ACWORTH BOY WON MANY ARMY MEDALS

Sargeant Chas. C. Brown, of Famous First Division, Is Home on Visit.

Few men of the American army have had such n extensive battle experence as has Reg. Supply Sergeant Charles C. Brown, who is at home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown.

Sergeant Brown wears a special bravery citation cord, four service chevrons, he having seen 27 months' overseas service, three wound stripes, six battle stars,two war bars, a victory medal, and an expert rifleman medal.

He was a member of the First Division, ("Pershing's Own" which invaded Mexico, and was the first to leave for France.

He has had all this experience of tw owars in dve years' service.—Acworth Post.