Recorded [illegible] March 1842.

State of Georgia } I Jacob P. Henry of the City of Savannah Chatham County } being in health and of sound and disposing mind and understanding do make declare and publish this my last will and testament.

1 First I desire and direct that all my just debts be duly satisfied but I impose it on my Executor hereinafter named to plead the statute of limitations to any stale demand which may be presented against my estate.

2. Second I authorize and empower my Executor hereinafter named or the survivor of them to sell and convey any portion of my property real or personal at private or public sale for cash or on credit in their discretion and to convey thereunder by good and sufficient title to the purchaser or purchasers.

3. Third I desire and direct that one eighth part of my whole estate or the proceeds thereof be directly for my Executor or the survivor of them in trust as hereinafter in such other manner as my Executor shall think and that they my Executor or the survivor of them convey the said share to such person or persons as my said
