tallmadge's "Memoir")

TANNER—It is supposed that the ancestors of our line, originally of West Eng. or Wales, migrated to R. I., about 1640-50. About a Century later, they began to migrate into Conn. and N. Y. The first definitely known ancestor of my family was Thomas Tanner, Sr., b. in R. I., 1705-10. He moved to Cornwall, Conn., in 1740, and had: William, below; Mehitable; Hannah; and Thomas, Jr. The latter had an excellent record in the French War and in the Rev'y War. William, from whom our immediate line is descended, was b. in 1729, in R. I., and settled later in Cornwall, Conn. He d. in 1765. He had: Consider; Tryal; Ephraim; Ebenezer; William (supposed to have settled in Hillsdale, Columbia Co., N. Y.); and Joseph. Ephraim m. Huldah Munson, of Vt., and settled in Warren, Conn. His children were: Marvin; Cyrus; Lydia; Lucy (mother of Dr. Julian Sturtevant, late Pres't of Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill.); Patty; Lucinda; Maranda; and Joseph Allen. The last mentioned married Ora Swift. Their youngest child was Edward A. Tanner, late Pres't of Illinois College, who was my father. (Mr. Frederick C. Tanner)

TANNER WILLIAM ()—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

TAYLOR GEORGE—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1728. (G. 37)

TAYLOR NATHANIEL—From Smithtown. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and probably in Conn. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 48)

A Nathaniel, m. Sept. 5, 1775, Hannah Smith. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

TAYLOR WILLIAM—From Smithtown, or Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); and probably in Conn. (G. 99) He was on the Privateer "Trumbull." (Page 218)

A William, m. Nov., 1780, Hannah Bryant. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

A William, m. Elizabeth 3 (Job, 1st, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull) Smith. (See Smith)

TERRY—According to Moore ("Index," pp. 39, 40), the original arrivals on L. I. were the brothers Thomas 1 and Richard 1, who came from Eng. in the "James," in 1635.

Thomas 1, b. in 1607; d. in 1672. He was in Queens Co., in 1661; and at Southold, from 1662. Among his sons were: Daniel 2, and Thomas 2. Daniel 2 m. Sarah ———; d. Nov. 10, 1706. Among his sons was Samuel 3, m. Naomi Dickerson, in 1715-6; d. in 1762. Thomas 2, m. (1) Eliza ———; (2), perhaps, Eleanor, Wid. of George Havens; d., probably, Mar. 24, 1724. He had a son, Thomas 3, who m. Mehitable, dau. of Dea. Daniel Tuthill (See Tuthill); d. Jan. 17, 1740. His sons: Col. Thomas 4, below; and Jonathan 4, b. in 1713-4. (Moore, pp. 39, 40, 118, 119) Jonathan 4, m. Lydia, dau. of Dea. Daniel Tuthill (See Tuthill); whose dau., Dezhiah 5, m. James Griffin, the father of Augustus Griffin, the Historian. (See Griffin. Also Griffin's "Journal," pp. 116-124) Ruth 4, dau. of Thomas 3, m. Capt. David Wiggins. (See Wiggins)

Richard 1, b. in 1618; m. Abigail ———; d. in 1675-6. He was at Southold from 1640. Among his sons were: Gershom 2, and John 2. Gershom 2, b. in 1652; m. Deborah Wells; d. Mar. 14, 1724-5. His son, Richard 3, b. about 1683; m. (1) Martha, dau. of Nathaniel Paine, (2) in 1763, Martha Corey; d. Dec. 1, 1767. John 2, b. in 1662; m. Hannah, dau. of Nathaniel Moore; d. Apr. 27, 1733. (Moore, pp. 39, 117-120) Griffin (pp. 213-215) makes John 2 and John 3 a generation later. Martha, dau. of a John Terry, m. Peter Vail. (See Vail)

Moore errs as to the 2d m. of Richard 3, who was 80 years old at the time named for that m. The name of Martha is established by the will of her father, Nathaniel Paine. (Rev. J. E. Mallmann)

A number of Terrys came from Shelter Island to Moriches, L. I.; and perhaps one named Noah, who m. (1) Sally, dau. of Abraham Parker, of Shelter Island, Oct. 1, 1773; m. (2) Peggy, Wid. of Joseph Halstead; m. (3) Margaret, Wid. of ——— Fall. Noah Terry, b. Sept. —, 1747; d. at Southold, L. I., Oct. —, 1815, aged 68 years. He and his wife Margaret signed deeds in Orange Co., N. Y., whither he went, in 1790; and returned to L. I., in 1802, dying in his brother Thomas's house, in Southold. (Griffin's "Journal") Noah Terry had children: Phineas, the eldest, b. on Shelter Island; Sarah; Lydia; Lucretia; and Jasper, who m. Tinah Barthoff. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island") The house in which Phineas Terry lived in Orange Co. (near Westtown), N. Y., is still standing. Some of his descendants lived in Brooklyn, N. Y., and Montclair, N. J. Phineas m. Lydia, sister of Howell Reeve, and dau. of the Refugee, Joshua Reeve. (See Reeve)—(Mr. Robert M. Reeves)

TERRY ABIGAIL 4 and BETHIAH 4 (Samuel 3, Daniel 2, Thomas 1; evidently sisters)—From Southold to Durham; whence, on Sept. 27, 1780, they stated that they were "in the decline of life," and asked leave to return to L. I. with their furniture; which was granted. (E. 103)

Abigail Terry

Moore ("Index," p. 119) makes them daughters of Samuel 3 (as above); as also, the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 30. 248.

The Salmon Rec. states that a Bethiah m., Nov. 28, 1805, Joshua Overton (see Overton); and the Mattituck Ch. Rec. states that a Bethiah, m., Oct. 26, 1809, Benjamin Webb.

Bethiah Terry

TERRY JOHN 3 (John 2, Richard 1)—From Southold to Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, with seven passengers and effects, he was moved over by Capt. Wilmot Goldsmith. (G. 145) It is probable that he signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 13)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1698; m. Martha Petty; d. in 1785. He had sons: John 4, and Joseph 4. (Moore, p. 120)

The John, who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37) was a much younger man. He may have been John 4.

TERRY JOSHUA 4 (Richard 3, Gershom 2, Richard 1; brother of Richard, below)—From Southold to Lyme. On Sept. 10 and Oct. 1, 1776, with eight passengers and his effects, he was brought over by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 19) On Apr. 12, 1781, Capt. Jonathan Vail was permitted to bring from Southold to Conn. the family, goods etc., of Joshua Terry. (F. 36) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 10, 12); but one of these signatures may have been that of his son, Joshua, Jr. The latter, on Mar. 29, 1781, m. Catharine Conkling. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 55)

TERRY RICHARD 4 (Richard 3, Gershom 2, Richard 1; brother of Joshua, above)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, he and John Drake brought their effects to Guilford. (C. 44, 148) In Oct., same year, he transported himself, three passengers and effects (C. 146); and, in Sept. and Oct., same year, 11 passengers were brought to Guilford for him by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) On Mar. 23, 1790, his petition to the N. Y. State

TERRY—ORIENT, L. I.

(From "Youngs Genealogy")

Senate, relative to a claim against a forfeited estate, was granted. (B. 36) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 55)

An older Richard 4 (Samuel 3, Daniel 2, Thomas 1; brother of Abigail and Bethiah, above), may have been a signer of the Association. (H. 10, 12) He appears in the Census:

Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) It is possible that he was the Refugee.

Richard Terry

TERRY THOMAS 4, COL. (Thomas 3, 2, 1)—From Oyster Ponds, in Southold, to Saybrook. On July 22, 1776, by order of the Convention, Col. Smith sent an Express to him and Col. Mulford; and, on July 29, Col. Smith sent them money to pay the enlisted men. (G. 39) On Aug. 5, he mustered in the men of Lt. Joshua Youngs' Co. (G. 38) In Oct., 1776, with five passengers and effects, he was moved to Saybrook by Capts. James Wiggins and Peter Griffing. (C. 14) He was in Saybrook, in 1777. (A. 43)

He had been a Capt. in the Indian Wars. (Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 137) He was Col. of the 3d Regt. of Minute Men, Suffolk Co. (Page 88. Also G. 3, 8); and took part in the Battle of L. I. The private of that name, in the same Regt., may have been his own enlistment. (G. 8)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 3; under 16, 4. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1726; m. (1) Juliana Wiggins (?), (2) in 1752, Abigail, dau. of Constant and Abigail Havens, and sister of Dr. Jonathan Havens (See Havens); d. about 1777. His daughters were: Ruth 5, b. Dec. 2, 1752, m. Feb. 1, 1770, Daniel Tuthill (See Tuthill); Abigail 5, b. about 1753, m. (1) in 1777, Capt. Benjamin King, Jr., Tuthill and King were Refugees (See King), (2) Nov. 18, 1784, John Cleaves Terry, d. Mar. 5, 1823; Elizabeth 5, b. in 1761, m. Christopher Tuthill, Jr. (See Tuthill), d. Apr. 23, 1825; Mehitable 5, b. Sept. 21, 1764, m. in 1780, Richard Chadwick. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," pp. 242, 245) The Refugee, David Palmer, is stated to have been his son-in-law. (See Palmer) Palmer had sons: Samuel 5, and Capt. David 5. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 205, 224) The Diary of Rev. Ezra Horton states that Col. Thomas Terry d., at Saybrook, Conn., Dec. 7, 1776. For further information, see Ross' "Hist of L. I.," 2. 574.

THOMAS—The first of the name on L. I. was probably John 1, who appears in Brookhaven, in 1639; and on, to 1683. (Moore's "Index," p. 40)

In 1754, Rev. John 1 came from England, as Minister to Hempstead. (H. 39) His son, John 2, b. in 1705; m., in 1729, Abigail, dau. of John Sands. He removed to Westchester Co., N. Y., and became County Judge. In 1777, he was taken Prisoner, and confined in N. Y. City; where he d., the same year. He had children: John 3, Thomas 3, Margaret 3, Sybill 3, Gloriana 3 and Charity 3. John 3 m. Phebe Palmer, and had six children. Thomas 3 was Col. of the 2d Westchester. (G. 78) He m. Katherine, dau. of Nicoll Floyd (See Floyd), of Brookhaven. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 29, 30)

THOMAS JOHN, CAPT. He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He may have signed the Association, in 1775, from Huntington. (H. 29)

It is possible that he was the John 3, above (bro. of Col. Thomas 3), who m. Phebe Palmer.

THOMAS JOHN—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 25); in Capt. Roe's Co. (G. 48); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

A John, private in the 2d Line (G. 44), of Kinderhook, N. Y., was discharged as an invalid, Apr. 10, 1783. ("Archives of the State of N. Y., The Rev'n," p. 252)

THOMAS NATHANIEL P., MRS.—She was from Marshfield, Mass.; whither she went after her husband had gone to England. His estate had been confiscated. From Middletown, Oct. 14, 1782, she asked leave to go to L. I. for certain effects that had been sent to her by her husband. She was vouched for by her nephew, Sylvester Dering. (E. 172, 173)

THOMPSON—Rev. William, b. in 1697, came from Eng. to York, Me., in 1634; thence to Dorchester, Mass., in 1636; and afterward, to Va., as a Missionary. His son, John 1, came to Setauket, L. I., in 1656, being one of the original proprietors of Brookhaven. He m. Hannah, dau. of Jonathan, son of Elder William, Brewster. She was a sister of Rev. Nathaniel Brewster, afterward Minister at Setauket. Samuel 2, son of John 1, b. Mar. 4, 1668; m. in 1706, Hannah, dau. of Rev. Nathaniel Brewster; d. July 14, 1749. Among the children of Samuel 2 were: Jonathan 3, below; and Susanah 3, m. Thomas Strong. (See Strong. Also Brewster. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 2. pp. 425-428. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22, 33, 34 and 27. 1 et seq.)

THOMPSON JOHN—From Cow Neck. He signed the Association in 1775. (H. 18) He belonged to James Brown's crew; and was a Refugee, living at Stamford, Conn., in Dec., 1782. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 59)

THOMPSON JONATHAN 3 (Samuel 2, John 1; father of Dr. and Capt. Samuel, below)—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and perhaps in Conn. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18, 19, 20)

Port, under Monroe, 1819–1829. In 1840, he was Prest. of the Bank of the Manhattan Co. His son, David 6, b. in 1798; m. Sarah D., dau. of John Lion Gardiner, of Gardiner's Island, N. Y.; d. in 1872. He was an able financier. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 4. 540. Also Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

Rev. George L. Thompson writes of a Jonathan Thompson, of St. George's Manor, who, he thinks, was not the Refugee. This Jonathan was in the Battle of L. I.; and afterward re-enlisted in different Regts. to the end of the War. He m. Lorana, dau. of Garrardus 2 Drake. (See Drake) He had a son, Lewis Drake, of Chenango Co., N. Y.; a grandson, Lewis Drake, Jr., also of Chenango Co.; and a g. grandson, Rev. George L., the informant. Mrs. Lorana Drake Thompson, after the death of her husband, m. (2) John Halsey. She d. in 1847 at the home of her son, Lewis Drake. Forty of her father's descendants are now on the E. end of L. I.; 75 of her own descendants are in the Counties of Chenango, Madison, Erie and Steuben, State of N. Y.; and 25, in Wisconsin. (Rev. G. L. T.)

Jonathan Thompson

THOMPSON SAMUEL 4, DR. and CAPT. (Son of Jonathan 3, above)—From Brookhaven. He was on the Committee of Brookhaven. (H. 20) He was Capt. of the First Co. of that Town, Col. Floyd's Regt; and was on the Committee to organize the 1st Regt., Oct. 29, 1775. (G. 1. Also Mil. Ret., 26. 81, 84) In Feb., 1776, he sent to the Prov'l Cong. valuable surveys of the harbors of Setauket and Stony Brook. (Page 28. Also A. 1) He dismissed his Co. after the Battle of L. I. (Page 173) It is probable that he served in Conn. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19, 21) He also signed as Committeeman. (H. 20)

An older Samuel, from St. George's Manor, appears in the Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 50) Dr. Samuel, b. Oct. 2, 1738; d. Sept. 17, 1811. He practised medicine at Setauket. (Page 180) He m. (1) Jan. 7, 1781, Phebe, dau. of Jacob Satterly; (2) Mar. 10, 1795, Ruth, dau. of Timothy Smith. By the first marriage he had: Benjamin F. 5, below. By the second, he had: Mary Woodhull 5, b. Jan. 11, 1796, d. Dec. 28, 1834; and Samuel Ludlow 5, b. Mar. 5, 1799, m. Sophia, dau. of Col. Isaac Satterly.

Benjamin F. Thompson

Benjamin F. 5, the Historian, son of Dr. Samuel 4, b. May 15, 1784. He practised medicine; and, afterward, law. He m. June 12, 1810, Mary Howard, dau. of Rev. Zachariah Greene (See Greene), of Setauket. His children were: Henry R. 6, b. Mar. 17, 1813, d. Oct. 15, 1842; Mary G. 6, b. June 20, 1815; Harriet S. 6, b. Nov. 9, 1818, m. Jacob T. Vanderhoff; and Edward Z. 6, b. Sept. 2, 1821, m. Elizabeth Lush. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. pp. 430, 431) The residence of Benjamin F. 5 was owned and occupied by his half-brother, Samuel L., as late as 1856. (Mr. O. B. Ackerly) See Page 595.

Benjamin F. Thompson, in writing the above, modestly refers to himself as the author of the "History of Long Island." Its value is well known to historians. The first edition was published, in 1839; the second, in 1843. He also, omitted to mention that he was Surg. of Col. James Davis' Regt. of Brookhaven Militia in the War of 1812; and that he was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, in 1813. He d. Mar. 21, 1849; and was buried at Hempstead. An appreciative tribute is given in Griffin's "Journal," pp. 247-251. [F. G. M.]

THOMPSON WILLIAM ()—From Brookhaven to East Haddam. On Oct. 21, 1782, he was permitted to return with his family, clothing &c. (F. 75) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 18)

Another of the name, from Smithtown (A. 48), refused to sign the Association. (H. 32)

Men of this name served as follows: 1st Line, private and Corp. (G. 43); 2d Line (G. 44); 4th Line (G. 47, 48); 2d Art'y (G. 50); Dubois' Levies (G. 59); 1st, 2d and Ass'd Exempts, Orange (G. 72, 73, 76); and in Conn. (G. 99)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 50)

Rev. George L. Thompson thinks that William Thompson, the Refugee, was from Sag Harbor. He fled to Hadlyme and East Haddam with his father-in-law Garrardus 2 Drake. (See Drake) He was brought back to L. I. by Capt. Josiah Burnham. (F. 75) His wife was Martha Drake. (See Drake) The descendants state that the family history, back of William, has been lost.

THOMSON—One of the name, Thomas, came to Lynn, Mass., in 1635; thence to New London; and to Southampton, in 1642. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 439) He was one of the settlers of East Hampton, in 1649. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges)

THOMSON ZEBULON ()—From Southampton, E. Dist., probably Bridge Hampton, to Puttypough. In 1776, he was brought over by Capt. John Redpath. (C. 149) He sometimes, spelled his name, Thompson. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); in the 4th Line (G. 48); and in Conn. (G. 99)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54)

THORNEYCRAFT WRIGHT, SERJT.—Probably from Flushing. In 1782, he and Serjt. William Roe (Page 531) arrived at Oak Neck, L. I., under a Flag. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

TILLINGHAST JOSEPH, CAPT.—From Southold to Haddam. In Sept., 1776, with seven in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Charles Williams, James Wiggins and Samuel Shaler. He made oath to his claim, Feb. 19, 1777; but by Nov. 21, 1777, he was dead; and his Wid. (Phebe, below) authorized Capt. Samuel L'Homedieu to collect the claim, which he did. (C. 176) In Feb., 1777, he was allowed to go to L. I. for flax, wool, &c. (D. 44)

Joseph Tillinghast

One of his name, on June 10, 1772, had part in the destruction of the "Gaspee," near Newport, R. I.

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 52)

It is not yet explained why, if he was from Southold, the Ch. Recs. of East Hampton contain these entries:—1770, Capt. Tillinghast child d.; 1772, Thomas Tillinghast wife d.; 1775, Joseph Tillinghast son d.; 1777, Capt. Tillinghast d. September. Also the following, who were probably Capt. Joseph Tillinghast's children: 1784, Lydia, Polly and Puah Tillinghast, all adults, were bapt.; 1786, Thomas Tillinghast was bapt.; 1785, Stafford Tillinghast d.

I am unable to ascertain when this Family first put in an appearance at East Hampton. There is no way of telling whether the Capt. Tillinghast, mentioned in 1770, was the Capt. who died in 1777; or whether it was Joseph or Thomas. There is no record of any birth or marriage of either. The absence of any record of the birth, marriage or death of the three adults, Lydia, Polly and Puah, leads me to think that they all moved here about 1770. Another peculiarity is this, that nowhere in the Town Records is there any mention whatever of either of their names, either as land owners, office holders, or in any connection with Town affairs.

Tillness and Tillinghast are one and the same. I find in the Church Records of East Hampton the name spelled both ways. The Family residing in East Hampton, while they always write their name Tillinghast, in speaking of them we say Tillness. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

A Joseph Tillinghast d. in Southold; and his grandson, John R., now lives in that village. (Mr. John H. Boisseau)

TILLINGHAST PHEBE, WID. of CAPT. JOSEPH, above (q. v.)—From Southold to Haddam. On May 15, 1780, she petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for permission to return with her children, cattle and household goods; which was granted. She stated that her husband had d. since the removal to

Phebe Tillinghast

Haddam. (E. 69, 70) The petition is signed "Tillness." In this case it was probably written by some one else, as the accompanying name Cooper is signed "Cupper."

TILLOTSON—Samuel and Daniel were among the male heads of Families, in 1776. (Smithtown Rec.)

An Elizabeth Tillotson, m., Mar. 7, 1778, Platt Arthur, the Refugee. (See Arthur)

TILLOTSON DANIEL, LT.—From Smithtown. He was on the Committee to organize the 1st Regt., in 1775. (G. 1) He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); and probably in Conn. (G. 99) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 32)

He was b. May 6, 1744; d. June 23, 1803. His son, Moses, b. Aug. —, 1781; d. Oct. —, 1869. Both he and his wife are buried at North Salem,

TITUS—Robert Titus, son of Silius Titus, and first of the name in America, was b. in 1600; probably in Huntingdonshire, Eng. The family had lived in Huntingdonshire; and, later, removed to Hertfordshire, and had its seat at Bushey, at which place Col. Silas Titus, his father, and other members of the family lie buried in the Churchyard of St. James. Robert 1 is recorded as coming from St. Katherine's (probably the St. Katherine's "neare yea Tower of London," as this place is so described in the records of the passengers by other vessels leaving London in 1635). Robert 1 sailed from London for Boston in the "Hopewell," Apr. 3, 1635; with wife Hannah, and sons, John 2 and Edmund 2. He went thence to Brookline, Weymouth and Rehoboth—all in Mass. In 1654, he removed to Huntington, L. I. The settlement was on the West Neck, near Cold Spring Harbor. He was b. in 1600; d. about 1679. Among his children were: Abiel 2, and Content 2. Edmund 2, settled in Hempstead, about 1650. (Mr. Edmund D. Titus)

Abiel 2, b. at Weymouth Mar. 17, 1640; m. in 1672, Rebecca Scudder; d. in 1736-7. He became a landholder, in Huntington, in 1666. His children were: Mary 3, b. Mar. 12, 1673-4; Rebecca 3, b. Oct. 21, 1676; Abiel 3, b. Mar. 15, 1678-9; Henry 3, b. Mar. 6, 1681-2; John 3, b. Apr. 9, 1684; and Jonathan 3, b. in 1686. Mary 3, m. Jonas Williams, and had a son, Nathaniel, who was father of Mary, Elizabeth, Sarah, Nathaniel and Jonas Williams. Rebecca 3, m. John Bennett. Henry 3, m. Rachel Pugsley. (E. D. T.)

Abiel 3, m. (1) June 5, 1727, Mary, dau. of Samuel Smith; m. (2) Mar. 3, 1736, Elizabeth Wood; m. (3) Mar. 15, 1753, Irena, otherwise "Rene" or "Joanna," Satterly. Capt. John 3, m. (1) 1719-20, Sarah Platt, who d. Mar. 6, 1740; m. (2) Feb. 21, 1742-3, Martha (Oldfield) Hughins, of Hempstead. He was a Militia Capt.; wore a red uniform, and was commonly called "Capt. Jack." (E. D. T.)

Content 2, youngest son of Robert 1, b. at Weymouth, Mass., in 1643; removed to Huntington, L. I., with his father, in 1654; and, in 1672, removed to Newtown, L. I. In 1672, he m. Elizabeth, dau. of Rev. John Moore of Newtown. He is also credited with other marriages, one of which is noted as late as 1711. He had children: Robert 3, Silas 3, John 3, Timothy 3, Hannah 3, Phebe 3 and Abigail 3. He purchased, in 1672, the property of his father-in-law, where he resided for a time. In 1689, he occupied a house near the "Town House," then called "New." His house passed through many hands until 1905, when it was destroyed. He d. Jan. 17, 1730. (E. D. T.)

See also Page 254; wherein the name Abel should be Abiel.

TITUS BENJAMIN 4, ENS. (Abiel 3, 2, Robert 1; brother of Silas, below)—From Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Capt. Roe's Co., and in the 4th Line, but resigned. (G. 48) He was probably at Ft. Montgomery, Jan. 4, 1777, when his superior officers recommended him for 2d Lt. (A. 29) One of the name served as a private in the 2d, 3d, 4th and Ass'd Exempts of Westchester (G. 78, 79, 80, 81); and in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt., but d. Oct. 11, 1776. (G. 10)

He was b. in Huntington, in 1736-7; m. Aug. 6, 1751, Ruth Bryan; d. in N. Y. City. His will was probated, July 7, 1815. It mentions children: Diadema 5 and Bryan 5. It is elsewhere stated that he had three sons and one daughter. Bryan 5 lived in Catherine St., N. Y. City, from 1812 to about 1834. He was a grocer, 1824-1834. He probably lived in Pearl St. when he d., about 1836. (E. D. T.)

TITUS JACOB 5 (Zebulon 4, Capt. John 3, Abiel 2, Robert 1)—From Huntington. In the summer of 1780 he was captured on L. I. Sound. (F. 120)

He was b. Oct. 15, 1760; m. Nov. 12, 1783, Ruth Rogers (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); d. Mar. 11, 1832, aged 71. His wife, b. Nov. 29, 1759; d. Oct. 12, 1849, in her 90th year. (Tombstones at Huntington) His son, Zebulon 6, b. Sept. 30, 1786; m. Apr. 6, 1810, Mary Douglas; he d. Mar. 13, 1848. She was b. Dec. 17, 1793; d. Jan. 29, 1882. (E. D. T.)

Zebulon 6 had: Henry 7, Buel 7, Platt 7, Eliza 7, Ruth 7, Iantha 7, Susan 7 and Huldah 7. Susan 7, m. Alfred Underhill, and had two daughters: Bertha 8, m. Douglas Conklin; and Helen 8, m. William Downs, and had a son, Ross

TITUS JOHN 4 (Capt. John 3, Abiel 2, Robert 1; brother of Capt. Jonathan, below, and Ens. Joseph, below)—From Huntington. "He fought in skirmishes in the Rev'n, and left L. I. on account of the British occupation." (Quoted by E. D. T.) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in the 1st Line (G. 43); and in the 4th, and the Ass'd Exempts, of Westchester. (G. 80, 81)

He settled at North Salem, Westchester Co., N. Y.; taking part of the farm owned by Peter Benedict, a Tory, who went to Nova Scotia. His nephew, Ira 5, was a midshipman on the "Hornet", and was engaged in the famous fight of the "Hornet" with the "Peacock," and in a number of minor engagements, 1811-1816. (E. D. T.)

All the members of the Titus Family were on the Revolutionary side. Many of them served in the Armies, visiting their families at Huntington at night, crossing the sound with muffled oars. Some of them were drowned in attempts to escape the British press-gangs. John Titus 5 (John 4) and his son Thomas were drowned in this way. (E. D. T.)

TITUS JONATHAN 4, CAPT. (Capt. John 3, Abiel 2, Robert 1 brother; of John, above, and Ens. Joseph, below)—From Cold Spring, in Huntington. He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); and in Capt. Roe's Co., and in the 4th Line, where the name appears also as Lt. and as private. (G. 47, 48) In the 1st Line, he was commissioned as 2d Lt., in Nov., 1775; as 1st Lt., in July, 1776. In the 4th Line, as Capt., Nov. 21, 1776; retired, Jan. 1, 1781. ("Hist'l Reg. Officers of the Cont'l Army")

TOPPING—Savage ("Gen'l Dict.") states that Thomas 1 came from England to Wethersfield, Conn.; thence to Milford, in 1639; thence to Branford, where, in 1686, he deeded to his sons, Elnathan 2 and James 2, all of his lands at Southampton, L. I. Howell ("Southampton," p. 395) claims that Thomas 1 was in Southampton before he removed to Branford. Elnathan 2 appears in the Southampton Recs., in 1683. (Moore's "Index," p. 40) John was among the early settlers at Hempstead, L. I. (Chap. 16)

Thomas 1, m. (1) Emma, (2) Mary, (3) Lydia; d. in 1688. Among his children were: Capt. Elnathan 2, b. in 1640, m. Mary ———, d. in 1705; and John 2, b. in 1646, m. Deborah ———, d. in 1686. Capt. Elnathan 2 had sons: Elnathan 3, b. Aug. 20, 1664, m. Mary ———, d. Sept. —, 1751; Capt. Stephen 3, b. Sept. 24, 1679, m. (1) Hannah ———, (2) Wid. Matthews, d. in 1746. John 2 had a son, Capt. Josiah 3, b. in 1663, m. Hannah Sayre, d. in 1726. Capt. Stephen 3, had sons: Capt. Stephen 4, below; David 4, below; and Daniel 4, below. Capt. Josiah 3 had sons: Dea. Josiah 4, b. ———, m. (1) Mehitable ———, (2) Abigail ———, d. in 1747; John 4, b. in 1706, m. Sarah ———, d. in 1747. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 395-398)

TOPPING CHARLES 5 (Capt. Stephen 4, below, Capt. Stephen 3, Elnathan 2, Thomas 1; brother of Henry, below, and Paul, below)—From Bridge Hampton, to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was moved over by Capt. David Sayre (C. 138); also, same month, by Capts. Benjamin Haley and Hubbard Latham. His claim was paid to John Pain, Nov. 5, 1777. (C. 173) In the removal, he was evidently associated with his father, Capt. Stephen

Charles Topping

4. He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11, 33); also, the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1. under 16, 2. (A. 54)

TOPPING DANIEL 5, LT. (Daniel 4, below, Capt. Stephen 3, Capt. Elnathan 2, Thomas 1; brother of Joseph, below)—From Bridge Hampton. He was Lt. in the 4th Line (G. 48); Serjt. in the same (G. 47); and probably a private in the 2d, 3d and 4th of the Line. A number of British soldiers, with blackened faces and coats turned inside out, came at night to the house of Mr. Edward Topping. Mr. Topping was awakened by their noise; and, seizing his gun, ran to defend his castle from the intruders. A window was raised from the outside and a man appeared, about to make an entrance. Mr. Topping commanded him to retire, and threatened to shoot if he persisted. No attention was paid to his warning, however; and as the man was climbing in, he shot, and the soldier fell back dead. He was carried off by his comrades, and the next morning word was sent to Gen. Erskine at Southampton. He came over to Bridge Hampton, investigated the affair, and having learned the facts, said to the British soldiers around him: "Is that one of your best men? Dom him [kicking the body] take him down to the ocean and bury him below high water mark." And so ended the affair, which under Major Cochrane, might have had for Mr. Topping a more tragical termination. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 76)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54)

TOWNSEND—John 1, with several brothers, was one of the early emigrants to Boston. He was one of the first inhabitants of Flushing, L. I. He m. Elizabeth, dau. of Robert Coles. He removed to Oyster Bay; and d. about 1668. His son, John 2, had a son, James 3, whose son, Samuel 4, was b. in 1717, m. Sarah, dau. of William Stoddard. Samuel 4, had large shipping interests at Oyster Bay. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 343-353)

I believe no record has yet been found showing date and place of the first appearance of the three brothers, John, Henry and Richard Townsend in America. The "Memorial of Townsend Brothers," (p. 84 et seq.) shows that although John was in Flushing in 1645 he had been previously in the use and occupation of certain land at the "Fresh Water," Manhattan, for divers years; but, on account of the troubles with the Indians, was obliged to abandon it, and some time during the term of Gov. Andros petitioned for reclaim. This occupancy must have been in Kieft's or Stuyvesant's time. John Townsend's son, Thomas, was bapt. in the Dutch Church in 1642; but that does not locate his (then) local habitation. John Townsend m., as per "Townsend Memorial," Elizabeth Montgomery, ancestry undetermined. Robert Coles did not have any dau., Elizabeth. John 1, had descendants: Son John 2; James 3; Jacob 4, whose son, Samuel 5, b. in 1717, m. Sarah, dau. of William and Mary (Hicks) Stoddard. Samuel 5 had large shipping interests at Oyster Bay. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

John Townsend m. Jean Reddough, or Reddock, and had: Daniel 2, m. Freewest Dickinson; and John 2, b. in 1712, removed in 1738, to East Chester, Westchester Co., N. Y., where he bought a farm. In 1739, John 2 m. Anne Gedney. He was a Friend; but, his wife being an Episcopalian, he was disowned by the Meeting. He continued a Friend in principle; but contributed to the building of the Episcopal Church, in East Chester. He was a large man, being full six feet two, with a form in proportion. He had a double row of teeth all around. He d. in 1787, and was buried in the graveyard belonging to St. Pauls Church, East Chester. Issue: Freelove, John, James, Elijah, Daniel, Mary, Margaret and Martha. John joined the American Army of the Revolution; and, afterward, settled in Herkimer, in which County and Montgomery we have been told his descendants still reside. James went on board an armed vessel, and was never heard of afterward. ("Townsend Memorial," p. 137)

Henry Townsend 1, second of the three brothers, m. Ann, dau. of Robert and Mary (Hawxhurst) Coles, of R. I. He had a son, John (of the Mill) 2; who had a son, Micajah 3. The latter had a son, Dr. Platt, the Refugee, below. ("Townsend Memorial," p. 199. Also Munsell's "American Ancestry," 11. 52) John 2, known as "Mill John," m. (2) Esther, dau. of Abraham 3, Smith. (See Smith) The house, at Oyster Bay, probably built by his Wid., Esther, is still occupied by his descendants.

TOWNSEND JOHN (Perhaps son of John, of East Chester, above, who was b. in 1712)—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

TOWNSEND PLATT 4, DR. (Micajah 3, John 2, Henry 1)—From Queens Co. to Conn. In Oct., 1776, he was one of the Doctors appointed by the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. to examine candidates for Surg. or Surg. Mate in the Continental Army. (Page 180. Also Records, State of Conn., 1. 24) On June 9, 1777, a memorial from him was read before the N. Y. Council of Safety, asking that an arrangement be made with the Authorities of Conn. so that he could make salt from sea water. (Page 115. Also A. 42) He went to Otsego Co., N. Y., after the War; and on Feb. 3, 1796, a petition came to the N. Y. Ass'y from him and others in that County, asking for a tax on wild lands for the purpose of improving the roads. (Ass'y Jour.)

He was b. Aug. 4, 1733; d. at Walton, Delaware Co., N. Y., Oct. 14, 1816. He m. (1) Elizabeth Hubbard; m. (2) Martha Dickinson; m. (3) Ann Groslin. ("Townsend Memorial," p. 199)

He was in Stamford, Conn., in 1763, where he owned much land. He was of Greenwich, Conn., by a deed of 1777. He m. Elizabeth Hubbard; and had a dau., Elizabeth 5, b. in 1763. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 363) The marriage of Dr. Platt Townsend, of Oyster Bay, took place on Apr. 6, 1760. (St. John's Ch. Rec., Stamford)

TOWNSEND SOLOMON 6, CAPT. (Samuel 5, Jacob 4, James 3, John 2, 1—Although Thompson makes him: Solomon 5, Samuel 4, James 3, John 2, 1)—From Oyster Bay to Chester, Orange Co., N. Y. He was b. at Oyster Bay, in 1746. In his twentieth year he commanded a brig belonging to his father, Captain Samuel; was also commissioned by Dr. Franklin as a volunteer midshipman in the Cont'l Navy, and for this purpose he procured his necessary equipments in Paris. Being unable to visit his family at Oyster Bay, he went to the home of his cousin, Peter Townsend, at Chester. Peter Townsend was the proprietor of the celebrated Iron Works and estate of Stirling, a few miles from Chester. Steel was first made by him at the Stirling Works, and in the German manner, in 1776. He also made the first anchor manufactured in the State of New York, in 1773; and, at Stirling, was constructed, in Mar. and Apr., 1778, the immense chain which extended across the Hudson River to prevent the British ships from passing above West Point. The links of the chain weighed about 140 pounds each; and the whole, 160 tons. The chain was made and delivered in six weeks. (Pages 76, 77)

Captain Solomon Townsend, at the outbreak of the Revolution, found himself with his ship in Europe, unable to return to America. He sold his ship and obtained from Benjamin Franklin, our Minister in Paris, a commission as volunteer midshipman, and thus returned to the United States on a man-of-war. (Mr. Howard Townsend)

After an absence of seven years, Captain Townsend was enabled, by preconcert, to meet some of his family upon Shelter Island; but they soon separated under the apprehension they might never meet again. Returning to Chester, he m. Anne, eldest dau. of the said Peter, whom, in 1783, he brought with him to Oyster Bay, where the different members of his family were again assembled under his roof. He continued, nevertheless, to reside in N. Y. City, where he owned and superintended an extensive iron store. He also established a factory of bar iron on the Peconic River near Riverhead, L. I. This he carried on during his life. (Thompson's "Long Island")

He was a Member of the Constitutional Convention of 1801. He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, from N. Y. Co., 1804, 1805, and 1808, until his decease, Mar. 27, 1811. (Civil List. Also "Year Book, Sons of Rev'n State of N. Y.—1909," p. 673) His wife d. Apr. 26, 1823. (Hon. Julien T. Davies)

His children were: Hannah 7, below; Anne 7, m. Effingham Lawrence, first Judge of Queens Co., and an extensive practical farmer; Mary 7, m. Edward H. Nicoll, of N. Y. City; Phoebe 7, m. James Thorne, formerly of Albany; Solomon 7, in the last paragraph, below; and Peter S. 7, M. D., a man of ability in his profession, an author of reputation, and, in 1820, Health Commissioner of N. TREDWELL THOMAS 5, JUDGE (Timothy 4, Capt. Thomas 3, John 2, Edward 1)—From Smithtown. He signed the Association, in 1775-6. (H. 9, 32) In 1775, he was on the Committee of that Town, and also on the Committee to form the 1st Regt. (G. 1. Also Thompson's "Long Island," 1. 199) On Jan. 28, 1776, the Prov'l Cong. appointed him on a Committee to confer with Gen. Washington as to the stock on Nassau and Shelter Islands. (A. 2) He valued the arms and ammunition taken from Tories on L. I. by Cpts. John Davis and Nathaniel Platt, in Dec. 1776. (A. 22) On Jan. 17, 1777, the N. Y. Committee of Safety appointed him one of a Committee relative to property brought from L. I. to Conn. (A. 30) On Apr. 19, 1777, he receipted for the claim of Mrs. Margaret Chapin, a Refugee. (C. 17) He also receipted for other claims. (Page 183) On May 17, 1780

he wrote to Gov. Clinton vouching for the Refugee Joseph Hazard (his brother-in-law) and Henry Roscrow; and asked that liberty be given to them. (Clinton Pap., 5. 714, 715) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); in the latter case, acting as Clerk of Capt. Nathaniel Platt's Co. during its enlistment. (G. 32) As one of the signatures to the Association (H. 9) was in Queens Co., there may have been another Thomas.

He was a Member of the N. Y. Council of Safety, in 1777, and receipted for his pay (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 30. 65); Delegate to all four of the N. Y. Prov'l Congresses, 1775-1777 (Page 130. Also A. 56-59); Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1777-1783 (B. 43-48); and State Senator from the Southern Dist., 1786-1789. (Civil List) He was, also, Justice of the N. Y. Court of Probates, 1777-1787; Surrogate of Suffolk Co., 1787-1791; Member of the Convention of 1788 to adopt the Constitution of the U. S.; and Member of the U. S. Congress, 1791-1795. (Civil List)

From Smithtown he removed to N. Y. City; where he resided, 1784-1786. He was again in Smithtown, 1788-1790; and in Huntington, in 1792. In 1794, he removed to Plattsburgh, N. Y., where he settled on the West shore of Lake Champlain in a location known as Tredwell's Bay. (See Map on Page 69) He was State Senator from the Northern Dist., in 1804-1807 (Civil List); and Surrogate of Clinton Co. from 1807 until his death. (W. A. R., as above)

TREDWELL WILLIAM 5, DR. (Col. Benjamin 4, Capt. Thomas 3, John 2, Edward 1)—From Hempstead to Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y. On Apr. 8, 1780, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I., his brother [John] being lately [Dec. 11, 1779] deceased, and his father being sick. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1866, N. Y. Pub. Lib'y, p. 20) On Apr. 11, 1780, Henry Wisner wrote from Goshen to Gov. Clinton, favoring the petition, and stating that Tredwell was his neighbor. Col. Isaac Nicoll also wrote from Goshen, on the same date, stating that the brother of William Tredwell was dead and his father was infirm. He vouched for Tredwell's character. (Clinton Pap., 5. 604, 605) On Nov. 10, 1780, Wisner again wrote to the Gov. asking permission for Mrs. Tredwell to go to N. Y. City, and thence to L. I. (Clinton Pap., 6. 402, 403)

He was b. Dec. 11, 1747; m. Dec. 29, 1767, Sarah, dau. of Valentine Hewlett Peters; d. June 15, 1818. He is buried in St. Paul's Churchyard, in N. Y. City. He was a merchant in that City; and also a Physician. In the War of 1812, he served on the Frigate "Constitution."

His children were: James 6, M. D.; Capt. Henry 6; William 6; Sarah Peters 6; Benjamin 6; and Ann (or Nancy) Horsfield 6. James 6, M. D., b. July (Jan. ?) 15, 1768; d. Oct. 1, 1798. His dau., Susan Cornelia 7, m. Corn. Melancthon Taylor Woolsey. (See Woolsey) Capt. Henry 6, b. May 6, 1771; m. Sarah Hewlett; d. Mar. 21, 1813. Sarah Peters 6, m. Stephen Ball Munn. (W. A. R., as above, for later descendants. Also Peters Gen., p. 56, et seq.)

TRUMAN—This Family on L. I. is probably from Jonathan 1 who was at Oyster Ponds (now Orient) about 1760. Eleazer and Jonathan were living there, in 1775. (Griffin's "Journal") See also Page 254.

Eleazor 3 (Joseph 2, 1) is mentioned on Page 254. His son, Jonathan 4, b. Oct. 6, 1745; m. Ann MacGee. He had a son, Jonathan 5, b. Dec. 17, 1790; d. May 20, 1870—who was the last of the family in Orient. (Mrs. Henry S. Ackley) David and Francis, below, may have been sons of Eleazor 3, and brothers of Jonathan 4.

TRUMAN DAVID ()—He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

TRUMAN FRANCIS ()—From Southold to Conn. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with six in the family and his stock, he was moved over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177)

TURNER—Probably the Family on L. I. is from Daniel 1, described as of Southold. He m. Martha, dau. of Edward Hubbard. A deed to him, in Westchester Co., N. Y., is dated 1686. A John, was in that Co., in 1685. A Robert, witnessed the will of Richard Smith, at Smithtown, in 1718. A Samuel, of Southold, is mentioned, in 1698. He m. Rebecca Jarsey. (Moore's "Index," pp. 41, 121) Daniel 1 was one of the early settlers in Southold. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 47) Humphrey 1 was the emigrant ancestor of the New London, Conn., branch. His son, John 2, had a son, Ezekiel 3, who was in N. London by 1678. The latter had a son, Ezekiel 4; and grandsons, Elisha 5, and Thomas 5. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 346, 347)

TURNER HENRY ()—From Brookhaven. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 27) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 35); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

TUTHILL—Henry, of Tharston, Eng., m. Alice ———; d. in 1618. His son, John 1, b. in Eng., in 1607; appointed Constable at Southold, L. I., in 1642. Another son, Henry 1, b. in Eng., in 1612; m. Bridget ———, who afterward m. William Wells. He settled at Hingham, Mass., in 1637; removed to Southold, in 1644. (Southold Town Rec., 1. 217. Also Moore's "Index," pp. 41, 42) The descendants on L. I. are from Henry 1. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 30) Griffin ("Journal," pp. 15, 16, 21, and elsewhere) substitutes John 1 for Henry 1; and thus makes John 1 the ancestor. The following, down to the biography of Dea. Azariah 5, is from Moore's "Index" (pp. 121–125), unless otherwise stated.

Henry 1 had a son, John 2, b. in Eng., July 16, 1635; m. (1) Deliverance King, (2) Wid. Sarah Young, probably born Frost. (Frost Gen.) Three sons of John 2 were: John 3, Henry 3, and Dea. Daniel 3.

John 3, b. Feb. 14, 1658; m., about 1685, Mehitable Wells; d. Nov. 21, 1754. Among his children were: John 4; James 4; Joshua 4, b. in 1690, d. in 1782; and, perhaps, Daniel 4. John 4, b. in 1683, or 1688; m. Elizabeth, probably Brown, but perhaps dau. of Jonathan Horton; d. June 24, 1743.

Henry 3, b. in 1675; m. Bethia, dau. of Capt. Jonathan Horton; d. Jan. 4, 1750. Among his children were: Henry 4, b. in 1690, m. (1) Hannah, probably dau. of William 2 Booth and wife Hannah King, m. (2) Phebe Youngs, d. in 1775; and Bethia 4, m. Samuel Landon. (See Landon) Griffin ("Journal," p. 163) states that Phebe 4, dau. of Henry 3, m. Maj. Isaac Reeve. (See Reeve)

Dea. Daniel 3, b. Jan. 25, 1679; m. in 1705, Mehitable, dau. of Jonathan Horton (see Horton), and Wid. of Peter Bradley; d. Dec. 7, 1762. Among his children were: Mehitable 4, m. Thomas Terry (see Terry); Daniel 4; Patience 4, m. John 4 Havens (see Havens); Lydia 4, m. Jonathan Terry (see Terry); Nathaniel 4, m. Hannah 4, dau. of Samuel King (see King), who m. (2) Jonathan Rackett (see Rackett); and Noah 4, b. Mar. 13, 1714, m. Hannah Tuthill, d. May 18, 1766. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 293) Daniel 4, b. Jan. 15, 1712; m. Oct. 29, 1733, Mehitable, dau. of John Budd; d. Nov. 18, 1768. (See Wid. Mehitable, below)—(Miss Lucy D. Akerly. Also Southold Town Rec., 2. 51)

The Mehitable Horton who m. (2) Dea. Daniel 3, above, instead of being the Wid. of Peter Bradley was probably the Wid. of Christopher 3 Bradley. See Page 242. Also Addenda. (I. 16)

A Dea. Daniel Tuthill, d. Oct. 19, 1785. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

See also Capt. Peter Tuthill, Page 255.

TUTHILL AZARIAH 5, DEA. and LT. (Henry 4, 3, John 2, Henry 1; brother of Christopher, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with two in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94)

On Feb. 26, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., stating that his family had returned to L. I., and asking leave to go there after clothing, &c.; which was granted, under certain conditions. (E. 30, 31) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) On Aug. 31, 1778, he was recommended for Ens. by Lt. Col. Pierre Regnier, of the 4th Line. He was, at that time, Serjt. Maj. (Clinton Pap., 4. 4. Also G. 47) He served as Lt. in the 4th Line (G. 47, 48); in Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57); and in Willett's Levies. (1) Benjamin Moore, (2) John Young; Abraham 6, b. ———, m. Rebekah Taber. (Young's Gen., pp. 81, 82. Also Miss L. D. A.)

TUTHILL CHRISTOPHER, JR., 6 (Son of Christopher, above)—He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); also in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38)

He was b. in 1760; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Col. Thomas Terry (see Terry); d. Nov. 26, 1823. He had sons: William H. 7; and Joshua 7. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 245)

TUTHILL DANIEL 5 (Noah 4, Dea. Daniel 3, John 2, Henry 1)—From Southold to Saybrook. In Sept., 1776, his cattle were brought over by Capt. Zebulon Stow. Between him, and Maj. Nathaniel King (see King), there were 11 passengers. (C. 144) Afterward, they petitioned for leave to make several trips to L. I. for provisions. (F. 11) In Oct., 1776, his goods were brought over by Capt. Samuel Ingraham, Jr. (C. 191) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he asked leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) On Jan. 6, 1779, his claims were paid to James Wells. (C. 185) On Mar. 28, 1780, he was allowed to go to L. I. for provisions (D. 47); and, on Jan. 11, 1783, he was permitted to return with his family of six, his cattle, &c. (F. 91) One of the name served in Weissenfels' Levies. (G. 57) Several of the name signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12, 20) The latter was from Brookhaven.

The Census of 1776 gave two of the name from Southold, both over 50 years old. One had no family, beside his wife. The other, beside his wife, had two sons, and a dau. over 16 years old, and a son under 16. (A. 55) Assuming that the first named Daniel 5, son of Noah 4, was the Refugee, he was b. Mar. 13, 1747; m. Feb. 1, 1770, Ruth, dau. of Col. Thomas Terry (see Terry); d. July 17, 1830. His children were: Noah 6, b. in 1770, m. Daniel Tuthill

On Mar. 31, 1775, Daniel Tuthill, of Jamaica, was elected a Deputy to the Prov'l Cong. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," pp. 22-24) According to Griffin ("Journal," p. 164) this was Daniel 5, who had a son James 6, whose son was Judge William H. 7, of Tipton, Iowa.

There is said to have been a Daniel, of Southold, who had sons: John, b. in 1790; Daniel, b. in 1795; Russell; and Silas. He removed to Tuthill Prairie, Ill. A Daniel, m. Dec. 13, 1780, Ruth Wickes. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.) A Daniel 5 (John 4, 3, Henry 2, 1), d. Nov. —, 1785. (Miss L. D. A.)

TUTHILL DAVID ()—He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); and probably in Conn. (G. 99) He served on the Privateer, "The Confederacy." (Page 218)

He was b. about 1756. (G. 38)

TUTHILL DUNCAN ()—In 1776, one passenger and goods, he was brought from L. I. to Conn. by Capt. Jacob Riley. (C. 131)

TUTHILL ELIZABETH ()—She may have been a pensioner in Conn. (G. 99)

Perhaps Elizabeth 6 (John 5, 4, 3, Henry 2, 1), of Southold. (Miss L. D. A.) Or, Elizabeth, wife of Peter. (Southold Town Rec., printed, C. 66)

TUTHILL JOHN 5, ADJT. (John 4, 3, 2, Henry 1; brother of Jonathan, below, and Samuel, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with seven in the family, he was brought over by Capt. Jasper Griffing (C. 59); also, same year, by Capts. Jonathan Vail, John Ingraham, John Russell and Noah Lester. (C. 152, 186) On Mar. 7, 1777, he was allowed to transport from Conn. to N. Y. rum and sugar for the Cont'l Army. (D. 5)

John Tuthill

A John Tuthill was Adj. in the 4th Line (G. 48); Lt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 38), and in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); Fire-Worker in Col. Smith's Art'y (G. 5); and private in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30, 37), in Weissenfels' Levies (G. 57), and in the 1st and 4th Orange. (G. 72, 75)

The name appears twice among the signers of the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 13) The name appears four times in the Census of 1776, for Southold, three being over 50 years old. (A. 55) One appears in the Census for Southampton, W. Dist., he being under 50 years old. (A. 53) One of the privates in Col. Smith's Regt. was 21 years old (G. 30); and another, was 46 (G. 37), in 1776. Therefore, the first was b. about 1755; the second, about 1730.

The Mattituck Ch. Recs. show these baptisms of children of John and Patience: John and Noah, Feb. 12, 1769; Mary, Sept. 24, 1769; Beulah, Aug. 30, 1772; Jesse, June 26, 1774. Marriages: John, Jr., July 16, 1781, to Jemima Rogers; same, Feb. —, 1785, to Abigail Mosher. Deaths: John, June 2, 1777; Jesse, Oct. 18, 1809.

In all of this confusion, it is doubtful if John 5, son of John 4 as first given above, was the Refugee. If he was the one, he was b. in 1709; d. in 1795. (Moore's "Index," p. 123)

Perhaps John 6 (John 5, 4, 3, Henry 2, 1). Or, John 6 (Joshua 5, John 4, 3, Henry 2, 1), b. in 1728; m. Sept. 20, 1750, Sarah Wells; d. Nov. —, 1805. (Miss L. D. A.)

Lydia, dau. of John Tuthill, m. Dea. Thomas Youngs. (See Youngs)

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Hudson makes him John 6 (Daniel 5, John 4, 3, Henry 2, 1). John 6, b. in 1730; m. Abigail Terry about 1750; and had the Military record, noted above. He lived at Wading River, L. I. His children were: John 7, m. Jan. 7, 1757, Abigail Moger; Nathaniel 7, below; and David 7, m. Phebe Brown, d. Apr. 8, 1846, aged 84. Nathaniel 7, b. Apr. 10, 1759; m. about 1780, Fanny Fanning (1760-1842); d. Feb. 24, 1840. Among his 10 children was Bartley Fanning 8, who m. Fanny Miller, and had Emily 9. The latter, m. Sylvester Miller, and had nine children: Elizabeth 10, m. George Hudson (d. Feb. 1, 1895), she is now living at Riverhead; Sophia 10, living; William 10, d. aged 24; Fanny 10, m. Nathaniel W. Foster, both deceased; Charlotte 10, m. Stephen H. Mills, and is deceased; Charity T. 10, living; Alice Estelle 10, m. Henry W. Hallock, both living at Lake Grove, L. I.; Elihu Sanford 10, m. Mary Esther Mulford, both living at Wading River; and Alfred Ketcham 10, d. y. Mrs. Emily Tuthill Miller d. Dec. 21, 1864.

TUTHILL JONATHAN 5 (John 4, 3, 2, Henry 1; brother of John, above, and Samuel, below)—On Sept. 19, 1776, his effects were moved to Conn. by Capt. Peter Bonticou. (C. 14. Also A. 40) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) A Jonathan, of East Hampton, also signed. (H. 28)

One of this name served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 31); in the 4th Orange (G. 75); and possibly in Conn. (G. 99); also, as Capt. in the 1st Orange. (G. 72) A Jonathan, was a pensioner in 1833, aged 79. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 429)

As in the case of John, above, there is grave doubt as to the Refugee being Jonathan 5, son of John 4. Moore ("Index," p. 123) states that he was an elder brother of John; and, therefore, b. about 1707.

In the Ch. Recs. of East Hampton, the first Tuthill entry is: "bapt. a son of Jonathan Tuthill, 1781" (no name); next, "a son of Jonathan Tuthill, Jonathan 1785;" next, "a child of Jonathan Tuthill 1791;" next "1795 d., a son of Jonathan Tuthill. [No name]." This is all in the Ch. Recs. about Jonathan. He probably d. in one of the years of which there is no record. From the Town Recs., it appears that he was elected Constable in 1791, 1795 and 1797. The absence from the Recs. of the birth of the Jonathan Tuthill who had a son b. in 1781, would look as though he was b. before he came to East Hampton. But the fact that he was there in 1775, and one of the signers to the Association, shows that he could have been a Refugee, and probably was. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Southold Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 1. (A. 55)

Jonathan 6 (Daniel, Jr., 5, Daniel 4, John 3, Henry 2, 1). He was b. Oct. 22, 1752, and the Military service (G. 31) may have been his. He m. Apr. 27, 1780, Wid. Alatheia (Overton) Gildersleeve; d. Jan. 5, 1825. She was a dau. of Elton Overton (see Overton); and the Wid. of Henry Gildersleeve, and herself a Refugee. (See Gildersleeve) She was b. in 1755; d., the Wid. of Jonathan Tuthill, May 19, 1831, aged 76. (Dr. John B. Lewis) He was probably Jonathan 5, (Daniel 4, 3, John 2, Henry 1). (Miss L. D. A.) The Tuthill children were: Jonathan Hull 6, b. Aug. 30, 1789, m. Matilda Rackett, d. June 9, 1835—their dau., Louisa 7 m. Orrin F. Brown of Greenport; Rhoda 6, b. Apr. 2, 1792, m. Asa Smith, d. Sept. 8, 1835; Anna 6, b. May 29, 1795, m. J. Reeves Goldsmith, d. Mar. 8, 1886; Henry 6, b. May 19, 1799, m. Sally Case, d. July 20, 1862; and Hannah 6, b. Aug. 2, 1802, m. Jan. 30, 1825, Charles Henry Paine (see Paine), d. June 2, 1873. (Mr. Baldwin T. Payne)

TUTHILL MEHITABLE, WID.—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with four in the family, she was brought over by Capt. Jasper Griffing. (C. 59) In Dec., 1776, her goods were brought over by Capt. Jonathan Vail. (C. 170) Her claims were paid to Samuel Brown, Nov. 27, 1777. (C. 164) On Jan. 7, 1783, she petitioned to return to L. I. with her family [evidently attendants], stock, provisions, &c., so that she might "spend the remainder of her days among her children and friends." This was granted. (E. 186, 187) From this it would appear that she was advanced in years.

She was Mehitable Budd, b. Nov. 22, 1715; d. Nov. 27, 1788. On Oct. 29, 1733, she m., as his second wife, Daniel 4 (Dea. Daniel 3, John 2, Henry 1) Tuthill, of Southold. He was b. Jan. 15, 1712; d. Nov. 18, 1768. (Page 609) Among her 12 children, were: Daniel 5, John 5, Jonathan 5 and Rufus 5.

Mehitable Tuttle

(Southold Town Rec., printed, C. 61. 82) The sons, John, Jonathan and Rufus were probably the Refugees.

TUTHILL RUFUS 5 (Daniel 4, 3, John 2, Henry 1)—From Southold to New London. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with seven in the family and goods, he was brought over by Capt. John Vail. (C. 177) In May, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return; which was granted. (E. 86, 87) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

His ancestry, as given above, is by Griffin ("Journal," pp. 162, 172, 200); who also states that he d. Dec. 11, 1843, aged nearly 97, and that he had a son, Rufus. His title, Capt., probably came in the War of 1812.

A Rufus, of Plum Island, m. Mary Demmon, Sept. 26, 1769. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

TUTHILL SAMUEL 5 (John 4, 3, 2, Henry 1; brother of John, above, and Jonathan, above)—From Southold probably, to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He may have served in the 1st Orange. (G. 72)

His ancestry, as given above, is by Moore ("Index," p. 123), who states that he afterward removed to N. J. As he was in College, in 1743, he was probably b. about 1723. Griffin (p. 63) states that he was a Dr. and a Judge.

A Samuel, Jr., m. Deborah Wells, Dec. 27, 1781. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

VAIL—VALE—VAYLE—VEAL—VEYL—The ancestor on L. I. was Jeremiah 1, b. in Eng., about 1618; m. (1) Catharine ———, (2) Wid. Mary Paine, (3) Joyce [Rejoice?] ———; d. in 1687. He came to Salem, Mass., where he is on record, in 1639. About 1652, he removed to Gardiner's Island; and thence to East Hampton, L. I., in 1653. In 1651, Southampton offered inducements for him to settle in that Town and carry on his trade of blacksmith. The offer was not accepted. He resided at East Hampton, 1655-1659; and then removed to Southold. Among his children were: Abigail 2, m. Joseph 2 Horton (see Horton); Sarah 2, m. Nathaniel, son of Thomas Moore (see Moore); Jeremiah 2; and John 2. (Vail Gen., pp. 17-20, 29. Also Moore's "Index," pp. 44, 45. Also Griffin's "Journal," p. 30)

Jeremiah 2, bapt. Dec. 30, 1649; m. (2) Wid. Anne Moore; d. Nov. 28, 1726. Among his children were: Jeremiah 3, and Thomas 3. Jeremiah 3, b. about 1670, had sons: Jeremiah 4, b. May —, 1710, m. Elizabeth, dau. of Joshua Youngs, d. Oct. 13, 1749; and Peter 4, b. Mar. 25, 1722, m. Martha, dau. of John Terry (see Terry), d. Apr. —, 1771. Mary 5, dau. of Jeremiah 4, m. Thomas Moore. (See Moore) Thomas 3, b. about 1672; m. Elizabeth Constable; d. Aug. 5, 1741. He had a son, Stephen 4, b. about 1726; m. Hannah Petty; d. in 1781. (Moore's "Index," p. 126. Also Vail Gen. pp. 29, 31, 33, 35, 42, 44, 45)

VAIL SAMUEL ()—Samuel 3 (John 2, Jeremiah 1), removed to Orange Co., N. Y., soon after 1741. (Vail Gen. p. 39) Samuel 4 (Daniel 3, John 2, Jeremiah 1) d. in 1777. (Vail Gen. pp. 55, 56) He may have lived in some other place beside Southold.

Samuel, the Refugee, on Jan. 7, 1780, petitioned for relief from the Poll tax, in Conn. (E. 32) In Oct., 1780, Capt. Jabez Gregory was permitted to bring his effects over from L. I. (F. 21) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 16, 33); and probably in Conn. (G. 99)

Samuel Vail

A Samuel, m., Feb. 27, 1776, Mary Rodgers. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

VAIL THOMAS 5 (Stephen 4, Thomas 3, Jeremiah 2, 1; brother of Capt. Joseph, above)—From Southold to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); in the 4th Line (G. 48); and in the 4th Westchester. (G. 80)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. Aug. 27, 1745; m. Abigail Dudley. His children were: Thomas 6, b. Mar. 14, 1769, m. Priscilla Lowrey, d. Nov. 6, 1823; Joseph Petty 6; Abigail 6, m. ——— Sands; William 6, who was in the War of 1812; Hannah 6, m. (1) ——— Smith, (2) ——— Page; Gamaliel 6; John Davenport 6. The Family removed from L. I. to Newburg, Pa. (Vail Gen. pp. 78, 79, 144)

VALENTINE RICHARD—From Huntington. He was a Refugee. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 60) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26); in Graham's Levies (G. 60); and perhaps in the 4th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 106)

He probably descended from Richard Valentine who was one of the early settlers at Hempstead, L. I. (Page 159)

VAN DYKE—The ancestry of Rev. Henry 5, the only Refugee with this surname, was: Franz Classen 1, m. Emmitze Dircks; Dircks Franzen 2, m. Urseltze Shepmoes; Peter 3, m. Cornelia Van Varick; Richard 4, m. Elizabeth Strang; Rev. Henry 5.

