In sending out the present volume, the Editors wish to draw attention to the interesting discovery in the Kedleston Registers of the Protestation Oath Roll of 1641, to which they have felt justified in devoting an Appendix, as the duplicate Rolls for Derbyshire, which should be, like those of Notts., in the House of Lords, are now lost.

Of the six Registers dealt with in this thirteenth volume, the Subscribers are indebted to Major L. Sandwith for the abstracts from Elvaston, and to Messrs. E. B. Smith and E. E. Taylor for assisting Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson with some of the other parishes.

The thanks of the Subscribers must also be accorded to the incumbents of all the parishes for kindly giving permission to print these abstracts.

It should be remembered that previous to 1752 the year was calculated as beginning on the 25th of March, instead of the 1st of January, so that a marriage taking place on say 20th February, 1625, would be on that date in 1626 according to our reckoning; but as the civil and ecclesiastical year were both used, this is sometimes expressed by 20th Feb., 162<sup>5</sup>.

In all cases where the marriage is stated to have taken place by Licence, that fact is recorded, as the searcher thereby knows that further information as to the age, parentage and vocation of the parties is probably recoverable from the Allegations in the Archdeaconry or other office from which the Licence issued.

After 1753 it is to be assumed that all parties not otherwise described are stated to be of the home parish, and bachelor and spinster respectively.

It might be well to remind the reader that these printed abstracts of the Registers are not legal "evidence." For certificates application must be made to the local clergy.

Marriages at Wilne,

1540 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1540 to 1624) consists of 35 leaves of parchment, size 15in. by 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. The book is in the original covers of thin parchment, much crumpled, and the front cover has a piece torn out of it. It is in a good state of preservation, and is well kept; the writing, though small, is for the most part good, especially the transcript. The latter portion of the Register has been kept by an illiterate person. The entries are arranged in order for the various classes and entered year by year. To the end of the transcript all the pages are signed by "Jo. Heynes, Curat," and the Churchwardens. Amongst the burials is that of "Robt. Ball, of Drecot, who was Clarck of the prish Church of Wilne 58 years," 22 Oct., 1580.

Volume II. (1625 to 1723) consists of 48 leaves of parchment, size 13in. by 8in., has no cover, and many of the leaves are loose. The writing commences in the same illiterate hand as the last volume concluded with; afterwards it is uniformly good, but in places very small and faint, and the pages are much discoloured. The entries are generally classified, but the dates are very confusing, and there are many duplicate entries. Some of the pages are very badly mutilated, and in some places entries have evidently been deliberately cut out. Amongst the burials is one of Mary Dudley, 20 Oct., 1683, aged about 105 years.

Volume III. (1723 to 1784) consists of 47 leaves of parchment, size 18 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 6 $\frac{1}{8}$ in., bound in full brown rough calf, back rather torn, otherwise in good condition. On the inside of the cover is written: "This Book Bought By William Jerrom And John Newton, Church Wardens of Wilne. 1724." The first page is blank. The writing is generally clear and distinct, but in some places faint, and the parchment is discoloured. The Dean's Visitations are regularly entered, and down to the year 1747 the Register is signed at the end of every year by Francis Coliere,

A.M., Curate. There is hiatus in the entry of Marriages from 1754 to 1770, but a duplicate copy of a Register, 1678 to 1801 on paper, consisting of 102 leaves, size 15in. by 6in., exists in rather a dilapidated condition, and in which some of the leaves have been pasted together. As will be seen, this covers part of the same period as this Register, and from this the missing Marriages have been copied. It appears to have been kept, at least in places, by some very illiterate clerk or other person, and the names cannot therefore be accepted as the correct way of spelling, but they are shown as written. The Marriages in this Register have the names of the attesting witnesses, showing that they must have been copied from the printed Marriage Register of this period, but none now exist till the year 1794. In this volume, amongst the burials, is one of Richard Placket, of Breaston, 23 Oct., 1765, aged 103 years; in the proper Register this is stated as 101 years. The Marriages throughout this period have been collated with the other Registers and additional information not shown in them is added. The entries are kept separately under the respective years, which do not always appear chronologically.

