P R E F A C E.

THE present is the ninth volume of Nottinghamshire Parish Registers, and includes marriage registers in the south part of Broxtowe Wapentake. Two parishes, Bunny and Langar, in the Wapentakes of Bingham and Rushcliffe respectively, are also included. It was found impossible to obtain the transcript of these registers in time for inclusion in their appropriate volumes. The number of registers is less than in former volumes, but the population of several of the villages included is much greater than the average of the parishes whose registers have already been printed. Thanks are due to the parish clergy who have permitted their registers to be printed. Those in the present volume have been transcribed by Mr. T. M. Blagg, Mr. F. A. Wadsworth, Rev. H Cooper, Rev. J. E. Phillips and Mr. A. Stapleton.

The entries, as before, have been reduced to a common form, and the following abbreviations adopted :—

w.=widower or widow.	p.=of the parish of.
s.=spinster, single woman,	co.=in the county of.
or son.	dioc.=in the diocese of.
b.=bachelor or single man.	lic.=marriage licence.
d.=daughter of.	f.w.k.=frame-work-knitter.

The spelling of the surnames is in all cases the same as in the original registers, but the Christian names have in most cases been translated or modernised.

It must be remembered that these printed abstracts of marriage registers are not "evidence" in the technical sense. Certified copies must still be obtained when evidence of a marriage is needed for proving a pedigree in a court of law, or when registering it at Heralds' College. For such certificates application must be made to the clergy in charge of the original registers.

It should be borne in mind that previous to 1752 the years were calculated as beginning on the 25th of March, so that a marriage entered as having taken place on, say, the 20th of February, 1624, really occurred on that day in 1625 according to our reckoning. This is sometimes expressed by "162 $\frac{4}{5}$ " or 1624-5

No index is issued with the volume, as the Editors believe that it is better to print as many registers as possible, and to defer index-making until the registers still in manuscript are placed beyond the risk of loss.

Volume X is already in the printer's hands and will contain a portion of the parishes in Thurgarton Wapentake.

Nottinghamshire Parish Registers.

Marriages at Radford,

1563 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earlier volumes of Radford Registers are eleven in number, as follows :—

Vol. I. consists of 22½ leaves of parchment, measuring 12½ by 5 inches, stitched together in a parchment cover. The half-leaf, which has been divided longitudinally, occurs next after the 14th. The volume contains entries of Baptisms, 1563-1653; Burials, 1563-1651; Marriages, 1563-1642. The chronology of all entries is badly confused.

Vol. II. consists of 31 leaves of parchment, measuring 12¼ by 6 inches, stitched together in a parchment cover. It contains entries of Baptisms, 1653-1702; Burials, 1653-1702; Marriages, 1654-1702.

Vol. III. consists of 23 leaves of parchment (and a fragment of the 24th), measuring 12¼ by 6¼ inches, stitched together in a parchment cover. It contains entries of Baptisms, 1703-1730; Burials, 1703-1730; Marriages, 1703-1730.

Vol. IV. consists of 28 leaves of parchment, measuring 13 by 6½ inches, bound in white leather covers. It contains entries of Baptisms, 1730-1776; Burials, 1730-1776; Marriages, 1730-1754.

Vol. V. is a book of parchment forms, measuring 9½ by 7¼ inches, two on each page (both sides being used), is bound in brown leather, and contains entries of Marriages and Banns only, commencing respectively at either end of the book. The former occupy 28 leaves, and cover the period 1754-1782.

Vol. VI. is a book of paper forms, measuring 9½ by 7½ inches, two on each page (one side only of paper used), is bound in white leather, and contains entries of Marriages and Banns only, commencing respectively at either end of the book. The former occupy 74 leaves, and cover the period 1782-1799. The 73rd and 74th leaves are used on both sides.

Vol. VII. is a thick book of paper forms, measuring 16¼ by 10¾ inches, three on each page (one side only of paper used), is bound in brown leather, and contains entries of Marriages only, 1799-1808.

Vol. VIII. is similar in all respects to the last-named, except that it is slightly taller, and only the first half of the book has been used. It contains entries of Marriages only, 1808-1812.

Vol. IX. consists of 30 leaves of parchment, measuring 14 by 8½ inches, bound in brown leather. It contains entries of Baptisms, 1777-1799; Burials, 1777-1794.

Vol. X. consists of 32 leaves of parchment, measuring 13 by 8½ inches, bound in brown leather. It contains entries of Baptisms, 1800-1807; Burials, 1794-1807.