VAN DYKE HENRY 5, REV.—From L. I. to Norwalk. On Aug. 27, 1779, permission was granted to him, with his wife and children, to go to L. I. with their effects. It is further stated that he had been taken Prisoner by Capt. [probably Josephus] Fitch, before Oct., 1782. (D. 32. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 56)

He was b. in N. Y. City, in 1744; graduated at King's (now Columbia) College, in 1761; studied law, and removed to Stratford, Conn., about 1761. He practised law for a time; but, not liking the profession, finally gave it up and studied for the Ministry. He was a lay reader, in Conn., as early as 1776. He and two other students had engaged their passage for England, where they expected to be ordained; when Bishop Seabury returned to America, unexpectedly, and he ordained the three at Middletown, Conn., Aug. 3, 1785. They were the first Episcopalian Clergymen ordained in America by the Bishop. (Church Records. Also the "Seabury Centennary") He was Rector of the Church in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., from Aug., 1785, to 1791. (Church Records) During this time, in 1786, he was a Missionary at Milford, Conn. ("Sketches of Church Life in Colonial Conn.," p. 151) He was Rector, for a time, at Peekskill, N. Y.; at Perth Amboy, N. J.; Christ Church, New Brunswick, N. J.; St. Mary's Church, Burlington, N. J., from 1793 to 1796. (Church Records) He also had charge of the Churches at Mt. Olive and Moorestown, N. J. He was Rector at St. James, Newtown, L. I., from 1797 to 1802, when he resigned and moved away. While at Newtown, he also conducted services at Jamaica. He received the degree of S. T. D. from Rutgers's College in 1793.

He was a staunch, sound churchman, and would be called a high-churchman at the present time. He was a warm friend of Bishop John Henry Hobart. He was chairman of the 9th Convention of the Church of N. J., held in Christ Church, New Brunswick, June 6, 1792. On May 12, 1766, he was made a Master Mason, of St. George's Lodge of Stratford, Conn. (Town and Lodge Records) William Samuel Johnson, special Colonial Agent, was a warm friend; also the Rev. Samuel Johnson, Pres't of King's College.

Rev. Henry Van Dyke was rather tall, of dark complexion, with deep, piercing black eyes. He had a very reserved and austere manner; yet he was a lovable man, and much revered by his parishioners. He m. Aug. 9, 1767, Hulda Lewis, a lineal descendant of Capt. James Lewis, of Conn. Rev. Henry and his wife were especially devoted to the sick and suffering during the terrible scourge of yellow fever in N. Y. City, in 1804. He d., in N. Y. City, in 1804; and his Wid. d. about 1806. Their children were: Henry 6; Elizabeth Abbey 6; Eliza Abby 6; Elizabeth 6; and Richard 6, below. Richard 6, b. about 1775; m. Lydia Wood. His children were: Mary 7, m. Benjamin

Van Woorts; Dr. Marinus Henry 7, m. Catharine Alsop, dau. of Richard Brinckerhoff; Margarette 7, m. Benjamin Stevens; Cornelia 7, m. Joseph Claypole Clark; Benjamin 7, not m.; Richard 7, below; and Caroline 7. Richard 7, b. May 16, 1810, at Medina, N. Y.; m. Mary Ware Thomas. He was in the real estate business for a time, in N. Y. City. Three of his 10 children survive: Lydia Wood 8, m. Hon. Henry C. Payne, afterward Postmaster Gen. of the U. S.; Louise 8, m. Charles Perez Jones; Arthur 8, m. Katherine Slipper. (Mrs. Puella Hull Mason)

WADE—A Dr. Nathaniel, lived at Sagg, in 1698. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 440)

WADE EBENEZER ()—From Southold to Guilford, with six passengers, in Sept. and Oct., 1776, by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) From Wallingford, Feb. 21, 1781, he asked permission to return to Southold, for three weeks, and to carry with him splinters for bottoming chairs. He was well recommended by the Authorities of Guilford and Wallingford. (E. 134-136) He was a Privateersman on "The Confederacy." (Page 218. Also G. 100) An Ebenezer Ward (perhaps intended for Wade), served in the 2d and 5th Dutchess. (G. 64, 67)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He m., about Mar., 1762, Mary Corwin. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

Ebenezer Wade

WALKER ———, DR. ()—From Sag Harbor to East Haddam. On Sept. 2, 1776, he was brought over, with his chest, by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) He was a physician (Page 180); and was in the Hospital Service. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 45)

The Official Records of N. Y. and Conn. do not reveal his identity. There may be a clue in Va. Capt. Thomas 1 came to that Colony, about 1650. He had a son, John 2; and a grandson, Capt. Thomas 3. The latter had a son, Dr. Thomas 4, b. Jan. 15, 1715; m. in 1741, Mildred, dau. of Col. Francis Thornton, of Va., Wid. of Nicholas Meriwether; d. Nov. 9, 1794. He was educated at William and Mary College; took part in the Braddock Campaign; and was a Member of the Va. Committee of Safety. He was a physician; a planter; and an explorer in Tenn. and Ky. before the time of Daniel Boone. He was well known to Gen. Washington, and went about with him. He is buried at "Castle Hill," Va.; where some of his descendants now live. ("Some Notable Families of America," by Annah Robinson Watson)

If he was the Dr. Walker, first named above, his chest may have contained maps instead of medicines.

WARNER—See Warner, in "Caps &c. of Ships"—Page 255.

WARNER ELIPHALET ()—From Southold to Enfield. In Sept., 1776, he hired his transportation; and his claim was paid to Elijah Parsons. There were seven in the Family, five of them being children. (C. 153) One of the name, from Brookhaven, signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20) There is no record of his removal from Conn. (Mr. James F. Young)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55)

He m. Abigail ———.

His daus., Abigail, Hannah and Tabitha, bapt. June 6, 1771. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

WAY—The first of the name was George 1, who had a grant from the Council of Plymouth; but it is doubtful if he ever saw America. His son, Eleazer 2, came to New England; m. Mary ———, of Boston; d. July 12, 1687. A son of Eleazer 2, Ebenezer 3, settled at Southold as a physician. Among his children were: Alathea 4, or Esther 4, m. Nath'l Overton (See Overton); and Ebenezer 4. (N. E. Gen'l Reg., 43. 153) Moore ("Index," p. 127) states that Ebenezer 3 appears in the Southold Records, 1698 and 1711. He m. Irene, dau. of Joshua Hobart. (See Hobart) He had several children, among whom were: Josiah 4, and probably Eleazer 4. Ebenezer 3, d. June 6, 1739.

In "George Way and his Descendants," by Mr. C. Granville Way, the statement is positive that George 1 was in the Plymouth Colony. But he is not called George 1—his son, Eleazer, being made the emigrant ancestor; and thus, Eleazer 1. So that, in Mr. Way's book, the generations are one less in number than they are in the N. E. Gen'l Reg.

George, of Lyme, or Saybrook, Conn., had sons, George and Thomas. Thomas lived at N. London. His sons scattered throughout Conn. His sons, Daniel (b. in 1688), and Ebenezer (b. in 1693), are the ancestors of the families of N. London and Waterford. Their descendants have emigrated to many States outside of Conn. (Caulkins' "New London," p. 362)

WAY ANNE 5 (Ebenezer 4, 3, Eleazer 2, George 1)—From Southold to Hartford. On Oct. 14, 1782, she was given permission to go to L. I. for the avails of the property of her deceased father. (F. 67)

She was the only dau. of Ebenezer 4; and the only living descendant of George 1 who then bore his surname. She was not m.; d., at Southold, in 1821. (N. E. Gen'l Reg., as above)

In Mr. Way's book, Ebenezer 3 had a son Eleazer 4 who m. Anna Wells; and their dau., Anna 4, was the Refugee. This line is not the one given in the N. E. Gen'l Reg.

WEBB—Richard 1, came from Dorset, Eng., to Cambridge, Mass., in 1626. He removed to Stamford, Conn.; and m. Elizabeth, dau. of John Gregory. John 2, of Northampton, Mass., m. (1) Ann———, who d. Aug. 26, 1667, (2) Elizabeth Swift. John 3, of Northampton, m. Susanna, dau. of Henry Cunliffe, and Wid. of Matthew Cole. He d. Apr. 3, 1720; she d. Oct. 30, 1735. Henry 4, of Wethersfield, Conn., b. Nov. 27, 1668; m. Oct. 10, 1695, Mary, dau. of Samuel Hurlbutt. Henry 4 had: Orange 5, b. June 26, 1696; also Ebenezer 5, below. ("The Descendants of Richard Webb" &c.)

Richard 1 went from Norwalk, Conn., to Stamford, Conn., about 1654. He d. Jan. 1, 1676. He had a wife, Margery; and children, Joseph 2, Richard 2, Joshua 2, Caleb 2, Samuel 2 and Sarah 2. He was 44 years old, in 1667. Joseph 2 d. at Stamford, in 1684. He m. Hannah———; and had children, Joseph 3, Mary 3, Hannah 3, Sarah 3 and Margery 3. (Huntington's "Stamford," p. 65)

WEBB EBENEZER 5 (Henry 4, John 3, 2, Richard 1; father of Capt. Orange, below, and William, below)—Probably from Southold. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 16. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 697) A younger Ebenezer was in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. Nov. 20, 1697; m. Mary Terry, or Turrell; d. in 1776. He had eight children, of whom: Capt. Orange 6, below, and William 6, below. ("The Descendants of Richard Webb" &c.)

WEBB JAMES 6, CAPT. (Orange 5, Henry 4, John 3, 2, Richard 1)—From Southold to Chester. On Sept. 20, 1776, he brought over four passengers and his stock, provisions and goods. (C. 154) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Sept., Oct. and Nov. 1776, he brought from L. I. to Connecticut the effects of the following Refugees: Benjamin Case, to Eight Mile River (C. 154); Wid. Hutchinson, to the same (C. 154); Zachariah Pierson, to Chester (C. 125); Israel Reeve, to Lyme (C. 187); Jonathan Rackett, Jr., to the same (C. 190); Benjamin Sayre, to East Haddam (C. 136); John Youngs, to Saybrook (C. 161); Daniel Hedges, to the same (C. 183); Joshua Goldsmith (C. 56); Joshua Salmon (C. 134); and a small boat for Lt. Obadiah Havens. (C. 68) He was paid £ 30 for the use of his sloop "Defiance," for transportation purposes, from Sept. 6 to Sept. 30, 1776. (A. 31) On Dec. 24, 1776, he was paid at the rate of $3 per day for the hire of his sloop. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.)

James Webb

James Webb, Jr., m. Aug. 31, 1786, Juliana Tuthill. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

WEBB JOHN CAPT. (———) —As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), he moved the effects of Obadiah Hudson from L. I. to Stonington, in Sept., 1776. (C. 80) It is probable that he served in Conn. (G. 100) A private of this name served in the 2d Line (G. 44); also in the 3d and 4th Westchester. (G. 78, 80) A Capt. and a Lt. John Webb served in the 2d Continental Dragoons, Col. Elisha Sheldon.

WEBB ORANGE 6, CAPT. (Ebenezer 5, above, Henry 4, John 3, 2, Richard 1; brother of William, below)—From Southold to New London; where he was, Nov. 1, 1776, to Oct. 1, 1778. (F. 110) A letter from Gen. Samuel H. Parsons to Gov. Clinton, dated Dec. 28, 1777, mentions an Orange Webb, Prisoner to the Americans, at Hartford. (Clinton Pap., 2. 609) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

He lived on the site of Greenport, L. I., where he kept an inn for 40 years. He was in the West India trade. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 52, 110, 124) It was probably from this trade that his title of Capt. originated.

Orange Webb was a Sea Capt. while he was away the Tories came and carried off, or destroyed, most of his house furnishings. His wife heard them, and took a new roll of cloth into bed with her. But the end hung out of the bed, they saw it and pulled it all out. (Capt. Richard Henry Greene)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He m. Jan. 18, 1753, Frances Sandiforth. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His children were: Capt. Thomas 7, bapt. Jan. 27, 1754 (Same Rec.); d. June —, 1819; John 7; James 7, b. about 1761, d. July 12, 1795; Orange, Jr., 7, below; Capt. David 7, b. about 1765, m. Elizabeth —; Daniel 7, twin with David, d. June 1, 1818; Capt. Silas 7, b. about 1768, d. Mar. 6, 1849; Fanny 7, m. Capt. John Donachie, d. Oct. 15, 1788; Polly 7, or Mary 7, m. Capt. Elisha King (See King); and Nancy 7, m. Capt. David King, no issue. Fanny 7 had: Sally 8; and Mary 8, who m. Josiah Bennett, of N. Y. City.

Orange, Jr., 7, was a merchant in N. Y. City for many years. (Griffin's "Journal," pp. 111, 124, 125) He m. Elizabeth Cebra; and his dau., Catherine Cebra Webb, m. Rensselaer Havens as his 2d wife. (Mallmann's "Shelter Island," p. 244) Elizabeth Cebra was a dau. of James Cebra. (See Cebra)

Capt. Thomas 7, had a son, Silas 8; whose son, Charles S. 9, was a Sea Fencible, in 1814. ("N. Y. in the War of 1812")

WEBB WILLIAM 6 (Ebenezer 5, above, Henry 4, John 3, 2, Richard 1; brother of Capt. Orange, above)—From Stirling to Saybrook and Chester.

Here is the story of the flight, told me by Sarah Green, dau. of William Webb, my grandmother. She was b. in Chester, Conn., July 9, 1779. "When my father [William Webb] was in the Army my mother [Elizabeth Hudson Webb], and other women of Stirling, organized to do guard duty. When father came back he brought the camp fever. He was sick for a time; and gave it to the children. Two of them died of it, after the goods were on the vessel to go to Conn. They were buried on shore before the rest left. These were: William, Jr., b. Jan. 31, 1772, d. in 1776; and Daniel, b. Mar. 15, 1774, d. in 1776." (Capt. Richard Henry Greene)

He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He served in Lt. Joshua Young's Co., Col. Josiah Smith's Regt.; in Col. Lamb's Art'y (G. 50); and enlisted in Conn. (G. 100) He was also in Capt. Nathaniel Wales' Co., until Oct., 1776, on their tour of duty at New London. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n," p. 617. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 697. Also "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 570)

In the Muster Roll of the Company, in Col. Smith's Regt., commanded by Lt. Joshua Youngs (G. 38; fac-simile on Page 86), the name of William Rogers appears. The g. grandson of William Webb, Capt. Richard Henry Greene, states that he had seen another Muster Roll wherein the name of William Webb appears instead of William Rogers and that he can make an affidavit that he saw the name of William Webb on the Muster Roll. Capt. Greene thinks that William Webb took the place of William Rogers, and was his substitute. He also states that William Webb told his grandson (the father of Capt. Greene) that he was with the Army at Saratoga; and Capt. Greene further states that the only Conn. Regts. at Saratoga were Col. Cooke, Col. Latimer, and a part of the 2d Light Horse; and William Webb was probably in the Saybrook Co., commanded by Capt. Shipman, in Col. Latimer's Regt. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n," p. 617. Also G. 100)

Census of 1776: Males—Above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. Sept. 19, 1746; m. Sept. 24, 1769, Elizabeth, dau. of Richard and Keturah (Goldsmith) Hudson (Mattituck Church Records. See also Pages 364, 418); d. Sept. 23, 1832. His wife, b. Apr. 1, 1749; d. July 13, 1835. Both are buried at Chester, Conn. The house in which he lived was standing, until recently. (Capt. R. H. G.)

His children were: Ziba 7, b. Aug. 16, 1770, d. Mar. 24, 1828; William 7, b. Jan. 31, 1772, d. Sept. —, 1776; Elizabeth 7, b. Mar. 18, 1773, m. Mar. —, 1791, Pascal C. J. De Angelis, d. Jan. 24, 1851; Daniel 7, b. Mar. 15, 1774, d. Sept. —, 1776; Bulah 7; Sarah 7, b. July 9, 1779, m. May 1, 1803, Capt. Richard Green, d. June 5, 1858; and Ann Moore 7, b. June 12, 1790, m. Col. Samuel Howe. (Wilcox "Webb Gen.," p. 67. Also "Greene Family of Plymouth Colony," p. 20)

Capt. Richard Green, of East Haddam, Conn., was in the War of 1812. He was b. Mar. 10, 1765; d. Feb. 8, 1848. (Gen., as above) His son William Webb Green, b., at East Haddam, Mar. 29, 1807; m. Aug. 10, 1836, Sarah A. Todd; d. Dec. 30, 1894. He was a shipping merchant, owning a line of boats between N. Y. City and Mobile. He retired, in 1857. Capt. Richard Henry Greene, of N. Y. City, is his son. (Capt. R. H. G.)

Another William Webb was on the frigate "Trumbull." (Page 218. Also G. 100)

WEEKS—WICK—WICKES etc.—There are said to be 21 ways of spelling this name. In the will of Daniel Wicks, 1784, the name is spelled in three different ways.

Thomas 1 Weeks, of the Huntington branch, came to Watertown, Mass., in 1635; and went thence to Wethersfield and Stamford, Conn., in 1640. He was in Oyster Bay, before 1654; and in Huntington, in 1666. He d. at Oyster Bay, in 1671. He had: Thomas 2; John 2; Rebecca 2; Martha 2; Elizabeth 2; Mary 2; and Sarah 2. (Chap. 16. Also Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 45, 46) He spelled the name Weeks; but his sons changed it to Wickes. Thomas 2, b. 1650-1, had sons: Thomas 3, b. about 1676, d. in 1749; and Joseph 3, d. before 1746. Thomas 3 had a son, Eliphalet 4, b. in 1707-8; m. (1) Hannah Platt, (2) Jemima Scudder; d. in 1761. He was Town Clerk and a Justice of Sessions. (Wickes Gen.)

Thomas 1, m. Isabella Harcutt, of Oyster Bay. He was Constable of Huntington, in 1662. Savage (in N. E. Gen.) probably errs in stating that he d. at Oyster Bay. (Mr. Robert B. Wickes)

The Oyster Bay branch, apparently, clung to the spelling Weekes and Weeks. Francis 1, b. in 1616; m. Elizabeth Luther, of R. I. His son, Capt. Joseph 2, b. in 1647; m. Hannah Ruddock; d. in 1754. Capt. Joseph's son, Samuel 3, m. Hannah Rusco. (Wickes Gen.) The Oyster Bay branch from Francis 1, is not related to the Huntington branch. (R. B. W.)

Thomas, who m. Isabella Harcutt as his 2d wife, was a son of Francis, according to the Oyster Bay Rec. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

WEEKS JESSE 4 (Samuel 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Francis 1—according to Wickes Gen.)—From Huntington. On Sept. 4, 1781, he asked permission to remove to Conn. (F. 129) He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 32); in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); and, as a cruiser, in Conn. (Page 218. Also G. 100)

The Gen. states that he m. Kate Featherby. Also, that there were four others of the name: Jesse 4 (Philip 3, Thomas 2, 1); Jesse 5 (Philip 4, 3, Thomas 2, 1), b. Apr. 15, 1756; and Jesse 4 (Joseph 3, Thomas 2, 1), younger brother of Ezekiel Wickes, below. It was probably one of these who m. Oct. 2, 1769, Jane Colyer. (Huntington Ch. Rec.) The fourth was Jesse 5 (Ezekiel 4, who may have been the Ezekiel Wickes, below, Joseph 3, Thomas 2, 1). He m. Mar. 18, 1781, Susanna Kelsey (Smithtown Ch. Rec.); d. in N. Y. City. His children were: Haviland 6, m. Mar. 17, 1810, Mary Scudder, d. at Setauket, Dec. 25, 1845; George 6; Maria 6, m. Jarvis Rogers; and Nancy 6, m. ——— Conklin. Featherby, above, may be Wetherbe. (G. W. C.)

The ancestry of Jesse 4 (Samuel 3, etc.), as given above, seems to be correct.

Samuel 3, son of Joseph 2 and Hannah Rusco, was a blacksmith; and d. before 1750, having m., as second wife, Rachael Baldwin, Wid. of John Fetherby. In effecting the sale of a piece of meadow, in 1750, Rachael Weeks, Wid. of Samuel deceased, is joined by Samuel, Thomas, Benjamin and Jesse Weeks, of Queens Co., and John Weeks of Westchester Co., N. Y., in making title, etc. We have, from other sources, Jesse 4, b. in 1722; m. Katy Fetherby.

So I assume she was a dau. of his step mother. My knowledge of Jesse came by the diary of John Weeks, shoemaker, which I found in the neighborhood. An abstract of the diary, or attempt of a Gen., shows children: Micajah, John, Charles and Betsey. "J was in the British service—took prisoner—joined in Militia [Muster?]-mar. a Widow at Hagerstown—came to O. Bay and died." J is probably for John; as Jesse remained in Oyster Bay Town, at Matinecock. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

More light is thrown on Jesse's family by the following letter; which appeared in the "Suffolk Bulletin," Huntington, N. Y., Apr. 28, 1911. It was written by Jesse Weeks, of Matinecock, to his son, John Weeks, near Hagerstown, Md., Mar. 24, 1797:—

Dear Son:—I received a letter from you dated at Hagerstown, Nov. 19, 1788, since which have not been able to learn whether or not you are in the land of the living except by vague reports of travellers, and to none of them have I been able to give any degree of Credit. They all appearing to be calculated to amuse an old man in affliction for his absent Child and who is now far advanced into the vale of life having now arrived to my 75th year and your mother to her 65th years, the God be thanked we enjoy a tolerable share of health for our age.

Your brother Macajah lives at Stephen Town on the Main Shore not far from Peeks Kill. Has two sons, one named after his poor lost brother John and the other Jesse, after me. Charles and Betsey are living near me. Charles has one Child and Betsey has three daughters

As to your other relations we hear they are all well. As your mother and I are now fast verging to the Brink of Eternity, it would be an unspeakable satisfaction once more to see our long lost or rather our long absent child. It is now sixteen years my dear Son since you left us and but once have we had even so much consolation as a letter from you which flattered us with hopes of seeing you, as you wrote me in the fall or winter of 1789. Think, I beseech of you, as you write me you have two children, that were you as far advanced in years as myself and your Mother is, what would be your feelings if those Children were to absent themselves from you as you do from us, and then you may judge what ours are for you when we Request but once more to see you ere we die, for alas we are unable to come in search of you. Come to us then and let us once more see you ere it is too late, when we shall be unable to say, we Pray God for your safety and join in love To you and Yours.

To John Weeks at or near Hagers Town.

Your father Jesse Weeks.

From this letter, it would seem that Jesse 4 was b. about 1722. Also that he had, among his children: John 5; Micajah 5, the Refugee below; and Charles 5. The one who furnished the letter for publication stated that Charles 5, son of Jesse 4, had one child Elizabeth 6, who m. Capt. McGee, and had no issue. She was always known as "Cousin Betsy." John 6 and Jesse 6, sons of Micajah 5, and the two children of John 6, mentioned in the letter are unknown on L. I.

John 5 may have m. Jan. 14, 1776, Unice Wicks. He may have been the Capt. John who m. Jan. 3, 1788, Sarah Mills; or the Capt. John who m. Mar. 25, 1792, Deborah Vail. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

Bunker ("L. I. Genealogies") mentions a Joseph 4, b. in 1725; m. (1) Phebe Underhill, (2) Sarah Pease; d. in 1795. He lived in Westchester Co., N. Y. He had a brother Thomas 4. Among the children of Joseph 4 were: Jesse 5, b. in 1752, m. Sarah Carpenter; and Thomas 5, b. in 1754. Joseph 4 was the g. g. grandfather of Edwin W. Weeks, of Mineola, L. I.

Mr. George W. Cocks makes the Joseph 4, above, a descendant of Francis I and Elizabeth (Luther) Weeks of Rhode Island, Gravesend, Hempstead and Oyster Bay; Samuel 2, who m. Elizabeth Reddough, or Reddocke; James 3, perhaps m. Elizabeth Carpenter; and removed, with others, to Rye and North Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y., about 1720. Abel 4, son of James 3, b. Oct. 4, 1696; d. at Chappaqua, N. Y., Sept. 21, 1782. He m. (1) Sarah Burdg (Burch? or Burgess?), who was b. June 14, 1693. He had, by first wife: Elizabeth 5; Joseph 5, m. (1) Phebe Underhill, (2) Sarah Pease; Mary 5; and James 5, d. y. Abel 4, m. (2) Dec. 23, 1738, Mary Ireland (d. in 1768, aged 61), supposed dau. of John and Sarah Ireland. He had, by second wife: Sarah 5, b. in 1739, m. in 1761, Thomas Underhill; John 5, m. (1) Jerusha ———, (2) Rachel Merritt, (3) (Ruth?) ———, (4) Elizabeth Dickinson; James 5, m. Sarah Kipp; Phebe 5, m. Nathaniel Underhill; and Martha 5, m. Elnathan Thorn.

WEEKS MICAJAH 5 (Jesse 4, above, Samuel 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Francis 1)—From Huntington, or Oyster Bay, to Ridgefield, Conn. He served in the 1st Line (G. 43); in the 4th Line (G. 48); in the Dutchess Regt. of Minute Men (G. 70); and in Conn. (G. 100) After the War, he removed to Delaware Co., N. Y. (Grumman's "Rev'y Soldiers of Redding, Conn.," pp. 37, 172)

He m. Jan. 30, 1781, at Ridgefield, Conn., Phebe Barber, of Ridgebury. He is described as "a Refugee from L. I." (Ridgefield, Conn., Ch. Rec.) She might have been his second wife.

In the Weeks Gen. (p. 288), it is stated that he was b. in 1749; removed to Hancock, Delaware Co., N. Y., in 1800; d. in 1826. Among his children were: John 6; Jesse 6; and Daniel S. 6, who had a son, Samuel H. 7. John 6, b. on L. I. in 1791; d. at Nelson, Pa., in 1856. He had sons: John R. 7, who had a son, Frank 8; and Charles 7, who had a son, Sherman H. 8.

WELDEN—WELDIN—WHELDEN—WHILLDIN—Jonathan Whelden is the first record in the Family Bible, Jan. 13, 1707. It is spelled that way until 1732, when we have Jonathan Welden. Which is changed again to Jonathan Whelden, in 1761-2; then David Welden again, in 1764. The name continues Welden from then on. I think the spelling, Weldin, is a misprint. They were probably among the New Haven settlers; and came to Fanning's Landing, Southold, L. I., among the first settlers. (Dr. F. Stanwood Welden, owner of the Bible)

WELDEN DANIEL ()—From Stirling to Chester and East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, his effects were brought over by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) In Feb., 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I for provisions. (D. 44)

One of the name appears in the List of Rev'y soldiers in the "Pa. Archives." He was from the lower part of New Castle Co., Del. (Mr. L. C. Welden)

WELDEN DAVID (Son of Jonathan, below)—From Southampton to East Haddam. In 1776, his effects were brought over by Capt. Jacob Riley. (C. 131) On Apr. 11, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return with his family, which was granted. He stated that he was from Southampton; that he had with him his wife, his aged mother-in-law and four children, all from L. I., and two children b. in Conn. (Page 188. Also E. 51-53)

He had a son, Ebenezer, Capt. of a ship, who was captured in the War of 1812. His son, ———, m. ———

David Welden

King, a g. grand dau. of Maj. Nathaniel King. Her grandson is Dr. F. Stanwood Welden, of Brooklyn, N. Y. (Dr. F. S. W.)

A David, of Southold. Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 4. (A. 55) This was the David who was b. about 1738; d. in 1834, in his 96th year. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 162)

WELDEN JONATHAN (Father of David, above)—From Sag Harbor to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, he was brought over by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213)

From this point, the facts in hand seem to relate to a younger Jonathan, one who could not have been the father of David, above. This younger Jonathan, b. about 1732 (G. 30), at Nantucket. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30); and in Conn. (G. 100)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54)

It may be that the removal from Sag Harbor to Stonington, first mentioned above, was that of the younger Jonathan; and that Jonathan, father of David, above, was not a Refugee.

WELLES—WELLS—In the Eleventh Century, William the Conqueror gave to one of his Knights, the name of Welles; and created him Baron Richardus De Welles. From him descended Thomas, who, with his family, all of whom were b. in England, came to Wethersfield, Conn. As he was a non-Conformist, his property was confiscated, and he had been summoned to appear before the Star Chamber. His name is in the Hartford Records, in 1637, as a Magistrate of the Colony. He held the office every other year for 22 years. In 1689, he was made Treasurer of the Colony, holding the office many years, until he asked to be relieved of its cares. In 1649, he was one of the Commissioners of the United Colonies; in 1654, Moderator to the General Court, and Deputy Governor. In 1655, he was the 4th Gov. of Conn.; in 1656-7-9, Dep'y Gov.; in 1658, Gov. again. He d. Jan. 14, 1660. (Mrs. Ralph P. Hinchman)

It is probable that George Wells, one of the early settlers at Southampton, was related to this Thomas (Bayles' "Suffolk Co."); and, perhaps, William, at Southampton, 1642-3. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 440)

Thomas was in New London, Conn., by 1649; and Thomas, in Stonington, or Westerly, by 1675. Joseph, of Groton, probably son of Thomas, d. in 1711. He had sons, Joseph, John and Thomas. (Caulkins' "New London," pp. 355-6) The similarity of given names indicates a relationship with the L. I. branch. Other accounts of the members of this Family who were early in Conn. are in the Fairfield Co. Hist'l Soc'y Report—1891-2, pp. 16-18.

William Wells, Esq., son of an Eminent Prebendary of the Cathedral of Norwich, who was also Rector of the most magnificent and splendid Church in that City, left England, it is believed, June 19, 1635. He landed at Salem, or Boston, with John Bayley, another of the early settlers of Southold, who in 1664, became the first of three purchasers of the Indian title of Elizabeth, N. J. He was a lawyer; and, for a time, Sheriff of the County. He d. in 1671. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 28. Also Hayes' "William Wells, of Southold." Also Moore's "Index") His oldest son was William 2; his youngest, Joshua 2, whose descendants are the more numerous. It was probably his dau., Mary 2, who m. John 4 Youngs, about 1678. (See Youngs)

William 2, had a son, William 3, b. Mar. 30, 1683; m. Esther Homan. William 3 probably had sons: William 4, b. in 1706, d. in 1738; and Craveit 4, below. (Moore's "Index," p. 128)

Joshua 2, b. in 1664; m. in 1686, Hannah, dau. of John Tuthill; d. in 1744. He had 14 children, of whom: Joshua 3, b. in 1691; m. in 1715, Mary Brewster; d. Apr. 9, 1761. Others of the 14 were: Samuel 3; and Freegift 3, below.

The Wells Family were stanch Federalists. Their acres were numerous, their standing in the community of the best. They had much to lose if the Rebellion failed, but they did not hesitate to choose. (Mr. James F. Young)

WELLS CRAVEIT 4 (William 3, 2, 1; father of James, below, and William, below)—From Southold to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2. Females—above 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. in 1711; m. in 1737, Sarah 4, dau. of Hon. James and Deborah Reeve; d. May 24, 1783. (Moore's "Index," p. 128. Also Mattituck Ch. Rec. See also Reeve) His daughters were baptized: Deborah 5, Aug. 30, 1752; Esther 5, June 16, 1754; Phebe 5, Oct. 16, 1757; Elizabeth 5, in 1759. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.) His dau., Sarah 5, m. Alexander Bushnell, and had Bushnell children: Deborah, bapt. July 23, 1797; Hannah, bapt. Sept. 20, 1801; Sally, bapt. June 26, 1803; Joseph and John, twins, bapt. May 19, 1805; Mary Anna, bapt. July 26, 1807; and Daniel, bapt. Sept. 24, 1809. Some of their descendants now live at Morristown, N. J. (Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 212, 252, 254, 258, 260, 306-8, 310-11, 314, 339)

WELLS DAVID ()—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 100) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Two of the name appear in the Census of 1776, both of them under 50 years old. The first had 3 Females over 16 years old, and two Males and a Female under 16; the second, had 2 Males and a Female, all under 16. (A. 55)

WELLS FREEGIFT 3, DEA. (Joshua 2, William 1; father of Giles, below, Jonathan, below, and Joshua, below)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept., 1776, with nine in the family and effects, he was brought over by Capt. Thomas Leete (C. 94); and, in Oct., same year, with six passengers, by Capt. Jonathan Vail. (C. 155) On Nov. 15, 1782, he was allowed to return to L. I. with his stock, furniture etc. (F. 85) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He was Dea. in the Church at Southold; and, as such, certified to an election on June 29, 1784. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 231)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was the 14th child; and was named "Fregift" by his mother, who spelled the name in that way. He was b. Apr. 21, 1714; m. Dec. 25, 1735, Anna, or Jule-Anna, dau. of Thomas 3 Booth (See Booth); d. Nov. 26, 1785. His son, Thomas 4, had 11 children, who joined the Shakers. His sons Giles 4, Jonathan 4 and Joshua 4, were Refugees.

WELLS GILES 4 (Son of Dea. Freegift, above; brother of Jonathan, below, and Joshua, below)—From Southold to Guilford. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10, 12) He seems to have had no Military record.

He was b. Nov. 15, 1737; m. Feb. 17, 1779, Anna Dudley of Guilford (North Guilford, Conn., Ch. Rec.); d. Dec. 5, 1804. She was b. in 1740; d. Jan. 22, 1814. There were no children. (Wells Gen.)

WELLS ISAAC, SERJT. ()—From Southold. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 37); and probably in Conn. (G. 100) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He m. Apr. 6, 1768, Jemima Overton. (Southold Ch. Rec.) He may have been 6th son of Daniel, whose will was proved Apr. 2, 1761. (N. Y. Wills, 23. 68)

WELLS JAMES 5, ENS. (William 4, 3, 2, 1; brother of William, below)—From Southold to Lyme. In Oct., Nov. and Dec., 1776, with his family and goods, he was brought over by Capts. Samuel Ingraham, Jr., William Johnson, Joseph Vail and Robert Knight. (C. 193) On June 12, 1777, from Saybrook, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) On Apr. 6, 1781, he was permitted to carry grain from Windsor to Lyme for the use of the Refugees. (F. 35) On Oct. 23, 1782, he was permitted to go to L. I. to care for his estate, and to bring off the produce of his farm. (F. 81) It is evident that he was esteemed by his fellow Refugees; for many of them entrusted to him the collection of their claims. (C. 185-195) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

Rev. Charles E. Craven states that he returned to L. I. The late James F. Young stated that "as he disappears from the Record, it is supposed that he stayed in Conn.; or, at least, did not return to L. I." If the latter statement is correct, he may be the James Welles who is buried in the Congregational Cemetery at Stratford, Conn.

He was appointed Ens. in Col. Terry's 3d Regt. of Suffolk Co., June 29, 1776. (G. 3. Also Jour. Prov'l Cong.) One of his name served as a private in the Additional Corps of the Line (G. 55); in Harper's and Malcom's Levies (G. 56, 58); in the 4th Orange (G. 75); and in Conn., both as private and Lt. (G. 100)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He probably m. Bethiah ———. His dau., Mehitabel, bapt. June 6, 1773. (Mattituck Ch. Rec.)

WELLS JOHN 4 (Joshua 3, 2, William 1; brother of Joshua, Jr., below, and Rev. Timothy, below)—From Southold to Preston. On Mar. 27, 1780, he and his son-in-law, Dea. Timothy Wells, were allowed to return to L. I. to look after their effects, they being well recommended by the Authorities of Preston. (D. 46) On Apr. 18, 1780, he, with his son-in-law, and the latter's father, Rev. Timothy Wells, petitioned for leave to return to L. I. with their families, stock and provisions. They were once more recommended by the Authorities of Preston; and the petition was granted. (Page 192. Also E. 57-59) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 20)

His "considerable estate" (E. 57-59) consisted of about 300 acres on Poole's Neck, in Cutchogue. Afterward, he purchased the adjoining Pequash Neck from James, above. He left Pequash Neck to his dau., Abigail, the wife of Joseph Hull Goldsmith; and Poole's Neck to his daughters, Hannah Wells, and Sarah Fleet, the wife of John, and afterward of Rensselaer Fleet. Hannah sold her half to Sarah; and the whole Neck has since remained in possession of the Fleet family. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 133)

Men of this name served in the 1st, 3d and 5th of the Line (G. 43, 46, 49); in Malcom's Levies (G. 58); and in Conn. (G. 100)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 2; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. in 1729; m. Nov. 21, 1751,

James Wells

Mary Wells; d. Dec. 15, 1797. His two sons d. y. His four daughters grew to maturity. The dau., Mary 5, m. her cousin, Dea. Timothy, Jr., below.

WELLS JONATHAN 4 (Freegift 3, above, Joshua 2, William 1; brother of Giles, above, and Joshua, below)—From Southold to Guilford, in Sept., 1776, with four in the family, by Capt. Thomas Leete. (C. 94) In Sept. and Oct., same year, with three passengers, he was brought over by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) In the same year, he was charged for a single passage by Capt. Jacob Riley. (C. 131) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12) He served in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); probably in Conn. (G. 100); and perhaps, as a Corp., in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38)

WHITE HENRY 4, DR. (Rev. Sylvanus 3, Rev. Ebenezer 2, Ebenezer 1)—From Southampton, E. Dist. (Bridge Hampton), to Stonington and Hartford. On Mar. 21, 1780, a permit was granted to him to return to L. I. with his family. (D. 45) Evidently he did not return at once; for, on Oct. 26, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return, stating that he had lost his clothing and instruments at Ft. Montgomery; that he had then sailed on the Privateer "Recovery," which was captured, again losing clothing and instruments, and becoming a Prisoner. The petition was negatived, although Dr. White was well recommended by the Authorities of Hartford. (E. 131, 132) He was a pensioner in 1833, aged 83. ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 429) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 11)

On July 22, and also on Aug. 6, 1776, he was appointed Surg. of Col. Isaac Nicoll's Regt. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On Aug. 5, 1776, Dr. Malachi Treat, of N. Y. City, certified to the qualifications of Dr. Henry White as a Surg. (Misc. Pap., 35, 67) Later, he was a Surg. at Ft. Montgomery. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 537) After the War, he resumed his practice at Southampton. (Page 180) Although he attained the age of 91 years, his sight was unimpaired until his death.

A private, of this name, served in the 2d and 4th of the Line. (G. 44, 48)

Of a doctor's practice, during the latter part of the last century and the early part of the present, we have a very full knowledge from the account book of Dr. White, which is still in existence. If the present physicians followed their scale of prices, we could almost afford to be sick. Phlebotomy and cathartic medicines, or as he expressed it in much plainer English, "bleeding and a purge," was the beginning, the middle and the end. No matter what the disease might be, a purge was the first remedy they administered. His prices certainly were moderate; a visit in the vicinity was one shilling; for a visit at more than a mile distance, three shillings; and four shillings for going in the night; a visit to North Sea would be five shillings; and if he stayed there all night, and furnished medicines, it would be nine and six pence; it would be seven shillings to Seth Squires at Squiretown; and eight shillings to Wakeman Foster's at Pon Quogue; and the same to Red Creek. A visit, with paregoric, cost Squire Herrick (a near neighbor) two shillings; and for three visits, with spirits of nitre, he charged three and six. (Mr. William S. Pelletreau's "Southampton Address"—1890)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1750; m. (1) Hannah, dau. of Rev. Nathaniel Eells, of Middletown, Conn., (2) Ann Stephens; d. Dec. 20, 1840. His children were: Hannah E. 5. m. Capt. J. Parker; Phebe 5, also m. Capt. J. Parker; and Sylvanus 5. The latter m. Abigail Stephenson; and d. about 1704. His dau., Mercy 3, m. (1) Capt. Thomas Betts (See Betts); (2) Capt. Joseph Sackett. ("Sacketts of America," p. 21. See also Sackett)—(N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 10. 14)

It is probable that the Family on L. I. was not related to the descendants of John, of New Haven and Branford, Conn. (Mr. James Shepard. Also N. E. Hist'l and Gen'l Reg., Apr., 1901)

WHITEHEAD BENJAMIN, MRS. ()—On Sept. 22, 1780, Mabel, wife of Benjamin Whitehead, was allowed to go from the American lines to L. I. with her two young sons. Benjamin, at Lloyds' Neck, had been four years with the British. (Trumbull Pap. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co. Olden Times," p. 56) On Oct. 24, 1780, permission was given to her, and one child, to go to L. I. (F. 20)

Benjamin Whitehead was probably in the same generation with Mercy, above; and he may have been a brother. ("N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.," 33. 101)

WHITMAN ISAAH 5 (Nicholas 4, 3, Thomas 2, John 1)—From Huntington. In Feb., 1779, he petitioned for relief from the Comm'rs of Sequestration, it being stated that he was "from parts of the State now in the possession of the enemy." (B. 2) As the others thus designated were from Huntington, it is probable that he was also from that Town. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

The ancestry, given above, is from the Whitman Gen. The Isaiah 5 mentioned therein was, for a part of the time at least, in Windsor, Mass. He was b. in 1760; m. in 1784, Chloe Phillips; d. Apr. 7, 1827.

It is probable that he was Isaiah 6 (Zebulon 5, 4, Joseph 3, Zachariah 2, Abija 1); bapt. Aug. 6, 1754; m. Hannah ———. He removed to Hope Center, Hamilton Co., N. Y. His children were: Jesse 7, Phebe 7, Polly 7, Zebulon 7 and Isaiah 7. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

An Isaiah, m. Sept. 12, 1775, Amy Brush. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

WICK—The first of the name, John 1, was in Southampton, in 1693. He removed to Bridge Hampton, where he d. He was b. in 1661; m. Temperance ———; d. Jan. 16, 1719. He was Sheriff of Suffolk Co., and a Magistrate. Among his children was John 2, of Bridge Hampton. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 405, 406) It was probably John 2 who built the house, once used as a tavern, now owned by Joseph M. Briggs. (See Page 634)

WICK EDWARD 3 (John 2, 1)—From East Hampton to Guilford. In 1776, with six passengers and goods, he was brought over by Capts. Ezekiel Ruggles and James Harris. His claim was receipted for by Lewis Osborn. (C. 158) He was from Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) He signed the Association, at East Hampton, in 1775. (H. 28)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 52) He had children: Mary 4; and Elizabeth 4, bapt. at East Hampton, in June, 1776.

(Howell, as above, p. 406)

A Phebe Wick, wife of Edward Wick, d. Jan. 1, 1799, aged 52. She is buried at North Guilford, Conn.

Edward Wick

WICKES EZEKIEL 4 (Joseph 3, Thomas 2, 1)—From Huntington to Norwalk. On Jan. 7, 1780, he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for relief from the poll tax. (E. 32) On Oct. 24, same year, his family and goods were allowed to be brought over by Capt. Jabez Gregory; and, on Sept. 4, 1781, he wanted his family removed from L. I. to Conn., the statement being made that he was a "commissioned cruiser." (F. 21) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was b. May 4, 1729; m. Mar. 28, 1756, Sarah Haviland, of Oyster Bay; d. Mar. 26, 1808. His children were: Jesse 5 (See Jesse Weeks above), m. Susanna Kelsey; William 5, probably m. Keturah Burr; Lewis 5, m. Nov. 12, 1815, Susan Blatchly; Sarah 5, m. Col. Benjamin North (See North); and Freelove 5, m. ———— Goddard. (Wickes Gen.)

The Gen. also mentions an Ezekiel, b. May 13, 1734; m. Jerusha ————, or Susanna Whitmore (Whitman?); d. Aug. 23, 1777. He was a son of Robert, who was b. Mar. 31, 1708. Another Ezekiel, b. on L. I. about 1750;

JOHN WICK—BRIDGE HAMPTON, L. I.
(The Hampton Printing and Publishing Co.)

Ezekiel Wickes

m. Elizabeth ————; removed to Egg Harbor, N. J. Still another Ezekiel, who was a Tory. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

WICKES, JOHN 4, CAPT. (Jonathan 3, John 2, Thomas 1)—Probably from Huntington. He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 29); and he may have signed, from Queen's Co., in 1776. (H. 9) He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1), also in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 16); and the members of his Co. are given. (G. 33) His men were mustered and paid before the Battle of L. I. (G. 39) As a private, he may have served in the 4th Line (G. 48); or in the 2d Art'y of the Line. (G. 50) He may have taken land under the Land Bounty Rights ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 211); or he may have claimed damages by the Amn. Army. (Same ref., p. 252)

He was b. in 1723; d. June 5-6, 1801. He m. (1) Jan. 24, 1750, Bathsheba Higbie (d. Sept. 9, 1763); m. (2) Dec. 11, 1766, Wid. Elizabeth Tucker (d. April —, 1786); m. (3) Jan. 3, 1788, Sarah Mills; m. (4) Mar. 23, 1792, Deborah Vail. His Wid., Deborah, d. in 1810. He had: John 5, bapt. May 12, 1754; and Bathsheba 5, bapt. July 22, 1761. (Wickes Gen.)

John Wickes

WICKES THOMAS 5, MAJ. (Eliphalet 4, Thomas 3, 2, 1)—From Huntington to Saybrook and Norwalk. He removed to Saybrook before Nov. 15, 1776. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 63) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He was a Capt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 4, 6, 34) As Maj., he was at Fairfield, Conn., Aug. 12, 1782. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book"—1866, p. 22, N. Y. City Pub. Lib'y) Later, he was at Fishkill, with his family; where he had the rank of Maj. in the Qr. Master's Dept. He returned to Huntington; and went thence to Flushing and Jamaica. (Wickes Gen.) He was a Member of the Committee of Huntington, in 1774 (H. 2); and also in 1775. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2, 199) In the latter year, he was on the Committee to raise the 1st Regt. (G. 1) On Jan. 12 and Apr. 8, 1776, he was Chairman of the Committee of Huntington. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) In Apr., 1776, he reported to the Cong. that the Fleet of the enemy was off Eaton's Neck. (Page 28. Also A. 1) He was at Brooklyn before the Battle of L. I. (Page 41) On Nov. 22, 1776, he rode express to the Committee of Safety. (Jour. of Committee) He advanced money to the State of New York on Gov. Clinton's promise to pay. (Page 136) He was Sheriff of Suffolk Co., 1785-1787, and 1791-1793; and Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1777-1783. (B. 43-48) On Apr. 6, 1787, he petitioned the Ass'y for relief in suits brought against him as a Dep'y Comm'y Gen. of Purchases during the War. (Ass'y Jour.) Other information will be found in Ross' "Long Island," 2, 573. Also in "The Lineage of Thomas Wickes," by the late Dr. Stephen Wickes, of Orange, N. J.

He was b. Aug. 10, 1744; m. (1) May 13, 1762, Sarah Brush, (2) Sept. 8, 1767, Abigail Van Wyck; d. Nov. 30, 1819. (Wickes Gen.)

His children were: Scudder 6, b. Sept. 9, 1768, d. at Norwalk, Sept. 28, 1776; Eliphalet 6, b. Apr. 1, 1769; Frances 6, b. Oct. 25, 1770, d. y.; Van Wyck 6, b. Mar. 4, 1773, d. y.; Thomas 6, b. Mar. 25, 1775, d. y.; Van Wyck 6, b. Apr. 29, 1779; Hannah 6, b. Dec., 1781, m. Joseph L. Hewlett, d. Mar. 8, 1816; Thomas 6, b. Mar. 19, 1784, d. Oct. 12, 1801; Jonathan Scudder 6, b. May 27, 1786, d. y.; and Harriet 6, b. May 25, 1789, m. Thomas W. Blatchford, of Troy, N. Y., d. Apr. 12, 1875. (Wickes Gen.)

Thos. Wickes

There were two by name of Thomas, probably belonging in Westchester Co., N. Y.—as noted in the Sketch of Jesse Weeks, above.

A Thomas Wicks, m. Aug. 6, 1786, Hannah Petit. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

WICKHAM—The first of the name on L. I. was Joseph 1, Esqr. and Col., from Killingworth, Conn., to Southampton. In Aug., 1686, he had a grant of land, at Sagg; provided he stay seven years and work at his trade, which he did. He m. (1) Sarah Satterly, (2) Elizabeth ———; d. July 6, 1734. Among his sons was Col. Joseph 2. (Moore's "Index," p. 144. Also Howell's "Southampton," p. 441) Col. Joseph 2, b. June 4, 1701; m. May 29, 1723, Abigail Parker; d. May 21, 1749. He had a son, Maj. Parker 3. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 32, 135. Also Craven's "Mattituck," pp. 48, 126) Other children of Col. Joseph 2 were: Abigail 3, Joseph 3, Sarah 3, Thomas 3, John 3, Elizabeth 3, Jerusha and Daniel Hull 3. (Mr. James Wickham)

WICKHAM JOHN 3 (Col. Joseph 2, Joseph 1; brother of Capt. Thomas, below)—From East Hampton to Stonington. On Dec. 8, 1776, he paid Capt. Peleg Pendleton for bringing freight from Sag Harbor to Stonington. (C. 9) See Parnel, below. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 15)

WICKHAM PARNEL 4 (Maj. Parker 3, Col. Joseph 2, Joseph 1)—From Southold. While other evidence that she was a Refugee is lacking; yet she may have been one, as she complained to the Conn. Authorities that she had been robbed of a sorrel mare by Capt. Jesse Leavenworth. The Authorities, thereupon, advised the Capt. to settle for the mare. (D. 12)

She was b. about 1757; m. Aug. 1, 1779, Ens. James Reeve (See Reeve); d. June 30, 1793, aged 36. (Mattituck Ch. Rec. and Tombstone) Her sister, Sarah 4, m. about 1789, Samuel, brother of Ens. James Reeve. Parnel was the mother of James W. and Irad Reeve. (Craven's "Mattituck," p. 126)

Her dau., Anna 5, m. William 4 (son of John 3) Wickham. My father was one of their sons. John 4 (eldest son of John 3), settled in Va., and was a celebrated lawyer. His g. grandson, Henry 7, is now a lawyer in Richmond, Va. His family, my brother and myself are the only male descendants of John 3 and his wife, Hannah Fanning, bearing the name of Wickham. (Mr. James Wickham)

WICKHAM THOMAS 3, CAPT. (Col. Joseph 2, Joseph 1; brother of John, above)—From East Hampton to Stonington. On Sept. 7, 1776, with 11 passengers, stock, grain and leather, he was brought over by Capt. William Warner, William Card, Samuel Beebe, Hubbard Latham, Thomas Robinson and Amos Pendleton. (C. 9) As a Refugee, and in company with the Refugees Thomas Dering and John Foster, he was, on Dec. 31, 1776, appointed by the Committee of Safety an Auditor of the claims of all the Refugees (A. 21); and reports were made thereon, Mar. 17 and Aug. 7, 1777. (Pages 189, 190, 192. Also A. 37, 45) Appendix C. contains the claims in full. The lack of his signature, in many of the certificates, was owing to his absence at sea. For a description of this work, see Thomas Dering, Pages 329, 330.

He was on the Committee of East Hampton, in 1774. (H. 1) He was in charge of Gardiner's Island and the stock thereon. (Jour. Prov'l Cong., Aug. 9, 1775) He was a Delegate to the 1st, 2d and 3d Prov'l Congresses, 1775-6 (Page 130. Also A. 56-58); and a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, in 1791. (Civil List) While a Member of the Prov'l Cong., July 22, 1775, he produced a certificate from John Chatfield, of East Hampton, showing that every male inhabitant of the Town, including himself, capable of bearing arms, had joined an Association for resisting the measures of Great Britain. (Page 142. Also H. 28) Previous to this, he had acknowledged the receipt of Warrants issued by the Prov'l Cong., on June 29, to nine Capt. and Lts. in the L. I. Militia. (G. 1)

On June 28, 1776, the Prov'l Cong. appointed him one of a Committee to confer with Gen. Washington as to the removal or protection of the stock on Nassau and Staten Islands. (A. 2) After the Battle of L. I., and his removal to Stonington, he made that place his headquarters as Capt. of a Privateer, a sloop of eight guns, with which he took several prizes. (Page 217) At one time, together with Capt. John Grinnell and Maj. John Davis, he attempted to surprise the enemy at Sag Harbor. The boats were driven on shore; but Capt. Wickham brought them off before the enemy could fire them. (Page 217) One of his relics was a weight at his front gate made from grape shots fired by the British in their attack on Stonington.

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 52) He was b. Jan. 13, 1733. His dau., Sarah 4, m. Judge John P. Osborn, of Noyack. (Hon. Henry P. Hedges) It is probable that he d. at East Hampton; but the Ch. Recs. do not mention it. He has no descendants in the Town. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton) He was not the Capt. Thomas who d. at Mattituck, in 1846. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 223)

The above as to the ancestry of Capt. Thomas 3 differs from our Family Record—which says that Thomas 3 was a graduate of Yale, a physician; and that he removed to Orange Co., N. Y., where others of the Family had settled. He may have had descendants; but this has not been proved. Might not Capt. Thomas 3 have been the son of a brother of Col. Joseph 2; and thus cotemporary with our Thomas 3? (Mr. James Wickham)

It is probable that Capt. Thomas 3 and Dr. Thomas 3 were cousins. The citation from the N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec. seems to give the ancestry of

Thomas Wickham

Capt. Thomas 3 as indicated, above. As the date of birth, given in the Rec., does not agree with the Census, two of the name, Thomas, may be involved.

WIGGINS—The first of the name, in Southold, was John 1, b. in 1641; m. Hannah Rider. He came to R. I. from Eng., in 1656. He is on the Records of Southold down to 1686. He had a son, James 2; also a son, John 2, who m. (1) Mary Corey, (2) Wid. Mary Brown, and d. Sept. 18, 1768. (Moore's "Index," pp. 47, 129. Also Southold Ch. Rec.)

Researches later than Moore give the line: John 1; James 2, m. Annis Conkling; John 3, m. Mary Corey; the Refugees, below, Capt. David 4, and Capt. James 4. (Mr. Willard H. Wiggins)

WIGGINS DAVID 3, CAPT. (John 2, 1; or Capt. David 4, John 3, James 2, John 1; brother of Capt. James, below)—From Southold to Saybrook and Chester. Youngs' Gen. states that he was from Shelter Island. In Sept., 1776, his grain, etc., were brought to Chester by Capt. Elijah Mason. (C. 98) Same month, he and his effects were moved over to Saybrook by Capt. James Wiggins and Wilmot Goldsmith. His claim was paid to Col. John Hulbert. (C. 184) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), in Jan., 1777, he moved a part of the effects of Elias Mulford from L. I. to Middletown. (C. 109) On June 17, 1779, he was allowed to return to L. I., with his wife, son, daughter and effects. (D. 31)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 3; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. about 1720; m. Ruth, dau. of Thomas Terry 3d (See Terry); d. about 1810. His children were: David 4, Thomas 4, William 4, Mehitable 4, Ruth 4, and Hannah 4. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 130) David 4, m. Mary, dau. of Peter Vail, and had seven children. (Vail Gen. pp. 44, 45) Thomas 4, m. Mehitable, dau. of Peter Vail, and had eight children. (Vail Gen. p. 45) Mehitable 4, m. John Youngs 2d. (See Youngs)

Capt. David was b. in 1725. His son, David 4, b. in 1751; m. Dec. 26, 1777, Mary Vail. (Willard H. Wiggins) It was probably David, the son, who was a private in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and a Corp. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38.)

WIGGINS JAMES 3, CAPT. (John 2, 1; or Capt. James 4, John 3, James 2, John 1; brother of Capt. David, above)—From Southold to East Haddam. In Sept., 1776, he brought over his four passengers and his goods. His claim was paid to Col. John Hulbert. (C. 184) On July 12, 1777, the Conn. Committee of Safety mentioned him as Capt. of a boat then at East Haddam. (Records of the State of Conn. 1. 348) As Capt. of a ship (Page 239), he was very active in removing the Refugees to Conn. Between Sept., 1776, and Jan., 1777, he brought over a part, or all, of the effects of the following:—To East Haddam: Daniel Hains (C. 197); Capt. David Pierson (C. 210); John Miller, Jr. (C. 215); Matthew Osborn (C. 116); Zebedee Osborn (C. 117); Ezekiel Sandford (C. 135); Jonathan Paine (C. 172); Ezekiel Howell (C. 77); Silas Norris (C. 112); Elisha Osborn (C. 113); and Dr. Jonathan Havens. (C. 66) To Saybrook: Capt. David Wiggins (C. 184); Maj. Uriah Rogers (C. 209); Col. Thomas Terry (C. 147); John Youngs (C. 161); Walter Howell (C. 75); Isaac Howell (C. 78); Isaac Jessup (C. 87); and Jonathan Conkling. (C. 26) To Moodus: Obadiah Gildersleeve (C. 55); and Daniel Howell. (C. 73) To Haddam: Nathan Fordham (C. 51); Capt. Joseph Tillinghast (C. 176); and Joseph Osborn. (C. 114) To Middletown: Lewis Osborn (C. 115); Capt. Calvin Moore (C. 105); and Elias Mulford. (C. 109) Also, from L. I. to Conn.: George Fordham (C. 50); and Maltby Gelston. (C. 54)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 54) He was b. in 1733; m. Mehitable, dau. of Thomas Terry 3d (see Terry), and sister of his brother, Capt. David's wife. He d. in 1802. His children were: James 4, b. in 1768, d. in 1829; and Mehitable 4, b. in 1765, d. in 1806. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 131) He was m. in 1759. (W. H. W.)

WILLIAM (INDIAN)—With three other Indians, he was taken from Shelter Island up the Conn. River by Capt. John Vail, in Sept. and Oct., 1776. (C. 177)

WILLIAMS—Robert 1 came to Oyster Bay, in 1653-4. He was in Huntington, in 1667. He had a son, Richard 2; and a grandson, Nathaniel 3. (Williams Gen. Also Chap. 16)

Robert Williams was grantee in the Indian title to the purchase of a tract South of the Ridge of Hills, including Jericho, in 1648; and one of the associate grantees of Oyster Bay, in 1653. He m. Sarah, dau. of William and Jean Washbourne. He had but one son, John 2, who m. Leah Townsend. I think the parentage of Richard 2, above, is not known. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

James Wiggins

Nathaniel 3, b. about 1698; probably m. Elizabeth Platt; d. Aug. 4, 1732. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime) His will was dated July 31, 1732; proved Dec. 20, 1732, wife, Elizabeth; daughters, Sarah 4 and Elizabeth 4; sons, Nathaniel 4 and Jonas 4. Witnesses, William Rublear, Thomas Brush and Ebenezer Prime. (Huntington Wills. Vol. 3. N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y Collection) The dau., Elizabeth 4, m. Dr. and Col. Gilbert Potter. (See Potter)

See "Capts., &c.," Page 256. Also "History of the Williams Family," p. 346.

WILLIAMS CONTENT 5 (Dau. of Nathaniel, below; sister of Ens. Nathaniel, Jr., below, and Timothy, below)—From Huntington. On Oct. 24, 1780, she was permitted to go to L. I. (F. 20)

WILLIAMS JACOB ()—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 24); and probably in Conn. (G. 100)

WILLIAMS JOHN ()—From Huntington. He served as a Drum. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 33); and he may have served in Conn. One of the name was killed at Fort Griswold. (G. 100) He, or another, was on the Privateer "Marquis de Lafayette." (Page 218)

A John, from Queens Co., was a Delegate to the 3d Prov'l Cong. (A. 58) One of the name, m. Dec. 9, 1787, Elizabeth Shank, or Skank. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

WILLIAMS NATHANIEL 4 (Nathaniel 3, John 2, Robert 1; father of Content, above, Ens. Nathaniel, Jr., below, and Timothy, below)—From Huntington. He was evidently in Conn.; as his dau., Content, was allowed to go to L. I. (F. 20) He probably served in Conn. (G. 100) He was a "Son of Liberty," from Huntington. (Leake's "Life of John Lamb," p. 4) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) According to the enemy, he was one of the principal Rebels in Huntington. (Page 175)

He is usually described as Nathaniel, Jr.; and his father, Nathaniel 3, as Nathaniel, Sr. But in the documents relating to the Refugees (which we must follow), he is mentioned simply as Nathaniel; and his son, Ens. Nathaniel 5, below, is mentioned as Nathaniel, Jr.