Volume IV. (1785 to 1812) consists of 45 leaves of parchment, size 17in. by 7in., but only 22 leaves have been used, the rest being blank. It is bound similarly to the last volume, and is in good condition and well kept. The entries are kept in the same way as in the last Register. The Marriages have been collated with the before-named duplicate, but after 1794 they are taken from the Marriage Register, on printed forms; though the Marriages conclude in 1802, the entries for Baptisms and Burials are continued to 1812. On the inside of the cover is written: "This Book Bought By Joseph Thacker and Peter Rowley, Church Wardens of Wilne, mdccclxxxv., Nov. 18th."

Volume V. (1794 to 1812) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, and has three entry forms on each page. It is bound in a thin cartridge cover with marble paper sides. These Marriages have been collated with the previous Register and also the duplicate volume down to 1802.

Volume VI. (1813 to 1837) similar to the last, but bound in stiff vellum with four tapes. It contains 100 pages, of which only 66 are used, the rest being blank.

The Parish of Wilne originally contained the townships of Church Wilne or Little Wilne, Great Wilne, Draycott, Hopwell, and parts of Risley and Breaston, and the Registers contain a great many marriages from these places, as also from the neighbouring village of Sawley. These places are denoted by the capital letters of B. for Breaston, D. for Draycott, H. for Hopwell, R. for Risley, S. for Sawley, and W. for Wilne.

These entries have been extracted by Messrs. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson and E. E. Taylor, assisted by Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. V. H. Haddelsey, A.K.C., Vicar of Wilne.

Marriages at Sawley,

NOTE.—Volume I. (1656 to 1691) consists of 21 leaves of parchment measuring  $15\frac{1}{2}$  by  $6\frac{1}{4}$  inches. The volume is quite coverless and only stitched together in places, many leaves being loose. The front page is very wrinkled and discoloured, also many other parts are discoloured. The writing is good and neat, but very faint and often undecipherable. The Register commences as follows: "A regester of all such as have been baptised from the feast of Saint John the Baptist Anno Domini 1654."\* The Marriages do not commence till 1656. The classes are arranged in alternate order, each being kept distinct in chronological order

Volume II. (1697 to 1782). There is a hiatus here of six years from the last volume. The Register consists of 72 leaves of stout parchment, the pages measuring 18 in. by  $5\frac{5}{8}$  in., and is bound in very stiff millboards, partly covered with parchment, otherwise it is in good condition. The Register commences with Baptisms, followed by Marriages and Burials, the entries being kept distinct for a few years, when Baptisms and Marriages are entered together on one side of the Register, and Burials on the other side. The writing for the first part is very good, clear, and distinct, especially during the years Francis Coleire was minister, 1707 to 1751. He signs the Register every year. After this time the entries are written very crudely by an illiterate person, and the spelling is indifferent, but after a few years the writing becomes good and bold. The Marriages only continue till 1754, the rest of the Register being occupied with Baptisms and Burials. The last four leaves contain collections 1707 to 1711, and written the reverse way of the page. There are some remarkable entries amongst the Baptisms, children being baptised over their mothers' coffin or corpse.

Volume III. (1756 to 1787) is not the usual printed form for Marriage Registers, but is a small book, ruled with faint black lines, size  $9\frac{3}{8}$  in. by  $7\frac{1}{4}$  in., and contains 55 paper leaves, bound in stiff vellum covers, in good preservation. There are two or three entries on each page, and the book contains 249 Marriages. The writing is on the whole distinct.

* It is rather remarkable that a Commonwealth minister should have ventured to refer to a saint's day.

Volume IV. (1787 to 1812) is the usual form of printed Marriage Register, with three entry forms on each page, and contains 46 leaves, the last two being blank. There are 261 entries. The book is bound in full rough brown calf.

