City of Savannah }

This is the last Will and testament of Thomas Lucena of the City of Savannah in the State of Georgia Grocer.

I do order and direct that, within a reasonable period after my decease, all my Estate both real and personal of whatsoever nature or Kind shall be sold at public auction, by my Executors herein after named and that the whole proceeds of such sale (after deducting my debts and such charges as may be created in carrying into effect the provisions of my Will) be paid over to the Directresses of the Female Asylum of the City of Savannah for the use and benefit of that institution forever.

I request that a Vault be made for the reception of my remains, in the Burial Ground in the City of Savannah and that the remains of my Father and Wife be disentered and deposited with mine in the Vault. I order to be made.

And whereas I have money in Bank belonging to my Fathers Estate, and have an interest in that Estate I give devise and bequeath all my interest in the said money and Estate unto the said Directresses of the female Asylum of the City of Savannah for the benefit of that institution forever.

I do hereby nominate and appoint James Oppinger Esquire and Adam Cope Esquire the Executors of this my last Will and testament.

In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal at Savannah this thirtieth day of October One thousand eight hundred and twenty two.