Vol. XI. consists of many parchment leaves, measuring 17 by 10¾ inches, and bound in brown leather. The first five leaves contain entries of Baptisms, 1807-1812. Three leaves at opposite end of book contain entries of Burials, 1808-1812.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. A. Stapleton, of Nottingham, and are now printed under his supervision, by permission of the Rev. C. Lea Wilson, Vicar of Old Radford.

Marriages at Hucknall Torkard,

1559 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first volume of Hucknall Torkard registers consists of 56 leaves of parchment, which has suffered much for want of a cover, the first two leaves being fragmentary, and the entries on the first and last pages of the book having been rubbed until almost illegible. The volume contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1559 to 1686. The first part is a transcript of an earlier paper book very neatly and legibly copied by more than one hand. At several periods, such as 1592-1625, about 1630, and 1642-1652, the register has been very negligently kept, and entries are very sparse.

The second volume consists of 13 parchment leaves, in a parchment cover, all loose, and contains Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1696 to 1725. There are no entries between 1686 and 1696.

The third volume is a small folio of 32 parchment leaves, bound in parchment boards, and containing Marriages from 1729 to 1753, and Baptisms and Burials from 1726 to 1783 and 1782 respectively. At the end are copies of two Terriers of 1764 and 1777.

The later volumes of the register are of the usual type.

These marriages were copied by the late vicar of the parish, the Rev. J. E. Phillips, in 1897, and the proofs have been carefully collated with the originals, as regards the period 1559 to 1753 by Mr. T. M. Blagg, F.S.A., and from 1754 to 1812 by Mr. J. H. Beardsmore, of Hucknall Torkard.

Marriages at Annesley,

1599 to 1812.

NOTE.—The oldest Register is a long narrow volume, vellum throughout, 15½ ins. long by 5½ ins. wide, containing 32 pages. It is divided into three parts, which are occupied respectively by the Christenings, Marriages and Burials from the year 1599 to 1706. The bottom quarter of the outside cover is much destroyed by damp or insects, and the decay affects the inside corner all through the volume, but it is very nearly all quite legible with study. After the year 1699 all the entries are very much mixed up, and seem to have been put in wherever there was a blank place in the Register, and one or two are to be found re-entered in the next Register. The inscription on the front outside cover runs as follows :—

“Annesley Register made in the year of our Lord A.D. 1600 by Thomas Kirkbie, then Curate here. John Breedon and Anthonie Pyamore, Churchwardens.

On the inside of the back cover occurs the following note :—

Mem.—Patricius, Lord Chaworth married Lady Grace Mannors, daugr to the then Earl of Rutland.

On the outside of the back cover there is some barely legible writing at the top, in which the words “Mansfield” and “Annesley” are plain. Below this come two notes as follows :—

“The marriage of Thomas Gilbert with Mary Stacey about the year 1694.”

“Also the marriage of John (Breedon ?) with Ann Gilbert about the year 1705.”

Vol. II. is a book 13 ins. by 7½ ins., with vellum cover and leaves. It purports to have been bought in 1711 ; if so, its earlier entries must have been copied in from other sources. Its first two pages are devoted to the registers of the baptisms of the “Chaworth” family from 1700-1726. The entries for the rest of the parish begin with 1706, with the exception of one wedding in 1701, which is re-entered from the oldest Register. The Baptisms and Burials go down to 1791, the Marriages to 1764. The last 30 Marriage entries occur over again in the next Register, fully signed by the parties married and two witnesses.

The inscription on the fly-leaf is :—

“This book was bought Anno Domini 1711.”

Andrew Matthews, Curate.

Joseph Barret, }
William Beeston, } Churchwardens

The inscription before the entries runs as follows :—

“Annesley Register, containing a true account of ye Christenings, Burials and Marriages in ye said Pairish in ye days, months and years as followeth.”

Vol. III., contains Marriages, dates from 1754 to 1806. It is a paper book, rather the worse for wear, and without a cover. It is the same size as an ordinary Baptism Register now, and contains only Marriages and Banns.

Vol. IV. takes the Marriages down to 1812. It is a square leather-bound volume, like a modern Banns book, and with the words common to all the entries printed.

The Registers have been transcribed by the Rev. W. H. Kynaston, the Vicar, and are now published with his permission. They have been collated by Mr. G. G. Bonser.

Marriages at Bulwell,

1635 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Parish Registers of Bulwell containing Marriages are five in number.

The first is a parchment volume of 25 pages, 15 ins. high and 6 ins. wide, bound in parchment; the first page and the 23rd are partially cut away. It contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials. The ceremonials are not kept separate; the first entry is a Baptism on 6th April, 1621, and the last a Baptism on 2nd May, 1703. Marriages and Burials begin 1635.