He was b. about 1721; d. Nov. 27, 1781. He m. (1) Keziah Brush; (2) Rachel Fleet. His sons: Ens. Nathaniel, Jr. 5, below, and Timothy 5, below were bapt. May 9, 1766. His wife, Rachel, and daughters, Hannah 5, Content 5, above, Sarah 5, Charlotte 5, Rebecca 5 and Rachel 5, were bapt. on the same date. (Rear Adm'l E. S. Prime)

In the Titus Gen., a Nathaniel 4 appears. He was a son of Jonas 3, who m. Mary 3 Titus. His will (Liber 12, p. 13, N. Y. Wills) names wife, Elizabeth; minor daughters, Mary, Elizabeth and Sarah; and sons, Jonas and Nathaniel. (Mr. Edmund D. Titus)

WILLIAMS NATHANIEL, JR., 5, ENS. (Son of Nathaniel 4, above; brother of Content, above, and Timothy, below)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 6, 34); and probably in Conn. (G. 100)

WILLIAMS THOMAS, LT. ()—From Huntington to Stonington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 15); and he may have served in Conn. One of the name was killed at Ft. Griswold. (G. 100) He, or another, was on the Privateer "Oliver Cromwell." (Page 218)

WILLIAMS TIMOTHY 5 (Son of Nathaniel 4, above; brother of Content, above, and Ens. Nathaniel, Jr., above)—From Huntington to Norwalk; where he was, in 1780. (F. 124) He served in Col. Smith's Regt., from Queens Co. (G. 26)

He may have been b. in 1756; m. Jane Oakley. (Miss Nettie E. Pearsall)

WILLIAMS ZEBULON—From Huntington to Norwalk; whence, in Feb., 1780, he petitioned for leave to return to L. I., which was granted. (E. 111, 112)

On June 22, 1777, he m. Abigail Par-sick [?]. (Fairfield-Westport, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

Zebulon, b. Seaman, son of David and Temperance (William 3) Seaman. He took the name of Williams, in 1772, in order to inherit some property. (Mr. George W. Cocks. Also Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 45) He was a Delegate, from Queens Co., to the 1st N. Y. Prov'l Cong. (A. 56)

WILLIAMSON JEDEDIAH—From Brookhaven. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 35); and in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 19) He was a pensioner of 1833, age 76, "served in Mass." ("N. Y. Pension Roll," p. 429)

He probably m. Feb. 28, 1782, Charity Mobery. (Smithtown Ch. Rec.)

WILLIS—The first settler on L. I. was Henry 1, b. in 1628, in Wiltshire, Eng.; m. Mary Pierce (Peace); d. in 1714. He came to Oyster Bay, in 1675; and moved thence to Hempstead. His son, William 2, b. in 1663; m. Mary Titus. William's son, John 3, b. in 1693; m. Abigail Willetts. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 15. 170)

WILLIS RICHARD 4 (John 3, William 2, Henry 1)—From L. I. to Dutchess Co., N. Y. On Feb. 16, 1779, Theodorus Van Wyck wrote from Fishkill to Henry Livingston, Jr., Comm'r of Sequestration for Dutchess Co., that he had given permission to Richard Willis, a Refugee, to possess a house and two acres of land, formerly the property of John Haviland, gone to the enemy; and that said Willis had been in possession nearly two years. The soil was the property of Bev. Robinson. (Rec., as above, 2. 33)

He was b. Oct. 30, 1716. (Rec., as above, 15. 170) He m. Elizabeth, dau. of James Pine. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

WILMOT—The members of this Family probably descend from Alexander 1, of New Haven, in 1697. He removed to Bridge Hampton. He probably d. in 1721. He had a son, Rev. Walter 2, b. in 1709; d. in 1744. Alexander 1, also had children: Mary 2; Hannah 2; Hepsabah 2; and Sarah 2, m. Abraham Bradley. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 441)

WILMOT NATHANIEL ()—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 34); and in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

WILSON ROBERT—From Queens Co. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 26, 28); and probably in Conn. (G. 100) He may have served in the 3d Line, as Fift., Serjt. and Ens. (G. 46)

He may have been b. in 1764; and d. in 1811.

See Wilson, in "Capts., &c." (Page 256)

WINES—WINDES—The first of the name in Southold was Barnabas 1, who came from Eng. to Watertown, Mass., in 1635. He appears in the Southold Records, 1654-1676; and d. about 1676. His dau., Anna 2, m. John Elton. (See Overton) His youngest son, Samuel 2, b. in 1645; d. Jan. 27, 1729. A son of Samuel 2, Samuel 3, b. in 1683; d. in 1739. (Moore's "Index," pp. 47, 130) A Barnabas, his descendant, had a dau., Anna, who m. Lt. James 5, Reeve. (See Reeve) He was probably the 4th Barnabas Wines, apparently Captain Barnabas, who d. between July 12, 1782, and Sept. 4, 1784; and who m., in 1725, Bethia, dau. of Thomas Terrill. She d. Jan. 3, 1746. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly) The name, Barnabas, was continued through seven generations. (Mr. James H. Wines)

WINES ABIJAH 4 (Samuel 3, 2, Barnabas 1)—From Southold to Guilford. In Sept. and Oct., 1776, with five passengers, he was brought over by Capt. David Landon. (C. 164) In Oct., 1776, some of his effects were brought over by Capts. John Vail, Jonathan Vail and Edward Benton. His claim was paid to Ezra L'Hommedicu. (C. 181) He signed his name, Windes. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 12)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 2. (A. 55) On July 2, 1765, he m. Deborah, dau. of Alsop Pain and Wid. of Rev. Ebenezer Frothingham. (See Pain) He was probably the father of Rev. Abijah Wines, who was b. May 27, 1776; graduated at Dartmouth College, in 1794, and became a noted theologian. To this family also belonged Rev. Enoch C. Wines, the well known commentator. (Whitaker's "Southold," pp. 53, 54)

WOOD—This family came to Huntington about 1675, in the persons of Edmond, or Edward, and his son known as Jonas, of Halifax, Eng. They were in Watertown, Mass., in 1635; went thence to Wethersfield, Conn.; thence to Stamford, Conn.; thence to Hempstead, in 1644; and thence to Huntington, where Jonas was one of the patentees of the Town. Jonas d., in 1690, leaving large tracts of land. Those of the name, in Huntington, descend from Jonas through his children: John, Jeremiah, Jonas, Timothy,

Abijah Windes

Elizabeth, Phebe and Ann. (Chap. 16. Also Huntington Town Recs. Also Howell's "Southampton," pp. 442, 443) Elizabeth, m. Isaac Platt; and Phebe, m. Epenetus Platt. (N. Y. Gen'l and Bio'g'l Rec., 10. 14. See also Platt)

Jonas, Sr., was in Springfield, Mass., in 1636; in Wethersfield and Stamford, in 1640; and was of L. I., in 1648. He was in Southampton, in 1654; and, in an action, is called "Halifax Jonas." In 1658, Jonas of Oram, Eng., and Jonas of Halifax, as agents for the settlement at Huntington, desired to join with the New Haven Colony. Jonas, Jr., was in Stamford, in 1640. Jeremiah was in Stamford, in 1640; and in Hempstead, in 1664. Edmund was in Stamford, in 1640; and in Hempstead, in 1644. (Huntington's "Stamford," pp. 46, 47)

In the first paragraph, above, Jonas of Halifax was probably Jonas of Oram. Jonas of Halifax, m. Joanna, dau. of John Strickland; d. between 1658 and 1662. He probably left a family; but only Samuel is proven. His brother, Edmund, b. not later than 1574; d. before 1669. Edmund's sons: Jonas of Oram, b. near 1595, m. Elizabeth, dau. of John 1 Conklin, d. about 1692; Jeremiah, m. Elizabeth ———, d. Dec. 28, 1683; Timothy, d. in 1659. (Mrs. Gilbert Scudder)

From Jonas, of Halifax, descended Hon. Silas Wood, the early Historian of L. I. (I. 15)

WOOD ELIPHALET ()—From Huntington. He served in Col. Drake's Provisional Regt. (G. 10); in the 3d Line (G. 46); and perhaps in the 4th Orange and the 3d Westchester. (G. 75, 79) In 1777, he was in the Privateer service. (Page 216)

He probably lived at Northport, L. I. His line, without doubt, was from Timothy through his son, John. He was bapt. Mar. 23, 1729; m. May 18, 1756, Grace Scidmore. His dau., Anna, bapt. May 6, 1770. (Mrs. G. S.)

An Eliphalet, m. July 27, 1777, Hannah Wright. (Chatham-Portland, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

WOOD JESSE ()—From Huntington to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) On June 10, 1779, he was permitted to go to Southampton, and to bring back the avails of the sale of his house. (D. 30) On Nov. 4, same year, he was permitted to go to L. I. and to bring salt on his return. (Page 115. Also D. 41) In the same year he was permitted to purchase bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29) He served in the Art'y of the Line (G. 51); and probably in the 2d and 6th Dutchess. (G. 64, 68)

His name is not found in the Huntington Town Records. (Mrs. G. S.)

WOOD JONAH 5, LT. (Jonah 4, Joseph 3, Samuel 2, Jonas of Halifax 1)—From Huntington. He served in Col. Floyd's Regt. (G. 1); and probably in Conn. (G. 100) He was with Gen. Woodhull, Aug. 26-28, 1776. (Page 41) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

He was b. in 1734; d. Feb. 14, 1817. He is buried in the family plat, at Dix Hills, near Huntington. There are few descendants from this line in Huntington now. There are descendants in Brooklyn; children of Andrew (Lewis, Charles, Melancthon, Jonah)—(Mrs. G. S.)

WOOD JOSEPH ()—From Huntington. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 33); and in Conn. (G. 100) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 29)

There is doubt as to which of several Josephs the Refugee was. A Joseph, Sr., of Huntington, m. Eunice Jarvis; and had a son, Joseph, Jr. Another Joseph (Jeremiah, Edmund), m. Joanna; and lived at Hempstead. Another Joseph, of Mosquito Cove (now Oyster Bay), m. Elizabeth ———. He is credited with a son, Joseph. His will was proved, in 1773, or 1774. (Mrs. G. S.) Another Joseph, also of Mosquito Cove, m. Mary, dau. of Robert and Deborah (Underhill) Coles. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

Rebecca, dau. of a Joseph Wood, m. Dr. Zophar Platt. (See Platt)

WOOD ZOPHAR 6 (Zophar 5, Caleb 2, Jonas of Halifax 1)—From Huntington to Stonington. In Sept., 1776, his goods were moved over by Capt. Amos Pendleton. (C. 213) In the same year, with his wife and child, and his mother's goods, he was brought over by Capts. Hubbard Latham and Hezekiah Willeox. His claim was receipted for by Capt. Eliphalet Budington. (C. 163) He served in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1.

Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52)

He was bapt. Mar. 30, 1748. His father,

Zophar 5, m. Apr. 11, 1745, Esther Smith.

(Mrs. Gilbert Seudder.)

WOODHULL—The first of the name on L. I. was Richard 1, b. in Eng., Sept. 13, 1620; m. Deborah ———; d. in 1690. It is claimed, by some, that the William Odell, named by Thompson ("Long Island") as of Southampton, was really Richard 1 Woodhull. It is probable that he came to America by 1648. He came first to Jamaica; and thence to Setauket. Woodhull Gen. states that he settled on L. I. in 1656. His dau., Deborah 2, m. Capt. John Lawrence, of Newtown. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 22, 36, 37) Among his children was Richard 2, b. Oct. 9, 1649; m. Temperance, dau. of Rev. Jonah Fordham; d. Oct. 18, 1699. Among the sons of Richard 2 were: Richard 3, and Nathaniel 3. Richard 3, b. Nov. 2, 1691; m. Mary Homan;

GEN. NATHANIEL WOODHULL — MASTIC, L. I.
(Furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth Woodhull Lawrence)

d. Nov. 24, 1767. His dau., Mary 4, m. Jonathan Thompson. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., as above. See also Thompson) Richard 4, son of Richard 3, b. Oct. 11, 1712; m. Margaret 5 (Maj. Edmund 4, 3, Adam 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull) Smith (see Smith); d. Oct. 13, 1788. Stephen 4, son of Richard 3, b. in 1722; m. Hannah, dau. of Abraham Cooper (see Cooper), of Southampton. Nathaniel 3, m. Sarah 3 (Richard 2d, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull) Smith. (See Smith) Among the children of Nathaniel 3 were: Gen. Nathaniel 4, below; Col. Jesse 4, below; Dorothy 4, m. Job 2d, 3 (Job 1st, 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull) Smith (see Smith); Capt. Ebenezer 4, who had already removed to Orange Co., N. Y., before the War; and Ruth 4, m. Judge William 3 Smith, grandson of Col. William 1—Tangier. A Dorothy, m. Edmund, 2d, 4 (Edmund, 1st, 3, Adam 2, Maj. Richard 1—Bull) Smith. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2, 397-401, 447, 453. See also Smith) A Richard, of Orange Co., N. Y., m. Hannah 4 (Judge William 3, Maj. William Henry 2, Col. William 1—Tangier) Smith. (See Smith)

WOODHULL ABRAHAM COOPER 5, CAPT. (Stephen 4, Richard 3, 2, 1) —From Brookhaven. On Mar. 11, 1781, he asked permission to bring from L. I. to Conn., certain dry goods which he had inventoried. He was vouchered for by Col. Benjamin Tallmadge. The petition was granted. (E. 126-128) He was Capt. of the Privateer "Fox." (Page 218. Also G. 100)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 3; under 16, 3. (A. 51)

Thompson ("Long Island," 2. 401) calls him "Cooper." But he evidently referred to Abraham Cooper who was named after his mother's father.

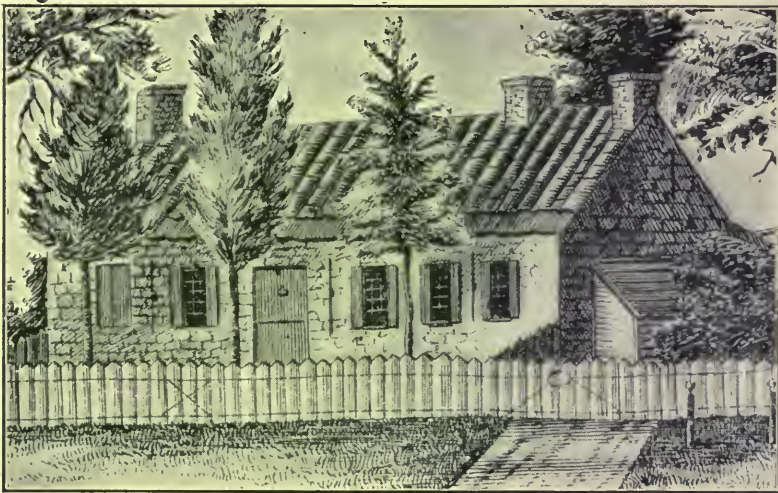

He was b. Dec. 20, 1753; m. (1) Sept. 17, 1774, Sarah, or Jane, dau. of Dr. Gilbert 3 Smith (see Smith), (2) Apr. 17, 1782, Eunice Sturges; d. Mar. 5, 1803.

His children were: Sarah 6, b. June 22, 1775; Catharine 6, b. Oct. 9, 1776; Jane 6, b. Aug. 4, 1778; Mary 6, b. Nov. 15, 1784; Eunice 6, b. Aug. 8, 1791; Isaac 6, b. Mar. 1, 1794; Abraham Cooper 6, b. May 19, 1798; Samuel 6, b. Jan. 5, 1800; and Rev. Richard 6, b. Jan. 15, 1802.

WHERE GEN NATHANIEL WOODHULL DIED—NEW UTRECHT, L. I.
(Nathaniel Woodhull Chapter, D. A. R.)

WOODHULL JESSE 4, COL. (Nathaniel 3, Richard 2, 1; brother of Gen. Nathaniel, below)—From Orange Co., N. Y. While he was not a Refugee, strictly speaking, yet it seems best to place him in these sketches of his immediate family. He removed to Orange Co. during the War; and served as Col. of the 1st Regt. (G. 72)

He was b. at Mastic, L. I., Feb. 10, 1735; m. in 1753, Hester Du Bois, of New Paltz, N. Y.; d. Feb. 4, 1795. His children were: Nathaniel 5, b. Nov. 1, 1758; Richard 5, b. Sept. 14, 1760; Hannah 5, b. July 8, 1761, m. Oliver 5, son of Col. Josiah Smith (see Smith); Sarah 5, b. Sept. 9, 1763, m. Gen. John Floyd of Smithtown; Renelike 5; Jesse 5, M. D.; Ebenezer 5, b. Jan. 23, 1772. (Woodhull Gen.)

Jesse Woodhull

WOODHULL NATHANIEL 4, BRIG.-GEN. (Nathaniel 3, Richard 2, 1; brother of Col. Jesse, above)—From Mastic. Although not a Refugee, he is placed here for reasons similar to those given in Col. Jesse, above.

He served in the French and Indian War, in 1754; also as a Maj. under Abercrombie at Crown Point and Ticonderoga. He took a prominent part in the capture of Fort Frontenac, in June, 1758; and was Col. in the 3d Regt. of N. Y. Provincials, under Amherst, in the campaign against Montreal. On June 29, 1775, he received the warrants for certain officers of the Militia (G. 1); and in June, July and August, of the same year, he received lists of the signers of the Association, in Brookhaven. (H. 20) He was a Brig. Gen. in Suffolk Co., in 1755; having been unanimously elected such at a meeting of the several Committees of Huntington, Smithtown, Brookhaven, Manor of St. George and Patentship of Moriches. The meeting was held at Smithtown, on Sept. 7. (G. 1)

In the Colonial Ass'y he represented Suffolk Co. He was a Delegate, from that Co., to all four of the Prov'l Congresses, 1775-6. He was President pro tem., of the 1st Cong.; President of the 2d and 3d Congresses; and one of the Presidents of the 4th Cong., or Convention. (Page 130. Also A. 56-59. Also Civil List) His autograph, as President, is on Page 130.

TABLET TO THE MEMORY OF BRIG.-GEN. NATHANIEL WOODHULL—HOLLIS, L. I.
(Furnished by the Sons of the Revolution in the State of N. Y.)

It has never been explained why a man of his Military and Civil prominence was not given an important command during the events that preceded the Battle of L. I. Instead of that, he was assigned to the duty of driving the cattle out of the reach of the enemy. However undignified he might have considered this duty, he did it as effectively as possible with the small number of Troops assigned to him. His activities in this line are described on pages 29, 30, 41, 42, 48; and also in Ap. A., 1, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10-12. The later references, above, show that the Convention, on Aug. 28, 1776, had ordered reinforcements to be sent to him. But it was too late; for he was captured on that date, the day after the Battle of L. I. (Pages 173, 174) While he was awaiting orders from Gen. Washington, at the Inn of Lt. Increase Carpenter (See Page 288), about two miles East of the present R. R. station at Jamaica, he was surprised by about 700 of the enemy, under Sir William Erskine. Commanded to say "God save the King," he said "God save us all." He would have been killed on the spot had not Capt. Oliver DeLancey intervened. Being badly wounded, he was taken to the Prison in the Church at New Utrecht. Thence, in turn, he was removed to the Prison Ships "Pacific" and "Mentor;" and, finally, to the house opposite the octagonal Church, known as De Sille house, at New Utrecht. Amputation of his wounded arm was followed by his death, on Sept. 20. (Pages 288, 642. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," pp. 121-135. Also Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 605) His record, in a more enduring form, may be found in Luther R. Marsh's "Gen. Woodhull and His Monuments."

Nath Woodhull

The locality of the capture is known as Hollis, today. On May 23, 1912, there was presented to the City of New York by the Sons of the Revolution a bronze tablet to the memory of Gen. Woodhull, who was wounded near the spot where the tablet had been erected. The tablet (Page 643) shows Gen. Woodhull standing beside his horse, his sword in his right hand. Underneath is the following inscription:

GEN. WOODHULL, MASTIC, L. I.

(Furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth Woodhull Lawrence)

In memory of Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull, President of the Provincial Congress of New York in 1775, who on Aug. 28, 1776, was cruelly wounded by the enemy at Jamaica while co-operating with Washington on Long Island. He died a prisoner at New Utrecht, Sept. 20, 1776, a citizen, soldier, patriot of the Revolution.

He was b. Dec. 30, 1727; m. in 1761, Ruth, dau. of Nicoll, and sister of Col. William Floyd (see Floyd); d. as above. He had two children. His son, Nathaniel 5, d. y. His dau., Elizabeth 5, b. Nov. 30, 1762; m. (1) Henry Nicoll (see Nicoll), (2) as his third wife, Gen. John Smith (see Smith); d. Sept. 14, 1839. (Woodhull Gen.)

The house, at Mastic (Page 641), was built soon after the Rev'y War, near the site of the former house. The original purchase of land from the Indians, in the 17th Century, is still held by the descendants of Gen. Woodhull.

WOODRUFF—The first of the name on the Southampton list was John 1, in 1657. He m. Anne ———; d. in May, 1670. His son, John 2, m. Sarah Gosmer; d. in 1703. Benjamin 3, son of John 2, was of Bridge Hampton; and from him all the Refugees descend. He m. in 1704, Margaret Davis, of East Hampton; d. in 1750. He had sons: Daniel 4, below; David 4, below; and Timothy 4. (Howell's "Southampton," pp. 407, 408)

Hon. Francis E. Woodruff, author of "The Woodruffs of N. J.," writes that John 1 (1574-1611) of Fordwick, Eng., m. Elizabeth Cartwright; who, as his Widow, m. John Gosmer. The latter, with his wife Elizabeth and John 2 (son of John 1 Woodruff) came to Southampton, L. I. John 2 thus became the emigrant ancestor. He was b. in 1604; d. in 1670. He m. Anne ———. His eldest son, John 3 (1637-1691), m. Sarah, dau. of John Ogden, and was the ancestor of the Elizabethtown, N. J., branch. Another John 3, younger son of John 2, m. Hannah Newton, and remained at Southampton. He was b. in 1650; d. in 1703. His second surviving son, Joseph 4 (1676-1742), emigrated to N. J. about 1700, and became the ancestor of the Westfield branch.

From the above, it will be seen that Mr. Woodruff starts the generations one earlier than Howell—his John 2 being the John 1, of Howell. As Howell paid special attention to the L. I. generations, his numbers are followed, below.

It is generally understood that there is no connection between John 1 and Matthew 1 of Farmington, Conn., the ancestors of the New England Woodruffs.

WOODRUFF BENJAMIN 5 (Daniel 4, below, Benjamin 3, John 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton. He probably went to Guilford; as his sheep were put in the flock there, Sept. 26, 1776. (C. 217) He was in the Privateer service, on the "Oliver Cromwell", and on the "Putnam." (Page 218. Also Pet., 23, 230. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269. Also "Spt." to same, p. 169) He also served in Conn. (G. 100) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 3. (A. 54) He had children: Jesse 6, b. in 1765, d. in 1857; Job 6, b. in 1776, d. in 1857; and Elisha 6, who had a son, Jesse 7. (Howell, as above, p. 408)

WOODRUFF — SHELTER ISLAND, N. Y.
(Furnished by Mr. Ralph Griffing Duvall)

A Benjamin, d. Feb. 23, 1808, aged 73; and is buried at Scuttle Hole, near Bridge Hampton. (Hon. Francis E. Woodruff.)

Benjamin Woodruff

WOODRUFF DANIEL 4 (Benjamin 3, John 2, 1; father of Benjamin, above, and brother of David, below)—From Bridge Hampton to East Haddam. On Sept. 20, 1776, with three in the family and goods, he was moved over by Capt. Joshua Griffith. (C. 57) He served in the 1st Line. (G. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (G. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 1. Females—above 16, 1. (A. 54) He had children: Benjamin 5, above; John 5; Elias 5; and Mary 5. (Howell's "Southampton," p. 407)

daniel woodruff

A Daniel, perhaps too young for the Refugee, d. July 22, 1825, aged 78; and is buried at Bridge Hampton. (Hon. F. E. W.)

WOODRUFF DAVID 4 (Benjamin 3, John 2, 1; brother of Daniel, above)—From Bridge Hampton. In Nov., 1780, he asked permission to cross from Conn. to L. I. (F. 123). He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 54) He had children: David 5, and Joshua 5. (Howell, as above, p. 408) David 5 was probably the one who served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 29, 30); and in the 4th Line. (G. 48)

David Woodruff

In the Conn. Gen'l Ass'y, in 1778, Noah Woodruff petitions as the conservator of the person and estate of David Woodruff. The latter was probably the David who d. at Farmington, Conn., in the same year. (Records of the State of Conn., 2, 38)

WOODRUFF SILAS 5 (Timothy 4, Benjamin 3, John 2, 1)—From Bridge Hampton. He served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 7, 30) He signed the Association, in 1775 (H. 11); also the Woolworth Agreement, in 1787. (H. 34)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 2. (A. 54) He had children: Elias 6, of Plattsburgh, N. Y.; Silas 6; Abigail 6; and Joseph 6, of Orange Co., N. Y. (Howell, as above, p. 408) He probably had another dau., Hannah 6, b. Aug. 29, 1777; m. in 1799, Phineas Paine (see Paine); d. July 1, 1859.

A Silas, d. Apr. 27, 1829, aged 80; and is buried at Scuttle Hole. (Hon. Francis E. Woodruff.)

Silas Woodruff

WOOLSEY—The emigrant to New Amsterdam was George 1. He was b. Oct. 27, 1610; came over with the Dutch emigrants, in 1623; d. in 1698. From New Amsterdam, he removed to Flushing, and thence to Jamaica. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2, 437, 438) Beside being on L. I., he was, for much of his life (about 1640-7), in New Amsterdam; where he was partner, or agent for Isaac Allerton. (Mr. Woolsey Carmalt) He m. Dec. 9, 1647, Rebecca, dau. of Thomas Cornell. Among his six children was George 2, b. in 1650; removed with his father to Jamaica; d. in 1741. His son, Rev.

Benjamin 3, b. Nov. 19, 1687; graduated at Yale College, in 1709; m. in 1714, Abigail Taylor; d. Aug. 15, 1756. (Thompson's, as above) The tombstone seems to record the date as 1759. He was the third Minister at Southold, 1720-1736. (H. 39. Also Whitaker's "Southold," pp. 183, 249-258, 285-313. Also Wood's "First Settlements on L. I.," p. 32. Also Prime's "Long Island," p. 282. Also N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., Vols. 4 and 5) In 1736, he removed from Southold to the estate of his wife, known as Dosoris, two miles North of the present village of Glen Cove.

MRS. ABIGAIL TAYLOR WOOLSEY
(Furnished by Mr. George W. Cocks)

The house that was built by Rev. Benjamin, and afterward occupied by his son, Col. Melancthon Taylor, was doubtless occupied during the Rev'y War by John Butler and his son-in-law, Nathaniel Coles. Onderdonk says that Butler was strung up by the neck to force him to tell where his money was; but the Coles family claim that it was Nathaniel, and that being an unusually tall man he was enabled to get sufficient support at his feet to save his life yet not disclose his secret to the whale-boatmen. As John Butler d. there, in 1790, leaving the property to his dau., Hannah, wife of Nathaniel Coles, I am disposed to believe that he was the party hung up to the lintel of the front door of the then house. In the will of Rev. Benjamin is the provision, "and if my wife inclines to live where she now is, she shall have the wainscott room and the bed room," which I think can only mean the (now) parlor, and determines the age of the house, as regards the ground floor of the main building. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

The children of Rev. Benjamin 3 were: Col. Melanethon Taylor 4, below; Benjamin 4, below; Abigail 4, m. Rev. Noah Wells, of Stamford, Conn.; Sarah 4, m. Lt. John 3 Lloyd, of Lloyd's Neck (see Lloyd); Mary 4, m. (1) Daniel Smith, (2) Dr. George Muirson (see Muirson); and Hannah 4. (Thompson, as above, p. 439) Thompson errs as to Hannah 4. WOOLSEY MELANCTHON LLOYD 5, LT. COL. and MAJ. (Melancthon Taylor 4, Rev. Benjamin 3, George 2, 1)—From Queens Village, now Lloyd's Neck. He served as Ens. in the 4th Line (G. 47); as Capt. and Maj. in Dubois' Levies (G. 59); and as Maj. in Graham's Levies. (G. 60) On Oct. 8, 1781, Gov. Clinton sent Maj. Woolsey to Gov. Trumbull with a letter stating that the Major's mother and family were then residing in Conn.; but, having left the greater part of their property on L. I. when the enemy arrived before

New York, would like passports to bring the property away. (Clinton Pap., 7. 383, 384) In Feb., 1783, he petitioned both branches of the N. Y. Legislature for the sale of goods taken in the Illicit Trade. (B. 10) On Apr. 21, 1785, he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y, praying for relief as an insolvent debtor. (B. 23) On Feb. 27, 1795, he petitioned the Senate of N. Y. for reimbursement for the encroachments of the British and Indians on lands in Clinton Co., N. Y. (B. 39) On Feb. 17, 1796, with others from Clinton Co., he petitioned the Senate of N. Y. praying to be allowed to purchase certain lands. On Apr. 16, 1796, the Committee reported that it was improper to make any particular provision for the sale of the lands. (Senate Jour.)

He was b. at Queens Village, May 8, 1758. At the age of 18 he entered the American Army, was highly esteemed as a soldier and was selected as Aide to

His dau., Mrs. Jane Gallup, lives at New Rochelle, N. Y. Israel 8, m. Ann E. Congdon. His children were: Israel Atmore 9, of Laurel; Benjamin Perry 9, who has sons, Louis Cleves 10, and Howard Atmore 10. (Mr. Israel A. Young)

YOUNGS JOHN (ONE) 5 (Jonas 4, Thomas 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Rev. Christopher 1; father of Jonas, Esq., below)—From Oyster Bay to Stamford. He occupied a place on what is now the West side of South St., in Oyster Bay Village, on which spot Richard Holbrook erected the first house in the Village, which was built in 1670. John Youngs was a staunch Whig; and, after the British took possession of L. I., he left Oyster Bay, by order of General Delancey, and went to Stamford, Conn. Application was made to his relatives at Oyster Bay to intercede for his return; and Captain Daniel Youngs, of Oyster Bay, who was a Captain in the Royal Militia, and a kinsman of John Youngs, sent his friend Thomas Smith, of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for Queens County, to see General Delancey about allowing John to return to L. I. On March 5, 1782, Thomas Smith wrote to Captain Daniel Youngs as follows:

SIR: When I was last at New York I waited on General Delancey, in behalf of John Youngs and his wife. From him I waited on the Governor likewise in their behalf. The Governor said he knew nothing about them. I soon found the matter, in my opinion, would be referred to General Delancey, as he sent them off, and now had the command of Long Island. I went back to General Delancey again and he, in a good humored way, swore at me and damned me for plaguing him so much in behalf of Youngs and his wife, and then told me he cared nothing about them, and I might, if I desired it, let them come back to Oyster Bay, and if John Youngs behaved himself quietly and peaceably no notice shall be taken of it. I, yesterday, acquainted Colonel Upham of it, so you may go and acquaint John Youngs' daughter that her father and mother may, if they choose it, and can get back to Oyster Bay without a flag being sent for them, they may come as soon as they please, and they shall not be molested. You may show this letter to them, but you must keep it in your hands, for if any person molests them, if they are quiet and peaceable according as cited in the letter, you will receive further orders from me. I dare say you can conceive that I would not presume to do anything of this nature without having the General's permission.

Oyster Bay, Hog Island, March 5th, 1782.
To Captain Daniel Youngs.

From your friend to serve,
Thomas Smith.

After the War he returned to Oyster Bay. He was b., at Stamford, Conn., in 1716; m (1) Rebecca ———; (2) in 1738, Rebecca ———;

COL. JOHN YOUNGS

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

CEMETERY AT SOUTHOLD, L. I.—FURNISHED BY SELAH YOUNGS, JR.

REV. JOHN YOUNGS

d. at Oyster Bay, in 1778. His children, all by his second wife, were: Lavinia 6, b. in 1740, d. in 1815; Abigail 6, d. y.; Abigail 6, b. in 1743, m. (1) ———— Pierce, (2) ———— Albertson; Thomas 6, b. in 1744, d. in 1788; Joseph 6, b. in 1746, not m., d. in 1795; Luther 6, b. in 1750, d. in 1776; Martha 6, b. in 1752, m. Benjamin Cheshire, in 1775; Jonas Esq., 6, the Refugee, below. (Youngs Gen.) Abigail 6, m. (1) William Pearce, (2) Albert Albertson. The grandfather of William Pearce wrote the name, Perse. (Mr. George W. Cocks)

YOUNGS JOHN FITZ (TWO) 7 (Fitz John 6, Daniel 5, John 4, Col. John 3, Rev. John 2, Rev. Christopher 1)—From Southold to Saybrook. In Sept. and Nov., 1776, with six passengers and his effects, he was brought over by Capts. James Webb and James Wiggins. (C. 161) On June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

A John Young, or Youngs, served in the following: Col. Smith's Regt., both as private and clerk (G. 37, 38); Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th of the Line (G. 43, 44, 46, 48, 49); Add'l Corps of the Line (G. 55); Harper's, Weissenfels' and Willett's Levies (G. 56, 57, 62); 2d, 6th and 7th Dutchess (G. 64, 68, 69); and in Conn. (G. 101) A Dr. John Young was in the Hospital service ("N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt," p. 45); and a Surg. Mate. (G. 57)

Census of 1776: Males—above 16 years, 1; under 16, 3. Females—above 16, 2; under 16, 3. (A. 55) He was b. at Stirling (now Greenport), in Southold, about 1745; m. Nov. 12, 1767, Mehitable, dau. of Capt. David Wiggins (See Wiggins); d. Dec. 24, 1801. His Wid. d. in 1812. His children were: John 8, b. about 1769, m. (1) Elizabeth Spencer, (2) Rachel Hallenbeck, had two daughters, removed to New Baltimore, N. Y., d. in 1847; Sarah 8, m. (1) Peter Havens, (2) John Armstrong; Mehitable 8, b. in 1772, m. Aug. 12, 1798, David Billard, d. in Dec., 1857; David 8, b. Mar. 24, 1775, m. Annes Davis, had four children, removed to Broome Co., N. Y., d. Dec. 24, 1853; James 8, b. in 1782, m. in 1804, Abigail, dau. of Jonathan Tuthill, had eight children, d. Feb. 9, 1832; William 8, b. Jan. 15, 1789, m. Lavinia Spencer, had a dau., removed to Cocksackie, Greene Co., N. Y., d. May 28, 1812. (Youngs Gen.)

YOUNGS JONAS 6, ESQ. (Son of John, One, above)—From Oyster Bay to Stamford. Like his father, he was of an adventurous disposition. He gained notoriety in whale-boat Expeditions, fitted out from Stamford, Conn., for the purpose of capturing prominent Tories on L. I. to be exchanged for Prisoners held by the British Army. (Page 120) An incident is related in Onderdonk's "Queens Co.," p. 217:—

July 31st, 1779. Last Tuesday morning, 2 o'clock, John Townsend, Esq., of Oyster Bay, was carried off by the rebels, led by Jonas Youngs, who robbed the house of many valuable articles, silver tankard, linen, etc., and partly demolished it. At the same time W. Sutton, of Maroneck, and a young man named Arnold Fleet were carried off to Stamford and paroled. The men carried their boat over the beach. Their sentinel, not hearing the signal, was left behind and wandered about on Mill Neck till starvation forced him to give up.

In 1776, his goods were removed from L. I. by Capt Jacob Riley. (C. 131) He may have served in the 6th Dutchess. (G. 68)

He was b. about 1754. (Youngs Gen.) The lack of further information is probably due to the fact that he never returned to L. I. (Hon. William J. Youngs)

YOUNGS JOSEPH (ONE) 5 (Jonathan 4, Gideon 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Rev. Christopher 1)—From Oyster Ponds (now Orient), in Southold, to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he asked leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 1. Females—above 16, 2. (A. 55) He was b. at Oyster Ponds, in 1721; m. (1) Abigail Aldrich, (2) Hannah Brown; d. in 1815. (Youngs Gen.) He d. in 1816, in his 96th year. (Griffin's "Journal," p. 162) His children were: Joseph 6; Hannah 6, b. in 1753, bapt. Mar. 3, 1754 (Mattituck Ch. Rec.), m. Jeremiah King (See King), d. Oct. 15, 1833. (Youngs Gen.)

YOUNGS JOSEPH (TWO) 6 (Israel 5, above, Benjamin 4, 3, Rev. John 2, Rev. Christopher 1; brother of Israel, Jr., above)—From Franklinville (now Laurel), in Southold, to Killingworth; whence, on Nov. 11, 1778, he complained that he had been plundered of produce on L. I. and petitioned Gov. Trumbull for relief. (D. 8) A Joseph Young, Jr., signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10)

He remained in Killingworth until 1796. While living there he joined the M. E. Church, and was an Ens. in the Train Band, in 1787. In 1796, he moved to the hamlet of Eaton's Bush, N. Y., where he had a grist-mill, and cabinet shop. He was a Federalist, and strict in his religious views. He seems to have never returned to the Island. (Mr. James F. Young)

As he was younger than Joseph (One), above, it is probable that he served in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 38); in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); and perhaps in the Add'l Corps of the Line. (G. 55) One of his name was a Prisoner. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n-Spt.," p. 44) Those of the name who served in the 1st, 2d and Ass'd Exempts of Westchester were probably related to him. (G. 77, 78, 81)

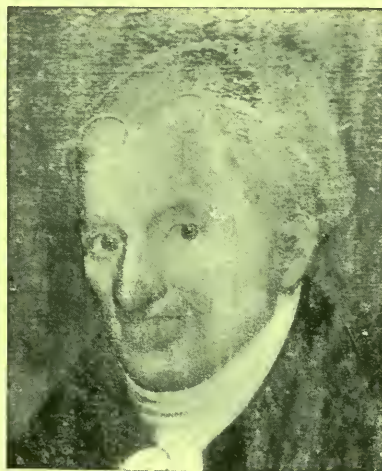

He was b. at Franklinville, Mar. 27, 1756; m. (1) Dec. 13, 1781, Chloe, dau. of Capt. Walter Friskwold, (2) Dec. 14, 1805, Elizabeth Short; d. at Eaton's Bush, N. Y., May 13, 1837. His children were: Joseph 7, b. Dec. 11, 1782, not m., d. June 17, 1875; Walter G. 7, b. Mar. 19, 1784; Anna 7, d. y.; Henry 7, d. y.; Nancy 7, b. June 20, 1788, m. (1) William Bateman, (2) Jonathan Freeman, d. Dec. 23, 1845; Charles P. 7, below; Elisha W. 7, b. Sept. 9, 1792; William B. 7, b. Nov. 29, 1794; Phebe H. 7, b. Dec. 9, 1796, m. Edward Hovey, d. in 1829; George B. 7, b. Jan. 21, 1800, d. s. p. Feb. 7, 1885; Horace 7, b. May 15, 1802; Chloe 7, b. Nov. 5, 1806, not m., d. July 5, 1867; Leonard 7, b. Apr. 4, 1808, not m., d. Jan. 30, 1895; Glover S., 7, b. Jan. 10, 1811; Benjamin 7, b. Apr. 20, 1813, not m., d. Oct. 2, 1872. (Youngs Gen., pp. 123, 124)

Charles P. 7, b. at Killingworth, Conn., Dec. 5, 1790; d. at Ripley, N. Y., Jan. 8, 1883. He m. (1) Dec. 5, 1813, Rebecca Higley; m. (2) Oct. 8, 1873, Polly Hammond. He served in the War of 1812. He removed to Ripley, in 1846. His farm, still occupied by his descendants, was on the site of an Indian village. He had eight children, among whom: William B. 8, b. Aug. 29, 1817; m. Dec. 24, 1846, Julia Beadle; d. at Ripley, Nov. 7, 1893. He had William A. 9; Abbie

Young 9, m. Edwin Conley, and had three children; and Mary S. 9. (Youngs Gen. Supplemented by Mrs. Abbie Young Conley)

YOUNGS JOSHUA 7, CAPT. (Judge Thomas 6, below, Joshua 5, John 4, Col. John 3, Rev. John 2, Rev. Christopher 1)—From Southold. He served as Lt. in Col. Terry's Regt. (G. 8); in Col. Smith's Regt., as Lt. in the Co. of Capt. Jonathan Bayley. (G. 4, 6, 38, 39—See Page 86 for a fac-simile of his Muster Roll) He served as Capt. in Col. Smith's Regt. (G. 19); and he was at Brooklyn before the Battle of L. I. (Page 41) In Dec., 1776, his Co. was in Col. Henry B. Livingston's Regt. (Page 92) After the War, he was on Shelter Island. In 1785, he removed to Farmington, Conn. (Youngs Gen.)

He was b. at Greenport, L. I., Aug. 15, 1750; d. at Farmington, Apr. 17, 1821. He m. Dec. 21, 1780, Hannah, dau. of Samuel Sanford, of Saybrook, Conn. She was b. Jan. 1, 1754; d. July 17, 1832. His children were: Hannah 8, b. June 1, 1784, d. June 12, 1784; Seth 8, b. Aug. 5, 1785, m. Wid. Elizabeth Brown; Thomas 8, b. Oct. 25, 1787, m. Elizabeth Miller; Constant 8, b. Mar. 30, 1790, m. Cynthia Wiggins; Joshua 8, b. Mar. 13, 1793, not m., d. in June, 1871; John 8, b. Sept. 2, 1795, d. Jan. 23, 1809. (Youngs Gen., p. 151 et seq. for continuation of the descendants)

JOSEPH YOUNGS (TWO)

(Furnished by Mrs. Abbie Y. Conley)

Joshua Youngs Jr.

YOUNGS RICHARD 6 (Richard 5, Jonathan 4, Gideon 3, Capt. Joseph 2, Rev. Christopher 1)—From Oyster Ponds (now Orient), in Southold, to Saybrook; whence, on June 12, 1777, he petitioned for leave to go to L. I. for provisions. (A. 43) He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 10) He probably served in Dubois' Levies (G. 59); and may have served in Conn. (G. 101)

He was b. about 1748; m. Sept. 6, 1787, Jemima Petty; d. in 1818. His children were: Richard 7, b. in 1785, m. Cynthia Beebe; Mary Dorothy 7, m. Thomas S. Beebe. (Dates of above as given in Youngs' Gen.; except that Mary Dorothy 7 is not given. It is probable that 1785 and 1787 are transposed)

YOUNGS THOMAS 6, JUDGE (Joshua 5, John 4, Col. John 3, Rev. John 2, Rev. Christopher 1; father of Capt. Joshua, above)—From Stirling (now Greenport), in Southold, to Lyme. Between Sept. 10 and Oct. 1, 1776, with two passengers and his effects, he was brought over by Capt. Benjamin Conkling. (C. 19) One of his name, in Queens Co., signed the Association, in 1776. (H. 9) He served in the 4th Line (G. 48); possibly in the 6th Dutchess (G. 68); and probably in Conn. (G. 101) This Military record, YOUNGS—OYSTER BAY, L. I.

(Furnished by Hon. William J. Youngs)

however, may belong to his son, Dea. Thomas 7, below. He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1784–1786. (Civil List) He was a large land owner at Stirling. (Whitaker's "Southold," p. 269)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; above 16, 2; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 4; under 16, 1. (A. 55) He was b. in 1719; m. June 1, 1745, Rhoda, dau. of John Budd; d. Feb. 19, 1793. His tombstone, at Greenport, L. I., contains much mis-information relating to his ancestral line. His children were: Hannah 7, d. about 1786, m. Nov. 16, 1769, Absolom 4, son of Jonathan Rackett (See Rackett), had five children; Dea. Thomas 7, b. in 1748, m. about 1773, Lydia, dau. of John Tuthill (See Tuthill), had 13 children some of whose baptisms are in the Mattituck Ch. Rec., d. Feb. 16, 1816; Capt. Joshua 7, the Refugee, above; Mary 7, b. in 1752, m. Eliphalet Wadsworth, had two children, d. Oct. 10, 1802; Mehitable 7, d. y.; Elizabeth 7, b. Apr. 13, 1756, m. about 1792, Silas son of Peter Vail (See Vail), had two children, d. Jan. 26, 1825; Rhoda 7, b. ———, m. Capt. James Brown, had six children, d. in 1832; John 7, b. about 1760, m. Matsey Tuthill; Jemima 7, m. John Ayer, had five children, d. Aug. 9, 1843; William 7, d. y.; Benjamin 7, b. in 1765, m. Philena Wheadon. (Youngs Gen.)

THE REFUGEES FROM NEW YORK CITY

These Refugees fled to other parts of the State of New York, or to Connecticut. An exodus of the less prosperous began, in 1775. By October, of that year, several thousand had left the City. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist.," 2. 486) The exodus continued in 1776. (Ap. A. 6. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," pp. 118-125) The more prominent citizens did not leave until just before, or just after, the Battle of Long Island, August 27, 1776.

No effort has been made to secure a complete list of the Refugees from the City. We have to do with those only who appear in the original documents (Appendixes A.—H.), along with the Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut. And even the few, who are noticed below, are treated with brevity if their printed biographies can be found elsewhere—the plan being to give information which other biographies do not contain.

The story of the Refugees from New York City is an inviting field. It is to be hoped that some one, who is well versed in the history of the City, may make that story the subject of a special research. It cannot be undertaken in this work.

In the following Biographical Sketches, references to the several Appendixes are not made as in Part One—(Appendix A. 16, or Ap. A. 16); but simply—(A. 16).

ACKERMAN AARON—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v., for autograph)

ALBANY ———, MRS.—To Woodbury, Conn.; where she was in 1780. (E. 106. F. 129. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 441. Also Jarvis, below)

She may have been the wife, or Wid., of John Van Albany who was on the Poll List of 1761. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 323)

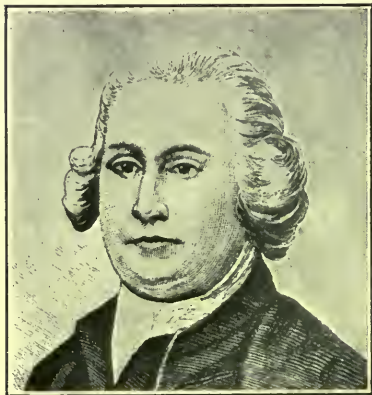

ALSOP—Richard 1, the emigrant, was of Newtown, L. I., in 1676. He was b. in Eng. about 1660; m. in 1686, Hannah ———; d. Oct. —, 1718. His dau., Hannah 2, m. Judge Joseph 4 Sackett. (Page 544) His son, Richard 2, m. Elizabeth Crooke; and their dau., Hannah 3, m. Dr. Joseph 6 Sackett, the Refugee from L. I. (Page 544) His son, John 2, b. in 1697; m. in 1718, Abigail, dau. of Joseph Sackett; d. Apr. 8, 1761. John 2, had sons: John 3, the Refugee, below; and Richard 3, below. (Mr. Douglas Leffingwell. Also "The Sackett's of America." Also Family Records of Mr. A. E. Alsop)

ALSOP JOHN 3 (John 2, Richard 1)—To Middletown, Conn. (B. 42. Also Appleton's "Cyc'a Am'n Biog.," 1. 60) He was an importer, in Hanover Square. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 466) He was a Member of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100, in 1774 and 1775. (H. 1, 2, 4) On Mar. 27, 1776, the Committee of Safety approved a bond from him, Philip Livingston and Abraham Livingston for the faithful performance of the latter's contract for victualing the Troops. (Rev'y MSS., N.Y. State Lib'y, 30. 23) The window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) He was a Delegate to the Cont'l Cong., in 1775 (A. 60); a Delegate to the 3d Prov'l

Cong., in 1776 (A. 58); and Vice Prest. of the first N. Y. Chamber of Commerce. He was a Vestryman in Trinity Church. (See also Wilson, as above, Vols. 2, 3 and 4)

He was b. at Newtown, L. I., in 1724; m. June 8, 1766, Mary Frogat; d. at Newtown, Nov. 22, 1794. She d. in 1772, aged 28. His dau., Mary 4, m. Hon. Rufus King, U. S. Senator from N. Y. The name of John Alsop appears in his grandson, Gov. John Alsop King (1788-1867); and in his g. grandson, Hon. John Alsop King. Other sons of Hon. Rufus King were: Charles (1789-1867), Prest. of Columbia College; James Gore (1791-1853), a banker; Dr. Frederic (1801-1829); and Edward (1795-1836). John Alsop has numerous descendants in the Families of King, Van Rensselaer and Duer, in N. Y. City. (Mr. Douglas Leffingwell. Also "The Sacketts &c")

Richard 3 was a brother of John 3, above. He was in business with his brother. He is often given, erroneously, as a son of John. He was b. at

JOHN ALSOP

Newtown, L. I., about 1726; m. Mary Wright; d. at Middletown, Conn., Apr. 10, 1776. He became a resident of Middletown, 1750-1760. He had a son, Joseph W. 4; and a grandson, Charles R. 5. A dau. of the latter, Catherine B. 6, m. Rev. Christopher S. Leffingwell. (Mr. Douglas Leffingwell. Also "The Sacketts &c")

ANDERSON JOHN—To Greenwich, Conn. On Oct. 10, 1779, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation, which was granted. He stated that he was a printer, and that his outfit had been captured by the enemy. (E. 21, 22) It was not strange that his outfit had been captured; for many of the anti-ministerial "Broad-sides" bore the legend—"Printed by John Anderson at Beekman's Slip." (Page 32)

Several of this name served the Army: Lamb's Art'y (G. 50); the Levies of Weissenfels, Malcom, Graham and Pawling (G. 57, 58, 60, 61); and in Conn. (G. 82) Some of this service may have been given by him; but the service in Lamb's Regt. was by a confidential officer to Gen. Washington, whose name Maj. André took on his ill-fated expedition.

ASH THOMAS—His temporary home is unknown. On Apr. 21, 1781, he was allowed to bring his wife, niece and furniture, probably to Conn. (F. 39)

He was Treasurer of the Tammany Society, 1789-1791. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

BASSETT FREDERICK—To Hartford, Conn. On May 24, 1779, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation, which was granted. He was a pewterer, by trade; and was recommended by several citizens of Hartford, including Lt. Col. John Broome and Peter Vandervoort—both Refugees from N. Y. City. (E. 16-18) He also certified as to the character of Archibald Currie, a fellow Refugee from N. Y. City. (E. 175) He was a private in Capt. Benjamin Egbert's Co., Beat No. 2, N. Y. City Militia. (Proceedings Prov'l Cong., Mar. 18, 1776)

He was probably related to Francis Bassett, of N. Y. City; and he may have descended from Robert, of New Haven. (Page 263)

John Anderson

Frederick Bassett

BAUMAN SEBASTIAN, COL.—In 1775, cannon were loaned to him for the use of the Americans. (Page 102) In 1776, just before the American Evacuation, the window leads were taken from his house. (Pages 111, 112)

He was educated as an Engineer in the Austrian service. In 1775, he was appointed Maj. in Col. John Lasher's 1st Regt. N. Y. Vols. On March 30, 1776, he was appointed (Page 319. Also Proceedings Prov'l Cong.) Capt. in Col. Knox's Regt. in the Cont'l service. In Jan., 1777, he was transferred to Col. Lamb's Art'y; where he was appointed Maj., in 1778. (G. 50) From 1778 to 1784, he commanded at West Point, at intervals. He prepared the map of the post, which Arnold delivered to André and which was found on the capture of the latter. He was present at the surrender of Cornwallis; and made a map of the siege of Yorktown. He succeeded Gen. Knox, as Chief of Art'y, in 1784. He was breveted Lt. Col., in 1787; and was Col. of the State Regt. of Art'y, 1785-1803. In 1786, he was appointed as the first Federal Post Master of N. Y. City. From 1788 to 1793, he was Dy. Post-Master Gen. of the U. S. He was a Member of the Cincinnati. ("N. Y. State Society of the Cincinnati") Another autograph appears on Page 111.

In 1786, he was appointed Lt. Col. of the Art'y Regt., under Brig. Gen. William Malcolm; and, in 1796, he was succeeded by Col. Ebenezer Stevens. (See Stevens)—(Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 4. 274, 276) He was Post Master from 1790 to 1803. (Booth's "New York," p. 655. Also Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 310. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 325) He was Comm'y of Military Stores at the Battery, 1788-1798; his salary for a year being £40. (Original documents, owned by his g. grandson, Mr. George A. Brennan, of Chicago) Mr. Brennan, who is the Historian of the Illinois Soc'y, Sons of Amn. Rev'n, gives the following, in addition:

Col. Bauman was b. in Frankfort-on-the-Main, Germany, Apr. 6, 1739. His father was a high official of the court of Maria Theresa, Empress of Germany; his mother was a Spanish lady. He was educated at Heidelberg. He was famous as a swordsman, and killed an officer of high rank in a duel. As, at that time, the survivor of a duel between Officers was executed by both the Austrian and Prussian Governments, Col. Bauman was forced to flee, coming to New York about 1760. Here he joined the English Army as an Officer. (Mrs. Quincy's "Memoirs.") He disapproved of the treatment of the Americans by the English Commanders, and resigned. He became one of the organizers of the "Sons of Liberty," in 1765. In that year, he m. Anna Wetzel. He was one of Alexander Hamilton's most intimate friends, and was his instructor in Artillery. In May, 1775, he organized the German Fusiliers as a separate Company. Later, he was appointed Maj. in Col. John Lasher's 1st Regt., N. Y. Vols. He was Commandant of Artillery at West Point 1778-1784, at times having entire charge of the Fort. He was one of the Commanders of Artillery at Yorktown; and was mentioned by the French and English Generals as one of the American artilleryists whose skill won their astonishment and admiration, as they considered it equal to anything in Europe. (Johnston's "Siege of Yorktown") Johnston also declares Col. Bauman's map of Yorktown to be superior to any other. He was the originator of the Society of the Cincinnati. This honor is often given to Maj. Shaw; but this is a mistake. Maj. Shaw was engaged to Col. Bauman's daughter, and was often at his house. Col. Bauman often spoke of the advantages of having a Society composed of the Officers of the Revolutionary War. Maj. Shaw broached it to Gen. Knox, and so the Society was organized. Custis, Washington's nephew, and adopted son, speaks of Bauman as a favorite Officer of the Revolutionary Army. He took care of his artillery at Valley Forge, at his own expense. Duc de Chastelleux, who visited West Point during the Revolution, speaks, in his memoirs, of his amazement at finding in the American wilderness such a cultured family as that of Col. Bauman, and with such refined surroundings. Col. Bauman was the only American Artillery Officer to bring back all of his guns to New York after the Battle of L. I. He also had charge of the evacuation of New York, in 1776; and was the last man to leave, narrowly escaping capture by the British as they took possession of the City. He was, likewise, the first American soldier to enter the City when they took possession of it on Nov. 25, 1783, as the British marched out. He d. Oct. 19, 1803.

BECK JOSEPH—To New Haven, Conn. On Mar. 4, 1778, he petitioned the Conn. Council of Safety to permit his wife, Margaret, to go to N. Y. City and collect certain monies due to him; which was granted. (D. 9) He probably served in Conn. (G. 84)

BEEKMAN JAMES—His temporary home is not given. (B. 42) It is known, however, that when the enemy captured Kingston, N. Y., in 1777, he fled to Sharon, Conn. (Lamb's "Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 188) Before this, he had been a Member of the Committee of 100. (H. 4) He was a Member of the Committee of Safety ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 134); and a Delegate to the four Prov'l Congresses. (A. 56–59) In July, 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) On Aug. 17, 1776, the Prov'l Cong. appointed him on a Committee to remove the women, children and infirm from the City before the enemy attacked. (A. 6)

He was an importer of European and India goods, in Queen St. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 466) He was a Member of the Chamber of Commerce. (Wilson, 3. 15) In 1763, he built a large residence at Turtle Bay, now 1st Ave. and 51st St.; which was occupied by Howe during the British occupation. (Page 181. Also Lamb, 2. 137. Also Wilson, 2. 464, 542) After the War, he secured the family treasures from under the greenhouse. (Lamb, 2. 304) His carriage is on the first floor of the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y building.

He descended from William 1 Beekman who came to New Amsterdam, in 1647. (Booth's "N. Y. City," p. 827) He m. Jane, dau. of Capt. Abraham, and sister of Rev. Abraham, Keteltas. (Pages 433, 434. See also Keteltas, below) Mr. Gerard Beekman, of N. Y. City, is a descendant.

Egbert Benson

BENSON EGBERT, JUDGE—

From the outside, probably Dutchess Co., N. Y., he sent large quantities of flour into the City for the American Prisoners. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 14. 97 and 31. 79.2) He was Chairman of the Dutchess Co. Committee (Same ref., 40. 33–38); Member of the Committee on Conspiracies ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 227); and Member of the 2d Council of Safety. (Same ref., p. 151) He was one of the Agents for settling the New Hampshire Grants, 1779–1780. He belonged to the Council for the Temporary Gov't of the Southern Dist., 1778–1784. (Page 133. Also Rev'y MSS., 31. 17–22) He represented Dutchess Co. in the first four Legislatures of N. Y. State (Civil List); going, afterward, to the Cont'l Cong., in 1781 (A. 60) where he continued for several terms. In 1783, he approved a bill for an entertainment at Cape's Tavern. (C. 221) He was a Member of the U. S. Cong., 1789–1793; and, again, 1813–1815, as a Federalist.

(A. 60. Also Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 274) He was a Delegate to the Annapolis Convention of 1786; and he urged the State of N. Y. to adopt the Federal Constitution, in 1788. (Wilson, 3. 37, 38)

On May 8, 1777, the Prov'l Convention appointed him Att'y Gen.; and he took the same office under the first Constitution of N. Y. State, Jan. 15, 1778. He served throughout the War, and until 1788. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 173) He was Judge of the Supreme Court of N. Y., 1794–1802. The rudiments of law he read with Gen. John Morin Scott, below. (Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 487–490) He was a master in special pleading. (Wilson, 2. 625) He was a Charter Member, and first Prest. of the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y. (Wilson, 3. 178, 179. Also 4. 103–105)

He was b. in N. Y. City, June 21, 1746; graduated at Columbia College, in 1765; d. at Jamaica, L. I., Aug. 24, 1833. He was an intimate friend of Judge John Sloss Hobart, a Refugee from L. I. to Conn. (Pages 402–404)

BENSON ROBERT, SEC'Y—He was appointed 1st Lt. by the Committee of N. Y. City, Aug. 29, 1775. (Mil. Ret., 26. 100) He was on the Committees of 60 and 100. (H. 2, 4) He was Sec'y of all four of the Prov'l Congresses; and Sec'y of the first N. Y. State Senate. (Page 132) In 1784, he was a Member of the Common Council of N. Y. City; and, later, a Director in the Bank of N. Y. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 3. 12, 346)

His wife was Dinah ———. (Constitution Tontine Coffee House, 1796) His autograph is on Page 132.

BICKER HENRY, COL.—On Nov. 18, 1883, he was on a Committee of Exiles to make arrangements for Evacuation Day. (B. 42)

BISH JOHN—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph)

BLACKWELL JOSEPH 4 (Col. Jacob 3, Jacob, 2, Robert 1)—To Litchfield and Farmington, Conn. On Aug. 12, 1777, he wrote, from Litchfield, to Gen. Scott as to the libel on the brig "Elizabeth." (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) On June 8, 1779, from Farmington, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for exemption from taxation and Military drafts; which was granted. (E. 14, 15) In Sept., 1780, John Smith asked of Gov. Trumbull a pass for Joseph Blackwell (who had fled from N. Y.), now at Worthington [Conn.], to visit his infirm father at Hallet's Cove, L. I., and to return with Mrs. Smith. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co. Olden Times," p. 56) He was in the iron business at 21 Hanover Square, where he resided. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") He was also in the same business at 45 Great Dock. His name appears in the first City Directory, 1786—1792. (Mr. W. T. Blackwell)

BRADFORD CORNELIUS—To Rhinebeck, N. Y. He kept the Merchants Coffee House. (Page 181) He opened the place in May, 1776, but his stay was of short duration. A warm patriot, he went out with the American Army on its retreat, and remained near Rhinebeck during the War. In Oct., 1783, he returned, and the Merchants' Coffee-House under his admirable management became a noted resort. He established, in 1784, the first Marine List ever publicly kept in New York, from which the newspaper notices were taken daily. He also opened a register where "gentlemen and merchants" were requested to enter their names and residences. This was the first approach to a City directory. (Mr. John Austin Stevens, N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y—1876. Also Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 4. 534, 535)

BRASHER ABRAHAM, COL.—To Paramus, N. J. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") He was a Member of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100 (H. 1, 2, 4); and a Delegate to the first three Prov'l Congresses. (A. 56, 57, 58) In July, 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) On June 9, 1776, he was on a Committee to superintend the removal of British Prisoners. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 50. 31) On Nov. 5, 1776, with Isaac Roosevelt, he reported that the muster rolls of the schooner "Gen. Putnam" had been examined. (Same ref., 1. 143) He was active among the "Liberty Boys," and he wrote many popular songs.

BROOME SAMUEL, CAPT.—To New Haven and Wethersfield, Conn., and Boston. On Mar. 15, 1781, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation; which was negatived. (E. 118) He was one of the old merchants of New York, being head of the firm of Samuel Broome & Co., the Company being his brother Lt. Col. John, above, and his brother-in-law Jeremiah Platt, the Refugee, below. Later John L. Broome, son of Lt. Col. John, was admitted to the firm. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") One of the newspapers of the day contained this notice:—

Samuel Broome & Co.—Having removed their store to New Haven, desire all those indebted to them to call and settle their accounts either with them at New Haven, or Mr. Daniel Phoenix living in New York, nearly opposite where said Broome & Co. kept their store. They have still on hand a small assortment of goods, suitable for the approaching season, to be sold for cash or short credit, on the usual moderate terms—New York, Oct. 5, 1775.

