P R E F A C E .

This volume of Marriage Registers, the eighth of the Derbyshire series, contains the Registers of nine parishes, besides an odd Register for Ilkeston parish, omitted from the last volume.

It has not been thought needful to print the entries verbatim. They are reduced to a common form, and the following contractions, as before, have been freely used :—

w. = widower or widow.

p. = of the parish of.

lic. = marriage licence.

It should be remembered that previous to 1752 the year was calculated as beginning on the 25th March, instead of the 1st of January, so that a Marriage taking place on say 20th February, 1625, would be on that date in 1626 according to our reckoning ; but as the civil and ecclesiastical year were both used, this is sometimes expressed by 20th February, 162 $\frac{5}{6}$.

In all cases where the marriage is stated to have taken place by Licence, that fact is recorded, as the searcher thereby knows that further information as to age, parentage, and vocation of the parties is probably recoverable from the Allegations in the Archdeaconry or other office from which the Licence was issued.

The arduous task of making the abstracts from the various Registers printed in this volume has in each instance been undertaken by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, with some assistance from Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, in the cases of Melbourne and Weston-on-Trent, and from Mr. Robert S. Holden at Aston-on-Trent. Acknowledgment is also due to the various incumbents, whose names are mentioned under their respective parishes, for permission to print.

As before, no index is issued with this volume, as the Editors consider that it will be better to have one general index for the county on the completion of the work, instead of several for the various volumes.

It may be well to remind the reader that these printed abstracts of the Registers are not legal "evidence." For certificates application must be made to the local clergy.

The Editors earnestly appeal for more subscribers for the Derbyshire series. Many Registers are transcribed, but printing has to be postponed pending better support. If only a dozen more subscribers could be secured, the rate of printing could be nearly doubled.

Derbyshire Parish Registers.

Ilkeston Marriage Register,

NOTE.—This is Volume VIIIA, which is referred to on page 2 of Volume VII. (Derbyshire Marriage Registers) as being missing at the time the rest of Ilkeston Marriages were copied; but having been found, the contents of it are now given in order to make the Register complete. It is a small volume, 10in. by 7½in., and contains both Banns and Marriages, being used at reverse ends for each purpose. It contains 129 leaves, 63 of which are used for Marriages and the remainder for Banns, two leaves of the latter being blank. It is the usual printed Marriage Register, with two entry forms on each leaf, being printed on one side only, and is bound in full rough calf, and is in good preservation. The writing is fairly good, though rather untidy, and is that of one Vicar throughout, the Rev. George Allen.

This volume has been copied by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby.

Marriages at Aston = upon = Trent,

1667 to 1812.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1667 to 1726) consists of 20 leaves, size 17 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 7in., bound in stiff parchment covers; the back is torn and some of the leaves are loose. Some of the pages are only partly written upon, which is explained by the following note made on the inside of the cover: "This Regester Booke was made March ye 18th, 1670, and as many names as could be collected from 1667 . . . not in ye old Booke to this present yeare I have put them in, and the remainder I have left space for them. Johan Brentnall, Curatus." On the cover is noted the birth of Ben. Clarke, 1658, and on the end page there are only two or three entries, the first of which reads: "Mary Goss (?) excommunicated and having no Xtian Buryal was buried Feb. the 20th, 1699, Quaker." The volume is well kept, some of the pages being discoloured; the entries are mixed and are in Latin up to 1682.

Volume II. (1726 to 1784) consists of 76 leaves of parchment, size 13 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ in., bound in full dark brown rough calf, back rather torn. It contains Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages, but the latter entries conclude in 1754, and it will be observed that there is a gap of nine years in the Marriages. The writing is very large and free, written right across the page, and for the most part in one handwriting, that of Mr. Rolleston, the Rector (1729 to 1770), afterwards by Mr. Chas. Shuttlewood.