The second register commences with this heading: "A Register of Bullwell, in the County of Nottingham, begun by me, Adam Turner, Rr. of Bullwell, from the time that I came to inhabit there," and was "bought by Luke Haraman and Thomas Yarley, Churchwardens." It consists of 24 parchment leaves and one of paper, 12 ins. high and 7¾ ins. wide, and contains mixed ceremonials from 1702 to 1733. After the year 1717 the Baptisms, Marriages and Burials are kept separate.

The third register is also a parchment volume of 20 pages, 17¼ ins. high and 7¾ ins. wide, and contains mixed ceremonials from 1733 to 1754, and the Baptisms and Burials continue on to 1776.

The fourth register is the usual paper volume of printed forms, and extends from 1754 to 1788.

The fifth register is also a paper volume of printed forms, 7¾ ins. high and 9¾ ins. wide, and extends from 1789 to 1812. The entries are continued on the back of the forms intended for banns, which are not filled up.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. F. A. Wadsworth, of Nottingham, and are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rev. A. E. Rose, M.A., rector of the parish.

[Note at end of Vol. III.: Remarks on the style, 1752.]—

"According to an Act of Parliament passed in 24th year of His Majesty's reign, and in the year of our Lord 1751, the old style ceases here and the new style takes place, and consequently the next which in the old account would have been the 3rd is now to be called the 14th, so that all the intermediate nominal days from the 2nd to the 14th are omitted or rather annihilated this year, and the month continues no more than 19 days, and year took place [for 1752] on the 1st day of January."

Marriages at Bunny

1556 to 1818.

NOTE.—It was found impossible to transcribe these registers in time for their inclusion in their proper place—the completing volume of Rushcliffe Wapentake.

The Registers at Bunny begin in 1556 for all classes of entries. The Chapelry of Bradmore is attached to this living and the entries relating to its inhabitants are included in the registers of Bunny. Keyworth and Thorpe-in-Glebis were also at some periods annexed to this parish. In this transcript “Br.” indicates Bradmore, “Ord. lic.” means by licence from the Ordinary, in contradistinction to the Archbishop’s or Vicar’s licence. From 1556 to 1594 the year in these registers appears to have been computed as beginning from 1 January, though from 1594 to 1752 the usual method of dating from 25 March is adopted.

These Marriages from 1638 to 1818 were copied by the Rev. H. Cooper, the late Vicar ; the earlier ones, from 1556 to 1637, have been done by Mr. T. M. Blagg, under whose supervision the whole are now printed by permission of the present Vicar, the Rev. S. G. O. Anderson.

Marriages at Langar,

1596 to 1812.

NOTE—Langar Registers previous to 1813 consist of four volumes, all neatly bound in rough calf.

Vol. I. consists of 51 leaves of parchment, measuring $13\frac{1}{2}$ by $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches and contains entries of Baptisms from 1595 to 1692, Marriages 1596 to 1692 and Burials 1596 to 1678. Burials after 1678 are not entered in this volume, because of the Act requiring affidavits to be made that the body was not "put in, wrapt or wound up, or buried, in any shirt, shift, sheet or shroud made or mingled with flax, hemp, silk, hair, gold, or silver, or than what is made of sheep's wool only." As these affidavits, for the first portion of the period for which they were compulsory, are entered in Langar Registers at some length, with the name of the person making the affidavit, a separate volume was kept for Burial entries only, from 1678 to 1734.

Vol. II. consists of 17 leaves of parchment 19 by $6\frac{3}{4}$ inches, containing Baptisms 1692 to 1763, Marriages 1694 to 1764 and Burials 1735 to 1764, marginal memoranda of affidavits of burial in woollen are entered from 1735 to 1753, when they cease.

Vol. III. also of parchment, contains Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from 1764 to 1812. It contains also some interesting notes and memoranda relating to the parish.

Vol. IV. as above mentioned contains the Burials and affidavits from 1678 to 1734. It is of paper.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. T. M. Blagg, F.S.A. and are now printed under his supervision by permission of the Rector, the Rev. D. Fitz Herbert Wright.

[During the Commonwealth there are hardly any entries of marriages in Langar Registers, as that ceremony was performed before the Magistrates at Bingham. For instance, the marriage of William Flower in 1658 is also recorded in Bingham Registers as having taken place in the market there on August 6th. The woman's name is entered in the Bingham Registers as "Blauge." (See Vol. I, p. 3.)]