He was a Member of the Committee of 100, in 1775 (H. 4); and prominent as one of the "Sons of Liberty." He organized an association "for practice in the use of fire arms." (Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 588) He was a Capt. in the 1st N. Y. Cont'l Regt., Col. Alexander McDougall, June 30, 1775; also, in Col. John Lasher's Batt'n of N. Y. City Militia, in July, 1775. ("Year Book—N. Y. Sons of the Rev'n"—1909, p. 350. Also "Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," p. 25) A letter from Gov. Tryon to the Earl of Dartmouth dated "On Board the Ship Dutchess of Gordon, N. Y. Harbor 6th December, 1775," describes the raid into N. Y. City from Conn. by an armed force under Isaac Sears and Samuel Broome. (O'Callaghan's "Doc'y Hist. of N. Y.," 8. 645, 646) In 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) Both Capt. Samuel and Lt. Col. John were active in fitting out vessels, of which the firm of Samuel Broome & Co. were owners or part owners, for service as Privateers. A letter from Lt. Col. John to the N. Y. Convention, dated White Plains, July 16, 1776, related to the sloop "Independence," 72 tons, 10 guns; and a letter from same to same, dated Harlem Aug. 14, 1776, related to the sloop "Harlequin," 70 tons, 14 guns. (Forces' "American Archives," 1. 374, 954; and Minutes of the Meeting of the Gov. and Council of Safety of Conn. Nov. 4, 1776, to the effect that Samuel Broome & Co., had been supplied with cannon, powder, shot, etc.) In Aug., 1776, Capt. Samuel was sent from N. Y. on a mission to Conn. to procure a supply of salt petre, etc., for the Americans, as appears in a letter from Ebenezer Hard to Robert Livingston, dated N. Y. Aug. 29, 1776. (Force, as above)

Sam^l Broome

On his return to N. Y., in Nov., 1783, he signed congratulatory addresses to Gen. Washington and Gov. Clinton; and he was on a Committee of the Exiles to conduct the Procession on Evacuation Day. (B. 42) In 1780, he was connected with the settlement of the New Hampshire Grants. (Original Document) On Feb. 5, 1784, with 38 other merchants of N. Y. City, he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y to revive the Chamber of Commerce (Ass'y Jour. Also Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 402 and 3. 535); and, on Mar. 17, following, he petitioned the N. Y. Senate for the exemption from duties of merchandize imported for a short time only. (Senate Jour.)

DEVENPORT JOHN—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v., for autograph) He may have served in the 2d Line (G. 44); the 3d Dutchess (G. 65); and in Conn. (G. 88) See Davenport, Page 323.

DUNSCOMB JAMES—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v., for autograph) He was probably related to Capt. Daniel Dunscomb, of N. Y. City.

DUYCKINCK GERARDUS—His temporary home is not known. (B. 42) He was a Member of the Committees of 51 and 100. (H. 1, 4) In 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) He kept "The Universal Store," at the Sign of the Looking Glass and Druggist's Pot, on Dock St., corner of the Old Slip Market. He was a Member of the Chamber of Commerce. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

EGBERT BENJAMIN—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) He served in the 4th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 105) He was one of the incorporators of the Public School Society, in 1825. (Lamb's "Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 518)

FAIRLIE JAMES, LT.—He served in the 1st and 2d of the Line. (G. 43, 44) He was made a Prisoner on L. I., in Oct., 1780. (F. 124. Also Hon. Henry C. Platt's "Huntington Address,"—1876)

He was a son of James Fairlie, a sea Capt., who m. Phebe Mitchell. He was b. in N. Y. City, in 1757; m. Maria, dau. of Chief Justice Robert Yates; d. Oct.

10, 1830. Beside the Military service, mentioned above, he was an Aide to Baron Steuben. He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1798-1808; Claim Agent for the State; an Alderman, in N. Y. City; and Clerk of the Supreme Court. ("N. Y. State Soc'y of The Cincinnati")

He had several daughters. One, m. Thomas Cooper. Another, m. Robert, son of President John Tyler. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

FISH NICHOLAS, MAJ.—He served in the 2d Line. (G. 44)

In 1775, he was 2d Lt. in the N. Y. City Fusileers which, later, became Col. John Lasher's Regt. In 1776, he was Brig. Maj., and also Aide to Gen. John Morin Scott. He had a long service, including the Battle of L. I. (Page 38. Also H. 36), Harlem, White Plains, Saratoga, Sullivan's Expedition and Yorktown. ("N. Y. State Soc'y of The Cincinnati." Also "Sullivan's Expedition," p. 383. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 429) On Apr. 14, 1783, he wrote to Gov. Clinton, asking for the position of Naval Officer of the Port of N. Y. (Clinton Pap., 8, 137)

He was b. in N. Y. City, Aug. 28, 1758; m. Elizabeth Stuyvesant; d. June 20, 1833. He studied law with Gen. Scott. In 1786, he was appointed Adj't. Gen. of N. Y. State. He was an Alderman; and, from 1797 to 1805, he was Prest. of the Cincinnati. ("Cincinnati," as above) He was a Federalist; and a supporter of the War of 1812. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 3, 208, 239) He was Prest. of the Butchers and Drovers' Bank. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") His portrait and autograph appear on Page 39.

He was the father of Hon. Hamilton Fish, Gov. of N. Y., U. S. Senator from N. Y., and U. S. Sec'y of State. He was the grandfather of Hon. Hamilton Fish, of Garrisons, N. Y.

FISHER HENDRICK—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) He served in the 13th Albany. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 123)

FURMAN GABRIEL—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) He served in the 1st and 3d of the Line. (G. 43, 46) He was a Sachem in Tammany Hall, 1789-1791; Director of the Mechanics' Bank; and Prest. and Director of the Mutual Ins. Co. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

He may have been a son of John, of Patchogue, L. I. If so, he had sons: William, of L. I. City; and John, of Patchogue, who may have been a Refugee. (See Furman, Page 350) It is probable that he was related to Gabriel Furman, the well known Historian, of Brooklyn. Gabriel, the Refugee, was one of the Directors of the Manhattan Co. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 3, 347)

His wife was Sarah ———. He had a son, William Spicer, b. July 25, 1781. (Constitution Tontine Coffee House, 1796)

HAZARD—Moore ("Index," p. 20) mentions Robert, probably of R. I.; and states that Thomas settled at Newtown, L. I. He was named in the Town Rec., in 1682. A Thomas, b. 1610, d. in 1680, was one of the founders of Newport, R. I., in 1639. He had children: Robert; Elizabeth; Hannah; and Martha. ("N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec.," Apr., 1911) The R. I. branch is probably from this Thomas. See Hazard, Page 391.

Thomas 1, of Newtown, came from Wales to Boston, 1630-2. He is said to have removed to Newtown, L. I., and thence to R. I. Thus he may have been the Thomas of R. I., mentioned above. His son, Jonathan 2, of Newtown, m. Hannah Laurenson; d. in 1711. Among his children were: Judge James 3; Thomas 3; and Nathaniel 3. Judge James 3, d. in 1765. His son, William 4, b. in 1725; d. in 1773. Thomas 3, m. Mercy Betts; d. in 1733. His son, Thomas 4, was the Refugee, below. Nathaniel 3 was a merchant in N. Y. City; removed to Philadelphia in 1749; d. after 1760. (Hazard's "Recollections of Olden Times," p. 229 et seq.) Nathaniel 4, son of Nathaniel 3, m. Elizabeth Drummey. He was also a merchant at 51 Water St., in N. Y. City. He imported woolens, &c.; and dealt in goods manufactured at Hartford, Conn. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") Among his 12 children were: Elizabeth 5, b. Aug. 29, 1740, m. Joseph Platt, of N. Y. City; Anne 5, m. Judge Thomas Tredwell (See Tredwell, same ref.); Nathaniel 5, the Refugee, below; Lt. Samuel 5, the Refugee, below; Mary 5, b. Mar. 17, 1753, m. Joseph 4 Blackwell, the Refugee (See Blackwell, above); Joseph 5, the Refugee, below. (Mrs. Annie C. Maltbie's "Rescript of Tredwell-Platt Gen.")

HAZARD ELIZABETH, WID.—To Newtown, now Hartford, Conn., in 1776, with her sons Joseph, Nathaniel and Lt. Samuel—the Refugees, below. (E. 64) She was the Wid. of Nathaniel 4. (Mrs. Maltbie, as above)

HAZARD JOSEPH 5 (Nathaniel 4, 3, Jonathan 2, Thomas 1; brother of Nathaniel, below and Lt. Samuel, below)—To Esopus, Ulster Co., N. Y. He was at Esopus, in 1780; and, on May 17, his brother-in-law, Thomas Tredwell, wrote to Gov. Clinton asking permission for Joseph Hazard to sell the goods which he had brought to Esopus. (Clinton Pap., 5. 715) He was also at Newtown, Conn. (E. 64)

He was b. Dec. 29, 1754; preached, wrote poetry; m. a Miss Moore, and had one daughter. (Mrs. Maltbie, as above)

HAZARD NATHANIEL 5 (Brother of Joseph, above, and Lt. Samuel, below)—To Newtown, Conn. (E. 64)

He was b. July 18, 1748; d. June 2, 1798. He m. Mary 4, dau. of Col. Joseph Robinson (See Robinson in "The Refugees from L. I. to Conn."); who, after his [Nathaniel's] death, became the second wife of David Gelston. (See Gelston, same ref.)—(Mrs. Maltbie, as above)

HAZARD SAMUEL 5, LT. (Brother of Joseph, above, and Nathaniel, above)—To Newtown, Conn., with his family. On Oct. 29, 1779, he petitioned for leave to bring some of his effects from L. I.; which was granted. (Page 210. Also D. 37) On May 30, 1780, he stated to the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. that his mother [Elizabeth, above] and brothers [Joseph and Nathaniel] were also at Newtown; and that they wished to bring from Smithtown, L. I., certain clothing and furniture. The request was negatived. (E. 64) He was a Lt. in Sheldon's Light Dragoons, in Conn. (G. 91)

He was b. June 19, 1750; m. Polly Betts; d., at New Windsor, Conn., in 1787. (Mrs. Maltbie, as above)

Samuel Hazard -

HAZARD THOMAS 4 (Thomas 3, Jonathan 2, Thomas 1)—To New Haven, Conn. He did a large business in ammunition and munitions of war at what is now the corner of Maiden Lane and Pearl Street. This business he transferred to New Haven, during the War, after the manner of Samuel Broome & Co. (See Broome) Accounts owing to him were to be paid to Ebenezer Hazard. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y.") This was probably Ebenezer 5 (Samuel 4, Nathaniel 3, Jonathan 2, Thomas 1), afterward Post Master Gen. of the U. S.

HERRING—HARING—John 1, who spelled the name Haring, m. in 1662, in N. Y. City; d. Dec. 7, 1683. His son, Peter 2, b. Aug. 13, 1664;

m. Margaret Bogart. Peter's son, Elbert 3, b. Mar. 30, 1706; m. (1) Catharine Lent, (2) Elizabeth Bogart. (Todd Gen. by Capt. Richard Henry Greene)

HERRING ABRAHAM 4 (Elbert 3, Peter 2, John 1)—To Stratford, Conn. On Oct. 18, 1780, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y, asking that he be permitted to sell certain real estate in N. Y. City for £1,500; and to import to Conn. the avails in the shape of British goods. (E. 113) Although he was well recommended by the Authorities of Stratford, the petition was negatived. (E. 114) Later in same month, he was allowed to sell the land, and to invest the avails in clothing for the Army—all under the direction of Brig. Gen. Gold Selleck Silliman. (E. 115) He then, on Nov. 2, 1780, repeated his offer; but asked that he might return with his family in case the bargain was not made; or, if his return should not be allowed, that he should be excused from drafts and taxes. (E. 116) The bargain was confirmed by the Legislature. (E. 117) In his petition (E. 113), he states that the real estate had been left to him by his father, Elbert Haring. This property was known as the Haring farm. It

Abraham Herring

extended, on both sides of Broadway, from Bleecker St. to Waverly Place. (Page 180)

He was b. Apr. 16, 1755; m. Elizabeth Ivers; d. Jan. 3, 1837. He had six children. (Todd Gen.)

HICKS DENNIS—To New Milford, Conn. On May 10, 1782, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation; which was negatived. (E. 168) See Hicks, Page 398.

JANEWAY GEORGE 3, CAPT.—On his return from his temporary home, in Nov., 1783, he signed congratulatory Addresses to Gen. Washington and Gov. Clinton. (B. 42) On Nov. 18, 1783, he was on a Committee of Exiles to conduct the Procession on Evacuation Day. (B. 42) He was a Member of the Committees of 60 and 100. (H. 2, 4) In 1775, he was appointed Capt. in the 1st N. Y. City Regt. (Mil. Ret., 26. 43, 100, 213)

He was an Alderman, and a Gov. of the Public Dispensary. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

During his enforced absence from N. Y. City, he is supposed to have resided in New Jersey. It is known that a part of the time he occupied the old mansion, near New Brunswick, called "Buccleugh." His house in the City was occupied by the British. When they evacuated they painted a big "R" on the door, to indicate that it had been the dwelling of an American Rebel. Capt. Janeway possessed large means, was a gentleman of fine character and high social position and was a Member of the Dutch Reformed Church. On Apr. 23, 1823, he was appointed by the Legislature of N. Y. one of the Commissioners to lay out the Delaware and Hudson Canal. (Miss E. L. J.)

He was a son of Jacob and Sarah (Hoagland) Janeway; and a grandson of William and Agnes (De Kay) Janeway, who came to America in 1696. He was b. in Somerset Co., N. J., Oct. 9, 1741-2; m. Dec. 13, 1767, Effie Ten Eyck; d. Sept. 2, 1826. His children were: a son 4, d. y.; William 4, b. Dec. 13, 1772, drowned in N. Y. harbor, in 1814; Rev. Jacob J. 4, b. Nov. 20, 1774; and Sarah Ann 4, b. Mar. 17, 1779, m. Gen. Peter Van Zandt. (Miss E. L. J.) Dr. Theodore C. Janeway, of N. Y. City, is a g. grandson of Capt. George. See Addenda. (I. 16)

Geo. Janeway

JARVIS ARTHUR—To Woodbury, Conn. On Oct. 25, 1780, he petitioned for leave to return with his mother, wife and Mrs. Albany with three children; which was negatived. (E. 106) On Nov. 22, following, his petition was granted. (F. 29. Also Clinton Pap., 6. 441) The name, Albany, may be a contraction of Van Albany.

JAY JOHN, COL. and JUDGE—He was a Member of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100. (H. 1, 2, 4) In 1776, he examined David Matthews, Mayor of N. Y. City, accused of Loyalism. (Page 145) In the same year, he was a Member of the Secret Committee to obstruct the Hudson River (Page 36); also, of the Committee for Conspiracies. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 227) In 1777, he was on a Committee to regulate the Fleet Prison, in the Hudson River, off Esopus. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 50. 36) In 1777, also, he was a Member of the 1st Council of Safety. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 149) He was a Delegate to the 3d and 4th Prov'l Congresses (A. 58, 59); and was on Committees to raise Troops. ("Archives of the State of N. Y.—The Rev'n," pp. 104, 157) He was a Member of the Cont'l Cong., 1775, 1778 and 1779; and, at one time, its Prest. (Page 204. Also A. 60) He was one of the two Chief Justices of the N. Y. Supreme Court, 1777, to the end of the War. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 100) He prepared the first Constitution of the new State of N. Y., in 1777 (Page 132); and he was a Member of the Convention of 1788 to ratify the Constitution of the U. S. (Civil List) He was Col. of the 2d Regt., N. Y. City Militia, Nov. 3, 1775. ("N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n Year Book—1909," p. 497) His further public services, including those as Gov. of N. Y. State, are described at length in all of his biographies.

He was b. in N. Y. City, Dec. 12, 1745; m. Apr. 28, 1774, Sarah Van Brugh, dau. of Gov. William Livingston; d. at Bedford, Westchester Co., N. Y., May 17, 1829. His portrait and autograph appear on Page 133.

JOSEPHSON MANUEL—As a disaffected person, several guns were taken from him, according to a Resolution of the Cont'l Cong., Mar. 10, 1776. (Mil. Ret., 27. 49) The Aud. Gen., Peter T. Curtenius, vouched for his loyalty to America; stated that he left N. Y. City, with his family, for Philadelphia, just before the Americans lost the City, in 1776, and advised that his claim for damages should be paid. (Page 144)

KETCHAM WILLIAM—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) See Ketcham, Page 433.

KETELTAS PETER—His temporary home is not known. (B. 42) He was one of the Clerks of the Old Insurance Office, at the Coffee House. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 2. 467) Between 1752 and 1757, he took many prizes from the French with his Privateers. (Wilson, 2. 447) He was one of the Founders of the N. Y. Soc'y Lib'y; a merchant, and a Member of the Chamber of Commerce. (Wilson, 4. 106, 535, 547) He lived North of the City Limits. (Page 180) He was probably related to Rev. Abraham. (See Keteltas, Page 433)

He was a Member of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100. (H. 1, 2, 4) He was at the head of a Troop of Horsemen, from Conn. In N. Y. City, he was active among the "Sons of Liberty" before the Battle of Golden Hill. He was known as "King Sears." Directly after the Battle of Lexington, he led a party which took the muskets of the Corporation out of the Armory and delivered them to those who were well affected toward the American cause. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 51. 45, 50) In 1775, also, he led certain citizens who took arms away from the disaffected. (Page 104) On Nov. 23, same year, he destroyed the office of James Rivington, the Tory printer, removed his presses to New Haven and melted his type into bullets. (Pages 32, 110) On Nov. 29, same year, Gov. Tryon wrote to Samuel Bayard, Dep'y Sec'y of the Colony, that he had been informed of Sears' intention, with the help of men from Conn., to seize the Records in the office of the Sec'y. (Clinton Pap., 1. 9) In the same year, he took to New Haven, 66 pairs of cannon loaned by N. Y. to Conn. (Page 102. Also E. 195) Before the British occupation, in 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112) This was the house, No. 1 Broadway, which was afterward used by Sir Henry Clinton as his headquarters. (Mr. Samuel P. May) He was in the Battle of L. I. (H. 36) In 1776, also, he was appointed, by Maj. Gen. Charles Lee, Dy. Adj't. Gen., with the rank of Lt. Col. (S. P. M.) He was a Delegate to the 1st and 2d Prov'l Congresses (A. 56, 57); and, as such, he was on a Committee to erect Fortifications along the Hudson River. (Clinton Pap., 1. 130) He was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y, 1784 and 1786. (Civil List) In 1780, he loaned money to the State of N. Y. (Rev'y MSS., 52. 44)

During the Rev'y War, Capt. Sears was very active in fitting out Privateers. In 1778, with James Browne, of Hartford, he owned the "Mars," 22 guns and 130 men. She was commanded by Capt. Gilbert Ash, of Boston. Capt. Sears and his son-in-law, Paschal N. Smith, in 1780, sold the "Mars" to the Mass. Board of War for £180,000, depreciated currency.

Capt. Sears was at Cambridge with Washington. After the evacuation of Boston, he resided in the mansion of Gov. Phillips, on Tremont St., opposite the burying ground of King's Chapel. He purchased the Loring house, now known as the "Greenough Place," at Jamaica Plains, in Roxbury. The place had been confiscated by the State. Drake's "History of Roxbury" states that he lived there for a time. During his residence in Boston, he became prominent; and Boston Rec. Com. Reports state that he served on many Committees from 1777 to 1782. (S. P. M.)

He was bapt. at Harwich (now West Brewster), Mass., July 12, 1730. He m. Sarah, dau. of Jasper Drake. He was a successful importer of European and India Goods, in Queen St. He was a Member of the Corporation of Trinity Church, N. Y. City; and a Vestryman, 1784-1786. Having lost his property by the War, he sailed as supercargo on a voyage to China, in the ship "Hope," Capt. James Magee, in company with Mr. Samuel Shaw, First American Consul at Canton, China, and Capt. Thomas Randall, Vice Consul at Canton. (S. P. M.) He d. in China, Oct. 28, 1786. His children are given in Sears Gen., pp. 113-118.

Isaac Sears
SHADDEL DAVID—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) He was a private in Col. John Lasher's Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 218)

SHERBROOKE MILES—To Flatbush, L. I., and Middletown, Conn. On Dec. 17, 1776, he was allowed to go to N. Y. City and L. I., conditioned on his return by the last day of the following May. (A. 24) On June 13, 1778, [Capt.] William Marriner went from N. J. to Flatbush, and entered the houses of Maj. Matthews and Miles Sherbrooke. As they were both absent, he went to the houses of Maj. Moncrieff, Theophylact Bache and Capt. Forrest; captured them; and took them to N. J. (Onderdonk's "Scrap Book, 1865-6." Also "Queens and Suffolk in the Olden Time," p. 12) Both Sherbrooke and Bache were Members of the Committee of 51, in 1774. (H. 1) Sherbrooke had already, in 1768, signed the Non-Importation Agreement. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 4. 516) In spite of this, he may have been a Tory, as the estate of one of the same name was confiscated. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 257) It is evident that he was in the City for a part, at least, of 1778; for Col. Samuel B. Webb, a Prisoner to the British, lived with him. ("Penn. Mag. Hist. and Biog.," 1893. See Webb, I. 14) He was of the firm of Perry, Hayes & Sherbrooke, General Importers, in Bayard St. (Wilson, as above, 2. 468)

SIERS JOHN (F?)—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for another autograph) The name may have been Sears; but he is not in the Sears Gen.

John F. Siers

SMITH JOHN—To Farmington and Worthington, Conn. In Sept., 1780, he asked of Gov. Trumbull, a pass for Joseph Blackwell, the Refugee, above, now at Worthington, to visit his infirm father at Hallett's Cove, and to return with Mrs. Smith. (Onderdonk's "Queens Co., Olden Times," p. 56) In Oct., same year, from Farmington, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation; which was granted. (E. 98) On Jan. 21, 1783, he asked that his son, Justus B., below, might go to N. Y. City, and bring out his negroes and certain monies that were due to him; which was allowed, under certain conditions. (E. 98-100) In 1776, the window leads were taken from his house. (Page 112)

John Smith

He was probably a son-in-law of Mrs. Belinda Stephens. (E. 99)

SMITH JUSTUS B. (Son of John, above, q. v.)—To Worthington, Conn. SPICERS ———, WID.—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 11, 1783, with others, she signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph)

The Spicer Gen. gives no indication as to whose Wid. she was. Her husband may have been related to Gen. Peter Worthington Spicer, afterward of the firm of Austin & Spicer. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City")

STEVENS EBENEZER, COL.—He was one of the youngest, and most effective, Officers in the American Army. He was Lt. Col. of Col. John Lamb's 2d Art'y of the Line. (G. 50, 51) He served at Saratoga. (Page 73) His uniform is in the rooms of the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y. He was one of the "Boston Tea Party," in 1773; 1st Lt. in Train Art'y, Army of Observation, 1775; posted on Boston Neck during the Battle of Bunker Hill; Capt., Mass. Art'y, 1775; Capt., Knox' Art'y, 1775; sent to aid Arnold before Quebec, 1776; Maj. of Art'y, 1776; in Command of Art'y at Ticonderoga, Stillwater and Saratoga, 1777; Lt. Col. by brevet, Apr. 30, 1778; in Command of Art'y,

Southern Expedition, 1781; one of three alternate Commanders of Art'y, Yorktown, 1781; Col. by brevet at the close of the War. ("N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 647. Also "Empire State Sons Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 547) Full details of his eventful life will be found in a Sketch of John Austin Stevens, by a member of the family; in Lossing's "Field Book," 2. 310, 311; in Thompson's "Long Island," 2. 536-538; and in Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City." He was a Member of the Cincinnati. Barrett mentions that he was a merchant in South St.; that he owned many ships; that he was a Sachem of the Tammany Society; and that he was a prominent Presbyterian. He succeeded Col. Sebastian Bauman, above, as Lt. Col. of the Art'y Regt., in N. Y. City, in 1796. In 1800, he superintended the building of Fortifications in the harbor; and, in 1812, he had a part in the defences of the City. (Sketch of J. A. S., as above) In 1800, he was a Member of the N. Y. Ass'y; and, 1798-1801, he was Comm'y Gen. (Civil List)

He was b. in Boston, in 1751; m. (1) in 1774, Rebecca Hodgdon; m. (2) in 1784, Lucretia, dau. of Judge John Ledyard, of Hartford, Conn., and Wid. of Richardson Sands. He d. Sept. 2, 1823. Among his children were: Horatio Gates, who was a Maj. Gen. in the N. Y. Militia; and John Austin. (Sketch of J. A. S., as above) A portrait and autograph of Col. Stevens appear on Page 71.

STEWART JOHN—To Newburgh, N. Y.; whence, on Sept. 1, 1783, with others, he signed a Memorial to Gov. Clinton. (B. 41; q. v. for autograph) He may have served in the 2d, 4th and "Green Mountain Boys," all of the Line (G. 44, 48, 55); in Pawling's or Willett's Levies (G. 61, 62); in the 2d Westchester (G. 78); or in Conn. (G. 98) He was a Director in the Bank of the State of N. Y. (Wilson's "Mem'l Hist. N. Y. City," 3. 347)

STIRLING (ALEXANDER WILLIAM), ORD, MAJ. GEN.—In the Cont'l service, he was appointed Brig. Gen., Mar. 1, 1776; Maj. Gen., Feb. 19, 1777; service expired by death, Jan. 15, 1783. (Page 87) He was active in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 33, 34, 40, 44-46); was at Trenton and Princeton (Page 60); and at Brandywine. (Page 76) After his death, his iron chest was sold to Gerard Bancker, Treas'r of the State of N. Y. (Page 134) A fac-simile of his Oath of Allegiance is shown on Page 118. See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 306.

He was b. in N. Y. City, in 1726. He was a claimant for the title and escheated estates of the Earl of Stirling; and he assumed the title. He was one of His Majesty's Council, 1762-1768. (Civil List) He m. Sarah, dau. of Philip 2 Livingston, and sister of Philip 3 Livingston, the Refugee, above, and Treas'r Peter Van Brugh 3 Livingston. (I. 7) His sister, Mary, m. Peter Van Brugh Livingston, as his 2d wife. (I. 7) His dau., Kitty, m. William Duer. (Barrett's "Old Merchants of N. Y. City") His home was on the site of the present Consolidated Stock Exchange. It was ransacked by the enemy, after the Battle of L. I. (H. 36) His portrait and autograph appear on Page 43. Another autograph appears on Page 118.

STOUT JOHN—To Ridgefield, Conn. On May 26, 1779, he petitioned the Conn. Gen. Ass'y for relief from taxation and Militia enrollment; which was granted. (E. 19, 20) He served in the 1st Line. Congress, Mar. 4, 1776—Resolved, That Circular Letters be wrote to the several Colonels of the Minute Men and Militia in this Colony, from the County of Albany to the Southward; Ordering them to hold their Respective Regiments in readiness to march with their Arms, Accoutrements, Blankets, and Five Days' Provision; on the first Notice of an Invasion.

Congress, Mar. 4, 1776. Sir, This accompanies the Resolve of Congress, requesting you to hold your Regiment in Readiness to March at a Moment's Warning. We are apprehensive that the Ministerial Army in Boston may attempt to land in this Colony in a short time: Your zeal for the public Cause, we trust, will stimulate you and the officers under your Command to use all possible Diligence to comply with this Resolution. We have only to add that no Time should be lost in executing this Order, and that you forth-with return to this Congress or the Committee of Safety, the present State of your Regiment, as to Number of Men, Arms, Accoutrements, and Ammunition; and that if the Minute Regiments do not compose one fourth Part of the Militia of your County, you are hereby Ordered to cause the Minute Regiments to be completed, agreeable to the Rules and Orders of this Congress of the 20th of December last.

We are, Sir, with esteem, Your very humble Servants.

By Order, Nath. Woodhull, President.

[Inscription on Wrapper.] To Josiah Smith, Esq., Col. of the Regiment of Minute Men, Suffolk County.

Congress. Feb. 15, 1776. A letter was received from Dr. Samuel Thompson, of Brookhaven, by order of the Committee of Suffolk Co., inclosing drafts of the harbors of Setauket and Stony Brook, made by himself; including, also, a description of the beaches and lands between them, with their length and distances.

Congress. April —, 1776. A letter dated April 10, 1776, was received from the Rev. Samuel Buell, of East Hampton, stating that a fleet had been discovered, supposed to be Wallis' fleet, and soliciting that a regiment or two, should be stationed on the East side of the Island. Thomas Weeks, of Huntington, likewise stated that a fleet of 30 sail of square rigged vessels, had been seen between Crane Neck and Eaton's Neck.

Congress. June 24, 1776. Mr. [John Sloss] Hobart was allowed to go home for the purpose of securing his cattle from the depredations of the enemy.

Congress. June 28, 1776. In answer to advice from Gen. Washington, it was ordered that a conference be had with him as to removing or securing the cattle and stock from those parts of Nassau [Long] and Staten Islands that are most exposed to invasion. [Capt. Thomas] Wickham and [Thomas] Tredwell were on the Committee of Conference.

Convention. July 12, 1776. In reply to a letter from the Committees of East and South Hampton as to the preservation of stock at Montauk, it was stated that Col. [Henry B.] Livingston had applied to the County Committee for advice and that Messrs. [Thomas] Dearing and [Ezra] L'Hommedieu had given assurances that the stock would be protected.

Convention. July 20, 1776. After several days of debate, it was Resolved that it was not for the public good, even if it were practicable, to remove the stock from Nassau [Long] Island, except such cattle, sheep and hogs as were fit for the use of the Army; that the stock should be driven to the interior of the Island in charge of the troops—the commanding officer to leave three milch cows to each large family, two to a middling family, and one to a small family; that the commanding officer might destroy the stock to prevent its capture by the enemy; that owners of stock thus destroyed would be compensated if they were loyal to the American cause; that the troops to carry out this order should consist of a draft of one fourth of the Minute Men and Militia in the Counties of Suffolk, Queens and Kings; that the said troops should have Continental pay and rations and serve until Dec. 31st next, unless sooner discharged; and that Col. Josiah Smith should be the first Col. of the said troops, Col. John Sands, the second Col., Abraham Remsen, the Major, and Col. Benjn. Birdsall, the Commander of one company on the South side of Queens Co. A letter was also addressed to Gen. Washington asking him to purchase the stock for the Continental Army. (Rev'y MSS., 30. 37.)

Convention. Aug. 17, 1776. Acting on a Letter from Gen. Washington, Col. Abraham Lott, Mr. James Beekman, Mr. John Berrien, Chairman of the Committee of N. Y. City and Mr. John Campbell, a Member of the said Committee, were appointed a Committee to remove women, children and infirm persons out of N. Y. before the enemy attacked. There was voted £200 on this date; and £1000, on Aug. 26.

[NOTE.— Mr. Berrien does not appear as Chairman, and Mr. Campbell does not appear as a member, on the original list of the N. Y. Committee. See H. 4.]

Convention. Aug. 24, 1776. Ordered, that Brig. Gen. [Nathaniel] Woodhull, or in his absence Lieut. Col. [Gilbert] Potter, march without delay, one half the Western Regiment of Suffolk Co., with five days provision, into the western parts of Queens Co.; that the officers of Queens, order out their whole Militia, with their Troop of Horse, and use all possible diligence to prevent the stock and other provisions, falling into the hands of the enemy, by removing or killing them.

Committee. Aug. 25, 1776. In anticipation of a victory by the enemy, a Committee, consisting of the Deputies from Suffolk and Queens, brought in a report, which was adopted, ordering all the stock to the east end of Hempstead Plain, and placing Brig. Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull in charge.

Convention. Aug. 26, 1776. Ordered that Brig. Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull take position at any point on the Island where he can best prevent depredations by the enemy; and that he call out the whole of the Militia, if necessary, to protect the inhabitants in removing.

Convention. A letter bearing the above date, from Lt. Col. Gilbert Potter, informed that the enemy had landed between Old Man's and Wading River, and were shooting cattle. Col. Potter expected the enemy to be in Huntington before morning; and he asked for help.

Committee. Aug. 27, 1776. Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull reported that he had driven all the cattle to the Eastward of the boundary between Kings and Queens; and that the enemy's camp was but six miles from him.

[NOTE.—The Battle of Long Island was fought on this day.]

Committee. Same date. Mr. Ezra L'Hommedieu moved, and it was carried, that Gen. Washington be informed that the Committee of Southold had mounted three 6-pounders and one 3-pounder, and that ammunition was needed.

10

Committee. Same date. Ordered that Mr. [John Sloss] Hobart, Mr. [Thomas] Dearing, Mr. [Ezra] L'Hommedieu, Mr. [Burnet] Miller, Mr. [William] Smith, Mr. [Cornelius] Van Wyck and Mr. Samuel Townsend be a Committee to report ways and means for the sale of fat cattle on Nassau [Long] and Shelter Islands.

II

Convention. Aug. 28, 1776. Col. Josiah Smith and Col. Jeromus Remsen ordered to join Gen. Nathaniel Woodhull; and Gen. Woodhull ordered to destroy all stock and grain in Queens and Western Suffolk that could not be removed to a place of safety.

12

Convention. Same date. The Governor of Conn. was requested to send 1000 troops for the protection of the inhabitants, and the security of the stock on Nassau [Long] Island. A letter asking assistance in removing the stock, and in taking temporary care of it, was sent to the Chairmen of Stonington, New London, Groton, Lyme, Saybrook, Guilford, New Haven, Stratford, Fairfield, Milford, Norwalk, Stamford [Stamford] and Horseneck [Greenwich], in the State of Connecticut. Ordered that Mr. [David] Gelston proceed to Conn. with the Letters to Governor Trumbull and the Committees, and that this Convention will bear his Expenses.

13

Convention. Aug. 29, 1776. Resolved, that it be recommended to the Inhabitants of Long Island, to remove as many of their women, children and slaves, and as much of their live stock and grain, to the main, as they can; and that this Convention will pay the expense of removing the same.

(From Col. Josiah Smith's Papers—Suffolk Co., N. Y., Historical Society.)

Committee. Aug. 29, 1776. Ordered that Col. Josiah Smith do with all possible Dispatch march his Regiment to Hoorn's Hook there to receive further Orders from Mr. Saml Townshend and Major [Jonathan] Lawrence: and that he apply to the Commissary Genl for five Days Provision, and to the Quarter-Master General for Sufficient Baggage Waggons—it being of the utmost Consequence that this Regiment should march without Delay.

(From Col. Josiah Smith's Papers, as above.)

Col. Smith's Regt is to march to the Ferry and embark for New York then to take orders from the Provincial Congress there [Indorsements on the above] Col. Smith will call upon the Quarter Master Genl for boats. If he has any heavy baggage that the men can't carry he will have waggons to carry it down to the Ferry.

[Orders from Genl Washington to cross the Ferry]

14

Committee. Sept. 3, 1776. A letter was received from Gen. Washington stating that he could not spare troops to protect the cattle on Long Island. It having been represented that the soldiers belonging to the Regiments of Col. [Josiah] Smith and Col. [Jeromus] Remson had disbanded, it was recommended to the Committees of Westchester, Horse-neck [Greenwich], Stamford and Norwalk to watch all boats crossing to Long Island and to allow no armed soldier, belonging to any Regiment in the service of the State, to pass over to the Island.

15

Convention. Sept. 7, 1776. It was reported that the enemy was trying to prevent the exodus of persons and cattle from Long Island.

16

Gen. John Morin Scott wrote from King's Bridge, Oct. 10, 1776, that the bearer, Thomas Lawrence, was in distress on account of the situation of his family which he was obliged to leave on Long Island. Said Lawrence was known to be a friend to American liberty; and the Convention is asked to allow him to visit his family.

17

Committee. Oct. 12, 1776. A letter from John Sloss Hobart, dated Fairfield, Conn., Oct. 7, 1776, was read; wherein he hoped that Gen. Washington would drive the enemy from the Island. He described the condition of the inhabitants, deserted by the Army and abandoned by the Convention; advised that the people be urged to quit the Island; and suggested that a Regiment of Long Island Refugees be formed.

18

Col. Henry B. Livingston wrote from Saybrook Oct. 16, 1776, that Colonel [Phineas] Fanning, Maj [Thomas] Conkling and George Howell had been thought disaffected, but profess themselves to be friendly.

[NOTE.—The Paroles of these men are on Page 119]

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 90 (no date given, but probably 1780): "George Howell wishes to bring over from L. I. his secreted effects."

19

Committee. Nov. 8, 1776. Resolved that this Committee will Pay wages and the Value of the Rations remaining due to such of the officers and men belonging to Coll. Smith's Regiment as are now actually within such parts of this or the neighboring States as are not in the possession of the enemy for the time they have respectively been in Service; that a copy of the above Resolution be served on Lieut. Coll. [John] Sands and that he be Directed to Procure muster Rolls to be returned to this Committee, or Convention of this State, under the Oath of the Officers commanding Companies Containing the Names of those men only who are now within such parts of this or the Neighboring States as are not in the Possession of the enemy; and that the President or Vice President & the Chairman of each Respective County Committee in this State be empowered to administer Such Oaths. (Rev'y MSS., 30. 26.)

Committee. Nov. 9, 1776. Ordered that £10, 1s. 6d. be paid to [Capt.] Benjamin Birdsall, [Lt.] Thomas Brush and [Lt.] Carl Kitchum for bringing two prisoners from Long Island to Norwich, and thence to Fishkill.

20

Committee. Nov. 12, 1776. The letter and accounts of Samuel Brown, of Guilford, Conn., for removing stock from Long Island, were read and ordered to remain till a Convention meets.

The Honourable Congress of New York to Samuel Brown—Dr.

Guilford, Nov. 6th, 1776

Gentlemen—On receiving your letter dated Harlem, Aug. 28th, 1776, directed to the chairman of the several committees on the seacoast The committee of this place immediately called a meeting and determined to comply with your request, as per vote enclosed, and record of their doings may appear, dated Aug. 31st. 1776

Samuel Brown
Clerk of the Committee of Inspection in Guilford

Guilford, Nov. 6, 1776

Gentlemen—As I was the owner of the above Sloop Polly, the Committee applied to me for her to be employed in the above business, which was readily complied with and no particular agreement made, and as it is almost impossible to give any particular account of what we brought, concluded on the above sum, which I think is reasonable, provided I take on myself the whole charge and damage, which was very great, as one anchor of 340 lb. was lost by the cable being cut off with rocks; the cable much damaged and almost the whole of the running rigging wore out, used for halters and gone. The expense for victualing, drink, and more especially hands' wages running high, as we could hire no otherwise than by the day, and a lighter at 3s. per day for shipping cattle the whole time, she is much damaged &c. If the charge within is thought reasonable, please to pay the sum to the bearer, Ezra L'Hommedieu, Esqr. and his receipt shall be your discharge. We looked on the vessel in this affair at the risk of the Congress, and if it be more agreeable to pay the damage, charter and whole expense, I shall be satisfied, or settle the matter in any other way that your Honours shall judge just and right.

I am, gentlemen, Your friend and hum. servt.

To the Honble. Congress of N. York.

25

Committee. Dec. 24, 1776. In accordance with a letter from Gov. Trumbull, ordered £44 5s. paid to John Field for his account for services and expenses in transporting people and stock from Nassau Island to Connecticut. Said Field stated that the amount was allowed by the Committee of New London by whose request he acted.

[NOTE.—Gov. Trumbull's Letter and the Report of the Auditors of his Accounts do not appear in the printed Journal. They are in Misc. Pap. 35,353, as follows:]

Dec. 24th, 1776, read and agreed to.

Your committee for auditing accounts Reports, that they have examined an account which was forwarded to this Convention by his excellency Gov. Trumbull, amounting to £674—9—0 lawful, equal to £899—5—4, New York Currency, for transporting a number of Inhabitants from Long Island, over to the State of Connecticut with their stock &c., that they find the amount is ascertained by three gentlemen who have been appointed for that purpose by the Committee of New London and Groton and whom Gov. Trumbull declares are Gentlemen of Character, that they are therefore of opinion that it be allowed and that the sum of £44—5 lawful money equal to £59 New York Currency as part thereof for service performed by Mr. John Field, be paid to himself he is now here, that the remaining balance of £630—4 lawful money equal to £840—5—4 New York Currency be remitted to his Excellency Gov. Trumbull for the purpose of discharging said account.

That they have examined another account also transmitted by Gov. Trumbull for service performed by Mr. [Capt.] John Vail which the Connecticut Auditors have not thought fit to certify as just and therefore are of Opinion that it be disallowed for the present and that a Letter to the following purport be written to Gov. Trumbull to wit—

Sir: Your letter of the 12th inst covering an account for removing a number of Inhabitants with their Stock &c from Long Island to your State was duly received, the amount of Mr. John Fields demand being £44—5 has been paid to himself here agreeable to your request the remaining ballance to wit £630—4 I am directed to transmit to your excellency by the Messenger Benjamin Montanye, and beg the favor you will order it paid to the several persons, to whom it is due—

Whenever Mr. [Capt.] John Vail transmits his account properly audited payment will be ordered him.

37

Convention. Mar. 17, 1777. A letter from Middletown, dated Mar. 8, 1777, signed Thomas Dearing, John Foster and [Capt.] Thomas Wickham, accompanying a great bundle of accounts of sundry persons for transporting stock &c. from Long Island, was read and committed to the Committee for auditing accounts.

[NOTE.—These accounts are contained in Ap. C.]

38

Convention. Apr. 9, 1777. Lt. Col. Benjamin Birdsall attended and asked an answer to his petition that he might occupy a farm in Dutchess Co. lately occupied by a disaffected person who has gone over to the enemy. Ordered that his petition must await the making of a general regulation as to such cases. Resolved that Gen. Washington be asked to assist in an application to Gen. Howe to permit the wife and family of said Birdsall to remove from Long Island to some part of this State not in possession of the enemy.

39

Convention. Apr. 14, 1777. A letter from Obadiah Jones, dated at Saybrook, requesting some directions as to their [The Refugees] electing future representatives was read. Ordered that it lie on the table for the perusal of the Members, until the matters of Suffolk Co. stock and accounts are resumed.

(Misc. Pap. 38. 673.)

To the Convention of the State of New York—At a Meeting of the Representatives of the Refugees late of the County of Suffolk in the State of New York, now residing in Haddam, East-Haddam, Lyme, Saybrook, Killingworth & Guilford in the state of Connecticut, Being deputed by One Hundred & Seventy Voters of the Refugees abovesaid, to meet at Saybrook on the 10th day of Apl. 1777 To Prepare an Address to your Honourable House. According to Appointment, we the Representatives Aforesaid taking into Consideration our unhappy Circumstances on Account of the Difficulties now Subsisting Between Great Britain & these American States. Whereas it has proved our Misfortunes to have our Estates in the Possession of our Unnatural Enemies, yet for the Just Rights of our Liberties & the Love of our Country we have Born our Misfortune with Cheerfulness, Notwithstanding there is many of us & likely to be more, if the present Unhappy Difference Continues, are & will be in want of the Necessaries of Life, and as there is a Number of the Refugees can be of no Service in the Support of our Country's cause, whereby if some Method was pointed out, that they could return, would be of Service to the States in General. Gentlemen we Claim Protection from our own State, Therefore Beg leave to Address our Convention, that some Mode may be pointed out, whereby we may be Represented as Inhabitants of the State of New York, & as the Usual Time for the Choice of Delegates is at Hand, Beg that our Embassander may be discharg'd with the Utmost Dispatch, with such Instructions Pointing out the Method whereby we may be Represented, and the Maner of Relief for the poor & Distress'd Refugees, as our Honourable Convention shall Direct.

Convention. Same date. Mr. [John Sloss] Hobart produced an account of [Capt.] Peter Bontecue, of New Haven, for the passage and freight of the families and effects of Daniel Haines, [Capt.] Daniel Hedges, Mat. Osborn, James Jennings, Elisha Mulford, Linus Dibble, Isa. Franks and [Capt.] Johnathan Tuttle, amounting to £64 o.s. 10 d.; said account endorsed as a reasonable charge by Timothy Jones, jr., Jonathan Fitch, Heze. Sabin and Abraham Augur, Committee of Inspection for New Haven; said account also certified and approved Dec. 31, 1776, by Thomas Derring and John Foster. Ordered that the above sum, New York currency, be paid to Peter Bontecue. [See C. 14.]

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 48: "Dec. 31, 1776. The Convention paid 64.10 for freight and passage to Con't of families and effects of Dan'l Haines, Dan'l Hedges, Mat. Osborn, Jas. Jennings, Elisha Mulford, Linus Dibble, Isa. Franks and Jona. Tuttle."

41

Convention. Same date. Mr. [Gouverneur] Morris, Mr. [John Sloss] Hobart and Gen. [John Morin] Scott were appointed a Committee to prepare a letter to the Congress, stating the several resolutions relative to the removal of the stock, grain and inhabitants from Long Island, and the propriety of charging the expense thereof to the United States.

42

Council. June 9, 1777. A memorial from Dr. Platt Townsend was read, declaring that he was a native of Queens Co. and a resident of N. Y. City for some years; that he had fled to Conn. on the approach of the enemy; that he is conveniently situated for making salt from sea water, but is prevented by the embargo in that State. He asked the Council to arrange with that State so that he can make the salt. Resolved that the prayer of the said memorial be granted. Ordered that Mr. [John Sloss] Hobart draft and report a letter on the subject to the Government of Conn.

Council. June 24, 1777. A letter dated at Saybrook the 12th inst signed by a number of Refugees from Nassau [Long] Island, requesting that they may be permitted to pass and repass to the said Island, for the purpose of bringing off necessities for their suffering families, was read, and referred to Messrs. [Zephariah] Platt and [John Sloss] Hobart.

Saybrook 12th of June 1777

To the Committee of Safety At Esopus for the State of New York—Gentlemen: we the Subscribers pressed with Accumulated Grievances are Constrained to Remind or Inform your Honourable House that Some time in the beginning of April last by a Committee Appointed for that purpose did by Mr Conkling Exhibit to the Convention of the State of New-York our Humble petition that in their Wisdom they would point out to us Some mode of Relief under our Sufferings which Convention by said Conkling did give & Return unto us the favourable answer, viz. the Convention will (after the form of Government is Settled) take measures for the support of the poor Among the Refugees in the meantime we wish you would if possible keep up a Committee to take care of the Interest of the Refugee & to Correspond with us &c Pursuant to their Advice, we have attempted to keep up a Committee but find by our Local Situation it is not practicable & have waited patiently for the form of Government to be Settled, which form we most pathetically Congratulate you in as the best in the habitable world but after that was done & having no Instructions further from the Convention & being under Great Embarrasments we Applied to the Honourable the Governor & Counsell of this State & their answer we send you Inclosed. Our distress is daily increasing our want, constantly multiplying the Strictest prohibition of passing to Long Island to get over any thing to support ourselves on & little or nothing to be had here for paper Currency & hard money we have not. Harvest is Approaching & Some or Most of us have breadcorn growing on our land we can't but flatter our Selves that your Sentiments will concur with ours that if we may by your Addressing the Governor & Counsell of this State obtain permits to pass & Repass as Opportunities may present to take over to the Relief of our families that forrage that will otherwise fall into the possession of more than Savage Enemies we hope the Laws of Self preservation will operate so that we may escape the hands of the enemy & give our suffering families some Relief. Gentlemen your favourable answer we trust will Elevate your Highest honor & the Best Affections & warmest petitions of your Humble Servts the Subscribers.

Council. June 27, 1777. The Committee to whom was referred the petition [No. 43, above] of Obadiah Jones and others, Refugees from Long Island, made their report. Resolved that (provided His Excellency Governor Trumbull shall approve) Obadiah Jones, John Hulbert and Thomas Dearing, or any two of them, do give permits to such of the refugees from Long Island as reside in Connecticut as they shall think proper, and at such times and under such restrictions as they may judge prudent, to pass to Long Island to get off their effects. Resolved that the said Obadiah Jones, [Col.] John Hulbert and Thomas Dearing, or any two of them, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to remove at the expense of this State, to the County of Dutchess, within the same, all such of the Refugees from Long Island who now reside in Connecticut as are willing so to be removed. Resolved that £100. be advanced to the said gentlemen to enable them to execute the above Resolutions and that they account with the Auditor Genl. of this State for the expenditure thereof. Ordered that the Treasurer of this State pay the said sum of £100. unto Mr. [Capt.] Paul Reeve, to be by him conveyed and delivered to the said gentlemen, or one of them. [See D. 7. Also Rev'y MSS., 30. 63.]

[NOTE.—Paul Reeve acknowledged the receipt of this sum, June 28, 1777.]

The Council further resolved that the persons so removed should be in the care of Commissioners Abraham Schenck and Gideon Ver Veelen; and a letter was sent to Gov. Trumbull, asking his approval.

[NOTE.—The above action by the Council was approved by the governor and Council of Safety of Conn., July 3, 1777. Onderdonk, "Suffolk Co.," p. 70, states that, on that date, "Oba. Jones, [Col.] John Hurlbut and Thomas Dering gave permits to Refugees going to Long Island."]

45

Council. Aug. 7, 1777. A letter from Thomas Dearing and John Foster, relative to the accounts of sundry persons who were employed in bringing off the inhabitants of Long Island, with their effects, was read. Ordered that the said letter be referred to the Auditor General of accounts.

(Pet. 32. 232.)

To the Honorable the Delegates of the Prov'l Cong. for the Colony of N. Y.

Gentlemen: As this Colony has vested you with Legislative power, and you are the only parents to whom we as children look up for justice and Protection: I hope the application of an innocent suffering individual and a stranger will not be considered as impertinent or treated with neglect.

On Wednesday the 12th instant, being abroad about my lawful business, some wicked persons taking advantage of the public disturbances, and of the opportunity which a number of soldiers and others being in the house where I lodge gave them, forced themselves into my chamber, and broke open my chest and cloths press, and robbed me of my linnen apparel and other things to the value of Ninety or one Hundred dollars—a loss, which in my present circumstances being at a distance from my friends, and having no means of obtaining a supply, is particularly grievous.

Now, gentlemen, have incontestible evidence that I have always spoken and acted as became a Friend to America since the commencement of this unhappy dispute with Great Britain, I am induced to hope you will take my misfortune into consideration and afford me such relief as may be consistent with the public Honour and Justice. I am, Gentlemen, your most obt servt

I the subscriber do certify that I have known John Brickell to speak and act since the commencement of our troubles as became a friend to American Liberty.

Robert Harpur, Deputy Chairman.

I

Assembly, Sept. 23, 1777 — Letter from Thos Dearing and [Col.] John Hulbert, dated at Middletown, Conn., Aug. 26, 1777, and directed to William Floyd, Ezra L'Homedieu or David Gelston. Asked for instructions as to permitting poor families, who are Refugees from Long Island, to return thither. Read and referred.

Senate, Feb. 24, 1779; and Assembly, Feb. 27, 1779 — Petition of [Maj.] Jesse Brush, [Capt.] Titus Conklin, [Maj.] Thos Brush, Isaiah Whitman and Samuel Allen, Refugees from parts of the State now in the power of the enemy. They complained of the conduct of the Commissioners of Sequestration, and prayed for relief. Read and referred in both Houses.

To His Excellency Governor Clinton &c. &c.

S'r The Subscribers, your Excellency's humble Petitioners, Being all Refugees from Long Island, who have from principle emigrated & with Inflexible Spirit & Invariable resolution was and are now the most Cordial Friends to the Independence of the United States, having long hardly subsisted ourselves in the State of Connecticut & have made many hard Struggles with Insuperable difficulties, are now reduced to a want of Bread, the people among whom we dwell either cannot or will not furnish us with Supplies. Now, S'r, permitt your humble Petitioners to look up to your Excellency's Paternal goodness, for a Permitt to purchase in the State of New York (to which we humbly claim a Union) that Bread or Species of bread which to Suport & only to Support our families is absolutely necessary. In the fullest asurance of your Excellency's Candour & in the highest hopes that you[r] Compassion for persevering Friends will Excite you to Grant our petition to purchase a full Supplie for our Nomerous families & thereby Lay us the Subscribers under Indispesible obligations ever to pray &c.

Obadiah Jones, [Maj.] Nat'l King, [Capt.] Zebulun Cooper, Elias Howell, [Dr.] Silas Hallsey, Jun'r, Samuel Sherril, [Capt.] Isaac Schellinger, Jeremiah Jagger, [Lt.] William Havens, Jesse Wood, Thomas Harley, [Dr.] David Conkling, Richard Seman, Jonathan Conklin, Jeremiah Rogers, [Capt.] David Howell, Silvanus Howell, Obediah Wright, Will. Wels. (Clinton Pap. 5. 439, 440 — Place and date not given; but probably 1779.)

Senate, Feb. 16, 1780 — Petition of Gabriel W. Ludlow, a Refugee from N. Y. City to Dutchess Co., N. Y., complaining of the Tax Assessors. Read and referred.

Senate, Nov. 10, 1781—Petition of [Lt.] Selah Reeve, dated New Burgh, Nov. 8, 1781. [Leg. Pap. 1366.] "Your Petitioner with his Family left Long Island soon after the Enemy Took Possession of Newyork. That your Petitioner first set Down in the Town of Killingworth in Conn. on a hired farm where he Remained for Three years. That the war was still Continuing and your Petitioner having a Growing Family, Put him under the Necessity of Reallizing the Little Cash he had left, in a Small Farm." Bought farm of John Jacob Staple, who has since gone over to the enemy, in consequence of which his farm is in danger of being confiscated. Prays for relief in the premises. Read and referred.

Assembly, Nov. 14, 1781; and Senate, Nov. 15, 1781—Petition of Saml King and others of Dutchess County relative to taxes. Read and referred.

Assembly, Mar. 11, 1782; and Senate, Mar. 12, 1782—Petition of John Johnson and George Fowler, in behalf of themselves and Theodosius Fowler and Abraham Fowler. Without date. [Leg. Pap. 1371.]

Pray that the estate of their father-in-law and father Jonathan Fowler, Esq. of East Chester, in the County of West Chester, who has lately been indicted for adhering to the enemy, be not confiscated but vested in them and equally divided between them. John Johnson, George and Theodosius Fowler, at any early period, took "decided part in the present contest, in favour of their Country." Read, and consideration thereof postponed.

Senate, Mar. 16, 1784—Mention is made of Capt. Thaddeus Fowler, of the 2d N. Y. Regt.

[NOTE.—A law of the State of N. Y., Apr. 18, 1787, recites that the real and personal estate of Jonathan Fower, deceased, has been forfeited to the State; and enacts that all property so forfeited shall be vested in his children: Theodosius, George, Alexander, Abraham, Abigail, wife of John Johnson, Mary, wife of Thomas Dart, Margaret and Levina—all of whom are friendly to the United States.]

Senate, Apr. 9, 1782—Petition of Joshua Horton relative to a farm purchased by him of the Commissioners of Forfeitures.

Senate, Feb. 13, 1783—Petition of [Dr.] John Cochran, "as to location of two thousand acres of land. Not dated. (Ass'y Pap. 14. 415.)

Entered the service of the King of Great Britain in 1755 in the capacity of a Surgeon's Mate in the Military Hospitals in America and continued in said service till the end of the war, when he became reduced. In consequence of proclamation of Oct. 7, 1763, he became entitled to 2000 acres of land. Entered service of U. S. in 1776 in the capacity of Physician and Surgeon General to the army and was promoted by Congress to the directorship of all the military hospitals, in which character he is now employed. Prays that he may be allowed to locate the 2000 acres. Read and referred.

Senate, Feb. 26, 1783—Agreed to favorable report. Passed Assembly, Mar. 6, 1783.

[NOTE.—The exact dates of appointment are given in the Memorial of John Cochran, of the City of N. Y., Physician, Feb. 1, 1790, in Ass'y Pap. 15. 222.]

10

Senate, Feb. 21, 1783—Petition of [Lt. Col.] Melancthon Lloyd Woolsey praying that certain goods taken in the illicit trade may be sold. Read and referred.

Assembly, Feb. 13, 1783—Reported favorably.

11

Assembly, Feb. 2, 1784—Petition of Elias Parshall, insolvent debtor in N. Y. City. Read and referred.

12

Assembly, Jan. 26, 1784; Senate, Feb. 9, 1784—Petition of Benjamin Young [s] Prime, M. D., dated Huntington, Jan. 5, 1784. Signed: Benj. Young Prime. (Leg. Pap. 2066.)

Fled from Long Island on Sept. 1, 1776 and for 7 years suffered almost intollerable hardships, sinking the greatest part of his estate by enormous expense, depreciation, etc. Was marked out and plundered as a singular Rebel, both at Huntington and New Haven. His father [Rev. Ebenezer] remained on Long Island to the time of his death and always proved himself, not only by private conversation but often by his sermons, a zealous advocate for American liberty. Petitioner, nephew and niece only heirs of his father. Took out letters of administration but finds that under law of July 12, 1782, he cannot recover debts due to his father. Had the utmost difficulty in removing his family to Huntington and left Conn. in debt. Prays that law, so far as it affects him, may be repealed. In Senate, read and referred.

13

Assembly, Feb. 14, 1784—Petition of [Rev.] Simon Horton and others of Newtown, Queens Co., N. Y.

[NOTE.—No details given.]

14

Assembly, Feb. 14, 1784—Petition of [Rev.] Abraham Keteltas of Jamaica, Queens Co., N. Y., Feb. 2, 1784. (Ass'y. Pap. 3. 73.)

Was the first Chairman of the Committee of Jamaica and a representative of Queens Co. at the Congress held at White Plains in the year 1776, where he served his country without reward, at his own expense. Was appointed with Gen. Washington, Samuel Townsend and John Broom a committee to advise about the disposal of cattle and stock upon Long Island. Left his farm on Long Island, which was practically destroyed by the British. Lived for the last 2½ years in Dutchess county, where he was obliged to buy a house and farm, upon credit. Has been a zealous advocate of American cause, both from the pulpit and in the press. Prays for relief as to damages to his estate by British Troops and by persons who have departed with them. Read and referred.

Assembly, Mar. 17, 1784—Reported that relief ought to be afforded to the Petitioner, and others in similar circumstances.

Assembly, Feb. 18, 1784—Petition of Joshua Horton & others relative to grants of unappropriated laids. Read and committed.

16

Assembly, Mar. 10, 1784—Petition of Thomas T. [Fred?] Jackson relative to pay for services in the U. S. Army. Read and referred.

Assembly, Apr. 5, 1784—Petition of Abraham Schenck of Newtown, Queens Co., relative to damages sustained in his real estate. Read and referred.

17

Assembly, Apr. 24, 1784—Petition of David Howell and others of Goshen, Orange Co., N. Y., for a mitigation of the costs accrued in a prosecution against them under the act "to prevent Private Lotteries." The Committee reported that the costs will be laid by the Judges of the Supreme Court; but mitigation rests with the Public Prosecutor.

(Leg. Pap. 2093.) Petition of Jabesh Finch, William Miller, Zachariah Horton and David Howell, Jun. of the precinct of Goshen in the County of Orange, praying relief from the penalties of the law against Private Lotteries. The petition is not dated, but endorsed "In Assembly 28th Jan'y 1783." The petitioners describe themselves as "men but in low circumstances" who have been most zealously engaged in the American cause.

18

Assembly, Nov. 18, 1784 — Joseph Crane Jr, of Dutchess Co, N. Y., petitioned for relief from prosecution on account of goods seized under a Flag of France. Nov. 20, 1784 — The Committee reported that he should be relieved.

19

Assembly, Jan. 31, 1785 — Petition of John Foster relative to a vessel taken in 1776 for the use of the U. S. Read and referred.

Assembly, Feb. 2, 1785 — The Committee reported that it was a transaction to be settled for by the U. S.

Assembly, Mar. 29, 1787 — Petition of John Foster [probably same as above].

20

Assembly, Feb. 10, 1785 — Petition of Geo. Smith, of Suffolk Co., relative to practicing law. His license to practice had expired. Read and referred.

Assembly, Feb. 23, 1785 — Authority was given to George Smith to resume the practice of law.

Senate, Mar. 14, 1785 — Petition of Thomas McFarran, Melancthon Smith and Hendrick Wyckoff, dated N. Y., Mar. 12, 1785. (Leg. Pap. 1425.)

Petitioners, on the second day of Aug. last, purchased at public auction two lots of land on Cruger's Wharf, which were forfeited by the attainder and conviction of William Bayard, Esq. The city of N. Y. having made a demand upon the petitioners for 62 pounds and three pence for arrearages of quit rents, they pray the Legislature to direct the Commissioners of Forfeiture to refund the money, and make other reasonable compensation for the encumbrance of quit rents reserved on the said lots.

Senate, Mar. 17, 1785 — The Committee reported that the Petitioners should receive, from the Treasury of the State, the amount of quit rent due at the time of the sale.

Assembly, Mar. 16, 1785 — Petition of Nathaniel Tylee, of the City of N. Y., at present confined as an insolvent debtor, in the custody of the Sheriff of the City and County of N. Y., dated Mar. 12, 1785. (Leg. Pap. 1630.)