Volume III. (1763 to 1812) consists of 90 leaves of ruled paper, size 15in. by 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and is bound in full parchment, stiff, and is in very fair condition. Thirty-one leaves are blank. The Register is well kept, and the writing mostly distinct.

These entries are extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, assisted by Mr. Robert S. Holden, of Aston, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. J. S. Holden, M.A., Rector of Aston.

Marriages at Weston-on-Trent,

1565 to 1812.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1565 to 1605). This Register is very fragmentary and dilapidated, and consists of 12 paper leaves, 8½ in. by 6 in., without any cover. The Register commences as follows: “The names of those who have been joined in Matrimony, received the Sacrament of baptism, and borne to the Sepulchre, Weston-super-Trent, between the 12th of August, A.D. 1565 till 21st April, 1568.” The entries are mostly in Latin and mixed, and in the early portion of the Register are unique for their wording, e.g., the first entry being “Hugo Shepey, clerk, is borne to the sepulchre April”; another, “Robt. Wilson joined in the conjugal embrace with Ann humbleson, Nov. 20, 1565.” Again, “Agnes Porter was born again with the water of regeneration, Dec. 12, 1565,” and “Richard Barton initiated in Christ and received the Sacrament of baptism, Ap. 7, 1566.”

There are very few entries after 1586, which is the real ending of the Register, so that between this date and the commencement of the following Register in 1610 there is a great gap.

The writing is fairly good, but faint in places.

Volume II. (1610 to 1740). This Register is on parchment, size 15 in. by 6 in., and consists of 33 leaves, of which 23 pages are blank. Some of the pages are very yellow; the writing on the whole is clear, bold, and good, though some of it is very small and cramped. The entries are all in English, and are mixed together, but kept in years, most of them being signed at the end by the Vicar and Churchwarden. There are several gaps, the greatest being 1645 to 1657 and 1666 to 1673.

During the Civil War, an engagement took place at King's Mills hard by, and there is an entry after July 4, 1644: “Some Souldiers buried of ye garrison,” etc.; and again after Aug. 7, “Duck, a souldier, buried a little afr.” There are also entries in the same year of baptisms of soldiers' children.

At the end of the Register is a list of persons who repair the churchyard fence, and another page is devoted to the baptism of Papists, whilst four more pages contain the list of 48 collections made for the relief of different churches and towns.

Volume III. (1740 to 1812) is on parchment, size 12¾ in. by 8½ in., and contains 64 leaves, of which only 36 are used. It is full bound in rough brown calf. The entries are mixed; the Marriages are only entered to the year 1754. It is very well kept, and the writing, especially in the earlier portion, is very good.

Volume IV. (1755 to 1780) is on plain parchment, size 16in. by 9½in., and contains 16 leaves, bound in dark brown full rough calf. It is well kept, but the writing is very faint in some places. For several years the banns of Marriages are placed along with the Marriages, and in many instances the entries consist of the banns only. There is nothing of special interest in this volume.

Volume V. (1781 to 1812). This is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, size 14½in. by 10in., and contains 50 leaves, half of which are allocated to the banns of Marriages; only 11 leaves of the Marriage portion are used, the rest being blank. It is bound in full dark brown rough calf, and is in good condition and well kept.

These extracts have been made by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Mr. E. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed with the kind permission of the Rev. W. B. Watson, M.A., Rector.

Marriages at Swarkeston,

1604 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1604 to 1732). This is a very fragmentary coverless book, size 16in. by 6½in., consisting of 14 leaves of very thin parchment stitched together, and is much injured, either by fire, damp, rats or mice, the edges of the book being eaten or frayed away very considerably, and, as will be seen, many of the entries are only partially readable, the first half-dozen pages being especially so. The writing is very faint, and doubtless some entries are missing altogether.

