Hardy Watford

Newton County Ga. September 6th 1878

Articles of Agreement between H. Watford of the first part and Elizabeth R.
Harris of the second part. As I am old and infirm, and do not know my hours of recreation I do this day give to my daughter Elizabeth R. Harris free control of my estate for her to use and use of my stock and furniture as long as I live.
At my death my death my daughter Elizabeth R.
Harris is to take one half of my lot of land No. 236 and use of my stock for her trouble of taking care of me and her mother. Elizabeth R. Harris is to have the south half of the land, as I want her to have the house, the line is to run straight from the center of the East line to a large white oak in the line on the West line of the lot of land, this oak is a line tree. Elizabeth R. Harris is to pay accruing debts and burial expenses and of the north half of the same lot of land, and what is left of her accruing debts and burial is to belong to my son Joseph A. Watford who lives in Texas. Elizabeth R. Harris binds herself to take care of me and her mother as long as we live. I do not assent that I have no more control of my business.