Took an early and decided part in the controversy with Great Britain and with a large family removed to the State of Connecticut. On the restoration of peace he returned to this City, the place of his nativity, but was unsuccessful in business and unable to pay his debts. Prays for relief.

23

Assembly, Apr. 21, 1785 — Petition of Melancthon Lloyd Woolsey, insolvent debtor, dated New York, March 20, 1785. Prays for relief. (Leg. Pap. 1668.)

24

Assembly, Mar. 7, 1786 — Petition of [Lt. Col.] Benjamin Birdsall, dated March 6, 1786. The Committee's report in favor of the petitioner was rejected on Mar. 29, 1786. (Ass'y Pap. 15. 473-476.)

Benjamin Birdsall of Oyster Bay, Queens Co., suffered with his family great hardships during the war. Dec. 23, 1777, was requested by Gen. Putnam, in command of the Continental army lying in Westchester Co., to conduct a flag of truce with a number of disaffected families across the Sound to Long Island. Crossed on a large sea sloop but was made a prisoner and confined in N. Y. provost jail. Was exchanged for Daniel Rice, the master of Sir Henry Clinton's Schooner, and returned home to his family in Dutchess Co., Mar. 27, 1778. During his imprisonment he was forced to call upon Lewis Pintard, the American Commissary of Prisoners in N. Y., for relief and in consequence stands charged in the Continental books with £49-14-4. Prays for relief.

Assembly, Jan. 29, 1787 — Petition of Keziah Concklin executrix of Benjn. Concklin, late of Huntington, deceased, praying for a law authorizing the sale of the testator's real estate. Read and referred. Oct. 10, 1787, Committee reported that the petition ought not to be granted.

Senate, Mar. 6, 1786 — Petition of Keziah Conckling, executrix of the last will and testament of Benjamin Conckling, late of Huntington, in the County of Suffolk, yeoman, deceased, dated N. Y., March 4, 1786. (Leg. Pap. 1316.)

Testator, supposing that his personal estate was amply sufficient to pay all his debts, "ordered a certain piece of land therein mentioned to be sold and divided between his four daughters; and gave the rest of his farm to two of his sons, who are both under age, they being to educate and pay a legacy of sixty pounds to their brother &c." Has been sued for trespass committed by her late husband upon the estate of John Lloyd, and prays that the whole real estate may be vested in trustees for the purpose of satisfying his claim.

26

Assembly, Feb. 2, 1787 — Petition of Andrew Morehouse and others of Dutchess Co. relative to monies lent by them to the U. S. Read and referred.

Assembly, Feb. 26, 1785 — Petition of Andrew Morehouse [signed Morhous] and 68 others, of Pawlings Precinct, Dutchess Co., dated Jan. 3, 1785. (Leg. Pap. 1157.)

They pray for the emission of a paper currency for the use of the State on moderate interest; for the establishment of a Court of Probate in each County; for a law enabling Justices of the Peace to acknowledge transfers of real estate; and for a law enabling Assessors to assess the contingent charges within their respective precincts.

27

Assembly, Feb. 24, 1787 — Petition of Col. [Capt.] David Pierson and others, Militia Officers of Suffolk Co., relative to the transportation of arms across the Sound during the late War. Read and referred.

28

Senate, Jan. 12, 1788 — Petition of Israel Reeve [Jr.] dated Suffolk Co., Dec. 22, 1787. (Leg. Pap. 2175.)

Was a soldier in Capt. Titus' company in the Regt. commanded by Col. Henry B. Livingston; was wounded in his thigh at Bemus Heights in 1777, by grapeshot, which disabled him from service in the Regt. Has ever since been unable to do any business and till lately has lived in Conn. Prays that he may receive the depreciation of his pay. Read and referred.

29

Assembly, Jan. 12, 1789 — Petition of Jeremiah Rogers and others relative to keeping the 7th day of the week; and working on the Sabbath. Read and referred. Jan. 15, 1789, Committee reported that the petition ought not to be granted because the subject matter of it had been provided for already, by a general law.

Assembly, July 8, 1789 — Petition of [Dr.] William Lawrence for himself and Richard Seaman.

Prayed for the payment of £93 15s 10d., delivered by Charles Duryee, Feb. 14, 1777, to a Committee appointed to secure the effects of persons who had gone over to the enemy. Read and referred, Feb. 5, 1790.

The Committee reported the petition favorably. [See B. 31.]

[NOTE.—By the Law of Apr. 6, 1792, the sum of £92.15.4 was paid to Dr. Lawrence and Richard Seaman.]

Petition of William Lawrence to the Senate of New York. [Date not given; but probably 1789, and a duplicate of the Petition noted in B. 30. Rev'y MSS., 40. 100.]

At the first commencement of trouble with Britain there were provincial Congresses for redress of grievances; but, not obtaining any, money was wanted. We lent them, I think Mr. [Isaac] Roosevelt was present, which was afterward paid to us again. Then arms, etc., were wanted; we exchanged for continental bills hard money, to send to Estatia [St. Eustatia, or Eustatius, of the Dutch West Indies] for them. We also contributed to the relief of the distressed in Boston. When the British troops came to Staten Island I was at Albany and arrived at this place the afternoon before the evacuation of Long Island by our troops. Of course all communication being cut off could not return to my family at Musketo Cove on Long Island. In consequence of which was obliged to go to Westchester and from thence to Northcastle where my wife came to see me soliciting me to return, as my aged mother herself and children were insulted very much by the Tories and my property destroyed by [several words missing] the first visit putting confidence in the United efforts of the Continent that the British troops would be obliged to abandon the attempt of subjugating the Colonies. She made the second visit requesting that I would go over with her, for without me they could not have any peace or get anything to subsist upon. In consequence of this natural feeling for my aged mother & family I complied with her request and went with her without any permission from any quarter, as there were no flags at that time, to my home, or, rather, return from my journey from Albany. Can this be called going to the enemy and joining, when I was threatened by the people there if they could catch me they would hang me to the first tree they came to? And what was the consequence of my return? Why, as soon as I had got to my house, a messenger was sent off to Oyster Bay to Cruger who commanded there, & file of men with bayonets fixt were sent off & conducted me to Oyster Bay & there put in the guard house & kept there for some time without any hearing, which one of your honourable members very well knows, Mr. Townsend, & after that I was obliged, by the captain of the company where I lived to go on guard along the shore, & instead of a gun I carried a stick, and as soon as I could, which was in about three or four months, I moved my family to Southampton & from thence to killingsworth, in Connecticut & there remained until peace took place; & can make it appear that I have been as good a friend as any man to the American cause. While I was at Southampton I came to this place & got intelligence of the number of British troops that had arrived, & sent the information to Governor Trumble; also that I have suffered as much as any one according to the property I had. The Still house I was concerned in, very much damaged, the repair of which did not cost less than three hundred pounds, as the British made a store house of it. When Congress applied to the Citizens of the United States for to lend them money, I let them have what I had, & some of it was the very money I received for the hard money in exchange, as I mentioned above, for the purpose of sending for arms &c All this for the common defense, & that same money so received in exchange Congress have reduced to 10 & 15 for one. Well, notwithstanding all this, Charles Duryea paid into the treasury £93.15.4

during my absence which has been made use of also for the common defence, the Senate have not allowed me anything for it. After the petition I sent in had been referred to a committee which committee reported in favor of it & the lower house of Assembly approved of said report still the Senate would not allow it. Now, after stating all those facts which are not to be denied, I pray that the Honorable Senate will reconsider their report & grant petitioner's reasonable request.

William Lawrence.

The money I lent Congress was £1200 good money which is reduced to the scale to £217.

32

Assembly, Jan. 16, 1790 — Petition of James and Job Sayre, Executors of James Sayre, of Orange Co., relative to money paid to the State Treasury for debts due to an enemy of the State.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79. "Oct. 12, '78. James Sayre, of L. I., now at Saybrook, wants to engage in the illicit trade."

33

Senate, Feb. 9, 1790 — Petition of John Foster of Suffolk Co., prisoner for debt in N. Y. City; granted so that the State Treasurer may become a petitioning creditor.

Senate, Feb. 9, 1790 — Petition of John Foster, dated Gaol in New York, Feb. 9, 1790. (Ass'y Pap. 15. 191.)

In the year 1775 was a delegate for the County of Suffolk in the Prov'l Cong. and thereby became very obnoxious to the enemy; upon his removal with his family out of their power, they burnt his ship on the stocks at Sag Harbor, to the value of £2000 and injured his house and other property to a large amount. By those losses and by supporting a large family in Conn. during the war, found himself unable to pay his debts and prays that the Treasurer of the State may by law be enabled to sign as a creditor for the discharge of a certain bond.

Senate, Mar. 24, 1787 — Petition of the same John Foster, dated N. Y., Mar. 22, 1787. (Leg. Pap. 2174.)

States, in addition to facts above set forth, that he took upon himself the charge of transporting powder and other warlike stores down Long Island for the use of Col. [Henry B.] Livingston; that he arrived safely with the stores by the help of Mr. Waldron who lived with his servant at the ferry and that he exerted himself in procuring boats, arms, &c., and so made himself particularly obnoxious to Gov. Tryon. That the enemy burnt his ship, house, barn and outhouses, and to complete the destruction of his property also destroyed some goods, books and papers to the amount of 500 pounds, at Frenchman's Bay. Prays for compensation.

34

Assembly, Feb. 13, 1790 — Petition of Benjamin Moores relative to extension of time of issuing letters patent to the Canadian Refugees.

Petition of Benjamin Mooers, agent in behalf of Canadian and Nova Scotia refugees, dated New York Feb. 12, 1790. (Ass'y Pap. 15. 238.)

35

Assembly, Mar. 3, 1790 — Petition of David Howell of Ulster Co., formerly of Suffolk Co., relative to his claim for repairing small arms, in 1776, for the use of the U. S. Read and referred.

Assembly, Mar. 11, 1790 — The Committee referred the claim to the Commissioners of Claims.

[NOTE.—Many of these claims will be found in the Rev'y MSS.]

36

Senate, Mar. 23, 1790 — Petition of Richard Terry relative to his claim against a forfeited estate was granted.

37

Assembly, Feb. 3, 1791 — Petition of Benjn More of Goshen, Orange Co., relative to a claim for the military pay of his son Joseph More while in captivity during the late War. Read and referred.

Assembly, Mar. 16, 1791 — Petition granted.

38

Assembly, Jan. 28, 1793 — Petition of [Lt. Col.] Benjn. Birdsall relative to pay for horses and supplies delivered for the use of the U. S. in the late War, by order of Gen. Mifflin. Committee reported favorably; and the Assembly sustained the report. Passed the Assembly, Jan. 31.

39

Senate, Feb. 27, 1795 — Petition of Lt. Col. Melancthon Lloyd Woolsey, of Clinton Co., N. Y., to be reimbursed for encroachments of British and Indians on lands in that county.

40

Assembly, Jan. 11, 1796 — Petition of Zephaniah Filer, of Troy, in the county of Rensselaer, in behalf of himself and brothers. Dated Troy, Dec. 30, 1795. (Ass'y Pap. 17. 423, 424.)

Prays for bounty land due to his father Thomas Filer, who enlisted Nov. 21, 1776, in the 4th N. Y. Regt. and served till he was killed. Explains that, by an omission on the part of the returning officer, his father was not returned as entitled to bounty lands. Read and referred.

Deposition of Capt. William Havens, sworn to at Southampton, Jan. 21, 1794 (Ass'y Pap. 17. 425) states that he is the only surviving officer of Capt. Davis' Co. of the 4th N. Y. Regt., and that he did enlist Thomas Philer of Easthampton in Dec. 1776, during the War, and that said Philer did serve until on or about Nov. 1, 1777, when he departed this life at Poughkipsey.

A certificate by Michael Connolly, without date (Ass'y Pap. 17. 427) states "Thomas Filer Inlisted 21st Novr. 1776 in Capt. Davis Co., 4th N. Y. Regt. for During the War and Died 31st. Octr. 1777."

[NOTE.—Original in the possession of the John Carter Brown Library, Providence, R. I.]

To His Excellency George Clinton, Esquire, Governor, and the other the Honorable Members composing the Board, constituted by Law for the temporary Government of the Southern District of the State: The Memorial of the Subscribers, in Behalf of themselves and others, the Refugee Citizens of New-York: Humbly Sheweth:

That your Memorialists were among the first of the citizens of America, who in the early stages of British usurpation, asserted their rights as became freemen; and who openly contended against the unconstitutional and arbitrary measures which were adopted and pursued by the King and Parliament of Britain, to reduce the inhabitants of this continent to the abject state of unconditional submission, to such exercises of power as their avarice or ambition might dictate. And your Memorialists, after a series of unavailing applications to the British Court for redress, can also ascribe to themselves the honor of making the first overtures to their then sister colonies for establishing that union among themselves, which, under the protection of Divine Providence, has proved the happy means of their common preservation; and which has enabled them, with such unparalleled success, to repel the powerful exertions of an exasperated enemy, and to close the hazardous contest by compelling even that haughty enemy to acknowledge these United States as a free, sovereign and independent nation.

That your Memorialists, conscious of the rectitude of their intentions, the justice and importance of the cause in which they were engaged, stimulated by the most sacred regard for the civil and religious liberties of their country, and possessing the fullest dependence upon the honour, the exertions, and support of their fellow sufferers, citizens and countrymen, so solemnly promised and pledged by voluntary associations, declaring to the world, that at every hazard, expence and danger, they would defend and maintain their freedom against every invader. — Governed by such motives, and confiding in such assurances, your Memorialists, in demonstration of the sincerity of their professions, most cheerfully abandoned their comfortable habitations, their property, and many of them every means of support, upon the approach of the British armament to this State in the year 1776. Perhaps too sanguinely reasoning from the dictates of their own hearts, that a people on whose generosity and gratitude they were thus confidentially depending, and for whose safety, interest and cause they were thus fully devoting themselves, would receive them with the most cordial expressions of friendship, favour and esteem.

At this period, and in the most destitute and dispersed circumstances, commenced the various, aggravated and severe hardships, which, in the course of a seven years' exile, your Memorialists have experienced; and, notwithstanding of which, animated by the hope of being eventually successful in the great cause in which they were embarked; they have on all occasions, with fortitude and firmness, continued to manifest their zeal and perseverance, by contributing according to their power and opportunity, whatever has been required from them in common with others, for public use or service; Patiently, though anxiously waiting for that happy day, which would relieve them from such mortifying scenes of misery, by restoring them triumphantly to their native city with liberty and peace.

Such having been the conduct, the sacrifices, and the sufferings of your Memorialists, through the tedious periods of the war, there can be but few among all the citizens of America who have more real cause of rejoicing at the auspicious prospect of an honourable peace.— But when they reflect upon the present circumstances of the city, and compare them with their own:— When they remember that a very considerable part of it is reduced to ashes, and the residue in the occupation of adherents to the British government, and followers of the British army, possessed, not only of all the advantages derived from trade and business of every kind, but also of wealth and influence to secure those advantages to themselves.— Your Memorialists would be filled with the most painful and alarming apprehensions for their future means of subsistence and support, were they not comforted by the confidence and truth which they repose in the justice and wisdom of that government, which they have done so much to establish.

Your Memorialists have derived great satisfaction and encouragement from the provident measures adopted by the Legislature, which under prudent limitations, constitutes a temporary government for the southern district of the state, especially as they flatter themselves that a generous attention to the case and circumstances of the dispersed and unfortunate citizens of New-York, as a principal end, dictated the expediency and propriety of this judicious and necessary act. And your Memorialists, possessing the same confidence in the justice, generostiy and wisdom of your Honorable Board, entertain no doubt but that you will be equally disposed to take your Memorialists under your immediate protection and favour, and to exert the powers with which you are invested for the purpose of promoting their speedy and effectual re-establishment, as far as may be practicable, in their former habitations, or in as comfortable a manner as the reduced conditions of the city will permit.

Reduced in property, and destitute as many of your Memorialists are, and notwithstanding they have devoted so many years of the most valuable part of their lives to the common cause of their country, yet they never would think themselves warranted to solicit the interposition of your Honourable Board for their interest or accommodation in any instance where their application or claims would operate against the true interest of the State at large, or with the rights of those who were entitled to the favour of government; but your Memorialists are fully persuaded that when the merits of their present requests are dispassionately and impartially investigated, it will be abundantly evident, that on the one hand, they have given the most ample demonstrations of attachment, perseverance and zeal, through all the vicissitudes of the arduous contest; and that on the other hand, those who are in possession of the city have perhaps, with equal perseverance, exerted themselves to support our enemy and to defeat the measures which have been pursued for the preservation of our lives, liberty, and the establishment of our freedom and independence; nor can there be a doubt, but that exasperated by their disappointment and disgrace, they will retain the same vindictive rage and enmity against our happy constitution and government; and instigated by their unconquerable prejudices, will exert every means in their power to attempt their subversion. And when it is considered how far the influence, principles and examples of the citizens of the metropolis prevail through the remote parts of the state, there can be as little doubt about the policy of guarding against the dangerous effects which reasonably might be apprehended from excluding the whig inhabitants and suffering the capital of the state to remain an asylum for the disaffected, and a nursery of Tory principles.

Having thus freely, but they hope, with becoming respect, stated to your Honorable Board the peculiar embarrassments and distresses of their present situation; and also taken the liberty to suggest such arguments as they trust, will sufficiently vindicate the justice and propriety of their claims; your Memorialists take leave to represent, that many of them were tenants, and rented houses either by the year, or upon lease for a term of years, which they abandoned, and with the American army retired from the city in the fall of the year 1776. That others of your Memorialists occupied houses their own property, which, since the enemy have had possession of the city, are consumed by fire, and that comparatively, there are but very few of those citizens who withdrew from New-York upon the approach of the enemy, who have either the means or prospect of being able to procure a covering for their families upon their return, especially as in their present circumstances, they cannot afford to pay such extravagant rents as are demanded by the proprietors, particularly by those who have adhered to the enemy or remained within their power and protection during the war, and which are frequently given by disaffected and strangers, as your Memorialists apprehend, thereby to gain a residence and establishment in the state.

Under such a complication of difficulties, your Memorialists are constrained to present their case and claims to your Honorable Board:— They again declare that they wish for nothing incompatible with the rights of whig citizens, or which would embarrass government in their decisions; and they flatter themselves, that while they only claim to be provided for, as faithful and zealous citizens and subjects, in preference to those who have been open and avowed enemies, their applications will neither be deemed unreasonable, nor rejected by a government convinced of the truth of the facts which they assert, and friendly to the principles of our glorious revolution.

Your Memorialists do therefore most earnestly request, that your Honorable Board will be pleased to take their case into consideration, and as soon as conveniently may be, to make an ordinance, authorizing such of your Memorialists who either occupied, rented or leased houses in the year 1776, from persons who have either remained, or removed within the enemy's lines, to repossess the same upon their return to the city. Also directing that such houses as are part of confiscated estates be appropriated, until the legislature shall otherwise determine for the further accommodation of your Memorialists; and prescribing such other methods and means of providing houses for the Refugee Citizens as a due sense of their merits, their necessity and your wisdom may suggest.

And in order to prevent as much as possible those irregularities and confusion, which, on such an occasion may be apprehended, as well as for the convenience of the citizens, your Memorialists beg leave further to request,

(Clinton Pap. 8. 300-302.)

To his Excellency George Washington Esquire, General and Commander in Chief of the Armies of the United States of America —

The address of the Citizens of New York, who have return'd from Exile, in behalf of themselves and their Suffering Brethren —

Sir—At a moment when the arm of Tyranny is Yielding up its fondest usurpations; we hope the Salutations of long suffering Exiles, but now happy freemen, will not be deemed an unworthy tribute. In this place, and at this moment of exultation and triumph, while the Ensigs of Slavery still linger in our Sight, we look up to you, our deliverer, with unusual transports of Gratitude and Joy.— Permit us to welcome you to this City, long torn from us by the hard hand of Oppression, but now, by your Wisdom and energy, under the guidance of Providence, once more the seat of Peace and Freedom; we forbear to speak our gratitude or your Praise. We should but echo the voice of applauding Millions. But the Citizens of New York are eminently indebted to your virtues and we who have now the honour to address your Excellency, have been often companions of your Sufferings, and witnesses of your exertions. Permit us therefore to approach your Excellency with the dignity and Sincerity of freemen, and to Assure you, that we shall preserve with our latest breath, our Gratitude for your Services, and Veneration for your Character; and accept of our Sincere and earnest Wishes that you may long enjoy that calm domestic felicity which you have so generously sacrificed; that the Cries of Injured Liberty may never more interrupt your repose, and that you hapiness may be equal to your Virtues—Signed at request of the Meeting —

Reply of General Washington.

The General's Reply: To the Citizens of New York who have returned from exile.

Gentlemen: I thank you sincerely for your affectionate Address, and entreat You to be persuaded that Nothing could be more agreeable to me than your polite Congratulations. Permit me, in Turn, to felicitate You on the happy Repossession of your City. Great as your joy must be on this pleasing Occasion, it can scarcely exceed that which I feel, at seeing you, Gentlemen, who from the noblest Motives have suffered a voluntary Exile of many Years, return again in Peace & Triumph to enjoy the Fruits of your virtuous Conduct. The Fortitude and Perseverance which You and your Suffering Brethren have exhibited in the Course of the War, have not only endeared You to your Countrymen, but will be remembered with admiration and Applause to the latest Posterity.

May the Tranquility of your City be perpetual — May the Ruins soon be repaired, Commerce flourish, Science be fostered; And all the Civil and social Virtues be cherished, in the same illustrious Manner which formerly reflected so much Credit on the Inhabitants of New York. In fine, may every Species of Felicity attend You Gentlemen & your worthy fellow Citizens.

Go. Washington.

(Clinton Pap. 8. 287-289.)

To His Excellency George Clinton, Esqr. Gov. of the State of New York, Commander in Chief of the Militia and Admiral of the Navy of the same.

The Address of the Citizens of New York who have returned from their Exile in behalf of themselves & their suffering Brethren.

Sir, When we consider your faithful Labours at the Head of the Government of this State, Devoid as we conceive every free People ought to be of Flattery.—We think we should not be wanting in Gratitude to your Vigilant and assiduous services in the Civil Line.

The State, Sir, is Highly Indebted to you in your Military Capacity — a Sense of your real merit will secure to you that Reputation which a brave man exposing himself in Defence of his Country will ever deserve. We most sincerely congratulate you on your Happy arrival at the capital of the State. Your Excellency hath borne a part with us in the General Distress, and was ever Ready to Alleviate the Calamities you could not Effectually remove. Your Example taught us to suffer with Dignity.

We beg leave to assure your Excellency that as prudent Citizens and faithfull subjects to the People of the State of New York we will do everything in our Power to Enable you to support order and good Government in the Community over which you have by the Suffrages of a Free and Discerning People been Elected to preside — Signed at the request of the meeting.

Reply of Governor Clinton.

Gentlemen, Accept my most sincere Thanks for your very affectionate and respectful address. Citizens who, like you, to indicate the sacred Cause of Freedom, have quitted their native City, their Fortunes and possessions & sustained with manly Fortitude the Rigors of a long and painful exile, superseded to the greivous Calamities of a vengeful war, merit, in an eminent degree, the title of Patriots and the Esteem of mankind; and your Confidence and approbation are Honors which cannot be received without the utmost sensibility, contemplated without gratitude and satisfaction. To your sufferings and to the invincible spirit with which they were surmounted, I have been witness; and while I sympathized in your Distresses I have deeply lamented that I had not means to alleviate them equal to my Inclination:

The assurances of your firm support in the administration of Government give me similar Pleasure. A Reverence for the Law is peculiarly essential to publick safety & Prosperity under our free Constitution; and should we suffer the Authority of the Magistrate to be violated, for the sake of private Vengeance, we should be unworthy of the numberless Blessings which an indulgent Providence hath placed within our Reach. I shall endeavor steadily to discharge my Duty, and I flatter myself that this State will become no less distinguished for Justice and publick Tranquility in Peace than it has hitherto been marked in War for Vigor, Fortitude and Perseverance.

Gentlemen, Your kind Congratulations on my arrival at this metropolis, after so long an absence, are highly acceptable, and I most cordially felicitate with you on the Joyful Event which have restored us to the free & uncontrollable Enjoyment of our Right. While we regard with inviolable gratitude and assertion all who have aided us by their Council or their arms let us not be unmindful of that Almighty Being whose gracious Providence has been manifestly Interposed for Deliverance and Protection: and let us prove by our Virtues that we desire to partake of the Freedom sovereignty & Independence which are so happily established throughout these United States.

The Exiles from New York City Adopt Resolutions

(Clinton Pap. 8. 294-297)

At a meeting of a large and respectful number of Inhabitants (lately returned from a seven years' exile) at Mr. Cape's Tavern, Broad-Way, on Tuesday evening the 18th of November [1783], the following Resolutions were unanimously agreed to.

Resolved, That every person whatever his political character may be, who hath remained in this city during the late contest, be requested to leave the room forthwith.

Resolved, That we will each and every one, to the utmost of our power, prevent any confusion that may arise, on and after the day when this city shall be evacuated by the troops of his Britannic Majesty, agreeable to the proclamation of his Excellency Governor Clinton.

Resolved, That persons who have remained, or returned within the British lines, during the late contest, will not, on any pretence whatever, be admitted into any future meeting of this body.

Resolved, That the following persons, thirteen in number, viz: Colonels Henry Bicker, Frederick Weissenfels; Captains Elihu Marshall, Prentice Bowen, Jeremiah Wool; Messieurs John Woodward, William Gilbert, Francis Van Dyck, Ephraim Brasher, Courant V. Ham, Thomas LeFoy, John Wylley, and Thomas Campbell, be a Committee to meet tomorrow evening, at Mr. Simmons' Tavern, seven o'clock; that their business be to form a Badge of distinction to be worn on the day of evacuation—appoint the place of meeting, previous thereto, and agree as to the manner in which this body shall receive his Excellency the Governor on that date.

Resolved, That the Committee do lay before the meeting, to be held at this place, next Thursday evening, a report of their proceedings.

Resolved, That Mr. Loudon be requested to publish the resolves of this meeting in his next Thursday's paper.

Preparations to receive Washington.

At a Meeting, held on Thursday Evening the 20th Instant [Nov., 1783], at Mr. Cape's the following Resolutions were unanimously entered into:

I. Resolved, That the Badge of Distinction, to be worn at the reception of the Governor, on his entrance in this City, be a Union Cockade, of black and white ribband, worn on the left breast, and a Laurel in the Hat.

II. Resolved, That the place of Meeting, be at the Bull's Head Tavern, now kept by Mrs. Verian, on Saturday next, at nine o'clock, A. M.

III. Resolved, That if it appears eligible, His Excellency Governor Clinton, and His Excellency General Washington (should he accompany the Governor) shall be received by the Citizens drawn up in the form of a Square, and in that manner conducted to his Quarters.

IV. Resolved, That the Field and other officers, who now serve, or heretofore have served, in the Continental Army, be requested to form themselves on the Flanks of the Square, in the conducting his Excellency.

V. Resolved, That Mr. Samuel Broome, Mr. Henry A. Rensen, Captains Jeremiah Wool, Thomas Randall, Patrick Dennis, Messrs. Francis Van Dyck, Henry Kipp, William Gilbert, sen. Peter Byvanck, Ephraim Brasher, William Gilbert, jun. Thomas Tucker, and George Janeway, Thirteen in Number, be a Committee for the purpose of conducting the Procession.

VI. Resolved, That the Committee do meet To-Morrow, Eleven o'Clock A. M. at the Coffee House; and that Capt. Randall and Capt. Dennis notify the Members thereof.

VII. Resolved, That if the whole of the Committee should not be present, the attending Members be authorized to appoint others in their place.

VIII. Resolved, That Mr. James McKinney be requested to furnish the Laurels, and deposit them at the Bull's Head.

IX. Resolved, That Mr. Daniel Green be requested to carry the Colours of the United States on the occasion.

APPENDIX C

Accounts of the Auditors, and Claims of the Refugees against the State of New York.

Documents in the N. Y. State Library, not printed hitherto, known as "Revolutionary Manuscripts."

NOTE.—The consecutive numbers are for convenience, in reference.

The first figure at the beginning of each document refers to the Volume, and the second figure, to the folio, where the document may be found. Unnecessary beginnings and endings have been omitted, or condensed. The original Accounts contain many inaccurate footings. It is fortunate that these documents were copied before the fire of 1911 in the State Library; for many of them were destroyed.

COLONIAL RECORDS, Vol. 15.

I

At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety, September 18th, 1776 — Whereas great numbers of our distressed friends, Inhabitants of Long Island, by advice and request of the Convention of New York have fled and escaped from the enemy there, and more are still expected from thence into this State in a destitute and helpless condition and stand in need of assistance of the people here for their support, there being no law of this State which fully extends to their case: Wherefore it is Voted and Resolved by this Council, That the Committees of Inspection in the several towns where such distressed people come be and they are hereby advised to provide such things as they shall judge necessary for the support of the people aforesaid, until the sitting of the General Assembly in October next, keeping an exact account of their expences thereof, and that they lay the same with the circumstances of those people before said Assembly for such orders and advice as they shall give thereon.

At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety October First, 1776 — Voted, that it be recommended to the Committee of Inspection of the town of Norwich to proceed relative to the people, stock, &c. brought from Long Island into their jurisdiction, in the same manner that the committees of other towns on the Sea Coasts may reasonably do thereon, agreeable to the request and resolution of the Convention of the State of New York and in like manner as the rest, to lay their accounts before the said Convention.

Council of Safety, Jan. 15, 1777 — Abram Hand, Jeremiah Miller, and a negro named Jack belonging to Col. David Mulford and now in the care of Capt. [John] Cochran, are voted to have a permit to return to Long Island. A permit was given.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co." p. 70: "Jan. 10, '77. Abm. Hand, Jer. Miller and Col. Mulford's negro Jack were permitted to return to I. I., also Jos. Osborn and family."

Council of Safety, June 26, 1777 — On the representation of John Mulford, Esqr., of Long Island, now resident in Stonington, shewing he is very infirm, has no means of support in this State, that he had an estate on Long Island and is desirous to return with his family and some stock, for the recovery of his health and support of his family &c; Voted and ordered, that the said John Mulford, Esqr., and wife be permitted to return to Long Island, taking with them one horse and one cow. Copy dd [delivered] Esqr. Mulford's grandson.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 70: "Feb. 20, 1777. John Mulford Esq. resident in Stonington returned with his wife to L. I. and took one horse and cow."

Council of Safety, Mar. 7, 1777 — Mr. [Adj.] John Tuttle of Southold on Long Island, who fled for refuge to this State, is permitted to transport by land from this to the State of N. York thirteen hhds. of rum and ten hhds of sugar, to be used for the continental army.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 70: "Mar. 1777. John Tuthill was in Connecticut."

At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety, February 20th, 1777.— Application having been made to this Board by Ezekiel Howell, Daniel Howell and sundry other refugees from Long Island, friends to the country, praying for relief with respect to getting off their effects from said island to this State, as all intercourse with said island is prohibited by law &c. Whereupon it is considered and resolved, that the civil authority and selectmen of the towns, on application to them in either of said towns by any such refugees for any boats or vessels to bring off any of their effects to enquire and obtain the best knowledge they can of the integrity of the persons so applying, and being satisfied thereof they are hereby authorized and empowered to allow and licence any boats or vessels and hands to assist in bringing off goods or effects from Long Island to the main and any friendly persons disposed to remove from thence, any restraining act or law to the contrary notwithstanding: and also to afford any such suffering refugees all reasonable relief and assistance to obtain such boats or vessels or otherwise as their circumstances may require, at their own risque and expence, using their prudent caution that no deceit be practiced under colour of such licence by any persons concerned or who may endeavor to avail themselves of an opportunity to devise or execute any mischief to these States. This authority to continue during the term of six weeks, and that due return be made to this Board of the proceedings thereon.

Onderdonk, "Suffolk Co.," p. 70: "Feb. 20, 1777. Ezekiel and Daniel Howell petition to get their effects from Long Island."

At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety, July 3d, 1777 — Whereas the Council of Safety of the State of New York by a resolve of the 27th of June ult. have appointed Obadiah Jones, [Col.] John Hurlburt and Thos. Dearing, Esqrs., or any two of them to give permits to such of the refugees from Long Island as reside in Connecticut as they shall think proper, and at such times and under such restrictions as they may judge prudent, to pass to Long Island to get off their effects: Voted and resolved, that this Board do approve of said appointment. And as it will be inconvenient to have the same powers vested in different committees or bodies of men, it is further voted and resolved, that all powers heretofore granted to the civil authority, selectmen, committee of inspection, or other persons in Saybrook and Stonington, to grant permits to said refugees or others to go to Long Island or other islands or places in the State of New York (Fisher's Island only excepted), do and they shall cease and determine: and that the civil authority, selectmen and committees of inspection in this State are hereby directed and enjoined for the future not to grant permits or licenses to any person or persons whatsoever to pass to Long Island or other places in the State of New York in the power or possession of the enemy (Fisher's Island only excepted), upon any pretence or for any purpose whatsoever. [See A. 44]

Copy dd [delivered] Esqr. Jones July 3d, 1777.

Ordered, That Obadiah Jones, Esq., be desired to furnish the civil authority, selectmen and committees of inspection, of the several towns in this State, in which any refugees from Long Island reside, with a copy of the vote and resolve of this Board this day passed, respecting permits to said refugees to pass to said Long Island &c. to get off their effects.

Copy dd [delivered] Esqr. Jones 3d July, 1777.

Council of Safety, Sept. 2, 1777 — A commission was given by his Excellency the Governor by advice and resolve of this Council, to Peter Griffing as a Captain of a company of rangers, to guard the sea coast and sound and islands on the coast of this State, and to make prisoners of such as he shall take in arms or carrying on war against these States. Resolved, That this Board do approve of the form of the commission and instructions given by his Excellency the Governor to Capt. Peter Griffing of a volunteer company of rangers for the purpose of guarding the sea coast of this State and of the sound and islands on said coast, as also of the bond given by said Griffing for his faithful observing his said instructions.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79: "Nov. 11, '78. Capt. David Howell, of S. Hampton, Silvanus Howell, and Jos. Youngs, who fled from L. I. to Killingworth, in the fall of '76, want to go over to L. I. They were plundered of produce on L. I. by Capt. [Peter] Griffing, and pray Gov. Trumbull for relief."

Council of Safety March 4, 1778 — On petition of Jos. Beck, a refugee from N. York on account of the British troops and tyranny, now residing in N. Haven &c., shewing by reason of losses and the high prices of provisions &c. he is reduced and unable to support his family; that he has several sums of money due from principal inhabitants of N. York which he thinks his wife Margaret Beck might be permitted to go there for that purpose, and praying liberty for that purpose &c.: — Voted that said Margaret Beck be permitted to go and return to the City of New York.

N. B. The purpose of her going not to be express'd as it might frustrate the design &c., and she is willing to risque it and her chance to get out again &c. Permit to be sent to him.

RECORDS OF THE STATE, VOL. 2.

10

July 9, 1778. Upon the application of Thos. T. [Fred?] Jackson, a refugee from Long Island, shewing and evincing his friendly disposition towards the Americans, and that he has been always friendly and done many things evidential thereof, and manifesting a desire to be permitted to reside in this State and to bring in his property and effects &c.: Resolved by the Governor and Council of Safety, that said Jackson be permitted to reside in this State and to send for and bring his property and effects; provided he take the oath of fidelity to this State; also, to send for from Long Island the property and effects of Silvanus Dickinson [Dickerson] of said island now resident at Seabrook.

Said Thos. T. Jackson appeared and took the oath of fidelity to this State before his Excellency the Governor.

Resolved, that Benjamin Hunting, late of Long Island, now resident in this State, a refugee from British tyranny, have liberty, and liberty is hereby granted to him, to reside in this State and to go or send for and bring from Long Island his property, goods and effects, into this State: he taking the oath of fidelity to this State provided by law.

12

Voted, that the Governor be desired to send the two following letters, viz:

Lebanon, Augt 4th, 1778.

Sir: Mr. John Gardner, late of Southhold now of Norwich, has represented to me and my Council of Safety, that in an excursion made by you upon Long Island about three weeks ago, among a number of horses and cattle you took from other people and brought off, you took a large dark brown white faced two year old stallion from him; also a white faced sorrel mare from Parnel Wickham of said Southhold, which mare was given her by her grandfather. It being beyond the limits of your commission to go upon the land or any orders received from me, and said Gardiner being a friendly refugee, it is thought advisable you should settle with him and prevent trouble. Also it is said that said Miss Wickham is a friend and the owner of said mare; that being the case you will think it advisable to settle with respect to the mare likewise.

To Capt. Jesse Leavenworth.

Lebanon, August 4th, 1778.

Sir: You are hereby notified and desired to appear before the Governor and Council of Safety at this place on Tuesday the 18th of August instant, in order to give an account of your conduct as commander of an armed boat in the Sound, commissioned to act by land as well as sea, there having been repeated complaints of your doings in making unlawful and improper depredations on the inhabitants of Long Island, and not libelling and bringing to trial many of the effects you have taken &c. And you are to proceed no further by virtue of your commission, nor make any hostile descent upon that island or any other land in your capacity, untill you shall receive further permission from me.

To Peter Griffin, commander of an armed boat.

13

Aug. 6, 1778. Voted, that Josiah Holly lately belonging to the State of New York, now resident at Branford, be and he is hereby permitted to carry by land out of this into said State of N. York fifty bushels of home manufactured salt, to exchange for flour for the use of the inhabitants of said town of Branford.

14

Voted, That Walter Simmons, a refugee from Long Island, be and he is hereby permitted to bring from said island to this State his horse, cloathing and small baggage.

15

[Aug. 11, 1778.] Voted, That the following letter be sent to the gentlemen to whom underneath directed:

Lebanon, Aug. 11th, 1778.

Gentn: It being represented and complained to me, that sundry persons belonging to your or one of your armed boats commissioned to cruise in the Sound have, contrary to the tenor of your commission and bond, made descents upon the island of Long Island and plundered the inhabitants of their stock and effects, and that without distinction, and in particular have lately violently taken about six oxen from Colo. Phinehas Fanning, and brought over to this State—this conduct, you must be sensible, is unwarrantable and renders you liable on your bonds &c. I would, with the advice of my Council, advise you, or either of you, so far as you may be respectively concerned, to settle—compound the matter with Colo. Fanning, and restore him his property, least you be exposed to further consequences. I am, your humble Servant,
To Capt. Peter Hallock, Jonth Trumbull. [Gov.]

[Capt.] Jonth Solomons [Salmon], or their owners, as they may be respectively concerned.

16

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be desired to send the following to Capt. Jonathan Vail and Capt. Jeremiah Rogers, commanders of armed boats:

Lebanon, August 11th, 1778.

Whereas sundry and repeated complaints have been made that persons under authority of commissions given to armed boats to go on shore on Long Island to act against the enemy there, or under colour and pretext thereof, have unjustly and cruelly plundered many of the friendly inhabitants there, brought off their effects, and have not caused them to be libelled and condemned in course of law—You and each of you are hereby required to attend here on Tuesday the 18th instant, to account for your conduct in that respect—In the mean time you are forbidden to act offensively towards any person on Long Island, or to make any hostile descent upon the land in virtue of your commission.

Aug. 19, 1778. On the petition of Nathl Curwin [Corwin] of Long Island, a friendly refugee, residing at Lyme in this State, representing his necessity of receiving some effects from said island for his support, or his and his family's returning there &c.: Resolved, that the selectmen of said Lyme be and they are hereby impowered to consider the case of said Curwin, and grant him liberty and permission to go over to said island to bring off any effects he may have there for his use and support, or to remove himself and family back again to Long Island, if he shall desire it and they shall judge it most expedient.

Copy sent this day per Saml Ely, Esqr.

Aug. 25, 1778. Whereas Jonth Osborn was taken on Long Island by Capt. Peter Griffin and brought into this State, where he is now holden a prisoner, and accused of very inimical conduct towards the United States of America, and now applies to this Board for liberty to be granted to Richard Steer Hubbard Junr of Norwich to go upon the island and bring off from thence his effects, consisting of a quantity of grain, some horses, cattle, &c.: Resolved, that liberty be and is hereby granted to said Richard Steer Hubbard Junr, to go on and fetch from thence the property and effects of said Osborn, and to deposit the same in the custody of Mr. Richard Steer Hubbard Junr, who is directed to keep them till further orders, except so much as will be necessary to defray the charge of bringing them off for the support of said Osborn; and said Hubbard Junr is to make return to his Excellency the Governor an account of the effects that shall be brought off, and that said Osborn remain with said Richard Steer Hubbard Junr till further orders—under his parole, which Prosper Wetmore, Esq. is directed to take.

Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," p. 79: "Nov. 2, '79. Jona. Osborn, of Southold, seized and brought over by [Capt.] Peter Griffin, June 14, as a person unfriendly to U. S., wishes his apparel and liberty—negated."

Sept. 2, 1778. Mr. Jeffry James Service, a late refugee from Long Island, produced and laid before this Board credentials of his being from the beginning of the present controversy a favourer and a firm friend of the American cause, and praying for the protection of this State for his person and effects, which he has brought over; and this Board being satisfied of the sincerity of his friendship and attachment to the interest and cause of the country, do hereby, so far as to them appertains, grant to him the said Jeffry James Service the protection of the laws of this State and the privileges and advantages of the other citizens of said State, and that his goods and effects may be protected and held in his own safe custody, and to be dealt with and disposed as he may be permitted and allowed according to law.

20

Dec. 2, 1778. On the memorial of Colo. Jonn [Jonathan] Hedges, a refugee from Long Island: Voted, that his wife be permitted to return to Long Island to reside there with one daughter aged about 15 years and one son aged about 9 years; and that one of his sons be permitted to go over to Long Island to fetch off some grain under the inspection and direction of one justice of the peace and two of the selectmen of Stonington.

21

On the motion of Doctr. [David] Conklin and Capt. Calvin More, refugees from Long Island: Voted, that they be permitted to return with their families and household furniture under the inspection and direction of one justice of the peace and two of the selectmen of Middletown to Long Island to reside there: said More to carry with him one cow and one yearling colt, and the said Conklin a small horse.

22

Apr., 1779 Whereas the licenses granted by the authority and selectmen by virtue of said act [To prevent Illicit Trade] to refugees from Long Island, and other places in the possession of the enemy, to bring off their effects, have been abused for the purposes of carrying on a clandestine and illicit trade with the enemies of the United States, and to keep up an unwarrantable and dangerous intercourse with them: Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the power given by said act to the civil authority and selectmen in any town to grant licenses to any refugees or other person whatever to go from this State to any place in the power or possession of the enemies of this and the other United States, and all such licences granted to any person or persons by them by virtue of said act, be and the same are hereby repealed, revoked and made void.

23

May 1779. Be it enacted by the Governor, Council and Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That when any goods, wares or merchandise, shall be seized and libelled in any of the maratime courts in this State, pursuant to the act aforesaid, [To prevent Illicit Trade] they shall be deemed forfeit and prize to the libellants, though they shall not be able to produce any other evidence than to render it probable that such wares, goods and merchandize were imported into this State from Long Island or some other place in the enemy's possession, or were going to such place or island when taken, unless some person shall appear at the tryal and claim such goods, wares and merchandize, and evince to the satisfaction of such court and jury that the same were not imported into this State from any place in the enemy's possession, nor were going thereto from this State when taken.

Gen. Waterbury and a Flag to Long Island

(Clinton Pap. 7. 598-600).

Stamford December 18th, 1781.

Sir, a few days past there came to my Quarters Mr. Daniel Newcomb and Mr. Finch of [Lt. Finch] Gildersleeve, with permission from Your Excellency to cross to L. I. on their obtaining a Flag from me for that purpose, the former for the purpose of bringing a Negro fellow from thence belonging to his Father, and the latter to pass for a visit to his Friends; they desired that I would permit Capt. [Jabez] Gregory, an Inhabitant of Norwalk, to go Master of the Flag that I should grant for that purpose. I told them I did not choose to let any person to take the command of a Flag granted by me, except an officer belonging to the Troops under my Command, as I could not call any Inhabitant to an Account if they should be found to carry on a clandestine trade with the enemy (which I have reason to believe has been too much practised by Flags of Truce that have been sent from this shore to L. I.); they answered that they supposed the expense would be greater, if one of my Officers took the command of the Flag than what it would if the person should go whom they had propos'd, as they had already agreed with him for that purpose; I replied that could be no Objection to my proposal as neither myself nor the Officer Commanding the Flag should take anything for setting them across. I accordingly ordered my Major of Brigade to prepare a Boat and granted a Flag for the purpose of carrying them to L. I. agreeable to the permission granted them by your Excellency; they left my Quarters and agreed to return the second day following; but I have neither heard nor seen anything of them since. Have thought proper to give your Excellency the above information and am with the greatest Respect Your Excellency's most obedient and Humble Servant.

David Waterbury, B. G.

His Excellency Governor Clinton.

[NOTE.—On Jan. 23, 1782. Gov. Clinton answered the above, commending the caution of Gen. Waterbury; but assuring him that the two men named, from the characters they sustained, would not do anything injurious to their Country.]

13.188 — To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut Convened at Hartford, by adjournment on the 12th day of Feby. 1778.

The Memorial of [Dr.] Jonth. Havens, [Capt.] Danl. Fordham, [Capt.] Nathan Fordham, [Capt.] Benja Conklin, Paul Howel, [Capt.] Stephen

Howel, Francis Fanieur [Fournier] & Son and Thomas Currin [Corwin] all Refugees from Long Island & residents in this State humbly Sheweth That soon after the evacuation of Long Island by the Continental Army, the Memorialists, with their Families & such of their Effects as they could then transport, fled into this State for protection & Security from the arbitrary power of an Enemy who they had reason to fear, merely because they had been friendly to the Liberties of America—that they have ever since resided in this State, leaving their Farms & Stock in the hands of their several Agents upon the Island to dispose off as they could & remit them the avails in order to their Support—that the Enemy took away part of their Stock which was utterly lost—that their Friends & agents disposed of the rest as they could partly for money & the rest for such Goods as they could get, such as Tea, Linnen Handkerchiefs homespun Cloath Flax & other Articles which they took, & without which the Memorialists could not procure the Necessaries of Life or possibly do without—That the Memorialists with a ——— it [permit?] from the Authority of this State lately ventured upon the Island in a small Boat to bring off their sd Effects, which their Families stood in the Utmost need off, & which they were obliged to receive or loose all & especially as these were the least burthensome to transport—that they no sooner got ashore at Saybrook with the utmost difficulty & risque, but a certain [Jacob] White Lt of the Ship Trumbull & one [Samuel] Combs [of the “Oliver Cromwell”] comander of Privateer Whaleboat, Seized upon the Memorialists sd. Effects, & took the same wholly away, together with their necessary wearing apparel, & in the most Insolent manner triumph in the aggravated Distress of the Memorialists & their Familys & defying the Authority of this State under which the memorialists acted openly & fairly, to interfere in the matter—the memorialists humbly pray your Honors Consideration of their unhappy Case & to interpose for their Relief, or otherwise they must inevitably fall with their Families as a burthen upon the public or return again to their once agreeable habitations, & thro’ themselves upon the Mercy of their Enemies, whose tender Mercies cannot be more Cruel, than what has now happened to them, if no help can be had & they as in Duty bound shall pray—

* 13.189 — Upon the Meml. of Doctr Jonth. Havens [Capt.] Stephen Howel & others Refugees from Long Island now residing in this State, Shewing That at the Time when the Brittish Troops possessed themselves of Long Island, they fled into this State with their Families for protection—that they left more or less of their Effects in the hands of their Friends to be secured & disposed off, as they could & the Avails remited them, in order to the Support of their Families—that about three weeks since, they (by legal permit granted them for that purpose) went to sd. Island to bring from thence some part of what their Friends had saved from the Enemy, or the avails thereof, arising out of what they had Sold of their Stock & grain; & having recd. the same in small parcels of Tea & Cloath, linnen & wollen, & other things for the use of their Families which was all they could get for what had been sold as aforesd. they brot the same to Saybrook in a small boat to the house of one Harris, when one [Jacob] White a Lieut of the Continental Frigate called the Trumbull, & one [Samuel] Combs commanding a Whale Boat & others their associates, came & seized the memorialists sd. Effects, & forceably took the same out of their hands, & refuse to deliver or do what is just, to the great Injury & distress of the Suffering memorialists & their Families—praying for Relief &c as pr meml. &c—Resolved by this Assembly that Wm. Noyce, Samuel Field & Ezra Selden Esqr. be & they are hereby appointed a Comtee. with full power, as speedily as may be, to notify all parties concerned and enquire into the Facts alledged in sd. Memorial, or that relate thereto & Report the same with their opinion thereon to the next General Assembly, or in the Recess of the same to his Excellency the Governor & his Comtee. of Safety, who are hereby authorized & directed to give such order thereon as they shall think just & reasonable—and that in the mean time sd. 10.298 — To his Excellency the Govr and Comee. of Safety of the State of Connecticut—according to the act of Assembly we your Hons Comee. appointed to Enquire into the matter Relating to the goods taken (By Lt [Jacob] White and [Samuel] Comes) from [Dr.] Jona. Haven [Capt.] Stephen Howel and others beg leave to Report that in obedience to our orders we Notified Lt [Jacob] White & other Parties to appear Before us at a place appointed in Lyme (viz) on the 4th instant But Comes Being absent Could not be then Notified accordingly we Notified him & and the other Parties to appear the 9th instant at which Times the Parties appeared and we Red to them the act of assembly Relative to the affair and Demanded the Goods taken mentioned in sd act But sd White and Comes Refused to Deliver them to us, or to make any Defence But Denied the Right of inquiry by us by any authority sd act Could invest in us then we inquired into the facts and find that the claimant of sd Captured goods went from this State to Long Island with Proper Permits for that Purpose and that they Carried No Stores or goods of any Kind Except a Small Sum of Money and Brought of more money than they Carried on and that ye articles they Brought of were Purchased with the Estate they had on the Island—and the goods taken by Lt. White from [Dr. Jonathan] Havens &c were taken in Capt. Harris's house in Saybrook—and the goods taken by Comes from [Capt. Benjamin] Conkling were taken in sd Conklins Boat above Highwater mark at said Harris's Warf in Saybrook and the Boats were Boatts Lying at sd Warf when taken and we give it as our opinion on Good Evidence that the persons were under a Necessity of taking said articles in Exchange for their Effects on the Island as they Could not Sell them for Cash & part of the Estate Bartered were in Danger of falling into the Enemies hands had they not been Secured and on the Whole it is our opinion all the articles taken from Havens, Conklin and their associates ought to be restored.—Dated in Lyme March the 9th 1778. By your Hons most obedient Humb. Servts.

Wm. Noyes, Samel Field, Ezra Selden, Comee.

In the Lower House—The foregoing report is accepted and approved and thereupon ordered that the Captors of the several Articles mentioned and referred to in said report do immediately return to the Memorialists their said Goods under the forfeiture of a Sufficient Penalty to enforce the same and that Liberty of a Bill &c

Concurr'd in the Upper House—With the addition of this Clause viz And also pay the Cost next after the Word Goods in the last Line save one in the above Vote of the lower House

* 10.300 — May, 1778. Upon the memorial of [Dr.] Jonathan Havens, [Capt.] Benjamin Conklin and others, refugees from Long Island now residing in this State, shewing that they by legal permit from the authority of this State lately brought from said Island each a small parcell of tea, linnen cloath, woolen and other goods, for the use of their distressed families, to the amount of what would cost them as such goods are now sold the sum of about one thousand pounds, which they received from their friends on said Island as the avails of the produce of their estates sold upon said Island in order to prevent the same from falling into the hands of the enemy; that their said goods and effects were in a lawless manner taken from them by one Lieut. [Jacob] White and his associates belonging to the continental frigate called the Trumbull, and by one Combs and his associates commanding a whale boat, viz: at Saybrook in the County of New London, who refuse to deliver the same, whereupon a committee has been appointed to enquire and report in the premisses, and said committee having now made their report that said goods were unjustly taken and are in the hands of said persons; that they refused to deliver the same and utterly denyed the right of enquiry by said committee, and the authority they were invested with &c.; which said report being now accepted and approved: Resolved by this Assembly, that the sheriff of the county of Hartford at the cost of the memorialists do, as soon as may be, make demand of the said several goods and effects taken from them by the said [Lt. Jacob] White and [Samuel] Combs and their associates, and that if they shall refuse to deliver the same they shall forfeit and pay to the memorialists a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, L. money; and the said sheriff is directed to make return of his doings as soon as may be to this Assembly or in their recess to his Excellency the Governor and Council of Safety; and if on due enquiry and examination it shall appear that said [Lt. Jacob] White and [Samuel] Combs or either of them have or shall neglect or refuse to comply with and conform to the true intent and meaning and direction of this act, this Assembly will and in their recess it shall and may be lawfull for said

Governor and Council to give order that the Secretary of this State issue execution in due form against said [Lt. Jacob] White and [Samuel] Combs or either of them, as the circumstances of the case shall be, for such sum as shall appear to be just and reasonable not exceeding the said sum of one thousand pounds, and thereupon said Secretary is directed to issue the same accordingly. And it is further resolved, that said White and Combs pay the memorialists the reasonable costs and expence they have been put to by reason of the taking their goods as aforesaid as the same shall be allowed by this Assembly, and that the Secretary issue execution therefor accordingly. Cost taxed and allowed to be £23. 1. 3. L. money.

14.332 — To the Honorell General Assembly of ye State of Conecticut now Sitting at Hartford. The memorial of James Curren [Corwin] of Guilford Humbley Sheweth that your memorialest was formerly an inhabitant of South-hold on Long-Island, and was possessed of 26 acres of good Land in sd town with a good dwelling House Barn & Orchard on sd premisses all which ware my own property; also with with Considerable Stock on sd Land: that on ye British trope taking possession of sd Island in September 1776 rather than to be Subjugated to their Arbitrary powr (being zealous of ye Liberties and constitutional pivaldgee of my Countrey) I sold part of my Stock at a low price, and then taking my Family two cows one Colt and part of my Household goods I removed to Guilford in this State, where for Some time I Sufred many inconveniences for want of a setled habitation, ye town being much crouded at that time with Refugees in like circumstances with my self, that notwithstanding all ye sufferings above mentioned ye listors of ye town, the last year thought it their duty to call on me for a list of my estate real and personal; and being willing to pay all proper regard to the laws of ye State, and to men in office I complyd with ye requisition and gave my bill; thinking however that it was not Reasonable for a person in my circumstances to pay taxes on his pole and stock; I made Seasonable applicaton to ye listors for relief, but obtained none, they Supposing that their was no law to justify them in doing it, I then made Legal application to the Authority and Select men of ye town; who, on consideration were of the same opinion of the Listors; and their being now no other door open for Relief but by application to your Honours your memorialest preys you would take his case into your wise consideration, and if your Honours think it Reasonable grant relief in ye premises, and order that I may be [exe]mpted from paying taxes on my pole and personal estate and your memorialest as in duty bound Shall ever prey etc. James Curren [Corwin]

*20.3 — Jan. 1780. Upon the memorial of Isaac Smith, of Brookhaven on Long Island, now resident in Derby in the county of New Haven, shewing to this Assembly, that in July last he, being discovered in attempting to assist some of the friends of the United States of America, became thereby obnoxious to British favourites and was apprehended for his conduct in favour of America, but while he was under guard on his way to New York in order for tryal he made his escape in the night and came over to this State, where he has ever since remained separated from his family, and that it is dangerous to his life to return and remain on Long Island Sc., and praying for liberty to go to said Long Island and from thence to bring to this State his wife and family and such part of his personal estate and necessities as may be in his power &c., as per memorial on file: Resolved by this Assembly, that the memorialist have liberty, and he is hereby permitted, to go to Long Island and fetch off his wife and family and such part of his personal-estate and necessaries, exclusive of British goods and merchandize, as may be in his power; he carrying nothing with him but what is necessary for his passage; and to go under the inspection of Capt. Bradley, commander of the fort and guards at New Haven, who is to permit no more men to go in the boat that carries said Smith than is convenient for the purpose of crossing the Sound, and to take special care that no person goes as a hand in said boat that it unfit to be trusted in such an employment; and the said Capt. Bradley is to take care that said [boat] be strictly inspected at the time of her departure, to prevent any provision being carried off in said boat except what is necessary for the support of the crew during their voyage, and also again to inspect said boat before any article is unladed on the return thereof, and if any British goods or merchandizes are brought therein to seize the same.

20.6—To the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now convened at Hartford. The Memorial of [Capt.] Nathaniel Norton and [Ens.] Azariah Tuthill of Long Island humbly sheweth that they have been drove from their once peaceful Habitations by the Violence of the common Enemy,—that they came, with their Families to seek Protection within the Bosom of this State and settled at the Town of Guilford,—that the sd Norton has the Honor to bear a Captains Commission and the sd Tuthill an Ensigns in the Army of the United States in which they flatter themselves they serve with Reputation—that on their Return on a Visit to their Families they were surprised to find their Families had been under the disagreeable Necessity of going on to Long Island,—that they are very destitute of Cloathing, have little or no Interest in this State, and are exceedingly desirous of seeing their Families. The Memorialists therefore humbly pray your Honors to grant them Liberty with a Boats Crew to go over to Long Island to visit their Families, and to provide themselves with Necessaries under such Restrictions and Regulations as your Honors shall think proper and necessary and they as in Duty bound shall ever pray.

*20.7—Jan. 1780. Upon the memorial of [Capt.] Nathaniel Norton and [Ens.] Azariah Tuthill, both of Long Island, shewing to this Assembly that they have been drove from their peaceable habitations by the enemy and come with their families into this State to seek an asylum, and settled in the town of Guilford; that the said Norton sustains the office of a captain, and the said Tuthill that of an ensign, in the army of the United States; that on their return to said Guilford to their surprise they found that their families in their absence had been under the disagreeable necessity of going on to Long Island; that the memorialists are very destitute of cloathing, and have little or no interest in this State whereby they might be supplied therewith, and are exceedingly desirous to visit their families, and praying for liberty to go over to said island with a boat and sufficient crew to manage the same, for the purpose aforesaid, under such restrictions and regulations as shall be thought necessary; as per memorial on file; Resolved by this Assembly, that the memorialists have liberty, and liberty is hereby granted unto them, to cross the Sound from Saybrook to the east end of Long Island in a boat, to visit their respective families and to bring off with them on their return such cloathing as are now their own property. And the memorialists are to go and return under the inspection of John Shipman, Junr, Esq, captain of the fort at Saybrook, who is hereby impowered and directed to order some proper person to take the command of said boat, and to permit no greater number of hands to go in said boat than is needfull for the purpose of crossing the Sound, and to take care that all the hands are friendly to the United States, honest men, and worthy to be trusted in such an employment; and the said captain is to examine and strictly inspect the said boat at the time of her departure, and see that no kind of provisions or goods are carried off in said boat, excepting only such provisions as are needful for the support of their crew during their voyage; and the said Capt. Shipman is to direct the said commander where to land on his return; and on the arrival of said boat the commander is to inform the captain, that a strict inspection may be made on board of said boat, and to seize every article of goods that may be brought in said boat not allowed by this permit; and the commander of said boat is forbid to suffer any article that may be brought in said boat to be unladed before inspection is made as aforesaid.