It is headed: "The Register book for the pish of Swarkston. Containing the pticuler names of all Christenings, marriages and burialls from the year of o^r lord 1604 . . . tyme John Bould . . . came to [bap. ?] there." The entries are in English, and are mixed. They continue fairly regularly down to 1630, when there is a gap until the date of the following note on the fourth page: "Memorandum that Sam. Bold minister of Swarkston was upon ye 21st day of January last past in ye yeare of o^r Lord one thousand six hundred fifty and three elected to be Register for ye parish of Swarkston and approved of and sworne by Mr. Tho. Yule, the Mayor of Derby. Per me Tho. Youle, major." On the last leaf, the reverse way up, is the following: "July the 13th, 1655. Memorandum that Sir John Harpur of Swarkeston in the County of Derby Knighte according to a late Proclamation set forth by the Lord Protector did depart from the Citty of London before the tyme limited by the sayd Proclamation to witt upon Wednesday the 12th of July and . . . at Swarkeston upon the aforesaid . . . of July and in his owne person have noti . . . Sa. Bold, Minister. Hamlet D. Smithe, Constable." Also, "Memorandum that Othniel . . . Tooke the Oath of Parish Clerke the 16 day of September, 1718." On the last page is written: "I received these shattered Remains of a Swarkston Register from the house of my lately deceased brother, February the 19th, 1824. Geo. Greaves."

Volume II. (1734 to 1806) consists of 25 leaves of parchment and 2 paper leaves at front on which are entered Marriages 1722 to 1734, Burials same dates, and Baptisms 1720 to 1733. At the end there is one paper leaf, but only one side is written upon. The size is 13½in. by 7½in., and is bound in stiff green vellum.

The paper leaves commence as follows: "A copy of an impaired Register for the Parish of Swarkston containing all the Marriages, Christenings and Burials from the year of our Lord 1720, at which time the Revd. Mr. Thomas Bate was Rector to ye y^r 1734." As the marriages in the first volume were very deficient, they have been extracted and collated from this volume.

At the commencement of the Register on parchment the following heading occurs: "A Register of the Several Marriages, Christenings and Burials in the Parish of Swarkston for the year of our Lord 1734. George Bettinson, Rector."

The volume is in good condition and well kept, the handwriting for the most part being large and well formed. The Marriages are only continued down to the year 1754.

Volume III. (1760 to 1812). This is a coverless book, and is the usual printed Register on paper, two entry forms on each page, and consists of 43 leaves, of which only 20 are used. The size is 9 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 6 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. It commences with No. 5 certificate, the first leaf having been torn off and lost, so that there is a gap of five years from the last Register. The writing is very faint in places.

Volume IV. (1813 to 1837) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, three entry forms on each page, size 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 10in., and consists of 50 leaves, of which only 11 are used. It is bound in stiff white vellum, and is in good condition and well kept.

These extracts have been copied out by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. F. A. Minty, M.A., Rector of Swarkeston and Stanton-by-Bridge.

Marriages at Barrow-on-Trent and Twyford.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1657 to 1731). This Register is on parchment, size 14 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. by 6in., bound in full dark brown smooth calf, and contains 38 leaves, of which one is blank.

The Register begins with the following memorandum: "That Mr. Roger Farmer, Minister of Congerston, in Leicestershire, was made Minister of Barrow-sup.-Trent, in Derbyshire, Ann. Domini 1662." On the thirty-ninth page there are entries by Mr. Shelmardine for the year 1657; and two pages after there are entries for 1627 and 1630. There is, incidentally, a mention of earlier Registers—these are lost. The Register is well written, and all the records are in Latin—Latin often curious. In some places it would appear that the entries have been very carelessly made, as there are a great many crossed through, and some of them totally unreadable. There are also a great number of insertions, and these for the most part are written with ink which retains a jet-blackness; the ink generally being of a lightish brown tone. These entries are a good deal written into other entries, which makes them very often difficult to decipher. The first eight pages are signed by Roger Farmer. Some of the pages are much discoloured. A very interesting feature in this Register is the way in which Mr. Norman, rector, has entered a great many of the burials, recording not only the dates of those events, but also of death, and often the hour. A curious entry is one of James Hurd, of Stenson, drowned in the Trent; "Mr. Charles Adderley, Coroner, sate upon him in Twyford Church, June 24, 1699." The Act for "Burying in Woollen," 1678, is quoted, and the Register contains many instances of "burying in woollen" under certificate. Amongst notable families mentioned are the Kirkmans, of Twyford, of whom it is related that one family had three boys with only one hat, in consequence of which only one could go out of doors at a time. One went to London about 1780, and became Lord Mayor and was knighted. From another family, that of Wilson, one of whom officiated at Barrow as minister in —, sprang the good and pious Bishop of Calcutta.

