FACTS ABOUT—

THE MUNCIE EVENING PRESS

THE PRESS is Muncie's only evening newspaper; further, it is the only evening newspaper in the Eighth Indiana District.

It also might be said of The Press that it is the eighth largest evening newspaper in Indiana.

THE PRESS made the largest gains in the last five years in advertising of any Indiana newspaper.

THE PRESS is now gaining at the rate of 2,000 inches of local display a month, at an increased rate per line.

THE PRESS gained approximately 45 per cent in foreign advertising during the last year, which is about 20,000 inches of space.

THE PRESS carries more local display advertising six days a week than any other local daily paper—which proves the great pulling power of The Press in its local field.

MR. ADVERTISER, if The Press will work overtime for the other advertisers, what will it do for you? Give it a trial, and it will speak for itself.

THE PRESS is a ten to sixteen-page daily newspaper.

THE PRESS covers the District like the dew.

THE PRESS has a full leased United Press telegraph wire and an operator in its building.

THE PRESS has a fair rural circulation, but mostly city and country town circulation.

THE PRESS has the largest street sale circulation of any newspaper, outside of Indianapolis, in the state.

THE PRESS has an average of forty newsies selling daily.

THE PRESS has forty-eight regular carriers covering Muncie daily.

THE PRESS has thirty-two outside agencies handling and selling The Press.

THE PRESS is delivered in every town within a radius of twenty miles by 5 o'clock each evening, and in the city of Muncie by 5 o'clock daily.

THE PRESS is located in one of the finest newspaper quarters in the state and is thoroughly equipped with new and modern machinery.