Volume V. (1812 to 1867) is like the last one, but contains 100 leaves, of which 51 only are used. It is bound in full white vellum, and is in good order, and contains 302 entries.

Sawley, or Sallow, as it used always to be termed down to comparatively modern days, was united to Wilne for over one thousand years, and it was not until 1865 that it became a separate vicarage. The two Registers are mostly kept by the same parties, and, as we find in the Wilne Register, some of the handwriting is very illiterate. Sawley contained the hamlet of Wilsthorpe and the chapelry of Long Eaton, and these are denoted by the capital letters W. and L. E., S. standing for Sawley.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. A. E. Clarke, M.A., Rector of Sawley.

Marriages at Elvaston,

1651 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1651 to 1718) consists of 66 leaves of paper, size 14 $\frac{5}{8}$ in. by 5 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. The edges of the leaves, being much frayed, have been remounted all round with tracing cloth, and the dates are often missing or undecipherable. The present Vicar has had the volume rebound very nicely in stiff white vellum, with red label on side. The entries are generally mixed and are in chronological order, although in places the marriages are placed at the end of each year. The Register is well kept, the writing being very distinct. The visitations are noted regularly. There are many blank pages and a gap from 1704 to 1710 in the entries, besides other odd years without any entries, which are duly noted.

Volume II. (1714 to 1792) consists of 56 leaves on parchment, size 14in. by 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. A great many of the leaves have been cut half way across, and many pages are blank. The register commences with Baptisms, then Burials, followed by Marriages. Later on, the entries are mixed, but a column at the side denotes the class to which the entry belongs. After 1754 the Marriages are discontinued, and the rest of the register continues with Baptisms and Burials. The volume has been rebound to match the preceding one. The writing is fair, and in some places rather large.

Volume III. (1755 to 1794) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, and has four entry forms on each page. It contains 16 leaves, and has been rebound to match the two preceding ones.

Volume IV. (1794 to 1812) is similar to the last, but only 6 leaves have been used. It is bound in stiff marbled paper covers.

Volume V. (1813 to 1837) is also similar, but has three entry forms on each page, and only 20 leaves have been used. It is bound in stiff white vellum, with tapes.

Elvaston parish contains the hamlets of Ambaston and Thulston, and many Marriages are recorded from these places.

These entries have been extracted from the Registers by Major L. Sandwith, of Alvaston, and are now printed with the permission of the Rev. C. Proddgers, Vicar of Elvaston.

Marriages at Morley,

1540 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1540 to 1735) consists of 35 leaves of parchment, size 19in. by 6½in., and is coverless. It is in a fair state of preservation, though rather torn and the edges much frayed and discoloured. The first leaf is a mere fragment and contains four entries and a piece of one, the first entry being a christening, 22 Oct., 1540. The second leaf has been torn at both ends. The last three pages are blank, with the exception of two entries of burials. The writing is of various characters, the first part being very good. The entries are mixed and are all in English. There are many entries pertaining to the Sacheverell, Wilmot, Dethick, Harpur, and other county families. There is a hiatus, 1579 to 1587, and again between 1647 and 1654. Under 1614, Mar. 12, "The great snowe broke wch had continewed from Friday seaven weekes before."

1615.—Note. This yeare after the great Snowe "followed a great Drought, which continued the most part of So<sup>m</sup>er."

1617.—"Memorand. that the 25 day of July my father Xpofer Bennett Died, and his bodie lyeth buried in the chappell at Hyfield, being 97 years of age."

1618.—"Memorand. that this yeare Novemb. the 25th and for three weekes after, the blazing starre appeared in the East and did retrograde. January the 11th the Whitehall was burned and Queen Anne died the spring followinge."

1619.—"Memorand. that the 3th daie of Maie 1619 Robert Wiliamot of Chaddesden did cawse a ditche to be digged upon Morley Lime wch was presently cast in after them by appointment of Henry Sacheverell, Esquier, Lord of Morley, and so there was much to doe aboute nothinge."