Volume II. (1736 to 1767). This Register is a coverless parchment book of 14 leaves, size 14in. by 10in. Some of the writing is execrable, and on the first and last pages most of it is unreadable; the latter is torn. The different classes of entries are kept separately. The Marriages are only entered to Feb., 1754. It will be noticed that there is a great gap in the entries from 1722 to 1736.

Volume III. (1754 to 1812). This is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, size 15½in. by 9¾in., bound in full dark brown rough calf. The back is much broken, and several leaves have been cut out at the end, leaving 29 leaves, of which one page is blank. There are four entry forms on each page and 226 certificates in the book.

The hamlets of Arleston, Stenson, Sinfin, and Sinfin Moor are included in these Registers.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Cecil S. Thomas, M.A., late Vicar of Barrow-cum-Twyford.

Marriages at Stanton = by = Bridge,

1664 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1664 to 1785). This Register is on paper, size 19½in. by 8½in., and in consequence of its length has been doubled up. It contains 26 leaves, the first and last of which are blank, stitched in a thin vellum cover, and is in rather a dilapidated condition: some of the leaves are loose and the edges much frayed.

The first two leaves contain Marriages 1679 to 1731, followed by Burials 1676 to 1723, occupying two leaves; then Marriages begin again, 1732 to 1754, and occupy a leaf and a third of a page, the rest of this and the following page being blank. Burials then begin again, 1724 to 1785, and occupy three and a half leaves, followed by four and a half blank leaves. At the reverse end of the volume are the Baptisms, 1664 to 1785, occupying 11 leaves, among which are six entries of Marriages dating from 1666 to 1673.

The Marriages begin as follows:—"An Account of all the Wedings which have beene in Stanton juxta pontem since the year 1679." The handwriting varies, some being very fine and legible and some very illiterate.

Volume II. (1755 to 1793). This Register is written on ruled paper, and not on the usual printed paper of the period. It contains 12 leaves (the first leaf being blank), size 14½in. by 9¼in., and is unstitched, with loose stiff paper cover, marble sides, the inside of the cover having Marriage entries on it. It is well kept, and most of the Banns precede the entries of Marriage.

Volume III. (1793 to 1811). This Register is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, three entry forms to each page, size 15in. by 9¾in., and contains 24 leaves, only five of which are used, the rest being blank. It is bound in stiff boards, with leather back and marble paper sides. The Register is well and neatly kept. On a fly-leaf at the commencement of the volume is written "Laws respecting Marriages," which occupy nearly two pages.

Volume IV. (1815 to 1840). This Register is similar to the preceding one, and contains 50 leaves, only six of which are used, the rest being blank. It is bound in stiff white vellum and is in good condition. It is well kept.

These extracts have been copied out by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. F. A. Minty, M.A., Rector of Stanton-by-Bridge and Swarkeston.

* A note by the side says: "These persons were married here in consequence of Swarkeston Church undergoing alterations."

† A note by the side says: "About this time marriages took place here, instead of Ticknall Church, which was being rebuilt, and they are entered in the Ticknall Registers. E. Wright Whitaker, Feb. 17, 1873."