20.10—To the Honourable General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now sitting at Hartford, the Memorial of the Subscribers humbly sheweth—That Your Memorialists once Inhabitants of Long Island were forced to quit their possessions or submit to the Tyranny of Great Britain, they could not hesitate a moment in their choice, but cheerfully forsook their houses & lands, which are now possessed by British Subjects, & chiefly by bitter Enemies to the United States, who have cut down the Timber of Your Memorialists, defaced & Injured their buildings, laid waste their farms, & confiscated their moveables; so that Your Memorialists are become really distressed; and cannot hope in many Years after Peace shall be restored to the United States, to repair their fortunes, and some of them are nearly ruined; Your Memorialists have ever looked on these misfortunes as trifling when put in competition with the Interest of the United States at large, and have suffered all their losses & misfortunes with patience believing they had found an Asylum among their friends, the free, Virtuous, & friendly Inhabitants of this State—where they have to this time lived with their numerous families, and with no little difficulty obtained a living for them; but have lately been informed that they are considered as Inhabitants of this State, and liable to taxation, not only for the little Estate they possess, but that they are also to be liable to a Poll Tax—Your Memorialists beg leave to Observe that under their present distressed circumstances, unfortunate Refugees from a Neighbouring State, who only seek a Temporary Asylum till the Enemy shall be forced to leave their possessions, they conceive that taxing them, especially by a Poll Tax, will be a hard ship and cannot be permitted by your Honors who have allways shewed Your disapprobation of every kind of Oppression. Your Memorialists therefore beg Your honors to relieve them by averting the Tax (especially the Poll Tax) or in such other way as in Your Wisdom shall seem best; and Your Memorialists as in duty bound shall ever pray.—

20.73 — To the Honorable. the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now sitting at Hartford. The Memorial of Seth Overturn now Resident in Chatham in the County of Hartford but late of Southhold on long Island humbly Sheweth that when the Brittish Troops took possession of said Long Island your Memlst. Came off, leaving his parents (who are advanced in age) and the rest of the family whose Circumstances on many Accounts rendered it deficult if not Impossible at that Time, to have removed with your Memlst. and hoping they might have lived in Some tolerable degree of peace and quiet, Considering their great distance from New York, Notwithstanding their firm attachment to the freedom and Independance of the United States; Yet their hopes have been disappointed and the Constant Insults and abuses, the parents of your Memlst. Receive from the Brittons, has induced them, (notwithstanding there advanced age) to request your Memlst. to take such Measures as the Laws of this State have ordained for the purpose of Removing them to the same, together with their family and effects, that is Such as their Household furnature and Stock etc. Wherefore your Memlst. prays your Honors to take his Case into your wise Consideration and grant him a permission to go to Southhold on Long Island and bring off his Parents and the Famely together with their effects, Such as their Household furnature, Stock and Such other effects they now have on Hand. Under Such orders Restrictions & limitations as your Honors shall Judge proper; and your Memlst. as in duty bound shall ever pray dated at Chatham the 16th day of Octr. A. D. 1780 Seth Overturn —

Saybrook April 11—1780

To his Excellency Jonathan Trumbull Esqr. May it please your Excellency, the Person at whose Request I write is Capt. Paul Reeve who was at the Head of a Company in the York Service in the Lines at the West End of Long Island, when General Sullivan & Lord Sterling were Taken Prisoners, from whence he retreated by Ord. to York Island, then by Ord. from his Coln. Josiah Smith he with the Regiment were sent upon the Island to their Families and ordered to Take the best Care they could of them—Capn. Reeve brot his Family to this Parish with Eight Cows with Calf One pair of oxen, one Steer of Two years old and One Horse and about 15 Sheep The Oxen and Six Cows he sold and has used in his Family the Horse died—He now has Two Cows Two Yearlings and Seven Sheep, a Mare bot since—His Family is a Wife, three Sons and

Two Daughters — After having Removed his Family he was called to enter into the York Service, and by Ordr. of York State joined Coln. Henry B. Livingston and Served till he obtained a proper Discharge — Having a Farm at Southold he has every year brt off the avails in Silver principally and Laid out the Same on this side for his Family. Tho his Family has been industrious & himself employed in Supporting them they are so Reduced that they must Suffer or become a public Charge, or Return back. His Desire is that they may have a permit to Return to their Farm — and if he finds it not Safe to Reside there, would return back himself. If there is any one among us of the Refugees that has really Sacrificed an Interest thro firm attachment to his Countries Cause that I am acquainted with, Capn. Paul Reeve is the man. Being next neighbour to me I write Facts that I am acquainted with, moved to this, only by a Principle of Humanity and will only add That if there is any among us that ought to have Relief, either in Point of Necessity or Firm attachment to the Cause or Suffering thro Conscientious adherence to the Laws of this State in not making merchandise against our Laws — This appears to me to be the Person

I am Your Excellences most Obedt. and humble Serv't
[Rev.] John Devotion

P. S. Capn Reeve tells me that he has procured a Recommendation from our Select Men wh. has been sent to your Excellency by Capn. [John] Franks.

20.87—To the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now sitting at Hartford in said State, the Memorial of Abraham Herring [Haring] late of the City and State of New York now resident in Stratford in the County of Fairfield humbly Sheweth—That your Honours Memorialist is, and ever has been sincerely and warmly Attached to the Cause of American Liberty. That he took an early and decided part in the present important Controversy with Great Britain, and has ever acted the Part of a steady uniform Friend to the Liberty and Independence of these States. That in Consequence of such his Attachment to the Cause of America, in Sept 1776 he found himself under a Necessity of leaving New York with such Personal property as he could hastily bring off with him, and has ever since resided at Stratford aforesaid in anxious expectation and hope of seeing a happy period put to the Calamities of our Country, so that he might again return to his Property and employments in New York aforesaid—That he has an increasing and already expensive Family, and having been able to transact very little or no profitable Business since his residence in this State, he has unavoidably and totally expended all the Property he was able to bring out with him, when he fled from New York and placed himself under the protection of this State. So that he is in danger of finding himself soon destitute of all the resources of subsistence, unless relieved by the kind interposition of this Honorable Assembly—That he has a considerable real Estate, in, and about, the said City of New York, which descended to him from his Father Elbert Herring [Haring] late of said New York deceased; and which he has now an happy Opportunity secretly to dispose of to the amount of about fifteen hundred Pounds lawful Money, for such Goods and Merchandise as are much wanted at this time by the Good People of this State—That he wishes extremely to avail himself of this Offer, which would be so highly beneficial to him in his present destitute and disagreeable state of Exile, and to obtain the permission of this Honourable Assembly to Import such Goods and Merchandise into this State; if it be consistent with the public Weal, which he would by no means sacrifice in any degree, to his private Necessities or Emolument, how great soever—That he Conceived, however, that such a transaction under your Honours direction and permission, would, so far from being injurious, be highly beneficial to the Public, as it would be a transfer of Property from the Enemy, in effect without any Consideration whatsoever, since his real Estate is already in their Hands and under their absolute dominion. And consequently to obtain from them fifteen hundred Pounds in British Manufacturers for real Estate so already in their Power, would to the United States of America, be essentially the same thing as for him to Capture Goods to that amount from their Merchants. Whereupon your Memorialist humbly prays your Honours, in tender Consideration of his unfortunate situation, and the Circumstances aforesaid, to enable him to avail himself of this Opportunity for some degree of relief in his unhappy Exile, and to grant him Liberty and permission to Import into this State from New York aforesaid, or from within the Enemies Lines British Goods to the amount aforesaid, the avails of his said real Estate so by him to be disposed of as aforesaid under such regulations and restrictions as your Honours shall think proper, or in some way to grant relief to your Memorialist as your Honours in your Wisdom shall think best and he as in Duty bound shall ever pray &c

(October Session, 1780.)

Upon the Memorial of Abraham Herring [Haring] formerly of the City & State of New Yorke, now a Refugee residing in Stratford in the State of Connecticut, Shewing to this Assembly, that in Consequence of his early sincere & warm attachment to the American Cause, he was obliged to quit his Habitation and Real Estate near that City within the Enemies Lines and has ever since resided in this State, and is thereby reduced with his Family to indigent & distressed Circumstances — That he has an advantageous & Convenient Opportunity of disposing of about fifteen hundred pounds worth of his real Estate lying within the Enemies Lines as aforesaid and of investing the same in such Goods as might if imported here be beneficial to these States as well as to himself in relieving the Distresses of his Family And that he will engage to import two thirds of sd Avails at least and the whole if possible in such Articles of Cloathing as may be wanted for the Continental Army and will give this State the Refusal of them on such Terms as Shall be thought reasonable, provided he can have Permission to import the Same as aforesd and that he is willing and desirous that the whole matter should be conducted under the Direction & Inspection of [Gen.] Gold Silleck Silliman Esqr. or such other Person or Persons as this Assembly shall think proper to appoint etc as per Memorial on File — Resolved by this Assembly that the Memorialist have Liberty & Liberty & Permission is hereby granted him, upon the Sale of his real Estate aforesaid to import the Avails thereof in such Articles as may be beneficial to these States two thirds of which avails at least (& the Whole if to be procured) to be in such Articles of Cloathing as are suitable & wanted for our Army, upon the Condition of his giving this State the Refusal thereof upon reasonable Terms as aforesd. The Whole matter to be conducted under the Inspection Superintendency & Direction of Brigadier Genle. [Gold Sillick] Silliman who is hereby authorized & Directed for that purpose, And the sd Memorialist upon his importing the Same or any Part thereof as aforesaid shall exhibit a just & true invoice of all such Articles as he shall import as aforesd & make Solemn Oath thereto, before [Gen.] Gold Silleck Silliman Esqr. that he has & will in all Respects well & truly Observe & conform himself to the true Intent Meaning & Spirit of this Resolve & in no wise either directly or indirectly contravene the Same — And in Case the Said Memorialist Shall not Conform hereto — The whole of what he shall import shall be confiscated for the Benefit of this State.

[Passed in both Houses.]

20.89 — To the Honble Comtee. appointed to Confer with me on the subject of my memorial: Gentlemen I beg Leave to make the following proposals to the Honble. Assembly. I will engage to sell my Lands to the Amount of £1500 L. money and to Import the whole of Said Avails in such Goods as may be Suitable for Clothing for the Continental Army, if I shall be able to procure the same in such Articles but if I should not be able to procure the whole avails in such Articles, I should be Glad to have Liberty to bring to the amount of not exceeding one third of Sd Avails in such other Articles as may be wanted and beneficial to these States — And upon my Importing said Goods this State may have the Refusal thereof upon reasonable terms for the Benefit of the Army And to have the whole matter Conducted under the Inspection and Direction of Genl. [Gold Sillick] Silliman or such other Person as the Honble. Assembly shall think proper to appoint for that purpose or in any other Mode or Way that shall be thought safe & beneficial for the United States—and I must further beg leave to request the Honble. Assembly that in Case they find it not Consistant with the good of these States—to grant your memorialist the Indulgence prayed for that he may have Liberty to return with his Family to New York in Order to be in Circumstances to Support the same which Request nothing but Absolute Nessity, would Comple your Memorilist to make—but if that should be thought likewise inconsistent with the public safety or Policy—that your Memorilist might be excused from Drafts and Taxes which he is not able to bear without reducing his Family to Absolute Poverty and Distress or in some other way grant your Memorilist Relief And he as in Duty bound Shall ever pray—All which is humbly Submitted by your Obedient Humble Servt.

20.233—To the Honbl. General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now convened at Hartford—The Memorial of Samuel Broom now of the Town of Boston in the State of Massachusetts humbly sheweth that he was a Citizen of New York & fled therefrom & from his Estate into Connecticut for refuge from the Enemy & resided sometime in Weathersfield & gave in a List there Augst. 1778 & soon after vizt. in Octr. then next removed with his Family to Boston where he has resided ever since & also the Short time he resided in This State he transacted his Business & Commerce in the State of Massachusetts & was there tax'd & pa[id?] large taxes therefor—at the same time that he was highly assessed & paid taxes for the same business in this State—which tho' he thought unreasonable he submitted to it as the publick Cause had the Benefit of what he paid—which Cause he has been ever zealous to promote & has sacrificed a large Share of his property therein—But he is now constrained to State & lay before your Honors a real grievance which hopes by your equitable Interposition to be relieved from—That long since he left this State vizt.—thro' the whole Course of the year 1779—he has been many times & largely taxed & assessed in this State because the Taxes were granted & laid on the list 1778—whereby he is compelled to pay taxes for his Pole & his Business in this State granted even more than a year after he removed to Boston, tho' has been there & assessed & paid Taxes during the whole time for the same things—which he is persued your Honors will think unjust—and he prays your Honors that he may be exempt from payment of Taxes in this State which have been laid & granted since he has had any residence therein—And as in Duty bound shall ever pray.

*21.213—Jan., 1780. Whereas this Assembly are informed that Colo. William Worthington, commander of the State guards at Saybrook, did, contrary to his duty, sometime since the 17th day of May last, permit Richard Seaman, a refugee from Long Island, to import and land at Saybrook a considerable quantity of British goods, which the said Colo.

Worthington then knew were illegally imported and landed as aforesaid, and that they were voluntarily brought by the said Seaman from the possession of the enemy to said Saybrook, and that they were afterwards disposed of by him in this State; that the said Colo. Worthington being fully acquainted, as aforesaid, with the said illegal conduct of the said Seaman, and having it entirely in his power to have seized said goods, totally failed in performing his duty therein; and that he did not inform the Governor of this State of the said illegal conduct of the said Seaman, although he well knew that said Seaman pretended to have imported said goods by virtue of an authority derived from his Excellency the Governor, which pretensions of the said Seaman the said Colo. Worthington knew were false; Resolved by this assembly, that Brigadier General [Andrew] Ward, Colo. Dyer Throop, and Ltd. Colo. Marshfield Parsons repair to Saybrook and, having notified the said Colo. Worthington to attend, that they proceed fully to investigate what truth there may be in said information by bringing any witnesses before them which can testify anything concerning the premises, and report what they shall find, upon the result of their enquiry, to the General Assembly to be held in May next.

21.215—To the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Connecticut to be holden at Hartford on the second Thursday of May Inst—We the Subscribers being appointed by the Honorable General Assembly at their Session by adjournment at Hartford the 6th day of January last, a Committee, and being ordered to repair to Say Brook and there examine into certain matters alledged against Colo. William Worthington of said Say Brook; and report there of make to the General Assembly to be holden in May then next—beg liberty to report, that in obedience to said appointment and order, we repaired to Say Brook on the first Tuesday of May Inst, and gave due notice to said Colo. Worthington who attended accordingly.—We also caused all such Witnesses (as we could find, that knew anything about the matter alledged) at attend and testify.—And after a full hearing and examination into the matter, we find the following to be the true state of the matter as far as we were able to collect,—that said Colo. Worthington had the superintendency and command of the Guards that were stationed on the Shore in said Say Brook from some time in June last, through the Summer and fall, as long as the Guards were kept up;—and that he frequently gave spirited orders to said Guards to keep a good look out, in order to prevent the illicit trade with Long Island if possible. We also find that one Richard Seaman, a Refugee from Long Island, on the 17th day of May last, and for some considerable time before, and yet does live and board at said Colo. Worthington's house, and by the advice of the Governor and his council of safety Colo. Worthington employed said Seaman to obtain intelligence from the Enemy, and for that purpose has been sent to said Island sundry times;—and he has obtained some intelligence of importance;—which said Seaman obtained a permit last Spring of the Governor and his Council, in the words following viz.—“At a meeting of the Governor and Council of safety holden in Hartford the 17th day of May A. D. 1779 Voted that Richard Seaman a Refugee from Long Island be permitted to pass with a Boat to Long Island and to bring off his family with his household furniture, provisions and money, provided said Seaman first apply to Capt. Shipman, Commandant of the Fort at Say Brook, to search said Boat and see that no goods, provisions or money are on board at the time of his departure; and that on his return he shall exhibit to some Naval Officer a true Manifesto on oath, of all such articles, as he shall have brought from said Long Island on board said Boat” Which said permit was attested by the Clerk of the Council, and counter-signed by the Governor;—And that the said Seaman in August and September following at two several times brought a quantity of European Goods from said Long Island;—of which he soon after made a manifesto on oath at the Port of Middletown to the Naval Officer there, which manifesto and the certificate thereof are in the words following viz—

“The following is a true Invoice and Manifesto of household furniture of Goods and articles brought from Long Island by the Subscriber, by virtue of a permit from his Excellency the Governor and Council of Safety, which were the property of the Subscriber long before the first day of May last on Long Island aforesaid Viz, Richard Seaman.

“State of Connecticut. Port of Middletown—

This may Certify all whom it doth or may concern that Mr. Richard Seaman within mentioned personally appeared in this Office and made solemn Oath to the truth of the within Invoice, and that the same contains a true account of the Articles by him imported from Long Island by permission from his Excellency Gover. Trumbull and Council of Safety.”

Which certificate was signed by, and given under the hand of the Naval Officer at Middletown the 20th of September A. D. 1779—The most of which goods are since sold to some persons in the State, and are all the goods that said Seaman has brought that we could learn;—All which Colo. Worthington knew but had no concern or privity in the trade himself, as we could find. We also find that one Doctr. William Lawrance a Refugee from Long Island, last fall lived at said Colo. Worthington's house and by advice from the Governor was employed by said Colo. Worthington to gain intelligence from the Enemy and proved serviceable that way:—Which said Lawrance obtained a permit of the Governor on the 11th of November last in the words following viz.

“State of Connecticut.—By the Governor

To all concerned. Doctr. Willm. Lawrence, belonging to Long Island, is permitted to go from Say Brook to said Island and bring off his family household goods, medicines, and some other small effects, that he hath belonging to him there,—and is excused for bringing with him at his late coming over, some articles of furniture of Silver plate.—He with the Vessel he goes in to be under the inspection of the Comandant of the Fort at Say Brook both on his going and returning, to prevent illicit trade, and dangerous intercourse with the Enemy."

Which permit was given and signed by his Excellency the Governor at Lebanon the 11th Novr. 1779 And that in consequence of said permit he brought a quantity of goods from said Island;— which goods are contained in an Invoice in the words following, viz:—

1 piece Hunters Cloth	1 Ditto spotted Lawn
3 Doz Silk Hand'ss	1 Piece Cottin Hand'ss
Remnant of Stuff	1 piece Gauze, Hand'ss
1 piece Cambrick	2 Remnants, Gauze
Remnant of Linnen	1 bundle Riband & Garters
3 pieces of black Gauze	10 pair of leather Gloves
1 bag of Buttons	1 pack of Combs
1 piece of Silk Hand'ss	Paper of Needles
6 pair of Stockings	2 Remnants of Callico
1 piece black Gauze	Bunch of Lining, Tape & Cord
Remnant black Durant	1 piece of quality binding
Piece of Irish Linnen	Remnant Ditto
Bunch Fans	Sundry pieces tape
Chaper & Tongues	1 Red Riband
3 Doz. Penknives	Root Mohair
Bundle of Buckles	Remnant Everlasting
3 Packs of Pins	Ditto Callimaneo & Shalloon
Bunch horn Combs	Small root Cassimer
Bundle of Buckles	2 Pieces Linnen
Dutch Blanckett	Bag Buttons
Remnant Callimaneo	Piece Broadcloth
1 Piece of Cambrick	Piece Linnen
Ditto Lawn	Ditto Muslin
1 Ditto Muslin

Which goods were landed in the night of the 27th of November last about three quarters of a mile east of Colo. Worthington's house; and were soon after seised by one Ephraim Kelsey the Sergt. of the Guard; and were finally all carried to said Colo. Worthington's house that night, and that Colo. Worthington on that, and the next succeeding night used some arguments to persuade the Sergt. of the Guard to deliver the goods up to the Doctr. supposing his permit covered them: And we also find that said Sergt. Kelsey was not convinced that said permit did cover them, and still held the goods; and pretty soon after made a report to the Governor and his Council of Safety of all his conduct relative to his seising and detaining said goods, and also of all Colo. Worthington's conduct relative to the same And on or about the 18th of December last Colo. Worthington and said Serjt. Kelsey attended before the Governor and his Council, where all the matters before mentioned were laid open and fully heard: Whereupon said Council proceeded to give the following directions or advice, viz.

"At a meeting of the Governor and Council of Safety holden in Lebanon the 18th day of December 1779."

"Whereas Ephraim Kelsey Serjt. of the Guard, stationed at the West Society in Say Brook on the 27th day of November last, seised one trunk and three Sacks, containing a quantity of Goods and remnants belonging to Doctr. Willm. Lawrence a friendly Refugee from Long Island, which he had brought from said Island by permission;—yet not strictly conforming to the directions in the permit.—And the said Kelsey having made report thereof to his Excellency the Governor for advice—Resolved that his Excellency the Governor be desired to advise the said Serjt. Kelsey to deliver the said Trunk, Sacks & Goods to the Said Doctr. Lawrence on his paying the said Kelsey his reasonable expenses on the premisses."

Which resolve was attested by the Clerk of the Council And Shewn to said Serjt. Kelsey;—whereupon he immediately delivered up said Goods to said Doctr. Lawrence;—all which Colo. Worthington was privy to, and the matter was supposed to be finished by all parties concerned; and so rested untill about the 22nd of February last, Majr. William Hart of said Saybrook came to said Serjt. Kelsey and informed him that the Assembly expected that he would lay the same before the Assembly, then sitting at Hartford—which produced the information laid before said Assembly; and was there referred to Us in order to investigate the truth of the facts therein alledged and report the same etc—All which is humbly submitted by your Honors Obedt. Humble Servts.

In the Lower House the foregoing Report being read etc is accepted and thereupon the Question being called for and proposed Viz—Whether upon the Stating of Facts in the Report the said Worthington is reprehensible Resolved in the Affirmative. [See D. 42.]

21.214—To the Honourable General Assembly now Conveaned at Hartford—I think it a Duty I owe to my country to lay before your honours the following State of Facts—that from the 14th day of Janr A. D. 1779 to 1st of January following I was Sargeant of the Gards Stationed at Saybrook West Society on the Sea Shore under the Command of Coll. William Worthington and that on the 27th of November Last at abot Twelve of the Clock in the Night as I was Patrolling the Shore I Passed Three persons Viz Mr Richard Seaman Doct Wm. Lawrence and A Servan Boy to Coll. Wm. Worthington with A Quantity of European Goods about $\frac{3}{4}$ of A mile Easterly of Coll. Worthington's Dwelling House and that Sd Seamans, Rode one Horse & Led another, on which Horses there was Three Sacks of Goods and A Large Trunk Slung on a pole between the Doctor and the Servant Boy Containing goods the Led Horse I took from Mr. Seamans and gave it to One of the gard & ordered Mr. Seamans off from his Horse he Requested the favour of Riding as he had a Large Sack before him to Coll. Worthington, where I told him I should Carry the goods which was agreable to my Orders from Coll. Worthington in Case of Any Seisure and while I was A little behind taking Care of the trunk it being Very Dark Mr. Seamans Rode of and made his Escape not withstanding his promise to keep with the gard immediately on which I Left the Remaining of the goods with the gard and persued on after Sd Seamans to Coll. Worthington's and when I Came there found the Horse standing at the Dore Striped of Loding and going into the House I found Coll. Worthington Siting by the fire I asked where Mr. Seaman was he Said he was gone up Stairs I Said Mr. Seaman has shamefully Abused me for I took him under gard and he Contrary to his promise has made his Escape with part of the goods and the Coll. Replyed Set Down they Shall all Come out. I Said perhaps they may and perhaps they may not one half. I Said to the Coll. I wonder that you Should Let So Large A bundle pass without Examining it he Replyed I Set here in a Drouse almost A Sleep and did not take much notice abot this time One of the gard brought in to the Coll. One Daniel Foster and at the Same time the gard Came up with the Trunk and the rest of the goods Coll. Worthington Asked Doct. Lawrence for his permit which the Doct. gave him which the Coll. Red in my hearing and that it did appear that the Doct. had a permit from his Excellency to go on to the Island and bring of his Family Household furniture and Some other Small Effects belonging to him there and as the Coll. Red the permit to me Sd Lawrence was to go and Return under the Inspection of the Commandant of the Fort at Saybrook or the gards Since which I have Seen the permit and find that the permit Confined him to the Inspection of the Commandment of the fort only and not the gards—at this time the Coll. asked me into another Room in private and told me that Doct. Lawrence was A worthy gentleman and that he had improved him to get Intelligence from the Enemy and that he Supposed the Doct. had goods but that the permit covered them I told him I did not Know but the permit Did but had not Seen them Coll. Replyed he was willing that I and One more Should See the goods but not any more of the gard and advised me to take A Slight Look over the goods and then inform the gard that the permit is prety general and that it Covers the goods and To Let it pass on which I Examined the Trunk & Sacks and found that they Contained A Variety of English goods two or Three Book & A Small bunch of what he Said was medisons and upon Examining the Sack that Mr. Seamans Caried up Stairs it Did not Appear to have So much in it as when I first Saw it on the Horse—it now being Late in the Night we Defered any further Examination to the next Evening after he requesting the matter to be kept private untill the Next Evening, at which time I went to the Colls. House with Several of the gard and Coll. asked me into A private Room and Says how Came you to bring in Some of the gard that was not here the Last Night. I told him I should not keep it A Secret any Longer he Said that the permit fairly Covered them that his Excellency would not like to hear about this matter. Said further that he had proposed to the Doctor that the Doctor Should make me and those that was with me when the goods were taken A handsome reward as we had been fatuiged in the Night. & as we had been in private Some time I told the Coll. I did not Like to be in private any Longer as he Knew he was Suspected of favouring the Illisset Trade on which One of the gard was Called in the Coll. Still went on with many Insinuations to Convince us that it was best to hush the matter I then told him I believed in my Soul you will and are Your self in trying to Secret Such matters and that I Could not See that the permit in any wise Covered the goods and Insisted of an Inventory of the goods and Obtained A Partial One—the above mentioned Foster on being Examined Said he Came from the Island in the boat which brought the goods and that in Coming from the Island fell in with the Land about Two miles westerly of the Coll. Worthingtons house and rowed along Shore Eastward by the gard Three forths of A mile East of Coll. Worthingtons House to A by place where they Landed the goods—after taking an Invoice of the goods I Requested of the Coll. to take the goods into my Care which he refused I likewise Requested A Coppy of the permit which he also Refused—I would also Inform Your Honours that in the Course of Last Summer & Fall that the above Sd. Seaman has as often as once A fortnight or Three weeks gone on to the Island in A Boat belonging to the State in Coll. Worthingtons Care or Some other and that frequently on his return there was bags or Sacks and trunks of Something that had the Appearance of European goods and on his Landing in the Day time Coll. Worthington would be Present and being asked by the gards whether the goods Should not be Examined Coll. Replyed there was no Occasion for it as his [Note—Several words torn out] and the fullest that he Ever Saw of the Governor's giving and that he had a right to bring of any Sort of goods and that the goods were Some times Carried by Horses & Sometimes by Cart to Coll. Worthingtons Where Sd Seaman Resided—and for the Truth of the Above Relation I Appeal to the following Persons as witnesses Viz. Messrs. Elijah Dee, Caleb Chapman, Jedediah Riley, William Chapman, Joseph Stannard, William Dee, Samuel Jones, Augustus Jones, Pardon Brockway, Hezekiah Post, Junr., Benjamin Jones, Junr., all which is Submitted to your Honours Consideration by Your Honours most Obedient Humble Servt

21.251—Richard Seaman of Lawfull Age Deposeth & Saith that some time Last March Job Kelsey was at the house of Colo. Worthington in Company with Libeus Chapman, Benjn Jones & Joseph Stannard they Came in a Sleigh from Saybrooke Being Informed that Said Kelsey had Given his Deposition Respecting Conversation that passed there at that time—I took Said Kelsey at that time to be Intoxicated so much with Liquor as not to be a proper Judge of Conversation, which plainly Appeared by his words & Actions. I further say, I have Resided some time before and at the time of Election at Colo. Worthington's I never Saw him use on that day or any time before any persuasions for any person to Vote for him, I observed peticularly on freeman meeting day his treatment to every one Either friends or foes perfectly Corresponded With his treatment on Common Occations Which is Generous & free.

21.355 — to the Honble Genl. Assembly of the State of Connecticut now setting at Hartford, the Memorial of Abraham [C] Woodhull humbly sheweth, That your Memorialist has continued at his Native Place, the Town of Brook Haven on Long Island, since the Commencement of the present War, till within a few days past, having at all times demeaned himself as a Friend, to the Interest & Independence of this & the other United States of America as he is abundantly able to prove. That having a Desire to remove from within the Power of the Enemy, & appear actively in Arms against them, your Memorialist has been induced to prefer this Petition, showing that he having made Trade his Occupation for these five Years past (during which he has never been concerned in forwarding any Goods across the Sound into this State) & having a few Goods remaining on hand, would wish to remove this his only Property into this State. Your Memorialist therefore humbly prays your Honors to give him Permission to remove those few Articles of Goods (of which the enclosed [No. 127] is an exact Invoice) from Long Island into this State, where the whole shall be faithfully delivered into the hands of such Civil or military Officer as your Honors may appoint to inspect the same. And your Memorialist, as in Duty bound shall ever pray

21.377—To the Honbl. General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now convened at Hartford. The Memorial of James Mc. Cluer a native & inhabitant of Long-Island in the State of New York humbly sheweth that he has been from the commencement of the present War & still is friendly to the Liberties & Independance of these United States & for his Attachment thereto hath suffered much from the Common Enemy—That he has been a trader from his Youth & still has a quantity of Merchandise to the amount of about two thousand pounds on hand. That his Situation upon the Island is rendered unsafe & he is exposed to be plundered of his property by both parties & wishes for Liberty to remove with his family & reside in this State & to bring with him his Effects—which Liberty he prays your honors to grant him under such regulations & restrictions as to your honors may seem meet & safe to the Community—And as in Duty bound he shall ever pray

21.379—To the Honorable General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now Convened at Hartford in said State.—The Memorial of Benjamin Sears a Refugee from South Hampton on Long Island in the State of New York now resident in East Haddam in the County of Hartford, humbly sheweth—That he took an early part on the side of the United States of America in the great and unhappy Contest with Great Britain; and that in September 1776 when said Island was given up, he with his family then consisting only of himself and Wife, together with a great number of other good Inhabitants of said Island, that were friendly to the American Cause, fled in confusion and came to this State for protection and safety, and came to said East Haddam, where he has resided with his family ever since;—and that when he came off of said Island he brought with him some household furniture, Six Sheep and fifteen Bushels of Corn. And notwithstanding your Memorialist in his family has used the best Oeconomy, and exercised the greatest industry, he finds that he and his family now consisting of himself, his Wife and three Children, which Children were all born since he left said Island must soon unavoidably become burthensome to this State, unless he and his said family be permitted to return to said Island—And he begs leave to assure your Honors that his political principles are not changed, nor will he upon any consideration ever take up arms against his Country men—and that it is urgent necessity that induces him to ask your Honors the favour of returning—Whereupon he humbly prays your Honours to permit him and his family to return to said Island and he begs said permit may be granted as soon as may be, and that it be under such restrictions as your Honours shall think proper—Also that he be permitted to carry with him One Cow, eight Bushels of Wheat, and eight Bushels of Rye or Indian Corn, one half Barrel of Meat, which he imagines is as little as he can begin with on said Island—And as in duty bound he shall ever pray

23.286 — To the honorable General Assembly to be holden at Hartford on the Second Thursday of Instant January—The memorial of Manuel Myers of Stamford in Fairfield County and State of Connecticut, humbly sheweth that he fled from the City of New York in the year 1776 to avoid the Enemy and came to this place where he has resided till this time doing very little business but living upon the little he saved from the City. The Memorialist further Observes that his buildings since he left New York the principal part of them have been destroyed by fire and that the Memorialist has large sumes of money due to him from persons living in New York who would be willing to pay him in good wares and Merchandize of some kind and not in money. And the Memorialist further begs leave to Observe to your honors that he is near Sixty years of age and has with him in sd. Stamford an Aged Mother & brother in law who depend upon him for support and that he has not much property of his own left in the country. He therefore prays your honors to grant him Liberty to collect of Debts due to him in the City of New York in good wares or Merchandise to the amount of Six hundred pounds Lawful money and bring them into this State to Sell and dispose off So yt he may be enabled to Support himself and family—and your memorialist as in duty bound shall every pray Monel Myers

23.287 — The Subscribers Authority and Selectmen of the Town of Stamford are informed by Mr. Manuel Myers late of the City of New York now of this place that he has large Sumes of money due in New York which he can procure payment of in good wares & Merchandise in New York if he can have liberty to bring them into the county and he can procure pay in no other way. We esteem Mr. Myers a decided Freind to the Independence of America and Suppose he has Suffered very considerable loss of estate by leaving his interest in New York and has an aged mother and brother in law in this Town which he is obliged to maintain and Support as they have no interest of their own and not able to Support themselves. We think it would not be injurious to the cause of the country to permit Mr Myers to bring from New York in good wares or Merchandize what he can there collect of his Debts due to him, and would therefore desire the honorable General Assembly if they see fit, to grant Mr. Myers permission to bring goods from New York to this Town If he can receive them in payment for his aforesaid Debts.

23.294—To the honbl. Genl Assembly to be convened at Hartford on the Second Thursday of October A. D. 1782 The Memorial of Joseph Moore, a Refugee from Long Island in the State of New York, now residing in the town of Canterbury, in sd State of Connecticut humbly sheweth, That your Honour's Memorialist was a Native of Long Island where he continued to reside in the town of South Hampton until the Enemy took possession of the West end of sd Island and the City of New York in the year 1776. And that immediately thereupon your Memorialist fled from sd Long Island with his Family, and came to the State of Connecticut, where he has removed from one place to another ever Since without acquiring any considerable property. That at the time when he left sd Long Island he was possessed in his own right of considerable estate, much the greater part of which he was obliged to leave behind him; and that ever since his removal as aforesd he hath found it very difficult to provide a comfortable Support for himself, and Family which consists of a wife and Six young Children. That in the year 1781 The Listers of sd Town of Canterbury put his head into the public List, and the Listers for the present year call on him for another List of his head. That your Honors Memorialist is willing to pay Taxes for the little rateable estate he is or may be possessed of but thinks it reasonable considering his great Losses, Trials & Inability, that he should be exempted from paying Taxes for his Head and from doing military Duty and Therefore prays your Honors to take his Case into your wise consideration and order & resolve that your Memorialist be exempted from doing military Duty & from paying Taxes for his Head on the sd List for the year 1781, for the present year, and during the present war, or until he can with safety to the public and himself return to or take the Benefit of his estate on sd Long Island; Or that your Honors would in some other way grant Relief; As your Memorialist in duty bound shall ever pray.

23.407 — To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut now sitting at Hartford etc. The Petition of Sylvester Dering now of Middletown in the County of Hartford & State of Connecticut, in behalf of his Aunt Mrs. Sarah Thomas of Marshfield in the County of Plymouth & Commonwealth of Massachusetts Humbly Sheweth.— That at the beginning of this War, her Husband Nathaniel P. Thomas being one of the Mandamus Counsellors, Left this Country and went to England — That his appointment being very disagreeable to his wife, she, with her large family of six children, tarried at Marshfield, where they have ever since resided & do now Still reside — That the Estate of Mr. Thomas has been Confiscated & two thirds of it sold for the use of said Commonwealth — she being allow'd only one third for the support of herself & Family which is very inadequate for that purpose.— Mr. Thomas has sent her from time to time necessary Clothing etc. for herself & Children, some of which she has formerly received, by Flags, & some she has lost. Your Petitioner on a visit to his Aunt the summer past, was informed by her of some Articles (a list of which is herewith presented to Your honours) That Mr. Thomas had sent to her from England for the use of the Family, which things are now on Long Island — and cannot be received by her who with her Children are in very distressed circumstances for them, unless your Honours Grant permission for that purpose. Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that he may have permission Granted him to import them (or those of them your Honour may think the most necessary) into this State from Long Island & transport them to her. And your Petitioner pledges his faith & Honour for a faithfull performance of whatever Trust your Honours may repose in him, & is willing to enter into any Bonds that may be required for that purpose And your Petitioner as in Duty bound will ever Pray. [See No. 173 for the list.] Sylvester Dering.

26.222 — To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut Convened at Hartford on the 2nd Wednesday of January 1783. The Memorial of Archibald Currie now residing in Hartford Humbly sheweth. That in the beginning of the present war he took an Active part therein upon Principles in favour of his Country while he lived in New York, and where he had an House & Considerable Sums of money now due to him that from his attachment to the American Cause he was obliged with his Wife & Family to fly from his Home in New York in the Year 1776 & to take Refuge in the Country to the Total stop & ruin of his Business, that since that period he has lost the Greatest part of his interest that the House he lived in, in the Country, where he had Considerable property, was Almost intirely Consum'd by Fire, Also a Dwelling House etc in the City of New York which but a very few Months ago Stood, is intirely Consumed, that your Memorialist by these Losses & what he has Sunk, by the Depretiation of the Paper money to prove which he can bring, if necessary incontestible evidence hath Expended Almost his whole Fortune, except some Debts due to him in New York, that he is perfectly Assured he can obtain his dues in New York & some part of House rent, Previous to its being Burnt, if he might have Liberty to go & apply for the same, wherefore he earnestly Solicits your Honors in Compassion to his heavy losses & firm attachment to his Country to grant him Liberty to go upon Long Island or to the City of New York, if necessary & to bring off in Goods or Money which he would much rather Chuse to have, to the value of £1500 which is due him for Debts & House rent, which he can receive under such Limitation as Your Honors shall think fitt, or otherwise Relieve him, as Your Honors in your humanity shall think best & Your Memorialist as in Duty bound shall ever Pray.
Arch'd Currie.

26.225 — To the honorable the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut convened at Hartford the 2nd Wednesday of January 1783. The Memorial of Peter Vandervoort now residing in Hartford humbly sheweth, that in the begining of the present War he took an active part upon principle in favour of his Country whilst he lived in New York, where he was born & where he hath a house & considerable sums of money now due to him that before he left New York, at the instance of the friendly party there he advanced £1200 in hard money out of his trading stock to promote the expedition to the northward under General Montgomery & at the request of the late Commissary Trumbull he advanced other large sums to purchase flour for the Army then lying at Cambridge & Roxbury & forwarded the Same, for all which he received nothing but the paper Bills. That for these & other reasons & from a Constant attachment to the American cause, he was obliged with his wife & family of small children to fly from his home in New York in the year 1776 & to take refuge in the Country, to the total stop and ruin of his business & he hath now expended almost his whole fortune, at present within his power & sunk all his money by depreciation & other misfortunes, excepts some debts due to him in new York & is reduced to great difficulties & even distresses in his Family, that he is informed he can obtain his dues in New York & some part of his house rent, now if he might have liberty to go upon Long Island or to the City of New York if necessary either himself or his wife & to bring off in goods & money to the Amount of £2000 or £1500 value of what is due him for debts & rents (which he can receive in that way) under such limitations as your Honours Shall think fit. that he may therewith once more revive the drooping hopes of his disponding family or otherwise relieve him as your humanity & justice shall think fit & he shall ever pray—

Peter Vandervoort.

29.238—To the honourable the General Assembly to be holden at Hartford the 2d thusday of may next. The memorial of Samuel Clarke of Saybrook Humbly Sheweth that Some time in the year 1781 Obediah Wright formerly an Inhabitant of Long Island but then Residing in Sd. Saybrook, Was Arrested at the Sute of the State for having Gone on to Long Island Contrary to Law and being Concern'd, in the Illicit trade and So forth he was Bound over to Court—his family was then Sick, His Wife Pregnant and near her time of Delivery Thus Circumstanced her Tears and his Intreaties Wrought your Memorialist up to a most Tender feeling and from principals of benevolence only he was Induced to be bound for Sd. Wrights appearance—Wright failed to appear and a Judgment and Execution Came out against your memorialist and Sd. Obediah Wright and Charles Wright his Brother for the Sum of £207..2..8 your memorialist has paid to the State the Sum of £145—Which is much more than he has Ever been able to Recover of Sd. Wright he has been Put to great Expence and Extream Trouble and Vexation and though he has Recovered Judgment against Sd. Wright for the Sum of £121..16..3 yet Said Wright Has had the art to Elude and baffle all Prospects of a further Recovery from him—your memorialist begs Leave to Represent to your Honrs. that he is now an old man and Infirme with a very numerous family which Depend on him for Support that his means of Subsistance are but Small And his heart Ready to fail him, and unless Releived by your honors, must be Reduced to begary and want—Whereupon he prays your honours to Take his Distressed Case Into your wise Consideration and order and Decree that he be Exemptd from any further Demands or Prosecutions on account of Said bond or any Judgment or Executions in Consequence Thereof and your Memorialist as in Duty bound Shall Ever pray. Samel. Clarke.

Dated in Saybrook the 4th day of May A. D. 1786.

We the Subscribers from an Acquaintance with Samuel Clarke the above Memorialist and the Circumstances of the matters Stated, are fully of Opinion he is a Subject worthy of Relief, that Granting his prayer will not be Deterimental to Society but Salvation to the man and his numerous Family which is Reputable and may Justly Claim the attention of your Honours.

36.100 — To Honourable the General Assembly of the State of Connecticut to be holden at Hartford on the 2d Thursday of May next. — The Petition of Samuel Clark of Saybrook, humbly Sheweth that in the Year 1781 Obediah Wright, a Refugee from Long-Island, then Residing in Saybrook, was arrested for being concerned in the Illicit Trade (it being then in the Time of the Late War) and was adjudged to give Bonds for his Appearance before the Superior Court holden at Norwich in March 1782 — Whereupon said Wright with great Art, Address and many false Declarations solicited your Petitioner to give Bonds for said Wright's Appearance at Court, and your Petitioner, then wholly ignorant of said Wrights true Character and by said Wright's most solemn Declarations was persuaded to believe him innocent from Motives of Kindness and Humanity gave his Bond for said Wright's appearance at Court And your Petitioner further 'says that at the Time he became bound as aforesaid he was utterly ignorant of the Penalties attending said Crimes and was told by said Wright that the Consequence of his being Bound was very trifling, and that if the Case should finally go against him, he should only be holden to pay the Cost, and said Wright wholly fail'd to appear before said Court by which Means Execution came out from Sd Court against your Petitioner for the Sum of Two Hundred and Seven Pounds, One Shilling and 2d Lawful Money, on which Execution, your Petitioner has actually paid One Hundred forty four pounds Seven

Shillings and 2 d in Solid Coin, and that there is still due on said Execution, Sixty two pounds fifteen Shillings 6 d—Your Honours Petitioner also preferred a Petition to this Honourable House at their Sessions in May last, at Hartford, praying your Honours to relieve him from the Payment of the Balance due on said Execution, whereupon your Honours at sd May Sessions Ordered and Decreed that your Petitioner should have Liberty to pay said Balance of said Execution in such Public Securities of the State as were then due and on Interest. And now your Honour's Petitioner begs Leave further to represent to this Honourable Assembly that had he not been prevailed upon by reason of his too easy Credulity and Unsuspicion to be Bound as aforesaid, the State in all Probability would never have been paid Sd. Penalty as the said Wright was then worth little or Nothing and hath since been and still is a Bankrupt, and that since Sd. Execution was granted against your Petitioner, he commenced a Suit against Sd. Wright for Indemnification in Consequence of which he hath experienced and suffered the direful Effects of the blackest Malice and most Vile Ingratitude from said Wright and was obliged to Carry on a tedious and expensive Law Suit with him and was at vast Trouble and Cost in Counteracting the Force of a pretended Receipt for Monies paid by said Wright to your Petitioner on Account of said Execution which Receipt was obtained of your Petitioner by Fraud and £100 was inserted therein more than your Petitioner ever received—And after your Petitioner had obtained Judgment and Execution against said Wright for the Just Sum your Petitioner had to pay the State for said Wright, He in Order to Harrass, Perplex and weary out your Petitioner, Commenced two Most vexatious Suits by Attachments, by which means your Petitioner was obliged to attend at Fairfield Court, in which Suits your Petitioner was at great Cost and Perplexity to Collect his Evidence and prepare his Defence and was obliged to attend on said Suits with his Evidences through the tedious and Circuitous Course of the Law, both at Fairfield and Danbury for the Space of four Years before said Suits were brought to final Trial, and being almost discouraged and worn down with Disappointment Anxiety of Mind and heavy expenditure said Causes came to final Trial before the Superior Court at Danbury in February last, when the Plaintiff withdrew both of his said Actions and your Petitioner hath not the least Prospect of ever being able to recover any part of the accumulated Cost he hath been at in Defending in Sd. Suits—Your Honours Petitioner is warranted to declare from his real knowledge, that those two vexatious Suits have not cost him less than £40.0.0 in Cash besides his Time and his Witnesses In Addition to all which your Honours Petitioner begs Leave to shew to this Honourable House that although he now feels & trusts he shall retain as long as life endures a grateful Sense of the Favour granted him by your Honours at your last May Session, in easing his Distress yet that he is now so reduced and worn down both in person and Estate by the aforesaid misfortunes that he is now unable to pay up the Balance of sd. Execution without resigning up the small Pittance of a precarious Support, which but barely enables him with Laborious Industry and rigid Oeconomy to keep himself and Family from sinking into Distress—That the Execution be recovered against Wright for the Indemnification aforesaid, he hath never been able to Collect till within about the Space of one Month after a Long and very expensive Negotiation, and at last to receive it in dry goods at an advance Price and mostly in very unsaleable Articles whereby a great part of said Execution was Lost to your Petitioner—And your Honours Petitioner further shews to this Honourable House, that he hath experienced through the whole Course of his Life the severest Rebukes of Gods holy Providence & exhibits to the World a Specimen of such Sufferings as he hopes will excite the Commiseration of every human Heart. That about 20 years ago your Petitioner lost a beloved Daughter by a Cancer in her Eye after being a long time in the Hands of Surgeons and Physicians at great Expence—The next Year after the Death of this Child the righteous Hand of Heaven was sorely laid on his House by the awful Death of another Child about 10 Years of Age, occasioned by the Window's falling upon her, when She was attempting to get out, she being left alone in the House—About 3 Years after, your Petitioner lost the Dear Partner of his Bosom with a Consumption, after languishing a long Time, under the Care of Physicians at a great Expence—In the next place after a short Interlude, Obadiah Wright was permitted to deceive, perplex and impoverish your Petitioner as aforesaid who was compelled to attend to sd. 2 vexatious Suits at the Distance of 70 Miles from home, and to make his Defence to them for the Space of 4 Years, Commenced and Contrived with a View to Ruin Your Petitioner—and that while sd. 2 Suits were pending in the Law the Just Judgments of Heaven were Still pursuing your Petitioner by taking away by Death his eldest Son, the only Help and Support your Petitioner had in his Business, Said Son, after returning from 4 Years Service in the Army of the United States, was making a Voyage to Sea when the foaming Billows wrapped him in a Briny Grave, leaving his bereaved Wife and 2 orphan Children to the Care of your Petitioner, to be supported by the Sweat of his Brow—Your Petitioner hath now no Person to assist him in carrying on his Business but his youngest Son only and he in some considerable Degree incapacitated to Labour, having been deprived of a Thumb from one of his Hands—Your Petitioner further shews to your Honours that at the Commencement and during the late War, he was a Staunch Friend to the Liberties of his Country and was ever willing and ready to contribute every Thing in his Power to the Support of the War and good Government, that he is now 64 Years of Age, Broken by Misfortune both in Body and Mind and reduced in his worldly Interest to Poverty and Want, to too small a Pittance to be subdivided—That he now is both poor and Wretched in all his Circumstances, and withal deeply in Debt—And now to wind up the Tale of his Woes, he hath an agreeable Daughter, Languishing with a Consumptive Disorder, under the Care of Doctor [Eleazer] Mather of Lyme—Whereupon your Honours Petitioner humbly hopes by the faithful Recital of his Woes, to gain the Sympathy of this Honourable House and prays that his unhappy Case may be taken into your Wise Consideration, and that he might be excused from paying the Balance due on the aforementioned Execution and thereby save him now in the last Days of an unfortunate Life and his distress'd family from utter Ruin—And your Petitioner as in Duty Bound shall ever pray etc

Affidavits of Joshua Hobart Implicating Himself and Others, Who Traded in Goods Brought from Within the Enemy's Lines.

(Clinton Pap. 7. 77, 78.)

I Joshua Hobart declare as follows—that I have at sundry times been at Doctr. John Dorrances at Voluntun [Conn.] with L. I. Goods, and have sold of the said goods to the said John Dorrance, and that he hath kept concealed for me at sundry times such goods as aforesaid, knowing the same to come from within the Enemy's Lines to my satisfaction, by what frequently passed between us, And further say, that Obadiah Wright has informed me that Capt. David Dorrance had bought goods as aforesaid of him to the amount of about Ninety pounds, if I mistake not, and that he purchased the same on credit, and that the said Obadiah hath sent the note or an order by me, to the said John Dorrance, several times for payment, but the said John informed me that his brother gave such a price for said goods that he had not been able to dispose of them neither there, nor at Providence—and I further say I have had acquaintance with one Chapman at Norwich, who hath informed me that he hath traded a good deal in goods with Richard Simmons [Seaman] and David Conkling, and agreed with me for a quantity of goods, and gave me an invoice for the same, and also a person's name at Saybrook where to leave them, whose name was Elliver Chapman, which said Contract was made sometime in March last past, and that I have conversed with the said Chapman who I contracted with at several times since, about said trade.
July 12, 1781.

I Joshua Hobart, declare as follows—That some time in the fall of the year 1780, I was in company with Solomon Lathrop of Pittsfield at William Dudley, at Saybrook, and the said Solomon traded with Richard Simmons [Seaman] for goods at that time, and some time in the winter following the said Solomon was at Saybrook again, and then contracted with Capt. Josiah Balding, of North Killingsworth, for a quantity of goods which were to be ready at a time, then agreed on, which was about three or four weeks, and he came accordingly and received said goods, which, as near as I can recollect, amounted to about four hundred pounds Lawful Silver money, for which he paid then in cash about two hundred pounds—and I further say, that about Ninety pounds worth of said Goods belonged to Obadiah Wright and myself, which the said Obadiah had put into said Balding's hands to dispose for us, and that sometime in March past, the said Solomon came down to Moodus and then went over to L. I. in order to contract for a quantity of goods, if they could contrive any way to get them off which was, to cruise over in a Boat two or three times until he could have the goods ready on the shore, and then he would agree with the hands to give them as much for the cruise, which he concluded he could do for a half a Jo a Piece, and seize the same and bring them off, and after he had been over to L. I. I saw the said Solomon at Saybrook, and there entered into an agreement with him for a quantity of lumber, which he was to deliver at Middletown for me to take on board a vessel to transport to New York, which we were to be equally concerned in, and that in a short time after I saw a letter from said Solomon at Saybrook informing me that he had concluded to raft said lumber to Saybrook instead of Middletown and that the same should be ready at Saybrook on the 7th of May last. The quantity agreed for was thirty thousand feet; but I being almost loaded, and ready to sail for New York, when I received said letter, I left orders with said William Dudley to store said lumber untill I returned from New York, which I have not done since, and make no doubt but what the said lumber is now stored with the said

William Dudley at Saybrook. And I further say that some time in the fall last past, one Joshua Welles of L. I., obtained a permit from His Ex^{cy} Gov. Trumbull, to remove from said Island to the main with his family and effects, and in virtue of which he came off, and brought with him a quantity of British Goods, and that some time in the spring last past, the aforesaid Capt. Balding contracted with said Wells for a quantity of goods which he received, and had an Invoice of the same, sworn to before a Justice of the Peace, which said certificate given by said Justice, was wrote by the said Obadiah Wright, and wrote such a distance below the invoice, that the said Capt. Balding had room to put in the invoice of the goods which he had received from George Fowler on L. I., which he did accordingly after the said Justice had given the said Certificate to said Wells and without his knowledge—and further say not.

July 13th 1781

I Joshua Hobart, declare as follows—That some time in November last, I, together with Obadiah Wright of Saybrook was travelling the road from Saybrook to Providence, and called at Dorrance's tavern in Voluntown which said tavern the said Wright informed me he had frequented when travelling said road, and that he had sold goods to Capt. David Dorrance who was son to the landlord, and that John Dorrance, brother to the said David had had some quantity of goods of one Humphy Pratt of said Saybrook, which said Pratt, the said Wright further informed me had been a considerable trader in the goods way, and that some time after this I was again at said Dorrance's, and had goods with me and at the same time left some of them with the said John Dorrance to sell for me, to which he did to the amount of about fifty dollars—and at another time afterwards I was again at said Dorrance's, and had goods with me, and sold a few articles thereof to the said John Dorrance, which he then paid me for, And I further say that the said Obadiah Wright has sent an order by me several times to the said John Dorrance for the payment of the goods which David Dorrance had of him the said Obadiah Wright as above said—but the said John Dorrance did not answer the same but replied the goods were so high which his brother bought of said Wright that he had not been able to sell them as yet, tho' he had carried some of them to Providence for that purpose. And I further say that one Abraham Pratt of Pantapauge has offered me Beef or Pork to carry to L. I.—also desired me if I should see any Boats from L. I. to inform the people thereof that he would let them have any thing they should want to carry to said Island—And I further declare that I myself have had of said Abraham some cheese, and about a dozen pairs of shoes to carry to said Island to sell for him the said Pratt, which I did accordingly, and likewise have sold goods as aforesaid to said Pratt, he knowing the same to come from L. I.—and I further say that said Abraham professes to be a friend to British Government when he is with them that he can converse freely with.

July 14th 1781.

I Joshua Hobart, declare as follows—That some time in the spring last passed I was informed by Obadiah Wright, that he the said Obadiah, and John Mumford of Providence, had some misunderstanding about some money which the said Mumford owed to the said Obadiah—he the said Obadiah declared to me the said Joshua that if the said Mumford did not settle the affair and pay him he would arrest him and expose him about the letter he the said Mumford wrote to the said Obadiah to assist the said Mumford's brother in getting to L. I.

Gov. Clinton to Isaac Roosevelt Regarding a Proposition from Obadiah Wright.

Poughkeepsie, Decr. 5th, 1781.

Sir, Since my last by Messrs. [Capt. Thomas] Greenell & [Thomas] McFarren I am informed, that the State of Connecticut have called in all their Permission for bringing any Thing from Long Island under any Pretence whatever so that this Business as far as it respects or depends on that State is at an end. The bearer, however, Mr. Obediah Wright informs me he can bring off, without passing thro Connecticut, Merchandize & Specie to a considerable amount, for which no money is to be sent over in return & among which will be articles suitable for public use if he could obtain a Permission. He is willing to enter into a contract, which if effected I think it may be beneficial to the state; but as I am unauthorized, I have directed him to you for the Purpose. If you should come to any Agreem't with him, whatever Passport from me you shall think necessary, will, on a line from you, be immediately made out. I am &c.

[George Clinton.]

Isaac Roosevelt Esqr.

P. S. Should not the Goods or Money be at Mr. Wright's Risque until delivered to some Person appointed by you to receive them?

Doc. 14—May it please your Excellency to permitt me to say that whereas on the 23d of Sept^r 1779 your Excellency's goodness was displayed in granting me a permitt to pass to Long Island for the purposes In Said permitt fully set forth & Exhibited and whereas the publick good required that the communication between this State & Long Island should be totally suppressed before I could take the benefit of it by which means I have been extreemly embarrassed. I have indeed (as was then customary) been personally at my own house as a hand on board of Capt. [James] Harrise's privateer on a Reconnoitering expedition & Just found out that I might on my applying again get some relief but before I could proceed General Spencer gave orders of the strictest prohibition. I have indeed in my permitt liberty to pass but one trip but could your Excellency take an intuitive view of my whole line of conduct through the course of the war how far it has been from consulting private interest to the prejudice of the Publick; the complication of my difficulties & the contingency of succeeding on one trip to answer my purpose as the enemy's light horse may at one time Intercept & not at another I can't entertain a doubt but your Excellency in your wisdom & goodness would conclude the solid integrity & vigilance of Capt John Shipman to be such that it would be a relief to me & no prejudice to this State or to the united States to grant me a permitt to go at any time or times under his watchfull inspection. I may not exhaust your Excelency's patience or time as it would do to give a detail of my very extraordinary embarrassments but Sr—you will rest assured that I am a cordial friend to my Country & hope to be treated as Such & that I am with great esteem your Excellency's most Obedt—most Hbl Servt to Comd

Doc. 38—To his Excellency the Govr & the honble, the Council of Safety in the State of Connecticut—The Petition of David Gardiner an Inhabitant of Southold on Long Island in the State of New York, Sheweth That he hath from first to last, during the present war been firmly attached to the American Cause, & particularly so, to the good People of Connecticut, doing them all the friendly offices in his power, & giving all possible Intelligence in order to their safety from the Enemy. That notwithstanding, he hath had his Goods & property lately taken from him by a comissioned Boat Crew from this State, & brot into this State where the same are holden in order for Trial contrary, as the Petr conceives, to the Intention of your honors who never meant to strip Friendly People of all means of Subsistence while they were doing every thing in their Power in behalf of the United States—the Petr therefore begs your Honors to enquire of his Character, & of what he has done, & to grant him permission, at least, if nothing more, to return home to the Island, in order to obtain Evidence preparatory to the Trial of his Cause, which is to be had on the first Wensday in April next & he as in Duty bound shall pray. Doc. 49—To His Excellency Governor Trumbull and the Honorable the Council of Safety of the State of Connecticut—The Memorial of Ebenezer Platt late an Inhabitant of Huntington on Long Island, now Resident in Hartford Humbly sheweth That when the British Troops took possession of Long Island Your Memorialist from his Attachment to American Independence and to avoid British Tyranny and Oppression left the principal part of his Interest (which was very considerable) and fled into this State for Refuge where he has resided during his exile—That so far from adding to the Calamities of his distressed Country by being any way concern'd in carrying on the Illicit Trade, He has not in any Instance violated the Laws of this State prohibiting the same, nor even receiv'd a farthing benefit of his own Estate or from his friends or in any way from the Island since he left it in September 1776. That what Little business he has done since that time has been chiefly in Navigation in which he has been peculiarly unfortunate, and finds it expedient to endeavour to obtain some relief from the Island. He therefore Humbly Prays for Leave to go on to Long Island and bring from thence what Hard money he can procure from his friends there that he may be improving it to his own and Countrys advantage, and hereby pledges his Honor or will give what security shall be thot. necessary that he will not directly or indirectly bring off any British Goods Wares or Merchandize whatever (Coin only excepted)—Your Memorialist flatters himself that your Excellency and the Honorable the Council taking his case into consideration, will from the reasonableness of his request and from motives of Benevolence be induced to grant the Indulgence solicited as it may be advantageous to him in particular, and perhaps to the public in general by bringing into our Country an article so much wanted and so essential for Carrying on the war with our Enemies—And he as in duty bound will ever pray

Hartford Augt 7th. 1781

Sir: As I have repeatedly Obtain'd your Excellency's permission to go to Long Island for the purpose of bringing off what hard money I could Collect from my 'friends there, I can't but express my Gratitude on this occasion, and beg Your Excellency to accept my cordial thanks for those indulgences whereby I have reaped considerable Benefit. for my Attempts were not intirely fruitless: And it is with extreme reluctance that I again trouble your Excellency for the like privilege; but the many difficulties attending the procuring money there rendered it impracticable for me to obtain so large a sum at once as if those obstacles had been remov'd, which makes it necessary for me to renew the attempt in order to fully accomplish my end: I would therefore beg leave to request of Your Excellency further permission to go on said Island and bring therefrom what money I may receive there, with Liberty also to bring off one pair of Pistols, one pair of Bridle Bitts one pair of spurs, one Horse whip & one pocket Book for my own use only, & which cannot be procured here—your Excellency may be Assured that no kind of British Goods whatever shall be brought off by me directly or indirectly but what are here specified—My Situation and Circumstances are such, having the principal part of my property and dependence on the Island where I can receive no benefit from it unless in this way, I find it necessary, and think it my duty to try by every means to procure what money I can from thence that I may be improving it to advantage where it does not interfere with the public good, which I submit to your Excellency's better Judgement. Doc. 55—To his Excellency the Governor and Council of Safety now setting at Hartford—The Memorial of [Dr.] William Lawrance now Resident at Killingsworth humbly Sheweth, That about two years since, he was forced by the Enemy to abandon his Possessions on Long Island and seek Shelter in this State from the merciless Cruelty of the Enemy, that when he left the Island he brought none of his household Furniture with him and has been obliged to his Friends here for the Loan of such Articles as were absolutely necessary for house keeping—That he now thinks it probable he could bring of the Furniture he left behind provided he could obtain Liberty to go over to the Island—He therefore begs your Excellency to grant him Leave and Liberty to go over to said Long Island for the Purpose of bringing from thence his said Household Furniture only and to be under the Direction & Orders of General Ward or such other Person as your Honors shall think fit to appoint—And he as in Duty bound shall ever pray—Dated at Hartford the 30th day of March A D 1781—

The Minute Men, and those Enlisted and to be Enlisted into the Continental Service to be taken from the above.

The Regiment is about two-thirds furnished with bayonets and the others are getting them as fast as they Can Get them made; they are furnished with half pound of powder and two pound of Ball per man, and a Magazine in the Regiment to furnish them with about as much more when it shall be wanted, they are pretty Industrious in fixing their accoutrements, and I hope in a short time they will be tolerably well prepared.

GENERAL SCOTT'S PROVISIONAL BRIGADE

Pursuant to a call of the Continental Congress, the N. Y. Provincial Congress, June 9, 1776, ordered the raising of 3,000 Militia to compose a Brigade for reinforcing the Army at New York; of which John Morin Scott was appointed Brigadier General. On June 10, Samuel Drake, of Westchester Co., was appointed Col. of the Third Regiment of the Brigade; John Hurlburt, of Suffolk Co., Lt. Col.; and Moses Hatfield, of Orange Co., Major. The time of those who enlisted expired Nov. 30, 1776. (Journals of Prov. Cong. pp. 486-488. Also Rev'y Papers 1, 462, 499.)

The 10 Companies in Col. Drake's Regiment were evidently recruited from the three Counties named. Apparently, most of the officers and men came from Col. Smith's Regt., of Suffolk; the 3d Regt., of Orange; and the 3d Regt., of Westchester. Among "Rev'y Papers" there are Muster Rolls of the 5th and 10th Companies; but not of the 4th Company.