1645.—"Memorand. that William Bennett, Rector of Morley, departed this life about five of the clock in the morning the 21th day of October, and was buried by Mr. Hows, Rector of Drecott in the County of Stafford the 23th day of October, Anno Domini 1647, and he was pson of Morley 44 yeares three moneths and odd dayes.—William Bennett, minister of Wilne and Breaston stal pr rācone voluntas finis."

"Memorand. Delivered into the hands, custody and possession of Henry Hibbert, of Morley, Churchwarden, one large Bible, Jewells, Old Communion Booke, Psalme Booke, one Quushion, one Carpett, one linnen table cloath marked with M. C., Erasmus Perephrase, the 25 of october Anno Domini 1647, and this Register Booke. Teste Williā Bennett, minister Wilne et Breaston."

There are several other very interesting memoranda too long to describe.

This Register apparently consists of three registers, all bound up in one. The first portion ends 1647. In the second portion the leaves are much shorter than the preceding ones, and there is a gap in the Commonwealth period, as it does not commence again till 1653, and continues till 1686. In the third portion the leaves are the same size as in the first portion, with the exception of the last three leaves, which are  $1\frac{1}{2}$  in. and 2 in. wider than the others. The Register finally ends Aug. 17, 1735, but on the last page is a later entry, "Sep. 1770, Jeremy Shaw was buried, aged 94." The cover of the Register has the following uneclesiastical entry, probably by some farmer churchwarden: "Brendeed Cow, Buled June the 6, 1739."

The Register contains much matter relating to Smalley not to be found in the Smalley Registers.

Volume II. (1742 to 1800) consists of 33 leaves of parchment, size  $12\frac{3}{4}$  in. by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  in., bound in parchment. The last Register, ending 1735, there is a hiatus of 7 years. The Register is well kept and in good condition. The entries are mixed and are all in English. It contains much interesting matter by the Rector, the Rev. R. Wilmot, as to the social and political state of the country and the crops. Under 1774 an account of the inhabitants of Morley is given by John Ward, curate, but only mentions twenty-six houses, whereas there were at the time forty-nine houses, all inhabited. Signed, R. Wilmot, Rector, 1784. Another account of the inhabitants of Morley was taken by the Rev. Robt. Wilmot, Xmas, 1787, showing 234 inhabitants. Under 1779, a note says that "the small pox went almost throughout the parish. In Morley 30 persons had it, only 2 died; in Smalley 43 persons had it, and 12 died."

The Marriages are only entered down to 1754; the rest of the volume consists of Baptisms and Burials.

Volume III. (1754 to 1812) is the usual printed "Marriage Register Book" on paper, and consists of 33 leaves, and has four entry forms on each page. It is in a loose cover of stiff boards covered with paper. It is well kept. There are some interesting notes by the Rev. Robert Wilmot in regard to some of the marriages, which will be found in their respective places.

Vol. IV. (1813 to 1837) is similar to the last, only three entry forms on each page, is bound in stiff parchment covers, and is well kept.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. C. J. Boden, B.A., rector of Morley.

Marriages at Smalley,

NOTES.—Volume I. (1623 to 1641) consists of 9 leaves of parchment, size 17½in. by 6¼in., and is coverless. The first page is scarcely legible and in holes. All the pages are very discoloured. The entries are mixed and are mostly in English. It commences as follows:—"Liber memorād sive registerium continen . . . nominā et cognomina Conjugatōnum Baptizarum Sepultorum in Parochia Smalley, primo Die Junij Anno Doñi 1623 ad finē huius libris." Under 1625 is a long notice in Latin of the death of James I., but it is very illegible; it is signed by Hen. Coke, junr. The thirteenth page is blank and much shorter than the rest, and torn, as also the two last leaves, and some writing is quite cut away.