Marriages at Melbourne,

NOTES.—Volume I. (1653 to 1670) consists of $24\frac{1}{2}$ leaves of parchment, the last leaf being cut off half way. The size is $15\frac{1}{4}$ in. by $6\frac{1}{4}$ in., and is nicely bound in full dark brown calf. The first page is blank; the second commences with burials, the first entry being for 12 Feb., 1653; the third page is headed, “XI. Feb., 1653. John Kendall sworne and approved Register for the pshe of Melbourne in the County of Derby before me James Abney.” The Register is very neatly kept and the writing mostly clear and distinct. The Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials are each kept separately in chronological order and are in English down to 1660, when they begin in Latin and continue so to the end of the volume.

Volume II. (1676 to 1752). It will be noticed that there is a gap of six years between this Register and the last one. The Register consists of 78 paper leaves, size 15in. by 6in., and is bound in stiff vellum. The Register is well kept and in very fair condition. The entries are kept in the same manner as the previous Register and are in English. In this volume is mentioned burials in coffins for the first time, Nov. 27, 1694; also a curious entry about burying in woollen, which is here given:—“William Cantrel was buryed the 10th day of November, 1678, and Affidavit within the [time] appointed by the Act was brought to signify [that] the corps was not buryd in any shirt, shift, s . . . or shroud made or mingled with flax, hemp, silk, gold or silver, or other then what is made of sh[ee]p’s wooll only, nor in any Coffin lined or . . . other materiall but sheeps wooll only.”

Volume III. (1754 to 1812) consists of 94 paper leaves, size $15\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $6\frac{3}{4}$ in.; it is bound in stiff vellum, and is in very good condition. The Register is well kept and in the same order as before. The first five leaves are blank. Marriages are only entered down to 1752, but the rest of the volume is occupied with Baptisms and Burials to 1812, after 1772 the entries being made only on one side of the leaf.

Volume IV., Marriage Register No. I. (1754 to 1777) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, two entry forms on each page, and consisting of 51 leaves, size $9\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $7\frac{1}{2}$ in. bound in parchment covers, the first two and the last leaf being loose; otherwise the book is in good condition and well kept.

Volume V., Marriage Register No. 2 (1777 to 1804) is similar to the last, with the exception that there are three entry forms on each page. It consists of 50 leaves, size 15in. by $9\frac{3}{4}$ in., bound in half calf, paper sides, and is in good condition and fairly well written.

Volume VI., Marriage Register No. 3 (1804 to 1812) is a similar book, the only exception being that there are four entry forms on each page. It is bound in full rough calf, and is in good condition and well kept.

The hamlet of King's Newton is included in this Register.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, assisted by Mr. G. B. Smith, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Leonard P. Robin, Vicar of Melbourne.

Marriages at Smisby,

1720 to 1812.

NOTE.—Volume I. (1720 to 1822). This Register is on paper, size 16 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 6 $\frac{1}{4}$ in., bound in stiff parchment covers, the back of which is rather dilapidated. There are 56 leaves, of which 32 are blank. The Register begins as follows:—"An Account of the Marriages within the parish of Smithsby in the County of Derby from the year 1720 to the commencement of the Marriage Act, 1755, taken from the old Register." These Marriages occupy only one page; they are followed by the Baptisms. At the reverse end of the volume are the Burials. An earlier Register, commencing 1679, appears to have been lost. The Register is on the whole well and neatly kept.

Volume II. (1755 to 1812) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, size 15 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. by 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., bound in parchment. It contains 23 leaves, four entry forms on each page; 12 leaves are blank.

These Marriages are extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. D. Colquhoun-Smart, Vicar of Blackfordby and Smisby.

