REMARKS BY THE AUTHOR

The writer's only object at the time of writing this book was to give to his people a true, correct and impartial record of all relatives of the Hickman Family, and of all others coming into lineage by marriage, and to give to all such persons the opportunity of availing themselves of the information here given if required for record purposes of their own. And, as he has gone to some expense, and devoted considerable time to preparing this record for future reference, he makes a special request that the relatives take interest enough in the book to preserve it for the use of coming generations.

In gathering material for this work he wishes to acknowledge his indebtedness to a few friends in Delaware, namely: Miss M. Virginia Saulsberry, Dover, Delaware; Mr. John H. Todd and Mrs. M. J. Stayton, both of Greenwood, Delaware; Rhoda A. Saulsberry, of Dover, Delaware; Mrs. M. E. Saulsberry, of Ridgely, Maryland; David Cooper, recorder, of Dover, Delaware, and all other friends and relatives who have assisted me with information for my book. Dates will be given whenever possible. In gathering material for this record, I have had to accept such as was sent to me. For instance, there is my father's sister, Anna, who married Peter Jump, of Kent County, Delaware, and in 1832 emigrated to Indiana, and later went to Missouri. I have been unable to get a very definite record of her descendants, but did the best I could with the material furnished me.

SYLVESTER HICKMAN.

GENEALOGY OF THE HICKMAN FAMILY

ROGER HICKMAN.

The earliest dates obtainable are here given: Roger Hickman, of Kent County, Delaware, was born, date unknown, and was married to Mary Jenkins in the year 1800. He was one of a family of three children. His brother's names were John and Nicholas Hickman. In the family of Roger Hickman we have a definite record of five children, Anna, Peter J., Sylvester, Richard and Levin Henry Hickman. We are also informed that there were three older children, Clem, Elizabeth and Hix, but have been unable to get any record of them. After the death of their parents, the children all moved to the State of Indiana, Warren County, Anna and Peter J. having been married in Delaware. Anna afterwards moved to Webster County, Missouri. Mary Jenkins, wife of Roger Hickman, was the daughter of a Mr. Jenkins and Anna Kelly, who were married in 1780. As far as ascertained, to them were born four children: Mary, the wife of Roger Hickman; Sarah, Peter and Richard Jenkins. After Mr. Jenkins died, Mrs. Jenkins married Levin Todd. To them were born four children, Nathan, Levin, Anna and Rhoda Todd. John A., brother of Roger Hickman, had one son, Jacob Hickman, who came west and settled in Illinois. He raised a large family of children, of whom no history is given. The only descendant of the Jenkins family known is Mrs. Mary Jane Stayton, of Greenwood, Sussex County, Delaware. She was living there in the year 1898.

(p. 9)

ANNA HICKMAN.

Daughter of Roger and Mary Hickman, was born in Delaware, 1805; was married to Peter Jump in 1828. Peter Jump was born in Delaware in 1808. After six years of married life spent in their native State, they decided to try their fortune in the western country, and, in 1834, started in a one-horse wagon, with two horses hitched Indian style, one before the other. After a long and tedious journey, they arrived in Warren County, Indiana, eighteen years after that State's admission into the Union. They remained there but three years, when they again resumed their journey west, first exchanging their wagon and horses for a larger wagon and two yoke of oxen. This time they crossed the Mississippi valley and arrived at the Ozark mountains in October, 1837. He settled the same year on the farm at that place, where his oldest child and only son now resides.

Peter and Anna Jump were the parents of three children:

John Wesley. Born, September 21st, 1829.

THE HICKMAN REUNIONS.

In the year 1897 the descendants of Peter J. and Mary Hickman decided to organize a series of reunions of the entire Hickman families as far as possible. These reunions were to begin with the family of Mary, the youngest child of Peter J. and Mary Hickman, and be held in regular order each year until the oldest was reached. Accordingly, on September 1st, 1897, the first of these reunions was held at Oak Brook farm, the home of Newton L. and Mary C. [Hickman] Little. Twenty persons were in attendance.

The following year, September 1st, 1898, the reunion was at the home of William Hickman, on the old homestead of Peter J. Hickman, six miles north of Attica, Indiana. Number present, eighty.

Again, on October 18th, 1899, the Hickman families assembled in reunion at McFerron Park, Hoopeston, Illinois. The host and hostess being Robert C. and Sarah [Hickman] Smalley, of that place. Number in attendance, sixty.

The following year, 1900, the reunion should have been at the home of Peter J. Hickman, Jr., at Red Willow, Nebraska; but, owing to the distance, it was omitted for that year.

September 1st, 1901, a reunion was again held at McFerron Park, Hoopeston, Illinois.

Charles Hickman and wife, whose home is near the Park, being host. Number present, one hundred and thirty.

On September 17th, 1902, the Hickman families again assembled. This time at the home of David and Martha [Hickman] Smalley, in Sheldon, Illinois. Number present, one hundred and twenty.

September 1st, 1903. The reunion was held at the home of the heirs of John Wesley Hickman, at Attica, Indiana. Number in attendance, two hundred.

The next reunion, 1904, should have been at the home of the heirs of Eliza J. [Hickman] Wilson, but for reasons best known to themselves, it was omitted.

The following year, September 1st, 1905, they again assembled at McFerron Park, Hoopeston, Illinois, the entertainment being given by Anna Elizabeth [Hickman] Russell. Number present, two hundred.

The next year, 1906, the reunion was held at Cissna Park, Illinois, at the home of Elbert G. Hickman. Number in attendance, one hundred and forty-two.

The present year, 1907, the Hickman families should have met with the family of James S. Hickman, oldest son of Peter J. Hickman, but from circumstances beyond control, it was omitted.