Volume II. (1655 to 1692) consists of 14 leaves of parchment, 16in. by 6¼in., and is coverless. There is a gap of fifteen years from the last Register, but a few entries for these years will be found in the Morley Register. The writing is fairly good, but the pages are discoloured. The following entry occurs: "Thomas Holland and William Holland his son, and Catherine Holland his daughter, all three shotten and kill'd with thunder and lightning on Thursday the six and twentieth day of August, Anno Domini 1680, were buried in Smalley Chappel yard on Friday the 27th day of the said August." The entries are mixed and in English. The outer leaves are much worn and the writing nearly effaced.

Volume III. (1692 to 1728) consists of 6 leaves of parchment, size 22½in. by 6¼in., and in consequence of its great length has been folded in the middle. It has no cover. There are no marriages before 1702, though there are entries for baptisms and burials. The writing is fair, but the parchment is very discoloured and in places is hardly readable. The entries are mixed and in English.

Volume IV. (1728 to 1735) is on thick parchment and consists of only 4 leaves, size 14½in. by 12in. The first and last page form the covers. It is very illiterately written.

Volume V. (173½ to 1749) consists of 8 leaves of parchment, size 16½in. by 7in., and, like the others, is coverless. The commencement is in large but rather illiterate handwriting, then scrawly afterwards.

Volume VI. (1749 to 1786) is a small quarto book, written on paper, 8½ in. by 6 in., bound in stiff vellum. The marriages are discontinued after 1754, except the one for 1755 being at the reverse end of the book. The following entry occurs: "1785, Dec. 23rd. Samuel Ligget buried, poper. Starved to death by the humanity of the Parish Officer." This last sentence is written underneath in the handwriting of Robert Wilmot, rector.

Volume VII. (1756 to 1776) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, two entry forms on each page, and is bound in a thin cartridge paper cover.

Volume VIII. (1777 to 1812) similar to last, but with three entry forms on each page, and is partly filled. Only one stiff paper cover, which is loose.

Volume IX. (1815 to 1837) similar to last, only partly filled. It is in a stiff parchment cover and in good preservation.

There are duplicate volumes kept by the clerks or copied by them from the existing Registers: one from 1655 to 1757, written by John Bestwick (1745); the writing is very neat, but the spelling of the names is illiterate. Another copy for the same date goes down to 1779. At the end of this book is a copy of "a clause of Mr. Samuel Richardson's Will, Oct. 12, 1711." At the reverse end of the volume is a list of Marriages "from the Marriage Register 1755"; this goes down to 1778. These copies have been collated with the Registers and the differences in the names noted.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. C. J. Boden, B.A., rector of Morley.

Marriages at Breadsall,

1573 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1573 to 1637) is a coverless volume on very thin parchment of only 12 leaves, size 12in. by 7½in. There is a hiatus after 1592, and it appears as if a leaf or leaves have been taken out. The entries commence again 1600. The Register is also imperfect from June, 1629 to May, 1631, and for 1636 and 1637 the entries are few and evidently very incomplete. The Register is well kept and the writing very distinct, especially in the earlier portion, and is in English, with some few exceptions. The entries are mixed. Some of the leaves are stained. The Register commences thus: "The Register Booke of the Parishe of Breadsall conteynynge the Christnings, Weddings and Buryalls wh. have bene in that parishe since August 1573; extracted out of an old paper book extant at Easter, 1594: Annoque Regni Reginae Elizabethæ, &c., Quadragesimo." This volume contains many entries relating to the Dethicks, Harpurs, etc. of much interest.

Volume II. (1637 to 1730) consists of 41 leaves stitched in a thin parchment cover, 13¾in. by 7in. The entries are in the following order: Baptisms, 1637 to 1721; Marriages, 1637 to 1729; Baptisms, 1722 to 1729; and Burials, 1637 to 1730. There are no entries for the years 1641 to 1643, nor for 1663; otherwise it is well kept and legible, the writing being good in the early portion, afterwards rather scrawly, the entries being very wide apart and the years are not in order. In the Burials are the following:—1640, Nov. 22nd, "Roger Griffin, parish clerk for 57 years and more"; 1726, "Mary, d. of Edward Wheatcroft, died in January, being under the sentence of Excommunication and as I heard was interred the 23rd of the same month."