The original paper containing the following Rank Roll is in the possession of Miss Antoinette Elmer, Waverly, N. Y.

Sir, this is a List of the men that Belong to my Company & all Exciept one are Equipt and have got some Amunition as to make a Compleat Return at Present I cannot for their is a Considerable Number that have not yet turn'd out. Gen. Woodhull & Coll. Floyd you may remember told the Officers that they Need not be Exact about the Number & from that the Officers have Done nothing about Compleating their Compliment & the Draft that was made to Smittown makes this Company so small.

Joshua Young's [8th] Company [G. 4, 8, 19]

Draughtd and Mustrd as above, viz

[NOTE.—The above comment evidently refers to the date, Aug. 5, 1776, on which the last Muster Roll of Capt. Paul Reeve's Company was signed. See No. 37, above. This is confirmed by the fact that the Muster Roll of Lt. Joshua Young's Company is on the same page of the original which contains the last part of Capt. Paul Reeve's Company.

The Companies of Lt. Joshua Youngs and Capt. Jonathan Bayley were the same. The officers and men were enlisted, originally, in Col. Terry's Regt.; and probably transferred, later, to Col. Smith's Regt. This would seem to be the case, because the Muster Rolls of these Companies form an integral part of Col. Smith's Regimental Papers.

Some doubt exists as to whether the name of William Webb should not appear in the place of William Rogers. This is explained in the biography of William Webb among "The Refugees from Long Island to Connecticut."

A fac-simile of this Muster Roll may be seen on Page 86]

(Original in the Possession of Hon Alfred S. Roe, Worcester, Mass.)

A Peroll of Captain Daniel Roe's Company, 2d Regt. of the New York

Troops Commanded by Colonel James Clinton Esqr. Commencing at the time of Inlistment and ending May 1, 1776:

Daniel Roe, Capt.	William Smith	Moses Simons	Gersham Smith
Jonathan Titus, 1st Lt.	Samuel Talmage	Phenis [Phineas?]	Samuel Fosdick
George Smith, 2d Lt.	Daniel Hammon	Beckwith	John Fosdick
Benjamin Titus, Ens.	Gold Smith Davis	John Fournier	Thomas Vanooser
Phenius Gilder-sleeve, Serjt.	Leodwk Hackstaff	Francis Fournier	Thomas Brevoort
Ebenezer Wood, Serjt.	Joseph Howel	Richard Brown	John Thomas
James Smith, Serjt.	Joseph Horton	John Clarke	Christian Higbie
George Brown, Serjt.	Samuel Corwin	Richard Benjamin	Wm. Smith Scudder
William Yarrington, Corp.	White	James Williamson	George Cook
David Hawkins, Corp.	Samuel Dunn	Selah Conckling	Hosse [Hosea] Lines
Henry Brown, Corp.	Henry Slatterly	Richard Proverst	Nicholas Wickes
Alexand Scudder, Corp.	Joseph Rowland	Ananias Brush	Jonathan Valentine
Nathaniel Phillips, Drum.	Joseph Tucker	Pearse Baker	Daniel Selah
Banabas Reeves, Fife	Jonathan Jayne	Thadius Smith	Israel Smith

	Enos Aldridge	Ebenezer James	Benjamin [L.]
	Gershom Lowin	John Wilson	Hommedieu
	Joseph Lonklin	Isaac Ketcham	Timothy Bennet

[NOTE.—These men evidently belonged to a provisional organization. At the period of their service the Regiments of the N. Y. Line had not been formed. Later, the most of them appeared in those Regiments; and several of them enlisted in more than one Regiment. As a larger number enlisted in the 4th Line than in any other, it seems proper to place them here — especially for the reason that Capt. Daniel Roe and Lt. Jonathan Titus were of the 4th Line.

The beginnings of service bear various dates, from Mar. 1, 1776, on. The periods of service also varied, the extremes being 13 days, and two months and one day. The beginnings of service, the periods of service and the amounts paid are omitted. The total amount paid was £313.3.4, York Currency—£234.17.6, Lawful Money—782 66-72 Dollars.

The original gives very plainly the names, Joseph Lonklin and Ananias Longdon. It is possible that they should be Conklin and Congdon. Gershom Lowin may be Cowen, or Corwin.]

New Hampshire.....	141,885	3.90	4.63	9.39	18,289	4.38	The total of Continental and Militia, in Table 1, is sometimes erroneously given as 395,330. The total of Continental and Militia, in Table 1, credited to New York is 29,843. This figure stood as correct until the discovery of the new documents on which the Second Edition of "New York in the Revolution" is based. On page 15 of that work it is explained that proof had been found that the number should be 51,972. In justice to New York, the last two columns, in Table 2, have been added. At a meeting of the inhabitants of East-Hampton, legally warned by the Trustees, June 17, '74; Eleazer Miller, Esq., Moderator.

1st. Voted, That we will, to the utmost of our abilities, assert, and in a lawful manner, defend the liberties and immunities of British America. That we will co-operate with our Brethren in this Colony in such measures as shall appear best adapted to save us from the burdens we fear, and in a measure already feel, from the principles adopted by the British Parliament, respecting the Town of Boston in Particular, and the British Colonies in North America in General.

2nd. Voted, that a non-importation agreement through the colonies is the most likely means to save us from the present and future troubles.

3d. Voted. That John Chatfield, Esq., Col. Abm. Gardiner, Burnett Miller, Stephen Hedges, Tho's Wickham, Esq., John Gardiner, Esq., and David Mulford be a Standing Committee for keeping up a Correspondence with the City of N. Y., and the Towns of this Colony, and if there is occasion, with other Colonies; and that they transmit a copy of these votes to the Committee of Correspondence for the City of N. Y.

Voted, Unanimously, not one dissenting voice.

Burnet Miller, Town Clerk.

On June 21, 1774, Huntington at a Town Meeting, put forth its declaration of rights as follows:

1st.—That every freeman's property is absolutely his own, and no man has a right to take it from him without his consent, expressed either by himself or his representatives.

2d.—That therefore all taxes and duties imposed on His Majesty's subjects in the American Colonies by the authority of Parliament are wholly unconstitutional and a plain violation of the most essential rights of British subjects.

3d.—That the act of Parliament for shutting up the port of Boston, or any other means * * * under color of law to compel them or any other of His Majesty's American subjects to submit to Parliamentary taxation, are subversive of their just and constitutional liberty.

4th.—We are of opinion that our brethern of Boston are suffering in the common cause of British America.

5th.—That it is the indispensable duty of all colonies to unite in some effectual measure for the repeal of said act, and every other act of Parliament whereby they are taxed for raising a revenue.

6th.—That in our opinion the most effectual means to this end is to break off all commercial intercourse with Great Britain, Ireland, and the British West India Colonies.

7th.—And we declare ourselves ready to enter into these or such other measures as shall be agreed upon by a general congress of all the colonies.

And, lastly, we appoint Col. Platt Conklin, John Sloss Hobart, Esq., and Thomas Wickes, a committee of this town to act in conjunction with the committees of other towns in the county, to correspond with the committee of New York. [Signed by Israel Wood, President of the Trustees]

After a Conference with the Committee of the Mechanics, the Committee of Correspondence (51, above), of New York City, ordered a poll to be held at the City Hall on Nov. 22, 1774, for the election of 60 persons as a Committee of Observation. The following were unanimously chosen—Isaac Low being Chairman:

NEW-York, Committee Chamber, Wednesday, 26th April, 1775.

The Committee having taken into Consideration the Commotions occasioned by the sanguinary Measures pursued by the British Ministry, and that the Powers with which this Committee is invested, respect only the Association, are unanimously of Opinion, That a new Committee be elected by the Freeholders and Freemen of this City and County, for the present unhappy Exigency of Affairs, as well as to observe the Conduct of all Persons touching the Association; That the said Committee consist of 100 Persons; that 33 be a Quorum, and that they dissolve within a Fortnight next after the End of the next Sessions of the Continental Congress. And that the Sense of the Freeholders and Freemen of this City and County, upon this Subject, may be better procured and ascertained, the Committee are further unanimously of Opinion, That the Polls be taken on Friday Morning next, at 9 o'clock, at the usual Places of Election in each Ward, under the Inspection of the two Vestrymen of each Ward, and two of this Committee, or any two of the four; and that at the said Elections the Votes of the Freemen and Freeholders, be taken on the following Questions, viz. Whether such New Committee shall be constituted; and if Yea, of whom it shall consist. And this Committee is further unanimously of Opinion, That at the present alarming Juncture, it is highly advisable that a Provincial Congress be immediately summoned; and that it be recommended to the Freeholders and Freemen of this City and County, to choose at the same Time that they vote for the New Committee aforesaid, Twenty Deputies to represent them at the said Congress. And that a Letter be forthwith prepared and dispatched to all the Counties, requesting them to unite with us in forming a Provincial Congress, and to appoint their Deputies without Delay, to meet at New York, on Monday the 22d of May next.

By Order of the Committee, Isaac Low, Chairman.

FORMS OF ASSOCIATION

At the suggestion of the Continental Congress, the following Form of Association to support Congress and the Provincial Convention was adopted, by the Freemen, Freeholders, and inhabitants of the city and county of New York, on Saturday, the 29th of April, 1775, and transmitted for signing to all the Counties in the Province:—

Persuaded, that the Salvation of the Rights and Liberties of America, depends, under GOD, on the firm Union of its Inhabitants, in a vigorous Prosecution of the Measures necessary for its Safety; and convinced of the Necessity of preventing the Anarchy and Confusion, which attend a Dissolution of the Powers of Government; We, the Freeholders, and Inhabitants, of _____, being greatly alarmed at the avowed Design of the Ministry, to raise a Revenue in America; and, shocked, by the bloody Scene, now acting in the Massachusetts Bay, DO, in the most solemn Manner resolve, never to become Slaves; and do Associate under all the Ties of Religion, Honour, and Love to our Country, to adopt and endeavour to carry into Execution, whatever Measures may be recommended by the Continental Congress; or resolved upon by our Provincial Convention, for the Purpose of preserving our Constitution, and opposing the Execution of the several arbitrary, and oppressive Acts of the British Parliament; until a Reconciliation between Great-Britain and America, on Constitutional Principles, (which we most ardently Desire) can be obtained; And that we will, in all Things follow the Advice of our General Committee, respecting the Purposes aforesaid, the Preservation of Peace and good Order, and the Safety of Individuals, and private property.

THE ATTITUDE OF KINGS COUNTY

In Gainé's "New York Gazette," of Dec. 9, 1776, will be found the following Memorial, signed by 470 of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Kings County, who may be supposed to comprise most, if not all, those then resident in the County; and what makes it the more extraordinary, is the fact of its adoption some months after the Declaration of American Independence, and the Battle of Long Island. (Thompson's "Long Island," I. 285)

"To his Excellency, William Tryon, Governor, &c.

"We, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Kings County, in the Province of New York, beg leave to congratulate your Excellency on your return to the Capital of your Government, and assure you that we feel the sincerest emotion of pleasure in this happy event, which opens a prospect that we shall once more experience the blessings of peace and security, under His Majesty's auspicious Government and protection. Blessings which we formerly enjoyed under Your Excellency's just and mild Administration; and which we ardently wish to have renewed; persevering in our loyalty and unshaken attachment to our Gracious Sovereign in this time of distress and trial; and anxious to testify our affections for Him, we have embraced the earliest opportunity to petition the King's Commissioners, that they would restore this Country to His Majesty's peace.

"From the well known humanity, benevolence, and enlarged sentiments of His Majesty's Commissioners, we have the most flattering expectation that they will be pleased to restore this District to His Majesty's peace.

"To Your Excellency we naturally look for assistance, and we therefore request that you would be pleased to present our petition to the Commissioners, and desire your utmost influence, that the prayer of it may be granted; as it is our fervent desire, and what we esteem the greatest earthly felicity, to remain subjects of the British Government in union with the present state."

SIGNERS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN QUEENS COUNTY

[NOTE.—The "Q" stands for Quaker; the "R," for Refugee. But, in the latter case, the Refugee may not be identical with the one noted in the Biographical Sketches]

In Jan., 1776, the Association was signed by Col. John Sands, and other inhabitants of Cow Neck, Great Neck, &c., "who lately belonged to the company of Capt. Stephen Thorne."

Declaration of the Inhabitants of Queens County, New York
(American Archives, 4th Series. 4. 203)

Queens County, Long Island, December 6, 1775.

We, freeholders and inhabitants of Queens County, seeing, in common with our fellow-subjects, the deepest anxiety and distress from the most unhappy state of affairs between Great Britain and the American Colonies, and beholding with horror, every appearance of being involved in any the least unfriendly contention with our neighbors, countrymen and fellow subjects, have resolved to take every step in our power to prevent so destructive an event—an event which, if permitted to take place, will introduce misery and distress, and open wounds that many years cannot heal. Impressed with these ideas, and the most friendly disposition towards all our fellow-subjects, we make this public declaration of our sentiments and intentions, by which we hope to obtain the approbation of every real friend of liberty.

We declare that we have not the most distant design or inclination to injure or offend any of our fellow-subjects; but if, in exercising the essential privileges of freemen, we unfortunately differed with our brethren as to the mode of bringing the present troubles to a happy conclusion, we have carefully avoided every ostentatious display of that difference in sentiment and every irritating measure. We wish only to remain in peace, nor have we done aught to interrupt the quiet of others. So far have we been from harbouring a wish to offer violence to any, that we remained a long time destitute of the ordinary means of self-defence. We trusted that as we meant not to injure any man, so none would attempt to injure us. At length, however, we found too much reason to be apprehensive for the safety of ourselves, our families and property. Reports have been circulated, and messages delivered to us, importing that we are to be disarmed, and some of our principal people taken in custody; that we are, in short, to be treated as enemies to our country. We call upon every man who values himself upon the inheritance of an Englishman, to say what he would do in such a case. Would he suffer himself to be disarmed, and tamely confess himself an abject slave? Certainly no. Can any one, then, who feels the spirit of liberty, impose that on us which he had rather die than submit to himself? Can he blame us for doing that which he most surely would do was he in our situation? Impelled by the most powerful arguments of self-defence, we have at last been driven to procure a supply of those means for protecting ourselves, of which we have been, till now, almost totally destitute; but we solemnly declare we procured them for the sole purpose of defending ourselves from insults and injuries.

And as many reports have been propagated, tending to excite the resentment of our countrymen against us, and to represent us as entirely inimical to them, we take this opportunity to declare that all such reports are wicked inventions and void of truth.

To remain peaceable and quiet, we again repeat, is our earnest desire; and breathing the most friendly disposition towards our neighbours, countrymen, and fellow subjects, we entreat them to behold in us those endearing connections, and not suffer a difference in opinion, or mischievous and groundless reports, to hurry them into acts of violence against us, which the laws of God and man will justify us in resisting.

The above declarations are published as containing the sentiments and intentions of a large majority of the inhabitants of the County.

Declaration Signed by Sundry Inhabitants of Queens County, New York.
(American Archives, 4th Series. 4. 858)

January 19, 1776

Whereas we, the subscribers, inhabitants of Queens County, on Long Island, in the Province of New York, have given great uneasiness to the good people of the neighboring Provinces and the Continent in general, by our not choosing a Committee agreeable to the orders of the Continental Congress, by our not paying that attention to the directions of our Provincial Congress, which we ought to have done, and by our opposing the General Instructions of the Continental Congress in almost all of our conduct and actions. Therefore, (In order to relieve the minds of the virtuous inhabitants of America, and those of this County in particular, engaged in the common cause,) we, the subscribers, do most solemnly and sincerely promise, that we will, hereafter, in all cases, implicitly obey all orders and instructions enjoined on us by our Provincial and Continental Congresses,—that we will act in conjunction with the inhabitants of this and the neighboring Provinces, in the defence of American liberty,—that we never will take up arms against the Americans,—and that we will not, directly or indirectly, countenance, aid, assist, or by any means join with, any of his Majesty's troops in the present contest between Great Britain and America.

Oath Subscribed by Sundry Inhabitants of Queens County, New York
Jamaica, Long Island, January 19, 1776

We, the subscribers, in the presence of Almighty God, do most solemnly and sincerely swear, that the fire-arms, side-arms, powder and lead, we respectively delivered up to Col. Heard, and his party, or by them taken from us, are all the fire-arms, side-arms, powder and lead, that belong to us, or that are in our possession or powder; and that we have not destroyed, concealed, or otherwise disposed of, any of our said arms or ammunition, in order to evade or obstruct the execution of Col. Heard's orders from the Continental Congress, for disarming the inhabitants of Queens County, on Long Island, who are disaffected to the opposition now making in America against ministerial tyranny.

(Signed by all of the above persons) [The names on pages 1052 and 1053]

Thompson ("Long Island," 1,202,203) states that the following address was presented to Gov. Tryon by the people of Queens Co., Oct. 21, 1776:—

To his Excellency, William Tryon, Gov. of the Province of N. Y. We, the freeholders and inhabitants of Queens Co., are happy once again to address your Excellency in the Capital of the Province. Anxiously do we look forward to the period when the disobedient shall return to their duty, and the ravages of War cease to desolate this once flourishing country. That we may be restored to the King's most gracious protection, we entreat your Excellency to present our petition, and rely on your known humanity and benevolence for the exertion of your influence in behalf of the well-affected Co. of Queens, that it may again, in the bosom of peace, enjoy the Royal favor, under your Excellency's paternal care and attention. Signed, by desire, and in behalf of the freeholders and inhabitants of Queens Co. David Colden.

SIGNERS OF THE ASSOCIATION IN SUFFOLK COUNTY

[NOTE.—In the following Lists, all were signers of the usual Form of Association, as given in No. 5, above. It will be seen that many signed more than one list. The original documents give many more than are given herein of those who refused to sign. If they reconsidered and signed, their names are given only as signers, below.

While all the other towns have their Lists, it may seem strange that Southold has none. The Southold names may be found in Nos. 10-12, the "County Hall" being in that Town.

The "Q" stands for Quaker; the "R" for Refugee. See the Note in No. 6, above.]

[NOTE.—Nos. 13 to 17, inclusive, relate to certain Militiamen, of Suffolk County, as they were organized in 1775. There is no proof, therein, of Military Service during the War. The documents (Associations. 30: 178, 179, 192, 194) were signed, apparently, without the care that is evident in the other lists. Some of the signers had already refused to sign—thus leading to confusion. Those who finally signed have been given credit therefor in the lists as they appear, below. The lists do not include those who were marked "absent."

The first part of Nos. 13-17 is simply recorded "Suffolk County"; but the latter part is dated "Southold, June 23, 1775. The whole is signed by Col. Phineas Fanning.]

SIR HENRY CLINTON'S SECRET RECORD

[NOTE.—The "Secret Service Record of Private Daily Intelligence" was a very important part of the papers of Sir Henry Clinton. The "Record" was not found until about 100 years after the close of the War; and, even then, but a small portion was recovered. That portion—embracing only the period, Jan. 20, 1781, to July 18, 1781—was published in "The Magazine of American History," beginning in Oct., 1883, and ending in Aug., 1884. The extract, below, is all of the series that directly concerns Long Island and Conn. It appeared in Mar., 1884.]

8th June 1781.

Ebenezer Hathaway (a), who has been for some time a prisoner in Cimberry Mines, says that one Nathaniel Ruggles (b.) who lives at Setal-ket sends over intelligence once every fortnight by Brewster (c.) who comes from Connecticut and lands at the Old Man's. (d.) Ruggles comes to New York frequently. One Clark (e.), who used to trade to Long Island and who has frequently come over with Brewster told him this. Clarke is now a prisoner in the mines.

Hathaway landed at Oyster Ponds and on his way to this place met Major Talmadge and another officer belonging to the rebels at South-hold—he stop'd at a publick house there and was told by a widow woman who keeps it, that Talmadge came over to purchase clothing for the rebel army. Three waggons had sett off that morning for Brooklyn to carry down goods for Talmadge (f.), and the day before three boats loaded had been sent over to Connecticut.

There is a man whose name is Johnson (g.), who passes for a Refugee, and lives at Lloyd's Neck. He is employed by Congress to get intelligence. A Captain Fitch who commands all the rebel whale boats sends over to Johnston and receives the intelligence required.

The informant says the day he was taken by seven rebel whale-boats, one boat went ashore at a place called the Ships Garden and received intelligence from some person who met them. He supposed it to be Johnson.

A Mrs. Sacket whose husband is now in the Mines, told the informant that Cap'n Fitch (h.) told her that he could have any intelligence he wanted from Johnson — That some time ago one Baldwin who was sent out from there on private business was taken up on suspicion of being a spy and that the rebels sent over to Johnson to know whether he was so or not. That Johnson said that he had been employed for that purpose, upon which Baldwin was immediately sent to the mines, where the informant saw him and heard the above from himself also — Mrs. Sackett is daughter to Colo. Palmer who lives with Gen'l. Waterbury at Stamford.

She is intimately acquainted with Fitch and has often heard him speak of Johnson.

FOOT-NOTES IN THE MAGAZINE

a. Ebenezer Hathaway was the captain of the privateer ADVENTURE, captured on the 7th of April, 1781, who, with his crew, was imprisoned in the terrible subterranean prison of Connecticut, "Cimberry," meaning "Simsbury" Mines, or "Newgate of Connecticut," as it was often styled.

b. Nathaniel Ruggles, of "Setalkat," was one of Col. Talmadge's agents to get secret intelligence from New York for the American Commander-in-Chief.

c. Letter from Connecticut, ante, Feb. 4, 1781.

d. "Old Man's," where Brewster usually landed to meet Talmadge's agents, later known as Woodville, and now called by the strange Old Testament name "Mt. Sinai," is on the north shore of Long Island, about three miles east of "Setauket," as that place is now spelled.

e. Clarke was one of the many Connecticut and Long Island people, whose only idea was to make money from both sides.

f. From Brooklyn to Setauket, or "Old Man's," whence they were sent over the Sound to Talmadge.

g. Johnson was one of Col. Talmadge's conduits of information.

h. Capt. Fitch was John Fitch, a Connecticut man, commissioned by Gov. Trumbull, long engaged in the whaleboat plunder and intelligence business — bold, brave, and very successful.

ADDITIONAL FOOT-NOTES

b. Nath'l Ruggles may have been the one of that name who was chairman of the Committee of Guilford, and a Jus. Peace there.

c. Capt. Caleb Brewster was a Refugee to Conn. See Page 278.

e. Clarke. There is nothing to indicate his given name.

g. Johnson. This may have been Samuel, a Refugee from Queens Co. to Conn. See Page 430.

EXTRACTS FROM GEN. WASHINGTON'S ORDER BOOK

Note.—Several years ago the Connecticut Magazine published those parts of Gen. Washington's Order Book which were in the possession of Mrs. Ellen Fellows Brown, a grand-daughter of a member of Geo. Washington's Staff. The Orders commenced about Aug. 4, and extended to about Oct. 1, 1776. The Orders for 13 days — just previous to, during and after, the Battle of Long Island — are given below. The Battle took place on Aug. 27.]

Brigade Orders, Aug. 19th, 1776.

Guard and Fatigue the same as Yesterday.

An Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Smith's Reg't. Orderly Serg't. to attend at Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Glover's Reg't.

Headquarters, August 20th, 1776.

Parole, Hampton, Count'n, Gates.

Nath'l Munn of Cap'n Peters' Com'y, Coll. Reed's Reg't, convicted by a Gen'l Court Martial, whereof Coll. Wyllis was President, of Desertion and Re-enlistment into another Corps; James Mumford, Cap'n Ledyard's Com'y, late Coll. McDougal's Reg't, convicted by the same Court Martial of the Same Crime, Alexander Moor, Cap'n Conway's Com'y, Coll. Wynd's Battallion, convicted by the Same Court Martial of Desertion; Christopher Harper of the Same Company & Battallion, convicted by the Same Court Martial of the Same crime, each of the above Prisoners were Sentenced to Receive 39 Lashes. The Gen'l approves the above Sentences, and orders them executed at Guard Mounting to-morrow morning, at the Usual Place.

The Troops lately arrived are informed that it is contrary to Gen'l Orders to fire in Camp, such Firelocks as are loaded and the charge can not be drawn, are to be discharged at the Retreat beating in a Body, under the Inspection of an Officer, the Officers of such Troops are directed and required to Prevent all other firing in Camp, as it tends to great Disorder.

The Reg'ts of Militia now under Command of Coll. Hinman from Connecticut, are in Case of an Alarm to Parade on the Grand Parade and there wait for Orders.

The Officers who have lately come into Camp are also Informed that it has been found necessary, amidst such frequent changes of Troops, to introduce some distinctions by which their several Ranks may be known, namely, Field Officers were a Pink or red Cockade, the Capt'ns white or Buff, Sub's Green, the Gen'l flatters himself every Gen'l will conform to a Regulation which he has found Essentially necessary, to prevent Mistakes and Confusion.

The Trial of Lt. Hobby is Postponed till tomorrow, The Gen'l Court Martial to Set on Thursday as a Court of Enquiry into the Conduct of Adj't Brice of Coll. Smallwood's Battallion, charged with Disobedience of Orders and disrespectful Behaviour to his Commanding Officer.

The Gen'l being Informed, to his great Surprise, that a Report prevails, and is Industiously spread far and wide, that Lowd Howe has made Propositions of Peace, calculated by designing Persons most probably to lull us into fatal Security, his duty Obliges him to declare that no such Offer has been made by Lord Howe, but on ye Contrary from the best Intelligence he can procure, the Army may expect an Attack as soon as the wind and tide shall prove favourable; he hopes therefore every Man's mind and Arms will be prepared for Action, and when called to it, Show our Enemies, & the whole World, that Freemen contending on their own Land are Superior to any Mercenaries on Earth.

The Brigadiers are to see the spears in the different Works under their Command kept greased and clean.

Gen'l Sullivan is to take the Command on Long Island till Gen'l Green's State of health will permit him to assume it, and Brigadier Lord Sterling is to take charge of Gen'l Sullivan's Division till he returns to it again. Edward Tilghman, Esq. is appointed as Assistant Brigade Maj'r to Lord Sterling, the duty of the whole Division being to great for one Officer, he is to be obeyed and Respected

Brigade Orders, Aug. 20th, 1776.

That there may be the greater regularity in time of Action, the Gen'l directs that the Reg'ts commanded by Colls. Holman, Cary & Smith be divided into Grand Divisions, Sub Divisions and Platoons, that Proper Officers be Assigned to each Division, who shall have Immediate Command of the Same, Subject to the Command of their Superior Officers.

Guard and Fatigue as yesterday, Officer of the Day Coll. Smith, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Cary's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Reg't.

Head Quarters, Aug. 21st, 1776.

Parole, Count'n.

Adjutant Taylor to do the Duty of Brigade Maj'r to Gen'l McDougal's Brigade, during Maj'r Platt's Illness, he is to be obeyed and Respected accordingly.

Lt. Hobby of Capt'n Hyatt's Com'y, Reg't late Coll. McDougal's, tried by a Gen'l Court Martial, whereof Coll. Wyllis was President, for Misbehaviour in leaving one of the Hulks in the North River, was acquitted, and the Complaint Reported Groundless, Ordered that he be discharged from his Arrest.

A Court of enquiry to Set on Friday, at Mr. Montany's upon Capt'n McCleave, Stanton and Tinker, charged with backwardness in Duty up the North River, last Friday Week, and Misbehaviour on Sunday last, when the Men of War came down the River. Court to consist of the following Persons, and meet at 10 o'clock,—

Gen'l McDougal, President.	Lt. Coll. Wilson,	Capt'n VanDyke.
Coll. Malcomb,	Maj'r Brooks.
Lt. Coll. Sheppard,	Capt'n Peters,

Fifty Men properly officered to Parade every Morning at 6 o'clock at Gen'l Putnam's then to take orders from him, not to bring Arms, they are to continue every Day till further Orders. 50 Men also for Fatigue to Parade tomorrow morning, Properly Officered, on the Grand Parade without Arms, to take Orders from Capt'n Post. 10 Men with one Sub., who have been used to the Sea, to Parade at Gen'l Putnam's this afternoon at 2 o'clock, to proceed to Kings Bridge up the North River, with 3 Days Provision, the like number for the same Purpose to Parade tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock at Gen'l Putnam's Quarters, take 3 Days Provision, both Parties Parade without Arms. 20 Men with a Sub. to Parade for Fatigue to-morrow morning, without Arms, on the Grand Parade, to proceed to Byard's Hill & work upon the Hill, to take Orders from the Person who has the direction of Digging the Well.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 21st, 1776.

For Guard and Fatigue the same as Yesterday. Officer of the Day tomorrow, Lt. Coll. Johonot, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Smith's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Cary's Reg't.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 22nd, 1776.

For Guard and Fatigue as Yesterday. Officer of the Day Lt. Coll. Raymond, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Glover's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Reg't.

The Gen'l directs that for the future the Adjutants cause a list of the names of the Men turned out for Fatigue to be given every morning to the Cap'n or Commanding Officer of the Fatigue Party, that such Officers call the Roll of those Men, in the morning, when he Dismisses at noon, when going out to Labour in the afternoon, and when the Men are Dismissed at night, and that all those who shall be Absent at Roll calling be confined for Punishment.

Parole, Johnson, Count'n, Kingstown.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 23rd, 1776.

For Guard and Fatigue the same as Yesterday.

Mr. Scott of Coll. Glover's Reg't, during the time ye Reg't Remains in this Brigade to act as Drum Maj'r of the Brigade, he is to be obeyed and respected accordingly, and will see that the Drummers turn out and attend at Head Quart's as heretofore ordered.

Officer of the Day tomorrow, Lt. Coll. Longley, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Smith's.

Head Quarters, Aug. 23rd, 1776.

Parole, Charlestown, C. Sign, Lee.

The Commissary Gen'l is directed to have 5 days hard bread baked and ready to be delivered. If the Commissarys should apply to the Commanding Officers of Regiments for any Bakers, they are to furnish them without waiting for a special order.

The Gen'l was Sorry, Yesterday, to find when some Troops were ordered to March, they had no Provisions, notwithstanding the orders that have been Issued, the Men must March if the Service requires it, and will Suffer very much if not Provided, the Gen'l therefore directs all the Troops to have two Days hard Bread & Pork ready by them, and desires the Officers will go through the Incampment and Quarters, and see that it be got & kept.

The Gen'l would be obliged to any Officer, to recommend to him a carefull, Sober Person, who understands taking care of Horses, and waiting occasionally, such Person being a Soldier will have his pay continued and receive additional Wages of 20/s. pr. Month; he must be neat in his person, and to be depended on for his honesty and Sobriety.

The Officers of the Malitia are Informed that twenty-four rounds are allowed to a Man, & two Flints, that the Captains of each Com'y should see that Cartridges fit the Boars of the Gun, they are to be put up in small Bundels, all the Cartridges except six, writing each Man's name on the Bundle, and keep them safely till the Alarm is given, then deliver to each man his Bundle, the other six to be kept for common Use; in drawing for Ammunition, the Commanding Officer should, upon the Regimental Parade, examine the state of their Reg'ts and their draw for Cartridges and Flints, agreeable to the above Regulation. Capt'n Felton will assist them in the Business, and unless in Case of an Alarm they are desired not to draw for every small number of Men who may be coming in.

The Enemy have now landed on long Island, and the Hour is fast approaching, in which the Honour and Success of this Army, and the Safety of our Blessing Country depends, remember, Officers and Soldiers, that you are Freemen fighting for the Blessing of Liberty, that Slavery will be your Portion, and that of your Posterity, if you do not acquit yourselves like Men. Remember how your Courage and Spirits have been despised and traduced by your cruel Invasion, tho' they have found by Dear Experience, at Boston, Charlestown, and other Places, what a few Brave Men contending on their own Land, in the best of Causes, can do ag't base Hirelings and Mercenaries. Be cool, but determined, don't fire at a distance, but wait for orders from your Officers.

It is the Gen'l's express Orders, that if any Man attempt to skulk, lie down or Retreat without orders, he be Instantly Shot down as an example, he hopes no such Scoundrel will be found in this Army, but on the contrary, every one for himself resolving to conquer or Die, and trust in the Smiles of Heaven upon so just a Cause, will behave with bravery and Resolution, those who are distinguished for their Gallantry and good Conduct may depend upon being honourably noticed and Suitably rewarded, and if the Army will but emulate and Immitate their brave Countrymen in other parts of America, he has no doubt but they will, by a Glorious Victory, save their Country, and acquire to themselves Immortal Honour.

Brigade Maj'rs are Immediately to Relieve the Guards out of the Reg't ordered to Long Island from other Reg'ts of the Brigades, and forward such Guards to the Reg'ts.

Maj'r Newberries, Coll. Hinman's, Maj'r Smith's Coll. Cook's, Coll. Talcott's, Coll. Baldwin's & Maj'r Strong's Reg'ts of Connecticut Malitia to Parade this Evening Precisely at 5 o'clock, on the Grand Parade, Maj'r Henley will attend and show them their Alarm Posts, & direct them in manning the lines.

When any of the Field Officers for the Picquet or Main Guard are Sick or otherwise Incapable of the Duty, they are immediately to certify it to their Brigade Maj'rs, but the Gen'l hopes that trifling Excuses will not be made, as their is too much reason to believe has been the Case.

Head Quarters, Aug. 24th, 1776.

Parole, Jamaica. C. Sign, London.

All the Intrenching Tools are to be collected and delivered into the Store this Evening, Officers who have given Rec. will be called upon, as they are answerable for them, if there should be any Deficiency.

The Gen'l has appointed Will'm Grason Esq. one of his Aide Camps, he is to be obeyed and Respected accordingly.

In Case of an Attack't any Order delivered by Coll. Moylan, Quart'r Master Gen'l, as from ye Gen'l, to be considered as coming from him, or as delivered by an Aide Camp.

The Adj'ts of ye Connecticut Malitia are desired to make themselves acquainted with Parapet firing, and the other Officers of those Corps would do well to attend to it, and Practice their Men every Day, their honour and Safety will much depend upon their avoiding any Confusion in Manning of Lines.

The Court Martial of which Coll. Wyllis was President is Desolved. Brigade Majors, in forming a new one, to be carefull to have it full, and of Officers who can attend. The Court Martial to proceed, at their first Sitting, to the Trial of Adj't Brice of Coll. Smallwood's Battallion, charged with disobedience of orders.

The Changing of Reg'ts occasioning some Difficulty in the Duty, the Brigade Majrs are to send by the orderly Serg'ts every morning, a Duty Return of ye Officers & Men, in their Respective Brigades.

The Passage of the East River being obstructed in such a manner with Chivaux De Frize &c. as to render it Dangerous for any Vessels to attempt to pass, the Centries along the River contiguous to where the obstructions are placed, are to Hail and Prevent any Vessels attempting to pass otherwise than between the Albany Pier and a Mast in the River which appears above Water, nearly opposite to it.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 24th, 1776.

For Guard and Fatigue as Yesterday.—Officer of the day Maj'r Lee. Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Cary's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Glover's Reg't.

Head Quarters, Aug. 25th, 1776.

Parole, New Castle; Countersign, Paris.

A special Court Martial to set this Day at 12 o'clock, at Mrs. Montanier's, for the trial of Lt. Coll. Tedwitz, charged with carrying on a Treasonable Correspondence with the Enemy, to be composed of a Brigadier-Gen'l and 12 Field Officers, Gen'l Wadsworth to Preside.

The Gen'l order against working on Sunday is Revoked, the time not admitting of any delay.

The same number of Fatigue to turn out as Yesterday, this afternoon at 3 o'clock, as well Malitia as other Troops, Coll. Smallwood to Command Lord Sterling's Brigade during his absence on Long Island.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 25th, 1776.

For Guard and Fatigue tomorrow the same as Yesterday. Officer of the Day tomorrow Maj'r Sears. Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Col. Smith's Reg't. For Brigade head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Regiment.

Head Quarters, Aug. 26th, 1776.

600 Men properly officered from Gen'l Woolcott's Brigade to Parade tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock on the grand Parade, without Arms, for Fatigue; 400 to take directions from Gen'l McDougall & 200 from Lt. Fish, & the same number to be continued till the Works are completed, to leave work at Young Flood & go on again at ye Ebb.

The Gen'l is very Anxious for the State of the Arms, and Ammunition, the frequent Rains giving too much Reason to fear they may suffer, he therefore earnestly enjoins Officers & Men to be particularly attentive to it, and have them in the Best order.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 26th, 1776.

Guard and Fatigue as Yesterday. Officer of the Day tomorrow, Maj'r Payne, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Glover's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Cary's Reg't.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 27th, 1776.

The Guards to Consist of 63 Privates officered as Usual. For Fatigue as Yesterday.

The Gen'l is surprised to find that great numbers of the Arms in his Brigade are foul and unfit for Service, that care is not taken to get Cartridges fit for their Guns, Notwithstanding the frequent Gen'l Orders respecting those Matters; he therefore Enjoins it upon all the Officers, carefully to Inspect & examine the Arms and Ammunition of those under their Command respectively, every other day, & after every spell of foul Weather, see that they are kept clean, in good order, their Ammunition Dry, & that their Cartridges fit their Guns, the Coll. or Commanding Officer of each Reg't will see this order executed in their respective Reg'ts. The Gen'l also expects that the Colonels, or Commanding Officers of the Reg'ts, will see that those under their Command, who are not on Duty, are Suitably exercised every afternoon.

Officer of the Day tomorrow, Maj'r Wheelock, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Smith's Reg't.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 28th, 1776.

Parole, ; *Countersign,

Guards & Fatigues as Yesterday. Officer of the Day tomorrow, Coll. Glover, Orderly Serg't for head Quarters from Coll. Cary's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade Head Quarters from Coll. Glover's Reg't.

Brigade Orders, Aug. 29th, 1776.

Parole, ; Countersign,

Guards and Fatigues as usual. Officer of the Day tomorrow, Coll. Holman, Orderly Serg't for Head Quarters from Coll. Smith's Reg't, Orderly Serg't for Brigade head Quarters from Coll. Holman's Reg't.

Head Quarters, Aug. 30th, 1776.

Parole, Liberty; Countersign, Hancock.

All Commanding Officers of the Reg'ts are to Parade on their Regimental Parade this Evening at 5 o'clock, examine the State of their Men's Ammunition and Arms, get them in the best order, all Damaged Cartridges are to be returned, & in this case fresh ones drawn without further order, the Return of the Reg't to be made as soon and as exact as possible. No argument can be necessary, at such a time as this, to induce all Officers to Strict attention to their Duty.

The Constant firing in the Camp, (notwithstanding repeated orders to the Contrary), is very Scandalous, and Seldom a Day Passes, but some Persons are Shot by their Friends, once more, therefore, the Gen'l In-treats the Officers to prevent it and call upon the Soldiers to forbear this Practice. Pieces that can not be drawn are to be discharged in a Volley at Retreat Beating, and not otherwise, and then by Command of their Officer.

The loss of two Gen'l Officers by the late Action having occasioned a necessary change in the Brigades, the Brigade Maj'rs are to attend at 10 o'clock tomorrow, to receive a New arrangement. As the Tents are Wet, and the Weather unfavorable, the Troops are to Remain in the City till further Orders. Those not supplied with Barracks to apply to Mr. Bow-back, Barrack Master, Officers & Men are charged to see as little damage as possible done to Horses where they are Quartered.

Gen'l Wadsworth to send 2 Reg'ts from his Brigade to Reinforce Coll. Sergeant at Horse's Head as soon as possible.

In case of an Alarm this Evening, which may be expected from the nearness of the enemy, and their expectation of taking advantage of the late Rains, and last Night's Fatigue, the following disposition is to take place, and the Regiments are to Parade accordingly, Gen'l Mifflin to Parade on the Grand Parade, they are then to Join the Reg'ts lately composing Ld. Sterling's Brigade, and the whole to Parade on the Parade lately assigned by him to them, then they are to Act under Gen'l Mifflin, as a Reserve Corps.

The Reg'ts of Gen'l Nixon's Brigade are to Join Gen'l Spencer's Division, who will assign them their Alarm Posts, The Jersey Troops to Join McDougal's Brigade, and Parade at or near s'd Gen'l's.

Head Quarters, Aug. 31st, 1776.

Major Levington, charged with having ordered a Negro to fire on a Soldier of Coll. Newcomb's Reg't, is ordered to be confined & brought to Trial, But the Gen'l is sorry to see Soldiers defending their Country, in time of eminent Danger, Rioting and attempting to do themselves

Justice. The Plunderers of Ld. Sterling's House are ordered to Restore to the Quart'r Mast's Gen'l what they have taken. In failure whereof they will Certainly be hanged.

It is the Gen'l's Order that the Remainder of Luty Catlin's Battalion be Joined to Coll. Hand's Battalion, that Maj'r Hays be also under the Special Command of Coll. Hand, that then those Battalions with Coll. Shee's, Coll. Magaws, Coll. Hutchinson's, Coll. Atlee's, Coll. Miles's and Coll. Ward's Regiments be Brigaded under Gen'l Mifflin, & those now here March as soon as possible to Kings Bridge. The Quart'r Master will supply Waggon's, if to be spared, if not to apply to Lt. Archibald on the North River Boat Station, or Ensign Allen on the East, who will supply Boats, a careful Officer with a Small Guard to attend them. Maj'r Lord will supply from Gen'l Woolcot's Brigade an Officer and 6 Men to each Boat, to bring Boats Back, except those that are ordered to stay.

The Gen'l acquaints the Army that ye Removal from Long Island was made by the Unanimous advice of all the Gen'l Officers, not from any Doubt of the Spirit of the Troops, but because they found the Troops were very much Fatigued with hard Duty, and Divided into many Detachments, while the Enemy had their Main Body on the Island, and capable of receiving assistance from their Shipping, in these Circumstances it was thought unsafe to Transport the whole or our Army on an Island, or to Engage them with a part, and therefore unequal numbers, Whereas now our whole Army is Collected together, without intervening Water, the Enemy can receive little Assistance from their Ships, their Army is and must be divided into many Bodies and Fatigued with keeping up a Communication with their Ships, whereas ours is Connected, and can Act together and they must Effect a landing under so many Disadvantages that if Officers and Soldiers are Vigilant & Alert to Prevent Surprise, and Act with Spirit when they approach, there is no doubt of our Success.

Ebenezer Gray is appointed Brigade Maj'r to Gen'l Persons.

GEN. WASHINGTON TO THE N. Y. COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.

(Wood's "First Settlements on Long Island," p. 136)

Three days after the Battle of Long Island Abraham Yates, Jr., of the New York Committee of Safety, wrote to Washington from King's Bridge stating that the Committee had ordered out the Militia in all the Counties near New York City. On the same day Washington sent this reply:

August 30th, 1776.

Sir—Your favor of this date is just come to hand. Circumstanced as this army was, in respect to situation, strength, &c. it was the unanimous advice of a council of general officers, to give up Long Island, and not by dividing our force, be unable to resist the enemy in any one point of attack. This reason, added to some others, particularly the fear of having our communication cut off from the main of which there seemed to be no small probability, and the extreme fatigue our troops were laid under in guarding such extensive lines without proper shelter from the weather, induced the above resolution.

It is the most intricate thing in the world, sir, to know in what manner to conduct one's self with respect to the militia. If you do not begin many days before they are wanted to raise them, you cannot have them in time. If you do, they get tired and return, besides being under very little order or government whilst in service.

However, if the enemy have a design of serving us at this place, as we apprehend they meant to do on Long Island, it might not be improper to have a body in readiness, to prevent or retard a landing of them east of Harlaem river, if need be.

In haste, and not a little fatigued, I remain, with great respect and esteem, Sir, your most obedient humble servant,

George Washington.

The hon. Abraham Yates, Esq.

GEN. WASHINGTON TO MAJ. TALLMADGE RELATIVE TO SPIES

(Original owned by Mrs. Constance Towne, of Stamford, Conn.)

Head Quarters Middle Brook 17th Decemr 1778

Dear Sir: I have your fav of the 11th inclosing a letter from C——. When I desired an interview with him I did not know his peculiar Situation. I now see the danger that so long an absence would incur, and I must leave it intirely to you to manage the Correspondence in Such a manner as will most probably ensure Safety to him and answer the desired end.

I am Dear Sir Your most obt Servt.

Camp Aug. 25th 1778

Sir: I shall be glad to see you upon the business mentioned in yours of this date. If Colo. Sheldon is acquainted with W—— and the circumstances, as you have related them to me, let him come also— You should be perfectly convinced of the Integrity of W—— previous to his imbarking in the business proposed—this being done I shall be happy in employing him—but there will be an impropriety in his coming with you to head Quarters, as a knowledge of the circumstance in the enemy might blast the whole design.

You will let me see you this afternoon—if you can come to Dinner at three O'clock I shall be glad of yr Companies.

I am Sir yr very Hble Servt

It would be easy to add 12 or 15 names to Wood's list of Congregational and Presbyterian Ministers on L. I. before the Rev'y War. Apparently, he gives only the Ministers in the Town centers. He leaves out: Bridge Hampton (Ebenezer White, Elisha Paine and James Brown); Oyster Ponds (Jonathan Barber); Cutchogue (Ebenezer Gould and Thomas Paine); Mattituck (Joseph Lamb, Joseph Parks, Nehemiah Barker, Jesse Ives and John Davenport); Lower Aquebogue (Nathaniel Mather and Benjamin Goldsmith); and Upper Aquebogue (Joseph Lee, Timothy Symmes and Timothy Wells). PRESBYTERIANS vs CONGREGATIONALISTS

(See Pages 149, 150)

The following interesting letters were received from Ephraim Whitaker, D. D., Pastor Emeritus of the Presbyterian Church at Southold, L. I.; Williston Walker D. D., Professor of Church History at the Divinity School, Yale University; and Charles E. Craven, D. D., Pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Mattituck, L. I.

Frederic G. Mather, Esq.,

Southold, N. Y., Jan. 11, 1912.

My dear Friend.—Your statement sent to me in relation to Presbyterians and Congregationalists on Long Island seems to me fair, and sufficient for all who have any considerable knowledge of the early history of the Puritan Churches of New England and Long Island. All these early Churches were neither Presbyterian nor Congregational in the general meaning of those words in their present use. They were Town Churches; i. e. Civil Government Churches. The Civil Government gave to the Pastors a settlement. Southold, for instance, gave to the Rev. Joshua Hobart, its second Pastor, a costly dwelling house, and land enough to make him a prominent man among its more wealthy citizens. This settlement was to enable him to give his time, thought and work to the moral and religious education and culture of the people. The Town collected a tax from the citizens and paid the Pastor his salary. The bond of union of these Churches was the Civil Government of the Colony over all the Towns.

With grateful acknowledgment of your courtesy, believe me,

Yours truly, Ephraim Whitaker.

My dear Mr. Mather:—

New Haven, Conn., January 17, 1912.

I have glanced over with interest the section of Chapter 16 which you enclosed. I am not very familiar with Long Island history; but I have always supposed that the change of the Congregational Churches of Long Island to Presbyterian affiliations was largely due to the cordiality and nearness of Presbyterian associations in Colonial days, and after the establishment of the United States.

The possession of elders was not peculiar to Presbyterians. All the early Congregational Churches had ruling elders, as they were called; though the difference between Presbyterianism and Congregationalism was that Congregationalism was uncertain whether these elders were ministers or laymen, whereas Presbyterianism was quite convinced that they were laymen. In the case of Congregationalism, as in that of Presbyterianism, their primary work was that of discipline. In the Congregational Churches they died out, in most instances, with the passing away of the first, or at most with the second, generation; though, in a few instances, they continued much longer. But all the Congregational Churches had ruling elders at the beginning. Their normal officers were Pastor, teacher, ruling elder or elders, and deacons. So that I do not think that that can be made the ground of distinction.

On the other hand, after the formation of the Saybrook Platform in Connecticut, in 1708, the Churches of Connecticut felt more sympathy in some respects with the Presbyterian Churches of the Middle States than they did with the Congregationalism of Massachusetts. The chief distinction between them and the Presbyterianism of the Middle States was that Presbyterianism had a more elaborate system of courts. For instance, the Presbyterian scheme included a Session in the local congregation, a Presbytery higher than that, and a Synod above that, with ultimately, though not at first in this country, a General Assembly. The Saybrook system had no Session in the local congregation; but it had what roughly corresponded to the Presbytery, in an organization that did not exist in Massachusetts, viz., that called a Consociation. That is, the Churches and Ministers of the County, or a part of a County (e. g., Fairfield, East and West), were united for disciplinary purposes in a Consociation, including the Pastor of each Church and a representative from each Church in the district. To this body, and to no other, were cases of discipline appealed from particular Churches, referred. So far did this sympathy with Presbyterianism go that, in 1766, an annual Joint Convention of representatives of the Synod of New York and Philadelphia and the Associations of Connecticut was formed which met regularly until 1775. This was designed to oppose possible attack from Episcopal sources in England; and necessity for it passed away with the Revolution. Its Minutes were published in 1843, at Hartford, by the Rev. David D. Field, as "Minutes of the Convention of Delegates from the Synod of New York and Philadelphia and the Associations of Connecticut." In 1799, the Hartford North Association voted formally "That the Constitution of the Churches of the State of Connecticut . . . is not Congregational, but contains the essentials of the Church of Scotland or Presbyterian Church in America, particularly as it gives a decisive power to Ecclesiastical Councils; and a Consociation consisting of Ministers and messengers, or a lay representation from the Churches is possessed of substantially the same authority as a Presbytery." In 1790, the General Association of Connecticut voted that a further degree of union with the Presbyterians was desirable; and, in 1792 and 1793, the General Association of Connecticut and the Presbyterian General Assembly began an exchange of delegates. The Congregational Churches of Connecticut were popularly known as Presbyterian; and in the first Hartford Directory, for instance, which, as I recollect it, is of 1826, the Churches appear as North Presbyterian, Brick Presbyterian, etc. So far as I am aware, a good many of the Churches of Long Island retained their Congregationalism down into the nineteenth century. The best account that I know of these Churches, which is a brief one, is in George Punchard's "History of Congregationalism." Boston 1880. Vol. 4, pp. 441-468.

Yours sincerely, Williston Walker.

My dear Mr. Mather:

Mattituck, N. Y., Jan. 10th, 1912.

On Long Island the apparent readiness to adopt the Presbyterian form was true as to some Churches: Southampton, Setauket, Hempstead, Jamaica and Mattituck. But it was not true in Southold, which did not join the Presbytery until 1832; or Orient, which is still Congregational; or Cutchogue, Cong'l until 1848; or Shelter Island, Cong'l until 1812; or Sag Harbor, Cong'l until 1811; or Huntington, Cong'l until 1748, 30 years after its first opportunity. The fact seems to be that all these Churches had both elements in them; in some pretty evenly divided, in some one or the other element preponderating. In the Hamptons and Setauket, the Presbyterians evidently preponderated. In Southold, the Congregationalists did. My supposition as to Southold Town is that the people who came from the old village to settle Mattituck, in 1661, were the Presbyterian part of the Church. They joined the Presbytery at the first opportunity; while the old Church and its other daughters held to their Independency for years, although they were generally served by Presbyterian Ministers who tried to carry them into the Presbytery.

Some years ago, I prepared for the Manual of our Presbytery this historical sketch:—

The Presbytery of Long Island was one of the four bodies into which the original Presbytery of Philadelphia resolved itself in 1716 to form the Synod of Philadelphia. The Rev. George McNish, of Jamaica, the Rev. Samuel Pumry, of Newtown, and the Rev. George Phillips, of Setauket, constituted the Presbytery, and ordained and installed Samuel Gelston in Southampton and Joseph Lamb in Mattituck within the first year. The Presbytery was further increased in 1717 by the settlement of the Rev. James Anderson in New York City. The records of the Presbytery were reviewed by the Synod year after year, but are lost. In 1738 the Presbytery of Long Island, "being reduced so that a quorum cannot stately meet about business," was united with the Presbytery of East Jersey to form the Presbytery of New York. There were many churches on the Island but most of them were independent.

On April 8th, 1747, six ministers of Suffolk County met at Southampton and constituted the Suffolk Presbytery. From that date we have continuous presbyterian records. In 1749 the Suffolk Presbytery joined the Synod of New York. In 1789, by action of the Synod of New York and New Jersey, the Suffolk Presbytery became the Presbytery of Long Island.

The Presbytery of Long Island at its organization in 1790 consisted of twelve ministers and the following thirteen churches: Newtown, Huntington, Hempstead, Jamaica, Smithtown, Brookhaven (Setauket), South Haven, Bridgehampton, West Hampton, Southampton, East Hampton, Aquabogue (Jamesport), and Mattituck. The ministers of Southold, Oyster Ponds (Orient), and Cutchogue were members, but their churches were independent though affiliated with the Presbytery.

In 1832 the Presbytery was divided, the western churches being set apart as the Second Presbytery of Long Island. At the rending of the church in 1837 the Presbytery of Long Island adhered to the New School Assembly. In 1839 the five churches south of Peconic Bay with their ministers became the Presbytery of Long Island (O. S.), and, two years later, were united with the Second Presbytery, forming the Presbytery of Long Island (O. S.). The ministers and churches north of Peconic Bay continued as the Presbytery of Long Island (N. S.). At the Reunion of 1870 the Western part of the Old School Presbytery became the Presbytery of Nassau; the eastern part, with the new school body, formed the present Presbytery of Long Island.

Sincerely yours,

Charles E. Craven.

APPENDIX I

Civil and Military Biographies — Addenda — Errata.

CIVIL AND MILITARY BIOGRAPHIES

The following brief Biographical Sketches bring together, in one place, nearly all the activities of those named therein — activities in various lines, as described in the preceding pages of this work. The Sketches are limited, almost exclusively, to such activities. Therefore, but little is related which can be found in Biographies already published.

In these Sketches, references to the several Appendixes are not made as in Part One — (Appendix A. 16, or Ap. A. 16); but simply — (A.16).

[NOTE.—The consecutive numbers are for convenience, in reference.]

I

ALLEN ETHAN, COL.—He was b. at Litchfield, Conn., Jan. 10, 1737. In early life, he removed to Bennington, Vt., then in territory claimed by both N. Y. and N. H. He took sides against N. Y., and he was really an outlaw in N. Y. when he captured Ticonderoga, in 1775. (Pages 22, 23) His "Green Mountain Boys" then became a part of the Militia of N. Y. (G. 55) He operated in the Northern Dept. (Pages 25, 26) In Sept., 1775, he was captured, and sent, as a Prisoner, to England, Halifax and New York. In May, 1778, he was a Prisoner on L. I. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n."); but he was soon exchanged. The Cont'l Cong. made him a Lt. Col. in the Cont'l Army. After the peace, while a Member of the U. S. Cong., he secured the recognition of Vt. as an independent State. See Lossing's "Field Book," 1. 161, 180. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 307. He d. Feb. 13, 1785. His portrait and autograph are on Page 22. The portrait is taken from his statue in Montpelier, Vt.

Always a picturesque figure, he was never more so than when he was a Prisoner. (Pages 126, 387) Soon after the Evacuation of N. Y. City, he visited Rivington, the Tory printer, "for the purpose of administering a licking." Rivington described the interview thus:

I was sitting alone after a good dinner, with a bottle of Madeira before me, when I heard an unusual noise in the street and a huzza from the boys. I was in the second story, and stepping to the window, I saw a tall figure in tarnished regimentals, with a large cocked hat and an enormous long sword, followed by a crowd of boys, who occasionally cheered him with huzzas of which he seemed insensible. He came up to my door and stopped. I could see no more; my heart told me it was Ethan Allen; I shut my window and retired behind my table and bottle. I was certain that the hour of reckoning had come. There was no retreat. Mr. Staples, my clerk, came in paler than ever, and clasping his hands, said: "Master, he has come." "I know it." "He entered the store and asked if James Rivington lived there. I answered, 'Yes sir.' Is he at home?" "I will go and see, sir," I said; and now, Master what is to be done? There he is at this very moment in the store, and the boys are peeping at him from the street." I had made up my mind. I looked at the Madeira—possibly took a glass. "Show him up," I said, "and if such Madeira cannot mollify him, he must be harder than adamant." There was a fearful moment of suspense. I heard him on the stairs, his long sword clanking at every step. In he stalked. "Is your name James Rivington?" "It is, sir, and no man can be more happy to see Colonel Ethan Allen." "Sir I have come —" "Not another word, Colonel, until you have taken a seat and a glass of old Madeira." "But, sir, I don't think it proper —" "Not another word, Colonel; taste this wine; I have had it in glass ten years. Old wine, you know, unless it is originally sound, never improves by age." He took the glass, swallowed the wine, smacked his lips and shook his head approvingly. "Sir, I come —" "Not another word, until you have taken another glass, and then, my dear Colonel, we will talk of the old affairs; and I have some queer events to detail"; in short, we finished two bottles of Madeira, and parted as good friends as if we never had cause to be otherwise.

ALLISON WILLIAM, COL.—He commanded the 3d Orange. (G. 74) Later, he had the title of Gen. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n—Spt.," p. 202) He advanced money to the State of N. Y. (Same ref., p. 168) Tea, which had been captured from the enemy, was distributed by him to the several Regts. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 30. 43) The Prov'l Cong. gave him money to buy saltpetre. (Page 108) He carried money to Orange Co., N. Y., for the expenses of the British Prisoners. (Rev'y MSS., 50. 31) His chief work was to better the condition of the American Prisoners. He helped them in various ways. ("Spt.," as above, p. 33) As a Prisoner on L. I., he helped Gov. Clinton to raise money for his fellow Prisoners. (Pages 123, 124, 136) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 308. His autograph is on page 123.

ARMSTRONG JOHN, BRIG. GEN.—He was b. in Penn., Nov. 25, 1758; and was known as "the boy soldier." He was a Capt., at 16. (Booth's "Hist. N. Y. City," p. 831) At 18, he was a Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army; but resigned after a brief service. (Page 87) He took part in the Battles of Saratoga and Brandywine. (Page 76) Afterward, he was made Adjt. Gen. of the Southern Army. His valuable services in the Rev'y War and in the War of 1812 are described in Lossing's "Field Book," 1. 674, 675 and 2. 109, 110. See also "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 366. He d. Apr. 1, 1843.

John Armstrong

ARNOLD BENEDICT, MAJ. GEN.—He was b. at Norwich, Conn., Jan. 3, 1740. In early life, he was a druggist and book-seller in New Haven, Conn. Many relics of those days are in the New London Co., Conn., Hist'l. Soc'y. (Page 198) As Capt. of a Company, he marched to Cambridge after the Lexington Alarm. (Page 22) He was with Allen at Ticonderoga (Pages 22, 24, 26); and with Montgomery before Quebec. (Page 25) In Oct., 1776, his Fleet checked Carleton, on Lake Champlain. (Page 60) In the next year, he did splendid service at Ft. Schuyler and Saratoga. (Pages 66, 73) He was Military Gov. of Philadelphia, in 1778. (Page 78) He was made a Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Jan. 10, 1776; and a Maj. Gen., Feb. 17, 1777. He held the latter office until his desertion, at West Point, in 1780. (Pages 80, 87) His action is said to have been caused by neglect on the part of the Cont'l Cong. (Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons," p. 139. Also Sparks' "Life and Treason of Arnold") Early in 1781, as a Brig. Gen. in the British Army, he made several raids along the Chesapeake Bay (Page 81); and, later in the year, he made the more notable raid on New London, Conn. (Pages 198, 199, 218, 234, 235, 236, 256) He d. in Eng., June 14, 1801. (Lossing's "Field Book," 1. 421, 710) His portrait and autograph are on Page 71.

At the time they were friends, Washington gave a pair of gold cuff-links to him. After his desertion, he gave the links to a friend; and they are now the property of Gen. James Grant Wilson, of N. Y. City. It is said to have been his last request that the epaulettes and sword-knot which Washington had given him might be brought. "Let me die," said he, "in my old American uniform, in which I fought my battles. God forgive me for ever having put on any other." (Montgomery's "American Hist.," p. 180)

BANCKER GERARD, TREAS'R.—He was Treas'r of the Province of N. Y., and the first Treas'r of the State of N. Y., an office which he held, 1777-1798. After being properly audited, he paid many of the claims of the Refugees. (C. 4, 14, 17, 95, 180, 217, 218) In 1779, he paid money, from the Saybrook Committee, to Selah Strong, Treas'r of Suffolk Co., N. Y. (Page 170) An outline of his work, and a second autograph, are on Pages 134, 136. He was a son of Gerardus Bancker. He was b. Feb. 14, 1740; not m.; d. in 1799. ("The Bancker, or Banker, Families," by Howard James Banker)

Gerard Bancker Treas'r.

BOOTH WILLIAM—He acted as a guide at the time Maj. Tallmadge captured Ft. St. George. (Page 233) When his enemies circulated a report that he was a Tory, Maj. Tallmadge certified that he was loyal to the Americans, and that he was a guide, as stated above. The original of the certificate is owned by the Tangier Smiths, of Manor of St. George. William Booth owned land in the Town of Brookhaven, village of Fire Place. His descendants still occupy the property. (Miss Martha T. Smith)

BRANT JOSEPH (THAYENDANEGEA), COL.—He was the Indian ally of Maj. John Butler in the valleys of the Mohawk and the Susquehanna. (Page 78, q. v. for port. and aut.) He was b. in 1742; d. Nov. 24, 1807. See "Life of Joseph Brant," by William L. Stone.