Marriages at Parwich,

NOTES.—Volume I. (1639 to 1730) is on parchment, size $11\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $7\frac{3}{4}$ in., and contains 29 leaves stitched in thin parchment cover; the inside of the end cover also contains entries. The first five leaves are cut short, the next one is only about three-quarters of its original length, and the next has also been cut both at the bottom and side, therefore entries are missing. It will be noticed that there are no Marriages between 1642 and 1648, although Baptisms and Burials are entered year by year. From 1648 to 1679 there is a gap with the exception of two leaves for 1663, one of which is cut at the bottom and side, and the other contains, with four other entries, one Marriage. After 1663 four leaves have been cut out close to the stitching. The Register then begins with a large heading: "Anno Domini 1679." There is another gap from 1683 to 1693. After the entries for 1707 there are two leaves which only measure respectively $3\frac{3}{8}$ in. and 6 in.; on the latter and following leaf are entries 1693 to 1695 written the reverse way of the page. Apparently a new Register commences with the year 1708, as the parchment is of a much thicker nature and cleaner, and the preceding portion has been stitched into one cover. It is headed: "The Register of Parwich for ye year of our Lord God 1708. Tho. Maddock, minister. Jos. Caldwell, Churchwarden." This Register has been subject to some very bad usage, many of the leaves being very stained and black, also much crumpled, and some almost impossible of being read, especially the first pages. The writing is often good, clear, and distinct, but in places it is cramped and untidy. All the entries are mixed and in English.

Volume II. (1730 to 1812) is on parchment, size $12\frac{1}{2}$ in. by $8\frac{1}{4}$ in., and contains 78 leaves, of which fourteen are blank. It is bound in full rough calf and is in good condition. It is well kept, the writing being mostly large and bold. The entries are mixed, and the Marriages are entered only down to the year 1754.

Volume III. (1754 to 1776) is on paper, size 8 in. by $6\frac{1}{4}$ in., and contains 84 leaves, loose, in a thin vellum cover. This is not the usual printed Marriage Register of this period, but is all in writing, one entry to a page and written only on one side. Twenty-four leaves are blank. At the reverse end are fifteen leaves containing Banns 1773 to 1776. The entries are well kept.

Volume IV. (1776 to 1812) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, three entry forms to each page, size $14\frac{3}{4}$ in. by $9\frac{3}{4}$ in. It contains 34 leaves of Banns, only six of which are used ; then 54 leaves of Marriages, of which only thirteen are used. It is bound in full dark brown rough calf, and is in good condition and well kept, the writing being large and bold.

Volume V. (1813 to 1837) is similar to the last, but the size is $15\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 10 in. It contains 50 leaves, of which only ten and a half leaves are used. It is bound in stiff vellum, in good condition, and well kept.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Charles P. H. Reynolds, M.A., Vicar of Parwich with Alsop-en-le-Dale.

Marriages at Alsop-en-le-Dale,

1701 to 1837.

NOTES.—Volume I. (170 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1779) is on parchment, size 12 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and is a coverless volume of eight leaves, the last page being blank. The seventh leaf has had a piece cut out at bottom. It is neatly kept. The entries are mixed. From 1715 to 1723 there are only eight entries and no Marriages, and from 1724 to 1728 only two entries. There is a gap in the entry of Marriages between 1741 and 1753, and none are entered in this volume after 1754, though the Baptisms and Burials are continued to 1779.

Volume II. (1779 to 1812) is on parchment, size 13 in. by 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in., and contains 62 leaves, of which 49 are blank. It is bound in full rough calf and is in good condition. The Baptisms and Burials are in the first part of the book and the Marriages at the reverse end. It will be noticed that there are no Marriages between 1754 and 1780, and it is most probable that a small volume has been lost.

Volume III. (1813 to 1837) is the usual printed Marriage Register on paper, three entry forms on each page, size 15 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. by 10 $\frac{1}{4}$ in., and contains 50 leaves, of which only two are used. It is bound in stiff vellum, and is in good condition.

These entries have been extracted by Mr. Llewellyn Lloyd Simpson, of Derby, and are now printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Charles P. H. Reynolds, M.A., Vicar of Parwich with Alsop-en-le-Dale.