Volume III. (1730 to 1812), size 13¾in. by 9½in., bound in dark brown rough calf, with two brass clasps, contains Baptisms and Burials, 1730 to 1812; and Marriages, 1730 to 1754. The entries are mixed, with side notes denoting to which class they belong. This book was given to the parish in 1730 by John Hieron, of Little Eaton, grandson of the Nonconformist Rector of Breadsall, a Puritan divine of some note, who was presented to the living by Sir John Gell in 1644, as Parliamentary Commissioner. He was ejected in 1662. The entries are contained in 38 leaves; then follow

146 leaves, on which the rector, the Rev. Hugh A. Stowell (1865 to 1886), has copied the whole of the two first Registers, and also made a complete index of the whole entries for 1573 to 1872. Amongst the Burials the following entry occurs:—1773, "Mr. Joseph Jackson (a Miser under a Heap of Riches) buried May 18th." At the reverse end of the book there is a list of Rectors from 1631; sundry matters connected with the church, parsonage, and charities; endowment of the Rectory, 1705; copies of Ann Johnson's will, 1714, and Mrs. Clayton's, 1787; Terriers, 1732, which occupy 22 leaves. The volume is well kept and the writing good.

Volume IV. (1754 to 1807) is the usual form of printed Marriage Register, with four entry forms on each page. It contains 132 entries.

Volume V. (1808 to 1812), is similar to the last, but only three entry forms on each page, and contains only 11 entries.

Volume VI. (1814 to 1837), is similar to the last, and contains 55 entries.

Breadsall Church has just (5 June, 1914) been destroyed by fire, the interior being gutted, supposed to be the work of the Suffragettes. The Registers were, fortunately, kept at the Rectory.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. J. A. Whitaker, M.A., Rector of Breadsall.

Marriages at Kedleston,

1600 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1600 to 1741) consists of 22 leaves and cover at beginning, both of parchment, size 11in. by 6in., stitched. It is now preserved in a thick handsome case of white vellum, with gold border lines, and lettered “Kedleston Register, 1597 to 1741.” Inside the cover are written some entries of the Curzon and Dale families before 1600, which must have been taken from some other Register. The first page is headed “Register in Keidelston 1600 since Mr. William Fowler pson” (i.e., since he was parson). At the end of it is a copy of a “Protest against Popish Innovations,” with a large number of signatures. This is the Protestation Oath Roll of 1641-2, the only instance so far found of its occurrence in a Derbyshire Register, and is printed as an Appendix at the end of this Register. The Register is well kept, the writing good, neat, and very small, but in some places discoloured and faint, making the writing difficult to decipher. The entries are mixed, but a column by the side denotes whether “Bap.,” “Nup.,” or “Bur.,” and this continues down to 1700, when the entries are kept separate for each year and headed accordingly. The Marriages are often few and far apart, but not so with the other entries. Amongst the burials is one of George Curzon, being 104 years old, Mar. 25, 1652.

Volume II. (1741 to 1812) consists of 25 leaves of parchment, of which  $6\frac{1}{2}$  are not used. The size is  $13\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 8in., and is bound in a stiff parchment cover. The entries are kept separate year by year till 1754, when only Baptisms and Burials are entered.

Volume III. (1755 to 1809) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, four entry forms on each page, and is only partly used, there being only 41 entries. It is bound in a brown paper cover.

Volume IV. (1818 to 1837) is similar to the last volume, but only three entry forms on each page, and is bound in a stiff parchment cover. There are only 12 entries in the book, the rest of the pages being blank.

These entries have been extracted from the Registers by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Right Hon. and Rev. Lord Scarsdale, of Kedleston Hall.

PROTESTATION OATH AT KEDLESTON, 1641.