BROWN SAMUEL 2 (Dr. James 1)—Of Guilford, Conn. In Aug. and Sept., 1776, he assisted the Committee of Guilford to remove the people and stock from L. I. (Page 169) He assisted in the removals (Page 614. Also A. 20); and the claims of many of the Refugees were paid to him. (C. 164-170) He may have had a Military service in Conn. (G. 85) For his activities as Clerk of the Committee and as Justice of the Peace, consult the Gen'l Index to this work.

He was not related to the Brown Families of R. I. and L. I. His father, Dr. James 1, came from Scotland to Middletown, Conn. Samuel 2, b. Aug. 28, 1726; m. in 1747, Hannah, dau. of Judge Samuel Landon, of Southold, L. I. (Page 440); d. June 4, 1815. He removed to Guilford, about 1750. (N. Y. Gen'l and Biog'l Rec., 29 and 31. Also Steiner's "Guilford &c.," p. 135)

BUELL—William 1 came from England to Dorchester, Mass., about 1630; removed to Windsor, Conn., about 1635-1636. He had a son, Samuel 2, of Windsor, Killingworth and Lebanon, Conn., b. Sept. 2, 1641; d. in what is now Killingworth, July 11, 1720. Samuel 2 had a son, Capt. Peter 3, b. Dec. 3, 1684; removed to Coventry, Conn., where he d. in Mar., 1769. He m. (1) Oct. 8, 1713, Hannah Wells; (2) Jan. 7, 1829, Martha, Wid. of Noah Grant. Among his eight children were: Rev. Samuel 4, below; and Capt. Elias 4, below. (Buell Gen.)

BUELL ELIAS 4, CAPT. (Capt. Peter 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of Rev. Samuel, below)—On Feb. 7, 1783, from Hartford, Conn., he petitioned the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. for leave to go to L. I. to secure some property from his brother, Rev. Samuel, who was the Executor of the estate of their father, Capt. Peter. (E. 174) He served in Conn. (G. 85) He was b. at Coventry, Conn., Oct. 8, 1737; removed to Rutland and Huntington, Vt., and to Albany, N. Y. where he d. May 17, 1824. He m. Aug. 8, 1758, Sarah Burnet, or Turner. Among his 12 children were: Elias, Jr., 5, a Refugee from L. I. to Conn. (Page 285); and Hon. Jesse 5, of Albany. (Buell Gen., q. v. for his descendants. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 354)

BUELL SAMUEL 4, REV. (Capt. Peter 3, Samuel 2, William 1; brother of Capt. Elias, above)—Of East Hampton, L. I. He signed the Association, in 1775. (H. 28) On Apr. 10, 1776, he reported to the Prov'l Cong. that the Fleet of the enemy was off East Hampton. (A. 2) On Sept. 22, same year, he wrote of the sad plight of the people on L. I. (Page 202); and, same year, he tried to have Gov. Tryon modify the Oath of Allegiance. (Page 117) He was executor of the estate of his father. (See Capt. Elias, above) He practised as a physician. (Page 180)

It is a well known fact that, after the Battle of L. I., he did more to mitigate the sufferings of the people in East Hampton than anybody else; and that, while very many left he decided to remain. He was a remarkable man; and he wielded a power, in East Hampton, unequalled by any other. (Mr. Charles R. Dayton)

Census of 1776: Males—above 50 years, 1; under 16, 2. Females—above 16, 1; under 16, 1. (A. 52) He was b. at Coventry, Conn., Aug. 20, 1716; removed to East Hampton, L. I., in 1746; d. there July 19, 1798. He graduated at Yale College, in 1741. On Sept. 19, 1746, he was installed 3d Pastor of the Church at East Hampton. (H. 39) He m. (1) Oct. 12, 1746, Jerusha, dau. of Rev. Joseph Meacham, of Coventry; (2) about 1767, Mary, dau. of Elisha 4 Mulford (Page 478), of East Hampton; (3) Mary

Elias Buell

Miller. (Page 466) Among his seven children were: Jerusha 5, m. David 6 Gardiner (Page 351), and was a Refugee from L. I. (Page 353); and Mary 5, b. Oct. 1, 1768, m. Rev. Aaron Woolworth, below. (Buell Gen.) The date of his death is given erroneously in H. 39. He had eight children. (East Hampton Ch. Rec.) His successor, at East Hampton, was Rev. Lyman Beecher.

BURGOYNE JOHN, LT. GEN.—He was at Cambridge, in 1775 (Page 24); and at the North, in 1776. (Page 26) The events which led up to his unfortunate Expedition from Canada, in 1777, and the surrender at Saratoga are narrated on Pages 20, 23, 38, 65, 66, 68, 72-75. The powder that was used against him was sent from Albany (Page 110); and the bullets were made from the statue of George III. (Page 113) The news of the surrender was received by the American Prisoners in N. Y. City. (Page 126) Lossing ("Field Book," 1. 37) gives an interesting story of his life. He was b. Feb. 24, 1723; d. Aug. 4, 1792. His portrait and autograph are on Page 71.

BURR AARON, COL.—For his Military career, consult "N. Y. State Cincinnati." He was at Cambridge, in 1775 (Page 24); and Aide-de-Camp to Gen. Putnam at the Battle of L. I. (Page 38) He was of great service to the Americans in their retreat through N. Y. City, in 1776. (Page 54) Later, he appeared as a lawyer, on L. I. (Page 326) He was b. Feb. 6, 1756; d. Sept. 14, 1836. His portrait and autograph are on Page 54.

BURRITT BLACKLEACH, REV.—Of Greenwich, Conn. In June, 1779, he was taken Prisoner. (Page 206) He was b. at Stratford, Conn., about 1740; m. (1) Martha Wells, (2) Deborah Wells; d. at Windhall, Vt., in 1794. He graduated at Yale College. He was a Minister at Ridgebury, Conn. During his captivity, he certified to the kindness shown to the Prisoners in N. Y. City by William Irving, father of Washington Irving. Afterward, he was a Minister in Westchester Co., N. Y.; in Vt.; and at Duanesburgh, N. Y. (Fairfield Co., Conn., Hist'l Soc'y Report. 1891-1892. pp. 3-45)

CARLETON, SIR GUY, LT. GEN.—In 1775, he was the English Gov. of Canada. (Page 25) His operations at the North were checked by Arnold, in 1776. (Pages 38, 60) He was refused the command of the Burgoyne Expedition, in 1777. (Page 68) In 1782, he was called from Canada to take the place of Sir Henry Clinton in N. Y. City. (Page 83) On Nov. 16, 1783, he met Washington at Dobb's Ferry, N. Y., to arrange for the Evacuation of N. Y. City. (Pages 83, 184) In the same month, he gave notice to Gov. Clinton that he intended to evacuate the Eastern end of L. I. (Pages 178, 192) He signed a return of the Loyalists who had left the country. (Page 148) His Board for the Adjustment of Claims against the British Army sailed away, in 1783, without paying them. (Page 193) He was b. Sept. 3, 1724; d. Nov. 10, 1808. His portrait and autograph are on Page 82.

CAULKINS FRANCES M.—She was the historian of New London, Conn. The "Memoir," in her "Hist. of New London," gives her ancestry and a sketch of her useful life. The N. London Co. Hist'l Soc'y has the MSS. which she left. She was b. Apr. 26, 1795; d. Feb. 3, 1869. Her portrait and autograph are on Page 191.

CLINTON GEORGE, BRIG. GEN and GOV.—He was a Delegate to the Cont'l Cong., in 1775. (A. 60) On Aug. 8, 1776, he was appointed to command all the Levies raised in the Counties of Ulster, Orange and Westchester, which he resigned, May 9, 1777, having been appointed to the Cont'l Army. (Proceedings Prov'l Conv'n. Also Clinton Pap.) He was appointed a Cont'l Brig. Gen. Mar. 25, 1777; and his term of service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) While he was in Westchester Co., window leads for bullets were sent to him from N. Y. City. (Page 112) He took part in the Battle of L. I., Aug. 27, 1776 (Pages 38, 40); and his name appears frequently in Gen. Washington's Order Book. (H. 36) In Sept., after the Battle, he was asked by Washington, to plan an Expedition from Conn. to L. I. to attack the enemy; and John Sloss Hobart complained to him that it had been abandoned. (Page 220) On Sept. 3, the N. Y. Committee of Safety ordered him to detain the scattered men of the L. I. Regts. of Cols. Smith and Remsen; and, on Sept. 18, he replied that none of the men had joined him. (Pages 173, 572, 573) In Oct., John Sloss Hobart wrote him that the scattered men were to meet at New Haven; whereupon, he ordered Col. Henry B. Livingston to take them in charge. (Page 90) He had other dealings with Hobart. (Pages 402, 403)

His defensive work in the Highlands was interrupted, July 30, 1777, by his taking the oath as first Gov. of the newly organized State of N. Y. This office he held until 1804, with the exception of the intervening term of John Jay, 1795-1801. One of his first duties was to issue commissions to officers in the State Militia. (Page 89) Returning to the Highlands, he took part in the defence of Forts Clinton and Montgomery; and barely escaped capture when they fell, in Oct., 1777. (Pages 64, 65) In 1778, he advised Washington to fortify West Point. (Page 76) Same year, he commissioned Capt. David Landon to take the effects of the enemy on L. I. Sound. (Page 222) In 1780, he helped to drive Brant and Johnson away from the Mohawk Valley. (Page 80) Same year, the American officers who were Prisoners on L. I. petitioned him for relief; which he gave by pledging the faith of the State for moneys advanced. (Pages 123, 124, 126) In 1781, Gen. Heath reported the capture of Ft. Slongo, L. I. (Pages 236, 237) He often asked the advice of Judge William Smith, of L. I. (Page 576)

In Nov., 1783, Sir Guy Carleton wrote to him that the enemy would soon evacuate the Eastern end of L. I. (Page 178) Anticipating the evacuation of N. Y. City, several congratulatory addresses were sent to him. (B. 41, 42) He took a prominent part in the public exercises on Evacuation Day, Nov. 25, 1783 (Page 185); and in the festivities which followed. (C. 219, 220, 221)

His work relating to the Refugees from L. I. to Conn. was complicated. In 1779, many of them petitioned for leave to buy bread in the State of N. Y. (B. 3) He voluntarily assisted, or was asked to assist, the following: Col. Benjamin Birdsall (Page 270); Qr. Mr. Nehemiah Carpenter (Page 288); Dr. Joseph Crane (Page 319); Mrs. Everett (Page 335); Lt. Heathcote Muirson (Page 476); Dr. Joseph Sackett and Adj't. Peter Sackett (Page 544); and Mrs. Abigail T. Woolsey. (Pages 648, 649) He arranged exchanges of land, in Dutchess Co., between the Refugees and the disaffected. (Page 398) Capt. John Grinnell was asked to act as a spy. (Page 373) He employed Capt. Nathaniel Norton, in various ways (Page 483); and recommended Lt. Henry Scudder. (Page 556)

In 1778, Gen. Parsons wrote to him, opposing the predatory excursions to L. I.; and, in 1779, Gov. Clinton was asked, by the N. Y. Legislature, to forbid them. (Page 207) In 1781, he corresponded with Gov. Trumbull, of Conn., as to stopping them (Page 208); and he complained of George Howell. (Page 412) In 1781, Lt. Caleb Brewster wrote him as to the raids on Miller's Place, Oyster Bay and Great Neck — all on L. I. Protests against the plunderers also came from Shelter Island, Southampton and Southold, L. I. (Pages 204, 205) Same year, Maj. John Davis and Capt. John Grinnell wrote as to the removals from L. I. to Conn. (Page 192) It is evident that both he and Gov. Trumbull used the Illicit Trade to secure clothing for the Army. (Page 212) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n Year Book — 1909," p. 377.

His "Public Papers" were printed by the State of N. Y., in 1899, under the direction of Hon. Hugh Hastings, the State Historian. Vol. I of the "Papers" gives an outline of his ancestry. His portrait, as Brig. Gen. is on Page 63; and his portrait, as Gov., on Page 133. His autographs are on Pages 63, 89, 123 and 133. It is probable that Mrs. Clinton was a Refugee to Sharon, Conn. (Page 295)

He was b. in Ulster Co., now a part of Orange Co., N. Y., July 26, 1739. He served in the French War. The statement that he was appointed Maj. Gen. by brevet in the Cont'l Army, Sept. 30, 1783, is not confirmed by the official records. He was a Member of the N. Y. State Cincinnati. While Gov., he held the somewhat inconsistent office of Clerk of Ulster Co. It is to the credit of Gov. Clinton that a careful estimate of his services to the State makes it appear that if the offices he held had been held consecutively, instead of overlapping, his term of office-holding was about 90 years. (Page 448. Also "N. Y. in the Rev'n — Spt.", pp. 161, 162) In 1805, he was elected Vice-Pres't of the U. S.; and re-elected, in 1808. He d. in office, Apr. 20, 1812; and was buried in the old Congressional Cemetery, at Washington. In 1908, the monument and his remains were removed to the old Dutch Churchyard, in Kingston, N. Y. The monument bears this inscription:

To the Memory of George Clinton. He was born in the State of New York, on the 26th July, 1739, and died at the city of Washington on the 20th April, 1812, in the 73d year of his age. He was a soldier and statesman of the Revolution, eminent in council, distinguished in war, he filled with unexampled usefulness, purity and ability, among many other high offices, those of Governor of his native State, and of Vice-President of the United States. While he lived, his virtue, wisdom, and valor, were the pride, the ornament and security of his country, and when he died, he left an illustrious example of a well spent life, worthy of all imitation. This monument is affectionately dedicated by his children.

CLINTON, SIR HENRY, LT. GEN.— He assisted Gen. Gage in opposing the Americans at Cambridge, in 1775. (Page 24) Early in 1776, he attacked Charleston, S. C.; but, being repulsed, he returned to N. Y. City. (Pages 30, 38) He took part in the Battles of L. I. and White Plains. (Pages 38, 44, 58) Being now in command of the British forces in, and about, N. Y. City, he made his headquarters at the Beekman House. (Page 181) As a part of his plan to meet Burgoyne at Albany, in 1777, he advanced to the Highlands, captured Forts Clinton and Montgomery, and burned Kingston. (Pages 64, 65, 76); but he returned to N. Y. after the disaster to Burgoyne. (Pages 66, 72, 73, 74) In 1778, he took command at Philadelphia until it was evacuated. (Pages 77, 78) Same year, he was in the Battle of Monmouth; and he threatened Newport, R. I. (Page 78) In 1779, he took certain troops to Suffolk Co., L. I., and ordered the cutting of wood (Pages 176, 330); he sent a party to Conn. to capture Gen. Silliman (Page 205); and his schooner was commanded by Capt. Daniel Rice. (B. 24) Same year, he captured Stony Point, N. Y.; but soon abandoned it. (Pages 79, 80) He captured Charleston, in 1780 (Page 80); and, same year, conferred with Arnold as to the surrender of West Point. (Pages 80, 87) Early in 1781, he was deceived by false dispatches, and thus allowed Washington and his Army to escape to the South for the final campaign in Va. (Page 82) Perhaps to offset this, he selected Arnold for the raid on New London, Conn. (Page 234) He had a "Secret Record," relative to spies. (Page 92. Also H. 35) Owing to his humane disposition, he was often appealed to in favor of American Prisoners of War—as in the case of Gen. Parsons for Col. Benjamin Birdsall. (Page 270) It may have been this very humanity that caused him, in 1782, to be superseded by Sir Guy Carleton, at N. Y. (Page 83) He was b. in 1738; d. Dec. 23, 1795. His portrait and autograph are on Page 63.

CLINTON JAMES, MAJ. GEN.— He was Col. of the 3d N. Y. Line, 1775-1776. (G. 45) He was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Aug. 9, 1776; promoted to Maj. Gen., Sept. 30, 1783; and his term of service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) While Col., his Regt. was supplied with arms taken from the Tories. (Page 104) In 1776, he took part in the Battle of L. I. and in the operations in, and near, N. Y. City. (Pages 38, 56) In 1777, he was prominent in the defence of the Highlands. (Pages 64, 65) He recommended Nehemiah Carpenter as Qr. Mr. (Page 288) In 1779, he joined Sullivan's Expedition against the hostile Iroquois. (Page 80. Also "Sullivan's Expedition," p. 387) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n. Year Book—1909," p. 377.

He was an elder brother of Gov. George Clinton, above. (q. v.) He was b. in Ulster Co., N. Y., Aug. 9, 1736; d. Dec. 22, 1812. He was the father of Gov. DeWitt Clinton. His portrait and autograph are on Page 63.

COCHRAN JOHN, CAPT.— Of Saybrook, Conn.— He was Comm'y of the Fort and for the Troops about Saybrook. (G. 87. Also Records of the State of Conn., 2. 247) He was a Member of the Committee of Saybrook (Page 168. Also C. 10); and Capt. Richard Dickinson, below, was also a Member. In 1776, both were appointed by the Committee to have charge of certain ships that were conveying Refugees from L. I. to Conn. (Pages 169, 240) Capt. Cochran had a claim of £ 27. 1. 6, for this service; which was paid. (C. 5. No. 121) He took charge of a negro who belonged to Col. David Mulford. (D. 3) He certified to the good character of Samuel Clark, a Refugee. (E. 189)

He was not the Dr. John Cochran who was a Surg. in the Rev'y War; and who, afterward, petitioned for the location of land. (B. 9) This Dr. Cochran m. Gertrude, only sister of Gen. Philip Schuyler. His grandson was the late Gen. John Cochran, of N. Y. City.

Capt. John was a son of John who came from Scotland, aged 19, and settled at Saybrook. He had nine children, of whom: Capt. John b. ———; m. in 1787, Experience, dau. of Maj. Nathaniel King. (Page 176) He made his headquarters in Huntington and in Southampton, L. I. (Page 175) While in Southampton, he occupied the house of Dr. William Smith. (Pages 176, 571, 577) He issued proclamations urging the people on L. I. to give their allegiance to the King. (Onderdonk's "Suffolk Co.," pp. 44, 45, 47) His conduct toward the people was considerate. (Page 177) He assisted Tryon in his raid on Danbury and Ridgefield, Conn., in 1777. (Page 225) After the War, he became a Lt. Gen. in the British Army. He was b. in 1728; d. Mar. 9, 1795. His portrait and autograph are on Page 37.

FITCH JOHN, CAPT.—He probably served in Conn. (G. 89) According to Sir Henry Clinton's Secret Record, he was a spy. (H. 35)

FRANKLIN BENJAMIN, DR.—He took part in the Conference at the Billopp House, on Staten Island, in 1776. (Pages 52, 53) In 1778, he secured the Treaty by which France assisted the U. S. (Page 77) See "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," pp. 432, 433. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 436.

He was b. Jan. 17, 1706; d. Apr. 17, 1790. His portrait and autograph are on Pages 51 and 53.

GANSEVOORT PETER, BRIG. GEN.—Of Albany, N. Y. He was Maj., in the 2d N. Y. Regt.; Lt. Col. and Col. of the 3d Regt. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 40) In 1781, he was appointed Brig. Gen. of N. Y. Militia. ("Sullivan's Expn.," pp. 479, 480) In 1809, he was appointed Brig. Gen. in the U. S. Army; and served until his death. (Heitman's "Hist'l Reg.," i. 21) He was in Canada with Gen. Montgomery; served in the Sullivan Exp'n.; and was a member of the N. Y. State Cincinnati, Sheriff of Albany Co., N. Y., Regent of the Univ'y and Comm'r of Ind. Affairs. (Sullivan, as above. Also Lossing's "Field Book," i. 240)

His valuable services in the defence of Ft. Schuyler, in 1777, are well known. (Page 66) He was a g. grandson of Harme Gansevoort. He was b. in Albany, N. Y., July 17, 1749; d. there July 2, 1812. Mrs. Abraham Lansing, of Albany, is his granddau. His portrait and autograph are on Page 67.

GATES HORATIO, MAJ. GEN.—On June 17, 1775, he was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army; and on May 16, 1776, Maj. Gen. His term of service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) In 1777, he received the surrender of Burgoyne, at Saratoga (Pages 72-74); but lost much of his prestige by joining the "Conway Cabal," 1777-1778. (Page 77) His sword and the Convention with Burgoyne, together with the "Gates Papers," are in the rooms of the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y. In 1778, as Commander of the Northern Dept., he was ordered to rebuild the Fortifications in the Highlands; but left them to become Pres't of the Board of War. (Hall's "Life of Gen. S. H. Parsons," pp. 139, 140) After the defeat at Camden, in 1780 (Page 80), he was superseded by Gen. Greene. He was b. in 1728; d. Apr. 10, 1806. His portrait and autograph are on Page 68.

GEORGE III.—As King of England, he reigned from Oct. 25, 1760, until the Prince of Wales, afterward George IV., was appointed Regent on Feb. 5, 1811. Before the British occupation of N. Y. City, in 1776, his statue in Bowling Green was pulled down, and the lead was melted into bullets for the American Army. (Pages 33, 113, 114) The sign on Fraunces' Tavern bore his likeness. (Page 182) After the occupation, he sought to pacify the Americans in the Conference at the Billopp House. (Page 52) Failing in that, he required Oaths of Allegiance to the Crown. (Pages 116-119) He was b. June 4, 1738; d. Jan. 29, 1820. His portrait and autograph are on Page 52.

GLOVER JOHN, MAJ. GEN.—He took part in the Battle of L. I., in 1776; and guarded the transfer of the Army to N. Y. City after the Battle. (Pages 38, 40, 49. Also H. 36) He was also in the Battles of Trenton, Princeton and Saratoga. (Pages 60, 73)

He was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Feb. 21, 1777; retired, July 22, 1782; and appointed Maj. Gen., by brevet, Sept. 30, 1783. (Page 87) He was b. in Mass., Nov. 5, 1732; d. Jan. 30, 1797. His portrait and autograph are on Page 49.

GREENE NATHANIEL, MAJ. GEN.—He was at Boston, early in 1776 (Page 24); and before the Battle of L. I., he gave orders to Col. Josiah Smith. (A. 5. Also G. 39) The plan of that Battle was prepared by him; but just before the Battle his health failed, and he gave way to Gen. Sullivan (Pages 36, 40, 42, 44) He was more active in the defence of N. Y. City. (Pages 56, 58. Also H. 36) He took part in the Battles of Trenton, Princeton, Brandywine and Eutaw Springs. (Pages 60, 76, 81) After the disaster at Camden he superseded Gen. Gates in command at the South (Page 81), in the events that led up to the surrender of Yorktown.

He was made a Cont'l Brig. Gen., June 22, 1775; and a Maj. Gen., Aug. 9, 1776. His service expired Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) He was b. in R. I. June 6, 1742; d. June 19, 1786. It is said that his place of burial, in Ga., cannot be found. A monument to his memory has been erected at Savannah. His portrait and autograph are on Page 37.

HEARD NATHANIEL, BRIG. GEN.—Of N. J. Some months before the Battle of L. I. he disarmed the suspected in Queens Co., N. Y. (Page 140) He took part in the Battle, and in the operations around N. Y. City. (Page 40. Also H. 36)

HEATH WILLIAM, MAJ. GEN.—Of Mass. He took part in the Battle of L. I., and in the movements in, and near, N. Y. City, in 1776. (Pages 38, 58) In Oct., of that year, he assisted in the capture of Ft. Slongo, L. I. (Pages 236, 237) In 1781, he was left near the City to threaten Sir Henry Clinton while the main Army of the Americans was operating at the South. (Page 82) In the Cont'l Army, he was appointed Brig. Gen., June 22, 1775; Maj. Gen., Aug. 9, 1776; term of service expired Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) He was b. Mar. 7, 1737; d. June 24, 1814.

HERKIMER NICHOLAS, BRIG. GEN.—His special service was the checking of St. Leger's advance at Oriskany, in 1777; where he was mortally wounded. (Pages 65, 66) He commanded the Militia of Tryon Co., N. Y.

He was b. about 1715; d. Aug. 16, 1777. His portrait and autograph are on Page 67.

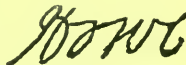

HOSMER TITUS, HON.—Of Conn. He took an active interest in the Refugees—in one case, appearing as attorney for certain of them who had been plundered (E. 8); and, in another, vouching for the character of one of them. (E. 68) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 483.

He was b. in Hartford, Conn., in 1737. He graduated from Yale College, in 1757; and settled for the practice of the law in Middletown, Conn., about 1760. On Nov. 30, 1761, he m. Lydia Lord, by whom he had seven children, the eldest of whom was Hon. Stephen Titus Hosmer, Chief Justice of Conn. Beside the common Town offices and the Commission of the Peace which he held, Hon. Titus Hosmer was elected to the Gen. Ass'y of Conn., from Oct., 1773, constantly until May, 1778, when he was elected an Assistant; and thus, annually, until 1780, the year of his death. In 1777, he was Speaker of the Ass'y and had much to do with vigorous measures against Great Britain. During a part of the Rev'y War, he was a Member of the Council of Safety; and, in 1778, beside being an Assistant in the State Legislature, he was a Member of the Continental Congress. In January, 1780, when the plan was matured by Congress for establishing a Court of Appeals, he was elected one of the three Judges. It was out of this Court subsequently, under the Constitution, that the present U. S. Supreme Court was founded. But on the duties of the above appointment Mr. Hosmer was not permitted to enter, dying suddenly Aug. 4, 1780, aged 44. Dr. Noah Webster regarded him as one of the greatest men in the history of Conn. Rev. David Dudley Field, in his Centennial Address delivered at Middletown, Conn., stated with regard to Hon. Titus Hosmer that:

His person was above the common size, and his countenance expressive. His passions were naturally quick and strong but kept under discipline. Fond of conversation and extensively acquainted with men and books, he often entertained at his house a group of friends who courted his society. In deliberative bodies he was always heard with that attention and pleasure which are secured by lucid and manly argumentation connected with probity and patriotism. He was in one word a gentleman of correct moral habits, a thorough scholar, a learned and eloquent lawyer and a sound practical statesman, deeply versed in national law and universal history.

HOWE, LORD RICHARD, ADMIRAL.—Early in 1776, his Fleet appeared at Boston to aid his brother Sir William, below, in the defence of that City against the American Army. (Pages 26, 27) He also assisted the British Army at the Battle of L. I., in August. (Page 38) Always of a pacific nature, he held the celebrated Conference at the Billopp House, directly after the Battle. (Pages 51, 52) Rumors of other peace propositions annoyed Gen. Washington. (H. 36) Still later in 1776, petitions were sent to him and his brother in the form of Oaths of Allegiance. (Page 117) In 1777, he helped his brother to capture Philadelphia. (Page 76) In 1778, he returned to N. Y. City; and made a demonstration against Newport, R. I., returning again to N. Y. (Pages 78, 79) Soon afterward he resigned his command, and left for England. He was b. in 1725; d. Aug. 5, 1799. His portrait is on Pages 37 and 53.

HOWE, SIR WILLIAM, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.—In 1775 and 1776, he succeeded Gen. Gage in the British defence of Boston. (Pages 24, 26, 27) He was the central figure in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 38, 44, 48); in the Battle of White Plains and the capture of N. Y. City (Pages 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 59); and in the Battles of Trenton and Princeton. (Pages 60, 61) After the Battle of L. I. his headquarters were near Newtown (Page 174); and during the British occupation of N. Y. City his headquarters were at the Beekman House for a part of the time. (Page 181) He issued certificates of protection to those who favored the British. (Page 177) After several preliminary movements, he captured Philadelphia, in 1777. (Pages 64, 75, 76) In the same year a false rumor that he had embarked for England was circulated. (Page 66) He actually returned, in 1778, leaving Sir Henry Clinton in charge. (Pages 77, 78) He was b. Aug. 10, 1729; d. July 12, 1814. His portrait and autograph are on Page 37.

HUNTINGTON JEDEDIAH, MAJ. GEN.—Of Conn. He assisted in the operations before Boston, in 1776 (Page 24); and he took part in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 40, 44) In the Cont'l Army, he was appointed Brig. Gen., May 12, 1777; Maj. Gen., by brevet, Sept. 30, 1783; term of service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) His service was long and honorable. Much of it was in, and about, N. Y. City before the British occupation, in 1776. (H. 36. Also "Conn. Men in the Rev'n.") See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," pp. 490, 491. Also "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 459. He was b. Aug. 4, 1743; d. Sept. 25, 1818.

KALB JOHANN, BARON de, MAJ. GEN.—He accompanied La Fayette to America, arriving June 3, 1777. He was appointed Maj. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Sept. 15, 1777; d. Aug. 19, 1780 (Page 87), having been mortally wounded at the Battle of Camden. (Page 280) He was b. in Bavaria, July 29, 1721. His autograph is on Page 61.

KELCY EPHRAIM, SERJT.—As Serjt. of the guard at Saybrook, Conn. (Records State of Conn., 2. 446, 534), he was very active in detecting and punishing those who carried on the Illicit Trade. The chief incident of this sort was the seizure of the property of Dr. William Lawrence and Richard Seaman, both Refugees; which was followed by an investigation of the conduct of Col. William Worthington. (Page 443. Also D. 42. Also E. 119-123) He approved the conduct of Lt. William Havens. (E. 77) On Dec. 28, 1763, he m. Hannah Jones. (Saybrook, Conn., Ch. Rec.)

Ephraim Kelcy

KNOX HENRY, MAJ. GEN.—Of Mass. He was conspicuous in the siege of Boston, in 1776; to which he brought the cannon from Ticonderoga. (Pages 24, 26) Later in the year, he took part in the Battle of L. I. and in the operations near N. Y. City. (Pages 40, 54) In 1781, he attended the conference with the French officers, at Wethersfield, Conn. (Page 82) On Evacuation Day, Nov. 25, 1783, he entered N. Y. City at the head of his Art'y. (Pages 184, 186) In 1790, he reported to Cong. in favor of Capt. Caleb Brewster. (Page 278)

In the Cont'l Army, he was appointed Brig. Gen., Dec. 27, 1776; Maj. Gen., Nov. 15, 1781; service expired, June 20, 1784. (Page 87) He was Sec'y of War under the Confederation; and Sec'y for the U. S., Sept. 12, 1789-Jan. 2, 1795. He was b. July 25, 1750; d. Oct. 25, 1806. See Drake's "Life of Knox." His portrait and autograph are on Page 26.

LA FAYETTE GILBERT du M., MARQUIS de, MAJ. GEN.—In Apr., 1777, he joined the American Army. (Page 61) On July 31, he was appointed Maj. Gen. in the Cont'l Army; and he served until Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) He took part in the Battle of Brandywine (Page 76); and he pursued Cornwallis to Yorktown, in 1781. (Page 82) He was entertained in Stamford, Conn. (Pages 24, 200) He was b. Sept. 6, 1757; d. May 20, 1834. His portrait and autograph are on Page 63.

LEE CHARLES, MAJ. GEN.—He was appointed Maj. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, June 27, 1775; dismissed, Jan. 10, 1780. (Page 87) In the early part of the War, before Boston, he was very active. In Jan., 1776, he was pursuing the Tories on L. I. (Page 145) In Feb., at Stamford, Conn., he awaited the deliberations of the N. Y. City Committee of Safety as to the acceptance of aid from the outside (Page 198); but, finally, he entered the City with 1,500 men, mostly from Conn. (Pages 30, 33) He then left for the South (Page 34); but returned in time for the Battle of White Plains. (Page 58) In 1779, he helped to defend Stamford. (Page 197) He was a Prisoner for a considerable time; but was exchanged after the Battle of Saratoga. His disobedience, at Monmouth, led to his dismissal from the service. Comparatively recent evidence shows that he did not have the American cause at heart. Many of the documents proving this are in the N. Y. Hist'l Soc'y. See George H. Moore's "The Treason of Maj. Gen. Charles Lee." He was b. in 1731; d. Oct. 2, 1782.

Charles Lee

LEFFINGWELL CHRISTOPHER 4, CAPT.—Of Norwich, Conn., where he was prominent in business. On June 19, 1775, he wrote to the N. Y. Prov'l. Cong. relative to the Battle of Bunker Hill. (Jour. Prov'l Cong.) In Oct. of that year he was appointed Capt. of a Co. of Light Infantry, composed of business men in Norwich. (Colonial Rec. of Conn., 15. 156. Also Rec. State of Conn., 2. 363, 373) In Oct., 1776, he did effective work in Westchester Co., N. Y. (Leffingwell Rec.); and, with his Company, he marched for New London on the Alarm when Arnold's attack was made. ("Conn. Men in the Rev'n," p. 629) He was active in the Privateer service, also, as Capt. of the sloops "Patty" and "Polly." ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 269) Late in 1776, the N. Y. Secret Committee to Obstruct the Hudson River paid £819. 18. 0 to him for a brig. (Rev'y MSS., N. Y. State Lib'y, 51. 23) On Mar. 13, 1784, he petitioned the N. Y. Ass'y relative to a vessel which had been sunk at Poughkeepsie to obstruct the channel. On Apr. 1, the proper Committee reported that the claim should be referred to the State Aud. (Ass'y Jour.) In 1784, he was made Naval Officer of the Port of Norwich. His valuable services in transporting Refugees from L. I. to Conn. are described on Pages 170 and 171. His silhouette and autograph are on Page 171.

Lt. Thomas 1 Leffingwell (b. in 1622, d. in 1714) was active in the early Indian Wars. (Perkins' "Old Houses of Norwich." Also Leffingwell Rec. Also Trumbull's "Hist. of Conn.") His son, Ens. LINCOLN BENJAMIN, MAJ. GEN.—Of Mass. He was appointed Maj. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Feb. 19, 1777; and resigned, Oct. 29, 1783. (Page 87) In Sept., 1776, he was asked by Washington to help an Expedition from Conn. to L. I. This was during the flight of the Refugees from L. I. Just before the Battle of Saratoga, in 1777, Gen. Gates gave to him the command from which Arnold had been deposed. (Page 73) In 1779, he defended S. Ca.; but he was captured, at Charleston, in 1780. (Pages 79, 80) Early in 1781, he was exchanged; joined Washington before he started for the South; and was appointed to receive the sword of Cornwallis at the surrender of Yorktown. See "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 476. He was b. Jan. 24, 1733; d. May 9, 1810.

B. Lincoln

LIVINGSTON HENRY BEEKMAN, COL.—He commanded the 4th N. Y. Line. (G. 47, 48) In 1775, John Foster brought military stores to him. (B. 33) Early in 1776, many muskets were taken, on L. I., for his Regt. (Page 104) Before the Battle of L. I. (Aug. 27, 1776), and also after the Battle, he was on L. I., and in consultation with Col. Josiah Smith. (G. 39) Previously, he had asked the Suffolk Co. Committee for advice. (A. 3) After the Battle, he was ordered to gather, and to command, the men from Col. Smith's scattered Regt. (Pages 90, 92, 174) In Sept., 1776, he reported that he had been obliged to retreat to Saybrook, Conn., but hoped to save Suffolk Co. (Pages 173, 174) Same month, he was asked by Gen. Washington to help an Expedition from Conn. to recover L. I. (Page 220) In Dec., additional arms from the East end of L. I. were brought by him to New Haven and sent to Fishkill, N. Y. (Pages 174, 511) He was particularly active in transporting the Refugees from L. I. to Conn. (Page 390); and he certified to many of their claims. (Page 189) He also had various experiences with several disaffected persons. (Pages 118, 119, 337, 412) In the War of 1812, he was a Maj. Gen. ("N. Y. State Cincinnati")

He was b. Nov. 9, 1750; d. Nov. 5, 1831. He was a brother of Chancellor Robert R.; of Edward; and of Janet, who m. Gen. Richard Montgomery, below.

LIVINGSTON PETER VAN BRUGH 3, TREAS'R.—He was a Member of the Committees of 51, 60 and 100, in N. Y. City. (H. 1, 2, 4) He was Pres't of the 1st Prov'l Cong., and Treas'r of the 2d, 3d and 4th Congresses. (Pages 130, 134. Also C. 4, 14, 17, 196)

He was a son of Philip 2; and a grandson of Robert 1, the Emigrant to America. He was b. in 1710; d. Dec. 28, 1792. He m. (2) Mary, sister of Lord Stirling; and his sister, Mary, m. Lord Stirling. MACHIN THOMAS, CAPT.—He was 2d Lt. in Knox's Art'y, in 1776; and Capt. in Lamb's Art'y, 1777–1780. ("N. Y. State Cincinnati") He superintended the placing of the chains across the Hudson River—at Forts Clinton and Montgomery, in 1777; and at West Point, in 1778. (Pages 64, 77) He took part in Sullivan's Expedition, in 1779. He was b. Mar. 20, 1744; d. Apr. 3, 1816.

MATHER ELEAZAR, DR.—Of Lyme, Conn. He graduated at Yale, in 1737. He sometimes attended the Refugees. (E. 191) In 1776, he was appointed by the Gen. Ass'y of Conn. to examine candidates for Surg. in the Cont'l Army. (G. 94) He was also Jus. of the Peace. (Page 168. Also C. 93) See "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 542. He was a g. g. grandson of Rev. Richard, the emigrant to America. He was b. Nov. 17, 1716; d. Nov. 21, 1798. (Mather Gen. p. 129)

MATHER JOSEPH, CHAIRMAN.—Of the Lyme, Conn., Committee. (Pages 168, 170. Also C. 19, 92, 131, 171, 186, 190) He was active in assisting Capt. John Cochran, above, and Capt. Richard Dickinson, above, in transporting Refugees from L. I. to Conn. He was probably a brother of Dr. Eleazar, above. He was b. Mar. 15, 1715; d. in 1797. Or, perhaps, son of this Joseph, and b. in 1747. (Mather Gen. p. 129)

MATHER JOSEPH, CAPT.—He may have been either of the Josephs, named above; or Joseph, son of Rev. Moses, below. In 1776, he helped Capt. William Rockwell to get the stock away from East Hampton and Montauk, L. I. (Pages 250, 251. Also C. 132) There is some doubt, however, as to this work having been done by Capt. Joseph. It may have been done by Capt. Samuel, son of Dr. Eleazar, above. (G. 94)

MATHER MOSES, REV.—Of Middlesex, now Darien, Conn. He was captured by the enemy, in 1781, while conducting a service at his Church. MEIGS RETURN JONATHAN, COL.—Of Middletown, Conn. In retaliation for Tryon's raids in Conn., he made a successful raid on Sag Harbor, L. I., in 1777; for which Gen. Washington thanked him, and the Cont'l Cong. gave him a sword. (Pages 76, 226-228) Another raid, in the same year, was not as successful. (Pages 76, 229) He went to West Point after the defection of Arnold, in 1780. (Page 81) Aside from the above, he had an active Military service. (G. 94. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n—1909," p. 450) He was b. Dec. 17, 1734; d. Jan. 28, 1823. His portrait and autograph are on Page 226.

MIFFLIN THOMAS, MAJ. GEN.—Of Penn. He was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, May 16, 1776; Maj. Gen., Feb. 19, 1777; resigned Feb. 25, 1779. (Page 87) In 1776, he took part in the siege of Boston (Page 24); in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 38, 40, 47, 48) where he acted as Qr. Mr. (B. 38); and in the operations in, and about, N. Y. City. (Page 54. Also H. 36) He was in the "Conway Cabal" of 1777-1778. (Page 77) He was b. in 1744; d. Jan. 20, 1800. His portrait and autograph are on Page 49.

MONTGOMERY RICHARD, MAJ. GEN.—In the Cont'l Army, he was appointed Brig. Gen., June 22, 1775; and Maj. Gen., Dec. 9, 1775; served until his death, Dec. 31, 1775. (Page 87) His Military career closed when he fell, at Quebec. (Page 25) He was b. Dec. 2, 1736; m. Janet Livingston. (See Col. Henry B. Livingston, above) His portrait and autograph are on Page 25.

MORGAN DANIEL, BRIG. GEN.—Of N. Jersey. He was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Oct. 13, 1780; service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) He was at Saratoga, in 1777, where his riflemen did effective work. (Page 73) In 1781, he defeated Tarleton at Cowpens. (Page 81) He was b. in 1736; d. July 6, 1802.

MORRIS GOUVERNEUR.—In 1776, he examined David Matthews, Mayor of N. Y. City, charged with being a Loyalist. (Page 145) He was a Delegate to the last Prov'l Cong. (Page 131); and was on a Committee to ask the U. S. to pay the claims of the Refugees from L. I. (Page 189) He was a Delegate to the Cont'l Cong., in 1777 and 1778. (A. 60) He was a leader in forming the first Constitution of the State of N. Y. (Page 132) His greatest service was a U. S. Minister to France during the early days of the French Revolution. He was b. Jan. 31, 1752; d. Nov. 6, 1816. His autograph is on Page 131.

ONDERDONK HENRY, JR.—He was one of the most pains-taking and reliable Historians of L. I. Beside his "Suffolk Co." and "Queens Co.," which are often quoted in these pages, he was the author of numerous works which have been catalogued in Furman's "Antiquities of L. I.," pp. 457, 458, as a part of his own "Bibliography of L. I.," pp. 435-469. He also prepared several "Scrap Books," the most of which are in the N. Y. City Pub. Lib'y, and in the L. I. Hist'l Soc'y. As far as possible his notes have been identified, and placed with the copies of the original documents (Appendixes A-H) to which they refer. The unidentified notes are in F. 110-131.

He was in the 5th gen. from Andries Onderdonk. He was b. at Manhasset, L. I., June 11, 1804; m. Nov. 28, 1828, Maria H. Onderdonk; d. June 22, 1886. (Onderdonk Gen.) His portrait and autograph are on Page 191.

PARSONS SAMUEL HOLDEN, MAJ. GEN.—He served through the greater part of the War as Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, having been appointed Aug. 9, 1776. He was promoted to Maj. Gen., Oct. 23, 1780; retired, July 22, 1782. (Page 87) Early in 1776, he appeared at the siege of Boston. (Page 24) Later, he took part in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 40, 44, 47, 48); and in the operations about N. Y. City. (Page 54. Also H. 36) He approved of certain predatory excursions. (Pages 203, 204) In 1777, he organized the Meigs Expedition to Sag Harbor, L. I. (Pages 226, 228); conducted a raid upon Setauket, L. I. (Pages 76, 228, 365); failed in another raid on L. I. (Page 229); ordered Col. Samuel B. Webb, with his whale-boats, to destroy the supplies of the enemy (Page 222); and occupied Peekskill after Sir Henry Clinton had left it. (Page 65) In 1778 and 1779, he fortified West Point, continuing in the work under several changes of Commanders. (Page 76. Also Hall's "Life of Parsons") In 1779, he wrote to Gen. Washington as to the useless condition of the Forts at New London; and he was ordered to rebuild them. (Hall, as above) Same year, he protested to Gov. Clinton against the plundering parties and the Illicit Trade, on L. I. Sound. (Pages 207, 213) He planned to destroy the shipping of the enemy, but lacked the boats to carry it out. (Page 219) In 1781, he advised an attack on Lloyd's Neck, L. I., which was abandoned (Page 234); but he made an attack on Morrisania. (Page 81) He felt keenly the capture of Cols. Ely and Webb. (Page 126) His employment of spies led to much controversy. (Page 93) See G. 96. Also Clinton Pap., 2. 513. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 577. Also Hall's "Life of Parsons," p. 4 et seq.

He was b. at Lyme, Conn., May 14, 1737 (Page 151); drowned near the Ohio Riv., Nov. 17, 1789, and is buried in that locality. A monument to his memory stands in the Mortimer Cemetery, at Middletown, Conn. His portrait is on Pages 43 and 47; and autograph, on Page 43.

WARD ANDREW, BRIG. GEN.—Of Conn. He had a long Military Service. (G. 100. Also "N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 602. Also "Empire State Sons of Amm. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 365) In 1776, he was in N. Y. City (Pages 33, 34. Also H. 36); and he took part in the Battle of L. I. (Pages 26, 38) He was authorized to permit the Refugees to return to L. I. (Page 201); but sometimes subject to a superior authority, as in the case of Rev. David Rose, for whom he asked a permit to visit L. I. (Page 541. Also F. 118) Some of the Refugees whom he helped were: Isaac Barnes (E. 145); William Wells (Page 630. Also E. 155); Simeon Dibble (F. 21); and Dr. William Lawrence. (F. 7) He was one of a Committee to investigate Col. William Worthington relative to the Black Trade. (E. 119, 120) He was a Jus. of the Peace. (E. 44)

He was a descendant of Andrew, the emigrant to Watertown, Mass., in 1630; and thence to Wethersfield and Stamford, Conn., and Hempstead, L. I. (See Chap. 16. Also "Descendants of Andrew Ward.")

WARNER SETH, COL.—Of Roxbury, Conn. In 1775, he assisted Col. Allen in the capture of Ticonderoga (Pages 22, 26); after which, he operated at the North. He took part in the Battles of Bennington and Saratoga. (Pages 72, 73) He was, at one time, Col. of the Line—Additional Corps—Green Mountain Boys. ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 64) He was b. May 17, 1745; d. Dec. 26, 1784.

WASHINGTON GEORGE, COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.— On June 15, 1775, the Cont'l Cong. gave him this supreme office; which he held until Dec. 23, 1783. (Pages 24, 87) He took command of the American Troops, at Cambridge, on July 2. (Page 24) The Troops had no uniforms (Page 96); but he prescribed them later. (Page 98) He directed Gen. Arnold as to his part in Gen. Montgomery's Expedition to Quebec. (Page 25) He spent the Winter of 1775-1776 in the investment of Boston; which was evacuated, Mar. 17, 1776. (Pages 26, 27) He had, already, sent Gen. Charles Lee, with Troops, to N. Y. City (Pages 30, 33); and, on Mar. 18, he also sent Troops from Boston. (Page 30) On his way to N. Y., he was the guest of Capt. Nathaniel Shaw, Jr., at New London. Page 198 In N. Y. City, he was the central figure when the Declaration of Independence was read. (Page 32) He approved the work of fortifying Brooklyn. (Page 34) Gen. Lee looked after the Tories on L. I. (Page 145) Gen. Washington helped the inhabitants of L. I. to secure their stock from the enemy. (A. 4, 5, 14, 17) His headquarters were at No. 1 Broadway. (Page 181) Preparations for the Battle of L. I. were now in progress. (Page 38) The Battle took place, Aug. 27, 1776 (Pages 42-48, 265; followed by the retreat of the Americans to N. Y. City. (Pages 48-50. Also A. 13) Directly after the Battle, he obstructed the Hudson River Page 36; and kept a close watch upon the enemy. (Page 182) His movements during those important days are shown in extracts from his Order Book. H. 36 Having been driven from the lower part of N. Y. City (Pages 50, 52, 54), he fought the Battle of Harlem Heights (Pages 52-56; which led up to the Battle of White Plains. (Pages 50-58) After this, he retreated to North Castle. (Page 196) Then followed the capture of Fort Washington, and the loss of N. Y. City. (Pages 58-60) Trenton and Princeton gave him encouragement, in his winter quarters, at Morristown. (Pages 60, 61) Early in 1777, many of his troops were at Peekskill. (Page 64) Later in the year, he lost Philadelphia. (Pages 75, 76) The winter of 1777-1778 was spent at Valley Forge; where the efforts of the "Conway Cabal" to supplant him with Gen. Gates led to the Oath of Allegiance by the American officers. (Pages 77, 118) In 1778, he checked Sir Henry Clinton, at Monmouth; and proceeded again to White Plains. (Page 75) He was deeply affected by the desertion of Gen. Arnold, in 1780. (Pages 80, 81) In 1781, he held an important Conference with the French officers, at Wethersfield, Conn.; after which, he left for the South, and the Campaign was begun which ended in the surrender of Yorktown. (Pages 81-83) It is stated that, during all of his campaigns, he was always in need of cavalry (Page 92), spies (Pages 92, 93) and powder. (Page 110) Honorable discharges from the service were often signed by him. (Page 95. Also C. 215)

After Yorktown, he retired to his headquarters at Newburgh, N. Y., to await the preliminaries of a peace. Mrs. Martha Washington was with him. (Page 83) While at West Point, in Mar., 1783, he was informed that a general peace had been declared, and the details of the evacuation of N. Y. City were arranged with Sir Guy Carleton, at Dobbs Ferry. (Page 184) Certain of the Refugees from N. Y. City sent an address to him. (B. 42) He entered the City on Nov. 25 (Pages 128, 185, 186; and, a few days later, he bade farewell to his officers at the Tavern of Samuel Fraunces, who acted as his steward. (Pages 182, 183)

His attitude toward the Refugees from L. I. was sympathetic. He helped Col. Benjamin Birdsall to secure land that belonged to the disaffected (Page 270); and he approved the conduct of Capt. Caleb Brewster. (Page 278)

After the Battle of L. I., he directed Gen. George Clinton to plan an Expedition to L. I. (Page 220) He thanked Col. Meigs for his Expedition, in 1777. (Page 228) In 1781, Gen. Parsons advised an attack on Lloyd's Neck. (Page 234) In 1782, he wrote to Maj. Tallmadge relative to another Expedition. (Page 238) He opposed plundering, and the illicit Trade between L. I. and Conn. (Pages 204, 208, 213)

He was b. Feb. 22, 1732; d. Dec. 14, 1799. In 1780, he took the oath as Pres't of the U. S. from the balcony of Federal Hall, in N. Y. City. (Page 132) His portraits, as Gen. and as Pres't, are on Pages 24 and 47. His autographs are on Pages 24, 95 and 118.

WATERBURY DAVID, BRIG. GEN.—Of Stamford, Conn. He served as Capt. in the French and Indian War. His Military service in the Rev'y War was important. (G. 100) In 1775, many soldiers' tents, from N. Y., were delivered to him. (E. 195) On Jan. 3, 1776, the Cont'l Cong. sent him and Col. Heard, with several hundred men, to Queens Co., L. I., to arrest the disaffected, and to collect arms. ("Am. Archives—4th Ser.", 4. 1631, 1633) About the same time, he persuaded the Committee of Safety of N. Y. City to accept help from Gen. Charles Lec. (Page 198) He was in the City (Page 33); and took part in the Battle of L. I. (Page 34) Later in the year, he joined Gen. Arnold's flotilla, on Lake Champlain; was captured (Page 60); and was a Prisoner for four years. (G. 100) He was at Throgg's Neck, Westchester Co., N. Y., in 1781. (Page 82) He was strict in giving Flags of Truce (Page 201); and he did much to suppress the Illicit Trade. (Page 213. Also H. 35) He allowed Daniel Newcomb to go to L. I., and to bring a negro back to Conn. (Page 481)

David Waterbury

He was b. Feb. 12, 1722; d. June 29, 1801. In documents owned by his descendants, he often signed his name, David, Jr. Mr. Charles F. Waterbury, of Stamford, is his grandson.

WATSON ELKANAH.—Beginning his career with the carrying of powder from the captured Ticonderoga, to Cambridge, he ended his Military service by bearing dispatches to Benjamin Franklin, in 1779. In 1783, he had the privilege of resting his foot on a step of the throne while George III. read his speech announcing the independence of the American colonies.

To the wide acquaintance of Mr. Watson and to his rare powers of observation, we are indebted for the "Men and Times of the Revolution." (Page 17) At the end of the contest he promoted the navigation of the Hudson and projected the internal canals of New York. He founded the N. Y. State Agricultural Soc'y. In 1828, he settled at Port Kent, on Lake Champlain, where he built a small chateau which is now one of the landmarks of that locality. He was b. at Plymouth, Mass., Jan. 22, 1758; d. at Port Kent, Dec. 5, 1842.

He was the father of Winslow C. Watson, the Historian of the Champlain region.

Elkanah Watson

WAYNE ANTHONY, MAJ. GEN.—Of Penn. He was appointed Brig. Gen. in the Cont'l Army, Feb. 21, 1777; Maj. Gen., by brevet, Sept. 30, 1783; service expired, Nov. 3, 1783. (Page 87) He took part in the Battle of Brandywine, in 1777. (Page 76) His great achievement was the capture of Stony Point, N. Y., in 1779. (Page 79) After the desertion of Gen. Arnold, in 1780, he went to West Point. (Page 81) In the Southern Campaign of 1781, he pursued Gen. Cornwallis into Va. (Page 82)

(E. 195) Same year, from his camp, at Harlem, he sent some of his Conn. Militia to stop the mauraunders on L. I. (Page 27); and, later in the same year, he was guarding the stock on the East End of L. I. (Pages 28, 337) During Tryon's raid on Danbury, Conn., in Apr., 1777, he was wounded; and d. a few days later. (Pages 225, 226)

He was b. at Stratford, Mar. 2, 1710; graduated at Yale College, in 1738; and lived at New Haven, where he was a prominent citizen. After the Lexington Alarm, he planned the capture of Ticonderoga; and accompanied Gen. Montgomery to Quebec, taking command after Montgomery fell. (Townshend's "British Invasion of New Haven") See also "Chapter Sketches Conn. D. A. R.—1901," pp. 101-123. His portrait is mentioned on Page 106. It is on Page 225, together with his autograph. His house in which he d. is represented on Page 226.

WORTHINGTON WILLIAM, COL.—Of Saybrook, Conn. He had a Military service. (G. 100) He was Supt. of the guard, at Saybrook, to prevent the Illicit Trade. There were some interesting developments in relation to the Trade, and his connection therewith. (See Kelcy, above. Also Pages 443 557. Also E. 119-123) He was a Justice of the Peace. (E. 89, 92)

He was a son of Rev. William Worthington, of Saybrook, West Parish, now Westbrook, Conn. (Page 126) He was a brother-in-law of Col. John Ely, above. He was b. Nov. 21, 1740; m. Elizabeth (or Sabra) Lynde; d. s. p. at Hudson, N. Y. (Worthington Gen.) The tombstone of Rev. William is at Westbrook, next to the tombstone of his son-in-law, Col. John Ely.

ALSOP (Page 659) — See Riker's "Annals of Newtown," pp. 334-338. The wife of Richard 1 was Hannah, dau. of Capt. John Underhill. Richard and Hannah are buried in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y. (Mr. Douglas Leffingwell)

BRADLEY (Page 242) — It was not the Wid. of Peter 1 who m. (2) Thomas 4 Youngs; but the Wid. of Peter 2, born Mary Christophers. A son of Peter 2, Christopher 3, perhaps m. Mehitable, dau. of Jonathan Horton; and had a son, Jonathan. This Mehitable, as Wid. Bradley, m. (2) Dea. Daniel 3 Tuthill. (Miss Lucy D. Akerly) See Tuthill, Page 609.

CLARKSON LEVINUS (Page 666) — He was probably a near relative, of Lt. Col. Matthew Clarkson who had a distinguished service in the Rev'y War. ("N. Y. State Sons of Rev'n, Year Book—1909," p. 375) Lt. Col. Matthew was a g. grandson of Matthew 1 who was Sec'y of the Province of N. Y.

CLEVELAND JOSEPH (Page 294)—He was Joseph 4 (Ichabod 3, Moses 2, 1). The house represented on Page 295 was built by Moses C. Cleveland. (Mr. N. Hubbard Cleveland)

DAVIS (Page 323)—Benjamin 1, perhaps son of Eben, or Evan, is said to have been b. on L. I. about 1645-1650. He was early in East Hampton; and, from 1667 to his death, in Mt. Sinai, Town of Brookhaven. He and his wife, Rebecca, were alive in 1719. Among his children was Benjamin, Jr., 2, b. probably later than 1674; m. Phebe _____; d. _____. He is said to have had nine sons. (Mrs. Charles W. Parks)

DAVIS ISAAC, LT. (Page 324)—He was Isaac 3 (Benjamin 2, 1). His pay-roll is owned by Mrs. Charles W. Parks. (G. 1) He m. about 1770 Hannah, dau. of John Roe. His wife, b. Feb. 12, 1748; d. later than Oct. 4, 1790. His children were: Isaac 4, b. Mar. 20, 1772, d. in 1786; Hannah 4, b. Apr. 6, 1774; d. in 1779; Anslem 4, below; Polle 4, b. Oct. 2, 1778, d. in 1779; and Azel Roe 4, below. Anslem 4, b. Sept. 22, 1776; d. Apr. 28, 1867. He m. (1) Abigail, dau. of Nathaniel 5 Overton (Page 491), who d. Feb. 22, 1824, aged 36; m. (2) Jan. 31, 1825, Mary Swezey. Among their children was Deborah Ann 5, b. July 24, 1819; m. Sept. 3, 1839, William Frear; d. May 5, 1898. Their dau., Martha B. Frear, m. Charles Wellman Parks. (Mrs. C. W. P., from Family Bibles and tombstones) Azel Roe 4, b. July 10, 1785; d. Sept. 13, 1806. ("Diary of Capt. Daniel Roe") Beside his service in Col. Floyd's Regt., Lt. Isaac may have been a Capt. in the 4th Ulster ("N. Y. in the Rev'n," p. 199); or a private in the 3d Tryon, the 3d Ulster or the 3d Westchester. (Same ref., pp. 180, 196, 211)

FILER THOMAS (Page 338)—See "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 248.

FOSDICK NICOLL 6, CAPT. (Page 346)—See "Empire State Sons of Amn. Rev'n, Year Book—1899," p. 431.

FOWLER (Page 349)—Of the three emigrant brothers, William 1 settled at New Haven, Conn.; Joseph 1, on L. I. and, later, in N. Y. City; and Richard 1, at Rye, N. Y. Joseph 1; William 2; John 3, settled at Newburgh, N. Y., in 1747; Isaac, Sr., 4 was a Capt. in the Rev'y War; Isaac, Jr., 5 was a Lt. in the same War; Caleb 6; Peter Van B. 7. (Robert Ludlow Fowler's "Our Predecessors," pp. 8, 9)

GELSTON (Page 354)—A Family Genealogy seems to prove that the Jillson and Gillson Families are the same; and that the Gelston Family belongs in another group.

HALLOCK (Page 377)—Although he did not descend from a Refugee, the late Rev. Joseph Newton Hallock, D. D., belonged to this Family on L. I. He was b. at Franklinville, in 1834; d. in N. Y. City, Mar. 24, 1913. He was a son of Ezra and Lydia Hallock. He graduated from Yale University in 1857; was ordained to the Ministry; and preached for a short time at Bridgewater, Conn. He was a Director in several business enterprises; and he was well known in the literary world.

HALLOCK HENRY (Page 378)—He did not sign the Association; but one of his name refused to sign (H. 22)

HAWKINGS (Page 391)—My line runs: Robert 1; Zackrey 2; Joseph 3; Zackrey 4; Gersham 5 (who had a brother, Zopher 5); Gersham 6; Edward 7; Edward Eugene 8; Edward Eugene, Jr., 9; and Ralph R. 9, who had a son, Frank Edward 10. Zopher 5, above, in 1785, sold the place on which I now live to my wife's ancestors. I have never been able to find out very much about him. I think Zopher, the Refugee, is of another branch which lived on the North side of the town of Brookhaven. (Mr. Edward Eugene Hawkins)

GENERAL INDEX

Explanation—As a matter of convenience to the reader (See Pages 7 and 8), this Index does not contain references, to the several Appendixes in the case of the Refugees and those, not Refugees, who appear in Appendix I. For example—the Index has: "Haines DANIEL (bi. 374 a. 374)" and "Haines Daniel 373 375." The capitals indicate the Refugee; and the figures show that his biography and autograph are on Page 374. Turning to that Page, we find therein all references to him in the Appendixes; and all references to him elsewhere, unless something has been discovered later. In such instances, other references follow the parentheses. Thus the biography serves as an individual Index for the man.

The second quotation, above, "Haines Daniel 373 375" probably refers to some other Daniel; although Daniel, the Refugee, may appear also—no name being indexed more than once on a Page. Therefore, both the biography and Pages 373 and 375 should be consulted.

Aside from those who have biographies, all others are named in the Index. The value of this is seen, more particularly, in the Military Service on Long Island (Appendix G.) and in the Associations (Appendix H.).

When all the names in this Index had been assembled, it was found that some of the women had been married. It was then too late to make the additional statement in the biographies. This has been corrected by double-indexing—both maiden and married names being given. A middle initial often stands for the maiden name; but the maiden name is given, also.

With few exceptions, the Civil and Military titles are given as they stood during the Revolutionary War; even if higher titles were held, later. Civil titles precede Military titles, according to the custom of that time.

A reference to a book is not to a Page in that book, but to a Page in this book. A Genealogy ("Gcn.") indicates the generally accepted Genealogy of a Family. Historical compilations, issued by the United States, or by a State, are indexed under the name of the editor—as, Fernow, O'Callaghan, etc.

The names of the Refugees are in capital letters. Full lists of the Refugees are on Pages 1201-1204.

Abbreviations—The general list of Abbreviations is on Page 1110. The following are used in this Index, only:

a. Autograph
bi. Biography

h. House
m. Monument

p. Portrait
t. Tombstone