IN 1641 Parliament enacted that every male in England of eighteen years and upwards should subscribe to the Oath of Protestation to maintain and defend "the true Reformed Protestant Religion, expressed in the Doctrine of the Church of England, against all Popery and Popish innovations," etc. For the most part the Act appears to have been carried out between the autumn of 1641 and spring of 1642 in the majority of the counties, in many cases the inhabitants subscribing their names or marks on a skin of parchment in their parish church, on some convenient Sunday after morning service; other inhabitants appear to have signed in the neighbouring town on the following market day, probably before a Justice of the Peace; thus there are sometimes two returns relating to the same parish. In addition, a copy of the list of names was occasionally made on the pages of the parish register, or sometime the actual signatures occur in the parish register, and only a "fair copy," attested by the incumbent and churchwardens, was made on the skin of parchment which was sent in to the Government.

These returns, arranged under counties, are now preserved in the Victoria Tower at the House of Lords. Whereas, however, for some counties they appear to be almost complete for every parish, other counties are not represented at all. Possibly the outbreak of the Rebellion in 1642, and the consequent uncertainty as to the obligation to render the returns to a Parliament which had forfeited its authority, led to their remaining in the county town where they had been collected, afterwards to suffer the destruction which has overtaken so many of our county archives. Be that as it may, while the returns for Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Kent, Lincolnshire, Middlesex, Nottinghamshire, and Wilts., and other counties, in varying degrees of completeness, are safe in the House of Lords; others, such as Bedfordshire, Derbyshire, Gloucestershire, Leicestershire, Norfolk, Rutland and Suffolk are not represented at all.

It is because of the consciousness of the great value to the genealogist and the satisfaction of these returns, giving a complete list of all males of eighteen years and upwards in each Parish on a given date, and of the loss of such returns for the County of Derby, that we have departed somewhat from the scope of this Marriage Register Series, and given, as an Appendix to this volume, the names for the parish of Kedleston, which had then apparently 36 males above eighteen years old (total population in 1831 was 134, and in 1911 101).

Such entries in parish registers are very rare. Out of 100 parishes in Leicestershire which the writer has examined the list is entered in the registers of four, while in Nottinghamshire, out of 200 parish registers which he has perused, he has discovered only one instance. In Norfolk one instance has come to light, East Rudham, where the roll occurs on the last page of the first volume of the Parish Register, and has been printed as an Appendix to Vol. viii. of our Norfolk Series.

T. M. B.

The entry in the Kedleston Registers occurs at the end of the first volume and begins with a copy of the Oath to which the signatories subscribed. This appears to have been administered at Kedleston on 4 July, 1641, and is followed by the signatures as printed below. As there is no note of any "Recusants" or dissentients (as is sometimes the case) it is to be assumed that every male in the parish above the age of 18 is included in the list. The wording here given is taken from the printed copies, and does not follow verbatim the copy in the Kedleston Registers, though the date at the end is inserted from that source.

A COPY OF THE PROTESTATION MADE BY THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ASSEMBLED IN PARLIAMENT, ANNO 1641.

I, A. B., do, in the Presence of Almighty God, promise, vow, and protest to maintain and defend, as far as lawfully I may, with my Life, Power, and Estate, the true Reformed Protestant Religion, expressed in the Doctrine of the Church of England, against all Popery and Popish Innovations, within this realm, contrary to the same Doctrine, and according to the Duty of my Allegiance, His Majesty's Royal Person, Honour, and Estate, as also the Power and Privileges of Parliaments, the lawful Rights and Liberties of the Subjects, and every Person that maketh this Protestation, in whatsoever he shall do in the lawful Pursuance of the same; and to my power, and as far as lawfully I may, I will oppose and by all good Ways and Means endeavour to bring to condign Punishment all such as shall, either by Force, Practice, Counsels, Plots, Conspiracies, or otherwise do any Thing to the contrary of any Thing in this present Protestation contained;

And further, that I shall, in all just and honourable Ways, endeavour to preserve the Union and Peace betwixt the Three Kingdoms of England, Scotland, and Ireland: and neither for Hope, Fears, nor other Rêspect, shall relinquish this Promise, Vow, and Protestation. July the fourth, 1641.
